Patterson's Outfit Blasts 3 Pitchers For 13 Hits To Take Needed Victory From Locals

Lookouts Hold 9 To 7 Lead When Contest Goes Into Last Half Of The Ninth Frame; Lookouts Play Tonight

DELAND, July 26.—The Sanford Lookouts, piloted by Owen Wright, tasted bitter defeat last night at Conrad Park in Deland when a ninth inning rally by the forward marching Reds netted three runs and gave the Reds another victory by a score of 10 to 9.

On the mound for the Lookouts was Al Crisfield, who gave up a total of 11 hits while he saw action on the mound for eight innings. Crisfield walked five of the Reds while fanning four. Relieving Crisfield in the last half of the ninth was Big Dan Brainard. Brainard pitched to only two batters before Owen Wright went in to replace the lanky hurler.

The Lookouts knocked Alex Swales, Florida State League strike-out king from the mound in the fifth inning when the locals put over four runs. He was relieved by Harold Toones who gave up four hits during the four innings he hurled on the hill. During Swales' duty on the mound he gave six hits.

The Reds began the scoring in the initial frame when they put over two runs. Dick Adair singled to left field and scored on Shimer's double to left-center. Shimer crossed the plate when Kasso muffed Hughes hit into center field.

The locals came right back in their half of the second to take a two run lead when they shoved four runs across the plate.

The Lookouts gathered one hit, four walks, a wild pitch and a passed ball to send the four runners across the plate.

In the Red's half of the third frame they put another run across the platter when Shimer doubled to left field and scored on Jones' long triple to center field.

The Lookouts added two more to their total in the fifth when a single by Kasso and doubles by Holcomb and Rodgers netted the two tallies and a 6 to 3 lead.

The Reds came back in their half of the fifth round and sent four runs in giving them a seven to six lead over the Lookouts. A double by McMullen, pinch hitting for Swales, and singles by Hughes and Jones blended in when two free passes accounted for the four runs.

In the eighth frame the Lookouts again took the lead when two runs were shoved across the plate to give them a one run lead when singles by Crisfield and Kasso and Clary's long triple to right field gave the locals the two markers.

In the ninth inning the locals added one more to their previous total of eight to take a two run lead over the Deland outfit. Frichard was hit by a pitched ball

WITH BILL RODGERS on his way back to the celery city, it looks as if the youngsters, who regard the great "Raw Meat" as their father of baseball, are playing a much better brand of baseball already.

RODGER'S IS EXPECTED to arrive some time today and will be here in time to take over the managing reins of the Sanford Municipal Athletic Club when his outfit returns against a tough foe, the forward marching Deland Reds.

WHETHER BILL IS bringing any players with him is not known at the present time. Taking over Bill's place at Chattanooga is none other than young Cal Griffith. According to the Associated Press this morning Cal is figuring that his club is 17 games out of first division and if he has anything to say about it, they will be more than that before the season is over.

CAL ALSO SAID to interviewers that if his outfit can have a little hustle and some lack they might club out of the basement and be among the higher clubs in the league. We are not trying to be harsh about making any predictions, about any ball players or ball club, but you fans here in Sanford that have a little interest in the Chattanooga Lookouts might as well give up hopes of them even getting out of the cellar.

THE MEN COMPOSING the Lookouts are a group of old and young ball players, most of them past their 30's. Many of them have seen four or five seasons of action there and have not yet advanced to higher ball. All this is costing Clark Griffith money to run the club, especially when an average attendance is approximately 300. You can't blame the old fox for raising Cain about it and we have good reasons to believe that next season when the Lookouts come here for their spring training activities, you will see a new crop of players that will attempt to give Chattanooga at least a first division club.

we can assure you of is that Clark Griffith is not going to let a good baseball town like Chattanooga drop through his fingers so easily.

WHEN JOE ENGEL and the old fox get together you can lay your dough that something is going to happen and some fireworks thrown in with it. These birds are up to something and sooner or later we will find out what this is all about.

Junior baseball teams sponsored by Eugene Warren, recreational supervisor of the W.P.A. are being continued and great interest is being shown by the boys. Miss Warren stated today, "A game played on Friday afternoon was won by the Junior Lookouts as they defeated the Junior Pirates by a score of 9 to 8. On the mound for the young Lookouts was Lee Head, Jr. while Lefroy Estridge pitched for the Junior Pirates.

On Saturday morning, Lee Head, Jr. again pitched his team to victory as the Sanford Gators were downed 22 to 12. T. J. Drummond, pitching for the Gators was accredited with five strikeouts. While Head sent some men down via the same route.

The lineup for the Lookouts was: Ray Fox, Jr., Hugh Wheelch, Eugene Singletary, Pete Brock, W. E. Betts, Edward Hurt, Al Brock, Bunny McCall, Ralph Betts, Leo Head, Jr., Richard Singletary, Charles Anderson, Joe Wathen, Howard Wheelch and Malcolm McNeil.

Both of the games lasted nine innings.

Parking space for 12,000 automobiles will be available at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

DURANT, Okla., July 21.—(AP)—Pete Traxler, the southwest number one badman, kidnaped a farmer near Caddo, Okla., and fled northward today after breaking through a cordon of officers in the Washita River bottoms near here.

A large posse of state patrolmen to accompany state patrolmen sped in pursuit. The farmer, Frank Timmer, was held at a farm and forced to accompany Traxler and his companions, believed to be Fred Tindol, both escaped felons. Collection Will Be Taken To Help Bat Boy, His Mother

Little Al McMullen, bat boy at the Sanford Ball Park this season, is in dire need of financial aid, and a drive headed by Tom Bolt is making an effort to see that he gets it.

"Al" is the smallest bat boy in the Florida State League and many umpires and ball players with whom he has come in contact say that he is by far the best.

Mr. Bolt has observed that he is a "good luck bringer," the team having flourished during his reign as chief of the bats. In requesting baseball fans to be liberal in their contributions, Mr. Bolt said that all funds collected will be given over to his mother.

Probe Is Being Conducted In Lynching Of 2

Pistols And Bullets Of Tallahassee Police To Be Examined By State Attorney

TALLAHASSEE, July 21.—(AP)—State Attorney Orion C. Parker, Jr., said he is examining the pistols and bullets of all members of the Tallahassee police department and Leon county sheriff's force as part of an investigation into the lynching of two negro youths here yesterday.

The negroes held in the county jail on a charge of stabbing Policeman V. F. Kelly when he tried to arrest them, were taken from the jail by four masked men early yesterday and their bodies were riddled with bullets.

The sheriff's office reported some bullets were found at the scene. The bodies were buried yesterday but later exhumed and three bullets taken from each body.

Night Desk Sergeant Harry Fairbanks of the police department said the four masked men forced him to accompany them to the county jail, get the keys to the cell block and release the negroes to them. He said the men then locked him in a cell.

County Jailor Robert Maize said he was not awakened by the men during the time they were taking the negroes from the jail. Governor Cone called the case "not lynching but murder" and ordered Parker to make the investigation.

Two New Diseases Of Vegetable Crops Are Discovered In State

GAINESVILLE, July 21.—Two diseases of considerable importance in vegetable production elsewhere in the United States but not previously known to be in Florida were discovered in this state during the last growing season. It is revealed in the annual report of the Agricultural Experiment Station, Cabbage yellows and a Verticillium wilt of tomatoes are the two troubles.

The cabbage yellows was found in bulk county scattered in various fields aggregating over 100 acres. The disease caused more than usual loss to the winter crop.

Fortunately, a number of resistant varieties of cabbage are on the market and Dr. G. V. Weber, station pathologist, recommends that these be grown in infested areas. Last winter Dr. F. B. Hatcher, truck horticulturist, grew the resistant Detroit strain in field tests and found that it yielded as well as Copenhagen Market in this state.

Verticillium wilt causes extensive losses on a number of cultivated vegetable crops in certain parts of the United States. It was discovered for the first time in Florida attacking tomatoes in Manatee county. Dr. Weber says it is found more often in northern states, and is not considered normally adapted to Florida environmental conditions.

Florida Exhibits At Fairs Seen As Huge State Asset

Earl Brown Praises Work Of Stevens In Building Dioramas

A story of the progress of Florida exhibits for the past five years was presented to the local Kiwanis Club at their meeting today in the Valdez Hotel by Earl W. Brown, manager of the Florida National Exhibits, Inc.

Charts and photographs illustrated the work that has been accomplished at the Worlds Fair in Chicago for two years, Rockefeller Center for one year, and the Great Lakes Exposition in Cleveland for two years.

Mr. Brown stated that the twenty-nine millionth person visited the Florida exhibit Friday. An actual count by a clocking device determined accurately the number.

Mr. Brown lauded the work of Byron Stevens, former Sanford man, who was responsible for many murals and dioramas. He told of the commendable work of "Whistlin' Willie," who entranced the spectators with his imitations and lively ditties.

Karl Lehman, of Tavares, formerly of Sanford, commended Mr. Brown for his work and also complimented the Kiwanis Club for sending Byrl Higgs, Boy Scout of Troop 5, to the National Jamboree in Washington, D. C.

After reading a letter of appreciation from the boy to the club, he stated that Byrl was an outstanding scout who deserved any honors bestowed upon him.

Mr. Lehman warned Sanfordites against a movement being circulated by unknown parties in an effort to reroute the proposed St. Johns-Indian River canal. He advised Sanford to investigate the situation.

Guests at the meeting today were: H. J. Johnson, Randall Chase, and Fred Hyatt of Sanford; Mr. Lehman, of Tavares; Earl Brown, of Deland, the Rev. T. I. Dean, of Clearwater, and L. A. Paine, of West Palm Beach.

Police Puzzled By Death Mystery In N. Y. Apartment

NEW YORK, July 21.—(AP)—Detectives of the homicide squad were confronted with a weird mystery today when a young couple found dead in their Queens apartment may have been killed by carbon monoxide poisoning.

The victims, George Chinery, 28, and his wife, Ella, 25, had not been seen since last Thursday. Their partly clad bodies were found when police, relatives and neighbors broke into their second-floor apartment last night.

The body of the woman, a bride of five months, lay in bed. Her husband, an employe of a Brooklyn warehouse, was sprawled on the bathroom floor.

Police said all the windows of the apartment were open, a circumstance that puzzled investigators when the carbon monoxide theory was voiced by Assistant Medical Examiner Howard W. Neale.

He added that there was no evidence of external violence, or strangulation. Carbon monoxide gas is a colorless, odorless gas found in the exhaust from automobiles and in the gases caused by the detonation of explosives.

Vital organs of the victims were sent to Dr. Alexander O. Gettler, chief city toxicologist, for further study.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—(AP)—Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky won the democratic leadership of the Senate in a close contest. The vote at the secret caucus of Democratic senators was Barkley 38 and Senator Pat. Harrison of Mississippi 37.

Barkley was supported by friends of the Roosevelt court bill while Harrison had the backing of senators opposed to the measure.

The entire caucus took less than an hour. Barkley moved to make the vote unanimous and took defeat with a smile and promised he would join Barkley in working for the good of the nation and party.

Both senators predicted more party harmony from now on. Senators at the caucus said the court bill fight was not mentioned. The only absent Democrat senator was Hankshaw of Alabama who was called home because of his wife's illness. President Roosevelt took no side in campaign for Robinson's successor.

SUMMER COTTAGE LINES

Friends while here with you stay. All your dray cars away. The year is long for grilling.

And the summer weeks are few. And swift the days when skies are blue. No more, till time for leaving.

And cabin wall and roof and rafters. With friendship's hearty laughter.

Some rest you here! Give care the slip. Give up the day to fellowship. And let it be done with scowling.

There's time enough for doubt and fear. And bitter thoughts throughout the year. When winter storms are howling.

The friendship holds these walls together. They were not built for heavy weather.

Your city house must brave the gale. And care demands a stouter wall. Than that we give to pleasure.

This place was made for mirth and song. And love and friendship keep it strong. For life's few days of leisure.

So come you here; shake wall and rafters. Once more with friendship's gales of laughter. By Edgar A. Guest.

Mussolini has blocked Great Britain's final effort to salvage the non-intervention project which aimed at eliminating the general European war threat.

He reminded us of a toy bulldog that continually annoys a huge and powerful Great Dane and finally gets his neck cracked.

We were unable to attend the big celebration in Tampa and it was a big disappointment to us. However, it is quite probable that when Tampa celebrates its 25th anniversary, there will be people in Tampa who will not attend the celebration.—Hebring News.

A British financier has warned the business women of the world that a movement is under way by certain European dictators to send women back into the home to wash dishes and make the beds. Such a movement in this country would mean that a lot of husbands would starve to death.

Theoretically, ignorance of the law is no excuse, but with the various governmental agencies grinding out laws, it is humanly impossible to know all the laws. There is a contradictory law which says you cannot exact responsibilities of any man, so what is heck!—Key West Citizen.

A woman writing to the Tampa Tribune deprecates our private banking system and suggests that the government take over the banks and "deal directly with the people." In a country where the caliber of politics is as seriously low as it is in America, she suggests that the government run the banks is beyond all hope of convincing others.

Sanford, a man is knocked dead and killed by an automobile. The damage of the car has been repaired. The driver is a mighty man. It is a pity that the man should have been killed. The driver should have been more careful. The man who was killed was a good man. The driver was a bad man. The driver was a bad man. The driver was a bad man.

The Sanford Board of Trade is to discover the reason that the city is being forced to pay exorbitant prices for ice. They must put a stop to it. W. M. Harned, Edward F. Lane, Fred P. Strang, E. W. Mahoney, Charles Britt, and others were taken into the local Elks lodge last night.

J. P. Hickson and J. F. McClelland drove to Umatilla yesterday on business. As the yacht "Harris Brothers" of Punta Roca was getting ready to sail yesterday, the crew saw a pelican dive into the water and catch a fish. As it sat on the water getting its prey, an unusual thing occurred. In an instant it was snatched beneath the surface of the water and was never seen again. Whether a marine bird, shark, or tarpon dragged it under is something we will never know. Maybe some of Florida's ornithologists or ichthyologists can tell us.

China And Japan

If Japan declares war on China, and it looks as though she will, it will be a case of headstrong military dictatorship prevailing over reason, for if the forces of Wippon attempt to conquer that vast sprawling empire of the Chinese they must realize they face almost insurmountable difficulties.

China possesses no vital nerve centers, paralyzation of which would render the country helpless. On the other hand its many provinces are loosely knit and what the Japs did to one province wouldn't affect the others. If a provincial capital is seized, the government would just move to another location. The country is almost entirely agricultural and it is practically self-sufficient, so it would be difficult to "starve them out."

In the United States, the capture of Washington, New York and Chicago would just about be the "last gasp." Our whole economic system would be so disrupted that we would be rendered helpless to resist further Japanese forces. Military experts have pointed out that the destruction of London would mean defeat for England in any war in which she might happen to engage. The destruction of the principal cities of China would have little effect on the whole country.

China's new army is also no insignificant barrier to Japanese success. It has unlimited reserves and the present standing army numbers between two and three million men, part of whom are well trained and well equipped. The air force consists of a thousand planes and the Chinese flyers are reputedly better than the Japs. From a combat angle alone, Japan will have her hands full.

There is also the possibility that Russia would come to China's aid and there is the damage which would be done to Sino-Japanese trade and the drain on already strained Japanese finances, all making it seem very foolish for Japan to take such a dictatorial stand in the present crisis.

Fernandina, Boom City

There was a time when Fernandina was anything else but the envy of other Florida cities. Its chief claim to fame during the prohibition era was the extensive bootlegging operations which rum runners conducted there. It had long since ceased being a shipping point of consequence, but today things are looking rosy for Fernandina and other towns are casting envious eyes at what is going on there.

The Ocala Banner describes Fernandina as "one of the best ports on the South Atlantic," and goes on to say that "Fernandina, in the days of the phosphate industry, when large tramp steamers came to Florida to load 'hard rock' for European export, was a thriving community. But with the decline of the phosphate industry after the world war, Fernandina, with the big port of Jacksonville close by, had little to offer the world of commerce and industry and fell on evil ways. Fernandina was, in some respects, like Key West, which has been referred to as the city that God forgot."

"But all this is changed now. Fernandina is in the news again and in a big way. Tuesday's Associated Press dispatches, carrying a tabulation of securities amounting to $378,000,000 which have been floated by big business to finance plant extensions and new enterprises, mentioned Fernandina prominently.

"Two large corporations have issued securities to finance the construction of paper pulp mills at Fernandina, to cost in the neighborhood of $10,000,000, which places Fernandina in the forefront of Florida cities with construction enterprises under way.

"And Fernandina has already felt the effect. Anticipating growth and industrial activity when the pulp paper mills get into operation, Fernandina is already enjoying what has the appearance of a boom.

"So suddenly has attention been attracted to the north Florida coast city, that the influx of people seeking employment, possibly business locations or investment opportunities, has threatened to swamp the city and the city's mayor has issued a statement requesting that people stay away."

All Florida is rejoicing with Fernandina that this little fishing village has found itself and is about to join the big leagues, so to speak, among Florida industrial centers. What has happened to that town can and may happen to Sanford and it is not foolish to hope for and envisage this community coming into its own and becoming one of the largest cities in the state.

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

A new prohibition movement is now under way. This time it's the cigarette that has to go. Some magazines refuse to advertise them. School libraries are clipping all ads of the evil from papers before making them available for use.

The Sanford Board of Trade is to discover the reason that the city is being forced to pay exorbitant prices for ice. They must put a stop to it.

Sky Rays Are Seen More Blistering Than Rays Of Sun

CLEVELAND, —Add to the "burnished skies" sung by poets a new one discovered by three Cleveland scientists—a sky that burns you more than the sun.

The rays from one of these burning skies are ultra-violet. They come from the sun, but enter in the blue of the sky, and fall like mist from all parts of the sky at once.

This scattering is nothing new to science. But it was not supposed that on a clear day more burning could come from the sky than from the direct rays of the sun.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

NEW YORK, July 21.—(AP) member:

A morning at the St. Charles Hotel, in New Orleans, when Senator Valentine came in. He ordered a martini for himself and a glass of beer for the waiter.

All set off against his debt. The waiter, however, was not so excited. You should have seen the senator when the newspaperman.

A Phoenix Herald, with the following check with me his secretary. The check was for a newspaper which featured a picture of the senator.

Walter Kingsley, dead now, but remembered as the most famous press agent Brooklyn ever had. He was the top of the Zigzag of his profession.

On his wall hung the slogan: "The Hard-Live Dangerously." But this was just a slogan in Kingsley, who was the kindest and gentlest of men.

I remember Victor MacLagan and Edmund Love in a dressing room backstage at the Capitol theater. Somebody knocked over a glass, smashing it to fragments, and embarrassedly hoped to retrieve the pieces.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON, July 21.—One of the sources of disaffection between congress and the White House was not solved at the Jefferson island conference and, in fact, gives no immediate prospect of solution.

It is the difficulty members of congress—more particularly the small fry—have in getting an occasional conference with the President.

The President is a busy man. He said recently in a press conference that his work often lasted from before breakfast until well after midnight. So he cannot grant every request to see him.

Every executive has the problem. Youngish Robert M. Hutchins solved one phase of it quickly after he took over the presidency of the University of Chicago. He let it be known that an immediate conference and tea with all members of the faculty was obviously a vast waste of time. So he cancelled this old custom.

Tom Girdler, chairman of the board of Republic Steel corporation, solved it another way. He told a senate committee that he was willing to see any of his men any time about their troubles. Since he has only about 60,000 employees, that situation presented such a funny aspect that even somewhat hard-hearted congressmen laughed. The employees obviously never presume to

This is wonderful luck! Most theatrical people base their careers on opportunity. The broken glass remained on the floor three days. Then the congressman was over, and MacLagan was on his way back to the coast.

James J. Walker, the first to reach Jack Dempsey's dressing room at Yankee Stadium after he had won the title against Firpo, and James J. Walker, the first to reach a woman's dressing room, were both in a hurry.

Lindbergh and the other passengers of the Lindbergh were equalled. The Lindbergh parade with about 100,000 cheering thousands. He had a night in New York and the spirit of Johnnie-dance-a-ly, which, even from this perspective cannot be adequately described.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—(AP) House members approved unanimously yesterday a bill to remove aliens from government payrolls.

The measure, upon which the Senate has not yet acted, provides that after next Dec. 31, no money appropriated by Congress shall be used to pay an alien, except those on the active or retired lists of the armed services, or foreign language instructors at service schools.

A report of the House expenditure committee would be affected. The bill would apply not only to regular departmental employees but also to aliens on W.P.G. rolls.

All aliens would be allowed to retain or obtain a federal job only should the President declare him to be an exception or an exceptional officer. Every order with that exception is available.

'Kid Galahad,' With Strong Cast, At Ritz

With three of the strongest personalities of the modern screen—Bette Davis, Edward G. Robinson, and Humphrey Bogart—leading the cast, "Kid Galahad," a Warner Bros. drama of the fight ring, opened today at the Ritz Theater, to a delighted audience.

Made from a best-selling novel by Francis Wallace, which also ran in serial form in a national magazine, "Kid Galahad" has a very potent story, woven into a background of the sporting world. Robinson plays a fight promoter who has one contender for the championship—"Kid," his girl friend played by the very capable Bette Davis, aids and abets him in his work. Bogart is a rival promoter, and a killer.

The title role is filled by Wayne Morris, a promising young man who peeks a terrific wallop in his fight scenes as well as his love scenes with Jane Bryan, another screen newcomer who seems to be going places fast.

The story of the two rival fight-managers and their attempts to double-cross each other is swift-moving and full of action. The fight between "Kid Galahad" and Bogart's man, Chuck McGraw (played by William Hende, the steel-worker who sky-rocketed to fame with his role in the Broadway play "Four Men"), is one of the most terrific ever screened.
Packed with wallop after wallop and a double "bumping off" for its climax, "Kid Galahad" is a picture you won't want to miss.

While in Gainesville they will inspect tung trees and crotalaria in the groves of China Tung Oil, Inc., as well as various points about the University of Florida.

ALL "RAW MEAT" ROASTERS PILOTS LOOKOUTS TO 3 TO 2 VICTORY

Big Owen Wright Nicked For Only Four Hits During Tilt With Patterson's Deland Reds

Bobby Prichard's Double In Ninth Stanza Brings Home Bacon For Lookouts In Much Needed Victory

The immortal Bill "Raw Meat" Rodgers and his Sanford Lookouts, behind a four-hit pitching performance with Owen Wright, today defeated the Deland Reds 3 to 2 in a game at the Sanford Municipal Athletic Field with a 1 to 2 victory over Pat Patterson and his forward marching Deland Reds.

Wright went the entire game on the mound for the locals in pitching the four-hit masterpiece in which the four hits came successively in the fourth stanza to give the visitors their only two markers of the tilt. Wright's curve and fast ball kept the Reds guessing during the entire game and only in the fourth inning did he have trouble with any of the visiting aggregation.

Wright allowed one Red to go to the initial sack via the free base route and he sent three men down swinging to add to his laurels on the mound.

On the hill for the visitors was young "Lefty" Harper who had the Lookouts under his control six of the nine innings; he looked batmen and allowed no runs. He fanned a total of ten free bases to first base although he was nicked for nine hits, including Marjory triple to the right-center field wall in the eighth inning. Prichard's name-throwing double to right field in the ninth had Kaso's two-base walk in the seventh stanza that knotted the score when he scored on Buck Rodgers' single to left field.

The Sanford Lookouts will entertain the Orlando Gulls to night at the Sanford Municipal Athletic Field in a regular Florida State League contest which is scheduled to start promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

The locals got an early lead when in the initial frame "Brooches" Clary started the ball rolling with a line single into right field. On the first pitch to Mayo Langston he stole second and on the following pitch he promptly helped himself to the third sack by means of the same transportation. Harry of famed Langston but "Swede" Martin stopped up to the plate and batted a single into deep left field to score Clary with the Lookouts' first tally of the evening.

In the Red's half of the fourth they secured their only four hits of the ball game in which they took a one run lead as they batted across two runs. Schmidt started the inning when he filed out to Langston in right field. Shimer filed out to Kaso in center for the second but highest singled to center field for the first hit of Wright. Al

Swede Martin Also Selected On The Sanford Herald All-Star Florida State Loop Team

Long Island Youth Leading All Sanford Players With An Average Of .319, Being Considered By Chattanooga

Nominated on The Sanford Herald's 1937 Florida State League all-star team on the fielder is none other than the Sanford Lookouts' own Swede Martin. Martin, a young man who may know as many as 100,000 fans, was selected as the best player in the Florida State League by the Chattanooga team.

Martin, a youngster of 18, stands 6 feet 3 inches tall and hits the scales in the 200 pound class. He was born May 20, 1918, in Brooklyn, N. Y. In 1931 he family left Brooklyn and moved to South Ocoee Park, Fla.

Martin attended the Queens Public Grade school and received his high school diploma from the John Adams High School, also located in Ocoee Park. While in high school, Martin received a letter in one year of school.

In 1936, Swede signed with the Glen Morris A. club of the Queen's Baseball Alliance in which 50 clubs were entered. Martin's club were runner-up for the championship by losing two games out of three.

In 1937, which was the first real step in baseball for the hard-hitting youngster, he came to Florida with two Brooklyn youths. They were on their way to Clearwater where they had permission to tryout with the Brooklyn Dodgers of the National League under Burleigh Grimes.

Fortunately the youngsters decided to spend the night here in Sanford while on their way and that evening were told of the baseball school that was scheduled to begin in several days. They all agreed to stay in our fair city and enroll in the school.

Two of the three youngsters were signed to Class D contracts by Joe Engel and both remained here with the Sanford Lookouts.

When the season began, Martin made a big hit with the local fans when he pounded out four hits in five trips to the plate in the opening tilt of the season at Orlando and since then he has performed the feat several times.

Martin, at the present time, is topping all other Lookout leaders in the hitting percentage column with a cool average of .319. He has been working in the left field garden in every game so far this season and is only three errors to his credit while stopping 17 runners. He was attempting to form secrets to mark down extra base hits.

Martin is also tied with Clarence Bray of the Gainesville G-Men for second place in that we base, walling race and also is knotted with five other Florida State League for second place in the three-base walling contest which is headed by Mayo Langston.

According to Calvin Grith, president, secretary and manager of the Chattanooga Lookouts of the Southern Association, Martin will be given orders to report here next spring for a first class tryout with the Southern Association club. That is something for a youngster to hope for and Swede has already shown us enough baseball knowledge and ability to make him a sure thing big leaguer.

In closing this story, Martin wishes to make the following statement to the Sanford fans who have roared and pulled for him so many times already this season:

"As a young ball player in

TODAY'S SPORTING WORLD

By JULIAN STENSTROM

Day, eh, boy! Did these Lookouts come to life last night? And what did they do? Not just Lefty Harper who has held the Jim on them all the season. Behind it all though was the return of Bill "Raw Meat" Rodgers, whom, we think, is the greatest manager in Class D baseball. When Rodgers walked out on the field last night for the first time since he returned yesterday, some 1100 fans from both Sanford and Deland cheered the fiery manager. When Rodgers came onto the mound, that same 1100 people came to their feet and for the second time gave a long and loud ovation.

When the Lookouts came to bat in their half of the first inning the same again cheered Rodgers when he went out to the third base coaching line to do his stuff with what he calls "his players" and go through his helpful "monkey motions" and he pulled "Brooches" Clary around to second and third so fast that you would have thought Bill was pulling him around with ropes, trailing down in brass tacks. We are sure glad to see you Bill and The Sanford Herald, every employee and the carriers welcome you and Mrs. Rodgers back to our fair city.

The supper saw his son, Buck, play his first ball game last night. Rodgers had never been able to watch Buck before in a contest but "Old Bill" found out what kind of a player he was last night when he singled to left field to knot the score and sacrificed Prichard to third base in order to pull the bases full.

By the way, Pete Norton, of the Tampa Tribune, published another good article in his sports column this morning which concerns the Daytona Beach baseball officials who let the St. Louis Cardinals spring training activities slip through their fingers after Daytona had

Attacker Of Nelson Still At Liberty

Lack Of Any Definite Clues Proves Large Barrier In Apprehending Assailant

Police Force Is Continuing Work Sheriff And Deputies Also Exerting Efforts At Solution

No definite clues which might divulge the identity of the persons who sped away from the scene of the argument in which Chandler Nelson received fatal head injuries last Monday night have been found by City and County officials who are investigating every possible clue which might lead to the solving of the case.

Chief of Police Roy G. Williams reported that his staff is investigating some promising leads but that as yet they had produced no results. He added that the complete absence of any definite clues on which to work forced an almost unsurmountable barrier in the case. He stated that his force would continue its quest for the assailant, however.

County Sheriff C. M. Hand stated today that he and his deputies are working and hoping but as yet there has been no definite developments which might lead to the apprehension of the assailant. He stated, however, that he will continue to give up the search by no means.

W. W. Nelson of Longwood and Alexander U. Wilson of San Antonio, Tex., brothers of the slain man, left here late yesterday afternoon for Winchester, Ky. where funeral services will be held for the deceased.

Certificate Ruling By Supreme Court Expected Shortly

A mandate of the Supreme Court on the much contested Land Reversion Act passed by the last session of the Florida Legislature is expected shortly after July 25, on which day the high tribunal will hear arguments on the bill. D. P. Herndon, clerk of the Seeminole County Circuit Court stated today.

On the 25th, the Clerk said, the Supreme Court will hear the Dade county case in which Circuit Judge W. W. Trammell ruled that the state could not cancel its certificates under two years of age. This case, it is generally indicated, will bring before the high court every angle involving the constitutionality of the Act.

Concerning the cancellation of the tax certificates, Mr. Herndon received the following message from the State Comptroller J. M. Lee: "The state that the State Supreme Court today annulled State treasurer and Circuit Court clerks from delivering tax certificates which may have been advertised and sold under the terms and provisions of House Bill 204."

Governor's Baby Is Born To Silver Cup

AUSTIN, Tex., July 21.—(AP)—San Houston Alfred, infant son of Gov. and Mrs. James W. Van Dyke, was born to a silver cup today by night children of his mother—Mrs. Sam Houston Van Dyke, president of the Seeminole County Hospital. The baby, who was born at 10:30 p. m. today, weighed 7 pounds 10 ounces and was 19 inches long. He was named after his father.

Roosevelt Releases Innocent Prisoners

By order of President Roosevelt, Anthony Labrizetta (top) and George Sargent (bottom) were released from the Cuyahoga county jail at Cleveland, Ohio, after they had served 27 months for a crime they didn't commit. They were convicted of a $125,000 mail truck robbery at Warren, Ohio, but later investigation disclosed the crime was committed by the Alvin Karpis gang.

Zoo Continues To Attract Interest Of Many Visitors

Institution Described As Being One Of Big Tourist Magnets

By RAYMOND MONSALVATGE The Sanford Municipal Zoo is continuing to attract daily visitors to its grounds and its popularity never seems to decrease, according to reports.

Tourists are often found walking around the park adjoining the zoo, which is planted with grass, and vari-colored zinnias under coccus plumosa.

In the cage of the gray squirrel is a new arrival. A little squirrel which recently made a trip to Washington, D. C. to the National Boy Scout Jamboree with Raymond Kader, Sanford boy scout, was presented to the zoo soon after his return to Sanford.

"Old Black Joe," aged alligator, is still master of his case. This morning he rose from the water with a horse bellow that made the air tremble, frightening nearby visitors. An old advertisement states that an incident of that kind is a sure sign of rain.

"Lan," an African lion, contributed his share of the general noise by emitting a roar which gave competition to the thundering clouds overhead. Tourists state that they enjoy watching the antics of the monkeys. As they attempt to fight on opposite sides of a screened partition, the feeble efforts of two newly born bob cats to stand up, and the graceful swimming of the soft and hair shinned turtles, all attract interest.

Ocean Plane Mystery Has Become Weird

No One Able To Identify Aircraft Seen Aloft In Mid-Atlantic By Ship's Crew

NEW YORK, July 22.—(AP)—The mystery of a plane reported flying across the Atlantic to Europe became deeper and darker as American and Canadian radio men stood by for further word.

A message, picked up by the Radiomarine Corporation station at Chatham, Mass., said a plane had been seen and heard 200 miles east of Cape Race, Newfoundland, last night.

Chatham picked up the message from the American freighter Scammell which relayed it from another ship it identified as the British freighter Rance. But the Rance is in the West Indies and radio men think the Scammell radio operator made a mistake in receiving the call letters of the ship reporting the plane.

All leading American fliers planning Atlantic flights have been located on the ground. They include Dick Merrill, Jimmy Matern and Howard Hughes.

Hindenberg Crash Is Attributed To An Electric Spark

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—The Bureau of Air Commerce said yesterday that fire, caused by an electrostatic spark which ignited a mixture of free hydrogen and air, "probably" caused the destruction of the dirigible Zeppelin Hindenburg. Thirty-two persons were killed in the disaster.

The cause of the accident was the ignition of a mixture of hydrogen and air," the Bureau's report said. "Based upon the evidence, a leak at, or in the vicinity of cells 4 and 5 caused a combustible mixture of hydrogen and air to form in the upper stern part of the ship in considerable quantity; the first appearance of an open flame was on top of the ship and a relatively short distance forward of the vertical fin. The theory that a brush discharge ignited such mixture appears most probable."

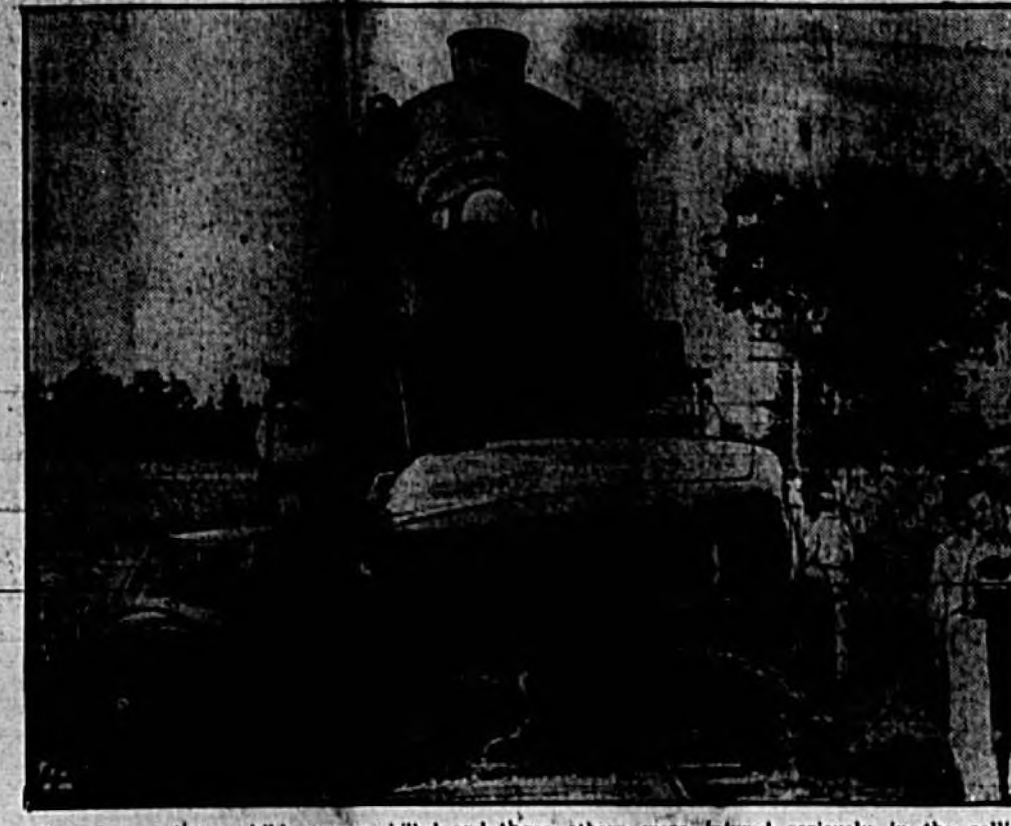

Search Made For Negro Who Cut Girl On Face, Back

Constable W. A. McMullen is conducting a widespread search today for Willis Kelsey, negro, who is alleged to have cut a negro girl about the face and back in Midway last night and made his get-away in a waiting car belonging to James Redding, who was arrested.

Kelsey, according to the Constable, alighted from the Redding car and attacked the girl and sped away before anyone could detain him. The fugitives were followed by the Constable to Barberville where Kelsey left the car to hide out.

Numerous gibiches were taken about the injured girl's face, neck and back, according to Mrs. Elizabeth T. Jameson, head nurse at the hospital, but her condition was not reported as critical. No motive for the attack could be ascertained but it is believed to be the result of a quarrel. Both Kelsey and Redding were employees of the Osceola Cypress Company.

Federal Aid For State May Cease Due To Friction

Ultimatum Issued Demanding Agreement Be Made By August 1

TALLAHASSEE, July 22.—(AP)—The United States employment service threatened yesterday to withdraw financial cooperation from the state employment service unless an operating agreement is made by Aug. 1. Disagreement between Governor Conard W. Frank Persons, director of the federal service, about appointment of a director of the state service has delayed execution of an agreement under the Wagner-Peyser act of congress.

Governor Conard appointed Fred B. Bradshaw as director, but persons continued to recognize John Emerson, who held the job under a merit system established by an agreement with the state two years ago.

Wendell C. Heaton state industrial commissioner under whose department the employment service operates, said: "This places us in the position of having the United States Employment Service recognizing Mr. Emerson as director and Governor Conard recognizing Mr. Bradshaw as director. Actually, at the present time we have no state employment service, since the agreement expired July 1."

Persons insisted there was no vacancy in the directorship when Governor Conard appointed Thomas C. Imeson to take Emerson's place. Imeson, a Jacksonville city commissioner, first said he would hold both jobs but later he resigned the state job saying he decided he could not hold them both. The governor then named Bradshaw.

Emerson is still in office, but Governor Conard has halted the payment of bills incurred against state funds while Emerson is the director.

The 1937 legislature appropriated $70,000 annually to finance the employment service, with a similar amount to be applied by Washington when an affiliation agreement is signed. Such an agreement would involve continuation of Emerson's position.

Andrews Attacks Compromise Bill For Court Change

Denounces Administration's Measure As Not Meeting Needs

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—Senator Andrews, Florida Democrat, denounced last night the Administration court bill on the ground it would fail to meet the needs of the country.

The Floridian, silent heretofore on the original and compromise bills, said he would vote to recommit the issue to the judiciary committee with instructions to report out, if possible, the Andrews amendment increasing the Supreme Court to 11 members.

"The compromise bill which has been offered and thoroughly discussed in my judgment will not meet the traditional requirements of the American people," he said in a prepared statement of those best qualified to know the present and lasting needs of this country.

Andrews' proposed constitutional amendment provides for appointment of one justice from each of the nation's 10 judicial circuits and chief justice from the United States at large. In addition, it would permit justices to retire on full pay when they reach 70 years of age and require their retirement at 75.

"In a representative democracy such as ours," he said, "it is very important that the judicial department—the court of last resort—shall be composed of men from each great section of the entire nation."

"I am in favor of this for another important reason: it would forever silence and indeed preclude any charge in the future against any administration, whether Democratic or Republican, of 'packing' or 'unpacking' the Supreme Court."

The former Florida judge said the emergency which first prompted the President to offer the court plan no longer exists.

Any reorganization of the judiciary, he declared, should not be done in a form "which could be washed away by repeal even by the next Congress."

Roosevelt's Court Bill Sent Back For Complete Revision

George Thurston Returns From Big Elks Convention

Exalted Ruler Visited Many Interesting Places On Journey

An extensive trip through the middle west was recently enjoyed by George Thurston, exalted ruler of the Sanford Elks Lodge, who was sent as a delegate to the Elks National Convention in Denver, Colorado.

At the gigantic conclave, Mr. Thurston said that there were 18,000 visitors who included Elks, their families, and friends. It was reported that the organization had expended over $1,500,000 for charities in the United States.

One of the main features of the convention was the election of Charles Spencer Hart to the high position of Grand Exalted Ruler. It was stated that the main program of the Elks for the coming year would be safety in automobilism, the prevention of accidents, and the stamping out of Communism. Each exalted ruler was instructed to carry out the aims to the fullest extent, Mr. Thurston stated.

The Florida delegation created a sensation with its parade of over 50 marching men, and a very beautiful float which advertised the state, Mr. Thurston said. He observed that conditions in the west and around the dust bowl seemed to be very good, and that the people were very optimistic. They showed, however, a deep feeling of antagonism toward strikes and communism, Mr. Thurston added.

On his return trip, he passed through Colorado Springs, Fort Worth, where he visited a frontier fiesta; and Dallas, where he viewed the Texas Centennial Exposition.

He viewed many beautiful and interesting places including Pike's Peak, the Garden of the Gods, the Cave of the Winds, Troutdale Park, Buffalo Bill's grave, the Will Roger's Memorial Shrine, Sandstone Valley, Mount Evans, Echo Lake and an Indian reservation.

On his two-week jaunt, Mr. Thurston covered a total of 8,000 miles by rail and 500 miles by automobile.

Action Is Considered Complete Victory For Foes Of Measure Adding Justices

Only 2 Senators Oppose Decision

New Bill Will Deal Only With Revamping Lower Court

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—The Senate Judiciary committee voted today to ask the Senate to send back to it the Roosevelt court bill with instructions to draft a substitute dealing only with the lower courts within 10 days.

In an hour and a half the executive session attended by Vice President Garner and administration leaders in committee instructed Senator Logan, Democrat of Kentucky, to make a motion in the Senate today to recommit the pending compromise court bill.

Only two senators opposed the decision, first senators leaving the committee room said. Senator McCarran, Democrat of Nevada, one of the leading foes of the bill said the committee's action would clear the way for drafting a new bill dealing only with procedure in the lower courts and eliminating all references to the size of the Supreme Court.

If the Senate agrees to proceed, the committee will have 10 days in which to whip the new bill into shape for presentation to the Senate.

The committee's action marked virtual abandonment of the compromise court bill now pending in the Senate and was generally considered a complete victory for the court bill foes.

Attending the committee meeting in addition to Garner and regular members were Senator Barkley, Kentucky, newly elected Democratic leader and Senator Wheeler, Democrat of Montana. Garner and Barkley were cloaked as they left the committee room a few minutes before the meeting ended.

The Judiciary committee action came after administration leaders had fought with their backs to the wall to save such remnants of the compromise bill as they could. Proponents, however, had conceded for some time that the foe had enough votes to side track the bill and virtually could dictate the kind of legislation they could pass.
