PARATION OF RM BUREAUS NOW SOUGHT

Appropriation Bill For Department Of Agriculture Is Asking
For $128,362,000

deral Roads To Get 80 Millions

Secretary Jardine Appears Before Committee Of The House

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—

Creation of two subordinate bureaus to separate research and regular activities of the Department of Agriculture was provided for in the department's appropriation bill, carrying $128,362,- 000, reported today by the committee.

The total amount appropriated in the bill, nearly $80,000,- 000 for maintenance of the highway system and many more continue the relentless campaign against insect pests.
The bill carries $77,812 above current and $4,774,000 below budget figures. The reduction was effected by paring down highway and indicating use of unexpendable monies previously appropriated.

Secretary Jardine appeared before the House appropriation committee which drafted the bill, and suggested consolidation of the bureau of chemistry and soils into one bureau. This decision was reached by the foreign ministers in session here outside the meetings of the council of the League of Nations. Of more than one hundred questions regarding German armaments which will be submitted through the League of Nations and the council of ambassadors and Germany in 1925, only two remain outstanding.

The question of the strength of the fortresses at Loeningberg, Kuesirln and Hlogagu, on the German-Polish frontier, and Germany's exportation of war material, some of it allegedly going through Russia to the Chinese revolutionaries, are the two points which will be submitted through regular diplomatic channels. If the ambassadors are unable to solve the problems, the council of the League of Nations will take them in hand.

Under the agreement reached all work on the fortifications along the Polish frontier will cease, but without prejudice to the right of Poland, which protested against them, and Germany to maintain their legal viewpoints.

Under the provisions of the agreement countries represented in the ambassadors' council may attach a technical expert to their Berlin embassy. This expert will be empowered to negotiate concerning the execution of any agreement bearing on Germany's fulfillment of the disarmament conditions of the treaty. Considerable significance is attached to this, as it means a sort of mild supervision over Berlin itself. It has not been made clear whether these experts will remain indefinitely in Germany.

State Had Part In Rum Plots, Declare McDermott Counsel

CANTON, O., Dec. 13.—(AP)— As a counter attack on the state's claim that Don R. Mc-Clintock, Canton publisher, was murdered in a plot hatched out of a bootleggers' conspiracy, the defense of Patrick Eugene Mc-Dermott, one of the alleged slayers, declared in trial court today that the prosecution also was guilty of a conspiracy.
Opening arguments and first testimony in the trial of Mc-Dermott drew such a crowd this morning that nine special deputy sheriffs were called to restore order. McDermott entered the courtroom unmanacled.
Opposing counsel, Prosecutor C. B. McClintock and his assistants, Harry W. Hartier and James W. August, for the state, and E. L. Mills, Homer Durand and James Emisley, for the defense, went into the judge's chambers for a consultation as soon as the court was called to order.

ALLIED CONTROL OF GERMAN ARMS ENDS JANUARY 31

League Of Nations Plans To Ascertain Whether Conditions In Versailles Pact Are Being Met By Germany

GENEVA, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Inter-Allied control of German armaments is to cease Jan. 31, next, and in its place the League of Nations will ascertain whether Germany is carrying out the conditions laid down in the Versailles treaty.

This decision was reached by the foreign ministers in session here

CENTRAL WEST SUFFERS FROM COLD WEATHER

Northwest Winds Following Blizzard Gives Prospect Of Coldest Weather This Season For Middle-West

2 Deaths Reported In Canadian Area

Sub-Zero Temperatures Are That Comes From Rockies
General In Wake Of Storm

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 13.—(AP)— Cold northwest winds today brought snow flurries to many parts of the middle-west and southwest, sending thermometers fluctuating with the prospect that this section would experience the coldest weather of the season following a blizzard which yesterday struck the mountain states.

Driven by brisk winds the storm swept southward from Canada Saturday night and yesterday enveloped the Rocky mountain region and part of the Pacific northwest states. The blizzard continued early today in the territory east of the continental divide while Alberta and Saskatchewan were digging out of the worst time-up in 10 years.

Two deaths were reported in the Canadian provinces and traffic and wire communication were cut off as a 40 mile wind whipped snow into banks from 10 to 20 feet high.
One-story buildings in northern Saskatchewan were buried but Manitoba escaped with a lighter snowfall.

Sweeping through Montana in to Wyoming, Utah and Colorado the blizzard yesterday held up air mail planes, halted automobile traffic, threatened tram movements and caused stock men concern. Four deaths were reported in northwest and George MacNamara, aged Civil war veteran, was believed lost in the blizzard near Sheridan, Wyoming. National guardmen and boy scouts were working in the search.

Sub-zero temperatures were general in the wake of the storm.
Montana held the record for cold with an unofficial mark of 31 below zero at Wilder, while the mercury ranged from five to 15 below at Helena, Butte, Billings, and Lewiston. The Dakotas and part of Nebraska also lay under a heavy snow blanket today with the mercury well below zero. Omaha reported eight below at midnight.
Snow also started in Minnesota last night.

A blizzard at Leadville, Colorado, last night, the thermometer stood at 10 above while Kansas points recorded temperatures in the lower twenties with a steady snowfall at midnight. Thermometers were falling in Oklahoma and Texas early this morning. Tulsa, Okla., reporting 32 degrees above at midnight, a drop of 17 degrees in a few hours.

Points west of the continental divide also experienced unusually cold weather with snow general throughout Oregon. Portland had its first white blanket since 1924 with three inches recorded last night and little prospect of clear skies today. Forecast throughout the region.

GUNMEN BLAMED 98 ARE JAILED FOR SLAYING OF UNDER OLD BLUE ILLINOIS MAYOR LAWS OF JERSEY

Former Re house Proprietor Has figured prominently in Illinois Gang War For Some Time, Officials Claim

BENTON, Ill., Dec. 13.—(AP)—A theory was advanced today that hired gunmen killed Jos Adams mayor of West City, near here, who was shot down by two unidentified men as he stood in the front doorway of his home, late yesterday. It was another episode in the gang warfare that has disrupted the peace of Williamson, Franklin and Saline counties, and was the culmination of two previous attacks on the mayor. West City is in Franklin county.

Adams, a former road house proprietor, had figured in southern Illinois gang strife through his admitted friendship with the Shelton gang, and had reported that Charles Birger, militant leader of a rival gang, had threatened his life.

The Shelton and the Birger gangs were at odds against the Ku Klux Klan, now are at pistol points in a struggle for southern Illinois liquor traffic supremacy.
Adams was forced recently by Birger to close his roadhouse because he was said to harbor the Sheltons. Adams armed himself, obtained a deputy sheriff to guard his home, and declared that Birger could not force him to leave this part of the state.

Adams was called to his doorway yesterday after two young men told his wife they had a letter for Joe from Carl Shelton, who was released on bond last Thursday from a jail at Peoria. He had been held pending trial on a mail robbery charge.
The mayor came to the door but was arrested with two shots from the gun of each of the men. With three bullets in his body, he died forty minutes later. He was able to tell his family only that he had not recognized the men.

Man's Return Causes Row In Los Angeles

Defense Attorney Says He Has No Use For Radio Man In Trial Of Evangelist

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—(AP)— The Times tonight received a telegram from Dist. Attorney Ana Keyes, sent from Philadelphia stating that he had wired state's attorney Crowe in Chicago, requesting the arrest of Kenneth G.
Ormiston fugitive co-defendant in the Aimee Semple McPherson conspiracy case.

Keyes stated in his message that he had informed the Chicago authorities he was preparing to seek extradition of the radio man.
The advisability of having Kenneth G. Ormiston, fugitive co-defendant in the Aimee Semple Mc-Pherson conspiracy case, brought here from Chicago yesterday became a hot chestnut in the hands of Deputy District Attorney J.
Dennison and W. I. Gilbert, chief counsel for the Angelus Temple pastor.

The deputy prosecutor suggested that the presence of the radio man at the evangelist's forthcoming trial on criminal conspiracy charges is "imperative to the defense."
Attorney Gilbert replied that he had "no more use for Ormiston than a wooden leg." Prosecutor Dennison pointed out that Ormiston could easily obtain a separate trial and become a star witness for the evangelist.
This was made possible because of the death of H. C. Benedict, of Carmel, who died subsequently to his appearance as a state's witness at the preliminary trial of the evangelist and her mother, Mrs.
Minnie Kennedy.

The transcript of Benedict's testimony can be used against Mrs.
McPherson and her mother in the superior court trial, but can not be introduced as evidence against Ormiston, who was absent from the preliminary hearing.

County Commissioner Is Another Advocate For Market On Florida Crop

Another advocate of a Florida market for Florida grown products is Boston Steele, of Beardsall Avenue, a county commissioner of Seminole county.

Mr. Steele who has farmed in the Sanford district for approximately 20 years, believes that the people of Florida do not attach to their back country and its products the serious attention it and they deserve. His opinion is one shared by a number of growers who have attempted to compete in products from California and other Florida markets against truck crops.

Steele says that the retailer in Florida discriminates against our crops but we do have difficulty in disposing of lettuce and other crops here, Mr. Steele said. He says that all business men for the benefit of the home grower should buy at home should reand if they want us to buy their wares, why should they not in turn buy our products and push them to the attention of the buying public?" he added.

The Big Boston variety of lettuce has created a good market for itself in New York and other cities, yet many local markets will not even handle the Florida crop, local growers say.

Mr. Steele has a farm of 20 acres on Beardsall Avenue and has an excellent crop of celery coming on. He has been one of the strongest advocates of modern farming methods and has supported every move for the furtherance of the celery industry in the county.

Originally from Virginia, Mr. Steele moved to this section 9 years ago and has been active in farming since that time. He is county commissioner from district number two and is to enter upon his second term in January.

TAVARES, Fla., Dec. 11.—Thirty club girls, representing 15 of the 22 organized girls clubs in Lake County, met in the office of the home demonstration agent recently for the first meeting of the County Council of Girls Clubs.

The object of the council, as explained by Miss Marie Cox, home demonstration agent, is to systematize home demonstration work for junior clubs, to make bigger and better clubs, and to assist in planning and carrying out club projects by cooperation.

Mary LaFuze of Clemons, president of the council, presided at the meeting. A constitution and by-laws were adopted.

The council undertook a plan of having each club raise money to send one winning girl from each club to the state Girls Club Short Course in Tallahassee next June, and to add to the scholarship fund for sending one club girl to the State College for Women for one year.

No Changes Are Made In Divisions Of Supreme Court As Ellis Becomes Head

WALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 11.—No changes were made in the divisions of the state supreme court, with the assumption of the office of Chief Justice by Judge William H. Ellis, of Quincy.

Generally, with the choice of a new chief justice, there is some change in the arrangement of divisions A and B of the court, but the personnel of both remained the same this time.

Division A is composed of Chief Justice Ellis, presiding, and Judge E. W. Strum and Armistead Brown, presiding. Division B has Judge J. B. Whitfield, presiding, and Judges Glenn Carroll and Silver Buford.

Judge Ellis succeeded Judge Brown as chief justice, the selection being made by a final drawing. In January, 1927, under a constitutional amendment, adopted at the general election, the chief justice will be elected.

The latest change in chief justices came as the result of the expiration, technically, of Judge Brown's term of office as judge. He was elected to succeed himself, but the re-election did not affect the chief justiceship, and another drawing for the two months interim was necessary. Judge Brown drew the office last December.

Judge Ellis is regarded by members of the legal profession as well qualified for the office. He has been a member of the bench since 1904 and has served as chief justice of the court.

considering the fact that the growers are just beginning to realize the possibilities of the plant.

The tendency of the market the past two days is believed to have caused a number of growers to set escarole.

Among those cutting lettuce during the past week were: A. D. Shoemaker, Edgewater Farms, C. L. Flowers, Arthur Moore, Bell Brothers, Tenney and Garret, and Charles Fite.

The Chase and Company block of celery, on Beardsall Avenue, is one of the best looking in the entire district.

Light movements of lettuce are expected next week and the price should show an increase.

H. M. Rumbley sold a mixed car of beans and peppers the early part of the week. The car brought approximately $1,400. He also cut four cars of lettuce and will have another car of peppers next week.

C. A. Hinton, on the west side, has an excellent block of celery. It looks as though it would be ready during the second week in January.

Twenty-seven cars of escarole were shipped during the week.

Charles Merriweather, G. F. Smith and American Fruit Growers Farm No. 2 all have very good stands of celery. The movement from these places should set in about Jan. 10.

Thirty-three cars of lettuce went out during the week at f.o.b. prices of from $1 to $1.25.

Joseph Steinhardt, Apple King of U.S., Dies In New York

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—(AP)—Joseph H. Steinhardt, known among produce men as the "Apple King of America" and credited with introducing the honey dew melon in this country, is dead.

He left Germany 49 years ago at the age of 18 and his first job was rolling barrels of apples for a truck man. He expected to get a quarter for his work, but was given his choice between a bag of apples and a swift kick. He ate three apples and sold the rest for fifty cents. This was the start of his business, which had a $12,000,000 annual turnover at the time of his death.

Mr. Steinhardt died suddenly at his Fifth avenue home yesterday of heart disease. Shortly after his first sale of apples he acquired a punchcard, but got into an argument with another punchcard dealer named Kelly over territorial claims. They settled the argument by going into partnership. Kelly died several years ago and Steinhardt became president and sole owner of the company founded.

SEMINOLE COUNTY FARM NOTES

The Swope-Lezette Garden Company, at Oviedo, has a beautiful tract of celery that looks as though it will be among the first to be shipped.

Boston Steele cut a crop of good lettuce Friday.

It has been estimated by several authorities that 85 per cent of the celery in this district has already been set. A light movement of the late crop is expected this year.

Sixty-Five Cars Of Citrus Shipped Out County This Season

Shipment of citrus from all sections of the state have tended to keep the price down on all classes so far this season but a slight reaction may be expected during the immediate future, according to authorities who have been watching the crop and the market closely.

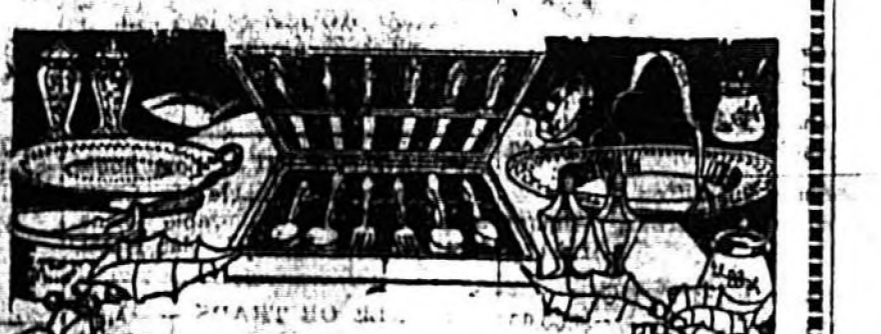

The crop is three weeks behind this year but to date there has been no more cars shipped from Seminole county in 1926 than there was in the same time in 1925, according to figures received from Chase and Company and from Atlantic Coast Line officials. Sixty-five cars have been shipped this season from Seminole county.

Shippers arranged this season have also tended to hurt the grower's share of a good market but a slight change may make up some of the loss in that respect, authorities say.

Local Growers Watching Reports Of Crop Damage In Southern California

Growers of the county are watching with interest the latest news from the Imperial Valley of California. The heavy storms which swept that section of the western state are reported to have caused enormous losses to the farmers in destroying celery and lettuce crops. California this year has had approximately 7,000 acres planted to celery alone and their heaviest movement is almost due.

Throughout this district, growers and agents alike say that the 1927 celery crop for Seminole County will be of better quality than has been grown for a number of years. The yield, too, is expected to be heavy, according to the opinions expressed by the majority of growers who have been producing celery for many years.

Bargains In Real Estate

Are more in evidence today than at anytime in months. If you are a wise buyer you will pick up a little acreage here, a house and lot there, a grove or two and perhaps a producing farm—and then sit tight—the next sellers market is not more than 18 months away—

If you are a gambler you will wait until the sellers market is here—then swap wits with the other fellow and beat him if you can—if you are not a gambler you will play the game safe by buying the bargain when it comes on the market—you will have a stock of merchandise to sell that was bought right—and you will have no trouble to sell it—because it was bought RIGHT.

We would like to show you some of the down right good bargains we can offer you today.

CHILDREN AMERICAN REVOLUTION ENTERTAINED BY MRS. WATSON

Members of the Captain Reuben Briscoe Chapter of the Children of the American Revolution were delightfully entertained Saturday afternoon by Mrs. W. E. Watson at her attractive home in Rose Hill.

Crystal bowls of exquisite pink and white roses, narcissus and asters were artistically arranged in the various rooms. In the sun parlor a beautifully decorated Christmas tree was placed and at the base were numerous toys which were packed by the small guests to be sent to the immigrant children at the receiving room at Ellis Island.

The afternoon was merrily spent in games and contests. Peter Rabbit was most popular as a contest. The young guests were required to place the lettuce leaf in his mouth while blindfolded. Martha Bishop proved most proficient and was given the prize for the girls, a box of lovely paper dolls. The boys' prize, a box of toy muskets, was won by Henry Wight.

Another interesting game for the afternoon for which prizes were awarded, was indoor quoits.

For having the highest score, Mary Elizabeth Tolar received the prize, which was a box of doll furniture. The boys' prize, a United States puzzle map, was won by Don Bishop, Jr., while the oldest girls' prize, a dainty handkerchief, went to Sarah Rossiter. The children were assisted in their games by Mrs. John Leonard.

After the games had been played, refreshments consisting of pink and green brick-ice cream, individual cakes, and candies were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Raymond Key, Mrs. R. E. Tolar, Mrs. John Leonard and Mrs. Fred Daiger. Favors of snappers in which were concealed gay colored caps and souvenirs were given each child.

Among the members of the C. A. R. enjoying this delightful afternoon were Elise Hutchison, Carolyn Kent, Frances Pemberton, Georgina Hart, Ariemisia Brooks, Billy Thigpen, Martha Bishop, Don Bishop, Jr., Adelaide Key, Katharine Thigpen, Harriett Rossiter, Mary Elizabeth Tolar, Henry Wight, Joe. McCashin, Charlotte Moughton, Ruth Ballard and Virginia McDaniel.

New Confectionery Store Is First In This Part Of State

One of the latest business additions to Sanford is that of Baggett's modern confectionery store located at the corner of First Street and Sanford Avenue, in the McLander Arcade. It is the first confectionery store in the city and is said to be one of the finest of its kind in central Florida.

The owners of the store, Orien D. Ratrell and R. B. Baggett, are both well known Sanford men and decided to open in their present location after an exhaustive study of the business places offered in Sanford. The corner is admirably suited for a business of this character.

The decorations of the interior are among the finest in the state and are an innovation in this section. Every piece of furniture, including the fountain, is new and of the latest patterns. The arrangement of the tables, and the layout for the soda booths are said to be in favor in the larger cities of the south.

Dr. Hamilton Holt Returns From Trip To Eastern Points

WINTER PARK, Fla., Dec. 11.—Dr. Hamilton Holt, president of Rollins College, who returned Sunday from a 10 day trip to Washington and New York, to day is compiling many new and interesting points in the development of the League of Nations which he set out in an address tomorrow night before the student body and townspeople on the internal work and objectives of this world organization, according to an announcement made this morning.

While in Washington, Dr. Holt conferred with President Coolidge, Frank B. Kellogg, Secretary of State, Secretary Hoover, of the Commerce Department and many other leaders in international policy.

Among some of the points to be discussed by the Rollins president, he indicated, would be the labor office, the opium traffic, the health program, the activities of the committee on international cooperation among nations, and similar undertakings. ## Diamond Importer Explains "Bogus" Story Concerning Huge Diamond Find Describing the recent publication of news stories to the effect that new discoveries in South Africa which showed heavy diamond deposits and that the market on diamonds would soon be considerably weaker, as a deliberate blow aimed at the J. P. Morgan interests, which control the diamond output of the world, a New York diamond importer showed a representative of The Herald a charting array of stones and a chart showing their increase in price for the past 20 years. The importer is from New York City and was interviewed at McLaughlin's Jewelry Store last Saturday.

"J. P. Morgan controls the diamond industry today and has controlled it for several years. The price on diamonds has advanced an increase every year for the past 50 years. A news service recently broadcast a report that diamonds would be cheaper. That news service is controlled by a man known to do everything possible which will damage Morgan," the importer said.

The diamond market, especially on the larger stones, has shown an increase since those stories were published and, instead of hurting the diamond industry, they have only caused the purchaser to pay a higher price for his waiting to see what the market would do, he stated.

There is no fluctuations in diamond prices, according to the expert, and only an upward trend is recorded.

Owing to the danger attendant upon his travels with a large stock of diamonds, the merchant requested that his name be omitted from print. He spent the entire day in this city Saturday as a guest of Henry McLaughlin.

Gov. Trumbull announced before leaving that he would probably return to Florida in January, to pay a visit to St. Petersburg.

BEETHOVEN ALSO COMPOSED MANY POPULAR SONGS

Secretary of Memorial Group Avera Noted Composer Was One Of Most Popular Ballad Writers In World At Time

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—(AP)—Beethoven as a writer of popular ballads is the "under side of the great composer's career brought to light again in the musical world's observance of his centenary.

Songs which have lain forgotten and unused for the last fifty years will be revived, says Frederick Freemantle, secretary of the Beethoven Centennial Memorial Committee. The committee hopes to make Beethoven known as the composer of eighty songs "as tender and light as his symphonies are heavy and profound."

Had A "Romantic Soul" The composer remembered mostly for his symphonies and sonatas is described by Freemantle as the popular song writer of his day. Beethoven's reputation was so high among his contemporaries that he was chosen chief editor of large collection of ballads, "Adelaide" and "The Distant Beyond" are among his best known compositions.

"It is a curious fact," says Freemantle, "that all of the songs have the single theme of moral might. Though he was shunned in his day and is personally remembered even now mainly for his eccentricities, his songs have a delicacy and a joyousness that reveal a sensitive and even a romantic soul.

Song of Marital Bliss "One of Beethoven's most charming vocal pieces, 'Vita Felice,' is the rhapsody of a happy married man, although he was a grouchy old, scoldate. Physically repellent, he brought to his songs all the sentiment and romance that he himself was unable to acquire. He set to music a delicate verse entitled 'Flame Color'—a poem celebrating the shade of ladies' dress goods popular in his day as it happens to be again at the present time.

The last song that Beethoven wrote was a setting of a poem called 'The Kiss.' It was written immediately after an embarrassing moment at a reception. A young woman, instead of listening to the music, sat admiring Beethoven's massive forehead. When she complimented him, not on his playing, but on his high brow, he retorted, 'Well, kiss it if you want to.' The challenge was accepted, to his discomfort.

Charlie Chaplin's Wife To Return To Catholic Church, She Declares

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 13.—(AP)—The Times says Lita Grey Chaplin, estranged wife of Charlie Chaplin, has announced her intention of returning to the Roman Catholic Church, which faith she says, she renounced when she married the film comedian.

She would have her two children baptized by the Catholic Church so that "they might enjoy the consolation," she says she "threw away."

She is quoted as follows: "Now that my marriage has turned out to be a failure I can return to my church. My mother and my grandparents were raised and grew up as devout members of the Roman Catholic Church. In my efforts to promote marital happiness, I consented to take everything and turned my back on my family's religion. Now I can turn to the faith of my childhood."

The marriage could not be recognized by the church because Chaplin had been divorced.
