Agricultural News

Farm Prices Increases Revealed

Prices and costs seem to pop in news quite often and this won't be an exception. Local vegetable growers may find this hard to believe but according to a U.S. Department of Agriculture report, farm prices rose 2 percent during the month ending March 25.

Rising prices for cattle and lettuce were chiefly responsible for the advance but were partly offset by declines for milk and tomatoes along with some other vegetables. The increase in average prices received by farmers is percent above a year earlier. The 2 percent March gain followed a two-month rise, including gains of 1/2 percent for the month ending January 25 and 1.5 percent increase for February 25.

The report also showed that most growers already knew that farm costs rose and this led to another new all-time record during the month. As a result, a comparison of prices received and the cost of things they buy showed farm returns in mid-March averaged only 44 percent of fair earning power or parity level.

The mid-March index of prices received by farmers for crops and livestock stood at 272 percent of the 1910-14 base period compared to 258 percent in March 1968. The index of farm costs stood at a record 306 percent of the base period with 250 percent a year ago.

What these figures show is that it is increasingly more difficult for the agricultural producer to make a profit since for every 2 dollars increase in prices received, there is a 3 dollar increase in his cost of production. With the indicated increase in labor costs and other production expenses, it will mean additional belt tightening unless there is a corresponding increase in prices received on the market. Increased efficiency and better management have absorbed the price difference in the past but there is a limit on how far these can go.

The bank credit card plans you're hearing about are "bridges" toward the "checkless" economy of the foreseeable future.

Under such plans, a card-issuing bank arranges for credit relationships with merchants. They agree to honor the bank's card for retail purchases made by the card holder. These merchants maintain an account with the bank and the card-issuing bank would issue you a plastic card much like your other credit cards. Participating merchants would honor this card for your purchases, in place of cash or check.

The bank gives credit immediately to the participating merchant for all deposited sales slips which originate by way of the bank's credit cards. For its services, the bank charges the participating merchant a fee in the form of a discount on each credit card sales slip.

The bank sends you a bill once a month for all sales slips it receives in your name. There is no charge to you, the card holder, if you pay the entire amount within a certain length of time, usually 25 days. However, if you pay only a part of it, an interest between 1 and 3 1/2 percent monthly is made on any unpaid amount. This is equal to the annual interest rate of 12 and 18 percent respectively.

All this sounds like a nice convenience. However, you're more likely to over-spend when you're not faced with paying cash immediately.

A Mulch Works Like Gardener

A mulch works like a silent gardener helping to stabilize soil temperature, hold moisture, and prevent growth of weeds around trees, and shrubs, in flower beds and vegetable gardens.

You may use an organic mulch such as straw, sawdust, tan bark, and pine bark, or an inorganic mulch such as gravel or black plastic film about 4 mils thick. Don't use clear plastics like freezer bags by themselves, for the sun light penetrates and allows the weeds to germinate and grow.

Other organic mulches include coffee grounds, wood shavings, sawdust, wood chips and chopped leaves. A solid mat of leaves however prevents soil exchange needed to keep the surface water from getting stale. Grinding the leaves is preferred. Peat moss is a good soil conditioner and mulch.

Mulches however, do not take the place of fertilizer. Straw makes a good mulch in the vegetable garden, but for use around shrubs, in flower beds and flower pots consider something prettier such as gravel chips in white or colors like the blues and reds. These chips are coarser than gravel and generally mulches are used 1 to 2 inches deep. It's often hard to estimate the bushels or bags needed. Baled mulches sometimes have tags that tell the coverage to expect, for example a 6 cubic ft bale may cover 72 sq. ft. 1 inch deep, or 36 sq. ft. 2 inches deep.

Four Monkeynauts Die

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Four furry pigtail monkeys—including one overcome by chloroform fumes inside a spacecraft and another who "ate too much"—have died on the job preparing for a month-long earth orbit flight in June.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said three of the primates died "in recent weeks" at Cape Kennedy and one lost his life inside a Biosatellite spacecraft undergoing testing at Valley Forge, Pa.

"One succumbed unexpectedly, apparently as a result of an untoward response due to a change in feeding regimen. He ate too much," a spokesman Thursday told The Associated Press.

"Two others have been sacrificed at Cape Kennedy for investigation of their tissues," he said.

NASA declined to elaborate on the cause of the death of the fourth monkey, which died in a long-duration test in a Biosatellite capsule at the Valley Forge plant of General Electric Co. But sources said the monkey was overcome by noxious fumes from a fluid containing chloroform used to clean the primate's space suit and harness.

Chloroform gases somehow got into the breathing system, they said.

Some 20 male pigtail monkeys, whose scientific name is Macaca Nemestrina, are now living at a Cape Kennedy "monkey farm." Weighing about 15 pounds each, one of them will be selected to blast off in mid-June for a 30-day flight in earth orbit designed to ease man's way on long-duration space voyages.

Have You Heard? Deaf Can Hear

By VIRGINIA SCRUGGS (Second in a series) — When Missy gets mad, she closes her eyes," laughs Mrs. George Fleet, mother of Melissa (Missy) Fleet, a four-going-on-five year old blue-eyed charmer.

"Eye-closing is an effective device for the sometimes-rebellious little girl, for she is profoundly deaf; her main contact with others is visual. When she doesn't want to "hear" her mother, she simply shuts her eyes.

But she manages to get her message across when she wants to. As her mother sat talking to their visitor, Missy went through her stack of word and picture cards, selecting a picture of a woman swimming, one of a man splashing in a pool. Missy wanted to go out in the backyard and get into the wading pool, and she had no trouble communicating her desire.

Other messages are not so easy for her to express but things are much easier for her now that she is attending Hand of Hearing classes at Rock Lake Elementary School.

Missy is working toward the working vocabulary of 5,000 words that most hearing children have by the time they enter school. Missy, as other hard of hearing children, has the problem of not being able to hear words. She can watch them, though, as her mother moves her lips, and feel them when her mother places Missy's hand to her cheek and throat.

Connecting the two and learning to form the correct sounds herself is a long, hard job, but one being successfully learned by children at the school.

A child at the first level learns imitative speech to fill immediate communication needs, then moves to diagnostic work, connecting letters and sounds, mastering abstract words and articles, and learning to read in the second grade he learns cursive writing and the creation of complex sentences, then he later learns to conjugate verbs. By the third grade he has learned to connect complicated sentences complete with subordinate clauses.

By the end of the fourth grade, the children are ready to attend classes with hearing children. They have two years — fifth and sixth grades — with hearing children to prepare for junior high school, though they do return to the hard of hearing unit each day for one hour of special instruction in the program.

With this organized, coordinated program the children are able to reach, and even surpass, the level reached by their hearing classmates. Basing results on standardized tests with hearing children, it has been found that some of the deaf children have made higher grades in language — quite an accomplishment for a child that may never have heard a word of a normal conversation. Missy, less than five, can read 25 words.

Because of the great success of the methods established by coordinator Mrs. Phillip Crutten, she has completed with the many requests to share her knowledge by writing a book describing the methods used.

"Learning to Read and Write With Comprehension" is almost ready to go to the printer. Its author proudly — but wearily — declares:

"It is a linguistic approach to reading," she says. "The book may also be used for the hearing child. Though it was written with the deaf child as the goal, it is a masterpiece of the deaf can hear."

When she received her degree, though, she also received a Class A permanent academic certificate from the Conference of American Schools for the Deaf Incorporated, the highest certification a teacher of the deaf can receive.

But she lays a great deal of the success of the Rock Lake program right on the doorstep of the parents.

"I don't know what we would do without their wonderful cooperation," she maintains. "Mrs. Crutten's gratitude for co-operative parents is equalled by the parents' gratitude to Mrs. Crutten."

Second Suit vs Pay Hike

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The second suit in two days contesting the $12,000 annual legislative pay raise was filed in Leon County Circuit Court Tuesday.

A May 13 hearing was set on the suit filed by Edward Viera of Jacksonville, who asked for an injunction to prohibit State Comptroller Fred Dickinson and Treasurer Broward Williams from issuing paychecks at the higher rate.

The nomination, approved Wednesday without dissent, will also make Allen an assistant secretary in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

He has been New York State commissioner of education for 14 years.

RHYTHM — To erase traces of monotony in the speech of deaf children, rhythm teacher Mrs. Jeanne Kellogg leads Mrs. Mary Hopkins' second grade class through simple singing exercises. The children can feel the changing vibrations of the piano by placing their hands on the top of it. (Virginia Scruggs Photos)

Goldwater Wins Seat

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Barry M. Goldwater Jr. easily won election to Congress Tuesday in his first try for public office.

At a victory celebration, he paid tribute to his dad and mother: "For the philosophy they instilled in me of love for God and country and a strong belief in the worth of each of us as individuals."

Republican Goldwater, a 30-year-old bachelor stockbroker, tallied 54,873 votes, or 37 percent, to 48,933 for Democrat John K. Van de Kamp, 33, an attorney.

The returns were complete but unofficial in the special election to select a successor to Republican Ed Reinecke, who resigned to accept appointment as California's lieutenant governor.

"Your honor, I don't think he's ready," the woman replied.

He also announced that the third quarter's results raised Scotty's nine month total sales increase to 33 per cent. Earnings before taxes increased proportionately with sales and in spite of the 10 per cent surtax, earnings after taxes increased 16 per cent over the nine month period last year.

Scotty's expansion plans were reviewed and it was reported that a second Jacksonville store has been opened and construction of two new stores in Orlando is well under way. Construction on a new store in Pinellas Park will be started within 60 days. Several other locations are in various stages of consideration and acquisition. Two new warehouses have been added to Scotty's central warehouse facilities to handle expanded lines of merchandise including carpeting.

The Sanford Plaza Merchants Association will sponsor their annual golf tournament this Sunday at the Mayfair Country Club links with two-out time set at 9 a.m. This will be the second annual tournament of this type sponsored by the merchants.

"I haven't made up my mind about it yet but I kind of wonder about these weights. I've lost a little weight and I've got no feel that the weights could have affected me but there aren't many men who've really got the experience with them to be able to make a good judgment."

Fuzzard Takes Orlando

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS LAKEVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — Fuzzard scored four times to help offset the 10 hits he gave up as Winter Haven stormed to an 18-9 victory over Orlando in the Florida State League Thursday night.

Fuzzard was relieved in the eighth inning but he got credit for the win, thanks to the hitting power of Lonnie Keeter and Felix Maldonado. Keeter drove in three runs and scored three runs in Miami's 3-2 victory over RRI and scored one. Jim Hoppe hit a three-run homer for Orlando.

In other action, Daytona Beach dumped St. Petersburg 3-1. Lakeland beat Tampa 3-0. Miami downed Fort Lauderdale 6-2. Pompano Beach thrashed Cocoa 8-2, and West Palm Beach edged Key Biscayne 3-2.

The St. Petersburg Cardinals returned to their early season form and mired another half game down in the Central Division cellar. St. Petersburg was staging a ninth inning rally with one on and the 1969 season on the line when hurler Chuck Shreve came in to rally to preserve the Daytona Beach lead.

John Mahoney buried a sparkling one-hitter to give Lakeland its win. He struck out eight and walked seven. Dick Uhlman knocked in one of the runs and scored another.

Chris Carver hammered out a homer and a double to double in two runs and give Miami a 2-1 victory over Fort Lauderdale. Ron Pickren hit twice and drove in two runs in a 10-3 record and a 1.20 era.

Majestic Prince Tabbed Derby-Sport Of Kings

By ROY COOPER Associated Press Sports Writer LAKEVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — Four thoroughbred champions and four pretenders to glory got their final grooming today for the 80th running of the Kentucky Derby.

The field of eight, one of them a potential scratch, is the smallest in 21 years and, most fans believe, the strongest in a far longer time.

Majestic Prince, the unbeaten and untried king of the West Coast, has been tabbed as the probable betting favorite in the 1 1/2-mile run for the roses that will be held at 5:30 p.m. EDT, Saturday.

Flying the colors of Canadian oil millionaire Frank McRobb, the $250,000 yearling purchase has moved down 47 opponents in New York's Gotham and West Palms.

Top Knight is my only good suit, you don't wear it very often," trainer Ray McEntall said in explaining the sparse racing schedule of the chestnut colt he trains for the Steven B. Wilson estate.

Claiborne Farm's Dick, a late-charging son of French Derby champion Hoberon, ran poorly in Florida when he was asked for too much too soon, but prompted new hope in victories in New York's Gotham and West Palms.

Arts and Letters, the Virginia-bred property Paul Zaretsky and Roberto Stabile, was a bridesmaid in the Flamingo, Fountain of Youth and Florida Derby.

Football Meetings Confused

By MIKE RATHEN Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Evidence has surfaced at the pro football meeting in Philadelphia that the shifting of three National Football League teams into the American League may require a new meeting.

The AFL's most serious franchise — either Philadelphia or Baltimore.

The facts at hand also led themselves to a further pairing down so that Minnesota and Philadelphia appear to be the leading candidates in their categories to join either New Orleans or Atlanta in the AFL.

Not one team actually was mentioned by name at Thursday's meeting, but scraps of evidence that seem to fit the jigsaw puzzle began to emerge from various directions.

The hardest piece of evidence was turned in by Cleveland owner Art Modell, a member of the NFL's executive committee, who said he saw "no point in emulating the keynote franchise" of his league in order to reach the 13-13 alignment of the two leagues seen to favor.

In doing so, Modell pointed his finger at his own Browns, Los Angeles and Chicago as three of the keynote franchises in the 16-team league. Drawing on Monday's meeting, he said that would seem to eliminate both Green Bay and Washington also.

In addition, New York and San Francisco have been considered untouchables because of geographical proximity to AFL franchises.

The best trading performance in the long history of Pro Football was turned in by Joe Guetera, a 20-year-old Cuban jockey, in 1931. He rode five winners on Preakness Day that year.

Also called was when First Baptist had more than a 15 run lead after five innings.

For the winners Diane Newman got a home run and came in two other times, backed up by the hitting of Paulie Ashford, Harry Deas and Terry Doyle.

For the losers Kim Doyle had two hits followed by James Thomas with one.

Maverick's hot! Any questions?

Measure it any way you like. By the crowds. The news stories. The sales. Few cars have caused a sensation like Maverick or broken so many records. Every day more and more people are asking questions about it. Here are the answers.

- Q. Why did you build the Maverick?
A. We think of Maverick as another one of Ford Motor Company's answers to the good crowd. Now Americans who want small car economy don't have to send their U.S. dollars overseas.
- Q. Why did you call it Maverick?
A. You know what a maverick is. A maverick breaks the rules. A maverick is different. Maverick plugs the big gap between the compact and the midsize. It has a wheelbase eight inches shorter than a '69 Falcon, eight and one-half inches longer than a VW 1500. Nothing else like it.
- Q. Why did you make it this size?
A. Maverick pitches pennies, not people. We gave Maverick more leg room. More shoulder room. More luggage room. Good example: the front seat of a Maverick offers you nine inches more shoulder room than the front seat of the leading economy import, and its trunk can handle all the luggage for a family of four, including a set of golf clubs.
- Q. What do you get for the price?
A. You get your money's worth. A complete, built-in American kind of car. Room. Not styling. Color-keyed interiors. Even the heater is included. Some economy car interiors are about as luxurious as a park bench. Not Maverick's. You get plush seats, cloth and vinyl upholstery with unique tartan plaid cloth inserts. You also get safety features like smart pull-out door handles, strong safety door locks. Two-speed electric wipers. Safety belts. Head restraints. Plus conveniences like armrests, coat hooks, lighted heater controls... important little things that add so much to your driving comfort.
- Q. What about options?
A. You can get 'em if you want 'em. You can order interior air conditioning. (It's built in, not hung on.) Other options include 3-speed automatic or low-cost semi-automatic transmission and a heavy 200 CID Six. But lots of people won't put an extra cent into this car, because it's all there. A complete car all ready to drive home.
- Q. What kind of gas mileage can I get?
A. That depends on you as well as the car. You can get as much as 25 or 26 miles per gallon if you have an educated foot and the right road conditions. If you have a lead foot, or do a lot of city driving, you will get a lot less. In tests by professional drivers at our tracks, where we do our best to duplicate actual driving conditions, Maverick averaged 22.5 m.p.g.
- Q. What kind of power does Maverick have?
A. Maverick's Six lets loose 105 galloping horses. That's 62 more than you get in the 4-cylinder VW 1500. Maverick can cover 417 feet in ten seconds from a standing start. That means you can get up to highway speed in a hurry. When you enter a 70 mph turnpike, you won't feel like a retired bookkeeper thrust into the middle of a pro football game.
- Q. If it has an eight inch longer wheelbase than the leading import, does it still handle and park easily?
A. Maverick can turn in a tighter circle (35.6 feet) than the leading economy import (36.0 feet). Maverick can slant through traffic like a hallway. It can turn on a dime and give you nine cent change. If you've been driving any other American car, you'll find Maverick's neat size adds up to 5 1/2 feet to any parking space.
- Q. Can Detroit really build a small economy car that's tough and long lasting?
A. It's not easy, but we did it. Maverick's unitized body construction makes it light, strong and durable. It's welded like a battleship. Rustproofing compound goes into every crevice. Special insulation blocks out road noise. Then all that strength is covered with four coats of paint for lasting beauty. Result: one tough little car that's built together to stay together. (The service schedule in the Maverick owner's manual goes up to 100,000 miles or nine years; that ought to tell you something about its rugged durability.)
- Q. How about parts and service?
A. Maverick is designed to be unusually easy to service. You're dealing with made-in-America parts and 6,000 easy-to-find Ford Dealers. Fast repairs and easy replacements mean extra savings in both time and money.
- Q. Is the Maverick really easier and less expensive to maintain than an economy import?
A. Definitely. Maverick oil changes come only every 6,000 miles and chassis lubrication once every 30,000 miles. The leading economy import recommends oil changes every 3,000 miles (twice as often as Maverick) and chassis lubrication every 6,000 miles (six times as often as Maverick). Those are

"Candid Chatter"

By DORIS WILLIAMS

It is with deep regret that Sanford will soon bid a fond adieu to REBECCA and DEWITT MATHWES who will be moving to Graceville where Dewitt will enter Baptist Bible Institute.

The energetic young couple has lived in Sanford for the past six years and according to Rebecca, living here has been a rewarding experience to them. They have both enjoyed popularity in civic enterprises and social circles. Having given of themselves, they have been an asset to the community.

Rebecca commented that living in Sanford has really added to their lives and they shall always be grateful to the wonderful people here.

During their 14 years of marriage, they have engaged in a pot pourri of endeavor and have enjoyed every minute of it. They will be greatly missed as will their children, TAD, 12, TONI, 11, and TYLER, 8.

Rebecca is abandoning her career with Florida Power and Light Co. to become a minister's wife. At Graceville she will also attend school and perhaps work part time there. The family is all excited over the dedicated life they have chosen and are looking forward to completely novel experiences which will surely encompass them.

Since in Sanford, Rebecca has been very active in Sanford Woman's Club and is currently chairman of the Civic Improvement Department which is sponsoring a simultaneous dinner party series to benefit a mental health facility for Seminole County. The big night is May 17 and Rebecca extends an invitation to other hostesses who would like to stage a dinner party for the worthwhile benefit. So won't you call her today?

As chairman of the event, Rebecca plans to serve as hostess to a "Florida Fling" buffet dinner for 20 guests. She will use all Florida food products and the following is her exciting menu for the buffet:

Citrus Punch
Broiled Chicken Livers and Water Chestnuts Wrapped in Bacon
Clam Dip and Chips
Scampi in Garlic Butter
Vegetable Relish Tray
Green Peas and Mushrooms
Potato Salad
Hot Puppies
Key Lime Pie

Doesn't the menu sound luscious? To ease you would like to try your hand at culinary art, here are two of the attractive redhead's recipes.

KEY LIME PIE

1 can sweetened condensed milk
1 cup lime juice
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs, separated
8" graham cracker crust
Blend until mixture thickens.

Seniors Entertained At Cookout

Mrs. John Fox recently entertained a group of girls of the 1969 Seminole High School graduation class.

Overlooking the beautiful lake was the perfect setting for the charcoal grill loaded with "finger licking" chicken and the picnic table further tempted the taste buds with green bean salad, rice casserole, garlic bread, potato chips, fruit cocktail, cake and coffee.

Invited guests enjoying this lively twilight outing were Doris Buck, Kaye Ferguson, Linda St. Ardie, Faye Marazita, Melinda Nelson, Julie Perrett, Elizabeth Sloan and Elizabeth Ann Sawyer.

Extra pieces of carpeting can be cut into serviceable coasters. They are not only very absorbent, but serve as a decorative touch as well.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a member of a small church in a very small community. We have a young minister, 22 years old with five children. He is a very dedicated man, but his wife is a million miles around his neck.

The attack Sunday worship, but that is all. She has a girl staying with her to help with the children, so she can't see that an excuse for not being more active in church work.

She's a chain-smoker and plays cards. She even had a card party while we were having our mid-week prayer service and Bible study! The paragon is right next door to the church, so we know this is a fact.

We have no prayer for her and tried to be friendly, but she doesn't cooperate. Must we tell our pastor to leave?

WAITING

DEAR WAITING: Pray harder for her. And pray for your young, dedicated minister. And while you're praying, pray for a little more compassion for yourself.

DEAR ABBY: Six years ago our daughter was graduated from high school. She didn't particularly want to go to college, but we thought college would be good for her, so we sent her.

She was able to get a government loan for part of it.

and we put up the rest, which meant to about $1,000, which she promised to pay back. After the first year SOME brides prefer to "surprise" everyone (green included) until the wedding march is played, but if you have other ideas, it makes sense to me, and more power to you.

DEAR ABBY: I am 12 years old and have a TERRY problem. My parents want me to go to college. I have tried everything from writing little notes to them to telling them I would write to you and use their names, but it hasn't helped in this case. And what do you advise me to do about this? I'm MORALLY—not LEGALLY, but MORALLY—responsible for this debt! And what do you advise me to do about this? I'm MORALLY—not LEGALLY, but MORALLY—responsible for this debt! And what do you advise me to do about this?

DEAR ABBY: I am being married soon, and the same goes for Daddy. You would make me very happy if you could argue so much. Please cut this out and put it under the glass on the desk, and when you and Daddy have the urge to argue go to it and take a look at it. Love, Your Daughter.

"HOPEFUL" BEACH, FORT WALTON BEACH, mentioned this to a few people, and they all acted like I was some kind of nut. Abby, I AM ONE person I want to approve of my wedding gown. It's the man I marry. Why is it so crazy to have him pick out a dress for me when I buy him a T. M. S. BROS. DEAR I. M. I am serious.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20)
 You feel that you can renounce some promise you have made, but this would only get you into trouble. Forget those erroneous hunches. Be scrupulous in carrying through with every duty that is exclusively yours.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)
 Before making those radical changes where an associate is concerned, be sure you first talk them over with a good and trusted friend. Get out to the social that is worthwhile to you.

 You get a fine new idea that helps you to improve your work, and you also have time to make your home more charming, clean. Be more cooperative with fellow workers. Get more done in the long run.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)
 Instead of stringing along in a hornet's nest where association affairs are concerned, get out and have a little fun instead. You need a change of scene to dispel any opposition directed toward you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)
 If you aim to please those at home, this can be a very happy and evening for you. You are inclined to improve your lighter side of life, and this is good. Stop being so serious; it shows.

 Get into a cheerful mood and then contact relatives and friends and have a good time doing what you please. Be the preparator Aquarius everyone loves. Show affection.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)
 Safeguard your good name or there could be a chain of unfavorable occurrences started. Do not anger in any way someone in a high position.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY...
 ...he, or she, will be one of those mischievous young people who, early in life, will get into all kinds of trouble with youngsters his own age. So teach early to think before acting anything, to give your years or one of your choice. The fine of importing would be fine here and therefore the Stars impel, they do wise early in life. Much money can be made in this lifetime.

Sneak Eater
 CLYDE (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Cobb say their cat, named apparently catfish, bunnies: under the front porch. They have found some hard evidence. Wednesday, Mrs. Cobb says the satisfied look on Bernard's face as he licks his chops is sufficient circumstantial evidence of what happens to the cat.
