Fed Mentor Emphasizes Local Club's Passing Attack With Protracted Aerial Practice

Celery Feds Will Climax Week's Hard Work This Afternoon And Undergo Light Session Tomorrow

By JULIAN STENSTROM
Herald Sports Editor

Head Coach Leonard McLucas and his two assistants, "Woody" Hiler and Russell McCracken, sent their proteges through a hard blocking drill yesterday and climaxed the afternoon's work-out with a rough and tumble scrimmage session in which McLucas pointed out the fine points of the end runs and the many reverse plays which the Feds are using this season.

During the scrimmage drill only one injury was sustained, that by Robert Rumbley who suffered a blow in the nose. The blocking assignment proved to be of value to the Feds and the mentors are still attempting to strengthen the defensive power of the Seminole gridder.

The head mentor executed a nice workout in which the backs and the ends attempted to make their strong and puzzling passing attack more effective, and it is understood that the aerial attack will be used more often in the Eustis contest than in the London game.

In the scrimmage session yesterday afternoon, McLucas led his teams into both sides of play, the offensive and the defensive with the clubs mixed, some of the "regulars" and the second stringers playing together.

The reverse plays were stressed as well as line plays, in which the offensive team seldom made any yardage or made any holes. The first string tackles, Bubbe Jones and "Tiger" Howell, were shifted to the defensive while Rumbley and Telford saw action with the regular first stringers.

The Feds will hold their last real workout this afternoon with a scrimmage session and passing and blocking drills before climaxed the week's work with a light workout tomorrow afternoon. They will leave for Eustis Friday evening for a tilt with Coach Memory Martin's Panthers and the second Celery Fed game of the year.

SEEKS GYMNASIUM

BRADENTON, Sept. 22. — City council yesterday agreed to deed to the county school board a block of land adjoining the Bradenton high school for a gymnasium, if the school board can arrange a $25,000 WPA project for its erection. The plot is five acres in size.

Tampa Spartans Undergo Passing Defense Session

West Florida School Will Meet Georgia School Monday Night

TAMPA, Sept. 22. — Pass defense was stressed at the University of Tampa football drill yesterday afternoon in preparation for the opening game of the season next Monday night at Phillips Field.

"I don't believe the South Georgia Teachers can match our power on the ground," said Coach Higgins, "but I am sure we will look at a lot of passes during Monday's game, and we don't want to take a chance on an upset in the first game of the year."

The Spartans, who have rounded into good shape after almost a month of hard work, are heavily favored over the Teachers, but the fact that the invading team will have had two games under their belts by the time they meet Tampa, will give them an edge in experience.

Virtually no rough work was gone through yesterday. Coach Higgins directed the squad in the pass drill, while Coach Pierson had the line working on the charging sled and the tackling dummy. Individual work on assignments was a part of the practice, and the Spartans ran through their plays with greater ease than at any time this season.

Hard work is scheduled in the practice session today, with a scrimmage slated between the varsity and freshmen. For the first time in several days the freshmen will work on offense, and will be ordered to shoot passes throughout, to give the varsity backs experience in combating aerial warfare.

Business Manager Bill Colbreath said yesterday that interest in the opening game is increasing rapidly. Advance ticket reservations are mounting, and a large sale is expected beginning Oct. 1, when the pastboards are placed for distribution at Farris drug store, Millan's and the university. Work on the Phillips field stadium is being rushed and it will be in shape to handle a near-capacity crowd Monday night.

Rollins Boasts Three Sets Of Brothers On Team

Bradys, Daughterys And Justices Make Up Part Of Tars

WINTER PARK, Sept. 22. — Three sets of brothers are members of this year's Rollins College grid forces—the Daughterys, the Justices, and the Bradys.

In fact, as Coach Jack McDowell prepares for the opening tilt ten days away, he has to think more than twice in his call for team play, for his immediate reaction says "family play."

All three sets of brothers will play prominent parts in the Rollins gridiron scheme of things this year. The veterans of the lot are the Brady brothers from Leesburg, Curry and Hal. Both are backs and their fame rises from their right foot. Specializing in kicking long spiraled punts, these boys are both working for that starting tail back post.

Hal is the leanest of the two and is one of the fastest men on the squad this year. He is the boy who flips those curves and whips those fast balls past opposing players on the diamond. Curry is heavily built and throws his tremendous bulk with crushing effect on bunks through the line.

Ollie Daughtery is well known to Rollins followers, but his brother Bill, sophomore end, is a newcomer to varsity ball. Bill was shifted from the backfield to wingman this year and is now beginning to master the difficult flank post. Ollie, after toting beef all summer, appears in fit condition to carry on his hard-crashing running tactics. This pair hail from Wildwood where they staged for their high school team.

Jack and Joe Justice, despite their lack of weight, are the spark plugs of this year's Tar machine so far. Jack, a guard who won his letter last season as a sophomore, has improved greatly and is expected to be one of the standouts in the Tar forces this season.

Just as an experiment, the British War Department practiced bringing down one of its own robot-driven planes. The experiment was a success. Cost: $10,000.

Eustis Coach Says There's No Way To Stop Sanford 11

EUSTIS, Sept. 22. — Coach Memory Martin's Panthers, victorious in last Friday's tilt with Mt. Dora, are being put thru strenuous drilling in fundamentals this week, Martin said yesterday. The Eustis team is in fine fettle, and no injuries were sustained in last week's game, but Martin says "there's no way to stop Sanford," whom the Panthers meet on the local gridiron Friday night.

Martin announced the following schedule of games for this season: Oct. 7, Sanford, at home; Oct. 8, Okla., there; Oct. 15, Winter Garden, there; Oct. 22, Leesburg, there; Nov. 5, New Smyrna, home; Nov. 11, Tavares, there; Nov. 19, Kissimmee, home; Nov. 21, Umatilla, there; Dec. 3, Apopka, home.

Chinese Succeed In Holding Back Japanese Armies

200 Thousand More Communists Are Ordered To Join North China Ranks

Japanese Report Soviet Aids China

British Start Inquiry Into Sinking Of Sino Fishing Junks

By The Associated Press
Two hundred thousand more communists were ordered into Chinese ranks defending North China today as their government comrades near Shanghai turned back repeated Japanese thrusts and dug deeper into their strong defensive positions.

The Japanese "big push" encountered the immovable Chinese armies northwest of Shanghai with every weapon failing to smash the stubborn defense.

In North China Japanese armies that recently captured Peking, 80 miles south of Peking, moved nearer the border of Shanlung which scarcely has been touched as yet by the conflict.

The Soviet ambassador to China, Dmitri Komoloff, was expected to reach Moscow today on a matter believed to concern Russia's attitude in the war. The Domei Japanese news agency reported its information indicated that the Soviet Siberian army commander-in-chief was already leaving the Chinese. The agency reported the road across Siankiang was choked with Russian munitions and supplies for China. Informed sources announced that British colonial authorities (Continued on Page Four)

Thespians Present One Act Comedy At Chapel Meeting

The Thespian Dramatic Club of Seminole High School presented this morning at the regular weekly chapel session, a one-act play called "Who Says Can't" before about 600 students.

The program opened by the salute to the colors and the entire body singing the national anthem. Professor G. E. McKay read the scriptures and the student body responded with the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Cecelia Truluck then sang a popular selection before the play began. Following the play, the school cheer leaders led the students in many cheers and yells. Those taking part in the play were Marjorie Cogburn, Folia Williams, Jr., Jacqueline Campbell, Joanne Aszarello, Walter Haynes and Jim Colbert.

A collection was taken by the Thespians following the play to aid in the purchasing of merchandise for the cheer leaders.

Tomorrow Last Day For Liability Reports

Tomorrow is the last day for the filing of liability reports with the Unemployment Compensation Division of the Florida Industrial Commission, according to J. C. Moore, field advisor of the Commission.

Mr. Moore who is making headquarters in the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce building, in Sanford to assist all employers in filing their reports and has agreed to remain here tomorrow so that any who desire information might see him.

Mr. Moore stressed the fact that all employers of one or more employees must file their reports and they must be in by tomorrow since there has been no extension of time.

MR. WHITE DIES

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

Mass will be held in the Catholic Church Friday night at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. J. Kelleghan, pastor of the Catholic Church here, announced today.

The name of Jimmie Ingley was unintentionally omitted from the list of boys to be admitted to Troop 5 of Boy Scouts of America that appeared in yesterday's paper.

The filing of information returns, form SS-2 and SS-2a under Title VIII of the Social Security Act, will not be required for the period ending September 30, according to information received today from J. Edwin Larson, collector of internal revenue from the district of Florida.

The next filing of the above forms will cover the period from July 1, 1937 to December 1, 1937 and must not be filed later than January 31, 1938, the Revenue Collector stated.

When an employee attains the age of 65 or dies during this period the Form SS-3, "Information Returns for Employees who attain the age of 65 or die," is to be filed notwithstanding contrary instructions on the form, it was indicated.

The list which has received the appropriation of the City Commissioners is as follows: E. L. Lane, N. O. Garner, J. Beck and P. H. Smith.

The City election this year will be held for the purpose of electing a Commissioner to replace W. A. Laffer whose term of office expires. The primary election will be held on Nov. 2 and Mr. Lamon agreed that all persons who wish to vote in the election and have not paid their poll tax do so at once.

As yet no candidates have filed their intention to run for the office, Mr. Lamon indicated.

League Plans Alternative For Mussolini

Il Duce Must Recall Troops From Spain Or France To Open Border For Spain

GENEVA, Sept. 30.—(AP)—The League of Nations sub-committee was understood today to have reached a fateful decision to present Premier Mussolini with the alternative of withdrawing his Italian volunteers from the Spanish civil war or seeing the French frontier thrown open to arms and men for the Spanish Valencian government.

A delegate who left the session of the committee drafting the resolution on the Spanish conflict, said this agreement had been reached after a heated three-hour argument.

The resolution was said to declare if the withdrawal of foreign combatants is not made effective within one month's time, the signatories of the non-intervention agreement are "invited to envisage" a return to the policy based on international law.

This is interpreted by committee members to mean complete abandonment of the entire non-intervention policy enabling the Spanish government to obtain war materials wherever it wishes.

Storm Warnings Up Along Atlantic Coast

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Squally weather blanketed the waters off South Atlantic states today leading the United States Weather Bureau to issue small craft warnings.

Areas affected were the Atlantic ocean from North Carolina to Florida, the Florida Straits and the Eastern Gulf of Mexico.

The Weather Bureau said 40 mile squalls were occurring a short distance off the coast from Cape Hatteras, N. C., to St. Augustine. A low pressure area from which storms sometimes generate hung over the northwestern Caribbean Sea but the Weather Bureau raised the condition had not increased in intensity. A high pressure zone covered the Atlantic states.

Glowing gusty weather, observers said, was the result of the close proximity of the two centers.

TALLAHASSEE, Sept. 30.—(AP)—The justices of Florida's Supreme Court came out of a 46 minute conference today without their decision on whether slot machines are to be seized by officers immediately after they cease legal operation at midnight tonight. The justices planned another conference later in the day with indications that the decision may be announced then.

The lawyers for and against the immediate seizure argued before the Court for two hours on which the seizure would violate the Constitution's guarantee of property against confiscation without due process of law. If the decision by the court is announced before midnight it will supersede the constitutional writ previously issued to restrain the immediate seizure in Leon and Jackson counties.

The revolving wheels of thousands of slot machines, legal in Florida for two years, will cease their legal operation at midnight tonight, but they still will figure in court battles about what is to be done with them.

Comptroller J. M. Lee made ready to close out the slot machine records of his office as quickly as possible. He issued the licenses for the 12,500 machines in the past two years. Now that they are unlawful by legislative act he will have nothing more to do with them.

"I'll have nothing to do with slot machines after today, and I'm damned glad of it," he said. He once called them "damnable things with hellward tendencies."

In two years he collected approximately $1,032,000 of licenses for the State, Cities and counties collected a corresponding amount. The highest number of machines licensed was 12,681.

Parson Who Married Duke Of Windsor Make Home In U. S.

DARLINGTON, England, Sept. 30.—(AP)—The Rev. R. Anderson Jardine, the "poor man's parson" who married the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, said good-bye to his former parishioners at St. Paul's church here last night.

He told the congregation that history would record the story of "how once a king sacrificed his throne for the woman he loved and how a little town parson lost favor for giving them God's blessing."

Preaching before a full church, he said he might return to the United States, where he recently lectured. Then he left quietly through the vicarage without shaking hands with those who waited to say good-bye.

"I have found the peace of God and, in my own heart, sufficient reward," he said.

Meanwhile, conflicting rumors were printed, variously reporting that the Duke of Windsor intended returning to England in November or that he had made up his mind never to return.

McLucas Lectures Lions Club Meet On Football Team

Head Coach Leonard L. McLucas of the Seminole High School Friday lectured to the regular weekly meeting of the Sanford Lions Club held in the grill room of the Valdez Hotel.

The local football mentor told the civic body of the necessary training required in football and the knowledge as well as the fundamentals of the game. Mrs. McLucas also told the Lions what kind of a club the local high school is producing this season and what he thought of the eleven.

The Lions also presented their pianist, Mrs. Evans McCoy, recent bride, with wedding gifts and her husband, Mr. McCoy, presented several popular selections.

The civic organization also heard a report from Joe Melech, chairman of the Sea Scout board. Mr. Melech reported that donations had been received and the troop has enough for four or five sail boats. Work has begun and two already and the rest are expected to be completed soon.

THE LAW OF LIBERTY: Mc

They're laughing now! And strange things, about the old dead worrying, And fretful times they used to know.

Back in that vanished long ago, When they were married first, And he had just his weekly salary.

You'd think 'twas fun, to hear them say, How he would work to work each day.

To save the car fare and afraid, They couldn't get their gas bill paid.

And how they worked for months before, They had a rug upon the floor.

And they are boasting, too, about the time he wore his trousers out, And she put in a patch so small, You'd hardly notice it at all.

He loves to tell that tale again, Although it wasn't funny then!

They're laughing now! And seem to be, The old, dead, care have grown to be.

Their happiest memories of all, As if there's nothing to recall, So sweet as all those troubles grave.

When love was young and very brave. EDGAR A. GUEST.

Miami is conducting a drive against communism. It seems that some of these millionaires down there are engaging in "subversive activities" again.

Sanford has a new author who is gaining nationwide attention following the publication of her book "Evelyn," a story about some Sanford "field hand niggers" living in the Sanford colony who have many interesting experiences which should be familiar to every farmer in this section.

Sanford should be on the lookout for bunco, crooks, and swindlers this winter more than ever before. For several years past, Gov. Sholtz border patrol has stepped all those at the border line of Florida who did not have the ordinary means of livelihood, but this winter the border patrol is no more. Consequently anybody and everybody, including all kinds of hitch-hikers, will be traveling through Florida. And many of them will have some sort of racket to work.

From 1914 to 1918 Japan sat back and watched the rest of the world—mostly the white world—kill each other off in a war which was certainly revolting enough; now she is staging her own little private show. During the World War Japan was supposed to be allied with the Allies, but the life of a single Japanese soldier was not valued in this puppy white man's war. Perhaps Japan even then was getting ready for a time when she could make herself supreme in the Orient.

The city of Sanford and the county of Duval have been tangled in a peculiar head wrap. Duval county holds a block of Sanford's defaulted bonds and refuses to come in on any settlement plan the debtor city deems reasonable. Pointing out that the city of West Palm Beach lost its time in filing a petition in bankruptcy under the new Whose municipal bankruptcy act, the Sanford Herald warns: "It may be necessary for Sanford to pursue a somewhat similar course of many creditors like Duval refuse to go along with the plan to proceed. It would make an interesting legal fight if Sanford did resort to the courts."

Sanford Daily News: Sanford didn't want to. Duval wanted to proceed.

Cost Of War

It appears today that the Chinese people is paying a pretty dear price for his liberty and the right to live under Chinese rule. Especially when we see pictures of Shanghai civilians blown into the tops of trees do we get the feeling that perhaps the Chinese are wrong and that the better way would be to submit to Japanese aggression. But liberty is a priceless thing, and men have died for it many times before.

And the price which the Chinese are paying is not the only price in this Oriental war. It costs money to blow people up. To support a fighting army of several hundred thousand on a foreign soil many miles from home requires a considerable budget. Air bombers costing fifty thousand dollars a piece have been shot down. They cost money too. If Japan wins the war these costs will have to be paid just the same. And if she loses, she will not be able to meet the costs.

"Let the war lords of the world read history," writes Heywood Brown, "for it is written that victory in the field is nothing more than a flourish of trumpets and when the last note dies away there is no echo and the silence comes. The tattered banners of the brave brigades will never wave again. There is no bugle shrill enough to rouse once more that might which was Napoleon or a word of command sufficiently imperious to loose again the horsemen of the Hun."

"Deep in the dust lie the eagles of the conqueror and grass grows in those places where the aspirations of the aggressor have been given back to the earth."

"All victories are Pyrrhic, for an army does not march upon its belly, but upon the necks of its own people. A bomb is dropped in Nanking and in Osaka an increasing burden falls on the back of the working masses. The leaders of Nippon will learn too late that the same bayonet thrust which pierces a Chinese coolie tinges with blood that moon which hangs low above the mean houses of the toilers of Japan."

"They say to his people the Mikado is a god, but even gods have been cursed and cut down when they visited too heavy a tribulation upon their worshippers. Men will starve a little while for the sake of an emperor. For a span of days or months or even years they may be down with privation if such a mate is painted up, and passed off to them as glory. But there will come that morning when each worker in Japan will wake and know her suddenly as a hag and harlot."

"The conflict in the Far East will not be settled by the planes which dart in circles above Nanking, but in the rice fields of Japan. The thread will snap. Behind the far-flung army lines will come the roar of the aroused millions drowning out the sound of the siege guns. And to his own the Mikado will have to make such answer as he can when they cry out for bread and peace."

"The bird of destiny is on the wing. The armies of Nippon must follow the course he sets. They will come back."

Lettuce Responds To Advertising

Lettuce growers of California and Arizona completed, on July 15, the first phase of a 12-month advertising effort to increase national sales of the "green gold." Results have been so satisfactory that a $50,000 campaign is already under way for melons and, next year, there'll be one for carrots. All three efforts are an activity of the Western Growers Protective Association, of Los Angeles.

"The average person in the United States eats only seven heads of lettuce a year," says a release from the Association today. "The average for Los Angeles is 20 heads. It was realized that even a modest goal of eight heads a year per person would bring a satisfying expansion in the market. Housewives have become more sparing in their use of lettuce, mainly because the promotion of canned and prepared foods has featured lettuce as a garnish. Lettuce alone, served with a dressing only, was waning in popularity, and the amount of lettuce used in salads was dwindling. The job was to get the consumer to use more of the vegetable by suggesting new ways of serving it."

"On March 15, a 12-month advertising campaign was started in which 90% of the growers and shippers of California and Arizona joined with contributions of five dollars per car (total shipments approximately 45,000 refrigerator cars annually). By next March, about $200,000 will have been spent to sell lettuce in four major markets of the country, mainly by newspaper advertising, radio, and dealer service."

Varieties of nature are said to demand flexible media for Western vegetable advertising. Shipments to markets may suddenly increase because lettuce has to be cut the day it's ready, and the technique used in moving products like canned foods won't work with perishables. Also, the average retailer doesn't care much how his vegetables are displayed. In Los Angeles, where consumers' mouths are made to water by refreshing arrangements of iceberg lettuce, sales have responded. Part of the dealers' service phase of the campaign is designed to overcome unattractive displays.

Results of the campaign so far on the 100,000 acres devoted to "green gold" in California and Arizona are larger shipments this year than last, and a better money return to the grower. The melon sales program is expected to center around the slogan, "Sweet Eat'n." It is said to be backed by 100% of the growers in Arizona (7,500 acres) and 75% of those in the Imperial Valley of California (28,000 acres).

Advertising pays. Why not a campaign to advertise celery?

Hughes Agrees To Court Renovation, Cummins Asserts

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Attorney General Cummings, contending a report signed by Chief Justice Hughes agrees in part with President Roosevelt's defeated court proposal, announced yesterday he would ask Congress again to authorize additional federal judges. The Hughes report, adopted last week by the annual conference of justice circuit court judges and made public Tuesday, recommended appointment of 10 new federal judges, four for the circuit courts and 14 for district courts.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Last night at supper our waitress said, "It will cost you an extra dime if you have a second cup of coffee. The order came through this afternoon."

This, I think, was a mistake. Coffee is such an intangible part of good fellowship that it should be held apart from the ordinary, rather matter-of-fact details of a routine meal. It is, in essence, something deep and satisfying, like a handshake between friends, and should never be so trivialized like, buttermilk, or an ordinary champagne cocktail. Not good coffee. The drinking of it calls for a certain and very definite reverence. It should be treated almost to a ritual.

Unhappily, the restaurants and cafes in New York don't seem to realize this important reality. The coffee here is generally vile, and most of the cafe owners labor under the belief that to make good coffee, all one has to do is pour hot water through the grounds.

If I were commissioner of restaurants in New York I would insist on every restaurant owner establishing his right to the trade. If he made bad coffee I would most certainly deny him a permit. For all beverages, and this includes milk, and when nothing can be done thoroughly. And for the same reason, so thoroughly disappointing.

Not long ago, on a private quest for the best coffee spot in New York, we called on 40 or 50 places in city and was the

"TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY"

By RUSSELL KAY

As long as the Duke of Windsor might put it, we have our new Citrus Commission, Governor Fred P. Cone seemed to have just about as hard a time as Dave did in makin' a selection.

As might be expected, the announcement hadn't any more than been made before some folks began waggin' their heads and findin' fault, but that attitude is typical of the citrus industry.

Maybe you or me, if we'd been one of the men the Governor selected, but that don't prove that we are any more "right" of that he is any more "wrong," and chances are if you and I went into separate rooms and made up our minds they wouldn't be anywhere near alike and we'd be catchin' each other naps long before we could ever come to an agreement.

But gittin' back to the Commission and "peutin' around about this and that" let's gonna help any. Fred has made his selection and sign it happens to be Governor and is more or less set in the rock. We might as well make up our mind to like it.

Now if growers and shippers and packers, and exporters, and all these other folks get together and get to talkin' about the commission in a dignified effort to solve the problem of the industry, and get a little better idea of what's goin' on, the industry might get a little better idea of what's goin' on.

The intelligent, dignified and marketable of Florida's citrus crop is no slouch job; it calls for some sure-enough generalship and plenty of wholehearted co-operation. There's a lot more to it than placin' ads in newspapers or startin' and stoppin' a car of fruit.

In spite of laws, rules and regulations we still continue to ship fruit that is unfit for human consumption. True, it may pass the test and all that, but you just try to satisfy an irate housewife, who has paid plenty of regular money for a mess of green fruit, that she has no complaint because it passed the test—and if she don't crown you with a "rollin' pin she ought to."

And for the next six months anything that passes looks like an orange or a grapefruit makes her nose, including the prettiest and most pictures of Florida fruit in her favorite magazine. When she sees one of the says "Oh, yeah!" and then calls to her grocer and

Cone Blames Treasury Shortage On Payment Of Bill 9-Years Old

TALLAHASSEE, Sept. 26. — (P)—Governor Cone yesterday blamed the state's general treasury shortage on the payment of a $261,000 fire insurance premium, some of which was nine years overdue.
"It doesn't make a fair showing," he said, "to pay an old bill like that right now in this dull season. If we had that money we could go on discounting bills in the market."
He spoke in the weekly cabinet meeting after State Comptroller Lee reported the state will meet its monthly payroll of $300,000 Oct. 1 but would not be able to pay about $260,000 of current bills.
The governor said he had learned that the premium payment was from the general fund to the state's insurance fund, from which it was invested in securities. He said part of the payment was for a nine-year-old premium, and at least $211,000 of it was four years overdue.
Lee said the payment had been authorized from time to time and his office had made a practice of trying to collect on the arrears as fast as possible.
The comptroller announced plans yesterday to distribute about $1,250,000 today to the counties from the state's general school fund. It is one-ninth of the almost $11,500,000 state appropriation for aid to county schools.
Showing dissatisfaction, either by grimace or word, is very impolite at a bridge table. It is unfair to the player's partner and unfair to his opponent, since it can be a hint to the partner.

Hollywood Glamour Features Ritz Film

Does Hollywood's greatest drama start when the cameras start turning? Do your favorite stars actually live real life romances a thousand times more thrilling than any play on the screen? You don't know the half of it—till you sit agast and amazed before this emotion-laden love story of one of filmdom's most famous heroes!
Glittering with all the glamour that is Hollywood's, is Columbia's fascinating new comedy drama "It Happened in Hollywood," which is scheduled to play Friday at the Ritz Theater with Richard Dix and Fay Wray in the leading roles. Here it is at last—the flesh and blood drama behind the screen's sounds and shadows!
Featured in support of Dix and Fay Wray are Victor Kilian, Franklin Pangborn and others. Harry Lachman directed. Eibel Hill, Harvey Ferguson and Sam Fuller wrote the screen play from the story by Myles Connolly.

Wedding Is Planned For Next Month

Wedding invitations are being received in Sanford and Seminole County to the marriage of Mrs. Claire P. Lemaire and Frank L. Evans of Lake Mary whose engagement was announced in July.
The ceremony will take place on Oct. 9 in Swampscott, Mass. Plans have been made for a church wedding after which a reception will be given in the reception room of the church.

Moore, program chairman; Mrs. Southward, stewardship chairman; and Mrs. Louise Little, reporter.
Mrs. M. W. Roberts took charge of the meeting and reported the business was transacted. Mrs. McCausery gave a talk on "Lithuania and Miss Alice Trafford talked on stewardship."
Refreshments were served by the hostess to the following: Mrs. M. W. Roberts, Mrs. E. L. Keesey, Mrs. Will Hunt, Mrs. A. C. Gibbs, Mrs. A. H. Lovelace, Mrs. A. K. Rossette, Mrs. Fugate, Mrs. R. C. Moore, Mrs. W. C. Querson, Miss Alice Trafford and Mrs. Walker of Palatka, and Mrs. Linton, visitors.
Modern fabrics often contain as many as five or six different fibers.

Meeting Is Held By Circle No. 3

Circle Number Three of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. J. M. Colclough in Rose Court Tuesday evening for the purpose of organizing for the year.
Arrangements of room built decorated the rooms for the meeting.
At the business session the following officers were elected: Mrs. Fred Myers, chairman; Mrs. L. H. Reed, vice chairman; Mrs. E. C. Harter, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. G. C. Luttrell, enrollment chairman; Mrs. J. H. Colclough, program chairman; Mrs. F. E. Galsbol, Bible study chairman; Mrs. J. L. Lutz, mission study chairman; Mrs. Lulu Miller, personal service chairman; Mrs. M. F. Smith, stewardship chairman; Mrs. W. E. Kuder, literature chairman, and Mrs. O. G. Holley, training school chairman.
At the social hour tea and fancy sandwiches were served to the guests.
Those present were: Mrs. M. F. Smith, Mrs. M. T. Smith, of New Castle, Ind., Mrs. Wm. E.

Traffic Accidents Cost 24,520 Lives In 8 Months Of '37

CHICAGO, Sept. 26. — (P)—Death is setting a record breaking pace along the nation's streets and highways.
The national safety council estimated yesterday traffic accidents had cost 24,520 lives in the first eight months of this year.
The total was 11 percent greater than the 22,100 recorded in the corresponding period of 1936—the year the all-time high mark of 26,200 was established.
Deaths numbered 3540 in the same month last year.
But statisticians pointed out the August increase of three percent was more than matched by the 11 percent rise in automobile travel as gauged by gasoline consumption figures, while the 11 percent increase in the first three quarters of 1937 was equaled by an identical spurring in motor mileage.
They expect the deaths to increase to be somewhat lower than 1936 if the current trend holds.
New York led the cities in the eight-month death column with 328, Chicago, with 311, ranked second.
However, New York had the lowest traffic fatality rate among the most populous centers.

City Icemen Hear Talk On Success Of Ad Campaign

Several officials of the City Ice and Fuel Company were guest speakers at the regular monthly meeting of the Ice Deliverers of the City and County held in the office of the Company's plant west of Sanford Tuesday night, it was learned today.

R. E. Willingham, sales manager of the City Ice and Fuel Company, acted as master of ceremonies, introducing the guests and making a short talk relative to the progress made by the Icemen during the past year.

W. M. Postwick, Division manager of the Florida Power and Light Company, was introduced as the first speaker for the occasion. He told the gathering of the success of the past advertising campaign and outlined a larger and more extensive program which will get under way in the near future. Mr. Postwick also showed the Icemen a motion picture entitled "Helps to the Route Salesman."

Other speakers at the occasion were: F. E. Stein, division superintendent of the Ice Company; H. H. Coleman, manager of the Florida Power and Light Company; J. S. Adams, manager of the retail ice department, W. C. Williams, and J. B. Oviatt, chief engineer at the ice plant.

League Plans Alternative For Mussolini

The bar's legislative body, the House of Delegates, added its prompt ratification to the assembly's expression, likewise unanimously approving the report prepared by a committee headed by Sylvester C. Smith, Jr., of Phillipsburg, N. J.

The committee will be appointed by the association's president. It will be instructed to report any proposed changes in the country's judicial system to the Bar Association for a membership referendum which would guide the action of the commission.

Writ To End Alabama Slot Raids Dissolved

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 30.—(AP)—County officers engaged in elimination of slot machines and gambling devices won two victories yesterday when courts refused injunctions to halt raids.

Chinese Succeed In Holding Back Japanese Armies

Chinese commanders declared their whole line was holding all the way from Chapei to Lübo against combined land and air attacks and were prepared for a new Japanese attack in force.

The Japanese admittedly were attempting to break through the Chapei sector, but this correspondent, touring that area, found the Chinese dug in deeper than in the Mediterranean.

5. They were in agreement on not withdrawing support from the Spanish rebels although they did not agree to increase that support.

6. Both will keep a watchful eye on Austria whose chancellor, Kurt von Schuschnigg, neither likes, but no definite change in their attitude toward Russia was indicated.

League Plans Alternative For Mussolini

Political diplomatic circles agreed that these were the main accomplishments:

1. The leaders reached such a close agreement without a formal military pact that an old-fashioned alliance was not necessary.

2. The arrangements, informed quarters said, left them more freedom in dealing with other powers. But their military chiefs understood what is to be done jointly if the necessity arises.

3. They stand by their Rome-Berlin axis but declare it open to other powers.

4. This means first, Great Britain, and later, pressure on France to give up her protective alliance with Russia and enter the bloc.

5. They have established an ideological alliance in which both fascism and nazism agree to support the other's philosophies and oppose democracy.

6. Diplomatic circles commented that Hitler's sweeping declaration that all Europe will be fascist did not include America. They suggested that he wanted not to stand directly counter to President Roosevelt, whose recent speeches have attacked dictatorial governments.

7. Both leaders agreed to fight against communism.

Mussolini, however, took the more determined stand, mentioning recourse to arms to keep bolshevism from gaining a foothold ever and showing no sign of weakening.

"The Japanese can blast us forever but they will never dislodge us this time," declared General Sun Yu-tang, commanding the Chapei defenses.

"Burned twice, Chapei has become one of the nation's greatest military shrines. Weeks of continuous concentrated Japanese attacks have failed.

"We have found the Japanese infantrymen poor fighters and it seldom requires much effort to defeat them in hand-to-hand combat."

While the center of fighting returned close to Shanghai after a lapse of more than a week, Nanking, China's capital, enjoyed a respite from the almost daily Japanese air raids. The city was said to be quiet but on guard against expected resumption of the aerial bombardments.

The battle for Shanghai lasted throughout the day and until long after darkness but the swampy terrain left from heavy rains hampered Japan's mechanized forces, compelling them to withdraw tanks and motorized units and use cavalry.

60 Year Hatred Makes Sino-Jap Row Suicide War

Fanatical Heroism Is Reported On Both Sides Of Struggle

By JACK STINNETT AP Feature Service Writer Oriental temperament coupled with a hatred brewing more than 60 years is making the Sino-Japanese conflict a "suicide war."

Poultry Business Is Modernized On Streamlined Basis

By The Associated Press BROOKSVILLE, Sept. 29.—The modern poultry farm is a story from the early American method of rearing a bunch of chickens and turning them loose on the countryside.

Whether the flock knows it or not, its living conditions have been modernized. The new farm of James Duffy is an example. Duffy came to Brooksville from Westmont, N. T., because he believes Florida is ideal for poultry raising.

His is not a roof farm. Not a rooster struts before the admiring hens. His flock was bought when only a day old, but the new wrinkle in poultry farming—sexing—permitted him to purchase females only.

Roosters will be bought later on. They will be hatched from eggs of hens which were excellent layers and not overly broody. The cocks will be placed in breeding pens only.

Duffy's pullets have five months of comparative freedom in ranges on his five-acre farm. At the end of five months they go into an air-conditioned house, there to drink from an automatic fresh-water fountain, eat selected foods and lay in ventilated trap nests.

Every egg is candled and weighed. A record is kept on each hen, and each one is marked with a small numbered aluminum band. Duffy believes eggs should be delivered like milk—fresh, clean and as soon as possible.

Roosters should be kept away from hens laying eggs for table use, he believes.

KKK WARNING

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Imperial Wizard Hiram W. Evans said yesterday the Ku Klux Klan was planning a non-violent campaign to "mop up" against sit-down strikes.

Floridians Advised To Slaughter Deer By U. S. Biologist

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Floridians were advised yesterday to kill deer carriers of Texas cattle ticks in a few badly infested areas over the state. "It is about the only way you can get the ticks out of the country," said Dr. G. B. Gabrielson, chief of the biological survey.

YACHT REEVED LOST

CHARLESTON, S. C., (AP)—Lieut. Commander W. J. Kessler of the Coast Guard said last night an airplane would be dispatched this morning to search for the 65-foot auxiliary yacht Avonnet, of New York, which is 24 hours overdue here.

The basis of sauteen is cotton seed oil. Real sauteen is made entirely of pure Florida cottonseed oil.

Process Found For Dehydration Of Vegetables

Methods Prevents Any Deterioration Of Stored Vegetables

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Agriculture department chemists believe they have found a means of rapid dehydration for vegetables.

They predicted it would be of help to all vegetable growing sections, including Florida.

It will provide, they said, a satisfactory method of storing fresh-pumpkin material, free of rotting, freezing, respiration, mold and enzyme action.

The chemists said their discovery involves exposure of the vegetable to the vapor of a chemical which causes it to become water-soaked. Then the juice can be more easily pressed out.

Chemicals found to be effective, they said, are toluene chloroform, ether, benzol, petrol ether, carbon tetrachloride, sulphur dioxide and chlorine gases.

In recent tests, sliced sweet potatoes, carrots, beets and green beans were exposed to the vapor of carbon tetrachloride. All were water-soaked in an hour.

The juice then was pressed out and amounted to 50 to 85 per cent of the raw vegetable's total weight.

"The pressed residue of vegetables treated according to this process," said a department report, "dried to equilibrium within 24 hours. This contrasts with the older and more costly process in which this slices of untreated vegetables, particularly sweet potatoes, after long periods of air drying, still contain fresh tissue on the inside."

The juice, concentrated in a syrup, and the pressed residue, reduced to the anhydrous condition, will keep indefinitely for future use and manufacture.

Dr. F. P. Hopkins, chemical foundation appointee working in the laboratory of the new sweet potato starch plant at Laurel, Miss., discovered the new process, the department said, while he and other chemists were seeking a method of preventing deterioration of potatoes while in storage.

Foreign immigration into the United States was heaviest before 1900.

Dentist Shoots Bad Man In Holdup

MIDLAND, Mich., Sept. 30.—(AP)—Midland dentist shot and killed one of four gunmen attempting to hold up the Chemical State Savings Bank across the street from his office shortly before noon today.

Two other robbers were captured, one wounded in the arm and a fourth escaped. Paul D. Bywater, cashier of the bank, was shot in the hip. Clarence H. Macomber, president, was wounded in the chest and a Bay City truck driver, forcing the institution, was shot and wounded by the robbers who used a submachine gun.
