Red Cross Drive Opens At Kick-Off Breakfast

The Seminole County Red Cross campaign got underway this morning with a kick-off breakfast held at Sanford Yacht Club at 9 a. m.

County Chairman Frank Evans presided at the breakfast meeting with the Campaign Fund chairman Major Roy Brown of Lake Mary making the closing remarks.

Other brief talks were made by Captain Robert W. Jackson and Chaplain C. L. Arnold of the Sanford Naval Air Station, Mrs. Jay Beck, Mrs. C. E. Dawson, Fred Ensminger, Joel Field, County Superintendent of Schools E. T. Wilcox and Floyd Palmer. Palmer advised his co-workers "We must be in dead earnest and hard-boiled in this campaign."

Dawson emphasized the fact "The best argument to keep the Naval Air Station in the community would be a good gift to the Red Cross which does so much for the Navy."

Attending this morning's enthusiastic pep meeting were: (Continued on Page 8)

Journalism Class Gets Closeup View Of Printing Paper

Ten members of the Pinecrest Junior High School Journalism Class and members of the "Pine Cone" school newspaper staff visited The Sanford Herald yesterday afternoon for a closeup view of "how a newspaper is published and printed."

The group was accompanied by John Angel, Pinecrest Junior High School principal, Mrs. Mary Alice Rutledge, the class instructor and Mrs. Ola Cochran.

Beginning with the Business, Advertising, and Editorial offices of The Sanford Herald, the group was taken on a tour of the entire plant facilities where they were shown, in detail, the various and many operations necessary to print a daily hometown paper.

Every member of the group was shown the operation of a linotype machine, the rolling of a mat, casting of plates, makeup (Continued on Page 8)

Navy Appreciation Day will be observed in Sanford on Saturday, March 30 under the sponsorship of the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Plans are yet incomplete, said Jaycee President G. Andrew Speer and Mayor David Gatchel following yesterday's meeting of the Jaycee group where the Navy Appreciation Day idea was adopted.

Mayor Gatchel appeared yesterday at the Jaycee meeting to suggest that the big Navy Appreciation Day be observed. "I made the recommendation and suggestion as a citizen of Sanford and not as an official representative of the City," Mayor Gatchel said, following the meeting.

Tentative plans now call for a gigantic fish fry and possibly a huge square dance in the street at Fort Mellon Park.

The suggestion was unanimously adopted by the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce at yesterday's luncheon meeting when Ed Hunt, chairman of the Jaycee "Retain the Navy Committee" made a motion. Bill Gramkow seconded the motion of Hunt's and the organization wholeheartedly approved the action on the part of the club.

"We'll have the biggest crowd in Sanford on that day in the history of Sanford," Mayor Gatchel remarked as plans for the event were discussed.

President G. Andrew Speer stated that a chairman for the big event will be named at Tuesday night's Jaycee Board of Directors meeting when plans for Navy Appreciation Day will be discussed. The automobile, on which contributions to the "Keep the Navy in Sanford" are now being accepted, will be given away on the night of the gigantic Navy Appreciation Day event.

Tentative plans now call for tickets to be sold to local citizens for a nominal charge and all Navy personnel, their wives and families attending free.

Leaders for the important event slated for the end of this month began immediately to round up all possible help to stage the fish fry and other events that will be included in the Navy Appreciation Day celebration and observance.

Mayor Gatchel stated that he will proclaim Saturday, March 30 as "Navy Appreciation Day" with an official proclamation which is to be announced later.

"I have never seen people so enthusiastic about staging an event such as this," Mayor Gatchel commented. "Everybody seems to be for the idea and no doubt it will be one of the most successful celebrations we have ever held in the City," he said.

"We will announce our plans for the month-end event just as soon as they are made," said Speer. "The Jaycees are proud to have an opportunity to sponsor this important occasion in our City," he said.

Mr. Cameron formerly lived in Sanford. He is the brother of Mrs. J. E. Gradick of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Gradick left this morning for Belleglade.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — Mrs. C. M. Flowers of Sanford was elected president of the Seminole County Federation of Women's Clubs for the next ensuing year. The election took place at a meeting of the federation held Thursday at the Altamonte Springs Community House.

The Altamonte Springs Garden Club, the newest of the ten federated clubs, was host of the covered dish luncheon following the business meeting, which was presided over by the president, Mrs. C. K. Fisher of Fern Park.

Quarterly reports were given by club presidents or their representatives. Herlong Reveals Outlook

We've got to find out if the people want it and they want it with the increased noise and if the land is available," John Krider emphasized from Washington this morning.

He said "It looks entirely feasible that we can keep the Sanford Naval Air Station where it is." Speaking more optimistically than at any time since the cooperative effort to keep the Sanford Naval Air Station in Seminole County, Krider said that runways will have to be extended to 13,500 feet and that a clear space be left on the west.

"Above all," Krider stated emphatically, "we must produce the fact that we want it." To do so, he said, "we must have resolutions from the City and County, every civic organization, the Jaycees and the Chamber of Commerce."

Brailley Odham, who has been in Washington with the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Manager and the Congressional delegation, returned to Sanford last night. He said this morning "I am confident that if we work on this we can keep the Naval Air Station in Sanford."

Odham said "I am very much pleased over the outcome of the trip to Washington and we had splendid support from Congressman Syd Herlong, Senator Smathers and Senator Holland. I am pleased, not only with the courtesies shown by our Congressman and Senators but am much pleased over the interests displayed."

"It was a great pleasure to work with John Krider. We are fortunate in having him in this job for it is impossible to take off from our businesses to take care of these necessary duties. We have a man that is as fully capable as any of us and it is fortunate that he holds the position as the manager of our Chamber of Commerce," he concluded.

Rep A. S. Herlong said today he feels "very good" about prospects that the Navy will decide to keep its air station located at Sanford.

Herlong made the statement after a second visit Thursday with Navy officials on the situation. (Continued on Page 8)

Drive Launched To Stop Future Polio Outbreaks

CHICAGO — Medical authorities today launched a campaign to wipe out the threat of future serious polio outbreaks in the nation.

The attack is aimed against the crippling, death-dealing disease itself and at overcoming public apathy towards the Salk polio vaccine.

The American Medical Assn. has asked all state, county and city medical societies to devote the next two months to vaccinating as many persons as possible between the ages of six months and 40 years.

An AMA spokesman said less than half of the nation's potential polio victims have been inoculated.

If 50 per cent of the remainder can be vaccinated before the start of the polio season, the nation will be well on its way toward ending all but the vestiges of the great epidemic, the spokesman said.

Although this was the official starting date for the campaign, mass vaccination programs already were underway in some cities.

Three Found Dead; Double Murder, Suicide Believed

MEMPHIS — A Nashville man, his estranged wife and their 2-year-old daughter were found shot to death early today in a North Memphis home.

Homicide Inspector W. W. Wilkinson identified the victims as William Davis, 40, a wholesale jobber of sundry items, Mrs. Davis, about 35, and their daughter, Sandra Davis.

Wilkinson called it a case of double murder and suicide. Wilkinson said the Davises separated three weeks ago, and that Mrs. Davis and her daughter came here to stay with Mrs. Davis' sister, Mrs. Billy Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook discovered the bodies when they returned home from California early today.

Police said Davis was slumped over a telephone. A .38-caliber pistol lay nearby.

Mrs. Davis and the little girl, clad in nightclothes, were found on the bedroom floor.

KEEPING IN TOUCH

That mail-box on the city corner . . . that post office at the country crossroads . . . what would we do without them?
Life is too complex for us to live by ourselves. Man's interests and his welfare reach far beyond the boundaries of his community. Communication with people and corporations hundreds of miles away is a part of modern living that we take for granted. We have to "keep in touch."
But long before life became so complex, men discovered their need for another kind of communication—prayer. The courage and faith and hope which steel men for the challenge of each day come from God. The deep spiritual needs of the soul can be supplied only by keeping in touch with God.
We think our mail-boxes are indispensable! Even so, one church means more to a community than all its postal facilities. For not so long ago men lived very happily without a postal system. But men have never lived happily without God!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Rock 'N' Roll Movie To Be At Ritz

THE RIGHT NUMBER—Tom Ewell made no mistake in passing along this call to glamorous Jayne Mansfield, with whom he co-stars with Edmond O'Brien in Twentieth-Century-Fox's CinemaScope-DeLuxe color comedy "The Girl Can't Help It," coming to the Ritz Theatre. The hilarity of this romantic farce is highlighted by fourteen rock 'n' roll songs sung by the top recording artists in the rhythm field today. The picture was produced and directed by Frank Tashlin from a story by Garson Kanin.

Friendly Persuasion To Open At Drive-In

Gary Cooper and Dorothy McGuire star in William Wyler's production of "Friendly Persuasion" starting Sunday at The Movieland Ride-In Theatre.

William Wyler's masterpiece, "Friendly Persuasion," opening Sundays at the Movieland Ride-In theatre earns the rating of excellent in every respect. It ranks with the finest films and should hold strong appeal for all members of the family.

The Allied Artists' picture in color, which stars Gary Cooper, Dorothy McGuire and Marjorie Main, is a masterful blend of high comedy, intense drama and moments of tremendous action and excitement. It is based on the works of the same title by Justinyn West.

It stands as a tribute to the film-making genius of producer-director Wyler, already a two-time winner of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences awards, and the artistic and creative talents of all concerned.

"Friendly Persuasion" is the story of a charming, delightful Quaker couple, Jesse and Elizabeth Hildwell, played by Cooper and McGuire, and their three children, Perkins, young Eyer and Miss Love. It relates how the family suddenly finds its peace and happiness shattered by the backlash of the Civil War.

Some of the humorous highlights include a sequence in which Cooper, who is something of a hay horse and buggy to Sunday morning against his best friend, played by Middleton. There is another hilarious sequence in which Cooper and Perkins visit Twentieth Century-Fox hits the rock 'n' roll jackpot with its CinemaScope-DeLuxe color comedy, "The Girl Can't Help It," which comes to the Ritz Theatre on Sunday with Tom Ewell, Jayne Mansfield and Edmond O'Brien in the starring roles. Fourteen of the hottest musical artists of the jazz scene today, such as Julie London, Ray Anthony and his Orchestra, Fats Domino, The Platters, Barry Gordon, Little Richard and his Band, Gene Vincent and his Blue Caps, the Treniers, Eddie Fontaine, The Chuckles, Abbey Lincoln, Johnny Olen, Nino Tempo and Eddie Cochran, appear in the picture.

"The Girl Can't Help It" is a mixture of song, comedy and romance from the pen of Garson Kanin and marks Jayne Mansfield's debut in Twentieth-Century-Fox pictures. She comes to the screen direct from her success in the Broadway play "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?" through which she gained the title of "Broadway's Smartest Dumb Blonde."

The story revolves around a nightclub entertainer whom a gangster, for romantic reasons, attempts to launch as a jukebox favorite through typical gangster tactics. Miss Mansfield plays the nightclub singer, who would rather be a housewife than a celebrity, and is given every opportunity to show off her voluptuous charms. The eighteen costumes she wears were designed by Charles LeMair especially for her 40-18-35-inch figure.

Tom Ewell plays the role of the droll press agent, entrusted with the job of giving Miss Mansfield a build-up so she will have the big time class desired by Edmond O'Brien, who has the part of the gangster with a penchant for rock 'n' roll music. One of the big scenes in "The Girl Can't Help It" is a rock 'n' roll jubilee in which the top pop artists of the country take part. Fats Domino does a number called "Blue Monday" Julie London sings "Cry Me A River," The Platters sing "You'll Never Never Know I Care," Little Richard and his Band do "Ready Teddy" and "She's Got It," Gene Vincent and his Blue Caps present "Be Bop a Lula," The Treniers offer "Rockin' Is Our Business," Eddie Fontaine sings "Cool It, Baby," The Chuckles render "Cinnamon Sinner," Abbey Lincoln sings "Spread The Word," Johnny Olen's aggregation offers "I Ain't Gonna Cry No More" and "My Idea of Love," Nino Tempo does "Tempo Tempo," Eddie Cochran does "20 Flight Rock," Little Barry Gordon sings "Blue Suede Shoes," Ray Anthony and his Orchestra present "Rock Around the Rock Pile."

In addition to being the director of "The Girl Can't Help It," Frank Tashlin produced the picture and collaborated on the screenplay with Herbert Baker. Leon Shamroy, A. S. C., was in charge of photography.

The firm of Marjorie Main and her three man-wanting daughters, Frances Farwell, Marjorie Durant and Edna Skinner. No review of "Friendly Persuasion" would be complete without a word of congratulation to Edith Head, the director of photography, who has filmed the story in glorious manner. The picture was filmed in De Luxe Color and Fredericks used his cameras to get all possible value out of the beautiful backgrounds, but at the same time remain in key with the dramatic sequences of the film. Dorothy McGuire is assisted with the costume design and Edward S. Hayworth, the art director, did a splendid job with the sets and the backgrounds.

Federal Aid For People Is Money Out Of Own Pockets

Advocates of the "free money" from Federal Aid act very much like the ostrich that buries his head in the sand—facing facts from the wrong end. Grants-in-aid are nothing more than our own taxes collected by the Federal government and re-distributed to the states and localities.

Federal Aid has risen from 126 million dollars in 1934 to 3 billion 300 million dollars in 1956. No matter how we "face it" we all pay this sum in our Federal taxes.

In an analysis of Federal Aid and Equivalent Tax Cost of the 48 states, it is readily seen that: Total Federal Aid distributed in 1956 was $3,356,400,000. Therefore the cost to taxpayers was an equivalent of $3,356,400,000.

The 14 "Aid-ing" States paid out $774,900,000 more Federal Aid than was returned to these states. The 34 "Aided" States received $774,900,000 more in Federal Aid than they paid.

Therefore, this $774,900,000 represents only 23 per cent of the $3,356,400,000 of Federal Aid transferred from so-called "rich" to "poor" states. The rest of 77 per cent isn't aid at all, but just "round trip money" collected in taxes and returned with strings attached for federally controlled expenditure schemes.

Nowhere in the Federal Budget of $72 billion is the overall administrative cost of these huge aid programs calculated or, so far as is known, even officially estimated. To the "aid" cost should be added the administrative cost—an obvious impossibility because no one knows how much it is.

Does it really Aid—?

The true cost is not calculable in dollars alone.

It includes weakened state and local government siphoning off a huge portion of available tax revenues which rightfully belong to state and local government. It further costs the surrender of local determination and loss of the sense of local responsibility that is the root of sound expenditure.

As all these costs continue to increase, no government can bear them and remain free.

Florida spent 93 cents to get each $1 of Federal Aid, but let's not forget that added to the 93 cents is the huge cost of administration and distribution of this "Aid" by the Federal Government.

When are we going to stop this staggering extravagance of our own money?

Your opinion as a taxpayer, written to your Congressman, can be the beginning.

Family Farm

Politicians frequently talk of the need for protecting and maintaining the institution of the family farm. Yet, in the expert view of Roger Fleming, secretary-treasurer of the American Farm Bureau Federation, "the conceived programs allegedly designed to protect the small family farmer constitute the most dangerous threat to family farmers." He amplified that in specific terms by saying: "So far as I'm concerned the greatest threat, other than family farm is what I refer to as the 'politics of equal shares.' It is the process through which the power of government is used to distribute the right to produce politically on the basis of one share, one vote."

This illustrates a fundamental weakness—and a fundamental danger—in any government farm program. By their very nature these programs must be political programs, based upon all manner of political compromises and political considerations. They almost always lead to greater political power over agriculture and the farmer. To quote Mr. Fleming once more, "Centralization of power, wherever it occurs, as a general rule is inconsistent with individual liberty, individual responsibility, and human freedom itself."

The family farm developed and flourished under the free market system. Today, as in the past, the family farms' principal sources of cash income are from products which move in a free market, such as livestock. These farmers have the biggest kind of stake in keeping that kind of market alive and vigorous.

returned to Washington. Then it gets confusing. The Post Office Department said they would almost impossible to get a plane reservation on short notice during the busy seasons. Senator Smathers, who is on the Aviation Subcommittee thinks this lack of service is doing great harm to the tourist business as the permanent development of great areas of the state. He is trying to do something about it. He has protested this lack of service to the Civil Aeronautics Board and has asked them to set up a flexible system of airline certifications, whereby airlines may be granted the right to serve Florida cities on a seasonal basis. That is, during the peak seasons, airlines not now serving Florida would be permitted to make runs into the State. Eastern and National Airlines aren't expected to like this idea very much, but Smathers says, "The demand for air travel to all parts of Florida is growing faster than the presently certified airlines can handle it." He thinks this will relieve the overload. He has asked for public hearings in March or April.

STERN WARNING - Bob Sikes didn't pull any punches against the oil producers in a speech the other day when he said, "I wish to give notice on the petroleum industry now that they are riding for a fall in the same way the large public utility holding companies were riding high in the hey-day of the 20's."

FLORIDA AIR SERVICE - Everyone that flies back and forth to Florida knows that it is almost impossible to get a plane reservation on short notice during the busy seasons. Senator Smathers, who is on the Aviation Subcommittee thinks this lack of service is doing great harm to the tourist business as the permanent development of great areas of the state. Political Decision Nearing For Ike

By LYLE C. WILSON

United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The time is approaching when President Eisenhower must come to grips with another political decision. He must make up his mind whether he wants to support Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination.

Perhaps Mr. Eisenhower will want to shirk that one.

But presidents, like kings, have responsibilities in common. One of them is to designate or, in the case of a king, to produce a bona fide, unquestioned heir.

A president's responsibility for an heir is more to his party than to the nation and has nothing to do with blood lines. It is a various responsibility, sometimes being without substance. In the case of President Eisenhower, however, it is real and substantial.

Old Guard Through

Mr. Eisenhower's responsibility to designate rather than produce, an heir is real and substantial because he is attempting to build a new party life and others are telling the Old Guard Republicans that they are through, their policies outmoded and their appeal to the voters going if it has not already gone.

The President has set up the party of modern Republicanism, an Eisenhower party as clearly as the New Deal of the early 1930's was a Roosevelt party. The Roosevelt party never required an heir to succeed F.D.R. Mr. Roosevelt always was available and acceptable. Mr. E.

will be benched after Jan. 20, 1961 by an amendment of the Constitution which forbids a third term. Like F.D.R., Mr. Eisenhower is sponsor of a new party which seeks to move party foundations considerably to the left of the old stand. He will urgently need someone to carry on to prevent the Republican Party from shifting back to its old mooring.

Terrific Pressure Expected

The time is coming and fairly soon, therefore, when a great many Republicans will be expecting Mr. Eisenhower to name his man. The pressure for that will build up and become terrific.

How can the President name his choice, however, in view of his public record. Through the long 1956 discussion of his vice presidential running mate, Mr. Eisenhower ducked a decision by holding that nomination of a vice presidential candidate was strict-

Retarded Child's Parents Should Plan For Future

By LOUIS CASSELS

United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — About one child in fifty enters the first grade with no chance whatever of graduating from high school.

This child has an IQ below 75, on a scale where 100 is the arbitrary figure for normal intelligence. No matter how hard he tries, or how hard his teachers and parents try to help him, he can't make the regular academic grade.

Twenty years ago, he would have become one of the human rejects of the educational machinery. After failing two or three grades, he would have been allowed to drop out of school.

Today, according to a woman who has done much to make it possible, this mentally-retarded child can stay in school and, through special training programs tailored to his capabilities, can prepare for "an adult life that will be useful, happy and normal in all essential respects."

Can Find Place

"We believe," said Dr. Elizabeth M. Kelly, "that a mentally-retarded child who grows up to be self-supporting has achieved as great a victory in life as the bright child who becomes a famous lawyer, doctor or college professor."

"If the parents of a handicapped child accept him for what he is, and plan for his future in realistic terms instead of hopeless dreams, he will find his niche in life. And by the time he is grown, no one will think of him as mentally retarded."

Dr. Kelly is superintendent of special education in the Newark, N. J., public schools, and president of the International Council for Exceptional Children. The council has been a major influence in establishing training courses for mentally-retarded children in virtually every U. S. public school system.

While these courses differ in some details, all are based on the concept that the low-IQ child, who may learn next to nothing in the regular classroom, can learn a good deal of useful information under a teacher with special training.

Good With Hands

"There's not much point in trying to teach these children to read and write," Dr. Kelly said in an interview. "But we've found that they have a greater potential for learning manual skills than was previously thought."

New Jersey, Ohio and other states have recently begun to establish "sheltered workshops" at which severely retarded children may learn a trade within their

Ballistic Missile Canceled By Army

WASHINGTON — The Air

Force apparently has clinched its victory as the sole armed service to develop and use intermediate range ballistic missile.

Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson has told a new conference the Army's proposed 1,500-mile range ballistic missile, the Jupiter, "is canceled."

He said the United States is going to build only one type of 1,500-mile range ballistic missile.

The Air Force is developing a missile of this range called the Thor. Wilson turned over control of intermediate ballistic missiles to the Air Force last November.

Wilson defended the Defense Department's decision to slow down work on developing an atomic-powered plane despite the view of Chairman Richard Russell (D-Ga.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee that more funds should be put into the program.

The secretary said "the less a man really knows" about nuclear aircraft, "the more certain he is that we are making a mistake" in slowing down work on the plane.

The plane, he said, is "still in the imaginative stage" and "needs a miracle or two."

capabilities and in which they may continue to work under proper supervision, after they grow up.

The outlook is brighter for the "educable" child, said Dr. Kelly. With the right kind of teaching, he can master reading, writing and arithmetic. The special classes also will expose him to science, civics, history, elemental business courses, music and art.

There are fixed grade levels through which he is asked to progress, no hard-and-fast curriculum. The teacher tries to help each child grow in knowledge and experience as far and as fast as his personal capabilities permit.

Veterans Corner

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to four questions of interest to former servicemen and their families:

Q. I am a Korean veteran. Would I be permitted to study dressmaking in France under the Korean GI Bill?

The law prohibits it. The only foreign training allowed is college-level work, approved by VA, offered by accredited institutions of higher learning.

Q. I was injured on the job, and doctors tell me I am totally disabled. I hold a World War I GI insurance policy. May I stop paying premiums and retain my coverage?

A. No. You should continue paying your premiums. After you have been totally disabled for six months, apply to VA for a waiver of premiums.

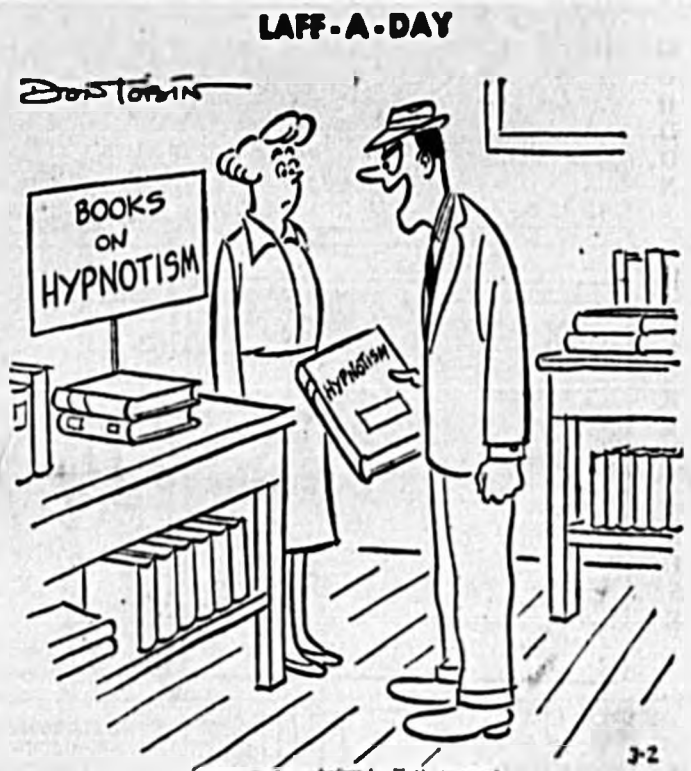

Continue to pay until VA informs you your waiver has been granted. VA will refund all premiums paid during the period of your total disability, but for not more than one year prior to filing your claim.

Q. I am a disabled Korean veteran and I have received vocational rehabilitation training under Public Law 894. Would I now be eligible for further training under the Korean GI Bill?

A. You may be. Subtract the amount of vocational rehabilitation training received for 48 months. If there is a balance left over, this is the amount of training you might be entitled under the Korean GI Bill.

Q. Am I supposed to notify my GI insurance beneficiaries if I want to make a change in my beneficiary list?

A. No. You need merely notify VA of your new list of beneficiaries. You need not notify CONFUSION IN SANFORD - Who's postmaster? For a while nobody knew, and even now the problem may not be cleared up.

Post Field was given the job on June 8, 1954 by President Roosevelt. Recently, word got out that he was being ousted to make way for a Republican.

Senators Holland and Smathers and Congressman Syd Herlong asked the Post Office Department to keep them posted on any development on this move. The Post Office Department promised, but didn't do it. Two weeks ago, the inspectors swooped down on the post office in Sanford. They told Field he was to go and informed Guy Allen, local Republican leader, that he was to be the new postmaster. In the midst of the "checking out" period, Field called Senator Holland. Holland got busy. As suddenly as the inspectors arrived, they departed. They returned to Washington. Then it gets confusing. The Post Office Department said they would almost impossible to get a plane reservation on short notice during the busy seasons. Senator Smathers, who is on the Aviation Subcommittee thinks this lack of service is doing great harm to the tourist business as the permanent development of great areas of the state. He is trying to do something about it. He has protested this lack of service to the Civil Aeronautics Board and has asked them to set up a flexible system of airline certifications, whereby airlines may be granted the right to serve Florida cities on a seasonal basis. Eastern and National Airlines aren't expected to like this idea very much, but Smathers says, "The demand for air travel to all parts of Florida is growing faster than the presently certified airlines can handle it." He thinks this will relieve the overload. He has asked for public hearings in March or April.

STERN WARNING - Bob Sikes didn't pull any punches against the oil producers in a speech the other day when he said, "I wish to give notice on the petroleum industry now that they are riding for a fall in the same way the large public utility holding companies were riding high in the hey-day of the 20's."

FLORIDA AIR SERVICE - Everyone that flies back and forth to Florida knows that it is almost impossible to get a plane reservation on short notice during the busy seasons. Senator Smathers, who is on the Aviation Subcommittee thinks this lack of service is doing great harm to the tourist business as the permanent development of great areas of the state. He is trying to do something about it. He has protested this lack of service to the Civil Aeronautics Board and has asked them to set up a flexible system of airline certifications, whereby airlines may be granted the right to serve Florida cities on a seasonal basis. That is, during the peak seasons, airlines not now serving Florida would be permitted to make runs into the State. Have you ever stopped to realize just how many Navy men retire here and stay in Sanford? I don't mean just chiefs and officers, who retire after completing the required number of years, though they are probably in the majority. But so many young men serve one or two "batches" in the Navy, and get out and go to work and raise their families here. And quite a few marry local girls. But, for the men who are retiring after completing 20 years or more in the service, what better place could they pick? That seems to be what ALC Robert T. McCaskill has in mind, for he retires today from active service, and will make his home near Lake Golden.

On Mar. 5, Pitt G. L. Seavy will leave us to attend Photographers Mate School, in Pensacola, and "shipping over" for another six weeks, after having already completed thirteen of them, is SK1 R. A. Cowart. He's a bachelor, so maybe he deserves congratulations on two counts!

Mr. and Mrs. L. Songstad had as their guests last week, Mr. and Mrs. J. Walker, of New Jersey. The Walkers were enroute home after having visited their son in Bermuda, where he is serving as a Sea-Bee. The foursome attended the reopening of the E. M. Club last Friday night.

Want to take the opportunity again to remind all enlisted wives to attend this coming Monday's meeting of the Enlisted Men's Wives Club. That will be at 8 o'clock, Mar. 4. In addition to the regular business meeting, there will be a plasticware party. There is no need for me to tell you what that is! And remember girls, our club gets 10 per cent of all the sales! But please do not think you will be under any obligation to buy even one little item, as that is not the case. We want YOU at the meeting, regardless of whether you buy anything or not. So try and be there, May I again stress the point that you, as an enlisted Navy wife, do not have to be invited to join this club. All you have to do is be there this coming Monday evening, at 8 o'clock.

Benton-DeGeatani Wed Monday Eve

Miss Ruth Benton and Gary C. DeGeatani were united in marriage Monday evening in the Benton home. Miss Benton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Benton of 2808 Palmello Ave. Sanford and Mr. DeGeatani is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeGeatani of Richmond, Va.

The Rev. J. B. Root officiated in the double ring ceremony before an arrangement of white gladioli, Candelabra, and fern. The bride given in marriage by her father, was attired in a ballerina length gown of white rose point lace over shimmering white satin and tulle. Her fingertip veil fell from a halo of white net trimmed in orange blossoms. A white orchid corsage completed the ensemble. Mrs. Betty Benton, sister-in-law of the bride, was the Matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a gown of lavender nylon over taffeta with a corsage of pale pink carnations. James Benton was best man. Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the dining room. Tall white tapers surrounded by orange blossoms on a white lace cloth flanked a five tier wedding cake. Cake and punch were served to approximately fifty guests. The couple is now at home in Sanford on Magnolia Ave.

Those attending: Mrs. Alfred Chiles, Jr., Mrs. Joel McGill, Mrs. W. L. Gramkow, Mrs. Benny S. Austin, Mrs. J. T. Ragdell, Mrs. Robert Compton, Mrs. Jack Martin, Mrs. Ralph Belts, Mrs. Dan Batten, Mrs. Thomas W. Brooks, Mrs. Bill Johns Jr., Mrs. Robert C. Hodges.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sparrow, Lake Winnemisset, who have recently made a most interesting trip abroad, coveting England and the continent in a three months tour, showed color slides of their trip. Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served the approximately 75 guests attending by Mrs. Robert Elmers and her committee, Dr. Elizabeth Severn, Mrs. Carl Bateman and Mrs. Marjorie Lambert. The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a beautiful flower arrangement by Miss Katherine Litch.

Mrs. S. McCain To Talk Sunday At City Hall

Final plans have been made by the Sanford Theater Guild to bring Mrs. Sara McCain, president of the Mt. Dora Ice House Players, to Sanford, Sunday Mar. 10 at 3 p. m. in the Commissioners Room at City Hall.

Mrs. McCain will present an informative talk and discussion period on the "whys and wherefores" of her very successful theater guild group. The Players of Mt. Dora have a membership of around 1000 and are well known for their roster of six to eight plays a season. Their next production "Mr. Roberts" will open Tuesday, Mar. 12-16. "The Sanford Guild feels very fortunate in being able to present Mrs. McCain, because of her association with the Little Theater for the past five years in Mt. Dora and previous to that in her home state, Illinois, a member stated. The public is most cordially invited to attend, for this promises to be a delightful and informative meeting. Refreshments will be served. There will be a board of directors meeting Mar. 3 at 7 p. m. in the City Hall. Following this a general meeting will take place at 8 o'clock. The board will present new ideas for the advancement and promotion of the Theater Guild as an organization. The public is urged to attend because these ideas will be presented for their approval.

Conring The News

Tuesday afternoon the VAIL-S wives carried their specialties in covered dishes to Hazel Rowell's for the monthly luncheon. Delicious casseroles, salads and desserts were placed on the table. Yellow and pink snapdragons adorned the buffet table, and sprays of red bouganvillea and pink camellias were placed on the card tables. There were four tables of bridge for the impromptu game which followed. Marge Martin was co-hostess with Hazel for the quadron event. Attending were Ruth Tully and her sister Marion Cox of Toronto, Canada, Lois Elder, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Elder, Dolly McAdams and her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. C. McAdams Sr., Joyce Baker, Milly Donnaud, Mike Stone, Betty McCracken, Sonja Blackwood, Marilyn Bailey, Sandy Ormann, Ely Morrow, Ethel Fitzsimmons, Berta Conn, Jackie Austin, Barbara Jacobsen, Sue Kennedy, Kitty Hoyt, Marge Hoop, Evie Williams, Berta Linker, Marge Hill, Jean Fliton.

We knew that the Follies was only a beginning for many. Last Sunday Spunk Hook and Bill Cumpson gave an exhibition dance for the Professional Woman's club. A tango and a shamba were very well received, and so it seems the two may be greatly in demand in the future.

Keep in mind that the Girl Scout Cookie sale starts Monday. All these girls would like to take advantage of Camp Tehecho, but they have to have a few more facilities first. So buy from your neighborhood scout. These cookies are extra good anyway, so I probably don't have to do much urging.

The American Red Cross starts their annual drive today. During the past year many in Seminole County have taken advantage of the services of this organization. It is interesting to note that in the recent boating accident, most of the children involved had had the water safety course offered by the Red Cross, and it paid off in the emergency, as none of these children panicked and consequently a tragedy averted. At the present time two first aid courses are in progress, and twenty adults are learning emergency care and practical uses of first aid in minor accidents. We have been very fortunate in Seminole County that we have not had a disaster in the past year requiring food, shelter and clothing for homeless sufferers, but we must always be prepared for such emergencies. Let us hope that we never do have such floods as hit Kissimmee, or a terrible hurricane, but if we do we must be ready. In addition to all of this, in the past year the Seminole Chapter has helped many enlisted men at the base with financial and travel assistance. And as we have found out in the past two weeks, Sanford cherishes its navy and will go to almost any means to keep them happy here. And there the people of Sanford have really succeeded. Am getting maudlin again, so I'll quit.

Local Jr. High B Team, Lyman Girls Take First Three Games Of Tourney

Spectacular play and excited throngs of fans highlighted the first round of the Seminole County Junior High School Basketball Tournament as it got underway yesterday afternoon with Sanford Junior High B, Lyman Junior High girls taking the first three games.

But even in defeat, fighting All Souls Catholic school won the hearts of the crowd with its tremendous bid to stay in competition. Completely outclassed the fired up Sanford Juniors' B team for the entire first half of the game. All Souls took to the shower rooms at the intermission on the short end of an 8-16 score.

In the last few weeks the mark of distinction has been on the team, and it didn't change yesterday. When play resumed it was All Souls all the way. The only time they relented was a one point give away from the foul line. They battled as they have never before battled and at the end of the game they had come so close that the cheering lasted for minutes after. But the Sanford Juniors B commanded a defense that was just too tough to cope with. The Parochials were eliminated by a close 17-13 score.

Lake Monroe showed a burst of strength yesterday afternoon in the Seminole High School auditorium-gymnasium in both the boys and girls bracket. Although dropping both games the Monroites displayed more fight than they have all season. The fast break meant their downfall in the boys game as Lyman soared to 36 points, while the Lyman defense held down the Monroe effort to 20 points; a good showing in a junior high game. The girls game was even closer. The 11-18 defeat at the hands of the Lyman Lassies came as a direct result of Lyman's accuracy. Both teams shot about the same amount, but the Lassies hit more often.

Maroons Take Big Share Of Glory With 2 On SEC Team

By BILL FERGUSON
United Press Sports Writer
ATLANTA 48 — Mississippi State's Jim Ashmore and Bailey Howell won spots on the 1956-57 United Press all-Southeastern Conference basketball team today to give the Maroons the lion's share of the all-star glory.

However, jumping Joe Gibbon from rival Mississippi stole individual honors as the only unanimous choice of the sports writers and sportscasters from the Southeast who selected the team.

Vanderbilt's Al Rochelle and Kentucky's Johnny Cox were named along with the three from Mississippi as the league's five most outstanding players. The five form a team that could account for better than 120 points per game. Gibbon, who was battling South Carolina's Grady Wallace for the nation's scoring lead, led the team in average point production as well as in vote-catching. The big senior from Hickory, Miss., scored 606 points in 20 games for an impressive 30.3 average.

The two from Mississippi State weren't far behind Gibbon. Ashmore collected 671 points for an average of 27.96 and Howell contributed 619 for an average of 23.79. Cox averaged 16.56 per game and Rochelle 17.3.

Two of the SEC's top performers will be around for a while. While Ashmore, Gibbon and Rochelle are all seniors, Cox and Howell are just sophomores.

While Gibbon was the only unanimous choice, collecting 420 points in the balloting, Ashmore wasn't much off his pace with 410 points, missing just one vote in the balloting. Howell was next in line with 360 points while Cox had 315 and Rochelle an even 300. Rochelle barely beat out Tullane's Carl Grosscup for a first team berth. Grosscup polled 275 points to lead the balloting for the second team. With Grosscup at forward on the second team is Roger Sigler of Louisiana State. High-scoring Jack Kubizyn of Alabama and Herman Thompson of Tennessee were named at the guard posts while sophomore Al Beck of Kentucky was the selection at center.

Kentucky's Vern Hatton, who was bothered by injuries much of the season, was the top selection on the third team. The third squad also includes guard Buddy Blumberg of Georgia Tech, center Bob Emrick of Florida and forwards Bobby Thym of Vanderbilt and Rex Frederick of Auburn.

Tourney Semi-Finals Starts This Afternoon

The Semi-finals of the Seminole County Junior High Basketball Tournament, sponsored by the Sanford Junior High School P-TA, will start at 3:30 this afternoon when the Lyman Lassies meet the Slavia Sweethearts in a rough-and-tumble girls basketball game between two of the best girls teams in the sections and the results could well mean the outcome of the tournament.

FSU Tennis Team Opens Campaign Against Georgia

TALLAHASSEE. — Florida State University's tennis team opens its 1957 campaign March 18 against the University of Georgia here and Coach Kiehl Pitchford admits to a lack of experienced personnel.

"We don't have too many experienced men to tackle a schedule of 16 tough matches," Pitchford says. "In fact, four of our five lettermen are sophomores."

Pitchford rates opening opponent Georgia as "very strong" and says the schedule will include matches with Michigan State, Duke, Florida and always-powerful University of Miami.

The two top men of last year, Hal Schaus and Shelby Cragh, number one and two man respectively, are graduated.

The five returning lettermen are Fred Sherrell, Lee Hester, Frank Bryan, Sonny Sellers and Jim Maddock, who is currently on the sidelines with a broken thumb.

Senior Sonny Sellers is the only one of this group who is not a second-year man. The other four lettered as freshmen last season.

Last year, the Seminole netters posted an 8-7 mark, but didn't beat either the University of Florida or the University of Miami.

Others besides the five lettermen, who Pitchford rates as top prospects include: Jack Crew, Bill Counts, Russ Rollinger, Dave Tieda, the latter of whom is a transfer from Florida who is ineligible for at least a year.

The Seminole coach believes he may have an outstanding freshman prospect in Howard Levy of Miami Beach, who has beaten several of the top men in practice.

Other freshmen who may help next year are Dick Wavero, Alex Sutor, Jerry Milland, Pete Fenn and Butch Selling.

Just read a news story about an expedition to Greenland that found some supplies left there by Commodore Terry in 1908. They uncovered an oil lamp, a sled, some milk and canisters of tea — all in good condition. Said the tea was still brisk, too.

Boys action will begin at 4:30 in the four-game schedule for this afternoon when the Sanford Junior High B team faces only once defeated Oviedo. The Sanford Juniors B gained entrance to the semi-finals by topping All Souls 17-13 in yesterday afternoon's thriller.

At 5:30 Sanford Junior High will face Oviedo in the girls bracket, and in the boys bracket Lyman will face Slavia at 6:30.

Saturday night will highlight the three-day event with a chicken pilau dinner in the Seminole High School cafeteria beginning at 6:30. Then, after all the connoisseurs of fine foods have tickled their palates, play will resume in the auditorium-gym at 8 p. m., with a battle for the girls' to get underway at 9 p. m.

The chicken pilau is an all-year-canon proposition for the very nominal fee of $1.00 for adults and 50c for students and children. Reasonableness extends to the tournament prices, too. This year the entire tournament may be viewed for only $1.00 for adults and 50c for students and children, or if the spectator chooses to attend only one session of games the prices are 50c for adults, 25c for students and children.

A capacity crowd is expected for the grand finale Saturday night.

A WINNER! Pete Thorne, Panama City, stands by the 519-pound shark that won him one of the six major awards in the 1956 statewide Rudy Schaefer Fishing Contest. Fought from the pier at Panama City Beach on Nov. 25, it turned out to be the heaviest fish entered by anyone in 1956. Fourteen people witnessed the struggle with the huge shark.

Prospect

Earlier this week, Herlong and Sens. George A. Smathers and Spessard H. Holland called on Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas to discuss the Sanford base.

In letters to the three Wednesday, Thomas said the Navy has the choice of expanding the facilities at Sanford to take care of new jet aircraft, or relocating the base. He said a recommendation was expected by June 1, after "full consideration" of all pertinent facts.

Herlong said that his second meeting Thursday with other Navy officials was "most helpful" in clarifying the situation further. He said they indicated that whether the base remains at Sanford depends largely on the "attitude" of the people of Sanford.

Prospects Good
And Herlong said that since his understanding of Sanford's attitude is that the majority viewpoint favors retention of the base there, he feels "very good about" prospects that the base will stay.

It was learned elsewhere that engineering surveys made of the Sanford base shows runways could be expanded to the east "with no difficulty whatsoever."

A spokesman in Smathers' office commented that the senator, has volunteered to send Thomas "some of the thousands of letters and telegrams" he received to give Thomas a sample of Sanford opinion. All have urged retention of the base at Sanford.

Holland, meantime, has reminded Thomas of President Eisenhower's warning on the need to keep the budget down. And in effect an aide said, Holland indicated that he personally would "give a careful look" at any Navy budget which included a big outlay for a new naval base.

Delay Another Factor
Herlong said today that an additional reason for optimism about the Sanford base is that even if a decision should be made to move the base, it would be "three to five years" before the move could take place.

He said the budget now before Congress for fiscal 1950, beginning July 1, 1950, includes no funds for creation of a new and larger base. In his letter to Herlong, Smathers and Holland Wednesday, Thomas said "full consideration will be given to such factors as economy, community relations, and the feasibility of expanding the existing station at Sanford as well as the recommendations of the survey team."

The Navy survey team is now conducting a thorough examination into all factors, he said, preparatory to giving him their recommendations about June 1.

Miss Patty Walker, Makeup and Wire Editor of The Sanford Herald, and Charlie Morrison, a member of the Advertising Department staff, conducted the members of the group on the tour.

Each member of the group was given a "slug" on which appeared one of the linotype machines.

Those taken on the tour and his or her name as turned out on members of the class were: Carol Adams, Ann Schumacher, Jeanne Markham, Vicki Ferguson, Joy Wester, Wynne Williams, Mary Dee Libbey, Sandra McKnight, Richard Scott, and Dolan Willmon Jr.

He served with the Navy here from the date of its reactivation to his discharge in 1953. His wife is the former Miss Beverly Northrup of DeLand and they have three children, Debbie who is four, Gary, two, and Glenn who is just 10 months old.

"For a young married couple, possibilities are greater here—and we know that the school facilities are the finest for our children," Luedecke said yesterday.

"We are living temporarily in DeLand until we find a place in Sanford—then we are moving over to make our home," he said.

Both Luedecke and his wife are working in the sundry store. However, he said that his wife spends most evenings with him at the store for "she has to take care of the children."

Asked about the possibilities of his business enterprise, Luedecke said "The 20th St. corner on French Ave. is right in the heart of the established part of Sanford—on the highway too—as well as the Country Club Road."

Luedecke commented "The potential here is wonderful."

SOKC Winds Up Season; Plans For Next Year

LONGWOOD — The record-breaking 1947 racing campaign just wound up last night at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club, but general manager Jerry Collins is already planning bigger and better things for next year's meet.

Despite a handsome increase in attendance and pari-mutuel handle, Collins plans to move the starting date back a month from Nov. 13 to Dec. 14. That means that the busy month of March will once again be included in the season.

Collins also plans many more improvements on the Sanford-Orlando track which he has already beautified to the tune of more than $200,000.

Last night was the biggest in track history as 5,000 fans watched $103,580. Total for the day, counting the matinee was a record $150,550. The figure for the entire season was $5,458,167 which was about 4.4 per cent over the banner 1955-56 meet $5,224,713.

Bauman said that the weight of test instruments would be so great that in the test firings the final or third stage rocket will not attain 18,000 miles an hour and establish an orbit about the earth.

J. Wildridge Sings National Anthem At Ball Games
CHARLESTON, S. C. — Back home in Indiana, Joan Wildridge's parents wanted her to have a concert singing career, but she gets a bigger kick out of singing the national anthem at basketball games.

She sings "The Star Spangled Banner" before all games in the armory at the Citadel, the military college headed by Gen. Mark W. Clark.

After each performance, Joan takes her place in the stands and nervously tears paper cups to shreds while yelling lustily for a Bulldog victory.

She's the Citadel's No. 1 feminine fan, and well she should be—she married the coach.

Joan Wildridge and Norman Sloan were classmates at Lawrence Central High School in Indianapolis, but he was too busy playing basketball to bother much with girls—even a pretty brunette like Joan—and he never asked her for a date.

Her father sang in minstrel shows and both parents wanted her to have a concert career. At the age of 13, she won a scholarship to a conservatory.

"I asked my voice teacher if it would be all right for me to be a cheer leader," she recalled. "He said I could move my mouth but not to yell. I'm afraid I couldn't restrain myself, though."

Norman first began to notice her while she was home on vacation from Chicago and he on leave from the Navy—and the concert career was doomed.

They were married in 1940 while he was playing basketball at North Carolina State College and the only singing Joan has time for these days is in church and at the basketball games. Her household includes three little Sloans—Dorothy, 6, Mike, 5, and Margaret Leslie, 17 months.

When the team recently chose its sponsor for the season, the unanimous choice was Mrs. Joan Sloan—the coach's wife.

DR. E. W. McELWEE To Talk At School's 2nd Session Tomorrow

The second session of the Sanford Garden Club's Landscape and Gardening School will be held tomorrow night at 7:30 in the Seminole County Court House court room.

The 8-week school is being held in cooperation with the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of Florida.

Speaker at tomorrow night's session will be Dr. E. W. McElwee, head of the department of Ornamental Horticulture of the Florida Agricultural Extension Service.

McElwee is a native Mississippian and received his B. S. Degree in Horticulture from the Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, Ala., and his Ph. D. Degree in Ornamental Horticulture from Ohio State University.

The Ornamental Horticulturist taught courses in ornamental horticulture at Mississippi State College, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, and at North Carolina State College.

He served on Experiment Station staffs in Alabama, Mississippi, and North Carolina. He joined the staff of the Florida Agricultural Extension Service as Ornamental Horticulturist in October of 1953 and was appointed to head the department in July of 1956.

McElwee is married and has two children.

The subject of McElwee's instruction tomorrow night will be "Developing the Landscape Plan."

It is emphasized, said Mrs. Fred Ganas, president of the Sanford Garden Club, that these instruction classes are open to the public.

Mrs. L. E. Leeper is the Landscape School chairman.

Wilson Graduates From OCS Mar. 1; Is Now Ensign

John F. Wilson, son of Commissioner and Mrs. A. L. Wilson of 2000 N. E. 1st St., arrived in Sanford Saturday following his graduation on Mar. 1 from the Navy's Officer Candidate School at the Naval Station, Newport, R. I., and commissioning as an Ensign.

To earn his commissions, the 20-year-old Wilson had to complete an intensive 18-week course of study and indoctrination covering such subjects as navigation, engineering, seamanship, military justice and naval weapons.

Rear Admiral Thomas H. Robblee Jr., USN, President of the Naval War College at Newport, R. I., presented the honor graduates with their certificates.

Members of the graduating class have been assigned to ships and stations while others will take further specialized training.

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP)—Premier David Ben-Gurion today ordered the Israeli military commander to make a swift withdrawal from the Gaza and Gulf of Aqaba areas.

The order followed a meeting between Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, commander of the United Nations Emergency Force, and Maj. Gen. Moshe Dayan, Israeli army chief of staff.

The UNFE will take over the regions from the present Israeli occupying forces.

Ben-Gurion planned to go before the parliament Tuesday to make the government's formal announcement of the withdrawal. He also scheduled another cabinet meeting after the session between Burns and Dayan.

The decision came after a harrowing weekend of crisis at home and confusion abroad over Israel's plans. A cabinet revolt against any withdrawal threatened to topple the Ben-Gurion government.

Jury Selected For Van Eeghen Trial Today

TITUSVILLE, (UP)—A jury was selected today for the murder trial of Phillip Van Eeghen, Melbourne laundry operator charged with bludgeoning to death his seven-year-old daughter.

Van Eeghen, who served with the Canadian Army during World War II, is on trial only for the death of his daughter, although the bodies of both the child and Van Eeghen's wife were found in his car parked near a funeral home.

A coroner's jury investigating the 1955 slaying concluded the victims were murdered with a sharp instrument by "a person or persons unknown." Mrs. Van Eeghen's body was slumped in the front seat of the automobile and the girl was stuffed into the trunk.

Van Eeghen was released from custody after the coroner's jury report, but was indicted by a special grand jury following investigation of the case by former Broward County Sheriff H. T. Williams.

State Prosecuting Officers Adopt Recommendations

Recommendations made jointly by Assistant State Attorney Volle A. Williams Jr., of Sanford and State Attorney Phil O'Connell of West Palm Beach were adopted overwhelmingly by the State Association of Prosecuting Officers at a two-day meeting in Tallahassee.

The association voted to ask the Legislature to give prosecuting officers and grand juries equal power with sheriffs. It also recommended that the Florida Sheriffs Bureau be changed from its present membership of five sheriffs to two sheriffs, one state attorney, one county solicitor and a citizen, all named by the governor.

The association, winding up its meeting, indicated that legislation recommended is intended to take the Florida Sheriffs Bureau under the direct control of sheriffs.

Boy Accidentally Shot By Brother

MACON, Ga. (UP)—An 11-year-old boy was accidentally shot to death by his 17-year-old brother during a bird-hunting trip near here, authorities reported today.

Jones County Sheriff Holmes Hawkins said James Venable of Gray, was fatally wounded Sunday by his brother, Judson. The boys were hunting birds on a farm about two miles south of Gray.

Hawkins said the boys apparently went into a barn to get out of the rain and a .22 caliber rifle fired while the older boy was trying to ram a cartridge into it. The bullet hit James in the chest and arm.

The boy was rushed to a Macon hospital but was dead on arrival.

tions with Israeli representatives in the United States and a letter from President Eisenhower apparently saved the day for Ben-Gurion.

Ben-Gurion was fighting desperately to keep his coalition government together. Gen. Yigal Allon, leader of the left-wing Ahdut Avoda Party, announced that "with all good will to continue the labor coalition, we will not vote for the government in this instance."

The leftist Mapam Party also said it opposes the withdrawal, but it authorized its representatives to "make their own decision."

Ben-Gurion's own Mapai Party agreed with some hesitation to support the government. But the religious parties asked to be excused from fulfilling their coalition obligations, stating they wished to vote "according to our conscience," presumably against Ben-Gurion's withdrawal commitments.

Senator Says U. S. Made Mistake Upholding Retreat

ATLANTA, (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington declared here that the United States made a mistake in supporting the withdrawal of British and French troops from the Suez Canal Zone last fall.

"Anyone knows that the best way to have kept Communists out of the Middle East was to keep the soldiers of a democratic power there," Symington told a B'nai B'rith meeting Sunday night.

"But it was largely thought the actions of this country that Britain moved 80,000 troops out of the Suez area. Now the Communists are in Egypt in force."

He said he deplored the thought of U. S. sanctions against Israel but thought they should be applied against Egypt "for its continuing aggressive actions against Israel which brought on the fight last fall."

Krider also revealed that "We will make public our future plans."

In addition to the Board of Sanford City Commissioners at the meeting it is also expected that members of the Board of Seminole County Commissioners and the full committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Armed Forces Committee will attend tonight's meeting to hear the full report.

The Armed Forces Committee of the Chamber of Commerce is headed by Andrew Carraway. Krider appeared this morning to be more confident and enthusiastic about plans for the future of the Sanford Naval Air Station.

However, he revealed that "There is a lot more work to be done before June 1 when the Secretary of the Navy expects to make his final recommendation."

J. Bralley Odham returned to Sanford last Thursday night after spending the first four days of the week in the Nation's capital conferring with the high Navy and political officials to determine what steps should be taken next in order to retain the Naval Air Station in Seminole County.

Odham praised the work of John Krider as well as the efforts of Congressman A. B. "Byrd" Herlong Jr., Senator George Smathers and Senator Spessard L. Holland.

Krider returned to Sanford Saturday and has already initiated efforts which must be accomplished in a period of less than two weeks in order to further present the Sanford and Seminole County story relative to keeping the Naval Air Station here.

"We hope to have a huge crowd at tonight's meeting," Krider said this morning.

CHICAGO CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY OF 'BANG'

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago celebrated its 120th birthday today with a bang. A composite battery from the 33rd Division National Guard artillery fired a 120-gun salute.

CHINA LAKE, Calif. (UP)—A crimson World War II Hellcat fighter roared across the Mohave Desert wasteland under a high overcast of clouds, heading for a rendezvous with death less than 60 seconds away.

Out of the clouds, screaming like its namesake, came a Navy delta-wing Demon jet fighter. For a few moments it wallowed up the intervening distance. Then—still a good two miles from its prey—it unleashed a pencil shaped missile and banked away sharply as though no longer interested in the affair.

There was a brief streak of fire and smoke as the missile left the plane and hurtled like a javelin at the fleeing dragon.

It moved so fast it literally vanished. Only a small ball of orange fire and an obscene wailing shriek marked its passing.

In two blinks of any eye the ball of fire caught up with the obsolete fighter. The red plane was blotted out for a second in a puff of white smoke. There was an explosion like a sonic boom. Then, so broken and gutted it was hardly recognizable, the plane fluttered

Nearly 300 Acres Of County Woods Burn Last Weekend

Nearly 300 acres of woodland were burned over the weekend when fires broke out in three sections of the county.

All of the Florida Forest Service personnel in the county were called out to fight the blazes which ate through woods and underbrush sending billows of smoke into the air. A pall of smoke could be seen over the entire Seminole County area as a result of the three fires.

The Florida Forest Service, from its tower in Longwood, reported that six men, two large tractors, a power wagon, and a small tractor were pressed into use Saturday afternoon to control the fires. Additional crews were called in to assist from Orange County.

One fire, which started about 11 o'clock Saturday morning, burned 117 acres near New Upsala. A crew of two Negroes working for a surveyor in the area were forced to flee from the burning trees and underbrush.

Another fire burned approximately 37 acres north of Markham and near Paola just off State Road 46.

The third area burned over the 17-92 northwest of the Movieland Ride-In Theatre near Peterson's pasture. The approximate acreage burned was 125 acres.

VIEWERS STUNNED BY SIDEWINDER

In a flat spin and struck the desert.

Some 300 newsmen and television cameramen assembled for the first public demonstration of the Sidewinder, the Navy's newest and most deadly air-to-air guided missile, were almost too stunned to applaud.

It was like watching a championship fight that ended in a knockout in the first minute of the first round. It was over almost before they realized what had happened.

This truly terrible new weapon, named for a small but deadly desert rattlesnake, has been an operational arm of the Navy since last October.

Conceived and developed by Dr. William B. McLean, civilian technical director of this big desert research, development and testing center, it is nine feet long and five inches in diameter and hits the target with the explosive force of an eight-inch naval gun.

Although the inner secrets of its inhuman electronic brain are classified, it has been described as "heat homing device" operat-

'Shine Confiscated In 2 Raids Saturday

Sheriff Luther Hobby and his crew of deputies confiscated more than 30 gallons of moonshine whiskey in two raids late Saturday afternoon.

Watching from nearby concealment, the sheriff observed the operations from two Negro homes from which the "white lightning" was sold.

Taken into custody and charged with possession of the illegal moonshine whiskey were Willie Canty whose bond was set at $5,000 and Mary Jane Wingate who drew a $500 bond.

Largest store of the illegal liquor was taken from Peter Cone's home located in Flint's Quarters at Midway. The whiskey was stored there by Willie Canty who lived directly across the street from the dwelling from which the liquor was dispensed.

David Wingate's home, next door to the home of Willie Canty, was searched. Deputy's were forced to force the door to the home when Mary Jane Wingate was pouring moonshine whiskey into the toilet.

Armed with search warrants the Sheriff and deputies found five 5-gal. jugs full; one 5-gal. jug with four gallons; one 1-gal. jug full; six empty 5-gal. jugs; 18 empty half-pint wine bottles; two half pints filled with moonshine whiskey; a funnel used to fill the bottles and other paraphernalia, in the Willie Canty operated house.

In the David Wingate home the officers found two full half pints of moonshine whiskey; four 1-gal. jugs with small amount of moonshine in them; and a half pint bottle partially filled with moonshine.

Taking part in the raid and search were Sheriff Luther Hobby, Deputy Morgan McClelland and H. S. Smart, and Constable J. Q. "Slim" Galloway.

Willie (n) Hibbard, CHIEF-TECH, USN, who joined the Navy in 1926 at the age of 18, and saw the Navy develop from coal burning ships to atomic submarines and from a strength of 60,000 to over three quarters of a million personnel, has retired after 31 years of Naval service.

Early in his Navy career, Chief Warrant Officer Hibbard entered flight school at NAS, Pensacola. As a student pilot there, he recalls training in the famous Jenny airplane in the days when the flying silk scarf and leather knee boots were symbolic of all dashing young men who dared challenge the laws of gravity. However, Mr. Hibbard did not complete flight training, but for one or more reasons turned to his sea where he spent the next 17 years of his Navy career, eleven of these years were with the "tin can fleet" aboard destroyers.

During WW II, he served with the Destroyer USS GLEVES (DD-423) which supported the U. S. Army landings in Salerno, Italy. He was a member of this same ship when it engaged and drove off five enemy E-boats in August of 1943 off Palermo, Italy.

He is a holder of the Yangtze Service Medal, American Theatre Medal, Victory Medal, European and African Medal with four stars, American Defense Medal and the Korean Medal.

Mr. Hibbard reported aboard the Sanford Naval Air Station from Fleet Activities, Yokosuka, Japan on December 14, 1953 and was immediately assigned duties as Electronics Material Officer and aviation communications officer. He has been largely responsible for the many electronic improvements accomplished aboard the SNAS during his tour.

Chief Warrant Officer Hibbard, who is married to the former Della C. Bundy of Manchester, Ky., is residing in Orlando, Florida where he plans to remain active in fields of real estate and citrus.
