Knox Says U.S., Britain Must Work Together

Bar Group Told Two Countries Must Join To Settle Post War World

Navy Is Sweeping North Atlantic

Connally Declares Lawyers Should Arouse Citizenry

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Navy Secretary Knox today told the American Bar Association in a prepared address that once the Axis is defeated the United States and Britain must pool their forces "to stop new aggression at its beginnings" in the post war world.

He added the United States must provide both the major power and the dominant leadership for the world.

The United States Navy is "already sweeping German pirates from North Atlantic and bringing to England the products of the ground we have set up here," he said.

Senator Connally (D-TX), former relations chairman, declared today that lawyers must "arouse the citizenry" to the purpose of mobilization whether it be from within or without.

Connally said he is recommending a request to Congress for authorization of the neutrality act to permit the arming of American merchant ships and their use in carrying war supplies to the Allies.

Although the President told the press conference he had no doubt that the United States would not be able to resist the Axis powers at this time to repeat the old provisions prohibiting United States vessels from carrying goods in European combat zones.

Several congressional leaders, including Chairman Connally of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, have advocated repeal of the neutrality act.

Sanford Consumers Walk Into Numerous New Federal Taxes

One-Fourth Year Licenses Go On Sale In County

Sanford consumers walked into taxes this morning when they went shopping and though a large number of store managers were not quite sure of the articles included in the federal taxes, it is expected today most of them had some definite articles they could name.

Hardest hit by the confusion of keeping up with the taxable articles were the ten cent stores carrying large supplies of cosmetics and jewelry. They have had to add one cent on every ten-cent article including such things as face powder, nail polish, face lotions, face creams and lipsticks. All types of jewelry such as bracelets, necklaces, rings, watches and clocks are taxed.

Grocery stores are little affected by the new taxes having only their matches specified as taxable at the rate of two cents a thousand.

Presently, the tax on the presence of about a cent on a five-cent box, one store manager said. Bread is up a penny, however, that is due not to taxes, but rather to the rise in the cost of the raw materials.

Department stores had little to add to the list except for coats and luggage, each taxed ten percent. Hardware stores were not sure of electrical appliances but had received instructions to collect the ten percent tax on all sporting goods such as fishing tackle and equipment for games and hunting.

Managers of liquor stores worked late last night making up an inventory of their live stock since the tax went on everything they have, to be paid within 20 days. Taxes on liquor amount to 25 per cent, which is about 25 to 25 cents on a quart.

Definite instructions have not been received by the stores selling electrical appliances through most of them agreed that the 10 percent tax will be added to radio, electric refrigerators, ranges and water heaters.

Optical merchandise has an added 10 percent tax as well as some office equipment. Typewriter and other office machines are included in the tax. Playing cards are taxed though the dealers were not sure how much.

Despite the warning given that the taxes were to go into effect today no merchant reported a boom business yesterday and most of the customers said they were willing to meet the price increase brought on by the taxes.

Theater admissions for bargain day and for the negro balcony have had two cents added to the normal 10 cents but the other small tickets remain unchanged.

Tires are taxed two and one-half cents a pound and tubes have a tax of four and one-half cents added. For a 10 by 16 tire the tax will be $1.00. One dealer stated all replacement parts for automobiles have had a five percent tax added.

Britisher Calls Us "Hard Bargainers"

LONDON, Oct. 1.—(AP)—A British newspaper today called the Americans "hard bargainers" in a column headed "The American Deal."

The article said that the Americans were "hard bargainers" in their dealings with the British in the post-war world.

The article also mentioned that the Americans were "hard bargainers" in their dealings with the British in the post-war world.

Eastern States Hard Hit By Long Drought

Water Supplies Are Reported Low And Danger From Forest Fires Great

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The Weather Bureau today reported a severe drought in much of the eastern states.

New England water supplies are at the lowest point in 50 years.

From Virginia and the eastern Ohio Valley northward there has been no measurable precipitation since early September. Wells and streams failed, and forest fires are a great hazard.

Strangely, the north-central states have had the wettest season in more than 40 years.

Heavy squalls struck the Florida keys between Miami and Key West overnight and caused the weather bureau to warn small craft of continued gusty winds.

Winds which at times exceeded 40 miles an hour hit Miami, accompanied by flurries of rain.

Small craft warnings were continued Tuesday from Power road lighthouse just south of Miami off Biscayne bay to Key West at the tip of the Florida archipelago.

Time Extended For Renewal Of Licenses

Third Of Drivers In County Have Not Complied With Law

Time has been extended for drivers who have not yet renewed their licenses to get them before being required to take examinations for them, Judge R. W. Ware said this morning after receiving a telegram from the State Motor Vehicle Department.

No indication was given as to how long the extension of time will be in effect and drivers are urged to get their licenses as soon as possible for their own protection, Judge Ware said.

Ware said that about one-third of the licenses issued last year had been renewed, with the total business for the day about 600 licenses, fewer than the 700 sold on Monday.

Though there are about one-third of the licenses yet to be sold in the county, Seminole is probably ahead of any other county in the state, Judge Ware said.

Reports from patrolmen indicate that about 50 percent have been sold in Volusia and Orange counties and less than one-third in Lake county.

Those who have not purchased their new licenses yet are reminded that they must have the old license to give the serial number, Judge Ware said.

Persons who have lost their old license will have to write to the Motor Vehicle Department at Tallahassee for the serial number.

British Cruiser In Philadelphia Yard

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The 940-ton British cruiser Manchester is at the Philadelphia Navy Yard for a general refit, it was announced Tuesday by Rear Admiral Watson, commandant of the yard.

The Manchester, commanded by Capt. H. Drew, R. M., and carrying a complement of approximately 700 officers and men, is the second British warship to visit the yard for repairs of her purpose.

Last week the Navy disclosed officially that the battleship Repulse had undergone repairs here.

NATIONALIZE INDUSTRIES
ROME, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The Italian Cabinet approved Tuesday a measure nationalizing all "enterprise" industries, which had been registered since Italy entered the war.

The first meeting of the Seminole County Council Parent Teacher Association will be held at the West Side Primary School in Sanford Tuesday morning, Oct. 1, at 10:30 a. m. Superintendent of Schools, T. W. Lawton will be the principal speaker.

Other business will include the time and place for future meetings of the association. The State Commission on the new Seminole County Public Health and Welfare program is the various schools.

Tallahassee, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The Supreme Court today decided that a state statute which provided for the seizure of property of schools within the municipal limits.

The court's decision by Chief Justice Frank Johnson, who had argued the case, was a 5-4 decision.

The case was argued in the Supreme Court on Oct. 1, 1941.

Draft Board Has Trouble Filling October 13 Quota

Since several prospective selectees for the Oct. 13 quota have enlisted in the air corps, Navy and other branches of the service, the County Draft Board has not made up its quota yet, it was announced at that office today.

K. E. B. Carter of the selective service office explained, "I always knew there was something unquiet about that '13 number' and that even though the situation has a humorous angle, there is a serious side too."

"By the loss of men to other branches of the service, it is becoming difficult to fill the quota for the selective branch," E. B. Carter, manager of the local draft board office added.

Ed Randall, vice president, presided at the meeting and introduced Mr. McKay, Fred Wilson and the Rev. W. P. Burman called attention to Church Loyalty Day, which will be observed this month.

Charles Morrison announced that next week's speaker will be Prof. Thomas F. Lambert, head of the Law School at Stetson University. His topic will be "The Battle for the World."

Edward Marshall, the first speaker, is president of the Key Club, which is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. He told of the projects of this group, one of which is securing speakers to tell of various vocations.

The club has begun to make its plans for the current school year, the president announced, and it is expected to be one of the best. He expressed the appreciation of the Key Club to the Kiwanis members for the help they have given.

Miss Dorothy Sanford was next introduced by Mr. McKay, and she described her work at the high school in teaching music. She predicted that the new system of teaching music, which has been instituted this year, will be of great benefit.

Formerly one music teacher handled all the schools, but this year Miss Leonard Whidden is assisting in the Junior High and Grammar schools.

The size of the school band and the Glee Club has been increased this year, Miss Sanford stated, and the groups are at work on their programs.

Advantages to students who take music were pointed out by the teacher, who declared that they got invaluable experience, perform a service to the community, and acquire a cultural background.

Miss Sanford displayed a trophy won by the Seminole High School Glee Club at the Music Festival in Tampa last Spring.

Orien Farrell, president of the Glee Club, and David Gatchel, vice president of the Key Club, were introduced to provide the musical part of the program.

Young Farrell sang "No, John, No" as a solo, and young Gatchel played "Yours" as a trumpet selection.

Mr. Morrison led the group singing and Harry Kidell provided the accompaniment.

Germans Lose 100,000 Men At Leningrad

Russians Say Defense Continues As They Capture Several Outlying Cities

Bombers Damage British Towns

Czech Executions By Nazis Now Total 88 Persons

MOSCOW, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The Red Army reported it had crushed the two battalions of German reinforcements sent to the southern front to replace the shattered Rumanian brigades. They said the Nazis lost 2,300 men in two days of fierce Red counter attacks. These are in addition to the German losses at Leningrad and Odessa.

Russians claim today the Germans lost 100,000 men in an assault on the approaches to Leningrad, while the Rumanians lost 160,000 in the siege of Odessa.

The defense of Leningrad continued with the Russians reporting the recapture of several outlying towns. The Finns announced the capture of Petrozavodsk, 180 miles northeast of Leningrad in East Karelia.

The Red Army consolidated positions along the southern front to defend the vital Donets Basin while the Germans say their troops are approaching Kharkov, an important industrial city, with bombers blasting railways and demolishing 33 supply trains.

Five northeast British towns causing considerable damage and a number of casualties, it is admitted by the British.

The R.A.F. bombed the German cities of Hamburg and Stettin for the second straight night and raided Cherbourg in France. The Germans continued the execution of Czechs charged with plotting against Germany to free Bohemia-Moravia. The executions now total 88 in three days, the Germans assert.

In Shanghai the Japanese military headquarters announced today their forces are withdrawing from Changsha, capital of Hunan Province, because the "purpose of the campaign is accomplished."

The Russians formally acknowledged early today the fall of Poltava, which lies 80 miles south west of the major Donets Basin city of Kharkov in the Ukraine and had been claimed on Sept. 19 by the Germans, but reported successful Red counter attacks which threw the Nazis back from Leningrad and breached their lines in the far south.

All the available information indicated in sum, that the Russians still held the initiative generally last night.

Harry Wester, And Willard Connolly Compose New Tune

Willard Connolly and Lars Harry Wester have collaborated on a new Spanish piano number with lyrics and Mr. Connolly stated today that there is a possibility of its being performed by a well-known orchestra over the radio on Nov. 10.

Claude Latham, music agent and publisher, is producing his annual radio show in Carnegie Hall with prominent singers and orchestras introducing talent in all fields of art, also new tunes which he believes to have possibilities.

In addition to "My Huckleberry" the Spanish piano number, Connolly and Wester have written the verse lyrics and music to a patriotic song, "Over There," the song Mr. Connolly declared was inspired by a poem by Allen G. Thomas of this city and the music is used for the radio show.

Wester and Connolly are well-known composers and lyricists. Wester has written several songs for the radio and stage, and Connolly has written several songs for the radio and stage.

LOST

(From The Atlantic Monthly) Ever been lost? Well, I have,
and I know What it is like to walk miles through tall trees
In fear at the strange way their branches grow;
To stop at last to comfort shaken knees;

The wood is tree-deep and a bird comes by With wings that whisper like a startled breath;
The sun is lost, too, in a twist
of sky;
And nothing is so still, this side of death.

And fear is set upon the forest lands
Because one man is lost I feel the fear
Come from the trees and take me by the hand
And fling with my heart And then I hear Somewhere — O far, but near enough for me! — An ax laid to the root of some tall tree.

German Weakness

Every American school boy knows the story of David Crockett and of how he stood up at the Alamo against the guns of thousands of Santa Anna's best troops until the ground around him was piled high with dead Mexicans and his own body was pierced with a score of bayonets. Nervous Americans might well exclaim, "If we only had men in our Army like that today!"

Well, we have. Such a man is Lt. Col. James C.
Crockett, great great grandson of the David Crockett who died at the Alamo. Lt. Col. Crockett is now stationed with the headquarters staff of the armored forces at Fort Knox.
He served in the World War and since 1937 has spent more time with troop units in Germany than any other English speaking officer.

As such he is in a position to have known intimately many high ranking German officers, to have observed their troops both in maneuvers and in actual combat, and to be able to judge most effectively their ability and their weaknesses. And he says that the German army is neither invulnerable nor invulnerable and that the American army can beat it. "German material, tactics and leadership are not always perfect. It is not composed of Superman."

"It is extremely easy to draw erroneous conclusions from battles and even from campaigns," he continues. "War is a spiritual force. The foundation for success or failure of an army must be sought and studied from the wide basis of history. A glance at history shows us that German soldiers, especially the Saxons, the Austrians and the Bavarians have broken in battle of most every war beginning with Caesar and including the late World War No. 1. During the same period Anglo-Saxon armies have been broken in battle only in a few isolated instances such as in the War of 1812 and at Bull Run in the Civil War."

"From those previous remarks please do not think that I underestimate the German army. It is a superbly armed and trained force. Its morale is high. Its leadership superior. It can only be defeated by an army equally armed, trained and led. We can defeat the German army, however, not by wishful thinking but in bloody battle. To use the golf term no army can give the German army two or three strokes per hole and hope to win. But if we start to play on equal terms we have one great advantage over the Germans. This one advantage has been sought for and praised by all great military leaders. It lies in the military character of our soldiers—it is the decisive advantage."

Tuberculosis And The War

Tuberculosis has allied itself to the war in menacing the lives and health of European people, according to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, which adds that from data now available, it is clear "tuberculosis is on the increase abroad, and that the splendid record of accomplishment in the control of the disease throughout the world is being seriously threatened as a result of war conditions."

"Even in those countries where the anti-tuberculosis campaign has been best organized, the disease is now finding fertile soil for growth," the company explains. "In less advanced countries, where the mortality from tuberculosis is normally high, the death rate from the disease is likely to mount to frightful proportions, as happened in the last war."

While the tuberculosis death rate in England and Wales in 1939 showed a slight rise among male civilians, the rise between 1939 and 1940 affected both males and females. Among males the death rate rose 13 percent, from 77.1 per 100,000 to 87.4; for females the tuberculosis death rate in 1940 was 54.7 per 100,000 as against 50.9 for 1939, an increase of 7 percent.

In Scotland the situation is said to differ little from that of England and Wales. The tuberculosis death rate increased 14 percent in 1940 as compared with 1939, and was the highest of any year since 1932. While no rise in the tuberculosis death rate occurred in Canada last year, it is significant that the rate for the first half of 1941 showed an increase.

An increase in the disease has probably also been experienced by Germany, although available statistics from it and from occupied countries are not available. In France, the Vichy government reports a sharp increase.

"The longer the war continues and the further it extends," the Metropolitan declares, "the greater will be the increase in tuberculosis, particularly on the Continent. The experience of the World War of 1914-1918 affords an indication of what is likely to occur. None of the belligerent countries escaped an increase in tuberculosis then, and practically all of the neutral countries of Europe suffered either an increase in tuberculosis or a slowing up of the prewar rate of decline."

It is a belief of the Seminoles that largely true of most of us ing out Indian River and Central Florida citrus fruits, representing about 28,000 carloads for this season.

A Herald story states there are 77 bakeries in Miami that employ 800 men and turn out 45,000 loaves a day. The "big three" are Seybold, American and Fuchs, the latter coming up from Homestead during boom days and begun by turning out 200 loaves a day.

War department records show that each week about 5,000 new men are being inducted into the U. S. army. Thus far over 2,000 such have gone from Dade county and its cities.

At the half-way point of a national safety contest, based on each hundred million miles of travel, Florida's fatalities were given as 27.8, Oklahoma was low with 13.7 and Rhode Island high with 38.2. Florida showed a 24.6 percent reduction this year over the past three year record.

An American Legion magazine story says that Cleveland, Ohio, is a good town to "stay away from—if you are a criminal" as its detective force always gets its man. That's too bad for us for the crooks all know the routes to Miami—and the "crooks" when they get there.

A French designer of tank headgear has a collection of ideas from savage nations—and from them frequently gets inspiration for her new creations. On glance at the late styles collections one she is telling the truth which leads that old cynic, Mr. Toulberry, to declare:
"Effien women folk, but use some of the money they spend on their haird for something to put in 'em they'd be plugged site better off—and so'd we."
"Have your own way, Isaac, have your own way, there are no cropper but I'm the poor clay.

"You may crush the bowl, you may break it if you will, but the odor of the roses will cling to it still." It's the same way with patriotism. On Sept. 14 German officials shot ten hostages against "sniping" of German soldiers and that night another shot barely missed a German officer, a military gar-gery was fired and three German officials assaulted in the streets of Paris.

In mid-September 35,077 pupils began the new school year in Dade county; for their care 20 nurses were employed, 40 policemen for their safety and a fleet of 48 busses to haul them;
two new buildings went into use.

School days are the formative years which determine what will be the child's success in life. Give your child every chance to develop ALL of their natural gifts—all of the qualities with which they are naturally endowed.

Czechs Say Leaders Being Shot To Induce Slave Labor

LONDON, Oct. 2.—(AP)—The conservative party today unanimously approved the Churchill decision to welcome Russia as an ally and "fortify their resistance by every possible means."

Reports from a southeast British port says Britain and Germany will call off the war temporarily in a restricted zone this weekend to exchange 1,500 prisoners each, the first of the war.

Two British hospital ships are to take them across the channel under an agreement providing for the withdrawal of weapons and warships from the zone.

While Czech courses in London said the wave of executions in Prague-Moravia was aimed at ending the transfer of German heavy industries from Bohemia, Bremen and Ruhr by reducing the population to slave labor through the use of the gas chambers.

Organization Of Badminton Club Begins

Organization of the Sanford Badminton club is getting underway, it was announced today.

The membership is comparatively small due to the fact that it is difficult to regulate the time for meetings during the summer months, it was reported by Dorothy Marshall, one of the players.

The badminton players meet at the City Hall Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week.

"Some girls play to keep 'school spirit' flaring, some to carry off 'points' and others actually to play badminton," said Walter Haynes Jr.

Upon arriving at the meeting last night Clyde Parker, president of the club, said people who were gathered to play, "The object of the game tonight is to see how many 'hits' we can score rather than how many points."

It seems there is a particular shot that is excels in and when the "bird," a small feathered object, is "set up," Parker "smashes" it with his racket into one of his "partners."

"This foolishness that goes on among the players, presents just one side of the club," Miss Marshall said. "Dot Powell placed among the best badminton players in the State Government, held her last Spring, and the local president is accomplished enough to be classed as a professional."

An advantage of the type of game is "it won't be missed" if the members are "blasted" in the City Hall and equipment is purchased from the treasury of the club.

President Parker promised that there will be tournaments to hold when the first few months the local team will spend playing in competition to meet up with the "birds" in a friendly way.

Senate Group Urges Merging Of Wire Firms

Congress Committee Reports Postal Telegraph Is In Financial Danger

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—(AP)—A Senate subcommittee on interstate commerce recommended Congress permit the merging of the American telegraph companies, adding that the Postal Telegraph is in "financial danger."

Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the interior and petroleum coordinator, today, a Senate committee's conclusion that there is no imminent shortage of petroleum products on the eastern seaboard and challenged the credibility of some of the testimony on which the conclusion was based.

"I have said that there was a shortage," the peppy cabinet officer told the committee investigating the petroleum situation, "and I mean as I have always meant, a shortage in transportation. I still say that there is a shortage."

"To me, if your reserves have dropped, and your replacements have dropped, and your transportation facilities have been cut 20 percent or more with prospects for still greater cuts, and your demand is up 10 or 11 percent—to me that means shortage."

"It doesn't mean that there isn't enough for today, but it does mean that, if this trend were allowed to continue, there would not be enough for next winter."

Ickes took sharp exception to testimony by John J. Pelley, president of the Association of American Railroads, on which the committee based in part a finding that there was no shortage of transportation facilities.

Asserting the committee's report was "entirely unjustified," Pelley said the program of the petroleum coordinator's office by creating "a wholly unjustified attitude of complacency" on the part of the public, Ickes and Pelley had given testimony "which was utterly without foundation—and I believe he knew that it was without foundation."

"Mr. Pelley," the secretary asserted, "was not only to you, but to the American people, whom he has wanted to and maliciously deceived, an object lesson of what Mr. Pelley has imposed upon you. Mr. Pelley has trifled with a serious situation."

Kidnap Plot Suspected As Man Shoots Self At Chase End

LAKELAND, Ga., Oct. 2.—(AP)—Vidosta Police Captain J. L. Murphy is seeking today to clarify whether more than one person was involved in an attack last night on former Governor and Mrs. E. D. Rivers.

Three shots were fired in the struggle.

Rivers was hit over the head with a pistol butt, and Mrs. Rivers was bruised.

Murphy said it seemed to be a kidnap plot from the notes left by a man who shot himself to death in a tourist camp after the attack on the Rivers.

Horace Bikle, in New York, Mrs. Bikle said her husband, a former school teacher, left for Georgia a month ago.

She is headed south for the body.

Murphy said the Bikle note attributed the attack to political reasons.

Pittsburgh school authorities said Horace Bikle left there in 1933 seeking a southern teaching post. His parents left for Georgia this morning, his father, Horace, 38, being a prominent business man and suburban East Ave.

Lakeland officers found letters in Bikle's trailer where he shot himself in the mouth, letters from Nazi-occupied Norway and written in Norwegian.

Air Student Burns To Death In Crash

ALBANY, Ga., Oct. 2.—(AP)—Army Aviation Cadet Albert E. Kaufman of Norfolk, Va., burned to death and Cadet Charles G. Kadel of Memphis, Tenn., was critically burned in the mid-air collision of two training planes near Turner Field Wednesday.

In the formation of 12 planes, preparing to land at the advanced air school, the two ships collided and burst into flames. Cadet Kadel bailed out and drifted down with his clothes afire. Kaufman died in his burned ship.

Lawyers In Spy Case Nearly Come To Blows

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—(AP)—An objectionable line of defense questioning the Federal Bureau of Investigation's failure to apprehend British agents while rounding up German-Americans almost resulted in a fist fight yesterday between government and defense attorneys at the trial of 16 men charged with espionage conspiracy.

In the government's corner was Assistant U. S. Attorney Haver (about 210 pounds—Fortham) and in the defense corner sat cross-examining a FBI agent was Frank T. Walsh (about 150—Frankard).

Sanfordites Visit Pine Ridge Of Lum And Abner Radio Fame

Aside from vacationing in Hot Springs, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wallhour, who have just returned from their summer's trip, were enthusiastic about a visit to "Pine Ridge" of "Lum and Abner" radio program fame.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallhour were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wallhour of Little Rock, Ark., and a group of local citizens.

The citizens of Pine Ridge are very fond of "the boys" who were born in the county and just 18 miles away, according to Mr. Wallhour, and last year when "Osmoppy" Spiers died, "Lum and Abner" sponsored the funeral, one of the local girls was the altar girl.

This set was just one of the many generous acts of the two young men, the townspeople said. They had money on hand and they gave it away.

Harry Wester Co-stars With Dinah Shore

Songstress Is Guest Star In Musical Revue At Camp

FORT BRAGG, N. C., Sept. 2.—(Special)—Pvt. Lars Harry Wester was starred with Miss Dinah Shore, Eddie Cantor's songstress who was voted the outstanding new radio star of 1941 by leading radio editors, when she guest starred in the Fifth Field Artillery Training Regiment's musical revue, "Khal Wacky."

Played before the 16,000 Soldiers undergoing their basic military training here, Pvt. Wester took part in one of the most outstanding entertainment programs produced in the Center.

Colonel Edwin C. Parker, Commanding Officer of the Center, which is the largest training center in the country, voiced his appreciation for the excellent efforts of Pvt. Wester and other members of the cast. The show was entirely original and was written, produced and staged by the enlisted personnel of the Fifth Regiment, commanded by Lieut. Colonel David S. Duggett.

On the morning following the show, Pvt. Wester and the cast conducted Miss Dinah Shore through their training area and gave her a first hand taste of army life. Before leaving by train for New York City, she was given a "good-bye" party by the enlisted men.

1,000,000 See Dodger Parade

Brooklyn went slightly mad as more than 1,000,000 persons turned out for a victory parade for the borough's beloved Bums, the Dodgers. The battle cry was "Beat the Yanks." Riding in the leading car are Larry MacPhail (left), Dodgers' president, and Leo Durocher, manager.

Two Spider Monkeys Added To Attractions On Island

Two more "kings of swing," the spider monkeys, have been added to Monkey Island to bring the populace up to 20 and when that congregation gathers for meal time they produce more laughs than a barrel of monkeys.

The two new monkeys are the Golden Spiders acquired by the zoo several weeks ago from an importer that had just brought them from Central America. Up to now they had been kept in a cage on the "main drag" of the zoo until they could become accustomed to the other animals.

One of the new monkeys is shy but the other can always be seen doing a prance dance on the guy wires leading from the upright ladders. At meal times the monk gets "in the groove" when he swings down for dinner.

When the two Black Spiders were put on the island several weeks ago they were given a ducking on the mast by the Rhesus monkeys, but they are getting along all right now. "Chukkie," named by the keepers because of the cucking manner she has of carrying on a conversation, is usually trucking around the island in a jitter bug crouch.

Preacher, one of the older spider monkeys, prefers the more dignified stance in his prancing. With both arms in a "stick 'em up" posture he arches his back and steps around with the grace of a waiter.

The real jitter bugs of the island are Rhesus monkeys. They are always in motion, doing the shag, "lindy loop" and other dainty steps of the "light fantastic."

Mrs. Miley Dies Of Bullet Wounds

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 2.—(AP)—Mrs. Fred Miley died of bullet wounds Wednesday two hours after the burial of her daughter, Marion Miley, the golf star, who was shot to death early Sunday in their apartment at the Lexington Country Club.

Mother and daughter were shot, apparently by burglars, but under circumstances so strange that detectives good for hours at St. Peter's Catholic church, watching the thousands who went to Marion's funeral. ### Nazis Hang 170 Persons In Hungary, Belgium And Old Czechoslovakia

An armed Greek uprising in Bulgaria-occupied Macedonia was reported today as German firing squads and hangings took the lives of 170 anti-Nazi conspirators in Hungary, Belgium and old Czechoslovakia.

The Swiss telegraph quoted Budapest dispatches as saying the Greeks' attempted revolt was put down by German military forces Monday.

Paul Colette, youthful Frenchman, was condemned to death for the attempted assassination of Pierre Laval Aug. 28 by a French anti-treason court in Paris.

The tri-power conference in Moscow closed two days ahead of schedule, with the agreement that practically every Soviet supply request would be filled by the U. S. and Britain in return for Russian raw materials.

W. Averell Harriman, head of the American delegation, said the agreement "adheres to a resolution of three governments to establish after the final annihilation of Nazi tyranny, a peace which will enable all countries to live in security."

The Soviets claim a Nazi glider-plane attack, apparently on Crimea was repulsed and they said Russian defenders east of Dnepier were repulsed by German drives.

The Russians reported today that German glider fliers heading up the offensive in the Black Sea area—presumably that directed at the Crimea—were being shot down, and it appeared that the Nazis were repeating the technique used by storm troops in the Mediterranean.

The Germans and their Finnish and Italian associates claimed victories at both the far northern and southern ends of the Russian battle line while Moscow intimated that both the Leningrad and southern fronts were being stabilized with heavy continuing losses for the invaders.

Snow was reported falling in the southwest.

The Finns announced the capture of Petrozavodsk, capital of Soviet Karelia on the isthmus that narrows about 180 miles north-east Leningrad and an important point on the railroad running from that city to the Arctic port of Murmansk, which still is in Russian hands.

Red casualties, said the Finnish communique, were heavy and a mass desertion by Soviet officers also was claimed. Although it was stated many of the Red army's political commissars killed themselves rather than be captured.

As to the south, the Germans reported that their own forces had captured several Russian batteries east of Dnieperopetrovsk, on the line of the Nazi advance toward the industrial Donets River basin, and that to the north of that action 45 Soviet tanks had been destroyed and the remaining units of a force totaling 80 had been put to flight.

A German-Italian encirclement northeast of Dnieperopetrovsk was said in Berlin to have knocked out three Russian divisions; the Italians went a little further and said they had captured 7000 Red prisoners and were dissolving the last Soviet resistance in a large pocket somewhere east of the Dnieper River.
