Bullet Riddled Body Of Bomb Suspect Is Found Suspended From Tree

Victim Had Been Taken From Officers Who Had Arrested Him As Plant City Bomber

TAMPA, Fla., April 28.—(AP)—The bullet riddled body of John Hodar, suspected of the Plant City bombing, was found swinging from a tree in an oak hammock 10 miles northwest of Plant City early today by N. M. Davis, a woodcutter, according to Sheriff R. T. Joughlin.

The body was clothed in a cheap black alpaca coat and white dress trousers. A few minutes after the officials reached the place near the discovery flushed through the countryside, and before the body had been removed hundreds of persons arrived in automobile.

The body was found in a natural grotto surrounded by live oaks, tulip trees and the dense undergrowth. The spot is secluded and rarely visited, the road leading thereto used only now and then by woodsmen.

Hodar was falling as Mr. Watson selected the scene, early this morning, the men finding about seven men, including himself, Dr. Chapman, G. C. Tolson, R. E. White, S. E. Sanford and M. L. Johnson.

The jury assembled in the cleared space beneath the tree and passed at the body. A few minutes after they adjourned the officers took down the body and Dr. Meighan went through a post mortem examination, finding nothing but "punctures" this man dead.

Hodar was believed to have been killed by a group of eight men who, according to Deputy Sheriff Robinson, took the prisoner away last night while the officer was on duty with him at Bartow to safe keeping. Hodar will be arrested here later, it was decided.

Devin, who lives about a mile from the scene of the lynching, descended the body as he entered the woods to cut railroad ties. It was suspended about five feet from the ground, the sheriff quoted him as saying.

The woodcutter said he came in a nearby telephone and notified the sheriff, who immediately called State Attorney C. B. Parkhill, turned to the phone. A coroner's jury was impaneled by A. H. Watkins, justice of the peace. After viewing the body, adjourned to meet at Plant City this afternoon.

Dr. C. C. Meighan examined the body and reported it had been riddled countless times with rifle bullets, and three shots with shotgun shells, one having hit and another just behind the head.

Leak In Gas Pipe Has Disastrous Effect

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 28.—(AP)—Natural gas, which exploded in the north Oklahoma oil field, which caused the death of the mighty wild mustang, Mary, last Saturday, recently attracted wide attention, today was blamed for the death of a mother and two children, and probably total loss of a third child.

Last night Mrs. H. E. Shipman, 35, wife of a prominent lawyer, gathered her family together at the supper table. But the house gas burst through the pipe line of the Pioneer Gas Company. The pipe burst under the heavy pressure, and investigators said the contents poured into the Shipman kitchen. It was ignited by the kitchen range and a terrible explosion occurred.

Langley Bill Approved

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—The House military committee today granted a subcommittee additional day in which to consider a new bill for disposal of ships.

Millard Smith Named

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 28.—(AP)—Millard B. Smith, state attorney of Seminole and Marion counties, today announced his candidacy for re-election to the June 3 Democratic primary. Mr. Smith is a member of the Titusville, where he maintains offices. He was elected state attorney in 1924, and has since served in the same office. In conducting his campaign, Mr. Smith said, "I am supported by the people of Central Florida and Brevard counties, and I hope to maintain my position in the next election of 1929."

SERS Mistake

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(AP)—S. E. Smith, president of the Senate of the Southern Conference, of North Carolina, Ark., yesterday, failed to appear in court July 1, as he had agreed to do, to answer a motion for removal of the state attorney of the Twenty-third Circuit.

Sharon Delivers Principal Speech Honoring South's Heroes

Southern Memorial Day services were held in Sanford, Saturday, under the auspices of the Negro Howard chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy. The colored soldiers were buried in the grand shell at the Missionary Field when Judge James G. Sharon delivered an address honoring the soldiers of the Confederacy.

The program consisted of a short service, talk, the singing of a solo, a solo, a hymn, "Dixie," and "America the Beautiful." The speaker present and the closing talk given by Mrs. B. P. Herbig, a former National Guard, went into conference with other officials to make plans to cope with the situation.

After the services the members of the U. D. C. went to the Sanford cemetery where they placed flowers in the graves of all colored men who died in World War I. They were very excited and full of pride.

George Shadley addressed them in full as follows:

"Mamie, President, Daughters of the Confederacy, Herbie, the south, and the Negro citizens."

"We have assembled here today to commemorate the soldiers who gave their lives in the defense of their country during the war of the world war, when the world was at war."

Refuse To Obey Commands Following Withdrawal Of Police Reserve Force

COLUMBUS, O., April 28.—(AP)—Unruly convicts in the idle house at Ohio Penitentiary renewed their revolt again this afternoon, after 150 Columbus police reserves had been taken from the prison yards. The convicts refused to obey orders of guards and refused to listen to Deputy Warden J. C. Woodard, who heretofore had held their confidence.

When it became evident that the inmates in the white city infirmary had declined to assume their passive resistance, camped against Warden Preston Thomas, whose removal they demanded, Capt. R. S. Bodenrich of the Ohio National Guard went into conference with other officials to make plans to cope with the situation.

The Rev. Father Albert O'Brien, Catholic chaplain, who came from the idle house after the revolt was removed, said the situation was worse than it had been. The convicts are very excited and full of pride.

New York Giants Are Still Leading National League Teams To Upset Early Dope

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.

John McGraw and his New York Giants, once more are starting out to upset the baseball dope. The Giants suffered severely from bad spring training weather and seemed due for a lot of early beatings. Whereupon they stepped to the front by winning seven successive games and now are the only undefeated team in either major league.

The Giants have shown everything calculated to win a pennant. The first three games were close, but effective pitching sometime telling gave them the edge. Then they started hitting and still retained the other points of importance. Four Giant pitchers have gone the full of time in the last games while the other three could easily have lasted.

The Brooklyn Robins became the fourth victims of the New Yorkers' temerity as the New Yorkers' hit the deliveries of Bill Clark in John Morison's 11, solo blows which produced a 10-1 victory. Andy Ross added the touch to the triumph by driving a home run with the bases full in the ninth inning. Fred Fitzsimon was effective except when Wright and Herman got to him for four runs.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, chief threat to Giant supremacy in the National League, continued their brilliant progress by defeating the champion Chicago Cubs, 9 to 5 for their seventh victory. Pittsburgh, so far, has lost but one of nine. The Pirates hit Guy Bush and his four successors yesterday for 17 hits that were good for 21 bases while French and Swayze kept a dozen Cub hits off their record.

The Boston Braves, themselves broken out as heavy hitters when Burleigh Grimes made his debut as a hub pitcher, and made 17 blows good for a 13-1 victory over Philadelphia, Grimes receiving great support from his mates that and in the field and earned it by limiting the Phillies to nine hits.

The St. Louis Cardinals used their blow effectively, concluding them with seven walks, to beat Cincinnati, 10 to 5. Washington's surprising Senators continued to strengthen their hold on the top ranks of the American League ladder by defeating the world champion Philadelphia Athletics for the third time in succession, 11 to 6. The champions never were by the running after the first inning as the senators drew Wallberg from the mound and continued hitting against Eshbeck.

The Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Browns produced some curiously result in a head-to-head battle that went to Chicago, 8 to 7, to 1 score. A race of which had stood for 29 years without being seriously threatened was equalled in this game when Clemy, White Sox, won.

The Detroit Tigers broke a losing streak of seven games dating by hammering Wes Ferrell of Cleveland for five runs in the fifth inning and taking the last game of the series from the Indians, 7 to 1. Nineteen hits by the Boston Red Sox proved better than Babe Ruth's armfuls out of the box, although the home team with two on base in the ninth inning and the Sox galloped 6 to 7 victory over the New York Yankees.

Local Stamp Club To Display Exhibit In Window Of Store

Members of the local stamp club will display various selected from their collections in the show window of the business formerly occupied by the McKinnon-Mark Wood Company, on First Street.

Wednesday and Thursday, C. R. Mason announced today, the purpose of this exhibit, Mr. Mason pointed out, "are to show in what the townspeople features of the hobby of philately, and to give the club members further experience in the arrangement and display of postage stamps."

The Eola Stamp Company, which has headquarters in the First National Bank building, has also agreed to assist in making the exhibit a success by offering a special display of first day air flight covers, according to Mr. Mason, who said that the exhibits may be composed of three types: first day covers, United States or foreign stamps on covers, or United States or foreign stamp off covers.

Members of the Stamp Club may make from one to 10 entries in the exhibit covering any of the foregoing subjects, the sponsor decided, but each must be taken to the office of Mr. Mason on West First Street no later than Wednesday morning. Both covers and stamps off cover must be mounted on a standard size sheet of paper, 8 x 11, or they may be displayed in a frame wired picture frames if desired. Mr. Ma-

CUBS SHOW NEED FOR HORNSBY TO HIT OLD STRIDE

League Champs Handicapped By Numerous Injuries This Season

By Paul Dickland
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO, April 28.—(AP)—The first two weeks hardly can be reckoned seriously in a major league baseball campaign, but this year they have definitely established the fact that Joe McCarthy's Cubs will have to recover quickly and do some great hustling if they are to repeat their national title champion ship.

Injuries have joined the team from the start, and the red and cream from right Rogers Hornsby will have come from the poor growth of his right heel and his batting may be missing from the team for a month and possibly the rest of the season despite the cheerful reports of examining physicians.

Lester Bell, a big cub veteran in the attempt to plug up the weak third base post, still is suffering from a lame arm and, too, may not get in any more games than the "Rajah." Added to that, the pitching staff is far from ready and the big block of promising rookies obtained over winter to bolster the pitching staff, is not so promising now.

"Added to all these 'search' developments has been the break in the weather. Of all the teams in the National League, the Cubs need stalling time. Yet they are the only ones in the circuit to be denied it. They have played every day since the season opened and today rest on the red side of the ledger with six wins and seven lost.

Even Manager McCarthy is dubious about Hornsby's quick return to the lineup. In the meantime the "Rajah" has been used as a pinch hitter, his home having been very noticeable. With his usual optimism he advised the press back "very soon" that he is almost ready, but did not dare remain on the bench with the Cubs staring at that extra punch he would add to the team when he would be back again when a run or two meant the difference between defeat and victory.

Another operation on the heel would not surprise anyone familiar with his ailment. And another operation would mean his definite absence for two months and probably McCarthy's slender hope of another championship.

Promulgated enough, the world tries to think with the Athletics to have left imprinted on the team. All last season, the Cubs were deadly against youth pitchers. "Lettie" Grove of the Athletics topped that habit and now the Cubs do not appear able to win from left leaders.

But Manager McCarthy and friends are fighting and taking the tact philosophically. "It looks like we are getting all the bad breaks now," said Marie Joe, "but we had start usually like us a great finish. Anyway, even deficit in 13 parts against teams like St. Louis, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh isn't so bad for our condition. Our pitchers aren't quite ready yet, but we shouldn't worry too much. We lost several games by bad breaks, too."

On another subject:

In making the announcement of the exhibit which will take place tomorrow and Wednesday, the supervisor of the classed invited everyone to attend. G. B. Ross who is one of the leading stamp collectors of the city, will serve as judge prior to exhibition.

home, and love of country.
"Breath there a man with such a spirit,
Who never to himself hath said,

My own, My native land!

"The memory of the dear departed dead which we today commemorate giddily poured out those young hearts' blood for love of their native land. They laid down their lives that their country might live. It was the Master Teacher, Jesus, who commanded in a little parable when he said: 'Greater love hath no man than that he lay down his life for his friend.' Their country was their friend, and they laid down their lives for their friend. Greater love no man."

"These dear departed spirits who now forever stand in immortal battalions of sacrifice heroes because deserve to be held in highest regard of love of country which enabled them to do so."

"Our nation, so long enduring which gave its people with the noble deeds of its martyred sons, nation deserves to survive when it forgets the sentiments of love and loyalty which animated those who defended it when imperiled by an invading enemy."

"Memory calls to us to measure up to that high standard of citizenship and loyalty which they left us as a heritage. The battle flags are furled. Beautiful flowers now bloom upon the bloody, gory battlefields of the past. Feathered cherubs sing their sweetest songs where once the grisly screams of the death shell echoed and re-echoed upon the air. The forms of our noble heroes are cradled in mother earth's soft lap, but their spirits still live, as a noble son of the South land once said.

"It cannot be that earth is man's only abiding place. It cannot be that our life is a mere bubble cast up by eternity to float for a moment upon its wave, and then sink into nothingness. Else why is it that the glorious aspirations that leap like angels from the temple of our hearts are forever wondering unsatisfied? Why is it that all the stars that hold their festival around the midnight throne are set above the grace of our limited faculties. It never ceases us with its unapproachable glory, and finally why is it that bright forms of human beauty, presented to our view are taken from us leaving the thousand strains of afflictions to flow back in alpine torrents upon our hearts? No, there is a land where the rainbow never fades, where the stars will be spread out before us like islands. But slumber in the sea, and where the beautiful beings which now pass before us like shadows will stay in our presence forever?"

"It was that peerless leader of the Confederacy, Stonewall Jackson, who said when dying, 'Let me pass over to the other side of the river and rest in the shade of the pines like a huge mountain, above the undulating plains of human pain.'

"Let us here now—highly resolve that we will rededicate ourselves to the high ideals of patriotic devotion which they lived and upheld to us; that though we may be in war, there will not have died in vain. That Christian leaders like Christian clergymen, unselfish, devoted to their country, faithful to duty, love, honor, try always to gold shall surpass, but shall live and burn in the hearts and minds of all true Americans."

"He placed every virtue of the other great commanders without their vices. He was a foe without hate, a friend without treachery, a soldier without cruelty, a victor without avarice, a man who will not murmur in victory. He was a public officer without vice; a private citizen without wrongs; a neighbor without reproach; a Christian without hypocrisy; and a man without guile. He was a Caesar without his ambition; a Napoleon without his tyranny; a Washington without his pride."

"It is to our noble dead soldiers, the heroes of a lost cause, that this Memorial Day is dedicated. We, the heirs of this noble heritage, owe to them a debt of infinite gratitude, and to meet his eyes high up in heaven to catch its summing plenitude."

"He placed every virtue of the other great commanders without their vices. He was a foe without hate, a friend without treachery, a soldier without cruelty, a victor without avarice, a man who will not murmur in victory. He was a public officer without vice; a private citizen without wrongs; a neighbor without reproach; a Christian without hypocrisy; and a man without guile. Winter Visitor Gives Party On Wednesday

Rainbow colors were outstanding in the decorations and party appointments used when Mrs. F. A. Easther of Bishop, Wis., who has been wintering at the Valder Hotel, entertained a number of her friends with a bridge party Wednesday afternoon in the sun room of the Valder Hotel. A fashion of gaudy, tapis, batik and other Spring flowers, arrangement with ferns in vases and bowls about the room where the ladies were placed. Tables and bridge accessories reflected the color motif.

After several桥牌 games were added and prizes awarded, high score prize, a novelty pocketbook, was given to Mrs. G. L. Lanier, while second high score, two decks of bridge cards, was presented to Mrs. H. J. Holly. Mrs. J. G. Shapton received a glove vanity case for having third high score.

At the tea hour the tables were cleared and centered with a natty swan vase filled with the flowers and ferns, while creating a soft glow about the tables were small lighted candles. Assistance in serving the refreshments was Mrs. John R. Macdonald.

Those present were Mr. G. L. Lanier, Mrs. B. J. Gillis, Mrs. H. J. Lewis, Mrs. A. R. Fort, Mr. J. G. Shapton, Mrs. H. D. Cawell, Mrs. L. E. Household, and Mrs. C. E. Schindler. 8 Spectators At Airship Exhibit Killed In Crash

Age, 35.

Authorities said today they learned from some of the spectators near the accident that one of the reasons for selecting the site to view the exhibition was that an admission charge was made at the field proper.

Spectators in the crowd of several thousand which had surrounded the field proper said the plane was heading for a landing at an elevation of only 10 feet when it started suddenly on the ground gathered on the embankment. At Gomber, manager of the Flying organization which sponsored the exhibition with the American Legion post, said he believed the plane struck a downward current. "It was over so quickly I could n't tell what happened," said Gomber. He requested a physical examination after the accident and said doctors found him to be in condition to operate a plane.

Gomber had taken up the plane alone three times, he said, to become accustomed to a brisk wind from the south. He then took up two passengers and it was on his return from this flight that the crash occurred. He had planned to follow the passenger trips with a series of stunts.

Four of the victims were decapitated by the propeller of the plane and the others were crushed by its weight, Gomber said. The spectators had been warned several times not to stand near the embankment.
