Boy Faces Surgery

Prayers and well wishes of the entire community will travel with 12-year-old Kenneth Harriett Saturday afternoon when he flies to Cincinnati, Ohio.

For Kenneth, son of Fire Lt. and Mrs. George Manning Harriett Sr., faces a delicate, eight-hour-long liver operation.

A Sanford surgeon, who conducted an exploratory operation Oct. 13, has arranged for surgery and hospitalization without cost. The surgery will be performed Tuesday or Wednesday by the professor of pediatrics of the University of Cincinnati medical school at Children's Hospital.

It was explained the operation is most rare and has been performed only a few times in medical centers in the United States. Medical students will witness the surgery.

The jet flight from Orlando to Cincinnati Saturday afternoon by Kenneth and his parents has been financed by the Firemen's Benefit Fund. Lieutenant Harriett has been a member of the Sanford fire department for 21 years.

Kenneth has been working after school—he attends Sanford Junior High—as a paper carrier with his mother, associated with The Sanford Herald for the last six years.

Rev. C. C. Dees Jr., of Christian Missionary Alliance said that "Kenneth is a model boy" and that he already is saving from his paper route profits to finance his way through Toccoa Falls Bible College at Toccoa Falls, Ga.

John Krider, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, has arranged for Lieutenant and Mrs. Harriett to reside in a private home only two blocks from the hospital during their stay in Cincinnati.

The Herald's proof reader, Mary Frances Davis, saved us from being clobbered by Mr. McKinnon of the new Silver Dollar shoe store Wednesday. Story about the store's opening read that McKinnon had 3,000 silver dollars to give away with each purchase of shoes. Verily, it was corrected and fast to read 3,000 silver dollars to be given away, one with each pair of shoes.

First PTO-sponsored movie will be shown at Longwood Elementary School at 2 p.m. Saturday. A full-length Abbott and Costello comedy, followed by cartoons, make up the program. All children of the area are invited to attend and a group of adults will be on hand to chaperone.

Third Gold Award for 100 per cent participation in the United Fund has been presented to Midway Elementary School. Principal W. L. Hamilton turned in cash and pledges totaling $137 from the teachers and other personnel.

Mayor Tom McDonald isn't missing a trick in his campaign for re-election. Bert Hollingsworth reported this morning that two of his children returned from a "trick or treat" four Halloween night, dumped their loot from the bags on the floor and there was a McDonald campaign card, put into the bags by "himself—the Mayor." Tom said today he can't afford to miss a trick in this campaign.

Navy Units Ordered To Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Pentagon today ordered U. S. forces in the Pacific to start moving toward South Viet Nam to protect American lives if necessary.

The forces involved are primarily part of the powerful 7th Fleet, but might also include some air and even ground units, it was reported.

Assistant Defense Secretary Arthur Sylvester said the orders were "purely precautionary, to protect American lives that may be endangered by the revolt of marine and air force units against the regime of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Every Little Drop Counts

NEW YORK (UPI) — Armand D'Amico, city commissioner of water supply, gas and electricity, has taken another step in the campaign to conserve New York's dwindling water supply.

D'Amico said Thursday that he was having his official limousine washed with a bucket of water rather than a hose.

What's it like in a world where there is nothing but a sun and a smile?

"Clean, wholesome and healthful," declared Blazing Morover, nudism provides a physical, mental and spiritual panacea for the some 200 members of the resort, the young naturalist asserted.

Blazing, who illustrated his talk with a color film of the resort, told the Jaycees a nudist is "not a person who takes his or her clothes off, but just puts them on when necessary." And clothing, he contends, is not necessary most of the time.

Why take your clothes off? We ask any cover up? We have nothing to hide," said Blazing. "The body is a wholesome thing. Comfort is our main concern."

How about nudism and sex? "Nudism and sex are quite far apart. They don't go hand-in-hand as most people think. There is no sex problem at the resort. A person's thinking controls his body reactions. His imagination is excited by the unknown. At a nudist resort there is nothing left to the imagination."

The resort's members and guests have the choice of wearing or not wearing clothes, Blazing explained. "Comfort is our main aim, and if a person is more comfortable wearing clothes, he may keep them on."

Won't the approaching cold weather affect the resort's activities? "Well, that is a problem," smiled the nudist.

Library Fund OK Expected

City Commission is expected to approve Monday evening the expenditure of $14,000 earmarked for the remodeling of the old post-office building into a public library.

Mayor Thomas S. McDonald said this morning the issue is on the agenda Monday evening and he anticipates the Commission will approve it.

He explained the issue had been held in abeyance since the City desired to sell the old post-office property and erect a new public library building.

However, he added, Congressman A. S. Herlong Jr. has advised the U. S. General Services Administration has ruled the City must use the property as a public library for 20 years before title will be passed.

LONDON (UPI) — National Chamber of Trade President James Parke said today that "the ultra-modern miss dresses to kill and is reputed to cook the same way."

Why Dress? Nudist Asks Sanford JCs

By Frank McAriffe

"Nudity needs no apology. This is the slogan through which the director of a Daytona Beach nudist resort Thursday exposed the 'bare facts' of 'life in the raw.'"

At Blazing, director of Sunny Sands Resort at Daytona Beach, gave a talk before the Sanford Jaycees which had all but one noticeable effect on members and guests. It made them aware of their own clothing.

What's it like in a world where there is nothing but a sun and a smile?

"Clean, wholesome and healthful," declared Blazing. Moreover, nudism provides a physical, mental and spiritual panacea for the some 200 members of the resort, the young naturalist asserted.

Blazing, who illustrated his talk with a color film of the resort, told the Jaycees a nudist is "not a person who takes his or her clothes off, but just puts them on when necessary." And clothing, he contends, is not necessary most of the time.

Fires, Mishaps Take Heavy Halloween Toll

United Press International

Halloween, a time of screams and shrieking ghosts for millions of imaginative boys and girls, turned into an evening of real terror Thursday night.

Most little hobgoblins and junior witches scampered about safely on their "trick or treat" rounds.

Others never came home. An explosion ripped through a huge section of a coliseum at Indianapolis, Ind., where thousands of parents had taken their children for a special Halloween "treat"—a visit to an ice show.

Massive chunks of concrete and tiny bodies flew through the air, showering the glittering ice with dead and injured. At least 67 persons were dead and 331 injured.

Another explosion shattered a drug store filled with shoppers and children dressed in Halloween costumes at Marietta, Ga., killing seven persons and injuring others.

The blast came as hundreds of persons gathered for an informal Halloween parade.

A speeding car at Chattanooga, Tenn., swerved out of control on a street corner and slammed into four young girls making "trick or treat" rounds. Two of the girls, aged 6 and 11, were killed. The other two were seriously injured.

County Escapée Does It Again

An escapee from a county jail work gang almost got himself captured early today . . . and escaped again after wrecking his automobile.

Gerald Fraley, of French Avenue, escaped from a work gang Oct. 11.

About 2 this morning Deputy Sheriff William Chandler and J. V. Lee noticed a car with bad headlights approaching them on Old Lake Mary Road. They signalled but the driver sped away and they gave chase. The car left the road near 25th Street and overturned several times. The driver escaped.

The sheriff's department's new mobile crime laboratory was called to the scene and fingerprints revealed the wrecked car was registered to Fraley.

16,608 Eligible To Vote In Seminole

A total of 16,608 registered voters in Seminole County are eligible to cast ballots in Tuesday's special election, it was reported this morning by Mrs. Camilla Bruce, supervisor of registration.

Precinct 1— 1300 French Avenue; 2— Scout Building,

Lake Monroe; 3— Home Demonstration Building, East 25th Street; 4— Altamonte Springs fire house; 5— Oviedo Town Hall; 6— Geneva Community House.

Precinct 7— Old school house, Chulohota; 8— Goldenrod Community House; 9— Longwood Town Hall; 10— Lake Mary fire house; 11— Altamonte Community House; 12— R. E. Pervis real estate office, Forest City.

Precinct 13— Longwood elementary school; 14— Lyman School 23rd St.; 15— Shrine Club, 101 South Lee Avenue; 16— Florida Power lounge, Bear Lake; 17— Casselberry fire station; 18— Farmers' auction market, Highway 17-92 south of Sanford.

Precinct 19— Seminole High School 23rd St.; 20— Upsala Church educational building, southwest of Sanford; 21— St. Johns Builders office, 509 French Avenue; 22— Rich Focal Plan, 101 West 13th Street; and 23— Prairie Lake Legion Hall.

All voters in the county will pass on three state constitutional amendments, a county question relative to the university site, elect three of four candidates for school trustee, pass on a 2.75 millage for the school district and a one mill levy for the school building and bus reserve fund. The two school millage levies are the same as in the last two years.

Sanford voters will choose a City Commissioner between incumbent Thomas S. McDonald and Earl Higginbotham. Incumbent A. L. Wilson is without opposition.

VOTING MACHINES are being moved into 23 precinct polling places in readiness for Tuesday's special election. Representatives of both parties were present Thursday afternoon when Registrar Camilla Bruce inspected the machines. From the left are Mrs. R. E. Higgins, of the registrar's office; W. A. Adams, custodian of the machines; Mrs. J. D. Morrison, of the Democrats; Mrs. Bruce the registrar; and City Allen, of the Republicans. (Herald Photo)

North-South Lane To Be For Emergencies

Contract has been awarded in the amount of $365,430 for the repair of the north-south runway at Sanford Naval Air Station, it was announced today by Capt. J. Henry Eiter, division director of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, Charleston, S. C.

Captain Eiter reported the contract has been awarded by the Ballenger Paving Company, Inc., of Greenville, S.C., lowest of five bidders.

Capt. Robert M. Waga, S. C. AS command officer, said the 6,000-foot north-south runway has been unusable for some time because of its state of disrepair. It crosses at right angle the east-west runway.

The north-south runway is to be repaired now for use in emergencies. The present 6,000-foot length is insufficient for the giant jet bombers except when prevailing winds are parallel to the runway. Captain Waga stated.

Present plans call for the extension of the north-south runway to 10,000 feet within a year or so, when it will become the primary runway for the air base.

Ballenger will add 1,000 feet of concrete to the north-south runway, replacing present asphalt, and also must provide new wearing surfaces. Captain Waga said all work is to be completed by June 29.

Lt. Col. T. J. Doyle, public works officer at NAS, has been designated by Captain Eiter as resident officer-in-charge of construction to administer and supervise the project.

Overall plans for expansion at Sanford Naval Air Station call for the expenditure of more than $15 million. However, this is yet to be approved by Congress and the funds appropriated.

Look Up And Live

See stories have a great fascination for many people. Even the stories of our modern vices of the sea still leave room for the romance of adventure that appeals to those of any imagination at all.

For we can understand the simplicity of sailing in a few years ago and especially during the time of the sailing ships. When we read stories of them many of us can see ourselves riding the bounding waves and rigging the sails. The one job that would have been difficult for most of us was the one that galled the men of yesterday. Climbing the ladder to the crow's nest was supposed to be one of the most frightening jobs for a new man on the old sailing vessels.

It is said that when a young boy first "signed on" and was given the task of climbing the narrow rope ladder to the sways and apparently fragile perch so high above the ship, he was inclined to look down and thereby be seized with panic as dizziness possessed him. The old sailors, hardened as they were, realized the peril and cried out, "Look up, look up."

For those of us who have had good earthly fathers, we can derive much from knowing

God as Divine Father. Can you recall having fear about something in your life, as a child, and then having it dispelled when you realized that your father was nearby? One of the finest compliments a child can pay his father is to tell him that he feels secure and unafraid when he is around.

When you are tempted to let yourself be overcome with fear think of your God as your Divine Father and the peace that comes will be most gratifying. Of course, to do this you must look up to God. If you have only the "horizontal look" then you constantly look out toward things of the world where you never experience salvation, but when one takes the "vertical look" he finds a different way and quality of life. When we look into His face we know that we can count on Him.

One day an 85-year-old man was talking with his 90-year-old wife who was still his sweetheart after a great number of years of marriage. They discussed their years of happiness together and in the conversation the husband asked his wife jokingly how she knew that she still loved him. She sat silent for a time and then gave several reasons for her certainty but she ended the answer by saying the main reason she could be so sure that she still loved him was that she knew beyond the shadow of a doubt he would always stand by her. She continued to explain that she knew so matter what was done to her or said about her that he would remain loyal.

When one looks up into the face of God, as He was revealed in Christ, he knows that he can always count on Him. The experience of such an understanding of divine love will make us respond in loving obedience.

What an answer we have to life! Let us look up and live!

Christian Homemakers Class Has Party In 'Ghost Town'

By Jane Casselberry

Members of the Christian Homemakers Class of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church and their guests from Young Married Class and Older Youth group masqueraded as cowboys, "in-juns," dance hall girls, and assorted spooks at a Halloween Party held Tuesday night.

The hardworking committee had converted an empty warehouse into a condensed version of a Western Ghost Town, complete with jail, "saloon," county store, livery stable, "injun" village and "Boot Hill."

Arrivals were greeted by a sign, "You are now entering Ghost Town... 'Dead-end Town in the West'" and a "corpse" swinging from the end of a rope, bare witness that frontier justice had triumphed.

Winners of the prizes for the best costumes went to Phyllis and Bernice Casper, twin witches for the ugliest; Mr. and Mrs. Wally Krohse for the handsomest and prettiest; and Leonard Casselberry, who came as Abraham Lincoln, the most original.

Games were enjoyed by the 60 persons attending and refreshments of doughnuts, hot chocolate and coffee were served by the hostess, Mrs. Frank Moeckel and Mrs. Dolmas Copeland.

Baptist Women To Observe Day Of Prayer

A number of churches in the Seminole Baptist Association will observe World Day of Prayer next Monday.

The Baptist Women's Day of Prayer Around the World was first observed in 1951 when European women felt the need of fellowship in prayer to heal the wounds of war which had so seriously separated their countries.

The idea of Baptist women on every continent praying simultaneously created much interest in the Women's Committee of the Baptist World Alliance.

The first year only a few groups met but the spirit in which the Finnish women observed the day continues to inspire women in more than 100 countries to pray in ever increasing number. The women of Finland appointed a different woman to pray each hour of the 24 to make sure of meeting with their sisters of other lands at every hour.

All women of the Seminole Baptist Association are urged to participate in Monday's observation.

Longwood Circle Celebrates Birthday

By Donna Estes

Members of Longwood's St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Circle celebrated the circle's second anniversary last Friday by attending the 1 a.m. Mass at the Church of the Nativity and receiving Communion in a group.

Celebrant of the Mass was Fr. Angelo Libera, Catholic Chaplain of the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Following Mass, hostesses, Mrs. Orland Fox and Mrs. Garland Shaw, served breakfast to the gathering from a table centered with the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary surrounded by lavender and white mums.

In a place of honor at a side table was a statue of St. Catherine surrounded with permanent red and white roses.

A short talk was given by Mrs. John Kennedy, chairman of the circle, in which she attributed the success of the group to the hard work of all the members.

She pointed out that although the circle, which now has 56 members, began with only 10 women it has been able to earn $1,670.53 through various projects through the past two years.

She concluded her talk by restating the circle's principles of unity, charity and Christianity.

Members attending, other than those named, were Mrs. Frank Whitman, Mrs. Agnes Williams, Miss Sadie McHale, Miss Winnie McHale, Mrs. Zeno Hyland, Mrs. F. J. Bartleski and Master Joseph Bartleski, Mrs. Colombo Farina, Mrs. Leo Cross and Mrs. Tracy Estes and daughter Donna Lynn Estes.

Winn-Dixie Opens New Supermarket

An ultra-modern new supermarket described as Winn-Dixie's finest has opened at Highway 17-92 and State Road 434 in Longwood.

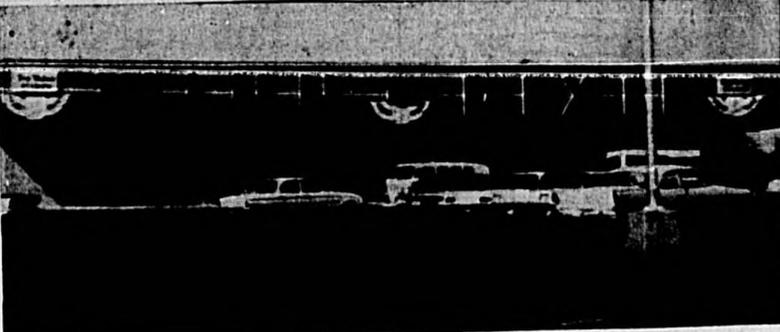

The bright and glittering food plant, which opened Tuesday, is designed to provide the latest in customer convenience and comfort.

L. J. Bruce, manager, has watched the erection of this new store with eagerness. Now he can watch his customers breeze down the well-stocked aisles or shop at their leisure.

And this cheerful new facility sports a new innovation for Winn-Dixie stores in this area—a unitized produce department with packaged fruits and vegetables. Larry Harris, produce manager, said the new Winn-Dixie outlet is only the sixth store of the 35 Winn-Dixie stores in the Jacksonville district to have all store-level packaging of its produce.

Long-time Winn-Dixie employees will staff the new store, according to E. B. Maue, meat market manager. First shoppers at the new store have been rewarded for their patronage the first two days of operation. Free coffee, soft drinks and trading stamps were available to customers to make their shopping more pleasant.

The growth of Winn-Dixie Food Stores, Inc., is a phenomenal success story of American enterprise. From a meager beginning of one store in southern Florida 44 years ago, Winn-Dixie has become the seventh largest food chain in the nation.

Now—Chevy spirit in a new kind of car!

We built this one to do a lot more than just stand around looking beautiful. Held its weight down in the 3,000-pound range. Then built four hasty engines for it—two sixes and two V8's—with output all the way up to 220 horses!

And if that combination of modest weight and potent power makes you think this is one frisky car, you've got the right idea.

You've also got a car with lots of room for legs, hips, shoulders, hats and luggage. Yet its 115-inch wheelbase keeps it highly maneuverable in traffic and very easy to park.

With its Full Coil suspension and snug insulation, it's got a ride that reminds you of the Jet-smooth kind the way it muffles noise and cushions you from bumps.

And the fine hand of Body by Fisher craftsmen shows up beneath this one's suave good looks, too. Just listen to the solid thunk of a door closing or look at the smooth metalwork. You'll see what we mean.

Sound good so far? There's more. Like the fact that Chevells comes in three series with eleven models—convertibles, sport coupes, sedans, wagons, even Super Sport models with front bucket seats. Like the fact that (and see if this isn't one of the nicest surprises of all) the new Chevells comes at an easy-to-take price!

Stop Muddling

In an America badly prepared for the chaos that baffles and defeats them, the amount of disagreement among its citizens at the course of events.

Complaints are lodged against the President and Congress for not doing enough to cure high unemployment, secure rights and opportunities for Negroes, and bear down the cost of government while enlarging its services as demanded.

When action is taken and "solutions" are offered, the protests are as loud or louder. For more often than not, the action is by the federal government. The protesters either do not like the action, or the fact that the government is performing it.

Through all this, it is dawning on many people that we may be dealing with the problems of 1948 in ways not adequate to produce either effective or satisfying solutions.

Robert Halliwell, author and teacher, suggests in the magazine American Scholar "our existing means of correction and control" are not good enough to surmount today's massive difficulties.

Our attacks on crime, on slums, on joblessness, on racial bias, on urban congestion, all these and many other efforts seem merely to hack at the fringe. There is a feeling of being engaged by the unmanageable.

Many respond to this overpowering circumstance of modern life with staggering resignation — and seek simply to escape to find "fun" amid the chaos that baffles and defeats them.

But the protesters are legion. We have always had our share. Sometimes they have gathered in minority third parties, or at times they have swollen to commanding strength in the major parties. Right now they may be close to doing that in the Republican party.

One cannot say such protests should not exist, that they are inherently negative phenomena which contribute little to American life.

They are negative only if coupled with an unrealistic call for a return to the past. There are no true flashbacks in history. The simplicities of the days before the great wars are gone forever.

Protest is a healthy social and political weapon if it leads to forging of brand new devices for control of a society's problems. We need those new devices.

We will not begin to get them until both the complainants and those who still think we can muddle through with the old techniques reach some kind of understanding that wholly new approaches ARE required.

Such agreement will come with painful slowness.

But without that step, the likelihood is that we will simply go on offering too little that is too old to cope with science-age problems that have grown too big.

Guiana Big Headache

An British step by step plan of dissolving its empire and giving independence to former colonies, among the most prominent of its headaches has been the crown colony of British Guiana.

Although on the way for more than 10 years, independence still is a goal to be realized by British Guiana which is situated on the north coast of South America and about the size of Kansas.

Now the British are making another try at setting a date. British Guiana has been described as a small country with big problems, poor, racially divided and isolated by mountains and jungle.

As well as being a problem to itself and to Britain, it also is a problem for the United States.

At the center of the problem is Guiana's prime minister, Dr. Cheddi Jagan, an American-trained dentist, and his wife, Janet, who once called Chicago home and who doubles as minister for home affairs with responsibility for internal security. Japan is an admitted Marxist and an admirer of the Soviet Union and Castro Cuba. In London, Jagan has been making dire predictions of an "explosion" if British Guiana does not achieve its independence now. The country, he said, could be the signpost, whether the whole of Latin America is to proceed through peaceful evolution or bloody revolt.

Jagan derives his strength from the East Indians who make up nearly half of British Guiana's population, living mostly in rural areas and working on the big sugar plantations.

His chief opposition comes from the predominantly Negro Peoples National Congress led by Forbes Burnham representing a voting bloc nearly as large as Jagan's.

And, while Jagan talks of an "explosion," Burnham talks of civil war.

Last April the two forces locked in a bloody struggle which began with a general strike and lasted 11 weeks.

Forty-two persons were killed in ensuing Negro-Indian race riots and about 40 buildings were bombed or burned. Before British troops restored order, losses in property and wages ran to millions of dollars.

Jagan used the period to strengthen his ties both with the Soviet Union and Cuba. He seized Shell Oil storage facilities and used them to store Russian gasoline. Cuba shipped in oil and flour and the Soviet Union offered long-term loans and cheap prices for fertilizers and agricultural machinery.

Jagan also offered landing rights to Cuban planes next door to both Venezuela and Brazil. The United States sees an independent Guiana under Jagan as another Cuba and its suspicions are confirmed by Jagan's own words.

It has brought pressure upon Britain to see that such does not occur. On the other hand, there have been British complaints that the U. S. position destroys any chance of racial peace or national unity.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Freddy's first question is just the start of a natural sequence of three queries that children will ask their parents. So be sure to send for the booklet below and thus get prepared for answering your youngster. If you satisfy his mind he will not become secretive about sex information.

CASE Q-489: Freddy T., aged 3, is the toddler who shocked his college educated mother into speechlessness. "Mommie, where did I come from?" he casually demanded, but she couldn't reply with anything.

So she asked for specific verbal formulas to meet these concrete cases in the field of child psychology. I told her to use this standard reply: "You came out of Mommie's tummy."

That generally satisfies the toddler for at least a couple of years. But at the entrance to kindergarten or first grade, his increased mental age makes it possible for him to evolve the second question: "Mommie, how did I get out?"

This may come at some unexpected moment and seem irrelevant to his busy mother. "How did you get out of where?" she may thus demand, for they may not have been discussing childbirth or pregnancy.

Perhaps the youngster has simply noted a pregnant neighbor woman as he gazed out the window, so that's how his second query was incited. Yesterday I told you how to answer this question. It is best to employ the dramatic, visual account of the Caesarian birth.

And if you ever read stories to your children, by all means include the classic about the "Little Red Hen" and the Fox. For then you can remind the child that the Little Red Hen cut an opening in the sack in which the Fox was carrying her to his home to be cooked. "Remember how the Little Red Hen got out of the sack?" you can remind your youngster.

"Well, that's much the way the doctor cuts a little opening in Mommie's tummy and lifts out the new baby."

Again the child will nod understandingly and he will remain satisfied for two or three years more.

Then comes that final perplexing question: "Mommie, how did I get into your tummy?"

If you are unprepared with a memorized answer, you can become flustered and if your bridge club is in session, they may titter and thus arouse a salacious curiosity in your scientific child.

So be prepared, like the star salesman, which means: Memorize your answers to these few but key queries of children! So the prepared mother smiles and simply replies: "When baby girls are born, God puts some little eggs inside them. Then, when they grow up to be big women and marry, if they want a baby, then one of these eggs may hatch."

"Don't you remember when you went to the farm and saw the baby chicks (or ducklings) hatch from eggs?"

The above answer is usually quite sufficient till the child passes the age of 9 or 10, when you can finish his sexual education.

So send for the booklet "Sex Education From 3 to 20 Years," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

It contains the precise formula for answering each of these queries. (Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

A Bird In The Hand

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ogden Nash, the poet laureate of piffle, once wrote: "There is nothing in any religion."

"That requires one to love a pigeon." Let this couplet serve to introduce you to a friend of mine who shall be known for purposes of this narrative as Mrs. Assial.

Mrs. Assial has a reputation in her neighborhood of being a friend of our feathered friends. As she put it, "I'm the one they come to when baby birds fall out of nests."

One recent Saturday evening a man brought to her door a homing pigeon that had crash-landed on his yard. According to Mrs. Assial, "The poor thing was in a catatonic condition. He couldn't move anything but his eyeballs."

She was, of course, talking about the pigeon. The man was perfectly sober. True to her nature, Mrs. Assial took the distressed creature into her home, gave it some bird seed and bedded it down for the night in a parakeet's flight cage.

The next day she persuaded her husband to climb upon the top of the carport and attempt to relaunch it. The bird, however, was so weak it couldn't fly any better than her husband.

On Monday morning, Mrs. Assial called the Audubon Society, hoping it could identify the bird's owner from the markings on his (the pigeon's) legband.

The society referred her to the U. S. Fish & Wildlife Service, which connected her with the banded bird division, which referred her to a pigeon fancier in Maryland, who referred her to another pigeon fancier in a different county.

Finally, it was ascertained that the bird belonged to a pigeon fancier in Richmond, Va. Mrs. Assial was advised to "take the poor thing down to Mt. Vernon and point it south on U. S. 1."

The bird, however, still was not flyworthy. So that night Mrs. Assial telephoned the owner in Richmond. Meanwhile, she drove a considerable distance to buy some special pigeon food.

The owner asked Mrs. Assial to give the pigeon some cod liver oil and ship it back to him by rail. Mrs. Assial persuaded her husband to build a crate for it, and on Thursday, much relieved, she put it aboard a south-bound train.

That very same day, en route to visit a neighbor, what did Mrs. Assial see but a homing pigeon hopping across the lawn. Mrs. Assial turned and ran.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Seven-card pack with a double deck and everything wild.

That's the kind of poker game U. S. trade "card" Christian A. Herter is preparing to play in negotiating free world tariff cuts and non-tariff trade barrier reductions so that international commerce can expand.

First hands for this game — which will run for over a year — will be played in Washington beginning Dec. 2 before the U. S. Tariff Commission under Chairman Ben D. Dornan and the U. S. Trade Information Committee under Chairman William J. Egan.

In public hearings that will continue until the end of March, they will be looking at lists of some 7,000 items in U. S. foreign commerce to see which tariffs might be cut and which should not under the Trade Expansion Act of 1962.

Any American manufacturer, exporter, importer, trade association or labor union representative who wants to learn which products are going to be considered for tariff reduction will have to get the official 600-page list.

It is printed for the first time along with notifications on the hearings and procedures in the Federal Register for Oct. 22, 1962. It costs $5 a copy from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

Anyone who then wants to protest consideration of his products orally or in writing must then apply by letter before Nov. 20, 1962, to the Secretaries of the U. S. Tariff Commission or the U. S. Trade Information Committee, Washington 25, D. C. Otherwise, he won't be able to hand in the big game.

In general, the tariff commission will hold hearings on U. S. import duties proposed for reduction. The Trade Information Committee — made up of representatives from government agencies concerned with foreign trade — will examine foreign tariff rates and "write barriers" U. S. exporters would want changed.

No one has the slightest idea how many manufacturers and distributors will want to testify in person or submit briefs. In 1960 some 2,500 items were considered for tariff reductions, and there were 500 witnesses.

With a list of 7,500 items now being considered for tariff adjustments in the so-called "Kennedy round" of negotiations, there may be 1,000 to 1,500 witnesses.

If all the evidence can be received and analyzed by the end of March 1964, the Tariff Commission and the Trade Information Committee hope to make recommendations to the President by April 22.

He is then charged by law with compiling the final list of items on which tariff reductions should be negotiated before the 52 nations in the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade. It is scheduled to begin work in Geneva, Switzerland, May 4, 1964. But it may be delayed.

The President is not required to make public his final list. This is confidential information used by the trade negotiators to drive the best bargain they can for the United States.

The only items that can be excluded from consideration are those on which exemptions already have been granted under prior point or escape clause procedures.

This exempt list now covers only a score of trade classifications, including codfish, garlic, hatters' fur, cotton valvases, screen printed scarves, ceramic tiles, violins under $25, scissors, bicycles, safety and ordinary pins and spring clothespins.

Other countries presumably are compiling lists of their products on which they would like to see U. S. tariffs reduced, and determining how much they are willing to reduce their tariffs against U. S. exports.

Fortunately for them, these countries don't have to go through the long rigamarole of hearings required by U. S. law.

As far as the American government is concerned, unraveling all the tangled threads of tariff rates and then reweaving them into a fabric that will adequately protect American interests is about the biggest and most complex job of bureaucratic detail that has ever been tackled.

PARIS (UPI) — The United States plans to withdraw its first major combat unit from Europe despite German objections, sending home 5,000 and perhaps many more men, it was learned.

The withdrawal will involve an armored cavalry regiment and will represent only about two per cent of the Army's overall combat strength in Europe. But informed sources said studies are being made which could result in much larger cuts.

Seminoles Out To Extend Wins

By Julian Stenstrom
(Herald Sports Editor)

The Seminoles are laying their unbeaten record of five straight wins on the line tonight when they run into a defensively strong Leeburg High Yellow Jacket machine.

The two clubs will clash in Leeburg with the kickoff slated for 8 p. m.

A huge contingent of Sanford fans will be on hand for the contest. The Seminoles High Yellow Jackets will form a motorcade, expected to be one of the largest of the season to date, to carry the mass of motorists to Leeburg.

Meanwhile, there's an inward migration among Sanford grid fans as to how the Seminoles will fare against the Yellow Jackets in tonight's contest. They're afraid the local machine might be overlooking tonight's outing in favor of next week's gigantic homecoming affair with the Wildwood Wildcats also undelivered to date.

This feeling does exist despite all efforts made by the Seminoles coaching staff, Jim Pigott, Jim McCoy and Dick Williams, to equate any such ideas — especially among their 33 players.

On the other hand, regardless of the future no football team can take Leeburg lightly this season. Offensively, they have potential. Defensively, they're big, strong, and tough.

Just in case the Jackets are able to stop the vaunted Tribe offense, one than run up 50 points against Apopka, 33 against Winter Park and 26 against Orlando Colonial, Pigott has instituted a series of single wing offensive formations as a reserve offensive tool.

But even in the event his winged-T offensive clicks there's a good possibility the locals will utilize their single wing attack anyway. They'd probably like to show Wildwood as little as possible since the Wildcats will have their entire squad on hand tonight to watch the Tribe-Jacket contest.

Pigott realizes that the defensively strong Leeburg aggregation might stop his ground attack. If it does he'll have to go to the air. Now, he's got the boys to throw the ball and the kids to catch on to them. To make sure the kids who lose them can get them off he's going to throw from the single wing if necessary to enable his quarterbacks to get the aerials off in faster time.

No matter how it's allied, tonight's Orange-Belt affair should be a fine contest. It'll be the last engagement between the two schools in a series that started back in the mid-twenties. As far as we know these two clubs have not missed playing each other since that time.

Also in an effort to be ready for anything the Jackets might have to offer in their endeavor to halt Seminoles' progress, Pigott has elevated back Sonny Measer to the varsity to replace Danny Tillis who is considered out for the remainder of the season. This maneuver relieves another back, speedster Buddy Lawson, of his regular halfback responsibility.

Meanwhile, injured Dave Noell, a big Seminole tackle who has been out of action since the Colonial affair, will be back in uniform and may see some limited action if necessary. Noell has been working out this week in full pads and seems okay.

Lions Clash With Hustlers Of Melbourne

By Joe Warriner
(Herald Sports Writer)

Climaxing homecoming activities, the Oviedo Lions play the Hustlers from Melbourne Central Catholic tonight at John Courter Field in Oviedo. Kick-off time is at 8 p. m.

During the halftime, convalescent exercises will be held for the newly elected Homecoming Queen. Music will be played by the South Seminole Band, under the direction of Peter Bunker, and the band's routine will be a sparkling addition to tonight's activities.

Melbourne C. C. should prove to be a pretty tough opponent for the Lions. Although the Hustlers don't sport an outstanding record for the season, Central Catholic has played against some rugged teams, especially Florida Air Academy, which is undefeated.

The Hustlers are a fairly fast team, and in little heavier in the line than Oviedo. Melbourne C. C. runs from the T formation, and passes from a spread formation. Although Melbourne C. C. is a young team, what it lacks in experience it makes up in hustle.

The Hustlers pass well, and quarterback David Hilley seems especially fond of the long pass. Behind the running of left-half Clay Miller, Central Catholic has proved to be dangerous on long and sweeps.

Center Ignacio Luengo is a tough defensive man, with Tom Doherty (G) and Albert Holtz (T) also expected to be a threat to Oviedo's offense.

After extensive practice sessions during the week, Oviedo is ready for the Hustlers.

On the dark side . . . It looks as if Wayne Jacobs, first string guard, will be sidelined due to a broken toe for the remainder of the season. Also first string backs, Billy Mikler and Barry Gouge, could see limited action tonight due to injuries.

The Lions this week have been practicing kick-off, punt returns, passing, and pass defense.

Oviedo also has added some new plays and has created a special new defense to contain the Hustlers. Oviedo has also practiced goal line defense and offense, to prevent a stalling of the ball inside the opponent's 20 yard line.

Looking forward to tonight's game, Coach Palmer commented, "We have come close a few times, and I feel we're going to win over Melbourne. Physically we will be in good shape for tonight's game."

Oviedo's probable line-up: Fox and Bellhorn, Ends; Murphy and Colbert, Tackles; George and Arndt, Guards; Courier, Brooks, Tompson, and Jenson, Backs; Miller, Center.

Central Catholic's probable line-up: Durkin and Fremosa, Ends; Holtz and Slicker, Tackles; Doherty and Deese, Guards; Luengo, Center; Wilkowski, Miller, Hilley, Fickett, Backs.

Hounds Face Auburndale

By Richard Grant
(Herald Sports Writer)

After an open date last week the Lyman High School Greyhounds return to action this evening when they clash in Auburndale with an Auburndale High School football eleven which has lost only one game this season.

Auburndale's one loss was to undefeated Winter Haven High by a 14 to 12 score. Auburndale will be heavily favored to take the 'Hounds into camp tonight since they are rated third in the state's class B standings.

One of Lyman's rays of hope is that the sensational sophomore fullback, 200-pound Les Lyle, will be back in action for the Greyhounds after missing Lyman's last contest with P. K. Yonge of Gainesville. Lyle suffered a twisted ankle during the first quarter of Lyman's encounter with Titusville.

Also back in action tonight for the Greyhounds will be Gene Whitman, one of Lyman's top linemen, who was hospitalized with severe muscle bruises.

Lyle's running mate, Pete Carlson, will also return to action following a layoff due to rib injuries.

Lyman, following three victories over Oviedo, Ocoee and New Smyrna Beach, have dropped their pair of tilts. They were defeated by the Titusville Terrors and P. K. Yonge's Blue Waves. However, during the last two games the 'Hounds were severely handicapped by injuries. Six of Head Coach Dick Copeland's 11 regular starters were out of action for the Blue Wave contest.

With the club back in at least fair physical condition the spirit at Lyman High has increased tremendously.

A motorcade to carry Greyhound fans to Auburndale is scheduled to form at Lyman High and leave for Auburndale at 5:30 p. m. today.

The Lyman band will also go to Auburndale to make an appearance during halftime activities.

Hurricanes Defeat Lion Cubs 19 To 0

The Hurricanes of South Seminole Junior High rolled to their fourth victory in five starts this season by taking the Oviedo Junior High Lion Cubs into camp Thursday night by a 19 to 0 score.

In the clash at Longwood's Lyman High Field, the Caselberry school jumped into a six-point lead on the first play when Dave Straughan took the opening kickoff and returned it 77 yards and a touchdown.

Later in the initial period Straughan posted a 19-yard dash and the Hurricanes' second score of the evening.

There was no further scoring until midway in the third stanza when the South Seminole eleven clinched a sustained drive with a three-yard plunge over the twin stripes by Larry Lott.

Meanwhile the Hurricane defense completely bottled up the Oviedo club. The Lion Cubs were able to post but one first down and that came on a penalty. The Cubs attempted 10 passes but they weren't able to connect a single time. On the ground they wound up the contest with a minus nine yards.

On the other side of the chart, the Hurricanes posted eight first downs, manufactured 208 yards on the ground and another 34 in the air for a total of 242. The 34 yards in the air came as a result of one completed pass out of the two aerials they attempted.

South Seminole's attack was led by Straughan who carried nine times for a total of 110 yards. Halfback Brent Helms picked up 41 yards in six tries, Lott hit for 44 yards in seven attempts, and Richard Rubright got 20 yards in five carries.

The Hurricanes will lower the curtain on their gridiron slate for this season next Thursday night in Sanford's Memorial Stadium when they tangle in the annual Peanut Bowl encounter with the undefeated Braves of Sanford Junior High School.

It's a "must-win" contest for both clubs, determining which will go on to challenge the Cleveland Browns for the Eastern Division leadership in the National Football League.

The champion Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears, tied for the Western Division lead with 6-1 records, each take on a tougher this weekend. The Packers play the Pittsburgh Steelers 4-2-1 at Milwaukee while the Bears travel to Baltimore to meet the Colts (2-4).

Cleveland (4-1) faces the hottest touch of the five leading contenders, playing the Eagles (2-4-1) at Philadelphia. In Sunday's three other games, the Minnesota Vikings (2-3) are at home against the Los Angeles Rams (2-3); the Detroit Lions (3-4) meet the San Francisco 49ers (1-4) on the West Coast, and the Dallas Cowboys entertained the Washington Redskins (2-5).

Here is the "line" on these games: New York 4½ over St. Louis; Green Bay 10½ over Pittsburgh; Chicago 3½ over Baltimore; Cleveland 10 over Philadelphia; Minnesota 6 over Los Angeles; Detroit 6 over San Francisco, and Dallas 6½ over Washington.

Cardinals Face Giants; Game 'Must' For Both

United Press International

Charley Johnson, the St. Louis Cardinals' bright young engineer, tests his football know-how against the experienced old New York Giants Sunday in something of a "throw or consequence" shrouded.

It's a "must-win" contest for both clubs, determining which will go on to challenge the Cleveland Browns for the Eastern Division leadership in the National Football League.

The champion Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears, tied for the Western Division lead with 6-1 records, each take on a tougher this weekend. The Packers play the Pittsburgh Steelers 4-2-1 at Milwaukee while the Bears travel to Baltimore to meet the Colts (2-4).

Two Tied In Almaden Open
ALMADEN, Calif. (UPI) — E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, one of the great old men of golf, turned professional nine years before Babe Halsey was born.

But the two pros went into the second round of the $25,000 Almaden Open tournament today tied for the lead with brilliant six-under-par 68- and two strokes ahead of the rest of the field.

Post Denied Trial Shift
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — A federal district judge ruled Thursday that the Saturday Evening Post could not receive a fair trial here in Alabama.

Henke Coach
ST. LOUIS (UPI) — St. Louis Cardinals lost a player but gained a full-time coach Thursday — at least for four weeks. Ed Henke, defensive end who doubles as a line coach, was placed on the injured waiver list as a result of a dislocated elbow suffered during last Sunday's game with the Washington Redskins. He will be out of action as a player for at least a month.

Expanded NBA League Seen
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Eddie Gottlieb thinks that the National Basketball Association will expand to ten teams after this season but adds that the new outfit won't enjoy such a selection of draftable talent as the Chicago Zephyrs did last year.

"I think we'd be better off as an eight team league, with talent more concentrated." The veteran general manager of the San Francisco Warriors said Thursday. "But the trend is to expansion and from what conversation I've heard, the NBA will increase to 10 clubs."

Gators Given Big Order To Beat Auburn

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — Just plain facts are best indication of what Florida faces Saturday on Homecoming Day in Auburn, Ala.

(1) Coach Ralph Jordan's Auburn Tigers are unbeaten (8-0), ranked eighth nationally.

(2) Auburn hasn't lost a Homecoming game since 1962, when Jackie Parker and Mississippi State turned the trick, 49-24, in a wild offensive battle.

(3) Since '52 Auburn's home record is 32-2-1.

(4) Florida has never won a football game at Cliff Hare Stadium in Auburn.

(5) The Gators face, in Jimmy Sidle, the SEC's leading rusher and a boy who ranks in the top ten in the nation in total offense with 970 yards gained in five games.

(6) Florida and Auburn have one foe in common, Georgia Tech. The Jackets beat Florida, 9-0, and lost to Auburn, 19-31.

"Auburn has without question, the finest backs in the conference, and perhaps the nation," says Gator head coach Ray Graves. "Sidle is a great one, but he's got a lot of help back here with boys like Tucker Fredrickson, George Rose and Larry Lawson."

Frederickson is playing at 210, Lawson at 215, Sidle at 210. Rose, 195, is the fastest back in Auburn football history and is one of the leading pass receivers in the SEC.

Auburn's line is much smaller than a typical Tiger front. However, it is the quickest and fastest line they have had in many years.

"Auburn's line fires out better than any we've yet faced," says Graves. "They aren't big, but so quick, and offensively they really get the job done."

Florida counters with the running fullback Larry Dupree, and the passing and field generalship of quarterback Tom Shannon.

Both coaches, Graves and Jordan, predict a high-scoring, wide-open contest.

Fight Results

SENDAL Japan (UPI) — Mitsunori Seki, 125½, Japan knocked out Girinok Lukpakria, 124½, Thailand (3) retained Orient featherweight title.

BOSTON (UPI) — Dick DiVola, 131, Roxbury, Mass., outpointed Tommy Tibbs, 130½, Charleston, Mass. (10).

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Paul Rojas, 131½, San Pedro, Calif., knocked out Joey Jacobs, 128, Phoenix, Ariz. (1).

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

It's hard for any ball club to keep its eyes off the so-called "big games" on its slate. But the Seminoles High grid artists, as the ol' Charlotte, N. C., sportswriter, George Touhy calls 'em, are coached and self-disciplined to keep their eyes on the ball game directly in front of them.

The goal of a fine season is reached, as anyone schooled in football will tell you, one game at a time. And each one must be won if the result is to be what the coaches, players, students and the townspeople want.

It could be mighty easy for the Seminoles to look forward to next week's homecoming festivities and the undoubtedly crucial game with Wildwood that evening and the over-flowing crowds that customarily attend these gala occasions.

But before Wildwood there is Leeburg, tonight! And no one who has any connection with the Seminole gridiron gladiators has any doubt but that these Yellow Jackets of Leeburg have sharpened their stingers to give the locals a fit this evening.

We have it on good authority that Leeburg mentor Melvin Smith has told his charges that they can beat Sanford and his youngsters believe it. After all, wouldn't it be just dandy to knock Sanford off the list of unbeaten ball clubs and replace that big zero in the loss column with a devastating "one."

But as far as Seminoles' coaches Jim Pigott, Jim McCoy and Dick Williams are concerned it is Leeburg tonight! For the lads who wear the pads tonight it's Leeburg! For the cheerleaders, the student body, the Sanford fans, tonight it's Leeburg! Wildwood? Well, the Seminoles won't know they even exist until next Friday night.

There's been a lot of praise given to the Seminoles this season. This includes the players, the fine band, the top-notch cheerleaders, and the student body as a whole.

While the gridiron realizes they're working hard preparing for each week's ball game, the players themselves also know that the energetic cheerleaders are second to none in their effort to whip the attitude of "Let's win another ball game!"

Each week these girls draw up new ideas to drum up a school spirit that right now is at its peak.

The football squad as individuals and as a unit fully appreciate the infinite pains and hours of toil that go into the frenzy of excitement built up each week. And they're quick to let you know that it helps in bringing about the "big try" that goes on during the ball game.

And don't think the coaches aren't fully aware of the broad effect of this huge effort on the part of the cheerleaders. Pigott, during our interviews several times each week, never fails at least once to remind us of something the cheerleaders have done to aid the club.

The players themselves know their coaches support these activities because it helps develop school and team spirit that won't be stopped. So, couple that with the will to win and perhaps this might be part of the answer as to why Seminole opposition has had such a difficult task on the gridiron this fall.

Badcocks Lead Bowlerettes

Position Round was played this week in the Jet Bowlerettes League with Badcock Furniture leading with 23½ wins and 8½ losses. Seminole County Motors and Cut 'N Curl are tied with 19½ wins and 13½ losses. Mary Carter Paints are next with 16½ wins and 18½ losses. Mary Eathers is next with 14 wins and 19 losses. Then Sanford Sewing Center with 13-19. L'I' Bangers with 13½-18½ and in last slot is Karne Insurance with 8½-23½.

Three 200 games were rolled today. Elaine Kostival had a 213, Jane Spolshi a 205 and Shirley Martin a 200. High Series went to Kostival with a 551 and Spolshi had a 510. Betty Allen rolled a 193, Ulla Ganderston a 182 and Joan Magin a 143.

Shirley Martin had 4 strikes in a row while Kostival had 2 turkeys.

Men To Open Golf Season
The Mayfair Men's Golf Assn. will inaugurate its new season Sunday with a point tournament. The draw for teams will be made at noon at the club and the competition will be open to all members of the association, said Abe Fennell, newly elected president.

The inter-city schedule for the group will be announced soon, Fennell said.

WEEK END TOUR of HOMES in the Sanford - Seminole Area

New Homes Open For Weekend Tour

Several new custom-built homes will be unveiled this weekend for those taking the "Tour of Homes" in Sanford.

Persons driving out to the Ravenna Park community will be in for a treat. Three homes have been finished and five others are under construction, according to Shoemaker Construction Company, contractor for the development.

Construction is at a stage where the buyer may select his own colors in paint and tile. Most of the homes, which include central duct heating and air conditioning, are within the price range of the average budget.

Another subdivision attracting attention is Idyllwild of Loch Arbor. The homes here are of the larger and more luxurious type, and all have the custom-built appearance. The last available model was sold recently but Shoemaker Construction Company specializes in custom building. Sales are handled by Stenstrom Realty.

And don't miss the beautiful new suburban development in Greenbriar of Loch Arbor. Three families have already settled in the pine and oak-clustered section situated near the Mayfair Golf Course. Landscaping work began Thursday on two homes at Greenbriar.

A four-bedroom, two-bath colonial home on Highland Court is almost ready for occupancy following installation of black walnut kitchen cabinets this week. Two other homes are under construction on the street.

Byron Leach, of Kingswood Builders, said the roomy colonial home has many convenience extras, such as double lavatories in the master bathroom.

Johnson Still On '64 Ticket, Kennedy Says

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy has gone about as far as he can go to quash gossip that Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson will be missing from the 1964 Democratic national ticket.

The President told a news conference May 9, 1963 that Johnson would be on the 1964 ticket if he wished. Kennedy repeated this pledge in equal-direct language Thursday.

"... Assuming that you run next year, would you want Lyndon Johnson on the ticket and do you expect that he will be on the ticket?" one of Thursday's news conference questioners asked.

"Yes, to both of those questions. That is correct," the President replied.

Speculation that Johnson might be dumped from the Democratic ticket next year has been based more on political assessments than on evidence.

The vice president has been widely credited with providing Kennedy's margin of victory in 1960 by his campaigning in his home state of Texas and other southern states.

Coup Launched Against Diem

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — Vietnamese marines and some army troops today launched a coup against the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem and were believed to have overpowered his special forces "palace guard" after fierce street fighting.

Other army units were believed remaining loyal to Diem but it appeared that the air force had joined the insurgents. Some army units were training their anti-aircraft guns on air force planes flying over the capital.

U. S. troops were alerted and ordered to guard American military installations here.

There were no immediate reports of casualties.

Russia Still In Space Race, JFK Believes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy believes that Russia is still very much in the moon-space race despite recent statements by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev — and so is the United States.

"I would not make any bet at all upon Soviet intentions," he told his news conference Thursday. "I think that our experience has been that we wait for deeds, unless we have a system of verification, and we have no idea whether the Soviet Union is going to make a race for the moon or whether it is going to attempt an even greater program."

The President said he did not interpret Khrushchev's "cautiously worded" statement on the Russian space effort last weekend to mean that the Soviet Union was abandoning the race to the moon.

"The fact of the matter is that the Soviets have made an intensive effort in space, and there is every indication that they are continuing and that they have the potential to continue," Kennedy said.

"I would read . . . his remarks very carefully. I think that he said before anyone went to the moon, there should be adequate preparation. We agree with that."

Statewide Crackdown On Sale Of Liquor To Minors Ordered

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Beverage Director Richard B. Keating ordered a state-wide crackdown today on sale of alcoholic beverages to minors.

Keating directed his agents to start full-scale arrests of persons under 21 years of age found possessing alcoholic beverages. He called the new program "operation minor."

"The law of the state of Florida unequivocally prohibits persons under age 21 from possessing alcoholic beverages and minors are being given ample warning that violations on their part will not be tolerated," he said.

The department and the beverage industry printed a brochure explaining to minors how the state law works. More than one-half million copies of the brochure will be distributed to schools and to firms selling beverages.

Keating ordered his agents to meet with student councils in schools throughout the state to explain the law to students.

"Youths more and more choose to ignore the laws of Florida by obtaining alcoholic beverages and this, quite frequently, has led to revocation or suspension of the license of beverage dealers who have been charged with selling the drink to youth, while the minor has been free of prosecution," Keating said.

He said it was not always the fault of the dealer but it was obvious to him that tighter measures were needed because quite often minors were able to get beer and liquor other than by direct purchase from dealers.

The department offered sheriffs and police chiefs full cooperation and has asked their support in the program.

And he said, "It is hoped these acts and it will be done."

Less Than 50 Per Cent Vote Seen In Seminole City Will Elect Five To Offices

A. L. WILSON EARL HIGGINBOTHAM THOS. S. McDONALD DONALD BALES FRED BISTLINE RAY SLATON

Less than 50 percent of Seminole County's 16,608 registered voters is expected to turn out Tuesday to express their respective choices on state and county issues, select three of four candidates for school trustee and, in the city, elect two commissioners.

Gov. Farris Bryant already has been quoted as expressing concern over the voters' apathy toward three amendments to the state constitution.

The county's 23 polling places will be open for voting from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. Tuesday.

Main issue of local interest is the race between Mayor Thomas S. McDonald and former Mayor Earl Higginbotham for McDonald's seat on the City Commission. Both candidates have been campaigning vigorously . . . but the public has shown little interest in the contest. Winning candidate will be seated for three years.

Former Mayor A. L. Wilson is unopposed for re-election to his fourth term on the City Commission. He issued a statement today, which reads, in part: "If elected to serve another term I will, as in the past, strive to represent you, the people, fairly and impartially in your city government. Working always for orderly growth and expansion, keeping the best interest of our taxpayers in mind, so as to give a maximum of benefits and services for the lowest tax dollar."

Wilson also urged all qualified voters "to go to the polls and support the statewide amendment on higher education along with our local county issue in order to provide funds for this most worthy cause."

Another race which has not excited much interest is the election of three school trustees. Seeking re-election for two-year terms are Donald Bales, Fred Bistline and Ray Slaton. Also in the race is a newcomer, John Keim, retired Army man from Lake-of-the-Woods.

Voters also will pass on a 2.75 millage for the school district and a one mill levy for the school building and bus reserve fund.

Of prime interest to all county voters is the county issue. If approved Tuesday it will permit the County Commission to continue in its efforts to have the proposed East Central Florida four-year state university located in Seminole County.

Five sites in the county have been proposed, one of them gratis by three property owners. However, if the State Board of Control should select one of the other four sites it must be purchased.

The vote Tuesday will determine the County Commission, if one of those four sites is selected, may call for a special election by the county freeholders to approve or reject a bond issue to raise funds for the purchase of the site and subsequently present it to the state.

The State Board of Control has announced it will make its selection of one of 23 sites in six counties at its Dec. 6 meeting at Boca Raton. However, it has been learned that the County Commission will be apprised beforehand if a Seminole site is under consideration so that soil borings and other tests may be made before Dec. 6.

Also to be voted on Tuesday are three amendments to the state constitution:

1—To change the date for election of governor and cabinet members to an off-presidential election year.

2—To permit the State to sell $75 million in bonds for capital outlay in new universities and junior colleges and other institutions of higher learning.

3—To permit the State Board of Conservation to sell revenue bonds for the purchase of lands for recreational purposes and for water conservation.

2.1 Million In State Eligible To Vote Tuesday

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A quarter of Florida's 2.1 million eligible voters are expected to mark their ballots Tuesday with the prime issues of college construction and state elections in the balance.

The ballots will be cluttered with local issues in many of the large counties, but interest will be centered around a $75 million bond amendment for college construction and a proposal to switch election years of the governor and cabinet.

Also on the statewide ticket is a proposal to authorize the Cabinet to finance the purchase of recreational land areas with bond monies.

The three statewide issues — all constitutional amendments — cannot go on the books without approval of the voters.

The college bond proposal, which is expected to pass despite a warning by Gov. Farris Bryant that "voter apathy" could kill it, drew support from Sen. George A. Smathers, (D-Fla.) and State Rep. Fred Karl of Daytona Beach Sunday.

Karl is an announced candidate for governor in 1964 on the Democratic ticket.

Smathers warned in a speech at Fort Pierce that the state's population increased by 78 per cent between 1950 and 1960 and "now is the time to act if we don't want to slip out of the space age back into the horse-and-buggy era."

Drowns In Canal
MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Martin Lawrence, 71, drowned when he fell into a canal, police said. A woman heard his screams and called police but they were too late to save him.

2 Ex-Convicts Arrested In Safe Burglary

Alert Sanford police, aided by a stroke of good fortune, apprehended two armed ex-convicts early today in connection with the safe burglary of a grocery store on French Avenue earlier.

In Sanford City Jail are Eugene Hatten, 31, and Clarence Moore, 34, both Negroes. They were charged with suspicion of breaking and entering the Little General Store, 2303 French Avenue.

When the pair was apprehended around 2 a. m., a small safe containing more than $800 was found in the trunk of their automobile, along with burglarly tools.

A .38 caliber pistol was also found in the automobile when Police Officers Larry Hamrick and John Rumbley made the arrests.

It was a speeding offense which led to the pair's downfall.

Officer Hamrick stopped Hatten's automobile for speeding in the vicinity of the store on French Avenue. At the time the officers had no knowledge of the store burglary. However, on passing the market the officers noticed it had been broken into, and, on checking the inside, discovered the safe had been taken and the food counter wrecked. They then found the safe in the men's car.

Police Chief Roy Williams said his department is investigating the possible connection of Hatten and Moore with other burglaries and break-ins in the area recently. He specified the Home Builders Supply Company on West Seminole Boulevard. The firm was broken into last week and a safe containing about $1400 stolen.

The FBI files in Daytona Beach show that Hatten and Moore both have long records of breaking and entering and safe-cracking offenses.

W. E. Mathis, manager of the Little General Store, said the break-in early this morning was the second time his store had been burglarized within a month. He said the store was damaged about $40 when the burglars destroyed a counter to reach the cylindrical floor safe.

Chief Williams noted there has been a "large number of break-ins in Sanford, Orlando and Daytona Beach recently. We believe the arrest of these men will stop some of them."

Hatten and Moore were both recently released from Ralston Prison.
