

G. O. P. FORCES RALLY TO SAVE FARM AID BILL

Administration Backers Seek To Prevent Further Modification

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The Senate having twice rebuffed President Hoover in the farm battle, administration forces today were rallying their ranks to save the new Hoover-approved farm relief bill from further modification at the hands of the Democratic-Insurgent coalition.

After adopting the export duties plan, which Mr. Hoover thoroughly disapproved, the Senate slashed out of the bill a provision proposing to give the president the extraordinary power to annually raise the salary of the proposed federal farm board. Nothing quite like this power has ever been given a president and the Senate coalition of Democrats and Insurgents denied it to Mr. Hoover.

This action in itself did not alarm administration leaders so much as its significance. They interpreted it as meaning the administration, despite its very insurmountable majority in the Senate has lost control of that branch of Congress to the old Democratic-Insurgent alliance, just as it did in the Seventieth Congress when the Republicans had the "paper" majority. They fear this tendency to override the President and his wishes may wreak havoc in the much more important tariff fight yet to come. It likewise is looked upon as an indication that Mr. Hoover faces strenuous legislative battles throughout his administration.

The salary provision originated with the Department of Agriculture. It was approved by the House because it was suggested Mr. Hoover would like to select some "big business" man to direct the new farm board. It was felt that the President should have the power to pay a proper salary to the right man. As approved by the House, the President could have paid $100,000 to the chairman, although Congress undoubtedly would have slashed any exorbitant salary after the first year. The Senate, however, will have none of it. The provision was eliminated by a vote of 48 to 35.

TESTIMONY ENDS IN SUIT AGAINST NEW YORK BANK

Final Sessions Today Held In Courthouse For The First Time

Taking of testimony in the City's suit against the Chase National Bank was dragging through today after a week's examination of witnesses, most of them in behalf of the municipality. Counsel for the defendant opened its case this morning in the courthouse, the only one being the only one held outside of the offices of George A. DeCottey, special counsel for the City.

The morning session was taken up with the examination and cross-examination of A. H. Key, former cashier of the Seminoles County Bank, who was questioned concerning methods of keeping the bond trustees' books prior to the failure of the institution. Numerous notes, ledger sheets and other vouchers were produced and were placed in evidence and Key vouchered against this account concerning ledger entries and transactions between the defunct bank and the Chase National Bank.

English Premier Says Peace Treaties Have Improved Relations Between Countries

LONDON, May 11.—(INS)—Expectation of early progress towards disarmament was voiced by Premier Stanley Baldwin, leader of the Conservative party, who is standing for re-election to the House of Commons. After commenting upon the Locarno pact and the Kellogg-Briand Treaty for renunciation of war, the premier said:

"The improvement in the international situation wrought by these important treaties allows us to look with confidence for an early advance towards disarmament. We stand for reduction, not merely limitation of armaments and in this field we have set a notable example."

The statement, however, dealt almost wholly with domestic political issues. The most expensive general election in England for 46 years will be fought on May 30 when, it is conservatively estimated, $12,500,000 will be spent by the three major political parties.

To this will have to be added the expense of returning officers, poll clerks, hire of halls for polling purposes, and other incidental expenses not incurred by the political parties. These expenses are paid by the Treasury, which already has set $1,000,000 aside for part settlement.

Representative Accuses Taft Of Thwarting Law In Sugar Trust Swindle Case

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(INS)—Chief Justice William Howard Taft was severely criticized in the House today by Representative Rainey (D) of Illinois, for accepting an annuity from the "sugar trust" which Rainey's criticism was made during a debate on the tariff bill during which he attacked the proposed increase on sugar and assailed the "sugar scandal" of the Taft administration. He declared the "sugar trust" stole millions of dollars by altering weights on scales to escape sugar tariff duties; that only a few undeterrable were convicted and added "every one of these was pardoned before President Taft left office."

POLICEMAN REWARDED

CHICAGO, May 11.—(INS)—Man dropped a package on the street here today. Policeman Stephen Pavlak saw the envelope called it to the attention of the man. The man opened the package and a $5 bill from the roll of more than $10,000 and handed it to the policeman.

"I am given to understand that a joint conference has approved a resolution raising the amount of loan per acre available to the farmers in the area which suffered in the late storm. Approximately $1,000,000 remains of the original appropriation of $4,000,000. The appropriation of $4,000,000 might be made for seed and fertilizer up to $25 per acre on cotton and tobacco but not more than $3 per acre for other crops. This made the appropriation of little service to fruit and vegetable growers in the storm-swept section of Florida whose seed and fertilizer cost far more than $3 per acre."

TARIFF FIGHT MAY RESULT IN HIGHER RATES

Republican Heads Desire To Divert Coalition Forming To Defeat Legislature

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(INS)—A compromise under which additional tariff barriers will be raised for both the industrial East and the agricultural South may emerge from the battle being waged in the House over the new Hawley tariff bill, it appeared today.

Republican leaders of the House abandoned all hope of passing the bill as it came from the committee and instead were working out plans to defeat a threatened coalition between Republicans and Democrats from the West and South to rid the whole measure. The optimistic predictions of the House leaders that the bill would be passed by the House within 10 days also were knocked into a cocked hat. They have now set May 23 as a tentative date for a final vote but expect that this will be moved up to about June 1.

Demands of the East for revision of the bill centered around boots, shoes and leather goods while the farm bloc is proposing sharp increases in duties on nine schedules, including live cattle, casein, hides, tannin and sago, potato starch, black strap molasses, flaxseed and butter. At the same time the formation of a "consumers' bloc" was under way, with the boot, shoe and cement, brick and shingles schedules as the principal targets. Having held a 2-hour Republican conference without reaching a definite agreement, House leaders planned to continue general debate on the floor and call the Republicans to negotiate an agreement under which the bill could be passed over Democratic opposition.

Tampa Policeman Is Held In Fatal Firing

Golden, 24, who was killed on the street here late yesterday. The officer had arrested Golden, together with two other men, for drunkenness. Pick Pocket Steals Will Roger's Ticket

WASHINGTON, May 11.—(INS)—Will Rogers' equanimity is not shockproof, it was learned today when word leaked out that he had his pocket picked of winning tickets at the Preskness yesterday. Rogers was cheering the winner just as he crossed the line and, turning to his companions, Governor Ritchie, Admiral Cary T. Grayson, and J. K. L. Ross, informed them he had tickets on the winner. He started to take them from his pocket only to find a "dip" had been there first. Rogers used some picturesque language.

YOUTH'S KILLING BY AGENTS STIRS OFFICIAL ACTION

Governor Byrd To Demand Full Report Of Fatal Shooting

ABINGDON, Va., May 11.—(INS)—With indictment looming for policeman McReynolds and his deputies, James Crowe and J. H. Worley, alleged to have shot and killed youthful J. M. Kendrick while pursuing a suspected liquor-running car, officials of this town today awaited the promised demand from Governor Harry Byrd for a full report of the fatal shooting.

Advices from the state capital at Richmond indicated that Governor Byrd was "deeply concerned" over the killing of the college student and quoted the state executive as saying: "While these officers are not under my control I shall request immediately for a report of the incident. I will determine my course of action after I get this report."

They had been referred to as having negro blood but denied it. The national association for the advancement of colored people also will aid the women.

USE OF TROOPS IN STRIKE AREA IS PROTESTED

Labor Unions Demand Withdrawal Of Militia In Elizabethton Strike Torn District

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., May 11.—(INS)—Vigorous protest against the use of state troops in the Happy Valley textile strike had today gone to Governor Horton, following a meeting here last night of forty representatives of various labor unions of Johnson City, Elizabethton and Erwin.

Withdrawal of the troops by the Governor was demanded "on the grounds that the use of the militia in strike situations is unconstitutional and needless and an affront to taxpayers in these communities."

Horton had sent state guardsmen to Elizabethton to keep order during the strike of employees at the American Bemberg and American Glanzstoff rayon plants.

Careful investigation by local officers have failed to reveal any connection between the dynamiting of the home of Mack Elliott on Stony Creek, near Elizabethton Thursday night and the labor troubles in the section. The investigators declared that they expect to make an arrest in the case within the next few days.

Additional employees were taken on yesterday at the two-month mills and officials said many others had been told that they could return to work Monday, at which time the Bemberg plant is scheduled to reach capacity production.

Police Hold Man Who Stabbed Three Times

SANTA MONICA, Cal., May 11.—(INS)—Matthew D. Guydera, 20, who claims to be the son of a wealthy New York family, was held by police today pending investigation of an affray in which Mrs. Mary Sherrill, 30, of Los Angeles, was thrice stabbed in the back. Guydera said he came here a few days ago to settle a disagreement with Mrs. Sherrill whom he had known for some time.

Guydera told police a quarrel arose between Mrs. Sherrill and himself while they were motorizing home from a beach cabaret. During the argument Mrs. Sherrill attempted to stab him with a razor, he charged. In the struggle, Guydera accidentally stabbed the woman, he admitted.

Mrs. Sherrill was taken to a hospital for treatment of three stab wounds. She will recover, doctors said.

SALES INCREASE
NEW YORK, May 11.—(INS)—Edison Brothers, Inc., operating a chain of shoe stores in the South, reported for the April, 1929, month a sales increase of $224,625, totaling $271,072 for April, 1929, an increase of 9.4 percent for the four months ended April 30, 1929, against a total of $247,588 against $221,192 for the same period last year.

THE LOUISIANA DIVISION OF THE UNITED DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY HAS TONE ON RECORD AS BEING IN FAVOR OF DISCOURAGING OBSERVANCE OF LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY IN SOUTHERN PUBLIC SCHOOLS. WE DOUBT THAT SUCH ACTION IS APPROVED BY OTHER DIVISIONS OF THAT PATRIOTIC ORDER WHICH CERTAINLY DOES NOT CONDONE A POLICY WORKING FOR SECTIONAL DISCORD. THE AIMS OF THE U. D. C., AS WE UNDERSTAND THEM, ARE OF A HIGH PURPOSE CALCULATED TO HONOR AND PERPETUATE THE MEMORIES OF THE SOUTH'S HEROES AND NOT TO MINIMIZE OR CRITICIZE THE MEN AND DEEDS OF THE OTHER SIDE.

It is amazing that any such course would be adopted by an intelligent people seventy years after a struggle, characterized by honest and noble convictions on both sides, had subsided. But the unbelievable has happened and we may expect that the children of Louisiana will be reminded that even though Lincoln is an outstanding figure in American history, there is a certain taint to his name which makes it advisable not to mention it too frequently. And we suppose that the logical thing for the schools in the North to do is to impress upon their children that Lee is not to be considered seriously. All this makes for such close understanding and is so American.

After all, it occurs to us, we are all more or less Americans and it would appear that praise of Lincoln or Lee or any other illustrious figure on either side adds to the glory of us all. Not only was the action of the U. D. C. division a flagrant example of poor sportsmanship, which would shame many a Confederate soldier, but it was a pathetic example of a naive prejudice which we hate to admit still exists.

A Timely Warning

The Jacksonville Journal quotes a statement from a prominent aviation corporation to sound a warning against dumping of funds into stocks of air transportation ventures. The Journal sees real cause for alarm over the manner in which the public has been misled out of huge sums in promotions and other get-rich-quick schemes. The newspaper continues:

"Nineteen twenty-eight was a banner year. More than 5000 planes were produced, as against less than 2000 for 1927. Conservative estimates indicate that more than 10,000 planes will be produced in 1929. With such a tremendous rate of growth already established, it has been easy to obtain new capital. As a result, new companies are being formed at the rate of two a week by designers, plants with excess capacity, and ambitious promoters who hope to repeat the history of some of the early automobile promoters. Today 45 companies manufacture 92 per cent of the aircraft production in America, with an equal number producing the remaining 8 per cent. Thirty-four automobile manufacturers produced 99.23 per cent of the 3,120,000 automobiles built in this country last year. Only one automobile company is still in business for every ten that started.

"Undoubtedly the aviation industry will follow the same cycle. The number of aviation companies will increase until poor organization, lack of capital, or inability to meet competitive prices due to lack of volume eventually reduce the number to a total not exceeding the present number of automobile manufacturers.

Which of the names now well known in aviation will be known ten years from now? In general it may be said that the future belongs to those companies that have built soundly and well in the past and in the present."

BEST TO TELL
TAMPA TIMES

Governor Daws rendered Florida a distinct service by his work in connection with the state industrial survey ordered by the 1927 legislature. Since that task was completed, he has engaged in an intensive and exhaustive investigation of the finances of the various counties and districts in the state, the result of which has been another distinctive service—in that it has brought a realization of the extent of our spending orgy and the unescapable conviction that we must slow down, meanwhile revamping our tax program, unless we are willing to risk running upon the rocks.

The house of representatives last week adopted a resolution calling upon Mr. Daws for some information in connection with his activities. This resolution asked Mr. Daws specifically:

1. What compensation he himself has received for his services in this connection, and who, in detail, has paid same.
2. What compensation he himself expects to receive for his services in this connection, and from whom, in detail, he expects such compensation.
3. Who is paying, or will pay for the extensive amount of printed matter giving the results of such investigation.

In making prompt reply to the house resolution, Mr. Daws said, in part:

Regarding my unofficial work since the date of completing the industrial survey, I inform the house that:

1. No money has been paid me in any manner by the state of Florida, nor from any account controlled by any department. My salary for such research as has been presented in the form of "Florida's Financial and Fiscal Condition" was set by me, and is sometimes paid and sometimes not. I planned to receive $400 per month, but it has been irregularly available, and is at the present moment in arrears.
2. No future reward has been offered to me nor sought by me from anyone.
3. No bill or gross of bills before the legislature is of my authorship.
4. No debts for printing matter or any other accounts now due are unpaid by me.
5. No lobbying function is now nor has been, performed.

The Times regrets that Mr. Daws was not more explicit in his reply. It is impressed that what the house really wanted—no matter for what purpose it may be wanted—was to know the source of his pay. Mr. Daws gave no information as to that—contenting himself with the statement that

JOHN TEMPLE GRAVES II

"Higher still and higher
From the earth thou springest,
Like a cloud of fire
The blue deep thou wingest."

Springing nearly eight miles from the earth, Lieutenant Soucek established a new altitude record with his plane last Wednesday. He found a temperature seventy-six degrees below zero. It is a bit terrifying to think that only 40,000 feet from our comfortable daily habitat lies this "frozen" area of death-dealing temperature.

Now it is being said that the Medfly has been in existence in Florida for forty years without ever becoming an actual menace until this year when so much fruit was allowed to lie on the ground under the trees because of the excess crop. Mosquitoes, sighing for more and more Italians, should consider the Medfly and the stim-

John J. Hanson of General Motors and the Democratic national committee plans a vast investment trust company which will take the American workingman's savings and invest them for him in some of the enormously profitable corporation stocks of today, thus admitting labor to a share in the so-called bull market. He hopes to have Calvin Coolidge and Al Smith join him in this elementary plan but we doubt if they will and we hope the won't. It would be an industrial paternalism of the deadliest sort. The power which such an organization would have over labor and capital alike would be too great to entrust to any small group of corporate officials no matter how well-intentioned they might be.

A department which pays "retirement" bills features a newly organized bank in Escudale, N. Y. Depositors may forward their bills to the bank approved for payment and the bank does the rest. The hitch in the arrangement is that the depositor is required to have enough money on deposit to cover the bills. Otherwise the great "first-of-the-month" problem would be solved.

So distinguished an American... So great a public servant!... thus is Alfred E. Smith described by Herbert Hoover on the occasion of the award of Notre

It is undoubtedly strange to see a generous gesture from a scientist to a warrior.

About 70,000 entries have been received for the $25,000 prize offered by William Randolph Hearst for "a practicable plan as a substitute for prohibition." One highly "impracticable" plan would be to have each one of the entrants practice whatever he preaches for the prize.

The Key West jury did do more for Congressman Michaelson than a Calais or a Seattle or a San Diego one would. In other words, presented with hardly disputable evidence that he imported liquor into this country from Cuba and transported it through Jacksonville, and twice good man and true solemnly "discovered" that he did nothing of the sort. Such is life under the Volstead law!

In view of the senate's vote for the export embargo plan, the statistical question arises of just how much larger a majority Herbert Hoover would have had to have last November to have avoided this defeat in his first major controversy with the upper house of Congress.

The new public hangman at Budapest Hungary wears a silk hat, a frock coat and spurs in performance of his duty. He is dressed to kill.—St. Paul Pioneer

The completeness with which Mussolini has imposed his will on Italy was strikingly shown at the initial session of the All-Parliament on Saturday. The speech from the throne was the speech of the Premier. The voice of acclaim from the 400 Deputies was the voice of the Prime Minister. Never was there a more perfect puppet show enacted in the halls of what, in all appearances, was a representative assembly.

Other rulers by other Constitutional monarchies may have a little authority as Victor Emmanuel III. The British Parliament is opened by a speech from the King which is prepared for him by the Ministry. In Italy, usually, the utter emptiness of the formality was emphasized in the case of the Italian monarch. Like Alfonso of Spain, Victor Emmanuel has become a rubber stamp. Lacking even the thin vestige of power of George V, he is a pathetic puppet.

As such he led the dance of the marionettes that is Mussolini's contribution to dictatorial government—a transparent show of Parliamentarism but in reality a mockery of anything like democracy.

What the king said, is therefore, of little importance. It had already been said by Mussolini. The

Install New Spark Plugs In Cars Every Year, Says Expert

DETROIT, Mich., May 11.—The motor car owners now desire the greater satisfaction from the operating ceremony of their cars by installing new spark plugs at least once a year.

The speaker was F. B. Caswell, chief of sales of the Champion Spark Plug Co.

Motor car engines of earlier years with their slow speed and low compression, were easy on the spark plug structure, even though they were more fouling and "struggling" than modern engines. "As a result, spark plug service was considered something of a luxury," he said. It was, however, only a few years ago that manufacturers took genuine interest in the fact that the spark plug deteriorated in service almost indefinitely, except by fouling or accidental breakage. But with the introduction of higher speed engines with much higher compression, it was found beyond question that spark plugs, no matter how well made, would not last long. By utilizing the principle of making the core of the plug by special electrodes, our company was able to produce plugs which give improved service for a much longer time. But experiments conducted both by ourselves and by car manufacturers, revealed that even the better of our plugs deteriorated in service because of the greater stresses of high compression engine operation. Carbon was burned into the insulator and the points became pitted. This weakened the spark. Consequently the compressed mixture was not fired with sufficient rapidity to produce complete burning. Loss of power and waste of fuel resulted.

"For some time we hesitated to make these facts known. But we finally decided that a public which has been so kind in its patronage was entitled to know the truth. More than five years ago we began to tell why it was desirable to actually monetary economy—to renew spark plugs at least once a year. The idea was not well received. Both the trade and the public took it for granted that as long as a spark plug fired that was all that was necessary."

be located at the time, Key testified.

Key then was quizzed concerning a written opinion, prepared by former city attorney DeCottis, who, the defense claims, furnished the document at Lake's request and for the purpose of okeying the legality of one of the disputed certificates of indebtedness. The witness testified that he was present during a conversation between DeCottis and Lake, in which he brought Lake told DeCottis that he (Lake) wanted the opinion to furnish to the Chase National Bank, a witness this week in behalf of the City, had previously testified that he did not know such disposition was to be made of the opinion.

Referring to the three disputed certificates of indebtedness, one for $300,000, one for $200,000 and another for $100,000, counsel for the defense introduced a credit memorandum from the Chase National Bank for $100,000 and, through Key's testimony, connected it with the credit that had been given by the Chase National Bank against the three certificates.

Counsel for the City on cross-examination, sought to show by examination of the witness that City Commissioner S. O. Chase often asked Key for information on the bond trustees' accounts, that such information was always given orally by Key, and that the Commissioner didn't have access to the books. This, Key denied, testifying that Mr. Chase was not denied access to the books and that the Commissioner never asked to see them.

April's Production Figures Establish Chevrolet Record

DETROIT, May 11.—Exceeding by approximately 10,000 units, its best previous monthly manufacturing record, the Chevrolet Motor Company in April established a new all-time monthly production record with an output of 157,137 cars and trucks. April was the second consecutive month during which Chevrolet set up a new all-time monthly producing mark, March having been high with 147,722 units.

The phenomenal April achievement brings Chevrolet's production in the first four months up to the record total of 511,537 units as compared with 477,907 for the corresponding period of 1928, a gain of more than 33,000 units over the best previous corresponding period in the company's history.

The most significant feature of Chevrolet's manufacturing performance during the first four months is the fact that during this limited period Chevrolet built more six cylinder cars than any other manufacturer has ever built in an entire year.

Co-incident with the announcement of this latest Chevrolet production achievement was the indication that in response to the greatest demand Chevrolet has ever known, May will see another all-time monthly record established. Tentative schedules arranged for the current month call for a May production of 160,000 cars and trucks.

Sixteen giant factories located at strategic points from coast to coast are now working with all the speed consistent with Chevrolet's precision manufacturing methods to accommodate the greatest Spring business in the history of the company.

DETROIT, MICH., May 11.—An interesting deviation from common practice is found in the transmission of the speedster model of 1929 Essex line, just introduced. Since this model has a somewhat lower weight and considerably less head resistance than standard closed models, for which the regular Essex transmission is designed, the Hudson Motor Car Co., according to the engineers, has provided a higher

High Compression Motor Of Whippet Is One Of Features

TOLEDO, O., May 11.—Although notable advancements have been made in the past few years in the development of four cylinder engines, which marked economy in fuel consumption without sacrificing power, speed or all-around performance, the higher compression engine employed in the Whippet Six strikes a new note of lower gasoline consumption for light sizes.

Through the past year while the new Whippet Six power plant was in the hands of Willis Overland engineers undergoing strenuous tests in various sections of the country to bring it to its present point of engineering perfection, careful check was kept on its fuel consumption. In fact, many of the tests were made to accurately determine this.

The tests disclosed that, compared with its predecessor, the engine in the Superior Whippet Six showed a notable reduction in consumption of fuel despite a materially improved speed and power development.

This decisive factor is attributed by Willis-Overland engineers to improvements incorporated in the Whippet Six engine, although the fundamental principles of its predecessor have in the main been retained.

AC Millions of users say—

there are just two kinds of spark plugs—AC's and the other kind.

AC's are known as the better spark plugs because of their patented one-piece gas-tight construction and welded side electrode—35 times better in electrical conductivity than the old "staking" method used in ordinary spark plugs. AC quality in design and construction insures easy starting, fast pickup, brilliant performance.

Here is the evidence: AC Spark Plugs are endorsed by the world's leading engineers and used as standard equipment on such cars as:

Buick	Kissel
Cadillac	La Salle
Chandler	Nash
Chevrolet	Oakland
De Soto	Oldsmobile
du Pont	Plymouth
Essex	Pontiac
Hudson	Viking
	Yellow Cab

But even the best spark plugs wear out. For increased power—and even for better gasoline mileage—change spark plugs every ten thousand miles. In a few minutes, any AC dealer equip you with the right type of plug for your car.

AT a record low price for so large and so beautiful a Knight-engined car the new style Willys-Knight "70-B" is bringing the superiorities of the patented double sleeve-valve motor to thousands of added owners.

In each cylinder of this simplest and most efficient of power plants, two metal sleeves combine with the dome-shaped cylinder head to form a perfectly sealed combustion chamber. The full force of the explosion is directed straight downward against the piston, making the most efficient use of the highly compressed gas.

In the Willys-Knight "70-B" a rugged seven-bearing crankshaft reduces vibration to a minimum, while the car's improved frame construction gives extra strength and rigidity.

The Knight engine gives high uniform compression at all times, at all speeds, and with any gas—and it is the only type of engine that keeps growing smoother and quieter with use.
