

OVER FIVE HUNDRED MEMBERS RED CROSS FOR SEMINOLE COUNTY

Drive Was Successful and Will Be Maintained This Week

Seminole county will have more than five hundred members of the Red Cross as a result of the Christmas drive for membership.

When one considers the inclement weather of the past week and the fact that the supplies were short, that most everybody was busy with Christmas worries and troubles and that many of the people had already been taxed to death this showing is all that could be desired.

An unofficial statement from Treasurer Deas shows that the membership will be over five hundred and it is thought that the good work and it is continued this week. If possible in order to give all those who were missed the opportunity to come to now.

The names of all those who are members will be given in another issue as well as the various precincts of the county and this list will no doubt run the figures up to about six hundred members which is all that could be asked for at this time.

The following from Washington is interesting: Managers of the Red Cross campaign for ten million members here to Christmas Day decided today to permit local field workers to continue their drive throughout the week in several of the divisions because of unfavorable weather conditions during the first days of the campaign.

Torrential rains in the northwest washed out bridges and made roads impassable, but in spite of this Oregon has exceeded its quota of 28,000 and Washington and Idaho promise to pass theirs. The gulf division already has reported 283,014 enrolled members on a quota of 204,000; Pennsylvania is within 22,000 of its quota of 1,192,000, the Pacific division is within 24,000 of its 347,000 quota, and the central division has voluntarily raised its quota from 1,150,000 to 1,500,000, a figure which the local directors expect to pass.

Secretary of State Lansing tonight wrote this Red Cross Christmas message: "The Christmasetide has become by long established custom the time for the giving of gifts, a time when hearts, inspired by thankfulness to God, for His supreme gift to mankind, throbs with responsive emotions which find expression in acts of love and generosity.

"It is peculiarly fitting therefore in these days when the world is darkened by war and misery, that the American people should with a true Christmas spirit give of their bounty to that great agency of mercy, the American Red Cross, which is doing such splendid service in alleviating suffering on the battlefields of Europe and in bringing comfort to the thousands of helpless ones who are victims of the brutalities of war.

"In response to the generous impulses awakened by thoughts of Christmas let us as a nation show our love for humanity and our gratitude to God by remembering at this time the Red Cross and its needs."

Mrs. Brown was taken ill early in the week, but on Wednesday it was thought that she was improving. She suffered a relapse yesterday and died at noon today.

This State Will Be Fostered By Government Experts

Washington, D. C., Dec. 22.—Florida, which is the great outdoor conservatory of the United States is going to have a chance very soon to show the nation in stubborn figures what a valuable supply of table delicacies, and what an important and dependable crop of edibles, and what a versatility and well rounded abundance of good things to eat that state is pouring into the cornucopia that Uncle Sam is holding out to be filled.

And in making this demonstration Florida will be laying plans for more adequate transportation facilities to move the seasonal crops and will be getting in line for some of the new food crops that the government is going to encourage the various communities to produce as they see best fitted. Out of this demonstration of ability Florida stands a fine chance of getting several new food staple crops with the government guaranteeing to market the produce.

Every dealer in foodstuffs, every manufacturer of food products, every holder of food in more than family lots in the country is expected to join in the first year and stock taking decreed by Uncle Sam. This nationwide war emergency food survey, provided for by the last congress is to be conducted by the U. S. bureau of markets under the department of agriculture. It requires answer on a schedule of 86 items covering more than 100 different foods.

Agents of the bureau of markets throughout the country have been furnished with a supply of schedules. Mr. Brand announces and will distribute them on request to the dealers and other holders of food in quantities larger than for family use.

Besides a statement of stocks on hand Dec. 31 of this year in comparison of Dec. 31 of last year, estimates of quantities in transit by freight or express are required. In addition to this survey made by a mail system which will cover most commercial holdings of food in the country, intensive surveys will be made by agents of the 43 typical counties in various parts of the United States and these will be used to check up the reports received by mail.

The bureau of crop estimates will also place on record a statement of the stocks of foodstuffs on farms. It is expected that the complete survey will yield the most accurate information ever collected in regard to the extent of the nation's food resources and Florida should occupy an enviable position as leader in seasonal supply of some of the most tasty food crops. This survey is considered by the federal officials in close touch with war activities to be an important step in the effort to place the country on a safe footing as far as the food supply is concerned.

The figures, it is explained, will permit the making of intelligent plans for adequate conservation and distribution of existing food supplies and for the production of additional, needed supplies.

The League for National Unity today issued a declaration, signed by its officers and executive committee, in which all efforts toward a premature peace are condemned and the determination of continuing the war until a military victory is achieved and the autocratic power of the imperial German government is broken, is pledged.

"We are in this war to conquer the enemy's armies," declares the statement, "though not his territory or population. We intend to nullify the power of the imperial German government. We do not intend that it shall gain, at the expense of other nations, either an enlargement of territory, or an expansion of industrial and commercial opportunities, or an increase of prestige."

"When German military reverses obliterate just victories and the war map becomes unfavorable, no doubt some of the German parties will begin to consider the peace principles of world democracy," the statement concludes. "But no industrial German party yet sees coming defeat. There is, therefore, as yet no common ground for discussion between the partisans of might and the partisans of right."

"The imperial German government, foiled and defeated in its plan to cripple the great self governing nations of the world, first France, next England, last the United States is seeking to achieve through its proposals for peace what it has been unable to obtain by arms.

"The imperial German government seeks a compromise in the irrepressible conflict between autocracy and democracy before it shall be too late. All who are willing to compromise on this issue are willing to aid despotism, as all who urged compromise on Abraham Lincoln in the Civil war aided slavery; the American people today are fighting their own liberty as well as for the freedom of the world. The world cannot be safe for democracy so long as an organized autocracy—its people still believing it victorious—is entrenched in the center of Europe leading 10,000,000 armed men and possessing the resources of 170,000,000 people in the world's central position for all seas and all continents."

Asserting that the underlying cause for America's entrance into the war was that the German government "endangered our safety and challenges our freedom," the statement declares that "President Wilson was the true spokesman of the American people when he said in his message to congress that the American people are impatient with those who desire peace by any sort of compromise."

"No compromise is conceivable," continues the declaration, "if the German government is not utterly brought to an end by military defeat or political revolution from within. Since a lasting world peace is our chief war aim, which of Germany's crimes can we afford to accept as innocent acts and permit to be repented and continued? Which oppressed nationality can we safely abandon to her sovereignty? What slaughter of innocents and destruction of their property shall we leave without such reparation as can be afforded by financial indemnity?"

Quoting from President Wilson's assertions that the war will not be won until the rulers of the German people make reparation for the wrongs they have done, the league asserts that indemnities should be paid in the cases of Belgium, Serbia, Poland, Roumania and France.

League For National Unity Want Germany Subdued

Fifteen Ways to Help Win the War

At the Liberty Convention of the National Wholesale Grocers' Association recently held in Chicago, the following recommendations were made to enlist the cooperation of business men in war organizations:

1—Remove the erroneous impression that the present war will be of short duration, and urge constant preparation on the basis of a long war of at least three years.

2—Help make better known the principal at stake and the dire results of a victory for the enemy.

3—Practice and preach the elimination of waste by the checking of actual extravagance and eliminating as promptly as practicable the production of non-essentials.

4—Take a census of employees of military age and plan in advance, so far as possible, for their replacement by men not of military age or by women.

5—Conserve the supply of tin-plate, by packing coffee and other food products in containers other than tin where tin is not absolutely necessary and get in harmony with the committee on the conservation of tin place in the cancellation or suspension of contracts for nonperishable canned foods.

6—Continue the publication of monthly price lists, and otherwise conserve the supply of paper, substituting a cheaper type of paper in connection with the sale of bulk coffee.

7—Prevent the waste that occurs in the sale of goods in less than original packages, and request manufacturers to adopt original packages of sizes that make it possible for the retailer to order without buying more than his wants require.

8—Economize in men and trucking equipment, arranging with customers to accept sidewalk deliveries, that more deliveries per day per truck may be affected, and so arrange our various delivery zones and days for delivery therein that the maximum loads may be assured and the territories covered by each truck reduced.

9—Urge the adoption, wherever possible, of cooperative delivery both by whole sale and retailers.

10—Urge the discontinuance of the buying by customers of excessive for hoarding purposes, and thereby avoid wastage of food caused by improper canning and higher prices by reason of sudden and abnormal increases in the demand.

11—Encourage communities, so far as possible, to consume home-grown and home produced goods, thereby helping to relieve the congestion prevailing on the railroads.

12—Urge the establishment of canneries and abattoirs in small centers or communities, as far as it is economically possible, to obviate the necessity of sending fruits, vegetables and live stock to distant points, only to have them re-shipped to the vicinity of their origin after they have been canned or killed and dressed.

13—Hold frequent meetings in each community to discuss plans for saving and for the recital of individuals of (1) saving effected, (2) waste, still prevailing and means to eliminate it, and (3) ways to stimulate war service, military and industrial.

14—Incourage a campaign in each locality for greater efficiency in freight shipping, including prompt loading and unloading. The Cleveland Grocer.

Free Seeds for Distribution Senator Park Trammell has sent a lot of government seeds to the Herald office and wants all those who are interested in planting to come and get a package of them free. The packages consist of peas, beet, lettuce, muskmelon and radish. You can get them at this office or send for them and they will be mailed to your address anywhere in Seminole county.

Have Whip Hand In Council With Half Baked Russians

Peace negotiations between the Teutonic allies and the Russians have begun at Brest-Litovsk. And apparently the enemy has played a trump card at the outset, for at the proposal of Prince Leopold of Bavaria, the German commander in chief on the Russian front, Dr. von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary and an astute politician has been chosen unambiguously as official chairman.

A noteworthy fact in the composition of the delegations from the various countries allied with the Austro-Germans is that they include men who have stood high in the councils of their respective countries, while the men who are to handle Russia's interests for the most part are unknown in world politics.

Still another outstanding fact in the meager details of the formation of the conference that thus far have come through is that Roumania is not credited with having sent delegates to Brest-Litovsk. The possibility is therefore that Roumania has decided to hold aloof from discussing a separate peace, notwithstanding the fact that geographically she will be completely isolated from her allies should the negotiations result in Russia quitting the war.

On the fighting fronts, even Italy, the activity of the troops is below normal. In France and Belgium the fighting that is in progress is merely in the nature of outpost encounters, while on the northern Italian front the enemy has lost the initiative, which is entirely in the hands of General Diaz's men.

The situation on the Italian front is not expected long to remain as it is, however, for the Austro Germans are constantly bringing up heavy reinforcements and a return to their offensive is to be expected.

Reinforced by British and French troops and newly equipped in every department the Italians now are preparing to sell and at a dear price, every inch of ground that the Austro Germans may take.

In Argentina demonstrations in favor of the South American republic entering the war against the Teutonic allies continues as a result of the latest exposures of German intrigue in dispatches sent by Count von Luxburg, the former German minister, to the foreign office in Berlin.

ONE WON—LOST ONE

Girls Lost Game—Boys Won Their Game

Last Friday night the boys of the Sanford High School won their third game of basketball this season, defeating the Leesburg High School team 33 to 9. It was a pretty game from start to finish but the Sanford boys clearly outplayed them. All the local boys played well and showed good team work. The line up follows:

Sanford: Isay Kanner, forward, captain; G. W. Spencer, forward; Roy Burns, center; Rex Holiday, guard; Robert Cobb, guard. Leesburg: (Lost record).

The girls lost their first game to DeLand High School, being defeated with the close score of 14 to 10. The DeLand girls with a tall center and good team work were able to defeat the locals. The hard playing of Helen Peck deserves special mention. For the first half she played running center and the last half as guard, in an effort to hold off defeat. She played fast and showed the true fighting spirit of the Sanford High but was playing against too great odds.

Sanford line up: Cora Lee Tillis, forward; Mollie Abernathy, forward; Helen Hand, center; Helen Peck, running center; Catherine Lewis, guard; Adele Rines, guard. DeLand: (Lost record).

DeSoto county has received the largest sum of money yet distributed in any county in the state by the Federal Farm Loan, the amount being $83,515.

PUBLICITY PULLS PROGRESS

"PRODUCING NOT PROMOTING" BOARD OF TRADE RESULTS
(BY THE SECRETARY)

The Bureau of Markets established in Sanford on the 19th is another successful accomplishment of the Board of Trade. It costs the government several hundred dollars per month to operate and maintain this service and its purpose is for direct benefit to the grower and shipper. The service is free and with no strings tied to it. If your name is not on the daily mailing list, telephone 128 or address Bureau of Markets, Box 1049, Sanford, and your name will be listed at once. The service is the first of its kind ever brought to Seminole county and is your protection. We hope you'll like it.

The "Makings" of a Nation

The best and is attracting the tourist who otherwise would pass on. It just takes pushing and everybody pulling for their own home town.

Five Illinois ladies, tourists for the season have reached Sanford and the Board of Trade found accommodation for them at the homes of Mrs. Murrell and Mrs. Bray, Magnolia avenue. There are others to follow.

More than 200 tourists are booked to reach Sanford during January for a stay of from one to six weeks. Some more good work of the Board of Trade and who benefits but every citizen.

The question now is getting stuff over the road. The reason for this is visible and apparently the government is seeing the light.

The annual election of officers of the Board of Trade will occur on the second Tuesday of January, 1918. There is to be elected a president, 1st and 2nd vice presidents and six members of the board of governors, the above named officers are automatically three of the board. The matter, according to the by-laws is handled by nomination and ballot, but to vote, your name must be paid from January 1st to July 1st, 1918. The success of the organization depends upon a business set of officers and as a member it is your duty to equip yourself to vote and see that good men are elected for the coming year.

Sixty-two cars of lettuce and vegetables left Sanford for northern markets last Monday. Suppose you had been required to pay fifty per cent freight rate advance on these sixty-two cars; the total above the rate today would have been just $1,612. The efforts then of this organization to have the Interstate Commerce Commission last May and June saved you this for a single day.

Imagine how much that means for a season—an average of more than $500 per day. Don't you think it is your duty to belong to this Board of Trade. Suppose you only ship one car a year, then your saving is $20 because of our efforts. This amounts to more than enough to pay your Board of Trade dues for the year. Now if you are not a member, it is not compulsory for you to join and help support this organization and for that matter the organization will continue to flourish and do things over and over for the good of all, but reverting back to justice and to citizenship; don't you want to show your appreciation and don't you want to be in turn for all these things pay your membership of $10 a year and be recorded as being among those who appreciate. Very likely your next door neighbor is a member. If you are in arrears send in your check or send in your application for a new membership. You will sorely need the Board of Trade before this shipping season is over. Watch this prediction.

We wish to acknowledge with pleasure, the several letters received from growers expressing their appreciation for our efforts in securing the Bureau of Markets for Seminole county. It is indeed gratifying for the many persons to be pleased with the work of the Board of Trade.

Our business is to boost not knock—no loyal citizen knocks his town, county or neighbor.

Pastors Day Presbyterian Church
Next Sunday will be an unusual day at the Presbyterian church. Two former pastors of the church, Rev. Frank D. Hunt and J. F. McKinnon will be present and letters from other pastors of the church from their various charges throughout the south will be read to the congregation. It will take this congregation back in memory to the pleasant ties of days gone by, and will interest them in news of these friends. The pastoral relationship in the Presbyterian church is a very intimate one. According to the ideals of the installation service it is a marriage ceremony.

Rev. J. F. McKinnon will preach at the morning service and the Christmas music will be rendered. Rev. Frank D. Hunt of Bristol, Va., will preach at 7 Sunday night. His many friends in Sanford are asked to help spread this announcement abroad that those of his friends not otherwise apprised of this service might come.

WHITE GIFT CHRISTMAS

Fine Entertainment at Presbyterian Church

Last night the Presbyterians observed a White Gift service at the church. The church was beautifully decorated in white and a very interesting program was given by the school. The major part of the program was a rendition of a Christmas cantata, "Christ Came to Earth, But Not as a King." Offerings were made by the school and congregation. Not as a King." Offerings were made by the school and congregation to Thornwell Orphanage where 320 children are cared for. The offering was $31 in cash and a large lot of all kinds of useful clothing and other presents which will be shipped to these little ones.

Miss Alice Whitner, who had the entertainment in charge and the musicians of the church are being congratulated upon the success of the evening.

The usual Friday night dance will be given at the Hotel Carnes tonight. Dancing begins at nine o'clock.

Service Flag for Baptist Church

A committee was appointed some time ago in the Baptist church to procure a Service Flag for the church and to hang it together with the National Flag already there. This committee headed by Mrs. Savage has obtained a large Service Flag 15 x 6 ft. with 15 stars and last Sunday this flag was placed. The committee also has placed a larger National Flag instead of the small one that used to hang in the church. The National Flag is 5 x 8 ft.

Her escape from death was miraculous and while she will be confined to her home for several days her many friends are rejoicing that the accident was not fatal.

The dipping vat at the Largo Farm is proving quite an asset to the cattle owners of the county. Since the vat was opened in October, about 500 to 600 cattle are being regularly dipped every month. The vat is open for the free use of the cattle owners of the county and those living in the neighborhood of the farm are taking the opportunity of clearing up their cattle. The cattle that have been dipped are showing marked improvements and many remarks have been made by people passing up and down the road, who have seen the cattle, and remarked that the cattle looked so much better for some reason.

WAR SAVINGS

War Savings Stamps mark an epoch in our national life. Secretary of the Treasurer McAdoo.

Many a successful business man has said that the saving of his first dollar was the most important single act of his life.

The habit of saving formed now has a deeper incentive than ordinary. We are saving now not alone for selfish reasons.

A REMARKABLE WAR PROPHECY

A most remarkable prophecy comes from Copenhagen said to have been written in 1701 by a monk on parchment.

The prophecy will be read with unusual interest because of the fact that many of the things mentioned have already become true.

Lord, have mercy on thy people despite the fact that they are turning more and more away from thee.

There will be wagons without horses, and fiery dragons will fly through the air dropping fire and sulphur and destroying cities and villages.

The people of the Seven Stars will attack the ring of steel and suddenly fall upon the bearded nation in the rear and rend it in twain.

Hastings is going to have another big drainage proposition put through. This will affect 50,000 acres of rich, fertile land.

The land of the west will be one of vast desolation, and the land in the ocean will, with its king, be crushed and suffer all the pangs of hunger.

The victors will carry a cross and between four small cities and four steeples of equal height, the decisive battle will be fought.

The war will commence when the grain is ripening and will reach its height when the cherries bloom for the third time.

Rev. Honeycut at the Temple
Rev. H. H. Honeycut spoke twice at the Baptist Temple here last Sunday. For the morning service he used the Scripture and parable of the Good Samaritan.

Relations became better proportioned. The reasoning process is more easily and the more accurately carried forward. The mind takes to itself wings.

Without arrogance or presumption, one feels his strength mightier, his aspirations mounting higher, his whole being assuming its proper place as a force co-working with forces universal and eternal.

It is my opinion that the new year ought to begin with spring. That sweet, fresh, budding season, when the spirit of newness is just awakening from its long sleep and

The Service Flag
Dear little flag in the window there, Hung with a tear and a woman's prayer;

Child of Old Glory, born with a star, Oh, what a wonderful flag you are!

Blue is your star in its field of white, Dipped in the red that was horn of fight;

Born of the blood that our forbears shed To raise your mother, The Flag, o'er-head.

And now you've come, in this frenzied day, To speak from a window—to speak and say:

"I am the voice of a soldier-son Gone to be gone till the victory's won.

"I am the flag of the Service, sir; The flag of his mother—I speak for her

Who stands by my window and waits and fears, But hides from the other her unwept tears.

"I am the flag of the wives who wait For the safe return of a martial mate.

A mate gone forth where the war god thrives To save from sacrifice other men's wives.

"I am the flag of the sweethearts true; The often unthought of, the sisters, too.

I am the flag of a mother's son And won't come down till the victory's won."

Child of Old Glory, born with a star, Dear little flag in the window there, Hung with a tear and a woman's prayer;

Oh, what a wonderful flag you are! William Henschell.

Happiness is at once a state of mind, a result and a cause. As a state of mind we think of it most frequently; it represents a proper adjustment of one's self to one's environment.

As a result it stands for the operation of certain forces, some conscious, some unconscious.

Happiness is, on the whole, an unconscious by-product. Knowingly striven for, it is elusive, even illusive.

Not striven for, but accepted as a conclusion or process in the day's toil, it comes as naturally and beautifully as the unfolding of the flower from the bud.

But quite as important as a state of mind and as a result, is happiness as a cause moving in one's life and character. Happiness in this relation, as a cause, is seldom thought of.

Happiness really is a great force in creating physical health. The pulse beats with more and proper vigor. The breath moves with greater fullness.

The step becomes more elastic. The eye takes to itself a new luster. The whole man is more responsive under the exhilaration of happiness.

Sorrow is depressing and depressive. All life's tides ebb. "Give me happiness that I may lift myself with it," is a worthy prayer.

Happiness also operates on the mind, on the whole spiritual part of one's being. Truth is seen with greater clearness and more substantial worthiness. Details to principles and principles to details are more easily adjusted.

begins with magic power its work of revival, breathing new life and energy into every vein of nature and thrilling the heart of mankind with new joys, new hopes, new aspirations.

The soul that can remain insensible to the charm of spirit is indeed dull and heavy even unnatural.

Hawthorne says, "From such a soul the world must have no reformation of its evil, no sympathy with the lofty faith and gallant struggles of those who contend in his behalf."

How joyously the birds are singing this morning and why should they not, for the blight and decay of winter is passing away, and ere long the earth will be arrayed in the full bloom and glory of springtime.

Already the air, so soft and balmy, bearing the fragrance of delicate blossoms, and the drowsy bee murmurs of newborn delights. Bryant says in his poem on "The Gladness of Nature:"

Is this a time to be cloudy and sad, When our Mother Nature laughs around,

When even the deep blue heaven looks glad And gladness breathes from the blossoming ground?"

Surely our hearts should respond to the gladness of nature, and we should not only be glad, but we should feel deeply thankful for all these blessings.

PASTORS' DAY

Presbyterian Church Had Home Coming for Sanford Ministers

The Presbyterian church had a Home Coming Day for the former pastors of the church last Sunday and the church was fortunate in having two of the former pastors here in the person of Dr. J. F. McKinnon and Rev. F. D. Hunt and together with Dr. Brownlee the present pastor the expressions were most interesting.

Those who are still living sent letters and these were read by the pastor and proved most interesting to the members of the church of the early days.

Special music by the choir at both morning and evening services added much to the occasion.

Dr. McKinnon preached at the morning services and Rev. Hunt at the evening services and many of their friends of the other churches were present to hear them.

The following is the list of pastors of the Presbyterian church: Rev. H. Keigwin—From May 10, 1882-Sept. 1884. Called Home.

Rev. A. L. Loder—Dec. 28, 1884-Oct. 1887. Called Home.

Rev. J. A. Kimmons—Oct. 1887-Oct. 1889. Called Home.

Rev. H. W. Burwell—June 1890-Nov. 1891. Now pastor Westminster Presbyterian church, Dallas, Texas.

Rev. J. Murton—1892-1893. Called Home.

Rev. A. S. Caldwell—June 4, 1893-Sept. 9, 1894. Now pastor Ora street church, Asheville, N. C.

IN SOCIETY'S DOMAIN HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST IN AND AROUND SANFORD

Mrs. Norma King McLaughlin, Social Editor. Anyone having guests, parties or any article for this column, it would be appreciated if they would telephone 270-J

The many friends of Mrs. Lula D. Lawrence, the popular and talented society reporter of the Orlando Reporter-Star will regret to learn that she was accidentally hurt last Wednesday evening. In descending the stairs to attend a lecture given by Mr. Thomas Green she fell fifteen steps or more and was picked up in a semi-conscious condition. After a few moments' rest she insisted upon attending the lecture. The next day it was found that she had a badly dislocated ankle. Mrs. Lawrence was the guest of Mrs. W. D. Holden Thanksgiving Day. It was her first visit to Sanford in several years and it was a great pleasure to her friends to welcome her once more. The Reporter-Star is most fortunate in having Mrs. Lawrence on their staff. She is a woman of unusual ability and has not only been connected with one of the largest southern papers but has had several articles in the New York papers. Her columns are always read with interest. We trust her complete recovery is only a question of a short time.

Some of the prettiest girls in Orlando have been seen carrying home bundles of mistletoe and we cannot refrain from admiring their pluck in putting it up as usual, but since so many of our young men have joined the colors we have been wondering who will do the oscillatory honors?—Orlando Reporter-Star.

The Elks ball next Thursday evening will undoubtedly be the event of the season and should be well patronized. It is given for charity and there is much suffering among those whose means are limited. Many a well packed basket is sent to the needy. At this season we can all afford to be generous.

The many friends of Miss May Thrasher will be delighted to see her out again after her recent indisposition. She, Ethel Henry and Dorothy Rumph were sadly missed in the basket ball game Friday evening. Sanford knows she has the best team in the state.

participating in the benefits of the Federal Aid Road act, which appropriated $75,000,000 for the construction of post roads and $10,000,000 for forest roads, according to the report of the director of public roads and rural engineering, United States Department of Agriculture.

That the passage of the act has stimulated road building is shown by the fact that in 1916, there were approximately $41,000,000 of state funds expended for all highway purposes, and it is estimated that in the calendar year 1917, the aggregate expenditure of state funds for this purpose will be at least $60,000,000. A number of the states have made specific appropriations to meet Federal aid dollar for dollar. Among these are New York, Illinois, Michigan, Rhode Island, Nevada, Iowa, Florida and Vermont.

Resolution Adopted by the Central Florida Highway Association: Whereas in the providence of the all-wise God our esteemed fellow-member and co-worker has been called from his earthly activities by death:

Be It Resolved by the members of the Central Florida Highway Association that in the death of Mr. C. R. Walker our Association has lost one of its active and valuable members whose absence from our meetings will be noted with regret and sorrow.

And be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family and to the press of Sanford and that a copy be spread on the minutes of this meeting.

F. E. Bryan, President. Attest: L. P. Dickle, Secretary.

THERE IS MONEY IN HOGS

How One Dade County Farmer Has Realized That Fact

Conditions the nation over were never better for profitable hog raising, says the University of Florida extension division. With a great reduction in the number of hogs, an increased production of grain feeds, and an increased demand for pork, the hog is getting to be an aristocrat. A national campaign has been started to increase hog production in 1918, 15 per cent over that of 1917. There is a serious shortage of pork now, and unless this increase is made the shortage will be acute next year. The scarcity of hogs is alone an assurance of good prices. Since hogs can be raised on practically every farm, the Florida farmer who does not take up hog raising is overlooking one of the best opportunities that presents itself.

Here is what W. W. Dougherty of Dade county has done in the last six months, as reported by the county agent.

"Mr. Dougherty began in the hog business 26 months ago with $500 invested in a small booby, a dipping vat, several breeding pens, one Poland-China booby and six sows of the same breed, all registered, a registered Duroc Jersey booby and three bred gilts of similar breed. He has produced and sold $2500 worth of young breeding stock to other farmers of this county for cash. In addition he has produced all his meat and lard his family has used during the 26 months, and yet has live animals on hand that he has refused to sell at $1000. The services of his booby are in demand at $5 each service.

"One of Mr. Dougherty's sows farrowed 29 perfect pigs and 26 of them sold at $185 for the lot. Most of his sows were made before the advance in price. This six cost him $75 and is now worth $1000 on a meat basis, though she will not go that route.

"The pen compost helps to grow corn that finishes the inferior animals set aside for slaughter. The hog business is a safe one with Mr. Dougherty, and it requires a small part of his time. He will be at the Jacksonville State Fair with a lot of hogs that will be hard to equal."

While this success cannot be duplicated in every locality, an approximation of it will be profitable. There is a demand for good breeding stock, and hogs suitable for the purpose should bring prices above those offered for meat animals. And the prices offered for meat animals is well above normal, where they are likely to remain throughout the year of 1918, if not longer.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES

Methodist Church Will Hold Them Tonight

Tonight the Methodist Sunday school will have its special Christmas exercises. The "White Gift Christmas" idea is to be exemplified in a beautiful pageant, under the capable direction of Mrs. D. A. Kelly. Assisting her are nineteen of the most talented and graceful ladies of the church. This feature alone is an assurance that the entertainment will be well worth attending. The more prominent parts of the pageant are the "Spirit of Christmas," "Pilgrim," "Wisdom," "Conscience," represented by Mrs. Dwight Bahitt, Miss Blanche Pattishall, Mrs. L. R. Phillips and Mrs. Claude C. Cobb, respectively. After this performance, the new pastor, Dr. J. P. Hillburn will make a brief talk, pleading for gifts of "self." Following him there will be exercises by the children of the school, and then the pupils of each department will bring forward their gifts of "substances," which may be represented by cash, or in useful articles for food or clothing, which are to be sent to the most popular charity in Florida—Methodist—the Orphanage at Enterprise.

For the past three Sundays the closing program of the Sunday school has been of a progressive nature, preparing the minds and hearts of the pupils for the most sensible and appropriate way to celebrate Christmas, to culminate in the presentation of "White Gifts for the King" this evening. On last Sunday together with appropriate songs, the school enjoyed a recitation by little Jack Adams, and the telling of the beautiful story, "Why the Chimes Rang" by Mrs. L. R. Phillips in her usual charming and effective way. Thus the atmosphere of the school has been elevated to that higher plane where the pupils may celebrate the nativity of our great Redeemer and King by presenting to Him gifts of self service and substance. It will be readily seen that this way of celebrating Christmas, when properly understood and observed, as compared to the old time idea of a "receiving" Christmas may be likened to the brightness of the day superseding the night.

It is hoped that each of the more than four hundred members of the Sunday school will be present and bring their friends.

Through the generosity of worthy men of the Wesley Brotherhood Class who do not wish the young, innocent children to lack plenty of good holiday cheer in these stressing times, provision has been made that each child, under the Senior group shall receive tokens of their love, after the rendition of the above program. A pleasant surprise awaits them.

Candle Making an Art.

The making of candles is not ordinarily considered a fine art, but the Indians have made it such. The distinctive Italian votive taper is made by hand. The materials are pure beeswax, which is kneaded and tempered, and mixed with a secret ingredient to retard combustion, and which has special Egyptian cotton for wicks. The cotton, too, is treated with chemicals to keep it from feeding too fast. Small candles are molded. Large ones are made by rolling up sheets of wax.

Use Your Brains.

There is not so much difference in brains as in the way they are used. Very often a boy or girl who excels in mother's lessons and insight is as well endowed as he. But while one brain is trained so hard, concentrated thinking, the other is like an unbroken colt, or like a steed which has grown lazy from overfeeding and lack of exercise. Set your powers to work. Guide them wisely and you will not need to complain that they are not greater.—Exchange.

Scheme to Raise Money.

It had just as difficult a task in raising money as we have today, and in sheer despair about finding anything fresh to tax he wrote to a friend in Somerset for a suggestion. Back came the reply: "Tax umbrellas; and order the bishops to have prayer for rain in all the churches till the end of the war." If that would not work, what would?—To Bits.

THE GREAT ST. JOHNS RIVER

Hardly Appreciated by People of Florida

(From Times Union)

A Times-Union representative yesterday in a quest for news called on the office of the state marketing bureau. The boys were busy, as is their wont, and Secretary Folson enlarged upon a "marketing" proposition out of the usual order, but a good one in view of the movement to advertise a Greater Florida. He said:

"I wonder if we all appreciate the importance of this great fluid highway at our door. The La Riviere de Mai of the Frenchman, the Rio de San Juan of the Spaniard and the St. John's river of the American is not as wide as the Amazon, as deep in its bed as the Colorado, as shallow as the Platte or Arkansas, as long as the Mississippi, as clear as the Uruguay, as muddy as the Missouri, as mighty as the Niagara, as broken with islands as the St. Lawrence; not frigid as the Red and the Mackenzie, its Canadian prototypes; not battle stained as the Isar or the Rhine, nor fed with mountain snows as the Columbia or the Fraser; not dense with population as the Thames nor the Danube and the Seine; yet the St. John's river cuts something of a figure in the western hemisphere and possibilities of its use by me are endless.

"The tide comes four times a day to Jacksonville, two solar and two lunar rises, at intervals of six hours, the latter, about a foot, being the higher. Winds increase the ebb and flow. Having a width of from one to five miles in many long stretches, it is really an arm of the sea and affords fine sailing for yachts and houseboats, and every winter sees craft belonging to pleasure, rest and health seekers on its waters with occupants finding what they came for.

"Among its tributaries is the picturesque Ocklawaha, to which the mammoth Silver Spring adds a mighty volume of water via the St. Johns, the Ocklawaha and the Withlacoochee. It is possible to create a ship canal across the state. It is over two hundred miles long and with tributaries gives Jacksonville not less than a thousand miles of inland navigable waters. It is a placid stream as a rule and tidal from the ocean to Lake George, a hundred miles south of Jacksonville, safe everywhere for the smallest craft.

"It is a river of romance as well as of utility. Between Jacksonville and the ocean is the site of old Fort Caroline, where the Spaniards under Menendez exterminated the French Huguenots—the first great tragedy known in our history. Along its banks are immense shell mounds and deposits—now used for making roads described by F. H. Cushing in his book, Age of the Shellfish Man, and who also wrote a report on the Ancient Key Dwellers of Florida—two of the more than 1,500 books on Florida in English listed in the catalogues of the congressional library, exclusive of scores of Spanish and French books devoted to our state. For four hundred years ships from Europe and the Indies have brought seekers for adventure, health, wealth, and homes to its shores.

"From Jacksonville a 30-foot channel permits great steamers to ply and give connection with all the continents. And steamers to connect Florida's metropolis with Sanford, the celery and lettuce city of the south—at the head of deep water navigation—whence 3,000 cars annually carry toothsome viands to northern tables. There are now many fine towns and farms along Florida's great river. Down below the site of Camp Joseph E. Johnston, one of the finest of the sixteen military cantonments in the country is Mandarin, where Harriet Beecher Stowe used to spend her winters, and many miles beyond it is where the Astors began the development of a fine fruit property.

"It never overflows its banks and big fishes from the sea run our way, and they contribute to the income of a considerable number of people and supply our tables with most excellent food. It runs northward a greater distance than any other stream on earth except the Red, the Mackenzie and the Nile, the latter being its counterpart in fertile belongings, but better, for beyond its reaches there is no desert, instead a productive land with no stony soil to provoke the farmers whose plow shares cut the sod as the swift yacht cleaves the water.

"Tributary is a region possible of million people with plenty to spare to feed other millions in less favored parts of the earth, but the population is not yet here. Nature's inimitable grace has touched it all with a lavish hand and on and on is presented an ever varying panorama of which the eye never tires. In its domain strawberries ripen in the winter time and flowers bloom when the north is held in thrall by frost. Since Ponce de Leon searched its banks for the fountain of perpetual youth and was convinced that such a blessing existed anywhere on earth it must be in this sun kissed land, the test for health and salubrity have stood the fullest inquiry.

"Over it is a sky as blue as that of Italy, as bright at night with stars as over Chaldean plains that gave birth to astronomy. Nowhere do stars and moon seem nearer. It has a summer air that never depresses; a winter air that invigorates but never destroys; over it the wind carries in its wings the vivifying health of the sea. It never has long spells of miserable, muddy roads common to the eastern, northern and most of the southern states.

"Tributary is standing timber in variety and quantity to keep a multitude of workmen busy for many long years fashioning it into forms for human use. Under its benign skies every month can be made to provide something for the table from garden, field and grove, nor does it demand heavy clothing and blazing fires for warmth during the winter season. It has no competitor in the United States for climate. Along its banks there is room for thousands of splendid homes, surrounded by orange groves, rose gardens and fields to provide delightful surroundings, a good living and a competence for the industrious man."

Red Cross Bandages Poisoned
Cleveland, Dec. 2.—A plot to poison Red Cross bandages and spread wholesale death among the soldiers of America and her allies has been frustrated here.

Revelations of the conspiracy were made today when it became known that department of justice agents were hunting the perpetrators of the deed.

More than three thousand surgical dressings, rolled by patriotic women in Toledo were infected with a mysterious greenish poison while in transit between Toledo and Cleveland. Immediately every one of the bandages were burned. Every effort was made to keep the matter secret and it was successful until today.

The box of bandages arrived here from the Toledo chapter last week and was taken to the warehouse. While women were examining the contents a dark greenish substance was noticed on one of them. Investigation showed that all of the bandages in the box had been treated with poison.

Miami papers say that the Florida farmers should plant castor beans and win the war. Sure thing. Shoot the castor beans into the Germans and the castor beans will do the rest.

Seminole county will not have a county fair this year but will have an exhibit at the state fair at Jacksonville in February and the farmers should be getting their exhibits ready for this big event.

Every business house in Sanford must have purchased space in Bob Holly's Christmas number of the Herald. It was a forty page edition and a credit to both editor and business manager. Sarasota Times.

Outside of the big dailies The Sanford Herald led the state in the size and excellence of its Christmas edition, but this was no more than might be expected in an office where there is so much Holly in the editorial chair. Plant City Courier.

The government asks the northern golf clubs to suspend business so they will not have to burn coal in the club houses. That is right, make them suspend and come to Florida to play golf where they will not need to burn coal to keep the club houses warm.

Senator Trammell announces that Secretary of Agriculture Houston says that an arrangement has been made that will enable Florida farmers to purchase all the Chilean nitrates they need at actual cost. The government will buy it in Chile, transport it and sell it at cost to the Florida farmers. New Smyrna News.

Sanford should be on the lookout for wire tappers and sneak thieves of all kinds because the woods are full of them in Florida just now. Many store robberies are reported and wire tappers operating in different cities. The best way to rid the city of these people is to give them the run the minute they act suspiciously.

Reports from the front in France say that an American sentry captured by the German had his throat cut after capture. If the Germans intend this kind of warfare we should retaliate by cutting the throat of one of the Germans interned at Atlanta instead of pampering them up as we have been doing. For every American murdered in France one here in America and give the Kaiser a touch of kultur.

The Bartow Courier Informant is out with a twenty page good roads edition or as Clarence Woods calls them, "the velvet way." Polk county has the sand asphalt roads and they are good enough to get out several special editions of the Polk county papers. In fact good roads are just about the best excuse in the world for the newspapers to crow about.

Sanford ladies should start the New Year with the resolve to cut out the foolish stuff and work unceasingly for the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Liberty Loan and everything that pertains to the health and comfort of the boys at the front and if the war lasts long enough every family in Sanford will have some loved ones at the front. The war is coming home to us more every day and we have no time for anything except real work to win the war in the shortest time possible.

It is more blessed to give than to receive and with this idea in mind many of the Sunday schools are now having White Gift Christmas in which the scholars give their gifts to the orphanage. There could be no nobler sacrifice on the part of the children for all of us know how they enjoyed the gifts that formerly were hung on the tree for them at Christmas time. With the idea that they are giving to the little orphans will be born a nobler resolve in each little breast—the idea of giving and helping the ones about them who have not.

It is not too early for the people of country to start right now with the idea that next Christmas there will be no fire works and shooting crackers and other stuff that means nothing and is wasting good material that should be going into ammunition to whip Germany. Why in the name of creation should there be loud noises to celebrate the birth of Christ? And why at this particular time when the entire nation is conserving and saving should any one be allowed to spend good money on something to shoot and make a noise. Cut it out next year. Mayor Davison!

WASTING GOOD PAPER
Despatch from Washington says that the print bill of the government is some bill these days on account of the high price of paper. All of which should be a gentle reminder to the government that they could cut out more than half of the junk that is being printed at headquarters in Washington and at the other points of contact over the country—junk about the canning of whale's toes and sheep's snouts in place of beef, making a solution of sawdust and pine bark for bread and the worst of Alexander. I can't tell it! the worst junk is the stuff being sent to the newspapers for free space and is going promptly into the waste basket where it belongs. If the government would only call a halt on the so called press bureaus that are now grinding out stuff by the ton and some guy in Washington getting paid for trying to work the newspapers for free space—if the government would only get wise to the fact that the newspapers were wise to this free space graft many moons ago and would stop printing it and thus save the paper that is being wasted by the thousands of tons, absolutely wasted. And yet the government talks about economy and tries to tell the people how to economize and they spend yards of red tape trying to save a penny's worth of time.

Dr. Collins at Temple Sunday Night
It will be a pleasure to a great number of Sanford folks to know that Dr. C. L. Collins, pastor of the First Baptist church of DeLand will speak at the Baptist Temple here Sunday night at the usual service hour, seven o'clock.

Dr. Collins needs no introduction to a Sanford congregation, as he has been in Sanford a number of times and has spoken at the Temple on special occasions. The service Sunday evening should be largely attended, in as much as the subject to be used is one of heartfelt interest at this particular time. Dr. Collins has consented to speak on the great question "How Germany Lost Her Soul." This subject handled as Dr. Collins can handle it will surely prove an inspiration and be a source of educational entertainment. All who can should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this man Sunday evening.

PUBLICITY PULLS PROGRESS

"PRODUCING NOT PROMOTING" BOARD OF TRADE RESULTS (BY THE SECRETARY)

Tuesday, January 8, 1918, 7:30 p. m., at the court house will be held the annual meeting of the Board of Trade, and at that time a president, vice president and six members as a board of governors will be elected. According to the constitution and by-laws, the election will be by nomination and ballot. The present board of governors and officers urgently request your attendance on that occasion so that a full vote can be cast in the election of new officers for the coming year. No one can doubt the valuable work done by this organization and it is the duty of every member to be present on that date and show his interest in the election of officers.

Edward Chambers of the U. S. Food Administration writes, the Board of Trade:

Washington, December, 1917. Mr. D. C. Marlowe, Sanford Fla. Dear Sir:

Referring to conversation with you here in regard to the movement of fruits and vegetables out of your section this season.

I will be glad to have your suggestions as to the information you desire from the railroads for the purpose of making diversions also anything else which occurs to you which will be beneficial to the prompt and economical handling of the traffic. As I stated to you it is very desirable that the greatest efficiency be obtained in the use of refrigerator cars. At the best that can be done there will be some shortage at times but I do not fear anything serious. The heavier loading of the car will be helpful both in the supply of cars to the shipper and the movement by the railroad. I don't know of anything which could be done under the present condition on the railroads that will be more helpful than increase in car loading.

Anything you can do to bring this about up to the limit of safety will be very much appreciated by us here. We not only have your interest in view from the standpoint of reasonable time in transit but also a sufficient car supply. I thank you for your offer to help. We appreciate what you people have already done in the way of cooperation. Yours truly,

U. S. Food Administration, Per Edward Chambers.

Now that Mr. William G. McAdoo is director-general of the railroads of the nation he will strike the keynote of the trouble if he will regulate and standardize the tonnage system. A reversion back to the tonnage rating placed on locomotives by the manufacturers according to cylinder size and the geography of the country; live up to this by making a maximum limit and almost over night, even with the added increase in government tonnage, we will also see almost a normal transportation again. This is the bed of the present day trouble and when it's all said and inquiry after inquiry has been gone into, the two bases of successful transportation aside from the track over which traffic moves is "motive power and dispatching." Affect one and you ruin the other and one overloaded train will disport, the transportation over, an entire dispatching division and ultimately cost a sight more than the value received in sticking on just a few more cars. Ultimately, if an impartial investigation is gone into, the railroad disease will be found in the present tonnage system and in nothing else. It is this fact that has lowered the movement of Sanford vegetables to the speed of seven to ten miles per hour into eastern markets and reverted in claims and refusal of product at the consuming end. The regulation of tonnage may cost a few more men with which to operate trains, but the saving in damage to equipment, leaky non-steaming engines, efficiency in motive power and equipment, and in fact, saving in fuel will deal out to the owners of railroads more actual money in earnings than is being wrung from trains which now have the chronic habit of flirting with the sixteen hour law day in and day out—because of hauling overloads running from three to six hundred tons above their actual rating.

Sanford is measuring up well with other sister cities in her tourist population this season. Already they are arriving and the number is increasing daily and many rooms lying idle during the summer are now housing the tourist looking for sunshine and who is paying handsomely for the accommodation.

"Knitting Nerves"
New York, Dec. 26.—Now it's "knitting nerves," caused by concentration of mind and hand on the needles. Thousands of women in New York are afflicted, according to Dr. Louis R. Weizmiller, physical director of the West Side Y. M. C. A., who adds that his only patients showing symptoms of the new wartime complaint have been women. Dr. Weizmiller says that the malady is liable to become an epidemic, unless knitters learn to knit properly. He offers the following advice as a remedy:

Don't hunch over your knitting; sit upright, and when your mind tells you you have knitted enough, quit. There are 365 days in a year and you can't finish a sweater in a day no matter how much you love a soldier or a sailor.

Red Cross Notes

Yesterday, Thursday, was moving day for the Chapter, made altogether possible by the kindness of Mr. S. O. Chase in sending his auto truck for use on the occasion, when the new rooms were opened up for work. These are bright, large rooms, centrally located in the Pico Block overlooking Commercial Street, the side entrance on Railroad Way being just as useful as that on First street for access to the rooms.

There is still need for the further equipment of these work rooms, sewing machines and some chairs. Any one having a machine or one or more chairs to donate please either send them to the rooms or phone Mrs. Deane Turner, No. 309.

There will be some one there every day now for the purpose of giving out work or any information needed, and the women of the town and visiting folks are urged to come at least a portion of each day or week to sew. This being undenominational and pertaining to no class or sect of any kind, just plain humanitarian work, it seems as though every woman in Sanford should respond by lending her time and efforts to the furtherance of this much needed and splendid work.

A fine box containing 535 pieces of hospital linen, patients' clothing and some operating room linen was sent forward by the shipping committee on Thursday.

Woman's Club Notes

Next Wednesday, January 2nd is the day for the general business meeting of the club for January. Every member is urged to bear this in mind and put in her appearance on that day.

The Community Xmas Tree program given on Xmas Eve night under the auspices of the Welfare Department, Mrs. Moughton chairman, was well attended and quite a unique and pretty occasion. The fine program was carried out most successfully, the general singing being read by the Sanford Band and Ladies Club Chorus and West Side Primary School.

Flogged German Farmers

Brenham, Tex., Dec. 26. Six farmers of German descent who refused to join the Red Cross were taken from their wagons and flogged by a committee of Brenham citizens, who acted in daylight and without masks. It became known with the close of the membership campaign today. The whippings occurred at various times during the campaign.

A large proportion of Washington county's population is of German derivation. The Red Cross campaign moved slowly at first. Later a meeting was held at Brenham at which a fund of $250 was raised to buy memberships for those unable to purchase them and an armful of buggy whips was obtained for use on those able to buy but who would not.

The six farmers who refused to join reconsidered after being whipped. The close of the campaign found Washington county exceeding its quota by 1,000 members.

Rev. F. D. Hunt to Preach

Rev. Frank D. Hunt will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 11. This will be his last service in Sanford this winter.

The pastor will preach at 7 p. m. Not only the grown people but many children are memorizing passages from the Bible in the Presbyterian congregation. At prayer meeting last Wednesday night among those present who knew the passage for the night by heart were Raymond Multhead, aged 8, Pauline Multhead, age 10, and Ella Mary Multhead, age 12. The passage for the night was I. Cor. 13.

Attempted Suicide

B. T. Trullitt, a well known citizen of Longwood, where he has been foreman for C. W. Entaminger for many years attempted suicide Tuesday by shooting himself in the left breast. The bullet was turned aside by one of his ribs and his life saved thereby. He was brought to Sanford, and placed under the care of Sheriff Brady and will recover. Despondency over present conditions was responsible for the attempt at suicide.

Whidden-Hodges

Miss Julia Hodges and Mr. Claude Whidden were united in marriage last night at the Presbyterian manse at eight o'clock, Dr. E. D. Brownlee officiating. The marriage occurred in the presence of a few friends and relatives and immediately after the bride and groom left for a wedding trip and upon their return they will make their home in Orlando.

The bride is a bright and winsome girl who has grown up in this city and has many friends who will wish her a long life and much happiness. The groom was formerly a resident of this city having a pressing club in the rear of Hodges & McMullin's barber shop. He is now in business in Orlando.

Congregational Church Services

Tourists and new residents in our city are cordially invited to attend the services of this church, corner of Park avenue and Third street. The hour for Sunday school is 9:45; of morning worship 11; Christian Endeavor at 6:15, and evening worship at 7.

For the coming Sunday the morning subject will be "The Promise of the Years." The evening subject will be "The Number 666 in Revelation and the Number Seven."

WOULD NOT ACCEPT HUNDRED

Forty Pounds' Compensation for Damage on Railroad, All Old Covenanters Would Have.

One of the first railways laid in North Britain connected the ancient city of Perth with Aberdeen. In Chambers Journal there is a pleasant picture of a stanch old covenanter at Whinnynose who was subjected to a loss that called for compensation from the railway company. William Reid, there is no reason to doubt, gave careful consideration to the question of injury, and when the railway official waited upon him he had decided the exact amount of the damage that he had suffered.

The official told the farmer that the company had agreed to allow him the sum of one hundred pounds in recompense.

"A hunder pounds!" exclaimed the old covenanter. "I wanna touch it. I have considered the matter and I have made up my mind as to what I should get. I wanna tak' a hunder."

"I would strongly advise you to accept," replied the official. "You are not likely to get more. I think the directors have been generous."

"Too much so! too much so!" was the startling reply. "I wanna tak' the hunder; I'll hae forty pounds and not a penny more."

"Oh, is that the trouble?" was the laughing response. "Well, here is the order for one hundred pounds, which you will receive when you call at the office at Perth."

William Reid accepted the order, and a week later presented it at the company's office. A clerk asked him to sign a receipt, and this the farmer did for forty pounds.

"You are to receive one hundred pounds, not forty," said the clerk, counting out the money.

The old farmer was angry. "I told your man," he cried, "that I would tak' forty and not a penny more; and I will not hae it. I want nae man's siller that I've nae richt to!" And William Reid, after twice counting his forty pounds, pushed the remainder back across the counter and walked out of the office.—Youth's Companion.

ONE'S INABILITY TO SLEEP

Insomnia May Be Overcome by Forgetting About It and Avoiding Unnecessary Excitement.

If you don't sleep well don't worry about it. Your lack of sleep isn't going to kill you or drive you insane. That is the substance of the advice given by a doctor writing in the American Magazine.

It is advice that a good many nervous people need, observes the Kansas City Star. How often do you hear some one apprehensively complaining that he lies awake "all night." The chances are that he only thinks he was awake all night, and that in reality he got several hours of sleep between the spells of wakefulness. But even if he was wakeful, it is nothing to be alarmed about. Especially is it nothing to warrant taking medicine.

The way to get over insomnia is to pay no attention to it, and not to talk about it. Sleep is largely a matter of habit. It depends on living rationally and going to bed at a regular time. You are likely to be wakeful if you stir yourself up in the evening. If you work at night or get deeply interested in anything you find it difficult to relax. That is the chief reason for wakefulness after a party. The excitement of the crowd interferes with sleep. The ideal way is to taper off the day's activities as evening comes.

No Music in Piano Stool

A Western settler went to the nearest township and purchased a music stool, taking it home with him in his trap. In a few days, however, he brought it back and demanded the money paid, as the stool was no good at all. The shopkeeper examined it and said it was in perfect order, and that it should not be thrown on his hands.

"Well," said the settler, "I took it home careful, and I gave it a turn, and every one of the children gave it a turn, and never a tune could one and all of us screw out of it. It is no more a music stool than the four-legged washing stool the missus puts her tub on."

They All Agreed

"My dear friends," said the hostess when all her guests had assembled, "I am delighted indeed to have you here. I want everybody to have a perfectly good time, and I am going to do whatever I can to make the evening a success. I have tried to think of some kind of a program that would please everybody, but I find it a difficult thing to do, so I am going to ask you to help me out of my trouble. We can talk about the war and thus have a lovely time, with a few fights incidentally perhaps; or my daughter, Penelope will recite for you. Which shall it be?"

Prolonged shouts of "War!"

Ale and Porter

Ale is fermented beverage, said to have been originated in Egypt. Brewed like beer and differs from it chiefly in having smaller proportion of hops. Alcoholic content increases with its age. Porter is dark colored malt liquor of English origin, so called, it is said, because it was once favored drink of London porters. Brewed from highly kilned brown malt; sometimes colored with burnt sugar or other coloring material. Essentially about same as ale.

210 Pound Pigs With corn above 50 cts. hogs eat their heads off very quickly. The hog that takes two or three months to get on full feed never brings you a profit. When you are ready to put away your shoats on feed, begin with the B. A. Thomas Hog Medicine. Use regularly and watch your shoats round out into fat hogs in nine months—hogs going well over 2 pounds and as high as 240 pounds. Figure the average feeding and you will see why the B. A. Thomas medicine is a good investment. Try feeding out your hogs on this plan and if you are not more than pleased we will refund the cost of the medicine. L. Allen Seed Co. Sanford, Fla.

Scrawny Calves What makes a calf scrawny—off its feed? Germs—parasites—in the intestines. Why not free them of this trouble? If you will give them some B. A. Thomas Stock Remedy in its feed, within a week you will see it brighten up and in four or five weeks you won't know the calf. Costs you but a few cents and we will refund that if it doesn't do as we say. L. Allen Seed Co. Sanford, Fla.

Share Your Pleasures. It has been said that happiness which has not been shared has no taste. If the pleasant things which come to you, somehow seem to have no taste, if they seem rather flavorless, perhaps this is the explanation. Put gladness into another's life, divide up the pleasures you have been selfishly enjoying, so that it will help two or three, and your happiness will have plenty of flavor. Belief in Fate. A strict belief in fate is the worst of slavery, imposing upon our needs an everlasting lord or tyrant, of whom we are to stand in awe, night and day. —Exchange.

Elks' Annual Ban Brilliant Success The Elks annual ball last evening was the most brilliant and successful affair of the season and a more beautiful dance has never been seen in Sanford.

Mr. Parrish, who had charge of the decorating covered himself with glory. Red White and Blue extended half way up the sides of the walls and above this were huge palm leaves each held with a purple bow. The same effect was carried out on the ceiling giving the room the appearance of a beautiful palm garden. Downstairs the club, looked most cheerful and attractive. With its open fireplaces all ablaze you forgot the weather outside.

Card tables had been placed in the grill room and bridge was played by those not caring to dance. The ladies' prize a box of powder was won by Mrs. Wood. The gentlemen's prize a deck of cards fell to Dr. Paleston. At eleven o'clock refreshments consisting of delicious cheese sandwiches and coffee were served. The floor at the club is wonderful for dancing and the crowd was loth to leave at one o'clock when the strains of Home Sweet Home sounded. About two hundred guests enjoyed this delightful affair. The Elks are noted for their hospitality and no trouble was spared last evening to make every one have a good time. The out of town guests seen dancing were Mr. and Mrs. Bates and Mr. and Mrs. Everitt Batek. Mr. and Mrs. Landman Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lyman Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lyman Altamonte; Mr. and Mrs. Treat of Winter Park; Mrs. B. F. Watts Mr. Franklin Watts Miss Elizabeth Binton of Leesburg; Mr. and Mrs. Harden and Miss Harden from Orange City Miss Delaney Miss Marcia Phillips and Mr. Freary of Eustis.

Not only the Elks but their friends have worked very hard to make this ball a success and the Elks beg to thank every one who so kindly came to their assistance. The Every Week Bridge Club had one of their most interesting games Thursday afternoon at the attractive home of Mrs. G. F. Smith. The living room looked very lovely with its Christmas decorations and asparagus fern. Mrs. Smith has as her guest Mrs. Mabry of Tampa and an extra table was given in her honor. Billie Ball and Lyman Wood were the excuse for the tree being the only youngsters in the hotel but Col. Thrasher carried a balloon home. Mr. Hayden had a lovely cow, Mr. Lloyd a doll, and we won't be cruel enough to mention the ladies' presents, except to tell that one was presented with a pair of kinking irons. In the evening there was a card party for the guests and their friends. Mrs. Wallace won a box of stationery and Col. Thrasher a deck of cards. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Thigpen, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Bruton of Ft. Myers, Mrs. Parramore, Miss Parramore, Mrs. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Fernald, Miss Hayden, Mr. Hayden and Col. Thrasher.

The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Coulbourn Mr. and Mrs. Chappell and Miss Frances Chappell in the living room. This spacious room never looked more attractive with its artistic decorations of lovely mistletoe and Christmas bells. The grand march was led by Miss Frances Chappell and Mr. Frank Woodruff. The programs were distributed by the little Misses Chappell. Delicious punch was served. Those dancing were Misses Elizabeth Stafford Ruth Mc-

The annual reception given New Year's night by Rev. Mr. Peck and his mother Mrs. Jonathon Peck is always looked forward to with much pleasure and interest. They are not keeping house this year but the reception will take place as usual in the Parish House Tuesday evening January 1st. No invitations have been issued but the parishioners friends and neighbors of the Holy Cross are invited from 8 until 11. The floor will be cleared at 10 o'clock for dancing. This is the fourth reception given by Mr. Peck and his mother to their friends. They are noted for their hospitality and are never so happy as when giving others pleasure and they hope to see their friends again this New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Smith have returned from Tampa where they spent Xmas with Judge and Mrs. Mabry. Mrs. Mabry and Horton Mabry returned with Mr. and Mrs. Smith and will be their guest until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruton of Ft. Myers are guests of the Hotel Carnes.

Miss Emma Owen of Bradenton is spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. L. P. McCuller.

It was a great pleasure for Captain Thomas A. Neal's friends to welcome him home at Christmas and a great sorrow to them that his stay was so short. He was obliged to return to Ft. Oglethorpe Wednesday afternoon.

Felix Frank has returned from Palatka where he spent Xmas with his mother and sister.

George A. DeCottes has returned from Jacksonville.

The many friends of Mrs. Robert A. Newman will regret to learn she is quite sick with grippe.

His Only Solution. Edward was playing with a toy machine. His mother heard an unusual commotion and hurried to the room. On entering she found poor Pete, his doll with a broken head. In reply to her questions as to what had happened to Pete, Edward only shook his head and mumbled each time "Riddle, riddle."

Fresh Pen for Each Head. At the prison of St. Paul's at Lyons there is a curious collection of pens. They are the pens with which the executioners have signed the regulation receipts for the prisoners handed over to them to be guillotined. At each execution a fresh pen is used for the purpose, and the ink is left to dry upon it.

FIRST ELECTION IN 1789

George Washington of Virginia, Receiving Sixty-Nine Votes From Ten States, Chosen President.

The first election for president of the United States occurred in the states which ratified the Constitution on the first Wednesday of January, the 7th, 1789. Only ten of the thirteen states voted in that election. New York, Rhode Island and North Carolina not voting. In five of the states, viz., Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, New Jersey and South Carolina, the people did not vote, the presidential electors being chosen by the state legislatures.

At that time the Constitution required the presidential electors to vote for two persons, the one receiving the majority to be president and the one receiving the next greatest number to be vice president. There had been no conventions held, no nominations made and no platforms adopted. The presidential electors were left without instructions, to vote as they pleased or according to their own discretion.

The ten states which constituted the first electoral college had 73 votes, viz., Connecticut, 7; Delaware, 3; Georgia, 5; Maryland, 8; Massachusetts, 10; New Hampshire, 5; New Jersey, 6; Pennsylvania, 10; South Carolina, 7; Virginia, 12. On the first ballot, each of the 73 electors voting for two persons, the vote resulted:

For George Washington of Virginia, 69; John Adams of Massachusetts, 34; John Jay of New York, 9; Robert H. Harrison of Maryland, 6; John Rutledge of South Carolina, 6; John Hancock of Massachusetts, 4; George Clinton of New York, 3; Samuel Huntington of Connecticut, 2; John Milton of Georgia, 1; Benjamin Lincoln of Massachusetts, 1; Edward Telfair of Georgia, 1. This ballot made Washington president and John Adams, the next highest, vice president.

RARE POSIES IN THE ARCTIC

Rich Blossoms Nature's Compensation for Long Winter During Which There Is No Sunshine.

In the brief, bright, nightless summer the Arctic is a paradise of flowers. It would seem to be a compensation of Dame Nature for the long winter, during which the sun never shows his jolly face once, observes a correspondent.

A great many of these plants have of late years become familiar to garden lovers because they are much used in rock gardens, and every flower lover knows their delicacy of structure, their brightness of color and their hardihood.

But nothing can beat their original environment. Those patches of yellow and blue and rose and purple, cheek by jowl with great beds of snow or some stranded and long unmelting berg, look lovely. It is the setting they were made for.

Strangely enough, when brought south and coax to grow in our gardens, these Arctic and Alpine plants lose both a part of their great vitality and their lovely tint. They pine for the Arctic like the Eskimo does.

Nansen tells of delicate bluebells nodding in the breeze, saxifrage with large blossoms, pale yellow mountain popples, white cloudberry flowers, and blue forget-me-nots in countless millions in the neighborhood of the north pole. So it is not all desolation and death. A flower seed is one of the most difficult things in nature to kill. Give it half a chance and it will show up smiling, and do its "bit" in making the world a brighter place to live in.

No Test Too Severe.

Thus man is made equal to every event. He can face danger for the right. A poor, tender, painful body, he can run into flame or bullets or pestilence, with duty for his guide.—Emerson.

Winter Park Hears From Brumley On Short Staple

Tuesday night at the town hall occurred one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held under the auspices of the local board of trade.

The principal speaker of the evening was E. W. Jenkins, district agent of the cooperative agricultural work of the U. S. Government who was kindly sent by the Department at Gainesville.

told of the soils best adapted to the growing of the short staple cotton; also in what soils and climate the long staple or "Sea Island" cotton makes the best crop.

Mr. Jenkins was followed by Mr. Brumley of Sanford who has very successfully planted and "made" a large crop of cotton last year.

riety. He was able to answer from actual experience all questions asked by the men who phoned Winter Park on the cotton map.

A short recess was taken while coffee and cakes were served. After cigars were passed and lighted, the discussion was resumed.

A committee was appointed by the president, consisting of Messrs. J. A. Trent, chairman, J. O. Hale, W. B. Taylor, and the secretary of the meeting.

The Moon's Warning

By ALAN HINSDALE

(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)

Many years ago, before steam had completely displaced sails for long ocean voyages, I was mate on a bark-rigged ship running between the Arabian coast and New York.

One night when we were anchored off a small town not far south of Beirut, the captain, fearing a mutiny, concluded to take the crew ashore for amusement.

It was very hot, and taking off my clothes I sat on the deck smoking a cigar. The moon was near the full, but was obscured by the clouds.

Had I not been familiar with the region and the people I might have wondered till doomsday what it meant.

My first thought was to arm myself, but at once remembered that the captain, fearing mutiny, had looked up every weapon on the ship and had the key with him.

An Arab's clothing is easily thrown off, and for purposes of defense, they keep their bodies oiled.

Although my supposition that a thief was coming was based entirely upon seeing a succession of flashes in the moonlight, I was correct in my reasoning in every particular.

There was nothing on deck for him to steal, and I knew that he would go down the companionway to look for loot below.

He first satisfied himself that the ship was deserted, then made for the companion way. Just as he was about to descend I jumped for him from behind.

I had an advantage in being behind him. With my chest against his back, I had an arm on each side of him and secured his dagger wrist with my left hand.

Then followed a wrestling match between two men, both of whom were stripped and oiled. The fight depended on which could get the knife.

When the crew came aboard they found the besmeared with blood, that had come from a flesh wound in my arm.

MAJORITY OF US ARE BORES

Many People Give Preference to Discussion of Own Affairs Rather Than to Other Fellow's

The Irish World gives the first test of a bore, presumably for readers to try on themselves; in these words:

Do you monopolize the conversation wherever you go with breathless accounts of your own affairs?

Under this definition, the baby is sometimes a bore, but we forgive him for we know that he has neither the wisdom nor the culture to set his little self to one side.

But there is about the baby none of the subtle deceitfulness of the old, practiced bore who deftly turns the conversation to his own exploits and affairs.

The growing child frankly finds himself the most interesting person in the world, and we forgive him to some extent and attempt to show him that he must conceal his personal liking for himself.

The artist who accompanied George Kennan through Russia tells an amusing story about an encounter with a party of tourists, who seemed very curious about the artist's pictures.

The artist gathered somehow, that he was expected to laugh, too, and proceeded to gratify their evident wish.

"His excellency," said the Tartar, in explanation, "smiled upon us, and showed us something which we never saw before—teeth made partly of gold.

Future Demand for Florida Citrus Fruit Assures Sale for all That Can be Grown

The growth of demand for a good food product is much more rapid after it becomes generally popular.

Good citrus nursery stock is scarce today and growing scarcer. Labor is not plentiful and is well employed.

Florida may have the cream of the trade in citrus during her season just as long as she continues to put her product on the market in good shape and to push its sale by modern methods.

YOUR INCOME TAX See The Man About Your Net Income Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 26, 1917. It will require a small army of men to take the income tax returns of persons subject to the new law.

Collector of Internal Revenue Jas. M. Cathcart today announced that thirteen officers will start from his headquarters on January 1st and on January 2nd and every one of them will be the job in the county assigned him, to meet the people and help them make out their income tax returns.

"It will be well for every unmarried person whose net income for 1917 is $1,000 or over, and every married person living with wife or husband whose net income for 1917 is $2,000 or over, to call on the income tax man and learn whether or not they will have any tax to pay."

There's hardly a business man, merchant or professional man who won't hake to make return of income. Farmers, as a class, will have to pay the tax. The safe thing to do for every person who had a total income of $1,000 or $2,000, as the case may be, and who is not sure about what deductions the law allows him, to play it safe by calling on the income tax man.

The man in the field will have forms for everybody and persons who expect to call on him need not trouble themselves to write to my office for forms.
