

A LONG AWAITED dream of many of the men of the Florida Power corporation employees club of the George E. Turner plant in Enterprise came into realization when after several weeks of much hard work, the employees boat launching ramp at the plant was dedicated Saturday afternoon with Harvey L. Dunn serving as master of ceremonies. The group enjoyed a hamburger fry with all the trimmings before the dedication. Connie Sellers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sellers cut the ribbons and let the first boat be launched. (Cox Photo)

House Manager Avoids Victory Talk

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House manager of President Kennedy's minimum wage bill set his sights today on action by the end of the week. But he avoided a victory prediction.

Rep. James Roosevelt, (D-Calif.), said the plan was to start House debate Tuesday on Kennedy's proposal to raise the minimum wage to $1.25 an hour. He said he hoped final action would come Thursday, but it might be delayed until Friday.

The timetable is of some importance because many liberal Democrats from eastern metropolitan areas customarily leave Washington on Thursday. This could hurt Kennedy's bill.

Stashed against it is a $1.10 minimum wage proposal advanced by a Republican-southern Democratic coalition. An identical measure last year bumped off a bill similar to Kennedy's request.

Roosevelt noted somewhat ruefully that the House surely would clash with the bill Thursday if it adopted the coalition measure.

As for the administration bill, he said, "we're still facing an uphill fight. I'm not sanguine about it."

Caroline Tells On President

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The White House, which has extracted promises from the hired help that it won't gossip to outsiders, is having a little trouble with a member of the First Family.

President Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy haven't had any luck, apparently, so they have turned the problem of how to control the on-the-cuff remarks of their 8-year-old daughter, Caroline, over to Press Secretary Pierre Salinger.

Salinger told the National Democratic Club Monday he and Caroline have been discussing the matter. He said he doesn't care for any more performances such as the one a few weeks ago when she announced to reporters that the president was sitting barefooted in his office doing nothing.

New York Cop Shoots Self

NEW YORK (UPI)—A detective investigating faked basketball games was found shot through the chest early today, apparently by his own hand, police reported. He was in critical condition.

Det. William S. Leahy, 41, rang the door bell of the district attorney's office, to which he is attached, and was discovered lying in the street by the patrolman who answered. A gun was lying near him.

Asst. Chief Inspector H. R. J. Gallati said a note was found clutched in Leahy's hand saying he had shot himself. Gallati said also an envelope was found on the detective containing important information on the current investigation of rigged basketball games. Gallati did not disclose the information.

The shot passed through Leahy's body, entering above the heart. Leahy is married and the father of two children. He joined the force in 1948.

Two-A-Day Delivery Out, Postmaster Says

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Postmaster General J. Edward Day has indicated he will not restore twice-a-day home mail deliveries.

Even if he wanted to, Congress told him he can't have the $176 million a year that the extra delivery would cost.

The exchange was disclosed in House Appropriations Committee hearings published Monday night. It apparently closed out prospects for restoration of the two-day residential deliveries that were dropped in an economy move about a decade ago.

Realtors Prepare For Observance Of 'Realtor Week'

Members of the Seminole County Board of Realtors are now starting to plan, with other civic and business leaders of the community to celebrate Realtor Week which will be observed nationally from Apr. 23-29, N. V. Farmer, president of the board announced today.

Specific plans for the observance of the week, designed to acquaint the public with the advantages of buying or selling real property through the services of a realtor, are the responsibility of the Board's Realtor Week Committee headed by Ruth Hamilton, the president said.

Other members of the committee are Paul Altman, Gene Taffer and Jeannie Blair.

Held annually under the auspices of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, of which the Seminole County Board is a member, Realtor Week is expected to be observed by at least 600 real estate boards across the country.

"We realtors know that the purchase or sale of real estate—particularly the buying or selling of a home—is probably the most important single transaction in which most persons ever engage," Mr. Farmer said. "And we want the public to know that Realtors can help them in such a transaction with the highest standards of professional competence and ethics. During Realtor Week we will re-emphasize this point."

By way of background, the Seminole Board president said that the NAREB constitution defines a Realtor as a "person . . . engaged in the real estate business who is a board member or an individual member of NAREB, is subject to its rules and regulations, observes its standards of conduct, and is entitled to its benefits." Such membership is extended to brokers who have demonstrated their competence and adherence to ethical practices in addition to passing state license examinations. Thus, a Realtor is more than just any real estate broker.

Furthermore, the term, "Realtor" is an exclusive designation of members of local real estate boards and NAREB by virtue of its registration with the U. S. Patent office. Numerous federal and state courts decisions have upheld the Association's exclusive control of the term.

Founded in 1908, NAREB adopted its Code of Ethics, to which every Realtor is pledged, in 1918. The Code defines in specific terms the rules of conduct that govern the Realtor in his relations with the public, his clients, and other Realtors.

Many state real estate license commissioners have cited the NAREB Code as the most advanced set of ethical standards existent and have expressed a desire to see it extended to the entire real estate selling.

Tentative plans already completed for observance of Realtor Week, includes publishing the Code of Ethics, its meaning and use.

'61 MERCURY

Saves on upkeep with 7 self-servicing features. Things like a pre-lubricated chassis that won't need a lube for 30,000 miles. A shorter exterior (for easy handling) is built around a roomier interior than last year. Doors are wider. More spacious trunk. New Super-Economy engine includes Mercury's first '61—give up to 15% more gas mileage.

'61 COMET

Comet isn't resting on its laurels. Sure, it's the "premier" compact success. The only one with fine-car styling. Now it's even better. The refined suspension and 114" wheelbase make the ride smoother than in many standard-size cars. There's room for 6—and a mountain of luggage. Still, Comet's a cinch to handle—a cinch to own. Priced with or below compacts of other makers.

'Looks Just Like Pa'

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Clark Gable's widow awoke briefly Monday night to inspect her new son and exclaimed: "He looks just like pa!"

Mrs. Kay Gable, 41, who earlier in the day had given birth to the 8-pound boy, inspected him from her hospital bed while a nurse held the black-haired tot.

"His ears are of an average size," said a doctor. "Otherwise he has a definite resemblance to his father."

Mrs. Gable was expected to give the boy a name today. He was the only child of the famed, big-eared Clark Gable who died Nov. 16 in the same hospital, Hollywood Presbyterian.

Gable said before his death he did not want a son to be named Clark Gable Jr., fearing the famous name would be a handicap.

"Oh, he's so beautiful with that black, curly hair and that peach and cream skin," said Mrs. Gable's friend, Mrs. Ray Hommes.

"She checked all his little toes and hands and fingers—he's an absolute delight to every one," said Mrs. Hommes who took a room near Mrs. Gable's in the hospital to keep her company.

"Kay was able to look at him for about five minutes before she went back to sleep," said Mrs. Hommes. "She was very drowsy from the effects of sedatives and the spinal anesthetic."

Birth was by Caesarean section during which Mrs. Gable was able to watch. She was reported as saying when the boy was delivered:

"What a handsome boy. Just what Clark wanted."

Dr. Richard Clark described both Mrs. Gable's and the boy's conditions as good.

He said there were no complications of any kind.

Mrs. Gable and the baby were expected to go home in about a week.

A letter from Los Angeles reports:
"The weather here is gorgeous and I had every intention of spending this past weekend in Palm Springs with my wife. We needed to get away."
"We took the Hollywood freeway but didn't even reach downtown L. A. The car in front of me stopped, but the car behind me didn't."
"Thanks to seat belts neither my wife nor I were hurt but our car will require at least $1,000 worth of repairs."
"May I suggest that you or anyone you know put seat belts in your car. The police agree with us that without those belts my dear wife could have been badly injured, not to mention yours truly."
"Nuff said!"

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

Millie was potentially a good wife and mother, yet she is now a drunk. Her husband is partly to blame, for he brought her into the big city from a small town, and failed to help her grow the proper new emotional roots. Children too become neurotic and school problems when uprooted from an old, familiar school or neighborhood, so take care!

CASE 2 - Mrs. M. M., aged 32, started out as a devoted wife. "But now she runs around with other men," her late husband told me. "Half the time she isn't home when I arrive from the office, for she spends her afternoons at taverns."

"Sometimes she is slobbering drunk when she does stagger in. Yet we have a wonderful little girl in the 3rd grade of school. 'Wouldn't you think a mother would have enough gumption to act decent, if for no other reason than to avoid shaming her child?'" We psychologists urge that you control your emotions by control of the environment.

After a lengthy interview with Millie, I found that she came from a small town. Her husband deposited her in an apartment of the big city, without seeing that she grew new, secure emotional roots in the right places.

Millie was thus friendless and frightened. She finally struck up an acquaintance with a divorcee of the neighborhood. That's how she was led into the taverns.

And because of a loneliness plus failure of her husband to verbalize his affection, she drifted into the habit of spending all afternoons swilling down liquor in taverns.

Husbands, if you take a wife into a strange town, then be sure you quickly help her get emotionally anchored, as by these simple rules:

(1) Go with her and join a neighboring church AT ONCE.

Then see that she becomes a member of a church Women's Society, too, so she will immediately develop friends who do NOT spend their spare time in taverns. Smart men don't expect a wife to be content sitting home, aloof and alone, with only a radio or TV to keep her company.

Women are sociable creatures so they crave female companionship. But avoid the ritz Country Club set, for there your wife will soon become a cigar addict and liquor swiller, spending time and money gambling all afternoon at cards.

Divorcees and widows flood the Country Clubs, where they gossip and fritter away millions of hours of valuable time.

Church women, however, study about missions and child psychology and devote their extra energy to helpful projects.

(2) Be sure you wife gets acquainted with a nearby woman of the same church, so she can visit back and forth and thus feel she has a friend at hand in case of any emergency.

It is not enough to belong to a suburban church possibly 5 miles away, for the modern wife needs a confidante within a block or two. That's why Millie became chummy with the divorced divorcee, for she craved a friend near by.

If you have jerked your children out of their old familiar school or neighborhood, exert even greater effort to see that they grow new emotional roots at once.

Throw a party for the kids in the block to help them get acquainted fast. Take a few of the neighboring youngsters with your children to the beach or a ball game, to help cement quicker friendships.

For neurotic ailments and low grades often stem from fears created by uprooting a child from his old, familiar neighborhood.

POLITICAL NOTEBOOK

By Peter Edson

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — President Kennedy's tax program is now set for unveiling March 27, four days after his message revising next year's budget goes to Congress under the revised schedule.

That is about three weeks later than originally intended. The delay is due entirely to inability to work out all the complex problems involved in so short a time.

Present thinking is that there may have to be two tax messages. The first would cover short-range changes which could be enacted by June, so as to apply to government operations in fiscal 1962.

Then along about April, after the last 1961 and the first 1962 tax collections have been counted, there could be a second message on the long-range tax reforms. This could probably not be enacted before next year.

Also, by April it should be apparent whether the business recovery will have begun or whether there will be continued high unemployment. Either way, the long and short-range tax programs could be affected.

If unemployment continues high, pressure will increase for a temporary suspension of withholding taxes on income. Labor union economists have been pushing this as a means of giving people more money to spend, thus giving business a boost.

This idea has not been entirely ruled out. The difficulty with it is that by the time it could be approved by Congress and put into effect, the recession might be over.

On a long-range basis, a theoretical way around the objection might be to give the President authority to suspend payroll tax reductions wherever unemployment reaches, say, 7 per cent.

Withholding taxes would then be resumed automatically when unemployment dropped to, say, 5 per cent. But this whole idea is not now considered politically realistic.

The same criticism applies to proposals by Committee for Economic Development and other business groups to reduce the high tax rates on upper income brackets. This is offered as an incentive to businessmen to invest more money in new enterprises instead of into tax-exempt securities or in trying to evade taxes.

But the general feeling now is that there can be no special tax cuts of this kind. If any reductions are made, they must be across the board, benefiting all taxpayers. Also, President Kennedy has indicated tax cuts are not feasible now.

This does not rule out revisions in special tax rates which will end tax abuses. The problem here is to define abuses. Tax loopholes may be incentives to one group of taxpayers, but abuses to other taxpayers who don't have them.

The objective set for both long and short-term tax programs is not just accelerating antirecession measures, but actively stimulating economic growth.

And whatever loss of revenue will have to be made up by adjustments to further this objective will have to be made up by closing loopholes through which potential tax collections are now escaping.

These are some of the programs now being considered: Withholding taxes on interest and dividend payments. Tighter control over expense accounts. Modification of the present dividend tax credit. Elimination of foreign "tax havens." Revision of depreciation allowance schedules.

There are no final decisions on any of these, yet.

The whole tax program is under the Secretary of the Treasury C. Douglas Dillon. His specialists are Assistant Secretary Stanley S. Surrey, former Harvard Law professor and the new commissioner of Internal Revenue, Mortimer S. Caplin.

But the new chairman of the President's council of economic advisers, Prof. Walter W. Heller of University of Minnesota, and others are contributing economic background.

CROSSROADS OF THE WORLD

By William Drury

The envelope contained a letter and a questionnaire. The letter was from a Mr. Jackson Martindell, the august head of the House of Marquis, publishers of Who's Who.

Mr. Martindell explained that I had been selected by his compilers as a person fit to be included in the Marquis National Biographical Reference File, and impressed upon me that this was a signal honor bestowed upon only those considered "noteworthy in some worthwhile respect."

At last, I had arrived! Listed by Marquis! Mentioned in Who's Who! It was indeed the accolade I began to fill out the questionnaire.

Oddly enough, it allowed the biographer only four lines in which to describe his life's history, which I thought hopelessly inadequate even for an outline of my own modest career as author, soldier of fortune, traveler, explorer, philosopher, philanthropist and president of the Merchant Street Birdwatching, Badminton and We Love Lucy Fan Club.

I decided to jot down a slightly fuller account here, and pass it on to Who's Who.

I was born in England at a very early age. The usual number of parents, one of each kind. At the time, no one suspected that I might one day rate a mention in Who's Who. My father regarded me as a complete wastrel, since I made no attempt to find employment until I was almost nine, when I got a job as a bookie.

This brought me to the attention of the city fathers, who decided I was a man to watch. They asked the police to do the watching.

I was educated at Gilton, an exclusive school in England, and remained there quite happily until it was discovered that I had the makings of a pretty good mustache. Gilton does not approve of mustaches, its being a girl's college and just about as snooty as Bryn Mawr in that respect.

My father sent me to Oxford, which promptly sent me back. Cambridge did not want me. Yale and Harvard refused me. Heidelberg threw me out, and so did the Serenones.

Changing my name, I joined the B.A.F. England declared war on Germany and I achieved notable distinction by shooting down 23 aircraft, until Mr. Churchill took me aside and gently pointed out that he could not afford to lose any more.

I was discharged with honors, being the only man in my outfit to be ushered out with a roll of drums and have bits of uniform torn off him in front of the assembled squadron.

It was then that I became what I am today, a writer. After all, it was in my blood.

I was always very good at spelling.

It will please my parents immensely to learn that my biography will appear in Who's Who. They are rather snobbish about that sort of thing.

I must write my mother today. Unfortunately, she cannot read and will have to wait until my father comes out of jail.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: We have some friends (a married couple, our age) who invite us over for an evening and, as soon as we arrive, they will get out the Bible and start a fight. If it weren't for their forever trying to get us to change our religion to theirs, they would be the grandest people alive.

It so happens we are satisfied with our religion, and have no desire to change it. We enjoy a lively discussion of the various religious faiths, but they tell us our religion is full of contradiction and is based on myths, fables and superstitions. My husband says to ignore it, but I think our friendship should terminate. What do you think.

NOT READY FOR A CHANGE

DEAR NOT READY: Leave this couple alone for a "cooling off" period. If they sincerely miss your company they will ask, "What's the matter?" Then give it to them with both Testaments.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell me in simple terms WHY, in most states, they use the father's name and the mother's MAIDEN name on a baby's birth certificate? There is nothing on it to indicate whether the parents are married. I don't get it. SHOWING MY IGNORANCE

DEAR SHOWING: Since, in most states, ALL birth certificates show only the father's name and the mother's maiden name, those born illegitimately are protected against the humiliation of having the fact revealed on their birth certificate. Also, to state that the mother is "Mary Smith" and the father is "John Smith," does not adequately identify the mother. (John Smith may have had two wives named Mary.) To state that "Mary Jones" IS the mother and "John Smith" IS the father, more clearly identifies the mother.

DEAR ABBY: My husband's cousin is being married. He asked my husband to be best man. He also asked our 6-year-old daughter to be the flower girl. My husband said only those in the wedding party were invited to the dinner. That leaves me and the other five children out. When I asked him where we were supposed to eat, he said we should stay home. He is 26 and I am 25 and I think I have done my share of staying home since my marriage. My children are 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. What is the solution? LEFT OUT

DEAR LEFT: Your children aged 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 do not belong at a wedding dinner, so get a sitter and go with your husband. As the wife of the best man, and mother of the flower girl, I am sure you will be welcome.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

Saw the heading "Our Liquid Population" over an editorial the other day and darned if I didn't think it was going to be about weight watchers who drink their meals instead of eating them. It turns out the editor had another segment of the population in mind—those who move from place to place. But I think I can be excused for my mistake since everywhere I go these days the subject of meal-drinking comes up.

There always seems to be at least two persons in every group who are on one of the liquid diets. And naturally they have to discuss their ordeal.

They begin by trading information on how long they have been meal-drinking, how much weight they have lost so far, and how much more they intend to lose before they go back to knife-and-fork eating.

And then they invariably get around to discussing brands, flavorings, possibly variations (such as freezing) and so on and on.

When two or more meal-drinkers get together they seem to find almost as much to talk about as a couple of gourmets.

But it certainly isn't as much fun to listen to. For the meal-drinkers all have a hungry—if not yet a lean look—and their eagerness to trade secrets for making their liquid diet palatable is kind of pathetic.

Come to think of it—you hardly ever hear good gourmets talk any more. As certain as some food lover starts talking about a delectable dish there is sure to be a kill-joy who starts talking about calories. If not, there is some meal-drinker ready to sigh and beg the gourmet not to talk about FOOD—because he just can't bear to hear about it.

Sanford Little Loop Tryouts To Open Wednesday

Heavy Turnout Looms

Activity in the local Florida Little League gets into full swing this week in Sanford as registration and tryouts get underway.

This year in order to handle the anticipated large turnout and to give each boy a better opportunity for a tryout it has been decided to hold registration over a two day period and to call the boys out by alphabet.

Boys whose last name starts with the letter A through L are to come out Wednesday at 4 p. m.

If their last name starts with the letter M through the rest of the alphabet they are to come out on Thursday at 4 p. m.

Both days the tryouts will be held at the Fort Mellon Park Little League Field. Boys should show up at the tryouts dressed to play with sneakers or rubber cleats and ball gloves.

In order for a boy to play in Little League he must be at least 10 years old by August 1 or under 13 by the same date. There will be two other leagues formed this spring to take care of the boys that do not fit in the above age bracket.

It is anticipated at the present to have eight teams again this season though the Recreation Department announced that there is a definite need to expand to 10 teams if additional sponsors can be located.

Anyone interested in sponsoring a team or knows of a group that might be interested, is asked to call the Recreation Department Office at FA 2-7424.

Barbers Hold 1st In Hi-Nooners

In the Hi-Nooners League, Al's Barber Shop continues to lead the league as they won three points from Dewa's. Capt. made a clean sweep winning four points from CPO. Wives team and Shoemaker and Big Dip split a game, each taking 2 points. North Orlando Homes lost three points to Monroe Harbor.

Splits were picked off by Mary Elmore and Lou Blunden who both made the 3-10; Gladys Edwards and Jean Webster, who both made the 5-7; Betty Cox, making the 3-10 and the 5-9-7 and the 2-7 was spotted by Lillian Balmer. Turkeys were rolled by Carolyn Belts and Gladys Edwards.

Sanford Swimmers Drop Two Meets

The Sanford High Swim team got off to a bad start this season with two losses last week. The boys lost to Leesburg Friday, 63-32 while the girls lost 64-26.

Earlier in the week, the Mainland girls defeated the locals 78-15.

Yankees After Duke Snider

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Veteran Duke Snider of the Los Angeles Dodgers is the man the New York Yankees are after to rebuild the bench that was broken up by the player pool for the American League's two new clubs.

A Yankee spokesman has been talking with Dodger general manager Buzz Bavasi about the 34-year-old outfielder as a follow-up to discussions about Snider which were held during the winter baseball meetings in St. Louis last December.

The Dodgers want catching help in 1961 and the Yankees are well-stocked in that department. Since the inter-league trading period isn't in effect now, any deal between the two clubs would have to be made via the purchase or waiver route.

Bavasi is in no particular hurry to get rid of Snider, who looks in excellent trim at 195 pounds, the lowest he has been in 12 years, and feels he can start 125 to 130 games this year.

"Bavasi never told me definitely that I wouldn't go to another club," said Snider, who talked off to 243 last season but still managed to hit 14 homers in 101 games. "What he did say at the time I signed my contract was that he would not trade me unless he was certain that it would benefit the ball club."

Snider would just as soon finish his career with the Dodgers, whom he first reported to in 1947. No longer puffy around the joints, he is around the waist line, the Duke has been rocketing balls over the right field wall here at Dodgertown all spring to the delight of all the Los Angeles brass.

Rahija Paces Bowlerette Play

In the Jet Bowlerettes League play last week, the House of Rahija took four points from the Mary-Esther team, Yowell's won four from Duke and Duchess and Lellani took four from Ivey's.

Splitting up their games were Howe's and Sweeney's who each took two points and Neils and Lovely Lady who made an uneven 2½ for Neils and Lovely Lady got left with 1½.

Picking up the splits were Martha Zok, the 6-7-10; Doris Rhoads who made the 8-3-1 and Marge Lyons, picking off the 7-10 and the 3-10.

The Bowlerettes are having their trophy award presentation banquet at the NAB ballroom on Apr. 8, with a steak dinner for the teams and all team sponsors have been invited.

Witzel Paces Inter-Club Golf Tourney

The Inter-Club Golf Match played by the Mayfair Country Club and the DeLand Country Club Men's Teams has resulted in the following scores.

In Class A, gross, Gene Witzel was first with a 72 and Jim Spencer second with a 74. In the net score, E. J. Still had a 73-10-63 and Ralph Simas was a close second with a net 73-9-66.

Class B gross winner was Frank Duro with an 83 and J. C. Bradley with an 89. Jay Sikes took first in the net scores with Bob Billhimer and Harold Sherwood tied with net 78½.

Class C, Gross found Bill Malki high with an 88 and Duncan second with 93. Net scores were Dean Raine 74 and Dick Shilling 76.

Closest to the pin on number 16 green was Jack Allen.

Ewbanks Preps For Derby Classic

A. R. Ewbanks, Discoverer and Go Speaker all will be running their last races tonight before Friday night's qualifying heats for the 26th Annual Central Florida Derby, slated for March 28.

All three of the speedy greyhounds have been nominated by Racing Secretary R. C. Williamson for the Derby but will have to prove themselves in the Friday night heats before going on to the Derby.

The first four finishers in each of two qualifying races Friday night will make up the field for the biggest event of the season at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club. The remaining eight dogs will compete in the Derby Consolation on March 28.

In tonight's races, Ewbanks is slated for action in the Grade A eighth race while Go Speaker and Discoverer have been tapped for main event duty.

Tonight's Grade A races are over the standard five-sixteenths mile course, while the Derby qualifying heats are set for the three-eighths mile course.

Opening Day Pitching Woes Coming Up

United Press International Managers Jimmy Dykes of the Cleveland Indians and Ralph Houk of the New York Yankees will be plenty happy this year if all their decisions are as simple as finding their opening-day pitchers.

The pennant races don't begin for another four weeks but Dykes can practically name Jimmy Perry today while Houk is leaning strongly toward Jim Coates.

Perry, who won 18 games for the Indians to tie Chuck Estrada for most victories in the AL, turned in six sparkling innings Monday as the Indians scored a 12-3 victory over the San Francisco Giants. Coates, who won his first nine games and finished with a 13-3 record last season, went seven innings in the Yankees' 11-8 triumph over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Perry blanked the Giants on four hits and now has allowed them only five hits and no runs in nine innings of exhibition pitching. Woody Held, Tito Francona and rookie Hal Jones hit homers to lead an attack which brought the Indians their fifth win in eight exhibition games. The loss was the sixth in 10 games for the Giants.

Coates held the Dodgers to six hits and three runs during his seven-inning tour as the Yankees snapped a four-game losing streak and scored their second triumph in 10 games. Mickey Mantle led the Yankees' 13-hit attack with a homer, double and single and Hector Lopez and Cletis Boyer had triples. Rookie Willie Davis had a homer and triple for the Dodgers.

Stan Musial showed some of that old form with a single, double and triple and Bill White had two doubles and two singles to lead the St. Louis Cardinals to a 16-3 rout of the Cincinnati Reds. Ernie Broglio and Ray Sadecki limited the Reds to nine hits, including two triples and a single by Vada Pinson who raised his spring average to .441.

The Baltimore Orioles shaded the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-6, the Boston Red Sox edged out the Los Angeles Angels 8-7, and the Kansas City A's beat the Washington Senators, 4-3, in Monday's other games.

Teena Armas was tops for the women this week with a 512 series, as her team, Town & Country, rolled against Edwards. Ed Calian was next in line after Appleby with a 580 series.

Gloria Accardi, Junior Wallis, Jim Carmichael, Ken Stone and Ray Braden all picked up the 3-10 split, with Stone making the 3-5-10, and Braden the 2-7 also. Marie Blake, Dot deYarmin, Marylou Danyluk, Wallis and Tom Armas all made the 3-7, with Armas adding the 3-7-9 for good measure. George Conklin also made this one to close the split circle for the week.

Yanks, Bucs Top Choices

RENO, Nev. (UPI) — Reno odds-makers today established the New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates as favorites to win the 1961 American and National League baseball pennants.

The Yankees were listed as "odds on" picks at 2-3 with odds of 5-1 quoted on both the Chicago White Sox and Baltimore Orioles. The Cleveland Indians were listed at 7-1, and the Detroit Tigers and Minnesota Twins at 9-1 each. The Boston Red Sox and Kansas City Athletics were listed at 15-1 each but no odds were given on the Washington Senators or the Los Angeles Angels, the league's two new teams.

BRL Meet

There will be an organizational meeting for the Sanford Babe Ruth League, today at 7 p. m. in the Civic Center. All managers, coaches, sponsors, prospective sponsors and interested boosters of the local baseball activities are urged to attend. This meeting is not for the players themselves.

Minor Loop Expansion Urged

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — The minor leagues must expand to at least 30 clubs in order to stock 20 major league teams in 1962—that's the contention of minor league President George Trautman.

"The major league clubs know the only way they can stock their ball clubs is through the young."

Board Takes Issue On Charge Of Mix Basis

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The Duval County School Board took issue Monday with a charge it is assigning pupils and teachers on the basis of color.

In answer to a suit seeking desegregation of the county schools, the board said it was operating according to the Florida Pupil Assignment Law.

"Voluntary segregation by pupils and parents is permissible and lawful," the board said. It contended it was not ordered by any law to integrate, but only to "refrain from segregating pupils solely by discrimination based on race or color."

States Running Out Of Funds

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Labor Department reported Monday that by the end of the week as many as 40 states may have run out of funds to pay unemployed federal workers and ex-service-men unable to find civilian jobs.

A department spokesman said it was impossible to name each state affected because of differing state laws. But approximately 26 already had exhausted the federal money given them for compensation benefits, he said.

Under the special program, the federal government acts as an employer and allocates money to the states to pay the veterans and civilian workers.

President Kennedy has asked Congress to appropriate an additional $70 million to continue the grants.

Curtain Lifts On Spy Suspect

LONDON (UPI) — The curtain of secrecy lifts a little bit today on the three lives of Gordon Arnold Lonsdale. He is one of five persons on trial on charges of stealing naval secrets and transmitting them to Moscow to the serious detriment of Britain and the NATO Alliance.

As of now he has these identities:

—He says he is a 37-year-old London businessman, a respected director of a lock manufacturing concern, and the possessor of a Canadian passport.

—To two of his co-defendants he is "Commander Alex Johnson," an assistant naval attaché at the American Embassy here.

—To the prosecution he is a Russian and a professional spy.

On trial with him at the Old Bailey are Peter John Kroger and his wife, Helen, owners of a cottage in the suburb of Rusling where there was a secret radio capable of sending to Moscow; Henry F. Houghton, 55, and his fiancée, Miss Ethel Elizabeth Gee, 40, employees at the Portland naval base who admitted removing secret documents and giving them to "Commander Johnson."

When it was about to recess Monday, Lonsdale's lawyer made a startling request. He said Lonsdale would not testify in his own defense, but would like to read a statement to the judge and jury.

He denied he ever received any large amount of money in return although his friend "Commander Johnson" did give him two tickets to a London performance of the Bolshoi Ballet. Then why did he do it?

Because, Houghton said, he was living in a state of terror. A casual romance with a girl named "Christina" while he was on the staff of the British naval attaché in Warsaw had been his undoing. When he returned to England "Christina's" friends looked him up and demanded that he become a spy for the Iron Curtain nations.

He was severely beaten twice,

Largest Red Party In Free World Showing Signs Of 'Old Age'

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The largest Communist party in the free world is showing some signs of old age.

The party which almost took over Italy in the 1940s has never recovered the loss of membership it suffered as result of the Soviet Union's bloody suppression of the Hungarian revolt, and is finding it more and more difficult to win new recruits.

Bureaucracy and opportunism are said to have replaced the revolutionary spirit.

Party membership was given officially as 2,033,333 in 1958. In the following year, a deputy and a former senator left the party, and 300,000 others simply failed to renew their membership cards.

Despite successive membership drives, official party figures in 1960 showed that it still totaled only 1,793,900.

In January of this year, Enrico Berlinguer, head of the party's organization bureau, reported that only about 58 per cent of last year's membership had paid for their 1961 cards. Others undoubtedly would renew later, but, said Berlinguer:

"The lag cannot fail to worry us."

Berlinguer said the lag was slight or non-existent in some areas such as Turin, Ravenna or La Spezia. But it was "serious" in central and southern Italy and still more so in Sicily.

This was a reversal in trends. Immediately after the war, communism was powerful in the industrial north and almost nonexistent in the south.

Americanism Night Event Scheduled Thursday By Elks

"Americanism Night" will be a special event at the Elks' Lodge 1241 on E. Second St. Thursday night.

A ham dinner, served by the DOES will begin at 7 p. m., followed by the much discussed film on the San Francisco Riots at the hearings on un-American activities, entitled "Operation Abolition." Commentary on the film will be by Lt. Joseph E. Andrews of the Naval Air Station.

All Elks and their wives are urged to attend this showing, and are invited to bring with them their high school or college age children, as the film deals primarily with the manner in which the Communists duped California students into rioting and disrupting the hearings.

Lt. R. K. Jones is program chairman for this special event.

Reds Willing To OK Control Pact

MOSCOW (UPI)—Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev said today the Soviet Union will accept any controls proposed by the West if the West agrees to the Soviet plan for total disarmament.

Khrushchev made the statement at a Communist party conference in Alma Ata, capital of Kazakhstan, and repeated his favorable statement that world Communism is riding the wave of the future.

"But we are not trying to scare anybody," he said. "We are not seeking to achieve our goals by war. On the contrary, we have proposed total disarmament."

"Let them (the Western powers) accept our disarmament program and we shall accept all their controls."

Carnival Plans Near Completion

Another outstanding attraction at the many activities at the carnival is the country store to be set up in the school cafeteria. All white elephant items, canned goods, patterns, plants and other articles should be brought to the school before the last week in order that sorting and marking can be done on time.

Mr. Magie, beloved by all the children, will be a featured attraction, delighting the hearts of adults as well as of small fry.

Retarded Child Potentials Stressed In Film

"Children, Limited" was the title of the informative film shown to members of the Seminole Assn. for Retarded Children at the Health Center Monday.

A comprehensive report, the film documented the various types of mental retardation, possible treatments, home care vs. institutional care, and showed clearly how much can be done to help and train and utilize the limited abilities of these children.

The film showed that, far from being the hopeless, helpless situation that too often prevails, many mentally retarded possess remarkable skills in some lines, particularly in the field of music, art, physical skills and athletic prowess.

Many retarded persons are very adept at caring for animals and crops and a farm environment is often very beneficial and rewarding in providing useful accomplishments. Many simple routine tasks can be adequately fulfilled by those who are incapable of any formal education.

Following the film, Archer Moore, psychologist in care of mental health for Seminole County, talked to the group of association members and other interested persons on the meaning of IQ tests.

Some of the points that he discussed included the difference in the educable and the trainable child; the age of testing, the rate of maturation; types of tests; results of tests and other points that were raised by questions from the floor.

Mrs. Margaret Manfre, vice president of the association, presided in the absence of President Ken McInloah.

Textile Import Quota Drive On

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. John O. Pastore, (D-R.I.) today led a drive to get a flexible quota system on textile imports.

Pastore received permission to take his appeal to the Senate floor in hopes of getting additional support for his special textile subcommittee recommendations.

He outlined his subcommittee's plans for a country-by-country, category-by-category system of quotas to help cure some of the ill-effects of the domestic industry.

Pastore said a flexible quota system, one that would change as the demands for goods increased, was the only fair one that could be imposed.

Hospital Denies Girl's 'Tall' Story

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Charity Hospital said today it was not responsible for stories about a teenage girl who was supposedly eight feet two inches tall.

Turned out the girl actually is only six-foot-ten.

"The hospital isn't to blame for the misunderstanding," said Dr. Leo Kerne.

It started when Delores Hurlard, 14, a star forward on a Negro girl's basketball team, was sent to the hospital for treatment for a minor knee injury she received in a game.

Reporters talked to the girl and stated she was being examined by doctors at the hospital because she was so tall, perhaps the tallest girl in medical history.

The hospital had to stretch her over two regulation-sized hospital beds to make her comfortable.

"How tall are you, Delores," newsmen asked.

"Eight two," she replied.

Kerne pointed out that the hospital made no statement about how tall she was, and that newsmen got the information from the girl herself.

Instead of eight feet two inches, Kerne said, an official measurement indicated that what the girl meant by "eight two" was 82 inches, or six feet, ten inches.

Pennsylvania Day

The Pennsylvania Club of Daytona Beach will sponsor a "Pennsylvania Day" at Ponce de Leon Springs All day Saturday, and not Sunday as was reported in Monday's Herald.

On the podium for the Florida Symphony Orchestra in its appearance at the Sanford Civic Center Friday will be their magnetic young musical director Henry Mazer, one of the leading young names of the musical world.

Mazer is former conductor of the Wheeling Symphony Orchestra and is the regular conductor of the Washington Ballet Company. He brings to the Florida Symphony Orchestra a wealth of musical experience, having made many successful guest appearances with the Pittsburgh, Chicago, Buffalo and National Symphony Orchestras.

Before coming to Florida, Mazer was instrumental in inaugurating a series of weekly television programs in Wheeling, called the "A B C's of Music" which pioneered visual education in that area and attracted national comment. He was particularly active in music education programs in the elementary schools and is no stranger to the TV camera.

A protege of Fritz Feiner, Mazer trained under Pierre Monteux and Georges Enesco and is certainly one of the select group of conductors achieving reputations of major significance today.

Mazer and the Florida Symphony is being brought to Sanford by the Recreation and Parks Department. They will perform at a children's concert, for Sanford school children, Friday afternoon in addition to their evening concert. Advance tickets for reserved seats are now available at the Civic Center Office.

The afternoon concert for the children is free.

Miller, Bliss Loom As Top GOP Choices

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Rep. William E. Miller of New York and Ray C. Bliss, Ohio Republican chairman, were viewed today as the strongest candidates for the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, chairman since April 11, 1959, announced Monday he would call a meeting about June 1 to receive his resignation and elect a successor.

Miller is chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, which boasted a net gain of 21 House seats in the 1960 election even though the GOP failed to win the White House.

Bliss, Ohio GOP chairman since 1949, directed a campaign in which his state bucked the trend of other northeastern industrial states and gave its electoral votes to Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee.

Industry Potential Here, Speaker Tells Realtors

Seminole County has the potential for an important industrial belt, but it's going to take a combination of hard-headed business technique and a spirit of cooperation to develop it.

That's what Wilson Knott, president of Florida Land Planning, Inc., of Winter Park told county realtors Tuesday night at their monthly meeting at the Sea Shell Restaurant.

There's a lot of difference in offering industrial land tracts and in offering well planned industrial locations to prospective clients, he emphasized.

The natural growth of South Seminole and the expansion of Orange County northward puts the area in an ideal position for development, he pointed out.

The Seminole Industrial Park on Hwy. 17-92 south of Fern Park is meeting "good response" from industry in its development proposals, Knott told the realtors as he compared the park to an ideal industrial park.

He said industry is interested in the Seminole Park because of its central location, access highways, planned rail and other facilities and the favorable 12-mill county tax structure.

"As soon as we started to work, interest increased and we should expect to see 20 plants in the park by next year," he said.

Knott said the park is a planned industrial park with all the amenities of a city, including schools, government and a chance to be part of the community growth.

Included in the 10 points required of a successful industrial park are a sound basic plan.

Peel Case Judge Hears Private Eye

FORT PIERCE (UPI) — A private detective said today his bloodhound followed the trail of missing Circuit Judge and Mrs. C. E. Chillingworth to the ocean in front of their cottage—but then turned back and trailed the scent to a highway that ran close to the house.

Emory Pickren answered questions about the bloodhound while the jury was out of the courtroom in the trial of former West Palm Beach City Judge Joseph A. Peel Jr., accused of plotting the Chillingworth murders in 1955.

Defense attorney Carlton Welch called Pickren as his second defense witness, but the prosecutor Phill O'Connell challenged testimony about the bloodhound and Judge D. C. Smith ordered the jury out of the room while he decided on admissibility of the testimony.

The defense began its case as the trial went into its 14th day.

Earlier, West Palm Beach radio commentator Robert E. Hawkey told the court he was "on Joe Peel's death list."

"For three years I lived within arms length of a gun while this man lived in West Palm Beach," he said.

Hawkey also talked while the jury was excused because Welch said he was a hostile witness and wanted to test Hawkey's testimony before bringing in the jury.

New Seminole Bank Distributes Stock

The South Seminole Bank scheduled distribution today of 25,000 shares of stock to approximately 600 stockholders at an organizational meeting at the Commercial Bank, Winter Park.

With construction well under way the new bank is expected to open in July of this year.

A. G. Bush, industrialist and financier, and one of the bank's principal stockholders, said.

The bank will be located on Hwy. 17-92 in Fern Park, just one block south of the intersection of SR 436 and directly across from the Seminole Jail Alibi Prison, which is also under construction.

Officers of the new bank are E. G. Banks, president, and J. P. (Jack) Toole, vice president, and cashier.

Meet Rescheduled

Press secretary Pierre Salinger would not give reporters any reason for the latest revision of plans for the session.

Housing Code Enabling Act Asked By County

The County Commission Tuesday afternoon gave its approval by a 4-1 vote to ask the legislation delegation to establish a minimum housing code and the license all building contractors.

District 3 Commissioner James P. Avery opposed both plans. He contended that the "minimum housing code was 'ridiculous in part' and declared 'it goes too far setting up too many controls on how to build a house.'"

Zoning Director Robert Brown urged the commission to put through the enabling legislation on the code, citing the many questions on what types of industry will be located in it, provision of maximum benefits to the industry at the location, protective covenants and ordinances controlling it, good design, aggressive salesmanship by the developer and a good regional relationship.

Spring Snow Hits Eastern U. S.

A low pressure center over Lake Huron today sent spring snow falling into New York, New England and the upper Mississippi Valley.

Fluffy skies and readings in the 30s replaced daylong rains in the Deep South.

The Weather Bureau in Dade County reported 4.75 inches of rain at Miami and biting hail in North Miami.

At Bay St. Louis, Miss., civil defense workers recovered the body of a second teenage camper drowned in a flood-swollen creek Friday. Four others were rescued from treetops when water deluged their campsite.

Foreign Aid Program Outlined

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy today asked Congress for a five-year, "fresh approach" foreign aid program, with emphasis on helping countries which help themselves.

He called for major changes in method — a new central aid agency, authority to commit funds years ahead, a shift from military to economic aid, new terms of repayment, and emphasis on social progress.

But for the first year of the program — the fiscal year beginning July 1 — he asked for the same $4 billion which the Eisenhower administration proposed just before it went out of office.

Lake Study Is Outlined

The first phase of a massive engineering study to relieve flooding of land-locked lakes in Seminole County was presented to the County Commission Tuesday afternoon in a session that lasted into the early evening.

County Engineer Carlton Bliss submitted the study which includes providing of storm sewers from Lake Marion to Lake Florida near Altamonte Springs.

Bliss estimated that cost of the first phase would be approximately $4,000.

He added that other parts of the study would include engineering on Lake Orienta and all land-locked lakes in the county.

The board tabled action on the study until next week.

In other business during the lengthy session the board agreed to ask the State Road Dept. for a traffic study on installing a cloverleaf at the intersection of Hwy. 17-92 and SR 436.

Commissioner Vernon Dunn proposed the study saying "we should take this step to determine the future traffic needs in that area over the next five year period."

Dunn emphasized that that area is growing "by leaps and bounds and even if we get a traffic light at the intersection, it will be obsolete in five years."

The board also heard George W. Daugherty of Eustis who said he represented a large industrial park in Lake County. Daugherty asked the commission to consider extending Bear Lake Rd. with SR 46 to make an access road into the proposed park located half in Lake and Orange Counties.

He asked the commission to put the access road in the county's primary road budget this fiscal year.

The board tabled action on the request. Daugherty said it would be a boon to the entire three counties.

The commission also authorized Cleveland to work with Col. Fred Dyson who owns property near Lake Jessup by Howell Creek.

Dyson has agreed to give the county rights of way through his 2,700 acre tract pending certain conditions to clearing Lake Howell Creek.

Roads Committee To Dig Into New Payola Accusations

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Former Road Board member Earl Powers admitted today he had an interest in companies which did business with the state but stoutly denied he ever tried to influence the Road Department.

Powers was the first witness called by the Legislative Roads Committee as it opened a two-day session to hear new payola charges, adopt its final legislative program, and consider alleged conflict of interest charges against Powers.

State Sen. Scott Kelly of Lakeland, committee chairman, said it was not the group's purpose to question Powers' "personal conduct" but to "check his standing in his home community."

"We do, however," Kelly said, "intend to study some of his business dealings during the period he served as a Road Board member."

Powers, who served on the Board in 1958 and again from 1958 to 1961, readily admitted owning stock in the Edwards Building Supplies Co. and the Denny Concrete Products Co., both of Gainesville.

Both firms have sold material to the state for road building purposes. But Powers declared, "I've never solicited business from the State Road Department in any business I've been connected with."

More than 50 witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear at the two-day hearing.

Gloom Prevails At Nuclear Meet

GENEVA (UPI) — The nuclear test ban conference met for only 23 minutes today in a gloomy atmosphere created by Soviet demands for a built-in veto of any test control machinery.

The United States delegation headed by Arthur H. Dean had planned an explanation of its offer to let Russian scientists look inside any nuclear devices the Americans might use in any peaceful research programs. This offer is conditional on Soviet acceptance of a treaty assuring a carefully-policed ban on all nuclear weapons tests.

Soviet delegate Semyon Tsarapkin not only demanded a veto in the test control machinery set-up, but also warned that continued French atomic weapons testing might have a "negative effect" on this conference.

Tornado Wrecks 16 Small Planes

WEST HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — A small tornado hit North Perry Airport Tuesday, wrecking 16 small planes and causing damage estimated at $30,000.

No one was hurt in the two-minute, four-minute sweep across the field. Among those escaping injury were State Sen. Ted David of Hollywood and airport manager Dick Bassinger, who were flying over the airport at the time on a flight from Tampa.

The Broward County tornado was the most severe incident in a spell of unsettled weather along the southeast coast Tuesday. Heavy rains fell in Dade County, with the Weather Bureau reporting 4.15 inches and some hail in North Miami within two hours.

Careful Study Of Drain Tax Proposal Urged

County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. cautioned the County Commission Tuesday afternoon to consider "very carefully" a proposal for setting up drainage tax districts before submitting a request for an enabling act.

Cleveland, who is also a state representative, stressed that such measures should carry a referendum which may not be the case in a sample act being studied by the commission.

Cleveland advised the board that he hastily perused the Orange County sample bill and could not find any clause which gives the people a chance to vote on any drainage tax.

He urged the commission to study the 20-page bill well before asking the legislative delegation to take any action.

Cleveland said that the sample bill did not carry enough safeguards "and we should make every opportunity to study every facet of the bill."

The commission authorized Clerk Arthur Beckwith Jr. to have copies made and passed on to each commissioner.

The board agreed to table action until next week on the proposed legislation.

Cleveland said that the proposed bill could have far reaching effects and could mean the levying of an ad valorem tax on all residents, including persons with homestead exemption.

County Offer Asked On Osceola Base

The General Services Administration has asked the County Commission to make a firm offer for the Osceola Air Base or the land will be put up for public sale April 10.

The GSA, in a letter to the commission Tuesday, said that it would be willing to negotiate for the 835 acre tract at a price of $74,200.

The GSA asked that the county send a $7,420 deposit for the property.

The board asked County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. to write the GSA about entering into a possible lease agreement for the base.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida tourist trade is running above normal this month after a slump in January and early February, the State Development Commission reported Tuesday.

Miami City Publicity Director Lew Price said Dade County's hotels and motels were currently running about 80 percent occupied. He predicted a hike of 10 to 25 per cent in hotel and motel tourist business over last year.
