TRIPOLI, Libya (AP)—Operation Fatty is trimming waistlines for bulky members of the 17th U.S. Air Force at nearby Wheelus Field.

Lt. Col. Claud M. Mears, 42, of Helena, Mont., commanding officer at the base hospital, said he lost 14 pounds as the result of a slimming diet he drafted in conjunction with U.S. Air Force dietitians.

The diet provides 1,000 calories a day—and admonitions to eat nothing between meals and cut out both alcoholic and soft drinks.

What with automobile parking getting to be a king-size headache, television is being experimented with as an electronic parking aid. Oakland, California, says a mercantile association is giving a TV set in an effort to ease the space-hunting misery of parked with a minimum of damage to fenders and fignails.

The closed-circuit system used by the sponsoring merchant has a "TV Eye" camera mounted atop a pole overlooking the best parking lot. An ingenious man and his mechanism allow the camera to continuously scan the area and project what it sees to a 21-inch receiver located in the customer's booth. The camera is geared so either automatic or manual operation. When the heavy metal doors close the lot, screens to receive the projected picture in search of empty space, the lot attendant can find available parking spaces at a glance and without leaving his booth. By the way, if you see in the market for a TV set, why not give in and pick a set at BOB BERNETT'S TV? We are always glad to help you.

PROMOTED TO COMMANDER—Cdr. Lloyd M. Kivell of Photographic Squadron 62 is wearing his new hat of Commander, with the gold lace of his new rank on the bill, as Cdr. F. J. Plumer, Executive Officer (left) and Cdr. J. A. Goodwin, Commanding Officer (right) exchange his gold oak leaves to the silver oak leaves of Commander at the conclusion of a brier ceremony at which Cdr. Kivell received his promotion. (Official Photograph U. S. Navy)

Kivell Is Promoted To Full Commander

Lieutenant Commander Lloyd M. Kivell, a veteran of 26 years of Naval service as an enlisted man and Officer, was promoted to Commander, U.S. Navy Friday, April 8 by the Commanding Officer of Photographic Squadron 62, Commander John A. Goodwin. The promotion ceremony was held in Cdr. Goodwin's office immediately after the promotion letter was received from Washington which gave Cdr. Kivell his date of rank as a Commander since Jan. 1 of this year.

After congratulating Cdr. Kivell upon his promotion Cdr. Goodwin stated that it was with great pleasure that he signed the promotion letter and noted that Cdr. Kivell was the fourth photographic specialist in the Navy to attain the rank of Commander. The only other ex-enlisted photographers who have attained this position, two of them, were promoted during 1954 and the third this year.

Cdr. Kivell left Greene, Iowa and first enlisted in the Naval Service in 1929. After working his way up through the enlisted grades he received his original Commission as an Ensign in 1942. He has served in all types of photographic duties since and was the head of Photographic Research and Development in the Bureau of Aeronautics, Washington, D. C. prior to reporting to Photographic Squadron 62 for duty.

Cdr. Kivell has been assigned as the Head of the Photographic Department of the squadron since his arrival in April, 1954. During this time he has been in charge of an average of 130 Photographer's Mates and the tremendous amount of photographic work that these men have produced both here at Sanford and on the Squadron's Overseas Detachments. This task is best illustrated by noting that the Squadron has over a million dollars worth of all types of photographic equipment to accomplish the varied Photo missions that are requested.

It includes supervision of not only the shooting and processing of photographs, but also the maintenance of all photo equipment and the training of the Squadron personnel in their technical operations.

Cdr. Kivell is married to the former Miss Geneva Thomas of Pensacola, Fla. They have two children, Robert, 8, and Barbara, 6.

They have resided at 907 West 20th Street since their arrival in Sanford.

News Of Men In Service

BEPPU, JAPAN—Rufus McClain, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus McClain, 1305 Railroad Ave., Sanford, recently was promoted to corporal while a member of the 187th Airborne Regimental Combat Team in Beppu, Japan.

Stationed near Beppu, on Kyushu, Japan's southernmost island, the "Hakkasans" (Japanese for paratrooper) engaged in rugged and realistic parachute training exercises.

Corporal McClain, a squad leader in Company I, entered the Army in June 1953 and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

FORT KNOX, KY.—PFC Charles Pollard, son of Mrs. Ruby Stebbins, Sanford, is a member of the "Aggressor" force which will take part in the Army-Navy maneuver, Exercise High Tide, in April at Camp Pendleton Va.

The exercise is an amphibious operation involving 6,000 men. It is designed to develop close interservice teamwork in operational and logistical planning.

The "Aggressor" force, composed of elements of the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment from Fort Knox, Ky., will provide opposition for the main units.

Pollard assigned to the regiment's Company B, entered the Army in 1946 and holds the UN and Korean Service Ribbons.

FORT KNOX, KY.—Sgt. Fifth Sykes, 22, son of Mrs. Dorothy D. Webster, 2511 Park Ave., Sanford recently was graduated from the Army's Armored School at Fort Knox, Ky.

Sergeant Sykes, who entered the Army in 1950, completed the school's armor advanced non-commissioned officer course. He is a veteran of service in Germany.

20 More Civilians Executed Last Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Prison Bureau said Tuesday 23 civilian criminals were executed last year—20 more than in 1953. Ten were teen-agers.

Although the 1954 total was much higher than the previous year, the report continued to reflect a much smaller use of the death penalty than was the case a few years ago.

Information For Veterans

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to four questions of interest to former servicemen and their families:

Q. I have had to take a physical examination to reinstate my GI insurance policy, which had lapsed. Is there any time limit for submitting the examination report to VA?

A. The report, along with your reinstatement application, should be sent to VA as soon as possible. If you delay submitting them from five to 31 days after the examination, you must also include a statement to the effect that you are in as good health as you were at the time of the examination. If you wait longer than 31 days, you will need a new physical examination.

Q. I am going to school under the Korean GI Bill. As a member of the organized reserves, I am called to active training duty brief periods of time. Will my GI allowance stop when I interrupt schooling for training duty?

A. Your allowance will not be discontinued, so long as it is the practice of your school to grant exemptions for these periods without requiring formal interruption of your training.

Q. A friend of mine, paralyzed during Korean service, is eligible for a "wheelchair housing" grant from VA. If he gets this grant, will he also be entitled to a GI home loan to finance the remainder of the cost?

A. Yes. His "wheelchair housing" grant will not deprive him of his right to apply for GI loan to finance as much of the remainder of the cost as can be financed in that manner.

Q. I understand a veteran needs at least 90 days of active service to qualify for a GI loan. I entered service January 2, 1955, and therefore I wasn't able to build up 90 days by January 31, 1955. Am I out of luck, so far as a loan is concerned?

A. Not necessarily. Generally you need at least 90 days total service to qualify for a GI loan, but not all 90 days need be before January 31, 1955. So long as at least part of your 90 days comes before January 31, you may be eligible, after your discharge.

(Veterans living in Central Florida who wish further information about their benefits, should write VA Office at 42 E. Central Ave. Orlando, Fla.)

Fireman's Aches Goes Over Station

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—John Cox's headache turned out to be one for his whole fire station here Monday night.

Cox, a tillerman on a hook and ladder rig, obtained permission from his captain to step across the street to get some aspirin.

While he was in the drugstore, an alarm rang.

Away went the hook and ladder truck—without a tillerman.

At the first corner, the widdy swinging ladder trailer bashed into an automobile, smashed the ear, part of the fire equipment and was itself disabled. It had to be towed back to the station.

Fire Chief James Burke ordered an investigation to determine why no one noticed there was no tillerman when the truck took off. It was a false alarm.

Strolling In Sanford

Today happens to be one of those "coincidental" days in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kudell, 2842 Palmetto Ave. The coincidence is that Mrs. Kudell is receiving congratulations on the occasion of her birthday and she and her well known piano-playing husband are celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary this day.

1st Home Game Is Here Tonite

The Sanford Cardinals, who showed fine form in last night's opener although they were defeated by Orlando 6-1, will get into high gear tonight as Orlando pays a visit to Sanford's Memorial Stadium for a game under the lights beginning at 8 o'clock.

Miss Faye Ashley Is Drill Winner At Leesburg Event

Miss Faye Ashley, 412 Editha Circle, Sanford, First Baptist Training Union entrant in the Seminole Training Union Association Sword Drill game out first against the other contestants and will be the Seminole Training Union Association's entrant in the District Training Union Convention meeting in Leesburg on April 25.

Miss Ashley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ashley and a member of the Service Union of Intermediate Department Two of the First Baptist Training Union. Mrs. C. W. Erwin is the Department Director and Mrs. Michael Thomas is Leader of the Union with Homer L. Osborne serving as sponsor.

The Sword Drill consisted of finding scriptures after being given an unfinished quotation; character drill-the contestant being given the name of a character in the Bible; the doctrinal drill-the contestant having to find scriptures to support the Baptist doctrine as given; and the book drill-the contestant having to find a book in the Bible and naming the book before and after the given book. The participant is allowed eight seconds to find each one called.

In the event Miss Ashley finishes first at the District Convention, she will participate in the State Drill at the Baptist DeLund Assembly in June. If she places first at the State Assembly she will be a participant in the Southwide Drill at the Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly, in Ridgecrest, N. C. in August where she will compete against the winners from the other states of the Southern Baptist Convention Territory.

Comptroller Green Advises Lawmakers On Tax Estimate

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Comptroller Ray E. Green today advised the legislature he estimates the state's general tax revenue for the coming two years at 380 million dollars.

With an expected carryover of 35 millions of last year's unspent funds during the current biennium, the legislature safely can appropriate 415 millions for institution and agency operations and new buildings, he said.

The new figure is 12 million dollars higher than an earlier estimate of 1955-57 revenues by the comptroller's office. The original forecast of 368 millions was admittedly conservative, Green said.

The Cabinet Budget Commission has recommended an operating appropriation of 373 million dollars, but has made no specific recommendations for a building program.

Gen. Peyton March Dies At Age Of 90

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Peyton C. March, Army chief of staff in World War I, died yesterday at Walter Reed Hospital. He was 90.

The gaunt soldier had spent the last 33 years of his life in retirement. He had been hospitalized since February 1954 after breaking a hip in a fall. When he died, his second wife, the former Cora V. McEntee, was at his bedside.

The Germans were pushing off on their last big offensive when Gen. March returned from France in March 1918 to become Army chief of staff. He had been Gen. J. Pershing's artillery chief on the Western Front.

Deluged with frantic appeals for reinforcements, March put in motion plans which resulted in the movement of two million American soldiers to Europe in just a few months. This was regarded as one of his greatest achievements in World War I.

Fla. House Refuses To Change Its Mind

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The House refused today by a 49-42 vote to change its mind about yesterday's decision to send the Senate bill consolidating tax collection functions under the comptroller to one committee only.

The House yesterday voted 47 to 40 against sending the bill to the Finance and Taxation Committee as well as to the Committee on Boards, Bureaus and Commissions. It voted today against reconsidering yesterday's vote. It also bowed down by voice vote to attempt to send the bill to the Committee on Governmental Reorganization.

$100,000 Boat Firm Possible

Sanford has an opportunity of getting a large boat-building plant with a payroll of between $12,000 and $13,000 a week, if enough local interest and action can be developed. Chamber of Commerce directors were told Tuesday night.

At the meeting at City Hall, Chamber president Earl Higginbotham said the Correct Craft Corporation, the nation's second largest boat firm, plans to build an additional plant soon in the Central Florida area. The plant would cost about $100,000.

The corporation has plants at Titusville and Pinecastle, but they are operating at maximum production and do not have room to expand their facilities, Higginbotham reported. He said a Chamber delegation recently inspected the plant.

Higginbotham said a letter is expected from the firm, outlining what would be required from a new location.

Clifford McKibbin, chairman of the chamber's industrial committee, said in his opinion the company would have to make some definite arrangement soon or continue the cutback in operations. The firm has been forced to discontinue five boat models because of lack of space to set up production lines, he told the directors.

Mitchell Testifies Boosting Salaries To $1.25 Unsound

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor Mitchell testified today that boosting the statutory minimum wage to $1.25 an hour would be "unsound" and raising it to $1.50 would cause very serious adjustments in some industries.

Under questioning by a Senate Labor subcommittee, Mitchell stuck tightly to the 90-cent figure recommended by President Eisenhower earlier this year. It would be a 15-cent rise from the present 75-cent minimum wage.

Mitchell said he is in favor of "no sound reason" for the minimum wage should not be extended to employes of interstate chain stores, interstate hotel and motion picture chains, and some other workers—about two million in all.

"Prosperity enjoyed by the overwhelming majority of Americans should not blind us to the minority of workers on low incomes," Mitchell told the subcommittee.

ABC Officials
Take Extra Look
At Possibilities
LAKELAND (AP)—Officials of the ABC network are going to take another look at possibilities for a television show acceptable to the Florida Citrus Commission for advertising grapefruit.

John Mitchell, ABC president, urged the commission yesterday to drop "20 Questions" in favor of a stronger show with more audience appeal.

The trouble is that the type of show recommended by ABC, a western program, would cost a million dollars a season. The commission paid $700,000 for "20 Questions."

When Mitchell at first indicated the commission could retain "20 Questions" only by moving it to another hour or night, which would mean building up a new audience, the commission balked.

Austrian Freedom Indicated By Raab

Arnold Williams Thanks Supporters

"I certainly thank all who voted for me," Patrolman Arnold Williams of Sanford said today after he was named runner-up in the Courteous Cup contest for cities of 10,000 to 25,000 population.

Williams was surprised to find he had beaten out many cities from other parts of the state in the group four division of the American Automobile Association contest. He won over policemen from North Miami, Sarasota, Lake Worth, Bradenton, Clearwater, Coral Gables and Hollywood.

He was even more surprised to find that a friend, Patrolman Ellis E. Koenig of Ft. Myers, was the first-place winner in the division. He said he had attended traffic extension classes with Koenig at the University of Florida.

Koenig will receive his choice of a weekend vacation in Cuba, Nassau, Palm Beach, Tampa or Miami beach. Williams will be given an engraved honorable mention certificate.

Chief of Police Roy G. Williams congratulated Williams and said the award was "a great tribute to Williams and the Sanford Police Department." Other members of the department also extended their congratulations.

The six other division winners in the third annual contest, were: Police Chief Charles S. Dean of Leesville (towns of less than 2,500 population); Sgt. Ray Ely of Palmetto (towns of 2,500 to 5,000); Assistant Chief R. D. Edwards of Quincy (towns of 5,000 to 10,000); Patrolman J. Warren Hooten of Orlando (cities of 25,000 to 100,000); Patrolman David H. Matthews of Jacksonville (cities of more than 100,000); and Deputy Sheriff Inlo Swope of Lee County (unincorporated county, state and federal officers).

Around 30,000 votes were cast in the contest, which began Feb. 21 and ended March 31. They were distributed among 182 officers representing 46 towns and cities over the state.

In charge of the contest—staged as a goodwill and tourist promotion campaign—were Robert J. Finley, manager of the AAA's South Florida division; Kenneth C. Hinkle, manager of the AAA's North Florida division; and Marvin L. Holloway, manager of the Tampa Motor Club, an AAA affiliate.

Co-sponsors were the Florida State Chamber of Commerce and the Florida Peace Officers Association. Dr. Jay F. W. Pearson, president of the University of Miami, was honorary chairman.

Quiet Optimism
Felt In Capital

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Chancellor Julius Raab, messenger of the Austrian people from Moscow today: "Austria will be free and we will receive back our native soil in its entirety."

Raab's statement was telephoned from Moscow to the Austrian Conservative People's party and was made public by the party's news service.

"Our war prisoners and internees will see their home again. This has been achieved by the upright attitude of the Austrian people.

"We are looking forward happily to seeing our home again after concluding difficult negotiations," the statement said.

Raab did not indicate what agreements he had reached in Moscow with the Russians.

Earlier Austrian radio stations carried reports from Moscow quoting the Austrian ambassador there as saying agreement has been reached between Raab and the Kremlin leaders.

The reports quoted Ambassador Norbert Bischoff as saying he was certain the Western powers would have nothing against the agreement reached in Moscow.

Any agreement between Raab and the Kremlin needs first the approval of the United States, France and Britain before this nation can regain its freedom. The Russians have been stalling on signature of a state treaty for 10 years.

Austrians confidently awaited a joint Austro-Russian communique expected tonight. There was subdued optimism in the capital.

Odham Discusses Long-Range Road Planning Policy

Brady Odham, chairman of the state's long-range road planning committee, said the current policy of the State Road Department concerning advancement of primary funds to counties for the purchase of right-of-way will require a change of plans and action by his committee.

The State Road Department recently denied an advance to Santa Rosa County for the purchase of primary right-of-way. Campbell Odham, fifth district road board member, said this has been the policy since January.

Odham said the state cannot advance money to counties for rights-of-way purchases because of the depleted condition of the primary road fund which must be used entirely for construction at this time.

The Road Board action seemingly ruled out the chance of an advance to Seminole County this year for the purchase of right-of-way for the four-laning of U. S. Highway 17-92.

Odham told the Chamber directors Tuesday night that at the last meeting of his committee, a motion had been made requesting the county to limit any new construction along the 17-92 right-of-way.

John Meisch said county zoning will be put into effect as soon as a right-of-way map is approved by the State Road Department.

Senator Tompkins' committee in the legislature, Meisch said, plans to take action on the zoning map.

Enlivened Debate Promised In House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Debate over the Dulles-Corsi controversy and the Voice of America promised today to liven House debate on the 1954 State Department appropriation bill.

The Appropriations Committee, in recommending $125,700,737 in finance the State Department for the coming year, made no reference to the Corsi case, but some Democrats were reported ready to inject it into the debate.

The controversy centers around removal by Secretary of State Dulles of Edward Corsi, prominent New York Republican, from his post as special assistant handling immigration and refugee matters.

Actually, the House can do nothing to restore Corsi to his job except talk.

Sen. Bridges Says
Democrats Fearful
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-Mo.) said today Democrats seem to be very fearful that President Eisenhower will run in 1956.

Bridges, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said: "When they go to the lengths of building up a strawman and trying to knock him down a year and a half ahead of the voting, they must be very fearful that Eisenhower will be a candidate again, and I am very certain he will."

Bridges' to a "strawman" was directed at Democratic Digest efforts to depict Eisenhower as an advocate of "government for the few" and as responsible for an "A. W. O. L.—administration without leadership."

Good Will Gesture Proposed By U. S. To All Countries

WASHINGTON (AP)—The latest data on the Salk polio vaccine will be distributed by the government as a good will gesture to nations around the world, including those behind the Iron Curtain.

There was no plan to send any vaccine itself abroad, although Secretary of State Dulles announced he would explore the possibilities with other government officials.

The Commerce Department yesterday clamped an export embargo on the product. Officials held no hope there would be enough to send any abroad before 1957.

The State Department said Dulles planned to send copies of Tuesday's report giving a favorable appraisal of the Salk vaccine to the 75 American missions abroad.

Dulles said the report on last summer's tests is being sent to countries "around the world so that they may have the benefit of this humanitarian research project as well as the information on the Salk formula itself."

Mrs. George Stine Gives Report At Tuesday Meet Of Pilot Club

Mrs. George A. Stine, retiring president of the Pilot Club, presented her report at the meeting of the club held in the Yacht Club Tuesday evening in which it was revealed that the club members have participated in many community activities during the past year.

The club's main project, the Milk Bank which furnishes milk to indigent families in Seminole County, was shown to have dispensed 507 quarts of fresh milk; 15 cases of dried milk; and 13 1/2 cases of canned milk to 112 persons during the year. Mrs. Walter L. Carter serves as chairman of the bank.

Special committee activities included stuffing envelopes for the Easter Seal Drive for the Crippled Children's Society; collecting for the March of Dimes Drive; served as coordinator to the Cancer Crusade; manned Dime Boards for the Salvation Army at Christmas; served as director for the Seminole County Youth Council; helped to man the tables

Eisenhower Orders National Survey For Polio Shots

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower today ordered a federal survey to determine how to assure that all sections of the nation get a fair share of the Salk polio vaccine.

He directed Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, the secretary of health, education and welfare, to make such a survey and report to him.

In announcing the move at the President's vacation headquarters, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen the emphasis will be on voluntary rather than compulsory methods to assure fair distribution of the polio prevention developed by Dr. Jonas Salk.

MAILBOXES RIFLED
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Post Office Department says there were 1,982 arrests between last July and February for rifling home and apartment mailboxes. It was more than in any previous comparable period. The thieves "fools" in their can get away with it. Postmaster General Summerfield said.

Plan Is Studied To Start Group

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—A House group has under study a plan to establish a state commission to oversee political campaign spending.

This commission would be made up of the attorney general, the secretary of state and the chief justice of the Supreme Court. It would receive complaints of violations of the spending law and investigate them.

The proposal came from Henry S. Baynard of St. Petersburg, chairman of the governor's Citizens Committee on Campaign Spending who said he thought Florida has the best campaign spending law in the nation and its only weakness was in how to enforce it.

Group To Consider Zoning Variance

The application of Otto Borerdorf and son, Robert, for a zoning variance is among items to be taken up at a meeting of the City Board of Adjustment tomorrow.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. at City Hall.

Borerdorf and his son are seeking to construct a nursery at 207 Palmetto Ave. for the sale of plants and flowers.

Certain Thoughts On Television Ads Prove Interesting

By SAUL FETT
NEW YORK (AP)—Some irrevocable thoughts about certain television commercials (quotes are approximate):
1. When are the child labor law people going to get after that little girl who keeps pulling out all those convertible couches? She's made enough beds to accommodate a regiment.
2. Picture of chain and then "Don't be chained by the hot cigarette habit. Throat hot? Throat dry? Smoke — Smoke —" Ears ringing? Eyes bouncing? Stomach jumping? Turn off your TV set.
3. Listen doc, what is K-23 for good teeth and formula 5 for good hair grooming? and is it U-235 that breaks the laxative habit?
4. Camera shows construction worker hanging from girder, eating his lunch 34 stories above the street. Then a shot of a secretary munching a sandwich next to typewriter. Then a family out for Sunday dinner. Then: "Americans are such busy people they don't have time to brush their teeth after every meal. Who does—the Arabs? The Italians? The lady slobs of Upper Slobovia?"
5. If one beer claims "less non-fermented sugar" and another beer says, "All beer has the same amount of calories," who's on first?
6. Maybe you can persuade me that one detergent is capable of performing absolute grade-A miracles, but you'll never convince me any wife will sit casually by and smile while her husband, the big idiot, wears his best clothes to work on the car motor and gets grease all over his freshly laundered shirt. Never!
Chairman Cooley, North Carolina, of the House Agriculture Committee, and former Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan.
Flexible support Democrats look to Senators Anderson of New Mexico and Holland of Florida for leadership.
President Eisenhower, Secretary of Agriculture Benson and Sen. Aiken of Vermont pace Republicans favoring flexible supports while Rep. Hope of Kansas and Sen. Young of South Dakota and Thye of Minnesota lead GOP farm state leaders favoring high supports.
These divergent views on agriculture offer a ready answer to the question: Is there any chance of the major farm organizations merging.
In a recent issue of its monthly magazine, The National Grange concluded that merger is "currently practically impossible." It raised the question of whether a merger was desirable.

Good Time Coming

According to Sumner Slichter, professor of economics at Harvard University, 1955 will be the best economic year in American history. The sums of money earned, materials produced and consumed are expected to be astronomical.

A person really has to be told these things, because anyone struggling with the family budget, is not likely to be joyously aware that he's got more money to struggle with statistically than he has ever had before.

As youngsters, everyone played that game of what to do with the astounding wealth that would naturally be one's own some day. But probably mightily few children had the foresight to guess that the weekly take-home million would be spread over a dozen time payments.

In a world of increased wants, nobody knows what he wants, or how much he wants or how badly he wants until he finds himself digging up a down payment. As a result, the average man discovers he is stretched in every direction with the clocks of a dozen time plans ticking off the dollars and cents, the months and the years of a hectic life. He may not know where he's going, but he's on his way.

Though we are caught in an economic sprawl, the man says we never had it so good. Well, maybe we never had. But to appreciate his blessings, a man should take thought as to the direction in which he is going and he should study his household figures to see how far he can go on how much.

Entreat me not to leave thee . . . for whither thou goest I will go, and whither thou lodgest, I will lodge, thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.—Ruth 1:16.—This is one of the loveliest things ever spoken by a daughter in law to her mother-in-law. Ruth was a worthy ancestor of that towering figure, the Great Nazarene, so many centuries later.

Egypt Looks Ahead To Good Years

CAIRO, Egypt — Egypt is in transition, proud of its mighty past but anxious to cure its old poverty by turning to new ways.

Abraham Noman is as good a human symbol as any of the slow changes that are bringing fresh hope of better times for this ancient land.

Abraham is a 6-foot, 185-pound, 25-year-old bedouin, whose fierce ancestors once roamed the desert.

Some bedouins, a proud and independent people, still roam the desert and live in tents. Others have compromised with civilization and come to town to live.

Abraham is a town bedouin. "My great grandfather was the last in our family to live in a tent," he said. "The desert bedouins have no education. They are ignorant."

Abraham Noman's family has done pretty well, all things considered, since coming to town. Abraham himself is a servant in famous Mens House, an old-fashioned sprawling hotel near the pyramids at Giza.

Most of those whose needs Abraham tends are tourists, and many of them have been famous. They often laugh and make jokes when they first see Abraham. He does look odd to them in his small, shabby and long nightgown garb—like a figure out of the Arabian Nights.

But thinks it probably was face-lessly given to one of his ancestors a few generations back by a British officer. In any case, he now likes it.

Here is Abraham's self-portrait in his own words: "My father and I lived the same. But my father lives better than his father did."

"There are nine of us in my family—my father and mother, my wife and myself, my one brother, our three children, and a servant. The servant is a boy of 12 who does the marketing. He is a poor boy without a family. We took him with us because he had no one to play with. We pay him a small amount each month."

"My father was a dragoon, an interpreter. I earn 120 pounds a year (about $24)."

"But we have bought a house with nine rooms. My father and mother come first in my life. They will until my last day. Without them I would never know life."

"In some homes the man does first what his wife says, before his father and his mother. I think that is bad."

"Yes, I am happy living in Egypt. It is my luck to be a servant. I cannot turn it back. I do not get angry working for others. When I feel sorry, I pray to the gods."

Three Men Of Eighty

In the last year three notable men have reached their 80th birthdays. Sir Winston Churchill the world's best known statesman and a literary figure extraordinary. Herbert Hoover, our oldest living ex-president, is also internationally known for his World War I career as director of relief in Belgium, Food Administrator for the United States during that war, and head of food distribution to disorganized Europe after the armistice. Fritz Kreisler, last of the trio, reached 80 only a few weeks ago.

Kreisler is one of the greatest violinists of this or, it may be, any other century. At eight he was the youngest student at the Vienna Conservatory. He continued his recitals until March 8, 1950, and still plays for his own pleasure.

Fame is hard to measure, but supreme achievement in any field in any century is likely to be long remembered.

Eden Steps Up

Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden will soon lead his party in a general election. Experts on British politics agree that an election at this time is ideal from the Conservative point of view. The Laborites are still trying to heal the breach between Aneurin Bevan and the rest of the party while the Conservatives are united.

Because of the brilliance and the colorful personality of Sir Winston Churchill, Eden's light has always been somewhat obscured. But he was the man on whom Churchill counted most for support and assistance. His skill as a diplomat has been well established. It is not so well recognized, but is nevertheless true that he is an astute politician.

It is to be expected that Sir Anthony will always stand to some extent in the shadow of his predecessor. But in his new high position he will have more chance to display the political gifts which led experts to predict when he was still a very young man that he would some day be a top figure in British affairs.

Jobs For Young People

Many young people considering what life occupation to choose would be interested in the many careers connected with public health if they only knew that those existed. The Health Careers Guidebook a new publication of the National Health Council, lists 166 such. Some are well-known professions, such as medicine, dentistry, nursing and pharmacy. Others apt to be overlooked are those of safety engineer, optician, medical technologist, inhalation therapist, industrial hygienist and radiologist technician. All are fully described in the new Guidebook.

Many of these occupations, unlike medicine, do not require elaborate education. That is even more true of jobs like dental assistant, hospital service worker, laboratory helper, practical nurse, ward clerk and psychiatric aide. All are important, for without them public health services would not be much more than a name.

Science Works Against Itself

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON — The world rejoices that there is a vaccine for polio—but

One of man's oddities is that while he works overtime to make his life longer he also looks for ways to make it shorter.

While scientists struggled to find a weapon against polio, others were busy making bigger and better hydrogen explosives.

In the end millions of people whose lives now will be prolonged by the new vaccine may have them unduly shortened by the bomb.

A thousand years from now, if there are any humans left in those days and they have formed a way to end war, they may look back on these days and wonder: "Why couldn't those 20th century people ever find a cure for the most dreaded disease of all: pushing. People were forever pushing one another."

"The money they spent looking for a cure for polio, or cancer or heart disease was only a pittance compared with what they spent on defending themselves from one another."

Jonas E. Salk, the young doctor who developed the polio vaccine, may prove over man's long history to have been worth more than a thousand armies.

But that's problematical. Mankind without much trouble may make far more cripples in the next war than Salk ever dreamed of saving from polio paralysis.

It isn't hard to look back, and not far, to find that while mankind was continually seeking ways to save itself it was energetically finding new ways to destroy itself.

In 1784, just as Edward Jenner was on the verge of finding a vaccine against smallpox, British Lt. Henry Shrapnel invented a highly effective shot for mowing men down in bunches.

And just about the time Ignat

Semmelweis, a young doctor in a Vienna hospital, in 1847 was inching toward the prevention of childbed fever which destroyed mothers in batches, the military world was producing a rifled cannon that could hurt shot farther than ever before.

All Europe was feverishly building modern armies at the very moment in 1855 when Louis Pasteur was first inoculating a human being against rabies.

Pasteur, who had lived through the Franco-Prussian War, knew how mankind was tearing itself apart in the struggle between life and death. At the opening of the Pasteur Institute in 1888 he said: "Two opposing laws seem to me now in conflict. The one, a law of force and death, opening out each day new modes of destruction, forces nations to be always ready for battle."

"The other, a law of peace, work and health, whose only aim is to deliver man from the calamities which beset him. The one seeks violent conquests, the other the relief of mankind. . . ."

"Which of these two laws will prevail, God only knows. . . ."

Atlantic Cable Will Facilitate Telephone Calls Across Ocean

LONDON — One day this summer a trim ship flying a British blue ensign will lift anchor and steam across the North Atlantic, slowly paying out the world's longest underwater phone line.

By the time the shiny black cable is well settled in the muck of the ocean bottom—probably around Christmas 1956—someone in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., or Pepperwood, Calif., can ring up Penckhill, England, and have a chat, with the words coming through clearly and distinctly.

Transatlantic phone calls have been possible for years, but only over jammed and erratic radio circuits. Conversations often are punctuated by static and sometimes voices fade away.

An Atlantic cable call should be as easy to hear as one across town.

When the new cable is opened 25 calls can be funneled into one end and come out the other without becoming jumbled. For good measure 19 telegraphic messages can flow simultaneously.

Companies Marvel At Good Sales

NEW YORK — Business is so good for most companies today that it's surprising some businessmen — and making others ask: "How long can this last?"

Doubts about the second half are widespread. But a number of executives are so pleased with the way the year has started out and picked up momentum that they foresee new sales records.

Ernest R. Breech, chairman of the Ford Motor Co., says his firm is turning out cars in greater volume than ever. But retail demand is outstripping production and dealers' stocks are lower than they should be. Ford is increasing production schedules steadily.

The big demand for autos, the Commerce Department reports, sent total retail sales volume during March to 14 1/2 billion dollars, 15 per cent higher than a year ago.

Jersey Standard Oil officials are predicting their sales volume will top last year's record $4 billion dollars.

Du Pont's sales and profits are running about 17 per cent ahead of 1954. President Crawford H. Greenwell reports. He sees a good chance for Du Pont's sales this year to top 1953's record.

Metal producers, aided by booming demand and higher prices, are also optimistic. Kennecott Copper's treasurer, E. S. Hann, says a highly satisfactory year is in sight. He looks for the supply of copper to stay tight at least until the third quarter of the year, and he sees good times for the metals industries stretching into 1956 at least.

Food processors are sharing the general prosperity. Sunshine Biscuit earnings are better this year than last, President Hanford Main reports.

Steel men almost every week raise their estimates of how good 1955 is going to be for them, and how long their present boom will last. Steel tonnage production is running as fast as under the record set in March 1953, and well above the rate that most steel executives predicted at the start of the year.

The housing boom also continues to astound the experts.

Through all this record of cheer runs the one thread of doubt: Is this too good to last? Some look for a slowdown from summer on. But many are predicting good times will last into 1956.

Catholic Priest Refuses To Give Name Of Robber

DENVER — A Roman Catholic priest refused Wednesday to disclose the name of a repentant hunk robber who confessed to him the holdup of the Colorado State Bank here.

Yesterday, the priest returned to authorities $6,850 in bills he said was part of $7,780 taken in the daylight robbery of the Colorado State Bank Feb. 17. He said the robber gave him the money.

U.S. Atty. Donald E. Kelley disclosed the priest's saying: "My lips are sealed. I have a sacred obligation by which I must abide even if it means my life."

Kelley said the priest "asked that he not be named and I respect that confidence."

Molotov Believes Current Talks Help

MOSCOW — Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov said yesterday he believed his current talks with Austrian Chancellor Julius Raab would facilitate the conclusion of an Austrian state treaty.

This would end the 10-year occupation of that country by Russia, the United States, Britain and France.

Asked whether the talks would definitely lead to negotiations in signing a treaty, Molotov replied: "Not everything depends on us."

Red Daily Worker Read By Londoners

LONDON — A bartender friend of ours named Percy emerged from deep inside the Communist Daily Worker yesterday and pronounced judgment: "I'll never replace the old-fashioned newspaper."

He may be on solid ground. But at the moment the Red party organ — all four pages and 80,000 copies of it — is striving to do so.

Because of London's newspaper strike, now in its 20th day and no end in sight, the Worker is the only daily publishing here. It's read avidly by people who normally wouldn't fondle it with a set of tongs.

Woman Drags Body Of Man Over Road

NORWICH, Conn. — A Superior Court judge has fined a woman who dragged the body of a man over seven miles of road on the end of her car and threw it into a lake.

Mrs. Annie Sudd, 50, of Willimantic, said she did it in a state of panic after the man dropped dead in her summer home Feb. 17.

Judge Samuel J. Mellitz fined her $1,000 and imposed a three-month suspended sentence Tuesday. She pleaded guilty to charges of failure to notify the medical examiner of a sudden death, and unlawful removal of a dead body.

Sending the Diabetic To a Summer Camp

By HERMAN M. BUNDSEN, M.D.

WITH Summer not too far off, I wish your parents of diabetic children would begin giving some thought to sending your youngsters to a special camp.

There are 19 camps for diabetic children in various parts of the U. S. and Canada. Each Summer these camps are the sites of wonderful adventures for some 2,000 youngsters.

A couple of weeks at one of these camps often does more physical and mental good for a diabetic youngster than a stay in a hospital.

One of the Camps
Because all the kids attending these camps have the same problems, your youngster won't feel that he is any different from the others. This helps him develop a group spirit, a very helpful thing for a young diabetic.

Moreover, he is more likely to develop physical skills of children his own age because he won't be handicapped by his handicap.

Medically, the camps are ideal. Your child's meals can be supervised and reported with hospital efficiency without hospital restrictions.

Camping in the Woods
The real treats for your youngsters probably will be picnics and nights spent camping out.

You parents will benefit from your child's camp experiences. One thing you will have a brief vacation from the feverish (Chenault, Inc., Day Feature Booklets, Inc.)

supervision you must maintain to protect your youngster.

Even more important, though, is the fact that your child is likely to be more trustworthy and responsible about his own supervision when he returns home.

Camp Periods
Generally, the camps accept children between the ages of 6 and 16. Periods at camp range from nine days to a full month.

Although non-profit and charitable, the camps, for the most part, ask parents to contribute as much as possible toward the actual cost of maintaining the children. But no child is refused admission because his parents are unable to contribute funds.

You can get a list of diabetic camps by writing the American Diabetes Association, Inc., 11 W. 42nd St., New York 36, N. Y.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Miss V. M.: My complexion is covered with pimples and blackheads. What can I do for this?

Answer: Washing the face frequently during the day with a mild soap and warm water is helpful in preventing the recurrence of pimples. In addition, an ointment containing 1% of salicylic acid and 1% of sulfuric acid in petrolatum can be used on the face at night and wiped off in the morning. If the ointment is covered, X-ray treatment may be of value in clearing it up. A skin specialist should be consulted.

'No Superman' Cockell Brands Rocky Marciano

NEW YORK (AP)—"He's no superman. He's got two arms and two legs just like I have. I hope to win the title, otherwise I never would have come here."

That's the way England's Don Cockell sized up his coming title fight with heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano in San Francisco May 16.

The pudgy, 217-pound British heavyweight has arrived early yesterday morning from England on the Queen Mary, was the guest of honor at press party at a downtown restaurant and then departed last night for San Francisco. He is due there Friday.

"Marciano is a great champion and he behaves like a champion," said the hog farmer from Hiram, Sussex. "If I should win, I only hope I can conduct myself like he does."

"Many people seem to have the idea that Marciano is crude and rough but I don't see it. He is a scientific fighter. He never throws two punches in the same place. He places his punches correctly and places his weight behind his blows."

Cockell had met—and admired Rocky when he met the undefeated Brockton Blaster at the signing ceremony here Feb. 25. He never has seen the hard-hitting heavyweight king in a live fight but said he has carefully scanned the movies of Marciano's two fights with Essard Charies.

"No, I can't say now how I intend to fight Marciano," the 26-year-old British Empire titleholder said in a reply to a question. "I shall adapt myself to conditions in the ring. I shall make my own moves as I go along."

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—While taking sightings on round Don Cockell and listening to bystanders predict dire things for him when he fights Rocky Marciano out in San Francisco next month, we suddenly experienced a strange feeling that all this had happened before. It wasn't in a dream either.

Back in 1937 they brought over another British carnival attraction named Tommy Farr as a sort of sacrificial offering to young Joe Louis, the killer. If you think the promoters are being venal a goin' over for importing the tubby batter from Battersea, you just should have heard what the experts said when they saw the corrugated ears on Farr.

They said he patently was a bum who would be lucky to go five with the champion. This made Farr sore and he was a hard man to get along with while he trained, largely in solitude, down on the New Jersey coast.

As the time neared for the execution, the odds went to 3-1 that Louis would win by a kayo. We still recall happily that we grabbed some of that. The only excuse was that we had seen Farr fight a couple of times in London and knew he was a pretty good man. Luckily, we had not seen Louis up to that time and so didn't scare easily.

Well, you can look it up. For 15 bruising rounds Louis was given all the right he could handle. The champion never looked like stopping the game Welshman, who moved in on him as though he owned him round after round. Joe was forced to put out everything he had to save his title.

Campanella Mad About Demotion In Batting Order

BROOKLYN (AP)—Usually mild-mannered and even-tempered, Roy Campanella is steamed to a boiling point because Manager Walter Alston has relegated him to eighth spot in the Brooklyn Dodger batting order.

The slugging catcher, who insists the troublesome left hand that ruined his 1954 season is completely healed, made no attempt to conceal his disgust as he talked about his demotion from the cleanup (fourth) spot for yesterday's opening game against Pittsburgh.

"That's fine encouragement he (Alston) is giving me," Campy growled, "sending me in to hit with the bat boy. That guy must think I'm a butcher with a bat. Dropping me all the way down to eighth just shows the confidence he has in me."

"It's all right with me though if that's the way he wants it. I'll hit any place he tells me to. But I'm determined to prove to him that he's wrong when he calls me an eighth-place hitter. He only thinks I can't hit but I know I can."

It was pointed out that Campy had not exactly knocked down any fences during the spring training games, hitting only 235 with three home runs. This, following his poorest season in the majors in which his batting average dropped from .312 to .267, certainly was no strong recommendation for a fourth-place hitter.

"Look," he exclaimed, "I know I'm not being headbashed about this. I don't care what I hit in practice games. They don't mean anything. All I'm interested in is the way the hand reacted to catching every day. My hand is okay now. That's all that matters to me. I'll hit."

Campy got one hit in four at-bats as the Brooks beat the Pirates 6-1 yesterday.

Adkins Winds Up With Chattanooga

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ralph Adkins, for a week a pawn in a game of "limbick, gimble, who's got the thumb?" has found a new home in the Southern Assn. and Chattanooga is providing the board and lodging.

Adkins, who has hit more home runs in the Southern than any other player in history, wound up with the Lookouts after a squabble between President Joe Engel of Chattanooga and President Earl Mann of Atlanta.

The husky slugger played with Little Rock last season, blasting 31 home runs to run his lifetime total in the league to a record 125. He was drafted by Toledo, a member of the Milwaukee chain, last winter but Toledo decided not to keep him. Atlanta, another member of the Milwaukee family, wanted him but under the waiver system Chattanooga had priority because the Lookouts finished behind Atlanta in the standings last year.

The Associated Press

It couldn't have been a worse day for pitchers if the hitters had ordered it special. But Rob Roberts and Whitey Ford shrugged off the weather like a pair of guys working for the Florida Chamber of Commerce.

In Philadelphia it was dreary and rainy, yet Roberts kept the world champion New York Giants hitting for 1-3 innings yesterday before getting tagged for three hits and two runs. The Phils right-handed ace still claimed a 4-2 victory, however, in the National League opener for both clubs.

And in New York, with temperatures in the 40s and wind tugging a steady mist, Ford allowed Washington just two singles as the Yankees brawled into the American League season with a 19-1 rout of the Senators. Despite the numbing cold, the young lefty went nine innings for the first time this spring.

The weather was pretty miserable everywhere on a lean baseball day. The smallest opening day crowd in a quarter of a century at Ebbets Field—6,999—shivered while Brooklyn and Carl Erskine beat Pittsburgh 7-1 in the only other National League game scheduled.

In the American, Detroit's Tigers forgot about welcoming Kansas City into the league graciously and clubbed the Athletics 10-2. Rain postponed the Boston at Baltimore game.

What happened at Connie Mack Stadium was just another chapter in Roberts' frustrating chase of a no-hit, no-run game. He's been thwarted in fantastic fashion thus far. At Cincinnati last May 13, for instance, he was greeted by a leadoff home run by Bobby Adams—then retired the next 27 men he faced to win 8-1.

Although Roberts' mastery has given him five straight seasons of 20 or more victories, that was only his second one-hit performance. The other came last April 29 when he held Milwaukee to a third-inning double by Del Crandall to win 4-0.

Alvin Dark faced Roberts yesterday with one out and a man on by error in the ninth. Robin was ahead of the hitter with a 0-2 count when the Giants' captain singled on an errant curve.

Before the side was out, Monte Irvin doubled both runners home and Hank Thompson scratched a single.

Ford had a more relaxed afternoon than did Roberts and found time to drive in four runs on three singles. Washington's two singles were by Roy Sievers in the fourth and Pete Runnels in the fifth.

Ford walked five but fanned eight. He would have had a shut-out except for a balk when he slipped from the mound in the sixth with a runner on third.

The Yanks teed off on starter Maury McDermott and three rookies for their most potent attack since beating Washington 2-1 Aug. 12, 1953. Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra and Bill Skowron homered in the 16-hit romp.

Brooklyn's victory was in doubt until the seventh when a five-run rally broke a 1-1 tie. Junior Gilliam led it off with a homer and Carl Furillo capped it with a three-run blast. Max Surkont was the loser while Erskine won his first opening decision in four tries.

Detroit smacked the A's for four runs off loser Arner Portocarrero in the third and five off Ed Berschky in the sixth. Harvey Kuenn homered and doubled for the tigers, who went all the way behind Steve Gromek as the veteran right-hander scattered eight hits.

Middlecoff Says Chances Good To Seize National Open Crown

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Doc Cary Middlecoff, off to play some golf with the President, isn't predicting he'll add the National Open to his newly-won Masters crown, but he's not being coy about it, either.

"A win like this gives a guy tremendous confidence," the tall, good-looking Tennessean said today. "It's foolish to say one man is going to win a tournament like the Open but I'll be going into it with what I consider the best chance ever."

"I think I am playing the best golf of my life. I feel very good about my chances. I should be in for a good year."

Middlecoff, who won the 1949 National Open, last weekend captured the coveted Masters with a record seven-stroke edge over Ben Hogan, in second place, and eight strokes over Sam Snead, in third.

The unemployed (by choice) Memphis dentist was to fly to Augusta today at the special invitation of golf-minded President Eisenhower. He's skipping the Greenboro, N. C. Open this week and the Virginia Beach Open next week, returning to action in the $35,000 Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas April 28.

"It was a very pleasing win for me," Middlecoff added.

"Last year I had a stretch in which I won one tournament and was runner-up in seven. That makes a guy start talking to himself."

"At Augusta, I changed my swing a little bit but the big improvement came in my putting. I made the grip bigger on my putter, without changing the blade, and it was great."

The Memphis dentist said he had met the President but had never played golf with him. "I'm looking forward to it," he said. "I don't know the exact time we'll play—Friday or Saturday." Middlecoff is due back in New York Sunday for a television appearance.

SPORTSMANSHIP

FORT WORTH TEX. (AP)—There are certain rules and regulations for Texas State Prison basketball teams, including this one in Paragraph 17:

"Escape major infraction of prison rules or riotous and unportsmanlike conduct by a member of any team . . . shall disqualify that team from further play during the season."

HORSE WITH SUN GLASSES

MIAMI (AP)—Here's a horse that wears sun glasses. Trainer Ivan Parke places the shaded lenses on his horse, Altruistic, at Hialeah. These glasses are put on top of a regular pair of blinkers.

Altruistic is frightened by the glare on the track and rail.

GIANT ROOKIE WAS MINOR LOOP STAR

NASHVILLE, TENN. (AP)—Outfielder Bob Lennon, who will be fighting for a regular job on the New York Giants this spring, was the scourge of Southern Assn. pitchers in 1954. Bob set two league records and topped the loop in six batting departments.

The two records were 64 homers and 447 total bases. In addition he led the league in hitting, most runs batted in and the most hits.

EX-TIGERS COACHED TARHEELS

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—Before the turn of the century, the University of North Carolina had five football coaches who were graduates of Princeton. The Tarheels' first coach was Hector Cowan in 1888. He was followed in 1894 by Vernon K. Irvine, then Thomas Treinhard in 1903. Gordon Johnson in 1904 and William A. Reynolds in 1907—all Princeton men.

CATCHES BARS

Leslie Jones, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Jones, 2344 Palmetto Ave., caught a 9-pound bass in Crystal Lake. She is believed to have caught a half-pound half-cracker which the bass went after.

R. Holtzclaw Will Appear Here Friday, April 29

Richard Holtzclaw, who goes by the stage name of Richard Wentworth, will appear in concert here on Friday, April 29 under the auspices of the Sanford Shrine Club. His accompanist will be Robert Hufstader, head of the Rollins College Music Department.

Mr. Holtzclaw, who has been with the New York Opera Co. for the past eight years or 16 seasons, was born in Williamstown and moved to Sanford in 1920. He first began his musical training in piano and voice in this city, later studying in Atlanta, Ga., with Mrs. Kurt Mueller, a German vocal teacher. He was the winner of a scholarship with Pasquale Amato, famous Metropolitan baritone, then head of the opera department at Louisiana State University. During his four years at the school he participated in many known operas.

After leaving school, the baritone went to New York City in 1939 and joined the San Carlo Opera Co. with which he remained until 1942 when he was inducted in the U. S. Army Medical Corps. Receiving his discharge in 1945, he returned to New York City in 1946 when he appeared in his first Broadway show, "If the Shoe Fits". In the fall of 1947 he joined the New York Opera Co. and has since been the leading bass-baritone and bass-buffo.

Between the spring and fall seasons Mr. Holtzclaw makes appearances in concert and spot opera engagements. His hobby? Fishing for bass in the St. Johns River!

Brief Ceremony Is Held Thursday At OES Meeting

Seminole Chapter No. 2 O. E. S. met last week at 8 p. m. in the Masonic Hall. Mrs. Virginia Anderson, worthy matron, presided over the meeting.

Mrs. Anderson honored the Bible heroine Adah, which is the first star point. Mrs. Kay Schmidt was escorted by the Marshal, Mrs. Essie Cole, to the East and was seated.

A brief ceremony followed in which the other star points placed flowers appropriate to their office in a vase at the altar. First point, Mrs. Jimmy Holtzclaw; second point, Mrs. Margie Sheppard; third point, Mrs. Bennis Brady; fourth point, Mrs. Eibel Peurifoy; and fifth point, Mrs. Lennie Meyer. The flowers were then presented to Mrs. Schmidt.

The worthy matron then gave her gift and a booklet on the history of Adah.

Refreshments were served with Mrs. Essie Cole as chairman. The table was beautifully decorated with blue flowers, Adah's station book.

Quick dessert: Cold baby-food shaped prunes in slightly sweetened whipped cream. Add a little vanilla flavoring and serve in sherbet glasses. Chill and serve to delighted family or friends.

Jacaranda Circle Discusses Plans For Picnic Supper

The Jacaranda Circle of the Garden Club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Peurifoy, chairman.

The meeting opened with prayer after which committee reports were given with special emphasis placed on the report of the flower show chairman, Mrs. Metta Starke. She distributed schedules for the show and urged all to participate.

Plans for the May meeting were discussed as this is to be a picnic supper at the home of Mrs. W. B. Brinson with husbands as special guests. A committee consisting of Mrs. J. C. Andrews and Mrs. Peurifoy was appointed to complete arrangements for the supper.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and the group then went to the home of Mrs. E. R. Remy for a visit to her gardens. The tour was enjoyable and informative and at the close Mrs. Remy served soft drinks to the group during a short social period.

Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Metta Starke, Mrs. J. F. Lewis, Mrs. W. B. Brinson, Mrs. J. C. Andrews, Mrs. C. G. Tyre, Mrs. Mabel Gear, Mrs. Irving Pryor, Mrs. R. E. Peurifoy, Mrs. E. R. Remy and guests Mrs. Elgie Brown and Mrs. Vernon Redfield.

Army Identifies Body Of Writer Killed In 1950

TOKYO —The Army Tuesday identified the body of AP Correspondent William R. Moore nearly five years after he was killed in desperate American fighting to check a Korean Communist drive on Pusan.

Moore died July 31, 1950, at the age of 40. He had dropped his pencil and notes to help care for the wounded of an American tank platoon, overwhelmed by Red forces near Chinju, about 50 miles west of Pusan.

The Army's graves registration laboratory at Okokura, Japan, made the identification, which was confirmed officially in Washington.

News Of Men In Service

LADD AIR FORCE BASE, ALASKA —Sergeant Philip Bach, a native of Sanford, will soon be rotating from his post at Ladd AFB back to the states for rotation.

The sandy-haired ski-trooper has been assigned to Company B, 4th Infantry Regiment at Ladd. He served as a squad-leader in the company, rising in two years from private to sergeant.

The past winter saw the hardy Bach enter in ski competition in the 4th Infantry Regiment. He led his Military Ski Patrol Team to victory in the 1st Battalion, 4th Infantry ski meet, in near-record time.

The young sergeant, whose army career led him from sunny Florida to snowy Alaska, was also entered in the All-Alaskan Army Tournament, in which he led his team to a second place, one point behind the winning team.

Bach plans to finish his college upon returning to civilian life.

Chinese Officials Order Investigation

HONG KONG —Hong Kong's government ordered a full police investigation yesterday into the crash of an Indian airliner chartered by Red China. But the British colonial authorities said the possibility that the plane was sabotaged here—as Peiping radio charged—was "extremely remote."

U.S. officials in Washington and Hong Kong dismissed the Communist charges as "ridiculous" and "utter nonsense." The plane's owners, Air India International, confirmed that mechanical trouble had delayed its departure from Bombay for Hong Kong for several hours.

The four-engine Constellation went down Monday night in the South China Sea between Borneo and Malaya. Nineteen persons were aboard, including eight Chinese Communists en route to the African-Asian conference in Indonesia next week.

Brooklyn Eagle Is Put On Sale By Its Publisher

NEW YORK —The Brooklyn Eagle, shut down by a strike, has been put on sale by Publisher Frank D. Schroth.

Schroth has set May 2 as a deadline for selling the 114-year-old newspaper as a complete unit.

He named O. Rundle Gilbert, an industrial sale and auction specialist, to take charge of "both the complete unit sale and the public auction of remaining assets which will be held on May 11, 12 and 13, if the Eagle is not sold as a unit."

In announcing the sale plans Tuesday, Schroth said: "I sincerely hope that some one or some group alert to the welfare of the borough will want to keep the Eagle alive. This is my first concern in disposing of the paper."

Cardinals Entertain St. Pete

Principal's at Seminole Schools were reappointed by the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction at its monthly meeting yesterday.

Reappointed were principals at the colored schools: Roy Allen, Croona Academy; Lucien Eubanks, Hopper Academy; Jesse Meuse, Burswood; Fanny Bell, Goldthorn; W. L. Hamilton, Midway; Stanley Muller, Oviedo.

Reappointed white principals: H. R. Beckenbach, Grammar School; Margaret Reynolds, West Side; E. S. Douglass, Lyman; Hugh Carlton Lake Maty; F. S. Gatchel, Oviedo; H. E. Morris, Seminole High; R. E. True, Junior High; Velma Mitchell, Southside Primary; Mary Nichols, Geneva; W. J. Wells Jr., Lake Monroe; and Pearl Bates, Wilson School.

The board awarded a contract to Sanford Electric Co. whose bid of $208,341.10 was the lowest for the electrical work to be done at Lake Monroe school. The board received one other bid from Stafford Electric Co. for $1,405.60.

The board was informed that a delegation from the Ft. Pierce chamber of commerce committee on education would visit Seminole County on April 20 to inspect the school facilities. The board deferred opening the present classroom at Pine Crest Elementary School until next fall after it was pointed out that only about six weeks of school would be left after the students got in and that 27th Street will be paved beginning next week.

A small lot belonging to the school board located in Chulonia was sold to the Chulonia Baptist Church as the church had requested it for frontage on the road.

Two visitors attended the meeting: Mrs. James Pearson representing the Oviedo P.T.A. and James Windham, Orlando architect.

Vaccine Shots Start April 25

A TRUCK LOAD OF CELERY HEARTS, which will be distributed on all Delta-CNS Airline flights out of Atlanta, were loaded today at Chase & Company's Beardsall Ave. packing house. The hearts were donated by the company for the Chamber of Commerce promotional event. Left to right are Earl Higginbotham, chamber president; Forrest Breckenridge, chamber manager; Mayor Denver Cordell; Gen. Joe Hutchison; Volie Williams Sr., and Tommy Jones of Chase & Co.

Tentative Schedule Is Given Many Children To Be Inoculated

The tentative schedule has been set for the issuance of the Salk Vaccine shots to be given to all first and second graders in Seminole County, Dr. Terry Bird, Seminole County Health director, stated today.

A series of two shots will be given to each student with two weeks' waiting distance between each one. The third shot will be up to the individual.

The inoculations will start Monday, April 25, at Southside School from 8 to 12 a. m. and 12 to 3 p. m. first graders will be inoculated while the second graders will be given shots all day. A total of 200 students will be given shots.

Tuesday Dr. E. W. Stoner will give Oviedo white and colored students shots and also Slavia and Geneva with a total of 170 to be injected.

Wednesday afternoon is set aside for West Side and the Catholic parochial schools with a total of 121 being inoculated.

Wednesday, April 27, Lyman, with 155; Lake Monroe, 25; Lake Mary, 28; and Wilson, 21; will be reached.

A total of 920 students will have taken part in the program, Dr. Bird stated that the colored schedule had not been definitely cleared yet.

The plan to have the state put up $50,000 for distributing Salk vaccine to indigent children advanced a step in the Legislature.

Although some members thought the action too hasty the plan was approved by the House Appropriations Committee and the House Public Health committee.

Dr. Wilson Swadlow, state health officer, is to appear before the committee Monday.

The vaccine, under terms of the bill, also would be administered to indigent pregnant mothers. All Florida school children in the first and second grades will be given vaccine shots soon.

Strolling In Sanford

The annual baked ham supper with all the trimmings will be given tomorrow night by the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce at the CoC building there. The event will take place between 6 and 7:30 o'clock with proceeds to go to the CoC.

About 800 Fans Watch Sanford Bow To Orlando In First Home Clash

Sanford's Cardinals, who gave Orlando a rough time last night before coming out on the short end of a 19-7 verdict, will tangle with St. Petersburg tonight at Memorial Stadium. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Orlando unleashed a 14-hit attack on Sanford, including homers by Duke Wilson and Jim Walton. Rookie Howard Massasa was the winning pitcher.

The Cardinals played like veterans under the smooth guidance of Manager Dan Keith and it was a hard pull for Orlando to overcome Sanford's early lead.

One of the big thrills of the game was Keith's towering 400-foot drive over the centerfield wall during the seventh inning. It was one of the longest homers seen at the stadium in recent years.

Orlando and Cocoa, two veteran members of the Florida State League, are off to the best start with double victories. But a "rookie" member of the Class D baseball circuit, St. Petersburg, is tops in the attendance derby.

In the home opener at St. Petersburg last night, 1,852 fans turned out, only to see the home team lose to Lakeland 2-1.

Cocoa registered its second straight victory 11-4 over West Palm Beach. Gainesville came back to the league after three years out of organized baseball and treated the home fans to 14 innings lasting 4 hours and six minutes.

The G-Men ended it on a happy note over Daytona Beach.

Second best crowd last night was 1,371 at West Palm Beach. There were 926 at Gainesville and 850 at Sanford. In opening games at the other cities a night earlier, attendance was about 1,500 at Orlando, 901 at Daytona Beach, about 700 at Lakeland and 649 at Cocoa.

Lakeland's Dave Exter threw a six-hitter at St. Petersburg last night. The Saints' Hooks lost struck out 12 and gave up only eight hits but was in trouble all the way because of bases on balls.

In pre game ceremonies here last night, Mayor Denver Cordell threw out the first ball to R. J. Bauman, president of Sanford Enterprises Inc., which operates the Cardinals.

Bauman and Manager Dan Keith spoke briefly to the fans and urged that they get behind the Cardinals. John Krider, president of the Florida State League, welcomed the people to the game on behalf of the league.

White Enters Plea Of Guilty Today In County Court

Charles White, Sanford Negro, entered a plea of guilty in County Court today to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Judge Ernest Housholder fined him $50 or 60 days in jail and sentenced him to serve a four-month jail term. Judge Housholder said he would suspend the jail sentence from day to day if White's behavior is good.

Two other cases were disposed of today as a four-day term of court came to an end.

Moses L. Holt entered a plea of guilty to a charge of assault and was fined $25 or 30 days in jail. In the other case William B. Holt, charged with aggravated assault, forfeited a bond of $100.

Two cases involving Willie Stanley were continued to a later date after it was brought out that Stanley is now in the Winter Park jail. Stanley is charged with driving while intoxicated and having no driver's license.

Wolfson Campaign Favored By Court

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Illinois Supreme Court today ruled in favor of Louis E. Wolfson in his campaign to win control of Montgomery Ward & Co.

The decision upholds Wolfson's contention that Ward's system of electing three of its nine directors at annual meetings of stockholders was unconstitutional. The Supreme Court's opinion upheld a ruling by Circuit Judge Harry M. Fisher of Chicago.

Judge Fisher ruled that all nine places on the Ward board of directors should be at stake in the annual meeting of shareholders next Friday in Chicago.

Shiver Is Invited To State Capital

TALLAHASSEE—Miami's arch foe for the milk commission, groceryman Otis Shiver, is invited here for the apparently futile fight to keep the milk lobby from preserving all its price fixing power.

Shiver will come up here for the hearing Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. before the public health committee of the house," said Rep. Volie Williams of Sanford, sponsor of the non-tempting bill which would abolish price fixing at the consumer level but retain it at the producer level.

"It might still be futile, but I'd like them to hear my story."

"Apparently there are some forces even beyond the milk lobby itself in the well organized plan to kill this bill."

"I'm not prepared at this time to pinpoint those forces, but I'd like to have Mr. Shiver repeat the sworn statement he has made about kickbacks to retailers and other undercover practices."

"I think it would be interesting to some of the members who seem determined to scuttle this bill, and it might pinpoint these other interests."

U. S. Border Patrol Test To Be Given

Young men interested in a Federal law enforcement career may take an examination for the United States Border Patrol in Orlando on Monday, April 18 at 9 p. m. in room 11 of the Post Office building.

Applicants who qualify will be appointed to the position of Patrol Inspector (trainee). The entrance salary is $316 a month and after satisfactorily completing a year of training, the salary is raised to $330 a month. Retirement at the age of 50 will bring approximately one half pay.

The Border Patrol, an armed, uniformed enforcement branch of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, detects and prevents the smuggling and the illegal entry of aliens into the U. S. and apprehends those guilty of such violations.

Vocational School Skit Presented In Office Class

The office practice class of the Seminole County Vocational School completed the first part of its course with practice interviews for office positions. The students wrote letters of application, data sheets, and compiled folders with samples of their best work to show to the prospective employer. Fred C. Murray, director of the school, conducted the interviews. Each applicant was interviewed separately, under conditions as similar to actual office situations as possible.

The students taking part in these interviews were Johnnie Davis, Betsy Caraway, Patty Bell, Dorothy Bass, Retha Burns, Maurine Gales, Herbert Azeel, Herbert Barefoot, and Bill Bennett.

For the benefit of the whole school, these students also put on a skit, "I Got the Job", Mrs. Lydia Watt is the teacher of this class.

Clashing Opinions Of Refugee Plan Will Get Airing

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate Judiciary subcommittee summoned R. W. Scott McLeod and Edward Corsi to air under oath today their clashing views over the working of the refugee immigration program.

McLeod, State Department security chief who administers the program, was scheduled as the first witness, to be followed by Corsi, ousted last weekend as a department adviser on refugee problems.

Corsi's dismissal by Secretary of State Dulles, after he served 90 days, has stirred a welter of charges and counter-charges and dramatized complaints by some members of Congress that too few refugees have been admitted under the emergency immigration measure enacted in 1953.

Rev. John Bethea Dies In Mount Dora

The Rev. John Henry Bethea, 68, died unexpectedly in Mount Dora Tuesday. The Rev. Bethea, a retired minister of the Church of God of Phocopy, had lived in Tavares for the past two years and served as pastor of the Sanford church for five years. He ministered for more than 25 years. He lived at Lake Jim before going to Tavares.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Beulah Bethea; two daughters, Mrs. Ernest E. Skully, Sanford, and Mrs. Lorene Smith, Tavares; three sons, William Herman Bethea, Lake Jim; Walter Thomas Bethea, Sanford; and Don Raymond Bethea, U. S. Army in Korea; three brothers, William O. Bethea, Okeechobee; Goodman H. Bethea, Lake Placid; J. O. Bethea, Miami; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday with Rebaum Funeral Home in charge.

Murray To Attend Miami Conference

Fred Murray, Seminole County director of adult and vocational education, will attend the Southeastern adult education regional conference April 17-19 at the Columbus Hotel in Miami.

Murray is secretary-treasurer of the Florida Adult Education Association, which will hold its meeting in Miami at the same time.

The conference will attract delegates from 11 southern states.

Sanford Memorial Is Discussed Here At Recent Session

"Indeed a grateful citizenry, already launched upon a movement, some sixty years delayed, plans a Memorial Library and Museum in honor of General Sanford. His collection of portraits of himself, his wife and his forebears, objects d'art, and books which he gathered in all parts of the world during his long and notable public career, thus will find a place of preservation where the citizens of Sanford, and visitors to that city, will be enabled to see and appreciate the great ability and resourcefulness of its founder," said Mrs. Jane Sanford Pansa, granddaughter of the late General Shelton Sanford, founder of the City of Sanford in a Biography sponsored by her in 1952.

Mrs. Pansa met here and had a conference with city and county officials at the historical society and the DAR held at the home of Mrs. Fred Williams to discuss plans for the building of a library and museum which is directed by Elton J. Moughton, Sanford Architect. The site chosen was P. V. Mellon Park.

The books to go into the library have been appraised and are said to be worth one million dollars.

Godfrey Dismisses Six More Singers

NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur Godfrey today fired six more performers from his television and radio shows, but this time did not do it on the air.

In his biggest reshuffling of talent since he publicly dismissed Julius La Rosa in October, 1953, CBS announced that Godfrey has "discontinued the services" of the Marjorie Quartet, Marion Marlowe and Halekalo, all singers.

In a statement issued by CBS, Godfrey said: "In the interest of good showmanship, producers have never hesitated to make changes in format and personnel which would improve the over-all entertainment quality of their programs."

French Ave. Work Is 12% Completed

A report on progress of Road Department projects in Seminole County and statewide has been issued by Road Chairman Wilbur E. Jones.

Projects totaling about 35 million dollars were in progress of completion through March 31: 12 per cent of 2,563 miles on State Road 15-000, French Ave., has been completed with grade pavement as the type of construction.
