

Outdoor Sports And Recreation Are Increasing Daily In Czechoslovakia

By JAMES DEVLIN

AP Newsfeatures
PRAGUE—Outdoor sports and recreation are attracting millions of Europeans in their exhilarating ation at being liberated from the enemy.

Thousands already are displaying deep tans.

These are mostly the skiers who have swarmed back in recent months from Central Europe's mountainous areas in Switzerland, Austria and Czechoslovakia.

In the high regions, the weather is often such that the snow remains crisp while the sun beats down hotly enough to permit skiing in bathing suits.

The result is that the skiing expeditions return to the city with coppery complexions resembling that of an American Indian.

With the weather already warm at low altitudes, hiking and boating are becoming increasingly popular.

Every Sunday sees thousands of tourists, carrying knapsacks, heading from Prague to plod through paths of sunbathing forests and hills.

Automobiles are scarce, but every available means of conveyance is crowded with people bound described Florida State Farmers Markets, as places "where producer and buyer meet." The markets are not set-up primarily as sale organizations, but to provide the meeting place and facilities for the handling of sales.

"Perry people interested in securing a State Farmers' Market have done a lot of essential preliminary work, to that end. At a meeting held recently it was decided that a thoroughgoing survey should be made in several adjacent counties with a view to determining just what products would be available for handling through a market at Perry, the probable volume of each, and facilities which would be required.

Joe Scales, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce presided at this meeting and G. B. Hogan, our assistant director, represented the State Market system. Delegations were present from four counties.

Discussion was participated in by growers, county agents, J. L. Gernathy, director of sales and research for United States Air Lines, St. Petersburg; Robert J. Bishop, agricultural and public relation assistant, Florida Chain Store Association, Orlando; L. H. Lewis, State Marketing Bureau, Jacksonville and others.

Sales of pine gum on the Lake City Market for the last weekly report period totaled 162.2 standard barrels, which brought producers $4,961.31 a drop from the seasonal high of $5,331.07 of the preceding week. Live stock sales totals for four active markets this last week totaled $24,415.46, as compared to $22,579.89 a week earlier. Arcadia Market this last week reported new high prices for all classes, but volume was below the preceding week's record run of cattle. Plant City and Quincy were down somewhat this last week, while the Market at Jay showed a gain. The Dade City Market received 2,975 dozen eggs, lowest total for the month, while poultry offerings set a record for recent weeks, with 2,597 pounds.

Former Senator Gerald Nye is back in the political ring trying to regain his former seat in the Senate in a special election to be held in North Dakota this week.
Senator Nye is and has been one of the nation's leading isolationists, and if he is elected, the present intransigence of Russia will be chiefly to blame.

Democracy in action was illustrated in Japan the other day when the new Japanese diet, a body of representative representatives, responding somewhat vaguely to our House of Representatives, broke up in free for all fight. One of the first lessons of democracy should be not to take the other fellow's big mouth too seriously.

General Eisenhower is out with his personal report on the Allied victory in Europe and graciously gives all the credit to the Air Corps and the GI. Among America's ten million soldiers there are some, however, who would say that the superiority of American leadership, particularly as exemplified by General Eisenhower, was a strong contributing factor to the ultimate decision.

What is Georgia's loss may be Central Florida's gain. On account of the polo scare, Georgia has imposed a quarantining against Florida children and Florida
children returning to Georgia.
Hence, many Georgia families with reservations in Daytona Beach this summer may have to cancel them. And many Sanford families who would like to go to the beach for a few days may be able to find a place to stay. And incidentally, there is no polo at Daytona Beach.

The Senate is considering a new five year tax program so designed as to enable a businessman to determine five years in advance what his tax payments are going to be. And while the senators are on that subject it might as well to consider some kind of relief for individuals whose incomes fluctuate widely like farmers and small business men, may be large one year only to be followed by four or five years of losses. During the occasional good years high bracket taxes prevent them from laying aside anything to tide
them over the lean years.

Empty Stunt

A little town in central Ohio with the anglicized Indian name of Coshocton is getting more than its share of publicity of late. In the town's country-style fair grounds a young man has been sitting atop a 170-foot flag pole since Memorial Day, expects to remain aloft until July 4, and a few days before the latter date, plans to be married up there. Moreover, by the wedding day, the pole is to be raised to 308 feet. The bride is to go aloft for the ceremony and remain there with him for several days. The more cautious minister plans to bind the knot from the ground, exchanging the vows by radio.

The stunt, viewed from the kindest light, is a sad reflection on human nature. A wedding under such circumstances flouts the sacredness of the marriage ceremony. What a fruitless use of ingenuity the whole thing is anyway! Something might have been accomplished for plain good fun if the same energy and amount of planning had gone into equipping a summer playground or improving a park site in the adjacent countryside.

But advertisers are seldom very sociological and publicity seekers do not care much for anything but publicity, and the Americans, like the Athenians, are always seeking some new thing. This stunt, however, isn't even very new. St. Simeon Stylites beat the flagpole sitter to it several centuries ago.

Peace On-The Pike

The Pennsylvania Turnpike, completed shortly before the war, is being put to new tourist use this summer of revived motor travel. A motorists' dream-road, it cuts through 160 miles of mountainous terrain, offering speed and safety. The highway was managed under a state commission and cost $70,000,000, which sum is being amortized by toll charges of $1.50 for full length-use.

Though a modern marvel, the idea-for-a-travel-artery through here originated 100 years ago when a railroad was contemplated. Nothing came of the plan until the 1880's when a road bed was commenced, to be abandoned because of engineering and financial difficulties.

During the war the pike was of inestimable importance to trucks bearing war freight. It continues to be of commercial value. It is good that it can also be used by peace-time vacation travelers, who will talk about the pike when they reminisce this winter on their summer exploits. And they will be sure to add, in their songs of praise, that along the whole length of it there wasn't a bill board or a stop light.

Champion's Reward

Two new national champions won their titles at about the same time. Lloyd Mangrum, a Texan from Los Angeles, won the 46th National Open Golf Tournament, and Walter Hallman, of Gary, Ind., became the new national checker champion.

The financial rewards probably correspond to the relative prominence which the papers gave the two achievements. Mangrum got $1,833 in prize money, and is expected to make many times that amount from the promotion that the championship gives.

While there is usually a purse for the winner in checker tournaments, it seldom compares with Mangrum's takeings, and the opportunities for the champion to make money in tours of the country are far less than they are in golf. But the satisfaction of being the nation's No. 1 player may be sufficient compensation.

Inside WASHINGTONGOP Making All-Out Bid
For Elusive Labor Vote*Railway and Coal Strikes
May Hurt Administration

Special to Central Press

• WASHINGTON—The Republicans are making an all-out bid for the labor vote, both in the forthcoming congressional elections and for higher stakes two years from now when the presidential campaign gets underway.

Both the railway and the coal strikes have furnished the GOP with ammunition in Congress.

Republicans lined up almost solidly behind the Case anti-strike bill, but their bucking of President Truman's proposed "draft the strikers" legislation is a matter of record.

In that case they joined hands with such stalwart New Dealers as Senator Claude Pepper (D) of Florida.

Labor experts are quick to point out that the labor vote is never solid, but varies with various sections, states and individuals.

They emphasize the obvious fact that the Democratic party, which had a top-heavy majority under the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, has fallen more or less out of favor with the rank and file of labor.

Philip Murray's CIO and Sidney Hillman's
PAC are violent in their opposition to anti-strike legislation. Nevertheless, they form the nucleus of the administration's labor support.

John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers are watching and waiting. If an election were held tomorrow, it is believed that they would support a liberal Republican heavily.

Right now, organized labor is a spectator at a political circus.

Both the Republican elephant and the Democratic donkey are vying in performing tricks to win labor's favor—and votes.

• OBSERVERS IN WASHINGTON definitely expect Economic Stabilizer Bowles to recommend restoring of food rationing in the United States this summer.

Bowles reportedly feels that this must be done because of the world food situation, now worse than during the war.

There appears to be a difference of opinion, however, as to whether bread should be rationed if such a program is put into effect.

Chester Davis, chairman of the famine emergency committee, believes that it should not. There have been reports that Bowles contemplated rationing controls on the staff of life.

Agreement was general, though, that meat would be one of the chief items to be returned to the ration list if one is drawn up again.

Other item probably will be fats and oils.

• THE PUBLIC was slightly startled recently when charges of "hooliganism" were lodged against a minor official of the United States embassy in Moscow.

After a dashing celebration of Red Army Day last February the official reportedly attended with an actress from the Russian state theater, which is a real charge in the Russian penal code, carrying a maximum jail penalty of five years.

The word was coined in England because of the antics of an Irish family named Hooligan which enlivened London with its boisterous goings-on.

At the turn of the century, the term "hooligan" became well known in the United States through the comic strips. One of the most popular families of the time depicted the doings of a tramp character named Old Happy Hooligan.

Hooliganism became the symbol of irresponsible,
but not necessarily malicious, wrongdoing.

Russia picked up the word to handle the assorted offenses committed after World War I, by millions of homeless and dislocated orphans who roamed the country disturbing the peace.

The Irish had a word for it, and the word got around.

"TRY, TRY AGAIN!"FATS IN FIRE

By DEWITT EMERY

The government, in settling (?) the coal strike, has recognized the principle that a labor union has the right to levy tribute on each unit of production. Who administers the fund or how it is administered is relatively unimportant;

From now on similar levies will come thick and fast. There will be a levy not later than next year on every automobile, every vacuum cleaner, electric iron, refrigerator, and so on and on and on.

The only thing that can stop this piratical tax which, if it isn't stopped, will pyramid to the point where the cost of everything will be so high that no one can buy anything, is action by Congress, and this, judging by the past, is a forlorn hope.

Congress, for more than ten years, has looked the other way every time anything concerning labor came up and there isn't much hope of getting it to look facts in the face any time in the near future.

Of course, it isn't right to put the blame on Congress. Actually it's the people themselves who are to blame. Too many of them have fallen for the new deal soothing syrup of something to nothing: spend what you have as fast as you get it because when you don't have it, the government will take care of you; your employer is a crook who will cheat you out of your eye teeth if you don't get him first. Oh, yes, this new deal stuff is a great line of hooey. I used to think that one day the people would see through it and turn on their so-called benefactors; now I'm not so sure.

If any turning is to be done, it will have to be done in the very near future, otherwise we'll all have to lose everything we possess, many of us our lives, before starting to rebuild from scratch.

Why it isn't possible for every American to see this is beyond my comprehension. Our Federal Government is now controlled absolutely by a small handful of labor leaders who are, with the consent of Congress and the approbation of the Supreme Court, above each and every law of the land. A Republic, which is founded on equality and justice, cannot be operated on that basis.

What about the people? Well, frankly, if the people of this country, with their heritage of liberty and freedom, are so dumb, so spineless and so greedy that they will permit a few men to destroy our form of government and wipe out everything they commanded the expeditors.

Ducks Nearly Wreck Maybe Indians Called Him 'Robber' Treat

DURBAN, South Africa, (AP)—The British Overseas Airways flying boat Caledonia arrived two days late. The craft was coming down to land at Malakal and had just crossed the edge of the Nile, which is lined with reeds and bushes, when a flock of ducks flew up. One duck collided with a wing and then wrapped itself around the forward wire stay of the float.

The captain brought the plane down skillfully. Passengers were unaware that the leading edge of the wing had been pushed back about a foot. It took the crew two days to make repairs.

but he displayed foresight that might well be the envy of any real estate man in his purchase of Essex County, N. J., Dr. William R. Ward, president of the Historical Society of New Jersey, told a meeting of the Exchange Club. Ward said Treat and his delegation from Milford, in Connecticut Colony, bought Essex County from the Hackensack Indians for goods worth about $750.

Celery Feds Cop Double Header From Dodgers, 1-0, 3-1

Howington, Joe Maloof Tangle In Mound Duel

Feds Only Get Two Hits In Nightcap; Blanc Is Winner

CITY ISLAND PARK, DAYTONA BEACH, June 25 (Special)—The Daytona Beach Lancers today are probably still trying to figure out how the Sanford Celery Feds play ball after dropping both ends of a twin-bill to Manager Ed Levy's second place aggregation here last evening.

The Feds capped the first contest by a score of 1 to 0 and defeated the Islets by a score of 3 to 1 in the second. The Feds used a revamped lineup which saw Buddy Lake playing third base, Gene Pratt in left field, Jerry Silverman in right field and Dave Brink playing in center field.

To top that, Levy sent Goose Kettles in to catch during the first game.

Joe Howington, Fed portrider, met Joe Maloof, Daytona Beach southpaw, in a real hurling duel in the opening tilt. Howington was picked for four hits but he kept them well scattered as did Maloof, who gave up only three bobbles, obtained by Silverman, Lake and Bob Tuttle. The only score of the game came in the second inning when Lake singled to center field. He stole second, took third on a walk and scored when Pratt hit into a double play.

In the second tilt, Manager Levy used the same lineup, except Don Zastel did the receiving. Manager Johnny Sack sent Jay Scamster to the hill and Levy gave Blaine the mound assignment.

The Dodgers got to Blaine for ten blows during the evening but he, in turn, kept them well spaced. However, the surprising Feds gathered only two hits of Scamster, both of them singles by rightfielder Silverman. The Feds scored their three runs in the opening inning when Scamster gave up five free passes and Silverman, Levy and Brink scored.

Tonight the Feds hit the road for Gainesville where they will

INSIDE SPORTS REPORT

By JULIAN STENSTROM

Peters vs. Hamby

Peters, Peters, the American Legion umpire who is well known around the Florida State League since he broke into Spring training in this circuit, really set Roy Hamby, proxy of the American Legion Association, have it squarely between the eyes yesterday.

Peters, who was struck by Manager Nemo Liebold of the Louisville club on June 16, Liebold subsequently was suspended for five days and fined $100 by Hamby. Peters says he protested to Hamby, pointing out that the rules call for a minimum suspension of 90 days for assaulting an umpire.

According to Peters, Hamby told him not to make trouble or else resign.

Thus explaining his resignation, Peters added: "If the league office isn't going to stand behind us boys in blue any better than in this instance, then I'm one umpire who's going down swinging."

If this is the whole story, Peters is absolutely correct. Peters is a fine fellow and a good umpire. He worked here in Sanford a number of games this spring during the St. Paul tenure here.

Also, we personally know that Roy Hamby, the league president, is still another fine fellow. Hamby talked with us on numerous occasions last Spring and he seems to take a great deal of interest in big umpires and indicated, by his conversation, that he would back them to the limit.

We don't quite understand how such an incident could have been opened between two fine fellows like Hamby and Peters.

Athletic Staff At University Hiked To Twelve

New Members Are Added To College Of Health, Sports

GAINESVILLE, June 25 (Special)—Two new staff members have been added to the staff of the College of Physical Education, Health and Athletics, as an organization of staff and curricularized completion. President John T. Tigert announced today following Board of Control approval.

Dean Dennis R. Stanley said the two new appointments bring to twelve the number of faculty members named, excluding the staff of the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, since the College was organized last January.

He added that there would be several additional appointments to complete the faculty complement.

Full curriculum offerings in all departments of the College will get under way with the opening of the fall term September 1.

The two approved are David E. Baker, assistant professor of physical education in the Department of Respiratory Physical Education. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Wake Forest College, and expects to complete work on an M. A. at August.

Baker is just an ordinary looking guy but one can tell he is quick on the trigger. He is sharp in answering questions. He seems to be anxious to get started on this Fall's grid machine. But, let's not expect too many great things from Wolf. "We've got to have a good foundation and that's what we're going to try to do the next couple of years," Ray declared.

Anyway, it's a mighty good start the university has taken in the fall term. The college has met the 15 men in another twin bill before returning here for a double feature at the Municipal Park Wednesday night with the Gainesville nine.

The Feds gained a half game on the Saints last night and a full game and a half on the loop leading Orlando Senator who were defeated by Palatka.

SPORTS ODDITY

By Associated Press

Harley Emmett O'Neill worked with three major league clubs this year without allowing a single earned run. He started out with the Boston Red Sox. The Sox were headed with the announcement O'Neill was signed to the Chicago Cubs, but the promise he'd get more pitching. He worked two innings for the Cubs, both of them hitless.

Then he went to the Chicago White Sox, where he got in one inning against the Browns and three and two-thirds inning against the Yanks whom he also held hitless.

Where did his perfect unearned run record get him? O'Neill was sold to the minors and now is working for San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League.

An added show this year will be the "champion of champions" shoot for veterans of World War II. A $1,000 prize has been put up by Sports Field for the state veterans' champion who comes through over the ten targets of the Grand American preliminary handicap.

And anyone who doesn't think drama is packed into a trapshoot should drop in here for the Grand American—particularly the Grand

There was another shooter last year who broke his first 10 targets in straight 10s, a comparative unknown in the handicap. Using into his last 25 targets he needed 24 to 25 to win.

Limited to three days during the war because of travel difficulties and lack of shells, the Grand this year will run from Aug. 16 through Aug. 24, with the first two days being confined to preliminary shoots.

The increase in the number of state meets will mean a corresponding hike in the number of contestants in the "champion of champions" shoot, always one of the top events at the Grand.

Last year Dale Pierce of Galesburg, Ill., apparently had the handicap won. He already was being congratulated when coming in with the last squads came from Englefield of Vermillion, O. H., though 100 comparative unknowns in the handicap were twice as many as the 50 that were in the first.

Jimmie Johnson of Galesburg, Ill., was the first to break 100 in the handicap. He did it in 1936, shooting 98. He followed with 97 in 1937, 96 in 1938, 95 in 1939, 94 in 1940, 93 in 1941, 92 in 1942, 91 in 1943, 90 in 1944, 89 in 1945 and 88 in 1946.

There was another shoot-off in 1936 which was the last time a City Shoot-off was held. In all probability, he will be seeded in the opening rounds.

Williams' entry into the tournament is the third received at the Home Office of the Indiana State Fair Commission. The first was received from Indianapolis and the other from Fort Wayne.

Commission Tables Action On Location Of Negro Park Site

previous administration had been used for the dumping of garbage, as well as refuse. He added that due to City action he had taken up the matter with State Health Authorities, declared that the dump was infested with rats, flies and mosquitoes, was unsanitary and unsatisfactory, and demanded that if the refuse was not soon taken outside the City limits, the citizens would take legal action to compel the City to do this.

He also pointed out that the name of Grady Duncan, city sanitary inspector, was among the petitioners.

Mayor Gut replied that he would see that suitable changes were made as soon as possible.

"We do not want any more grievances," declared Callahan, "We demand action."

Mayor Gut promised action before the end of the week and Commissioner W. C. Hill's proposal that the Commissioners inspect the dump was approved. Mayor Gut also stated that definite instructions would be given to City department heads that no garbage would be dumped on the site, but only trash or leaves.

After Mr. Callahan left, City employee Sydney McGrath told the Commission that the dump had been used since 1925, and said that after inspecting dumps in Tampa and Lakeland, this was the cleanest dump in the state. He said there were no mosquitoes there because of the smoke of burning trash. And that when the Navy dumped garbage there it was burned by using gasoline. He pointed out that the City incinerator is now in repair and able to burn all garbage.

W. C. Lynn gave approval to operate two taxicabs. Transfer of the Silver Fleet Taxicab business from the Sanford Equipment Company to Mrs. J. Gonzales was approved. Due to the fact that there are now 21 negro taxis to 10 white, applications of two negro applicants were denied, and it was decided that 21 will be the maximum of negro taxis allowed.

Approval was given to increase compensation to Dr. R. L. Bass for inspection of City parks following the reading of a letter from Dr. Bass urging that a new approach be adopted in setting up standards of service in the parks.

Honeymoon Cottage Free For War Vets

DANVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A dozen veterans and their brides have spent their honeymoons in the Honeymoon cottage on Lake Vermilion.

Others, with weddings set for the weeks ahead, have made reservations.

A couple moves in, stays three days, moves out, and the next day another ex-GI carries his wife across the threshold.

Everything but the food is furnished without cost.

Maid For 47 Years Takes Guests To Task

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—Little Mrs. Emma Talbot, retiring after 47 years as a chambermaid, says hotel guests have degenerated amazingly during the last half-century. They shave shoes on towels and carry off half the hotel equipment, complained the 77-year-old woman, "and every year they are getting dirtier."

So the 4 foot 4½ inch tall woman, who figures she's made 300,000 beds, decided never to make another bed for profit.

But "Little Emma," as hotel residents call her, wasn't ready to quit working at only 77. She's opening a clothing alteration shop. Cleaner work.

Lubinski was told to inform citizens that the City was not financially responsible for damage to shrubbery resulting from flooding of low areas due to heavy rains such as occurred on Sunday. Mr. Lubinski reported to the Commissioners damage by flooding to valuable azalea bushes at the home of Mrs. C. E. Ginn on Sanford Avenue and Rosalia Drive.

A proposal of Ralph T. Cowan for options on City owned property in the Bel-Air Section near Mellon Avenue, was deferred for consideration to take place during a special meeting later in the week. Meat Famine Looms As O.P.A. Is Studied

Veterans Sell Three Cent Apples For 50 Cents To Dramatize Inflation Dangers

CHICAGO, June 26. (AP)—A virtual famine of fresh meat is in prospect for most of the nation today as the Senate prepares to act on the House-approved compromise O.P.A. Bill that retains meat price controls. There is no prospect of immediate relief in the meat market.

In fact, some packing industry spokesman say that if the O.P.A. extension bill becomes law, the country's meat supply will get even worse.

Still others say the scarcity will last for several months, with one large packer asserting the fresh meat famine will last until the fate of O.P.A. is determined. In Los Angeles, there have been threats of a complete shutdown of facilities from packing houses to retail markets because of expressed dissatisfaction over the provisions of the O.P.A. Bill.

Fish, fowl and eggs have replaced the meat market dish on the country's dinner tables, and hundreds of butcher shops across the country closed. Quantities of packing plants have dropped to new all-time lows.

In Pittsburgh, war veterans selling apples have found few customers willing to pay 50 cents for a 3-cent apple. However, the apples were not really for sale. The veterans said that they were attempting to dramatize the efforts of lack of price controls in an effort to save the O.P.A.

They were led by the chairman of the Allegheny county council of the American Veterans Committee, Alvin Snyder. The group urged passersby to ask for a presidential veto of the compromise O.P.A. extension legislation passed by the House.

Russia Says Punishment Meted Out To Soviets Accused Of Treachery

MOSCOW, June 26. (AP)—The Soviet Government announced today drastic punishment had been meted out to Russian citizens accused of treachery during the most critical period of the German invasion of the Soviet Union.

The Crimean Tartars and the natives in the area around two big oil fields in the northern Caucasus—Grozny and Moxolok—have been resettled in other parts of the Crimean state.

The Russian Ministry of State Control also disclosed today that more than a score of factory mill and mine executives have been punished. They were accused of misappropriating funds or raising fund in various kinds of plants and enterprises throughout Russia.

The Official Soviet announcement did not disclose the date of the issuance of the decree liquidating the two republics and forcibly removing the natives to other areas of Russia. However, it did disclose that these natives became enemies against the Red Army in conjunction with the Germany placed at 500,000 persons. In 1939, the Soviet encyclopedia set the population of the Crimean State at almost 1,000,000. The figures included Russians, Ukrainians and others living in the Crimea as well as the local natives. The Russians, Ukrainians and others whose loyalty was not questioned were deported from the Crimean state.

Coast Line Plans Cut In Employees

WILMINGTON, N. C., June 26, (AP)—The Atlantic Coast Line announced yesterday a substantial cut in the number of its employees and defamed of its rehabilitation program.

This action was necessitated, said the line president, C. M. Davis, by the inadequacy of a recent freight rate increase ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The 4 per cent freight rate increase allowed certain exemptions which would reduce the Atlantic Coast Line's load to 4.7 per cent, or about $2,000,000 for the last six months of this year, Davis explained. Recent settlements of rail employee wage demands, he said, had added $13,700,000 to the line's annual payroll.

Communists Hand In Proposals For Unification Of Armies

PARIS, June 26. (AP)—It was reported today that Chinese Communists have handed General George Marshall their proposal for a reorganization of the Chinese Army into one national organization. The Army reorganization plan was the last and most crucial unsettled point in the peace between the communists and the National government.

The same report said that the principal committee of three had agreed on two other outstanding issues: cessation of hostilities and restoration of communications.

The peace committee is composed of Marshall and a delegation of a Communist representative.

It was understood that the new Communist proposal for the reorganization of the Army was to take effect from December 1, 1945.

At the same time, the Chinese Communists were to withdraw from the Chinese Nationalist Army.

A Chinese delegation, headed by Li Liang-Ping, and the Communist proposal for Army reorganization, came from the Peking government.

There were to be no changes in the Army reorganization to be limited to MacArthur and All areas tested by the Communists to the Japanese remain under Communist control.

Third, the Communists should claim their right in north China, which is held and claimed by the Chinese and in two seaports on the disputed east coast, Ningbo and Shanghai.

These were to be the main points of the new Chinese peace plan.

It was also agreed that some changes in the Chinese Nationalist Army would be made to facilitate the purpose of peace.

On the part of the Chinese Communists, the Peking delegation was very thin in this area and stood about 120 men strong.

The Chinese Communists had the task of finding a field general to command the Chinese Nationalist Army.

General Li Liang-Ping, who had been appointed by the Chinese Communists to command the Chinese Nationalist Army, was to be the new field general.

Berbs Testify Against General Mihailovic

BRUSSELS, Belgium, June 26. (AP)—Testifying today at the trial of General Draza Mihailovic, a group of peasants told how many of the inhabitants of three villages in Serbia had been killed by Chetniks.

The next active discussion of the trial concerned the killing of Chetniks near the village of Sutjeska at a higher water level than the one reached by the partisans on their return.

Mr. Higgins started the discussion with a brief summary of the upper St. Johns River project and had on display large maps showing the course of the river and water tables. He explained that the United States Engineers' district office headed by Col. A. H. Jones had called for this preliminary hearing to the interest of flood control, protecting roads, cattle and agriculture from extreme high water.

He pointed out the 20 foot drop in the river in Puzzle Lake, which in the flood of 1935 was 10 feet above sea level, and told of damage on Sanford's lake front by reason of floods going over the bulkhead. At low level he explained Puzzle Lake was practically at sea level, it's told of the plan for the Indian River Canal to drain off surplus water during flood time, and of plans to keep Puzzle Lake at least two feet above sea level during
