DAYTONA STILL IN DOUBT OVER VOTE RESULTS

Commission Is Kept From Counting Returns Which Gave Armstrong Victory

DAYTONA BEACH, Dec. 7.—(A.P.)—An injunction restraining the city commission from canvassing election returns today halted the re-election of Mayor Edward H. Armstrong and commissioners in two city zones where the balloting was continued after the normal closing hours Tuesday as a result of a mandatory injunction issued by the National Guard.

The injunction was issued by Judge M. G. Rowe who is sitting over a Tampa court case, and upon a complaint signed by Dr. Guy Kloch, defeated by Armstrong in the mayoralty race, and Don Morris and J. R. Huchison, defeated in zones four and three respectively by Ralph Richards and Harry Wilcox as commissioners. The order also enjoins election of Richards and Wilcox.

Dr. Edward L. Thompson, campaign manager for Dr. Guy A. Kloch who was defeated in the mayoralty race in Tuesday's municipal election, yesterday said action "undoubtedly will be taken" to attempt to nullify the results in two precincts where a court order kept the polls open three and a half hours after regular closing time, while armed National Guardsmen stood by.

Mayor Edward L. Armstrong was re-elected by a margin of 200 votes and received his greatest support in the two precincts where the City of Daytona, defeated 8-2 to 2-10 by Armstrong, court-ordered the election should be declared to be null and void.

Ralph Richards and Harry Wilcox, Armstrong supporters, won commission seats in the two precincts which were kept open by court order of Judge J. C. D. Reeves because he was informed "votes had been so deposited by the commission of the election board that they were about to be deprived of their vote."

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—(A.P.)—The national executive committee of the National War Veterans Association, Inc., yesterday made public a resolution as follows: Governor Rolph of California from its national advisory board. It charged that Governor Rolph's proven governmental unfitness so obviously demonstrated by his actions and statements in connection with the San Jose lynchings, has likewise made him unfit to be continued in an advisory or in any other capacity in or with this organization.

AUGUSTA DEFIES STATE LAWS BY LICENSING LIQUOR

Historic City Places Approval On Views Of Local Optionists

ATLANTA, Dec. 7.—(A.P.)—The historic old city of Augusta voted last night to license liquor despite Georgia's bone dry prohibition law which forbids the possession, sale or ownership of anything containing more than one half of one percent of alcohol.

A spirit of local option in the face of the state's bone dry law has been manifested by scores of cities in licensing the sale of beer. Atlanta was the first among the big cities to take the leadership of Mayor James Key, long time prohibitionist. Other municipalities followed suit.

For many years corn liquor has been the principal beverage for those citizens who desire something potent. The liquor legalizing ordinance permits the sale of alcoholic, vinous and malt beverages. A tax of $300 was levied on retailers of alcoholic drinks and $1000 on wholesalers. Wine and malt beverages may be sold for 65¢ retail and $300 for wholesalers.

15 Year Record Broken As Methodists Raise $7848.61 Quota Assigned Them

A 15 year record of being unable to raise the quota assigned to a religious organization was shattered here this week when, following a whirlwind campaign that had culminated as a feature, the Board of Stewards of the First Methodist Church announced that the church year has ended with all local expenses and benevolences paid, and a balance in the treasury.

This announcement means that the church's quota of $7848.61 was collected during the year which ended on Nov. 31, a feat which has not been accomplished in 15 years.

Few members of the congregation of approximately 750 persons are as elated over the new record as are the members of the Board of Stewards, headed by W. W. Ware as chairman, and with C. O. Barr as secretary and R. H. Loney as treasurer.

According to Mr. Loney, the Board is endeavoring with the responsibility of raising the quota each year, primarily through the campaign system of collection. Progress was made toward the quota throughout the year, but on Oct. 27 it was evident that approximately $2100 would have to be collected by Dec. 1. Renewing its efforts, the Board

SHOLTZ LASHES OUT AT CRITICS OF HIS POLICY

Governor Seeks To Find Out Why Schools In All Counties Cannot Have Equal Sessions

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 7.—(A.P.)—Governor Sholtz yesterday lashed back at critics of his school finance program in a prepared statement to "correct the inaccurate statements that have been made and clear up the misconceptions in the minds of many."

The governor declared the purpose of his repeated refusal to accede to the demands that he call a special legislative session to divert a portion of gasoline tax money or otherwise give additional state aid to the schools "is to put a test school management in Florida to discover why half the counties are able to have full school terms while the other half cannot."

The statement in part follows: "So much has been printed and (Continued On Page Two)

Business Seen Stabilizing Regardless Of Uncertainty Over Monetary Experiments

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Despite the continuing widespread uncertainty over the final outcome of the monetary experiment, business activity in the aggregate is giving unmistakable evidence of stabilizing, following the recession of the last three months, says Standard Statistics in its weekly business summary.

"Among the basic lines, the automobile industry apparently is now getting under way with the production of new models. That the stock of 1933 cars has been substantially depleted is evidenced by the well maintained level of sales throughout the recent period of slow operations. The steel industry continues a roughly stable rate of activity at levels slightly above recent lows. There has been a further sharp gain in the weekly output of bituminous coal, while building contracts awarded have again increased substantially.

"Exports likewise have been stimulated sharply by dollar depreciation. While this trend can be considered largely a temporary phenomenon, pending substantial improvement in world business, it is a proving of monetary advantage to domestic producers.

"The most favorable current trend continues to be provided by the seasonal revival in retail trade, stimulated, as it is, by increased net returns in the agricultural regions and by a gradual expansion of total wage payments to industrial employees."

30 NEW CHANGES IN REVENUE ACT ARE SUGGESTED

House Sub-Committee Spreads Net Aimed At Catching Dodgers
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(A.P.)—Spreading its net to gather more millions in its revenue from gambling and property sales or exchanges between members of wealthy families, a House ways and means subcommittee yesterday proposed 30 additional changes in the revenue act to raise an estimated $35,000,000.

Together with Tuesday's report which suggested nine major revisions to bring in a calculated $215,000,000, yesterday's recommendations brought to $270,000,000 the estimated total added levies and tax savings proposed.

"Under the present practice," the report said, "many taxpayers take deductions for gambling losses, but fail to report gambling gains. This limitation will force taxpayers to report their gambling gains if they desire to deduct their gambling losses."

Another recommendation on growing out of the Senate inquiry would require corporations to file "information returns" as to annual dividends of more than $1000 paid to any individual and require all stock exchange brokers to file statements giving the names, addresses, and gross business transacted with persons whose gross business exceeds $100,000 a year.

NATION SEEKS $1,000,000,000 FOR ONE YEAR

Treasury Offers Public Short Term Certificates Bearing Low Rate Of Interest

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(A.P.)—To meet notes falling due and pay interest on other obligations, the government last night sought $1,000,000,000 in the form of public certificates of indebtedness for one year at two and one-quarter percent.

With payments of $500,000,000 to be made on Dec. 15, the treasury offered to the investing public $250,000,000 "or thereabouts" in certificates of indebtedness (the previous issue) to such operations that maturing obligations would be accepted in exchange for the new issue.

The issue which came due on Dec. 15 are one of $475,000,000 bearing 4 1/4 percent interest, and one of $25,000,000 at three quarters of one percent. The combined interest charges for one year on the two issues will be $1,000,000,000, the treasury stands to save more than $6,000,000 in interest during (Continued On Page Two)

"Collective Murder" Is Roosevelt's View Of Recent Lynchings

President Indirectly Rebukes Rolph For Condoning Action Of California Mob

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt in an address last night called lynching "a vile form of collective murder."

The President also indirectly rebuked Gov. James Rolph of California, who recently expressed approval of mob action in San Jose, Cal., which resulted in the death of two men.

"We do not excuse those in high places or in law who condone lynch law," Mr. Roosevelt said. "He did not, however, in his speech before the Federal Council of Churches, of Christ of America, directly refer to the California lynching or to similar incidents recently in Missouri and Maryland."

Mr. Roosevelt expressed faith in the "new generation" as a preliminary to his strong condemnation of mob violence.

"This new generation for example," he said, "is not content with preaching against the vile form of collective murder—lynch law which has broken out in our midst anew. We know that it is murder, and a deliberate and definite disobedience of the commandment, 'thou shalt not kill.' We do not excuse those in high places or in law who condone lynch law."

Levi Brannan, Seminole High School's sturdy right guard during the past season has been named as first string guard on the All-Northeastern Conference football team, selected at Gainesville last night by the eight coaches whose teams make up the Conference.

At the same time, the coaches selected Russell Odham, sandy-haired, light weight but scrappy center as the pivot man on the second team, and Quillian Jordan, brilliant and brainy halfback, as one of the eight best backfield men in the Conference.

Selection of the three Sanford men to places on the first and second teams is considered a signal honor in view of the fact that the past season has not produced the outstanding teams of past years.

Brannan was highly commended by the coaches, particularly Hull of Daytona and Booser of Lake City, as a thoroughly competent lineman, capable of handling any assignments involving his position.

Odhams was second only to the hard-charging and consistently fearless Oxford, Leesburg center who made his presence felt in the Sanford-Leesburg game to cap a fine season's record.

Jordan, a recent importation from Georgia, and new to Florida football, drew the praise of every coach, and it is believed that he missed the first eleven only because he had no chance to demonstrate his ability as a passer or punter.

Selections of the three men marked the fifth time that Sanford players have been placed on either first or second string teams since the Northeastern Conference began.

While the naming of the all-Conference teams was a highlight of the annual meeting of the coaches, presided over by Leonard McLucas, of Sanford, the official designation of Daytona Beach as the Conference champion also was a highlight.

Under the Dickinson system of rating, Daytona Beach led the Conference with 24 points. Other teams in order are: Lake City, 20 points; Leesburg, 19.5 points; Ocala, 19.5 points; Sanford, 13.0 points; Landon, 11 points; Palatka, 11 points; DeLand, 10.8 points.

St. Augustine was not a member of the Conference this year because its team did not play the required four games within the Conference. However, the Mulletts will be represented in track and basketball races.

Daytona Beach was awarded a silver trophy as the winner of the football title.

Before adjournment the coaches selected Gainesville as the site of the annual conference track meet, to be staged on the Saturday before the state meet.

COLLEGE GAMES DREW ENORMOUS CROWDS IN 1933

13 Percent Increase Is Reported Over 1932; Pro Tilts Also Paid

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Based on figures gathered by the Associated Press from all parts of the country and tabulated yesterday, college football attendance for 1933 increased 13 percent, as compared with the previous season, and appears to have recovered approximately half the loss at the turnstiles during the 1931-32 decline.

Reduced ticket prices generally have helped the gridiron recovery program but the extent to which popular support has been rallied to the sport, following two somewhat disastrous seasons from a financial viewpoint, was beyond the best expectations of the managers.

A drop of 10 percent in 1931 had been noted. At the same time reports from eastern clubs in the National Professional football league indicate increases in attendance this year ranging as high as 50 percent. All figures have not been made public but official sources today revealed the attendance for games in New York was doubled.

Increases were noted in Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia where the advent of Sunday sport helped. The average attendance for 13 professional football games played in the metropolitan area was 18,000 and equaled the average crowd for 29 college games played in the same district.

The cross section of college attendance, on which the national figures are based, comes from the detailed reports of 46 institutions. The aggregate attendance for the entire 46 colleges and universities was 7,026,408 as compared with a grand total of 6,109,015 for the previous season.

This represents a gain of 917,393 or approximately 13 percent. The middle west recorded the biggest gains, with 13 colleges exceeding the previous year's total attendance by 350,000. The increase among far western schools, 14 in number, totaled 324,000; 11 eastern institutions showed an aggregate increase of 219,000.

The South, on the basis of reports from eight schools, barely held its own with an increase of

CUMBERLAND TO PLAY ROLLINS ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Tennessee 11 Which Nearly Beat Tars in 1932 Is Real Threat

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Fifteen members of the Cumberland university squad which will meet Rollins Friday night at Tinker Field, played on the squad that almost walloped the Tars last year in an exciting 19 to 13 combat.

Again the Tars will be outweighed in the line when they line up against the Tennessee law-ends, a will of the way who weighs 300. Aaron and Moobon, the tackles, weigh 196 and 190 respectively, while West, the center, and Sims, a guard, tip the scales at 170 each. Gilbert, Wilson and Donnell, members of the backfield, are veterans, but will be somewhat outwaged by Washington, Doyle and Shrage.

Coch Gairland Morrow of Cumberland is recognized throughout the south as one of the most competent coaches in the business and his team last year played heads up football against the Tars. This year, the Cumberland lads have registered six victories against three defeats, taking the measure of the Alabama State Teachers, Lambuth, Hiwassee, Bethel, Middle Tennessee Teachers and Union University, while losing to Vanderbilt, Sewanee, and Carson-Newman.

For the Tars, the game this week will be the last of a brilliant season which has seen the McDowell-coached eleven come through in several battles in which they were figured to have little chance. Their smashing defeats of Newberry and Tampa were real accomplishments, while their work in turning back Erskine and Lenoir Rhyme although handicapped by the loss of several injured stars including their quarterback, Hymie Miller, will go down in Rollins football history as a feat which merits a big hand.

Two "swell" players on the Tar eleven will be playing their last game Friday night when Hymie Miller and Dick Washington end a partnership which has made them teammates for a long time. Both boys played at Asheville High and have been backfield buddies at Rollins one year as freshmen and three years as varsity stars. To Miller and Washington should go a large share of the credit for helping Rollins play three tough seasons with only two defeats.

Other seniors who will be wearing the blue and gold on the gridiron for the last time are fourtallies, a reserve end, and Moch, McNutt, Parsons and Thompson, reserve linemen.

Doctors Give Cressote For Dangerous Coughs

For many years our best doctors have prescribed cressote in some form for coughs, colds and bronchitis, knowing how dangerous it is to let them hang on. Cressote is powerful in the treatment of all colds and coughs, yet it is absolutely harmless and is pleasant and easy to take. Your own druggist guarantees Cressote by refunding your money if you are not relieved after taking Cressote as directed. Beware the cheap stuff that hangs on. Always keep Cressote on hand for instant use. (Adv.)
