Six area high school bands presented a stirring program that drew repeated standing ovations from a crowd of thousands that packed the Seminole High School stadium Saturday night for the First Annual Seminole County Band Festival. The event was sponsored by the Sanford Civitan Club and The Evening Herald.

The more than 700 young musicians massed on the field to open the program with a series of patriotic selections under the direction of Lyman ligh School Band Director John Blair.

The festival was presented to raise money for the band programs at each school

Police Identify Two Victims Of Firing Squad Execution

LAKELAND (AP) - Police identified the bodies today of two men killed in a firing squad-style execution. The two were identified as Donald E. Cole, 37, and Leo

T. Eggering, 32, both of Lakeland. Police said the men, who were roommates, apparently were abducted from their apartment Saturday night, taken to a field near the Lakeland Municipal Airport and shot in the head with a 30-30 rifle.

Refugees Cite Red Tape

MIAMI (AP) - Some of the 950 Vietnamese refugees in Dade County say they are having difficulty cutting through bureaucratic red tape in trying to enter the mainstream of American society.

"One thing is the humilation of being treated like a helpless welfare client," says Ngoc Huong, 28. "You go to an office and wait and wait, and then somebody stops reading a newspaper long enough to give you $30 because of the color of your face."

Like more than 200 other refugees, Ngoc Huong and her family are sponsored by the International Rescue Committee. The group pays the apartment rent, and for those who can't find jobs, allots to each family $10 per person each week for food and other expenses.

Jury Rights Questioned

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - Secretary of State Bruce Smathers says the right to sit on a jury should be withheld from former prisoners until they show whether they "plan to lead an honorable life."

But officials of the Pardon Board are beginning a campaign to notify some 61,000 persons released from prison during the last 10 years that their rights to serve on juries and to vote will be restored upon request. Since Nov. 1, convicts getting out of Florida prisons have automatically had the rights restored. But Smathers is suggesting the legislature alter the law regarding jury selection, and he has picked up a powerful ally in the

Fishing Firms Investigated

TAMPA (AP) - Fifty fishing firms are being investigated for posible antitrust violations and alleged price fixing in Florida's $160-million seafood industry, the business magazine Florida Trend reports.

The Justice Department's antitrust division from Atlanta has issued subpoenas for grand jury hearings starting today through Nov. 15 in Key West and on Nov. 18 in Jacksonville, according to state and federal sources close to the investigation. Florida Trend said in a press release that the Justice Department has confirmed the probe but declined to

Country Healing Watergate Wounds

In a sense, the Watergate Special Prosecution Force is dancing on the head of a pin when it asks Congress to decide whether an incumbent president should be open to criminal indictment by the federal judiciary system.

From a legal standpoint, the precedent of nearly 200 years of nationhood is clear. The Constitution establishes the House of Representatives as a "grand jury" to impeach or not to impeach the president. If the House recommends impeachment the Senate acts as a court to settle the issue.

Should a president be removed from office, he is vulnerable to court proceedings just like any other private citizen. Like former Special Prosecutor Leon Jaworski, we doubt that the U.S. Supreme Court would overturn this system, which has stood the test of time.

Politically, a court indictment during an impeachment proceeding or Senate trial not only would impede the constitutional process but also would have the effect of putting an incumbent president in double jeopardy by making him face the same charges in two different legal jurisdic-

Nevertheless, the Special Prosecution Force has done the nation a service by bringing the matter to citizens' attention and by recommending other changes in the nation's political procedures to assure their honesty and equity.

Most of the proposed changes are in the realm of constitutional possibility. The United States can further limit persons with special partisan interests from holding high offices that would not be served by partisanship. A better definition on what constitutes national security is needed to assure that all necessary information is given to American people. By the same token the Freedom of Information Act should be scrutinized to assure that legitimate national secrets are not needlessly disseminated.

There is a continuing danger, however, that the assessment of our political procedures, if improperly handled, could add to the apathy or the cynicism of American people, a prospect that worries former Special Prosecutor Henry Ruth.

Mr. Ruth is correct in his assessment that the national nightmare of the last several years exhibits that our national "institutions once again had to earn the faith of the people in whose names they acted."

We believe that the national institutions have responded to the will of the people and are regaining their footing.

All that remains is the scars to heal.

Nuclear Buildup

Despite the efforts of the nuclear powers to keep the nuclear club exclusive, new members keep joining without permission. Iran has agreed to buy $700 million worth of uranium from South Africa and to put up part of the money for a huge uranium enrichment plant to be built in South Africa.

The enrichment plant is the essential facility that creates a sovereign nuclear power. It is necessary to refine raw uranium, which is plentiful throughout the world, to the enriched uranium required for reactors and for bombs.

Recently West Germany announced it will furnish the technology required for a nuclear enrichment plant to be built in South America.

Soon the threat of the mushroom cloud will hover all over five continents

BERRY'S WORLD

"You say you like me because I'm an oldfashioned girl. Does that mean you think of me as a sex object?"

From Nov. 11, 1918 until the mid-1960s, that date has been known universally as Armistice Day - the title that lasted until 1954 when it was determined that we, the people, should honor all veterans of our military services rather than just those that served back in World War I.

For those of you who aren't really aware of it, it was back on Nov. 11, 1918, in a small railroad car situated near Compiegne, France, on the 11th hour of the day, that an armistice was signed signalling the end of that great war.

And from that date forward, until the mid-60s, everyone, everywhere, remembered the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month. Most of us observed it with a moment of reverent silence. From the hardest individual on earth to the tiniest youngster in kindergarten, that day was

DON OAKLEY President's Halloween Massacre

They immediately dubbed it the "Hallween massacre" - President Ford's firing of Defense Secretary James R. Schlesinger and CIA Director William E. Colby.

But about the only thing in common between this sudden cabinet shakeup and President Nixon's dumping of Watergate Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox, among others, two years ago was that it occurred on a weekend. By ordering the famous "Saturday night massacre" Richard M. Nixon sealed his own eventual doom. It is extremely doubtful if Gerald Ford's reshuffling of one cabinet and two advisory posts, the other being Henry Kissinger's seat on the National Security Council, will even be remembered by many Americans when they go to the polls next year, much less influence their voting.

Congressional Democrats continue to try to make the most of the matter, however, most notably Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.), like Schlesinger one of the capital's leading advocates of a strong national defense and of a tough stand against Moscow and thus a skeptical critic of the detente politics of Secretary of State Colby's going had been expected, although not quite so soon, and was probably inevitable because of a continuing string of embarrassing and damaging revelations about the U.S. intelligence gathering establishment.

But it is Jackson's view, shared by an unknown number of others, that Kissinger was really behind the firing of Schlesinger because of the latter's refusal to fall in line on such matters as strategic arms limitation talks with the Russians. Kissinger's relinquishing his post as White House national security advisor is said to be meaningless since his place will soon be taken by his own close deputy, Air Force Lt. Gen. Bruce Scowcroft.

"The last vestige of dissent may be wiped out," Jackson said. "Dissent to Dr. Kissinger, I

What the senator is saying, in effect, is that President Ford and everyone in his administration are little more than yes men to Henry Kissinger - an allegation which, if true, Americans would certainly want to weigh very heavily in the election scales next year.

There are numerous other indications, however, that Kissinger is hardly the power behind anybody's throne, if he ever was. Newsweek magazine quotes "sources close to the President" as saying the warmth has gone out of the relationship between the President and the secretary and that, although he has no intention of doing so, the President would not hesitate to get rid of Kissinger if he decided he needed to.

remembered. A wreath was traditionally placed on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, who rests in guarded retreat in Arlington National Cemetery. Services were held throughout the world in one form or another. However, about 10 years ago some erstwhile members of congress decided they weren't getting enough time away from their offices and needed more three-day weekends. Thus, these federal legislators took it upon themselves to declare many holidays would thereafter fall on certain Mondays of certain months regardless of the true anniversary date of the occasion.

This didn't sit too well with many people especially those steeped in tradition and memory. Among those organizations which vigorously objected to this bantering about of holdiays were the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) and the American Legion - just to mention a few.

These two groups put up such a loud clamor that just recently President Ford signed legislation restoring Nov. 11 as the day we honor those who wore the uniform of our military - effective in 1978. This is all well and good, but why wait until three years hence?

Well, for one thing, calendars for the next few years have obviously already been printed and it would throw a real monkey wrench into the works to restore the national holiday any sooner than '78. Despite this, veterans groups in most states still refuse to observe any day other than Nov. 11 as the true Veterans Day.

Although no special parades or anything of the like are scheduled here in Sanford tomorrow, there is to be a real wing-dinger in Orlando, where veterans from all branches of the armed forces will form at Exposition Park, proceed east on Livingston Street to Orange Avenue and then south past the reviewing stand at Orlando city hall and on to Lucerne Circle.

The parade will include units consisting of the military, fire and police, reserves, civic groups, high school bands, drill teams and many others. It all gets under way at approximately 5:15 p.m.

and we hope everyone will try to view it. If not that, then we hope everyone will take just a moment to remember that it was on Nov. 11, and not Oct. 27, that the armistice was signed and bow their

Neutral Scientists A Question WASHINGTON - (NEA) - The high-flying

Domestic Council, peopled primarily with cabinet officers and agency heads, and staffed with the cream of the bureaucracy and outside civilians, was set up a few years back to advise the President on those crucial demestic problems which harass us daily.

Now listen to these laments from the inside, aired at a meeting of fellow advisers: We know that over-regulation by the government probably costs us $130 billion a year. We know there will be a severe domestic capital formation crisis in the next 10 years. We know there is a taxpayer revolt. There are too many government commissions, committees and offices. We know what this does and will do to the economy and unemployment. That is, we know what the problems are. We just don't know how to deal with them. We don't know how or where to grab hold. The problem is, we don't even know where to start. As a solution finder the Domestic Council has

It attempts to work "by being an honest broker," taking no stands, presenting all views but sponsoring none. But, says one Domestic Council staffer, it is difficult finding men and women who will be neutral and impartial and who aren't emotionally committed to one side or another

The problem, of course, is that no man is neutral, least of all a man sufficiently involved to become expert. Even Nobel Prize winning physicists and chemists become so wedded to their theories that I have seen them grow red in the face and wave their arms in unconcealed anger when discussing their pet technical thoughts with scientists who disagree. So much for neutrality.

What happens then when the Domestic Council attempts to neutralize its thinking on the major

The result - what funnels up to President crime statistics so fast as a Supreme Court Ford - is a bland mush from which controversy ruling that the householder has a perfect right to has been milked away. And no solutions you can Which is one reason the economy is drifting.

Things are made worse, of course, by a Congress so utterly devoid of leadership that neither the House nor the Senate can hammer out any law without inserting so many exceptions and loopholes the result should be left to die in

The Domestic Council was intended, in addition, to keep government agencies from tripping over each other with competing and overlapping programs, thus preventing some degree of waste.

In this, too, the Council has failed. These failures give one pause when con-

NATION IN BRIEF Democrats Offer Proposal

To Provide Loans For NYC WASHINGTON (AP) - Senate Majority Leader Mike

Mansfield and four other Democrats are presenting President Ford a proposal to provide New York City with federal loan guarantees. But Ford remains strongly opposed to any legislation that will help the city avoid default.

"I'm always hopeful that we can work together, but with the deadline (for default) extending anywhere from Nov. 14 on, I think it is time to face up to this situation," Mansfield said of the meeting today.

Campaign Law Challenged

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Supreme Court is being asked to apply the principle of freedom of speech to the old adage that "money talks."

The applicability of the First Amendment to political spending is part of a tangle of issues in a complex constitutional case being argued today bearing directly on the 1976 presidential campaign.

The court set aside an unusual four hours for argument on the case, in which a wide range of political figures and organizations are challenging socalled post-Watergate campaign revisions.

Lawyer: Patty Won't Plead

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - Patricia Hearst, declared mentally competent to stand trial, will not plead guilty to federal bank robbery charges, one of her attorneys says. Albert Johnson would not say Sunday whether the 21year-old newspaper heirass will plead innocent today when she appears before U.S. District Court Judge Oliver Carter. But he did say "she is not going to plead guilty." The charges against her stem from the April 1974 robbery of a Hibernia Bank branch by the Symbionese Liberation Army. The government claims that Miss Hearst, who had been kidnaped by the terrorist group on Feb. 4, 1974 but later renounced her family and joined her captors, willingly took part in the $10,690 robbery.

May Go On Without Fromme

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) - Lynnete Fromme's trial on charges of attempting to murder President Ford may resume with the Charles Manson disciple out of the courtroom and ignoring the proceedings entirely. Miss Fromme, ousted from the courtroom twice at the last session Friday, was told by U.S. District Court Judge Thomas MacBride that she could return today if she promises to refrain from disrupting the proceedings by demanding that Manson be allowed to testify. But Miss Fromme vowed that she wouldn't return to the courthouse unless officers carry her from the county jail.

Gen. Francisco Franco Has Trouble Breathing

MADRID, Spain (AP) - Gen. Francisco Franco is having trouble breathing despite the aid of an artificial respirator, informed medical sources said today. Sources close to the long-time Spanish leader's medical team also reported he had developed new kidney complications in his third day after emergency abdominal surgery, despite the aid of a kidney machine. The Spanish news agency Europa Press, without giving details, said doctors for Franco, who will be 83 next month, were "worried" at midday. A new medical bulletin was thought imminent. A 7:30 a.m. medical bulletin had said he spent a restfulnight and that there was no change from a report of his making "positive progress" during the weekend.

Moroccans Leave Sahara

AGADIR, Morocco (AP) - Hundreds of thousands (Moroccans began pulling out of the Spanish Sahara today after King Hassan II declared that their march to claim the territory for Morocco had "achieved its objective." But officials stressed the 350,000 volunteers would remain near the border to strengthen the king's bargaining power. Hassan, announcing the withdrawal in a telecast Sunday night, said he would return from his command post at Agadir to Marrakech to resume negotiations on the future of the 105,000-square-mile Spanish colony.

Lisbon Rally Disrupted

LISBON, Portugal (AP) - Tear gas disrupted a pro-government rally Sunday night as Premier Jose de Azevedo was condemning left-wing extremism. Nearly an hour after the premier began speaking to about 20,000 persons gathered in Lisbon's main square, someone set fire to the political banners raised by the anti-Communist sponsors of the meeting, and tear gas grenades were thrown from the roof of the adjacent navy ministry building.

Zionism Still UN Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) - The anti-Israeli bloc in the U.N. General Assembly claimed enough votes for decisive passage today of one of the most controversial measures of the current assembly session, the resolution ondemning Zionism as a form of racial discrimination. The assembly was considered certain to approve two other Arab resolutions in support of Palestinian rights. But Western members were making a determined attempt to get the anti-Zionism resolution shelved for at least a year.

Reagan Says Ford

Hasn't Been Successful

NEW YORK (AP) - "Maybe the President was a ongressman too long," Ronald Reagan said in an inerview with Time magazine. "The President has all the machinery, but I'd be happy with the grass roots," said the former California governor, adding he thought President Ford had not "been very successful."

"If I decide to run, maybe there's a little David and Goliath to this thing." Reagan also said in the interview published Sunday:

"With (former President) Nixon gone, I worry about (Secretary of State Henry) Kissinger. He needed someone like Nixon to keep him on that tough track. He has to have someone around who can keep him from giving away the

Matlovich Speaks In Montreal

MONTREAL (AP) - "They gave me a medal for killing two men and discharged me for loving one," said Leonard P. Matlovich, a sergeant thrown out of the Air Force after revealing he was homosexual.

He told 400 persons at a symposium on homosexuality Sunday he suspects the Air Force favors loosening sex regulations but prefers leaving it to the courts "so that it won't lose its macho image."

Matlovich, 32, who won a Bronze Star and Purple Heart during three tours of duty in Vietnam, took his case to court after being discharged last month.

Girl Scouts Reminisce Dickie Colado Elected 'Heroine' By JANE CASSELBERRY Herald Staff Writer

"We all love her and are daily grateful for the lasting impression she has made on our lives," Mrs. Donna Lou Pratt of Longwood, Girl Scout Leader, said of her troop's choice of a Hidden Heroine" - Mrs. Dickie Colado,

Girl Scouts all over the nation are honoring outstanding women of their communities with the designation during the Bicentennial year and when Junior Girl Scouts of Troop 267 of Altamonte Elementary School decided to confer the title, "Dickie" was a natural choice.

For many years, she personified Girl Scouting and was a natural "heroine" for Girl Scouts and leaders under her influence. Donna Lou was one of these girls. The stress on service and love of the outdoors are only two of the qualities learned from Mrs. Colado which are now being passed on to other girls now that they are grown women and are leading troops and involved in many forms of community service themselves.

When the decision was made Donna Lou, and Mrs. Colado's youngest daughter, Mrs. Richard (Buzzie) Anderson also of Longwood, set about to alert as many former Scouts, co-workers and friends of the event about to transpire and invite them to attend. Former Girl Scouts in Troops Six, 14 and 18 were especially invited to participate in the program and tea honoring their beloved "Dickie."

The event was held recently at the Winter Park Garden Club Center at Mead Gardens following the annual Vesper Service begun many years ago by Mrs. Colado in the Knowles Memorial Blue Key Member Was Lyman Student GAINESVILLE-Kristin Kleppe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Thomas Kleppe of Maitland and a student at the University of Florida, is one of only 11 women to be tapped into Florida Blue Key.

Florida Blue Key is a leadership organization which has previously not allowed women. Miss Kleppe, who became a member last spring, was among the second group of women allowed to join.

As a member of Florida Blue Key, Miss Kleppe went to Tallahassee last spring to lobby for five bills connected with the state university system. This month she held slating interviews for the student senate race and is presently active in the Speakers Bureau. Miss Kleppe attended Lyman High School in Longwood where she was president of the Junior class, president of Civinettes, and participated in Girls State.

Since entering the University of Florida in 1973, Miss Kleppe has continued to be active in student affairs. Besides belongong to Florida Blue Key, she is president of Kappa Delta, a social sorority, and a membor of Omicron Delta Kappa, a national leadership fraternity. A public relations major, she will receive her Bachelor of Science degree in December of 1976. She hopes to go on to law school at the University of Florida and pursue a political career.

VARIETY A SNAP WITH NEW RINGS

Beautiful ears and necks are an important part of the fashion picture this winter as demonstrated by actress-singer Maureen Reagan, daughter of former California Gov. Ronald Reagan. She counseled with retail jewelers of the American Gem Society and chose to wear a new kind of earring that has interchangable drops you simply snap onto the basis gold band attached to the ear lobe. Drops may be jade or any other of dozeas of colorful stones, or dressy diamonds or pearl - depending on the occasion and your Chapel at Rollins College. In an overwhelming tribute to the honoree family, friends and Girl Scouts of all ages packed the Garden Center for the salute.

It was during the depression years that "Dickie" first went to work as a professional Scouter beginning her career as an archery instructor at the summer Girl Scout Camp held at Camp Wewa. With a BS degree in Science and Physical Education from Russell Sage College in Troy, N.Y., she went to work for the Orange-Lake Council which years later merged with other counties to become Citrus Council. In 1945, when Winter Park had its own council she became executive director. When she started there were five troops and by the time she retired in 1957 there were 55 troops and the council had extended into Maitland and South Seminole. Among the gifts presented to the honoree were a statuette of the founder of Girl Scouts, Juliette Low, a Girls Scout "thank you" pin, a hanging potted plant, daisy corsage and a jug of water from Starbuck Springs. Now part of "The Springs", exclusive residential development, the spring was formerly a favorite spot for day camps and overnights for Scouts. It seems "Dickie" was the type of leader who could convince the campers it was a great honor to get chosen for the Spartan task of swimming out into the icy boil in early dawn to fill a jug with pure water for breakfast.

It was a time for reminiscing. In 1935 when Dickie was expecting her first child, May Ann (Winkie), she was presented a blanket, which was later passed on to any Girl Scout leaders who had babies. Former "blanket babies" and mothers were asked to stand.

Girls of Troop 267 served as color guard and hostesses. Area women serving on the committee to plan the tea in addition to Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Anderson were Mrs. Lynn Joyce Stevens, Casselberry; Mrs. Beth Baker Michaud, Winter Springs; Mrs. Donna Stevens Markey, Orlando; Mrs. Patti Joyce Helms, and Mrs. Jo Ann Jump Helms, both of Longwood.

For the Madonna, use a small oval-shaped bottle. For her head, cut a hole in a foam ball to fit onto the bottle. Glue on sequins, felt or paper features; paint hair and eyebrows. Cut arms from another bottle and pin to shoulders. Add cord around her waist.

Her long cape is made from another bottle, large enough to rest on top of her head. Cut off the neck of the bottle and enough at the bottom so top of bottle rests on her head. Cut away the front of the bottle, making an opening to fit the Madonna. From this front section, cut a piece to cover the opening from the neck of the bottle, and a circle for her halo. against visiting Manatee. "I thought the boys played all right," Sterling said today about Saturday's solid 87-68 varsity victory over a Seminole alumni team. First-year Raiders also scored a victory Saturday, stopping a faculty team 47-34 in a 20-minute preliminary to the alumni game.

"We got a little sloppy," Sterling admitted. "We like to shoot at least 70 per cent from the line and we weren't able to do that in the alumni game, but I'm pretty satisfied with the way we played.

"Manatee has a strong club. They have a 6-7 center and two big guards (6-3 and 6-4) coming back, but we think we can match them in height." Sterling said he was pleased by the "good turnout at the

Bethune-Cookman Coach Wants To Take On Miami

DAYTONA BEACH (AP) - Bethune-Cookman Coach Wesley Moore, ignoring the fact his team is in the small college division, has put the Tangerine Bowl committee on notice that he'd like to play Miami of Ohio in the annual post-season affair. "We should be considered for the Tangerine Bowl," Moore said after his team upped its record to 8-0 with a 21-0 victory over Alabama State.

"We are the only undefeated team in Florida and are ready to face Miami or any of the teams picked by the Tangerine Bowl committee," Moore said.

"We are the only college with a football team in Central Florida and a Tangerine appearance could have local appeal. There's no doubt about it, this is a saleable

Turf Classic Memorable

LAUREL, Md. (AP) - It was rated as one of the best fields in the 24-year history of the Washington, D.C. International, but Saturday's running of the 11/2-mile turf

Baker Takes Dixie 500

HAMPTON, Ga. (AP) - Buddy Baker is no longer superstitious, not after winning the rain-delayed Dixie 500. Now the smiling blond is after the big one - the Daytona 500.

"This year has just been a dream come true," said Baker on Sunday after taking the $15, 400 first prize with a three-second victory over David Marcis in the Dixie 500. Defending champion Richard Petty was third. Baker took the lead with 51 laps to go over the 1.522-mile oval, waited through a 50-minute rain delay, then beat out Marcis and Petty over the final 27 laps when the race

County Okays 2 Walks By ED PRICKETT Herald Staff Writer

The Seminole County Commission today ordered a countywide study of sidewalk needs of all schools after approving $6,000 worth of sidewalks at Idyllwilde and Pinecrest elementary schools. The sidewalks at the schools are a part of a joint participation project with the city of Sanford, and Commissioner John Kimbrough stipulated that both project plans be approved by Sanford officials before construction begins.

"I have no objection," Kimbrough said "as long as we're amply protected from Mr. (City Manager W. E. "Pete") Knowles." Kimbrough said he's been "burned" by Knowles before. He said Knowles had criticized counnty projects after their completion, even though other officials had spoken highly of such projects. Both sidewalk projects were highly recommended by commission chairman Sid Vihlen Jr. Vihlen met on Monday with Knowles and highranking officials of the county's road department.

The 27th Street project at Pinecrest requires $3,000 for construction of sidewalks at the east and west ends of the BICENTENNIAL school. That project can be PRESENTATION completed, officials say, sometime before Jan. 1, 1976. Construction of sidewalks along SR 46A at Idyllwilde will cost about $3,150.
