Mrs. R. Hamilton Files Candidacy To State Legislature

Mrs. Ruth M. Hamilton of Fern Park announced Saturday as a candidate for state representative in Group No. 1, subject to the Democratic Primaries in May. Mrs. Hamilton says she is not running "against" anyone but "for" something. She is the wife of the late M. N. Hamilton, who died in 1941. Mrs. Hamilton was born, reared and educated in Iowa and Minnesota. She taught grade school for 12 years. For the past 16 years, she has been working in the adult education field. Last summer she spent in Scandinavia where she studied the elementary school and High Schools for adults and gathered material for radio and lecture work. At present she is conducting an educational program over WTRR in Sanford.

While living in New Hampshire, a Republican state, Mrs. Hamilton was elected as a Democrat to the House of Representatives in 1941 where she served on the education committee. She is the widow of the late Dr. C. Carter Hamilton, noted X-ray specialist in Philadelphia. A son, Peter, is a junior at the Lyman High School.

She will act as her own campaign treasurer and has designated the Sanford Atlantic National Bank as depository.

(Continued From Page 1) house was a raging inferno. A neighbor, Peter Cooper, attempted unsuccessfully to enter. Napier and the sleeping children burned to death in the flames. Patrolman Hood, thinking Tommie's wife wasn't going to return to the fall with the bond money, jailed Tommie, Willie and Harry.

Fire Chief M. N. Cleveland, after an unsuccessful attempt to survey the debris yesterday, concluded an investigation this morning placing the cause of the fire on either a lighted cigarette or kerosene lamp.

He described the bodies as only a "handful of ashes." "Only the baby Winifred was discernable," he stated. Oscar Becker, highway patrolman, stated only the metal roof lay on top of the ruins of the Holt home.

Napier and the Holt children were buried this afternoon at the Burton cemetery in Sanford.

By The Associated Press) At least 7 other persons died from accidental causes in Florida over the weekend.

At Deland Saturday night Irelia Lee Moore, 2, and Louis Edward Moore, 4, burned to death. Two other children and a woman got out of the house.

A panel truck veered off the paved portion of a Hartow street, swerved sharply to get back on, and overturned. Crushed under the machine was the driver, Margie Davidson, 25, of Winter.

Mrs. Mary F. Roberts, 70, a pediatrician, was killed when she was hit by a car at Tampa Sunday night.

At Jacksonville Jerry Williams, 20, Negro, was killed in the second accident he was involved in Sunday night. After a minor accident he stepped from his car to investigate the damage.

Then, police said, a tractor-trailer operated by Johnny Mack Brown, 28, Atlanta, collided with another car and slammed into Williams' car. Williams was pinned under the vehicle in a ditch.

Brown was jailed on charges of manslaughter and driving while intoxicated.

Larry Coxwell, 54-year-old Miami carpenter, was killed and his woman companion was injured Sunday when the automobile he was driving overturned on the Overseas Highway 16 miles north of Key West.

With Coxwell was Mrs. Evie Hinkle, 41, also of Miami, who was hospitalized in Key West with lacerations, neck and back injuries.

Florida Highway Patrolman M. J. Wilder said the automobile hit some loose dirt, skidded and rolled over four times. He estimated the automobile's speed at 80 miles an hour and said it was airborne when the accident occurred.

ROTC CRUISE (Special) — Thirty-six University of Florida students including Glenn McCall of Sanford and faculty members returned to the campus last week from an eight-day sea training program and annual affair covered by the U. S. Army Transportation Corps.

The highlight of the program for the members of the University ROTC was a cruise from Tampa to Havana on the training ship USS-617, making the ports of Key West and Fort Jefferson on route. Water sports on the program included drills, instructional and observational programs regarding phases of shipboard life, a tour of Havana, a boat race and shore leave in ports visited.

Buzz Saw Breaks Loose And Sails 4 Blocks In Air

A flying buzz saw, breaking loose while in operation in a wood yard Friday night, sailed four blocks, hit the roof of a house, cut four rafters and severed electrical connections before it crashed broken in the floor.

Harvey Johnson, Negro occupant of the house, reported in excited tones to the Florida Power and Light Co. that a buzz saw had gone through his roof, and that the lights had gone out. The police were notified.

Guided by two similar experiences in the matter, it did not take Police Chief Williams long to locate the owner of the buzz saw, Jesse Abrams, Negro, who was found to have been operating the saw in violation of city restrictions at 1207 West Ninth Street.

Chief Williams recalled that this was the second time one of the buzz saws belonging to Abrams had taken to the air. Back in 1944, a buzz saw was seen flying out of a wood yard by Abrams and a plane had dropped a bomb near a house.

Jesse Abrams, by police order, has now stopped cutting fire wood in a "restricted" residential area, said Chief Williams. The broken buzz saw is being held at the police station as evidence.

Dade and Palm Beach Lead In Accidents

TALLAHASSEE (Special) — Dade and Palm Beach counties, reporting 13 and 12 deaths respectively, led the state in the number killed on Florida's streets and highways for December. The State Highway Patrol tentatively reported today.

The toll for the month was 112 with more deaths believed yet to be reported. The count was made Jan. 10.

In third place was Hillsborough county, which had ten traffic fatalities. Volusia reported nine, and Pinellas' toll was seven.

Five were killed in collisions in Duval county. Counties reporting four deaths from traffic accidents in December included Broward and Polk.

Three such fatalities were counted in each of the following: Escambia, Orange, Jackson, Monroe, Nassau, Brevard and Putnam.

Two were killed in crashes occurring in Walton, Lee, Lake, Sarasota, Gadsden, Bay, Taylor and Leon counties.

The small adjoining counties of Lafayette and Gilchrist have reported no traffic fatalities as yet in 1951.

Those killed included 57 passengers, 12 pedestrians, 40 drivers and nine bicyclists. Only 10 fatalities occurred in urban areas.

(Continued From Page 1) not to request any secondary road building program of the Road Department for 1952, and that there may be a financial carry-over for the 1951 projects, and in order to have sufficient funds for right-of-way for projects now pending. It was pointed out that what would be spent this year would be for right-of-way.

The Commission agreed to cooperate with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad in rebuilding the crossing of the Big Tree Road over the track, following railroad improvements including the leasing of a curve in the track from two to one degree at that point as a safety measure.

The changing of the curve will necessitate the railroad acquiring a portion of the Big Tree Road parallel to and east of the track. In order to replace the road it will be necessary for the County to acquire from John Melch, abutting property owner, a tract of eight-of-way, extending for 800 feet. A. B. Peterson, representing the Railroad, agreed to secure this for the County.

The Commission made several suggestions to be submitted to the Railroad. One was that all grades coming up to both sides of the track, be not more than 2 percent, and that the A.C.L. Railroad track be paved the 800 foot strip, 18 feet wide on the right-of-way secured from Mr. Melch. County Surveyor M. G. Hagan was directed to supervise the road grades.

Three roads will meet at the crossing, the Big Tree Road, the old Orlando Highway and the clay road to Lake Nary.

What is believed to be the largest forest fire in America occurred in 1858 in Maine and New Brunswick. It burned over three million acres and cost 100 lives.

Negroes Held When Shine Is Found In Negro Residence

A raid in search of concealed moonshine liquor Saturday night in a house at 1000 East Ninth Street resulted in the finding by police of a 30 gallon barrel full of moonshine and a number of bottles partially full of liquor.

Annie Grace Mike, Negro, and wife of Willie Lee Mike, were caught in the act of selling illegal liquor. Mike was arrested and is now being held for trial on a charge of illegal possession and sale of moonshine liquor, said Police Chief Roy G. Williams.

Mike pointed to the barrel of "shine" in his office, which he said had been found in the attic of the Mike home. To a faucet on the bottom of it was a broken rubber hose such as is used with hot water bottles.

Chief Williams explained that Patrolman Ben Butler, during the raid, elicited the stopper on the hose that apparently was connected to an empty hot water bottle hanging on the wall. The hose was connected, however, to something else for out flowed moonshine liquor.

The police traced the hose into the wall and up to the attic where it was found connected to the barrel of liquor.

About 23 five gallon jugs, some partly filled with liquor, were seized together with the whiskey glass year Willie Lee Mike, the husband, was arrested by the government at one time for liquor violations, said Chief Williams.

Wave Of Battery Stealing Breaks Out In Seminole

A wave of battery stealing has swept Seminole County in the past ten days as the total has now reached 29, Sheriff P. A. Hain reported this morning. Most of the stealing has centered in the Ovida areas with 11 batteries and three night-lights from a Farmall tractor having been stolen in that section.

Ovida Police Chief George A. Kelsey said this morning, he had one clue. "We have made prints of the right front tire and traced them to a store in Sanford." He concluded that he thinks the gang comes from Sanford because of this clue.

He believes that the batteries are being sold to trucks which take them either to Jacksonville or Tampa for sale there. Most of the batteries stolen to date have come from farm tractors, but nine were taken from the Longwood Smith Brothers saw mill in Longwood.

The stolen batteries have been taken from these Ovida farmers: C. R. Chis, 3; R. W. Estes, 3; Carl Dand, 1; C. T. Niblock, 1; and the three tractor lights from the Moore farm.

Chief Kelsey said, "This something happens every year and I am convinced it's a gang. This same gang stole the Longwood battery and may have stolen many more that have not been reported."

"You could agree with the United Nations Command that there be no developments of military armaments on either side during the armistice. When you take that step, the world will breathe easier, for you would have given your first positive indication of sincerity toward a stable armistice and these are the issues at stake."

Afterward Ferenbaugh told newsman speeches of the Communist delegates were "interlarded with more propaganda than heretofore."

"It was difficult to stay on the subject of armistice," he said.

Cecil M. Webb Is Named Head Of Game Commission

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Cecil M. Webb is the new chairman of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

Webb, who has served on the commission since 1947, was elected to head the group this year at an organizational meeting at Williston Saturday night. He has served as chairman twice before. He was elected to the group this year at an organizational meeting at Williston Saturday night.

Webb was elected chairman for the first time in 1952, then was re-elected in 1951, but quit the chairmanship after two months.

Webb takes over the chair from L. G. Morris of Monticello, whose term on the commission expired and who was replaced on the chairman by A. H. Rich of Tallahassee.

Saturday's meet at Williston was the first attended by Rich and another new member, Harris Drew of West Palm Beach.

COLONEL R. JUNIPER BRAGG, asked why he always closed his eyes when he drank a mint julep, explained, "The sight of good likah, oh, always makes my mouth water, and I don't aim to have my drink diluted." The colonel, however, believes there is a time and place for everything. ## French Waif, Adopted By American Division, Died Fighting In Korea

HOUSTON (AP)—A homeless French waif who died in Korea trying to repay the kindness shown him in the United States will be buried in his adopted country.

Cpl. Alexander Stewart, 22, was killed in action Dec. 28. But the casualty list doesn't tell how the youth asked — and got — the help of a congressman in transferring from the safety of Japan to the Korean battlefield. It doesn't tell how he came to America twice as a stowaway before Congress passed a special law to let him stay here legally.

Mrs. A. Axelrod of Houston, his foster mother, said Sunday night she would bring the body home for burial. "I know that is what he would have wanted me to do," she said.

At 22 the corporal was an old hand at war and fighting. When he was 12 he ran away from an orphanage in Alsace, joined the underground and finally escaped to North Africa. He was adopted by the 133rd Regiment of the 34th Infantry Division and fought with them for five years — North Africa, Sicily, Austria.

When the war was over Axelrod stayed away on a troop ship and came to America. Members of the 133rd gave him $200 and he struck out on his own. When he tried to enlist in the U. S. Army he discovered he was an alien. Back to France he went. There was no record of his citizenship there.

Police said apparently few of the patrons realized what had happened and the film was not interrupted.

An assistant manager of the theater said the platform was being lowered after some children had tampered earlier with the stage controls, causing the platform to rise above part of the screen.

Rural Common Sense
By SPUDS JOHNSON

Make allowance for rising costs in planning the farm operation for 1952. Florida farmers are reminded by economists of the University of Florida Agricultural Extension Service. In 1951 farm production costs were about 12 percent above last year. In 1952 they seem likely to go up maybe another 5 percent.

With a high level of production, farmers will use a lot of higher priced labor, economists point out, and maybe a little more fertilizer at higher prices. Farm machinery is expected to continue at the year's high prices or possibly go up moderately. In general, farmers will need more machinery and may buy as much as they can get.

Prices of building materials, feed, seeds and pest killers will continue high early in 1952. All in all, farmers may buy more goods and services and pay more for them, it is believed by Clyde Murphy, assistant economist.

Rising costs these past few years have forced many farmers to take on more debt, especially production debt for things other than real estate. With the prospect for further increases in 1952, farmers' debts seem likely to rise still more. Mr. Axelrod said, "About a month later I got a letter from Rep. Thomas saying that Alex had written asking for help to get in the fighting. Rep. Thomas said 'I hope I haven't done the wrong thing by seeing that he gets his wish.'"

Witnesses my hand and official seal in Sanford, Florida this 14th day of January, 1952.

WALTER THOMAS, District Attorney for the Circuit Court of Sanford, Florida

TODAY'S HIGHLIGHTS

There is an amazing record of hardpressed people who have found their faith justified. Individuals likewise have had their faith justified. They trusted in this and were not confounded.— Ps. 22:6.

The government's farm price support program is said to be short by four million dollars. A drop in the bucket.

There was a big turnout
Sunday for Orlando's Camellia Show. Which reminds us, when is Sanford's Flower Show going to be held?

President Truman has abandoned his earlier idea of a tax hike for this year. All you got to do now is to try to pay the taxes
already levied against you.

Tourists who decided to come to Florida should be interested these days in the news from California where a terrific storm is covering the state with sleet and snow. It's good to be in "sunny Florida."

There will be precious little road work during 1952, according to Road Chairman McKethan, in spite of traffic jams and automobile accidents. There just isn't enough money available in the way he puts it, although we could understand it better if he had pointed to the cement shortage.
With all the taxes we pay
there should be plenty of money.

Don't let yourself get too full.
If you do, you are giving yourself a lot of unnecessary work to do just carrying it around. According to the American Medical Association, the useless fat which Americans are carrying around on their bodies could supply enough energy to do about one and one half billion man hours of work. And who wants to work like that?

Know how many tourists came to this state last year? Well, the Florida State Chamber of Commerce says there were 4,800,000.
And altogether they brought in some $840,000,000, the biggest single source of income for the state. The tourist business is largely responsible for the growth of such cities as Miami, St.
Petersburg, West Palm Beach,
and Orlando.

Advertising pays, but it can't do everything. A 39 year old divorcee of Shalimar, Fla. advertises for a husband. He must be "young, good looking, someone
I can be proud of who loves
life but is no drunkard or atheist,
and who has money enough to pay off $6,000 of my debts".
No, we don't recommend advertising as a means of finding a husband.

Down in Tampa a former football hero turns up in jail awaiting trial as a safe cracker, a crime
which he readily enough admits.
A few years ago he was winning honors for Hillsborough High, whence he went on to college to win national fame. But something evidently was wrong with his early education. Sports in general and particularly football are supposed to be builders of good character,
develop sportsmanship and inculcate in the youth something of the sense of fair play. That this is not always so is shown by the case of Ray Jackson now awaiting trial in a Tampa jail.

When the New Deal went into the war cry was, as we remember it, "Speak the Rich".
The idea was to divide up the wealth of the nation by means of taxation, to take it away from rich and give it to the poor.
A lot of things have happened
since those dark and gloomy days of 1933 when the only thing we could fear was fear itself. Now the important thing is the number of people who are poor. The number of people who are rich is not so important.

Although the average wind velocity in Miami, Fla., is 10 miles an hour, it has reached 132 miles an hour.

Are You Safe At Home?

Every year hundreds of people across the nation die from falls, burns, poisoning, firearms, suffocation because they do not know the elementary rules of home safety. To help you discover if you are a home safety illiterate—and what to do about it—the February issue of Pageant Magazine has published a test which was given to 1700 persons of all ages by a national insurance company.

When the results were tabulated, the officials were stunned to discover that not one person of the 1700 passed the test. The average score was only 52.3 per cent!

Here are some of the questions with answers below
which you should know:

1. If you found some member of your family unconscious because of electric shock and still in contact with a live wire, how would you break that contact?
Answer: Move the wire from his body with a dry stick or overcoat.
2. If someone suffers a first degree burn (minor), would you use butter as a salve?
Answer: No, butter may carry bacteria which will infect
the wound. Use petroleum jelly or similar inorganic substances which have been heated to an intense degree in the process of preparation.
3. Assuming that the man in your home is a hunter, name the two most important safety precautions that should be followed in safely storing firearms in the home.
Answer: a) Keep under lock and away from children. b) Store the ammunition in a safe storage spot away from heat or any other detonating agent.
4. Name two reasons why wooden ladders should never be painted.
Answer: a) Paint hides defects. b) Slippery when wet.
5. You walk into the kitchen of your home and discover a grease fire in your gas oven where meat is being roasted.
Explain how you would extinguish this grease fire safely
and effectively.
Answer: Smother it with salt after turning off gas and shutting oven door. Don't throw flour on the flames. It's highly combustible.
6. Name four things that are essential to the safe use of stairs.
Answer: a) Good lighting. b) Use of handrails. c) Keep steps clear. d) No throw rugs at the top of the stairs.
7. What are the two most important safety precautions to take in using a ladder.
Answer: a) Make sure the base of the ladder is planted firmly and evenly against the ground. b) Place base away from wall at a distance of one-quarter ladder's length.

Making Mines Safer

The various investigators of the recent coal mine disaster at West Frankfort, Illinois, were not able to agree on the exact immediate cause of the explosion which killed 119
men. They all found the existence of recognizable dangers which should not have been allowed, but again failed to agree on the reasons. Inadequate inspection, weakness of laws and deliberate tolerance of improper conditions perhaps all contributed.

Out of the studies of this disaster come concrete recommendations for better laws, better methods of inspection and greater insistence of the fullest practicable use of known precautions. If the recommendations, in whole or in part, can be made the basis of action, greater safety in the coal mines may result.

The basic mistake which seems to have occurred at West Frankfort was that not enough use had been made of the knowledge at hand. The example of the resulting disaster should be considered well by people in all other occupations and walks of life, for that basic mistake is repeated over and over again. We know how to make all kinds of occupations and activities less dangerous than they are, how to make our homes safer and how to minimize the hazards of driving or walking across the street.

But too often we fail to do it, through either negligence or deliberate chance-taking. In this failure we court disaster.

Intersectional Exchange

Thirty high school students of Manitowoc, Wis., are to spend several weeks living and attending school at Macon, Ga., while 30 Macon students similarly live and study at Manitowoc. This is an interesting development of familiar international exchange program, under which groups of students and teachers of American schools trade places for a time with those of other nations.

There would seem to be room for almost limitless growth of this idea of exchanges among students of various sections of America. While our nation is remarkably integrated and homogeneous for its great size, there are nevertheless distinct geographic sections, which differ from each other in many ways. Programs of exchange could enable students to get the intimate knowledge of other sections which can be obtained only by living in them for a while.
This kind of exchange could have value equal to that of the international program.

North Miami Feud Reaches Decision In Supreme Court

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The mayor of a city cannot use his suspension
powers to "impose a fine Council
his idea of the wisdom of establishing" a public office, the Florida
Supreme Court held today.

It said he can suspend city officers only for cause.
The court ruled against Mayor
George B. Slick of North Miami
in his feud with the City Council to "put an end to a situation that appears to have reached the point of absurdity."

The squabble broke out when Mayor Slick refused to accept the City Council's decision to appoint a city manager. Three times the Council appointed a manager and three times Mayor Slick removed him on the ground the employment
was a waste of taxpayers' money.

A similar situation arose when the Council named a city attorney.
The mayor suspended him. The Council restored him to duty. The mayor suspended him again, and for a third time after the Council
once more had reinstated him.

The Supreme Court said the mayor did not suspend the city manager "because of anything that would even indicate that the officer was unfit to serve or that he had served imprudently or unlawfully."
The court said he can suspend
only for cause.

The court also held the mayor's suspension of the city attorney was valid. The Council restored him to duty. The mayor suspended him again, and for a third time after the Council once more had reinstated him.

STILL HOPING TO GET BACK IN THE SUGAR AGAIN

Comptroller Says State Will Return To Cash Basis Soon

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Comptroller
C. M. Gay today advised the State Cabinet that Florida will return to a cash basis the first of next week.

Because of a temporary money shortage, the comptroller has been deferring since early in December payment of bills for agencies and institutions which are financed out of the General Fund.

There has been enough money to meet all payrolls, school and welfare payments on schedule,
however.

Gay said the General Fund now has a balance of $27,300,000.
"Everything is current now, except for catching up some of the December bills. We expect to do that early next week," he reported.

Budget Director Homer Graham
told the Cabinet sales tax receipts for the first six months of the current business year were up about two million dollars. However automobile license tag revenue was off about the same amount because the later date for purchasing tags
this year has delayed the revenue
in reaching the treasury.

Gay said if it hadn't been for the 35-day extension of time to buy license tags, "We probably would have stayed on a cash
basis."

PRISON BREAK

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Two
San Quentin inmates, using a 12-inch scissors blade and a double-edged ax, killed two guards in an attempted prison break Monday night.

Two other guards and one of the convicts was injured.
Guard Charles D. Wiget, 31, was waylaid in the prison library and stabbed to death. Guard Vern A.
Mackin, 38, was killed in a prison
movie projection room.

Richard M. Sims Jr., Marin County district attorney, named Eugene Burwell, Los Angeles rocker, and James Alonso Rogers, serving a term for attempted murder
in San Francisco, as the killers.

Too Late To Classify

Advertising clubs of Florida
which comprise the Fourth District Advertising Federation of America, launched a campaign
this month to make Floridians
courtesy-conscious.

At their urging, Governor
Fuller Warren officially proclaimed January as "Courtesy Month
in Florida," and Mayors of Floridian cities are urged to follow through with local proclamations.

District Governor A. P. Phillips of Orlando, chief executive of the Fourth District AFA, points out that January is the most important of all months to take heed of the importance of courtesy, as during this month our greatest increase in visitors occurs each year.

Adopting the slogan, "Courtesy Wins Friends for Florida and You," the AFA has secured the cooperation of the Outdoor Advertising people who are contributing a full showing of 24 sheet boards throughout the state promoting the courtesy idea.

Transportation companies have joined the effort and courtesy cards are prominent in city bus advertising. Press and radio have been equally cooperative.

Through the exercise of courtesy every citizen of Florida can make a sizeable and worthwhile contribution to the advancement and welfare of his state. Courtesy costs you nothing and yet it pays big dividends.

No matter how humble your position in life you can make a real impression on others
by being courteous. Those who develop the habit of being courteous are happier and get much more out of life than do those unfortunate who fail to cultivate the habit and go through life with a selfish attitude, indifferent to the feelings of others.

The corner stone of a great many successful businesses is small and can be traced to the consistent exercise of courtesy.
People like to do business in a shop or store where clerks and attendants are polite and courteous. Tourists and visitors like the community where public officials and ordinary citizens are friendly

and cooperative.
No matter how much money the Advertising Commission spends to increase tourist travel to this state, this investment will be lost
if you and I fail to make our visitors feel at home when they arrive.

Florida with all its natural beauty, its sparkling lakes, flowers, palms and sunshine can quickly lose its glamorous appeal
if its people fail to exercise courtesy toward its guests.

Give a smiling, courteous
store clerk or grumpy, sullen citizen can do untold harm to his state or community and drive prospects away who might have become substantial investors and permanent residents.

On the other hand, a courteous filling station attendant who greets the stranger with a smile, gives directions cheerfully and shows an interest in the visitor's problem, makes a lasting impression. Because of him the visitor forms a favorable impression of the state, the community and the firm that employs this type of attendant.

The courtesy movement that is now sweeping the state got its start when the Florida Power & Light Company adopted the slogan
"Courtesy Wins Friends for Florida, the Company and You,"
and put on an intensive campaign to promote courtesy among P&L employees.

The Miami Police Department
took it up and the slogan, minus
the word "company" was adopted for the American Legion National Convention. Then the Tampa Motor Club brought the campaign
to the West Coast, Tampa's Police Department fell in line and now with the forceful backing of the state's enterprising Advertising Clubs of the Fourth District, AFA
and Governor Warren's timely proclamation, Floridians really should become courtesy-conscious.

It is much easier to be friendly and courteous. Try it and see what wonderful dividends it pays. Adopt as your own the slogan, "Courtesy Wins Friends for Florida and You."

Soil Conservation News

By BEN WIGGINS
Soil Conservationist

"With the introduction of advanced methods, the technical
"on-the-farm" services in soil and water conservation work to Seminoles land owners will be substantially increased this year," Homer Osborne, chairman of the Seminoles Soil Conservation District, announced today.

"Our District records show that we received during 1951 fifty-nine applications for in the field' help from farmers who own 18036 acres," he said. "Combined with those applications left over from 1950, we entered this year with 101 applications covering 85908 acres. Our goal will be to reduce this figure as much as possible with our limited field staff."

"We hope to bring this about by a new and faster method of farm planning," says Chairman Osborne. "Recommendations for common and easy to apply conservation practices, such as different types of pasture improvements, cover crops, cropping practices on organic and inorganic soils, forestry management, wildlife, etc. have been standardized. Mimeographed copies of these recommendations, with a short write-up to the each practice to the individual condition,
will be used in our new long range soil and water conservation farm plans."

"These new 'job' or 'guide'
sheets were developed to meet local conditions by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and were made available by the Soil Conservation Service in cooperation with the Seminole Soil Conservation District," said Ben Wiggins.

"In the term of the Week-Conservation—man's expression of good will toward nature.
According to 1951 records
"grassland farming", a definite soil and water conservation practice, is still on the boom. Based on present market prices, seed products of the improved pasture
crazes netted Florida farmers
more than 4 1/2 million dollars
this year.

Only a few years ago there was practically no seed harvesting machinery or equipment available in Florida. Realizing the need of adequate machinery
to aid a possible new industry, Soil Conservation District Supervisors secured an initial grant of funds earmarked specifically for this purpose from the State of Florida. Today there are 70
Combines, 71 Seeding Machines, 100 Lime and Fertilizer Distributors and 16 Seed Drying and Cleaning Machines in Florida's 53 Soil Conservation Districts.
Just another indication that conservation farming pays.

Supervisors who will operate
the Seminole Soil Conservation District for 1952 are: Homer
Osborne, R. T. Milwee, C. J.
Cameron, Sr., C. A. Wales, and George Harden.

HOLLYWOOD By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — "Tennis, anyone?"

How about a few sets with Frankie Parker, the glamor boy from Hollywood Van Johnson is so big that you'd rather sit this one out and talk about such things as movie tennis players and the brevity of court attire.

Frankie is an expert on both. He has played with most of the movie tennis addicts. Among the better players, he listed Robert Taylor, Peter Lawford and Walter Hedges. Van Johnson is so big that he remarked, "I understand Ginger Rogers is a good player," he added, "but I have never seen her on the courts."

Eight new Frankie is employed in a tennis tournament for the Katharine Hepburn, who is portraying a topflight athlete in "Pat and Mike."

"She is an excellent student," Frankie remarked. "She was a little bit afraid about her form and thought she ought to use a double in the long shots. I told her there was no reason why she couldn't be a champion. She's got the talent, and I think the public is wise to the use of doubles."

He pointed out that the doubling for Farley Granger in "Strangers on a Train" was a Tennyson. Frankie is also an authority on tennis wear. Today's aces can thank him for paying the way to more sensible attire. He harks back to an era when all tournament players wore flannel trousers.

"I started out wearing knickerbockers which was pretty daring at the time," he said. "Then I switched to shorts. When Don Hudge and I went to Wimbledon for the Davis Cup matches in 1937, the officials of the tournament said I could not wear shorts. 'Too undignified,' they said."

"Nowadays all the male players, with the exception of Hudge-wear shorts. I think it has improved the game tremendously. Tournament tennis is much faster and more exciting in shorts."

"That was proven to me when Hudge and I toured Australia a few years ago. It was at Christmas time and we were playing in 102 degree weather. The heat was so bad that we were wearing flannel trousers. Pretty soon he was slinging up, and I could see the sweat coming through his trousers."

Frankie, who used to be called "legs Parker" because of his sartorial pioneering, also favored the improvements in female tennis gear. The secretary in that field was "Georgie Gusnie" Moran.

"I think women's tennis much more exciting now that the girls are more active," he remarked. "They run up to the net as soon as they can, just as the men do. In the old days of Helen Wills and Helen Jacobs, the women would stand at the baseline and bounce the ball back and forth. The one who made the least mistakes won the match."

Natural gas consists of about 90 per cent of methane, known as "marsh gas," since it is formed by decaying vegetation in marshes.

Mrs. O'Neal speaking before the Ixora Circle. She is the former Miss Barbara Louise Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Saunders. Mr. Saunders is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theron Chester Muller of Orlando. The young couple are now making their home in Gainesville where Mr. Saunders is attending the University of Florida.

Mrs. O'Neal Speaks Before Ixora Circle

Mrs. Wisdom O'Neal of Ocala, well known flower show judge, spoke to the Ixora Circle of the Sanford Garden Club at the meeting which was held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Perwilliger, Jr., with Mrs. Fred Gagne as hostess.

"Flower Arrangement" was the topic of Mrs. O'Neal's talk, and she composed a simple arrangement for the living room. Many flower arrangements were brought by the club members, and judged by the speaker.

Mrs. Ralph Dean was welcomed as a new member of the circle. Following the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses. Those present were Mrs. Neal R. Angel, Mrs. George D. Hobbins, Jr., Mrs. William Hobbins, Jr., Mrs. C. E. Carlton, Mrs. Fred Gagne, Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. Evelyn Housholder, Mrs. L. H. Johnson, Mrs. Donald Jones, Mrs. T. W. Moran, and Mrs. Walter Moran.

Also Mrs. C. B. Ripley, Mrs. Terwilliger, Mrs. W. E. Vidler, Mrs. R. W. Williams, Mrs. Frank Woodruff, III, Mrs. H. L. Zimmerman, Mrs. James, Mrs. H. H. Sawyer, and Mrs. Dean.

Want to stretch a cup of leftover chicken and a half pound of ground beef so they'll make main dishes for two family meals? Here's how:

CREAMED CHICKEN ON BAKED POTATOES
Ingredients: 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 cup finely chopped green pepper, one 10 1/2 ounce can (1 1/2 cups) condensed cream of chicken soup, 1/2 cup milk, 1 cup diced cooked chicken, 1/2 cup chopped potatoes, 1 baked potato.

Method: Melt butter in a saucepan over low heat, add green pepper and cook a few minutes until just tender. Stir in soup, then milk. Heat slowly, stirring constantly, do not boil. Add chicken and potatoes, continue cooking without boiling about 10 minutes. Split hot baked potatoes lengthwise, stuff with mixture through hollowing. Pour creamed chicken into splits. Makes 1 servings.

TOMATO NOODLE DANDY
Ingredients: 2 1/2 cups uncooked noodles, 2 tablespoons shortening, 1/2 cup chopped onion, 1/2 cup chopped green pepper, 1/2 pound ground beef, one 10 1/2 ounce can (1 1/2 cups) condensed tomato soup, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1 cup of onion shredded American cheese.

Method: Cook noodles in unsalted water until tender, drain. Meanwhile, brown beef, onion, green pepper and beef, wash beef with hot water and drain, and no longer pink. Mix well in soup, mustard, onion, and beef through hole of the cheese. Pour into a lightly greased 1 1/2 quart casserole, top with remaining cheese. Bake in a moderate (350 F.) oven 30 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Note: Part of the meat may be chopped into small meat balls and browned with the rest of the meat. Arrange these meatballs on top of noodle mixture in a casserole before baking for an attractive garnish.

TEEN TALK By VIVIAN BROWN

AP Newsfeatures
Isn't it just about time you stopped pouting because of St. Nick's bringing you all the wrong things?

There was that yellow scarf that rich Uncle Joe sent along, instead of that big red convertible. And how about Aunt Minnie's silly of her wasn't it to send you opera tickets instead of one of those diamond pins she wears?

And, of course, Mom and Pop were your big disappointment. They gave sister Sully all the things you really wanted. So why think anybody for anything? As a matter of fact you were out to Mom and Pop and you've thought about writing a nasty letter to Uncle and Auntie.

Girls who expect more than they get, never enjoy what they receive. The people who really enjoy Christmas are those who find it more fun to give than to receive. Your real enjoyment of the holiday really has been realized by hearing the squeals of delight of grateful recipients of your gifts. You might even learn to like the things you receive if you put the finishing attitude. Strangely enough, girls who love to give usually get the top-center gifts. People enjoy pleasing them, especially.

You can get in the spirit of the idea that you'll be a gracious mood next Christmas by sitting down now and getting off a note to all who remember you.

And do not need to file to the giver, and save about some of that gift, but if you look at the gift in the light of (1) No one is obligated to give you anything and (2) didn't they really give you something they thought you would appreciate and could use to good advantage?

While it is true that a great number of people stuff off gift giving by ordering by telephone any old thing which comes to mind, the majority of people try to plan their gifts to please the recipient.

Now for those thank you notes. Here's one for that uncle who caused you grief.

Dear Uncle Joe,
It was sweet of you to remember me at Christmas with that lovely yellow scarf. I'm sure you must have spent a great deal of time trying to find one that combined beauty and warmth. Best of everything to you in 1952.

Now don't you think Uncle Joe will be even more attentive when he selects your Christmas gift next year, out that you are being mercenary about it, or anything?

To Aunt Minnie, try something like this:
"You are a very thoughtful person indeed. And, of course, I'm going to enjoy "Vada" just what I've always wanted to see." You are sure with your thank you notes if you've left them now, but "better late than never."

Make "thank you" have meaning. When people give you a birthday or shower gift don't tear open the package which has been carefully wrapped. Take the package, unwrap it quickly under the ribbon. Then lift the cover and read the card before you look at the gift.

A person might have spent a great deal of time selecting an appropriate gift and to accompany the gift don't toss it in the waste basket without reading it.

If you'll make a habit of being gracious about the gifts you receive, people will enjoy giving them to you and pretty soon you'll enjoy giving to others as much as you enjoy receiving from them.

Split pea soup makes a hearty morning meal when it is served with sounds of frankfurters. Slice the frankfurters thin and heat them in the soup shortly before serving. Add bread and butter and a salad to the menu and for dessert serve frosted cupcakes or fruit.

Undeclared Seabreeze Faces Seminole Cagers Here Tonite

Sanford Junior High Plays Enterprise In First Contest Of Triple-Header

By KENT CHETLAIN
State champions for the past four years, the Seabreeze quintet of Daytona will take a triple-header basketball card tonight against the Celery Fed varsity starting at 8:30 o'clock in the Seminole High School gymnasium. The powerful Seabreeze V five will tangle with Sanford's Junior Varsity cagers at 7:15 p. m. and the Sanford Junior High School battles Enterprise at 6:00 o'clock.

The Celery Fed, led by center Ginn, has outplayed the undefeated Seabreeze in the past two seasons. The Seminoles have won only two of six contests at the state of the campaign. One of these losses came at the hands of the free scoring Seabreeze in Daytona two weeks ago by a 57-33 score. The Celery Fed jumped off to an early lead in the game but faded as their stringers fouled out. The three highest Seminole scorers Jimmy Smith, Gerald Covington and Wise Hardin, were forced from the game because of fouls.

Playing before a home crowd tonight the Celery Fed might surprise everyone by surpassing their Daytona showing with a stunning upset triumph, but dopsters figure otherwise. On the basis of the last score between these two teams the Seabreeze are a 24-point favorite.

The Seabreeze will employ their three scoring "machines," Dick Lenholt, 6'3" giant center, Jim Forsythe, 6'3" and Bill Bremer at the forward. These three have tallied over 80 per cent of Daytona's points this season. To counter this height advantage, the Celery Fed will use Hardin, 6'4" center, Covington, 6'7", and Warren McCall, 6'1" at the forward. McCall stymied high scoring Forsythe in the first Seabreeze game building the Seabreeze to a mere four points. Forsythe's worst game this season, Bremer made 12 off Covington. The incomparable all-state prospect Lenholt poured in 28 off Hardin.

Hardin will be out to bottle up Lenholt as he did to St. James high point center Pete Mahon. Mahon, a consistent 10 point man, was limited to nine off Hardin's defensive efforts.

Smith and Junior Metts will form the nucleus for defense and play making for the Seminoles tonight, as they did in the earlier Seabreeze encounter. Both guards turned the tide against Daytona's quintet in the last game to keep the Seabreeze from turning the game into a slaughter until they fouled out.

Flamingo's JV squad will be out to protect a low game winning streak they now hold by seeking to average their 15-23 loss to the Seabreeze JV's earlier this month.

The Sanford Junior High School five will try to event the slate in the opener with Enterprise.

Junior High School Battles Enterprise

The Sanford Junior High School basketball team will play its second game contest of the season against Enterprise Junior High as the first game on a three tilt bill at the Seminole High School gym starting at 6:00 A free will offering will be asked of fans for the two teams benefit.

Sanford will be out for vengeance, having lost its only other game to Oviedo 31-19. The cross-lake rivals boast a strong Junior High quintet that is traditional from the little basketball minded community.

Couch Howard Gordie will count on his leading scorer, center Jim Hawkins. Hawkins is only 6'0", but is Sanford's number one scorer.

Jayhawks Retain Lead In AP Cage Poll Of Writers

Illini Receive One More First Place Vote Than Kansas

NEW YORK (AP)—The University of Kansas Jayhawks received one less first place vote than the University of Illinois, but still managed to retain a slim lead today as the nation's No. 1 college basketball team in the Associated Press poll.

Couch F. C. (Phog) Allen's Kansas, who won a 69-66 decision over Nebraska Monday night, received 22 first-place votes and 190 points in the sixth weekly balloting of sports writers and sportscasters. Illinois, which bumped Indiana 78-66 Monday night, received 23 first-place votes and is in the No. 2 spot with 173 points. Both of the leaders are unbeaten. Kansas has won 13 and Illinois 11 games. Monday's games had no bearing on the poll, which closed at noon. Kansas got the No. 1 place by receiving a heavier vote for second and third place. A week ago Kansas held a 38-point lead over Illinois.

Kentucky remained in third place, but otherwise the top 10 was shaken up. Indiana skidded from the No. 4 spot to No. 14 and Seton Hall dropped from No. 9 to No. 12. Ohio State and Iowa 2 spot with 173 points. Both of the leaders are unbeaten. Kansas has won 13 and Illinois 11 games. Monday's games had no bearing on the poll, which closed at noon. Kansas got the No. 1 place by receiving a heavier vote for second and third place. A week ago Kansas held a 38-point lead over Illinois.

Team standings with points figured on a 100-0-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis (First place votes in parentheses):

TEAM POINTS
1. Kansas (22) 190
2. Illinois (23) 173
3. Kentucky (9) 774
4. Iowa (6) 517
5. St. Louis (3) 414
6. St. Bonaventure (9) 426

Stetson's 7-Game Winning Streak Is Stopped By Miami

MIAMI (AP)—Dick Hoffman, Mel Yanuck and Howard Keene led the team to a convincing 88-57 triumph over Stetson's Hatters in the Coliseum Monday night.

Hoffman accounted for 23 points, Yanuck bagged 22 and Keene 21 in the game that was Miami's fourth straight win.

Stetson stayed within four points until the second period a 28-point Miami spree put the Hurricanes far in front to stay.

The loss snapped Stetson's seven-game winning streak and gave Miami fourth place in the state standings, dropping the Hatters to fifth.

NEW MANAGER
MIAMI BEACH (AP)—The Miami Beach Flamingos of the Florida International League came up with a new manager today—Whitney Wyatt, veteran major league pitcher.

General Manager Joe Ryan of the Flamingos announced that Wyatt, for the past two seasons coach of the Atlanta Crackers in the Southern Association, had signed for his first managerial job.

Wyatt will be on parade in the opener of this cage triple-header of year.

Golfers Watch Out! New Rules May Throw You Off On The Links

AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor
NEW YORK—If you haven't played golf yet this year better be prepared to know the new rules. You might meet a stickler for detail in one of those in-attitude-fourness-and-things-could-be-complexified.

Here are the rule changes since last year:
Putter shaft may be fixed at any point in the head.

None of the 14 clubs permissible in a golfer's bag may be borrowed from any other person playing on the course.

Wrist and playing a stroke with any wrong ball except in a hazard entails loss of a hole in match play and two strokes in stroke play.

Drop ball improperly on-lands a one-stroke penalty.

Ball at rest moved by opponent, his caddy or any equipment means a penalty stroke for the opponent.

Out of bounds: Penalty increased to stroke and distance. A clearer interpretation would be better. On a lost or out-of-bounds ball, return nearest the spot from where you hit the ball and add one stroke.

In other words, after an out-of-bounds shot, you would be shooting 3 on your drive. Unplayable ball: You have an option here. You can either return to the spot from where you last hit, but not nearer the hole, or you can drop or place behind the unplayable lie and add two strokes.

Casual water, ground under repair or a hole, cast or runway made by burrowing animal you may lift and drop the ball without penalty as near as possible to the spot where it lay, but not nearer the hole.

OR, under penalty of one stroke, you may drop the ball outside the hazard but not nearer the hole.

When the ball nearer the hole lies on putting green, it may be lifted, if either player considers that it might interfere with or assist a player. (A coin may be used to mark the spot, although this is NOT covered in the rules.)

Local rules: Under the new must conform to the USGA policy. They are added to the club committee.

These, then, are the rule changes as approved by the United States Golf Association. The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland. They were drafted during international conferences last spring and went into effect New Year's Day.

Except for the size of the ball the new rules eliminate all differences previously existing between the USGA and British regulations. Both the U.S. and British balls have a maximum weight of 1.620 ounces but they differ in size. The U.S. ball is not less than 1.680 inches in diameter while the British ball has a diameter of not less than 1.620 inches.

The new rules seem complicated at first, but if you play a fair game of golf you have nothing to worry about. It's the duffer, the guy with the big hook or slice, who will find things tough. It could add ten strokes to the score of a fellow who has trouble keeping his long shots straight. He now gets penalized a stroke and distance when he hits out-of-bounds. Formerly all he lost was distance.

Some wanted to make them uniform throughout the country, some wanted to put them on a strict academic, competitive basis, others wanted to reduce the number, and a few agreed with the ACE committee that scholarships should be banned.

The writers who thought there is no over-emphasis had their say, too.

Lavelle Strickland of the Brunswick, Ga., News, put it this way: "There's too much emphasis on de-emphasis."

Along the lower Rio Grande valley, fossil oysters have been found 80 inches in diameter.

The Navy Department was cited by Act of Congress April 30, 1788.

According to the July, 1950, census report, California had a population of 10,473,548.

Squabbling Baseball Comiskey's Expected To Settle Differences

CHICAGO (AP)—The Comiskey baseball clan, having patched up family squabbles before, again is expected to smooth out its latest and most sensational outburst.

Resignation of young Chuck Comiskey as vice president and secretary of the White Sox.

How it will be done remained a question today which could be answered by Chuck's mother, Mrs. Grace R. Comiskey, president of the club, and the board of directors.

Mrs. Comiskey has called a meeting of the board for Friday. "I don't know what the youngster has in mind," said Mrs. Comiskey. "But we hope to sit down and get things straightened out Friday."

The board appeared to have several alternatives. It could simply refuse to accept the resignation. It could promote the grandson and nameake of the White Sox founder, Charles A. Comiskey, the "Old Roman," to the presidency. It could increase his salary as vice president and secretary through a contractual arrangement.

For a time, the resignation of the young Comiskey would mean the end of the family at the helm of the White Sox.

This plan has as its eventual climax the naming of Young Comiskey as president. He is the last of the males in the family and long has been groomed for the position.

The 25-year-old Comiskey, youngest member of the family and the major league's youngest top executive, Monday announced his resignation through his attorney, Byron M. Getzoff.

The only thing Chuck would say was that it's not so much a matter of salary as of security such as a contract would assure.

Getzoff said Chuck's job was on a day-to-day basis and efforts to negotiate with the directors for a contract providing for a stipulated term of office had failed.

Ranks Of Undeclared College Cage Teams Are Narrowed To 4

NEW YORK (AP)—Four of the five major college basketball teams still sporting an unbeaten season added another victory on the courts Monday night, but for Kansas it was a tight squeak.

Illinois and Iowa, leading the Big 10 race with four league victories, and Duquesne each racked up their 11th triumphs of the campaign without loss. Only St. Bonaventure, with a 9-0 mark, was idle during the night.

Illinois, with a big second-period attack, knocked over Indiana, 78-66. Four Illinois players scored 15 or more points, with a 9-0 mark, was idle during the night.

Iowa, with its best winning streak since the 1922-23 season, ran up a 46-34 halftime lead over Northwestern and went on for a 78-64 triumph over the Wildcats.

Duquesne led all the way to trounce Westminster, 88-58.

Third-ranked Kentucky, with Frank Ramsey scoring 24 points, romped to a 95-55 victory over Georgia, as the Wildcats rang up their 11th victory in 13 games.

Alabama upset Vanderbilt, 63-44, to topple the Commodores from the Southeastern Conference lead. In other SEC games, Mississippi defeated Georgia Tech, 94-84, and LSU routed Mississippi State, 103-70.

Kansas State went to town in the final seven minutes to defeat Oklahoma, 63-51, in a Big Seven contest. In other Big 10 games, Ohio State defeated Purdue, 85-69, and Minnesota topped Michigan, 70-60.

West Virginia made it 10-1 for the season by coasting to a 91-57 Southern Conference victory over Wake Forest. In a non-conference scrap, Louisville rocked William and Mary, 93-63. North Carolina rallied in the last three minutes to beat Davidson in a conference affair, 75-77. Georgia Washington stopped Virginia Tech, 88-74.

Louisiana State whipped Mississippi State in a Southeast Conference game, 103-78, a record score for a LSU team.

Seton Hall rebounded from its defeat by Siena, to whip Eastern Kentucky, 69-52.

In a Pacific Coast Conference match Idaho set back Washington State, 57-49.

ORLANDO (AP)—Tony Vincent, Miami, is favored to repeat champion of the Florida International Tennis Tournament opening here today.

Vincent was given top ranking in seedings made Monday. Henri Rochon, Montreal, Canadian Davis Cup player, was rated second, and Alfredo Millet, Mexico City, and Calhoun Dickson, Tampa, third and fourth. Millet and Dickson are Rollins College students.

In today's matches Rochon, a left hander, faced Monte Crook, Orlando, and Millet met Mike Blanchard, Boston. Vincent and Dickson were not scheduled.

In addition to his salary of $100,000 a year, the President of the United States has a $50,000 expense allowance.

British Welcome Soviet Proposal On Atom Control

Warning Given Not To Expect Quick Solution Of Issues

PARIS, Jan. 14 (AP)—British Minister of State Selwyn Lloyd said today he welcomed unreservedly new proposals for atomic control made by the Soviet Union.

The British delegate warned the United Nations Political Committee, however, not to expect a "sudden or dramatic solution" to East-West tension to result from them.

Lloyd said he was not sure how much nearer this "new formula" brought the Russian position to that of the West and urged further study of it in the U. N.'s recently created Disarmament Commission.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Vishinsky offered Saturday to accept international control of atomic energy at the same time that the atom bomb would be banned. He also offered to accept continuing international inspection of atomic facilities in Russia.

Vishinsky previously had insisted on immediate and unconditional prohibition of the atom bomb and periodic inspection of agreed facilities.

Britain, France and the United States came out Monday with a proposal that these suggestions be considered by the Disarmament Commission.

Kuzman V. Kisselov of White Russia denounced this today as an attempt to give a "first rate burial" to the Soviet plan.

Kisselov said the Russian plan "flows directly from the directives of Joseph Vissarionovich Stalin."

Kisselov said the Russian plan "is a direct challenge to the United States."

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices pointed downward today in the stock market after a four-day advance.

Selling pressure was not pronounced, except in a few cases, but the market had an unmistakable drop.

Dow Chemical lost a little more than two points at times after the company reported profits for six months ended Nov. 30 equal to $2.32 a share compared with $1.16 a share a year ago. Higher taxes and an increased number of outstanding common shares were blamed by the company for the drop.
