Kiwanians Have Ladies Night

Patrons Of Ritz Theatre Will Vote For Personalities

One of the most interesting features of the National Audience Awards election being currently conducted through Nov. 27, in which patrons of the Ritz Theatre will participate, is the selection of the most promising new male and female personalities.

Thousands of aspiring actors and actresses storm the Hollywood studios each year for tests, said Herb Roller, manager of the Ritz Theatre here. Relatively few are signed to contracts, he said, and only a small percentage of these reach stardom.

High cost of film production makes directors reluctant to cast new faces in stellar roles because of the uncertainty of their acceptance by the public. This audience election, Manager Roller said, will give directors a clear-cut indication of what new persons have public appeal.

Moviemakers demand new faces. Casting directors, therefore, are alert for new talent. Since, however, casting directors are not infallible, public expression of its choice among the new personalities is expected to bring to light the hidden potential of many new players and thus accelerate their rise to stardom.

Collins Says Track To Have 'New Look'

LONGWOOD—A vast program of improvements and additions is virtually complete at the Sanford-Kennel Club where Jerry Collins, well-known racing executive has taken over as new operator under a 20-year lease agreement.

Collins says the track will have a "new look" when the 98-day meet opens Dec. 26. Central Florida racing fans can get a preview of the modernized plant during the schooling races which will run for two weeks starting Dec. 12.

A full crew of workmen will be kept busy putting on the finishing touches before the 1935-36 campaign swings into action, but the major jobs have been completed at this early date.

The changes include a new odds board on the backstretch, a new rabbit rail, a completely new racing strip which has been widened and raised almost two feet, a new judge's stand atop the grandstand together with a new photo finish camera booth, a new lighting system both on the track and in the grandstand, a new public address and intercom system plus a complete redecorating and refurbishing job on existing sections of the plant.

Collins makes no effort to hide his pleasure over the results of the sweeping alterations, commenting, "I'm proud of the way things are taking shape, and I believe the fans are going to like it too."

The District Governor of Kiwanis International, Florida District, spoke last night at the annual Ladies Night celebration of the Sanford Kiwanis Club.

Thomas W. McElvy, vice-president of the Hava-Tampa Cigar Company of Tampa, with a 25-year membership in the Kiwanis Club, told an audience of nearly 200 that "you get heartwarming assurance when you see Kiwanis service come in contact with the real need."

Introduced by Lt. Gov. Ralph Austin Smith, McElvy praised the local civic club for its activities. "I know that I am on the sunset side of my year as your District Governor, but I like to praise those who have done exceptional work in carrying out the Kiwanis plan of service."

Speaking on the aims of the Kiwanis Clubs throughout its international organization, McElvy told the Parish House audience. "Since October 12, 1934, I've seen a lot of Kiwanis in action. You get thrills and inspiration out of that service that will come from no other source."

Attending the Sanford Kiwanis Club's Ladies Night event were guests of the local club were Russell A. Cole, of the Downtown Orlando Club, and his wife; Carol Christmas, of the St. Cloud Kiwanis Club, and his wife; and William L. Wright, of the New Smyrna Beach Club, and his wife.

Seated at the head table were Thomas W. McElvy and wife, Ralph A. Smith and wife, Robert Strickland and wife, Roy Brewster, Ed Lane and wife, A. L. Wilson and wife, F. B. Burgess and wife, and Roy Mann and his wife.

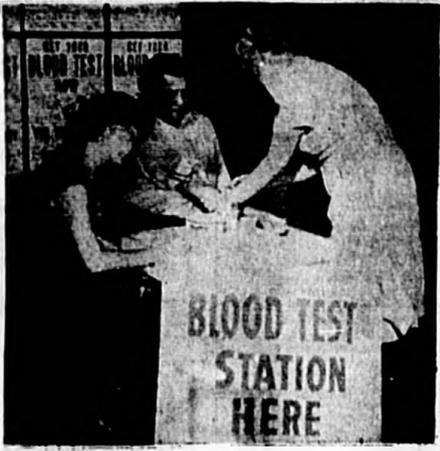

The annual event was climaxed with entertainment staged by Ed Lane. He introduced Julie Byrd and Pat Cosain, who danced and sang their way through an unusually enjoyable portion of the evening. Bill Worth entertained with songs, and Bryant Harrison furnished the laughs with his imitations. Frieda Hillen accompanied the group.

Movieland Ride-In Screen Is Changed To Cinemascope

The widely publicized Cinemascope will become a part of the Movieland Ride-In Theatre Sunday when "The Northmen" is featured on the screen there in a two-day showing with Bert Lancaster and Diana Lynn starred in technicolor.

The brand new screen at the Movieland Ride-In Theatre, 30 feet in width and 30 feet in height, which has been installed along with the modern R. C. A. sound and projection equipment, under the direction of W. D. "Bill" Hoff, mas, RCA Engineer, who is a local resident. The installation was completed by Bedford Electric Company.

The Cinemascope screen is just one of the many modern improvements that has made movie going more enjoyable.

Public's Response In Parade 'Amazing'

Local Outstanding Young Man Of Year To Be Chosen Soon

A search is on for Seminole County's outstanding young man of the year who will receive the Junior Chamber of Commerce Distinguished Service Award.

Official nomination blanks can be picked up at the Jaycee Information Booth at the intersection of North Park Ave. and Seminole Boulevard.

Deadline for balloting in the important selection from the community is Dec. 15. Members of the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce, along with the officials of the organization, urge the citizens of Seminole County to take part in the choosing of the community's outstanding young man of the year.

Herlong Will Return To Capitol Soon

Congressman A. S. (Syd) Herlong Jr., today announced from his Leesburg office that he will return to Washington on Nov. 22 to spend Thanksgiving with his family. He will remain in Washington for the following two weeks to attend executive session hearings of the House Tax Subcommittee of the House Ways and Means Committee, of which he is a member.

Herlong also stated that his Leesburg office will remain open as usual until Dec. 15. The District office will be staffed by Mrs. Audrey C. Williamson and Miss Corrie Weatherly, who will handle any problems which may arise in the District during the Congressman's absence.

Motorists Make S-D Day Successful

Florida motorists are the people who can make Dec. 1 a successful S-D (Safe Driving) Day and with their help all the appeals will fall by the wayside, declared State Highway Patrol Director H. N. Kirkman today.

Kirkman made the statement as he appealed to motorists to join the second annual one day nationwide drive, urging drivers and pedestrians to take it easier on their feet toward the hospital and the graveyard.

"We will have with us two kinds of drivers and two kinds of pedestrians on Dec. 1, the same as every other day in the week—careful motorists and the do-it-yourselfers, but behind the steering wheel; the two types of pedestrians, will be there too, the quick and the dead."

"So, while it behooves us never to pass up the opportunity to appeal to you to save your life, nationally, we have set aside Dec. 1 as the day when we beg just a little harder."

Earlier, in an appeal, Gov. Collins said: "The purpose of S-D Day is to show that motorists and pedestrians can reduce traffic accidents by their own actions and that if accidents can be reduced on one day, they can also be reduced on every day of the year."

"In other words," said Kirkman, "drive and walk the way you'd want others to drive and walk." Three died, fifty-six were injured in 182 accidents in Florida during the same 24-hour period last year.

1 Arrest Recorded

Only one traffic arrest was recorded in the Seminole County Sheriff's office yesterday morning. Deputy Sheriff A. E. Evans charged Moses Edwards of Sanford, a negro laborer, with excessive speed. According to the report by Evans, Edwards was traveling at a speed up to 80 miles per hour at 6:30 p. m. yesterday, 10 miles east of Sanford on State Road 61.

Seminole County Blood Test Survey Is Launched Today

With the testing of John W. Meisch, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, the Seminole County Blood Test Survey was officially launched today. The survey, which is being conducted to detect cases of diabetes and syphilis among persons who are not aware of their conditions, will continue through Saturday, Dec. 1.

On the first two days of the survey the blood testing teams will be in operation at various points in Midway, Canaan, Rowland Park and in Lake Monroe from 4 p. m. until 8 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 19, the survey will be in operation in Sanford with testing stations set up on South Sanford Ave. and on West 13th St. from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m.

During the second week of the survey, the teams will be operating in the Gold Coast and Georgetown sections of Sanford, while the third week will be devoted to the other communities in the county and in downtown Sanford. A complete schedule for the three week testing stations will be released at a later date.

Everyone in the county is urged to take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to find out for sure about his health at no cost to himself during this blood test campaign.

Florida's Sale Of U.S. Savings Bonds Increasing

October continued the year's trend of record breaking purchases of U. S. Savings Bonds according to W. A. Patrick, Chairman of the Seminole County Volunteer Savings Bonds Committee.

"Sales in Florida were $6,070,942, an increase of 23 per cent over last year and the highest sales for the month since 1918," his report said, "and brings our state sales to $24,676,428 for the year to Oct. 31."

"While Florida seems assured of reaching its quota of $78,000,000 with 29 1/2 per cent of it already in and two months still to go," Patrick added, "national figures, according to previous years' sales patterns, are falling somewhat short of the $5 1/2 billion objective set by the Treasury for 1935. About $50 million of additional sales will be needed to reach the national goal, Patrick said."

"We have had stable prices for the past three years, the overall cost of living showing less than 1 per cent fluctuation," Patrick pointed out, "and are now enjoying the highest level of personal income in history, and we hope the American people will put away in Savings Bonds enough of their earnings to meet the Treasury's needs."

J. S. Owen Reports For Squadron Duty

The squadron provides aerial photographic reconnaissance in the fleet, and detachments serve aboard attack aircraft carriers when required by Navy commitments.

Robert R. Mahan Opens New Offices For Loan Company

An Orono, Ky. man in Sanford since Oct. 3 today opens new offices in the Meisch Building for his loan company formed recently.

Robert R. Mahan, with 19 years experience in the needs and wants of borrowers, opens the Seminole Loan Corporation at 202 Meisch Building today.

"My organization is that of a small loan company issuing loans up to $500."

Mahan said that "I have been coming to Florida for several years and in passing through great like the city." He added, "I have been in correspondence too, with the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce for the past eight or nine months."

"The progress of the city of Sanford and its area as well as the forward looking future here helped convince me that I wanted to come to Sanford and grow with growing community," Mahan, who is president of the Seminole Loan Corporation, said.

Mahan, who is married, has already moved his family to Sanford and has purchased a home at 2600 Key Ave. With him are his wife Beba and nine-year-old daughter, Ann.

The 38-year-old loan company executive was formerly connected with the Interstate Finance Corporation for 19 years where he gained a thorough knowledge of the borrower's needs.

"I came to Sanford just ahead of the busy Christmas season when we can best serve the needs of the local citizen," Mahan said.

The new local executive said that he is a member of the Elk's Club, the Masonic Order, American Legion No. 8, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The walls of offices in the Meisch Building have been attractively furnished and equipped. The modern fixtures are designed for private consultations.

Lattimore Stresses Vegetables, Fruits Must Be Inspected

At a well-attended meeting of the Seminole County Farm Bureau Tuesday night, Florida Department of Agriculture Regional Supervisor R. Lattimore stressed the inspection of fruits and vegetables headed for markets throughout the country.

Following a covered dish supper served in the Fulton Farmers Building at Seminole High School more than 75 members of the Seminole County Organization greeted their new Board of Directors elected at a previous meeting. The new Seminole County Farm Bureau Board of Directors are: W. W. Ling, president; Charles Lawson, vice president; Homer Carter, secretary-treasurer; Elmer Mitchell, chairman of public relations; and Tom McLean, R. P. Roschick, and P. H. Paster, as members. Ling and Carter are serving their fourth terms in office.

C. L. West, of the Florida Citrus and Vegetable Division, to bear out the statement made by R. Lattimore of the Florida Department of Agriculture told the members, "inspection of fruits and vegetables is entirely voluntary and benefits the farmer."

An award was presented to the local farm organization on behalf of the American Farm Bureau Federation for the part played in the recent drive for a local farm membership. The Seminole County Farm Bureau has 250 members at present.

Reports from Homer Carter and Tom McLean on the state convention held in Tallahassee were heard. The two local farm men represented the Seminole County association.

Officials point out that many of the Florida Farm Bureau signs with members name on them have not as yet been picked up. All members are urged to get their signs at the next meeting.

Florida Rapidly Is Changing Face

Florida, which has the oldest history and the newest population of any state in the union, is rapidly changing face.

Author Budd Schulberg makes this statement in the December issue of Holiday Magazine, and writes further that the fusion of the Old South and the restless North is rapidly producing a new kind of State.

In the feature article, entitled "The New Florida", Schulberg discusses the spectacular Florida growth and the well publicized tourist trade that account for the boom which can be felt throughout the entire state.

The feature presentation covers the history and development of the state from its sleepy, subtropical beginnings to its flourishing present with four hundred of the most luxurious hotels in the world creating a gleaming seven-mile Gold Coast along Miami and Miami Beach.

We Are For More Florida Tags On Automobiles In Our Community

We are surprised at the number of "foreign" license tags roaming Sanford and the Sanford Area that should be replaced with Florida license tags.

So many of the owners of these cars, usually pretty big ones too, are gainfully employed which requires that a Florida license tag be purchased.

If an investigation could be conducted to find out how many of these out-of-state tags were being used by gainfully employed persons, we believe that everyone would benefit.

In the first place, the person buying the tag would benefit by knowing that he or she is paying their way as they work in the Florida community. Secondly, the State and County would benefit by the boost in income to take care of roads, and bridges, the indigent and other outlets for money received by the State's tag department.

We all believe that if a person is able to own a fine car, drive it around at random to enjoy Florida at its best, and work for high wages, then he should be able to buy a license tag for that car.

A crackdown on these tag dodgers should be conducted immediately and every automobile owner or operator, working here in Florida compelled to buy the necessary tag to justify their employment.

We're sure that other states are quite forceful in the requiring of automobile owners to have the proper tag on their cars, evidenced by the number of tags from the northern communities which bear down on them.

If there is a tag inspector in Sanford or this area, he should forthwith get behind the tag dodgers that are not bearing their share of the load. The age-old story that, "I'm just visiting here" is a ruse that's been used too often.

Nothing should keep the tag inspector, sheriff's deputies, highway patrolmen, and local city patrolmen from cracking down on these violators.

Certainly, one would be stopped immediately if he were caught taking something that did not belong to him. This tag jumper is in the same category, he's taking something that doesn't belong to him.

We're for more Florida tags on automobiles in our community.

Of course we're happy to see our winter visitors here with us and we're not including them in the tag jumpers, nor do we have reference to our servicemen.

We know that they stay with us over the months and become Florida Crackers, they too will be wearing the best looking tag in the country on the back of their cars.

Ed McKinley's picture was in the Fort Pierce News Tribune the other day. He was diked out in an apron and all the accoutrements of a cook. Mrs. McKinley was looking on as he ladled up some of his cooking to be tasted by a high school home economics teacher. Rev. McKinley has many ways of putting over the rich truths that he teaches from the pulpit.

We were reminded recently of how right we were in asking for a "Parental Responsibility Law" when J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation recently told the International Association of Chiefs of Police, meeting in Washington, D. C. that "the alarming situation regarding juvenile theft might be 'quickly remedied' if parents were held legally and financially responsible for the criminal acts of their children."

There's one city in the United States that charges a nickel for an hour over-parking, 25c for all day, and from then on the charges are $1.00 a day. Frankly, we like the Sanford method. You're more likely to find a parking place downtown.

Russell W. Ballard, member of the National Council of American Parents Committee (which is the first time we knew that parents were organized), said recently, in a broadcast of the Town Meeting of the Air that, "We are not expecting too much of our youth when we expect them to grow into well balanced, emotionally mature adults capable of becoming contributing members of society when we consider that great majority being reared in good homes with understanding parents who are meeting the basic needs of their children. On the other hand," he warned, we are expecting too much of growing children when we expect them to adjust satisfactorily to a hostile environment, where they first experience rejection in the cradle and later meet frustration on crowded streets and find only unhappiness and failure at school."

Alexander Dumas, the younger, back in 1857, had the right words for something we've been searching for for a long time. The definition of business, he said, "Business? It's quite simple. It's other peoples money."

We're certainly back of that move to organize bicycle clubs among the youngsters so that they can be taught the good habits of bicycle riding. Streets have been blocked on recent mornings with young bicycle riders, four abreast, making their way to school on the wrong side of the street.

Too Late To Classify

Florida is a lady of amazing charm and the older she gets the more attractive she becomes.

1954 gives promise of being her best year from the standpoint of tourist, industrial development and business in general.

Recent surveys made in popular tourist centers show hotel and motel reservations ahead of last year with more visitors in the state now than at this time a year ago.

Chambers of commerce and industrial boards report greater interest on the part of industrialists seeking a location.

Transportation companies are all adding equipment to meet the steadily increasing traffic demand. Eastern Air Lines expects a 30 per cent increase in Florida travel this season. National Airlines and Delta C&S are even more optimistic and anticipate a 25 per cent increase.

Pan American World Airways is experiencing a steady flow of traffic to Latin American points, most of which funnels through Florida, and see an increase of at least 10 per cent this winter.

All this air travel hasn't hurt the railroads either. The Florida East Coast and Seaboard Airline Railroads are planning to place in service new stainless steel pullmans with glass-observation facilities, similar to those that have been used on Western roads with such success.

Trailer parks are optimistic, too, and many in resort areas report an unusual number of early arrivals. Folks are planning to stay in Florida longer this season, they report.

New attractions costing millions are rapidly being developed. The newest of these is Sunshine Springs and Gardens at Sarasota that hopes to open shortly. When completed it will cost around $4,000,000. The new Esplanade in Miami opened last month and has been drawing a splendid attendance with prospects for a big winter season.

Horse and dog tracks are readied, and stall space at such tracks as Hialeah, Tropical Park, Gulfstream and Sunline Park is at a premium. About 1,500 thoroughbreds will campaign in Florida during the horse racing season.

Most transportation companies, hotels and attractions have stepped up their advertising programs and the total sums into millions of dollars invested in colorful poster boards, magazine and newspaper space. The Florida Development Commission is doing a splendid job with the limited funds at its command and is developing Florida's tourism at an amazing low cost.

Add to this the advertising promotion in national mediums of the Florida Citrus Commission, Minute Maid and other agricultural enterprises, and it means that Florida will be getting more public attention than ever before.

Commenting on the outlook, Governor LeRoy Collins expressed gratification at the united effort evidenced by all agencies and industries in selling Florida, and looks forward with confidence to continued sound constructive development and ever-increasing travel to the state.

While our roads are being improved so rapidly as financing permits, we are still hard pressed to care for increased motor travel. Parking remains a difficult problem in most communities, with the need for more throughways evidenced.

Building continues brisk with sales of new homes keeping pace. Everything looks rosy for the months ahead.

Warren May Get Indigestion!

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chief Justice Earl Warren can hardly escape some political indigestion if he ever tries to eat the words he used in saying he is not a presidential candidate. They were pretty emphatic.

He said his decision was "irrevocable" under any "circumstances or conditions." President Eisenhower sounded pretty emphatic too back in early 1948, four years before he ran, in saying he wouldn't run. He said he was "positive."

In 1952, before he accepted the Democratic nomination, Adlai Stevenson said he didn't want it. But his statements, looking back on them now, didn't sound as convincing as Warren's or Eisenhower's. He never quite closed the door.

Whether Warren likes it or not—and he is reported to have told friends privately he doesn't like it a bit and won't change his mind—he is constantly being mentioned as the man the Republicans may have to call on in 1956.

Warren made his renunciation of political ambitions back in April 1955 when there was still reason to believe Eisenhower would seek a second term. It was before the President's heart attack made it unlikely he would, or could, run again.

If Eisenhower doesn't run, and if the Republicans think their only chance is with Warren, he will be under heavy pressure to change his mind. He hasn't been asked publicly what he would do if his party drafted him in 1956.

The 64-year-old Warren, in politics since 1933 and three times governor of California, was made chief justice of the United States by Eisenhower in 1953.

He issued the following statement last April after a nationwide poll reported he was the top choice of Republican and independent voters if Eisenhower decided not to run:

"My name has been used as a possible candidate for the presidency. This has been a matter of embarrassment to me because it reflects upon the performance of my duties as chief justice of the United States.

"When I accepted that position, it was with the fixed purpose of serving the public permanently for the rest of my life. It is irrevocable. I will not change it under any circumstances or conditions.

"Be they few or many, the remaining useful years of my life are dedicated to the service of the Supreme Court of the United States, in which work I am increasingly happy."

When a "draft-Eisenhower" move got underway in 1947, the General said, "I don't want any thing to do with politics." He went even further than that with a lengthy statement — on Jan. 23, 1948 — part of which said: "My decision to remove myself completely from the political scene is definite and positive . . . I could not accept nomination even under the remote circumstances that it was tendered me . . . I am not available for and could not accept nomination to high political office."

But after the 1948 elections, when he was again being mentioned as a candidate in 1952, he sounded a little less "positive" than in 1948 and finally ran. Stevenson was governor of Illinois in April 1952 when he was being looked at as a likely Democratic nominee. He said then "I could not accept the nomination" because he wanted to run for another term as governor.

He kept saying that practically up to the moment he was nominated, and accepted, in the summer of 1952.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

"Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me . . . for without me ye can do nothing." —John 15:4-5.—Such is the pride which alienates the creature from his Creator. God may smile, but more likely He weeps, to see His children cockily strike out for themselves, disavowing their dependence upon Him. For in so doing they accuse as a liar Him Who said, "Without me ye can do nothing."

WAL BOYLE

Motto Of This Fable Is...

NEW YORK (AP)—A fable: An old man in a small boat by the fringe of a river leading to the sea was patiently setting minnows.

Time had made him a philosopher of sky and land and water. A boy rowed up to him and said, "Teach me to catch whales."

"Why bother, Angelo, is a tuna fisherman," explained the boy, "but I do not wish to fish for the sea. I want to catch a whale."

"I have your father, and I understand why he doesn't search for the whale," replied the philosopher. "But why did he send you to me?"

"I don't know," said the boy, "but my father said if I couldn't be happy with tuna and fish, the whale I should go for. He says he learned from the old man. Can you help me?"

"I have your father, he was a philosopher, and I also know why he never hunted the whale," said the philosopher, "he thought, 'And I know why he sent you to me.'"

The boy, now grown to young manhood, left him. He sought and found the blowing whale.

Years later, in middle age, drowsing on one log, the boy came back to the philosopher, and not a word he said he sent him forth: "You have learned all I can teach you about what must be done. Nothing is left for you to do."

"I'm that of being wiser. You never searched for whales yourself, did you? Why not?"

And the old man answered steadily: "Yes. The motto of the minnow taught me all I needed to know. But some people have to dare the whale. Each must learn in the only way he can find it out."

The other fishermen watched and wondered as the old, old philosopher and his former scholar resumed the setting of minnows, rippling the stream with echoes of uproarious laughter at times as they discussed the ambitions of whales and mankind. But they never went for tuna.

Let The Doctor Decide

By HERMAN H. HUNDEIN, M.D.

ARE you confused about anti-histamine drugs? Which one will do this, which will do that and which will do just about everything?

Well, with all the talk about antihistamines these days, I don't blame you. So, before you dash out to buy this or that drug, let me give you a few words of caution.

Histamine, you see, is a chemical which is normally present in your body. In some persons, it is the factor involved in allergic conditions such as hay fever, hives and other sensitivities.

Chemical Reaction An antihistamine drug, then, is a compound designed to combat this chemical reaction in your body which may make you more sensitive than others to specific conditions.

These drugs have a useful place in curing certain conditions if properly handled under competent medical supervision.

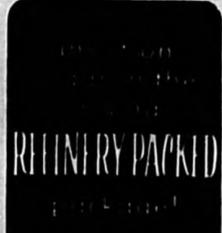

Since many of them produce side effects in certain individuals, they can cause injury in various ways. Side effects such as nausea, headache, vomiting, drowsiness and poor coordination, for example, can make it unsafe for you to drive a car.

Barbiturates and antibiotics must also be handled very carefully. Occasionally, it becomes necessary for a doctor to prescribe a sedative, but you all know that sleeping pills and powders can be very harmful if they become a habit. When your body and mind are functioning normally, you have no need for drugs to make you sleep.

As for the antibiotics, there are many of them, all working differently in various conditions. Because they produce different reactions, it's of the utmost importance that they be administered and supervised by the individual's physician.

Flamboyant advertising on drugs is a signal to be cautious. And be especially suspicious of anything presented in a "wall-to-wall" manner.

C. Speiser Whips Young Last Night In Second Round

CHICAGO (AP) — Chuck Speiser's confidence, as well as his ranking as a light heavyweight contender, got a boost last night when he made quick work of veteran Paddy Young.

The muscular former NCAA champion from Michigan State floored the experienced Young with a left hook in the first round and felled him three times in the second before referee Frank Gilmer stopped the slaughter at 2:45.

A ringside gathering of 1,411 fans, contributing to a net gate of only $1,720 at Chicago Stadium, and a national television audience watched Speiser gain a probable next shot at Floyd Patterson in his campaign for Archie Moore's lightweight crown.

Truman Gibson, secretary of the International Boxing Club, said he thought Patterson top ranked contender, and Speiser, rated No. 9 before meeting Young, would make a fine match later this winter with the winner earning a chance at Moore.

Comiskey, Rigney Will Run White Sox

CHICAGO (AP) — Chuck Comiskey and John Rigney officially will run the Chicago White Sox, the office of general manager being eliminated.

Farm director Rigney was named a vice president yesterday at the club's annual meeting of stockholders. Comiskey already carried that action, in effect, designates Rigney and Comiskey as successors.

Frank Lane, resigned general manager who left the club after the 1953 season to take a similar post with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Rigney, one-time White Sox pitcher, married the former Dorothy Comiskey Mrs. Rigney was re-elected Sox secretary-treasurer and her and Chuck's mother, Mrs.

Butts, Enright Will Coach South Squad In All-Star Game

MIAMI (AP) — Georgia's Wally Butts and South Carolina's Rex Enright will coach the South squad in the 23rd Shrine's all star North-South football game in the Orange Bowl Dec. 26.

Game director Andy Gustafson announced yesterday that Butts had accepted the invitation to direct the Texas squad, with Enright to assist.

Butts has coached the Georgia Bulldogs for 17 years and Enright has been at South Carolina 18 years. Butts helped Coach the 1953 squad that shot out the North, 20-0.

Hugh Daugherty of Michigan State, who has signed to coach the North team, might wind up in the Rose Bowl if Ohio State wins over Michigan Saturday. In that event Michigan State might get the Rose Bowl Bid.

An assistant to Daugherty has not been named, pending outcome of Saturday's games.

Women's Golf Assn. To Be Mayfair Inn Guests Next Week

The Sanford Women's Golf Association will be guests of the Mayfair Inn at their next luncheon meeting Nov. 24.

All members of the association are cordially invited to attend the meeting which will be followed by the regular tournament played each week at this time.

Frank Mebane Jr., manager of the Mayfair Inn will be guest speaker at the luncheon meeting when he will discuss the $15,000 PGA Tournament to be played in Sanford at the Mayfair Inn Seminole County Club Dec. 15-18.

Mebane is expected to explain to the members of the Sanford Women's Golf Association, the many details concerning the "Mayfair Inn Open", and solicit their help in carrying out the plans for the event.

The Mayfair Inn manager is also slated to tell the ladies what they can do to make the annual event a complete success.

Pro Player May Be Hired As Full Time FSU Football Scout

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — A report that a well known professional player may be hired as a full time football talent scout by Florida State University gave added interest to tonight's Board of Control meeting here.

The Florida Times-Union reported that Hugh "Bones" Taylor, former star end with the Washington Redskins, was the man under consideration for the post.

There is also possibility the board will discuss Coach Bob Woodruff's future at the University of Florida during its two-day session being held during FSU homecoming.

Bill Kastela, sports editor of the Times-Union, had this to say about Taylor in his column today: "Taylor, a participant in the coaching clinic at FSU last summer, made quite an impression on athletic officials there, we are told.

"His contacts, both in the United States and Canada are many and his personality is a winning one.

"It is no secret that head Coach Tom Nugent has wanted a full time 'bird-dog' ever since he came to Tallahassee and Taylor appears to be the answer."

Dr. Howard G. Danford, FSU athletic director, would say only that "no appointment has been made."

The Board of Control has to pass on such athletic personnel.

Pros Play New Game

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Sammy Baugh once said that playing quarterback in the National Football League was like sitting in a rocking chair the easiest way he knew of making a living.

Today's occupants of that so-called rocking chair say it ain't so. To be a top flight quarterback in the NFL today, you have to run, not sit. The concept of quarterbacking among the pros has changed almost completely.

Baugh and Sid Luckman were two of the greatest — if not the greatest — ever to pitch a ball in the NFL. They played in the standard T formation, moving back into the pocket protected by bruising linemen. They didn't have to run, only pass.

A check of the records shows that Baugh in 15 years with the Washington Redskins gained a total of 140 yards on the ground. Luckman carried the ball 205 times in his pro career for the Chicago Bears and lost 204 yards. These figures are cited to show how the game has changed.

Today, more and more of the pro coaches are adopting the split T which calls for a versatile quarterback one who can exercise the option of pass or run. Those quarterbacks who don't run, with one or two exceptions, are piloting losing teams.

FSU Slowing Down Football Drills

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Florida State began tapering off on its football drills today for the homecoming clash Saturday afternoon with Utdel.

Coach Tom Nugent sent the Tribe through a long defensive drill yesterday and said they'd work only in sweat clothes today.

Nugent forecast that "Although we'll probably be in the favorite's role, we think we're in for a tougher game than a lot of people may be imagining."

He pointed out that the Charleston, S.C. school has won five games while losing only three and "they're improving all the time."

Florida State will enter Saturday's game without the services of halfback Tat Versprille, the squad's best kicker. Versprille injured his hip against Villanova here two weeks ago.

The statistics listed each week by the NFL reveal that the pros are playing a new game. More teams are using the running game and their quarterbacks are helping to carry the ground gaining burden. The latest figures show six teams have gained more on the ground than through the air. Several others have recorded a run and pass.

END MEN By Alan Meyer

NCAA Service Bureau Statistics Show Army With an Average Yield of 72.3 Yards, with Maryland Second at 76.7.

The Carletons who choked off Penn with a total push pass gain of 71 yards, continued on top in total defense, allowing 129.3 yards a game.

Navy was tumbled from the pass defense lead by Columbia. The Midies had allowed just 8 completions in 81 attempts for 226 yards before running into the Lions Claude Benham. With Benham doing most of the pitching, Columbia hit 18 of 26 for 161 yards, although bowing (47-0).

They topped Navy's air yield from 32.3 to 48.4 yards a game — no better than fourth best after Florida (41.8), George Washington (45.0) and Nebraska (45.6).

UCLA really crumpled in its specialty against Washington. The once-beaten Uclians had been driving for their second straight shut in scoring defense, allowing just 33 points in eight games. Then Washington broke loose for a near upset that left UCLA barely ahead 19-17.

UCLA, which allowed just 40 points last season, tumbled to third with a 5.8-point-a-game average. Georgia Tech on top with 4.8, followed by Navy's 5.4.

The crack stoopchaser Galati and is owned by Carlton Palmer of New Canaan, Conn.

Grace Comiskey, was re-elected president.

The new farm system director to replace Rigney will be announced later.

Hurth Is Pleased With Next Year's Class AA Prospects

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The president of the Southern Association appeared pleased at next year's prospects in the Class AA baseball circuit.

"I feel we will have one of the best seasons in 1956 that we have had in years," Charlie Hurth of New Orleans said at the close of the league's midwinter meeting here yesterday.

Directors voted to cut the player rosters from 19 to 18 and adopted next year's schedule. They also reduced the maximum from 22 to 19 players for the first 30 days of the season and from 20 to 19 for the rest of the season.

The 1956 schedule calls for opening the season Tuesday, April 10, and closing Sept. 8, the Sunday following Labor Day.

Sterling Hayden Has Two Careers

HOLLYWOOD A—Sterling Hayden, film star and ex-Marine, has another career cut out for him: bringing up his four small children all by himself.

Last summer, Hayden divorced his wife, the former Betty de Noux, after a series of battles. He retained custody of their four children—Larry, 7, Dana, 6, Gretchen, 5, and Matt, 3. For a year, the lawless rugged actor has been acting as mother and father to this lively quartet.

"It hasn't been easy," he remarked at his roomy Sherman Oaks home. The place was decorated with corn stalks and pumpkins, remnants of a big Halloween party he had conducted for the kids. (He later took his brood on their trick-or-treat rounds.)

"First of all, we had to get established as a family," Hayden explained. "I took the entire summer off. For four months I didn't work because I thought it was best to spend as much time with them as I could."

"At first I thought of taking an island cabin in the Puget Sound. But I realized at their age they didn't care much about scenery."

"What they need most was a home life. So I stayed here with them and we played ball and swam in the pool and had a good time."

Hayden said his work was ideal for rearing his brood. Now that the kids are in school—Matt goes to nursery school, the others to public grammar school—the actor is making three pictures a row. He's now working on "Bed of Fear."

At present he is being helped by his mother-in-law and a young woman. When Hayden comes home from the studio, he takes over. He also helps get the kids off to school in the morning.

The only real solution to his problem he admitted, was finding a permanent mother for the children. But it's hard to find an eligible girl who wants to undertake a ready-made family. His divorce decree does not become final until next August.

Hayden takes his parental duties seriously. He attends PTA meetings.

"I read to them at night," he said. "Lately it's 'Call of the Wild.' I was afraid it would be too old for them, but they eat it up. I also tell them stories of my own. When I have to be away on location, I put them on the tape recorder to be played in my absence."

The Snapshot Guild

A pocket viewer enables you to enjoy your color slides—any time, any place.

Carry Your Favorite Color Slides With You

Not long ago we heard someone remark that they always felt a little bit cheated when their friends took out wallet prints of the baby to show—this feeling resulting from the fact that he couldn't show off his own youngsters. He took pictures of them, regularly, but with a camera and film that produced beautiful 2x2 color transparencies.

So, we introduced him to one of the little accessory items that can add so much pleasure to your photographic efforts—the pocket viewer. Now he carries this handy little gadget, with a box of his newest slides. So when his friends start comparing the snapshots they carry in their wallets, he's ready to show his transparencies.

Half the fun of picture-taking is being able to share them with others. That's the reason we are always suggesting that you have extra prints made of your best pictures. That way, you can mount them in your album as soon as you get them back from the photo-finisher—thus insuring against loss—and at the same time have prints to carry with you or to give away.

Most wallets these days have special compartments for snapshots and cards, but for those who want only cards in that space, there are neat little folders with transparent pockets in which you can keep your favorite snapshots ever with you in pocket or purse.

It's a custom about which we sometimes chuckle, but nevertheless one we all enjoy.
—John Van Guilder

Some Of Today's Mothers Should Be Spanked Says Rosie

AP Women's Editor

Some of today's mothers ought to be spanked, says Rosemary Clooney, singing star of movies and pop records, mother herself.

"I have no use for mothers who spend all their time trying to get away from their children, after they have them," says the blue who in private life is Mrs. Jose Ferrer. "I'd die—just simply die—if I couldn't see Miguel every day, and as many times a day as possible. He's not a pet to be kept in a cage, he's a part of the family group."

Miguel is the husky 9-month-old son of the Ferrers, and to date he is one of the most traveled infants in the country. He had his own passport at the age of 4 months. He has accompanied his parents to England, back to New York, on to Chicago and California. In a few weeks he will be taking off again, with mom and pop, for Spain.

"I believe a baby's place is not in the nursery, but in the living room," says Rosemary. "We have Miguel in the living room."

The question of what to do with Miguel arose last summer, when Rosemary was booked to play the Palladium in London.

"I went to our pediatrician," says Rosemary, "and asked him if it would be all right to take Miguel along. He said he wouldn't advise it. So I said, 'Isn't it more important for a baby to be with his parents than to be kept safe but lonely in a sterilized nursery?'"

"Then the doctor agreed with me, and so Miguel became a world traveler."

Hospitality Reigns On Day of Thanks

Mrs. Hostess of 1955... Just as Mrs. Hostess at the first Thanksgiving in 1621... extends bountiful hospitality on this great day of celebration. Families gather along with old friends and newcomers, to express gratitude for their blessings.

As in days of old, the festive board still remains the symbol of this holiday. Your table is spread with enticing delicacies. And its harvest of good food resembles the earth's harvest season, with all its wealth and beauty.

This is one day when you lavish all efforts on preparing a splendid feast. Treasured recipes come out and hours fly as you stir and bake. Your menu for this feast brims over with prize "estables." From the royal bird, roasted to golden glory to that proud beauty, spicy pumpkin pie.

And how shall you open the festivities? Fine old tradition says a bowl of soup. Delicately appetizing and so fragrant, perhaps served in the living room before the major event.

Select a deluxe specialty soup from the canned ones. Hearty chicken rice. Hearty bouillon. Stout, hearty onion soup. Grace it with your own imaginative garnish.

Maybe one of these: On Chicken Rice, use elegant sliced stuffed olives. Or sliced roasted almonds, chopped pecans or other nuts. Ribbons of pimiento are pretty also, as are small green grapes.

To garnish Bouillon, cut little flower shapes or strips from orange peel. These float like a dream. Or take your choice of celery strips, carrot coins, chopped black olives, a bit of butter or a puff of sour cream.

Onion Soup takes favorably to a tupper of crisp raw apple, complete with the bright red skin. Or stick to the traditional crostons with grated cheese.

Drink up the soup (or spoon it, as you prefer). And launch into Thanksgiving with joyful spirits all around.

SOUP SCOOPS
"Molten" V8 With Seasoners: Appetizer time turns thoughts to V8 juice. For fun, give it a bit of zip with special seasoners such as hot Tobacco sauce or Worcester-shire sauce. These lend a sippy flavor that's pleasing and intriguing. The family will smack their lips with pleasure at this rich red vegetable beverage.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

Most Americans like variety in our TV meals, changes from the ordinary that will be interesting and delightful. And what better time to ring in a nice change on your family than at Sunday dinner. Accordingly, the A & P Service For Homemakers suggests this different recipe for sweet corned beef for your Sunday main dish this week. Makes 12 to 16 servings.

Buy a boned veal shoulder and cut it so that meat forms one large flat piece. Place this side down on a flat surface and spread a mixture of the following seasonings on the meat: half teaspoon poultry seasoning; half teaspoon salt; quarter teaspoon paprika; and eighth teaspoon pepper. Arrange eight or ten slices of trimmed bread on the meat. Librally spread the bread with one cup peach or apricot preserves and sprinkle three-fourths cup of coarsely chopped nut meats over the top. Roll as for a jelly roll and secure with string in several sections. Place on a rack in a smoking pan and roast in a moderate oven for about three hours.

For dessert this time of year what could be nicer than pumpkin pie. Line a nine-inch pie pan with pastry dough. Mix two cups cooked and strained pumpkin together with one cup milk and add three beaten egg yolks. Add cup of sugar mixed with the following: one and one-fourth teaspoons cinnamon; quarter teaspoon ginger; quarter teaspoon nutmeg; teaspoon salt and teaspoon vanilla. Fold in three stiffly beaten egg whites and turn into pie shell. Bake in a moderate oven 45 minutes.

Q. What is the name of these pieces of meat?
A. Lamb ribs.

Q. Where do they come from and how are they identified?
A. They come from the lamb breast and are made by cutting between the ribs. Each riblet is a rectangular strip of meat containing a part of a rib bone.

Q. How are they prepared?
A. They may be cooked by broiling or by cooking in liquid as for a stew. To broil, the riblets are browned thoroughly in 2 or 3 tablespoons of lard or drippings, then from 1/2 to 3/4 cup of liquid is added, the meat is covered and simmered until tender. For a stew, the riblets are completely covered with water, then simmered in a covered stewed until tender, approximately 1 1/2 hours.

Ceremony Slated At Local Church Sunday Afternoon

Sunday at 2:30 p. m. is set for the Consecration Ceremony of the Congregational Christian Church in order to allow people from other churches and the general public to attend the service.

Ground was broken for the new house of worship in November, 1951, and the church occupied last November. The pastor, chairman of the board of the deacons and trustees and the clerk will participate in putting the records in the cornerstone before the marble tablet is affixed. This will be at the north entrance of the church on South 24th St. adjoining Park Ave., after the speaking in the church has taken place.

Three talks of eight minutes each are to be given by the Rev. Rankin L. Shrevebury, pastor of the Daytona Beach Congregational Christian Church, who is from Orlando and a graduate of Rollins College; Fred Esslinger, the sole surviving charter member of the church; and Supt. William N. Tuttle of the Florida Congregational Christian Conference.

All are cordially invited.

THE PUBLIC IS cordially invited to attend the annual meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce to be held at the Mayfair Inn Tuesday, Dec. 6, will bring to his Seminole County audience some of the rare experiences in his business that take him around the nation.

Herald To Publish Series Of Articles On Charter Of City

Citizens of Sanford can have a complete copy of the Charter of the City of Sanford, Fla. by keeping the clippings and sections of the charter appear in The Sanford Herald beginning Monday afternoon.

The sections of the Charter of Sanford, appearing in The Herald, will be of the same approximate length making possible an orderly seraphook of the document which can be referred to by pages.

Sanford's charter appears in a booklet of 68 pages in its distributed form with 178 sections. It became effective in 1949 with House Bill No. 1136, Laws of Florida Acts of 1949.

To keep abreast of daily happenings within the structure of Sanford's city government, and to be familiar with the reasons for many actions, citizens should know the City Charter and the provisions laid down in the legal document which guides the city in its legal actions.

The fourth Annual Policeman's Ball will be held this year, Dec. 17, said Ben Butler, president of the Sanford Policemen's Benevolent Association today.

The annual event will be held at the Mayfair Inn on Saturday night beginning at 9 o'clock, said Butler, a member of the Sanford Police Department.

Tickets are being sold now by members of the Sanford Police Department, and funds derived from this annual event, said Butler, will benefit the members, and families of the policemen in time of sickness, accident or death.

S-D Day Sponsors Ask Contributions Of Common Sense

In an age when medical science is striving to overcome those diseases which kill and maim mankind, should we not pause to consider another killer—the traffic accident—and what can be done by everyone of us to curb its threat?

The sponsors of "S-D Day" or "Safe Driving Day" are asking for contributions of common sense—not money—in the fight against traffic deaths and injuries. They realize that only with the wholehearted support of the driving and walking public can any safe-driving campaign be successful. And they are asking for that support in terms of individual awareness, by each person, of his own responsibility in curbing traffic accidents.

"S-D Day" is Thursday, Dec. 1. On that date, the President's Committee for Traffic Safety and the many organizations cooperating in the observance of "S-D Day" are hoping for a 24-hour traffic accident "holiday." But this year's observance of "S-D Day" will go beyond that 24-hour period in an attempt to educate the public to a year-around reconsideration of driving and walking habits.

The President has asked all Americans to join in this job of accident elimination. The program has also been endorsed by Governor Leroy Collins and by nearly 200 national, state, and local organizations who are banding together in a concerted effort to rid our streets and highways of the traffic-accident menace.

Their success, the success of "S-D Day," depends entirely upon how well the program is brought to the attention of the individual driver and pedestrian, who, after all, is the one that must change his attitude.

Common, everyday courtesy and an observance of the Golden Rule—and the will to see them—will go a long way. It won't be well to keep in mind that over 5,000 Americans would still be alive today if we had driven every day during the past year as we did on "S-D Day" last year.

Another Airliner Crashes

SEATTLE (AP)—A non-scheduled airliner, its engines sputtering as it left an icy runway, crashed into a residential area early today, killing at least 27 persons and injuring 44 others as it exploded and burned.

The big Peninsular Air Transport Co. plane was loaded with 66 servicemen who had just returned from the Far East and were trying to get home for Thanksgiving. Also aboard were a man, woman, two children and a crew of three.

The plane first clipped a tree on a hillside south of its Boeing field takeoff point, bounced off the ground and shattered as it burst into flames. Parts of it slid into the back of a house and set it afire but a young mother and her five children inside escaped unharmed.

Mrs. Donald Renard said she heard a "terrific explosion. The next minute my yard was full of soldiers."

Bodies of the dead, dying and injured were strewn about. Flames fed by gasoline which had spewed from full tanks roared into the air.

Within seconds calls were out for every available ambulance in Seattle and King County but their arrival was slowed by the ice and snow-covered streets.

When the ambulances arrived, dozens of the soldiers were wandering or lying about the wreck scene some in a state of shock, others needing only minor treatment.

The government had contracted with a number of non-scheduled airlines, including Peninsular, to speed the men home for the holiday.

Local Officials Continue Pressing Of Traffic Offenses

Seminole County Sheriff Luther Hobbs' force of deputies and the Florida Highway Patrol continued their crackdown on local traffic violations in an effort to cut down on accidents, property damage, injuries and deaths.

Six arrests made and recorded in the Sheriff's office since yesterday morning reveal that the entire system of county highways is being watched carefully for traffic offenders.

Edward Young, 26-year-old Orlando laborer, one mile south of Sanford last night, was charged with operating his car with an improper license tag, Trooper T. Mark Mack made the charges.

Ulysses Robinson, 25-year-old Sanford negro laborer, two miles south of Sanford was charged with operating his car with an improper muffler. PIP Patrolman Carl Williams made the charges.

Charles Howard Mobley of Winter Park, five miles north of Sanford, was charged with excessive speed, according to a report made by Deputy Sheriff A. E. Evans.

The report stated that Mobley was traveling at speeds between 75 and 80 miles an hour.

James Pierce Harper of the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station was charged with operating his car at excessive speed when stopped by Deputy Sheriff Evans.

Evans also charged Robert M. Ashton, United States Air Force man with operating his car at an "excessive rate of speed."

Russell G. Brisson was charged with "passing a stopped school bus" yesterday afternoon, 12 miles south of Sanford. Deputy Evans made the charges.

Suit Involving 5 Horses Settled

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Whitney Lunn has settled out of court a $22,000 suit involving the sale of five horses to brewer August A. Busch Jr.

The settlement came yesterday, the sixth day of trial in federal court. The terms were not disclosed.

Busch, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, claimed the animals he purchased for $15,000 from the local horse breeder were not "sound of limb and safe for children to handle" as represented. He bought the horses in 1950, and his suit also asked $7,000 for feeding them.

Buy License First Season Will Open Nov. 23

Judge Ernest Housholder discussed "Hunting" this morning as he brought out significant points that must be adhered to by local hunters.

Housholder said, "before thinking about hunting, think about your hunting license. You secure this from your County Judge's Office and must have it with you when you are hunting."

"Hunting season opens Nov. 23," Judge Housholder said. And he said that the daily shooting hours for all game during the first five days, except for doves, is half hour before sunrise to sunset.

"Be careful about your time and check your calendar or almanac or newspaper for the time of sunrise and sunset," he said. "About now, if you are looking ahead you can subtract about a minute a day to Dec. 22 and thereafter, add, Housholder added."

"If you hunt in wildlife management areas, you must have a special area permit, and if you hunt duck you must secure a duck stamp from the Post Office," he commented.

"Remember that there is the three-shell capacity regulation on plugging your shotgun," Housholder said, "and when you shoot deer be sure of the character of animal before firing." The local judge emphasized, "this is most important in deer hunting."

"Pointing out the days for hunting, and adding to the statement about the first five days, Housholder said, "Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays are closed thereafter as to most game, but duck hunting is open every day."

As to the hunting season itself, Judge Housholder said, "Information from those who know indicate that this will be the best hunting season we have had in several years."

On another part, Housholder said, "let's do our best to prevent accidents. Never enter a gun into camp or home loaded or in your car, when not actually in use."

"Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot. Be sure your target is game and not a human being, before you pull the trigger," Housholder warned. He commented, "remember, a gun is a dangerous instrument and you need every one of your normal faculties when you use it."

Judge Housholder pointed out that our forests and woodland is especially dry this year which is a reminder to be careful with your matches, cigarettes, and campfires.

"You should study the hunting rules and regulations before going out," Housholder reminded. And he concluded "if you have not secured a copy of them they are available at the County Judge's office."

Nazarene Church Announces Plans For Homecoming

The Sanford Church of the Nazarene, located on the corner of Second and Maple, announces Homecoming Day, Sunday, Nov. 30.

The schedule for the day is as follows: Sunday School Rally at 9:30 A. M., and a special morning worship service at 10:45 A. M. Dinner will be served on the grounds followed by an afternoon singing service at 3 P. M. Rev. Clifford G. Brayley and family, guest musicians. The evening evangelistic service at 7:30 P. M. will conclude Homecoming Day.

Letters of invitation have been sent to all friends and members, both past and present. However, the public is cordially invited to attend any or all services and activities of the day.

Celebrating on a Thanksgiving note the signal blessings of God upon the past year, Rev. H. H. Spear Jr., pastor, will bring the sermons at the 10:45 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. services.

Christmas Tree Industry Facing Cold Wave Crisis

EUFRATA, Mont. (AP)—Montana's million-dollar Christmas tree industry is approaching a crisis due to the state's worse November cold wave in history.

The state produces about a seventh of the nation's Christmas trees.

The Weather Bureau said there was little indication of better weather conditions in the next five days. Temperatures have dropped to as low as 25 degrees below zero the past week.

Thousands of trees have been cut but they cannot be held for shipment out of state due to the cold. They become so brittle that any pressure breaks the twigs off. Officials said this could mean a shortage of trees for Americans this year.

Clothing Business Needs More Room States Committee

A meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Industrial Committee, headed by Don Hales, local business executive, will be held Monday night, 7:30 p. m. at the Educational Building on Commercial Ave., according to an announcement made this morning.

Hales said that discussions will surround the "essential 400 person payroll of a local business faced with expansion and the need for larger quarters in which to operate."

"Publicly from the manufacturers of Sanford pajamas, Sanford shirts, and other articles turned out by this organization is worthy of careful consideration," said Hales as he made known the meeting and the items that will be before the committee for consideration.

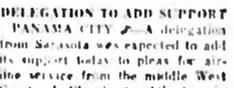

"If the organization is set up so that it can grow, there is no way of estimating the vast expansion of the local industry that is now cramped for room and with no space available for the installation of new equipment already on its way here," the Industrial Committee Chairman said.

One of the officials of the industry is in Sanford now looking over the operations here and attempting to plan for the necessary expansion to keep up with the trend of increasing business.

"We are turning down orders now that should be turned out if we had the tools, the machinery, and the personnel at work," the official said.

DELEGATION TO ADD SUPPORT PANAMA CITY

A delegation from Sanford was expected to add its support today to pleas for air-line service from the middle West Coast of Florida to Atlanta via Panama City.

T. M. Baker

Native Of Florida Elected Secretary Of Columbia Bank

T. Meade Baker has been elected Secretary of the Federal Land Bank of Columbia.

The announcement was made by Rufus Clarke, president, following the monthly meeting of the Farm Credit Board, Nov. 16. The election fills the vacancy caused by the recent death of former Secretary Hugh C. Leaman.

The new secretary is a native of Florida, and received his education in the public schools of Geneva and Sanford, and at Stetson University. He joined the staff of the Federal Land Bank in 1924, where he has been employed continuously, having served as assistant secretary, assistant treasurer, and assistant to the president.

Baker is married to the former Anne Graves, of Jacksonville, and they have one daughter, Laura Meade, who is a student at Mary Washington College.

He is a member of Trinity Episcopal Church. The Bakers make their home at 2607 Strathford Road, Columbia.

THIS IS THE LAKE without a name! The quiet, well-shaped lake is in Fort Mellon Park just east of the Tourist Club and near the courts. If you have a suggestion for the lake's name, send it to the City of Sanford's Board of Commissioners. (D.H. Photo)

Ceremony Slated At Local Church Sunday Afternoon

Sunday at 2:30 p. m. is set for the Consecration Ceremony of the Congregational Christian Church in order to allow people from other churches and the general public to attend the service.

The pastor, chairman of the board of the deacons and trustees and the clerk will participate in putting the records in the cornerstone before the marble tablet is affixed. Three talks of eight minutes each are to be given by the Rev. Rankin L. Shrevebury, pastor of the Daytona Beach Congregational Christian Church, who is from Orlando and a graduate of Rollins College; Fred Esslinger, the sole surviving charter member of the church; and Supt. William N. Tuttle of the Florida Congregational Christian Conference.

All are cordially invited.

THE V. G. STRACHAN, editor of the Florida Herald, will go on a long trip, it was well to keep in mind that over 5,000 Americans would still be alive today if we had driven every day during the past year on our 40 on "S-D Day" last year.

Citizens of Sanford can have a complete copy of the Charter of the City of Sanford, Fla., by keeping the clippings of sections of the charter appear in The Sanford Herald beginning Monday afternoon.

The sections of the Charter of Sanford, appearing in The Herald, will be of the same approximate length making possible an orderly seraphop of the document which can be referred to by pages.

Sanford's charter appears in a booklet of 68 pages in its distributed form with 178 sections. It became effective in 1920 with House Bill No. 1136, Laws of Florida Acts of 1919.

To keep abreast of daily happenings within the structure of Sanford's city government, and to be familiar with the reasons for many actions, citizens should know the City Charter and the provisions laid down in the legal document which guides the city in its legal actions.

Another Airliner Crashes

SEATTLE (AP)—A non-scheduled airliner, its engines sputtering as it left an icy runway, crashed into a residential area early today, killing at least 27 persons and injuring 44 others as it exploded and burned.

The big Peninsular Air Transport Co. plane was loaded with 66 servicemen who had just returned from the Far East and were trying to get home for Thanksgiving. Also aboard were a man, woman, two children and a crew of three.

The plane first clipped a tree on a hillside south of its Boeing field takeoff point, bounced off the ground and shattered as it burst into flames. Parts of it slid into the back of a house and set it afire but a young mother and her five children inside escaped unharmed.

Mrs. Donald Renard said she heard a "terrific explosion. The next minute my yard was full of soldiers."

Bodies of the dead, dying and injured were strewn about. Flames fed by gasoline which had spewed from full tanks roared into the air. Within seconds calls were out for every available ambulance in Seattle and King County but their arrival was slowed by the ice and snow-covered streets.

When the ambulances arrived, dozens of the soldiers were wandering or lying about the wreck scene some in a state of shock, others needing only minor treatment.

The government had contracted with a number of non-scheduled airlines, including Peninsular, to speed the men home for the holiday.

Suit Involving 5 Horses Settled

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Whitney Lunn has settled out of court a $22,000 suit involving the sale of five horses to brewer August A. Busch Jr.

The settlement came yesterday, the sixth day of trial in federal court. The terms were not disclosed.

Busch, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, claimed the animals he purchased for $15,000 from the local horse breeder were not "sound of limb and safe for children to handle" as represented.

He bought the horses in 1930, and his suit also asked $7,000 for feeding them.

Buy License First Season Will Open Nov. 23

Judge Ernest Housholder discussed "Hunting" this morning as he brought out significant points that must be adhered to by local hunters.

Housholder said, "before thinking about hunting, think about your hunting license. You secure this from your County Judge's Office and must have it with you when you are hunting."

"Hunting season opens Nov. 23," Judge Housholder said. And he said that the daily shooting hours for all game during the first five days, except for doves, is half hour before sunrise to sunset.

"Be careful about your time and check your calendar or almanac or newspaper for the time of sunrise and sunset," he said. "About now, if you are looking ahead you can subtract about a minute a day to Dec. 22 and thereafter, add, Housholder added.

"If you hunt in wildlife management areas, you must have a special area permit, and if you hunt duck you must secure a duck stamp from the Post Office," he commented.

"Remember that there is the three-shell capacity regulation on plugging your shotgun," Housholder said, "and when you shoot deer be sure of the character of animal before firing."

The local judge emphasized, "this is most important in deer hunting."

"Pointing out the days for hunting, and adding to the statement about the first five days, Housholder said, "Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays are closed thereafter as to most game, but duck hunting is open every day."

As to the hunting season itself, Judge Housholder said, "Information from those who know indicate that this will be the best hunting season we have had in several years."

On another part, Housholder said, "let's do our best to prevent accidents. Never carry a gun into camp or home loaded or in your car, when not actually in use."

"Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot. Be sure your target is game and not a human being, before you pull the trigger," Housholder warned. He commented, "remember, a gun is a dangerous instrument and you need every one of your normal faculties when you use it."

Judge Housholder pointed out that our forests and woodland is especially dry this year which is a reminder to be careful with your matches, cigarettes, and campfires.

"You should study the hunting rules and regulations before going out," Housholder reminded. And he concluded "if you have not secured a copy of them they are available at the County Judge's office."

Something Strange Is Eating Statues At Circus Museum

Something is strange that even the experts are stumped is eating away at some of the statues on the grounds of the Ringling Art Museum.

Rutherford J. Gettens of the Peabody Museum, Smithsonian Institution at Washington, said it appeared the bronze statues are excluding white crustaceous secretion and the limestones are producing some kind of growth.

Samples are being taken in Washington for study.

Affected by the mold are about 4 statues, some of which have been outdoors as long as 40 years.

Clothing Business Needs More Room States Committee

A meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Industrial Committee, headed by Don Hales, local business executive, will be held Monday night, 7:30 p. m. at the Educational Building on Commercial Ave., according to an announcement made this morning.

Hales said that discussions will surround the "essential 400 person payroll of a local business faced with expansion and the need for larger quarters in which to operate."

"Publicly from the manufacturers of Sanford pajamas, Sanford shirts, and other articles turned out by this organization is worthy of careful consideration," said Hales as he made known the meeting and the items that will be before the committee for consideration.

"If the organization is set up so that it can grow, there is no way of estimating the vast expansion of the local industry that is now cramped for room and with no space available for the installation of new equipment already on its way here," the Industrial Committee Chairman said.

One of the officials of the industry is in Sanford now looking over the operations here and attempting to plan for the necessary expansion to keep up with the trend of increasing business.

"We are turning down orders now that should be turned out if we had the power, the machinery, and the personnel at work," the official said.

Christmas Tree Industry Facing Cold Wave Crisis

EUFRATA, Mont. (AP)—Montana's million-dollar Christmas tree industry is approaching a crisis due to the state's worse November cold wave in history.

The state produces about a seventh of the nation's Christmas trees.

The Weather Bureau said there was little indication of better weather conditions in the next five days. Temperatures have dropped to as low as 25 degrees below zero the past week.

Thousands of trees have been cut but they cannot be held for shipment out of state due to the cold. They become so brittle that any pressure breaks the twigs off.

Officials said this could mean a shortage of trees for Americans this year.
