U.S. Note Charges Soviet Russia With Attack On Bomber

Sharply Worded Mis-sive Describes Destruction Of B-29 As "Unjustifiable"

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States charged today in a note to Moscow that Russian planes made "twisted and unjustifiable attack" on the American B-29 plane missing off Japan since Oct. 7. The note demanded compensation.

Payment in order, the U. S. said, both for the loss of the plane and for the lives of any of the crew of eight who may have perished.

The U. S. declared the B-29 was on a routine flight off the northern end of Japan, was entirely unarmored and its officers were under explicit orders to remain within Japanese territory.

Whereas the Russians have committed the U. S. aircraft violation, the U. S. note said the attack actually occurred some six miles from the Japanese island of Hokkaido and 32 miles from Russian-occupied Yuril Island.

The sharply worded U. S. note advised Moscow "to consider the grave consequences which can flow from its reckless practice, if persisted in, of attacking without provocation the aircraft of other states."

Two Witnesses In Caudle Probe Indicted Today

Pair Is Charged With Giving False Information On Finances

WASHINGTON (AP)—Jacob Freidus and Larry Knobl, figures in the congressional investigation of former Assistant Atty. Gen. T. Lamar Caudle, were indicted today on charges of making false statements to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The indictment returned by a federal grand jury accused Freidus and Knobl of giving false information in several letters and financial statements submitted to the RFC during attempts to buy the assets of the Alron Manufacturing Co., Kansas City, Kans., about two years ago. The firm was then engaged in production and sale of juke boxes and other electrical devices.

Through the Stratton Television Corp. of New York, in which Freidus and his wife were controlling stockholders, Freidus and Knobl offered RFC $700,000 for the Alron facilities. Both men are residents of New York.

The indictment contains three counts—two of false statements and one of conspiracy. Conviction would carry maximum penalties of 15 years imprisonment and $50,000 fine.

The names of Freidus and Knobl were included in the congressional investigation of Caudle in connection with an airplane sale on which Caudle received a $5,000 commission.

Knobl was the purchaser of the plane in 1950. At the time, he was working for Freidus, who was in tax difficulties and who subsequently was arrested for four years for tax fraud involving some $250,000. Freidus is still in prison.

Caudle at that time was assistant attorney general in charge of the Central Korean front, and his closure of the airplane transaction with Caudle on grounds his outside activities were incompatible with his official duties.

Chinese Attack ROK Ridge Under Intense Barrage

Artillery Fire Is So Severe Defenders Can't Measure It

SEOUL (AP)—Nearly 1,000 Chinese troops assaulted Sniper Ridge on the Central Korean front tonight under Red artillery fire so intense the South Korean defenders could not measure it.

The Chinese and ROKs closed in a grenade-throwing hand-to-hand fight for Pinnpoint Hill, center peak on Sniper Ridge northwest of Kum-ya.

Lain reports said the desperate, hand-to-hand ROKs still control Pinnpoint.

But in the west, South Korean Ninth Division troops pulled back off from Horse Hill after fighting Chinese throughout the afternoon.

Communist dead littered the front whined battlefields and casualties mounted to record 1932 totals. In the bloody week ended Tuesday, the U. S. Eighth Army estimated the Communists lost 10,186 soldiers. The total—highest since last November—included 5,868 killed, 4,258 wounded and 60 captured.

The ROK Ninth Division today reported it inflicted a staggering 11,633 casualties on the Communists—more than the strength of a full Chinese division—in nine days of ceaseless fighting for White Horse Mountain ended Wednesday.

South Korean soldiers searched the shell-seared hill in Chorwon Valley and reported digging up 7,147 Chinese bodies buried under mud and dirt and hidden in bunkers or under shrapnel-torn underbrush.

The Ninth Division estimated an additional 5,330 Reds were killed and 1,067 wounded in the battle to control a major invasion route to Korea.

The Communist Peiping Radio claimed 800 Allied troops were "annihilated" in intense Red counterattacks from Oct. 8-11. The broadcast, monitored in Tokyo, said the Communists shot down 18 Allied warplanes and damaged 32 others during the period.

Eisenhower Is Leading By Wide Margin On 3rd Day Of Straw Poll

By KENT CHETMAN

A record 55 ballots were cast in today's Herald straw poll that saw Republican nominee General Dwight Eisenhower maintain his lead over Democrat Adlai Stevenson, of Illinois.

A group of 20 votes from housewives gave Ike 40 of the 55 ballots cast today. Stevenson pulled but two housewives' votes, another pair from merchants and one from a farmer.

Eisenhower now leads Stevenson 87 to 11 after the first three days of the straw poll. Today's voting saw Ike gain a percentage point of the total vote on Stevenson.

Vote: Ike 87 89 Stevenson 11 11

While results of the poll, so far, seem to indicate a landslide for Ike in Seminole County this November, it cannot be taken for face value. Actually, 70 percent of the votes, tabulated to date, have been from the white-collar business, professional and service classes.

At least this class will comprise only about 1,000 votes if the total vote of the county hits the 8,000 mark. Hardly touched by the poll are far in the Negro vote, which comprises about 30 percent of the electorate.

According to one prominent Negro leader, 85 percent of the colored vote will go to Stevenson.

"The Democratic party is sending literature to the colored people telling them that, if the Republicans get in office, all their relief will be cut off," he pointed out. "I would say that 85 percent of the Negroes in Sanford are ready to vote for Stevenson."

The other 15 percent of the colored people will vote for Eisenhower because they have to pay the freight, so to speak, for those who cancel each other out.

Premier Stalin Keeps Top Spot In Soviet Regime

Heads List Of 25 Men Named To Presidium That Runs Country

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Communist party named its new high command today and kept Joseph Stalin firmly in all the top jobs.

The party's new Central Committee announced election of a Presidium of 25 members and 11 alternates to replace the old Politburo and a 10-man Secretariat to supervise party administration.

Stalin was named head of both key posts. Also elected was a new chairman of the party Central Committee which has charge of party discipline.

The Presidium is more than twice the size of the old Politburo of 11 members and one alternate. Replacing the Politburo, it will direct the work of the Central Committee between the party's quadrennial full sessions and will also take over the duties of the old Politburo, the organization bureau—which dealt with party organization.

The Secretariat also was enlarged. It formerly had only five members.

Stalin's top rank in the party was emphasized by the placing of his name out of alphabetical order at the head of the announced list of both the Presidium and Secretariat. All other names were given in their Russian alphabetical order.

In addition, Stalin is head of the party Central Committee and, in the Soviet government, chairman of the Council of Ministers—premier of the Soviet Union.

A number of young party leaders were added to both the Presidium and the Secretariat. Most of these are under 50. Some are barely past 40.

The Presidium also includes several regional party leaders, as well as some of the Soviet Union's top economic specialists.

One significant point was the promotion to Presidium alternate of Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky Vishinsky, now at the United Nations Assembly in New York. Formerly was a member of the Central Committee, in which he was re-elected, but he never was a member of the Politburo.

Suit And Counter Suit Are Filed In Office Of Clerk

Separate suits for damages were filed yesterday at the Court House in which Mrs. Meredith, Longwood, seeks $800 from Mrs. Otto F. Faulhaber, Altamonte Springs, while Mr. Faulhaber is asking $400 from Mrs. Meredith on a promissory note he is holding.

In the former suit, filed by Mrs. Meredith's attorney, Fred B. Wilson, the plaintiff contends that Mrs. Faulhaber owes her $800 interest from Sept. 1, after she sold a piece of property for her for $10,000 and the deal fell through.

According to the file, Mrs. Meredith sold the property to Mrs. Faulhaber, which involved a furnished house to a Melinda Honeaker, who put down a binder of $1,000 and agreed to conclude the sale by Sept. 1.

The defendant, Mrs. Meredith, contends in the suit, offered to execute a deed of conveyance not identical with the personal property described in the inventory attached to the contract and, as a result, the buyer rescinded the contract.

In the other suit, Mr. Faulhaber is asking a $400 settlement on a promissory note which Mrs. Meredith had entered into with George H. Robison, but which later was taken up by Mr. Faulhaber. The note was signed June 15 in the amount of $600, to be paid in 30 days, according to the file.

Further, Mrs. Meredith was paid back July 15, following which the interest in the note was assigned to Mr. Faulhaber. The defendant claims the note represents a loan of $500 by Robison, and that the additional sum of $100 represented a bonus which Mrs. Meredith agreed to pay Robison.

She contends the $100 constitutes a rate of interest greater than 10 per cent per year upon the principle sum of $500, and that only $300 is due to Mr. Faulhaber. She also points out the assignment was made after the maturity of the note.

Volle Williams Jr. is attorney for Mr. Faulhaber in the latter case, while Mr. Wilson is representing Mrs. Meredith.

Public Hearing Is Slated On Zoning

A public hearing was set last night by the City Planning Commission for Nov. 13 to consider zoning of French Avenue, according to James Avenue and Fourth Street. Mr. Gut remarked the park is "too small."

Need for additional parking facilities also was brought into the discussion. A set of rules of procedure, submitted by Tom Lemon, City Manager, were adopted by the Commission. Mr. Gut said changes possibly will be made later.

SEE METEORITE

NEW LEANS (AP)—The airways traffic control of the Department of Commerce here said five airplanes sighted early today what the pilots described as a "meteorite which seemed to explode at a very high altitude."

The reports came from the Tennessee Valley, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas.

At Mobile, Ala., 150 miles east of here, the lowman at Brookley Air Force Base reported seeing the meteorite streaking across the sky.

Miss Bisbee Honored In Tallahassee Poll

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—John Tavel Orlando, was named secretary of the Florida State University freshman class today after a recount of results of an election held Tuesday.

The recount showed Miss Tavel drew 343 votes against 228 for Miss Bisbee. Sanford. First results gave Miss Tavel 333 votes and Miss Bisbee 332.

A recount of a women's senate contest confirmed the victory of Harriet Lowe, Homestead, over Mrs. Martin, Lakeland, with 318 votes against 314. Miss Lowe will represent the freshmen women in the student senate.

Postal Head Predicts 670 Million Deficit

BOSTON (AP)—Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson says the postal deficit this fiscal year will be about 670 million dollars.

He adds that Congress should accept full responsibility for the loss.

Speaking Thursday night at the convention of the National Association of Postmasters, Donaldson charged Congress enacted legislation fixing rates and costs "out of all relationship to each other."

He said "I believe the Congress should frankly declare itself on the subsidy policy question if they feel that rates should not be charged to cover the cost of handling each class of mail."

Only first class will pay its way this fiscal year, Donaldson said, with an expected profit of 66 million dollars.

He estimated the following losses: 253 million dollars in second class mail (publications), 113 million dollars in third class mail (circulars and advertising matter), and 84 million dollars on fourth class mail.

Stevenson Charges GOP Victory Would End Price Support

Boos Greet Ike Campaign In Industrial Area

Sprinkling Of Cheers And Applause Come From Working Men

BY JAMES DEATIN
EN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower ran into a mixed reception of boos and cheers today as he campaigned in heavily industrialized Camden, N. J.

The Republican presidential candidate drove in an open automobile through lunch hour lanes of workers from the New York Shipbuilding Corp. yards, the Campbell Soup Co. plant and the huge electric business plant of RCA Victor division.

In front of each plant, responding boos could be heard clearly.

There also was a sprinkling of continuous applause.

Democratic Candidate Tears Into Adversary In Speech Given On Street Corner

By JACK REIL
SAN DIEGO (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson charged today that Republicans plan to abolish farm price supports if they win next month's election.

The Democratic presidential nominee tore into his opponents in a speech to a street corner crowd here before taking off by plane for two days of intensive campaigning in California.

The Illinois governor said that if Republicans have their way "they would dry up thousands of California acres and let our soil conservation programs crumble into dust."

They would, presumably, repeal the minimum wage law, abolish Social Security and undo all the great work of Franklin Roosevelt and Harry Truman," he said.

Stevenson's early morning appearance here attracted a crowd of police said was considerably smaller than last night's. J. Eisenhower, the GOP nominee, drew in a noon crowd here recently.

Stevenson told his listeners that "no man on earth can afford to ignore up to the awful responsibilities of the presidency."

But while he said he was humble in the face of the fact that the vote might make him the next president, Stevenson said he is not uncertain or hesitant.

"At least my mind is my own mind and I am my own man," he declared in an obvious reference to his charge that Eisenhower has surrendered leadership in the Republican party to Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

Assuming that the contest between the two major political parties this year involves "not just your prosperity but the best of the future for a free world—and with it our struggle for peace."

The Democratic nominee was sending up in San Diego a crucial campaign for California's vital 32 electoral votes. His next stop in today's crowded schedule was Fort Worth, Tex., after a six-hour flight eastward. From there Stevenson planned to fly to Grand Prairie and thence to Dallas for a major speech tonight.

San Diego, the Illinois governor continued his vigorous assault on Eisenhower as a "disappointing" candidate who has allowed himself to be "absorbed into the Johnson team" of Republicans.

"I know that unless we reject the Republican ideas of isolationism, we will lose the free world—and with it our struggle for peace."

ASSEMBLIES OF GOD
 "Urgent" is the national watchword of the Assemblies of God missionary program this week-end.
 Sunday has been designated "Dollar Day" by the National Headquarters Office and everyone who will be invited to give at least one dollar for their world-wide missionary endeavor.
 This particular phase of the church's missionary effort, called "Speed The Light", is sponsored by the Christ's Ambassadors (young people) who have already given over a million dollars through their department. "Speed
 The Light" funds are used, through a special purchasing department, to provide such equipment as printing presses, radio broadcasting stations, light air planes, jeeps, station wagons, motorcycles, small boats, bicycles and even mules for use by over 600 missionaries in nearly 60 foreign lands.
 The Sanford assembly, 12th at Laurel Avenue, is participating in the national event and has announced a special program for Sunday night at 7:30.

but not the full story!

UNTIL YOU READ these words you might not guess that this is a school corridor during a recent air-raid drill. Until you read further you might not realize that this is only one brief moment... one small aspect... of a much bigger story.

A whole city was involved in the drill! But what city? When? What else happened? What were the headaches? The satisfactions? What did the people say and do? What did the mayor say? The Army?

A picture, a headline, a brief announcement can whet your appetite for news, but cannot satisfy your hunger for the whole story.

It takes many words to bring you all you want to know. Words bring meaning, words bring news. Newspapers bring news.

Only the newspaper brings you full stories day after day - pictures and sufficient words. Only the newspaper can bring you the full story as soon as your appetite is aroused. Fast, without delay.

This goes for advertising, too. The brief message that hangs in the air... or the brief headlines here or there... may indeed have a momentary interest.

But the newspaper ad carries the brass-tacks quality, the urgency of the newspaper itself.

Like a news item, the ad can be examined and re-examined. Can be read any time. Anywhere. Can be clipped and carried in a pocket or pocketbook.

And just as the newspaper speaks the special language of the town it mirrors, the ads themselves have the same important local quality. No other medium can match this quality.

Add to all this the fact that newspapers reach everybody in town, and you know why the newspaper is the nation's most powerful advertising medium.

No wonder all advertisers - both retail and "national" - invest more money in newspapers than in any other form of advertising.

The newspaper is always "first with the most"

Childhood Hints
By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE
AP Education Reporter

Those with children of five and six years of age have had the thrill of seeing them approach their first brand new adventure — school.

Up to the time they enter kindergarten or the first grade, they've led a sheltered, comparatively secluded existence. Now they are suddenly thrown together with dozens of other children. Formerly they could pretty well do as they pleased. If they didn't like a game or a group of playmates, they could leave. At home they were the center of attention. Now they have to learn to get along with many other children. They must learn to give and take and to consider others in the group.

In school the youngsters also find that they must compete with others on an impartial basis. This competition is more keen than we adults usually realize and the youngster must be in the best possible health so that he can go forward with the others, says Dr. Joan Daly, of the Medical Society of the County of New York.

Good health habits instituted at this time, says Dr. Daly, will do much to insure the mental, physical and emotional health and development of years. Good health habits formed in childhood will become the good health habits of adult life.

On the average, she says, a school child needs about nine hours sleep daily—some may require as much as eleven hours sleep to avoid fatigue. The exact amount of sleep necessary for the individual child should be gauged by signs of fatigue.

Weather permitting, she says, the school child should have a good deal of outdoor play as will not overtax him.

His diet should be well balanced, containing meat, fish, poultry, eggs or cheese, fresh fruits or oranges, yellow corn, wheat, bread or cereals, milk and butter or margarine — the amounts depending upon the individual child's appetite. Breakfast is particularly important, she says. It should be ample and sufficient (this should be allowed for the child to finish his meal leisurely and without rushing. Lunch, if taken at home, should be ready for the child when he arrives there—to achieve a pleasant calm atmosphere and not a rushed one. If brought to school, it should be tastefully and attractively made up and simple for the child to handle.

Nourishing sandwiches, fresh fruits and plain cookies, milk, Candies and elaborate desserts should be kept at a minimum during these years.

Personal hygiene should be stressed, she says. Cleanliness in the form of a bath or sponge every day is important, as is the washing of hands before meals and after the use of the toilet. He should be encouraged to brush his teeth after each meal and at bedtime.

Sensible clothing, she points out, is a must for the school child. Light, loose clothing at all times is the rule.

Parents she declares, should also stress mental and emotional health for their school age child, she says.

"A happy child mirrors a happy home — to safeguard that happiness let parents from out of difficulties like adults and in private, and not cloud the home atmosphere with resentments, suliness or open warfare. Make your child feel loved and accepted at home. Give him the haven of security he needs by accepting him as he is and not trying to make him either more or less than he is."

Make sure, says Dr. Daly, that your child is vaccinated against smallpox and diphtheria. The former is required by law, the latter may have been taken at an earlier date and a small booster shot may be all that is necessary to immunize him.

If parents, school, health department and family doctor work together as a team, concludes Dr. Daly, good health habits can be instituted in the school aged child. As a team they can aim toward an completely perfect health in the health habits into adult life.

RED BILGIANI HAIL ANNIVERSARY

TOKYO (AP)—The Communist Peking radio has revealed a set of slogans for celebrating the third anniversary of Red rule over China.

There were 61 slogans—most of them lengthy. An example: "Hail to street workers, transport workers, medical and health workers, radio and communications workers, rear service and from line cultural workers who are assisting Chinese People's Volunteers!"

Most of the slogans are the usual Communist anti-American stuff, such as: "Strengthen work of resisting American aggression and aiding Korea and strive for successful conclusion of war against aggression in Korea and peaceful settlement of Korean question!"

School life can be beautiful—even for the girl who is in a new high school, trying to make friends. Most young girls feel tangled-footed and tongue-tied working into a new circle of acquaintances.

The unfortunate thing about it is that you need have three strikes on them when they embark on this new venture, says Krora Kono, head of the Personality Development course of the John Powers' school.

Miss Kono says that all but the very aggressive young ladies fit into that category. Says she: "They are scared to death because they've left their ready-made friends in Junior High School and just can't figure out how to cope with their new role. But being shy and timid at that age is just about as common an ailment as a cold."

There are three things that must be watched—dead giveaways that you lack self-assurance. But if these can be curbed, you'll be on the road to being a poised young lady, says Miss Kono:

1. The way you carry your body. Body mannerisms such as nail biting, pulling at the hair or fidgeting the foot, fiddling with jewelry or toying at clothes (particularly the under) are all outward signs.

2. The tone of the voice. Instead of being warm and friendly, giving out responses to innocent questions, often shows a feeling of insecurity. We are short-tongued, formal and superior when all a question requires is a simple friendly few words.

3. Facial expressions. Too often, girls who feel insecure show expression on their faces which are likely to look blank. The eyes and mouth are the two most attractive assets for facial expressions.

Miss Kono emphasizes that the most important friendly warning asset we have at our command is the ready smile. She suggests that if it were coupled with a warm voice and good body manners, we could win friends without even trying.

Some teenagers will admit their faults and fears more readily than others, and they can be helped easily, says Miss Kono. She has noticed that young people are becoming more aware of the need of a helping hand to get them over that hurdle of growing up. This last summer her teen-age courses were jammed with "I want charm" ads.

If you have difficulty persuading yourself to ask the advice of an older person—such as "what do I do wrong" etc keep in mind that you are not the only girl who feels shy and insecure at your age. Other kids have the same feelings of despair.

So if you haven't started back to school with a sense of security, feeling that you are making a good impression on your school chums, start now to correct the situation.

Go out of your way to smile at the girl who asks you where room 601 is, instead of saying, "Why, over there of course," with a tone of voice that sounds like you'd like to hit "you" right in the face.

Miss Kono believes that cuteness of that sort shows that we are ill at ease.

When you are meeting new people, don't cut your hair across your little finger, bite your lip or twirl your bracelet. You are likely to scare off your new-found acquaintances just by acting nervous. She might even interpret it as being bored with her presence.

Yes, it is a terrifying period of life, Miss Kono says. But she adds:

"Everyone goes through this growing-up stage. So feel like a martyr if you will while learning the right way to charm and to pose. Just keep in command of the situation and you'll have nothing to fear."

Thanks to better prices for their products, farm families of Florida and other states finally have gained an economic status that places them above that of peasants or slave labor. But it seems that their neighbors in town — the majority of them, at least — are joining the small chorus that says the price of food is too high, and even that the farmer is getting too large a proportion of what the consumer pays for food.

Spontaneous outbreaks against the price of foodstuffs are to be expected from those who formerly enjoyed an economic status normally higher than that of the average farm family, and who would hope to continue maintaining an advantage.

While the price of everything the farmer buys — and everything the city resident buys — has been doubling and more, these are those who think that prices of foodstuffs, milk and other farm products — most of which are not yet doubling what they were formerly — are too high.

In a day's labor, a unit of clothing, a tractor, or an automobile with both tires what it was in your case, why not a pound of beef steak, a quart of milk, or a pound of potatoes also worth about twice what it was then?

people must begin to tell the story to the city people. We must begin to brush up on our public relations. To remain strong we must maintain customers in the cities, and we must keep them as our friends.

Being extremely busy in our fields and on our ranges, and knowing we are doing nothing to our own credit, it is hard for us to realize that we are being respected and friendship of some of those who consume our products.

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

They that live for material things have just that end. Worms cannot lay hold on golden treasures, nor on glorious memories, tho' the body does return to dust, and memory never die. The worm shall feed sweetly on him. — Job 24:20.

The Golden Age

When was the Golden Age? In the past, according to a common viewpoint. The Greeks placed it first in the development of the world, succeeded by an inferior Silver Age and then by the worst Iron Age, in which they believed that they themselves lived. The still earlier Egyptians sounded a modern note along the same line, when the oldest writer who has come down to us, Ptah-hotep, who may have lived about B. C. 3,999, sighed, "Oh that the world were as it used to be in the good old days."

This tendency to glorify the past may account for the learned work by Father James J. Walsh, "The Thirteenth and Greatest of Centuries." He could, of course, make out a good case for the century of the cathedral builders, of the great theologian, St. Thomas Aquinas, and of Dante. And yet historians who consider the equator and cruelty of the period will hesitate to rank it so high.

All of these views are wrong, according to Frank G. Dickinson of Chicago, who approaches the question from a medical angle. As director of the American Medical Association's Bureau of Medical Economics Research, he has just said that the advancement in the treatment of disease, plus better food, housing and sanitation gives the palm to recent time. The past 50 years are to him "man's greatest half century."

If this view is correct, the children of today may look forward to their adult life as the highest point yet reached in world history. Unless a third world war spoils the picture.

War Or Daredeviltry?

The shocking news of two planes falling victim to what appear to be trigger-happy Communist plots is enough to arouse fears of what may be in store during the next few months. In these planes, one a hospital ship flying into Berlin and the other a B-29 flying near the Russian-Japanese border, were fired on by Russian pilots with a desire to shoot them down, what does it indicate.

As the plane near Japan is already down any sort of questioning will have to await communication with survivors. There was only a last word over the plane's radio—a voice screaming, "Let's get the hell out of here." The other plane was unarmed. Luckily it escaped to the West Berlin airfield.

Do these bold outbursts mean that the Kremlin's hate-America campaign is beginning to bear fruit? Are the Russians becoming so daring that they are willing to risk war on the basis of individual acts? Can we conclude that to the average Russian we are so despicable a nation and people that to attack us, our planes, even our hospital flights is justified?

Is this a prelude to war even as the Communist congress talks about Russia not making war or is it sheer daredeviltry?

Right, 10 Times Right

The bulletin of the Bridgeport Chamber of Commerce, entitled Progress, published a list, "Ten Sure Ways to Allentite Reporters."

1. Lie to him.
2. Try to conceal facts which are certain to come out anyhow.
3. Tell him what to print.
4. Tell him what not to print.
5. Call the managing editor and complain about what has been printed.
6. Be a turncoat. Say this and-so-and then, after it appears in print, issue a denial.
7. Shoo him away from visiting big shots when he's trying to interview them.
8. Go direct to the city editor with an advance tip on a story which the reporter normally would pick up on the run.
9. Be a smart-aleck. Take the attitude that "newspapers never get a story straight anyhow."
10. Try to cram your story into the paper on a day when a half-dozen big stories break.

Reporter Tells Of Things He Always Wanted To Do, Say

By SAUL PETT
 (For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — There are dreams a man never outgrows. I can't explain mine. I don't even recommend them. But, anyway, I've always wanted:

- To jump into a cab and tell the driver, "Follow that cab! There's a five-spot for you if you don't lose him!"
- To paged in the grand salon of the Queen Elizabeth.
- To appear inscrutable when the Chase National Bank asks ME for a loan.
- To pound a table and tell my wife (or anyone), "This is the way I want it! And this is the way it's going to be!"
- To land at the big table at Monte Carlo and, while the beautiful duchess gasps, calmly announce, "Let the million ride."
- To tell my boss, "Charlie, I want you to be the first to know. I've just acquired the controlling interest. You're now working for me."
- To awake in the morning and not take the 8:15 train to New York but, instead, grab flight 742 to Paris.
- To be pulled gently to the center of the stage by an adoring, grateful leading lady while the audience shouts, "Author! Author!"
- To answer, when asked by an over-solicitous maitre d'hotel if I enjoyed the dinner, "No."
- To pull the emergency cord on the "Flying Scotsman" as it races across the Firth of Forth or the Forth of Firth or wherever it is they have the high bridge Hitchcock uses in his movies.
- To order wine as though I knew what I was talking about.
- To ask for, between lightly drawn lips, "Sturtes, scallop, sponges."
- To tell the C. O., "If the general will kindly button his lip, I'll explain."
- To order dinner without looking at the right side of the menu.
- To shout into a phone, "Stop the presses! Tear up the front page while I dictate this story..."

Van Sickle Will Be U. Of F. Honor Guest

GAINESVILLE (AP) — Dale Van Sickle, the University of Florida's only All-American football star, will be honor guest for the Florida homecoming, Oct. 31-Nov. 1.

Van Sickle accepted an invitation issued by University President J. Willis Mills and Florida Blue Key, honor fraternity which sponsors homecoming.

A native Gainesville athlete, Van Sickle played varsity football at Florida from 1927 to 1929. He was named All-American in 1928, the year of Florida's great football team coached by Charles Bachman. Gators won all but one contest and then lost to Tennessee, 13-12.

IN ANSWER TO YOUR QUESTION, I CAN'T SEE HOW THE REPUBLICANS CAN POSSIBLY CARRY MORE THAN TWO COUNTIES IN VERMONT, AND OUR CANDIDATE IS GAINING IN ALL THREE OF THEM!!

THE WORLD TODAY
 By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Iran's Premier Mosaddegh has had the distinction of punching a man in the nose while kicking himself in the pants at the same time.

When he threw the British out and nationalized the Iranian oil fields last year he cut off his own country's main source of income.

But slugging the British lion like that was bound to suffer from a feeling of national inferiority.

That sense of inferiority is one of the bases for the extreme nationalism that has seized the Middle Eastern countries, now that the old colonial powers like Britain and France are on the wane.

The evidence of Iran's plight in the eyes of his people who have been steadily watching the weakened Britain lose respect and power in the Middle East.

He became a national hero overnight, the Iranian strong man, although for a strong man he was strangely given to fits of weeping and fainting when the going got tough.

Still, with their emotions and attention fixed on the spectacle of Britain humiliated at last, the masses of Iranians were diverted from the truly reactionary nature of their own government which had been doing precious little for the betterment of the people.

(Among other things they badly needed land reforms. Most of the land was owned by a comparatively few rich families. In a way this was a duplication of Egypt. There, deposing the British distracted the people from the injustices of Farouk's feudal monarchy. They needed land reforms badly, too. It took an Army revolution to get rid of Farouk and bring the reforms.)

There was a bit of a gamble in what Mosaddegh did. He knew the West badly needed oil. So it must have seemed likely to him he could settle on his own terms.

It became clear as time passed that he had underestimated the British or had been operating more on personal emotion than on long-range planning. Instead of being able to proceed with Iranian development and sale of its own oil, he discovered a couple of unpleasant facts of life:

The British were able to set up a boycott against Iranian oil; and development of oil elsewhere was stepped up to offset the loss from Iran.

And, as time went on, Iran began to suffer. The royalty paid by the British for the oil taken from the country had made up at least one third of the Iranian government's total revenue. When the ousted British stopped paying the royalty, the Iranian government, economically, was hurt.

This was borne from Iran indicated Mosaddegh may have started to lose some of his support. Yesterday he broke off relations with Britain. What now?

Booth Will Put Up Bond Upon Federal Mail Fraud Charge

JACKSONVILLE (AP) — John Booth, Miami, who withdrew as Republican nominee for the U. S. Senate, says he will be here today to post bond on federal charges of mail fraud.

The St. Petersburg Times reported Thursday night that Booth and two others had been indicted on the charges by a federal grand jury, but no federal official would confirm it.

Indicted with Booth, the Times said, were John L. Coghill, Jacksonville attorney prominent in state Republican circles, and J. Hardy Owens, held in Pinellas County on a charge of embezzlement.

Coghill said he would surrender to the U. S. commissioner here this afternoon. Owens gave the Times a copy of what he said was the indictment served on him.

It charges five counts of mail fraud, two of violating the securities and exchange act and one of conspiracy to commit mail fraud.

Booth quit the Senate race Oct. 4 when, he said, he heard an indictment was pending.

He said of his withdrawal: "I felt I should not in any way jeopardize the general Republican campaign because of a personal attack on me however unfounded."

Booth said he quit the race "because I realize I would not be able to vindicate myself before election due to the timing of the indictment. . . . I am confident that when I have such an opportunity, it will be clearly established that there was nothing either illegal or immoral in any matter handled by me."

Coghill said his "connection with this case was purely and simply as a lawyer in the practice of my profession. . . . I did not know there was anything illegal in the deal and did no wrong."

The indictment published by the Times said the three formed the Dade County Terminal Co. to develop oval estate and organized the National Society for Agricultural and Industrial Credit, Inc., a Haitian corporation.

They did business, the paper continued, by representing the Haitian corporation as having a paid capital of $250,000. The capital, it said, was a "worthless" check drawn on the Dade County Terminal Co.

Refusal To Name Bribe Recipient Is Upheld By Court

JACKSONVILLE (AP) — The refusal of five admitted gamblers to name before a federal grand jury persons they said were paid protection money was upheld in Federal Court here Thursday.

District Judge Bryan Simpson said William Pappas, John S. DeSalvo, Vincent F. DeSalvo, Neil A. Stewart and Frank Candamino were, within their constitutional rights in declining to disclose identity of the persons who received the payoffs.

The five men had been ordered to show cause why they should not be cited for contempt.

Assistant District Attorney William S. Walker argued they had opened the door by admitting gambling activities and payoff for protection or franchise rights, and could not shut the door when it reached the point of naming who got the protection money.

Judge Simpson said the men had told the grand jury nothing they had not previously revealed under questioning by Internal Revenue Bureau intelligence agents.

Each of the men, he said, "ought to avail themselves of their privilege against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment."

The grand jury said in a presentment last week the questions it sought to have the men answer were in connection with an investigation of frauds resulting from "failure of persons unknown to report as taxable income money received from gamblers for permission to operate their business."

Sick of War?

Vote for Eisenhower & Nixon

Sanford Forum

Mr. Roland L. Dean, Editor
 The Sanford Herald
 Sanford, Florida
 Dear Mr. Dean,

Your editorial in the Herald Oct. 7—"Honesty in Government"—is a positive insult to the millions of honest Democrats in the United States, and to Gov. Stevenson's friends and supporters. You make no exceptions.

You said "no matter how honest Gov. Stevenson is personally, no matter how much he wants to get rid of dishonest officials, he will be handicapped by his friends, blocked by his supporters and hindered by his party." You bar no one, not even our own Florida Congressmen.

The Democrats have been fighting corruption in Washington for 20 years — and put some Communist leaders in jail long before McCarthy began his tirade on the United States government.

You cannot keep birds from lighting on your head but you can keep them from building a nest in your hair.

We mothers who had sons in World War II will remember how we scanned the papers each day, and very often saw, where Gen. Eisenhower had advised certain moves (bungling I guess).

Now he is trying to put all the blame, if mistakes were made, on the Democratic administration. Is that fair?

He said he would endorse any Republican for office, (regardless of character). Is this the man we want in the White House?

The United States Supreme Court has ruled that the Tidelands belong to the United States (many states have no Tidelands). Yet to gain votes, Eisenhower is not only defying the decision of the United States Supreme Court; but in trying to influence others against it. I have absolutely no confidence in your candidate for President. Then he comes away down South to gain votes and tell us how badly we have been treated by the Democratic Administration.

The Republicans have never done anything for the South and I don't believe they ever will.

You said "If Gov. Stevenson is elected he will owe this election to those who are unfriendly to the South." How can you say that when thousands, yes, millions of Southerners are going to vote for Gov. Stevenson.

You said "a complete change of administration is our only hope for Washington or our country." To my mind a very foolish statement.

You have made some broad, unfair, unkind assertions in your editorials. Your privilege as a newspaper editor, I guess.

Grammar School
By Lynda Yeackle

We have been studying about light. We have learned that the sun is 93,000,000 miles away, and it takes eight minutes for light to get to the earth.

Some friends from Miami sent us a box full of seeds from tropical trees. We put them in Jane Parker's boxes and painted the boxes red for us.

We have several new things in our museum. Randall Priest brought us some prehistoric bones he found at Rock Springs.

Tommy Williams brought us a ring-necked snake and a red rat snake. Tommy Russell and Randall Priest brought turtles, and Russell Keenan Jr. brought a rattlesnake.

Charles Roke brought a live hog-nosed snake. Harrison Smith told us that Ross Allen's assistant said the hog-nosed snake flattens its head to frighten its enemies.

We elected the following room mothers: Mrs. H. Z. Sillsby, chairman; Mrs. R. C. Miller, Mrs. W. F. Yeackle and Mrs. B. O. Chase, Jr.

Mr. Lawton came to see us to thank us for our letters, and Carl Remnant's mother ate lunch with us Monday.

Chairman Miller, Harrison Smith and Francis Jimenez are our spelling champions the first unit.

Mr. Boderholm brought a translation of our letter from Finland. Antti's mother told us that Antti always wins ski contests when he wears the caps our Mrs. Noble knits for him, and he sang at the dedication of their new school.

The old school was 60 years old. Mr. Fred Rosetter has been helping Room 6 label their rock collection. He has promised to help with our collection.

Foda Faye Bata brought a rock collection from the Badlands of North Dakota. We have quartz from Arkansas, gold ore from Colorado and copper from Arizona.

Mrs. Hardin Is Elected President Of Garden Club; Lecture Is On Orchids

An interesting and informative illustrated talk on orchids, by Norman Merkle of Boynton Beach, and the election of two new officers were the main features of the first general business meeting of the Sanford Garden Club held yesterday at 12:30 o'clock at the Jewish Community Center.

Mr. Merkle who was introduced by Mrs. Fred Ganas, stated that the orchid family is one of the largest families in the plant world, having about 600 or 700 varieties. Orchid seeds are as fine as face powder, he said, and in stressing the patience and care required in growing orchids, he displayed one plant, about two inches in height, which was two years old. Seven years are required for the plant to bloom but he stated that the care and patience are rewarded by blooms each year thereafter "for as long as you live."

The small orchid seeds are found in pods, with about 3,000,000 seeds to the pod, he said. Mr. Merkle described the early methods originally used in Europe stressing the importance of sugar in the orchid's growth. "Too much water causes 'black lipping' of the leaves and roots and hence orchids, if grown in pots should be planted in plenty of dirt so as to give good drainage."

Orchid plants should be well-protected when the temperature goes down to 45 degrees and can be grown out of doors from Central Florida south. Mr. Merkle stated that it is advisable to have a start shed for the growing of orchids and when the temperature is low he advocated using a wide roll of cotton muslin around the shed with a kerosene heater inside.

At the conclusion of his talk Mrs. Merkle displayed colored slides which showed the exotic flower in all of its beautiful shades of purple, pink, green, brick orange, blue, white and yellow in all shapes and ranging from large ones, nine inches in diameter, to the most minute blossoms.

In introducing the well-known orchidologist, Mrs. Ganas stated that he is an authority on orchids and tropical plants and is associated with Alberts and Merkle Wholesale, Inc. which has orchid ranches at Mandarin and Boynton Beach.

A covered dish luncheon opened the meeting with the buffet table being decorated with beautiful orchids, ferns and other greens. Beginning at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. James Terwilliger conducted a short business session at which time Mrs. George Hardin was elected president, and Mrs. L. E. Spencer as recording secretary.

The meeting was then turned over to the new president who called for reports from various officers. Committee chairman, Mrs. Ganas told of a flower show school to be held at the Garden Center Oct. 22-24 and Mrs. James Gut read a letter of invitation to a district meeting to be held in Leesburg on Nov. 7.

During the meeting Mrs. Hardin urged members to donate to the blood bank and introduced Mack Cleveland, local attorney, who presented a number of pro and con arguments on the passing of the school amendment in the coming election.

Hostesses for the occasion were the courteous chairman, Mrs. Ganas including Mrs. J. A. Young, Mrs. W. B. Nicholson, Mrs. W. D. Gardner, Mrs. Charles Morrison, Mrs. W. E. Vihlen, Mrs. W. B. Brinson, Mrs. Joe Messler, Mrs. Carl Chopping Sr., Mrs. M. L. Tillis and Mrs. C. L. Park. The devotional prior to the luncheon was given by Mrs. W. P. Yeakle.

Women's Society Has Study Course
The Women's Society of Christian Service presented the book "These Things We Hold" for study by the W.S.C.S. on Wednesday morning from 9:30 to 12:30 o'clock. As devotionals by Mrs. Eva Harkey opened the meeting with a devotional and Mrs. M. R. Strickland, secretary of mission study, reviewed the introduction to the book. The various chapters were presented by Mrs. R. W. Thrallkill, Mrs. W. P. Chapman and Mrs. Carl Williams. A reading "The Old One Devoted" was given by Mrs. E. C. Williams.

A skill, based on the book, was announced by Mrs. Ray Heron and those taking part were Mrs. W. A. Henter, Mrs. J. C. Davis, Mrs. C. E. Chopping Sr., Mrs. R. T. Warren, Mrs. W. W. Terry, Mrs. J. N. Azzarello and Mrs. Heron.

Another session was held at 8:30 p. m. in McKinley Hall opening with a covered dish supper, with Rev. J. E. McKinley leading the devotional. His subject was "Acknowledging God In All Things."

Mrs. R. F. Cole told a Mexican story relating to human rights and Mrs. Roy Wall rendered "Go, Make Disciples." A training course held in Lakeland in August was described by Miss Louise Sipple who had as her theme "The Place of the Church in the United Nations."

Mack Cleveland, local attorney, was introduced by Mrs. Strickland, and spoke on the proposed Constitutional amendments to be voted on in November. He urged everyone to vote.

Decorations in the auditorium included three flags, the American flag, the United Nations flag, and the Christian flag. Red and white Autumn leaves with blue dried grass tips, formed further decorations along a patriotic theme.

Supper Is Sponsored By Theater Guild

The Sanford Theater Guild was the sponsor last night of a highly successful spaghetti supper held at the Woman's Club for the purpose of raising funds for operating their new venture. Pat Berger is director-producer of the group's forthcoming play "The Night of January 16th."

A delicious spaghetti supper was served in about 120 persons between the hours of 6:00 and 8:00 p. m. The supper committee was made up of Mrs. Francis Roumillat Jr. and Mike Sirlanni who prepared the sauce, Italian style, and they were assisted by all members of the Guild.

Decorations in the club were under the direction of Mrs. Paul Russell with flowers being obtained by Miss Bobbie Morton. Lovely arrangements of hibiscus and other fall flowers were used.

Mr. Berger announced this morning that the Guild will receive a charter today from Judge Millard R. Smith and today also marks the signing of a year's lease for the Guild building.

Casting for the Guild's first play is now taking place and plans are being made to present the play in November.

Senator Taft Says People Really Do "Like" General Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft said today he has found "the great majority of the people really do like Ike," and predicted Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower would win the election.

The Ohio senator, who was Eisenhower's chief rival for the Republican presidential nomination, said after three weeks of campaigning he had become convinced Eisenhower's "very wide personal popularity" would be a key factor in a GOP triumph.

Writing in Pathfinder magazine, Taft said if Eisenhower wins, he will carry with him both the House and Senate.

The Senate race will be close, the Ohioan added, but an Eisenhower victory probably would mean the Republicans would pick up nine seats there and that this would offset some probable losses.

The present Senate lineup is 49 Democrats, 47 Republicans.

Taft predicted the GOP would carry New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut, and Maryland.

He added, however, that Eisenhower could win without New York "particularly if he can add Virginia, Tennessee and Texas to his column, which I believe to be very likely."

Taft wrote that "the main reason which makes me feel confident of a Republican victory is the deep seated resentment against the Truman administration and all its works."

The Ohioan, who lost a bitter fight for his party's nomination, commented that "Democrats were exceedingly hopeful that my supporters among the Republicans would supply a critical feeling" against Eisenhower.

"But," the senator said, "I find that almost without exception they are reconciled to the decision of the Republican convention and doing all they can to secure the election of the nominee of the convention."

Taft said "The whole Democratic campaign is based on the demagogic appeal to special interest groups 'on the theory that they will vote in accordance with the alleged interest of their pocket books'."

Truman Scores Ike On Korean Position

ABROAD THURMAN THAI Non-President Truman declared today that Dwight D. Eisenhower "appears to be willing to undermine our safety if that will get him elected president."

He asserted that the GOP presidential nominee "is apparently suggesting that we pull our troops out of Korea and let the South Koreans do all the fighting."

The President went on to say, in a campaign address prepared for delivery at Lawrence, Mass., during the second day of a train and automobile stumping tour of New England:

"I've never seen anything cheaper in politics. We can not do what he suggested—without appraising our commitment in Korea—and he knows it."

The President pushed his drive for Democratic votes in New Hampshire and Massachusetts with increasing intensity after speeches yesterday denouncing GOP criticism of his administration as "misrepresented" and "so many lies."

Encouraged by large and friendly crowds in Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Hampshire, he set up another heavy schedule of talks taking him into Boston for a major speech at 9:30 p. m., in Symphony Hall.

Meanwhile, in a speech prepared for reading to a conference of the National Jewish Welfare Board in Washington, Truman accused Eisenhower of being "morally blind" and willing to accept practices of the German Nazi regime.

In a scathing denunciation of the McCarran immigration bill, passed by Congress June 27 over his veto, Truman said it adds up to "the philosophy of racial superiority developed by the Nazis."

Among those who voted for the bill, Truman said, were Republican Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California—now the GOP candidate for vice president—and Republican Sen. William E. Jenner of Indiana and Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin, running for re-election this year.

Truman noted that Eisenhower has endorsed them, and seen added:

"The Republican candidate for the presidency can not escape responsibility for his endorsements. He has had an attack of moral blindness, for today he is willing to accept the very practices that identified the 'inferior races' although he took a leading part in liberating Europe from their domination."

Teamsters Endorse Candidate Stevenson

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters after adopting a resolution endorsing Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Sen. John Sparkman, set about today to elect its own president at the 11th annual convention.

The endorsement of the Democratic standard bearer came yesterday.

Missing Student Is Found At Terminal

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Police reported that Roy S. Durstine Jr., 18, who disappeared from his Harvard dormitory late Wednesday was located today.

Police said Durstine, son of a New York advertising executive, reported to the Traveler's Aid station in Boston's North railroad terminal and was upset over publicity given his disappearance. They had no explanation of his absence and said they understood he has gone to New York.

The youth disappeared from Harvard after leaving four notes at the door of a proctor of Claverly Hall where Durstine lived.

F. Skiddy Von Stede, Durstine's freshman dean, said the note to him read in part: "I've made a mess of things. This is goodbye."

Negro Dies In Flames Saving Race Horses

CHIESTEEL, W. VA. (AP)—A Negro groom trying to lead horses to safety from flame-filled barns died at least five horses missing in the result of a roaring blaze which swept through a large section of the Waterford Race Track stables.

The flames broke out during the running of the seventh race yesterday. Nearly 4,000 spectators were asked to stay in their seats a half-mile away as screams and other track employees rushed to release frightened horses.

About four hours after the blaze had started firemen found the body of William Toppacott, 45, near one of the eight level stables.

Jockey Tim O'Harrington, 25, of Shreveport, La., suffered rib injuries when he was knocked down by a fleeing horse.

There were 250 horses stabled in the barns which were destroyed and some are still being rounded up. It will probably be late today before it can be ascertained if any of the missing horses were destroyed in the blaze.

Origin of the fire could not be determined immediately.

Rooms Of Reporter Searched In Cairo

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Michael Clark, correspondent for the New York Times, said today police searched his apartment last night and that his interpreter was taken to the Ministry of Interior for questioning.

Police picked up several foreign newsmen for questioning and there were reports that a number of Egyptian reporters were being given similar treatment.

Clark said his apartment was searched while he was away. His interpreter, Maurice Fahmy, works also for the Middle East News Agency.

Police also picked up Alan McGregor, a Britisher on the staff of the Egyptian Gazette, for questioning. McGregor was released after several hours. McGregor is correspondent also for International News Service and the Kemsley newspapers in the British Isles.

He said his interrogation was "not in any way unpleasant and dealt with questions concerning former German generals connected with the Egyptian Army who had figured in news reports."

There was no official statement on the action. One Egyptian National Colonel said it was taken to "safeguard the integrity" of the state. He made no elaboration.

Roosevelt Son, John, Is Speaker For Ike

DETROIT (AP)—John Roosevelt, the 36-year-old son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, last night campaigned here for the presidency of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

"Making his first speech in behalf of the Republican candidate, the youngest son of the late President told two audiences that his father once warned of the dangers of one party remaining in office for too long a time.

Roosevelt quoted an address made by his father while governor of New York.

"Even a wisely led political party, given long tenure of office, finally fails to express the will of the people. It ceases to be an effective instrument of government. It is far better for such a political party, certainly better for the state, that it should be relegated to the role of critic and that the opposing political party should assume the reins of government."

Operation On Heart Of Child Is Success

BOSTON (AP)—Little Pearl Simco, who feared surgery would be fatal, underwent a successful heart operation today at Children's Medical Center.

In a post-operative bulletin, the hospital said:

"Barring any unforeseen complications, child ought to do well, be greatly benefited and return to normal."

Heart specialists said the eight-year-old child suffered from a condition known as patent ductus arteriosus—a leak between the two blood vessels leading from the heart.

Without the operation, doctors said, the girl would not have lived four more years.

Steamship Rescues Father, Son In Gulf

MIAMI (AP)—The steamship Joseph Lykes reported to the Coast Guard today it had rescued a father and son missing on boats in the Gulf of Mexico for a week and is taking them to Tampa.

The men, H. J. and Richard Andrews, told the rescuers they were traveling from Jacksonville to St. Petersburg with a 27-foot boat towing a 20-foot craft. One man was on each boat.

Off Boca Grande, an island west of Fort Myers in the gulf, a small strike and blew both boats out to sea, the men told their rescuers. The smaller boat sank and both men waited on the larger craft for help.

The steamship took the men ashore and attempted to tow their boat but it, too, sank.

"Both men in good health," the Lykes radiated to the Coast Guard search and rescue base at Miami.

Blimp Joins Search In Okefenokee Swamp

WAYCROSS, Ga. (AP)—An air search continued today of the vast Okefenokee Swamp for two men who have been missing in the wildlife refuge since Monday.

A blimp from the Glynn naval base at Brunswick sailed over the swamp and alligator infested wilderness. Boat and ground parties fanned the area where the men entered the swamp.

Okefenokee Park officials heard a rumor that one member of the searching party had seen the men on one of the few roads in the area. They were not immediately able to contact the source of the rumour.

The missing men were identified by Roy Moore, manager of the Okefenokee National Wildlife Refuge as William Edwards of Danville, Ky., a seaman stationed at the Jacksonville Naval Air Station and Pfc. George Anderson of Hague, N.Y.

They rented a paddleboat Monday afternoon. Searching parties were sent out when they failed to return by sunset.

Slaughter Chosen As Comeback Star For This Season

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—Eros (Country) Slaughter, veteran outfield star of the St. Louis Cardinals, was selected today as the player who made the greatest comeback of the 1952 baseball season.

The slugging country boy from North Carolina, generally regarded as one of the game's fiercest competitors, captured the Associated Press "Comeback-of-the-Year" award handsly, receiving 28 of the 61 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Thirteen other candidates were nominated but none proved any serious threat to the polking Redbird Luke Easter of Cleveland and came second with 11 votes.

It's easy to see why the experts voted for Slaughter, the original perpetual motion kid, who never walks when he can run to the nearest exit, or base.

The balding flycatcher was considered all washed up last April after hitting a lousy .211 in 123 games in 1951. But he astounded the critics by not only participating in 140 contests but hitting at an even .300 clip. The was not all. The husky Carolinian, who will be 37 next April, batted in 101 runs and swatted 40 extra base hits including 11 home runs, 12 triples and 17 doubles.

The Cardinals, off to a poor start, caught fire in mid-season and finished a strong third. They played the best ball in the league in the second half of the season, principally because of Slaughter's hot bat that picked up 37 RBIs and seven home runs over the previous season.

Durable Eros became a Cardinal back in 1938 and has been a star ever since. Oldest regular in the major leagues, Slaughter still is the take charge guy of his club. His spirit, always fierce and flaming, has not waned a bit despite his 15 years in the big leagues.

Safety Action Urged On Local Authorities

CHICAGO (AP)—Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado told traffic experts today that if local governments can not handle the traffic safety problem the federal government may have to take over the job.

The governor told traffic officials gathered for the President's Highway Safety Conference that the stop may come in 10 or 20 years if loss of life in traffic continues to rise.

"We have already seen the federal government undertake many functions originally given to the states because we refused or failed to undertake them and satisfy demands of our citizens," Thornton told the conference.

"This can and will happen in this field of traffic safety," he added, "unless we can prove to our national leaders that we have the will and ability to curb a national disgrace."

Fliers Spot Body Of Man Near Pensacola

PENSACOLA (AP)—A Navy pilot and a cadet spotted a man's body in a clearing near Lyons Field a few miles from Pensacola Thursday morning.

Investigator C. W. Solari and Deputy Sheriff Doug Morris set out to locate the body but couldn't find it. The Navy also sent a helicopter to the area where it landed. The pilot rushed up to the inert form, examined it. It was a straw scarecrow in old clothes which had looked exactly like a man.

Seminoles Seek 3rd Straight Win In Palatka Tonight

Down Field Blocking Must Click Again For Feds To Win, Say Both Coaches

By KENT CHETLAIN
Sanford's unexpectedly powerful gridiron heroes of Seminole High School will test their new found strength in conference competition for the first time this season as they invade the foreign confines of Palatka to tangle with the Maroons tonight under the stars.

Experts are at a loss to predict the winner of this fray. Solely on the basis of season's records, Sanford is the favorite having a 2-0-1 record while Palatka has an even 2-2 season's count. Neither Coach Fred Gans and Bill Fleming would venture a prediction other than to reiterate the same story this week. "They will be tough."

However, they did say Sanford could win again this week if the down field blocking clicking again as it was last Friday night against Tavares.

A closer look at the Palatka record this year shows they have been a team of erratic play. The Maroons opened against the Cove Springs with an impressive 47-0 rout over the Gustafson milk feds. But along came a strong De-

Hubba Hubba Ed Lockett

Land eleven and almost reversed the score winning 40-7.

Palatka bounced back to defeat highly touted Starke, 12-7, only to fall before a questionable McClenny again, 20-7, last week. This will be an important contest for the Celery Feds tonight since they are very much in the race for a conference play-off berth in the South.

Deland is the biggest threat to the Seminoles in the Southern sector. Sanford will wind up their season's slate on Thanksgiving with the Bulls when it may determine the East Florida Conference's Southern champs.

The Celery Feds will be dependent on their own ground assault of Junior "Fido Threat" Metts and Ed "The Hockett" Lockett. Metts has rolled up 250 yards in three games this season for a total of 74 yards per try. This compares to his last season's total record of 300 yards gained and 6.2 total per try.

Ed Lockett has been the big No. 2 man on the Feds this season. The fullback has consistently proven his ability to punt and kick off returns besides piling up the second largest total yards this season. Lockett's 157 yards in three games is seven more than he picked up all last year.

The most heartening sign all season has been the excellent play of Hubba Hubba and Bill Fleming at the guards plus the surprising defensive game and offensive blocking of Fullback Ray Davis. Joe Fleming has been turning in a consistent job at tackle as has novice John Carter.

Backfield coach Bill Fleming was quite pleased with the passing of Junior Hubba. While the latter was not setting any records in the air, he showed signs of developing a powerful passing game for the Feds, Fleming said.

The Seminoles return here next Friday night to play St. Augustine.

Mentor Quits Over De-Emphasis Trend

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Edgar (Egg) Manake, who played or coached football two-thirds of his 30 years, said today he's quitting as an end coach at undefeated California after this season "because de-emphasis is inevitable on its way out," he declared. "There is no cut in the game, even for a head coach."

For the present, college presidents are tolerating the time-consuming ball. But they don't like it, and eventually they'll get what they want," Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf, head coach of California's No. 3 rated team in The Associated Press poll, disagreed.

Manake said "Man and boy, I've been in football 27 years and I've enjoyed every minute of it." That record ranges from school boy games through hard work at Northwestern, pro ball with the Philadelphia Eagles and Chicago Bears, and coaching at Boston University, Maryland and California.

"De-emphasis is inevitable," Manake continued. "Even at a general estimate I can't give college football more than another 15 years."

On the other hand, it is my sincere belief that football in the colleges has been overdone. Too much importance has been placed on winning less than on playing.

"Big time football has taken the game too far away from its original purpose and now will be one of the things that will take it off the field," he believes, will take the game.

Waldorf made it plain he doesn't see Manake's gloomy outlook for the future. "I don't see any de-emphasis in the air," he said. "I've seen it in the '20's when the great college football coaches were further than 50 years off the scene. They trained the Giants by that margin in 1935."

1,000 Are Expected To See Sunday's Ski-Capades At Lakefront

Lions Club Brings Widely Acclaimed Water Show Here For First Time

Breathing action, glamorous beauty queens and the zany acrobatics of the famous Ski-Capades water skiing extravaganza will make their debut along the Sanford lakefront Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock under the auspices of the local Lions Club.

Such water skiing specialists as Nancie Cooper, vivacious ChuChi Coker, Margaret Mangum and blonde beauty Phyllis Brettlell make up the eye-popping acts that are interspersed with the skilled grations and performance of national champion Henry Suidam and his son Shimmam.

Over 400 bleacher seats will be available in the roped-off section of Lakefront Boulevard across from the Elks playground. A 25 cent charge for the bleachers seats to help defray the cost of moving them.

Lion officials predict a crowd in excess of 1,000 will turn out Sunday afternoon for Sanford's first look at a creditable job of planning the water show that attracted thousands during the past summer throughout the North.

The Ski-Capades are produced by Orlando's Bill Martin, who clowns when he isn't directing the show. His cast of talented skiers is the largest of its kind in the United States and the subsequent summer tour troupe is likewise the biggest ensemble in America.

Clarence Welsh, who generally excels at reapplying tires, has assumed a creditable job of planning the Lions Club's big show as chairman.

Hoppe Quits After 46-Year Domination

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (AP) — The strain of tournament competition has done what no hitting expert could achieve in the last 46 years—make Willie Hoppe quit.

At the age of 63, the silver-haired coach master has announced his retirement from the tourney trail which he ruled with a matchless invincibility.

Thus, a sports era closes, locked in Hoppe as the last of the great champions of the golden 20s that included Babe Ruth, Bobby Jones and Jack Dempsey.

He reigned as the longest reigning champion, a holder of a world's billiard title of one kind or another since 1906. With a collection of 31 championships, Hoppe has monopolized his field like no other sports figure in history.

He overwhelmed opponents of the ballgame and with an outstanding record of calculating numbers. But the tenacious with which the mild-mannered, well-groomed little man trained and competed vibrated within him.

It only began to show several years ago.

"I was new, jumpy feeling swept over me," Hoppe explained. "And when I won the three-cushion little last March in San Francisco I got some spells with my heart. It palpitated. Sure, it scared me. Took a lot out of me."

Georgia Tech Seeks 19th Straight Win In Auburn Contest

ATLANTA (AP) — A second string quartet and a fair defensive team will carry the hopes of an underdog Auburn football team in its traditional game with Georgia Tech here tomorrow.

Tech is ranked fourth in the nation in The Associated Press poll. The Engineers haven't lost a game in their last 19 outings. Auburn has its most potent defensive weapon in its traditional game with Georgia Tech here tomorrow.

Auburn will go into the game probably without the services of Vince Dooley, first team quarterback who twisted a knee in the Mississippi game two weeks ago.

The Tigers' second string performer, Dudley Spence, may be double trouble for Tech. Spence has a mark of 23 completions in 32 passes attempted this season, and his punting has been little less than phenomenal. The McComb, Miss., punter has been Auburn's most potent defensive weapon with his 46.3 yards punting average.

Coach Ralph Jordan has indicated that the Tigers will see a mild-to-moderate "We don't have enough runners so we'll have to do a lot of throwing," said Jordan.

Georgia Tech may make it an all-weather battle. Coach Bobby Dodd has Jeff Knox and Buck Martin—a pair of 6-4 ends—as receivers and Quarterback Bill Brigrum as a passer.

It was Martin who delivered the knockout blow in Auburn's 27-7 defeat last season. He caught four touchdowns and smaller Tiger defenders. Dodd may be on firm ground when he says Martin is the best offensive end in the nation.

Tech's attack isn't limited to passing alone. The Yellow Jackets have an ample supply of good running backs.

Leon Hardeman has gained 426 yards in four games this year for a 6.1 average. He's the top ground gainer in the Conference. Larry Rank and Betty Jameson lead off this morning for the first 18 holes of their 36-hole match for the Hardscrabble Women's Invitational golf tournament here.

Miss Smith of Wichita, Kan., the tourney's medalist, ousted defending champion Mary Lena Faulk of Texasville, Ga., in a semi-final round yesterday, 2 and 2.

Miss Jameson, who hails from San Antonio, Tex., advanced to the final round with a 3 and 3 victory over Barbara Babbock of Sacramento, Calif., in the other semi-final go.

The youthful Kansas and Miss Faulk were nip-and-tuck until the 16th hole yesterday, but Miss Smith won that hole and the 17th to clinch the victory.

Davey Is Favored To Win His 17th Consecutive Bout

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK (AP) — Husky Dave Davey aims for his 17th straight victory tonight and it's 2 to 1 he won't make it.

The 23-year old rookie heavyweight of Washington faces experienced, hard-hitting Danny Baccaroni of Philadelphia in a 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena which will be telecast nationally.

Lanky Danny has been made the favorite because of his first savvy, punch and because he has met sterner opposition.

The odds don't faze Davey. He insisted on the match although his manager, Fred Crisp, would have no trouble with the Vol.

Neyland and his aides have worked furiously trying to sharpen up Davey's single wing attack.

"We spent a lot of time throwing the ball," the Vol coach declared. "If we can't run on them, maybe we can throw it."

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP) — It has come to our ears from several sources lately that Jack Kramer, the tennis player-promoter from California, already has accepted Madison Square Garden for a night in February to open a professional tour against Frank Sedgman of Australia, presently the greatest amateur player, so-called.

On the word of Ned Irish, the executive vice president in charge of the Crisman, Kramer has asked me what dates are open in February and I have told him. It's gone no further than that, and I'm not sure that it will do so.

"I recall that he asked me the same thing about a year ago. Or maybe it was Bobby Riggs—I believe they were working together, but the situation was the same then that it is now, I think. They were hopeful that Sedgman would turn pro right after the Davis Cup matches. Now Kramer is hopeful again."

But, we interposed respectfully, would it not be possible for Kramer to take the big gamble and go ahead and stage the Garden for a night in February? If Sedgman should fall to show up again, the pro champ could always play somebody else.

"No," Irish said, coldly. "It would want to be Sedgman. We wouldn't want Kramer playing this other fellow from out on the coast—what his name, Pancho Gonzalez? We wouldn't want that."

From which it may be judged that the Garden is pretty particular about its tenants. Kramer will have to put it down in black and white that Sedgman is in the bag before his money is any good with Irish.

Last time we saw Jack in the East he said he still was trying, but that the Aussie ace had not 1950.

Miranda and DeMaestri will be won obtained by the White Sox a year ago from the Washington Senators, traded to the Browns last June 18 and then taken back by the White Sox on 11/11 later in the season. He batted .315 this year.

DeMaestri, also 24, was drafted by the White Sox from Birmingham in 1950, played for the Sox in 1951 batting .268. He was turned over to the Browns last season. He batted .296 in 81 games for the Browns.

Edwards, 34, was bought by the Sox from the Cincinnati Reds last Sept. 2, and hit .238 in eight games.

Browns Trade Tommy Byrne To White Sox

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox today traded infielder Willie Miranda and outfielder Hank Edwards of the St. Louis Browns for pitcher Tommy Byrne and infielder Joe DeMaster.

The Sox tabbed Byrne, a 7-14 performer for the Browns last season, as the "bargain" of the straight swap.

Manager Paul Richards of the Sox tried to get Lefty Byrne, 29, from the New York Yankees in 1951, but the Browns got him instead. Byrne had a 15-7 record for the Yanks in 1949 and 15-9 in 1950.

Ex-Neyland Aide Picks Alabama Over Tennessee

Volts Lack Punch On Offense And Are Weak On Defense

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A former top lieutenant in Tennessee Coach Hob Neyland predicted today that Alabama will beat Tennessee from one to two touchdowns in the 33th renewal of their ancient football rivalry tomorrow.

Col. Bill Britton, who spent nearly 20 years as an assistant coach on the Tennessee staff, said Alabama was his choice to win for these reasons:

1. Tennessee's pass defense is inadequate.

2. Tennessee's defensive line is too slow.

3. The Vol's offense has no leader to give it the necessary winning spark.

Britton, now an official of the Atomic Energy Commission at nearby Oak Ridge, said he thought the Vol's defensive line, led by Tackle Doug Atkins, is a fine one, but he added:

"They miss those game-saving, open field tackles made last year by Tackle Bill Fearman and Guard Ted Daffner."

Both Fearman and Daffner were All America linemen.

Britton said except for Andy Kovar, the Vol's hard-running fullback, he hadn't seen much of anything in the way of offensive punch by the Tennessee team.

Kovar, in his opinion, is the finest running back Tennessee has had since Gene McEver," said Britton, a classmate of Neyland's at West Point.

Alabama fans will remember McEver as the great fullback who led Tennessee to a stunning 15-13 upset victory over Alabama in 1928 to open the modern rivalry between the two Southeastern Conference schools.

Britton suggested that if Alabama's defensive line can stop Britton, Tennessee should have no trouble with the Vol.

Neyland and his aides have worked furiously trying to sharpen up the Crimson Tide's attack.

"We spent a lot of time throwing the ball," the Vol coach declared. "If we can't run on them, maybe we can throw it."

Hurricanes Are 4 TD Favorite Over Richmond Tonight

MIAMI (AP) — After what happened in Boston, the Miami Hurricanes are expected to attract only about 28,000 fans for their football tussle with Richmond in the Orange Bowl tonight.

Miami was supposed to beat Boston last week by about three touchdowns, but lost 9-7. That, coupled with the previous week's beating by Alabama, chilled the enthusiasm of the fans for Coach Andy Gustafson's new team.

It will be the first time Miami's home football attendance has dropped below 30,000 since midway in the 1950 season, when 28,824 saw an unbeaten Hurricane club get tied by little Louisville.

Richmond is supposed to surrender to Miami by about four touchdowns.

The Miami running corps will be strengthened by the return of Halfback Harry Mallon to full-time duty. Mallon has been fighting a throat infection and knee injuries.

But it isn't the running that worries Gustafson so much as the passing. So far, the Hurricane aerial thrusts have been so impotent, the opposition has been able to use eight and nine man defensive lines.

After beating Randolph-Macon, Richmond has lost to Boston College, VMI and Washington and Lee. Miami walloped VMI 45-0 before losing to Alabama and Boston.

1952 Grid Season Reveals Few Upsets And Role Of B Defense

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK (AP) — This 1952 college football season, which has not even reached the halfway point, has shown at least two unusual tendencies: (A) there have been few upsets, and (B) defense has become the thing.

The teams that were thought to have the power at the start of the season generally have come through. Perhaps the biggest reversal of form to date was Pitt's triumph over Notre Dame last week. But the Irish were not considered any great shakes.

Wisconsin got beaten by Ohio State in another upset but there again the Buckeyes always were tough and not too many observers (outside Wisconsin) were actually startled.

The others all were strictly minor, a surprising situation in these days of teams facing major opponents without warmup games or even without spring practice.

As for defense, since the two-planet system went into effect, the kids who tried to hold the enemy were the unsung heroes. Some of them, in fact, weren't even heroes. They were just unsung period.

But when the defense that licked Wisconsin for Ohio State it was Penn's defense that held off Princeton and enabled the Quakers to snap the Tigers' 24-game winning streak, and it is the defensive platoon that's carrying Southern California.

Well, there's no guarantee that those trends will continue tomorrow when virtually every team in the country moves into action.

The Big Seven race should be decided when two of the top-ranking teams in the weekly Associated Press poll tangle in Lawrence, Kas. Oklahoma, No. 6, meets Kansas, No. 8, and to the

Trice-Beaten FSU Continues Practice

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — The Florida State University football squad will scrimmage again today in wind up a rough week of drills to build a defense.

Coach Don Veller said he would give his players the week end off, but more rugged work could be expected next week.

"We'll never win until we've learned to stop the other fellow," the coach of the three-beaten Seminoles said. "The team we've learned to tackle is to practice tackling under game conditions."

(Donald Breger, 240-pounder, and Dasey, 225-pounder, apparently have won starting berths on defense for FSU's next start, against North Carolina State at Raleigh Oct. 25.)

"They're coming along well and we need their beef up front," Veller said.

Nelson Italiano, veteran fullback worked on defense in scrimmage Thursday, the first contact drill in which he has taken part this week. He has had knee, shoulder and back injuries.

Tommy Thompson and Bobby Fivesell still are passing up the rough stuff because of injuries.

Patte Warns Team Of Over-Confidence

DELAND (AP) — Coach Jay Patte cautioned his Stetson Hatters against overconfidence today as they wound up drills for the Tampa game at Tampa Saturday night.

"We have not won a decision over a Tampa team in two years," he told the squad still exuberant over its smashing victory last weekend over Furman.

Tampa backed Stetson, 27-20, in 1950, and the teams tied, 14-14, last year.

Sonny Parrish, the regular safety by man, was moved up Thursday to understudy offensive quarterback Ron DeJalla.
