

Gay 'Champagne Waltz' Is Feature Tomorrow And Monday At Ritz

Gladys Swarthout And Fred MacMurray In Leading Roles Of Glamorous Hit

A brilliant melange of music, with beauty and dancing, as effervescent as its title, and as charming as only a romance in gay Vienna could be, brings Fred MacMurray, Gladys Swarthout, Jack Oakie and a host of other noted screen players to the Ritz Theater Sunday and Monday in "Champagne Waltz."

With Fred MacMurray as the leader of an American "swing" orchestra, and Miss Swarthout as the granddaughter of the musical director in a Viennese waltz palace, the music in "Champagne Waltz" covers the entire gamut of light and popular music. Miss Swarthout's beautiful voice makes it a real treat to the musically inclined of all shades.

"Champagne Waltz" is the story of an American band leader, played by MacMurray, who goes to Vienna and captures the city with his "swing" music. This plays havoc with the business of the waltz palace, operated by Fritz Lieber. Miss Swarthout, his granddaughter, attempts to remedy matters by going to the American consul to complain about MacMurray. She meets him there and he poses as the consul. The two become friends and love blooms.

She calls the consulate and is connected with the consul's wife who tells her the truth. She is heartbroken, but MacMurray explains that he is in reality an ex-box salesman. They go to the jazz palace where MacMurray introduces Oakie as the band leader. Oakie doesn't understand an air but on the fact that the jazz palace is to take over the old waltz palace. Broken-hearted and aware of the whole truth at last, Miss Swarthout and Lieber leave the waltz palace. Remorseful, MacMurray goes back to America. Miss Swarthout and Lieber come to America and open a waltz palace which becomes a sensation. One day Miss Swarthout meets MacMurray. He is down and out. They discover that the waltz and "swing" can get along very satisfactorily and the romance blooms again.

'Legion Of Terror' To Be Shown Next Saturday At Ritz

Ripped from sensational headlines of recent months, telling one of the strangest stories ever to come from American life, is Columbia's dramatic "Legion of Terror," which is scheduled to show next Saturday at the Ritz Theater. Bruce Cabot, Marguerite Churchill and Crawford Weaver, a newcomer, head the cast.

The activities of the infamous hooded legion that terrorized many communities in the mid-west provides the theme of the film, as the title may have hinted. Much excitement is injected into the picture when the Federal Government, in the person of Postal Inspectors, go to work on the hooded folk when they attempt to send a time-bomb through the mails.

Cabot and Weaver are seen at the post office department's sleuths. Arriving at the scene of the legion's activities, they meet Miss Churchill, whose brother is waging a single-handed fight against the lawless band. The two Federal men pose as sympathizers to inveigle their way into the good graces of the legion, and, borning from within, manage to bring the night riders to grief.

Entering motion pictures four years ago, Gail Patrick today holds the title of the "most photographed girl on the screen." Thousands of different photographs support that claim. Miss Patrick's latest role is in Universal's "My Man Godfrey" which stars William Powell and Carole Lombard.

Victor McLaglin, giant leading man in RKO Radio's adventure drama "Sea Devils," once fought a ten round, no decision bout with Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion of the world. In the photoplay, McLaglin engages in four first and rough-and-tumble fights with Preston Foster, another athletic star.

'Love Is News' To Show Here For Two Days

The romance of a thrilling threesome whose kisses crash the headlines and whose escapades sell extras, with handsome Tyrone Power outromancing his "Lloyds of London" role, lively Loretta Young bringing her fresh charm to a portrayal that is enchanting and different, and Don Ameche creating a dashing new screen characterization, provides hilarious excitement in the Twentieth Century-Fox streamline hit "Love Is News," opening Wednesday at the Ritz Theater.

With Loretta in the role of a beautiful heiress heckled and pestered by sensation-seeking newspapers, the enjoyable pace is set. She gives newsmen Tyrone a dose of his own medicine to make him a public figure, and announces her engagement to him.

Designed on every hand, Tyrone strives to expose the hoax by his efforts serve only to increase his notoriety, as well as his unpopularity with the managing editor. On a wild chase into the country, both the newshawk and his quarry are arrested for speeding and jailed by County Judge Slim Summerville, an incident which results in some of the most hilarious moments in the film.

'My Man Godfrey' Returns To Ritz

"My Man Godfrey" is a gay debonair modern comedy, light as a feather, madder and merrier than a million March hares masquerading the multiplication table. This Universal laugh riot, starring William Powell and Carole Lombard, returns to the Ritz Friday.

The screen story relates the ventures of William Powell, portraying a butler in the delightfully ditty Bullock family. One daughter, played by Carole Lombard, falls in love with him. Her sister tries to have him jailed. The maid falls in love with him, too. The mother likes him, but she has a parlor pet of her own. The fun gets faster and more furious every second, with laughs bursting like bombshells. The cast includes such excellent players as Alice Brady, Gail Patrick, Jean Dixon, Eugene Pallette, Alan Mowbray, Mischa Auer and Robert Light. The picture was made by Gregory La Cava, one of Hollywood's foremost directors.

Topnotch Comedy Is Tuesday At Ritz Theater

Comical adventures and misadventures of rich Americans in Paris provide the hilarity in "Mama Steps Out," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's satire on foreign travel which introduces a new comedy team in Guy Kibbee and Alice Brady. The picture comes to the Ritz Theater Tuesday.

The story deals with a rich manufacturer who takes his family for a trip to France. The wife, gets ideas of "culture" which result in their Mediterranean villa being filled with eccentric personages including an odd novelist, artist and musician. Meantime the daughter of the family, destined by her mother to fall in love with a nobleman, elopes with an American crooner. Betty Furness is cast as the daughter who loves the crooner, the latter being played by Stanley Morner.

Lovers Reunited In 'Once A Doctor' At Ritz Next Friday

Jean Muir's first starring picture and Donald Woods' first picture of any sort was "As the Earth Turns," in which both made a big hit nearly three years ago.

Despite the demand on the part of the public for teaming them again, the combinations of changes represented by stories, roles, and cast selections kept the two apart practically all the time until "Once A Doctor," the First National picture showing at the Ritz Theater Friday, brought them together recently.

Both have advanced greatly as players, and have taken on a new polish, and definiteness, because of the many pictures they have made separately. The change in Jean's appearance, of course, emphasizes this.

"Once A Doctor" is a thrilling story of the brave fight made by a young physician to regain the place in the medical world which he lost by shouldering the blame for another surgeon's blunders.

SEA BREAKS UP GRID ACT

McLaglen, Foster 'Sea Devils' In Bitter Fist Feud

When Chief Bo'sun's Mate Victor McLaglen and Seaman Preston Foster get together, they always fight—in fact, these giants clash four times in RKO Radio's rousing screen drama "Sea Devils" at the Ritz Theater Wednesday and Thursday.

McLaglen plays a swashbuckling Chief Petty Officer in the Coast Guard, who determines that Preston Foster, a globe-trotting ladies' man, is not going to break his daughter's heart.

Foster and Ida Lupino have different ideas about their romance, resulting in a hectic series of adventures, with the hard-boiled father and his prospective son-in-law clawing at each other's throats. This is the second time McLaglen and Foster have appeared together, the first having been in the prize-winning photoplay of 1935, "The Informer." Foster and Miss Lupino play opposite each other in romantic roles for the first time. Donald Woods also is seen in one of the principal roles, and the cast includes such names as Gordon Jones, Helen Flint, Pierre Watkin, Murray Alper and Billy Gilbert.

As a background, the thrilling exploits of the Coast Guard in rescuing lives off shore and at sea, and patrolling steamer lanes for ice hazards lends color and adventure to the drama. Ben Stuloff directed.

Earthquake Hits On Pacific Coast In Early Morning

San Francisco Bay Region Sleepers Aroused; Goods On Shelves Topped

Tremor Heaviest Since '06 Terror

Alarmed Residents Show Indication Of Hasty Exits

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 8. (AP)—Residents of the San Francisco Bay region were shaken from sleep early today by an earthquake which knocked articles from shelves in the East Bay cities.

Police at Albany and the sheriff's office in Martinez said the movement there was the sharpest they had felt since the 1906 San Francisco disaster.

The quake was described by the Fort Funston Coast Guard Station as "sharp."

Bottles on liquor store shelves were shaken to the floor and broken in an Albany store. The shock was less severe in San Francisco where the telephone company reported hundreds of calls by alarmed residents.

Toll collectors on the San Francisco-Oakland bridge reported a marked pickup in traffic shortly after the shock. They said motorists indicated they were in a hurry to leave. City street lights were put out of commission in some East Bay sections.

One resident of Richmond was reported to have been shaken out of his chair.

The earthquake, which lasted 2-3 seconds, did principal damage in Oakland stores where stock tumbled from the shelves. Three windows were broken in a large Berkeley market.

Schools Assured Of Full Term For Year, Says Lawton

A nine months' school term for Seminole County schools was virtually assured today in a communication from State Superintendent Colin English to County Superintendent T. W. Lawton containing the information that at least $100,000,000 of the State's 1936-37 school fund will be available.

Mr. Lawton said this amount is only $30,000 under the sum which was allocated for educational purposes this year. He pointed out that the comptroller still has nearly three months to produce the half million.

One source of revenue on which the schools depend largely is the gross receipts sales tax for which hundreds of Florida firms, who failed to file their returns, are now being prosecuted for their negligence.

Miss Mary Leonard Develops Central Florida Symphony Orchestra

By NINA OLIVER DEAN

In Winter Park on the bank of one of Florida's blue lakes is a studio. Vines clamber over it, the pale gold lanterns of grapefruit hang by its windows, and a lyre is on the door. A witty neighbor of the lady who lives there said that most people kept their "liars" inside! The lyre on the door is quite unnecessary to tell the musicians of Florida that Miss Mary Leonard is a friend of music.

Mrs. Jack Russell Is Guest Of Honor

Mrs. Jack Russell formerly Miss Catherine Forrester, a recent bride of this city and now of Gainesville, was the guest of honor at a shower given Friday night by Mrs. D. K. McNab at her home. Sweet peas, roses and other spring flowers were used to carry out a color scheme of pink and blue.

Games and contests were enjoyed by the guests and prizes were awarded to the winners, Mrs. C. D. Forrester, Miss Olive Russell, Miss Bonnie Breeden and Miss Johnnie Lou Myrick.

The honor guest was presented with many lovely gifts which were brought in by Richard McNab on a wagon covered with pink and blue ribbons.

Humming right along

All over the country, you hear more people mention the refreshing mildness and the pleasing taste and aroma of Chesterfield cigarettes.

You hear somebody compliment Chesterfields at a party. Another time, the grocer tells you it's a darn good cigarette. Or you see a group of men on a street corner, most of 'em smoking Chesterfields.

Because they have what smokers like, Chesterfields are humming right along...

Coach McLucas Issues Call For Track And Field Team

First Workout Slated For Today; Thirty Athletes Expected

Approximately 35 students are expected to report for the first workout this afternoon when little work will be done with the exception of assigning the youths to suitable divisions.

Contemplating entering the district conference and the State and field meets, McLucas is striving to build his team around the nucleus remaining from the team of two years ago. He has represented in the district and state of this reporting this season have had experience

In other sports during their scholastic careers, many members of last fall's football squad and eight members of the floor squad expected to strive for positions on the track team.

Zachry, Purdon Selected For All-Star Quint Post

Local Cagers Will Be The Recipients Of Gold Basketballs

Two members of the Seminole High School cage squad were named to the all-star team selected from teams participating in the Fifth District Tourney which was won by Eustis Saturday night.

Billy Zachry and Jack Purdon were the localites receiving the signal honor, the local forward and the center each being awarded a gold basketball emblematic of the selection.

The Feds, by having two placed on the all-star team, outranked Orlando High, the finalist which fell before the attack of the Panthers in the title game.

Surprising to many was the selection of Borgard of Oviedo who placed in the first ten despite the fact that his team failed to show off to any advantage, losing out in the early rounds.

Others placing included Newman of Tavares, Girtman of Leesburg and Womack of Daytona Beach.

Rookies In Double Header Yesterday On Local Field

Before a galaxy of followers of the national pastime, rookies attending the local baseball school sponsored by Joe Engle and the Chatterbox League, participated in their first game of the training period yesterday afternoon at the local ball park.

The two contestants were interrupted frequently as the school's officials substituted players left and right in an endeavor to give all an opportunity to display their wares in the first bit of competition.

While many of the boys have not as yet accustomed themselves to the grid, a number of them showed off to good advantage, Engle was more than pleased with the showing made by a number of the youths.

The entire squad will be divided into teams beginning today. The various teams will compete against each other with boys showing the greatest possibility being moved up into a higher group as a part of the wedding out process.

"BLACK-DRAUGHT IS PURELY VEGETABLE"

A great many things can cause constipation and there are many remedies to relieve it but possibly none more popular than the "vegetable" laxative.

Among these, Black-Draught is outstanding. In its manufacture, leaves of a certain plant are used, and the roots of certain others.

These are dried so they will keep without preservatives. No other chemical change from the way they grew in "Mother Nature's medicine garden." By their being finely ground, the digestive system extracts the active medicine right where it is needed. Constipation is relieved.

Black-Draught is so economical that a 25-cent package averages upwards of 35 doses.

IMPORTANT EVENTS IN MOVIELAND

The Associated Press cameraman invaded filmland to snap two outstanding events of the year. At the left Paul Muni and Luisa Rainer are shown after receiving the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Science awards for best performances of 1936. Muni won his for "The Story of Louis Pasteur" while Miss Rainer's achievement was due to her portrayal of Anna Held in "The Great Ziegfeld." With the actors is Frank Capra, director, whose "Mr. Deeds Goes To Town," won the Academy's prize for best direction. At the right is Marlene Dietrich, formerly a German citizen, after she swore allegiance to the United States and she became naturalized.

Vote Citizenship
Award In Seminole

Miss Helena Chapman was chosen by the student body and faculty of Seminole High School, yesterday afternoon as having the "best record in citizenship" among girls of the Senior Class.

Each year, 100 accredited high schools in the state designate one girl for this honor. Prof. G. E.
McKay, Seminole principal, announced the news.

The award is sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Details of the selection in the school here were directed by Mrs.
M. E. Wiggins, a member of the Seminole Chapter, DAR.

Prof. McKay said Miss Chapman's name will be one of several hundred who won the citizenship award in their individual schools, and from the list will be chosen a girl who will be tendered a free trip to Washington, D. C., in April.

The winner will be selected sometime this week during the State DAR convention in Winter Haven.

Prof. McKay outlined the qual-

Problems Facing Persons Holding Public Offices

Representatives of three branches of Government—City, County and State—held the spot light before Sanford's Junior Commerce in the Mayfair Hotel dining room last night and explained the problems which confront public officials.

City Commissioner W. R. Du-Pree presented what probably is the liveliest issue before Sanford today when he discussed the progress already noted in efforts to obtain a tourist trailer camp here.

He set forth the argument that this city, being more centrally located than any other Florida municipality, is the logical site for such a camp, and he asserted that he believed one would draw hundreds from every State.

Commissioner DuPree also outlined the City's bond refunding; proposed plans for lakefront beautification; the progress made by the City in the past few years; and the benefits to be gained from a regular air mail

Indian Picture
Brings Action
By Commission

The picture of an Indian caused the City Commission last night to pass a special resolution.

When City Clerk Frank Lancome found that the seal of the City of Sanford was worn beyond repair and would not leave his mark on official documents, he ordered a new one.

But the manufacturer paid little heed to the fact that the seal was for the Indian on the instrument was that of the Seminole tribe. Consequently, the makers cast the seal showing an Indian in the hoodless of Mr. Clayman or some other tribe.

This impression, which never appears on all the City's official bonds, did not result in the seal that appeared on bond refunding agreements.

So to avoid any further confusion in refunding the municipal debt, Commissioners passed a resolution explaining the two Indians.
