This represented only a small percentage of the total number of names received here, said Mr. Higgins, as he presented a plan whereby the Sanford Herald would be used more economically to contact these people.

At the suggestion of George Touhy, the "representing and recommending" of the Chamber of Commerce was extended to The Herald for the value to the County of its Tourist Edition, also for proposed assistance on the new publicity plan.

Truman Asked To Act Against Florida Vice

Millionaire Grower Requests Federal Intervention In State Gambling

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16. — (AP) — U. S. District Attorney Herbert H. Phillips of Florida blames failure of law enforcement for the spread of organized crime. He said "If state and local officials will do their full duty, and the courts will exercise their functions, we could stop organized gambling anywhere in the country, and we wouldn't need federal legislation to help." Taking his own state of Florida as an example, he said state law requires sheriffs and police officers to destroy gambling equipment. He added this is not being done.

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 16. — (AP) — C. V. Griffin, his break complete with the Warren Administration he helped install, today asked President Truman to act against a Florida gambling situation "with which the Governor can't cope."

The millionaire citrus grower who yesterday had a chief investigator designate a doubtful north road to start a crusade to wipe out crime and gambling.

"The gambling leaders of the nation are gathered here and gambling is wide open as the doors of church on Sunday mornings," Griffin said.

Griffin also announced he will try to get in touch with the Governor in person or by message and suggest a check of the police in a hotel at Miami Beach adjacent to William H. (Bill) Griffin said.

Motion Pictures To Be Made Of George Barr School In Sanford

By WILLARD CONNOLLY

Motion pictures of every phase of the George Barr School of Umpiring will be taken soon by official representatives of the American and National Leagues, and will be available for showing at civic clubs, American Legion posts and schools, Mr. Barr announced this morning.

Low Fontana, representative of the American League, was due to arrive today to make preliminary arrangements for taking the movies, and will be accompanied here by a script writer. A camera crew is due to arrive here Monday.

The picture will show highlights of the training course of the 114 umpires, particularly as they officiate at the practice games, of the men at the New York Giants try-out camp. Other pictures will show the future umpires in the classrooms, the dining hall, and other activities, with particular emphasis on the fine accommodations they now enjoy.

Prady Peters, assistant to Mr. Barr, will aid in the program.

The five and a half weeks course of umpiring will terminate on Feb. 26, said Mr. Barr. W. T. Anderson, president of the Georgia Florida League, is still here looking over potential umpire material.

200-Day Work Year Reported As Lewis Aim

UMW Chief Hints He Will Demand Less Pay As Compromise

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16. — (AP) — John L. Lewis today was reported to be demanding a guaranteed 200-day work year for his union.

Such a demand would be in line with Lewis' desire for more stabilized employment in the coal fields.

One of the negotiators told news men that Lewis had mentioned the guaranteed working year as a counter possibility.

Others close to the negotiations also reported that Lewis had brought this up.

There was some indication that Lewis had been willing to take a 15-cent wage cut, but this offer was not accepted.

The union has signed contracts on the basis of the 15 and 25 cent figures with miners of some producing more than $40,000,000 a year.

The contract, however, are only a one-year basis.

David L. Cole, chairman of President Truman's inquiry board, declined to tell newsmen whether Lewis had made known any specific demands. He said in a reply that the negotiations being carried on under federal court order.

He did say, however, "I am hopeful that by the end of the day I will have something better to report."

Senate Group Votes To End Potato Support

Agriculture Committee Wants Rigid Planting Controls

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16. — (AP) — By a 6 to 6 vote, the House Rules Committee today refused to report the bill, reported and job discrimination bill for a show-down on the House floor.

The Agriculture Committee backed a measure would set up a Fair Employment Practices Commission to deal with the more to promote employers in case of discrimination in the hiring and firing of Negroes and other minorities.

The Senate agriculture committee voted 6 to 2 today to remove all government price support from fresh potatoes, and rigid planting and marketing controls are put in operation.

The Senate group also approved a bill to establish a right system of government control over potatoes. The aim is to hold down production and control supply.

The Lucas proposed removing support was attached to a House passed measure to end cotton controls. It previously had been approved informally late last night by the same group.

A formal language for removal of cotton controls was reported today.

President Hints Of Possible Conference In Future: Raps Capitol Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16. — (AP) — President Truman hinted today that he still has in mind a possible special peace mission to Russia at some future time.

At a news conference, he also said the American does not always open to international negotiation for control of atomic weapons.

The President said he would like to see a "Big Three" meeting about now, raised by a campaign speech of Winston Churchill, James Marshall prime minister.

The President repeated what he has said before that he doesn't intend to go outside this country to meet Premier Stalin or any other state head.

The matter of a possible special mission to Moscow was raised by reporters, but not by the President.

Six Of B-36 Crew Still Missing In North Pacific

McCORD AIR FORCE BASE, Wash., Feb. 16. — (AP) — Six crew members of an B-36 bomber reported still missing today along the rugged Bering Sea coast.

A coast guard report last night that all 17 of the men had been picked up or located was without substantiation this morning.

Search headquarters here and at Vancouver, B. C., and the Coast Guard at Ketchikan, Alaska, said a large scale search was under way for the six.

Eleven men were rescued yesterday and last night from Ashdown and Princess Royal Islands. They had parachuted from the burning B-36 during Monday night after three engines, caught fire on a flight from Alaska to Texas.

Ten survivors were picked up after they had endured miserable cold and wet and hunger for more than 30 hours. One was picked up later by a rescue team from a Canadian destroyer after he had hung with head down for 19 hours, with legs broken, after he had landed in a tree on a cliff side.

He suffered for additional hours in an improvised shelter after other survivors freed him but could not get him to the beach.

Hope that all of the 17 had been rescued were blasted today this morning. The Coast Guard information officer here said the original report that all were located, and safe, had come from an Alga base, but that it later was corrected.

Comdr. P. J. Scheiber at the Coast Guard's Ketchikan base said this morning that there was no information up to the cliff side on the other six men. He said the best that could be expected by searchers on the basis of information at his base, was that the missing men parachuted into the same general island area.

Dow Chemical Plant Explosion Kills 6 Workers

MIDLAND, Mich., Feb. 16. — (AP) — An explosion ripped apart a building at the sprawling Dow Chemical Co. today, killing six workers.

A Dow Company official said that six to eight more workers were injured in the shattering blast.

There was no immediate report on the extent of their injuries.

The explosion, occurring at 11:30 A.M., blasted the roof and one wall of building number 111 at the sprawling plant. The building houses Dow's emulsion polymerization process, in the manufacture of rubber base paint.

It was not immediately determined how many workers were in the plant at the time.

Every ambulance in this chemical city was called into action to take away the dead and injured. The first of the injured were removed by truck.

Dow Company officials said they did not yet know the cause of the explosion.

The plant is "not too large," they said, but could not give, off hand, the exact number of men employed in it.

MERCY KILLER FRED COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Feb. 16. — (AP) — A 42-year-old woman who testified she killed her son in spare him the agony of epilepsy was released on probation yesterday after being convicted of manslaughter.

Mrs. Agnete Sorendergaard said she carried out the mercy killing by turning on a gas jet while her 17-year-old son slept in the kitchen.

The next morning she called the police.

She said she decided to kill the youth, who had been epileptic since he was in mental institutions after being hit on the head during an epileptic fit.

Local Campaign For Rep. Smathers Gets Under Way

The drive to put George Smathers in the U. S. Senate got under way in Seminole County last week with a meeting of the Citizens for Smathers for Senate Club, it was announced today.

Mrs. R. A. Smith, prominent civic worker throughout the county, was elected unanimously to head the woman's group. A. O. Box 3, Sanford, will head the labor division.

Plans were outlined for the entire campaign to be held in the next few weeks. The campaign will be set up in the near future. In the meantime any suggestions will be welcome to the committee.

Address all letters to the Seminole County Citizens for Senate Club, P. O. Box 3, Sanford.

Rep. George Smathers will make his second major campaign address tonight over a statewide radio hookup from Miami at 8 o'clock.

Smathers, who has been stump-ing West and South Florida in his fight to unseat Senator Claude Pepper, has not disclosed the nature of his talk, but he said it would be "just as direct and more revealing" than the one delivered to Orlando last month when he entered the senatorial race and called Pepper the "leader of the radicals."

Smathers will be introduced by Sloan McCrea, his Dade County campaign manager. The broadcast will originate at the Miami Jackson High School Auditorium and will be broadcast over station WROO in Orlando.

CHILDREN'S HOME JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 16. — (AP) — State Superintendent Marcus Fagg of the Children's Home Society of Florida today said a National investigator would come here soon to look into conditions which have caused one dismissal and eight resignations.

At the same time, discharged associate George T. Swartz said the Florida society "cries out for an investigator."

Delicate Eye Operation Seen On Television

A delicate operation performed by a 1900 doctor, watched by a woman's wife to see her hand and feet children for the first time.

It was the surgical transplant of a cornea from a still born baby in the left eye of Mrs. Mary Sams, 33, of March 16, 1949.

Color television picked up minute operation details and displayed them to physicians at a southeastern medical meeting in the city.

The bandages were removed yesterday by Dr. Sams. Mrs. Sams' right was tested with a flashlight beam.

She smiled at her husband, children and relatives clustered around her and told them she could see.

Plans were outlined for the entire campaign to be held in the next few weeks. The campaign will be set up in the near future. In the meantime any suggestions will be welcome to the committee.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERBS

Sometimes an ocean of possessions actually makes us poorer. Only the unseen things are real and eternal. A man's life consists not of the abundance of the things which he possesses. —Luke 12:15

China and Russia, now that China has been taken over by the Reds, have signed a thirty year friendship pact or treaty of alliance and mutual aid. A sort of modernized Rome-Berlin Axis.

Attorney General Richard Irvine says that all candidates for all political party committee posts in Florida should be required to take Florida's anti-Communist loyalty oath. Why? No Communist would hesitate to swear falsely.

Best argument we have heard yet in favor of the proposed terminal comes from M. L. Cullum who says that if the terminal is built the railroads will reduce their rates. If we can just get this message over to the farmers, we can count on their wholehearted support, we feel sure.

We sincerely regret a typographical error in the Lustron Corp. story last night which said the Lustron Corp. "owned" the U. S. Government. While we can readily understand how such a misunderstanding could exist, it is actually the U. S. government which "owns" the Lustron Corp.

Someone has said we forget who—that the proposed 30 year franchise for the Florida Power & Light Co. is an "exclusive franchise." We quote from Section 107 of the proposed franchise: "That there is hereby granted to the Florida Power & Light Co. (herein called the "Grantor"), its successors and assigns, the NON-EXCLUSIVE right, privilege or franchise" etc.

Indicating to what extent inflation has already been carried in this country, the U. S. Treasury Department reveals that there is now a total of $26,939,917,841 of paper money in circulation. This compares with about $6,000,000,000 in 1929, and about $10,000,000,000 just before the war. Every time a new dollar bill is added to the total already outstanding the value of every dollar of fixed assets in the country is clipped just that much.

As an indication how politics completely demoralizes even the basest and noblest of souls, Winston Churchill who seldom stoops to conquer, voted "greatest man of the half century" program to call "the Three" conference of himself, Stalin and President Truman as an effort to settle the cold war, knowing full well that such a conference would accomplish nothing, would settle the antagonisms and animosities of all other nations, and of our own friends and allies. Some of the conferees who did not vote will be may pick up a book from Mr. Conservative who think the conferees have conspired with the devils to the benefit of peace.

The Southern Bell Telephone Co. recently announced that it was planning to build a new trunk line between Sanford and Orlando. This new trunk line will be built on the right-of-way of the old Sanford and Orlando road. The new trunk line will be built on the right-of-way of the old Sanford and Orlando road. The new trunk line will be built on the right-of-way of the old Sanford and Orlando road.

Profit From Mistakes

The protection of our military and state secrets, especially those of the atomic bomb, has provided the field for man/sensations in the years since the war. There are strong indications that the end is not yet, and that there are to be still more sensations, like the exposure of spies and accusations, sometimes with evidence, of carelessness, indiscretion or downright perfidy among officials who have these secrets in their keeping.

There continues to be some question of the wisdom of making these disclosures with a maximum of publicity. That probably is because there is still doubt in the public mind, and with cause, as to the reasons for thus delving so energetically into the past few years. Is the purpose to embarrass and discredit people in high places, or is it to profit from the mistakes of the past?

Little room is left for question that some of our important secrets were not well kept through the war years. The vital point now is that a better job must be done of protecting the really significant secrets today. The inquiry into the mistakes of the war years should be continued as long as it helps materially to tighten our present security, as long as it helps us to find where we have been wrong in the past, in judgment or method, so that we can be more nearly right in the future.

Two-Year Colleges

In the constant discussion of education at different levels, the idea of two-year terminal colleges on a community basis stands out as being of great practical value.

Dr. James B. Conant, president of Harvard University, recently urged that more of these institutions be set up. About ten per cent of the high school graduates who seek further education now find that the two-year course meets either their needs or their purse, and it is believed that the number might be doubled or tripled. Dr. Conant believes that, rather than cover the first two years of a four-year course, these colleges should have an entirely different set-up, covering training as well as education. Adult education, in a wide sense, could also be a project of the community college, according to some authorities.

Many practical advantages accrue from the two-year college idea. Families whose budgets will not stretch to accommodate four years of study away from home may be able to manage two years added to the high school course. The student can usually live at home, and perhaps thus more easily handle a part-time job, emerging at the end of two years well prepared to pursue a career in business or industry.

It Must Be Wonderful To Be A Woman

"For several years," writes Peter B. B. Andrews in Your Life, "I have studiously surveyed the influence of woman on all things. When I started, I was a normal man—puffed up, of course, with my importance and my feeling of male superiority. Gradually, as I dug out facts, I felt my superior nature shrinking, and today I stand before the 'weaker' sex, head bowed, humbly mumbling their greatness."

Mr. Andrews' studies revealed some remarkable things about women. Listed are a few which he reports: Women own 85 per cent of the accounts of mutual savings banks, 74 per cent of the titles to suburban homes, 65 per cent of the nation's private wealth, are beneficiaries of 70 per cent of men's legacies and 64 per cent of women's legacies. They pay 80 per cent of all inheritance taxes, and are beneficiaries of 80 per cent of the outstanding life insurance policies.

In the various corporations of the United States, women own about half of all the privately owned stock. In addition, they are reputed to have greater powers of endurance, superior mechanical aptitude—and are healthier, sager, more modest, more purposive and have the majority of the vote! "It must be wonderful to be a woman," concludes Mr. Andrews wistfully.

Potato Proposal

The action was taken at a closed meeting of the committee. Senators Aiken (R-Vt.) and Hays (D-NC) were said to have voted against the proposal.

Lucas, the Senate Democratic leader, seeks approval of legislation to allow the secretary of agriculture to fix potato production quotas on the basis of either bushels or acres. He introduced the plan and urged quick passage. His proposal would be an addendum to the present farm price support act.

Meanwhile backers of the Administration's FEPC anti job discrimination bill tried unsuccessfully today to pry it out of the House Rules Committee. Their move lost on a 6 to 6 tie vote.

The measure, No. 1 on President Truman's "Civil Rights" program, has been approved by the House Labor Committee but not given clearance to the House floor by the rules group.

Rep. Smith (D-Ill.) chairman of the Rules Committee, voted to send it to the floor. When the move failed, he told reporters an effort would be made to bring it up next Wednesday under special procedure which would limit debate sharply.

Sanford Forum

Editor, Sanford Herald, Sanford, Florida. Dear Sir:

In a recent letter carried in your Sanford Forum, Mr. W. A. Leffler pointed out several reasons why he thinks the City of Sanford should not enter into a new franchise with the Florida Power and Light Company.

Along this line, I wish to point out that the "Power Company" did not ask the City for a new franchise at this time... I personally investigated other cities, and particularly Daytona Beach, where I found that they are financing three and one half million dollars for public improvements, including a Stadium, by giving the Power Company a franchise such as has been proposed for Sanford. After making this investigation, I made the proposal to the City Commission, who, unanimously favored such a new franchise, then took the matter up with the Power Company.

This franchise will not in any way result in an increase of the electrical rates nor is it a tax in any way. It has been successfully operated in other cities in Florida and on that point, I quote Mr. H. H. Coleman, the manager of the local office of the Power Company. "This same form of franchise is in effect in over 20 Florida cities served by the Florida Power and Light Company, and in none of these cities have the rates been changed since accepting the franchise."

Mr. Leffler stated that we should let the present contract continue until its end, and that we should not enter into a new contract with the Power Company to run for thirty years, because that is too long a time.

If we wait eight years until the present franchise ends, we will be losing in the neighborhood of $100,000.00, which we would receive from the Power Company by granting the new franchise now—WHO IS GOING TO GIVE US THIS MONEY WE HAVE LOST BY WAITING FOR EIGHT YEARS? WHAT IF WE WAIT EIGHT YEARS AND THEN CAN NOT GET A FRANCHISE WITH THE POWER COMPANY, GIVING US A KICK BACK OF SIX

Jaycee Meet

(Continued From Page One) that the term, "just rates" had been left out of the new franchise whereas in the old franchise it states that rates shall at all times be just and reasonable and subject to regulation by the City Commission.

In the new franchise the City agrees not to distribute or sell electricity during the life of the franchise, whereas the 1928 franchise does not prohibit this. No mention is made in the new franchise, as said, that the City might supply current for street lighting, or for other City services now costing up to $10,000 a year.

Mr. Leffler also pointed out the advantages of lower rates afforded by municipal operation as in Orlando. Mr. Coleman retorted that municipalities have their own system of keeping books, whereas private firms must make provision for federal, state and local taxes. Referring to the Orlando rates, he said, Sanford rates go as low as six mills.

He declared that the old franchise was subject to law and so is the new one, and pointed out that their belief in its future. We have just given orders to build 150 houses in Bel Air, a 60 unit apartment on the Lake Front, also Phillips industry is planning another huge building project. Every one of these buildings will go on our tax roll. This is the way to reduce our taxes and lighten the burden of our debt. The more people who pay on our bonded indebtedness, the quicker it will be paid off. This certainly can never be accomplished by opposing every progressive move made in the City. The more eye-catching public improvements, such as the new swimming pool and the proposed stadium that we can have, the more new residents we will attract to our City.

Regardless of what the money might be used for, the proposed new franchise with the Power Company is a must for the continued progress of our community. Sincerely yours John Kridler.

UNITED LUMBER COMPANY Repair, remodel or re-roof your home now. Let us show you how easy it is under FHA title No. 1. Nothing down—three years to pay. 715 French Avenue, Ph. 713

The Power Company did not ask the new franchise, but the City had agreed in a 1928 franchise to provide new revenue. We are for progress in Sanford, and possibly have more money tied up here now than any other concern in the City.

A franchise is simply a permit to do business here, build lines and help us finance our expansion program, and we guarantee to give to the City six percent of our gross revenues. We are not tying up anybody, and if some other concern comes along and wants to provide power here, there is nothing to prevent the City from giving them a franchise.

In eight years, he declared, the City would benefit $100,000 financially under the proposed franchise. In addition, the Power Company would continue to pay taxes which at present amount to $4,000 a year.

Since 1942, the rates of the power company have been reduced 62 percent, he pointed out, and asked what other commodities or services have come down in proportion. The average residential power rate in Sanford is three and nine-tenths cents a kilowatt hour. Under Florida law, he said, all power rates are regulated by the legislative bodies of the individual cities.

President John Benarkik announced that the Jaycees will sponsor a forum discussion of the proposed franchise, at 8:00 o'clock tomorrow evening at the Court House, J. Bralley Odham will act as a moderator.

Minimum is $200.00. No cash. No interest. No late charges. No delinquency. No bankruptcy. No liquidation. No loss of time. No loss of money. No loss of health. No loss of life.

Peggy June May Wed To William Hardin

The marriage of Miss Peggy June May, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles A. Thompson of Enterprise, and William David Hardin, son of Mrs. Bertha L. Hardin of Enterprise and J. Hugh Hardin of Palatka, was solemnized on Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, who is the superintendent of the Florida Methodist Children's Home in Enterprise.

Mrs. Cecil Sellars rendered a program of nuptial music and the traditional wedding marches were used. Stanley Brumley of this city sang "I Love Thee" by Grieg and "Because" of Handel.

Following a lovely setting for the ceremony was the terrace overlooking Lake Monroe. Rev. Thompson officiated at the ceremony against a background of palms, orange blossoms and white gladioluses. The rooms of the bride's home were decorated with white blossoms.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother Ernest May, and wore a gown of white slipper satin trimmed with Chantilly lace. The basque bodice featured a yoke of marquisette and long pointed sleeves. Panniers of satin fell from the front of the bodice to form a small bustle in the back. The full gathered skirt extended into a short train. Her veil of illusion was fingertip in length and was attached to a tanga of orange blossoms. She carried a colonial nosegay of carnations, sweet peas and camellias tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Sarah Thompson of Barberville was her maid of honor, and serving as bridesmaids were Miss Janet Whitman of Sarasota and Miss Sara Nell Hardin, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Thompson was given in blue taffeta featuring a fitted bodice, full skirt and off-shoulder neckline. The bridesmaids wore gowns similar to that of the bride, with Miss Whitman in aqua taffeta and Miss Hardin in pink taffeta. They wore clusters of pastel flowers in their hair from which fell veils of shirred nylon tulle. Their nosegays were of white carnations, and sweet peas tied with satin streamers.

Vernon Hardin, brother of the bridegroom, performed the duties of best man, while another brother, Wise Hardin, and Warren Jackson served as ushers.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Thompson, wore a dress of winter white crepe with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Hardin, the bridegroom's mother, was gowned in light blue shadow crepe with which she wore white accessories. An orchid also formed her corsage.

Following the ceremony Rev. and Mrs. Thompson entertained with a wedding reception on the spacious lakeside lawn. The bride's table was overlaid with an elegant and lace cloth and centered with a four tiered wedding cake topped with a small bride and groom. Assisting in serving were Mrs. W. E. Kitcher, Mrs. Harvey Burke, Mrs. Mae Baker, Mrs. W. A. Haring and Mrs. Irene Jackson. The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Joe Johnson of DeLand.

Late in the evening the couple left for a brief wedding trip to points of interest in the state. Mrs. Hardin wore a suit of winter white with blue accessories and a corsage of white camellias.

The bride was graduated from Taylor County High School and Florida State University. Since her graduation last June she has been employed in the DeLand office of the Volusia County Tuberculosis and Health Association. Mr. Hardin is a graduate of Seminole High School in Sanford and served in the United States Navy during World War II. He is now employed by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. Following their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hardin plan to make their home in Sanford.

Professor Ebson Directs Ballet

Professor C. L. Ebsen of Orlando, father and teacher of the famous "Buddy" Ebsen has directed the choreography for the first ballet, "Les Sylphides" which will be presented Friday night at 8:15 P. M. at the high school auditorium.

The ballet will be directed by Royce, dancing instructor of Winter Park, and Doris Duxbury of this city, are directors of the company, one of the few almost-professional companies in Florida.

The ballet to be featured will be "Petrushka", music by Morton Gould, choreography by Mrs. Royal. It suggests the proud strut of the peacock and other birds of the forest, according to Mrs. Duxbury. Excerpts from "The Sleeping Beauty" will bring to life, to the music of Tchaikowsky, many famous fairy tale characters.

The most appealing act will be "La Vie Parisienne", a light, gay fast moving scene of an imaginary Paris with its waiters and waitresses in a sidewalk cafe; the patrons soldier hitting with the glove seller, and the ribbon seller, the naughty Duke and Dutchess, and the gay entertainment by the dancer.

Sanford Club In Jacksonville Slated

There are living in Jacksonville at this time dozens of persons with their families who are original home was in Sanford or Seminole County according to J. C. Michael who used to live in Sanford himself, but went to Jacksonville in 1913. Estimating there are from 50 to 200 persons there who came from Seminole County, he announced plans for organizing a Sanford Club.

"The idea at this time is simply to meet a few times during the year at some sort of function where old acquaintances may be met and old friendships renewed," said Mr. Michael.

Letters have been mailed to all names that could be thought of but it is felt there are dozens more, he said. A meeting has been called for 7:00 P. M. Saturday, Feb. 28 for the purpose of discussion and organization in the St. Johns Room of the Seminole Hotel in Jacksonville according to Mr. Michael.

Truman Interview

maries before doing all he can to help Democrats win in any state.
White House callers disclosed yesterday that Mr. Truman planned to campaign for Democratic candidates, especially in Pennsylvania and Ohio.
Mr. Truman again refused to tell his news conference whether he will seek re-election in 1952.
George Luckey, California Democratic vice chairman, had indicated earlier this week after seeing the President that he thought Mr. Truman was receptive.
The President said Luckey drew that conclusion himself. He declined to say whether it was correct. And he suggested that reporters wait and see what he does.
Tonight Mr. Truman is to deliver a major address at a gala $100-a-plate Jefferson-Jackson day dinner here. He was reported ready to raise a new call for his whole legislative program.
Before the interview, President Truman barked at reporters in a chip-on-shoulder conference that they were disgruntled, he didn't like their attitude, and they ought to cool off.
That was all because he had given an exclusive interview to the Knickerbocker of the New York Times and reporters were trying to amplify some of the points in that interview regarding dealings with Russia.
The chief executive said with obvious heat that he is his own free agent, he will see whom he pleases, say what he pleases, and he isn't going to be censured by anyone.
When the President emphasized that he is going to do as he pleases, somebody asked whether "you intentionally omitted 'Dunn'."
Yes, the President said, but you can put it in if you like.
Mr. Truman said that he himself is not disgruntled in the slightest.
"Why should you be?" a woman columnist, Doris Plessman, asked.
She added "We think our business is quite important."
Sometimes I'm not so sure, Mr. Truman came back.
Other answers of questions put to Mr. Truman:
1. The State Department answered Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) in saying there wasn't a word of truth in the Senator's charge that 57 Communists worked for the department.
2. This isn't the proper time to press for things like a political union of Atlantic Pact nations. There are other things more important.
3. He isn't considering firing Robert N. Denham as general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, regardless of urging from the CIO executive board.

4. A letter from the president of the CIO and AFL, asking intercession with Britain against arms shipments to Arab countries has been referred to the State Department. Mr. Truman has no comment.
5. The Chief Executive will take the advice of his attorney general on the subject of whether there should be a federal law against big time gambling. He thinks all sorts of lawlessness ought to be stopped by all means consistent with protection of civil rights under the constitution.
6. Civil service employees of the government are at liberty to buy tickets to the Democratic $100-a-plate dinner tonight and Mr. Truman doesn't think that infringes on their civil rights.
7. The President isn't listing, yet, all states in which he may campaign after this year's primaries, but he told news men he'll take them on a non-political tour one of these days.
8. Yes, Mr. Truman thinks Senator Myers (D-Pa.) will be reelected.
9. There is no comment on the proposal of former prime minister Churchill of Britain for a top-level conference of Russian-British and American leaders on atomic controls. The door is always open here in Washington, for any such meeting.
10. The Chief Executive has nothing to say on whether he thinks the coal miners will go back to work because the issue is in the courts.

Mr. Fruit Grower . . .

We think you are too smart to kill the goose that is laying the Golden Eggs

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the rapid growth of the frozen concentrated citrus juice industry reflects the enthusiasm of the American people for the convenience, economy and nutritional value of citrus fruit in this form; and

WHEREAS, studies show that families using orange juice in frozen form consume far greater quantities of orange juice than they ever did previously; and

WHEREAS, surveys indicate that certain sections of the country where frozen orange juice has been made popular now consume up to 20 times as much Florida juice as other sections—illustrating the greatly increased demand for Florida citrus products that frozen juice is creating and can create; and

WHEREAS, the suitability of Florida orange juice for vacuum process freezing has resulted in Florida juice now being marketed in all parts of the country, even including other citrus-growing states; and

WHEREAS, growth of the frozen juice industry benefits Florida growers, their associates, and the entire economy of Florida in the following five ways:

- 1. The frozen juice industry increases average year-round income to growers.
2. The frozen juice industry reduces growing and handling costs.
3. The frozen juice industry provides a vitally important stabilizing factor, reducing or eliminating losses that formerly occurred from temporary glut or seasonal over-supply.
4. The frozen juice industry supports a vast advertising and sales promotion program for Florida citrus products and access to growers.
5. The frozen juice industry has given Florida new large-scale local industry providing employment of good wages.

and WHEREAS, the welfare, continued growth and future stability of the frozen juice industry and its ability to provide these foregoing benefits depends on a long-range program that will supply quality fruit at fair prices;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this Association prompted by friendly motives of mutual benefit, respectfully urges Florida growers and their representatives to avoid policies that will injure the growth of this new industry and price its frozen juices out of the market.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Association, and its component groups, stand wholeheartedly prepared and anxious to cooperate in a constructive program that will carry this young industry to new heights of achievement in America.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that the President of this Association shall bring these resolutions to the attention of Florida citrus growers and their accredited representatives, through all usual channels of communication.

Barr School

"When a fellow is playing, he doesn't have time to think much about the umpire, but now that I am umpiring, I realize that there ..."

During a two day period every Barr student gets a chance to umpire behind the plate or in the field, usually from one to two innings, and an instructor is stationed at each field to point out errors in judgment. The future umpires get so occupied with these duties that sometimes they cannot leave to eat. Mr. Barr then sees to it that sandwiches are sent to them.

Bob Oliveri, who umpired in the Blue Ridge League last year, was instructor for 16 Barr stu-

A popular group of entertainers, the "Kitties", Scottish singers and bagpipers, will appear on Friday at 9:00 P. M. at the Ritz Theater. They have presented in every state and almost every large city and town including many cities in Ontario. They are led by Chief William L. Nimmo and sing to approximately 250,000 high schools and colleges each year. They do solo, ensemble, Harry Lauder impersonations and play the Highland bagpipes. Adding color to the program, they are clothed in the Royal Stewart, Black Watch, Forsythe and Gordon tartans.

Florida Gambling

He previously expressed a belief that it was Johnson who had changed the Governor's mind about appointing him chief investigator. Warren said he hadn't discussed it with Johnson when the track owner visited him here Tuesday.

The Florida State Democratic Party fund raising campaign in Florida, said in his telegram to the President and U. S. Attorney General, Howard McGrath that the "Florida situation undoubtedly is the worst in the nation at present."

"Action by you here at this time undoubtedly would have a great effect on your attempt to clean up crime and gambling throughout the nation."

"The leaders and bosses of gambling syndicates are here now and you could chop off the heads and brains of these nefarious operations all at one time."

"Today I am again asking the government to instruct Florida enforcement officers, exercise their powers and duties or remove them as he did me as his chief investigator. I hope you will see fit to give Florida what you have the best of your Federal Bureau of Investigation men here."

"I offer you my full cooperation as past chief investigator."

Warren and Griffin told different versions of their falling out but it was clear from both statements that Griffin made a strong effort to oust the Governor's Executive Frank B. Wright and his press Secretary Loyd Compton. Griffin denied the Governor's claim that he had sought appointment as chairman of the Road Department.

A couple of shifts in secondary jobs are almost certain to result from the break.

Henry Balch, former Orlando newspaperman who was named director of the Governor's Safety Council several weeks ago, has stuck close by Griffin's side and had a hand in releasing his public statements throughout the squabble.

It also is likely that Robert Ghiotto, a secretary to the road board and a friend of Griffin, will be given another position.

If any other changes were in the making, they were not apparent on the surface. There was no indication of the position of Walter Schanz, state aviation supervisor, who pilots the private plane in which Warren has flown thousands of miles.

Louis Wolfson, another of Warren's leading supporters, was a guest at the executive mansion last night but the governor said there has been no meeting of his top flight advisory group to assess the situation.

Robert J. Pleus* of Orlando, State Board of Administration attorney who is generally regarded as a friend of Griffin, was in town arguing a case before the Supreme Court. He said he was keeping out of the squabble entirely.

There were no statements from the three men Warren said Griffin wanted ousted — McKethan, Wright and Compton. McKethan and Compton declined to comment. Wright is out of the city until next Tuesday on a series of speaking engagements.

Walter Reuther Shooting Trial Hangs On Convict's Testimony

DETROIT, Feb. 16. — (AP) — Two state policemen who first heard "the Bolton story" in the Walter Reuther shooting case were due for witness stand showdowns today.

They are Det. Lt. Joseph Sheridan and Sgt. James Van Landigan. Carl Bolton, 39, is charged with assault with intent to kill Reuther, CIO United Auto Workers president in a shotgun attack Apr. 20, 1948.

Much of the state's case against Bolton hangs on the story two long-time convicts — John Kalszewski and John Pantella — told Sheridan and Van Landigan more than four months after the shooting.

The prosecution said the two convicts voluntarily "came clean" and implicated Bolton after Kalszewski called for the two state policemen to come to his jail cell at nearby Pontiac, that was on Aug. 2, 1948, after the convicts had been returned from Indiana to face a burglary charge at Pontiac.

Kalszewski said Bolton offered him $15,000 to "rub out" Reuther three days before the union leader was shot. The day before the shooting, he said, Bolton came to his apartment and took two shot-guns, threatening to kill Reuther himself.

Pantella corroborated most of Kalszewski's story although many conflicts in their testimony were brought out under grueling cross-examination.

Throughout the more than two weeks of testimony defense attorney Joseph Louiehl has hinted that "the Bolton story" was told because of police threats or promises. At the time they "talked," both convicts were faced with possible life prison terms as habitual criminals for a series of burglaries and safecracking. The, according to Louiehl, might have prompted their account.

Herbert Forsakes City Luxuries To Really 'Rough It'

By MAUL PETT
(The Hill Hoyle)

NEW YORK — (AP) — Pity the modern city man roughing it, say, in the wilds of the north woods. He knows nothing about the life he has been spent in a comfortable apartment with everything provided. Now, he's alone in the north woods, this pale, unresourceful man with no talent for survival.

Will he make it?

Well, just grant him one concession. Give him all the latest gadgets which are provided by thoughtful outfitters for campers, hunters and explorers.

So our modern city man, name of Herbert, is trudging along the trail alone, nervous and laden with equipment. The wind comes up. He removes a compact pocket heater from his knapsack. He doesn't have to know how it works, but it works with chemicals, gives off no flame. Our hero warms the inside of his gloves and then his ankles inside his boots.

Will it turn colder or rain to-morrow? How would Herbert know? He simply looks at the clouds, judges the wind direction from his compass, then consults his compact, pocket-size weather guide. He reads the forecast. "Fair." Fine, nothing to worry about.

But also, our boy gets thirsty. Fodder Herbert, he didn't bring any water. He stumbles onto a stream. Is it safe to drink? Can he tell? He can't. So he dips into a pocket for a small water filter which is attached to a long tube. He drops the filter into the stream and drinks safely.

Walking back to the trail, our hero scratches his forehead on an overhanging branch. Quickly, he reaches for the iodine in his compact, comprehensive, three-pound first aid and medical equipment kit.

Herbert sighs, relieved. He does not need the compact, five-ounce snake-bite kit which he has brought along.

Dusk falls on the lonely trail in the tall timber. Our hero reaches the time to pitch camp. He unfolds and sets up his compact, five-pound, long-proof, wind-proof sun glass-proof tent, which also contains a sleeping bag, a stove and a lantern.

It's going to be real cold to-night, Herbert decides. So he sets up a smaller, more compact tent inside the larger tent. The space between the sides of the tent provides insulation.

He cuts some wood with his little axe and carries it back in a compact, canvas wood carrier. Nothing, he doesn't get kindling wood. He doesn't need it. Instead, he pulls out some small cubes of synthetic kindling, lights them with his wind-proof lighter and the flame leaps up. No odor, no smoke.

Herbert admires the flame for awhile. He uses asbestos gloves to handle the hot coals. Then he smiles. He has indulged himself in a moment of recreation, he realizes. He didn't need the fire in the first place. What he needs now is a bath.

First, a compact, four-pound cooker heater with attached reflector for throwing off heat is unloaded and quickly warms up the tent. Then a collapsible canvas water bucket used to carry water from the stream to the tent where Herbert has set up his collapsible canvas bath tub.

Refreshed but hungry, Herbert

Hints To Housewives

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Is she a good mechanic?" may be one of the questions for a young man of today to consider in choosing his bride. The home-maker today needs more mechanical knowledge than ever before, household equipment specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture say, because of the great increase in labor-saving equipment in the modern home. Who Whether she uses them to best advantage and keeps them in condition depends considerably on her understanding of how they work. Her mechanical knowledge, an help in having home equipment in emergency she may be called on to make simple repairs, such as changing an electric fuse, patching a hole in the end of a pipe, or opening a clogged sink drain.

Household manufacturers have done much toward making modern household equipment automatic and fool-proof, the mechanically-minded housewife always is at an advantage in using it and in running her establishment smoothly and economically.

then unloads his compact, easy-to-carry, easy-to-cook, dehydrated foods and with a few simple directions has himself a meal of both powdered scrambled eggs, dried potatoes, spinach and coffee.

He tightens his pipe, reaches into his oil refrigerator for some ice cubes and mixes a high ball. He settles back in his light, compact folding chair. His eyelids grow heavy. He unrolls his 100 per cent pure down sleeping bag.

He sets his small, pocket alarm clock. He turns off his lantern and stretches, thinking next time he'll bring the Minox along since this is a double sleeping bag.

Slowly, in complete peace, our hero closes his eyes. But he can't sleep. There's no noise. So he turns on his small, compact portable radio. Now he sleeps.
