DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's how to work it: A cryptogram is a message that has been encrypted so that only those who have the key can read it.

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Stormy Clash

Today's hearing was the first directed at what McCarthy said are 130 odd individuals who apparently are members of the Communist party and work in defense plants. He said he used the word "apparently" because "some may be FBI agents."

McCarthy started the hearing off as a one-man quantum. Later Sen. Mundt (R-N.J.) came in and took a spot by McCarthy's side.

Mundt said Wolchowski's "riotous activity" had "an old aroma to me" and the man apparently was under Communist discipline. He suggested Alvin Chalmers be notified and cautioned to get him away from any access to defense work or persons familiar with it.

McCarthy said there is a "serious question" whether Alvin Chalmers has the right to fire anyone who refused to say whether he is or is not a Communist but he hoped the company would follow the example of General Electric, which, he said, has ousted employees who have refused to testify on grounds of possible self-incrimination.

It was the first hearing at which McCarthy has presided since March 17 when his public pursuit of Communists was shoved aside for the McCarthy Army hearings.

Bachelor Beaten, Robbed At Home

CAMBRIDGE, Md. — Winnie M. Jones, 57, a frugal bachelor who made thousands of dollars crabbing and oyster tonging but didn't trust banks to keep it for him, was near death and penniless today.

Neighbors, who heard his cries for help early yesterday, found him lying in the kitchen of his neat four-room house at Bishop Head, 30 miles south of here. He had been savagely beaten.

Sheriff Wadde H. Robinson, who questioned Jones at the hospital during one of his rare periods of consciousness, said he told him he had been carrying between $5,000 and $6,000.

Strolling

(Continued From Page One) Sanford, a native of Savannah, Ga., he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Curry, formerly of Sanford, and made his debut on Broadway a year ago after his graduation from Benedictine Military School, in "The Devil's Disciple," which starred Maurice Evans. His first film was Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "In The Town." He was directed by Gene Kelly. His debut in musical comedy was in Cole Porter's "Out of This World" for which over 1,000 young men were auditioned. Other movies in which he has appeared include "The Merry King," "Fourteen Hours" and "Teresa." He has appeared on the Jackie Gleason Show, the Firestone Hour and was featured on "Celebrity Time" for CBS-TV. He spent his first summer at Green Mansions, resort art colony at Warrensburg, N. Y. Mr. Curry was signed for the 15-week season at the Teatro Tapia in San Juan, and appeared at the famous La Barba of the multi-million dollar Car Hilton Hotel. This summer season on Broadway will find him in "Finian's Rainbow" musical comedy by Vernon Duke which will star Ella Logan.

Five local Explorer Scouts, accompanied by W. W. Tyre, Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 34, will launch upon a pleasant adventure tomorrow morning when they leave with other Central Florida Scouts for the Philmont Scout Ranch at Cimarron, N. M. Twenty-one Scouts in all are going on the trip. Those from here are Allan Maffett, Bruce David Brown, Billy Tyre and Johnny Williams. Also going are Jordan Maynard, Scout leader executive of the Orlando district, and Steve Corbett field executive of the St. John River district, of which Sanford is a part.

Bomb Activity Is Suggested

LOS ANGELES — A UCLA psychologist suggests family psychiatry examine any "H-bomb" day.

Experience has shown that activity reduces fear and anxiety, Dr. David Boder said yesterday. He has studied the impact of disaster on large populations. Accordingly, he suggested:

Plan specific duties for each member of the family. Dad can be in charge of the food. Older Mother looks after the food. Older brothers and sisters can care for the younger children.

Decide in advance on a familiar "leave" in case family members are separated. Don't start resist evacuation. Even if the family isn't hurt by a blast (food and water may be contaminated).

Have identification tag for all the family bearing name and blood type. Invest in E Bonds, cashable even if lost or destroyed, especially with a list of serial numbers.

ERROR REARDED

DENVER — The birthday cake for Mrs. Louise Brothman, wife of the Republican candidate for governor, was just fine — except the frosting read "Happy Birthday Bernice."

The hostess, Mrs. Charles M. Armstrong, erased the error with a diplomatic swipe of her thumb.

Planned forest management, on a sustained yield basis, has grown from five million acres in the South in 1905, to over sixty million acres in the 1950's. In Florida, 2,451,253 acres of Tree Farms indicate the trend toward this wise utilization of a vital raw material and the farm foresters offer free assistance to small woodland owners.

Nudists Hold Annual Parley

TAMPA — Nudists ranging in age from 2 to 85 attended the annual convention of the Eastern Sunbathing Area over the weekend at a lakeside retreat near here.

The two-year old tots were children of delegates attending the meeting. Sejar, the nudist colony housed men and women and there were quarters for couples.

Only outsider was Mike Moran, Tampa Tribune reporter who sat in on the panel discussions of nudist problems.

Speakers told the more than 100 delegates public attacks on nudism are declining and at the same time more sunbathing clubs are being formed. Other speakers said nudism offers a good remedy for prevention of juvenile delinquency and divorces are rare in families which practice nudism.

Robbers Steal Foreign Money

CHICAGO — Two armed robbers took 6,000 Mexican pesos, 1,000 Japanese yen, 500 Cuban dollars, 4,000 Filipino pesos and 20 Puerto Rican dollars from a stock broker Sunday. But they overlooked 70 American bucks.

Harry J. Diason, 50, told police he was a visitor from the Philippines for his 13-year-old son.

Diason said he had 70 American in another wallet which the robbers overlooked.

THOSE SUMMER VACATIONERS ARE ON THE LOOSE AGAIN

Public Works Department truck was dragging a tree limb through the stream when a chain attached to the limb snapped. A link, heated by friction from crawling along the pipe on a flow through Mrs. Marjorie's window, setting fire to the curtains.

A total collapse of the sun cover over which the moon is clear in the south. Reflected which were at times in the moon, when it is far away are similar to a film of the sun showing around the moon's shadow.

Production Drop Is Due Mainly To Stock Changes

The total value of American production reached a peak in the first quarter of 1951 (last year) was $11.1 billion, or 20 percent of the total drop in production.

The fact is that the decline in the value of production was due to a change in the inventory practice of business. In the second quarter of 1951, business was producing more goods than it was selling, and the excess was being added to inventory.

Accardo Is Met In Chicago With Order To Leave Town

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—A welcoming committee was on hand the day Joseph Accardo stepped off a plane at International Airport. But the Chicago hoodlum, leader of the old Al Capone syndicate, was met by a group of men who told him to get out of town. This committee, "out of town," was told that this was a goal example of the unfriendly gesture being extended to all hit men and "muscle men" who come here planning to make Los Angeles a base for operations.

Accardo's welcome was from three members of the Alamo Intelligence Division of the Los Angeles Police Department, an unusual of course set up four years ago which has received reports of crime from city commissioners, criminologists and the U. S. Senate.

"Our job is to gather information about every big kid in the nation and keep him out of Los Angeles," said one of the men.

How does the division get its information? Mr. Alamo Intelligence Division is a unit of the Los Angeles Police Department, an unusual of course set up four years ago which has received reports of crime from city commissioners, criminologists and the U. S. Senate.

Other police departments are following suit. Denver has created a unit known as a "Special Service Bureau" similar to the Los Angeles unit. The "Special Service" unit in Chicago has a similar aim.

Carelessness Again Is Displayed On Southern Entryway To Sanford

Recently, The Herald called attention to the littered condition of Park Ave. at the south end of Sanford and immediate action was taken by the City to remedy the situation.

At that time, The Herald said the southern entryway to the City couldn't be kept clean unless people going along in cars stopped using the thoroughfare for a wastebasket.

New Way Of Enforcement

Chicago has found a way to handle the most annoying of traffic violations. These are the ones who, when registered by a police officer, are found later to have given a false name and address on their license. Practically every large city has a list running up into the thousands of delinquents who cannot be located.

The new Chicago plan takes care of that. When the officer looks a violator, he takes up his driver's license. It may be regained only when the case is disposed of, either by paying the required penalty or by acquittal. If the driver tries to operate his car without a license, he risks far severer punishment.

This should do the trick. Apparently it has also the merit of making it harder to fix a traffic ticket.

Other cities might well give thought to the Chicago plan.

JAMES MARLOW

Flanders Not Very Impressive

WASHINGTON (AP)—When he bats against Ben McCarthy (R-Wis) in the Senate league, Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) needs a team and a score. There's no team and he has a team. And he's learning the score the hard way.

He has swung twice and missed. There's a good chance he'll strike out.

Persistence may be all the two senators have in common. They've used it on each other. The 73-year-old Vermont Republican persists in trying to get the Senate to rebuke McCarthy some way, somehow.

McCarthy persistently ignores Flanders, paying no more attention to him than he'd pay to a snail. He dismisses Flanders, his most outspoken Senate critic, with the word "senile."

For months Flanders has been after McCarthy with Senate speeches and television statements that got headlines. For all their effect on the Senate it was like a batter warming up with popline.

But Flanders apparently felt ready for the big try. He asked the Senate to vote McCarthy out of his committee chairmanship, which would be a shattering rebuke.

Flanders had stepped into one of the most sensitive areas of the Senate. All its members yearn to be committee chairmen, a job that comes to them not by brilliance or ability but by seniority; by sticking around long enough.

Senators, being politicians, have a heightened sense of survival. Once they started something like this motion—taking a senator's chairmanship away—it might happen to them someday.

Besides, there were other considerations: In this election year 37 of the 96 Senate seats are at stake. McCarthy has a host of friends, well-wishers and admirers who might make their anger at a vote against and Park Ave. is swiftly returning to again becoming a disgraceful sight.

Now, the City has better things to do than running out and cleaning up after people who are thoughtless enough to leave paper and beer cans indiscriminately from car windows.

Be a bit considerate of the appearance of one of our City's thoroughfares... Stop using it for a wastebasket.

The City has been doing a good job in mowing lots about the community. It surely helps the City's appearance.

Five Sanford boys have been afforded the opportunity for a fine trip to a Boy Scout camp in New Mexico. These local Explorer Scouts are indeed fortunate that the great Scouting movement provides such a facility.

Polio season is again with us as is evidenced by the large number of cases in Broward county. Seminole County only has one case. Let's keep polio down here by taking action—such as avoiding becoming overtired.

World Trade

Some of the biggest strike dangers have been averted by compromise. And world trade, war or no war, is gaining. The slide into depression seems to have slowed up and to some extent leveled off.

All this is good news. The worker's family hoardin geyery dollar against strike can now take a long breath and buy the new refrigerator. The family of the man who makes refrigerators may begin to think again of the possibility of a new car. People in England, long rationed after the war in many lines, are better fed and clothed than for a long time.

Taking life all over the world, things are looking up. Not much, in some areas, it is true, but the look on the whole is up, not down. The secretariat of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade says that international trade was "far better balanced at the end of 1953 than any time during the post-war period."

Trade is a strong bulwark against war. One of the shrewdest remarks of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt was that the best move against Communism would be to give Russian peasants and workers a good look at an American mail-order catalogue. We haven't quite been able to get that done, but outside the iron curtain not only food and other answers to basic needs are moving in greater measure, but consumers' good are marching around the world also.

him fell at the polls in November. That goes for Democrats and Republicans alike.

Behind closed doors a group of Senate Republicans who plan their party's strategy in the upper chamber—the Senate's Republican Policy Committee—decided to tell Flanders about the facts of politics.

They voted against his resolution, in effect killing it before it had a chance to be debated on the Senate floor. He couldn't fight McCarthy and his own party's policy committee too. He dropped his resolution in a hurry.

The fact that he did, and that the committee vote against him was unanimous, was pretty thorough evidence all Flanders had from the start was a pious hope. He had no team. He had been swinging in the dark.

That he had taken a stand against McCarthy may have been personally satisfying to Flanders. It certainly got him a lot of publicity. But battling against McCarthy single-handed has been a useless occupation.

Undaunted, Flanders stepped up to the plate again, look another swing, and missed again. This time he asked the Senate simply to pass

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP)—Police charged Noel B. Mills, a 27-year-old soldier, with breaking and entering when they found:

2. The pants and boots inside the animal hospital.

Mills, facing a police court hearing today, told officers those were his pants and boots, all right, but that he couldn't remember going into the hospital.

Down South

By THURMAN SENSING
Southern States Industrial Council
Nashville, Tenn.

As we discussed the activities of the Democratic Party during the twenty years it was last in power, and as we consider the activities of the Republican Party now in the second year of its present Administration, we would seem to be quite justified in asking ourselves the question: "Do both political parties want inflation?" Or, it might be better to put the question another way: "Do neither of the parties have the courage to stand up to it?"

And if you think inflation has been stopped, or is even well on the way to being stopped, just think again because you cannot be any more wrong. Just consider some of the positions taken by the present Administration, or by some of its spokesmen—all of which are directly contrary to those necessary to stop inflation!

1. Thus far the Administration has reversed itself on its sound currency plank in the 1952 platform on which it was elected—just as did the Democrats on a similar plank in their 1922 platform.

2. Dr. Burgess, of the Treasury Department, has appealed to Congress to continue with the irredeemable currency system inflicted on the people of the United States by the New Deal (A redeemable currency is one of the absolutely necessary steps to bring inflation to an end.)

3. Mr. William McC. Martin, chairman of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, has made the same appeal for just the opposite result of that given by Dr. Burgess. (Mr. Martin said he should not have a candidate for Federal Reserve membership who is not an economist.)

4. The present Administration has placed a bill before Congress to extend the same appeal to the authority of the Treasury, granted by the New Deal, to sell its securities directly to the Federal Reserve banks, causing an amount up to $5 billion—a device for direct monetization of Federal debt.

Other steps could be cited, but these are some of the main ones. In addition to this, however, it is well known that the Administration has stated that in case of a depression it has stand-by plans to put into effect some of the same old inflationary practices used by the New Deal, all of which failed miserably.

So we may well wonder whether either political party, as it vies for the votes of the people, has the courage to take those steps so painful but necessary—needed to restore a sound economy. Because stopping inflation is painful—there is no doubt about that! No one should ever have thought we could return to a sound economy in this country after twenty years of an unsound economy without causing considerable economic pain—and to just about all the people. It could be that the people themselves are not the cause; that the political parties are de-ing only what seems to them to be the desire of the people.

But inflation is like the dope habit. The narcotic addict is cured of his addiction only by some pain, but if not cured he goes on and on to destruction—and so it is with nations that are inflation addicts. Consider France, for instance, whose franc was once worth twenty cents and is now worth one-third of one cent—and it's still the very same franc on paper. Can that nation be cured? It's doubtful—and certainly, even if possible, not without a great deal more pain than would have occurred been the case.

The wisdom of history is that money must represent something tangible. It is only right that it should, because it represents the toil and sweat and energy of those who earned it—and this is something they do not want to evaporate before their very eyes. If money does not represent something tangible, then the people are subject to robbery and the whim of government which can deprive their old money by just printing new. Hills have been introduced in the United States to restore an honest and sound money for the people of the United States. These bills should be passed.

Lake City Man Carries Mail For 47 Years

TAMPA (AP)—Same Jones has been a rural letter carrier for 47 years and with things getting easier all the time he isn't even thinking of retiring.

Jones began his career at 19 when he "blunked down $800 for a horse and buggy" and began traveling over roads which certainly were nothing to brag about.

"It has been a gradual improvement ever since," Jones said, but he still has some bad spots on his 52-mile route which serves 220 mail boxes.

Jones, 66, was the delegate from Lake City to the Florida Rural Letter Carriers Assn., which held its annual convention here.

He was its president in 1911 and 1929.

"I remember one time back in the horse and buggy days when I was sure glad there was no photographer around," he declared. "I came up to a flooded stream where there had been a ford. Since there was no other way to get across, I stripped off all my clothes, put them in my mail bags and swam, and that horse swam across."

Comparing the old times with today, he observed: "The folks in the country are happier, now. Guess the establishment of electric service and telephones is the main reason. "One thing that hasn't changed much is the habit of bees making a home in mail boxes. You can get an unwelcome surprise at times if you just pull up and thrust a handful of mail at a box without looking."

Haggling Leads To Success

NEW YORK (AP)—Fighting between married people often ends in black eyes and divorce suits. But 22 years of almost continuous verbal warfare have made Albert Hackett and Frances Goodrich into one of Hollywood's most successful husband-and-wife marrying teams.

Their long wordy quarrel has resulted in several jointly written Broadway plays, 22 movie scripts and an annual income in the high clear financial stratosphere somewhere above $50,000.

"But if we take time off to do a play, as we have this year, we sometimes don't earn a nickel," said Miss Goodrich.

Both started out as actors. They turned to writing during lean seasons. After their third play, "Up Pops the Devil," made the grade on Broadway, they went to Hollywood, married, and settled down with the M-G-M Studio.

"We were in the doghouse for a long time," Miss Goodrich recalled. "It was easy to get lost out there then. The studio had 155 writers, and everybody was taking a fling at everybody else's script."

"Now they have only 30 writers, and they cast a writer almost as they do an actor for a part. They try to fit the writer to the kind of material he is best at."

Frances and "Hacky" hit pay dirt first with "The Thin Man." Among other well known screenplays they fought out together are "An Affair to Remember," "Father of the Bride," and their recently completed "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers."

For mutual safety many collaborators divide a script into acts, and the partners write alternate scenes. But the Hacketts believe fighting makes good writing. Each does the same scene, and then comes the nerve-wracking job of meeting them together.

"We fight, fight, fight—every line of the way," said Frances. "And rewrite, rewrite, rewrite," murmured Hackett.

"We used to have separate rooms, but now we write together in the same room, and that's better," continued his wife. "We're closer in the clichees. We don't have so far to walk to fight, do we, Hacky?"

"Um-m-m-m," murmured Hackett. "I think it's a good thing we fight so much over our work," said Frances. "That way we avoid the quarrels that other married people get mixed up in. We never fight at any other time, do we, Albert?"

"Oh, not much anyway," murmured her husband. "Listen, Hackett," said Frances. "That three days I didn't speak to you—it was a quarrel about work. Remember? It's more interesting to fight about work than about whether you can afford a new dress."

"M-m-m-m," murmured Hackett. In 1939 they both swears of the writing strain and let their typewriters rust for three years.

"It was a lovely nervous breakdown," said Frances. "And we enjoyed it together. We just broke down at the typewriter and started cries, and neither of us could stop crying." "In a relationship like ours," said Hackett, "if one partner gets sick, he soon puts the other one in the same condition."

Now they pick the scripts they want, knock off often for long vacations abroad together to keep from getting into a writing rut.

"We do everything together," said Frances, smiling. "Poor Hackett. He never gets away from me. He never gets to take advantage of all the opportunities in Hollywood—and there are so many."

"UM-M-M-M-M!" murmured Hackett, a look of distance on his face.

Actor Plays With Mumps

KINGS MOUNTAIN, N.C. (AP)—Albert McKelvie is one of those actors who likes to get the feel of his part.

McKelvie was assigned the role of an Indian in the annual presentation here of "The Sword of Gilead." Just before opening night McKelvie came down with the mumps.

However, he went on in his part of the Indian named "Hismouth Stretches."

BUDDER FIRST INMATE GREENWOOD, S.C. (AP)—A man charged with drunk and disorderly conduct became the first inmate in McCormick County's new jail during the weekend.

He is a construction worker who had worked on the building since it was begun last February.

Physical Therapy Aids Cerebral Palsy Victims

By HERMAN M. BUNDESEN, M.D.

NOW that the public has become polio-conscious, it should educate itself about another crippling cerebral palsy. There are more than half a million persons known to have cerebral palsy in the United States alone.

Contrary to popular belief, it has been estimated that only about one third of the entire group of children with this condition are incapable of learning because of mental deficiency. This figure is much lower than most people seem to realize.

A misconception The child with cerebral palsy has often been assumed to be mentally retarded because of the facial grimaces, drooling or lack of co-ordination that go with their disease. However, many of these children are of normal, or even superior intelligence, and are unquestionably teachable.

A certain percentage of the cases of cerebral palsy are due to birth injury. In reality, only a lesser percentage of all cases are due to any form of damage in childbirth. Many cases are due to improper development of the infant within the mother's womb.

Therapy Advisable The help of physical therapy is important to rehabilitate a child with cerebral palsy. They can teach the children specific muscle exercises, including exercises to increase muscle strength, to improve their reach, grasp, and to better co-ordinate their movements. Under their guidance, the children can be trained to normal activities such as keeping balanced by the use of braces and other apparatus.

Almost 75 per cent of those who suffer from cerebral palsy have some sort of speech difficulty. From 50 to 75 per cent can receive benefit from expert speech training.

The children are also trained in occupational therapy. They find an occupation for their limbs so that they can gain better use of them.

Modern medicine, by means of bone surgery, can correct some of their difficulties. Certain drugs such as neostigmine help to relieve spasms.

QUESTION AND ANSWER Mr. D. B.: What is the best way to clean a toilet seat?

Answer: The most practical way to clean a toilet seat is to use soap and water with the use of an appropriate antiseptic solution afterwards.

Sports Selections

By PETE OSBORNE

This boy Bob Borsdorf who has just coasted to victory over all opposition in the junior boys' bracket of the Sanford Tennis Championships, may or may not be a champion, but no chances are being taken. The way the fourteen was set up the winner of any bracket is eligible to challenge the intermediate champ for the city title. But Borsdorf, rightly so, has been deemed ineligible to play for the coveted title. A former Sanford resident, he now lives in Miami.

All depending upon which way you care to look at it, Borsdorf may not be called a Sanford resident. No doubt about it, his folks now live in Miami. Although he is spending a couple of weeks here in Sanford, he is not, nevertheless, living in Miami. But he did live here and so in a sense he is a home town product.

The lean, lanky youngster is ranked eighth in tennis circles in the Magic City. And that's among some pretty fair competition. Miami and Coral Gables are a traditionally renowned for the netters which are turned out there. Some years, the tennis rankings nationally bear a close resemblance to the Miami city directory.

Obviously, the kid's a capable tennis performer. He makes no pretense about being able to whip whomsoever might capture the intermediate title—and you can't forget that Charlie Morrison is poised like a cobra waiting to announce his challenge. Morrison was the lone entry in the senior bracket, for those exceeding 25 years of age.

Maybe Borsdorf and the winner, if Gene Tucker, the defending champion, or Fred Ganas, or Huch Carlton or Bill Fleming—all semi-finalists—could get together in a non-title exhibition. Just to see how good the kid really is.

The junior winner and his doubles partner, one Thomas Kuhn gained one win before falling victim to Charlie Morrison and Tucker in the twin bracket, so really there has been no indication as to Borsdorf's talents—no loss of face for getting beaten by the two.

But it might be observed, it is a good thing Borsdorf has been declared ineligible for the right to challenge for the city honor. It would look sort of funny having a Sanford city champion living in Miami.

And there are no indications at present that the city's annual program will be extended to the city limits that far south right away.

Graham Drops Split Decision To Christensen

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—When you get licked by a spilt decision, it makes you think about quitting."

Billy Graham, admitting he will be 33 at his next birthday in September, was a thoroughly disgusted man as he sat in his rickshaw last night after losing a split decision to Danish Chris Christensen.

"When a guy like this hits you, it makes you think about what you're doing," he said. "You ask yourself, 'Why don't you counter?' I might now I feel led down. I thought I won the fight 6-4 but I am disappointed."

"I'll know in a few days about fighting again. After I sit down and have a talk with Irving (Irving Cohen, his manager)."

Graham looked rusty in his second fight in seven months. He was slow and missed often against the faster Dane, who kept pouring leather at him through the 10 rounds of Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway. Christensen showed no sign of power with his flicking punches, often resorting to a backhand right, but he was too quick and too busy for the New Yorker, who came within a whisker of winning. Kid Gavilan's walkie talkie back to 1951.

Referee Teddy Martin voted for Christensen 5-4 and Judge Dave Stewart, 6-3. The other judge, Bert Grant, scored it for Graham 5-4.

Graham weighed 150, Christensen, 148.

Al Andrews, who won a unanimous decision from Sauer, a 10-0 at St. Nicholas Arena, headed back for his home town, Superior, Wis., for a vacation.

"He's tough to fight," said Andrews, who weighed 132 in Chicago's 145th. "He can tie you up on the inside and he throws a pretty good punch. I'd like to fight in Superior, but until I get someone to fight here, I'll do some road work and box with the amateurs."

Lookouts, Barons To Meet Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chattanooga looks to have its home park magic working again—just in time for a battle with Birmingham for third place in the Southern Area, standing.

The Lookouts and the Barons open a four-game series in Engel stadium tonight and manager C. Korman's crew hopes to supplant the Barons in third spot. The Look are in fourth place, out game back.

Chattanooga took its third straight from Nashville last night. Lefty Jim Pearce notched his 11th victory against five losses. The Look backed Pearce's eight-hit performance with a 13-hit assault, including three hits by outfielders Larry Chaffee and Bruce Barnes and a homer by Ed Griggs.

The Look were beaten by Birmingham with a second-place defeat 21-10. Barnes and Little took consecutive Sunday's suspended game.

Sea Birds Chalk Up 19 Hits, End CB's 7-Game Win Streak

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ray Konkoleksi's Florida State League pitching victory No. 14 burst little resemblance to No. 15.

The Jacksonville Beach right-hander, who tossed a no-hitter at Cocoa for No. 15 last week was hammered for nine hits and he walked nine last night. Nevertheless, the Sea Birds backed Konkoleksi with a 19-hit attack that produced a 1-7 decision over the Orlando CB's.

While the CB's came to the end of a seven-game winning streak, they managed to increase their league lead by half a game. DeLand slapped a double defeat on Lakeland 8-7 and 10-7 and climbed into second place with them.

Open Golf Champ Is Among 135 Starters In PGA Competition

By HUG FULLERTON JR.

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—For the first time since Ben Hogan scored his first "claret" in 1948, the National Open golf champion is showing for America's No. 2 pro golf prize, the PGA championship.

And even the celebrated "Minneapolis Lifer" won't give you much idea of "crooked arm" Ed Furgol's chances of winning this tough event over a course that could be plain murder to followers of golfing form.

Furgol, the surprise winner of the Open, got into the PGA championship and more. He figures the seven-day grind is tough for him. And, until Furgol came through at Baltusart last month, no other Open winner has been a full member of the PGA and eligible for the title.

Hogan doesn't play in the PGA championship any more. He figures the seven-day grind is tough for him. And, until Furgol came through at Baltusart last month, no other Open winner has been a full member of the PGA and eligible for the title.

The only other Open winners, Cary Middlecoff and Julius Boros, hadn't completed their five year "probation" to play in the PGA tournament when they won the big title.

As it stands, Furgol is just one of 135 players who'll start shooting tomorrow for 72 holes in the match play bracket. After 36 holes of qualifying, the survivors will start Friday on the knockout phase, which winds up with next Tuesday's 36-hole final. The defending champion, Wally Burkemo, is exempt from this qualifying test and he plans to shoot for the $250 Medalist prize anyway.

Pro And Duffer

By HO WINNINGER

Touring Pro from Oklahoma City Golf and Country Club (Writer for Associated Press)

Touring with the professionals the last two years has improved my game.

When I started out I never realized the importance of being myself over 18 holes or 36 holes, which we sometimes play in one day.

You might say I had the fault common with most duffers. I was over-anxious to hit every shot. I realized on tour that when I did this a tenness developed. And when that happened I found myself going over or under many greens. I couldn't control my shots.

To overcome this anxiety to hit each shot, a golfer must condition his mind and body. This is the best way to get control of one's self.

When you pace yourself for 18 holes or more you learn to control your nerves. Proper pace also gives you a better attitude about the game.

Pacing helps you to do more positive thinking. It helps you to plan each shot that much more.

If the average golfer comes out to the course earlier than tea off time and hits a few shots—about 25—he will find that he will be more relaxed when he begins play. And that should help his score better.

HONEST POLICY PITTSBURGH, Pa. — State Sen. John Walker says he has positive proof that kids are honest. Walker has a tennis court on his property and allows neighborhood youngsters to use it.

This summer, the senator had a big cooler installed for soft drinks. The teenagers help themselves at five cents a bottle depositing their coins in an old can.

Some of his friends thought "This was a sucker," Walker laughed. "But the kids are putting a right on the line. I come out even every time."

Three virtually completed check stations are being built by the Florida Department of Transportation, one at Jacksonville, Fla., and Grand Bahama, B. H.

U. S. Col. William W. Walker in his testimony said these stations were "built all along and were ready to go when the war broke out."

Walker said that the stations were built under construction or are completed. Walker said that the stations were built to protect the air force bases in Florida from enemy attack.

Missile Testing Being Expanded

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The Air Force now is able to launch guided missiles at 142,000 feet, and check their flight as far as the British West Indies. More check stations are being set up in Central America and one is probably planned in South America.

This was disclosed recently in testimony made public by a House Appropriations Committee. A section of the testimony, given in closed-door session earlier this year, was based on fund requests for expansion of the guided missile operations directed from Patrick Air Force Base on Florida's east coast.

The launching site for the missiles is at Cape Canaveral, but range stations are being built to check the missiles through the future programmed flight. There are to be 10 or more instrument check stations.

Young Britons Wear Clothes Of Bygone Era

LONDON (AP)—Just before he sailed for Japan last year, Alan Marsh, teenage London seaman, saw something in a London tailor's shop window that changed his whole outlook on life.

It was an Edwardian suit, complete with velvet-collared jacket and calf-clinging drape pants—the kind London dandies wore 50 years ago in the reign of King Edward VII.

Marsh had to make a trip to Japan and back as a seaman before he could raise the $34 in American money it cost him to buy the costume and become a "teddy boy."

Thousands of young Britons like Marsh, from 15 to the early 20's are buying such suits these days in the fantastic craze that's sweeping England. They've made a new look from the "old look" of Edward's time. Some claim it's the uniform of juvenile delinquency and call the teddy boy "crowds" mere hothouses of violence and crime.

Others disagree. As young Marsh said, "When I bought my teddy boy suit I also bought advertisement—white shirts and a narrow, 'slim Jim' tie."

"All you need now is a D. A.," the tailor told him.

D. A. is Edwardian slang for a haircut with upswept curls, a pompadour top and a close resemblance at the back to the rear end of a duck. The haircut costs some teddy boys six dollars for really fancy D. A.'s that rival the coiffure of their girl friends.

Critics say teddy boys must be tempted to steal in order to keep themselves in this sort of fancy which they carry really afford. They also recall pitched battles in which teddy boys have wielded knives, razors and lead bullets.

The boys themselves indignantly deny such tactics. As young Marsh says, speaking in the strange language that has evolved with the strange costume:

"It's no single getting your rig ruffed by some geezer in a bun-die." (Meaning there's nothing funny about getting a costly Edwardian costume damaged in a fight.)

He adds, "I fight if I have to, but my fists are good enough for me. Anyway, I don't go looking for trouble."

What's this way because we think it smart and not because we are mentally defective. Most of us earn good wages and can afford to buy our clothing. We don't need to steal.

"What's the use of learning to dance properly when the dance halls are so crowded there's no room to do anything else but creep around?"

"Our slang isn't worse than other slang and we think a lot of it is elegant."

As for trading in gangs, Edwardians say this is nothing new. It's just that we're more noticeable now we are in the latest fashion.

Many police officers and social workers side with the teddy boys. They insist that by and large, they are decent living youngsters, perhaps a bit too much addicted to jazz and girls, but no worse than others of their age.

Public concern over the Edwardians was first aroused after a gang fight at Clapham Common in London park where they parade every evening with their girl friends. The fight ended in a fatal stabbing.

The Edwardian style was resurrected four years ago by London's leading tailors in Savile Row. It caught on to some extent among the wealthy, but they abandoned thefad when they found it taken over and adapted by youngsters in East London's slums and elsewhere on the wrong side of the tracks.

Like a political party, there are signs the Edwardians have a left, a center and a right wing.

The rightists are going in for extreme exaggerations of the Edwardian style, notably with knee-length jackets and gaudy vests. The main body of centrists are resisting any degeneration of the traditional style.

For More Fun In A Boat Use Common Sense Afloat

KNOW YOUR BOAT
Every boat has its limitations. Learn what you can expect from your boat.

HEAD INTO THE WAVES
If waves are high, head your boat at an angle towards the waves at slow speed.

USE THE RIGHT MOTOR
Too much power can damage your boat—may even swamp it. Look for OMC recommended horsepower plots.

DON'T OVERLOAD
Seats do not indicate capacity. Two or three adults may be a full load under many conditions.

AVOID SHARP TURNS
Fast, sharp turns are hard on equipment—and sometimes on people. Take it easy.

WATCH THE WEATHER
Head for shore before a storm hits. If caught out, seat passengers on floor.

KEEP LOW
And step in the center when boarding the boat or changing seats.

Follow the eight simple rules shown here for more safety and fun afloat this season, says the Outdoor Boating Club of America, national organization of outdoor sports. Boating is the safest of outdoor sports, says OBC, if you'll use common sense and courtesy.

Failure Of Bomb To Kill Hitler Resulted In Definite Effects On Germany, World

BERLIN (AP)—Ten years ago today a Prussian nobleman, crippled by war wounds and disfigured by Nazism, placed a briefcase against a pillar in Adolf Hitler's Hakenkreuz military headquarters.

Count Claus von Stauffenberg had worked hard to reach a position of confidence that made his "briefcase" visit possible.

No one noticed, when he left the headquarters in East Prussia, that he had left anything behind.

As he reached the outer barriers of the tightly guarded area, a giant explosion rocked the building and sent a wall of the Hitler hideout belching smoke, dust and flame.

The deadly bomb contained in the briefcase had gone off right on time.

But Hitler was only wounded in the left arm. He lived to compel Germany to struggle on another year with a war that already was lost.

Had the July 20 plot succeeded a government headed by honorable anti-Nazi military men would have taken over Germany and sued for peace with the Allied nations were still outside its border. A million lives would have been spared and the Soviet Union might not now be planted solidly in central Europe.

Despite this, in Germany today there is still argument whether the men who planned and executed the attempted assassination were heroes or traitors. Aside from the physical danger involved in bucking the dictatorship, a moral principal was involved. All of them had at one time sworn the traditional military oath of fealty. In the secret councils they decided, however, that the Fuehrer had prostituted the oath by exacting it personally rather than directing it toward the interest of the fatherland.

The West German government has taken its stand definitely on the side of the band of patriots who thought of their nation first and their personal lives and liberty second.

But die-hard Nazis had sticklers for sworn oaths, regardless of the implications, still regard the attempted putsch as treasonable. His-tory as it is being taught in the German schools does not pin down the decision either way. However, the textbooks cautiously point out that the 10 months of war that followed smashed the nation for many years to come.

The misgivings of the plot were senior officers trained for years to know when a battle is won or lost. Top man was Col. Gen. Ludwig Beck, former chief of staff. With him was Col. Gen. Fritz Oster, his own companion. Adm. Wilhelm Canaris, head of Hitler's military secret service, was executive officer. Another high official connected with the group was Field Marshal Erwin von Wittelben.

Their plan had one gigantic flaw: no one was assigned to seize Radio Berlin. Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels capitalized on this weakness immediately. He quickly took to the air and told the German people the Fuehrer was alive and well and presented Hitler's voice in a recording. This turned the tide in a revolt that conceivably might have succeeded even without Hitler's immediate death.

Beck took the Prussian officer's traditional way out. His pistol beat approaching SS guards by a matter of hours. Three of his closest associates in the old Wehrmacht were hauled into the courtyard, lined up against a wall and summarily shot without trial.

The headquarters now is a retirement center. A bronze statue in the center honors the conspirators as men who fought for liberty.

It stands in various parts of Germany moved there several thousand suspects, again without trial.

The total had been estimated at slightly less than 1,000.

Wittelben, Ludwig Mayer Karl

Flood Strikes Mountain Town

RICHWOOD, W. Va. (AP)—This mountain town of 5,300 was in a state of emergency today after a devastating flash flood which left at least one dead and caused damage estimated at two-million dollars.

The rushing waters of the Cherry River, which ran as deep as 12 feet in the streets of Richwood after a downpour the night before, were gone by yesterday afternoon.

The flood drove 200 families from their homes in Richwood alone, the American Red Cross reported. National Guard authorities said 22 homes here were destroyed.

Scores of others were damaged. Two Coast Guard helicopters resumed food drops to cut-off outlying sections today after an overnight halt.

The property loss estimate, first figured at about $250,000, was mounting. After contacting business men and property owners, editor James F. Comstock of the weekly Nicholas News Leader here said the loss would run to two million dollars.

The first fatality was Thomas Martin, 72, who was stricken by a heart attack as a National Guardsman and policeman helped him from his flooded Richwood home. His son, Donald, remained on duty through last night with the National Guard.

Requirements Set For Frat Pledges To Meet At Uoff

GAINESVILLE.—High School graduates planning to pledge fraternities at the University of Florida next fall will have to meet a minimum grade average requirement.

The Interfraternity Council, governing body of the University's 26 fraternities, has passed a new ruling following a statistical study of freshmen grade averages.

All entering freshmen who have not already taken tests before September will be given an opportunity to take American Council of Education examinations during fall orientation week.

According to the new IFC rushing regulations, only those freshmen who make at least a 60 percentile rank on the ACE tests will be eligible for participation in rushing or pledging activities their first semester.

However, freshmen who have not had an opportunity to take the tests before the beginning of fall rush week will be given "conditional" rush cards and allowed to attend fraternity pre-pledging functions, although they cannot accept a membership invitation until test grades have been cleared through the dean of men's office.

Students not eligible in the fall who make at least a "C" (2.0) scholarship average during their first semester will be eligible to participate fully in fraternity activities during the second semester.

According to Stanley Rosenkrantz, IFC rush week co-ordinator from Jacksonville, the council has established the new program "to help freshmen understand the importance of scholarship and also to cooperate with the various deans and student advisors in helping entering students make a healthy and easy adjustment to collegiate living and scholastic responsibilities."

Coast Guard rescuers lift aboard their craft Harry Heidick, skipper of the ill-fated North V, a 43-foot fishing boat which capsized in Delaware Bay. Del. Two women were drowned and a man is still unaccounted for. Six survivors, including the skipper, were taken to a hospital for treatment of shock and exposure after having spent more than six hours in the water.

Nancy Kefauver, who learned about campaigning when her husband, Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), sought the Democratic nomination for President in 1952, again hits the political trail for him in his bid for reelection. She is shown conferring with secretary Don Vaughn before making a speech for Estes at Clinton Tenn. Nancy took over her husband's tough five-rally-a-day schedule when he was unable to get away from his duties in Washington.

In the good old summertime there's no better place to snap pictures than at lakeside or seashore—especially when a pretty girl is the subject. For a different kind of snapshot, a low camera angle makes an unusual picture. A camera like the Kodak Duaflex with its 36mm viewfinder makes it easy to take such pictures.

Coconut Cookies Always Welcomed By The Kiddies

These cookies are less sweet than some. They're excellent to serve to children with milk or have on hand when friends drop by for afternoon tea. Made as they are, with coconut and corn soya shred cereal, they have fine flavor, firm, chewy texture, and are good-sized—about 3 inches in diameter.

COCONUT CHEWS
2 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup melted butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs
2 cups corn soya shreds
1/2 cup shredded coconut

Mix together flour, soda and salt. Blend sugars, melted butter and vanilla. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Stir in corn soya and coconut. Add sifted dry ingredients, and mix well. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased baking sheets. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) about 10 minutes or until lightly browned.

Yield: 5 dozen cookies, about 3 inches in diameter.

Shortening may be substituted for up to half the amount of butter, if desired.

ARMORED CAR DISAPPEARS PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police "lost" a Philadelphia Transportation Co. armored car reportedly carrying $300,000 yesterday and there was some mad scribbling about the city for a brief spell before it was found again—safe in a company garage.

The car was involved in an accident with another vehicle and several persons suffering minor injuries were taken to nearby hospitals by police cars.

Before leaving the scene, the officers radioed for added help to guard the contents of the armored car. Meanwhile, a company tow truck arrived and towed the disabled car to a garage.

Eisenhower Denies Accusation He Is Trying To Eliminate TVA

Strolling In Sanford

Barry Crim Friday evening at 7 o'clock will give a teaching demonstration on his group leadership training program at the City Hall. All interested may attend.

Glenn Gilby who was honored on his seventh birthday yesterday at the residence of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Massey, 21 Chapman Ave., is looking forward to his best present. His father who has been overseas with the U. S. Air Force for 18 months, will be home in three weeks.

Local band members at the University of Miami Summer Music Camp, Leslie Smith, Larry Rayton, Robert Newton, Hal Reilly Jr. and Joe Fisher, are "doing fine," according to Ernest Cowley, bandmaster at Seminole High School, who also is attending the camp as a teacher. "Joe Fisher and Bob Reilly are playing to parts in the 'white band' he said. "The white band is the top band and it is quite a honor to be playing in it. A smaller group of the better players from the white band will form a 21-piece television band to present a TV program on WTVT Sunday at 1:30 p.m. Joe Fisher is among the 21. There are approximately 160 members in camp. Leslie Smith plays solo cornet with the orange band. The camp ends July 29 with an award banquet. According to the program, Cowley was one of the conductors of the orange band at a concert last Sunday. Henry Fillmore, famous composer, was conductor of the white band during the playing of two of his numbers.

Work Is Started On Foundation Of Storage Tank

The foundation of the elevated water storage tank to be constructed on Mellottville Ave. at the site of the old baseball park began today, according to Warren Knowles, City manager. Knowles said the project which is contract No. 2 of the water and sewer program, will take about 45 days.

Contract No. 1 is held by the Whitmore Tank Co. A 200,000-gal storage facility will be built at the cost of $40,000 as soon as the Peninsula Construction Co. completes work on the foundation. The Peninsula project is at a cost of $3,900.

Work will be started by E. H. Holcombe, Clearwater contractor on contract No. 3 tomorrow. Scheduled to be finished within 60 work days, the job will entail the laying of 21,000 feet of cast iron water main. Materials have been arriving for the past week, Knowles said.

Hubbard Construction Co. of Orlando is viewing contract No. 4 for final signing. Work on the $240,000 job should be underway within about three weeks, the City Manager opined.

Contracts No. 5 and 6, which have been submitted to McPoland Brothers of Jacksonville, Ala., will be underway within a week, according to the contract terms.

Work is progressing very well on city Mgr. Knowles said, on the $142,000 project No. 7, which involves a large interceptor line which is presently being laid a foot below the street.

Contract No. 8 has not been pending further study, Knowles concluded in his survey of the construction projects.

Young Girl Found Tied, Unconscious After Attack Try

HOLLYWOOD, Fla.—A 14-year-old girl found only in a brassiere was found bound and unconscious in front of the Baptist Church last night, the victim of attempted rape.

Shirley Amos Hall of Broward County who investigated said he did not think there was any connection between the attempted attack and the kidnapping of Judith Ann Roberts, 7, in Miami on July 7.

"They aren't the same type of crime," he said. "The man who tried to assault the girl here was not a sadist."

Hall said the 14-year-old girl was not raped and wasn't harmed except for the raw in her mouth and around her throat.

He quoted her as saying she was coming home from a girl friend's house about 8:20 p. m. (EST) when she noticed a man in a black car following her.

In front of the church, she said, the man got out of the car and threatened her with a gun. He forced her to the rear of the church, ripped off her pedal pushers and blouse, tied her hands and feet and gagged her.

Hall said that after the man left the girl said she crawled around the front of the church and then lost consciousness.

Children playing nearby heard her screaming and notified authorities. Medical Examiner A. E. Cronkite examined the girl at Hollywood Memorial Hospital.

HITS ARMISTICE
TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Chinese Nationalist Foreign Minister George Yeh declared today that with the Indochina armistice the Communists have "achieved another milestone in their plan of world conquest."

The pattern is set for history to repeat itself," he said. Newspapers on this island ruled by Chiang Kai-shek accused the West of aggression and conceded to the Communists a great diplomatic victory.

Says Program Of Legislation In Good Shape

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today anybody who accuses him of trying to destroy the Tennessee Valley Authority is in error—to put it as mildly as possible.

The administration's attitude toward TVA has come under hot debate in the Senate, revolving about an Eisenhower-endorsed proposal for a new private power source in the Tennessee Valley.

The President spoke out on the controversy at a news conference largely devoted to the Indochina settlement reached in Geneva. In the course of this discussion he said he does not believe the Communists are willing to risk an all-out war with the free world.

As for his legislative program in general, Eisenhower said he thinks it is coming along in good shape, although Congress is not giving him everything he asked for.

He spoke without rancor of yesterday's House vote turning down his four-year public housing program and said simply he would make recommendations to the next Congress aimed at meeting the housing needs which will exist at that time.

The House rejected 234-154 Eisenhower's program to build 1,000,000 public housing units in four years. The President said, however, his housing program as a whole has met with considerable success, and does include some public housing features.

On the TVA controversy, Eisenhower said the question is a national one and not simply a regional one. He described himself as not bound by his state, but that private power should be fed into the TVA system as he directed in a recent order.

His order stirred up lengthy Senate debate which has delayed action on his atomic energy program as a whole.

The President said he's always willing to amend a course if it is shown to him.

But in the TVA dispute, he said it is a question of building steam plants to produce electricity. He said the problem is that the federal government is going to undertake the building of the plants, why not do it in such places as the Missouri Valley before doing it in the central plains and the Tennessee Valley region.

He emphasized he was simply trying to find out the facts, to determine the best policy, and he added with vigor that anybody who gets up and says there is any attempt to destroy TVA is, to put it as mildly as possible, in error.

The President began his news conference with a prepared statement saying he was glad agreement to stop the bloodshed in Indochina had been reached, although the agreement contains features which we do not like.

Eisenhower said "any renewal of Communist aggression would be viewed by us as a matter of grave concern."

And he said this country will actively pursue "the rapid organization of a collective defense in Southeast Asia in order to prevent further direct or indirect Communist aggression in that general area."

A reporter asked what significance the President attached to the fact that, for just about the first time in 20 years, there isn't a war going on somewhere in the world.

Thoughtfully, Eisenhower said he never has felt that except for satellite excursions, the Communist world wants war with the West at this time.

He went on to say he does not believe the Kremlin intends to make a deliberate challenge to a war world—a challenge to a war of exhaustion.

Services Held For Mrs. Potter
Friends of Mrs. J. H. Standifer of Sanford will regret to learn of the death of her mother, Mrs. Zora Potter, who died at the home of another daughter, Mrs. C. E. Riley last Friday in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Governor Receives Threats

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—The threat of reprisal that brought fear to Phenix City citizens through years of racket rule has now struck straight at Alabama's capital and even reached the governor's mansion.

Six highway patrolmen, working in pairs for eight-hour shifts, have been assigned to plain clothes duty at the governor's mansion after the life of Gov. Persons was threatened.

Another patrolman has been posted at his office during daytime. The governor brushed aside questions with a flat "no comment" yesterday, but a reliable official confirmed that Persons had received threats through telephonic calls at his home and office.

Other state officials reportedly marked for death by Phenix City mobsters are Public Safety Director L. B. Sullivan, incoming Attorney General M. M. Jones and Donald Gallion, special counselor for Gov. Persons in the A. L. Patterson murder investigation.

Sullivan confirmed reports that an automobile had tried to run him off U. S. highway 80 when he was returning to Montgomery from Phenix City a week or 10 days ago. He said the car swerved off a side road and sped away before he could get a look at the occupants.

Gallion, a Montgomery attorney, said his wife was followed when driving home from Phenix City last week and an unidentified caller warned her over the telephone. "If we can't deal with your husband we'll deal with you."

Rains Ease Heat Wave
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Showers eased a crop-damaging heat wave in parts of the nation's parched corn belt today.

A wide strip of torrid weather continued across the South and West, but a rain squall in the Midwest brought the origin of the general heat wave July 7 to 20.

Cooler air from Canada poured into the Great Lakes region. The temperature at Chicago dropped 20 degrees at 2 p. m. to 71.

Showers swept from Chicago southward across Illinois, where drought-battered crops and thousands of chickens and pigs, a farmer was crushed to death at Fort Wayne, Ind., last night when a rainstorm flattened his barn. Two persons were killed by trees falling on automobiles.

Two persons were killed by lightning in southeastern Ohio and a third was injured and killed in the rain squall. Scioto River was heavy rains doused most of that state.

Hurricane force winds lashed Florida and Maine. The wind tore off roofs, uprooted trees and snapped power lines.

Thunderstorms were quite general from eastern Iowa to eastern Virginia.

The temperature touched 100 degrees in Kansas City, as the number of heat deaths in that state swelled to 107. Twenty of the deaths occurred on Monday and Tuesday.

Close Observance Of Laws On Trip Advised By AAA
JACKSONVILLE — Vacationing Florida motorists may save themselves unnecessary difficulty by making a special effort to observe the traffic laws of the states through which they travel.

This note of caution was sounded today by Walter M. Hays, manager of the North Florida Division of the American Automobile Association.

"An increasing number of states, alarmed at the rising accident rate, are stepping up their traffic enforcement campaigns," Hays said. Among the techniques being used are radar speed detection devices, unmarked police cars, helicopters and motorcycle police.

"A motorist traveling in an unfamiliar state can easily violate a traffic law under ordinary circumstances," Hays added. "But when a state is cracking down on all violators, the chances become much greater of an out-of-state motorist running afoul of the law."

The best rule to follow when driving through a strange state, the AAA official said, is to study the traffic laws, and make every effort to observe them, driving cautiously and alertly.

Among the states now intensifying their traffic enforcement campaigns are North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Oklahoma and Washington.

13 Million Fall To Reds

Armistice Brings End To Conflict

Nation Delays Truce Action
GENEVA (AP)—France made peace with her Communist enemies in Indochina just before dawn today and a new Iron Curtain clanked down on 13 million persons in north Viet Nam.

Gen. Georges Delecloux of France and Gen. Tu Quang Bui of the Viet Minh rebels signed armistice agreements covering Viet Nam and Laos just 3 hours and 50 minutes after the Tuesday midnight deadline French Premier Pierre Mendes-France had set for peace or his resignation.

The simple signing ceremony, under a blaze of spotlights, took place in the former home of the League of Nations, called a halt to an eight-year war in which 92,000 soldiers of the French Union expeditionary corps died or disappeared.

It also laid a Korean-like partition across the 42-mile waist of Viet Nam, Indochina's largest, richest and most populous state, about at the 17th Parallel of latitude.

Communist leader Ho Chi Minh will take over the destinies of the results north of the line. The 10 million Vietnamese below the partition will live under the pro-Western regime of chief of state Bao Dai.

All Vietnamese elections, not earlier than one year from today and not later than two years, are supposed to reunite the divided country. But Western officials here generally conceded the temporary partition line probably will become a political and ideological frontier like those which split Germany and Korea.

Officials said the texts of the agreements would not be published for several days, but their contents already were generally known.

Civilians on either side of the partition line will have one year to move to the other side if they desire.

The French have the next 500 days to move out of the big north cities of Hanoi and Haiphong. Until that day next May they will remain an enclave in the Red River Delta around those two major cities.

Cambodia and Laos will remain under their French-supported royal governments. Vietnam troops will be withdrawn from those two major states.

Armistice Brings Mixed Feelings Within Capital
SALTION, Indochina (AP)—Surrounding the armistice today in Indochina's long war aroused mixed feelings of anger and relief among the French and Vietnamese in Viet Nam's capital.

But there were no demonstrations and mass expressions of rejoicing or sadness as it became known the guns which began blasting in 1945 were to be ordered silent at last.

A spokesman for Premier Ngo Dinh Diem's government termed the agreement "a divisive headache" for the government and most popular state with the Communist "disastrous for the Vietnamese people."

But a Vietnamese sergeant seemed to speak for many others when he said: "Good. Maybe now I can get out of the army and return to civilian life."

Frenchmen appeared even more relieved. "We've had enough," said one Saigon businessman. "Either the United States decided to enter the war with her atomic weapons or else there had to be a cease-fire. You didn't want to become involved so there was nothing else to do. After all, you fought only three years in Korea and gave up, so you cannot blame us for wanting peace after eight."

Premier Diem called his cabinet into emergency session to study the Geneva agreement.

The spokesman for his government termed the agreement inadequate. "We protest against the agreement reached by the conference in which the representative of the Vietnamese government was not permitted to participate," he declared.

The spokesman emphasized that the conference in its closing hours had ignored Vietnamese Foreign Minister Tran Va Do's last-minute proposal that the United Nations take over all of Viet Nam until national elections could be held.

Announcement of the cease-fire signing was heard by Indochinese listening to their radios before going to work.

The spokesman went about their daily chores with seeming indifference. No one stopped on the street to discuss what had been expected for weeks.

Fantastic Is Routine Biz At Air Center

ALAMOGORDO, N. M. (AP)—The fantastic has become routine in little more than five years at Holloman Air Development Center.

Any week and every week rockets can be shot 50 miles up into space, carrying incredibly complex electronic instruments to ask questions and give answers on what's up there.

For instance, one mission of the last 200 feet Aerobee rocket whizzed upwards from the White Sands desert floor was checking wind velocity and direction in the upper atmosphere.

The rocket itself hurtles upward at supersonic speed, not very much less than a mile a second or 3,600 miles an hour.

The wind check instrument and tiny vane mounted in a jewel case, which is fired out as the rocket ascends, are recorded by electronic means.

All the rocket checks on temperature, radiation, light and chemical changes have a military purpose. Missiles are being developed that fly or will fly in these altitudes.

Instruments to guide these missiles must be perfected. How upper atmosphere conditions affect the guiding gear must be learned.

The Air Force Cambridge Research Center at Cambridge, Mass., assigns rocket missions to test instruments and instruments are sent to Holloman. Officers test the instruments and correlates the findings.

The Holloman Center provides the testing ground. The 60th Test Squadron provides the men whose routine duty is to shoot Aerobee rockets 50 miles toward the sky.

Holloman, an abandoned town, time 1929, was an active town when blowing apart in the desert winds in 1947, now is a massive science fiction layout of radar towers, blockhouses and instrument centers and airstrips.

Admiral Byrd Plans Return To Antarctic
CLEVELAND (AP)—Admiral Byrd, now 65, said today he is planning to return to the Antarctic as soon as he can get together an expedition.

He told the Post and Egg National Board at a breakfast meeting that further exploration of the South Pole region is important from both the military and economic standpoint.

"If the Panama Canal were knocked out by an atom bomb, we would have to get our ships from the Atlantic to the Pacific through the Strait of Magellan or between Antarctica and South America via Drake Passage," he said.

It would be essential, therefore, for this nation to have control of that part of Antarctica that is nearest to Cape Horn and of the islands between the cape and Antarctica.

From the economic standpoint, the retired U. S. Navy officer said, "in the foreseeable future we will be greatly in need of these resources: coal, uranium, oil, and other minerals that lie untouched at the bottom of the world."

Byrd, the first American to explore the South Pole, first flew there Nov. 29, 1929, and made other trips there in 1933 and 1947.

President Comments On Treaty Pact Regarded As Red Victory

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, commenting on the Indochina cease-fire agreement, said today he does not believe the Communists want war at this time.

Eisenhower said in a formal statement at his news conference. The agreement "contains features which we do not like but a great deal depends on how they work in practice."

He said the United States is working actively with other free nations to organize rapidly a "collective defense in Southeast Asia in order to prevent further direct or indirect Communist aggression in that general area."

Although the President said he didn't wish to discuss Indochina beyond the formal statement, because of the delicacy of the situation, he did say later on that if there is one good to come out of the settlement it is this:

It may give the free world a look at the face and determine what sacrifices it would be willing to make in the cause of preserving freedom.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The negotiated end of the war in Indochina is generally regarded here as a victory for the Communists and a defeat for the free world.

It halts a direct billion-dollar-a-year drain of money and arms on the United States.

But it also creates an urgent need to shore up non-Communist areas of Southeast Asia which will almost certainly impose new burdens on this country and its allies, and absorb some of all of the Indochina savings.

U. S. government officials have been talking with French leaders for several weeks about the issue of Red areas all arms and equipment which French and native anti-Communist forces have been equipped with. It is understood the French have given assurances this will be done.

It was learned, meanwhile, that the American and Allied governments are planning shortly to issue declarations of intent to form eventually a collective defense for Southeast Asia and warning the Communists not to undertake any new aggressive moves in that area. Such action has been discussed with a number of friendly governments and reports today were that it had been tentatively agreed upon.

The United States and Britain, however, are still divided over the timing of actual formation. Authority estimates it will be many months before the united defense system can be set up.

The United States would have preferred quicker action but Britain is anxious to hold the cooperation of heads to the full extent possible and consequently has been moving cautiously.

American officials studying the Indochina settlement agreed today that the impact of the pact may reach far beyond Southeast Asia and probably will be felt throughout the whole range of relations between Communist and non-Communist blocs.

Sixteen People Contract Polio

DE LUNIAK SPRINGS (AP)—Sixteen persons, including four out of town children, have been stricken with polio in the past year, health officials here said yesterday.

The health department said yesterday the children apparently came in contact with other young persons with the disease at nearby Police de Leon while on a July 4 visit with their grandparents.

They were George and Mike Brown of Madison, and a small son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Huddleston of Miami.

Escaped Con Smoked Out
JACKSONVILLE BEACH (AP)—They actually smoked into the open one of two escaped convicts here yesterday.

The two had been a work crew, ran between several houses and hid in dense underbrush at the rear of the buildings.

Guards could not see them because the houses were in line of fire but in the search came upon one Robert Heath, who surrendered.

The other one, Boatright, serving 20 years from Duval County for robbery couldn't be found so firemen were summoned. They set fire to the brush but weight surrendered.

OCALA (AP)—State Sen. R. C. Pearce of Palatka told the Florida House of Representatives yesterday they set for the brush but weight surrendered.

Survey Shows Vandalism Boosts Cost Of Building
Vandalism by school age youngsters costs the average home purchaser today between $50 and $100 for his new home. In some communities the costly "pranks" of neighborhood youth raise the cost as much as $1,000.

These facts were revealed by a nationwide poll recently conducted among its members by the National Association of Home Builders, according to W. H. French Miller, executive director of the Florida Home Builders Association, an NAHB affiliate.

Miller said the survey results do not mean that every house incurs damage during construction.

"But the survey revealed that in many large and small developments, damage plus theft averages out about $75 per house. Since builders are business men and cannot absorb such losses, the cost must be passed on."

Plans are now underway all over the United States to set up educational programs in communities where the rate of building activity is high, in an effort to reduce damage and theft by vandals.

The official pointed out, "Too many parents refuse to believe their children are involved in acts of vandalism, even when caught."

That is why the National Association of Home Builders, under the chairmanship of Leonard Frank of Long Island, N. Y., made its study. As builders, we want to place greater emphasis on the ways in which we can help parents, community and the schools to

There are approximately 160 members in camp. Leslie Smith plays solo cornet with the orange band. The camp ends July 29 with an award banquet. According to the program, Cowley was one of the conductors of the orange band at a concert last Sunday. Henry Fillmore, famous composer, was conductor of the white band during the playing of two of his numbers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Police were left without a good lead today after they ruled out a taxi-driver's search for the killer of 18-year-old Dorothy Poore.

The driver, Wesley B. Rivin, had picked a photograph from hundreds at the police identification bureau and said it was the "crazy man" he drove to the Claypool Hotel Thursday.

Rivin's fare gave his name as O'Shea. The last occupant of the room in which the 11-year-old High School graduate's body was found Sunday registered as Jack O'Shea.

Farm families in Seminole County have made good use of Farmers Home Administration credit and services this past year and have stepped up the efficiency of their farming operations, Curtis J. Green, the agency's county supervisor at Sanford, said today.

Additional funds have been made available, he said, to lend through the next year to farmers to operate, buy, enlarge, or improve farms.

A large proportion of the money loaned in this county during the past 12 months has been to veterans and other young farmers who are establishing better farm setups. Their greatest needs were for adequate credit and some help in developing sound systems of farming and adopting efficient farm management practices. No loans were made to farmers who were unable to obtain the financing they needed from other local lenders.

The county office of the Farmers Home Administration serving Seminole County is located in the County Court House.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Chinese Nationalist Foreign Minister George Yeh declared today that with the Indochina armistice the Communists have "achieved another milestone in their plan of world conquest."

The pattern is set for history to repeat itself," he said. Newspapers on this island ruled by Chiang Kai-shek accused the West of aggression and conceded to the Communists a great diplomatic victory.

Services Held For Mrs. Potter
Friends of Mrs. J. H. Standifer of Sanford will regret to learn of the death of her mother, Mrs. Zora Potter, who died at the home of another daughter, Mrs. C. E. Riley last Friday in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. Potter was 85 years old at the time of her death. She is survived by six children, 14 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. She was a member of the First Methodist Church of Chattanooga.

Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon and burial was made in White Oak Cemetery in Chattanooga.
