ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS IS BEING BLOCKED

Leaders Concede That Plans For Adjourning Congress Next Saturday For National Conventions Is Being Blocked By Some of Members Who Desire to See Action Taken on Several Measures

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Although the leaders have plans made for adjournment of congress next Saturday they concede there is a possibility that advocates of farm relief, railroad and reclamation legislation may block their program.

Representative Longworth of Ohio, the Republican leader, intends to offer an adjournment resolution in the house probably Tuesday. While there will be opposition it is agreed that the resolution will be adopted, leaving the question with the senate.

Except for a vote of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill and a decision as to what shall be done with the Howell-Barkley measure to abolish the railroad labor board, the house calendar is practically cleared.

There is demand in the senate for action on Muscle Shoals, farm relief and reclamation measures, but under an unanimous consent agreement none of these can be brought forward until after the senate has voted on the child labor constitutional amendment resolution, probably late today.

Leaders are doubtful that these three matters can be disposed of within the week. They are hopeful, however, that the next few days will see the situation so clarified that the way will be paved for action on the adjournment resolution.

A small group in the senate, it is conceded, could prevent the adjournment measure from coming to a vote. Republican insurgents of both the senate and house have been in conference for several days for discussing the legislative program, particularly farm relief and railroad matters, but whether they will undertake to block adjournment has not yet been determined.

While recognizing that there is a formidable opposition to adjournment, organization leaders have not given up hope that it will be confirmed to a protest vote without assuming proportions sufficient to defeat their program.

All of the major supply bills for the government departments for the next fiscal year have been acted upon by both houses. A deficiency measure, carrying funds for the soldiers' bonus and coastal prohibition enforcement, is yet to be considered, but the expectation is that this measure can be disposed of within a few days.

The Howell-Barkley bill which was favorably reported Saturday by the senate interstate commerce committee, will be in order again today in the house, but there are indications that its supporters there, realizing the impossibility of forcing final action at this session, will permit the sidetracking of this measure for other legislation.

Should this situation develop it is regarded as probable that senate action will be deferred.

Confederate Veterans and Sister Organizations Gather in Memphis For Thirty-Fourth Annual Reunion

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 2.—With the vanguard of the mighty host that will gather here this week for the 34th annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans and its kindred organizations—the Sons of Confederate Veterans and Confederate Southern Memorial Association—trickling into Memphis, flag-bedecked and ready, the coming of the main body of the grizzled "grand old men" and the thousands who will come to do them homage.

Mrs. A. McD. Wilson of Atlanta, Memorial Association, was among Sunday's arrivals. The chief of the veterans, Gen. W. B. Haldean of Louisville arrived early today, accompanied by members of his staff and a retinue of official ladies and guests.

Col. McDonald Lee of Richmond, Va., commander in chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, arrived Sunday and today assumed active charge of plans for the meeting of his organization which will convene Tuesday.

The first of nearly a score of special trains which will come in scheduled to arrive Monday night from Raleigh, N. C. Others are to follow at almost hourly intervals throughout Tuesday and Tuesday night. Four trains are to come from Texas, one from Washington, several from the Carolinas and others from Georgia, Alabama and Virginia.

Every detail of the plans for the reunion was complete Sunday night according to members of the reunion committee. Transportation, housing and feeding of the thousands have been arranged for to the most minute detail. Beginning today, hundreds of private automobiles will be placed at the disposal of the veterans and visitors to convey them from their trains and for impromptu sightseeing tours with scores of volunteer workers on hand to make the guests "feel at home."

Elaborate Decorations The municipal auditorium, where the old soldiers will meet, was robed Sunday in its cloak of flags, flowers and bunting with portraits of the Confederate leaders—Davis, Lee, Jackson, Forrest, Stuart and others held in reverence throughout Dixie—gracing its walls to look down on what probably will be one of the last great gatherings of the men who wore the gray.

The formal reunion program will begin Tuesday with meetings of the Sons of the Memorial Association. The first session of the veterans' organization will be held Wednesday. A joint meeting of the three organizations, however, will be held in the city auditorium Tuesday evening with the Sons of Confederate Veterans as hosts.

ROUSING MEET ENDS CAMPAIGN ON SATURDAY

Political Meeting Held In Sanford Saturday Night Marked Close of Present Campaign Among Local Candidates—Fully 1,000 People Hear Office Seekers Present Their Own Views.

By far the biggest political gathering that has been held during the present campaign was that of Saturday night in this city when the pre-election activities of the several candidates were officially brought to a close in one rousing enthusiastic meeting.

Approximately 1,000 people listened to the last appeals of the candidates, beginning at 7:30 o'clock and continuing until a few minutes after 10 o'clock. Seven minutes were allowed each office-seeker in which to present his views with a three-minute rebuttal to the first speaker in each group of candidates.

The meeting began promptly in charge of Robert J. Holly, who introduced the speakers. He proceeded with a few introductory remarks stating that the people had come for miles around to enjoy a "long dry spell."

It was a good humored crowd that was enthusiastic even until the last candidate appeared on the program. Applause was generously given and especially to the candidates for the state legislature, state attorney and sheriff.

For the most part the meeting was remarkably free from mud-slinging. In this respect it was a surprise to some, who had previously predicted that several of the candidates would literally "burn the air with last minute charges. It was pointed out, however, that the campaign as a whole has been lacking in the heated interest that has been characteristic of previous elections.

State Attorney George A. DeCotes and his opponent engaged in a few minutes of spirited debate which served greatly to increase the excitement and interest of the meeting. Both candidates were received with hearty applause.

J. R. Lytle's statement that if he went to the legislature that the "county wouldn't have to draw an attorney with him to draw the bills and thus cost the taxpayers an additional $100," drew fire from Mayor Lake, and he promptly declared that if the former went to the legislature that he, too, would be compelled to have his bills drawn by a lawyer if he wanted any recognition for his proposed measure or measures.

In the opening address of the evening Lewis O'Brien asked the citizens of Seminole county to pardon him for having been absent at several meetings, giving as a reason that he had been away from the county, "camping on the enemy's trail." Senator Overstreet declared that he wasn't present at the meeting to "spout off" Shakespeare and that he was simply present to ask for an endorsement.

H. H. Campbell, candidate for clerk of circuit court, urged his hearers to read an account of his record in a pamphlet recently issued by the candidates. He stated that he is running for the office because he needs it. As Vance Douglas mounted the platform a voice in the crowd yelled "Where's your horse, Vance?" The candidate's reply was that he was going to ride him on Tuesday.

"Look out, piney-woods ruter" was the greeting someone hurled Continued on page 8.

Lawyers Get Ready For Legal Battle To Save 2 Youths

Big Vote Expected To Be Polled Over This State Tuesday

TALLAHASSEE, June 2.—The largest vote in Florida's history is expected to be cast in the Democratic primary Tuesday when voters will go to the polls to express their preference for presidential nominee, nominate a governor and complete list of representatives and senators in odd number of legislative districts. They will also name a superintendent of public instruction, railroad commissioner, adjutant-general, four delegates at large and eight district delegates to the Democratic national convention, state attorney for a number of judicial districts and county officers.

Presidents have been named that a large woman vote will be cast. Underwood and McAdoo will be voted on for presidential preference while there are five candidates in the field for governorship.

RECORD VOTE TO BE CAST TUESDAY AT COUNTY POLLS

Qualified List of Voters Is 2,540 And It Is Predicted That Approximately 2,300 Votes Will Be Polled.

Tomorrow is election day! Never before in the history of Seminole county has interest been as keen and intense as it is in the primary election to be held Tuesday. It is declared by many of the old political observers who predict that on tomorrow a larger percentage of the qualified list of voters will cast their ballots than ever before.

Although there has been no great outward demonstration of the interest that is being taken in the election, these same observers say that nevertheless the amount of interest in the number of qualified voters is proof enough of the enthusiasm which will greet the dawn of tomorrow.

After a careful check-up of the lists of the supervisor of degeneration with the lists of those who have paid their poll taxes with Tax Collector John D. Jenkins, it was announced this morning that the qualified list numbers 2,540. Of this number 1,742 represent the total of two Sanford precincts, the total of the other precinct is 808.

Here is the way the precincts are listed according to the figures submitted this morning by Mr. DuBose:

No. 1 (Sanford)	848
No. 2 (Lake Monroe)	73
No. 3 (Sanford)	884
No. 4 (Pacola)	33
No. 5 (Oviedo)	149
No. 6 (Geneva)	182
No. 7 (Chuluota)	156
No. 8 (Gabriella)	42
No. 9 (Longwood)	83
No. 10 (Lake Mary)	43
No. 11 (Lanark)	83
No. 15 (Osceola)	64
Total	2,540

It was estimated this morning that because of the great amount of interest that is being manifested that there will be 90 percent of the qualified voters that will cast their ballots. Upon this estimation, it is believed that approximately 2,300 votes will be polled. This number, it was pointed out, is more than double the number of qualified list four years ago. At that time the list was approximately 1,100 and only about 650 votes were cast.

Families of Two Boys Prepare to Expend Large Sums to Save Them From Gallows

District Attorney Seeks Indictments Counsel For Defense Will Not Try To Free Its Clients

CHICAGO, June 2.—State's Attorney Crowe announced today as lawyers began to battle in behalf of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, confessed kidnapers and slayers of 14-year-old Robert Franks, that he would seek two grand jury indictments against them Tuesday.

A legal battle in which millions estimated as high as $25,000 resources of the Leopolds and Loeb, will be thrown in an effort to save the boys from the gallows is intended merely to permit legal counsel to consult with them. Attorneys say they do not expect to free them.

Attorneys retained by the Loeb family are prepared to go into court this morning to obtain permission to talk with their client following the refusal of State's Attorney Crowe to permit them to see the youth. Attorneys ascertained the youth was being examined in the state attorney's office, according to the announcement by a friend, and this is objected to unless an attorney is present, they explained.

During the trip Sunday afternoon a reporter, in the same automobile with Leopold, obtained statements from him relative to the crime. Leopold denounced Loeb, saying the latter planned the kidnapping and slaying but admitting that he was equally guilty and that he wrote the $10,000 ransom letter which he sent to the Franks' home following the disappearance of the youth and according to their confession, stating the boy was kidnapped by the two boys.

"Who entered Franks into the car and it was he who struck the boy the next instant. Weapons are so repugnant to me that it would have been impossible for me to strike the blow that killed Franks."

"I was driving while Loeb was sitting on the back seat. The side curtains were on and Loeb looked over the front seat opened the door and called: 'Come here, Robert, we will ride you home.' 'No,' replied the boy, 'it's only two blocks. I'll walk.' 'Come here anyway,' said Dick. 'I want to tell you about a new tennis racket.' 'Franks came across the street and hopped upon the running board. 'Get in,' said Loeb. 'I want you to meet Nathan Leopold.' 'Franks got in and the next moment Dick struck him on the head and drew a bandage around his neck strangling him. It was all over in a minute. I sat there, sick, while the kid kicked and struggled beside me.' Leopold bitterly denounced Loeb for what he learned the latter's weakness and became so vehement that he nearly collapsed.

Aside from his outburst against his confessed side in the kidnapping and slaying, Leopold laughed and joked, even making jests at Chief of Detectives Hughes.

Both youths had spent the night in a police station, and while neither had slept, Leopold appeared calm when the officers called for the prisoners in the morning. He also exchanged pleasantries with a waitress, but Loeb was much disturbed.

Two cars bearing Leopold and Loeb and several officers started for Jackson Park where search was being made for the typewriter on which Leopold said he wrote the extortion letter. When they reached a stone bridge over a narrow passage between a lagoon and a yacht harbor they found several thousand persons watching the efforts to recover the typewriter.

Leopold got out of the car, pushed his way through the crowd, and pointed to a spot in the water, saying the typewriter was there. The divers concentrated on this spot the cars bearing Leopold and Loeb resumed their journey.

Senate Will Vote On Child Labor Measure

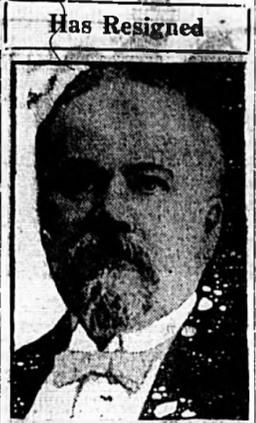

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The senate concluded its debate today on the constitutional amendment already passed by the house giving the federal government power to regulate and prohibit labor of children of 18 years and under with agreement vote at 5 o'clock.

Mexican Rebel City Taken by Federal Forces

Find Unknown Body In Surf Miami Beach

MIAMI, June 2.—The body of an unidentified young girl in a bathing suit was taken from the surf at Miami Beach today. Officers are endeavoring to identify the body.

Raymond Poincare, former president of France and more recently premier of his country, resigned that post Sunday together with other members of his cabinet.

LOCAL BANK WILL REORGANIZE AND CHANGE ITS NAME

Peoples Bank Will Give Way To Sanford Bank and Trust Company — Directors Among Leading Business Men.

Perhaps the most important news that has originated from local banking circles is that announcing an application for a charter which has been filed with the secretary of state and the state comptroller at Tallahassee requesting the incorporation of the Sanford Bank and Trust Company. While no formal announcement has been made by the officials of the Peoples Bank, it is generally understood that the new organization will supplant the former.

The capital stock of the Sanford Bank and Trust Company will be $50,000.00 with a paid in surplus of $5,000. Initial subscribers to the stock are: W. H. Tunnicliffe, Roy F. Symes, R. B. Wight, Dr. S. Puleston, Edward Higgins, Harry L. Walsh, C. F. Williams, P. H. Brown, E. A. Douglass, Dr. Ralph E. Stevens, B. G. Smith, A. H. Moses, H. C. DuBose, R. J. Holly, C. J. Merriweather, Jos. Kleinsteinsten and J. D. Davison.

Temporary officers and directors have been selected and at the first regular meeting of the new organization, a permanent board of directors will be completed. The officers and directors named in the application for the charter are: W. H. Tunnicliffe, president; D. S. Puleston, vice-president; F. H. Brown, cashier, and Roy F. Symes, R. B. Wight, Edward Higgins and C. F. Williams, will act as directors.

W. H. Tunnicliffe will head the new institution. He has been the president of the Peoples Bank, having come to Sanford 18 months ago to take up that position. He is well and favorably known not only to the members of the banking fraternity of Florida but also to those in New York. The fact that the new institution has been able to secure the personnel of its directorate of Sanford's most progressive business men, is indicative of the confidence that is placed in Mr. Tunnicliffe's business acumen and judgment.

The Sanford Bank and Trust Company will be the first combined banking and trust company organized in this city and besides engaging in a general banking business will, under the provision of charters granted trust companies, have the necessary authority and qualifications to act in all trust capacities.

With these special privileges the new organization will originate activities here-to-fore unknown in Sanford's banking circles, it is learned. Those well informed on these matters are unanimous in stating that the new organization, with the high personnel guiding its destinies, is assured of success.

20 INMATES OF BURNED SCHOOL ARE RECOVERED

Dead Include Children Under Ten, In Teens and Twenties, Who Were Inmates of School For Feeble Minded.

LOS ANGELES, June 2.—A morgue and hospital today housed all of the 18 subnormal girls, who were in care of the Development School at Playa del Rey southwest of here when that institution was razed by fire Saturday night. Twenty charred and twisted forms of what had been children of less than 10 years old, girls in teens and young women in their twenties still children in mentality, are being prepared for burial.

Eighteen other charges, most of them suffering minor burns, are at a hospital in Santa Monica. The three-story structure, reclaimed from an abandoned building in the deserted pleasure resort town of many years ago, was declared by investigators to have been an isolated, unprotected fire trap. All that remains of it is a brick chimney, twisted iron pipes and ashes.

Thirty-eight children were housed within the private institution when flames burst out. In addition there were in the building the matron, Mrs. J. C. Thomas, and Wilfred Ringer, 14-year-old adopted son of the proprietor, Mrs. May E. Jacobs. The matron and the boy perished.

A family of beach picnickers noticed the flames and gave the alarm. Before fire apparatus could arrive from Venice, the building was a mass of flames. One of the first rescue squads to arrive was a staff of nurses from St. Catherine's Hospital in Santa Monica. They were instrumental in rescuing 18 children, all of whom yesterday were suffering from fumes. Six children were treated for minor injuries.

Memorial Service Held at Central Park Sunday For Heroes All Wars

A memorial service in honor of the heroes of the Civil, Spanish-American and World wars was held Sunday afternoon at the monument to Comrade J. G. Sharon, and at the calling of each name, a sheet of palm was placed upon the vacant chair by Comrade W. G. Tyler. Mrs. Roy Chittenden of the American Legion Auxiliary, placed the flowers for the boys of the American Legion and Mrs. R. A. Taylor of the Confederate Veteran A. C. Martin. The toll of the dead war heroes was: Oscar Spear, Matthew Tarbell and Abner Blahom; Confederate dead, A. G. Mastin.

ATTEMPT MADE TO TAKE LIFE OF CHANCELLOR

Austrian Chancellor Ignaz Seipel Wounded By Fellow Passenger As He Steps From Train in Vienna.

VIENNA, June 2.—The Austrian chancellor, Ignaz Seipel, was shot and seriously wounded while alighting from a train here Sunday. The attack on him was made by a fellow passenger.

While the chancellor suffered a serious wound, it is not believed fatal. His assailant was shot and badly wounded while being placed under arrest by police.

Dr. Ignaz Seipel, who has been chancellor in Austria since May, 1922, is one of the outstanding figures in the European political and economic situation. Born in 1876, he entered the priesthood in 1899 and served the church for 10 years. Then he became a teacher of religion in a fashionable girl's school at Vienna, and later a professor of normal theology at the University of Vienna.

Just before the collapse of the empire he took the post of minister of public welfare in the Lammasch cabinet. This placed him in the forefront of political leaders, and after the revolution, whereby the Social-Democrats came into power, Dr. Seipel applied his energies to strengthening the clerical party. In 1922 the clerics and pan-Germans formed a coalition, with the formation of the first parliamentary government since the revolution, with Dr. Seipel in command.

His great work as chancellor consisted of obtaining a loan through the league of nations, and in bringing this to a successful issue, the chancellor displayed an order of statesmanship far in advance of that shown by the men directing the destinies of the other defeated powers, since the application of the loan has lifted Austria out of the acute crisis in its economic affairs. He overcame great difficulties in securing this loan by taking the stand that Austria must join with whatever power could come to her assistance.

Under the leadership of Dr. Seipel treaties have been signed with Czechoslovakia and Hungary, Jugoslavia and Italy and other important progress has been achieved.

Accurate Election Returns Are To Be Received By Herald

Preparations were today completed by The Sanford Herald for receiving the election returns Tuesday night from not only this county but from every county in the state. As was announced in Saturday's issue, the paper along with 15 other publications in the state, have secured through the Associated Press the use of a leased wire which will be installed in this office and over which the returns will come in every few minutes.

Work was finished this morning of installing the wire which will be located on the second story porch of The Herald building where also will be placed the stereopticon machine and other equipment. Beginning at 8 o'clock the returns will commence to come in from the state and also those from the county. The screen together with the picture machine were secured at the Congregational Church through the kindness of Rev. Paul C. Burhans.

Of a great deal of interest to those who have enjoyed the cartoons and caricatures of the candidates on exhibition at Bowers' Drug Store, is the announcement that Ben Guthrie, the creator of those pictures, has consented to draw pictures for The Herald Tuesday night which will be flashed upon the screen from time to time. The Herald issues a cordial invitation to the public to be its guests tomorrow night to watch the returns. The returns together with Mr. Guthrie's clever cartoons will be an evening's entertainment which it is believed everyone will enjoy.

Slayers of Robert Franks Confess To Chicago Officials

 $10,000 ransom. A typewriter expert said that Leopold's typewriter could not have produced such a letter and print to an examination of Loeb's machine expressed the opinion that it also was too recent a model to have been thus used.

Tracing of the spectacles was considered a remarkable feat by all connected with the case. Opticians throughout the city were canvassed and the trail finally led to optical manufacturers where, at last, the authorities found the firm that made the frames. The trail led then to the dealers and to voluminous records which were carefully checked and the specifications of the spectacles checked as to the specifications of the lenses.

Young Leopold that he knew the Franks boy, but because Leopold is 19 and the slain boy was 11, explained that the acquaintance was only casual.

Leopold and Loeb told substantially the same story of their activities on May 21, the day the Franks boy vanished. They said they drove to the business district in Leopold's car for luncheon, later going to the park to study the birds. After dinner, according to Leopold, they took an automobile ride with two girls known to them as Edna and May. An attempt was being made to find these girls tonight.

Leopold was shown the ransom letter and asked if he could have written such a missive. He said he could have written a better one, pointing out that kidnaping was spelled with two "p's". Among his papers the police found a note addressed to "Dick" in which it was asserted that "even though we have differences, we must appear friendly to preserve appearance."

No explanation of the letter was made public.

Young Leopold is the son of Nathan Leopold, paper box manufacturer, and Albert H. Loeb, vice-president of a Chicago mail order house, is the other boy's father. The families of the youths rallied to their support today and while insisting that the boys were not concerned in any way in the slaying, offered the police every aid in the investigation.

Other angles of the case on which the police have been working received scant attention today, all of the time of investigators being devoted to checking the stories of the boys. The police after receiving further information from Louisville where Charles F. Heath, a Chicago druggist, is in a hospital suffering from poison effects, said they did not believe that Heath knows anything of the slaying. Women relatives of Roderick Wolfe and Al Smith, who are being held at Indianapolis for questioning, were taken into custody by the police Friday but it was announced that the only reason for holding either the men or women was that Wolfe drives an automobile of a make similar to that in which the Franks boy is believed to have been abducted.

Dean Norman Gives Out Information On Summer School

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, May 31.—All dormitory rooms already have been reserved for persons who will attend the University summer school, which begins June 10 and will continue through August 2, according to Dean J. W. Norman, who expects all attendance records to be broken.

Dr. Norman, who is dean of the Teachers' College, states, however, that ample room is available for those wishing to attend. All boarding houses on the outside of the campus will be available for this purpose. The summer school heretofore has not made this preparation but on account of the increased number this year it has been done.

The summer school has increased rapidly during the last five years, in keeping with the efforts of the state authorities to place within reach of those unable to attend the regular winter sessions, every advantage for completing specified courses with the view of obtaining degrees. It is now possible for any student to obtain four and one-half college hours for the eight weeks in summer school, and any teacher that is holding a teacher's certificate may have this certificate extended for one year by attending the summer school for one summer.

Eminent Thinkers Support School To Study International Relations; Suggested as Walter Page Memorial

DR. J. A. C. CHANDLER

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

With one of the most eminently qualified groups of leading thinkers in the nation behind it, the proposed graduate school of international relations—the first of its kind to be established in this country—is now well on the road to realization.

Characterized at a recent conference in New York as "infinitely more than a school of diplomacy," the proposed school has been designed to promote "greater understanding and knowledge of all the branches of international life in the midst of a world relationship where scientific and economic facts are bringing nations to many forms of interdependence."

As an outgrowth of this conference, which was presided over by Franklin D. Roosevelt, the following resolutions, introduced by Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, President of William and Mary College, were unanimously adopted:

1.—Recognizing in the growing influence of the United States in world affairs, and the inevitable interdependence of nations, the need of a school of highest standards and equipment for the conduct of research and training in the field of international relations, we cordially endorse in principle the establishment of a school of international relations.

2.—We understand that a proposal has been advanced that such a school be connected with Johns Hopkins University and also that the further proposal has been advanced that because of his eminent practical service in promotion of sound international relations at a critical period in our history the name of Walter Hines Page be associated with the school.

3.—The Chairman is hereby authorized to appoint a committee to confer with the President of Johns Hopkins University, with friends of the late Walter Hines Page and others in order to further these proposals and bring them, if possible, into full realization.

Pending approval by the authorities of Johns Hopkins University, the scope of the school is planned to include the five basic subjects of fundamental bases of international relations, history of international relations, international law, diplomatic practice and procedure and international organizations.

It has been suggested that the course embrace a three-year period of graduate instruction, at least one year of which would be spent abroad in the study of racial and ethnological peculiarities, political and social undercurrents, and other pertinent factors that have direct bearing on the relations of nations with each other.

Behind the project are scores of prominent educators, publicists, jurists, business men and men who have held high public office, including Colonel Edward M. House, Edward Bok, Newton D. Baker, Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, President of the University of Virginia; Dr. John H. Finley, of the New York Times; Governor A. C. Ritchie, of Maryland; Ray Stannard Baker; Dr. Kenneth C. M. Houston, editor of Our World; French Strother, of World's Work; former Ambassador John W. Davis, George W. Wickersham, Julius H. Barnes, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce; Dr. Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams College; Dr. Archibald Colquhoun of Harvard, and a score of other equally prominent men and women.

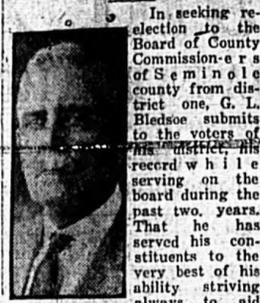

Headquarters of the project be appointed to bring the project before the next conference in concrete form have been established in the offices of Herbert L. Gutterston, 111 Broadway, New York.

Bledsoe's Record As County Commissioner One of Performance

Bledsoe's Record As County Commissioner One of Performance

In seeking reelection to the Board of County Commissioners of Seminole county from district one, G. L. Bledsoe submits to the voters of his district his record while serving on the board during the past two years. That he has served his constituents to the very best of his ability striving always to aid materially in securing the passage of matters which have meant progress to this county, is well known by his friends here.

There are two outstanding accomplishments in the two years that Mr. Bledsoe has now served on the board and which he believes should entitle him to further consideration of the voters. The first is the purchase by the board of the tract of land adjoining the court house. This land will accommodate any extensions to the present building which are now contemplated. In this particular action, Mr. Bledsoe took an active part and it was through his efforts that the property was purchased.

The other performance of Mr. Bledsoe, which perhaps, he feels most responsible for, is that of securing the much needed aid for the Sanford-Osceola Road. For some time this highway has been badly in need of repair but very little attention had been taken of it until Mr. Bledsoe began to lead movement to have it put in travelable shape. Thanks to Mr. Bledsoe's efforts relief for this most important road was secured and today it is almost completed, the work having been pushed rapidly to get it finished as early as possible.

The other matters in which Mr. Bledsoe has taken no small part in are making plans for observing the stock law which goes into effect on July 1, and also to have the county jail erected as soon as possible. Always a booster for good roads, has endeavored to help keep those of this county in first class shape throughout the time he has served on the board.

He has always expended the taxpayers' money very wisely and if the voters of this district return him to office, he promises to render the same faithful and efficient service that he has in the past. A vote for Bledsoe means a vote for business administration which will be along the lines of progress—Paid Political Advertisement.

Daily Fashion Hint

There is so little to the silhouette of the ultra-smart daytime frock that only two or three words are required to describe it—but they are as dynamic in their force as the new models are in their style. Charmeuse, flannel, Poirer tulle or one of the knit silks may be used in developing this model. The flounce takes a diagonal turn, and are all the smarter for their binding of braid. Medium size requires 3 3/4 yards 54-inch material.

PARIS APPROVES THIS MODEL

Beautifully designed in satin crepe, this frock lends itself to development in a great variety of materials. The neck is cut in oval outline and the sleeves are lengthened with circular frills of self-material. If preferred, a piping of white satin may be added at the neck and repeated on the sleeves between frill and sleeve. For the waist a belt of brilliant ribbon or a girdle of beads may be selected as a proper finish. Medium size requires 3 3/4 yards 36-inch material.

Pictorial Review Dress No. 1695. Sizes, 34 to 44 inches bust, and 16 to 20 years. Price, 35 cents.

A PARTY FROCK

Taffeta has received the cachet of Paris in its return to fashion, and it is used, in high colors, for some unusually attractive dance frocks. This model, in artichoke green, has a semi-fitted bodice to which is attached a straight gathered skirt. The side-drapes are faced with silver cloth, while the applique motif on the bodice is in green and silver. Medium size requires 5 yards 36-inch taffeta and 1 yard of 27-inch silver cloth.

Pictorial Review Dress No. 1911. Sizes, 34 to 44 inches bust, and 16 to 20 years. Price, 45 cents.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY: THE ONLY HELP: For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.—Isaiah 41:13.

Time is the king of men; He's both their parent, and he is their grave.

Vote early. And vote right. There are good men to be elected.

One more day of handballing and then the day of explaining.

June brings with it Sanford's "Pay-Up Week." Get ready to pay your bills.

It is said that a heavy vote will be polled tomorrow. About one hundred ten thousand voters will take part in the election.

Serious objection has been raised for calling Coolidge "Cal." Never mind, after the election in November we can call him a "has been."

Florida will enter the McAdoo column tomorrow, and become known for endorsing the candidacy of a progressive.

For at least a week after the election local barbers will have to charge the defeated candidates double price for shaves because their faces will be so long.

The Indianapolis News says that the Connecticut Democratic delegates are not for Al Smith and the same thing can be said of about forty-seven other states.

This is also election week with the Sanford Chamber of Commerce. Three governors for that body are to be named by the members of that civic body. Thursday is the day of the election.

Whatever may be the result of Tuesday's election Seminole county voters will select a group of men who will be capable officials. That's the only kind of man that are seeking office here.

Voters are urged to make up their minds whom they are going to vote for before entering the booth. There are some big precincts and voting will be heavy. Mark your ballot quickly but carefully.

Campaigning for an office is a wonderful opportunity to let the people know what you have done and how much you think of that which you have accomplished. Any other time you would be accused of having an extreme case of ego.

Recently a doctor in England diagnosed a man's illness as heart trouble by use of the radio. When they get to where they can get us out of financial straits with its use, then we will become confirmed radio bugs.

And now Tampa is taking up the game of Jai Alai. A handsome new building with courts for this game, will be erected at a cost of nearly a hundred thousand dollars. Miami will have to look to its laurels as the Jai Alai center of this country.

Sing Sing prisoners are again rejoicing. Joe Ryan, the star baseball pitcher of the Mutual Welfare League is again back, having just returned to serve a one-year sentence. Since his release a short time ago, Ryan's team had not won a game but now business is expected to pick up.

Beginning at eight o'clock Tuesday night The Sanford Herald will furnish election returns. With a leased Associated Press wire in operation, and a complete county organization the public will be kept posted as to the way the votes were cast as quickly as the officials in the various precincts count them. Bring a soap box or a camo chair and the Herald's guest election night.

"Rent zones" in which big noises can not be heard were discovered in the wardments of America during the boom of the big guns war. Beyond that for thirty miles it was not heard, and then, farther still, it was heard again. French scientists are now at work trying to discover the cause of these mysterious zones of silence in the air.

After election is over and some of the candidates advocating good roads are elected, the people will watch for the repairing of some highways now in bad condition. Especially should some be done soon on fixing up the main road from Sanford to Orlando. This side of the Orange county the repairs are badly needed.

It is said that the heavy traffic on the main road from Sanford to Orlando is so bad that the voters will have to take the back roads.

A Clean Political Campaign.

The political campaign is about ended. Tomorrow the voters will select men to fill the various offices in the county and state.

It has been a busy campaign with many speeches and much political activity. The candidates have all done their best to convince the voters that they should be elected.

It is to the credit of all the candidates that this has been an exceptionally clean campaign. It has been free from personalities, mud-slinging and underhanded methods.

As far as is known the campaigning in this county has been done on a fair and square basis with no candidate taking unfair advantage of his opponent. The various office-seekers have worked hard to make friends and to secure votes, but in doing so they have attempted to play the game squarely.

The result of this is evident. There are no factions here. The candidates are all friends. After the votes are counted they will continue to be friends. The co-operative spirit prevalent in the county will continue and all the citizens will continue working together for the steady growth and the prosperity of the section.

There are few counties in the state where campaigns have been conducted on as clean lines as here in Seminole county. Newspapers from many parts of Florida tell of attacks made in speeches by one candidate or another. The papers have been full of propaganda favorable to or against different men. Newspaper accounts of speeches tell of charges made, mud-slinging and of many questionable methods pursued in an effort to win votes.

Seminole county can consider itself fortunate in that it has had a class of candidates who are running on their merits alone and who have exerted their utmost to keep away from unpleasantness, preferring to conduct their campaigns on a constructive basis.

This section has been greatly benefited by the political campaign of the last few months. The people have gotten closer together and worth-while friendships have been made. The clean politics of its political candidates has benefited the county.

Important Duties To Be Performed

Tomorrow will be an important day in the life of Florida. The voters will nominate men to hold the public offices of the state. It will be a busy day for everybody, including the candidates and the voters.

To vote is not only a privilege but a duty. Important responsibilities rest with the citizens who mark their ballots tomorrow. From all sections of the country come cries for better conditions. But unless the people who are qualified to vote, do so and take a hand in the selection of the various officials, insisting that real men be placed in power, conditions will not be made better.

The person who doesn't take the time or who doesn't bother to cast his vote will have no cause for complaint should the wrong men be elected to office. It is important that the "good citizens" put forth great effort and energy in electing the right men. There is one thing certain. The bootleggers and the advocates of wide-open conditions all over the state will see to it that their candidates are supported.

The Sanford Herald believes that the people of Seminole county will act wisely when they vote. It believes they can be relied upon to select the men best fitted to hold office. There is little doubt but what the voters will realize their responsibilities and will weigh the merits of the various candidates, supporting the ones who are better qualified to serve.

A Fad That Could Be Made Profitable

Some one looking for a new fad would do well to go into cartoon collecting. There will come a day when a collection made up of the 1924 political cartoons will not only be extremely interesting, but of considerable monetary value.

In Roosevelt's day, beginning with the Rough-Rider times of the Spanish American War up to within a short time of his death, the cartoonists produced a veritable pictorial history of political America. Teddy made great "copy" always, and his face and figure offered material for caricature that made more than one cartoonist famous. A collection of the Roosevelt cartoons, arranged in some sort of chronological order would be immensely interesting.

The same could be said for the Wilson cartoons. There was much bitterness, and even cruelty, in the character of many of the cartoons published by Wilson's enemies. But they all recorded history more or less, and gave commentaries upon the times that would make valuable records for future historians and students.

And this year comes a new crop of cartoons. The oil scandal opened a rich field for clever artists, the Daugherty hearing another; the tax reduction bills another and with the two big conventions near at hand, and the weeks of campaigning for the November election close behind them, the country's cartoonists will depict some more history, much of which will speak more truth than will the word pictures of skilled reconverts.

Perhaps there are many people already making a fad of cartoon collecting. To the Herald it is a new idea, rich in possibilities.

FLORIDA FOR MC ADOO

TAMPA TRIBUNE

Florida is not a losing state. It is a winning state. It has never willingly allied itself with a loser. It believes in winners and it is usually associated with winners.

This is one of the reasons that Florida is going strongly for William G. McAdoo in the presidential primary vote next Tuesday.

The Democrats of Florida, aside from the fact that they believe Mr. McAdoo to be the ablest and best qualified candidate for president realize that he is the only one of the present avowed candidates who has a chance of the nomination.

He has already instructed and pledged a majority of the votes in his convention. One of his opponents, Mr. Smith, has his own state and two others. His other opponent, Mr. Underwood, has only his own state. Mr. Underwood, indubitably urged as "the Southern candidate," has carried only one Southern state, his own, and that with all non-resident candidates excluded from contesting for it; while Mr. McAdoo has carried none Southern states and will, it is practically assured, have the votes of the three Southern states which have not yet acted. Mr. McAdoo is therefore the unquestioned choice of the Democrats of the South.

Mr. Underwood, with only one state, will not make even a respectable showing in the convention. It is extremely doubtful if his name will be placed before the convention.

The McAdoo campaign in Florida has been conducted and financed by his friends and supporters in the state. They have no "outside money" sent in for campaign purposes, no paid managers or workers, as has the Underwood camaign. But Mr. McAdoo will undoubtedly carry the state by a large majority, because the people are with him and believe not only that he is the best man running but that he is the only Democrat who can defeat Coolidge.

There has been a certain alignment of candidates for delegate, with the McAdoo organization endorsing one set of men and the Underwood organization another set of men. This counts for little, however, as the delegates elected will have to vote for the choice of the primary, regardless of their personal preferences—which means that the delegates elected from Florida, whether they personally favor McAdoo or Underwood, will vote for McAdoo in the convention. But it should be the concern of every Florida Democrat that the delegation from the state be not bound to a hopeless cause, forced to vote for a candidate who has no chance. Florida must be on the winning side in Madison Square Garden as it is everywhere else—actively voting for and supporting the candidate who will be nominated and who has the best chance of election in November.

Contemporary Comments

Many election officers and news reporters will be in a frame of mind to start a "short ballot" movement after the primary.—Plant City Courier.

"Use your first choice vote to nominate the man you want and your second choice to defeat the man you don't want." is the way one citizen puts it.—Palm County Record.

As Brisbane Sees It

Don't Forget the Living. Al Smith's First Song. Mosquitoes as Doctors. Pity the Boss, Sometimes. Copyright, 1924

HONOR THE DEAD, decorate their graves, pray for their souls, but don't forget the living. Good words spoken to a living baby, kind words spoken to an old man in distress, might be more pleasing to the powers above than fine flowers dedicated to the memory of a dead hero.

AL SMITH'S BOOM progresses with the usual symptoms. Including a campaign song with the refrain, "Take the 'c' out of Cal" and that leaves Al." One line reads: "The type of man like Lincoln was courageous, simple, true."

That would interest Lincoln, if he could see Al Smith, and vice versa.

The next song writer undoubtedly will put Al Smith far ahead of Lincoln, and, no wonder, for Lincoln lacked Al Smith's advantages, not having been educated in politics by Tom Foley, Charles F. Murphy, and the rest of Tammany Hall.

NEVER LAUGH at anybody. Farmers of New Jersey used to say "Let mosquitoes bite you, they cure rheumatism."

We know now that mosquitoes implanted malaria in those farmers. But here, from London, comes news that paralysis can be cured by injecting the germs of malaria into the paralytic's blood or allowing mosquitoes, infected with malaria, to bite the patient. Wonderful things are germs and wonderful in human knowledge.

THE PARALYTIC infected with malaria suffers "chills and fevers" for two or three weeks. Meanwhile he gets rid of the paralysis and then three days treatment with quinine cures him of the malaria.

You might almost say of the germs what the old Frenchman said of a higher power: "If there hadn't been any it would have been necessary to invent them."

EMPLOYEES WHO ENVY their bosses' easy life should give a thought to Martin Fritz, Pennsylvania manufacturer, 50 years old. He called his workmen together, as they thought, to announce details of the annual spring picnic. Instead he said: "I am going away" and blew out his brains before them. Employers have their worries sometimes.

YOU REMEMBER Alexander, the Great, standing before his growing, grumbling, Macedonian generals, holding out his purple cloak and reminding them that while he had made them rich, all that he had got out of it was that cloak.

Some modern Alexanders of industry don't even get the purple cloak. They get dyspepsia, "nerves" and a whole lot of bitterness.

METHODIST MINISTERS in convention telegraphed Governor Branch, of Indiana, denouncing the Gibbons-Carpenter prize fight. It will be interesting to watch the effect this unanimous message from representatives of three million Methodists will have.

RELIGION HASN'T the authority it had once. There is Bishop Brown, on trial as a heretic, his book entitled, "Communism and Christianity" denies that "God was a real personal reality," that "He created all things" denies that "He influences matters on this earth."

IN OLD DAYS that amount of heresy would have justified burning a thousand men. Now the accused Bishop Brown says his brother bishops have no authority, very likely he's writing another book to prove it was not possible for St. John to "see four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth," first because the earth being round hasn't got four corners; secondly, because the four winds are not things to be conveniently held.

STOCK BROKERS rolled home in their automobiles last night while their clients on the "long" side walked or rode in street cars to celebrate, or mourn, through a triple holiday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. They left the stock list decorated with minus signs.

Something is frightening these gentlemen?

WHAT WOULD they do, how would they feel, if they were living and speculating in Europe, where members of three different national parliaments start simultaneously throwing inkstands, books and epithets at each other's heads, and the four biggest countries, England, France, Germany and Russia, are all in the hands of Socialists, Labor Leaders or Communists?

America's speculators are fortunate, but don't know it.

PRIMARY SUGGESTIONS

FLORIDA TIMES-UNION

Tuesday, June 3, the Democratic party of Florida is expected to select candidates who will represent the party in the general election in November. The Democratic party has been in majority and control in the state for many years, and the majorities heretofore shown in the election, with one exception, have indicated little to doubt the continuance of this party in power indefinitely.

The Democratic party, although appearing in printed words as suffering defeat in 1916, when the prohibition candidate was elected (with Democratic votes)—is understood to name officials and representatives in the primary election. With the single instance noted those men who have been chosen in the primary have later become officials and representatives, through the regular course of election in November following the primary.

Tuesday is therefore a very important day for the Democracy—and as the Democracy is conceded to include the major portion of the people and a representative part—is right and proper that all who call themselves Democrats and who are taking some interest in the affairs of the state, should make the effort to go to the polls and vote for the best candidates offering for the various positions.

Florida is choosing four members of the national house of representatives this year. The four incumbents are candidates for re-election. Two have opposition in the party. All may have opposition in November should the Republican party decide to try for these positions. Florida Republicans voted to the nomination of 40,000 in the last general election. It is well to give the congressional candidates a good vote.

Probably the greatest interest in the state centers about the selection of a Democratic candidate for governor. There are five men asking for this honor. The position is one that carries—or should carry—great dignity, a large responsibility, much work, and little pay.

The other states look toward Florida and to some extent measure her people by the man chosen to act as governor. It is highly important to select for this position an honest man, a brave man, an intelligent man and one who has some qualifications and has been a success in his previous undertakings. More than this, in selecting a candidate for the governorship it should be remembered that the Bryan primary law allows for a first and second choice on the same ballot. There are five candidates announced for the governorship. To be sure that the full benefit of choice is obtained, every voter should mark two names. Certainly the most critical can find in the list two men, capable and worthy of occupying the high position involved. There is always a "choice" and the second mark can indicate what would be desired if the first is found less popular.

In marking the candidates for the national convention, the voter will have a long list to consider. The delegates chosen will go to New York, and their votes in the convention may determine the leader for the Democratic party. This has been heralded as a "Democratic year," but much depends upon the action of the convention; a wise choice and victory are desirable and possible.

The ballot Tuesday all over the state will be long, and there will be close contests decided on many issues. State and county officers are to be named—and later elected. The day is important, and if business or pleasure is somewhat neglected, in order to give attention, the citizen can feel that the time was well spent. Good government can be had only when the people generally take an active interest in elections. A fair and free expression of the majority is highly desirable, and a vote means more than a word of verbal protest or argument after election.

Dan Dobb Says: When a man tells about he caught the just started. Good people seem to have time finding something to do. When you start out to be quick you are liable to be quicker. The average crop of a tree is 60 nuts, but the crop in general election varies. No matter how rough the matrimony you can steer along following the chart. The chief trouble with a man is shaving takes longer and smearing in a little rouge. A man in a new spring suit as conspicuous as if he had had his hair bobbed. The average man has to be busy to be happy because he stops and thinks his conversation starts hurting him. Twelve men are planning to over the North Pole, which is quite a bit of excitement for quite a bit of excitement. Few people notice you as long you are good, but when you get out to borrow trouble the notice is very high. A conservative estimate be that half the fruit just held booze at one time in lives. Bad news from England of the war weddings are still. Perhaps they knew how to fight well.

COUNTY FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS IS ENTERTAINED AT GENEVA

On Wednesday, May 28, at 11 o'clock, the Geneva Woman's Club entertained at the annual meeting of the Seminole County Federation of Women's Clubs. The meeting was held in the park belonging to the Geneva Woman's Club. The park is a lovely oak grove consisting of four acres and their beautiful new club house which is nearing completion will occupy the center of the park.

Over seventy-five members were in attendance, including the presidents of the various county clubs. At 12 o'clock a delightful picnic dinner was served by the hostesses of which Mrs. Porter Wakefield is president.

The meeting was called to order after lunch by the president, Mrs. John Leonard. Interesting reports were given by the various officers showing the growth of the organization during the past two years. Mrs. Endor Curlett, child welfare chairman, gave a most interesting resume of the past two years' work in child welfare.

Mrs. B. G. Smith of Oviedo gave her report as finance chairman showing the federation to be in a healthy financial condition. Mrs. Harry Heerin of the Park Committee was not present but an account was given of the beautiful Wekiva Park given by Mr. Cameron.

Mrs. R. C. Maxwell, chairman of bird protection, told of the three towns and two parks in the county being made bird sanctuaries; Altamonte, Sanford and Geneva.

Mrs. Sauer, chairman of the

Elizabeth Musson Is Wedded to E. W. Scott On Saturday Evening

A wedding around which a great deal of interest centers, both here and throughout the state, was that of Saturday evening, when Miss Elizabeth Barbara Musson became the bride of Mr. Edwin Newton Scott, the ceremony taking place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bailey on Myrtle Avenue, Rev. W. J. Carpenter officiating. Owing to the recent bereavement in the bride's family the ceremony was witnessed by the members of the immediate family only.

The Bailey home was beautifully decorated. The color scheme of green and white being featured. Tall potted palms and ferns were banded to form an improvised altar and baskets of exquisite white roses and feathery asparagus ferns were used with a pleasing effect.

The bride, who is a beautiful brunette, never looked lovelier, wearing her wedding gown of white cotton crepe combined with soft white lace. Her hair was a becoming model of white. Her flowers were a corsage of white rose buds and lilies of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple left for an extended wedding trip, keeping their destination a secret. They will be at home to their friends at their new home on School Street after July 1.

Mrs. Scott is traveling in a smart three piece costume of black Roshanara crepe with silver embroidery. Her chic close fitting hat and other accessories were also of black.

The bride is the eldest daughter of John Musson and has made hosts of friends, both here and elsewhere, by her winsome manner and charming personality. She is a graduate of Sanford High School and also attended Woman's College at Tallahassee. For the past four years she has held a very responsible position with Chase & Co.

Mr. Scott is with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company and is a young man of sterling qualities. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Scott of Trenton.

The many friends of this popular young couple will join in wishing them every future happiness.

HEARD AT THE CHURCHES

At the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning Dr. Brownlee spoke from Joshua 24:15 "As for me and my house we will serve the Lord."

After reviewing the career of Joshua, his campaigns, his difficulties in settling disputes among the tribesmen and dividing the land among the Israelites, Dr. Brownlee called attention to the fact that at the time of Joshua's declaration all of the Israelites were not followers of Christ but many of them had turned aside to the worship of idols. He said he thought that Joshua's declaration of religion showed four outstanding elements. That it was:

- 1-A personal religion.
- 2-A family religion.
- 3-A practical religion.
- 4-A confessed religion before the world.

"This seems to me to have been an ideally balanced program, and one equally applicable to all of us today. For any kind of worship is vain unless it is a personal matter. We cannot base our religion on the fact that we live in a christian community or nation. We cannot keep our christianity in our wife's or our children's name. Each must stand in his own shoes. Others may be helpful but there must be a response in our own hearts."

The finest place in the world and also one of the most difficult, is in the home. The only hope of salvation for the world lies in working outward from the home. Joshua recognized this as one of the secrets of success.

No religion can be of any avail unless it be one of service. If we learn anything from the life of our Lord it is this "He went about always doing good."

Lastly, Joshua's was a confessed religion. He was not standing among people all of whom were followers of God and his stand was more difficult than we may perhaps think. It was a step requiring courage. "But we are that little bit above caused, they promptly to say "We also will serve thy God." Joshua did not attempt to over encourage them in the step by claiming that such a course would be without difficulties.

The Lord reminds us always that we must declare our purpose. Men everywhere who serve must let all know where they stand.

We cannot do better than to practice christianity in our homes first, and then go forth among men outside. This kind of religion pleases the Lord.

Haswell Brown and Paul Brown have returned to Sanford from Charleston, S. C., where they were connected with the American Fruit Growers.

The Royal Poincianna Blooms

THE Royal Poincianna in all its vivid, colorful beauty is once more with us here in Southern Florida. Around Miami, Coconut Grove and Coral Gables it brightens the landscape on every side and welcomes the visitor to scenic delights which no other section of the country can reveal. Besides the large, full-grown poinciannas which are abloom at Coral Gables, there are more than a thousand younger trees planted.

But rich surpassing, tropical beauty is not the only thing which Southern Florida offers at this time to visitors. Magical growth, stupendous development and the assurance of a glorious and prosperous future open up opportunities here on every hand.

Coral Gables, already matured into America's Finest Suburb, is only in its early stages of development. It possesses magnificent architectural features and beautiful home settings. It enjoys golf and tennis, open air bathing, country club dances and other wholesome recreational features. It has more than 400 homes already built. But all that has been done only as a beginning—stepping stones as it were to vastly greater things.

If in your own interest you sense and appreciate the wisdom of sharing in Miami's great prosperity of the future, an investment in Coral Gables residential or business plots will appeal to you now. Such an investment is easy for the reason that no large amount of money is necessary. A small initial payment and balance in monthly payments will make it possible for you to make a most profitable investment at Coral Gables.

Special de luxe pullman busses make free sightseeing trips to Miami from this city every week. They afford the rare opportunity of seeing Miami and Coral Gables at their best. Make your reservation today—come as soon as you can.

Captain Geo. J. Garcia

Is Confident of Victory His Candidacy Receiving Endorsement of Leading Democrats of the State of Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 31, 1924.—From reports received in Jacksonville, from all sections of the State, it seems that Capt. Geo. J. Garcia of this city will be elected Adjutant General of Florida National Guard at the Democratic Primary to be held on the 3rd of June.

Capt. Garcia has a record of progress and achievement and is well fitted to fill the office to which he aspires. The following is his record in part: He was born in Key West, Fla., March 30, 1875; and has resided in Jacksonville since 1883; educated in Jacksonville Public Schools; has been connected with Florida National Guard for twenty-four consecutive years.

He answered the call of the President on April 13, 1917, and served overseas with the 40th Infantry and was honorably discharged February 9th, 1919.

He reorganized the National Guard in Jacksonville September 30, 1920, and is now Inspector General with the rank of captain.

He has served in the Jacksonville city council for three and one-half years and was re-elected to that body in June, 1923, leading the ticket then in the field and he is now president of the City Council.

He is a member of the Methodist church and is also a member of the following fraternal organizations: Mason, K. of P. Moose, P. O. A., P. O. S. A., Red Men, American Legion, Florida Rangers and Boy Scouts.

Paid Political Ad. R. W. Lossing, of the QUICK SERVICE TRANSFER COMPANY, returned from West Palm Beach Saturday night, where he had been engaged in transferring the household goods of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collum from Sanford to that place. He reports a very successful trip; though finding the roads on the East Coast very rough, with many detours, and passing numerous cars stalled enroute, yet with one of the company's big trucks, he experienced little difficulty in getting through on schedule time.

This is only one of many long distance trips of like character this firm has been making lately; having made trips to Tallahassee, St. Petersburg, Bunnell, Palatka, Green Cove Springs, to say nothing of trips to Daytona, Orlando, and other nearby points, which are almost a daily occurrence.

Anyone wishing to move by truck to any point in Florida, will do well to consult with this firm. Call phone 498 if interested, and get real SERVICE.

by the Red Cross, the health crusade, tooth brush drills and courses in home hygiene. Our first nurse, Miss Clark, succeeded in stopping typhoid epidemic through her efficient administration of the season, our county doctor, J. T. Denton, said. Miss Doolney has been very busy with hook worm work in addition to the regular school health work. The county federation voted to conduct a thorough "better-babies week."

"One of the things of which we may well be proud is our beautiful Wekiva Park on the Wekiva river. This includes something over seven acres and is the most beautiful piece of woodland on the road leading to Eustis. This park was dedicated March 28, with the proper devotional services conducted by Rev. Arthur Searing Peck, of the Episcopal Church. Mrs. Ezell, state chairman of parks for the F. W. C. spoke to the assembled club women and wrote of the exercises to the bulletin. Seminole County Clubs own more park acreage than any other county federation in the state. Every club in the federation owning a park or else caring for one owned by the school board. After the dedicatory services the federation was hostess to the candidates for county offices. This is the first time in the history of the county that the candidates as a body spoke to a group of women stating their political platforms. Mr. Holly today said that all the political picnics that was the largest, by far, and the best from every view point. A fish fry was served and paid for by the county Democratic committee.

"Our county federation is now incorporated for the sum of $50,000.00, and that makes it possible for us to own and control real estate. "We are free from debts and as you can see with a small balance in the bank. That means work for your officers when we had to finance the entire work of the federation on dues of $2.00 per club. "Our Americanization committee addressed several schools on good citizenship and each and every school has had presented to its principal the flag code. "Our social service committee has taken care of a family of five persons and secured work and a good home for the family and sent them to Alabama. The convict camp has been inspected, and visited several times, entertainment has been furnished for the county home; one girl has been placed in the right sort of home; boxes of clothes sent to the near east, etc. "We have entertained our state officers on several occasions, and responded to every state call. "In finishing my term as your county president I feel that I am leaving you with a stable organization; we have had a beautifully harmonious two years; to place any organization on its feet in so short a time is an undertaking that we may all feel proud of; each officer and each member who by her presence has helped carry on the work of this important organization. In leaving the chair, your president would like to make some suggestions that are certain not being on the incoming president. "We feel that the federation has been largely kept alive by the monthly meetings in the summer and would suggest that they be continued. "We feel that the time has now come for the employment of your county home demonstration agent.

Wrestling Bill At Armory Tonight To Provide Interest

Local wrestling fans are looking forward with a great deal of interest to the exhibition that has been arranged for tonight at the armory at 8:30 o'clock under the supervision of Gus Schmah when "Young" Gotch of this city will meet "Utica Joe" in what is expected to be a match full of thrills. Both participants of the main match of the evening are past masters in the art of wrestling and both have met some of the best men in the game. Gotch, a former champion, will easily furnish all the excitement that his opponent is looking for. "Utica Joe" is known as one of the cleverest and most rugged men on the game and numbers among his victims, some of the leaders in his division today. Serving as a semi-final will be the match between Charlie Mero and Bill Hammock of Ocala. This match too is expected to be full of interest. One preliminary preceded by a battle royal will also be seen on tonight's bill.

As this expense is met partially by the state and federal governments, we feel that the commissioners will listen very cordially to our request and would suggest that the federation vote to apply for this worker in July when the budget is made out. "Our child welfare work is too important and far-reaching for the county federation to consider not continuing. This is the basis of our strong county federation as we have it today. "When the county federation was organized two years ago we were a county of numerous communities. Now through our county federation we realize that the good of each community depends on the well-being of the whole and we are now one big neighborhood; our county women realize this and appreciate the friendships formed. "In closing I would thank my officers who have so loyally worked for the advancement of the federation and the club that has stood so loyally for the work and each and every individual member who has by her attendance and effort made the strong and stable organization that we are now turning over to the new administration.

Japanese Leaders Are Preparing For Burial of Unknown Martyr

TOKIO, June 2.—Leaders in the "national spirit" movement who have been joined by several revived generals today announced plans for a public funeral June 5, for a "nameless subject of the Mikado," who committed suicide by Harakiri Saturday, in front of the American embassy as a protest against the enactment of the American immigration law excluding Japanese. Public obsequies will be followed by a parade to Ryogoku, where a mass meeting will be held. Authorities believing it will be dangerous to suppress a demonstration declared today that they would take special precautions and guard against any outbreak of violence.
