Judge Recommends Freeing Suspect In Americans' Murder

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (UPI) — A Salvadoran judge recommended a request for the United States to extradite a wealthy Salvadoran, accused in the murder of two American land reform experts, be dropped for lack of evidence, court officials say.

It is the second time in a month a Salvadoran judge has recommended charges be dropped against suspects in the murder last January of Mark David Pearlman, 36, of Seattle, Wash., and Michael Hammer, of Potomac, Md.

Court officials Tuesday said Judge Felix Antonio Orellana recommended an extradition request against Hans Christ, a wealthy Salvadoran in custody in Miami, be revoked for lack of evidence.

Christ and his brother-in-law Ricardo Sol Meza were accused of shooting to death Pearlman, Hammer and the head of El Salvador's Agrarian Reform Institute, Rodolfo Viera, on Jan. 3 in a hotel coffee shop in San Salvador.

A hotel waitress initially told police she saw Christ and Sol Meza leaning over the bodies of the Americans, but later changed her story.

El Salvador's Supreme Court, which must rule on the recommendation submitted Monday by Orellana, said it would act "in a short period of time" on the extradition request against Christ.

Waldheim To Seek 3rd Term?

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim is expected to announce this week he will seek election to an unprecedented third five-year term in the United Nations' highest office.

Waldheim's only serious rival in the election, which will come at the end of the General Assembly's three-month 36th session opening Sept. 15, is Tanzanian Foreign Minister Salim A. Salim. Salim has already been endorsed by the group of 90 African nations.

Waldheim has sidestepped all questions on whether he might stand for another term, but informed sources indicated he plans to announce his intentions at a news conference Thursday.

The real hurdle for any candidate will be the closed session of the Security Council, which decides by majority vote who to recommend to the Assembly. Any of the five big powers — Britain, China, France, the Soviet Union or the United States — can veto the election of a candidate.

Moscow Steps Up Attacks

United Press International

Moscow stepped up its bitter attacks on Solidarity today following the Polish union's call for workers in other Communist East Bloc nations to fight for free unions and hinted its massive military maneuvers on Poland's border might be expanded over a larger area.

Washington publicly had suggested the maneuvers by 100,000 Soviet troops was an attempt to intimidate the Poles and the Soviet Communist Party daily Pravda reported today the Soviet Republic of Byelorussia was "where, for the time being, the main part of the present exercises are taking place."

It was the first indication the scope of the maneuvers code-named "West-81" might be shifted to other areas of the western Soviet Union. Polish television reported Tuesday night separate Polish-Soviet maneuvers were under way inside Poland.

State-run Radio Moscow repeated charges Solidarity's leaders are attempting to seize control of Poland and said the union's first national convention in Gdansk is being controlled by anti-socialist elements.

"Solidarity has not put forward any constructive program," Radio Moscow said. "Nor has it contributed to solving complex problems facing the country."

Vickers Won't Seek Re-Election

Altamonte Springs City Commissioner Dolores Vickers, District 3, announced Tuesday night that she will not seek re-election on Nov. 3.

Vickers has served as city commissioner for two consecutive terms since her election in 1977 to the post.

According to City Clerk Phyllis Jordahl, no one has applied to run for Vickers' commission seat.

Blood Mobile To Appear At School Board Office

The Central Florida Blood Bank will have a blood mobile, unit at the Seminole County School Board office at 1211 Mellonville Ave., Sanford, Thursday from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. The blood drawing will be held for School Board employees and all other eligible and potential blood donors.

With the rapid growth of Central Florida the demand for blood and the need for volunteer blood donors have increased, according to Central Florida Blood Bank Director Edward O. Carr.

Donating blood is a simple, painless procedure, he said, and takes less than 30 minutes. Donors must be in good health and at least 17 years old and meet regular donor requirements. Each donor will be given a free mini-physical including blood pressure, pulse, temperature and test to determine amount of iron in the blood.

Sanford Man Admits To Child Assault

Facing a second trial in slightly more than a year on charges of sexual battery involving an 11-year-old girl, Clifford Milliken of Sanford pleaded guilty in Circuit Court Tuesday to four lesser counts of lewd assault on the child.

Judge Kenneth Leffler ordered Milliken jailed pending completion of an investigation into his background. Milliken, 55, of 422 San Marcos Ave., could receive up to 60 years in prison.

Tuesday's pleas end more than a year of legal maneuvers in the case. Milliken was convicted in July 1980 on four counts of sexual battery which included allegations he took nude photographs of his victim. He was sentenced to 100 years in jail.

Milliken's attorney appealed the conviction, citing a state law which prohibits any person from being tried for a capital felony — a crime which carries the possibility of life imprisonment or death — without first being indicted by a grand jury.

The state contended that Milliken's crimes did not warrant prosecution as capital felonies, and therefore no grand jury indictment was necessary.

The Fifth District Court of Appeals disagreed in June and remanded the case back to the Sanford branch of the State Attorney's office for retrial.

Milliken's guilty pleas will make another trial unnecessary.

SHIRT OFF HIS BACK

Thieves broke into Robert E. Curry's Sanford home on Monday or Tuesday and stole a good portion of his wardrobe.

Curry, 38, of 1807 Knox Ave., told police that the crooks ransacked his home after prying open a bathroom window and crawling through. Once inside, they took seven suits, six shirts, a like number of ties, two pairs of shoes, a frozen ham, a cassette player, and $800 cash.

Friday and charged with possession of a controlled substance, according to Altamonte Springs police.

Frank Adair Eaton III, 41, of 509 Beverly Ave., Altamonte Springs, and Patsy Blankenhip Woodruff, 29, of 291 Goldendays Drive, Casselberry, were arrested at 7:18 p.m. Friday, at Eaton's residence. Police obtained a search warrant and found approximately $1,000 worth of cocaine, marijuana, quaalude tablets and assorted drug paraphernalia.

The couple was taken to the Seminole County Jail and released Saturday on $5,000 bond each.

MA BELL: WHAT A DRAG

A 20-year-old Geneva man has pleaded guilty in Circuit Court in Sanford to a charge of grand theft after he literally took Ma Bell for a ride.

Sentencing for Daniel Alan Marion of Mullet Lake Park Road was deferred pending completion of an investigation into his background.

According to court records, Marion's troubles with the law began about 4:30 a.m. May 28 when Seminole County sheriff's deputy I.A. W.H. Robbins got a radio call to check on a pickup truck dragging a telephone booth down a street in Chuluota.

Robbins arrived at the scene at 2nd Street and Old State Road 13 and sure enough, there was Marion's 1973 Datsun pickup stuck in the sand, a phone booth connected to his rear bumper by a length of chain.

In other court action, seven persons pleaded guilty to various crimes. They are:

- William A. Harmon, 28, of Orlando, obtaining property by worthless check. Harmon was accused of bouncing an $83.20 check at Spencer Gifts in the Altamonte Mall on June 5.
- Rickey D. Reese, 22, 705 Sunbury Drive, grand theft. The charge against Reese stemmed from his failure to make $3,600 in bank deposits for the Big Cypress Association where he worked.
- Jeffrey M. Allison, 19, 523 Foothill Way, Casselberry, no contest, forgery. Allison allegedly forged a stolen check in the amount of $800.
- Paul Frank Husson, 22, 1410 Paula Drive, Apopka, possession of marijuana. Sheriff's deputy I.A. E.H. Standley reported seeing Husson March 27 sitting in his car with a bag of marijuana in his lap.
- Vincent Edward Luckett, 19, of Winter Garden, burglary. Luckett was accused of breaking into a car parked at the Altamonte Mall.
- Mark Allyn Roush, 25, 1148 Galahad Drive, Casselberry, grand theft. On April 17, Roush was found to have on his car two tires and rims which had been reported stolen several days before.
- Harry Dwayne Woodall, 19, of 309 Lakeshore Drive, Longwood, was placed on five years probation and ordered to pay $500 for the services of his public defender after pleading no contest to a charge of possession of burglary tools. Woodall was found outside a Longwood home with gloves, a bent coat hanger, and a garage door opener.
- Joshua Gibbs, 30, of 1515 W. 14th St., Sanford, received a one-year probationary term and a $360 public defender lien after pleading no contest to unemployment compensation fraud. Court records showed that Gibbs told welfare workers that he was not employed Oct. 5-20 in order to receive unemployment benefits. Gibbs was in fact working at that time, the records said.

WEATHER

NATIONAL REPORT: South Texas residents mopped up today after torrential rains swamped roadways and knocked out electric power. Lightning killed a motorcyclist in Texas and a man drowned on a flooded road in New York. Showers and occasional thunderstorms scattered over most of Texas early today into southeastern Wyoming, reaching across the eastern half of Nevada and the southeastern third of California. A flash-flood watch was posted over much of central Utah until midnight. Tropical storm Gert passed almost unnoticed over Puerto Rico, but forecasters warned the season's seventh named storm could strengthen as it churns over open water today. Hundreds of miles to the north, Hurricane Floyd was downgraded to a tropical storm after harmlessly brushing Bermuda, and tropical storm Emily weakened as it moved across the chilly North Atlantic.

Seminole Gets Grant For Volunteers

Seminole Community Volunteer Program Inc., has received a $36,998 continuation grant from ACTION for its retired senior volunteer program, Florida Congressman Bill McCollum, fifth district, and Bill Chappell, fourth district, announced today.

ACTION is an independent service agency which receives its funding from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The funding will allow the Seminole Senior Volunteer Program — to continue through September of 1982.

"These funds will indirectly benefit thousands of individuals in Seminole County, as they make it possible for these volunteers to go out into our communities and share their time and knowledge," McCollum noted.

"Seminole RSVP volunteers, according to local officials, donate their time at area hospitals, schools and nursing homes, as well as many other public institutions."

NATION IN BRIEF

Reagan May Impound Funds To Ease Mushrooming Deficit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan, facing a mushrooming federal deficit, may temporarily impound funds appropriated by Congress in an effort to ease the financial squeeze.

Senate Republican Leader Howard Baker of Tennessee and House GOP Leader Robert Michel of Illinois voiced the possibility Tuesday after holding a private strategy session with the president.

Said Baker, "I think there's a fair possibility we (Congress) can adopt some temporary impoundment or deferral authority for one year's duration" for the president.

He said, "the president himself could make a 10 percent reduction in any line item" in the budget except for entitlement programs.

Entitlement programs are those for which prior commitments are firm — such as Social Security and Medicare. Those plus other uncontrollable expenditures such as interest on the national debt make up about 75 percent of the nearly $700 billion 1982 budget plan the president has submitted.

This leaves about $175 billion in programs for which spending can be controlled.

"I think in round numbers, what we're talking about is trying to take another 10 percent slice from those items that can be cut, exclusive of entitlement programs," Michel said.

Williams' Case Continues

ATLANTA (UPI) — Fulton County District Attorney Lewis Slaton has requested that a judge's review of evidence in the trial of Wayne B. Williams be limited to material pertinent only to the two of 28 Atlanta slayings for which he is charged.

The motion, filed Tuesday, is seen as an attempt to prevent further delays of Williams' trial and eliminates the possibility that the state would seek to tie Williams to the other 26 slayings.

Williams' trial had been scheduled for Oct. 5 but Fulton County Superior Court Judge Clarence Cooper delayed it indefinitely, saying he needed time to review prosecution files to determine if there was basis for a defense motion requesting the disclosure of exculpatory evidence, or information favorable to the defense.

Meanwhile, lawyers for Williams, the only person charged in the two-year series of slayings, were to appear in court Thursday to argue that their client's constitutional rights were denied during a pre-dawn interrogation near a Chattahoochee River bridge.

Sign-Up Prosecution Begins

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Justice Department plans to notify young men who fail to register for the Selective Service they may be prosecuted for violating the law.

Department officials said Tuesday they are preparing to prosecute young men who fail to register, a violation that carries a five-year jail term and $10,000 fine.

"The attorney general made the decision we are going to prosecute these cases. Now it's a question of how we are going to prosecute," Associate Attorney General Rudolph Giuliani told United Press International.

Justice Department spokesman John Russell said the department has formulated guidelines for prosecutors to use as a "tool" in registration cases. The guidelines, however, have not yet been sent to attorneys around the country and Russell emphasized the Justice Department is months away from embarking on prosecutions.

"The purpose of the guidelines is to simply assure that we have identified those who are willfully refusing to comply with the law," said one department official who declined to be identified.

Voters Turn Down Bible

TIFFIN, Iowa (UPI) — When the votes were counted, the Bible lost.

Clear Creek School District voters turned out in record numbers Tuesday to soundly defeat — 689-90 — a college student's proposal to adopt the Bible as a supplementary school text.

But Ian Johnson says he is undaunted and will try again — in Des Moines.

The proposition's defeat was the nation's "first real victory against religious zealots since the November election, when the Moral Majority backed President Reagan," said Julie Golden, executive director of the Iowa Civil Liberties Union.

The ICLU had threatened to go to court if the referendum passed in the eastern Iowa school district.

Mrs. Golden called the proposal "an entire page of gibberish" and said passage "would mean the school would be endorsing a Christian doctrine." The only people who would have voted for the proposal were those "blinded by religious fervor," she said.

Johnson, a University of Iowa law student, had forced the referendum by gathering a couple of dozen signatures on a petition.

Youth Resource Guide Distributed Saturday

"The Guide, a Directory of Resources for Children and Families" prepared by the Seminole Youth Planning Council Inc. (SYPC), is scheduled to make its debut Saturday. The guide will be introduced at the council's third annual corporate meeting and dinner at Maison & Jardin Restaurant, Allamonte Springs, said Judge Dominick J. Salli, chairman of the board of SYPC. SYPC is part of Seminole Youth Service Systems.

The meeting is open and reservations can be made for the dinner at 322-9146 by Thursday. A cash bar will open at 6:30 p.m. and dinner will be served at 7:15.

In addition to the release of "The Guide," there will be nominations of officers, award ceremonies and door prizes. Anyone wishing to vote in this year's election must pay membership dues before the dinner.

"There will be skits and entertainment on how even a chipmunk can learn to use "The Guide," said Salli.

"The Guide" is the first comprehensive gathering of programs and providers for young people in Seminole County. The directory has information applicable to youth from birth through 18 years as well as listings of day care education, emergency services, employment, health, juvenile special programs, recreation, spiritual growth and volunteer programs.

It will be indexed chronologically, for information concerning an agency and for each program that is offered by a youth provider.

The Guide will be distributed free to all of the approximately 550 agencies, schools, churches and individuals who provided information for use in the book. There will be 100 copies for distribution to libraries, and the public.

Each school library will be given a copy so that the students themselves will be able to have a valuable information source to let them know what is available to them in Seminole County.

"Social service programs, especially those aimed at young people, have suffered drastic cut-backs recently. Hopefully 'The Guide' will help coordinate and improve services by letting the community see what is being provided and what is not being provided," said Chris Holden, SYPC spokesman.

Holden said it will be necessary to continually update the information in "The Guide," which was prepared and published through a federal grant. "The Guide" cost $10 per copy to print plus the ring binder cover, he added.

Child Program Applications Are Available

'Miracle Baby' Born To San Diego Woman

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Bewildered doctors say a 35-year-old San Diego woman whose ovaries stopped producing eggs three years ago has given birth to a "miracle baby" in what may be the first documented case of a birth after menopause.

The woman, who asked not to be identified, said she had no idea she was pregnant when she went to University Hospital for a routine examination three months ago.

"I told the doctors I felt kind of sick and my breasts were sore, but they had me on hormones and the hormones will do that, too, so I just figured it was the hormones," she said.

Cops OK'd To Use 'Shocking' Batons

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — Police officers have received permission to trade in their billyclubs for a new weapon which delivers an electrical shock, but officers will have to go to the chaplain to buy the device.

Police Chief Joe Casey confirmed Tuesday police officers have been authorized to use "The Source," a non-lethal, baton-like weapon with a flashlight on one end and prongs on the other.

The prongs, which activate 500 millionths of one ampere, produce an electrical charge which will back the suspect up or cause the suspect to drop his weapon.

In a general order Sept. 1, Casey said the weapon will not be issued by the department but he said officers can purchase it at their own expense as an alternative to the standard police baton, a 32-inch long wooden stick.

The sole Tennessee distributor of "The Source," which costs $129.50 for the unit and charger, is Metro Police Chaplain Herb McCoy.

She said Dr. Jeffrey S. Hakoff, director of the Scripps Clinic Medical Group's Fertility Center, examined her stomach and detected a heartbeat. He found the woman was six months pregnant.

"The doctor kept saying "It is impossible. It is impossible," she said.

She recently gave birth at the hospital to a healthy baby she named Manda.

"It is like a miracle," she said.

Three years ago, her menstrual periods stopped and a physician at Kaiser Hospital told her she had premature ovarian failure — an early menopause in which the ovaries stop producing eggs.

Facing Opposition

O'Connor Won't Say How She May Vote

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Supreme Court nominee Sandra Day O'Connor, facing opposition from abortion and Equal Rights Amendment foes, said today she cannot now say how she would vote as the first woman justice.

"I do not believe that, as a nominee, I can tell you how I might vote on a particular issue which may come before the court," she said in a statement prepared for delivery at the opening of her confirmation hearing today.

Her position seemed to be a possible blockade to an expected bevy of questions on how she would vote on a variety of issues — particularly abortion and women's rights issues.

It was uncertain, however, if the Senate Judiciary Committee would accept her stance or press for answers. Regardless, Mrs. O'Connor is expected to win quick and easy confirmation.

In her statement, President Reagan's nominee warned she would not "endorse or criticize specific Supreme Court decisions ... which may well come before the court again."

"To do so would mean I have prejudged the matter or have morally committed myself to a certain position. Such a statement by me ... might make it necessary to disqualify myself" on such cases before the court.

Mrs. O'Connor said, "If confirmed, I face an awesome responsibility ahead."

Mrs. O'Connor has powerful bipartisan support from her two home-state senators, Republican Barry Goldwater and Democrat Dennis DeConcini. But conservative groups have made it clear they will not acquiesce in her nomination without a fight.

Several groups have examined her public record, written letters to the 18 committee members and plan a demonstration at the building where the confirmation hearings will be held.

In comments apparently designed to ease some of the concerns of conservatives, Mrs. O'Connor said her experience as a state court judge and state legislator "have strengthened my view the proper role of the judiciary is one of interpreting and applying the law, not making it."

In a letter to Judiciary Committee Chairman Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., the judicial review committee of the American Bar Association said Mrs. O'Connor meets the "highest standards of judicial temperament and integrity."

But, the panel added, "Her professional experience to date has not been as extensive or challenging as that of some other persons who might be available for appointment to the Supreme Court."

...Juvenile Arbitration

The juvenile arbitration method is gaining popularity in other cities across the nation, Hair said.

Recently she was asked to present a program to the Special Committee on Delinquency, of the South Carolina Bureau of Criminal Justice.

"I'm happy to see interest in the program growing around the country," Hair said. The success of the program is due to the community support. The community started the program in this area and they're the ones that make it work."

Arbitrators Trained For Task

Your child has been arrested. Since it is his first offense, the police officer has recommended you avoid juvenile court proceedings by going through the Seminole County Juvenile Arbitration Program.

But, you ask yourself, "who is this person who will decide my child's fate? Is he or she a judge, a lawyer, a social worker, a psychiatrist ...?"

The arbitrator who handles your child's case could be one of those or may not be. But all arbitrators involved in the juvenile program are volunteers from within the community who have a degree in law, behavioral social science or who have training in conflict resolution, according to program manager Gayle Hair.

"We currently have 50 arbitrators in our program and of them, we have housewives, doctors, lawyers, school teachers, merchants and others who voluntarily hear cases that come to us," Hair said.

According to Hair, if citizens want to participate in the program but do not meet the training qualification they may enroll in a course in conflict resolutions offered at Seminole Community College for $15 to become eligible.

The course is divided into three parts: "The first deals with communication skills—listening, responding, conflict resolution and also deals with family structure" Hair said ... The second part concerns the philosophy of the juvenile justice system—what we are trying to do." And, last, the student learns creative dispositions, assigning punishments to fit the crimes" she said.

Hair said that not everyone who has a degree or takes the course is guaranteed a job as an arbitrator.

Final approval for the positions comes from Seminole County judges and the state attorneys office.

Arbitrators are also asked to follow-up on the cases they work to make sure the child is fulfilling the agreement and to give guidance and assistance when necessary, Hair said. — TENI YARBOROUGH

A Penny For Your Thoughts May Select Royal Couple

Voting ends Sunday, Oct. 4, for king and queen of the Sanford Christmas Parade, sponsored by the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce. Four young couples, sponsored by various civic organizations, are participating in the contest.

The king and queen will be selected after voting cans are collected. Anyone wishing to vote can drop pennies into the can with the picture of the couple they wish to see win. Each penny counts as a vote.

Money raised from the election will help finance the parade. The winners will receive $50 each and ride on a special float in the Christmas parade, Saturday, Dec. 12.

Couples vying for the royal titles are as follows:
 Dusty Gregory, 15, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gregory of Enterprise. Dusty attends DeLand senior high as a sophomore. His interests include fishing, hunting and horseback riding. He also attends Orange City First Baptist Church.

Debra Alderman, 16, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Alderman of Sanford. A sophomore this year, Debra attends Seminole High School. While attending Liberty Christian School, Debra was homecoming queen, a cheerleader and member of the volleyball and track teams. She enjoys swimming and camping and is a member of the Seminole Heights Baptist Church. The couple is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Sanford.

Bill Painter, 17, and Dawn Weekly, 16, are sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Sanford. Dawn is a sophomore at Lake Mary High School. She attends Seminole Heights Baptist Church where she is a full time volunteer with the youth group. Among her interests are tennis, volleyball and music. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Weekly.

Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Painter of Sanford. As a senior at Seminole Heights High School, he enjoys weightlifting as well as other sports. He attends First Baptist Church of Sanford.

Rufus Christian Jr., 17, and Sonia Thomas, 18, both of Sanford, are sponsored by the Women's Community Club of Sanford. Sonia is a senior at Seminole High School. She plans to attend Seminole Community College and major in clerical work. Sonia, the daughter of Mrs. Edna Thomas, enjoys reading and sewing.

Rufus graduated this year from Seminole High School where he was active in sports and plans to tryout for the Orlando Americans football team.

Represented by the Optimist Club, Stephanie Beard and Jamie Jessup both attend Seminole High School. Stephanie, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Beard Jr., of Sanford. She is active in Keyettes and the yearbook staff. She also attends Pinecrest Baptist Church.

Jamie, 16, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.J. Jessup. He is involved in Interact Club, yearbook staff and student government. Jamie is a member of the Seminole Heights Baptist Church.

A Child Star Comes Back At Age 35

You'll Be Seeing More Of Hayley Mills

By DICK KLEINER

HOLLYWOOD — You may be shocked to learn that Hayley Mills, the little darling of so many pictures, is now a fascinating 35-year-old with a couple of sons of her own, a few secrets in her past and a feeling that maybe she has let her career slide too badly.

That last is being remedied — sort of. She is not pursuing the career slam-bang, but she is about to do some things. You will be seeing more of Hayley Mills in the immediate future than you did in the immediate past.

In late fall or early winter on PBS, Hayley Mills will play in "The Flame Trees of Thicket," a seven-part offering on Masterpiece Theater. That is based on a book by Elspeth Huxley, and concerns Miss Huxley's youth in Kenya, which is where "The Flame Trees of Thicket" was filmed.

"I haven't been very aggressive as far as my career is concerned for the last five years," Miss Mills says. "I had it very easy when I was young — there wasn't much competition in those days. Not a lot of child actors around."

"So I swam along rather happily into my 20s, and then I found it difficult to do the right things as a woman. I didn't quite know what to do, what kind of woman I was, what kind of things I ought to pursue. So my career became a bit diffused."

Now that her family life is reasonably settled — she has been with Leigh Lawson for some years — she says, "I've got more time to think about my work and I'd like to work more."

But, of course, she faces the same dilemma that all women who act and have families face. Miss Mills has two sons — 8 and 5 — to consider.

"There is that responsibility to your family," she says, "which must come first. And then your responsibility to yourself to have a career. You're constantly juggling the two."

Looking back on her early life now, she feels that what suffered the most from her stardom was her education.

"I never learned to do long division or any of those things," she says. "I just hope to God that people give me the right change in the supermarket, because by the time I've worked it out, six other people have checked out and they have forgotten my transaction totally."

She says she dropped behind at school when she was young and so school became boring — "it's boring to be at the bottom of the class and depressing to have to stay in and do more homework."

She remembers reading about how F. Scott Fitzgerald had planned a curriculum for columnist Sheilah Graham, with whom he spent his last years. Later, Miss Graham wrote about that curriculum, the list of books that Fitzgerald had suggested she read. He had called it "College of One."

"I tried to read those books on my own," she says. "I was painfully aware of how uneducated I was. That really hung me up, sometimes, so that I became afraid to talk to people, for fear they would find out what an ignorant person I was."

"I used to go off on weekends, with those books. I'd go off by myself... down to Brighton hotels under an assumed name. Silly, you know — I had my initials on my suitcase. I had to make up names that matched the initials. Helen Mathews is one I remember."

She never did finish Fitzgerald's College of One, but she has made up for lost time, and lost learning, by reading a great deal.

Now she faces another problem — should she and Lawson let the two boys act? She says they both want to.

"My eldest son," she says, "is constantly dressing up and sticking scabs and boils all over his face and playing old men in school plays. And a few nights ago, when I was pulling the little one to bed, he asked for his telephone. I gave him his toy phone and asked who he was going to call. He said his agent."

I haven't been very aggressive as far as my career is concerned for the last five years," says Hayley Mills. I had it very easy when I was young... and then I found it difficult to do the right things as a woman."

Divers Sensed A Spirit In Wreck Of Andrea Doria

By United Press International

The leader of the team that explored the Andrea Doria says now that treasure from his expedition is safe in a tank guarded by sharks, he'll never return to the eerie luxury liner one diver called a "death trap."

Several of the divers said they were spooked during their deep-sea search. They said they sensed a spirit in the murky interior of the ship, pitch black and webbed with discarded fish nets that threatened to entangle their air lines.

A rusty black safe, pulled from the depths of the Atlantic Ocean by divers who returned from a month-long expedition Wednesday, was held at the New York Aquarium at Coney Island in a salt water tank with sharks. The tank is to be opened on live television at the end of a documentary.

'Boy, Was This Dumb'

Marshall Floyd Doss came back to the police station to pick up his clothes one time too often — and now is ticketed for a trip to Detroit to face a murder charge.

"Boy, was this dumb!" said Doss, 33, when he was arrested by police vice unit officers as a fugitive from murder charges in Detroit and Cleveland.

Doss, who is charged with shooting Cassandra Johnson, 22, of Detroit, to death at a disco lounge in August 1980, was arrested in Seattle July 14 on a charge of promoting prostitution. When the fugitive identified himself as Larry Jackson, detectives believed it was a phony name because of the suspicious story he told. So they sent his fingerprints to FBI labs in Quantico, Va. The first set of prints was lost. A second set was too blurred for the FBI to use. By then, Doss was released from jail. But police still had $200 worth of clothes they confiscated at the time of his arrest.

After his release, Doss went to the vice unit and asked for his clothes. Sgt. Dennis Nixdorf said the detectives stalled — telling him he'd have to return Monday to get the items.

When Doss, who still had not been identified by the FBI, showed up Monday, Nixdorf told him the detective handling the case had the day off and he would have to come back the next day for his clothes. The report on the prints — which had been submitted to Quantico for a third time — finally arrived Monday afternoon.

When Doss showed up Tuesday, Nixdorf arrested him on the murder charges.

Quote Of The Day

David Naughton, 30, a movie actor who spent 10 hours a day being made up for the title role in "An American Werewolf in London," wasn't amused when writer-director John ("Animal House") Landis said, "You lucky guy — the glamor and fun of being a movie star."

Says Naughton, wincing at the memory, "I'd get terrible muscle cramps in my legs and arms. Other people had to feed me because my hands were wrapped up in horrible claws I couldn't manipulate. And I had a hell of a time trying to get to the bathroom."

Mouseketeers today — Nine members of the original "Mickey Mouse Club" as they appeared when "Disney's Wonderful World" presented "The Mouseketeer Reunion." Bottom: Annette Funicello; second row: Darlene Gillespie, Tommy Cole, Karen Pendleton; third row: Cubby O'Brien, Sherry Alberoni, Bobby Burgess, Sharon Baird and Lonnie Burr.

A Mouseketeer's Memories

When Sharon Baird started dancing at age 3, little did she suspect that a few years later, her legs would be insured for $50,000, or that she would become a Mouseketeer.

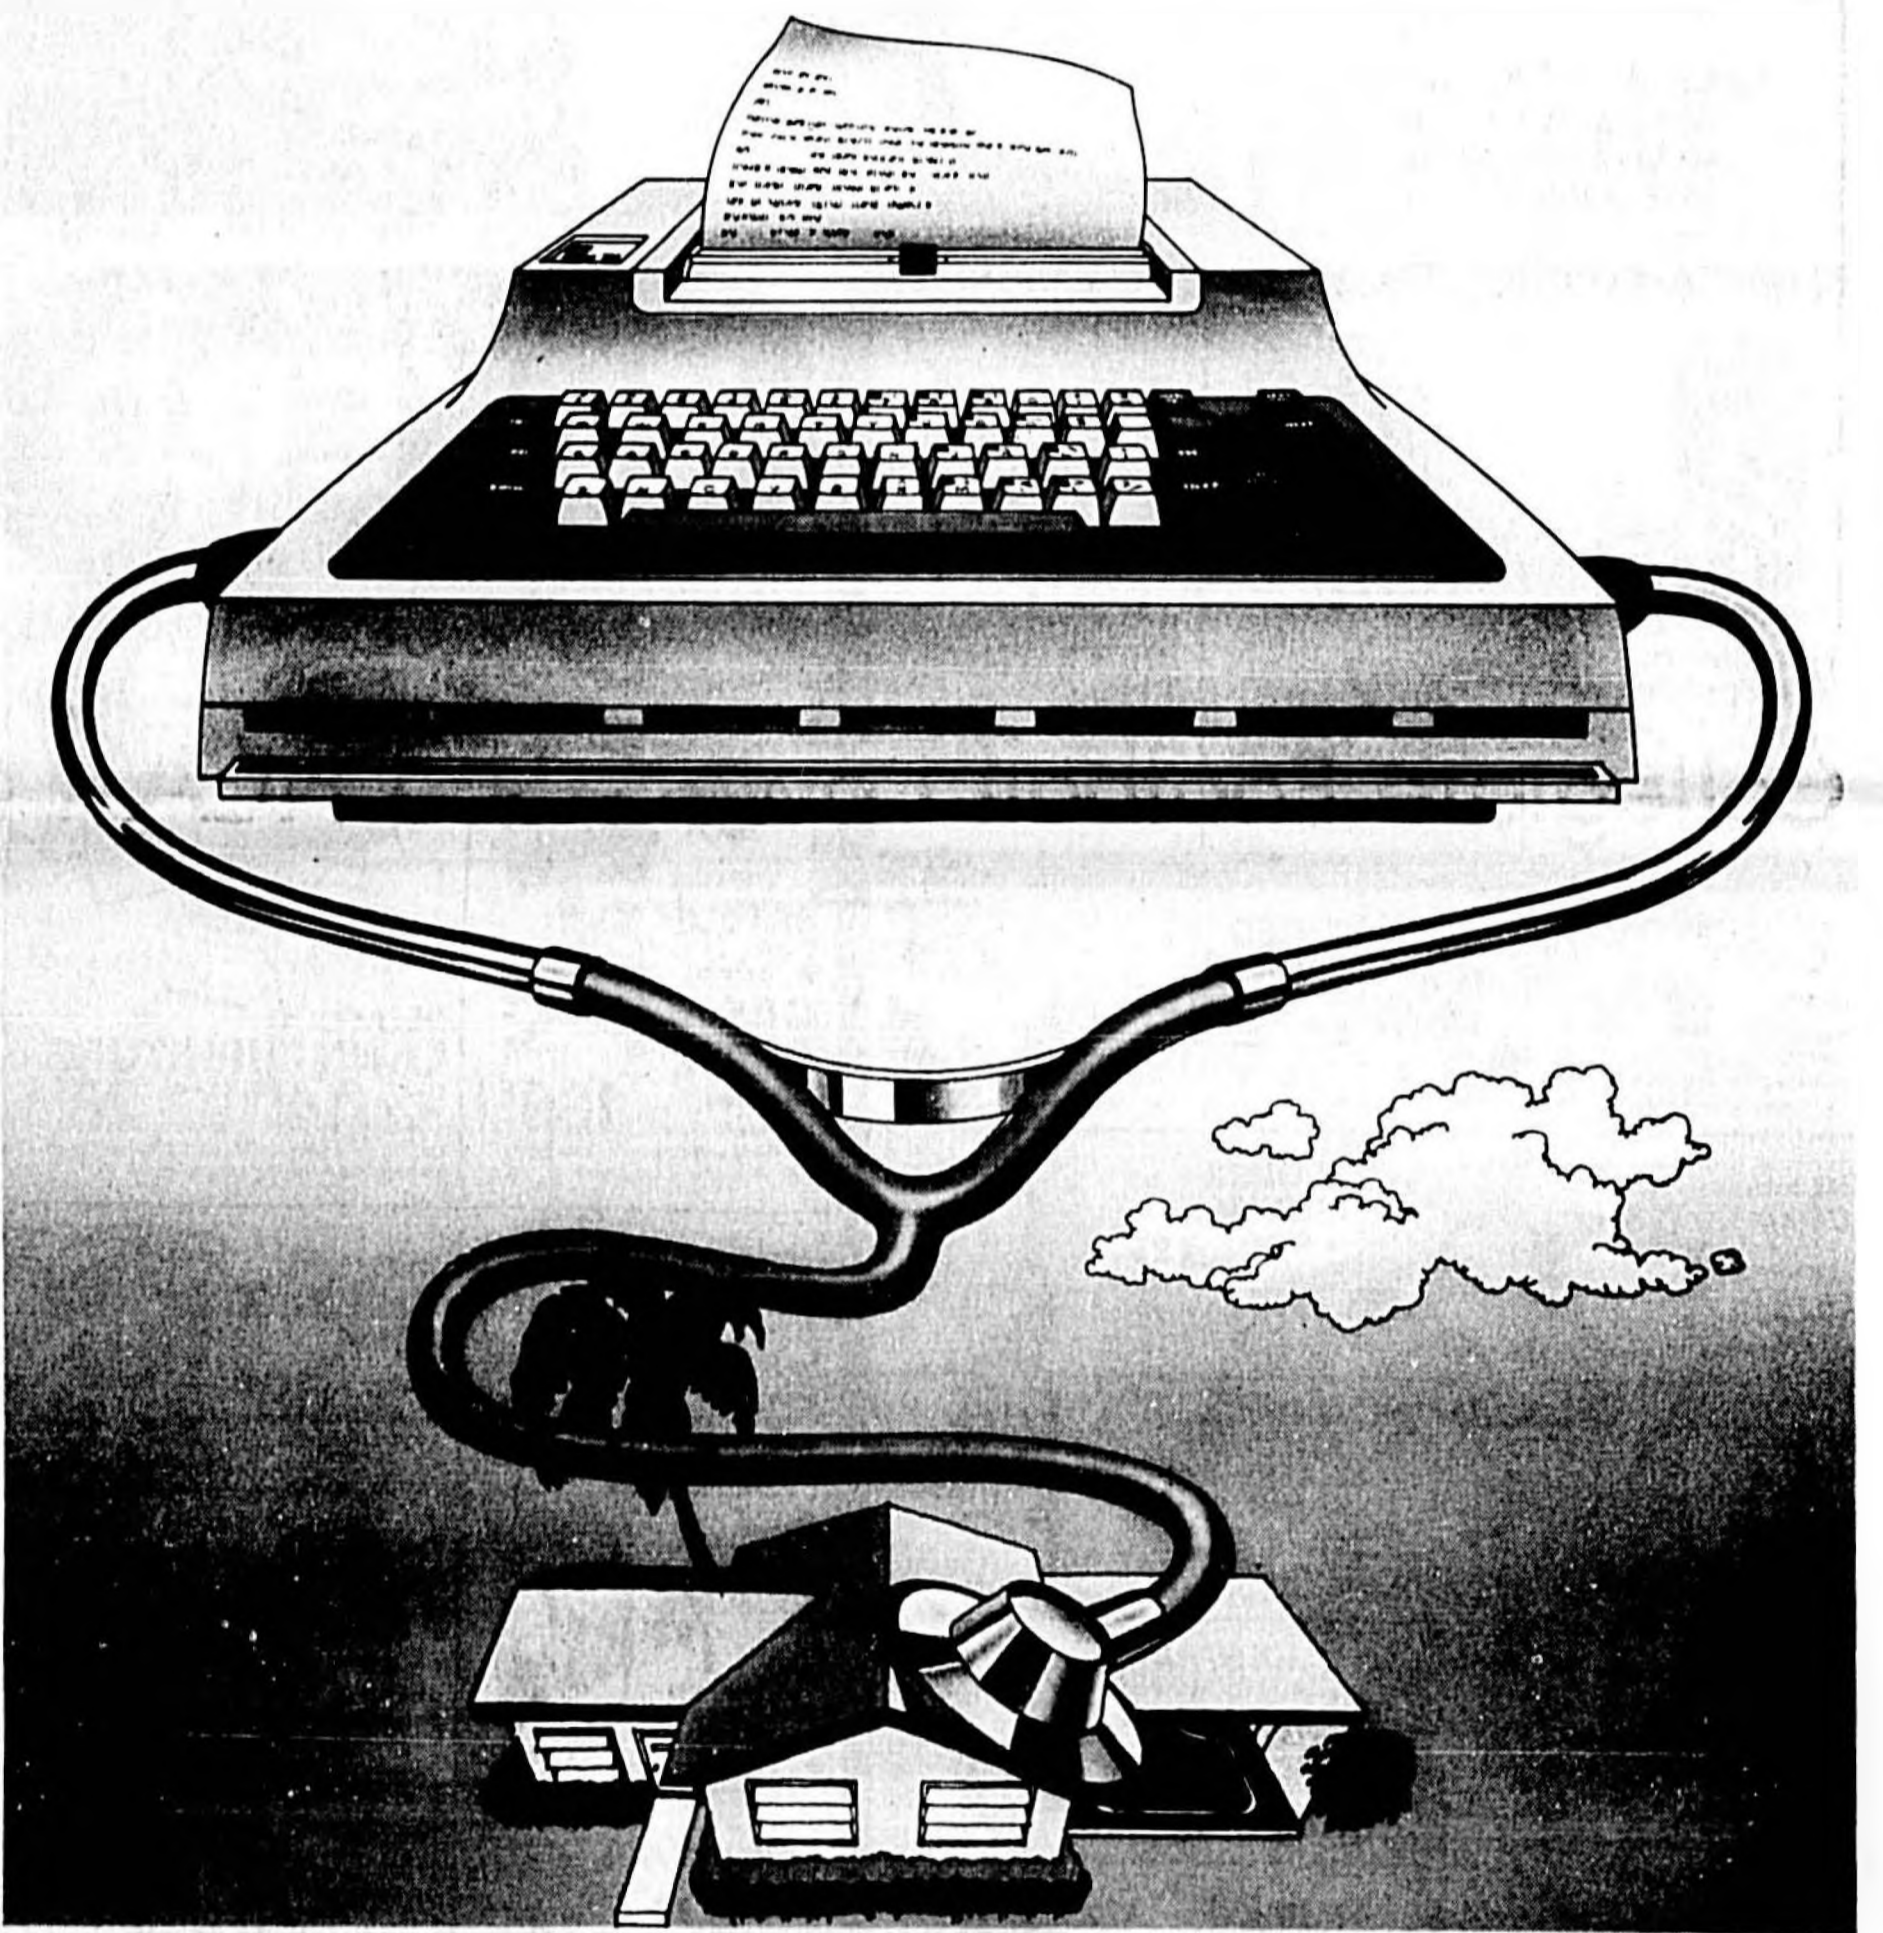

"Eddie Cantor was looking for young dancers for 'Colgate Comedy Hour,'" the diminutive blond explained, "so I auditioned and though I was too short for what they had in mind, they wrote a special part for me, signed me to a contract and insured my legs for $50,000."

Sharon launched her career by entering the Little Miss America Pageant. "I won for Washington State and went to California to compete in the nationals. I came in second, but my mom loved the area so much, she persuaded my dad to move down."

The relocation proved beneficial. "After the 'Colgate Comedy Hour,' I did a lot of television shows like 'Death Valley Days' and 'The Donald O'Connor Show.' Then I did a film called 'Artists and Models' with Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis."

It was Sharon's involvement in this film that led to "The Mickey Mouse Club." "I was at Capitol Records for a recording session on the film," she explained, "and was seen by Jimmie Dodd, who recommended me to Disney."

Sharon appeared on "The Mickey Mouse Club" throughout its successful run. The recognition awarded to the Mouseketeers proved overwhelming. "The first time I realized what an impact we had was when we went on tour to Australia," she recalled. "When we got off the plane there were about 8,000 people who came rushing at us. It was frightening because they had to carry us over the crowd."

Our computer makes house calls. To save you electricity.

Our computer will check the symptoms that lead to rising energy bills. By performing an energy audit that could help you conserve electricity and save money. And it's only one of three different home energy audits available:

Our Computer-Assisted Energy Audit. An FPL energy expert will come to your home, make a two-hour survey of your energy usage and feed the information into a portable computer terminal which will supply energy-saving recommendations. All for a $15 one-time charge. This audit is most important for homes that use 1700 or more kilowatt hours a month.

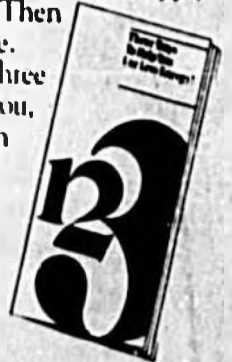

Our Walk-Thru Energy Audit. The diagnosis for homes that may not need the computer. One of our trained representatives will come to your home and in 30-45 minutes analyze your energy usage, without charge.

Our Customer-Assisted Energy Audit. With this audit, you supply the basic information, using instructions we furnish. Then we'll complete the analysis for you, again at no charge.

We've put together a free booklet that explains all three audits in detail. It will help you decide which is best for you, and it even includes a postage-paid order form you can use to request your audit.

4 Locals On Knights' Football Roster

UCF Beef Yields Seminole County Flavor

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Editor

Central Florida gridiron Coach Don Jonas finds football players everywhere. It seems, though, the former Canadian Football League great has a certain appetite for the beef grown and aged in Seminole County. No less than 14 players on the Knights' 1981 roster either played or lived in Seminole County.

"The Five Star Conference produces good football players," Jonas pointed out last week while getting UCF ready for Presbyterian College in Saturday night's 7 o'clock season opener at the Tangerine

Bowl. "We want to win with area players."

Two of the most local are from Sanford. Erogies Grigley, a 1975 Seminole High graduate, is one of the stable of Knight running backs.

Grigley, 23, spent two years in the Army and is anxious to find out whether he still possesses the 4.4 40-yard speed Jonas along with co-coach Sam Weir is looking for.

"I'm looking forward to see if I can still excel in football," said Grigley, a sophomore. "Overall, the team looks well. The offense is dynamite, the defense is strong and secondary is coming on."

Grigley has already shown flashes of his old brilliance and may be the fuse to ignite the Knights' "dynamite" offense. "He's been one of our brightest spots," said Jonas. "The way our offense works, we have to keep the defense honest with the fullback."

"Erogies can give us the explosive, quick-hitting into the line that we need," continued Jonas.

While Grigley is the explosive side of the Sanford duo, senior running back Turner Davis is the quiet side. Jonas calls the 5-foot-9, 180-pound letterman a "game player."

"In practice Turner just mopes around and mopes around," points out Jonas. "But when the nitty-gritty of the hitting and bouncing starts, he seems to show up."

"He'll make the block or the tackle when it's needed. Hopefully he'll continue to improve and we'll have something good in Turner Davis."

Grigley, a stocky 5-foot-10, 200-pound fireplug, feels the Sanford combination will give the local UCF rooters a good show. "Sanford, look out for myself and our other home boy Turner Davis," warned the affable Grigley.

While Seminole High has processed two 1981 Knights, no one can match the production of Lyman High. Coach Bill Scott has five former players on the UCF roster with three in contention or holding starting jobs. John Kirk, who played his prep ball at Frontier Central High in New York, is a backup defensive end who lives in Longwood.

Two certain starters for Saturday's game are linebacker Billy Giovanetti and defensive tackle Danny Allen. Giovanetti is a two-year veteran for the Knights, so his work is taken for granted, but Allen has brought a new swirl to Jonas' ever-present cigar smoke.

"Danny Allen has been a great plus for us," remarked Jonas about the 6-foot-3,

210-pound 1978 Greyhound graduate. "He beat Mike Sommerfield out of the starting tackle job."

Lyman's Bob Burkhardt, who is looking for his first injury-free year on the college level, is in a hotly-contested battle for the number-one quarterback job with freshman Mike Wood.

"I think we'll be tough. This is going to be our year," said the former Greyhound signal caller. "Sam Weir's been a 100 percent factor. The morale is considerably better and everybody's ready to play."

Sophomore defensive back Steve Kuhrt (Lyman '79) and freshman side receiver Jack Neff are backups at their respective spots.

Joining Wood, a quarterback for Tampa Plant High last year, but a signal caller for Weir two years ago at Lake Howell, are two more ex-Silver Hawks.

Sophomore defensive end Jim Bray has nailed down a starting position, while another sophomore — Bob Solomon — is splitting time between fullback and guard.

Solomon, an intellectual letterman, sees quite a difference from this year and last year. "The team is more of a unit. They aren't as many individuals on the team," assessed Solomon.

"Last year we had a lot of good players, but the offense wasn't a system," said Solomon. "This year the offense is a more organized, systematic operation where everyone is part of the machine."

"Everyone has to fit in. No one is out here to be a star. Coach Weir has been a 100 percent difference. Coach Jonas needed someone who is head-coach caliber to coach with him."

"Coach Jonas had too many responsibilities to run the show by himself. Coach Weir has made a big difference," concluded Solomon.

While Solomon has seen quite a change from last year to this year, Wood has witnessed the change too—but from a different perspective. "The difference between high school and college is that you don't have people out here because

EROGIES GRIGLEY
...look out Sanford

DANNY ALLEN
...starting on defense

their Mom's and Dad's wanted them to be," said Wood.

Wood has the edge in the fight for Saturday's starting job, but won't be upset if Burkhardt gets the nod. "I think Bob deserves this year. It's his senior year, I'll just be ready if I'm called on."

One man who will be called on Saturday is linebacker Scott Redditt. The 1978 Lake Brantley grad walked on at Florida State two years ago, but a neck injury forced the end to a promising career.

Redditt took a year's rest and will start next to Giovanetti in UCF's 5-2 defense. Another Brantley linebacker—Paul Orofino — is waiting for the mail to see if he's eligible to compete.

Orofino attended Gardner Webb College, (N.C.) last year along with ex-Patriot coach Jim Raley. Raley indicated to Jonas he would sign a statement releasing Orofino for this year's action since he didn't participate last year.

The county's 14th addition is wide receiver Aaron Cabral. The 6-foot-2, 200-pound Bishop Moore standout will be used as a backup to another ex-Hornet—Jeff Froelich—as a wideout. Cabral lives in Maitland.

Collegiate Football Powers Sue NCAA Over TV Rights

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — The question of who owns the lucrative television rights to collegiate football — the NCAA or its individual members — likely will be determined where most property disputes end — in a courtroom.

Tuesday, three of the nation's most prestigious collegiate football powers — defending national champion Georgia, Oklahoma and Texas — filed suit on behalf of the 61 members of the College Football Association, seeking a judgment on that fundamental question and asking the courts for protection from punishment from the NCAA while that question is being decided.

The NCAA offered no reaction to the court action, but the schools did.

"The members of the College Football Association contend that each university has a property right to its own athletic program," said Fred Davison, the president of the University of Georgia and chairman of the board of the CFA.

"Unfortunately, the NCAA has continued to threaten CFA members individually and collectively with sanctions affecting not just football but all sports should a CFA member elect to participate in the CFA agreement with NBC. In view of the NCAA position and the resulting confusion, it was determined that the question of ownership of a university's athletic program could best be decided in a court of law.

"It is for that reason that the University of Oklahoma and the University of Georgia have filed a class action suit in federal district court and the University of Texas has taken similar action in state court. The CFA membership should be free to select the agent it prefers in the sale of football television rights without threat of sanctions.

College Football

"Hopefully the courts will respond promptly and permit the CFA universities to continue as members in good standing in the NCAA and also have the opportunity to exercise control over the property right which properly belongs to each university," he said.

The CFA is comprised of every major college football conference except schools in the Big Ten and Pac-10. The group also includes such independents as Notre Dame, Penn State, Pittsburgh, Florida State, South Carolina and West Virginia.

The CFA recently negotiated a revolutionary four-year, $180-million television contract with NBC to broadcast games of its member schools, beginning in 1982. That pact with NBC is scheduled to run in direct conflict with a $263-million television package negotiated recently by the NCAA with ABC and CBS.

The CFA membership approved the contract by a 33-20 vote with five abstentions on Aug. 21 despite threats of probation from the NCAA. The CFA has given its schools until Sept. 10 to either cast or change their votes.

Since the approval of the NBC contract, a number of CFA member conferences, most notably the Big Eight and the Southeastern Conference, have asked the NCAA to call a special convention prior to Sept. 10 to address the concerns of Division I members in the area of reorganization and football television.

While not offering reaction to the court suits directly Tuesday, the NCAA did announce that a special convention "has been called by the NCAA counsel to consider a series of amendments that would restructure the membership of Division I and I-A football."

James Frank, president of Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Mo., and president of the NCAA, said the convention would begin sometime the week of Dec. 6. He also said the chief executive officers of all Division I institutions — which include Georgia, Oklahoma and Texas — had been invited to attend a special meeting in conjunction with the NCAA's regular scheduled gathering of selected chief executives Sept. 28-29 in Chicago.

"Any Division I chief executive interested in attending is welcome to do so," said Frank. "We hope a significant number will be present to discuss the restructuring proposals."

In Oklahoma City, Dan Gibbens, OU's faculty representative to the Big Eight Conference, said Oklahoma entered the federal suit with Georgia to protect itself and other CFA members from NCAA sanctions.

"These suits (in Oklahoma City and Austin) will hopefully maintain the status quo until the courts provide answers to questions about the legality of CFA and NCAA television arrangements," he said.

Tribe Cancels Parents

"Parents Night", which was originally scheduled for Wednesday evening at Seminole High School, has been canceled.

No reason was given for the cancellation which was to be a meeting of Fighting Seminoles' varsity and junior varsity football players.

McEnroe Quests Third U.S. Open

JOHN McENROE by Alan Mauer

NEW YORK (UPI) — John McEnroe, in quest of his third consecutive U.S. Open title, was scheduled to meet Ramesh Krishnan of India, ranked 101st in the world, in the second match on Center Court today, following a quarter-final women's duel between third-seed Tracy Austin and No. 6 Sylvia Hanika.

Krishnan, son of the former great Indian player, Ramathan Krishnan, is a lucky survivor who has nothing to lose against the world's top-ranked player. He was down two sets to seventh-seed Gene Mayer Monday night but advanced when Mayer fell victim to cramps at the end of the fourth set.

Should he beat Krishnan, McEnroe's opponent for the semifinals would be the survivor of today's match between No. 15 seed Vilas Gerulaitis and unseeded Bruce Manson.

"It makes no difference," McEnroe said about the fact he has had little competition thus far. "I know when I'm playing well and I'm satisfied each match is bringing me to the point where my game will pick up so I'll really be where I want to be at the end of the week."

The ultimate attraction, of course, would be another final against second-seeded Bjorn Borg, who reached the quarterfinals Tuesday by beating No. 13 seed Yannick Noah of France, 6-7, 6-4, 6-3.

"The greatest tennis I've ever played has been against Borg," McEnroe said. "We bring out the greatest tennis in each other."

Following a rash of upsets, Tuesday's program was rather mild. Even the victory of ninth-seed Roscoe Tanner over No. 6 Guillermo Vilas wasn't much of a surprise, although the fact he did it in straight sets was.

By beating Vilas, 6-4, 6-2, 7-6, winning the marathon tie-break 15-13, Tanner set up a third consecutive meeting with Borg in the quarterfinals. Tanner ended Borg's Grand Slam hopes in 1979 but Borg came back to beat the American last year.

Chris Evert Lloyd, seeking her sixth Open crown in the last seven years, became the first of the women to reach the semifinals when she crushed No. 5 seed Hana Mandlikova, 6-1, 6-3. It marked the 11th consecutive year Evert has reached the semifinals of the Open, and in that time she has compiled a 58-5 match record.

Evert's opponent will be the winner of today's contest between No. 4 Martina Navratilova and unseeded Anne Smith.

"I've been playing very well and the most important thing is I feel as eager as at Wimbledon," Evert said. "I feel ready to go."

"I'm happy with the position I'm in. I'm seeded one, yet I don't seem to be the favorite. I'm an underdog. It's a great position."

Cedeno-Fan Fight; Braves' 2-Run Ninth Knocks Out Astros

By United Press International
The Houston Astros learned about frustration Tuesday night.
Their troubles began in the first inning at Atlanta when the Astros' first baseman Cesar Cedeno was kicked out of the game for going into the stands and fighting with a fan. The coup de grace came eight innings later when the Braves rallied for two runs in the last of the ninth to win, 4-3.

Cedeno's behavior will undoubtedly result in severe disciplinary action by the National League.

"I'll have to find out a lot more about this," National League President Chub Feeney said in New York. "I'll have to get the umpires' report and possibly see films. Obviously, we don't condone that sort of thing."

Cedeno said the fan had been heckling him for two nights and the insults were of such a personal nature that he couldn't take any more.

Joe Shirley, director of stadium operations at Atlanta Stadium, said two fans were involved and neither was charged.

"They were simply verbal and abusive toward Cedeno," said Shirley, "using the word 'killer,'" an obvious reference to the incident in 1973 when Cedeno pleaded guilty to involuntary manslaughter in the death of a young Dominican girl.

Even without Cedeno, however, the Astros had the game won ... they thought. But, reliever Joe Sambito hit Claudell Washington with a pitch to open the Braves' ninth and reliever Billy Smith, 1-1, gave up a single to Bob Horner. Eddie Miller pinch ran for Horner and Chris Chambliss followed with a double to left center to make a winner of Rick Camp, 6-2.

Phillies 10, Expos 5
At Philadelphia, Dan Larson pitched a five-hitter and Garry Maddox knocked in five runs with a single and a homer to spoil the debut of Jim Fanning as Expos' manager.

Tim Lincecum 12-game hitting streak was snapped when he went hitless in four at bats.

Yastrzemski's Homer Devastates Detroit, 5-3

By United Press International
Carl Yastrzemski's pulled hamstring told him no. So did his sore wrists. But his instincts for victory said yes, and before you knew it, the Red Sox were within 3 1/4 games of first place.

"I love being involved in a pennant race," Yastrzemski said Tuesday night after hitting a tie-breaking, two-run homer with one out in the seventh inning to give the Red Sox a 5-3 victory over the sizzling Detroit Tigers.

Jim Rice singled up the middle with one out and on the next pitch, Yastrzemski lofted his sixth home run of the season and 42th of his career into the upper deck in right to break a 2-2 tie and hand the loss to Matt Wilcox, 9-7. Yaz performed despite an assortment of hurts that made him look like an ad for the Red Cross.

"My hands are working," Yastrzemski joked, "but my body isn't."

"This guy works harder than anybody I've ever seen," Boston Manager Ralph Houk said.

Singles by Rick Miller and Glenn Hoffman, his fourth hit of the game, and a one-out sacrifice fly by Jerry Remy gave the Red Sox an insurance run in the eighth.

Detroit manager Sparky Anderson thought his team played poorly.

"I won't start worrying with 23 games to play," said Anderson. "But if we play like

Padres 6, Reds 1
At Cincinnati, Broderick Perkins had three hits and batted in three runs to spark a 15-hit attack that carried the Padres to their first victory over the Reds this season, in eight games.

Mets 3, Pirates 1
At Pittsburgh, Rusty Staub smacked a solo homer and Ed Lynch combined with Neil Allen on a six-hitter in sparking the Mets to their victory.

Cubs 4, Cardinals 3
At St. Louis, pinch-hitter Steve Henderson lifted a sacrifice fly with the bases loaded in the top of the 12th inning to hand the Cardinals their fourth straight loss.

Dodgers 4, Giants 0
At Los Angeles, Dusty Baker and Ron Cey each ripped two-run homers with two outs in the sixth inning to power the Dodgers.

Orioles 14, Indians 5
At Baltimore, Eddie Murray banged a three-run homer and drove in four runs and Doug DeCinces added a two-run homer and three RBI to back Scott McGregor, 10-3.

White Sox 5, Mariners 3
At Chicago, Ron LeFlore had a run-scoring single and scored from second on a wild pitch in a four-run fifth inning that carried the White Sox.

Royals 5, Angels 2
At Kansas City, U.L. Washington stroked a two-run double and Willie Alkens had a solo homer to carry Dennis Leonard, 8-10, and the Royals.

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

1-Member Districts Pushed By Legislature, Graham Says

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — Gov. Bob Graham thinks the Legislature will opt for single-member districts during its upcoming reapportionment; but Florida Common Cause is not so sure.

Graham said Tuesday he believes there is a good chance legislators will scrap multi-member districts even though the switch to single-member districts could cost some incumbents their seats.

The current Legislature "is not representative of the people of Florida" because of the multi-member district system, which tends to work against blacks, Spanish-Americans and other minorities, he said at a news conference.

"I hope he is right, but we have found less favorable response to single-member districts," said Peter Butzin, director of Florida Common Cause, which has been pushing for single-member districts for years.

Countdown Delayed Again

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — An electrical shutdown in the space shuttle Columbia forced a three-hour delay today in the dry countdown for the scheduled second launch Oct. 9 of the reusable rocket ship.

Astronauts Joe Engle and Richard Truly won't climb into the cockpit until shortly before noon today. The simulated blast-off will be at 3 p.m. instead of noon, as scheduled.

The orbiter shut down at 9 p.m. EDT Tuesday. NASA officials were unsure what caused the sudden loss of power, but officials quickly reappplied power to the craft, said NASA spokesman Rocky Raab.

Teacher Negotiations Begin

Dick Deem, federal mediator from Tampa, was to begin meeting with the negotiating teams for the Seminole School Board and the Seminole Education Association (SEA) at 4 p.m. today to iron out contract problems.

The SEA team and the school board team have met a total of 88 hours trying to come to agreement on a new teacher contract for the past several months.

Their last session was held Thursday night at Lyman High School.

Teacher demands range from class size to salary increases.

Winter Springs Levels Taxes, Puts Watering Ban In Effect

Money and water were primary topics of discussion at Tuesday night's Winter Springs City Council meeting as council members approved next year's proposed $2 million budget, and imposed restrictions on residential lawn sprinkling as a way of curbing the effects of this summer's drought.

The brightest news for local residents was that the council kept the municipal tax rate at $2.05 per $1,000 of assessed property value, meaning there will be no tax increase in Winter Springs next year. A second and final public hearing on the 1981-82 fiscal year budget, which goes into effect Oct. 1, will be Sept. 22 at city hall on N. Edgemon Avenue.

Highlighting the budget is the planned expenditure of $170,000 for street and drainage improvements; the hiring of two new police officers; implementation of the first phase of a $60,000 paramedic program; erection of a traffic light at Edgemon Avenue and State Road 434; and a 10 percent across-the-board cost of living pay raise for 205 city employees including an additional 2 percent hike for certain long-time workers.

It was the pay hike, in particular, which prompted councilman Hap Arnold to cast the lone dissenting vote on a motion to adopt the budget. In earlier budget work sessions, Arnold had proposed limiting raises to 5 percent, claiming, "the '10-plus-2' plan is too high and out of step with private industry."

Arnold had planned to renew his attack Tuesday, but realizing the other four council members had dismissed his idea before and appeared in no mood to change their minds, he said simply: "The budget is too high," and then let the matter drop.

Arnold said he was going to suggest that $111,500 be cut from the budget, the largest chunk — $50,000 — coming in the area of salaries. "But what's the use?" he asked, shaking his head.

The reduction could have "cut the millage rate from 2.05 to 1.75 mills and the utility tax from 4 percent to 2.5 percent," Arnold said.

Also Tuesday, the council unanimously approved an ordinance which will restrict the use of water for irrigation in the city. The restrictions were imposed at the request of the St. Johns River Water Management District due to present drought conditions.

The new law, which goes into effect immediately, prohibits watering of lawns, crops, and pasture land between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. Plant nurseries, cemeteries, and golf courses will be prohibited from watering between noon and 6 p.m.

In late July, the council had discussed ordering a 15 percent curtailment of water usage by all commercial and industrial establishments within the city. But that provision was left out of the ordinance passed Tuesday due to possible enforcement problems.

City Manager Richard Rozansky said the police force will be responsible for enforcing the new sprinkling ban. Residents caught defying the conservation measure could be jailed for up to 90 days, fined as much as $500, or both.

School Board Hears Views On Tax Rate Increase Tonight

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County property owners may express their opinions about the county school board's proposed $97.7 million budget for fiscal year 1982 at a 7:30 p.m. hearing today at the school board office on Mellonville Avenue in Sanford.

The budget calls for a 36.2 percent tax rate increase of $2.20 per $1,000 assessed valuation. The proposed tax rate is $4.26, up from the current year's $6.08.

If more than 120 attend the hearing it will be recessed and reconvened at the Seminole High School auditorium because of room capacity, school officials said.

The proposed budget includes almost $5 million for construction of a new middle school in the Tusawilla area and to construct and furnish exceptional child suites at Altamonte Elementary and Sterling Park Elementary schools.

Some $2 of the tax increase is to be used for these purposes.

The total proposed budget is $97,664,735.14, up from the current year's $68,922,433.28.

The new Tusawilla School is one of five elementary schools and a middle school approved by the state in the school board's five-year plan.

Other Budgets Adopted

...Altamonte Springs

The Altamonte Springs Board of Commissioners unanimously approved a tentative 1982 budget of revenues and expenditures Tuesday night. The proposed budget for fiscal 1982 totals $14,777,056, said City Manager Jeff Etchberger.

The commissioners also unanimously approved the proposed tax rate of $3.85 per $1,000 of assessed valuation for fiscal 1982. The proposed tax hike is four cents less per $1,000 assessed property valuation than fiscal 1981, Etchberger said.

...Casselberry

The Casselberry City Council voted unanimously Tuesday night to approve a proposed budget and tax rate for 1981-82 calling for no increase over the current budget. The total anticipated expenditures for fiscal 1982 is $8,926,523, according to city officials.

The proposed 1982 tax rate for Casselberry property owners is $1.95 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, City Clerk Mary Hawthorne said. The 1982 tax rate is the same as the 1981 tax rate, she said. The public can address the council concerning the proposed budget at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 21 at city hall.

Creativity Comes Through In Preparing New Dishes

By LOIS SMITH

Herald Correspondent
A winning quick smile and an enthusiasm for life and people are just a few of the attributes that can be credited to Sandy Trosper.

Sandy and her husband, Jerry, have been married for 15 years. They have spent their entire married life in Sanford. The Trosper's and their two children, Chris, 11½, and Angie, 8, live at 200 Citrus Drive.

Jerry is employed as a lineman with Florida Power and Light Company. Recently, Sandy opened a re-upholstery business with her father-in-law. "We thought and thought of names for the business," said Sandy, and finally decided on an original — "Trosper's Re-upholstery."

Sandy describes herself as committed to her family and the community. Her community activities center around her church and the children's school. "I have been involved in just about every aspect of our church and the children's school," she said. Sandy is the past president of the All Souls Home and School Association and a member of the Parish Council. She was instrumental in organizing and implementing the first Vacation Bible School for her church.

"We spend most of our leisure time camping and boating," said Sandy. "Most weekends and vacations find us camping in an area where we can fish, crab or shrimp. It's good family recreation," she said.

Sandy's hobbies include counted cross stitch, crocheting, plants and tole painting. "Tole painting is a form of, and originated from, folk art," Sandy said. "Basically, it's an outline traced on wood, ceramics or metals, then painted with oils. Each piece is an original," she explained.

"One of my favorite activities is cooking," said Sandy. "I particularly enjoy preparing a new dish or dessert and inviting friends over to share it. I enjoy preparing a meal, not just to eat, but because I like to feel I'm being creative. Although, I do enjoy eating. I am constantly looking for new recipes. I collect them from magazines, cookbooks and, believe it or not, The Herald,"

Sandy Trosper: One of my favorite activities is cooking."

she said.

"I have what I consider my own unique way of deciding what recipes to try. You might call it a game. I read through the list of ingredients for each recipe, then I try to imagine how it will taste. If it seems good, I'll try it. It's really a fun way to use my imagination," grinned Sandy.

CUCUMBER DIP

Peel and slice 1 large or 2 small cucumbers and 1 medium onion; marinate a half hour in ¼ cup vinegar and salted water, cover in refrigerator. Drain and grind; drain again. Combine with softened 8 ounce package cream cheese. Add 1 teaspoon lime or lemon juice and 1 tablespoon chopped onion. Delicious with pretzels or raw vegetables.

CRAB DIP

2 tablespoons milk
1 teaspoon horseradish
8 ounces cream cheese
2 tablespoons minced onion
1 cup crab meat
Mix all ingredients together and bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Can be served hot or cold with crackers.

SPUDINI

1½ - 2 pounds London broil sliced ¼ inch thick. Dip in olive oil and Italian bread crumbs, roll meat into a ball and place on a skewer alternating with fresh vegetables (mushrooms, green peppers, onion, tomato) and cook on grill about fifteen minutes, turning often.

POTATOES ON GRILL

Peel and slice potatoes and onions ¼ inch thick; place individual servings in foil with dollops of butter and sprinkle with seasoned salt. Wrap carefully so juices will not come out and place on grill for about 20 to 30 minutes.

MUD PIE

½ package Nabisco chocolate wafers
½ stick butter, melted
1 quart mint chocolate chip ice cream, softened
1½ cups fudge sauce
Crush wafers; add butter and mix well. Press into 9 inch pie plate. Cover with soft ice cream. Put into freezer until ice cream is firm. Top with cold fudge sauce and store in freezer 10 hours. When serving top with whipped cream and slivered almonds.

LEMON CHEESE BARS

1 package yellow cake mix with pudding
1 8 ounce package cream cheese, softened
1-3 cup sugar
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1-3 cup oil
2 eggs

Mix cake mix, 1 egg and 1-3 cup oil until crumbly; reserve 1 cup. Pat remaining mixture lightly in an ungreased 13 x 9 x 2 inch pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes.

Beat cream cheese, 1-3 cup sugar and 1 egg until light and smooth. Spread over baked layer; sprinkle with reserved crumb mixture. Bake 15 minutes longer, cool; cut into bars.

ZUCCHINI RELISH

12 cups ground zucchini
4 cups ground onions
5 tablespoons salt
2½ cups vinegar
5 cups sugar
1 teaspoon dry mustard
¾ teaspoon nutmeg
¾ teaspoon turmeric
1 scant tablespoon cornstarch

½ teaspoon black pepper
1½ teaspoons celery seed
1 red pepper, ground
1 green pepper, ground

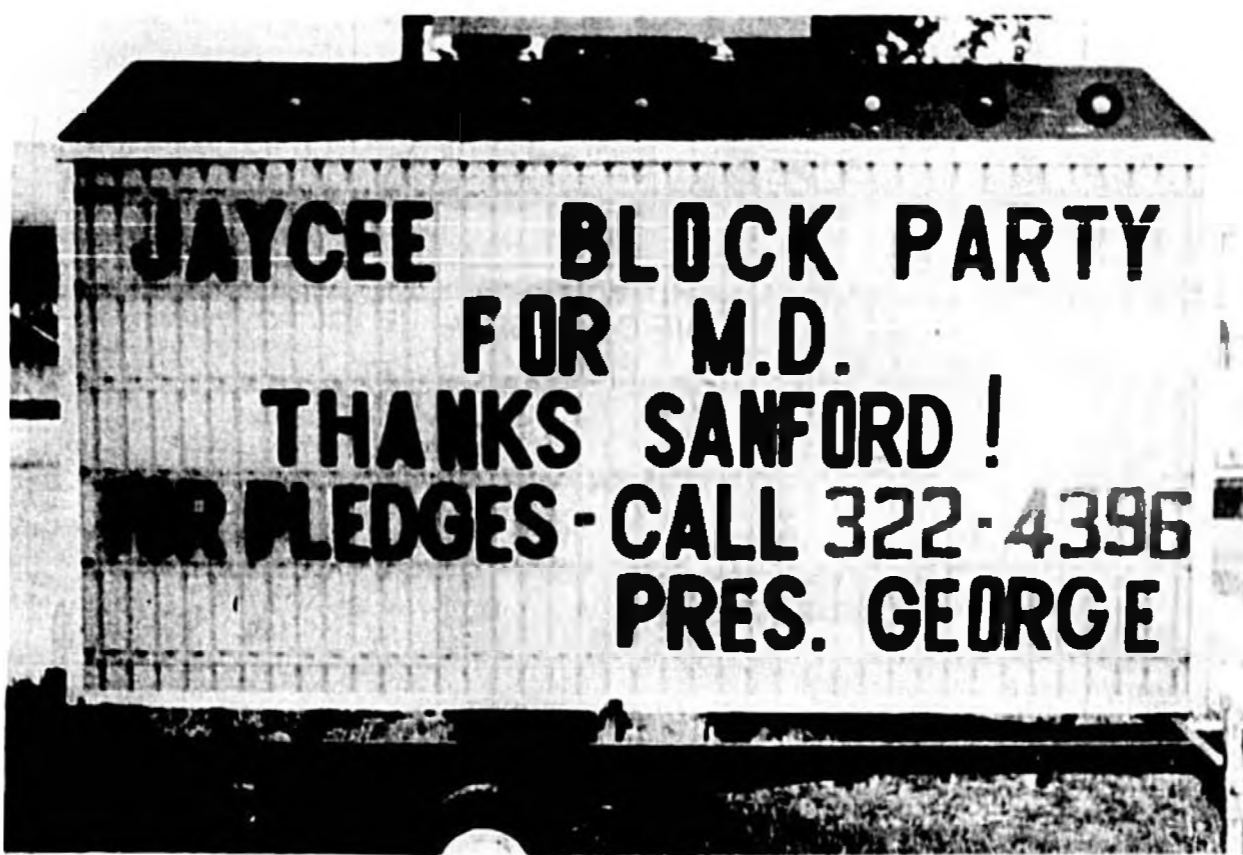

Put zucchini and onion through food chopper or grinder. mix with 5 tablespoons salt with enough water to cover; let stand overnight in refrigerator. Rinse with cold water; drain well in colander or sieve.

In large kettle mix vinegar, sugar, mustard, cornstarch, turmeric, celery seed and black pepper. Cook until it starts to thicken. Add ground vegetables and mix well. Cook slowly for 30 minutes. Can in hot sterilized jars. Yield: 5 to 6 pints.

JAYCEES RAISE $5,000 FOR MD

The Sanford-Seminole Jaycees and Jaycettes raised over $5,000 for muscular dystrophy while manning a 24-hour phone center in Sanford in conjunction with the national MD Telethon, according to George Currie, president. Some of the funds were collected through a "road block" at 3rd and French Avenue and a block party in the Jaycee Park where the Wooden Nickle Band was featured. Mike Kyle, State Director, and a Sanford Jaycee, was a member of a three-man team to place third in the Orlando 24-hour Bike-A-Thon for MD.

Beta Sigma Phi Chapter Earns Three Stars

XI Epsilon Sigma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi renewed friendships when members gathered at the home of Phyllis Miller for a Beginning Day social on Sept. 1. The social featured a salad buffet in which each member brought her favorite salad specialty.

Attending were: Phyllis Miller, Millie Gilbert, Ginger Brumbley, June Porzig, Eileen Mack, Lisa Porzig and Karen Hittell.

President Millie Gilbert said she was pleased to announce that XI Epsilon Sigma has earned the status of a "Three Star Chapter." Mrs. Gilbert explained, "This is the highest honor a chapter can earn and it indicates the chapter's success in bringing friendship and social and cultural opportunities to each member." During the meeting, members voted to donate $50 to the Seminole Community College work-study program. The money will enable a student to earn college credit for working as a clerk in the circuit court.

Census Survey

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey in the Sanford-Seminole area during the week of Sept. 14-18 to determine the extent to which people have been immunized against selected diseases. Forrest P. Cawley, Jr., Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Atlanta, announced today.

The survey is conducted throughout the U.S. every year to provide information on immunization against measles, influenza, polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, rubella, and mumps needed for administration of health programs geared to disease prevention.

HOROSCOPE
 By BERNICE BEDE OSOL
 For Thursday, September 10, 1981

YOUR BIRTHDAY September 10, 1981
 Your material prospects for the coming year look encouraging, although you might not earn money in large amounts. Your gains, however, will build in a slow, steady way.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
 Projects or involvements that cannot enhance your security or add to your resources should be set aside today. Focus on that which is materially meaningful. Find out more of what lies ahead for you in the year following your birthday by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph, Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 488, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)
 Be very selective of your social companions today. People who are a little too aggressive could cause problems. Choose affable types like you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)
 Give priority today to two important matters you've been unable to tie down. Both can be concluded now to your satisfaction.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
 Turn to reliable old friends today to help you sort out things you can't on your own. They'll offer slants you may have overlooked.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
 Conditions look very promising for you today, both financially and where your career is concerned. You'll recognize your opportunities and know how to react.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19)
 Keep a close eye on your associates today. They might get off on the wrong track. Fortunately, you'll know what to do to correct any errors.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20)
 You function best today by being helpful rather than by looking after your own needs. Your unselfishness will not go unnoticed or unrewarded.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
 Today you may get the opportunity to resolve a misunderstanding with someone of whom you're quite fond. He or she will be equally eager to clear the air.

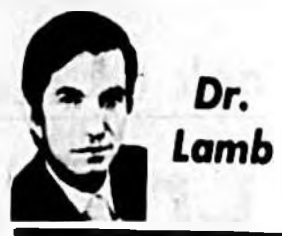

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)
 Major achievements are likely today, even though you are apt to get off to a slow or frustrating start. Success comes because you are tenacious.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
 Subdue tendencies today to take yourself or your involvements too seriously. Once you begin to enjoy what you are doing, it will enhance your productivity.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)
 This is a good day to remind those indebted to you of their obligations. Your chances for being repaid look promising.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)
 In situations requiring a team effort, play the supporting role today rather than the assertive one. Success of the venture is more important than the limelight.

Fainting Related To Circulation

Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB — Last week when I went to church I fainted. I had gone without anything to eat because I was going to take Communion. We had been kneeling and when I stood up I began to feel dizzy. Things began to blur and I had trouble steadying myself. The next thing I knew I was stretched out on the bench. For a while I thought I was going to get the last rites rather than Communion. My doctor gave me a good examination the next day. He said I had fainted. He didn't say why, only that I had not been able to get enough blood to my brain. That has me worried. I always thought I was in good health. I'm 19 and play on the basketball team and have never had any trouble. Does this mean I have some disease in the arteries to my brain?

DEAR DR. LAMB — Last week when I went to church I fainted. I had gone without anything to eat because I was going to take Communion. We had been kneeling and when I stood up I began to feel dizzy. Things began to blur and I had trouble steadying myself. The next thing I knew I was stretched out on the bench. For a while I thought I was going to get the last rites rather than Communion. My doctor gave me a good examination the next day. He said I had fainted. He didn't say why, only that I had not been able to get enough blood to my brain. That has me worried. I always thought I was in good health. I'm 19 and play on the basketball team and have never had any trouble. Does this mean I have some disease in the arteries to my brain?

DEAR READER — Probably not. It is important for anyone who has an unexplained faint to have a complete medical examination. Fainting is a symptom, not a diagnosis. It can be caused by blood accumulating in your legs and not leaving enough blood to be pumped to your brain. That is probably what your doctor was telling you. This is particularly apt to occur in people who have been at bed rest for a period of time. A fainting tendency even occurred in the astronauts when they returned to earth from space flights.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Could you tell me at what age a female should have a Pap test? I am 22. I read that it was once every three years instead of once a year. Are you for that? Cancer runs in my family and not too long ago my sister had her insides taken out because of cancer. DEAR READER — The guidelines from the American Cancer Society were that a woman age 20 and over, or under 20 and sexually active, should have an annual Pap test for two negative tests. Thereafter every three years was often enough, until age 65.

I don't entirely agree with that and your question points up the reason. Depend upon your doctor, who is familiar with your family history and your findings. If you are healthy and there are no significant findings, and the family history and other pertinent information is good, then the recommendations might be fine. But not everyone is so fortunate. It is another example where it is important to individualize, not generalize, when you are talking about one person and his or her medical problems.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Sitting South, he decided to give a mild slam try in hearts in spite of his club void. When North accepted the slam try with a spade cue bid, Sherman decided to bid the grand slam. East decided to double and Sherman redoubled. He won the club lead in dummy and noted that East hadn't doubled for a club lead. Sherman thought a while and finally decided that East held all five trumps and probably the diamond king. Then Sherman proceeded to play East for 3-3-4-2 distribution and come to 13 tricks with two spades, eight trumps, two diamonds and a club. He discarded a spade on the ace of clubs. Then he led a diamond and finessed the 10. He cashed the ace and ruffed the third diamond. Now came a club ruff. He ruffed his 'st diamond, cashed dummy's ace and queen of spades and led another club. East had to ruff and Sherman over-ruffed. Now he ruffed his king of spades with dummy's ace of trumps. East had to under-ruff and when another club was led from dummy, Sherman made the last three tricks with the king-queen-10 of trumps. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Flip For Fall

Super Sipper Simply Scrumptious

Autumn is apple season, and you can easily capture the flavor of fall with Caramel Apple Flip. This terrific taste-tempter is ever so simple to make. Combine a beaten egg with hot apple cider in which you've melted caramel candies and sip!

This delicious drink is not only a snap to fix, it's also loaded with needed nutrients. The incredible edible egg adds high-quality protein, important vitamins and essential minerals to Caramel Apple Flip.

You can feature this super sipper at a number of fall festivities. Treat ghosts and goblins to this bewitching beverage at a Halloween party. Or, score points with armchair football fans by serving them a steaming mug during the game. Kids can also sip this flip when they want a speedy breakfast-in-a-glass or super after-school snack.

Let Caramel Apple Flip add flavor and fun to your autumn activities. It's simply scrumptious and nutritious.

Try the drink with some of the accompanying quick dishes using eggs.

CARAMEL APPLE FLIP

(1 serving)
 1 cup unsweetened apple cider or juice
 4 caramel candies
 1 egg
 In small saucepan over medium-high heat, cook cider and caramels, stirring constantly, until caramels are melted and blended into cider. In tall glass or mug, beat egg well. Slowly pour in cider mixture, beating while pouring, until well blended. OR, place egg in blender container. Cover. Blend on high speed until well beaten. Reduce to low speed and continue to blend while slowly pouring in cider mixture. Serve immediately.

Microwave: In 2-cup liquid measure or bowl, combine cider and caramels. Cook on High until caramels are melted, 4 to 6 minutes, stirring after 3 to 4 minutes. Continue as above.

SCRAMBLED RICE

(4 servings)
 1 package (6 1/2 oz.) fried rice mix with almonds
 2 tablespoons butter
 2 cups hot water
 1 tablespoon oil
 8 eggs
 1/4 cup milk
 2 to 3 tablespoons minced green onions with tops
 Parsley, optional

In large skillet over medium heat, cook rice mix in butter, stirring frequently, until vermicelli is lightly browned. Slowly add water. Stir in contents of seasoning envelope. Cover, reduce heat and simmer until liquid is absorbed and rice is tender, about 15 minutes. Stir in oil. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, 3 to 5 minutes. Mix eggs, milk and onions until blended. Pour over rice mixture. As mixture begins to set, gently draw an inverted pancake turner completely across the bottom and sides of pan, forming large soft curds. Continue until eggs are thickened but still moist. Do not stir constantly. Garnish with parsley, if desired.

It is better to remove scrambled eggs from pan when they are slightly underdone. Heat retained in eggs completes the cooking.

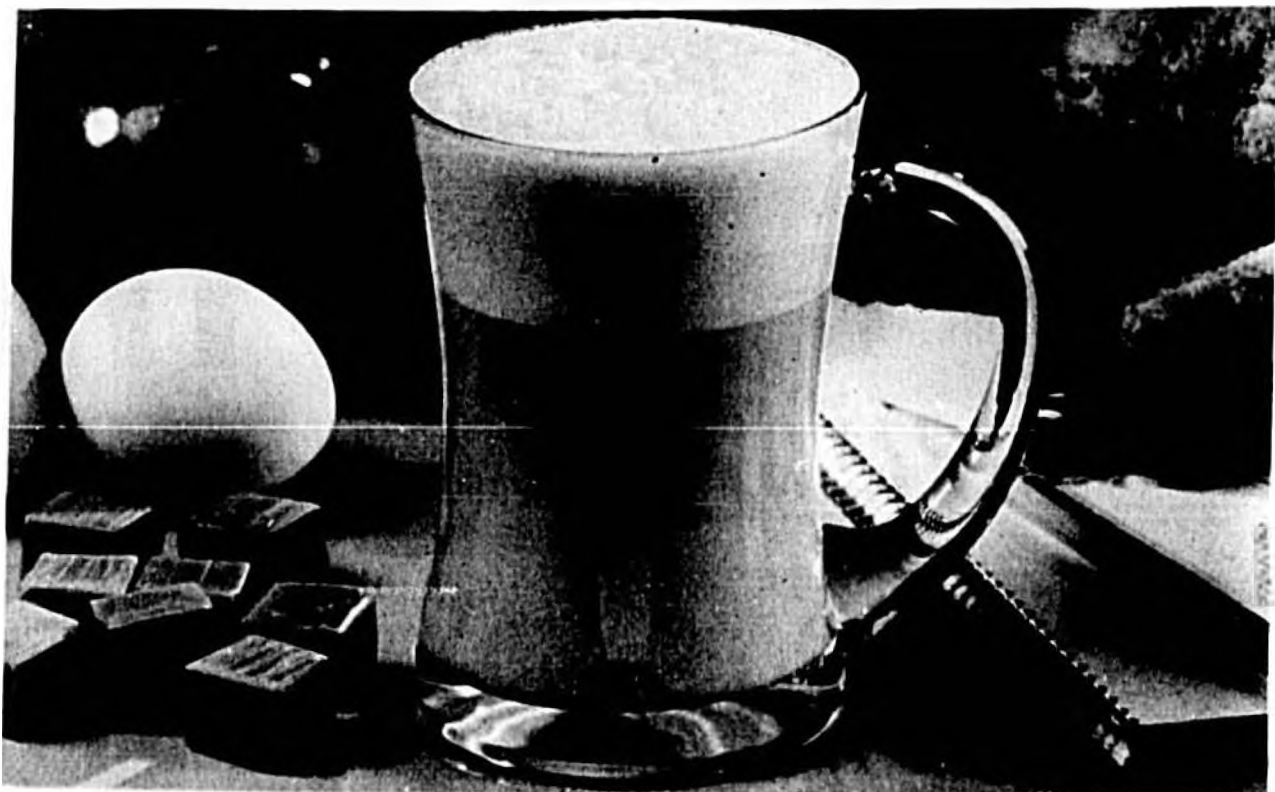

RYEBULL'S-EYE

(1 serving)
 2 small slices rye bread
 1 to 2 tablespoons butter
 2 eggs
 1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard
 2 tablespoons shredded Cheddar or Swiss cheese
 Cut out centers of bread slices with 2-inch round cutter. In large skillet over medium-high heat, heat butter until just hot enough to sizzle a drop of water. Add bread slices and cutouts. Break and slip eggs into bread "frames" Reduce heat to low immediately and cook until bread is lightly browned. Turn bread slices and cutouts over. Spread each egg with 1/2 teaspoon of mustard and sprinkle with 1 tablespoon of cheese. Cover and continue cooking until cheese melts, about 2 minutes more.

SUNNY PIZZA SNACKS

(4 main dish or 8 snack servings)
 4 English muffins, split
 1 can (8 oz.) pizza sauce
 8 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
 1 cup (4 oz.) shredded mozzarella cheese
 Place muffin halves on baking sheet. Spread each with 1 tablespoon of pizza sauce. Arrange 1 sliced egg on top of sauce on each muffin half. Spread each with 1 additional tablespoon of sauce and sprinkle with 2 tablespoons of cheese. Broil about 6 inches from heat until cheese melts, 1 to 2 minutes.

Everybody will flip over this delicious, nutritious apple drink.

Kids Learn At Home On The Range

PART 4 IN A SERIES

NOTE TO PARENTS: Many times parents hesitate to let children do certain tasks because of the fear that their children will get hurt. It is wise to be cautious, but children can do many more advanced tasks than many parents realize.

Of course, knives and hot ranges can be dangerous. But if children are taught carefully and supervised with patience, they can learn to handle every piece of equipment in the kitchen.

These tips are written for children to follow and can be clipped for posting in your kitchen.

Sometimes you are having such a good time creating a tasty new dish that you forget to be careful...and, oops! There's a nasty cut or burn to spoil the fun.

These accidents can be avoided if you always remember to handle tools carefully, especially things that are sharp, hot, have moving parts, or that break easily. Have an adult work along with you until you feel comfortable with these things.

Knives:
 Pick up knives by the handles only, because the blades are very sharp.

Watch out for the points, too. Knives should be put in dish drainers with the points down.
 Don't put a knife in a dishpan of water. Someone could reach in and get cut.

When someone is using a knife on a cutting board, everyone else should keep their hands away.

Moving Parts:

Electric mixers can be especially dangerous. Keep your hands far away from the moving beaters when the mixer is on. Even after turning the mixer off, keep hands away until the beaters have stopped rotating. Then, it's best to insert and remove the beaters while holding only the center post (see illustration).

Keep the cord out of the way.
 Turn the mixer off to scrape the sides of the bowl.

Handle the sharp parts of blenders and food processors with care...as if they were knives. Don't put your hand inside the container while the appliance is plugged in to electricity.

Range-Top Safety:

Use potholders to hold pan handles.
 Do not wear long floppy sleeves or jewelry around the range; they could catch on something or touch hot range-top and ignite.

Be careful of steam that rises from a hot pan when you raise the lid...or when you pour boiling water off cooked pasta. Never reach across range-top or touch it unless you are sure it is cold.

Use a wooden spoon for stirring; it doesn't get hot.

Keep towels, recipes, curtains, etc. away from the range-top.

Microwave Magic

Pack Tasty Bar Cookies In Lunch Box

The microwave oven can cook food quicker, more nutritionally and better looking than any other cooking appliance, but it cannot do it alone. It has to have helpers. Some of the best helpers are our (often taken for granted) kitchen wraps; wax paper, plastic wrap, paper towels, brown bags, brown paper bags and aluminum foil can all be used to advantage in the microwave oven, if you know when to use each. Plastic wrap can become a tight fitting cover; especially helpful, when a container does not have a cover or a tight fitting one. When cooking vegetables, some poultry, or meat dishes, a tight cover is essential if the food is to be cooked in the suggested time. The plastic wrap keeps in moisture and heat. Venting by folding back a corner of the wrap, will eliminate suction forming and build-up of steam. Wax paper will hold some heat and moisture, but it is porous and allows more to escape. The wax paper also prevents splatters of food on the exterior of the oven, making clean-up easier. Paper toweling acts as an absorbent cover and "soaks-up" unwanted moisture. I find these helpful when microwaving cakes and breads. Be sure to use white paper towels. There is some concern about dyes and inks touching food from the stand point of health safety. Browning bags can be used in the microwave oven as well as the conventional oven. They become a moisture holding cooking utensil. Caution, do not use the wire twists that comes with the bags. They can cause damage to the oven magnetron. Instead use a rubber band or string for closure. Brown paper bags are good to reheat rolls and breads. Aluminum foils acts as a shield when it is used in the microwave oven. When microwaving a whole chicken or turkey, use a small piece of foil to wrap the ends of the drumsticks and bony sections of the wings. The foil prevents those sections from becoming over cooked. When you must use a cooking utensil that has square corners, cover those corners for some of the cooking time with foil. This will prevent the food in the corners from over cooking because of the concentration of waves on corners. Cuts of meat that are uneven in thickness can benefit from using foil during microwaving. Use strips of foil to shield thinner portions this prevents over cooking of these areas.

Since school is back in session and some may be packing lunches, I thought some of these bar cookies might be welcome. Have the children help in the preparation and give them some lessons about microwaving.

CHOCOLATE COCONUT BARS

- 1 stick (1/2 cup) margarine
 - 1-3 cup granulated sugar
 - 1-3 cup packed brown sugar
 - 2 tablespoons water
 - 1 cup sifted flour
 - 1 teaspoon baking powder
 - 1 egg
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla
 - 1/2 cup chopped nuts
 - 1/2 cup flaked coconut
 - 6 oz. pkg. semi-sweet chocolate pieces
- In a 8 x 2-inch glass baking dish place margarine. Cook uncovered on high 45 seconds. Stir in sugar and water. Add flour and baking powder. Blend well. Beat in egg and vanilla. Add nuts, coconut and chocolate pieces. Mix thoroughly. Cover with paper towel. Place in N-W on high 6 to 7 minutes. Turn dish twice. Cool. Cut into 2 inch squares. (Expect the top to look damp when cooked by microwave; it will dry out on standing as the bars continue to cook by conducted heat even after removal from the oven). Makes 16 bars 2x2 inches.

Spicy Orange Chicken not for beginners.

Chicken Dish A Szechuan Specialty

Those who have been preparing Chinese dishes at home from scratch will enjoy a new recipe. A spicy orange chicken is representative of Szechuan cuisine, famous for its hot and spicy food. (This dish can be made less spicy by using fewer chili peppers.)

This is not a beginner's recipe and requires knowing the sources of many ingredients. However, most major cities have specialty stores and Chinese stores where these ingredients will be stocked. Even some catalogs now provide mail-order delivery of required ingredients.

SPICY ORANGE CHICKEN

2 whole chicken breasts, boned, skinned, cubed into 1-inch pieces

- 1 teaspoon cornstarch
- 1 cup yellow onion, cubed into 1-inch pieces
- 4 scallions, cut into 2-inch lengths
- 5 chili peppers, minced or to taste (optional)
- 2 teaspoons ginger, minced
- 1/4 cup fresh orange zest, cut into 2-inch strips
- 1/4 teaspoon Szechuan chili paste with garlic
- 1 tablespoon hoisin sauce
- 2 tablespoons dark soy sauce
- 2 tablespoons orange juice
- 1/4 teaspoon granulated sugar
- 1 teaspoon distilled white vinegar
- 1 teaspoon sesame oil
- 3 tablespoons pure peanut oil (for frying)

Prepare all of the ingredients. Combine chicken and cornstarch and mix well. Refrigerate for 30 minutes.

Combine onions and scallions. Combine peppers and ginger. Combine chili paste with garlic, hoisin sauce, soy sauce, orange juice and sugar.

Heat the wok until hot. Add peppers and ginger and stir-fry for 10 seconds. Add chicken and stir-fry until it loses its pink appearance. Add onions and scallions and stir-fry for 15 seconds.

Add orange zest and stir-fry for 30 seconds. Add vinegar and stir-fry for 15 seconds. Add sesame oil and mix well. Serve with rice. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 servings.

Potato Soup Spiced With A Hint Of Mint

A chilled potato soup with a touch of mint is refreshing on a warm day.

It's also perfect as part of a soup-and-sandwich or soup-and-salad meal.

Make it in the morning before going to work and refrigerate it; or prepare it the evening before so it will be thoroughly chilled. Preparation time is practically nil, because a condensed soup is used.

FROSTY TOUCH OF MINT

- 2 cans (10 1/2 ounces each) condensed cream of potato soup
- 2 soup cans milk
- 1/4 teaspoon dried mint leaves, crushed

In saucepan, combine ingredients. Heat; stir occasionally. Pour into blender; blend until smooth, or use rotary beater. Chill 6 hours or more. Garnish with mint leaves if desired. This kitchen-tested recipe makes about 5 cups, 4 servings.

Bananas add the right amount of natural sweetness and mellow flavor to home-made ice cream. Banana Rum Raisin Ice Cream can be made with either an electric or hand-crank ice cream maker.

Ice Cream

Favorite Dessert More Popular Than Ever

Ice cream has always been the favorite dessert in this country, but that frozen confection has probably never enjoyed more popularity than it does today. Ice cream parlors and ice cream stands are springing up all over, dispensing such exotically-named brands as Haden-Gladje, Zeduno and Fussen Zauber.

But if you're one of those ice cream lovers who cringes at paying up to one dollar for a single scoop, or think you might like to concoct a new flavor of your own — consider making home-made ice cream that tastes as delicious as the store-bought variety.

Ice cream is easy to make at home — a sweetened and flavored custard mixture combined with heavy cream can be frozen in an ice tray and beaten during freezing. But, for a smooth, luscious texture, it's best when churned and frozen in an ice cream maker. The completed ice cream may be eaten in its soft state or allowed to "ripen" in the freezer for 2 or 3 hours until it has hardened. In any case, home-made ice cream should be eaten within one week; after that, its flavor fades.

When making ice cream, it's important to remember that coldness mutes taste, so the mixture should be more strongly flavored than non-frozen desserts. Bananas add the right amount of natural sweetness and mellow flavor to home-made ice cream. And the pectin in the fruit adds a rich smoothness to the frozen texture.

Banana Rum Raisin Ice Cream can be made with either an electric or hand-crank ice cream maker. It combines ripe bananas, golden raisins and dark rum for an exotic tropical taste. To speed the freezing, chill the sweetened cream before churning.

BANANA RUM RAISIN ICE CREAM

- 1 1/2 cups dark rum
- 1 1/2 cups golden seedless raisins
- 2 cups sugar
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 quart milk
- 4 eggs, well beaten
- 2 cups heavy cream
- 4 cups mashed, ripe bananas (about 6 to 8 large)
- 4 teaspoons lemon juice

In a 1-quart jar combine rum and raisins; cover tightly. Allow to soak two days before preparing ice cream. In large saucepan combine sugar, flour and salt. Stir in milk and eggs. Cook over low heat 10 minutes, stirring constantly until mixture is slightly thickened. Let cool. Stir in heavy cream, bananas, lemon juice and rum-raisin mixture. Pour into a 4-quart freezer can for ice cream maker. Follow manufacturers' directions or, proceed as follows: Fill the can 3/4 full to allow room for ice cream to expand. Place cover securely on the can and set the motor or hand crank unit in place over the dasher. Lock in place. For electric model start the motor by plugging in the unit. Let it run about 2 minutes before packing the ice and salt. This will allow the mixture to churn evenly. On hand crank models, begin the churning after you've packed the ice and salt. To pack the freezer, sprinkle about 3 inches of crushed ice into the pail, then a layer of salt. Repeat until pail is filled. During the freezing, add additional ice and salt to keep pail filled just to the cover of the freezer can. Hand crank models take about 20 minutes; electric models take 20 to 30 minutes. The electric model will begin to slow down and stall when the ice cream is ready. Unplug as soon as motor stalls. Place ice cream in freezer for 2 to 3 hours to "ripen", or pack pail with salt and crushed ice and freeze ice cream several hours before serving. YIELD: 3 quarts.

- #### ROCKY ROAD BANANA ICE CREAM
- 8 to 6 large, ripe bananas, peeled and sliced into 1-inch chunks
 - 3-3 cup heavy cream
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla

1/4 cup mini chocolate chips
1/4 cup broken nuts
Place banana chunks on a tray. Freeze until very firm. When bananas are frozen, place in container of electric blender. Add heavy cream and vanilla. Cover. Blend on high speed, pushing mixture down carefully, until smooth and the consistency of soft ice cream. Add chocolate chips and nuts; blend 30 seconds longer. Serve immediately or freeze until serving time. YIELD: 1 quart.

Easy Make-At-Home Italian Dishes

Those who enjoy Italian pasta dishes in restaurants can prepare two very tasty and "restaurant expensive" dishes at home. These are spaghetti carbonara and noodles Alfredo.

Although the cost of these dishes at first seems high when you consider the prices of prosciutto or thinly sliced ham and the cheeses, the total cost per person is very low. And think how much being able to make these pasta dishes in front of family or guests does for the ego!

For best results, do not overcook the pasta. In fact, it is better to prepare the dishes when family or guests are seated and have had a first course. Do not allow pasta to remain in boiling water after it has cooked; this turns it to a "gooey" consistency.

SPAGHETTI CARBONARA

1 pound spaghetti
1 1/2 tablespoons salt
4-6 quarts boiling water
3 slices bacon, cut into julienne strips
1/4 cup olive oil
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup julienne strips prosciutto or thinly sliced ham
1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
2 eggs, beaten

Gradually add spaghetti and salt to rapidly boiling water so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in Colander.

While spaghetti is cooking, cook bacon in medium-size skillet over low heat, stirring frequently, until very lightly browned. Pour off excess drippings.

Add oil and butter to skillet. When butter is melted, stir in prosciutto. Cook, stirring, about five minutes. Bacon should not brown.

Remove skillet from heat. Very quickly stir in cheese and eggs. Toss with hot spaghetti. Serve at once. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 6 to 8 servings.

NOODLES ALFREDO

1 pound wide egg noodles (about 8 cups)
1 1/2 tablespoons salt
4-6 quarts boiling water
1 cup (2 sticks) sweet butter, cut into 1/2-inch thick slices
1 cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese

Gradually add noodles and salt to rapidly boiling water so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

While noodles are cooking, warm a large bowl and serving plates in a slow oven. (Butter and cheese should be ready to use.) As soon as noodles drain, place some of them into the bowl, add some butter slices and toss quickly. Add some cheese and toss again.

Continue adding noodles, butter and cheese until all noodles are completely coated. Serve at once on warm plates. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 6 to 8 servings.

You no longer have to go to an Italian restaurant to enjoy delicious spaghetti carbonara or noodles Alfredo. Home cooks can prepare these pasta favorites such as this Spaghetti Carbonara quickly, easily and inexpensively.

Beef tips with Oriental flair.

Wrap-Up Meal On The Grill

Lean tender cuts of beef, which are usually lower in cost, can be marinated for more flavor and tenderness. Marinated beef, in combination with rice and fruit, produces a grilled meal with an Oriental flair. There's nothing like a change-of-pace menu to wake up those summer taste buds.

Burgundy beef tips uses round tip cubes which are marinated in a burgundy sauce overnight. They're wrapped in foil bundles to hold in all the flavorful juices, and the convenient bundles form containers for grilling as well.

While the beef entree is grilling, Rice Amandine can be prepared in a foil-shaped saucepan. This is a great "go-together" with beef and uses convenient rice to save time.

BURGUNDY BEEF TIPS

3 tablespoons cornstarch
3 tablespoons soy sauce
1-3 cup beef bouillon
1/2 cup burgundy wine
1 can (7-1/2 oz.) semi-condensed cream of mushroom soup
1/2 teaspoon granulated garlic
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2-1/4 to 2-1/2 pounds beef round tip cubes
1 small green pepper, cut into 1/2-inch strips
1 small onion, sliced

Combine cornstarch and soy sauce in large mixing bowl. Add bouillon, wine, soup, garlic, salt and pepper, stirring until smooth. Add beef cubes, green pepper and onion; mix well. Cover with a sheet of aluminum foil; marinate in refrigerator overnight. Tear off two 18-inch lengths of heavy duty aluminum foil. Divide beef mixture evenly between foil sheets. Bring four corners of foil up together in pyramid shape. Fold the openings together loosely to allow for heat circulation and expansion. Seal by folding over ends and pressing to package. Grill over hot coals 20 minutes. Carefully open each bundle; stir gently, reseat bundle. Grill an additional 15 to 20 minutes, or until beef is done. Serve over rice. Makes: 6 servings.

RICE AMANDINE

3 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup slice almonds
2 cups water
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups instant rice
Snipped parsley

Mold 18-inch square of heavy duty aluminum foil over large can or other object that will provide a saucepan shape. Remove foil and crimp down edges to make a rim. Melt butter in foil-shaped pan. Add almonds, water and salt. Grill over medium hot coals 20 minutes; stir in rice. Cover with a sheet of heavy duty aluminum foil. Crimp down edges loosely to form a cover. Remove from coals. Let stand 5 to 8 minutes or until all water is absorbed. Before serving, fluff rice with fork and toss with snipped parsley. Makes: 6 servings.

GINGER PEACH

1 can (29 oz.) peach halves, well drained
1 can (16 oz.) peach halves, well drained
2 tablespoons honey
1/4 teaspoon ginger
1/2 cup lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
Dash nutmeg

Tear off 6 lengths of heavy duty aluminum foil large enough to permit adequate wrapping. Using the large can of peaches, place one peach half in center of each foil sheet. Puree remaining peaches in blender. Add honey, ginger and lemon juice; process until smooth. Pour sauce evenly over peach halves. Sprinkle each peach half with lemon rind and nutmeg. To seal each packet, bring two foil sides up over peach; fold down loosely in a series of locked folds allowing for heat circulation and expansion. Fold short ends up and over again; crimp to seal. Grill over medium hot coals 10 to 12 minutes, or until heated. Makes: 6 servings.

Potpourri

Stuffed Eggplant Makes Main Dish

Eggplant is normally plentiful during the months of August, September and October. An excellent way to prepare eggplant is to stuff with cheese, ham and vegetables and bring it to the table as the main dish.

This cheese-stuffed eggplant is easily made and has that real stick-to-the-rib quality! Serve with milk and whole grain bread. Top off the menu with seasonal fruit and cookies for dessert.

CHEESE-STUFFED EGGPLANT

1 medium size eggplant (about 1 1/2 lb.)
 2 cups water
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 1/4 teaspoon oregano leaves, crushed
 1 tablespoon butter
 1/2 cup chopped onion
 1/2 pound cooked ham cut into small pieces (approx. 1 cup)
 1-3 cup coarsely grated carrot
 1/4 cup finely chopped celery
 2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese
 Cut eggplant in half lengthwise. Scoop out center, leaving 1/2 inch around the edge. In 3-quart saucepan bring water, lemon juice and salt to a boil. Place eggplant shells in boiling water, cover and parboil about 5 minutes. Drain; set aside. Chop up eggplant pulp. In 2-quart saucepan mix together eggplant, tomato sauce, lemon juice and oregano. Heat to boiling. Meanwhile in large skillet melt butter; add onion and cook until tender. Remove from heat. Stir in ham, carrot, celery and cheese. In 1 1/2-quart buttered baking dish, spoon in 2-3 of the tomato mixture, then arrange the eggplant shells on top. Fill eggplant shells with ham and cheese mixture, pour over remaining 1-3 tomato sauce. Bake in preheated 375 degree oven, 25-30 minutes, or until hot. Yield: 4 servings

ORANGE-PINEAPPLE CREAM MOLD

2 (11 ounce) cans mandarin orange segments, drained
 2 envelopes gelatin
 1 cup orange juice
 1 cup boiling water
 1 (14-ounce) can sweetened condensed milk (NOT evaporated milk)
 1 (18-ounce) container sour cream
 1 (8-ounce) can crushed pineapple, drained
 1/2 cup chopped nuts
 Lettuce leaves

Line bottom of 8-cup mold with desired amount of orange segments; set aside. In large bowl, sprinkle gelatin over orange juice; let stand 1 minute. Add water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add sweetened condensed milk and sour cream; mix well. Fold in pineapple, nuts and remaining orange segments. Turn into prepared mold. Chill 4 hours or until set. Unmold onto lettuce. Garnish as desired. Refrigerate leftovers. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 10 to 12 servings.

CHEESE BLINTZES

Crepes (above)
 1 cup dry cottage cheese
 1/2 cup dairy sour cream
 1 to 2 tablespoons sugar
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon peel
 1/4 cup margarine or butter
 Prepare Crepes; keep covered to prevent them from drying out. Mix cottage cheese, sour cream, sugar, vanilla and lemon peel. Place about 1 1/2 tablespoons of the cheese mixture in center of each crepe. Fold sides of crepe over filling until edges meet in center; roll up from open end.
 Heat margarine in 10-inch skillet over medium heat until bubbly. Place blintzes, seam sides down, in skillet. Cook, turning once, until deep golden brown. Top with dairy sour cream if desired. 6 servings.

RAISIN COCOA BALLS

4 ounces semi-sweet chocolate
 2 tablespoons water
 1/4 cup butter or margarine (1/4 stick)
 3 egg yolks
 1/2 cup sifted powdered sugar
 1 cup California raisins
 Instant hot chocolate mix
 In heavy saucepan, over very low heat, melt chocolate with water.
 Remove from heat and stir in butter, then egg yolks, one at a time, blending well. Stir in 1/4 cup powdered sugar, beating until mixture is smooth. Add raisins and mix well.
 Chill 15 minutes. Pour chocolate mix into paper bag. Then drop chocolate candy by teaspoon into bag one at a time. Shake until coated.
 Chill candies until firm. Store in refrigerator. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 2 dozen.

FINGER SANDWICHES

1/4 cup softened butter
 3 oz. crumbled Roquefort cheese
 2 tablespoons chopped chives
 1/2 cup chopped watercress
 12 slices white bread
 Combine butter, Roquefort cheese, chives and watercress; blend thoroughly. Trim crusts from bread. Spread cheese mixture on 6 slices of bread; top with remaining bread slices. Cut each sandwich into thirds. Makes 1 1/2 dozen.

MUSHROOM & ROQUEFORT CANAPE
 Soften 3 oz. Roquefort cheese with 2 tablespoon sherry wine. Spread on toast or crackers. In center, place 1 large, cooked mushroom topped with spread of mayonnaise. Around bottom of mushroom, form a circle of finely chopped parsley.

ROQUEFORT COCKTAIL BALLS

1/4 lb. roquefort cheese
 1 tablespoon chopped celery
 1 tablespoon chopped scallions
 1/2 cup sour cream
 Paprika
 In an electric blender or with a fork, blend Roquefort cheese, celery, scallions and sour cream. Shape into small balls, the size of a walnut, and sprinkle with paprika. Chill. Makes about 2 dozen balls.

PARISIAN DIP

1 pkg. (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
 3 oz. Roquefort cheese
 3 tablespoons heavy cream
 1 teaspoon chopped chives
 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
 To the softened cream cheese, add the Roquefort cheese, cream, chopped chives and the Worcestershire sauce. Mix until well blended. Place in a bowl and sprinkle with additional chives. Serve with potato chips. Makes about 1 1/2 cups.

The combination of piquant flavors of eggplant, spaghetti sauce and Parmesan cheese enhances the pleasant nutty flavor of mullet in this Greek style fish dish.

Late Summer—Greek Style

As summer temperatures cool and the season draws to a close, it's time to gear up for all. Clothes will be heavier and light summer menus will be set aside for warm hearty fall meals.

Fish fits well into all seasons but is especially versatile in the autumn months. Whether baked, broiled, fried, or served in a hot flavorful soup, one can be assured of a nutritious and good tasting meal.

Mullet Musakka'A is a robust seafood version of an old traditional Greek favorite. The combination of piquant flavors of eggplant, spaghetti sauce, and Parmesan cheese enhances the pleasant nutty flavor of mullet. Add this tasty dish to your lining fare soon.

Florida is the leading producer of mullet in the U.S. Additional free recipes using this uniquely delicious fish can be obtained upon request from: Florida Department of Natural Resources, Bureau of Marketing & Extension Services, Douglas Building, Suite 905, 3900 Commonwealth Boulevard, Tallahassee, Florida 32303.

MULLET MUSAKKA'A

1-1/2 pounds mullet fillets or other fish fillets, fresh or frozen
 1/2 teaspoon salt

1/4 teaspoon pepper
 1 medium eggplant
 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 1/4 cup meller margarine
 1 cup extra thick and zesty spaghetti sauce
 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
 Parsley (garnish)

Thaw fish if frozen. Skin fillets. Season fish with 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Peel eggplant. Slice eggplant lengthwise into six pieces approximately 5 x 3 x 1/2 inches. Combine flour and remaining 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Roll eggplant slices in seasoned flour and place in a well-greased baking dish approximately 15 x 9 x 2 inches.

Brush eggplant with melted margarine. Cover baking dish with foil and bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 45 minutes. Uncover and spread each slice of eggplant with one tablespoon sauce. Place fillets on top of eggplant slices. Spread remaining sauce on top of fillets. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 20 to 25 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Garnish with parsley. Makes 6 servings.

IT'S A Fun And Fantasy WORLD

Jellied cutouts decorate Silly Clown Cake and Big Birthday Cake.

Don't look now, but there's a party in your future! It's Susie's birthday.

No, it's Tommy's summer circus outing! Whatever it turns out to be, it's strictly kids' stuff and it's fun. In fact, every planning minute of it can be fun because the creative force begins in the kitchen. New to the party world are innovative fun treats, all made possible with gelatin.

Now you can make a youngster's party super special by personalizing desserts with deliciously edible cut-outs of fruit flavor gelatin. The wiggly and wobbly shimmering fruit flavor gelatin cut-outs are easily made with cookie cutters or cardboard.

Captivating Silly Clown Cake is a riot of sparkling color, oversized necktie of lemon flavor gelatin, and balloons, to boot.

Any red flavor gelatin (kids love cherry) can be used for his hat and face, which takes shape courtesy of thawed frozen whipped topping and black string licorice. Help kids follow diagram directions for drawing cardboard clown patterns and place on a layer of prepared chilled fruit flavor gelatin.

It's a snap to cut around the patterns and, finally, transfer to the top of a chocolate cake "frosted" with thawed frozen whipped topping.

Birthdays are beautiful, whether you're six or sixty! Versatile fruit flavor gelatin number cut-outs mark the age. If you prefer, use letters to spell the celebrant's name. Cookie-cutter star cut-outs are ideally suited to look like candle holders.

Delicate and perfect foil for cut-outs, Pastel Fluffy Frosting is a dream to prepare with fruit flavor gelatin and thawed frozen whipped topping.

What's a party without a zoo of animals? Show a variety of friendly creatures marching on Happy Fruited Ice Cream Squares, all cookie-cutter cut-outs of fruit flavor gelatin. Base is a chilled or frozen mixture of ice cream, thawed frozen whipped topping and fruit flavor gelatin. Each square is "framed" with flaked fruit flavor gelatin.

Now, anticipate that party in your future with a creative eye. Let these foods capture the fun and fantasy of life.

BIG BIRTHDAY CAKE

Jellied Cut-Outs
2 baked 9-inch cake layers, cooled
Pastel Fluffy Frosting
Prepare Jellied Cut-Outs as directed in 9-inch square pan, cutting number with cardboard pattern and cutting stars with star-shaped cookie cutter.

Fill and frost cake layers with Pastel Fluffy Frosting. Arrange gelatin number and stars on top of cake and insert small candles, if desired. Chill. Store any leftover cake in refrigerator.

Jellied Cut-Outs: Dissolve 2 packages (3 oz. each) or 1 package (6 oz.) fruit flavor gelatin, any flavor, in 2 cups boiling water. Add 1 cup cold water. Pour into 9-inch square pan and chill overnight. Loosen top edge of gelatin from pan with small spatula. Dip pan in warm water, just to rim, for 10 seconds. Lift from water and shake gently to loosen. Moisten top of gelatin and place moistened chilled tray on top of pan. Invert pan onto tray. Carefully lift off pan.

Place moistened number pattern on gelatin surface and cut with sharp knife dipped in hot water. Hold knife upright and use one cut for each edge or curve. Cut stars with cookie cutter. Remove gelatin remaining around number and stars and, using a wide moistened spatula, transfer number and stars to tray and chill.

Gelatin remaining around cut-outs may be flaked with a fork or cut into cubes. Use for another dessert with fruit, if desired. Pastel Fluffy Frosting: Dissolve 1 package (3 oz.) fruit flavor gelatin, any flavor, in 1 cup boiling water. Chill until slightly thickened. Blend in 1 container (8 oz.) frozen whipped topping, thawed. Makes about 3-1/2 cups.

HAPPY FRUITED ICE CREAM SQUARES

1 package (3 oz.) fruit flavor gelatin, any flavor
2-3 rd cup boiling water
1 pint vanilla ice cream
1 container (4 oz.) frozen whipped topping, thawed
1 medium banana, diced
Cookie-Cutter Cut-Outs

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add ice cream by spoonfuls, stirring until melted and smooth. Blend in whipped topping; add fruit. Spoon into 9-inch square pan. Chill about 3 hours or freeze until firm. Cut into squares; top with Cookie-Cutter Cut-Outs. Makes 9 servings.

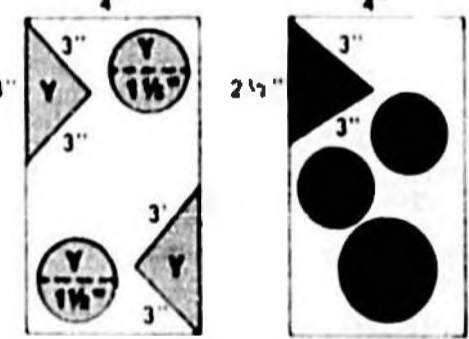

Cookie-Cutter Cut-Outs: Dissolve 1 package (3 oz.) fruit flavor gelatin, any flavor, in 1-1/2 cups boiling water. Pour into 9-inch square pan. Chill until firm, about 4 hours. Cut firm gelatin with 2-1/2-inch cookie cutters, which have been dipped in warm water. Carefully transfer cut-outs to serving plates, using broad spatula dipped in warm water. Flake gelatin remaining around cut-outs with a fork and spoon around each serving.

SILLY CLOWN CAKE

1 package (3 oz.) lemon flavor gelatin
1 package (3 oz.) fruit flavor gelatin, any red flavor
3 cups boiling water
1 baked 13x9-inch chocolate cake, cooled
1 container (8 oz.) frozen whipped topping, thawed
Black string licorice

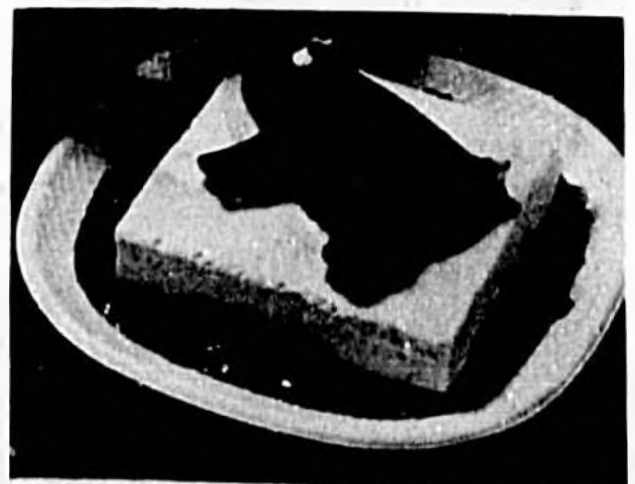

DIRECTIONS (Silly Clown Face)

Lemon Flavor Gelatin Red Flavor Gelatin

Dissolve each package gelatin separately in 1-1/2 cups of the boiling water. Pour into 2 separate 8x4- or 9x5-inch loaf pans. Chill until firm, at least 4 hours. Cut cardboard patterns as shown in Diagram. Dip pans just to rims in warm water for about 10 seconds. Shake to loosen, moisten tops and unmold onto moistened tray. Arrange patterns on gelatin as shown and cut out, using sharp knife dipped in hot water. (Gelatin around cut-outs may be flaked or cubed and used for another dessert.)

Frost top and sides of cake with shipped topping, reserving 1/2 cup for garnish, if desired. Using moistened wide spatula, arrange gelatin cut-outs on cake as shown in Diagram 2. Use reserved whipped topping for eyes and nose. Add licorice strings for mouth, eyebrows and balloon strings. Chill. Store any leftover cake in refrigerator.

Create a zoo menagerie.
