

Kwiatkowski: We Need County Legal Department

By ED PRICKEIT
Herald Staff Writer

County Commissioner Harry Kwiatkowski, at a special news conference today, called for the creation of an in-house legal department and recommended that the legal services of County Atty. Tom Freeman and labor attorneys Alley, Alley & Blue be terminated by Oct. 1.

TOM FREEMAN:
The only thing I'll regret ... is that I won't have a parking place at the courthouse ...

Kwiatkowski said he is opting for an in-house legal staff "to get the politics out" of the county attorney's position. "It's become a political football," Kwiatkowski declared. Initially, Kwiatkowski favored the present fee system, but today's switch virtually insures creation of an in-house legal staff, since that has been the recommendation of the Republican Commissioners John Kimbrough and Richard Williams.

Kwiatkowski said all legal services can be provided for about $150,000 a year. Last year, Freeman's law firm and Alley, Alley & Blue cost Seminole taxpayers about $200,000. Williams called Kwiatkowski's change of mind a "victory for me. I proposed that (a legal department) a year ago."

Williams said he views the switch as a "real victory for the system, a real victory for the citizens."

Kwiatkowski pointed out that he was one of two commissioners assigned the task of studying the county attorney issue. "Unfortunately, due to petty politics on behalf of one member, it was completed by only one member — me," Kwiatkowski said.

Kimrough was the second commissioner assigned to examine the issue. Kimrough's recommendation was similar to Kwiatkowski's in that Kimrough advocated hiring two attorneys with $115,000 as the estimated cost of setting up the new department.

Kimrough and Kwiatkowski were appointed by commission Chairman Mike Hattaway. Last week, Hattaway was defeated in his bid for re-election by political neophyte Robert French.

Kwiatkowski said today that the county's legal requirements have been "warped out of proportion" through incorrect dissemination of information, innuendoes, political half-truths, hearsay and the old, unreliable rumor mill.

Kwiatkowski said his report is based on forms of legal representation provided other counties. He said a majority of chartered government counties use in-house legal staffs.

The Democratic commissioner also pointed out that Seminole County's legal requirements have increased tremendously during the past three years. He attributed increased legal fees to growth, the county's entering the utility business, collective bargaining, loss of sovereign immunity, last year's jail fire and an increase in the number of legal requests forwarded to attorneys by the

Freeman: I'm Not Available For Job

County Atty. Tom Freeman said this morning he will not apply for the attorney's position if county government opts for an in-house legal department as advocated today by Commissioner Harry Kwiatkowski.

Freeman said Kwiatkowski's call for a legal staff gives Republican commissioners the third vote needed to create a legal department.

"So, I'm out," the 39-year-old attorney said.

"About the only thing that I'll regret about not being county attorney is that I won't have a parking place at the courthouse," Freeman added.

Commissioners Dick Williams and John Kimbrough have advocated creation of a legal staff, a move Republican commissioners say will save taxpayers thousands of dollars in legal fees.

Freeman has been under fire from Kimbrough and recently was asked to present a detailed explanation of $15,000 in legal fees paid Freeman's law firm for legal work on last year's jail fire.

Kimrough was out of town today, but Williams said a switch to a legal department will be a "real victory for the citizens." Williams went on to say that a legal staff can be hired for about $70,000.

Freeman collected $115,000 last year in legal fees. He had asked for $115,000 for next year, also. In addition the county last year paid labor attorneys Alley Alley & Blue $85,000 for a grand total of more than $200,000.

"I don't think they (commissioners) will save money with a legal department. I've never seen government handle anything more cheaply than private industry," Freeman said today.

But, the attorney declared, "I intend to remain in private practice, and I will not be available for the new position."

Freeman said he "stands ready to help the board in any way that will be beneficial."

Freeman said it will not be necessary to submit a resignation since his services will cease when the full board formally approves the switch.

Freeman has been subject of criticism since he assumed the attorney's position shortly after Democrats assumed the majority position — a three to two vote — on the board in 1974.

But the recent election upset which saw Commission Chairman Mike Hattaway ousted by political newcomer Bob French tilted the balance of power away from Freeman and Democrats sympathetic to his cause.

The county attorney's position is a campaign issue, with both Democrat and Republican candidates advocating a system other than the current fee system.

Freeman earns $20 an hour for legal services.

Under the legal department, Williams said he envisions hiring one or two attorneys the same as a department head would be hired. That means the position would be advertised for, interviews will be held and a final selection made by the full commission. — Prickett

WATER, WATER EVERYWHERE
LeRoy King prepares to put a homemade bridge across the rain water at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Cora Johnson, 1100 Pine Ave., Sanford. King said the lawn of the home has been inundated by water for the past two weeks. A total of .90 inch of rain fell in the area over the weekend and it was still coming down early this afternoon.

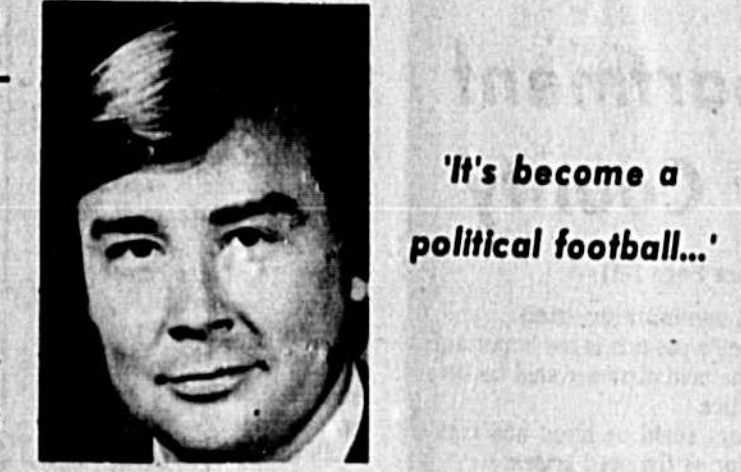

Was Kill-Kennedy Plot 'Idle, Drunken Talk?'

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Investigators today tried to determine whether an alleged plot to kill Sen. Edward M. Kennedy was serious or merely "idle, drunken talk."

Three persons charged with conspiring to kill the Massachusetts Democrat faced arraignment in court today.

David J. King, 31, of Springfield, told The Associated Press he was offered $20,000 to help kill Kennedy while he campaigned here during the weekend for re-nomination in the Massachusetts Democratic primary on Tuesday.

King and Sandra R. Roudau, 27, of Westfield, were released on personal recognizance after being booked Saturday by a district court clerk. The clerk originally had

HARRY KWIAKOWSKI

'It's become a political football...'

Today

Around the Clock	4-A	Horoscope	4-B
Bridge	4-B	Hospital	2-A
Calendar	2-A	Obituaries	2-A
Comics	4-B	Sports	4-A
Crossword	4-B	Television	2-B
Editorial	4-A	Weather	2-A
Dear Abby	1-B	Women	1-B

Humor, Hunger, A Hug

NEW YORK (AP) — Passengers freed after 30 hours aboard a jetliner hijacked by Croatian nationalists told a tale of fear for their lives but polite treatment by their abductors.

The captives said the ordeal, which began Friday after their plane left New York and ended Sunday in Paris, was sprinkled with humor and hunger and included some dissension among themselves as a Catholic bishop used the plane's intercom to offer prayer.

One of the hostages — Los Angeles television consultant Rudy Bretz — said after being released in Paris that he intended to volunteer as a defense witness if the hijackers were tried in the United States.

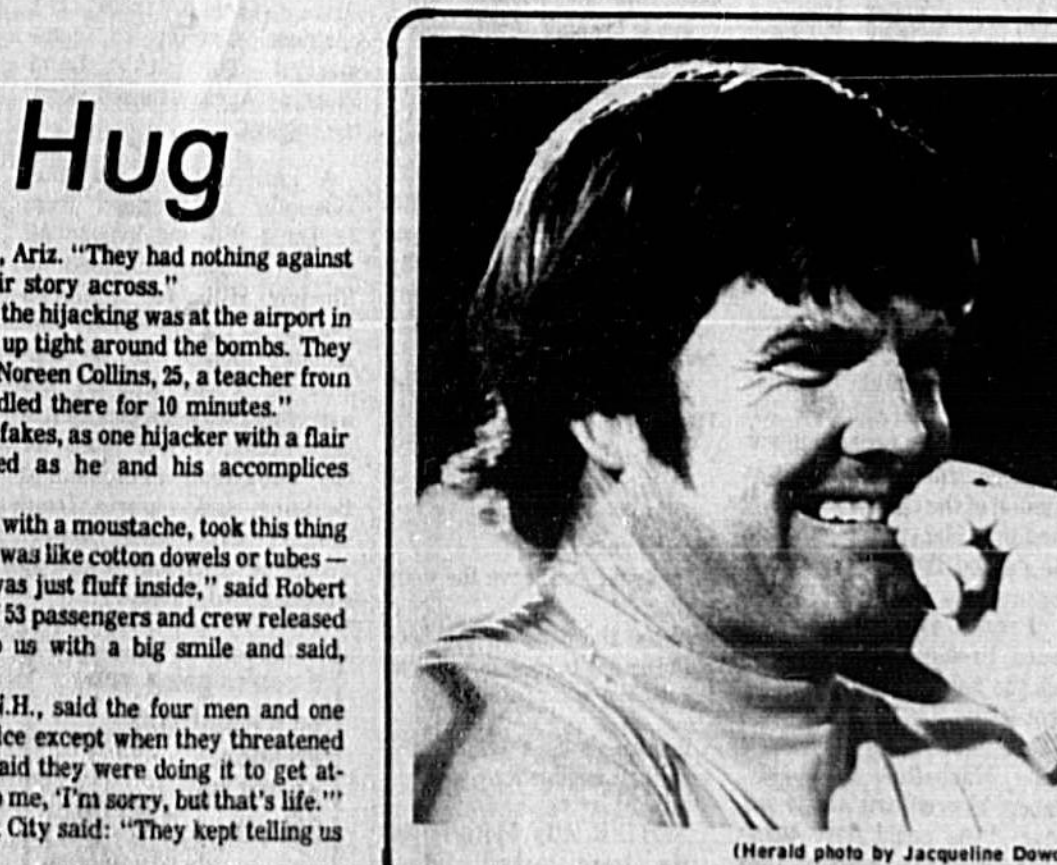

The hijackers faced arraignment here today on federal air piracy charges. They also may be indicted for murder in the death of a policeman killed while trying to dismantle a bomb they planted at Grand Central station.

"I wish them well," said Warren Benson, a director of the Arthritis Foundation in Tucson, Ariz. "They had nothing against us, but we wanted only to get their story across."

"The most frightening part of the hijacking was at the airport in Paris when they had us huddle up tight around the bombs. They threatened to blow us up," said Noreen Collins, 25, a teacher from Ballerose, N.Y. "We were huddled there for 10 minutes."

The "bombs" turned out to be fakes, as one hijacker with a fair for the dramatic demonstrated as he and his accomplices surrendered.

"One of the hijackers, the one with a moustache, took this thing we thought was a bomb — and it was like cotton dowels or tubes — and he ripped it up. And there was just fluff inside," said Robert Metzger, 35, of New York, one of 53 passengers and crew released in Paris. "Then he turned to us with a big smile and said, 'That's show biz.'"

THE SKYJACKING:
Then he turned to us with a big smile and said, That's show biz ...

See SKYJACK, Page 2-A

Clipping?

Ah, but the quiet life of a high school football coach.

Seminole's Jerry Posey might be quiet, but it's only on the outside at New Smyrna Beach as he dies on the inside when his team makes a major blunder in a 6-0 victory over Spruce Creek of Port Orange.

It all turned out okay, somehow, as the Seminole defense rallied to regain control of the Friday night game.

Seminole has another chance to give Posey inner peace this Friday night when it opens the home season against Daytona Beach Mainland, one of the expected powers in District 6.

PONYTAIL:
WE'LL DON'T HEAR FROM YOU AGAIN!
DON'T FEEL LIKE ANSWERING THAT ONE!
HOW DOES IT FEEL TO BE ASKED A QUESTION IN SCHOOL?
OH, IT COULD BE WORSE!
IF WE WEREN'T IN SCHOOL, WE'D HAVE TO GET A JOB!
I KNOW!
THEN WE'D GO TO WORK!
YOUR EMPLOYER WOULD BE YOUR BOSS!
YOUR BOSS WOULD BE YOUR MASTER!
YOUR MASTER WOULD BE YOUR GOD!

TOBY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

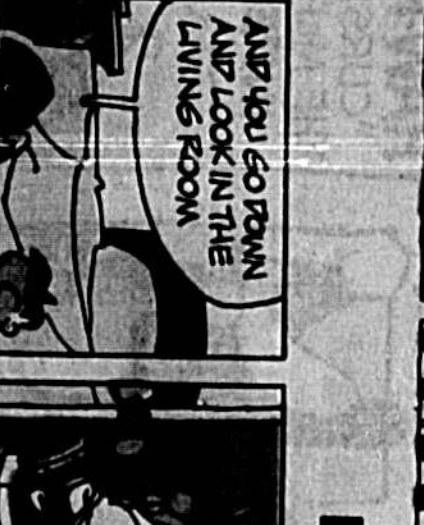

BUGS BONNY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

STOFFEL & HEIMDAHL:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

TOBY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

TOBY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

TOBY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

TOBY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

TOBY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

TOBY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

TOBY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

TOBY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

TOBY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

TOBY:
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!
I'VE GOT TO GO TO WORK!

CARNIVAL

DEAR HELOISE:

Here is an idea for paper towels. I take no credit as my children came up with this. I spread the idea for them. I had a pile of paper towels and I let smaller children fold them into squares. I let them use the paper towels with their hands and feet. I let them use the paper towels, and are delighted to see them under candy dishes, table lamps, even on the floor. This is a good practice on an open to catch the dirt.

ALL BOWLED UP
DEAR HELOISE: help all my friends. I want to use a pin to make a hole in a piece of fabric. I used to use a needle and thread. I want to use a pin to make a hole in a piece of fabric. I used to use a needle and thread. I want to use a pin to make a hole in a piece of fabric. I used to use a needle and thread.

USE YOUR VOICES
DEAR HELOISE: I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting.

HELP FOR HOMEMAKERS
CONDENSED VERSION
DEAR HELOISE: you and all your readers my solution for the toilet tank drip that's caused by accumulation of heavy-duty ammonia. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top.

FOUL OF HEANS
DEAR HELOISE: I want some fine-looking quick-cooked canned green beans. I want some fine-looking quick-cooked canned green beans. I want some fine-looking quick-cooked canned green beans. I want some fine-looking quick-cooked canned green beans.

MY BANNED WORK
DEAR HELOISE: I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car.

DEAR HELOISE:

Mr. Robert Horvath and Mrs. Cora Johnson, 1100 Pine Ave., Sanford. King said the lawn of the home has been inundated by water for the past two weeks. A total of .90 inch of rain fell in the area over the weekend and it was still coming down early this afternoon.

WIFE IN FLIES
DEAR HELOISE: my husband and I have been married for 20 years. I have been married for 20 years. I have been married for 20 years. I have been married for 20 years.

HELP FOR HOMEMAKERS
CONDENSED VERSION
DEAR HELOISE: you and all your readers my solution for the toilet tank drip that's caused by accumulation of heavy-duty ammonia. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top.

USE YOUR VOICES
DEAR HELOISE: I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting.

HELP FOR HOMEMAKERS
CONDENSED VERSION
DEAR HELOISE: you and all your readers my solution for the toilet tank drip that's caused by accumulation of heavy-duty ammonia. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top.

MY BANNED WORK
DEAR HELOISE: I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car.

DEAR HELOISE:

Mr. Robert Horvath and Mrs. Cora Johnson, 1100 Pine Ave., Sanford. King said the lawn of the home has been inundated by water for the past two weeks. A total of .90 inch of rain fell in the area over the weekend and it was still coming down early this afternoon.

WIFE IN FLIES
DEAR HELOISE: my husband and I have been married for 20 years. I have been married for 20 years. I have been married for 20 years. I have been married for 20 years.

HELP FOR HOMEMAKERS
CONDENSED VERSION
DEAR HELOISE: you and all your readers my solution for the toilet tank drip that's caused by accumulation of heavy-duty ammonia. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top.

USE YOUR VOICES
DEAR HELOISE: I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting.

HELP FOR HOMEMAKERS
CONDENSED VERSION
DEAR HELOISE: you and all your readers my solution for the toilet tank drip that's caused by accumulation of heavy-duty ammonia. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top.

MY BANNED WORK
DEAR HELOISE: I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car.

DEAR HELOISE:

Mr. Robert Horvath and Mrs. Cora Johnson, 1100 Pine Ave., Sanford. King said the lawn of the home has been inundated by water for the past two weeks. A total of .90 inch of rain fell in the area over the weekend and it was still coming down early this afternoon.

WIFE IN FLIES
DEAR HELOISE: my husband and I have been married for 20 years. I have been married for 20 years. I have been married for 20 years. I have been married for 20 years.

HELP FOR HOMEMAKERS
CONDENSED VERSION
DEAR HELOISE: you and all your readers my solution for the toilet tank drip that's caused by accumulation of heavy-duty ammonia. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top.

USE YOUR VOICES
DEAR HELOISE: I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting. I have found a secret to the art of cutting.

HELP FOR HOMEMAKERS
CONDENSED VERSION
DEAR HELOISE: you and all your readers my solution for the toilet tank drip that's caused by accumulation of heavy-duty ammonia. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top. I found a half inch or so over the top.

MY BANNED WORK
DEAR HELOISE: I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car. I keep a wire coat hanger in my car.

NATION IN BRIEF

UAW Leader Pessimistic Of Settling Dispute

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock returns to the bargaining table with Ford Motor Co. today, but says he has little hope of avoiding a nationwide strike at midnight Tuesday. "We are a long, long way apart, and it does not look good," he told a UAW local Sunday. Woodcock indicated that a weekend of no-progress contract talks led him to sound his most pessimistic note yet about the bargaining. Company negotiators had no comment. With the strike deadline approaching rapidly, bargainers are trying to reach agreement on a new contract setting a pattern for the entire auto industry. If there is no settlement by then, the UAW says it will call 170,000 Ford workers in 22 states off the job.

Thurmond Backs Ford

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — President Ford will carry most of the South because Jimmy Carter "doesn't stand for what Southerners stand for," Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., said Saturday. Thurmond told a news conference that Carter, the Democratic presidential nominee, is controlled by big labor bosses, wants to cut defense spending and wants to enlarge the power of the federal government.

Viking 2 Arm 'Stuck'

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The mechanical arm of the Viking 2 lander is stuck between the openings of two small laboratories, preventing, at least temporarily, the beginning of experiments to determine whether organic matter is present at the Martian landing site. Viking project manager Jim Martin said today that the scoop on the end of the arm had successfully picked up a sample of soil and delivered part of it.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Hard Line Vietnam Policy Allows For Soviet Strength

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — The U.S. government's hard line toward Vietnam is a major foreign policy blunder that is allowing Soviet influence to strengthen its roots in Hanoi and is forfeiting a chance to maintain a balance of power in Southeast Asia, a number of senior diplomats, Thai officials and other experts on Indochina say. Washington's repeated insistence that Vietnam account for American missing in the Vietnam war before normalization of relations can take place is regarded, in the words of one senior Western diplomat, as "window dressing" to soothe American public opinion the presidential election year. "It's obvious that an American presence in Indochina will be an important equation in the balance of power in the region among the Soviet Union, China and the West. And it will be welcomed by the Vietnamese, although on a controlled basis," the Western diplomat said. "But the West is losing time."

Trinidad Elections Today

PORT-OF-SPAIN, Trinidad (AP) — Veteran Prime Minister Eric Williams and his People's National Movement (PNM) faced eight opposition parties in a general election today on the islands of Trinidad and Tobago. Political observers said Williams' forces had the edge because of the multiplicity of opposition parties ranging from moderate right in political complexion to far left. The voting is being held amid an economic boom, with oil production at 225,000 barrels of crude per day. But the anti-Williams parties claim the oil money hasn't filtered down to the people, that roads, hospitals, transportation, electricity, water and housing are bad, and that the PNM has done nothing to improve them.

Planes Collide

MIAMI (AP) — An Air Force Phantom jet and a civilian light aircraft collided in mid-air over Lake Okechobee today and crashed in a remote area, the Air Force said. There was no immediate word on the fate of the F4E's two-man crew or the light plane's occupants. Rescue units were en route to the scene.

Evening Herald
Monday, September 13, 1976—Vol. 89, No. 20
Published daily except Saturdays and Christmas Day
by The Sanford Herald, Inc., 200 N. Pineshale Ave., Sanford, Fla. 32771
Second Class Postage Paid at Sanford, Florida 32711
News Delivery: 55 cents. Month: $1.60. 6 Months: $14.00. Year: $28.00. By Mail: 10 Florida states all home delivery. All other mail: Month: $2.75. 6 Months: $16.50. 12 Months: $32.00.

CONSTITUTION WEEK

Sanford Mayor Lee Moore signed a proclamation this morning designating the week of Sept. 17-23 as National Constitution Week in commemoration of the signing of the Constitution of the U.S. on Sept. 17, 1787. Looking on is Mrs. Mary E. Tolar Nance, representing the Sallie Harrison Chapter, National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. (See Around The Clock, Page 4-A).

Kissinger Has Hopes Of Dousing War Flame

WASHINGTON (AP) — Haunted by dangers of Soviet intervention, Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger is trying to soothe African with three proposals for dousing the rising flames of a black-white war. The short-term goals he has defined for himself both publicly and privately are: — To set up a negotiating forum in which Rhodesia's white rulers would arrange peacefully to transfer power to the black majority within two years. — The United States, working with a consortium of allied, commonwealth and other friendly nations, will be ready to underwrite this process with multibillion-dollar offers to guarantee Rhodesia's 270,000 whites against loss of assets and to help the six million black Rhodesians with a huge program of investment after independence. — To organize a constitution-writing party for the Namibian people, formerly known as south-West Africans, in which exiles as well as authorized political groups would take part. South Africa, which still rules that exclave

German colony, already has accepted that the mineral-rich land can become a state by the end of 1978. But South African Prime Minister John Vorster's government would like to hand over power to a group of its own pet tribal chiefs, the United Nations, including the United States, say the bipartisan South West African People's Organization, SWAPO. SWAPO will be allowed to participate as authentic representatives of the Namibians. — To urge the Vorster government to recognize that its policy of apartheid, or separate racial development, is "incompatible with any concept of human dignity." Kissinger, struck by the turmoil that has swept Africa since June with a known death toll exceeding 500, has said, "No system that leads to periodic upsurges can possibly be just — nor can it last."

He will be pressing Vorster as he has done before "to take account of the conscience of humanity even while recognizing that the process is evolutionary and peaceful change will take time."

Casselberry Protesters Due

CASSELBERRY — tonight at 7:30 as City Council gives final consideration to a 4.84 mill city property tax and the utility fund and general fund budgets for the coming fiscal year. Since several hundred residents attended the first hearing to voice their opposition to the city's first property tax in its 36-year history, the Council has been reconsidering its budget proposal and according to an informed source is expected to come up with a tax rate lower than the advertised 4.84 mill.

Legal Department Urged For County

(Continued From Page 1-A) commissioners and the county's administrative staff. Kwiatkowski said the attorney's position is too important to remain a "political football." The commissioner said he favors removing the position from politics. Kwiatkowski said new attorneys could be hired and outside legal help could be contracted for as the need arises. Kwiatkowski said the two in-house attorneys would be hired in much the same manner as department chiefs are chosen. Applications will be submitted for review by the personal department, with the final decision left to the county commission. Kwiatkowski said he felt an initial saving would result for taxpayers. Overall, however, he said an in-house legal staff would not continue to represent savings to taxpayers over the long run.

A Modern Tragedy

The Conclusion Joanne Basbold seemed forever destined to be just another face in the crowd, briefly glimpsed and quickly forgotten — a sunny moment of horror on a sunny morning last week. Joanne's newborn baby was torn apart and partially devoured by her starving pet German shepherd. When Joanne returned to her top-floor walk-up apartment this is what she found: "What a tragedy," she said. "I was in the bathroom and I heard a noise. I went in and I saw the baby on the floor. The dog was on top of it." At 7 a.m. Labor Day, Joanne told police, she set out for Bellevue to pick up her possessions. She said she left the baby behind because it was a cool morning and she was mindful of the child's jaundiced condition. She put the infant on the rug on the floor, with the dog nearby. "From everything I've heard, I really believe that she left the baby with the dog for protection," said Bellevue's Walsh. But Manhattan Dist. Atty. Robert Morgenthau was to say later: "she could have taken the baby to the hospital with her. Other parents take their children with them when they don't have someone to watch the child."

Joanne said the Bellevue property office had not opened when she got there and that she

Sunshine Bill To Become Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Lawton Chiles (D-Fla.) says he hopes a bright sun shines today as President Ford signs a national government-in-the-sunshine bill modeled after Florida's pioneer law. Ford scheduled a ceremony in the White House Rose Garden to sign the bill. "I'm delighted that the federal sunshine bill is finally becoming law," Chiles said. "When I first introduced it in 1974, I actually thought it might take even longer, considering that it took almost seven years to get the Florida Sunshine Law passed."

Chiles said that the federal sunshine bill requires about 4 federal agencies, primarily regulatory agencies, to conduct most of their decision-making processes in public. "These regulatory agencies are no longer going to be able to meet behind closed doors to make decisions that affect the lives of the public," Chiles said. The bill requires federal agencies to keep verbatim records of all meetings, including those that can legally be closed, and allows citizens to see minutes of closed meetings as well as conditions for their release. The bill allows decision-making in secret if it affects national security, criminal prosecutions or investigations or could cause financial speculation harmful to the economy.

A citizen denied access to meetings for purposes which were not exempted from the act would have the right to sue in court to open them. Chiles said the bill would not apply to the Cabinet office, as they are under the president's control. Chiles said he was able to pass the federal bill in four years with the help of a number of senators, congressmen and a citizens group, Common Cause. "When Watergate came along it helped focus the dangers of secrecy and closed decision-making," he said. "Because it is critical that we restore public confidence in government and government officials, the Sunshine Law plays a very important role in our future."

The Florida Sunshine Law, enacted in 1974, was one of the first such measures in the nation. It has been copied by a number of other states, and Florida officials have been called to other states to explain how it works. The Florida law requires all public bodies to meet in the open and give public notice beforehand. Members of all public agencies are forbidden to exclude the public when they discuss official business, whether a quorum is present or not.

German colony, already has accepted that the mineral-rich land can become a state by the end of 1978. But South African Prime Minister John Vorster's government would like to hand over power to a group of its own pet tribal chiefs, the United Nations, including the United States, say the bipartisan South West African People's Organization, SWAPO. SWAPO will be allowed to participate as authentic representatives of the Namibians. — To urge the Vorster government to recognize that its policy of apartheid, or separate racial development, is "incompatible with any concept of human dignity." Kissinger, struck by the turmoil that has swept Africa since June with a known death toll exceeding 500, has said, "No system that leads to periodic upsurges can possibly be just — nor can it last."

He will be pressing Vorster as he has done before "to take account of the conscience of humanity even while recognizing that the process is evolutionary and peaceful change will take time."

Chiles said that the federal sunshine bill requires about 4 federal agencies, primarily regulatory agencies, to conduct most of their decision-making processes in public. "These regulatory agencies are no longer going to be able to meet behind closed doors to make decisions that affect the lives of the public," Chiles said. The bill requires federal agencies to keep verbatim records of all meetings, including those that can legally be closed, and allows citizens to see minutes of closed meetings as well as conditions for their release. The bill allows decision-making in secret if it affects national security, criminal prosecutions or investigations or could cause financial speculation harmful to the economy.

A citizen denied access to meetings for purposes which were not exempted from the act would have the right to sue in court to open them. Chiles said the bill would not apply to the Cabinet office, as they are under the president's control. Chiles said he was able to pass the federal bill in four years with the help of a number of senators, congressmen and a citizens group, Common Cause. "When Watergate came along it helped focus the dangers of secrecy and closed decision-making," he said. "Because it is critical that we restore public confidence in government and government officials, the Sunshine Law plays a very important role in our future."

The Florida Sunshine Law, enacted in 1974, was one of the first such measures in the nation. It has been copied by a number of other states, and Florida officials have been called to other states to explain how it works. The Florida law requires all public bodies to meet in the open and give public notice beforehand. Members of all public agencies are forbidden to exclude the public when they discuss official business, whether a quorum is present or not.

German colony, already has accepted that the mineral-rich land can become a state by the end of 1978. But South African Prime Minister John Vorster's government would like to hand over power to a group of its own pet tribal chiefs, the United Nations, including the United States, say the bipartisan South West African People's Organization, SWAPO. SWAPO will be allowed to participate as authentic representatives of the Namibians. — To urge the Vorster government to recognize that its policy of apartheid, or separate racial development, is "incompatible with any concept of human dignity." Kissinger, struck by the turmoil that has swept Africa since June with a known death toll exceeding 500, has said, "No system that leads to periodic upsurges can possibly be just — nor can it last."

He will be pressing Vorster as he has done before "to take account of the conscience of humanity even while recognizing that the process is evolutionary and peaceful change will take time."

Chiles said that the federal sunshine bill requires about 4 federal agencies, primarily regulatory agencies, to conduct most of their decision-making processes in public. "These regulatory agencies are no longer going to be able to meet behind closed doors to make decisions that affect the lives of the public," Chiles said. The bill requires federal agencies to keep verbatim records of all meetings, including those that can legally be closed, and allows citizens to see minutes of closed meetings as well as conditions for their release. The bill allows decision-making in secret if it affects national security, criminal prosecutions or investigations or could cause financial speculation harmful to the economy.

A citizen denied access to meetings for purposes which were not exempted from the act would have the right to sue in court to open them. Chiles said the bill would not apply to the Cabinet office, as they are under the president's control. Chiles said he was able to pass the federal bill in four years with the help of a number of senators, congressmen and a citizens group, Common Cause. "When Watergate came along it helped focus the dangers of secrecy and closed decision-making," he said. "Because it is critical that we restore public confidence in government and government officials, the Sunshine Law plays a very important role in our future."

The Florida Sunshine Law, enacted in 1974, was one of the first such measures in the nation. It has been copied by a number of other states, and Florida officials have been called to other states to explain how it works. The Florida law requires all public bodies to meet in the open and give public notice beforehand. Members of all public agencies are forbidden to exclude the public when they discuss official business, whether a quorum is present or not.

CALENDAR

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 13
Sanford AA, 8 p.m., 1201 W. First St. (closed).
TOPS, Chapter 79, 7 p.m., over Baptist Church, Crystal Lake and Country Club Roads, Lake Mary.
Alhambra-South Seminole Jaycees Lake meeting, 7:30 p.m., clubhouse Spring Oaks and club.
Seminole High School Bank Parents Assn., 7:30 p.m., bank room.

"How to Care for Your Horse," six week course, 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.; fee $13. Register with Seminole Community College registrar prior to date.
"Noodspant for Men and Women," 7-9 p.m.; $15 fee. Shoppers meet with Seminole Community College registrar.
"Magic, Sleight of Hand," 10 week course, 7:30 p.m., instructed by Dan Stapleton; $15 fee, Seminole Community College registrar's office.

Class gather, 10-week course for those with little or no experience on guitar, 7:30 p.m., Seminole Community College, $15 fee. Register prior to class with SCC registrar.
Seminole Community College Chorus rehearsals begin, 7:30 p.m., Room 23, main campus. Registration $5 with SCC registrar.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14
Sanford LaLache League, 8 p.m., home of Mrs. Michael Bragan. Group leader Val Orr. Topic: nutrition and weight.
Winter Springs Jaycees, 7 p.m., VFW building, 11-02. Overstayers Anonymous, 7:30 p.m., Florida Power & Light, Sanford.
Parents Anonymous, 7:30 p.m., Casselberry Community United Methodist Church, 17-02.
"Beginning Pottery," 7:30 p.m., Seminole Community College, $15 fee. Register with registrar prior to class.

Vegetable Garden Seminar (past course), 7:30-8:30 p.m., Alhambra Springs Civic Center. Co-sponsored by Seminole County Agricultural Extension Service.
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15
Alhambra Women's Club covered dish membership luncheon 11 a.m., Alhambra Civic Center. Corjial tasting.

WEATHER

Sunday's high 85, today's low 72. Rainfall: .50 inch.
Partly cloudy. Scattered showers and evening thunderstorms over the interior and west coast sections and mainly night and early morning showers over the coast. Low 65, high 80 and upper the north to low the south.

TUESDAY'S TIDES

Daytona Beach: High 12:30 a.m.; low 5:02 a.m. and 6:11 p.m.
Port Canaveral: High 10:02 a.m.; low 4:11 a.m. and 4:47 p.m.
Baysport: High 6:21 a.m. and 6:44 p.m.; low 11:51 a.m. and 11:18 p.m.

HOSPITAL NOTES

SEPTEMBER 11 ADMISSIONS
Sanford: Attaway Fields, Mary Gallagher, Sallie Perry, Kathryn Senghas, Robert Smedley, Deltona Merna Swarthout, Deltona George Healy, Lake Monroe Marvin Riggs, Osteen.
DISCHARGES
Sanford: Mary Anderson, Markie Gunn, Ruth Mangum, James Miller, Rosina Volpi, Katie Willis, Deborah Fisher, Chulota Olga Betke, Deltona Augusta Leymann, Deltona Mary Vetter, Deltona Mrs. Keith (Dissie) Packman & girl, Deltona.

SEPTEMBER 12 ADMISSIONS
Sanford: George Arnold, Arthur Davis, Nancy Mosley, Ralph Niele, Dorothy Reardon, Walter Scott, Henry Shinnets, Edna Stumpf.

School Menu

TUESDAY, SEPT. 14, 1976
Diced Beef w-Noodles
Green Beans
Corn
Baked Dessert
Raised and Milk

WILL A HEARING AID HELP? Ask the man who wears one!

Ask George C. Hearn
CALL 834-8776
See The New All In The Ear Aid
FLORIDA HEARING AID CENTER, INC.
325 So. Hwy. 17-32, Casselberry, Fla.
Just North of Highway 418

MRS. ROSE LINDSLEY
Mrs. Rose Lillian Lindsley, 83, of Deltona, died Friday at DeBary. She was a native of Ohio. She is survived by a son, Milton F. Lindsley of Deltona, Sunshine State Mortuary, Sanford, is in charge of arrangements.

A citizen is to ask that sidewalks be installed from Highland Hills subdivision off E. Williamson Road to Shadow Hills for children walking to the Woodside Elementary School; to be considered is the mutual aid agreement with the county fire department, revised plans for the Longwood Professional Building and reports from district councilmen, Mayor James B. Lermann and City Attorney Ned Julian Jr.

Knowing everything will go right, comforting thought for families in need.

Robert I. Brisson L.F.D.
BRISSON FUNERAL HOME
905 Laurel Avenue Sanford, Florida 322-2131

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

They Got Away 'Clean,' For At Least 3 Hours

DEFUNIAK SPRINGS — Four prisoners who escaped from county jail here early Sunday and were free for only three hours, were probably the cleanest escapees on record. The four, who tunneled their way out, apparently went back inside to shower and change before embarking on their bid for freedom, according to Walton County Sheriff Sam Campbell. "They went to a whole lot of trouble for the little time they were out. We caught 'em all about three hours later," Campbell said.

Marchant Claims Backers

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Travis Marchant, facing a runoff with Senate Demopsey Barron, says a lot of votes given the third-place finisher were from anti-Barron people who will turn to Marchant. "Since Tuesday night the phone has been ringing off the hook with people who worked for Sam Mitchell telling us they were now going to support me," Marchant said.

11 Die On Highways

By The Associated Press
The deaths of six persons in two separate accidents at Panama City has boosted Florida's weekend highway fatalities count to at least 11 victims, the highway patrol says.

Maddox Wants On Ballot

ORLANDO (AP) — Former Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox, presidential candidate of the American Independent Party, will follow the lead of Eugene McCarthy and sue to get on Florida's ballot, a spokesman says.

Tax Rate Airing In Sanford

Sanford residents have a chance at 7 tonight to comment on the city's proposed tax rate of $4.30 for each $100 of assessed property valuation. This year's proposal is slightly lower than last year's $4.33 tax rate — because Sanford taxpayers have finally paid off a 49-year-old "boom time" debt dating back to the late '20s and early '30s. Also on the agenda for tonight's meeting is a report from City Attorney Vernon Mize on the city of Sanford's suit against the city of Lake Mary over property both cities claim. Sanford city commissioners will also consider several requested rezoning and a proposed reclassification of salary rates in the water, sewer and maintenance departments.

Florida Newlyweds Killed By Gas Leak

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A freak accident has left a young soldier and his bride five weeks dead in their apartment. Carbon monoxide gas is suspected as the killer. Police identified the couple as Jeffrey Macki, 21, and his 18-year-old wife, Diana, formerly residents of Orlando, Fla. According to the apartment complex manager, the young couple moved into the three-room second story apartment Friday with two pet cats also found dead. The bodies were discovered Saturday. Manager Jim Stutzer said Macki told him they had been married five weeks and moved to San Antonio from Orlando. Macki, a private in the Army, was to have reported for duty over the weekend. When he did not, Army personnel began telephoning the apartment manager.

Mrs. Macki was found clad only in a pair of white jeans, lying face down on the bed. Macki, clad in green khaki pants, was sprawled face up on the kitchen floor with part of his back against the wall.

Police Investigator Bob Urban said the couple apparently died when gas from an open-ended pipe located directly beneath their bathroom window was drawn into the apartment. District Fire Chief Greg Trevino said the exhaust pipe came from a 10-gallon water heater in a storage room directly beneath the couple's apartment. Trevino said the exhaust fumes were probably carbon monoxide, deadly odorless gas, which were pulled into the apartment by a draft.

Small Tractor, Small Price 12-30 hp diesel
Hood Tractor Co.
2128 N. Orange Blossom Trail
Box 1286
417 Magnolia Ave.
Altamonte Springs, Fla. 32711
Orlando 225-2200
Sanford 322-2131

NO OBLIGATION COUPON
To: Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc.
Box 66001, 311 West Main St.
Houston, Texas 77006

DISCOVER BICENTENNIAL AMERICA 1776-1976

Schools, Auto Train Targets For Burglars

By BOB LLOYD Herald Staff Writer

Sanford police today were probing weekend burglaries in which $7,500 in two-way radios and $1,225 in hand instruments were stolen. Investigators said a security guard discovered a break-in early Sunday at Auto Train, Perimeter Ave. in which yeggs pried open a door at the shop foreman's office. Police said the office was ransacked and six VHS portable two-way radios and a desk calculator were stolen. Police said security guard Steven A. Perkins later recovered one of the radios in the adjacent railroad yard. Early today burglars smashed a window to enter the Seminole High School bandroom, police said, and made off with public address system equipment and "selected" instruments. Detective Sgt. Bill Bernosky said apparently the burglars "knew exactly what they wanted."

Police were also investigating a reported break-in and theft of equipment at Sanford Grammar School, according to Detective Capt. C.B. Fagan Jr.

Sheriff's deputies, alerted by a citizen, arrested three persons early today in connection with coin machine burglaries at the laundry room at St. Johns Village Apartments, 948 Oxford Road, Fern Park.

Sgt. Perry Thomas and deputy G.A. Bava reported they found three men in the laundry room with $48 in coins and the wreckage of several coin boxes. A 17-year-old boy was turned over to state juvenile authorities. Daniel Morris Swift, 19, 1214 E. Morris Drive, Altamonte Springs, held in lieu of $5,000 bond on a circuit court warrant charging burglary and grand larceny. Sheriff's investigators today were probing the reported robbery of two men at Green Acres Campground, Forest City, Douglas P. May, 18, and Dave Field, 18, residents of the campground, told deputies they were robbed at shotgun point of $24 by four men, two of which had earlier been hitchhiking were picked up by the victim.

Little Tommy Clifford, 5, of Plantation, was on his way to Fort Lauderdale today to join his parents after becoming separated from the family Saturday night at a service station at SR-436 and I-4, Altamonte Springs. Sheriff's Lt. R.C. Parker took Little Tommy home where he spent several hours with Parker's family until a Casselberry friend of the Clifford's came for the child. Kenneth Clifford and family missed Tommy when they stopped on the Sandhaze Parkway for refreshments and discovered they were short a child, deputies said.

Edgerton, Winter Springs. Both were charged with burglary. In other weekend arrests, Charles Russell Hoover, 20, Osceola Ave., Longwood, was held without bond at county jail on a violation of probation charge. Steven Michael Kierstead, 22, of Winter Park, was jailed in lieu of $5,000 bond on a felony marijuana possession charge after sheriff's deputies said they found marijuana in an auto involved in a traffic accident at U.S. 17-92 and SR-427. Daniel Morris Swift, 19, 1214 E. Morris Drive, Altamonte Springs, held in lieu of $5,000 bond on a circuit court

Newfoundland and Iceland on its flight to Paris. Thirty-five passengers were allowed to deplane in Gander. Passengers commented on switches between the polite and threatening behavior of their captors, particularly shortly before the hijackers surrendered. "At the end, they were up and down, very harsh," said Walter Perry of Plainville, Ill. "They threatened us repeatedly, saying they were going to blow us all up."

One of the hijackers, Julianne Basic, 27, won a parking bug from the plane's captain, Richard Carver, in tribute to her efforts to prevent panic among the passengers. "The woman terrorist told us her name was Julie," said Miss Collins. "She said one of the men was her husband (Zvonko Basic, 30, a Yugoslav-born waiter from New York). She spent most of the time in the cockpit, but she came out from time to time and talked to the passengers. She was more like a stewardess than a terrorist."

In Paris, two passengers were reported in a state of collapse, including one man with diabetes who suffered from a shortage of food and water. "The food ran out soon after we left Montreal," recalled Miss Collins. "We were given sandwiches and soda at Gander. Later, the water supply ran out. But things could have been much worse."

The plane had touched down briefly at Montreal, Gander, and cannot be helped. But, if you are not already bald, you can now stop your hair loss. Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss. Hair loss caused by sebum can also run in your family, and many other conditions can cause hair loss. If you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late. Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. They don't even ask you to take their word for it. They invite you to try the treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. Naturally, they would not offer this opportunity unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone. The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, you can now stop your hair loss... and grow more hair. For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment for both men and women, that is not only stopping hair loss... but is really growing hair. They don't even ask you to take their word for it. They invite you to try the treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. Naturally, they would not offer this opportunity unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone. The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped. But, if you are not already bald, you can now stop your hair loss. Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss. Hair loss caused by sebum can also run in your family, and many other conditions can cause hair loss. If you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late. Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. They don't even ask you to take their word for it. They invite you to try the treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. Naturally, they would not offer this opportunity unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone. The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness

and cannot be helped. But, if you are not already bald, you can now stop your hair loss. Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss. Hair loss caused by sebum can also run in your family, and many other conditions can cause hair loss. If you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late. Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. They don't even ask you to take their word for it. They invite you to try the treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. Naturally, they would not offer this opportunity unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone. The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness

and cannot be helped. But, if you are not already bald, you can now stop your hair loss. Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss. Hair loss caused by sebum can also run in your family, and many other conditions can cause hair loss. If you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late. Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. They don't even ask you to take their word for it. They invite you to try the treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. Naturally, they would not offer this opportunity unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone. The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness

and cannot be helped. But, if you are not already bald, you can now stop your hair loss. Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss. Hair loss caused by sebum can also run in your family, and many other conditions can cause hair loss. If you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late. Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. They don't even ask you to take their word for it. They invite you to try the treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. Naturally, they would not offer this opportunity unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone. The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness

and cannot be helped. But, if you are not already bald, you can now stop your hair loss. Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss. Hair loss caused by sebum can also run in your family, and many other conditions can cause hair loss. If you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late. Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. They don't even ask you to take their word for it. They invite you to try the treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. Naturally, they would not offer this opportunity unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone. The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped. But, if you are not already bald, you can now stop your hair loss. Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss. Hair loss caused by sebum can also run in your family, and many other conditions can cause hair loss. If you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late. Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. They don't even ask you to take their word for it. They invite you to try the treatment for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself. Naturally, they would not offer this opportunity unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone. The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness

Monday, September 12, 1976 - 4A
WAYNE D. DOYLE, Publisher
NORMAN H. COCHRAN, Editor
WILLIAM D. CURRIE, Managing Editor
JOSEPH D. VAW BRACH, Advertising Director
Home Delivery: Week, $5.00; Month, $2.00; 6 Months, $14.00;
Year, $30.00. By Mail: In Florida same as home delivery. All other mail: Month, $2.75; 6 Months, $16.25; 12 Months, $32.00.

Soviet Union Stirs Unrest

Whether the absence of war constitutes peace is a pinhead on which many statesmen have danced. Whatever the case one or the other appears to be prevailing in most of the Middle East — and the calm itself is almost unsettling.

Aug. 31, the first anniversary of the Israeli-Egyptian interim agreement to non-alignment of the Sinai, slipped by without much fanfare. Israel is so calm that it is actually taking a "vacation" one of its statesmen said recently.

President Anwar Sadat of Egypt thundered out about Israel's "illusions of superiority" and said that he "needed a new lesson" at the conference of so-called unaligned nations in Sri Lanka recently. But at the same time he was moving his troops from the Israeli to the Syrian border.

And it is evident now, beyond doubt, that Syria intervened in behalf of beleaguered Christians in Lebanon in order to tame the Palestinians and thus reduce tensions in the Golan Heights region. Syrian President Hafez Assad does not appear to be eager to permit the leftists and Palestinian Liberation Organization in Lebanon to regain strength.

The interesting aspect of the calm is who is most worried about it. Near the head of the class is the Arab League which held an emergency meeting recently to bring leverage against Syria to withdraw from Lebanon so that the PLO could regroup. And over a week ago the Soviet Union began calling upon Syria publicly to throw its support to its "natural allies" or the Middle East revolutionaries. When Syria ignored a Soviet-African Committee resolution urging her to withdraw troops from Lebanon, the Soviet Union added weight to her first request by repeating it in the official newspaper, Pravda. More recently Moscow threw its full support behind Moammar Khadafi of Libya, the most radical and unpredictable leader in Arabia.

The Soviet Union's agitation of the Middle East in a relative period of calm when negotiations might begin makes the absence of a major war deceptive.

The words of Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes at the turn of the century come to mind: "Certainty in illusion and repose is not the destiny of man." The lull is the one before the storm.

It is doubtful whether anything could deflect the Soviet Union from what it perceives its national interests are in the Middle East. However, there could be some satisfaction to U.S. negotiators if at the next meeting on detente they asked their Soviet counterparts why it is muddying the waters in the Middle East.

Since the United States has not landed a solid right on its opponent lately, a left jab once in a while would help.

Urban Decay

Americans were witness recently to the fiscal pitfalls a city can fall into as the saga of New York City unfolded. Now we are seeing another illustration of big city decay in Detroit.

Detroit has been hit hard with a wave of terror by juvenile gangs and is taking a hard line on young rascals by imposing night curfews. It is showing no reluctance to throw youths in jail for acts of violence. A hard line law enforcement attitude can produce results and Mayor Coleman Young intends to use it by calling for more judges, a new jail, help from state police in surveillance and development of a civilian police reserve system.

"And what have you gotten? A government where public accountability has diminished simply because not enough of the public cares for an accounting. Leadership that generates special interests because the people themselves are in the pews of those interests. And a bureaucracy that controls our lives because we have in countless ways begged it to do so."

JACK ANDERSON 'Jonah' Fails To Sink Federal Whale

WASHINGTON — The late President John F. Kennedy once compared the federal bureaucracy to a giant whale. He tried to grapple with it, he said, but could never seem to get a firm hold on the blubber.

The federal whale keeps largely submerged, producing few waves. As long as the taxpayers feed it regularly, it remains reasonably content, and benevolent. But it performs pretty much as it pleases, indifferent to its caretakers in the White House and on Capitol Hill.

This, therefore, is a routine tale of a modern Jonah and the whale. There are thousands of stories like it.

The Senate Subcommittee on Reports, Accounting and Management needed some innocuous information about utility bills. The information was available deep within the whale's belly. The law also stipulates that the public is entitled to this information. After all, the utility companies know how much they charge, and their customers know how much they pay.

Yet the subcommittee spent two years trying to extract information that the federal whale was reluctant to cough up. First, a staff member called the Federal Power Commission. He reached a bureaucrat who acknowledged that the FCC indeed possessed the desired information.

But the information was intended, said the bureaucrat, for the Bureau of Labor Statistics. It was, therefore, confidential, he said inexplicably.

The staff member tried the BLS, which confirmed that the utility data was confidential. The argument that this contradicted the law did not seem to impress the bureaucrats at the BLS.

Repeated telephone conversations with the two agencies failed to pry the information from the bureaucratic labyrinth. Subcommittee Chairman Lee Metcalf, D-Wash., finally fired off a letter to BLS boss Julius Shiskin, complaining about the ruse. One month later, Metcalf had heard from Shiskin, so he sent a terse, one-sentence rejoinder.

Two more silent months passed. Then Metcalf appealed over Shiskin's head to then-Labor Secretary Peter Brennan. Copies of his letter, Metcalf noted, had gone to the congressional appropriators' committees which handle the BLS budget.

This tactic brought a hasty, apologetic response from Shiskin, who promised that the information requested five months earlier would be forthcoming. Several weeks later, the subcommittee received a jumble of figures from the FCC.

The information was so confused that it was virtually uninterpretable and, therefore, useless. The note that the subcommittee sought was

Does the DAR have something to hide? The DAR, for the uninitiated, is the Daughters of the American Revolution — a self-proclaimed bastion, protector and guardian of democracy. It is composed of descendants of descendants of soldiers who fought in the Revolutionary War.

One of its members came into the Herald office several days ago seeking promotion and coverage of "Constitution Week," Sept. 17-23. The 17th, this Friday, will mark the 160th anniversary of the signing of that historic document.

I agreed and, today, Sanford Mayor Lee Moore proclaimed Constitution Week here.

At the same time I was an eager to learn more about the DAR, an organization whose history has been tainted with evidence and hints of less-than-open-mindedness and open-mindedness in dealing with members of minority races. The most glaring example, of course, was the banning in 1890 of Marian Anderson, the black (Negro) opera singer from performing at Constitution Hall in Washington, D.C.

To my knowledge, the DAR in succeeding years has never expressed regret nor remorse about the incident. That was one of the reasons I was anxious to find out about the DAR, 170th-anniversary.

So I was directed to the 160th anniversary of the Salute History chapter of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution of Sanford.

I called her, requesting a copy of the charter and bylaws of the organization.

"Why do you want one?" she inquired hostilely, explained.

"I'm afraid I couldn't say anything about it," she replied angrily. And she asked again, "Why did you want one?"

"Sorry, I don't have one," she answered. The next sound I heard was the dial tone. She had hung up.

According to the Encyclopedia Americana, one of the DAR's stated objectives is "to foster true patriotism and love of country; and to aid in securing for all mankind all the blessings of liberty."

"We're fighters; we'll never give up," declared one white parent defiantly last week. Translation: my kids will never go to school with these kids if I can help it.

And there are too many other examples of such stonewall and un-Americanism around the nation.

So let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For all this, of course, should not detract from the purpose of Constitution Week — although, of course, every week should be just that, with all of us living by its ideals and standards.

But I suppose that's too much to ask and expect in this fragmented, polarized society.

The commemoration of the Constitution-signing will mean different things to different people. To some it will mean a rededication and reaffirmation of the ideals and principles that have made this nation what it is today.

To others it will mean just waving the flag. The DAR requested, by the way, "publication of an item in 'The Clock' section regarding the citizens of Sanford to display their flags during Constitution Week." So you are reminded.

But it is not enough.

A startling obvious example of hypocrisy at this stage of our history has been in Boston, where flag-wavers and pseudo-aiders of the law — groups of which is the Constitution — are regularly throwing rocks or teaching their children to throw rocks at the little black children who want to go to school as the law dictates.

Let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For reference and informational purposes, I explained.

"I'm afraid I couldn't say anything about it," she replied angrily. And she asked again, "Why did you want one?"

"Sorry, I don't have one," she answered. The next sound I heard was the dial tone. She had hung up.

According to the Encyclopedia Americana, one of the DAR's stated objectives is "to foster true patriotism and love of country; and to aid in securing for all mankind all the blessings of liberty."

"We're fighters; we'll never give up," declared one white parent defiantly last week. Translation: my kids will never go to school with these kids if I can help it.

And there are too many other examples of such stonewall and un-Americanism around the nation.

So let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For all this, of course, should not detract from the purpose of Constitution Week — although, of course, every week should be just that, with all of us living by its ideals and standards.

But I suppose that's too much to ask and expect in this fragmented, polarized society.

The commemoration of the Constitution-signing will mean different things to different people. To some it will mean a rededication and reaffirmation of the ideals and principles that have made this nation what it is today.

To others it will mean just waving the flag. The DAR requested, by the way, "publication of an item in 'The Clock' section regarding the citizens of Sanford to display their flags during Constitution Week." So you are reminded.

But it is not enough.

A startling obvious example of hypocrisy at this stage of our history has been in Boston, where flag-wavers and pseudo-aiders of the law — groups of which is the Constitution — are regularly throwing rocks or teaching their children to throw rocks at the little black children who want to go to school as the law dictates.

Let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For all this, of course, should not detract from the purpose of Constitution Week — although, of course, every week should be just that, with all of us living by its ideals and standards.

But I suppose that's too much to ask and expect in this fragmented, polarized society.

The commemoration of the Constitution-signing will mean different things to different people. To some it will mean a rededication and reaffirmation of the ideals and principles that have made this nation what it is today.

To others it will mean just waving the flag. The DAR requested, by the way, "publication of an item in 'The Clock' section regarding the citizens of Sanford to display their flags during Constitution Week." So you are reminded.

But it is not enough.

A startling obvious example of hypocrisy at this stage of our history has been in Boston, where flag-wavers and pseudo-aiders of the law — groups of which is the Constitution — are regularly throwing rocks or teaching their children to throw rocks at the little black children who want to go to school as the law dictates.

Let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

Buffalo Bills, ready to play against the Miami Dolphins tonight and saying he'd never ask to be traded again.

"Sorry, I don't have one," she answered. The next sound I heard was the dial tone. She had hung up.

According to the Encyclopedia Americana, one of the DAR's stated objectives is "to foster true patriotism and love of country; and to aid in securing for all mankind all the blessings of liberty."

"We're fighters; we'll never give up," declared one white parent defiantly last week. Translation: my kids will never go to school with these kids if I can help it.

And there are too many other examples of such stonewall and un-Americanism around the nation.

So let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For all this, of course, should not detract from the purpose of Constitution Week — although, of course, every week should be just that, with all of us living by its ideals and standards.

But I suppose that's too much to ask and expect in this fragmented, polarized society.

The commemoration of the Constitution-signing will mean different things to different people. To some it will mean a rededication and reaffirmation of the ideals and principles that have made this nation what it is today.

To others it will mean just waving the flag. The DAR requested, by the way, "publication of an item in 'The Clock' section regarding the citizens of Sanford to display their flags during Constitution Week." So you are reminded.

But it is not enough.

A startling obvious example of hypocrisy at this stage of our history has been in Boston, where flag-wavers and pseudo-aiders of the law — groups of which is the Constitution — are regularly throwing rocks or teaching their children to throw rocks at the little black children who want to go to school as the law dictates.

Let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For all this, of course, should not detract from the purpose of Constitution Week — although, of course, every week should be just that, with all of us living by its ideals and standards.

But I suppose that's too much to ask and expect in this fragmented, polarized society.

The commemoration of the Constitution-signing will mean different things to different people. To some it will mean a rededication and reaffirmation of the ideals and principles that have made this nation what it is today.

To others it will mean just waving the flag. The DAR requested, by the way, "publication of an item in 'The Clock' section regarding the citizens of Sanford to display their flags during Constitution Week." So you are reminded.

But it is not enough.

A startling obvious example of hypocrisy at this stage of our history has been in Boston, where flag-wavers and pseudo-aiders of the law — groups of which is the Constitution — are regularly throwing rocks or teaching their children to throw rocks at the little black children who want to go to school as the law dictates.

Let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

Buffalo Bills, ready to play against the Miami Dolphins tonight and saying he'd never ask to be traded again.

"Sorry, I don't have one," she answered. The next sound I heard was the dial tone. She had hung up.

According to the Encyclopedia Americana, one of the DAR's stated objectives is "to foster true patriotism and love of country; and to aid in securing for all mankind all the blessings of liberty."

"We're fighters; we'll never give up," declared one white parent defiantly last week. Translation: my kids will never go to school with these kids if I can help it.

And there are too many other examples of such stonewall and un-Americanism around the nation.

So let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For all this, of course, should not detract from the purpose of Constitution Week — although, of course, every week should be just that, with all of us living by its ideals and standards.

But I suppose that's too much to ask and expect in this fragmented, polarized society.

The commemoration of the Constitution-signing will mean different things to different people. To some it will mean a rededication and reaffirmation of the ideals and principles that have made this nation what it is today.

To others it will mean just waving the flag. The DAR requested, by the way, "publication of an item in 'The Clock' section regarding the citizens of Sanford to display their flags during Constitution Week." So you are reminded.

But it is not enough.

A startling obvious example of hypocrisy at this stage of our history has been in Boston, where flag-wavers and pseudo-aiders of the law — groups of which is the Constitution — are regularly throwing rocks or teaching their children to throw rocks at the little black children who want to go to school as the law dictates.

Let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For all this, of course, should not detract from the purpose of Constitution Week — although, of course, every week should be just that, with all of us living by its ideals and standards.

But I suppose that's too much to ask and expect in this fragmented, polarized society.

The commemoration of the Constitution-signing will mean different things to different people. To some it will mean a rededication and reaffirmation of the ideals and principles that have made this nation what it is today.

To others it will mean just waving the flag. The DAR requested, by the way, "publication of an item in 'The Clock' section regarding the citizens of Sanford to display their flags during Constitution Week." So you are reminded.

But it is not enough.

A startling obvious example of hypocrisy at this stage of our history has been in Boston, where flag-wavers and pseudo-aiders of the law — groups of which is the Constitution — are regularly throwing rocks or teaching their children to throw rocks at the little black children who want to go to school as the law dictates.

Let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

Buffalo Bills, ready to play against the Miami Dolphins tonight and saying he'd never ask to be traded again.

"Sorry, I don't have one," she answered. The next sound I heard was the dial tone. She had hung up.

According to the Encyclopedia Americana, one of the DAR's stated objectives is "to foster true patriotism and love of country; and to aid in securing for all mankind all the blessings of liberty."

"We're fighters; we'll never give up," declared one white parent defiantly last week. Translation: my kids will never go to school with these kids if I can help it.

And there are too many other examples of such stonewall and un-Americanism around the nation.

So let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For all this, of course, should not detract from the purpose of Constitution Week — although, of course, every week should be just that, with all of us living by its ideals and standards.

But I suppose that's too much to ask and expect in this fragmented, polarized society.

The commemoration of the Constitution-signing will mean different things to different people. To some it will mean a rededication and reaffirmation of the ideals and principles that have made this nation what it is today.

To others it will mean just waving the flag. The DAR requested, by the way, "publication of an item in 'The Clock' section regarding the citizens of Sanford to display their flags during Constitution Week." So you are reminded.

But it is not enough.

A startling obvious example of hypocrisy at this stage of our history has been in Boston, where flag-wavers and pseudo-aiders of the law — groups of which is the Constitution — are regularly throwing rocks or teaching their children to throw rocks at the little black children who want to go to school as the law dictates.

Let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For all this, of course, should not detract from the purpose of Constitution Week — although, of course, every week should be just that, with all of us living by its ideals and standards.

But I suppose that's too much to ask and expect in this fragmented, polarized society.

The commemoration of the Constitution-signing will mean different things to different people. To some it will mean a rededication and reaffirmation of the ideals and principles that have made this nation what it is today.

To others it will mean just waving the flag. The DAR requested, by the way, "publication of an item in 'The Clock' section regarding the citizens of Sanford to display their flags during Constitution Week." So you are reminded.

But it is not enough.

A startling obvious example of hypocrisy at this stage of our history has been in Boston, where flag-wavers and pseudo-aiders of the law — groups of which is the Constitution — are regularly throwing rocks or teaching their children to throw rocks at the little black children who want to go to school as the law dictates.

Let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

Buffalo Bills, ready to play against the Miami Dolphins tonight and saying he'd never ask to be traded again.

"Sorry, I don't have one," she answered. The next sound I heard was the dial tone. She had hung up.

According to the Encyclopedia Americana, one of the DAR's stated objectives is "to foster true patriotism and love of country; and to aid in securing for all mankind all the blessings of liberty."

"We're fighters; we'll never give up," declared one white parent defiantly last week. Translation: my kids will never go to school with these kids if I can help it.

And there are too many other examples of such stonewall and un-Americanism around the nation.

So let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For all this, of course, should not detract from the purpose of Constitution Week — although, of course, every week should be just that, with all of us living by its ideals and standards.

But I suppose that's too much to ask and expect in this fragmented, polarized society.

The commemoration of the Constitution-signing will mean different things to different people. To some it will mean a rededication and reaffirmation of the ideals and principles that have made this nation what it is today.

To others it will mean just waving the flag. The DAR requested, by the way, "publication of an item in 'The Clock' section regarding the citizens of Sanford to display their flags during Constitution Week." So you are reminded.

But it is not enough.

A startling obvious example of hypocrisy at this stage of our history has been in Boston, where flag-wavers and pseudo-aiders of the law — groups of which is the Constitution — are regularly throwing rocks or teaching their children to throw rocks at the little black children who want to go to school as the law dictates.

Let us celebrate and commemorate Constitution Week as proclaimed here and elsewhere. But let us also do what we can and make it a meaningful, vibrant, living document — not a document to be applied only when it fits our mood and interests of the moment.

Let us rededicate ourselves to helping our unfortunate brethren in attaining the equal justice and treatment under the law — as stated in that great document.

And I'll make a deal with the Daughters of the American Revolution: If the DAR will speak out strongly and boldly against those in Boston who are breaking the law — the law born out of the DAR's beloved Constitution — then I'll press my efforts in obtaining a copy of their charter.

For all this, of course, should not detract from the purpose of Constitution Week — although, of course, every week should be just that, with all of us living by its ideals and standards.

But I suppose that's too much to ask and expect in this fragmented, polarized society.

The commemoration of the Constitution-signing will mean different things to different people. To some it will mean a rededication and reaffirmation of the ideals and principles that have made this nation what it is today.

To others it will mean just waving the flag. The DAR requested, by the way, "publication of an item in 'The Clock' section regarding the citizens of Sanford to display their flags during Constitution Week." So you are reminded.

Ross, Donovan Meet Tuesday

ORLANDO—Southern junior middleweight champion Ed Ross meets his first international foe when he meets British West Indian, Trinidad, British West Indian, in the 18-round main event at Orlando Sports Stadium Tuesday night.

Polo, Protege Scott Clark

Hooks And Jabs

By LOUIS SARPIS

Clayton Heavis of Moulton, Ala., was halfway down the strip in his semifinal run against Muldowney, of Mt. Clemens, Mich., when the engine in his racer exploded. The explosion sent parts flying into the stands. Harris had just turned in the fastest time ever recorded here on his previous run. He was not injured.

Portland Next Goal For Jane

DALLAS (AP) — Richer by $7,000 as winner of the 21st $50,000 Dallas Civitan Women's Golf Tournament, Jane Blalock heads this week for Portland, Ore., with her aim set on the $100,000 plateau in Ladies PGA tour winnings.

ECONOMY TOYOTA LEASES TOYOTS

The letter went on to say that since Dominick had arrived, a great deal of showmanship had arrived with him.

ECONOMY TOYOTA LEASES TOYOTS

That fan was right there, stonemanship did arrive with Polo. Anyone who watches him in the corner during the fights can attest to that.

ECONOMY TOYOTA LEASES TOYOTS

Polo is a show by himself. Pacing back and forth. Yelling out instructions to his fighter. Besting the canvas with his fist. All these things are nothing compared to his corner work.

SCOREBOARD

Baseball

Table with columns for team names and scores. Includes entries for New York, Boston, Oakland, and Chicago.

Pro Football

Table with columns for team names and scores. Includes entries for San Diego, Cleveland, Dallas, and Houston.

Major League

Table with columns for team names and statistics. Includes entries for Philadelphia, Cincinnati, and Oakland.

Dog Racing

Table with columns for race names and winners. Includes entries for Dog Track, Dog Track, and Dog Track.

Boxing

Table with columns for fighter names and results. Includes entries for Karaman, American, and American.

AUTO SERVICE

For More Good Years In Your Car

Lube and Oil Change $4.88

- Complete chassis lubrication & oil change
- Helps reduce engine wearing parts & smooth, quiet performance
- Please phone for appointment
- Including light tune-up

Front-End Alignment $11.88

Complete analysis and alignment correction to increase tire mileage and improve steering.

Engine Tune-Up $36.95

Our mechanics electronically fine-tune your engine & New Points, plugs & condenser.

GOODYEAR "GO-POWER" $22.95

At A Powerful Low Price!

Maintenance Free Power Gard... $49.76

Never Needs Water

Goodyear Retreads $15

Real Buys For The Money

Custom Wheels... Super Values!

E-T IV Mag Wheels $19.99

E-T Diamond Spoke Wheels $24.95

GOODYEAR

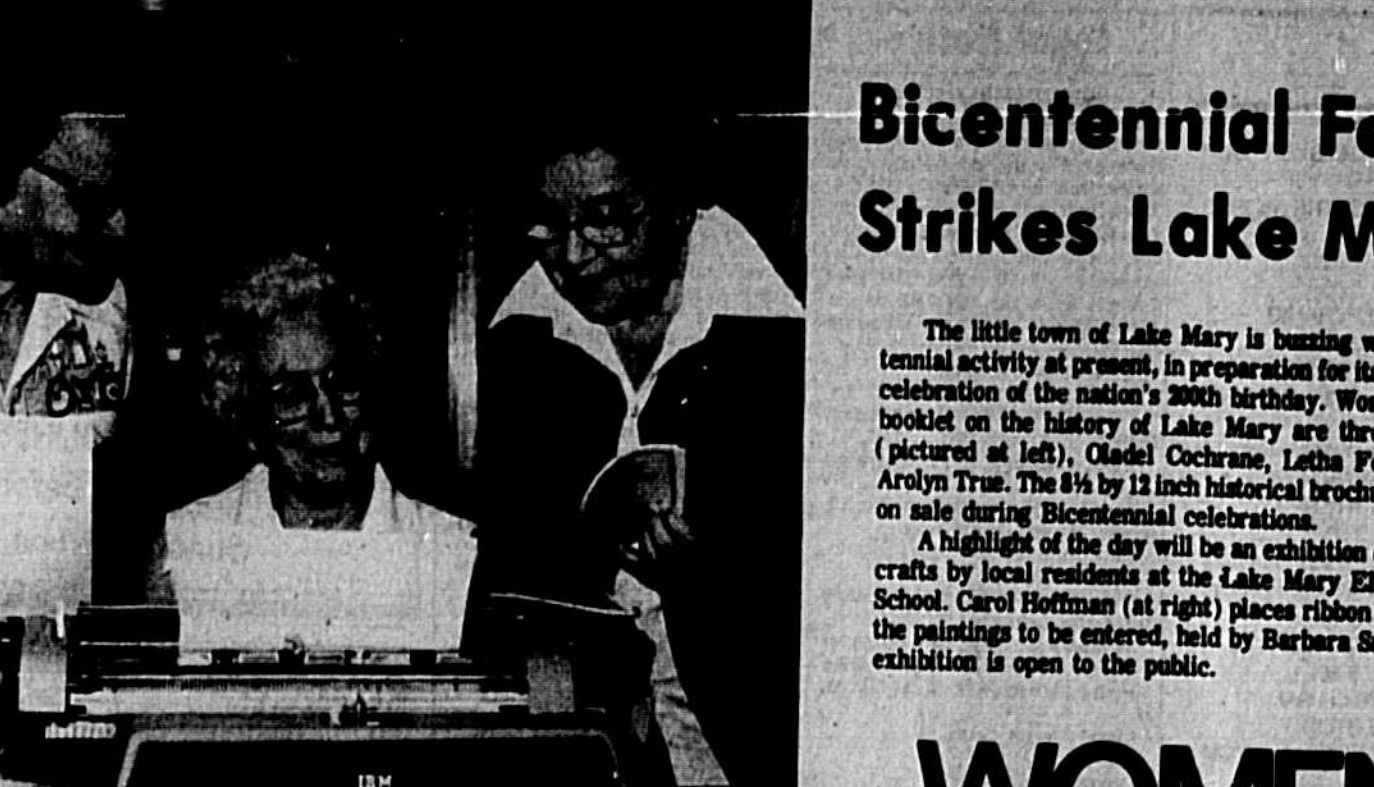

For more good years in your car

8 Ways to Buy

GOODYEAR SERVICE STORE

CHRIS CANDLER, MGR.

555 W. FIRST ST. SANFORD, FL. 322-2821

Bicentennial Fever Strikes Lake Mary

The little town of Lake Mary is buzzing with Bicentennial activity at present, in preparation for its bicentennial celebration of the nation's 200th birthday.

Teens Getting Heavier

Young people these days are considerably taller than their forebears — but alarmingly, an increasing number are growing in width as well.

Sandwiches Slim Students

Combine first 5 ingredients in small bowl. Spread on white bread; top with tomato slices, lettuce and whole wheat bread.

Nicotine 'Junky' Dies Before Time

DEAR READERS: I recently said my last goodbye to one of my dearest, most gentle and self-opinion gentlemen I've ever known — David Brodsky.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: I have a question for you. I am a 35-year-old man who has never smoked a cigarette.

Lawrence Spencers Mark Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Spencer of Altamonte Springs recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Off To College

THE EVENING HERALD GOING EACH DAY WILL BE LIKE A WONDERFUL LETTER FROM HOME.

WOMEN

Evening Herald, Sanford, Fla. Monday, Sept. 13, 1978-18

Teens Getting Heavier

Young people these days are considerably taller than their forebears — but alarmingly, an increasing number are growing in width as well.

Sandwiches Slim Students

Combine first 5 ingredients in small bowl. Spread on white bread; top with tomato slices, lettuce and whole wheat bread.

Nicotine 'Junky' Dies Before Time

DEAR READERS: I recently said my last goodbye to one of my dearest, most gentle and self-opinion gentlemen I've ever known — David Brodsky.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: I have a question for you. I am a 35-year-old man who has never smoked a cigarette.

Lawrence Spencers Mark Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Spencer of Altamonte Springs recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Off To College

THE EVENING HERALD GOING EACH DAY WILL BE LIKE A WONDERFUL LETTER FROM HOME.

Give Your Student A Treat - A Touch Of Home, With The HERALD Just $2.40 Month Call Today And The HERALD Will Be On Its Way - 322-2611

TELEVISION LISTINGS

Monday
7:00 AM NEWS
7:30 AM NEWS
8:00 AM NEWS
8:30 AM NEWS
9:00 AM NEWS
9:30 AM NEWS
10:00 AM NEWS
10:30 AM NEWS
11:00 AM NEWS
11:30 AM NEWS
12:00 PM NEWS
12:30 PM NEWS
1:00 PM NEWS
1:30 PM NEWS
2:00 PM NEWS
2:30 PM NEWS
3:00 PM NEWS
3:30 PM NEWS
4:00 PM NEWS
4:30 PM NEWS
5:00 PM NEWS
5:30 PM NEWS
6:00 PM NEWS
6:30 PM NEWS
7:00 PM NEWS
7:30 PM NEWS
8:00 PM NEWS
8:30 PM NEWS
9:00 PM NEWS
9:30 PM NEWS
10:00 PM NEWS
10:30 PM NEWS
11:00 PM NEWS
11:30 PM NEWS

Tuesday
7:00 AM NEWS
7:30 AM NEWS
8:00 AM NEWS
8:30 AM NEWS
9:00 AM NEWS
9:30 AM NEWS
10:00 AM NEWS
10:30 AM NEWS
11:00 AM NEWS
11:30 AM NEWS
12:00 PM NEWS
12:30 PM NEWS
1:00 PM NEWS
1:30 PM NEWS
2:00 PM NEWS
2:30 PM NEWS
3:00 PM NEWS
3:30 PM NEWS
4:00 PM NEWS
4:30 PM NEWS
5:00 PM NEWS
5:30 PM NEWS
6:00 PM NEWS
6:30 PM NEWS
7:00 PM NEWS
7:30 PM NEWS
8:00 PM NEWS
8:30 PM NEWS
9:00 PM NEWS
9:30 PM NEWS
10:00 PM NEWS
10:30 PM NEWS
11:00 PM NEWS
11:30 PM NEWS

Wednesday
7:00 AM NEWS
7:30 AM NEWS
8:00 AM NEWS
8:30 AM NEWS
9:00 AM NEWS
9:30 AM NEWS
10:00 AM NEWS
10:30 AM NEWS
11:00 AM NEWS
11:30 AM NEWS
12:00 PM NEWS
12:30 PM NEWS
1:00 PM NEWS
1:30 PM NEWS
2:00 PM NEWS
2:30 PM NEWS
3:00 PM NEWS
3:30 PM NEWS
4:00 PM NEWS
4:30 PM NEWS
5:00 PM NEWS
5:30 PM NEWS
6:00 PM NEWS
6:30 PM NEWS
7:00 PM NEWS
7:30 PM NEWS
8:00 PM NEWS
8:30 PM NEWS
9:00 PM NEWS
9:30 PM NEWS
10:00 PM NEWS
10:30 PM NEWS
11:00 PM NEWS
11:30 PM NEWS

Thursday
7:00 AM NEWS
7:30 AM NEWS
8:00 AM NEWS
8:30 AM NEWS
9:00 AM NEWS
9:30 AM NEWS
10:00 AM NEWS
10:30 AM NEWS
11:00 AM NEWS
11:30 AM NEWS
12:00 PM NEWS
12:30 PM NEWS
1:00 PM NEWS
1:30 PM NEWS
2:00 PM NEWS
2:30 PM NEWS
3:00 PM NEWS
3:30 PM NEWS
4:00 PM NEWS
4:30 PM NEWS
5:00 PM NEWS
5:30 PM NEWS
6:00 PM NEWS
6:30 PM NEWS
7:00 PM NEWS
7:30 PM NEWS
8:00 PM NEWS
8:30 PM NEWS
9:00 PM NEWS
9:30 PM NEWS
10:00 PM NEWS
10:30 PM NEWS
11:00 PM NEWS
11:30 PM NEWS

Friday
7:00 AM NEWS
7:30 AM NEWS
8:00 AM NEWS
8:30 AM NEWS
9:00 AM NEWS
9:30 AM NEWS
10:00 AM NEWS
10:30 AM NEWS
11:00 AM NEWS
11:30 AM NEWS
12:00 PM NEWS
12:30 PM NEWS
1:00 PM NEWS
1:30 PM NEWS
2:00 PM NEWS
2:30 PM NEWS
3:00 PM NEWS
3:30 PM NEWS
4:00 PM NEWS
4:30 PM NEWS
5:00 PM NEWS
5:30 PM NEWS
6:00 PM NEWS
6:30 PM NEWS
7:00 PM NEWS
7:30 PM NEWS
8:00 PM NEWS
8:30 PM NEWS
9:00 PM NEWS
9:30 PM NEWS
10:00 PM NEWS
10:30 PM NEWS
11:00 PM NEWS
11:30 PM NEWS

Saturday
7:00 AM NEWS
7:30 AM NEWS
8:00 AM NEWS
8:30 AM NEWS
9:00 AM NEWS
9:30 AM NEWS
10:00 AM NEWS
10:30 AM NEWS
11:00 AM NEWS
11:30 AM NEWS
12:00 PM NEWS
12:30 PM NEWS
1:00 PM NEWS
1:30 PM NEWS
2:00 PM NEWS
2:30 PM NEWS
3:00 PM NEWS
3:30 PM NEWS
4:00 PM NEWS
4:30 PM NEWS
5:00 PM NEWS
5:30 PM NEWS
6:00 PM NEWS
6:30 PM NEWS
7:00 PM NEWS
7:30 PM NEWS
8:00 PM NEWS
8:30 PM NEWS
9:00 PM NEWS
9:30 PM NEWS
10:00 PM NEWS
10:30 PM NEWS
11:00 PM NEWS
11:30 PM NEWS

Legal Notice

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

Legal Notice

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

CLASSIFIED ADS

322-2611 831-9993
CLASSIFIED DEPT.
HOURS
8:00 A.M. - 5:30 P.M.
MONDAY THRU FRIDAY
SATURDAY 9-5:00

DEADLINES
Noon The Day Before Publication
Sunday - Noon Friday

Legal Notice
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

Legal Notice
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

Legal Notice
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

Legal Notice
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER THE ADOPTION OF AN ORDINANCE BY THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1097...

4-Personals

Faceted With Drinking Problem
Paraphrase Anonymous
422-4877
Sanford, FL 32811

18-Help Wanted
National Distributor has several openings...
TELEPHONE SALES

18-Help Wanted
National Distributor has several openings...
TELEPHONE SALES

18-Help Wanted
National Distributor has several openings...
TELEPHONE SALES

18-Help Wanted
National Distributor has several openings...
TELEPHONE SALES

18-Help Wanted
National Distributor has several openings...
TELEPHONE SALES

30-Apartments Unfurnished

Midgewater Arms
Specimen 1, 2 & 3 BR. apt.
Garage space in section 7th & 8th

30-Apartments Unfurnished
Midgewater Arms
Specimen 1, 2 & 3 BR. apt.

30-Apartments Unfurnished
Midgewater Arms
Specimen 1, 2 & 3 BR. apt.

30-Apartments Unfurnished
Midgewater Arms
Specimen 1, 2 & 3 BR. apt.

30-Apartments Unfurnished
Midgewater Arms
Specimen 1, 2 & 3 BR. apt.

30-Apartments Unfurnished
Midgewater Arms
Specimen 1, 2 & 3 BR. apt.

41-Houses

JOHNNY WALKER
Real Estate Broker
Call 322-2611

41-Houses
JOHNNY WALKER
Real Estate Broker

41-Houses
JOHNNY WALKER
Real Estate Broker

41-Houses
JOHNNY WALKER
Real Estate Broker

41-Houses
JOHNNY WALKER
Real Estate Broker

41-Houses
JOHNNY WALKER
Real Estate Broker

51-Household Goods

FUTURA BY SINGER
Cash 222-4128
For sale by owner...

51-Household Goods
FUTURA BY SINGER
Cash 222-4128

51-Household Goods
FUTURA BY SINGER
Cash 222-4128

51-Household Goods
FUTURA BY SINGER
Cash 222-4128

51-Household Goods
FUTURA BY SINGER
Cash 222-4128

51-Household Goods
FUTURA BY SINGER
Cash 222-4128

THE EXORCIST

THE EXORCIST
SHOWTIME 8:00 PM

DISCOVER 1976

DISCOVER 1976
BICENTENNIAL AMERICA

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING...

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING...

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING...

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING...

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING...

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING...

