load at 500 miles an hour, or faster. Because of its speed and ability to come back from missions fast, a crew of only three is needed.

It can travel so fast that refrigeration is provided around the crew compartment, to keep it cool from air friction and resulting heat at high speeds. The cabin is pressurized and temperature controlled.

It is one of two such planes ordered by the Air Force from Boeing and the concern has approximately $10,000,000 tied up in the work.

The plane, on its maiden flight, was throttled down and the highest speed was 280 miles an hour, Robbins and co-pilot Scott Oster, 29, said at a news conference last night.

No announcement was made as to when further test flights will be made but the plane is expected to remain here some months. A clamp of secrecy was placed on the future tests.

Col. H. E. (Pete) Warden, chief of the bombardment branch, Air Material Command, Wright Field, Ohio, piloted a B-25 as an escort plane and said he was "very well satisfied" with the big ship's performance.

A Boeing spokesman explained that the claim of the "greatest power, potential" of any plane was approved by the Army Air Force and came from the fact that it has 24,000 pounds (horsepower) thrust from its six jet engines, plus 18,000 pounds from its JATO (jet-assisted takeoff) motors built into the ship.

Last night, Duval county teachers said they considered the suit "not a friendly action" and served notice they would fight it and insist on payment of the July and August vacation checks.

The Duval county school board agreed to become defendant in a suit to find out whether its teachers were entitled to the salaries.

Most counties, it appeared today, were going to wait to see what the courts might say and among these were Martin, St. Lucie, Indian River and Manatee.

came here to assist the Florida congressional delegation in gaining federal aid for flood victims.

Damage to Dec. 10 was estimated at nearly $50,000,000 in agriculture, roads and drainage district installations in Broward, Collier, Dade, Glades, Hendry, Highlands, Martin, Monroe, Oklawaha, Palm Beach, and St. Lucie counties.

The estimate was broken down as follows: Agriculture $44,391,850; county roads, $4,512,601; state roads, $1,234,300; and drainage district installations, $2,740,710.

A mid-September hurricane and subsequent heavy rains flooded much of the Florida Everglades region, stretching from Lake Okechobee south.

Sheriff Clark said 50 percent of citrus trees in inundated groves "are dead" and predicted the kill will approximate 85 percent. He said many houses still are flooded.

The area covered by floods annually produces $25,000,000 worth of vegetables, $9,000,000 worth of citrus fruits, $15,000,000 worth of sugar cane, and approximately $12,000,000 worth of cattle, poultry and dairy products, the report said.

We flew low over a petroleum survey party 140 miles further west, but still in Saudi Arabian territory. The rugged terrain prevented a landing, but dropping down for a closer up, we were satisfied that everything was okay.

That was the last Tappine activity we saw. For hundreds of miles on the route through Trans-Jordan's rocky hilly country, we were unable to spot any Americans.

It was the same in Syria and Lebanon, where the Bedouins are distinctly hostile now toward all Americans.

Tell-tale black specks among the brown rocks and sandhills showed a surprising number of desert nomads are concentrated along the pipeline route.

At the time of this desert crossing, the outlook for channeling oil to Europe under the Marshall Plan is dark.

would take care of more than 30,000 families' electrical needs, it is stated.

Completion of the new plants, Mr. Coleman pointed out, will mark the tripling of the company's plant capacity since 1939, an increase from 155,000 kilowatts to 514,000 kilowatts.

Company employees can help avoid a shortage during cold weather using electric house heaters, heating homes with electric stove burners or ovens, refrigerators and water heaters and using only essential lights, he said.

Customers are also requested to co-operate in the current saving plan during cold spells.

It was pointed out that these precautions are important because overloading neighborhood electric circuits may damage hard-to-get equipment and interrupt whole neighborhoods for long periods.

They also would "authorize the employment of such facilities of the United States—including vessels and land transport facilities—as may be necessary to accomplish such repatriation as expeditiously as possible."

Meanwhile at Lake Success Trygve Lie, secretary-general of the United Nations, announced that he had called a meeting of the newly created five-nation Palestine Commission for Jan. 7.

The Commission was established by the recent General Assembly to supervise the partition of the Holy Land into separate Jewish and Arab countries.

In Jerusalem Arabs cordoned the Jaffa Gate captured and killed a 30-year-old Jew who tried to slip through the Arab quarter to reinforce Jews garrisoning the old city's Hebrew quarter.

Folies said the Jews' bullet-riddled body was found near St. Stephen's gate several hours after this capture. His death brought to 261 the toll of fatalities in the Holy Land since Jewish-Arab strife broke out there 17 days ago following the United Nations' decision to partition Palestine.

And in Cairo the Moslem Brotherhood Association summoned volunteers for service in Palestine to a meeting to receive "important instructions" today prior to their scheduled departure for the Holy Land on Dec. 21.

The association said a full list of the volunteers—who have enrolled for service in the fight to prevent partition of Palestine—would be issued before they left.

In Jerusalem the U. N. partition plan continued on a small scale meanwhile as a crowd of some 150 students paraded the streets shouting "Revolution" and "We'll save Palestine with our blood."

"The States look mighty good after seeing the poverty of the Orient. America looks as if it is here to stay, and Sanford looks best of all to me," he asserted.

President Bradley, Chairman announced that there will be no meeting for the next two weeks, since Christmas and New Year's Day come on Thursday.

Miss Olive Reese Whitte directed several Christmas carols which were sung by a quartette of high school students. Those singing included Anita Aiken, Gladys Wells, Kieith Schumacher and Stanley Humley.

Gordon Bradley told the group of the action taken at a board of directors meeting last Tuesday night. Dr. C. L. Persons was named program chairman and the group voted to contribute to the group voted to contribute to the Jaycee War Memorial to be built in Tulsa, Okla.

Coach Names Three Causes For 'Bama's Lack Of Condition

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 18 (AP)—Coach Red Drew blamed today the Alabama varsity's lack of condition on the "10-day lay-off and last week's bad weather, plus a busy banquet league."

Drew said the first stringers were far from impressive yesterday day in a lengthy scrimmage on pass defense during which tailbacks Harry Gilmer, Monk Mosley and Ed Salem took over the role of Texas' Bobby Layne to toss passes against their varsity mates.

The Tide coach said he would seek to get the squad back into condition to meet Texas in the Sugar Bowl game with additional heavy scrimmages today and tomorrow.

Holiday Travel Is Told By Popcorn

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 18 (AP)—The popcorn barometer indicated today that the usual surge of Christmas holiday travel is beginning in earnest.

At Kansas City's union station, sale of popcorn has gained recognition as a reasonably accurate travel gauge.

"We can always detect the aroma of the corn when the crowds increase," said George Mock, chief ticket seller. "We seldom notice the scent when business is a little slow but just as it picks up, like now, with Christmas approaching. You really know the machine is popping in full force."

The average week day is about 500 boxes of popcorn. Yesterday 600 boxes were sold, and sales next week are expected to rise to 1,200 boxes daily.

ally moved that the committee recommend that Congress approve legislation calling on Anderson to turn over the list.

Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) told reporters he proposed that Anderson give the committee the information with the understanding it was to be held in confidence until Congress acted on the legislative proposals.

Anderson balked at that and Democrats on the committee objected.

Senator Tydings (D-MD) said that if that were done "in spite of hell and high water there will be leaks." He said he intended no disrespect for his colleagues, but that long Senate experience has proved that newspapers will obtain and print accounts of what is done behind closed doors.

The transcript recorded that Anderson had testified:

"In the event that you as a committee, without further action by the Congress, insist on having the names and addresses of all traders along with the statistical information called for in your subpoena, I shall not permit myself to be charged with shielding anyone by refusal to grant your request."

The committee served a subpoena on Anderson yesterday directing him to appear before it this morning with all information he has on commodity trading. The group is inquiring into reports that government "insiders" have profited from speculations in wheat and other commodities.

Anderson's remark about "shielding" apparently was a reference to statements by Harold E. Staassen, Republican presidential hopeful, that "insiders" have profited by trading in commodities.

"I assure you again," Anderson said, "that neither the President nor I have the slightest objection to releasing the information you desire if the means are provided for doing so in good conscience, by direction of the Congress, and not under the shadow of legal doubt."

Both Ferguson and Chairman Bridges (R-NH) have contended that Anderson is now legally free to make public the list.

But Anderson said the provisions of the Commodity Exchange Act, under which the list was compiled, "impose a specific duty upon me to keep confidential all such information obtained by the department in the administration of the act."

At his own retail lot here, he said he would sell trees three feet to 15 feet in height for $1 each.

The late president's son, now occupied with his mother in farming part of the old Roose-

House Sends Curb Bill To President

Democrats Unable To Alter Measure And Give Truman Power To Allocate Items

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP)—The House sent to President Truman today a bill for voluntary price controls to hold down living costs.

Democrats made a futile attempt to alter the measure and give the President authority to order allocation of scarce commodities if necessary, but they were overruled by an almost solid Republican front.

The bill was passed after only two hours of debate under procedure that prevented free offering of amendments and curtailed debate. Democrats condemned the measure as "super-super" but Republicans replied that with Congress adjourning tonight it was the Senate bill or nothing at all.

Before final passage, the House defeated on a 156 to 73 standing vote a motion to send the measure back to the Banking Committee for inclusion of authority for the President to divide up scarce commodities when voluntary agreements fail.

The House then headed for a final vote which would send the bill to President Truman before midnight.

The measure was brought up in the House under procedure restricting amendments and limiting debate.

Only one hour of debate was allowed.

Yet Group Seeks To Tell Truman Of GF's Living Costs

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP)—A committee of student veterans asked the White House for a chance to tell President Truman personally today how the cost of living is putting the squeeze on veterans in college.

This is a situation that subversive groups, operating on college campuses, had prayed for, said Tucker Irvin of Washington, Ga., a committee member.

Meyers Indicted By Federal Grand Jury

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP)—A Federal Grand Jury today indicted Mal General Bennett E. Meyers on charges of perjury and inducing others to swear to falsehoods. The jury also indicted Blaine H. Lamarr, 45.

The charges grew out of the Senate War Investigating Committee's inquiry into Meyers' wartime business deals.

BANK GIVES BONUS

Downtown Sanford has a bright, cheery Christmas look, especially at evening when the brightly colored lights shine in their long strings over the streets, and show windows, beautifully decorated with Christmas trees and decorations, display attractive merchandise and toys.

In Fort Mellon Park one of the oak trees has been strung with multi-colored lights, and inside the trimmed tree, and attractive decorations. Rows of Christmas trees in front of downtown groceries and in their windows to add to the Christmas-like atmosphere.

Never have display windows and store interiors in the business section been more attractively decorated, and in contrast to years, display many items that were then hard to secure.

C. C. Commander, general manager of the exchange, told the board the only solution to present low marketing conditions, which in many cases have forced prices below cost of production, is formation of such an organization.

AUSTRALIAN WHEAT

LONDON, Dec. 19 (AP)—Food Minister John Birchall announced today that the British-Australian agreement, announced yesterday in Sidney, should enable Britain to get along without United States wheat during the 1947-48 crop year.

Sen. Bridges Against Reds German Action

Chairman Of Senate Committee Fights For Bill To Stop Dismantling Work

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP)—The Senate struck from a foreign aid money bill today a provision against further dismantling of German industrial plants and their shipment to Russia.

Action came on voice vote after Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) of the Foreign Relations Committee said that while he favors halting such dismantling to Russia, the Senate's action would have the effect of repudiating American agreement at the Paris conference at which friendly European nations were promised German reparations.

Farmers Demand Continuation Of Price Supports

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP)—Senator Bridges (R-Mich.) said today he would favor blowing up German industrial plants rather than permit them to be dismantled and fall into Russia's hands.

"I am not so damn stupid that I want to send them to Russia," Bridges shouted in the Senate.

Bureau Also Opposes Reimposition Of Rationing Control

CHICAGO, Dec. 19 (AP)—Reimposition of price supports and other government aids for the nation's farmers is urged by the American Farm Bureau Federation in resolutions approved at the organization's annual meeting.

An effective national farm program, the federation said at the final session of its four-day convention yesterday, "is essential in order to maintain agriculture on a basis of economic equality with industry, labor and other segments of our industry."

President Asks 17 Billion For Marshall Plan To Aid Europe; Prices To Govern Exact Sum

Request Of Sixteen Nations Is Not Met In Full As Short Supplies Withheld

Marshall Reports On Collapse Of Foreign Ministers Meeting

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP)—President Truman today asked for $17 billion to carry out the Marshall Plan for European recovery, but said he would not ask for more than the $17 billion unless the nations asked for it.

Behind the Chief Executive's message to Congress today proposing a $17,000,000,000 four-year assistance program is an exhaustive governmental study overhauling the economic planning done by the Marshall Plan nations at Paris in September.

Released by the State Department simultaneously with the reading of the President's message to Congress, this study notifies Europe that the United States does not supply as much grain, fats and oil, petroleum, fertilizer, tractors or freight cars as the Paris report requested.

It also suggests that the Paris plan be revised further to:

1. Increase Europe's own exports, even though it might mean a slower rise in living standards there.
2. Slow down plans for factory, power plant and housing expansion on the ground that excessive "capital formation" means less goods for consumers, lower exports, and inflation.
3. Charter 300 ships from the United States temporarily, in addition to the planned purchase of 200 war-built vessels, and reduce Europe's own four-year objective of 15,000,000 tons of ship construction.

But the economic report, which carries the full text of the Marshall Plan legislation proposed by Mr. Truman, noted Tuesday:

"It seems clear that the direction must be away from austerity if some countries it would mean how he views the present outlook for peace, the Chief Executive said he had at all times heartened on that development of his news conference late yesterday. He said Marshall will make a full report tonight.

Agricultural Use For Man Made Radioactive Atoms Is Proposed

AUBURN, Ala., Dec. 19 (AP)—An agricultural use of the new man-made radioactive atoms that might be equivalent to the work of a million Luther Burbanks was proposed to the atomic agricultural research meeting that went into its second session today at Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

Burbank was the world-famous plant wizard who discovered mutation, or hereditary changes, that produced new species of berries and other garden plants. This he did by planting tens of thousands of species, many by cross-breeding, and then looking through his fields for the "sports," or new kinds of plants.

REDS STALLING

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, Dec. 19 (AP)—King Mihail's uncle Prince Nicolas, says the Communist-led Rumanian government is stalling for mysterious reasons in giving its approval to the marriage of the 25-year-old Rumanian monarch and Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma.

"I do not think they have any thing against Princess Anne personally," he told reporters last night. "They probably would have done the same thing with any girl the King wanted to marry."

Officials To Get $712,500 A Year

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP)—The top officials who will run the Marshall Plan for European recovery could get paychecks totaling $712,500 a year, if Congress concurs with President Truman's idea on salaries.

Mr. Truman asked $20,000 a year for the No. 1 man, the Administrator of the proposed economic cooperation administration (ECA). A deputy administrator would receive $17,500.

ECA's key man overseas, the "United States Representative in Europe," would receive $25,000, plus the allowance of a diplomat chief of mission, the pay that goes with the rank of ambassador.

 Senate that the State Department is seeking agreement with Great Britain to halt the "log end" of the dismantling of German plants and their shipment to Russia and its satellites.
 Vandenberg said he agrees with the objective of the bill, but that it does not favor such a "log end" of the dismantling of German plants and their shipment to Russia and its satellites.
 Vandenberg promised a full inquiry into the matter by his Foreign Relations Committee as the Senate passed a measure appropriating $568,000,000 in emergency foreign aid, including $18,000,000 for China.
 The House measure did not include any funds for China. The Senate action now must be reconciled in conference with the House appropriation.
 The Senate Appropriation Committee last night approved $50,000,000 in aid for China but this was trimmed by the Senate to $18,000,000.
 The action was taken as Vandenberg argued in favor of the appropriation to help China in its battle against Communism. He added, however, that there is "no way" in which the $20,000,000 could be administered under the pending foreign aid measure.
 "There is absolutely no plan behind this $20,000,000," Vandenberg said.
 He recalled that there still remained $18,000,000 authorized but not yet appropriated under a Foreign Aid Bill passed earlier this year by which China is getting some $20,000,000.
 Vandenberg asked that the pro-

He will also sing Schubert's "Ave Maria" at the 11:00 o'clock Christmas Eve service at Holy Cross Episcopal Church prior to the sermon. This will also be broadcast.
 After the holidays he said, he will return to New York for the spring opera season. He revealed that he had sung at a number of concerts in New York during the season.
 Of the amount voted by the Senate, $50,000,000 will go to France, Italy and Austria. This compares with $97,000,000 asked by the administration for those countries and with $20,000,000 voted yesterday by the House.

 The action was taken as Vandenberg argued in favor of the appropriation to help China in its battle against Communism. He added, however, that there is "no way" in which the $20,000,000 could be administered under the pending foreign aid measure.
 "There is absolutely no plan behind this $20,000,000," Vandenberg said.
 He recalled that there still remained $18,000,000 authorized but not yet appropriated under a Foreign Aid Bill passed earlier this year by which China is getting some $20,000,000.

 WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP)—An American submarine remained under water off New England recently for "a couple of weeks" and could have stayed there much longer, Rear Admiral Charles W. Storer revealed.
 The craft was equipped with a "snorkel," or breather tube, conical in shape and made of canvas. The British admiralty recently announced that one of its submarines equipped with a similar breather tube had submerged for several weeks.
 "There's no trick to staying down with a snorkel tube," Storer, assistant chief of naval operations, said in an interview. "The only limit on how long you can stay down is the fuel supply."
 Details of German submarine inventions are known to all nations now including Russia.

 Fine cooperation from members of industry and veterans organizations in the Salvation Army's campaign to raise funds to provide Christmas packages of food for needy families and toys for children, was reported by Capt. Fred Hudson.
 As an example he cited the fine showing of receipts at the dime store and kitchen Saturday when more than $15,000 was raised. The American Legion Auxiliary raised $62 on Tuesday and on Wednesday, the First Methodist Church reported $29 in donations.
 The Jaycees were scheduled to take over the boards yesterday, the Lions on Friday and Kiwanis on Saturday. Next Monday the YW will preside at the loans, followed by the Kiwanis Club and the Christmas Eve, the American Legion.
 Capt. Hudson revealed that he had compiled a list of 90 needy families to whom baskets of food will be donated and to whose children, toys will be given Christmas Eve at the Salvation Army Post, which the State Welfare Department, which Mrs. Jane Collier supervises, has furnished about 70 of those names, and more are expected to be added.
 Many of the toys, other than those purchased have been received as gifts from Sanford Merchants, said Captain Hudson. Donations are about on a par with those of last year, he declared.

 The hall was beautifully decorated with a "large" lighted Christmas tree, red and green streamers and other decorations. The decorations were a commendable work of volunteers from the Tourist Club.
 Club members are now enjoying the use of the shuffleboard and horseshoe courts, and the winds off the lake are stopped by a barrier of wind-forecast palm trees. Workers are now busy in the park enlarging from 50 to 70 feet the diameter of the circular track used for miniature automobile racing. The decorated tree nearby presents a very attractive appearance when illuminated at night.
 Next Monday evening at 8:15 there will be a pot luck supper at the club with members contributing the food.
 Those attending, said Mr. Armstrong, are requested to bring toys or gifts, later to be distributed to the underprivileged children by the Salvation Army.

 Senate that the State Department is seeking agreement with Great Britain to halt the "log end" of the dismantling of German plants and their shipment to Russia and its satellites.
 Vandenberg said he agrees with the objective of the bill, but that it does not favor such a "log end" of the dismantling of German plants and their shipment to Russia and its satellites.
 Vandenberg promised a full inquiry into the matter by his Foreign Relations Committee as the Senate passed a measure appropriating $568,000,000 in emergency foreign aid, including $18,000,000 for China.
 The House measure did not include any funds for China. The Senate action now must be reconciled in conference with the House appropriation.
 The Senate Appropriation Committee last night approved $50,000,000 in aid for China but this was trimmed by the Senate to $18,000,000.

He will also sing Schubert's "Ave Maria" at the 11:00 o'clock Christmas Eve service at Holy Cross Episcopal Church prior to the sermon. This will also be broadcast.
 After the holidays he said, he will return to New York for the spring opera season. He revealed that he had sung at a number of concerts in New York during the season.
 Of the amount voted by the Senate, $50,000,000 will go to France, Italy and Austria. This compares with $97,000,000 asked by the administration for those countries and with $20,000,000 voted yesterday by the House.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

KINDLY THINGS, LOVELY THINGS, LOOK FOR GOOD EVEN IN IMPERFECT PEOPLE AND IN AN IMPERFECT WORLD. THERE IS CORRUPTION IN THE WORLD BUT WE DO NOT HAVE TO LIMIT OUR INTEREST TO IT. BETTER THROW THE BOOK AWAY: The lamp of the body is the eye; if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.—Matt. 6:22.

According to a poll recently conducted by the Successful Farming magazine, 52 percent of the nation's six million farmers never heard of the Marshall Plan. Guess the newspapers and the radios haven't been playing it up enough.

You may not who is going to be elected President next year, but there is no doubt about it in the minds of the star-gazers. The astrologers have studied their charts for 1948 and have agreed unanimously that the man with the most favorable horoscope for 1948 is none other than the popular, the courageous, the inimitable, the unwilling General Eisenhower. If that boy doesn't get elected, it won't be because of his friends' reticence.

One man's meat is another man's poison. The string bean deal reported "as hot as a fire-cracker" from the farmers' point of view where 100,000 hampers have been sold for $319,000 is just another item in the high cost of living for the average consumer. One of the saddest facts of life is that we can't always get high prices for all the things we sell, low prices for the things we have to buy, at one and the same time.

Do you know how much gold the United States government now has in its possession? The latest Treasury figures we have seen show a gold balance of $22,717,739,599.36, or over two billion dollars more than last year at this time, and about 17 billion dollars during the heyday of the boom of 20 years ago. When anyone says anything to you about the economic collapse for which this country is heading, just remember that it will take a long time to spend that much money, in gold.

Recognizing the growing intensity of the parking problem the City Commissioners have decided to erect some 48 new parking meters further to keep automobiles out of the business district. What this parking problem would be if everyone who wants a car and has the money to pay for it, could buy one, is horrible to contemplate. So is the traffic congestion and the wear and tear on city streets, already at the verge of complete disintegration. If the proceeds from the parking meters could be devoted to the repair of the streets, there would be a greater disposition on the part of the public to approve them.

A special congressional investigation will be made of those who have been speculating in grain markets, including government officials. Grain speculation is bad enough for anyone to engage in since it is just another form of gambling, and a particularly vicious form since it tends to force up the price of the food people buy, but for a government official such speculation should be against the law. Because of their secret inside information on government policies tending to influence the market's gyrations, they are able to profit in a way no private citizen can hope to profit. And because of such possible profits, their judgments with respect to their official decisions may be unjustifiably influenced.

Fire Hazards

The jollity and enjoyment of the Christmas season need not be sacrificed, and the chances of disaster by fire or accident darkening the festivities can be greatly reduced by observing a few sensible safety precautions, according to W. Graham Cole, in charge of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's safety bureau.

Mr. Cole's Yule-tide safety suggestions include: Set up the Christmas tree well away from radiator, which dry it out and make it highly inflammable, and certainly well away from the fireplace, lighted candles, or flammable draperies. Dispose of the tree by New Year's Day, or earlier, because as it dries out it becomes more of a fire hazard.

When you trim the top of the Christmas tree, use something firm to stand on, preferably a dependable step ladder. It's worth your while to be extra careful, for most of the people hurt in falls lose their balance while working inside the home.

Check the wiring for your Christmas tree lights for worn insulation, bare wires, and loose connections, and have all repairs made before placing the lights on the tree. Don't hook up the Christmas tree lights with a circuit heavily loaded with appliances. Above all, place the wires where folks won't trip over them. Don't ever use a lighted candle on the Christmas tree!

And never — positively never! — put a lighted candle in a window where drapes can blow against it!

While the gifts are being distributed, view the mounting heap of highly inflammable wrappings as a fire hazard, and get rid of them as soon as possible.

Learn for yourself, and make sure that the one receiving new gifts thoroughly understands their safe handling. Follow especially the manufacturer's precautions.

For smaller children avoid toys with sharp edges or small parts that might be swallowed.

Last, but by no means least in importance, when Christmas Day draws to a close, show your child a safe place to put his toys, and teach him to put them there safely. Only in the funny papers is a fall caused by roller skates or a toy locomotive humorous; in real life it is serious.

The yearly toll of Christmas season accidents can be reduced greatly by common-sense safety precautions "before the accident occurs," Mr. Cole believes.

For Home Consumption

Observers of Russian technique at United Nations meetings have been baffled by the insistence of Molotov and Vishinsky on making long speeches vilifying the Western nations.

It has been obvious for some time that this method was making no friends and losing for them whatever influence they may have had. Secretary Marshall has sharply stated that they know their accusations to be untrue. Mr. Bevin has rebuked Molotov for his insulting language, and the Russian tirades have had no positive influence on public opinion here or in Europe. Why, then, do they keep up this procedure? Secretary Marshall remarked after a tirade by Molotov shortly before the close of the conference:

"It is evident that his words were intended for another audience and for quite another purpose."

This purpose is doubtless to imbue the Russian people with the idea that everyone is wrong but Russia. They are allowed to hear no evidence from the other side, so they are pushed into believing that what they learn from this propaganda is founded on facts. Apparently it is to this huge unseen audience that Russian spokesmen direct their speeches.

Americans are naturally irked by this Russian method, especially since it holds up the peace treaties and consequently delays recovery from war everywhere in the world. But we are not entirely free from sin. Many speeches made in our own House and Senate and elsewhere at present have political implications and are directed more towards getting votes in November than towards serving their ostensible purposes. If the speakers only knew it, they harm themselves thus more than they help. Americans are smarter than politicians think they are. They are quick to detect the phony note under the oratorical noise.

Americans have this advantage, however, over the Russians: We can hear both sides of all questions.

The Vice President

Making the vice president of the United States an assistant-president is proposed in an amendment to the Constitution by Senator Harley Kilgore of West Virginia. No official duties are set for the vice president now except that he shall be president of the Senate and vote in that body when a tie occurs. The amendment would give the President official help in his job which is becoming increasingly arduous. Also it would offer the Vice President training which would be most useful should the President die, or become incapacitated in office.

At present, because of special legislation, should President Truman die in office the Speaker of the House, Sam Rayburn of Texas, would succeed him. The Constitution originally provided that the Secretary of State would be next in succession. In the Kilgore bill, the vacancy in the vice presidential office when the incumbent moved up would be filled by presidential appointment backed by Senate consent.

Everything points to the good sense of the Kilgore amendment. There has been plenty of precedent in American history to show the need for training a Vice President for succession to the presidency, and for giving the President an officially recognized assistant.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

LI General Albert E. Wedemeyer, who made a survey of China last summer for President Truman and turned in a report which has been a closely guarded top-drawer secret ever since, expressed some amazingly blunt views about China's situation yesterday in testifying before the U. S. Senate Appropriations Committee which is considering aid for that stricken country.

In connection with his declaration that American assistance is urgently needed, the general laid down the thesis that the United States is "confronted with the expansion of an ideology throughout the world." He didn't name Russia, but it seemed clear that he was seeing "red." Our aim, he maintained, should be "to retard, then block, and then to penetrate back into those areas which have come under the orbit and influence of a power that has world power, and world expansion in its program."

And what of Chiang Kai-Shek and his government? Well, it doesn't matter, said Wedemeyer, whether Chiang is "a benevolent despot, which he practically is." The important fact, in the general's view, is that Chiang fights Communism. Happily for the peace of mind of this column it doesn't have to decide the nature of the aid for China, though aid there must be. If we did have to make this grave decision, we most certainly would have to face this fact:

We aren't considering a moderate operation involving a few score millions of dollars, when we talk about smashing Communism in China, establishing a democratic government and creating economic stability out of the present awful chaos. While nobody could say in advance what the monetary cost would be, horse-sense tells us that it would run into many billions, with a capital B.

And that's not all we should have to consider. Such all-out assistance to China might result in war with Russia. Many observers answer that contingency by saying that if we don't aid China she will be absorbed by Russia and then we shall have the big war anyway, with Communism having the advantage of possessing all of mighty China as a military base.

Then again, assuming that America has provided China with the material aid necessary to smash the Chinese Communists utterly, how is the Nanking government going to deal with these millions of red citizens? Communism won't mix with Democracy or with any otherism. The Chinese Communists cannot be absorbed, and you can't lock 'em all up.

Of course the hope has been that Chiang Kai-Shek could set up a democratic government, which would be attractive to the Reds, but that involves a good deal of wishful thinking. Maybe some wiseman can figure out a way whereby the Chinese Communists could be given a dominion of their own which would be autonomous, while still being loosely linked with the Chinese commonwealth. It's difficult to see any other solution which could be reached without endless bloodshed, and even that would be far from perfect because there would always be the danger that this stage would be absorbed by Russia.

In any event, Chiang either has to smash the Chinese Communists by force, or bargain with them. If it is to be bargaining, then the sooner it comes the better. That not only would pass the civil war and permit of the political and economic reconstruction of China, but might avert World War III.

The Unfaithful Opens At Ritz On Sunday

Ann Sheridan will be seen as co-star for the first time with Zachary Scott and Lew Ayres, when Warner Bros. new romantic drama, "The Unfaithful," opens at the Ritz Theater on Sunday.

Written for the screen by David Goodis and James Gunn, the new film dramatizes the romantic and economic problems faced by a returning veteran.

Miss Sheridan is cast as an unfaithful wife whose extreme loneliness during her service man husband's long absence leads to a series of emotional climaxes.

Scott has the role of the GI who returns to discover that his home is in danger of breaking up, and Lew Ayres plays the sympathetic family friend who tries to keep husband and wife together.

Other important roles in "The Unfaithful" are portrayed by Eve Arden, Jerome Cowan, Steven Geray and John Hoyt.

The timely screen drama was directed by Vincent Sherman and produced by Warner Bros. by Jerry Wald. Original background music was composed by Max Steiner.

Odessa is woven throughout the story with a mysterious death and a less court-room trial figuring prominently in the film plot.

Probe Opened By New Orleans Paper For Sugar Bowl Tickets

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 18 (AP)—What has happened to 24,000 Sugar Bowl tickets? That question was posed here today by the New Orleans Times-Picayune which, in a front page story, called on the Mid-Winter Sports Association, Sugar Bowl sponsors for an accounting of that many tickets to the Jan. 1 classic.

The article said inquiries concerning the disposition of the tickets were begun after the newspaper received a letter reporting a speculator had offered the letter-writer one Sugar Bowl ticket for $50 or four for $150.

Sam Cornsweat, president of the Mid-Winter Sports Association, was not available for comment on the article, but the Times-Picayune said it did not feel he should make public this (requested) information without the approval of fellow members of the association.

The article pointed out that the Sugar Bowl will seat approximately 72,000 fans. It said the association announced that 24,000 tickets went to the University of Alabama and the University of Texas. Another 21,000, it said, are available to holders of Sugar Bowl Stadium bonds.

"What happened to the other 27,000 tickets has not been explained in detail by the Mid-Winter Sports Association," the article said.

"Some of them went to members of the association, others went to representatives of the press and radio. Others have been set aside for distinguished visitors. Others went to guarantors who underwrote the cost of the first Sugar Bowl games," it said.

"However, just how many tickets went to each group has not been announced—and probably will not be made public this year," the article added.

Performances Of Teams Indicate Good Bowl Game

MIAMI, Dec. 19 (Special)—Off the cold figures of football past performance sheets, your 1948 Orange Bowl game between Kansas and Georgia Tech will be pretty much of an offensive toss-up.

The high flying Jayhawks—paced by All-American Halfback Ray Evans—were 11th in the nation for 1947 in total offense with 3,265 yards in 10 games, and Georgia Tech was 12th with 3,351 yards for the same number of trips to the post.

Kansas—against such as Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Oklahoma A & M—completed 143 first downs, and gained 2153 net rushing and 1212 in the air. Georgia Tech—against such as Alabama, Duke, Navy, Tulane and Georgia—rolled up 131 first downs, and netted 2,908 on the ground and 1,251 with passes.

The tipoff of the appeal of the two Orange Bowl teams can be found in the total plays. Kansas ran 598 in 10 contests, or an average of almost 60 a game. The Engineers were in 550 offensive plays, or an average of almost 55 a game. This gives Tech an average if almost six yards for every time it handled the ball on offense, and the Jayhawks' an average of 5.5 yards.

Kansas has an edge in the matter of returning kickoffs, punts and intercepted passes. The Jayhawks have winged 599 with 45 punts during 1947, as against 464 yard total for Georgia Tech for 37 punts. Kansas' return with intercepted passes is 241 yards against 192 for the Engineers. And the Jayhawks have come back 450 yards with kickoffs as compared with Georgia Tech's 281.

Georgia Tech, on the other hand, has a considerably better passing record. Eighty-nine of 155 tosses have hit the mark, 16 of them for touchdowns. The Kansas record is 63 completions—14 of them scoring variety—in 121 tries.

If punting be considered an offensive weapon, Georgia Tech has an edge there, too. The Engineers have averaged 36.5 for the season on kicks as against 34.0 yards for Kansas.

COMMENTS from the SIDELINES

By ARTHUR HECKWITH, JR.

Wow!!!

After we wrote our column yesterday we sat down and figured out just how far in the hole DeLand and Daytona Beach would go, if the extra salary expenses were tacked on the ball clubs in the Florida State League next year.

Yesir, it was nothing short of amazing when you figure them for item how much it will cost to run a ball club, even in Class D competition.

The first item on the list will be the money paid to the players. $2,500 a month for five and one half months figures out to be $14,250 for 17 players. A club will cost at least another $400 a month and that will run the expenses for salaries to $15,650 for the year.

Next on the list would be pay for grounds keepers, club house boys, business manager, official scorers and minor office expenses. This will run up to $3,000. A club will use 100 dozen balls a year which will cost $1,700 and at least four dozen bats which will be $100. Traveling expenses for players from town to town will amount to $750 and feeding them while on these trips will cost a club $1,800.

Spring training expenses are high. The least a club can expect to spend for this item will be $2,500. Uniforms for players will cost $1,300 and lights for the park will be another $1,200. Bulbs and lighting repairs will cost $250 and uniform cleaning will be $500 more.

The league assessment last year was $850 per month, or $1,925 for the year. Insurance on the bus and player costs $350 and social security and unemployment taxes will be at least $600. Doctor bills for injured players will amount to $200 and telephone and graph bills will amount to $300 for the year. These expenses alone amount to $82,875. There are other items that enter into a season's bills that we might not have listed.

$2,875 amounts to $5,750 ADULT admissions to a park for the season. Of course, this does not include playoff expenses, or receipts.

With this in mind, we went over the totals for patrons entering the parks around the Florida State League and we find that there are but TWO teams in the league with over 65,000 admissions. These patrons were not all adults either. Some of them were colored tickets and some were children's tickets.

Gainesville had 69,763 attenders and St. Augustine played before 76,735 people. The next best record was that of DeLand with 60,033.

Should DeLand draw the same number of patrons next year as they did last year, they will still be $2,850 in the RED. Palatka drew 45,997 spectators and they would be

Harry Hamilton, 6'3" Florida forward from Gainesville who is currently settling the basketball courts affair for the Gators, will be one of the headliners in the two game series with the University of Miami in Miami Friday and Saturday. Hamilton has scored 52 points in the Gator's first four games this season. The Florida record stands at three wins against one loss.

CROWLEY TO TALK IN MIAMI
MIAMI, Dec. 19—Jim Crowley, one of football's all-time greats, will be the speaker at the Orange Bowl Kickoff Luncheon of combined Miami civic clubs at noon, December 29 in the Bayfront Auditorium.

THOSE LINES ARE TOUGH
MIAMI, Dec. 19—Testimonial to the strength of the opposing Kansas and Georgia Tech lines for the 1948 Orange Bowl game; neither had a punt knocked against it all season.

$9,876 behind and Daytona with 51,661 would be $7,045 behind in their accounts.

All this says is that THEY CAN NOT OPERATE UNDER THESE CONDITIONS. This is a long haul, and we would surely like to see these three teams remain in the circuit, but they can not do it unless something is done.

Tennis Players
Welcome to Sanford. Pauline Betz, The Celery City has added another sports personality to its growing list of famous residents and visitors.

Miss Betz will remain in Sanford for the winter and will be available to tennis fans for lessons at the Mayfair Inn, which is sponsoring the Cooke-Betz troupe as instructors for the Bath and Tennis Club.

Manager Lind Weber of the Mayfair says that all tennis-minded people of Sanford may take advantage of the opportunity and the instruction will not be limited to Bath and Tennis Club members.

California, Purdue And SMU Are Rated Most Improved Teams In '47

NEW YORK, Dec. 19 (AP)—California, Purdue and Southern Methodist are rated the most improved football teams of 1947 in the annual Associated Press-sponsored poll of writers, coaches and athletic directors. The magazine tabbed Ohio State and Iowa as the greatest disappointments.

Rated on the basis of recovery after a shaky start, the honors would have gone to North Carolina, Oregon and Alabama which finished strong. But the poll was conducted with the idea of comparing final results with pre-season expectations.

Lynn Waldorf, coaching the California Bears for the first time, walked into a tough job. The team lost seven of nine starts in 1946. In a complete reversal of form by many of the same players, California won nine of 10, losing only to Southern California in the Pacific Coast Conference championship, 10-14.

Sturlus bounced around the Big Nine cellar last fall but allied strongly behind new Coach Stu Holcomb for a fine record of five wins and four defeats in strenuous competition. The Bolleymakers bowed to Wisconsin by 18 points, drew a scare into Notre Dame before succumbing, 22-7, and then lost to Minnesota by five points and to Indiana by two.

Southern Methodist, led by Doak Walker who returned from service late last season, swept through the Southwest Conference with a perfect record until tied by Texas Christian in its final game. A 14-13 decision over Texas was the clincher. Coach Wally Bell's Mustangs won only four of 10 in 1946.

The North Carolina club, highly touted in pre-season talk, bowed to Texas and Wake Forest before sprinting to seven straight victories including 18-7 over William and Mary, 21-0 over Duke and 40-7 over Virginia.

Alabama also started slowly, losing two of its first three, but the Tide bowled over seven successive foes to move into the Sugar Bowl opposite Texas.

Jim Aiken must have done a great job in his first year at Oregon. The Wolfpack lost three out of four and then cut loose with a six-game win string that brushed off Washington, San Francisco, Idaho, Washington State, Stanford and Oregon State. Penn State, Iowa State, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Rutgers, Mississippi and Maryland were other drawing more than one vote each in the "most improved category."

Failure of the Ohio State line was generally accepted as the reason for the Buckeyes' flop, winning only two and tying one in nine starts.

The team that was given the pre-season buildup as the "dark horse" of the Big Nine was Iowa yet they failed to do better than three won and a tie in nine games. Things were so tough that Coach Eddie Anderson offered his resignation just before the Minnesota game. His team then went out and knocked over the favored Gophers, 13-7.

KICK IT AWAY FROM HIM
MIAMI, Dec. 19—Bud Funch (No. 23) will be the Kansas receiver to watch on Georgia Tech kickoffs in the Orange Bowl. Bud returned six kickoffs for 153 yards during the Fall.

KANSAS HAND TO MIAMI
MIAMI, Dec. 19—The University of Kansas hand will accompany the Jayhawks to Miami for the New Year's Orange Bowl game with Georgia Tech.

Increased rubber plantings, especially in the Dutch East Indies, induced by $1.23-a-pound rubber in 1925 contributed to lower prices which brought spot rubber as low as three cents a pound in the depression '30s.

Gators To Meet Miami U. In Two Tilts This Week

GAINESVILLE, Dec. 18 (Special)—Pre-Christmas play for the University of Florida basketball team will come to a close this weekend with a two-game series against the University of Miami in Miami Friday and Saturday.

The Gators will be forced to go against their arch rival in state play without the services of regular forward Bill Atkinson, the Jacksonville letterman who was injured in the Mississippi State game and is not expected back in action until the first of the year.

In the four games played, Tenzler leads the individual scorers with 64 points, followed by Hamilton's 52, and Miller's 51 one forward and Julian Miller at one of the guard positions.

Off to a good start with three wins in four games, the Gators have defeated Tampa, Mississippi State and Auburn, and topped a contest to Auburn. A ten-man squad will make the Miami trip, leaving here Thursday afternoon.

Coach Sam McAllister, minus the services of Atkinson and with standout center Hans Tenzler on the ailing list with a cold, may start sophomore Bill Welch at the center post, with either Harold Haskins or Henry Cornell at Atkinson's forward, Harry Hamilton will be

Prothro Is Charged In Federal Court By Daughter-In-Law

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 18 (AP)—A $100,000 damage suit against James Thompson (Doc) Prothro, until recently manager of the Memphis Baseball Club of the Southern Association, was filed in federal court yesterday.

The complaint, filed by Mrs. Ann Gorin Prothro, a daughter-in-law, charges the former Chick manager and his wife with alienating the affections of J. T. (Tommy) Prothro, their son.

Young Prothro, an assistant football coach at Vanderbilt, was recently denied a divorce from his wife.
