COUNTY HAPPENINGS

A BUNCH OF INTERESTING ITEMS FROM CORRESPONDENTS—EVENTS OF SEMINOLE COUNTY—EFFICIENT REPORTERS FOR THE HERALD

GENEVA

The Herald got us down as Oviedo last week. Mistakes will happen.

By mistake also some of the Sanford visitors at our Sunday school picnic were not mentioned, these being Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Whitcom, Glen Whitcom, Meriam Whitcom, Miss Nell Dooley, Carmeta Barber and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis. We are always glad to have our Sanford friends with us.

Mrs. Starling of Daytona is visiting her son, Ira Starling and family. Aubrey Moran had the misfortune to have a horse fall with him one day last week, breaking one rib and badly spraining his arm.

Mrs. Bessie Hart received a telegram last week that Gladys Horn was dead. Gladys' father moved his family from here to Palatka a year ago, leaving many friends here who deeply sympathize with them in their sorrow.

Mrs. Bessie Hart is visiting her brother, Rev. Abercrombie at Umatilla.

B. P. Mills of Jacksonville visited friends in Geneva last week.

W. A. Whitcom is moving into what is known as the "Eartell" place. Geneva is glad to welcome them.

Dr. W. A. Parrishall is visiting friends at Ft. Pierce this week.

The Misses "Snooks" of Wierdale are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Logan.

Mrs. L. P. Daniels of New Smyrna is expected tomorrow to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Daniels on an auto trip to Largo to see her brother, Rev. Herman Daniels and family.

All Geneva was saddened last Friday when the news came that Rev. W. A. Stokes was dead. He was the pastor of the Baptist church here and at Oviedo and was loved by all who knew him and while we realize our loss is Heaven's gain we shall surely miss his presence among us. Those attending the funeral from here were Mrs. J. V. Wicks, Mrs. Geo. Peters, Mrs. C. W. Culpepper, Mrs. Foster and Mr. Ross Franklin.

LONGWOOD PICK-UPS
W. S. Entzinger's family have moved to Plant City where Mr. Entzinger has an interest in a turpentine farm.

Mrs. J. S. Dinkel spent Friday and Saturday of last week in Orlando, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Morton.

Miss Lillian Waits has returned home from Williston where she has been teaching the past winter.

Misses Olive Waits and Willie Fay Rieneau have returned home from Orlando where they have been attending Orlando High School.

J. E. Phipps has painted his bungalow on "Crank Hill."

Mrs. G. S. Maurey of Orlando was the guest of Mrs. Dinkel on Wednesday and Thursday.

A. C. Hallam of Miami spent several days the guest of Mr. Grist and Miss Hattie Grist.

Geo. S. Dann and wife and son, Ernest of Ocoee and Miss Lillian Dann of Orlando motored over Sunday and called on Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dinkel.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen have purchased a Roo car.

C. W. Entzinger and Mr. Truitt have sold their tomato crop over on the Wekiwa for $2,000. Who says you want garden in Florida?

The Longwood school closed last Friday and celebrated the occasion by having a picnic over to Palm Springs.

Death of Mrs. Dickson

Word was received last week of the death of Mrs. S. E. Dickson of Sanford. She leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss. E. W. Dickson, Mrs. James Stewart, Miss Mildred and Miss Ada Dickson, all of Sanford. Mrs. Dickson was a member of Christ Church and had lived in Longwood thirty years where she had many friends. She moved to Sanford with her family several years ago and for the last three years has been confined to her bed, but her friends always found her bright and cheerful. She was a devoted wife and mother and a loyal friend. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of their Longwood friends.

WEST GENEVA AVENUE
The hail storm Tuesday evening laid the corn, peppers and tomatoes down bad. It was awful for a few minutes.

Will Robinson is the lucky man in killing rattlesnakes. He killed a large one Monday morning near his place with six rattles and a button. We hope it will be his good luck to kill them and not get bitten by them.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Robinson and family spent last Sunday in Geneva with Mrs. Robinson's brother, Jas. Byrd and all went blueberry picking and brought home eight quarts to can.

Mrs. Wm. Robinson and Mrs. Culp spent a pleasant afternoon on Monday with Mrs. Jack Vaughn.

We learn that Lafayette Humphrey is back home again from overseas. We are all glad to have them come.

We all hope that peace will soon be settled so all things will get straight again on earth. We are all living in hopes of it taking place soon anyway.

Our little city of Sanford is improving every day. Every body is bright and cheerful and business is rushing. Everyone seems to be busy.

Mrs. Jack Vaughn is expecting her nephew, Paul Mansfield from Tampa soon to spend the summer with her.

Our mail man is fine and no mistakes are made in the mail. Everybody likes him fine.

Buy With Your Ears
as well as your eyes

—and you won't mistake a peacock for a nightingale or an ordinary talking machine for a jeweled Pathe. Listen to the Pathe with the Sapphire Ball and all-wood violin tone chamber. You hear every note—every word clearly, distinctly, no scratching metallic sounds. You cannot help being impressed with the Pathe superiority in tone when you buy with your ears. Your eyes will see the tiny (hand-polished) Sapphire Ball gliding smoothly round and round without wearing or cutting the groove. See it rubbed across the record—children often do this—without hurting it. And remember no needles to change. Even if you buy with your eyes—you will see many advantages in the Pathe Instrument not found in the ordinary talking machine. Come to our store and hear the tone of an instrument as clear as the song of a nightingale, in a cabinet as big and beautiful as a peacock.

Florida Horticulturists Meet in Ocala Next Year

The session of the Florida State Horticultural Society in Orlando last week presented an interesting program to a very large attendance.

At the meeting it was reported that the membership of the society now has grown to more than 1,500 members, comprising the foremost growers and farmers of the state. At every session in Orlando the Phillips Theatre was filled to its capacity.

In addition to the discussions there were many subjects of vital interest to growers. The Orlando meeting included a pilgrimage by automobile to the grove of L. A. Hakes at Winter Park, where visitors were shown the original Temple orange tree, now about 20 years old. The Temple orange today is the sensation of the Florida citrus industry, it being declared by many that it promises to be to Florida what the navel orange has been to California. D. C. Gillett showed the visitors reproductions, grown from budwood taken from the Temple tree, which carried all the dominant Temple characteristics including the remarkable Temple color, texture and aroma. The new orange is named in honor of the late William Chase Temple.

Ocala was selected as the place for next annual meeting of the society in a spirited contest in which Lakeland, St. Petersburg, Miami and Daytona also vied for the privilege of entertaining the horticulturists.

Line Crates With Paper

The farmers of Sanford section are using paper for lining crates this season which is proving a very popular idea and a good investment.

Most of the paper used is spoiled sheets from the presses of the Crown Paper Company. They are being sold to the farmers at a very reasonable price and are just right for lining crates.

able price and are just right for lining crates.

It is stated that these lined crates have actually added 25c to the selling price of the package in the northern markets over the unlined crate. It makes a very attractive pack and it is hoped that all of the farmers of the section will avail themselves of this idea. Those who are in position to know state that the grower cannot be too particular in the matter of a neat, attractive package and as this is very little trouble and inexpensive it is believed that more of our growers will use this method of packing if brought to their attention.

Mrs. Hal Wight and Ralph Wight Entertain

Mrs. Hal Wight and Ralph Wight entertained delightfully at a house dance Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wight, Sr., which was loaned for the occasion. The Wight home is a delightful place to entertain with its large rooms, spacious verandas and beautiful lawn.

The rooms of the lower floor which open en suite were artistically decorated for the occasion with spring flowers, roses, Easter lilies, gladiolus, larkspur and quantities of trailing vines.

The verandas and lawns were lighted with Japanese lanterns; here chairs were placed for the dancers and invited guests.

A several piece orchestra furnished music for the evening and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

The two Mrs. Wight received their guests in the reception hall, Mrs. Hal Wight wearing an attractive dancing frock of pale blue satin and white tulle with orchids; Mrs. Ralph Wight wearing a handsome black gown with electric blue trimmings.

Throughout the evening refreshing lime punch was served on the lawn. Presiding at the punch bowl was Miss Alice Caldwell wearing a dainty frock of white. At a late hour an ice course was served. The hostesses were assisted in serving their guests by Mrs. W. J. Watson, Mrs. L. Hart, Miss Adelaide Higgins and Miss Ball. There were many out of town guests attending this beautiful affair.

BUDGET OF OPINION "JUST BETWEEN YOU AND ME" EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief Is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, "He'll Print 'em"--- So Says Saunterer.

I understand from some of the fellows who are regular attenders, that the churches have been raising money lately. That is a good thing. The church needs money, and every man ought to have a church affiliation somewhere and ought to support that affiliation with his ready cash. The church is an institution for the good of the whole community, and the more churches in a community the better the community is. It may be hard for some to understand just why there are so many different kinds of churches all trying to teach the right way. Well, we can't understand that and why worry about it—just as long as two people live here and each have different ways of thinking there will not be one church. It would be grand if there were only one church, but that is next to impossible. Then let's all get together on as many subjects as possible, quit worrying about the rest and work for the common good of the community in which we live. Let's support our churches not only the church of ours and our parents' faith but also the church of our friends' faith; a little money given over there is well spent and will make some one happy. Just remember that a community filled with churches is a good place to live.

I think that I have dipped my pen into a little bit of everything about this town and county, except possibly the schools. Now, I don't wish to criticize any one so all nervousness may cease at once. I wish to make a suggestion one that I don't believe is quite original be cause I have heard it talked on the streets, but maybe as public property it will be near enough original to make. I would say that inasmuch as the Sanford school system is at present without a principal that is, what is called a supervising principal that the school board allow the Sanford school system to remain for at least a year without a man of this kind. Just try it out for once and see what an out will be made at running the schools as separate schools. I believe it can be done, and let the superintendent combine the reports so as to get the schools in under one head. If this can be worked out I am sure that some money will be saved and the system of schools will be quite as efficient. The superintendent we have now is thoroughly capable of directing and supervising the Sanford school system and he could do it very easily without the help of the supervising principal, and if it can be done right and legally he will do it—but he should have the support of the people with him.

I am so glad that Sanford is about to have a hospital. I think the proposition made by one of our town ladies is a fine one, and one that the city or the hospital association ought to take advantage of at once. The home offered by this lady for the hospital will make a good one, and with just a little fixing Sanford will have an up-to-date hospital. I tell you that Sanford and the people of Sanford are coming to the front, and first thing we know Sanford will be right up along the front of the list of Florida cities when it comes to enterprise, community pride and leadership. Sanford has needed a hospital for some time—one here during the "flu" would have helped mightily. While not a sickly place at the same time with the large population some people are bound to get sick and a place fixed up to look after the sick, ought to be looked after will be a big asset to the city. I certainly hope that the city and the association will join forces in this work and that the beautiful home will be accepted and placed in commission as a first class hospital right away.

Now Seminole county has a home of its own, the court and the county offices have moved in the new Court House. I did not get down until just the other day and therefore did not see those fellows in the agony of moving day, but I made a call pretty soon after they got fixed up so as to receive visitors, and I think they ought to feel proud of Seminole county no doubt each one does. The Court House is a splendid structure, built on modern lines, strong, durable and of convenient arrangement. A building that the people of the county can think well of themselves for owning. While we are talking about this thing of beauty I am reminded that once there was a sheriff who prided himself on keeping the grounds of the court yard in tip top trim, and in later years actually made another race for sheriff on that platform and was elected. I am not saying things, but merely hinting at them, for when the carpenters get all through at the new Court House there will be work for some one along this line of keeping the yard in lookable shape.

Just be glad—this is the new order, the new life and the new time. It is the golden gospel of human sunshine. There is more to live for than you ever imagined. Thus far most of us have only touched the merest surface of human existence; we are only on the average of the splendor of life as it is; we are standing on the outside so to speak of the real mansions of mind and soul; and one reason is, we live too much in the limitations of our disappointments. The great soul is always in search of ways and means of adding to the welfare of others. But no way is better, greater or more reaching than this—just be glad.—EX.

Wonder why it is that some people just put themselves up above everything? It is surprising sometimes to see just what a fellow thinks of himself and what he thinks of the multitudes of others. Some fellows, after having been about half raised happen to the good luck of being thrown in pretty good company and after a bit they appear as leaders and are mentioned for some office. Then is where a fellow shows what he is thinking of whether he is thinking of his constituent's business or his own. I say when a man working in a public office the people ought to have consideration at his hands, and he should not at all set himself up as a straight edge to the others to be hewn by. That won't do. I know it won't take many years to get rid of him that doeth things thus, but while he is in—by gosh, he is in, and he can do some awful things for both the people and himself before the people get him out. Some one of these days—it is a long way off, but some time to come offices will seek men, and a body of representative people will await on the man of the choice of the whole people and prevail upon him to take unto himself a certain political job—when those days arrive we shall all rejoice, and while my old gray hairs will hardly be able to witness this most miracle—still it is coming. Then the fresh guys who come out in the paper and have the effort to unblushingly announce that "Upon the solicitation of my many friends, I hereby announce"—no more of that. These days will be glorious days.

Can We Eliminate Teachers. Just because the war made hundreds of thousands of new places for women and offered them, at least temporarily, positions in which they could make a living—salaries that afforded decent clothing, fair board and a few dollars to spend, with few restrictions and pleasant surroundings the country has awakened to the fact that school teachers are scarce and hard to get. For years and years and years the well-educated, careful, patient, well behaved women who for one reason or another had taken up the honorable profession of teaching, have worked along, giving their lives in a splendid cause surely, but getting mighty little applause or even thanks, and merely a pittance in the way of pay. The powers in control of such matters were amazed when it became apparent more or less recently that these women could get something else to do—and decided to make a change.

But the war may have done more for the teacher than merely giving some of them better positions—not better from a point of human interest, or positions of more importance to the country, but better paying positions. And it may be that with the war over, and many of the former teachers realizing that there are places where they can work and earn a comfortable livelihood, with little trouble and fewer annoyances and restrictions, teachers are likely to be harder than ever to secure for the schools. It would appear to be certain that sooner or later the authorities in order to secure teachers would have to recognize the value of such work, and according to the profession a just appreciation of its value invite into the ranks men and women of intelligence and ambition and ability rather than follow the customs that to some would suggest that an effort is being made to eliminate the teacher altogether.

The Gadsden County Times, published at Quincy, recently told of the experiences of a negro woman who had been educated for a teacher, but was forced to abandon the work and "take in washing" in order to support herself and her mother. Continuing, the Times says: "The average grade teacher gets $65 a month for nine months, making a total of $585 a year. Her board cost her at least $360 a year, leaving $225 to stretch over a period of 52 weeks—$225 divided by 52 gives $4.327. Out of that she must dress, pay laundry, entertain, and give to every charity. The school board expects her to attend a summer normal of course. She has to work only three weeks to buy a pair of shoes at present prices. School boards are clamoring for better qualified teachers. Only last week an examination was held in Bristol. A grammar school teacher who wanted to take the examination could get to Bristol for $5 and back to Quincy for the same price. The privilege of taking the examinations was hers for the small sum of $2 or $3. Board while there would not cost less than $5.00. This little pleasure jaunt to Bristol would cost her not less than four weeks' work. The best teachers are leaving the profession every day. Missionary spirit is beautiful but school boards would not employ school teachers clothed in it. Teachers can find other employment and they are forced by the necessity of earning a living wage to do it."

The legislature may be able to do something to help the situation in Florida, or may not be able or ready to act in the matter. In the counties some things can be adjusted somewhat. The situation appears to demand action—for it is certain that if no other inducement is offered than the climate in Florida the teaching profession will resolve itself into a makeshift, with no applicants save those who enter merely to bridge over a period of looking about and who have but passing interest in the work. Fine school buildings are all very well, but they will not educate the children. Times-Union.

Birthday Party Miss Margaret Britt invited about thirty of her little friends to help her celebrate her sixth birthday Monday afternoon.

The house was very attractive with its decorations of pink and green, pink roses and ferns being used. In the dining room the table was beautiful with its decorations of pink roses, ferns and ribbons which extended from the chandelier to each corner of the table. The birthday cake with its six tiny candles was the attractive centerpiece, cut glass bases of pink roses at either side of the cake.

Many games were played after which ice cream and cake in dainty pink paper cups and plates were served. After which dainty favors for the girls and toy balloons for the boys were given to the guests.

Presbyterian Church A missionary program will be given at the Sunday school Sunday under the direction of Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, the new secretary of missionary education in the Sunday school. Mr. DuBose is expected back from the General Assembly at New Orleans. Sunday school meets at 10:30.

The sermon at 11:45 will be prepared especially for children, and a large crowd of children are expected at the service. Three were received into the church last Sunday. If the people who have joined the Presbyterian church here in the past four months organized into a new church the membership would be larger than 55 of the churches in the Synod.

Royal Neighbors Royal Neighbors of America, Camp No. 7732 met in their hall corner of Magnolia and Second street.

Owing to the good work of Alice R. Vashardt of Tampa and four wide awake members here on May 8, 1919, held a class adoption of 28 Beneficial and one Social member.

When the doors were opened and the candidates filed in it seemed like they never would stop coming. That alone was worth witnessing.

Sunny South Camp of Orlando honored us with their presence, which was very much appreciated. The drill team cannot be spoken of too highly in their good work.

The tableau Rack of Ages was beautifully carried out. These new members added to our old members will give us a good start in our "Over the Top" campaign which will continue until July 31, 1919.

Collector Has Partnership Return Blanks Jacksonville, Fla., May 17 (Special) After a delay of several weeks the partnership blanks for the return of income taxes have at last been received at the office of J. M. Cathcart, collector of internal revenue for the district of Florida. The delay in the receipt of these is said to have been due to congestion in the government printing office.

These forms have been anxiously awaited by hundreds of business firms throughout the state. They have been mailed out today to everyone on the list at the internal revenue office, but there is a possibility that some names may have been omitted from this register. So the collector of internal revenue warns those who come under the head of partnerships or of personal service corporations to get in touch with his office at once and secure the blanks.

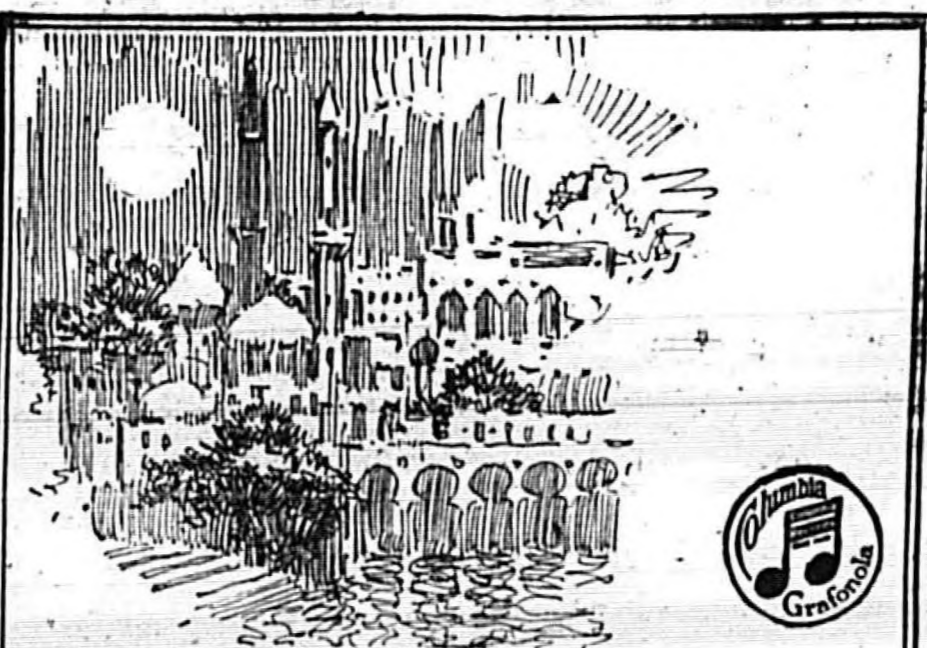

Under the law it does not matter whether or not a firm made money during 1918. Even if the firm operated at a loss the law requires that one of these blanks be filled out and returned.

Maines, Misses Alma Goertz, Beulah Spurling, Winnie Haight, Dorothy Young, Weima Graves, Beth McDonald, Messrs. Geo. Wells, Sam Murphy, Alex Reber, F. A. Haynes, Earl Haight and Francis Lyon.

Relative Value of Milks. The fat globules of goats' milk are so small that cream rises very slowly. This quality, however, gives to the milk a uniform richness not possessed by cows' milk. There are now several condensed milk factories using goats' milk, which is condensed and sold for infant feeding. Many thousands of infants are compelled to live during their first few months on condensed cows' milk, and it is not the best food for their stomachs.

port of Bassene where the American engineers built the immense docks and piers and warehouses and I now understand that most of the troops in this part of France have been sent home and all this work will be over and the buildings sold to France. Meantime we are lifting anchor for the return ship that will take us about ten days and we are hauling over 5,000 troops not counting the officers or the crew of the ship which is going some for a ship the size of the Martha Washington and there is work ahead for the Welfare workers but we are ready and well equipped to take care of them. Mailing this in France but will probably beat it over as the mails are uncertain and hope to see Sanford again soon especially if we land at Charleston or Newport, News. Until that time am yours, made in Bordeaux. I did not have time to look up any of the Sanford boys in this vicinity or to see Bordeaux as I would like to have seen it, as our orders were very explicit to be on ship at a certain time. When we had arrived at Pouillac I found a bunch of men from the 326 outfit and about 300 of them surrounded me in the street when they found I was from the Martha Washington and they were feeling badly as their division was to sail on our ship but they had been quarantined on account of influenza. In talking to them I learned that many of them were from Georgia and that they had all been trained at Camp Gordon and it flashed into my mind that may be some of them would know Rev. George Hyman and upon asking them they said he was their chaplain. I immediately asked them where I could find him and he was some happy man when I slapped him on the back and said "Hello, George." It was the first time he had been called that in many moons and we embraced like two Frenchmen and the officers present were struck dumb but Dr. Hyman introduced me to them and we had a nice time for a few minu es. However we wanted to be alone and believe me we talked at the rate of 60 miles a minute all the way to the ship. Mr. Hyman was sorely disappointed when he found out I was on the ship that was to have taken him home and as he could not go on board with me I left him at the dock La La," and I said "Oui, Oui," just like I understood what they said and they turned loose a lot of French on me and I said "Oui!" to all of it, although I do not know whether they were inviting me for a salute or not.

We came back to the boat in an auto of the Jewish Welfare Board as Mr. Simon if that organization is with me on the Martha Washington and we had a fine ride through the country where there is a village every two or three miles and the country is filled with vineyards as some of the finest wine in France is

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE. Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.
Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days. I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go. I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me. One day a Birthday Almanac was thrust in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle. I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. E 78
