

The Sanford Herald

in Florida's Heart.
The Greatest Vegetable
Richest Garden Land.

THE WEATHER
Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday, somewhat warmer in north portion.

Member Audit Bureau Of Circulations NUMBER 101
SANFORD, FLORIDA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 7, 1928

Side Body Dinner Gives Big Success With 470 Present

W. Lane and Temple Graves
Dined Last Night
Sanford Citizens
Of Honor
Fishes in Praise
Of Sanford
Picnic In Brightest
Days By Speakers

Sanford and Temple Graves renewed their cordial fellowship as they dined last night at the side body dinner given by the Chamber of Commerce. The dinner was a success in every respect, with 470 persons present.

Mr. Lane and Mr. Graves, who were the guests of honor, were introduced by Mr. Lane, president of the Chamber of Commerce. They were both in the best of health and spirits.

The dinner was a most enjoyable affair, and the speakers were well received. The Chamber of Commerce is to be congratulated for the success of this event.

The Chamber of Commerce is a most successful organization, and its efforts for the benefit of the community are well known. The dinner was a fine example of their work.

The Chamber of Commerce is a most successful organization, and its efforts for the benefit of the community are well known. The dinner was a fine example of their work.

The Chamber of Commerce is a most successful organization, and its efforts for the benefit of the community are well known. The dinner was a fine example of their work.

The Chamber of Commerce is a most successful organization, and its efforts for the benefit of the community are well known. The dinner was a fine example of their work.

The Chamber of Commerce is a most successful organization, and its efforts for the benefit of the community are well known. The dinner was a fine example of their work.

The Chamber of Commerce is a most successful organization, and its efforts for the benefit of the community are well known. The dinner was a fine example of their work.

The Chamber of Commerce is a most successful organization, and its efforts for the benefit of the community are well known. The dinner was a fine example of their work.

The Chamber of Commerce is a most successful organization, and its efforts for the benefit of the community are well known. The dinner was a fine example of their work.

The Chamber of Commerce is a most successful organization, and its efforts for the benefit of the community are well known. The dinner was a fine example of their work.

The Chamber of Commerce is a most successful organization, and its efforts for the benefit of the community are well known. The dinner was a fine example of their work.

The Chamber of Commerce is a most successful organization, and its efforts for the benefit of the community are well known. The dinner was a fine example of their work.

INSULL TELLS OF DONATIONS TO CAMPAIGNS

Millionaire Utility Magnate
Reveals Additional Contributions
To Illinois Election
Before Probing Group

Reed Conducts Quiz
Of Election Scandal
Asks Insull If He Is Ready To Disclose Matters He Withheld On Other Appearance

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(INS)—With six bodies of victims of the submarine S-4 disaster recovered bringing the total number covered up to thirteen. A squad of fifteen naval divers were working in relays this afternoon in an effort to bring more bodies to the surface.

The first four of the six bodies to be brought to the surface were found in the engine room hatch, the seven compartments in which the first seven bodies were found. The last two of the bodies taken from the S-4 today were found in a compartment that runs off the engine room. No attempt at identification was made by the navy officials.

The first three divers, consisting of Tom Eadie, William J. Carr and C. L. Appleby, went from the U. S. S. Falcon at 8:24 A. M. They went into the engine room hatch and in a short time reported that they had found four bodies. After the four bodies were sent to the surface, the divers were ordered to come up.

Another diving crew was then sent down. The last two bodies to be recovered today had been brought by divers Eadie, Carr and Appleby from the small compartment adjoining the engine room. The divers sent the bodies to the surface at 11:15 and shortly after were re-called to the Falcon.

Commander Harold E. Sadlers, on board the U. S. S. Falcon, one of the officers in charge of the salvage work in the harbor here, stated shortly after the six bodies were brought up today, "The number of bodies in the engine room was more than had been expected by submarine men."

He believed that the men made a brave but unsuccessful attempt to close the forward door of the control room and, finding that impossible, ran back into the engine room.

While the United States has not given France a final answer, Ambassador Claudel has been told that the "aggressive war" suggestion is virtually worthless from an American point of view. He was promised, however, that the suggestion would be given serious consideration in the hope that some sort of compromise can be arrived at between the two governments.

The note suggests that when other nations have agreed to enter such a pact the United States and France shall sign a treaty whereby the high contracting parties renounce all wars of aggression and declare that they will use all their power to prevent any such wars from arising between them.

The government of France is convinced that these maxims, though proclaimed, would be welcomed with gratitude by the entire world and does not doubt that the effort of mutual adaptation and would be crowned with complete success.

The note stresses the desirability of France and the United States signing a treaty of friendship and alliance, and then submitting it to other nations for their signatures, although it suggests that the other nations must first indicate their willingness before the pact is drawn.

The possibility of a pact of aggression in the past may cause a revolution of the populations. It is suggested here today, for it is anticipated that the United States may want this defined and may want a longer term used.

Charles P. Taylor, further informed that the United States will sign no anti-war pact with France until it has definite guarantees in advance that the signatures of other countries will be forthcoming. Among the other governments whose signatures are considered necessary are Great Britain, Italy, Germany, and Japan.

Divers Recover Bodies Of Six Additional Members Of Ill-fated Submarine

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Jan. 7.—(INS)—With six bodies of victims of the submarine S-4 disaster recovered bringing the total number covered up to thirteen. A squad of fifteen naval divers were working in relays this afternoon in an effort to bring more bodies to the surface.

The first four of the six bodies to be brought to the surface were found in the engine room hatch, the seven compartments in which the first seven bodies were found. The last two of the bodies taken from the S-4 today were found in a compartment that runs off the engine room. No attempt at identification was made by the navy officials.

The first three divers, consisting of Tom Eadie, William J. Carr and C. L. Appleby, went from the U. S. S. Falcon at 8:24 A. M. They went into the engine room hatch and in a short time reported that they had found four bodies. After the four bodies were sent to the surface, the divers were ordered to come up.

Another diving crew was then sent down. The last two bodies to be recovered today had been brought by divers Eadie, Carr and Appleby from the small compartment adjoining the engine room. The divers sent the bodies to the surface at 11:15 and shortly after were re-called to the Falcon.

Commander Harold E. Sadlers, on board the U. S. S. Falcon, one of the officers in charge of the salvage work in the harbor here, stated shortly after the six bodies were brought up today, "The number of bodies in the engine room was more than had been expected by submarine men."

He believed that the men made a brave but unsuccessful attempt to close the forward door of the control room and, finding that impossible, ran back into the engine room.

While the United States has not given France a final answer, Ambassador Claudel has been told that the "aggressive war" suggestion is virtually worthless from an American point of view. He was promised, however, that the suggestion would be given serious consideration in the hope that some sort of compromise can be arrived at between the two governments.

The note suggests that when other nations have agreed to enter such a pact the United States and France shall sign a treaty whereby the high contracting parties renounce all wars of aggression and declare that they will use all their power to prevent any such wars from arising between them.

The government of France is convinced that these maxims, though proclaimed, would be welcomed with gratitude by the entire world and does not doubt that the effort of mutual adaptation and would be crowned with complete success.

The note stresses the desirability of France and the United States signing a treaty of friendship and alliance, and then submitting it to other nations for their signatures, although it suggests that the other nations must first indicate their willingness before the pact is drawn.

The possibility of a pact of aggression in the past may cause a revolution of the populations. It is suggested here today, for it is anticipated that the United States may want this defined and may want a longer term used.

Charles P. Taylor, further informed that the United States will sign no anti-war pact with France until it has definite guarantees in advance that the signatures of other countries will be forthcoming. Among the other governments whose signatures are considered necessary are Great Britain, Italy, Germany, and Japan.

The possibility of a pact of aggression in the past may cause a revolution of the populations. It is suggested here today, for it is anticipated that the United States may want this defined and may want a longer term used.

Charles P. Taylor, further informed that the United States will sign no anti-war pact with France until it has definite guarantees in advance that the signatures of other countries will be forthcoming. Among the other governments whose signatures are considered necessary are Great Britain, Italy, Germany, and Japan.

U. S. DISFAVORS NEW PROPOSAL IN PEACE PACT

Officials Inform Government
Of France That Proposals
For Multilateral Renunciation
Of War Is Unwanted
Suggestion Conflicts
With Kellogg's Plan

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(INS)—The United States has not given France a final answer, Ambassador Claudel has been told that the "aggressive war" suggestion is virtually worthless from an American point of view. He was promised, however, that the suggestion would be given serious consideration in the hope that some sort of compromise can be arrived at between the two governments.

The note suggests that when other nations have agreed to enter such a pact the United States and France shall sign a treaty whereby the high contracting parties renounce all wars of aggression and declare that they will use all their power to prevent any such wars from arising between them.

The government of France is convinced that these maxims, though proclaimed, would be welcomed with gratitude by the entire world and does not doubt that the effort of mutual adaptation and would be crowned with complete success.

The note stresses the desirability of France and the United States signing a treaty of friendship and alliance, and then submitting it to other nations for their signatures, although it suggests that the other nations must first indicate their willingness before the pact is drawn.

The possibility of a pact of aggression in the past may cause a revolution of the populations. It is suggested here today, for it is anticipated that the United States may want this defined and may want a longer term used.

Charles P. Taylor, further informed that the United States will sign no anti-war pact with France until it has definite guarantees in advance that the signatures of other countries will be forthcoming. Among the other governments whose signatures are considered necessary are Great Britain, Italy, Germany, and Japan.

The possibility of a pact of aggression in the past may cause a revolution of the populations. It is suggested here today, for it is anticipated that the United States may want this defined and may want a longer term used.

Charles P. Taylor, further informed that the United States will sign no anti-war pact with France until it has definite guarantees in advance that the signatures of other countries will be forthcoming. Among the other governments whose signatures are considered necessary are Great Britain, Italy, Germany, and Japan.

The possibility of a pact of aggression in the past may cause a revolution of the populations. It is suggested here today, for it is anticipated that the United States may want this defined and may want a longer term used.

Charles P. Taylor, further informed that the United States will sign no anti-war pact with France until it has definite guarantees in advance that the signatures of other countries will be forthcoming. Among the other governments whose signatures are considered necessary are Great Britain, Italy, Germany, and Japan.

The possibility of a pact of aggression in the past may cause a revolution of the populations. It is suggested here today, for it is anticipated that the United States may want this defined and may want a longer term used.

Charles P. Taylor, further informed that the United States will sign no anti-war pact with France until it has definite guarantees in advance that the signatures of other countries will be forthcoming. Among the other governments whose signatures are considered necessary are Great Britain, Italy, Germany, and Japan.

The possibility of a pact of aggression in the past may cause a revolution of the populations. It is suggested here today, for it is anticipated that the United States may want this defined and may want a longer term used.

Charles P. Taylor, further informed that the United States will sign no anti-war pact with France until it has definite guarantees in advance that the signatures of other countries will be forthcoming. Among the other governments whose signatures are considered necessary are Great Britain, Italy, Germany, and Japan.

Several Injured In Runaway Trolley

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Jan. 7.—(INS)—One man was killed and eight other persons were injured, three possibly fatally, when a one-man trolley car ran down the Market Street hill this afternoon. John Murray, 45, motorman of the car, died on his way to the hospital of a fractured skull and internal injuries. The runaway car wrecked three automobiles on its wild dash down the hill and crushed another automobile against a trolley car standing at the foot of the hill. With a roar this automobile burst into flames, which quickly spread to both trolley cars. The accident caused a near panic in the business section of the city.

LEJEUNE TO SAIL FOR NICARAGUA WITH BATTALION

Commandant Of Marine Corps
To Be Accompanied By Detachment
Of One Thousand
Troops As Reinforcements

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(INS)—Maj. Gen. John A. LeJeune, commandant of the Marine Corps, will sail for Nicaragua on Monday. He will be accompanied by Brig. Gen. Logan Feland, who is to assume active command of the Marine forces chasing Gen. Sandino, and by 1,000 troops being sent to Nicaragua to reinforce those on the front.

LeJeune will make a personal inspection tour of all the Marine encampments in Nicaragua and then return to the United States by way of San Diego. It is understood he was actuated in going to the scene of operations by the reverses the Marines have suffered in their efforts to wipe out Sandino's rebels.

Marine corps officials, including the commandant, laughed today over reports that Sandino's rebels were being trained by Marine deserters. The only basis for the story, LeJeune said, was the fact that two Marines were dropped from the rolls last Sept. for desertion.

"Imagination has supplied the rest," he said. "To have joined Sandino the two men would have had to travel 125 miles inland on foot, and that doesn't appear reasonable. As a matter of fact we have reason to believe the two deserters snuggled themselves aboard a ship bound for the United States and are now in this country."

Marine intelligence officers believe that the rebel chief, however, has been aided by a German soldier of fortune named Mueller. This German is said to have been a non-commissioned officer in the German Army during the war, and emigrated to Latin America several years ago. They credit him with giving Sandino's rebels the military training that has been evidenced in recent skirmishes.

Youthful Murderer Remains Stoical As Chair Claims Life

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 7.—(INS)—The body of 17-year-old Floyd Hewitt, convicted murderer from Conneaut, O., who was electrocuted in the Ohio State Penitentiary here last night for the killing of little Fred Brown, Jr., 5, last Feb. 14, was awaiting completion of final funeral arrangements today. The body will be taken to Conneaut, the home of his parents for burial.

With just a trace of tears in his eyes, Ohio's youngest "electric chair victim" was led into the death chamber at the penitentiary at 7:40 o'clock last night clasped in his hand was a picture, a family group of his father, mother and sister. Denying his guilt to the very last, the 17-year-old lad stood up bravely.

Hewitt was convicted of killing Mrs. Fred Brown, and her five-year-old son, Fred, Jr.

VILLAGE INUNDATED

LONDON, Jan. 7.—(INS)—A tidal wave today flooded the fishing village of Heybridge, Essex. The village is under six feet of water and 300 houses are flooded. Inhabitants have been driven to the upper floors of their homes and are securing provisions by means of boats.

DAYTONA BEACH—Bids to be received for construction of wood on bridge across Halifax drainage canal.

SCORE PERISH AS RESULT OF LONDON FLOOD

Tremendous Damage
Incured As Thames
River Bursts Banks
And Overflows City

Thickly Settled
Sector Affected
Police Labor To Save
People Threatened
By The Rising Water

By H. K. Reynolds
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

LONDON, Jan. 7.—Nineteen deaths and hundreds of thousands of dollars in damage were reported by authorities today when the Thames River burst its embankments in the heart of London.

The 18 1/2 -lying, crowded sections adjacent to the river were badly flooded and it was feared that the death toll would be greatly increased when the full effects of the unprecedented inundation becomes known.

The banks burst shortly after 1 A. M. when an exceptionally high tide, meeting the flood waters, forced the river up to a dangerous level. The streets alongside the river were quickly submerged.

The waters rose to the top of the embankment along practically their entire length from Lambeth to Blackfriars, a magnificent stretch of road constituting one of London's most imposing highways.

While the main Victoria Bank stood the strain and the waters poured over the roadway and down into the sewers, the Lambeth Bank burst with a terrific crash.

For fifty yards the embankment crumbled and the freed water rushed down Grosvenor Road, inundating hundreds of homes. One entire family of four was wiped out instantly by the rushing waters.

Fearful that the high tide at P. M. would sweep further damage, police warned all occupants of houses in the low lying streets to be prepared to evacuate immediately. Temporary barricades were being erected at the broken embankments in an attempt to stem further encroachment by the waters. Many members of Parliament, living adjacent to Westminster, turned out and aided the police in their work of rescue.

Among the famous landmarks inundated were the Woolwich Arsenal, the Tate Galleries, the ancient Tower of London, and the Waterloo and St. Thomas Hospitals. The Lots Road Power Station, supplies all the London subway services was also flooded.

As the flood waters reached the Darford Districts, lower down the river, indescribable scenes of confusion occurred when the main streets were inundated. Hundreds of barrels of merchandise floated about the streets while their owners and thousands of other persons took refuge in the upper floors of their homes.

The densely populated districts of Lambeth and Westminster were the worst sufferers. The water came over the terrace of the houses of Parliament and flooded the quadrangles and all nearby basements.

Street cars running along the Victoria Bank were compelled to suspend service for several hours and the tube service was disrupted as the waters poured into the subway entrances.

About the houses along Grosvenor Road the water was four feet deep. White-faced, terror-stricken women watched from upper floors while police and firemen searched the basements for victims.

In this section five adults and four children were drowned. They were trapped in their beds when the water rushed into their rooms. Five more victims were believed to be lying under water along Grosvenor Road.

SHIP BEING TOWED
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 7.—(INS)—With the Belgian naval training ship L'Avenir in tow, the wrecking tug Warbler was proceeding to Jacksonville today. The boat was safely floated after being aground off northeast Bahamas Islands Thursday night.

STEAMER AGROUND
NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 7.—(INS)—Radio messages today reported the New Orleans steamer, Minnie, sailing between this port and Valparaiso, Chile, aground on coral reef off Providence Island, on the East Coast of Nicaragua.

In the World of Sports

Tommy Loughran And Leo Lomski Meet Tonight For Light Heavy Championship

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service
Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Tommy Loughran, champion, and Leo Lomski, challenger, will meet tonight in a fifteen round bout at Madison Square Garden for the world's light heavyweight championship.

This simply worded paragraph tells a story without amplification and embellishment, therefore it tells almost nothing. It takes no cognizance, for example, of the fact that a great fight not only in prospect but also that, seemingly, a great one is inevitable. It doesn't tell of the fact that both of the principals feel they are on their way to bigger and finer rings like the heavyweight championship and that they regard tonight's activities as the first, and therefore the most important step toward achieving the ambition in question. It doesn't say that Loughran is a fighting champion or that Lomski is the most worthy of challengers. It is the skimmed milk of what probably will be a rather frothy occasion.

For all anyone knows at this premature moment, either or both of the principals may hold his own with all the heavyweights in the land. That is the way they are figuring it, anyhow and so they will eye one another tonight from opposite corners with the calculating apparatus that is the tacit admiration of one fighting man for another.

They think so well of themselves, indeed, that both are leaning toward one end, namely, that they may win so decisively that they will be able to take the play away from the Sharkey-Hecney winner the following week. Only one of them, perforce, can do this and the sharpshooters say that he will be Loughran. Anyhow, the champion remains a receding favorite at odds of 6 to 5 and, if you don't think the lads are reaching for their leather on this one, then you don't know what Chastetue Thierry isn't a scientific conjuncture.

They are betting plenty, in fact, and the house is a virtual sell-out.

so great is public interest in the proceedings. The bout didn't need any smoke-up. Loughran and Lomski attended to that themselves and in person, Tommy's dazzling performance with Slattery and Leo's winning starts against Tony Marullo, Mexy Rosenlooms and Yale Okun bringing the customers on the dead run.

They think they are due to see something and they will if they aren't stone blind. Lomski has the entire East on a lead chain as the result of his busy, bustling, battling style and Loughran's disposition to fight any one time has made its play for popular appeal. Then again, it will be match between a good fighter and a good boxer and that combination seldom fails to click.

NICK CULLOP SOLD

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 5.—(INS)—Nick Cullop, outfielder, after being with the Cleveland Indians for one season was today a member of the Buffalo International League ball team. Cullop was sold to the Bisons at a bid of $15,000. He was purchased from the Senators last summer for $12,000 and the Buffalo team paid only $8,000 for him, it was said.

MIAMI BEACH—Building permits issued here on recent day totaled $30,000.

CLEARWATER—Ground broken for $250,000 new amusement park on Clearwater Beach island.

Constipation and Rectal diseases. Painless non-surgical method. Dr. Jos. Corwin Howell, Registered physician, 200 W. Gore Ave. Orlando, Florida, Telephone 4395 for free consultation. You will be surprised how quickly you will get well without loss of time from business.

Plans Complete For Trade Body Dinner Tonight

(continued from page one)

Speakers table, 10. St. Clair Refining Company, 4; Florida Power and Light Company, 12; Chase and Company, 18; U. S. Postoffice, 9; Baker and Holmes, 11; DeCottes and Spencer, 9; Speakers table, 10. Sanford Bond and Mortgage Company, 8; Wagoner Furniture Company, 5; Ball Hardware Company, 10; Wakefield Preserving Company, 4; White-Highlyman 7; Security Lumber Company, 7; National Biscuit Company, 13; H. J. Lehman, 6; Woodruff and Watson, 6; Spencer's Dairy, 5; Sanford Signal, 4; Lloyd Shoe Company, 6; W. J. Thiepen, 8; Calvin Teague, 4; Seaboard Oil Company, 4; S. Baumei, 4; Sanford Feed and Supply Company 4; Mahoney-Walker, 10; Wilson, Boyle and Dighton, 5; Haynes and Butler, 6; Hudson-Essex, 4; Empire Springs Water Company, 4; and individuals, 62.

COFFEES ARE READY

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 6.—(INS)—One hundred and twenty eight professional and amateur golfers, including many of the world's greatest shot makers, are gathered here today the starters call that will send them on their way to possible fame and fortune in Los Angeles' third annual $10,000 open championship.

WEST PALM BEACH—Large shipment of lumber to be made from here shortly.

HOLLYWOOD—Cornerstone laid for new city hall here.

Overnight End COLDS
Stop a cold before it stops you. Take HILL'S Cascara-Bromide-Quinine. Stops the cold, checks the fever, opens the bowels, tones the system. Insist on HILL'S. Red box, 30c. All druggists.
HILL'S
Cascara - Bromide - Quinine

Head Coach, Tom Sebring, Resigns Unexpectedly As Florida Football Mentor

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Jan. 6.—(INS)—Harold L. "Tom" Sebring, head coach of football of the University of Florida, has tendered his resignation to take effect with the expiration of his contract on June 1, it was announced here.

Sebring said today that he may forego the realm of football in order to enter law practice. It was also understood that he was several other coaching positions under consideration.

"I am making this request because I feel that my reappointment to this post would cause much dissatisfaction from various quarters and I do not feel that I could obtain the best results under such circumstances," Sebring's letter to the board of trustees said. He is to consider him for next season's coaching position said.

Sebring came to the University of Florida in 1923 from Kansas Aggies. For two years he was backfield coach under J. A. Van Fleet, being appointed head mentor in 1925. This season his team won six out of ten games.

Last fall Sebring was credited with producing the greatest eleven in Florida history. The "Fighting Gators" won seven games, five in the Southern Conference.

News of Sebring's resignation was not yet generally known on the University of Florida Campus today, but athletic officials and the few students who heard of it were shocked at his resignation. They hoped that his resignation has not yet been accepted by the University.

FORT MEYERS—Establishment of colony of Persian farmers in Lee County within near future contemplated.

PUNTA GORDA—Construction begun on modern tourist camp ground here.

flavor on cooked vegetables

Premier SALAD DRESSING
A perfect mayonnaise

THIS spicy richness of Premier adds a savory tang to most cooked vegetables. Carrots, spinach, parsnips—all full of vigor-producing vitamins—are more appetizing when seasoned with Premier Salad Dressing.

Try Baked Carrots, Premier—give on page 43 of our new recipe book. If you will send us your address, we will mail you a copy.

FRANCIS H. LUGGERT & Co., 27th St. & Hudson River, New York

The Premier label for over 60 years has stood for quality foods, some of which are PREMIER COFFEE, PREMIER CHICK SAUCE, PREMIER OATMEAL, PREMIER MINCE MEAT.

Start the Year Right

Plan now to make your home of your own before 1928 has passed—If you have a small home or a house, build it well means good investments throughout.

BOARDELL COMPANY

THE YARD WITH A MILLBACKING

Phone 135
Holly, Ave., at
Yard 11th, 12th, 13th Sts.

For Drink

MANY of our ice customers find the water from our melted ice beneficial for drinking.

In making ice, we use regular city water, as a rule. Vegetable matter is extracted by filtration and purification, leaving only healthful mineral solubles. We analyze the water daily.

Drink it for a while and tell us if it proves of benefit.

4th & Maple Ave Phone 202

SAVE FOOD FLAVOR MONEY WITH ICE

The New Ford Car

Will be on display Saturday

January 7th

at

Edw. W. Higgins, Inc.

Palmetto Ave. at Commercial

Phone 331

The Sanford Herald

Published every afternoon except Sunday at Sanford, Fla. 111 Main Street.

Entered as second class matter October 27, 1919, at the post office at Sanford, Florida, under act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

WILLIAM L. DEAN, Editor; H. HOWARD BEHR, Manager; CALVIN E. JONES, Managing Editor.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

The Year $7.50; Six Months $4.00; Three Months $2.00; Single Copies 10 Cents.

The Herald, Sanford's oldest newspaper, publishes the International News Service material from this superior news organization.

SATURDAY, JAN. 7, 1928

THE HERALD'S PROGRAM: To be a city and county administration.

Construction of St. Johns Indian River canal; construction of monthly "Pay Up Week"; building program—hotels, apartment houses, community chest.

Completion of city beautification program; a new and modern hospital.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY: FORGET NOT GOD—How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

ILLUSION: In The Lyric—The day some thieving god of verities comes stealthily my dreaming to deter.

Oh, leave me trees that priests and princes die; And lest reality should vanquish love.

My purse I yield you for one shimmering star; Yet never would I be unconscious of illusion's face; Dreams must be recognized!

Freezer may come and freezer may go, but colds hang on forever.

It's a peculiar thing, but true; that the shorter the dress, the higher the price.

Lawyers blame Ruth Snyder's crime on a sunstroke suffered in childhood. That's a hot one.

It seems that Tampa had a hospital flu case too, and the citizens, even on our own, over there "got ouched."

The Biscayne Kennel Club of Miami announces that it will open soon and conduct dog racing without gambling. Now we'll tell one.

Why are they called "secrets of success" when everybody is always telling them to everybody else?—Sarasota Times. Isn't that the way with all secrets?

The first charge has been filed against Lindbergh. Our office boys say he is a snay because he flew around the disturbed area in Nicaragua instead of flying over it.

Big, manly, men still strut about. A popular singer in Hungary got tired with the prima donna, slapping her face three times. She faintly, breaking her arm as she fell.

A girl prominent in New York society has just flown from Long Beach to Miami in twelve hours. It will be but very few winters before this will be the common mode of travel.

According to the New York Health Commission, alcohol caused the deaths of some 770 persons in that state last year. And yet there are some who still say there is no harm in it.

An issue of $500,000 worth of St. Augustine municipal bonds, bearing interest at the rate of five and one half per cent, sold the other day at 107, or 7/8 above par, indicating that there is nothing the matter with the market.

Editor Benjamin's story of Florida Newspapers Forty Years Ago is interesting both to those who were here at the time and to those young fellows, who, like ourselves, were born then.—Tampa Tribune. We hope that bet

The Sanford Herald wound up 1927 with a splendid record of facts, faces, fetes and figures about Sanford and Seminole County, an edition that was not only creditable to the publishers but decidedly reflective of the prosperity of that splendid section. Congratulations.—Eustis Lake Region. Thanks.

The Connecting Link

The outstanding success of the Chamber of Commerce banquet at the Hotel Forrest Lake last night can only be taken as the final test of the prevailing spirit of optimism which has characterized this city, its people and their activities since the beginning of the new year.

Four hundred and seventy persons crowded into the dining room to show their confidence in the work being done by the Chamber of Commerce, to give added impetus by their backing to its further activities, and to extend a cordial welcome to those leaders in Jacksonville finance and journalistic life, Edward W. Lane and John Temple Graves.

What this new relationship may mean to Sanford even the Delphian oracles could not foretell. It has already meant the Sanford Atlantic National Bank, a branch of a mother institution, as Mr. Forster said last night, "two and one-half times larger in deposits than the greatest bank in New York City fifty years ago."

Sanford people, we believe, are united in the hope that the benefits of this new association will not flow entirely in their direction. That Jacksonville may likewise profit is their sincere hope and expectation.

Though Jacksonville is now approximately ten times as large as Sanford, we can anticipate, if perhaps futilely, that day when Sanford will be as large as Jacksonville, and with a feeling here that we do not like to start anything we cannot finish, we reject the inference of Mr. Graves when he said, "the St. Johns River, which you start and we stop."

The Freedom Of The Press

We were reading some old English essays the other day when we came upon this one by John Milton written in 1644. It has to do with the freedom of the press and the right of newspapers, books, and writers of all kinds, to criticize the public acts of governmental officials, and it shows that even in that early time nearly three hundred years ago, this was looked upon as the inalienable prerogative of the press.

"What should ye do, then," says this one of England's greatest men of letters, "should ye suppress all this crop of knowledge and new light sprung up and yet springing daily in this city, should ye set an oligarchy of twenty engrossers over it, to bring a famine upon our minds again, when we shall know nothing but what is measured to us by their bushel?"

"Believe it, Lords and Commons, they who counsel ye to such a suppressing do as good as bid ye suppress yourselves; and I will soon show how. If it be desired to know the immediate cause of all this free writing and free speaking, there cannot be assigned a truer than your own mind free and humane government: it is the liberty, Lords and Commons, which your own valorous and happy counsels have purchased us, liberty which is the nurse of all great wits; this is that which hath raised and ennobled our spirits like the influence of heaven; this is that which hath enfranchised, enlarged, and lifted up our apprehensions above themselves.

"Ye cannot make us now less capable, less un-winged, less eagerly pursuing of the truth, than ye first made yourselves; that made us so, less the lovers, less the founders, of our true liberty. We can grow ignorant again, brutish, formal, and slavish, as ye found us; but you then must first become that which ye cannot be, oppressive arbitrary, and tyrannous, as they were from whom ye have freed us.

"That our hearts are now more exalted, our thoughts more erected to the search and expectation of greatest and exactest things, is the issue of your own virtue propagated in us; ye cannot suppress that unless ye reinforce an abrogated and merciless law, that fathers may despatch at will their own children, and who shall, then, stick closest to ye, and excite others? not he who takes up arms for cote and conduct and his four nobles of Danegelt—although I dispraise not the defense of just immunities, yet love my peace better if that were all.

"Give me the liberty to know, to utter, and to argue freely, according to conscience, above all liberties."

THIS IS VERY nearly the proudest day of our life for we have just received a letter from a gentleman in Sanford asking if we will explain the Einstein theory to him. He wasn't joking either. Flattery of this sort tempts us to try anything, so we will say that the Einstein theory's significance comes of its assertion that all of space is as curved as Columbus discovered the earth to be and that everything in space is in such constant motion in respect to everything else in space that nobody's position can be described without giving the time as well as the place, from which it follows as the night the day that there has been no beginning and will be no end to the universe, that past and future are mere illusions of time and close on each other like the circumference of a circle, and that all truths are only relatively true, depending upon the time and place. This, as our Sanford correspondent will readily see, is quite simple and we hope he won't ask for the details. We are sure that we have given him a rough idea of the things and we don't want to be too rough.—Jacksonville Journal.

OUR NEWSPAPERS

A Chicago minister, commenting on the crime wave, and particularly on the criminal tendencies of youth, said: "Our newspapers, our movie houses and our automobiles are largely responsible for the criminal atmosphere in which we find ourselves." This preacher may be right. We do not undertake to answer for any except the newspapers. If emphasis is placed on OUR it is quite possible the accusation will hold good. OUR newspapers are what the public makes them; they are published for the public; the public makes the news and OUR newspapers only chronicle that news.

As Brisbane Sees It

Frightened By Ads. "Cutting the Tail Off. Air Mail To Mexico. Dangerous Exports."

MEN THAT gamble in stocks imagine they know what they are doing, they think their stocks overboard yesterday, millions of shares, knocking down values.

SOME OF these gentlemen who will regret their participation in the "automobile price war" would injure stocks. Advertising never hurt anything. It will increase consumption, wipe out a few weak, unnecessary sisters perhaps, but help business in the long run.

THE GOVERNMENT has made up its mind to a little war with Mr. Sandino of Nicaragua, since we can't escape it. A thousand marines will leave for Nicaragua Monday with enough machine guns to teach politeness to the Nicaraguan rebels.

IN OUR big war we want deeply heaven knows, spending more than fifty million dollars a day, ending ten thousand millions, most of which will never get back, sending millions of men.

But in troubles near home we are like the man who had the head to cut his dog's tail off all at once, and so cut it off half an inch, every day.

WE SHOULD finish that Nicaraguan business without delay, and also find out what Colonel Galko of the marines meant when he said that Nicaraguan ammunition with which his men were killed last week, was supplied by some country other than Nicaragua.

LAST APRIL President Coolidge said the Mexicans were "the other country, shooting at us through Nicaragua." The people would like to know it, if that thing continues.

COLONEL LINDBERGH landed in Managua from Tegucigalpa yesterday, and as a first fruit of the flight, Postmaster General Grew announced, for an early date, establishment of an air mail line to Mexico. That will help business and improve international relations. Canada is now our best customer, and if Mexico would substitute modern business methods in place of date revolution and corruption, she might become another important business friend.

AIR MAIL will soon reach farther than ocean. The associated airlines passenger service, which will commence in the spring, carrying 100 passengers, at $500 each and 10 cents of mail. That would happen if a foreigner could not bring his mail to the coast of San Francisco.

THE CRUEL young kidnaper and murderer Hickman, indicted yesterday for a second murder, says to escape conviction as unwise experts can "prove" any crime, he has covered beyond, but, truthfully dangerous criminal. To let him escape, on any bond, would terrify millions of others and mothers, and multiply crime, which needs no increase in this country, by offering additional hope of immunity.

PRISON FOR life, with no hope of reprieve, should be the punishment for such crime, sane or insane.

NEW YORK bankers plan a loan of $60,000,000 to Rumania, France participating by sending ammunition, army equipment and other material, this country sending cash.

IT WILL not be the cash of bankers making that they will send abroad the savings of average citizens tempted by high interest rates, and the more or less worthless promise to pay of a little country that tomorrow might be swallowed by bolshevik Russia, or torn by revolution. Its bonds in either case would be worthless.

IT WAS indicated yesterday that Governor Smith does not feel able to interfere with the execution of Mrs. Ruth Snyder.

Lawyer speaking for the condemned woman talked about "neurosis and psychosis" which Governor Smith said did not interest him.

THE QUESTION is not one of technicalities, but government initiating a murderer by killing more ingeniously than murderers kill, and killing a woman. One thing is certain, if the governor were compelled to fasten a woman in the chair, throw the switch and see her die, the switch would not be thrown.

Newspapers on the whole, are doing more toward exposing crime and bringing criminals to justice than any other single agency. Cut out the newspapers for one week and see where society would be.

SELLING THE HOME FOLKS

The fact is beginning to dawn upon us that there is less need of selling Florida to the outside world than to ourselves. From the outside very little criticism of Florida is heard. Indeed, the best business men of the country, including bankers and economists, are pointing to the soundness of Florida and the promising future.

Here at home we have on our hands a large number of croakers as a by-product of a boom. A croaker is a thing developed, never active person; being active in the wrong direction gives him his title. Very often the loudest croaker is a man who was once an effective booster. He simply has gone to the other extreme when he found the current running against him. He thereby works harm to himself and his community and misleads the outside world.

No state in the Union has had a more prosperous year and been freer from ravaging and hurtful influences during the year now just closing than the state of Florida. True, there are a lot of people here who are hard up. But they have had up because they could not curb their ambitions during the peak of prosperity. In other words, they overbought and when the lull came and real estate transactions became slow, they were unable to realize cash on their investments, and as a consequence found themselves hard up.

THE SOUTH IN FOOTBALL

When the picked team from the South charged through the lines of the picked team from the West, in the holiday football game at Los Angeles yesterday with a University of Florida star going over for the single touchdown, another straw showed the veering of the sectional wind in the direction of Dixie.

The one game was not a season any more than a single swallow is but it was an opportunity for an eleven from the South to test its metal with an eleven from the West, each being the pick of experts and standing as the best within a given territory. That the Southerners should have won on the same day that the East was being downed by the West at Pasadena, is pretty conclusive evidence that the picking of all-American elevens with the South omitted by such luminaries as Grantland Rice is a mere matter of prejudice or attempted snubbing.

The universities and colleges in the East still carry an additional practice, due to much bally-hoing and the reverence that age does bring, just as they in turn are deluded by Oxford and the seats of learning of England. That this prestige does not necessarily denote superiority is quite well known though perhaps reluctantly admitted.

When the South forces its athletic supremacy upon the nation, it is also forcing the conviction that in their other activities the institutions of higher learning believe in the same superiority.

Photographs may not lie, but many a motion picture gives a misleading idea about life.—Atlanta Constitution.

The army officer who proposes to ride a horse from New York to California believes in riding his hobby.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

Elton J. Moughton Architect. First Nat'l Bank Bldg. Sanford, Florida.

FROM FACTORY TO YOU FEDERAL EXTRA SERVICE TIRES & TUBES at prices you would pay for inferior, unknown, makeshift brands.

GAS 21 Cts. Greasing 75c TIRES & TUBES Better quality for less money. CECIL L. RINES 1601 W. First St.

FOR RENT In LOCH ARBOR One 4 room, one 5 room and one 6 room house. These houses are modern in every respect, and the rent is reasonable.

G. S. WITMER, P. O. Box 339 Sanford, Fla. Phone 254 - M

BATTERIES Guaranteed one year $9.50 Generator and Starter Renault Battery 304 W. Second St. Next to Spencers Toy U-Drive Garage

LUMBER and Building Materials Security Lumber Co. Phone 797.

The First National Bank "The Bank of Service"

Human Progress is produced, not by great pieces of great fortune that seldom happen but through little advantages that occur every day.

Have You A Bank Account? Cordially yours, Cashier

Interest from January 1st will be paid on Savings Accounts opened on or before Tuesday, January 10th. NOW is the best time to open your Account with us. Why put it off until next week, next month or next year. FEDERAL Laws enacted by Congress and United States Government supervision,—Real National Bank Protection, the safest known, protects your money. $1.00 opens your account and we pay 4% interest. THE SANFORD ATLANTIC NATIONAL BANK "Grow and Prosper with Sanford's New Bank" Sanford, Florida

Social And Personal Activities

Telephone 148 MRS. FRED. S. DAIGER, Society Editor Residence Tel. 37.

Social Calendar

MONDAY
Board of the Presbytery will meet at the 10 o'clock.

The Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church will meet at the church.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Barney Beck and Mrs. F. W. Stanley, which were followed by a regular business session led by Mrs. Beck. Most encouraging reports were given by the standing officers. A call was made for suggestions for resolutions for the New Year to be adopted by the class. It was decided that each member would make as near a perfect record in attendance and study and comply with the standard rules as near as possible.

At the conclusion of business Mrs. Robert L. Glenn accompanied by Mrs. Beck sang a number of songs. The regular business session led by Mrs. Beck. Most encouraging reports were given by the standing officers. A call was made for suggestions for resolutions for the New Year to be adopted by the class. It was decided that each member would make as near a perfect record in attendance and study and comply with the standard rules as near as possible.

TUESDAY
Business meeting of the Class of the First Church will be held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Smith at 7:30 o'clock.

All of all choirs and other groups will meet at the club at 7:30 o'clock to talk over the social program.

WEDNESDAY
Afternoon Bridge Club will meet with Mrs. K. B. McCuller at her home at 3:30 o'clock.

THURSDAY
School Parent-Teacher Association will meet at 3:30 at the Grammar School.

Cantwell Gives Of Bridge Series

The many social affairs which were the bridge party given by Mrs. Cantwell when she entertained the series at her home at 9:00 o'clock. The color scheme was green and white with decorations and other things arranged with pleasing effect. The rooms were decorated with red and white.

The rooms of this lovely home were abloom with quantities of red sweet peas arranged in silver bowls and baskets. The colors of red and green were further carried out with numerous red tapers placed on the mantels, cabinets and tables. The refreshment table was most attractive with its central decoration of a large birthday cake frosted in white and topped with red candles in red rose holders and embedded in red sweet peas and ferns. Placed opposite were four tall cathedral candles in silver candlesticks. Extending down the length of the table were delicate traceries of asparagus ferns, while at each place were smaller red tapers. The rooms had been darkened and the only lights were the soft rays from the candles.

The afternoon was merrily spent with games of all kinds and much amusement was afforded the young guests in trying to pin a nose on the clown. Master Wilson Sneed proved the most proficient and was awarded a toy truck. A Charleston Contest was another pleasant feature of the afternoon and Julia Higgins was voted to be the best dancer.

At the conclusion of the games, the children were served cake, ice cream and candies. Favors of gay caps, snappers and pop corn balls were given the guests. Owen was assisted in looking after the pleasure of his guest by his mother Mrs. L. P. McCuller, and Mrs. John W. Sneed, Mrs. W. T. Laird and Mrs. R. L. Peck.

The Churches

CROSS CHURCH
Sunday after Epiphany.
Day of Holy Communion.
School 9:45.
Prayer and Sermon 11.
Prayer and Sermon 5.
People's Service League.

CHRISTAIN CHURCH
Palmetto Ave.
School 9:45.
Prayer and Communion 11.
"Stewardship."
In Endeavor 6:30.
Service 7:30.
"Repentance."

REGONAL CHURCH
Park Avenue and 3rd
Av. J. Bernard Root, Minister.
School 9:45.
Worship 11:00.
In by the Pastor.
Dickinson, President.
In Endeavor 6:30.
Hodgins will lead the singing. Worship 7:30.

One is assured of good thoughts and a welcome.

L SOUL'S CHURCH
Corner 8th and Oak.
Sunday after Epiphany.
Mass 8:00 A. M.
Mass 8:45 A. M.
Mass 10:00 A. M.

Baptist T. E. L. Class Has Business Meeting At Mrs. J.M. Wilson's

The first business and social meeting of the New Year of the T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist Sunday School was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Wilson, 1700 Palmetto. The rooms were the members assembled were abloom with quantities of cut flowers in the varying shades of red.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Barney Beck and Mrs. F. W. Stanley, which were followed by a regular business session led by Mrs. Beck. Most encouraging reports were given by the standing officers. A call was made for suggestions for resolutions for the New Year to be adopted by the class. It was decided that each member would make as near a perfect record in attendance and study and comply with the standard rules as near as possible.

At the conclusion of business Mrs. Robert L. Glenn accompanied by Mrs. Beck sang a number of songs. The regular business session led by Mrs. Beck. Most encouraging reports were given by the standing officers. A call was made for suggestions for resolutions for the New Year to be adopted by the class. It was decided that each member would make as near a perfect record in attendance and study and comply with the standard rules as near as possible.

Master McCuller Is Host To Young Friends
Master Owen McCuller, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. McCuller, was the genial young host, Wednesday afternoon when he entertained a number of his neighborhood friends at his home on Myrtle Avenue, in celebration of his birthday.

The rooms of this lovely home were abloom with quantities of red sweet peas arranged in silver bowls and baskets. The colors of red and green were further carried out with numerous red tapers placed on the mantels, cabinets and tables. The refreshment table was most attractive with its central decoration of a large birthday cake frosted in white and topped with red candles in red rose holders and embedded in red sweet peas and ferns. Placed opposite were four tall cathedral candles in silver candlesticks. Extending down the length of the table were delicate traceries of asparagus ferns, while at each place were smaller red tapers. The rooms had been darkened and the only lights were the soft rays from the candles.

The afternoon was merrily spent with games of all kinds and much amusement was afforded the young guests in trying to pin a nose on the clown. Master Wilson Sneed proved the most proficient and was awarded a toy truck. A Charleston Contest was another pleasant feature of the afternoon and Julia Higgins was voted to be the best dancer.

At the conclusion of the games, the children were served cake, ice cream and candies. Favors of gay caps, snappers and pop corn balls were given the guests. Owen was assisted in looking after the pleasure of his guest by his mother Mrs. L. P. McCuller, and Mrs. John W. Sneed, Mrs. W. T. Laird and Mrs. R. L. Peck.

Mrs. Peck Entertains

Among the many social affairs of the week, one of the loveliest was that of Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Lee Peck entertained at the first of a series of bridge parties at the home of Mrs. Howard Long on Park Avenue. The rooms of this attractive home presented a spring-like appearance with bowls of pastel tinted sweet peas and sprigs of asparagus ferns.

Delicious refreshments of fruit salad, sallines, nut bread and coffee were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Howard Long. The players were Mrs. Grant Wilson, Mrs. Claude Ogilvie, Mrs. Donald Whitcomb, Mrs. Henry Purdon, Mrs. Alice Peters, Mrs. Ernest Krupp, Mrs. James F. Hawkins, Mrs. Howard Long, Mrs. Ned Smith, Mrs. W. W. O. Smith, Mrs. C. C. Cook and Mrs. Braxton B. Baggett.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Maffett, whose marriage was an interesting event of last week, are expected to arrive here Sunday from their wedding trip to points in South Carolina. Mrs. Maffett will resume her duties as teacher of expression in the Sanford Schools. Mrs. Maffett was formerly Miss Margaret Mc Rae.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Kastner announce the birth of a son on January 4. The baby has been named Harold Henry Kastner.

Mrs. Florence Ryan and daughter Dorothy of Moore Haven, former residents of Sanford spent the past week here as the guests of Mrs. J. E. Laing.

Mrs. J. E. Laing and Miss Jennette Laing have returned home from Jacksonville where they spent the holidays with relatives. They were accompanied home by E. H. Vickers.

Miss Bert Murrell of Orlando arrived here Friday and is the guest of her sister Mrs. William A. Lefler at her home on Magnolia Avenue.

Mrs. Boecher Kent and daughter Caroline, of Winter Park were the guests of Mrs. M. Minarik on Friday.

Dr. Allen Jones arrived here Friday from Kissimmee to spend the week-end here with his mother Mrs. Minnie E. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Williams moved on Saturday into the Mahoney Apartments on Park Avenue.

Philip Mc Rae Jr., has been spending the holidays here with his mother Mrs. P. D. Mc Rae and will return Sunday to Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Arrington Gives Party For Booklover's

One of the pleasantest social affairs of the week was that of Friday afternoon when Mrs. Stella P. Arrington entertained the members of the Book Lovers Club at the Country Club.

Red, yellow and green were combined and used to decorate the club lounge and dining room. Red roses and ferns as well as other seasonal cut flowers were used with artistic effect.

Several clever contests caused much merriment during the afternoon. Another interesting feature was the writing of poems, which were to be used as New Year resolutions. Mrs. E. P. Morse won the prize for being the best poetess.

Following the contests the guests were invited to the dining room where a three course luncheon was served. The table was laid with red rose buds and sprigs of asparagus ferns formed the centerpiece. At either end were novel arrangements of greenery, which encircled the numbers, 1928. At each place were cunning scrolls on which were written articles that were later read by the guests.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Robert J. Holly Sr., Mrs. Henry McLaughlin, Mrs. Mattie G. Pace, Mrs. Alice E. Hill, Mrs. Fred T. Williams, Mrs. Roy Symes, Mrs. J. C. Bennett, Miss Annie Hawkins, Mrs. E. P. Morse, Mrs. Harry Ward, Mrs. T. M. Puleston, Mrs. Alice Woodcock, Mrs. Junius Turbull and Mrs. Arrington.

Legion Auxiliary

The first meeting of the new year of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Friday afternoon at the Legion Hut, under the direction of the president Mrs. George W. Knight. The following officers were installed for the ensuing year: president Mrs. George W. Knight; vice president, Mrs. E. B. Stone; secretary, Mrs. M. A. Newman; treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Ritchie; chairman, Mrs. Charles Powell Jr.; Historian, Mrs. J. H. Hintermister; Sergeant of arms, Miss Jennette Laing. Standing committee chairmen were: Publicity, Mrs. Fred Dague; Decorations, Mrs. E. B. Stone; Membership, Mrs. Stanley Walker; Poppy, Mrs. J. C. Benson; Hospitalization, Miss Jennette Laing. During the business session, many matters of much importance were transacted. A vote of thanks was extended to Biggers Dary for the use of the truck used to deliver the Christmas gifts to the veterans hospital at Lake City. A splendid report was given from the New Year's Ball Monday evening at the Hotel Forrest Lake.

Mrs. Courie Entertains

On Friday afternoon Mrs. J. E. Courie was hostess at a most delightful bridge party when she entertained the members of the Lottaphun Bridge Club at her home on Palmetto Avenue. Lavender and yellow were the prevailing colors and were beautifully carried out with baskets of petunias and nasturtiums. Pastel tinted tallies were used in keeping scores for the interesting games of bridge and when scores had been added the prizes for high score, a deck of bridge cards went to Mrs. Frank W. Talbott. Refreshments consisting of congealed pineapple salad topped with whipped cream, fruit cake, pound cake and hot tea were served by the hostess at the tea hour. Playing bridge were Mrs. Chris Matthews, Mrs. Walter Bank, Mrs. Minarik, Mrs. Beather Kent of Winter Park, Mrs. Clifford Walker, Mrs. Frank W. Talbott, Mrs. James Huff and Mrs. James Gillon.

Lake Mary

Dr. George Fellows of Seabrook, N. H., one of the first winter residents to come to Lake Mary, returned last week for another session here. Dr. Fellows is in excellent health at the age of 81 and is engaged in the active practice of his profession at Seabrook.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Kemp returned Thursday after spending the week at Lake City.

All citizens interested in forming a village improvement society are invited to meet at the community building on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Rebecca Evans and Master W. H. Evans of Tampa are spending the week with their grandmother, Mrs. M. V. Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Heslop of Quitman, Ga., spent the holidays with Mrs. Heslop's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hood.

Miss Ethel Hyottaine had as her guest recently Mrs. Troy McNair of DeLand.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Vernon and daughter, Miss Thelma Vernon of Crews, Va., were guests for several days last week of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moran.

Mrs. H. D. Durant and daughter, Mrs. Fred Holt accompanied by Mr. Holt motored to Pierson last Sunday to visit Mrs. Durant's parents.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. H. D. Durant on Tuesday.

Work on the new community church began January 1st. A considerable amount of laying of the corner stone took place last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Stevens have moved into one of the Rowe Apartments.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Cole had as their guests recently Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Richardson of Ireland Falls, Mo., who are touring Florida.

Miss Marion Cole of Minnieapolis, Minn., spent the holidays with her father, Dr. W. E. Cole.

Mrs. M. J. Stevens of Greenwood, S. C., arrived recently to spend the winter with her son, Louis Stevens and family at the Community Christmas tree at the chamber of commerce building on Christmas Eve proved to be a most enjoyable affair. The program given by the school children was declared excellent and one of the most entertaining ever given here.

Mr. Butterfield received much praise for their part in arranging the children and the costumes and settings for the various numbers. A reading by Miss Virginia Palmer of the faculty was accorded much applause.

Old Santa Claus appeared in due season and was welcomed with grateful shouts by the children. Everyone present received a box of candy and the large electricity lighted tree in front of the building received its share of admiration.

The Crystal Lake Improvement Association held its second meeting of the year at the Lake Mary Hotel on Tuesday evening. It was agreed to change the name of the society to the Crystal Lake Social Club. After a short program, refreshments were served.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lake Mary Methodist church held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. G. Ferguson on Wednesday afternoon. The devotional service was in charge of Mrs. W. E. Cole. After the business meeting an election of officers was held resulting as follows:

Mrs. D. A. Anderson, president; Mrs. W. E. Cole, first vice president; Mrs. Elmer Hoyt, second vice president; Mrs. James Thompson, secretary; Mrs. Frank Evans, treasurer. The final reports of the various committees were given and it was decided to place the two quilts and fancy work on hand on sale at an early date.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, after which a hand-embroidered crib quilt, the work of the ladies, was presented to Mrs. James M. Thompson. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. W. G. Ferguson, retiring president, who was commended for her services as president of the organization during the past year.

The Lake Mary Methodist Church was fitted to the overflowing on Friday evening celebrating Christmas, when the following Christmas program was presented:

Song, "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing."
Prayer by Rev. Ericson.
Address of welcome by the Sunday School superintendent.
Recitation, "Welcome" by Earl Whitten.
Recitation, "Their Message" by Jack Smith.
Exercise, "Living Decoration" by Ruby Mae Dobson, Virginia Stevens, Elouise Lowe and Katherine Adams.
Song by choir, "The Bells are Ringing."
Exercise, "The Message of the Bells" by Thelma Love, Francis Stevens, Fonda Dobson and Christine Whitten.
Recitation, "Christmas" by Madeline Lloyd.
Dolly Fisher, Ruby Mae Dobson, Thelma Love, Edith Butterfield, Madeline Lloyd, Sadie Fisher, Dolly Fisher, Ruby Mae Dobson, Elouise Lowe, Christine Whitten, Francis Stevens.
Duet, "Redeemer Divine," by Mrs. Moran and Mrs. Travis.
Recitation, "I Came Upon a Midnight Clear" by Ruth Ericson, Ruth Spendlove and Heba Touchstone.
Exercise, "A Lasting Tree" by Lewis Stevens, Floyd Touchstone, Sunny Butterfield, Earl Whitten.
Song by primary and intermediate classes, "The Christmas Wish."
Reading, "Hilda's Christmas."
Reading by Estery Ericson.
Song by choir, "The Promise Revealed."

Bridge Players Are Guests Of Mrs. Peck

Unusually lovely was the bridge party given by Mrs. Lee Peck, Friday afternoon when she entertained at the second of a series at the home of Mrs. Howard Long on Park Avenue. An abundance of pink sweet peas was used in profusion in decorating the rooms where the games were played. Tallies in keeping with the decorations and done in suggestions of the New Year were used for the card games. When the last round had been played, the prize for top score, lingerie, was presented Miss Helen Verway. The second prize, a boudoir pillow, was won by Mrs. Robert J. Holly Jr. For holding the called card, Miss Cleo Thayer received a pretty vase.

Late in the afternoon the bridge accessories were removed and the hostess assisted by Mrs. Long, served a tempting salad course with nut bread, coffee and candies.

Enjoying this pretty party were Mrs. Cauten Hutchison, Mrs. William Erickson, Mrs. Robert J. Holly Jr., Mrs. Joe Gonzalez, Mrs. Perry Cameron, Miss Margaret Peters, Miss Emily Griffin, Miss Cleo Thayer, Miss Helen Verway, Miss Kitty Du Rose, Mrs. Ben Wade and Mrs. James Robson Jr.

GOLDENROD

Jan. 8. Sunday School at the usual time, 9:30 P. M. Prayers at 10:30 P. M. Dr. Vincent, pastor of the 11th Congregational Church of Winter Park, will occupy the pulpit. There will be special music and a large attendance is desired.

All those who desire to join the Motored to Sanford Tuesday afternoon January 10, are urged to be at the home of Mrs. Chas. Eldridge at 1 o'clock of that date. The members of the W. M. U. will all be given transportation, and all friends who desire to go are cordially invited. The Missionary meeting for the month of January will be at the home of Mrs. Allen Gordinger of Sanford. Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 P. M., January 10. It is the desire of the hostess that all members and friends of the society, make an special effort to be present.

Mr. Walter Randall is building a cottage on his grove property here to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Adkinson who will superintend the work of caring for his sixty acre grove.

Mr. Stanley and son of Dallas arrived here for the Christmas holidays as guest of her sister, Mrs. Rex and family. Mrs. Stanley will spend the remainder of the winter here and will here will have a winter home built on her property on Lake Barton.

Mr. Gene Todd of Atlanta is here for a business visit with his nephews Messrs. Mark and Thomas who have charge of his extensive grove interests.

Mr. Floyd Holloway, who has been absent for several months, returned to his dairy farm here, last week, and he and family are nicely located there for the winter.

Mr. N. J. Tanner of Oviedo was the all day guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. Woods and family Sunday, Jan. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Adelson of Orlando were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Alva Kenney, whose severe illness last week caused her family and friends much concern, is reported as much improved.

Mr. Allen Gordiner and family of Sanford spent New Year's day with his sister and family of this place.

Mrs. Harriet Parker who has been ill for the past three weeks is better at this time though still confined to her bed.

Master Edward Parker, whose illness during the past week was very alarming, because of his extremely high temperature, is showing some improvement this week and his family and friends are now hoping for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Smith, after a pleasant visit here with relatives left Thursday by auto for their home in Waynesville, N. C., both to resume their duties as teachers in the high school there. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were both delighted with this section of Fla., and are coming here to make their home after this winter.

The many friends here were shocked at the unexpected news of the passing of Mr. John Sachse, and the sympathy of all is given to the bereaved family and brother. Several from here were in attendance at the funeral services in Winter Park Saturday.

Prof. and Mrs. Gifford were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Croon New Year's and with them visited Pinehurst Sunday afternoon.

Miss Susa Anderson R. N. and Mrs. Carl Jackson of Orlando were calling at the George Parker home Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Smith were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mathers Thursday and evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Cimon E. Collett of Alfred, Maine arrived Wednesday of last week for a three

PALM BEACH HAS BEGUN CAMPAIGN TO GET SHIPPING

Chamber President Moves To Fight Transfer Of Crops For Shipment, At Bay Mable Instead Of Using Own Port

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 6.—(INS)—C. F. Bense, President of the West Palm Beach Chamber of Commerce, has started to move to fight the transfer of crops for shipping from Bay Mable instead of from Palm Beach Port.

Fort Lauderdale and Hollywood authorities have used their influence at Washington to get federal aid for Bay Mable Harbor, and the request for aid for West Palm Beach was rejected. This rejection will be appealed by the Inlet Commission of Palm Beach Port.

As direct result of the announcement from Washington, cities south of here are working to divert truck from the Everglades to shipping through their channels.

A large loan has recently been made to Hollywood developers through northern banks, and the work of promotion there will probably be along large lines.

Brown Company, a peanut butter manufacturing company which has large holdings in the Everglades, is said to be backing Hollywood as an industrial and shipping center, favoring Palm Beach as a tourist town. Some of the millionaire owners of large homes in Palm Beach are inclined to keep the island for winter residence purposes "a playground," at first planned by H. M. Flagler and let industrial centers be established nearby. This would leave Lake Worth as a harbor for pleasure boats and a runway for speed contests during regattas. Introduction of too many large commercial boats would ruin the lake for these purposes. For some years past any attempts to commercialize Palm Beach and vicinity have been met by mysterious and highly successful blockades.

ROOF DAMAGED SLIGHTLY

A defective flue is believed to have caused a fire which Wednesday night caused slight damage to the roof of the Langley Apartments on Park Avenue. The blaze was discovered about 8 o'clock and the fire department quickly extinguished it. The loss was declared slight.

Kidwell's Mother Gives Testimony In Fall-Sinclair Case

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(INS)—A detailed narrative of the mysterious shadowing of Edward J. Kidwell, Jr., while he was a juror in the Fall-Sinclair Teapot Dome conspiracy trial was given today by Mrs. Mary P. Kidwell, the juror's mother.

Called as a government witness in the Burns-Sinclair contempt trial to refute defense charges that Kidwell was coerced into making false affidavits, Mrs. Kidwell was questioned closely concerning mysterious callers at her home and about stories her son told on her from time to time of persons who approached him on the street.

At least four persons approached her son, Mrs. Kidwell testified. Government is seeking to establish that each was a Burns detective, employed by Harry F. Sinclair to shadow the juror.

Mrs. Kidwell said that in addition to the mysterious persons who appeared in and about her house, neighbors received anonymous telephone messages inquiring into the juror's personal habits, his hours of employment and his diversions. The source of these calls was not revealed.

Kidwell had previously testified the calls had aroused suspicion that he was being shadowed. One of the unknown callers at the Kidwell home during the trial posed as a sanitary inspector for the district government, Mrs. Kidwell said. He asked many questions about the juror.

Kidwell had also been approached on the street by men who asked him questions about the trial. In both cases he declined to answer, according to the testimony.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(INS)—The Norris Resolution, eliminating "lame duck" sessions of Congress by an amendment to the Federal Constitution was adopted today by the Senate.

MILANE HEATS TODAY

"SHANGHAIED" with Ralph Ince and Patsy Ruth Miller Collegians "SAMSON AT GOLFORD" Special attraction The Robsons, Cora Jam and Pearl Marimba, artists.

Methodist Church Pancake and Sausage Supper

Price 35c
Tuesday, Jan. 10th, at the Church Annex 5:30 to 7:30 P. M.

MAIL ORDERS TO BE ACCEPTED FOR MUSICAL COMEDY

"Queen High", One Of Greatest Musical Comedy Successes Of Season, Will Be Staged At Milane On January 16th

"Queen High" said to be the greatest musical comedy success the stage has had for years, will be presented at the Milane Theatre on Jan. 16. It comes to this city after its remarkable triumph in New York, Boston and Philadelphia.

"Queen High" is the musical version of the famous comedy, "A Pair of Sixes", which had big success throughout the country some time ago. It tells the amusing story of two partners who quarrelled continually and of the scheme devised by the firm lawyer to separate them. The laughable possibilities of such a situation are easily woven into the plot, the result is an evening of brilliant and diversified entertainment.

"Queen High" has been conceived and executed in the spirit of the present generation, and in consequence, speed and comedy are the key-notes that carry the entertainment forward at a breathless pace from curtain to curtain. The cast and choreography are of the highest order and the result is a mad whirl of singing, dancing and laughter against a background of romance and beauty.

The book and lyrics of "Queen High" were written by Laurence Schwab and E. DeSylva. The musical score is by Lewis E. Gensler, who has embellished it with music of lilting melodies and roystering songs. Sammy Lee, who staged the dances, did similar service for "No, No, Nanette"; The Marx Brothers in "The Cocoanuts"; the new Ziegfeld Follies, and "Rio Rita". Among the principals are such well known artists as Eddie Garvin, Dave Mallen, Nell Collins, Corrie Glenn, Mary Marlyn, George Armfield, Thomas Hudson, Danny O'Donnell, Arlyne White, Dorothea Dunn, and a large corps of pretty dancing girls. Mail orders, accompanied by proper remittance, are now being received.

Kidwell's Mother Gives Testimony In Fall-Sinclair Case

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(INS)—A detailed narrative of the mysterious shadowing of Edward J. Kidwell, Jr., while he was a juror in the Fall-Sinclair Teapot Dome conspiracy trial was given today by Mrs. Mary P. Kidwell, the juror's mother.

Called as a government witness in the Burns-Sinclair contempt trial to refute defense charges that Kidwell was coerced into making false affidavits, Mrs. Kidwell was questioned closely concerning mysterious callers at her home and about stories her son told on her from time to time of persons who approached him on the street.

At least four persons approached her son, Mrs. Kidwell testified. Government is seeking to establish that each was a Burns detective, employed by Harry F. Sinclair to shadow the juror.

Mrs. Kidwell said that in addition to the mysterious persons who appeared in and about her house, neighbors received anonymous telephone messages inquiring into the juror's personal habits, his hours of employment and his diversions. The source of these calls was not revealed.

Kidwell had previously testified the calls had aroused suspicion that he was being shadowed. One of the unknown callers at the Kidwell home during the trial posed as a sanitary inspector for the district government, Mrs. Kidwell said. He asked many questions about the juror.

Kidwell had also been approached on the street by men who asked him questions about the trial. In both cases he declined to answer, according to the testimony.

NOTICE

All parties who owe the Elder Springs Water Company which up until recently was operated by Mr. H. J. Clauss as Receiver will pay all bills that were due by their prior to December 15, to the present operator of Elder Springs Water Company W. W. Thompson, manager. Please settle these bills at once, as the books of the old Company are closed.

Auditorium

DAYTONA BEACH
Albert Spaulding
Famous American Violinist

Monday Jan. 16
8:15 P. M.
Prices $1.00; $1.50
$2.00 $2.50 plus tax

Sets on sale Wed. Jan. 11
Phone 939

Mighty Drama Of Sea Is Depicted In Picture At Milane

Devotees of the sea and sailing ships are to have an opportunity to see their fill of romance and adventure along the coast of the waterfront in the country, San Francisco's Barbary Coast, with the opening of "Shanghaied", Ralph Ince's great maritime picture, made for FBO, which will be shown at the Milane Theatre today.

Ince has made the attempt in his picture to bring out the picturesque in the battered joints of the Barbary Coast, where sailors and cut-throats of every nationality and race are thrown into a seething mass of dissipating humanity.

Ince himself, who acts as both star and director, portrays the character of a sturdy sea captain who loves a dancer in one of San Francisco's bay-front dives. Patsy Ruth Miller plays the girl.

Many shots taken aboard ship far out in the Pacific ocean, where sky meets water on all sides, add much to the beauty of the picture. A famous trading schooner, especially refitted for Ince's work, was used in all the maritime scenes.

Included in the cast of noted screen players are such familiar names as Gertrude Astor, Tom Santehi, Alan Brooks and others.

MAIL CARRIER SENTENCED

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 5.—INS—B. Ross, negro mail carrier, was on his way to Atlanta today to start serving a two year sentence in the Federal Penitentiary in Atlanta on a charge of stealing from the mails. He was found guilty, convicted and sentenced in federal court here yesterday.

Governor Declines

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 5.—INS—Governor-elect Theodore Bilbo will not attend the inaugural ball to be held by his staff on Jan. 17 because the Baptist Church in which he holds a license as preacher, prohibits dancing. His religious scruples also caused Bilbo to absent himself from his first inauguration in 1916.

(Too Late To Classify)

Wanted competent maid to stay on premises. 2404 Mellonville Avenue.

PRINCESS TODAY

"The Hurricane Horseman"
"His Taking Ways"
"Ko Ko the Knight"

SERVICES

KNIGHT REVEALS GUARDED SECRET OF BIG CONFLICT

Mysterious Room Forty Was Department Of British Admiralty To Decipher Code Messages Of German Ships

LONDON, Jan. 7.—Heretofore unknown ramifications of the famous "Room 40" were disclosed at the "best kept secret of the World War," were disclosed at Edinburgh by Sir Alfred Ewing, who in 1914 was in charge of the room.

"Room 40" was a department at the British Admiralty known to a very few persons. Its business was to decipher German radio messages, and, as a result, every movement by German warships was known in advance to the British Government.

As an example of the information thus obtained, the British Navy was enabled to go out to meet the Germans in the battles of the Dogger Bank and Jutland.

Relating his fascinating story of espionage and counter-espionage, Sir Alfred Ewing said that at the outbreak of the war he was director of naval education. At that time there was no department for dealing with ciphers, and he was asked by the Government to undertake the work.

"I got a few friends to come help me," Sir Alfred said. "We worked hard and had remarkable luck. The staff of cryptographers was gradually increased until it numbered 60. Numerous listening stations were set up at which the German fleet signals and other messages were systematically taken in and from which they were telegraphed to the Admiralty to be deciphered. When the work had passed its initial stage, as many as 2,000 intercepted messages were dealt with in 24 hours.

"In this way a close and constant watch was kept on the German fleet, and information was obtained beforehand of their respective movements. Thus it was, for example, that the British Admiralty knew the day before the Battle of Dogger Bank what German ships were coming out, and where they were going.

"All this information was obtained from signals from German headquarters to the ships concerned. It was obtained in good time to arrange for suitable counter-measures.

"Next morning the Battle of Dogger Bank began. The watchers in the Admiralty, deciphering every signal."

LARY MAY WARM BENCH
NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(INS)—Parking space on the dugout bench of the New York Yankees may be worth nearly as much as a stock exchange within a few years. For indications are that Lyn Lary and Jimmy Reese, purchased from the Oakland Club of the Pacific Coast League for approximately $125,000, may be bench warmers when they report to the Yanks in 1928.

DADE CITY—Equipment for 16,000-egg capacity incubator being installed in building on Ninth Street.

JACKSONVILLE—Flagler Street improvements completed.

BUILDING BOULDER DAM MEANS SAVING THE IMPERIAL VALLEY

A Remarkable Project For Conservation of Water Resources With Full Reimbursement of All Cost to Federal Government

BOULDER CANYON DAM PROJECT
As one of the largest legislative projects to be introduced in Congress this winter, the project is by no means new. It has been discussed throughout the last ten years, several government engineering surveys already have been completed, and the project has been considered by the Senate and House of Representatives. It is now being pushed forward by the Senate and House of Representatives.

David, former director of Reclamation, U. S. Department of the Interior, and Secretary of the Boulder Canyon Dam and Reclamation Commission, has been the chief force behind the project. He has been instrumental in securing the passage of the Boulder Canyon Dam Act by Congress.

The project is a dam 520 feet in height, capable of impounding 26,000,000 acre feet of water for the average flow of the river for a year and a half. From this great dam will be developed 1,000,000 horsepower of hydroelectric energy for use in the Southwest. This power is to be the chief means of reimbursement to the government of the cost of the project together with interest.

George Conners Once King Of Bootleggers Quits Job Which He Ruled With Vigor

New York, Jan. 7.—George Conners, of Cincinnati, used to be the "pope of the bootleggers" in this country, as such he ruled with an iron hand and even the "hardest" ruffians and hijackers dared not cross him. He had a reputation for gentleness when he managed "Death Valley Farm," on the outskirts of Cincinnati, the biggest booze cache in America, and he still has that reputation.

"If my wife had been as loyal to me as Conners," said Remus recently. "I never would have shot her."

There is something about the cool, shrewd-looking Conners that suggests that he can take care of himself in any emergency. You imagine, somehow, he has met such "emergencies" and there are many stories that tend to substantiate that belief. He is exceedingly resourceful. Once, together with his son, he was in a jam. He had to say until he has the other party fully sized up, and then he can be an entertaining companion. He has had dozens of thrilling experiences but rarely talks of them. He is a realist, practical to an extreme,

OUT OUR WAY

THE SHAREHOLDERS.

EXPERTS REPORT PAPERS SPURIOUS IN HEARST PROBE

Senate's Investigating Group Identified Handwriting On Mexican Documents Were Of Unauthentic Manufacture

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(INS)—Handwriting experts employed by William Randolph Hearst to render an opinion upon the authenticity of the Mexican documents recently printed in the Hearst newspapers have rendered an opinion that the documents were "spurious," the Senate investigating committee was informed today.

Wm. A. DeFord, counsel for the publisher, presented the committee with the report of the experts at the outset of today's hearing. He said he had been instructed by Mr. Hearst to employ the experts as an aid to the committee in determining the authenticity of the documents.

"And the conclusion and determination of the experts is that the documents are spurious," asked Senator Johnson, R., of California, acting as chairman of the committee. "You said, DeFord, He added that the experts employed by Mr. Hearst would be available at all times for committee examination.

James R. Sheffield, former American ambassador to Mexico, was then called to the same, and denied that he had ever purchased any document in Mexico, or that the Hearst documents had been turned over to him prior to their publication.

Sheffield's testimony contradicted much of that heretofore given the committee by Robert H. Murry, a former correspondent of the New York World, and now employed by the Calles Government. "Murry testified," said Johnson, "that the documents in question in this investigation were given you before being turned over to the Hearst Press, is that true?"

"It is absolutely untrue," said Sheffield.

Sheffield said he knew both John Page, author of the Mexican articles, and Miguel Avila, the agent who procured the documents for him. He said Page had brought him Mexican documents to the embassy for examination.

"On one occasion—I think it was in May of this year—he came to the embassy with what purported to be some Mexican government documents, one of which purported to be a check from a ledger of the Mexican Treasury Department," said Sheffield.

"Did you examine them?" "Yes," I was asked for an opinion as to their genuineness. I replied I would not express such an opinion. I did, however, emphatically state that the ledger sheet, which purported to show the payment of money to United States Senators could not be genuine.

Club Organized By Crooks Who Wish To Lead Straight Lives

LONDON, Jan. 7.—(INS)—One of the strangest clubs in the world, composed entirely of crooks who have decided to "go straight" has been founded here.

And strange as the composition of the organization itself is the place in which it meets—nothing less than the Church of All Hallows, in Mark Lane.

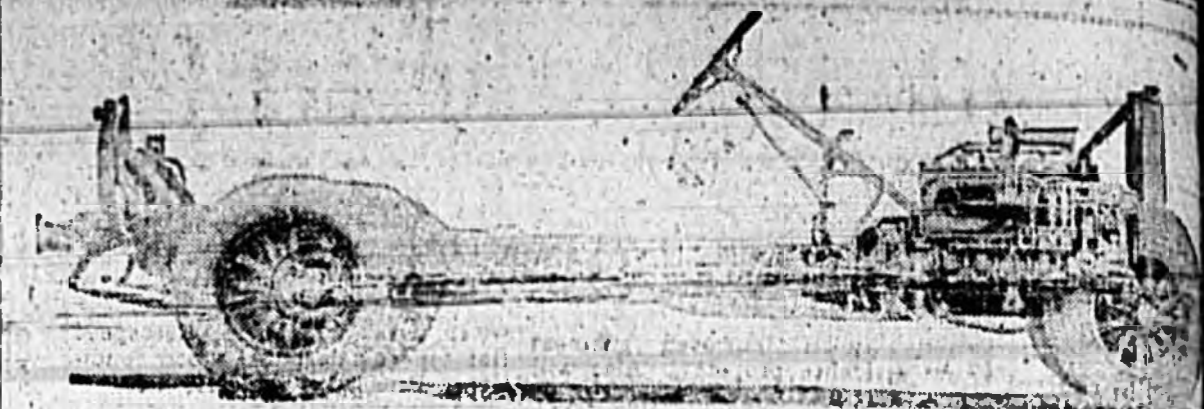

The club is known as the League of the Straight Road. It was founded by Miss Marjorie Evans, a welfare worker, in company with an ex-burglar who had been disabled in the war.

"My ex-burglar partner," Miss Evans told International News Service in describing her unique organization, "gave me entire insight to the most distinguished set of crooks in London. It is more difficult to get into this set than into any of the exclusive in Mayfair."

"Here we find men and women who want to 'go straight,' but who have not had a favorable opportunity.

"Every member of the club has to be introduced and vouched for by a member who knows that he wants a chance. For four months he is on probation."

Dodge Brothers Latest Offering Is Victory Six

Dodge Brothers Victory Six Engine and Chassis

Dodge Brothers Victory Six Coupe

Trade Body Dinner Proves Big Success With 470 Present

Mr. Graves deplored their misuse and declared they had been greatly overdone.

"Every city is dependent upon four elements, the chamber of commerce, the bank, the city government and the newspaper. Each should be a separate and independent organization but no city has a real future when complete cooperation does not exist between the four," he declared. And in this connection, the speaker said such a condition should be easy to foster because America's chief attribute is its genius for fraternity and love for fellowman.

With a unity of these separate elements, closely related by a bond of fellowship and harmony, a spirit of liberalism, of live and let live should prevail and the community should progress accordingly. Liberalism, he explained, was a teaching out for opportunity. A drive to progress and show improvement. Illustrating the point, the speaker related the story of evolution.

Centuries ago, he said, a monkey dropped out of a tree and stood erect on his hind feet. Others of his kind made fun of him for his ungainly gait. He was ridiculed for choosing to walk on two legs instead of swinging from tree to tree by his tail. Conservatism, he pointed out, led the others to do as their fathers and grandfathers had done before them, while the liberal continued to disregard the old order of things.

"As a result, the conservatives are still monkeys while the liberals have grown into real men," he said.

In extending greetings to the gathering, Mayor E. F. Householder lauded Sanford's spirit of fellowship as evidenced by the large attendance and the general feeling of optimism and good will that permeated the room.

The Mayor praised Mr. Forster for his public spiritedness and declared "Now is the time when we need real men in our city to carry on the work of making Sanford a greater community."

"I see you people of Sanford have recognized the acquaintance comparable to that of the man who found the French Foreign Legion, who knew no sacrifice that was too great to make if it was essential to growth and progress. Evidence of this spirit had been reflected during just months but undaunted, the people were going on about their business of building a city."

"Sanford is looking up and will continue to do so," the Mayor continued. "We will forget the past and look to the future for that is the only way to grow."

"This occasion and the spirit that prevails here," said Judge Wallace W. Wright in a short talk, "demand that we congratulate ourselves for such a manifestation of good will."

Mr. Lane was praised by Judge Wright for his broad vision and careful analysis which were responsible for the organization of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank and extension of the state's strongest financial interests to include Sanford.

Reiterating Mr. Lane's assertion that the occasion was one of cementing the cordial feeling between Jacksonville and Sanford, Judge Wright added that the spirit of co-operation would continue to exist between the two cities as long as the St. Johns river linked the two cities.

progressiveness of its organization. An entertainment for the evening, Mr. Charles J. All Jr., rendered by the Dens. Another musical was given, C. D. Wolfe, Y. D. supervisor, superintendent of several games, was pronounced by the member "Glover," rector of the Cross Episcopal Church. Success of the banquet was attributed by the Commerce officials to the were handled by Secretary Trotter, and his committee attended the sale of the had charge of the program. Commendation of his expressed not only by the trade organization but guests at the dinner.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—(INS) British art treasures will to America. In future the National Art Collection fund way. The fund aims at international art treasures, especially those which may come to market, and preserving the use of British museum art galleries. The number 6,700 and its actual income from yearly sales which amount to one guinea per member. Despite its tiny small amount, the fund saved many masterpieces from abroad by astute buying. Recently, when a painting celebrated masterpiece it is able to find the purchase by private sale. The Committee of the fund have thus been saved since its inception. Its great efforts are now to extend its scope. Among its triumphs are the purchase of the world-famed "Venus of Willendorf" and "Duchess of Milan" for the British Museum. The fund raised $300,000 from the Shepherds and Madonna—all of which treasured possessions of the nation in the National

BIGGERS DAIRY FARM
Phone 3711
Sweet Milk Sweet Cream Butter Milk Milk for Babies

McLaulins ENGRAVING
Diamond Mount Watch Repairing Jewelers-Optician

FURS
We are paying cash market prices Coons, Opossum, Wild Cats and Foxes
Fields Fur Co. 165 N. Park Ave. N. Valdez, Sanford, Fla.

Winter's Colds and Chills
Throw Heavy Burden on the Kidneys
COLDs put extra burden on kidneys. When the kidneys up, impurities remain in the body and are apt to make one sick with headaches, dizziness, or other ailments. Doan's Pills, a stimulant, increase the secretion of the kidneys and aid in the elimination of impurities. Are endorsed by physicians everywhere. Ask your pharmacist.

DOAN'S PILLS
A STIMULANT DIURETIC. 60c
Doan's Pills for the Kidneys

