Maxi Shirts - Gone Ladylike

NEW YORK (NEA)-Queens and arbiters though they are today, women once were the followers and "me-too's" of fashion.

Men had a head start (no pun intended, ladies) with wigs. In fact, the ancient Egyptian aristocrats (male type) shaved their heads and wore wigs made of curled hair with a series of plaits at the back. Poor people who could not afford the expense of real hair (it was even expensive then) had wigs made of black sheep wool. But wigs they wore. The ladies? They wore their hair long and worked into a multitude of small plaits, part of which hung down their backs.

They emulated the male wigs right down to the last plait and fringe and from the back it was difficult to tell who had the Toni. So score one for fashion's

Communication Gap Disturbs Union Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP) - The AFL-CIO is reported considering today a major effort to improve communications with its 13.5 million members after receiving a secret report that labor leaders are seriously out of touch with the rank and file. AFL-CIO President George Meany, who has the only compiete copy of the report locked in his safe, reportedly has had ! some of the labor movement's top brains working for months on the problems it poses. The report, based on the most extensive survey ever made
