Shorthand Classes Registration Set

Last chance to register for beginning shorthand classes was announced today by E. E. Douglas, Director of Adult and Vocational Education.

Classes are held at the Seminole County Vocational School, which is in its new location on Palmetto Ave., between Ninth and Tenth Streets. Other classes are just beginning and even though they may be entered at any time during the year, in order not to miss out in any way, students should enter now. After this week enrollment for the beginning shorthand classes will be closed for the semester.

"Seminole County is expanding and with its expansion comes the need for more and better skilled office workers," said Douglas.

The Business Education Department of the Seminole County Vocational School helps adults keep up with the changing community by offering classes in typing, bookkeeping, business English, office procedure, commercial law, transcription and a new course—Consumer Economics.

Hours may be arranged for Day or Night School between 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. Monday through Friday at the new location, which is air-conditioned.

Altamonte Off To Good Start

By ATLANTA MCGINNIS
Altamonte Elementary Principal George Dabbs reported today that the school got off to a good start last week with 994 pupils enrolled on the opening day with 204 of this total in grades one and two.

The Block System, new this year, worked smoothly for 279 fifth and sixth graders, Dabbs said, explaining that this teaching method is being used as an experimental approach for handling large numbers of students in classes only for these two grades.

An increase of 17 teachers brings the faculty number to 35 this year to keep pace with Altamonte's enlarged territory, Dabbs reported.

Hard Way To Break Into Game

LONDON (UPI) — Raymond Franklin was calling his first bingo game in a London theater Tuesday night, and he was visibly shaken when 50 of the players jumped to their feet and yelled "Bingo!"

Franklin checked each card, and they all tallied. He passed out 50 prizes. Then he began to examine his supply of cards.

His printers had made a mistake, and had provided dozens of duplicate cards.

"What a shocking start for bingo around here," he said.

Czech Troops On Move

VIENNA (UPI)—A Czechoslovakian newspaper here reported today that Czech troops have been moved into East Germany, apparently because of the Berlin crisis.

The report was confirmed. The newspaper Svobodna Listy, quoted reports from Czech visitors to Vienna.

"Several Czech military units have moved into East Germany recently," Svobodna Listy said.

"They were shipped to East Germany on very short notice."

The newspaper said the decision to send the troops into the Red zone of Germany was connected with the recent meeting of chiefs of the Warsaw Pact Nations.

The newspaper said that the troop movement was accompanied by panic-buying all over Czechoslovakia.

It said Czech visitors attributed the panic-buying to recent announcements that Czechoslovakia has halted demobilization and was calling reserves back to duty.

According to Western intelligence sources, the Czechs currently have a standing army of about 250,000. The army is patterned after the Soviet Union's, with troops split into some 15 to 18 divisions.

Last month, a troop buildup was reported in Romania. Communist Party Secretary Gheorghe Gheorghiu Dej announced Romania was taking "necessary steps to strengthen her defense in the wake of the West's preparation for war."

Work On Saturn Pad Starts Soon
JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—Construction will begin within five days on a new, $15,190,000 launching complex at Cape Canaveral for the Saturn moon rocket booster.

The Corps of Engineers awarded the contract Wednesday to Blount Brothers Construction Co. of Montgomery, Ala., lowest of five bidders on the project.

The facility, to be located on a 120-acre site at the north end of Cape Canaveral, will consist of a 300-foot mobile steel service tower, a 265-foot umbilical tower, and a 110-by-35-foot blockhouse with a roof 12 and one-half feet thick.

Necessities, luxuries, services and utilitarian articles are all included in the two pages of Friday Night Specials found in today's Herald, and in the special ads on other pages of the same paper.

"Shop at home and save" would be a good theme, as many merchants are offering drastic reductions on the clearance of summer-time items many of which are just as good in the winter-time, too, and in warm sunny fall days which are beginning to make themselves felt now.

If these fine bargains do not offer enough attraction, there is something special which offers excitement and adventure to the friendly Friday night shopping trips of Seminole County residents.

Prices! Prices will be given away again Friday night, from the usual spot on the corner of First St. and Magnolia Ave., featuring the popular $5 gift certificates, good in any of the participating merchants stores.

The big one will be $40 worth, the next $30 worth, next $20 and next $10. This makes four people happy and adds greatly to the fun of shopping at night, when the whole family can come to town together and shop for all their needs.

A special added attraction will be the exhibition square-dancing of the Starlight Promenaders, active local group, who will invite some members of the audience to step in and join them.

School Board Firm On Use Of Buses

The County School Board today reaffirmed its policy on school buses leaving the county after Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee reported that he was being "pressured" by groups on school bus use.

The board stated again that no school bus will be allowed to leave the county over a radius of 15 miles.

Milwee said that groups have time and time again asked for special allowances on the use of buses. He did not elaborate on what group was behind any pressure.

Board Member James Birkenmeyer suggested that a copy of the board's policy be sent to every principal. To this Milwee replied, "They got them."

Milwee also told the board that he was working on a policy regarding overaged children in the schools and letting them be turned over to the adult education department.

Milwee said that some overaged children (over 18) were creating a problem in the schools and many teachers didn't know how to cope with them. He added that they were creating disturbances and the other children were being neglected.

Nobody asked me but, isn't it true that the real reason Circumland pulled up stakes here was that the County Commission was giving them too much competition?

Shipment Probe
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The chairman of a special House committee said today he planned to launch an investigation next month to learn why the government allows American businessmen to ship machines and supplies behind the Iron Curtain.

Rep. A. Paul Kitchin (D-N. C.) said he intended to get started "just as soon as it is physically possible."

Mayor To Ask New City Hall For Longwood

Longwood Mayor A. R. Lormann said today he will ask the town council at its meeting next Thursday to set aside funds in its 1961-62 budget for construction of a new city hall.

Lormann said the council met Monday to work on the budget calling for expenditures of $41,000 and a 10 mill tax levy.

"The budget will be presented to the council next Thursday and there is a reserve of $5,000 that could be used to start construction of the new facility," Lormann added.

He said he would like to see a basic building first with room for additional wings later on. He added that if the council gives him the okay, work on the building could start within six months.

According to Lormann, the initial cost of the building could be kept under $6,500.

Lormann also said that the council would study a proposed sewage treatment plant for the city. He cited an engineer's feasibility report on the proposed plant.

"We could get help from the federal government on a matching basis to help construct the plant," the mayor added.

The other main budget items, Lormann said, were amounts set aside for the city's bond issue and for road maintenance.

The mayor also advised that Mrs. Onnie R. Rockett, town clerk, has asked that all business owners be reminded that occupational licenses will be due Oct. 1.

Fate Of Four Held By Reds Uncertain
BERLIN (UPI)—U. S. authorities held out little hope today of helping two Americans held by the Communists on charges of trying to smuggle an East German girl to the West.

The East German Interior Ministry identified the Americans as Victor Seattles Pankey and Gilbert Page Ferry, both 20, of California. The ministry said both were caught trying to smuggle the East Berlin girl through the Friedrichstrasse crossing point in the trunk of their car.

The East Germans at the same time announced the arrests of Briton, Bernard Joseph Colett, 30, of Birmingham and a Dutchman, Heri Johannes Petrus Marie Pierrot, 36, of Leyden, on similar charges.

The East German news agency ADN said all four had been turned over to East Berlin courts.

'61 Man Orbit??
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI)—The United States still holds a slim chance of sending a man into orbit around earth this year, but the astronaut will have to wait until a baby chimpanzee proves it is safe.

Allied Foreign Ministers Meet On Berlin Crisis

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk and German Foreign Minister Heinrich Von Brentano met here today to initiate a three-day round of conferences by the Big Four allied foreign ministers on the Berlin crisis.

Brentano, British Foreign Secretary Lord Home and French Foreign Minister Couve de Murville gathered in Washington for the talks. They met against the background of President Kennedy's suggestion of "serious talks" with the Russians when the United Nations General Assembly convenes next week.

The Soviet government said today that Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko "is ready" to talk with U. S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk on the German problem.

Rusk and Von Brentano met at 8:30 a. m. Lord Home was to lunch with Rusk. Late this afternoon, Rusk, Lord Home and de Murville were to get together for the first formal session of the conferences.

Friday and Saturday, all four will hold discussions. They were seeking a diplomatic formula to ease the peril of nuclear war without making damaging concessions to the Soviet Union. They also planned to blueprint further the strengthening of allied military defenses while waiting for some sign of Soviet willingness to negotiate a meaningful settlement of the Berlin crisis.

Esther, Debbie Roam High Seas

MIAMI (UPI)—Powerful Hurricane Esther churned west-northwestward far out in the Atlantic today, giving very little indication whether it would turn more to the north and remove a threat to the U. S. mainland.

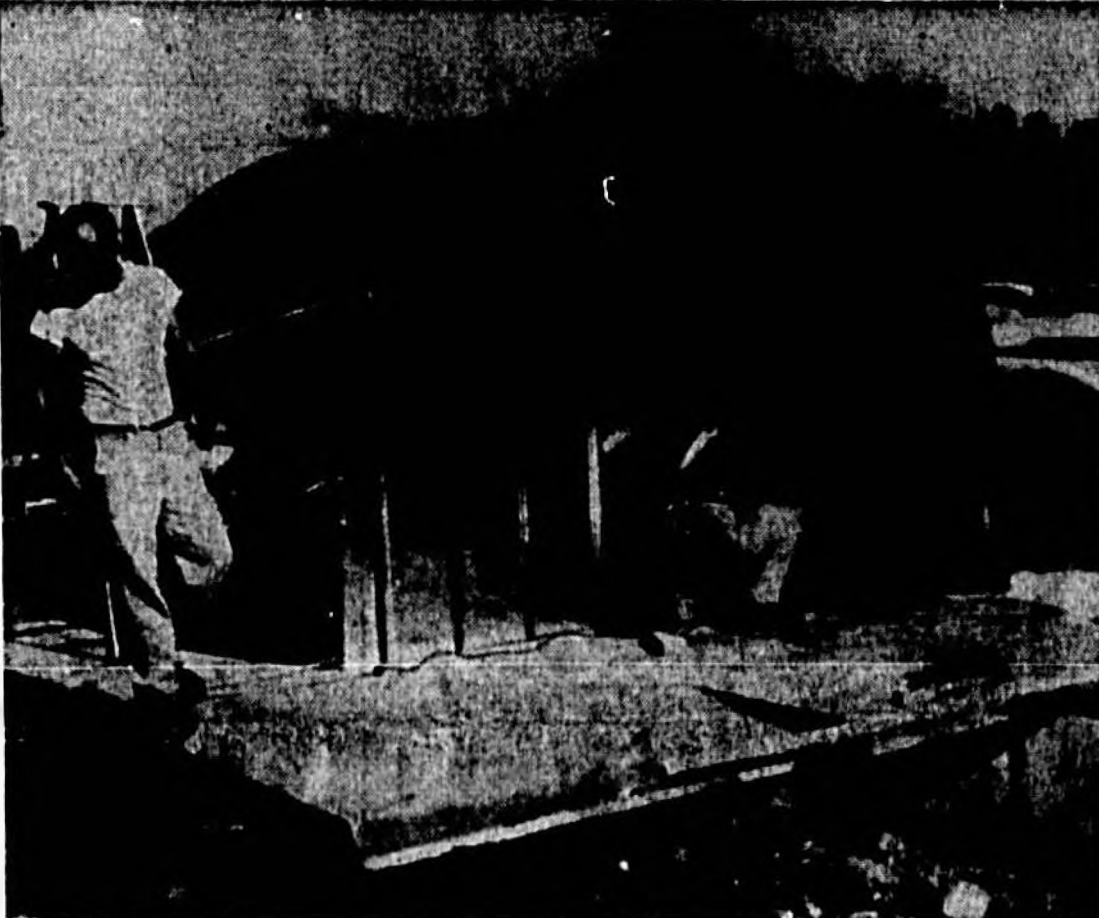

Weather bureau officials here said it was still too early to tell whether Esther would strike the mainland.

Esther, fifth tropical storm of the season, flung gales outward 230 miles from its center and was plodding on a west-northwest course at about 8 mph.

Weather bureau experts waited to see which way the hurricane would go before deciding whether to attempt to "seed" the storm with silver iodide.

Hurricane Debbie, located about 500 miles west-southwest of the Azores, was moving harmlessly northeastward, still carrying winds up to 110 mph.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—The flood crisis caused by Hurricane Carla eased today but wide areas of Kansas and Missouri, and Kansas City itself, suffered heavy damage from a series of flash floods in the wake of the storm.

THE FIRST model display shelter in Sanford will be open to the public Friday. The shelter, located behind the Florida State Bank, was constructed by the Earl Downes Construction Co. of Orlando. (Herald Photo)

Competition May Delay Lab

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A tug-of-war between states, Florida among them, for the Federal Space Agency's planned $10 million space test center may delay the decision on where it will be built.

Two sites in Florida, Green Cove Springs and MacDill AFB at Tampa, are under consideration. The center will be headquarters for the big Apollo manned space flight program.

Survey teams for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) recently visited Green Cove Springs and MacDill, as well as Shreveport, La.; Houston — Beaumont — Victoria, Texas; and Oakland — Berkeley, Calif.

NASA Administrator James E. Webb had hoped to decide on the site on the basis of evaluations by the survey teams, which returned to Washington with their reports last week. But the intense rivalry between the four states apparently has made the space agency go more slowly in deciding.

"This may take a little more time than perhaps a few days ago we might have thought," Webb told the National Press Club Tuesday. "A storm seems to be blowing up about it."

He indicated the storm was partly political. He emphasized that he would not be influenced by the lobbying efforts of the interested states and pressures on President Kennedy. The President "has made it very clear to me he expected me to make this decision in the light of national interests."

Webb indicated the agency was interested in having the space laboratory close to the launching site of the space rockets—Cape Canaveral.

"You increase the probability of success," he said, "if you can have a system which tends to handle in a relatively close area this kind of thing, instead of something that can go through the Panama Canal and around the Keys of Florida and back up."

Webb indicated the agency was interested in having the space laboratory close to the launching site of the space rockets—Cape Canaveral.

The Corps of Engineers awarded the contract Wednesday to Blount Brothers Construction Co. of Montgomery, Ala., lowest of five bidders on the project.

The facility, to be located on a 120-acre site at the north end of Cape Canaveral, will consist of a 300-foot mobile steel service tower, a 265-foot umbilical tower, and a 110-by-35-foot blockhouse with a roof 12 and one-half feet thick.

Suit Challenges Policy On Sunshine Parkway

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Piecemeal construction of the Sunshine State Parkway was challenged today in a suit seeking validation of $180 million in bonds to extend the tollpike from Fort Pierce to Wildwood.

State Atty. W. D. Hopkins of Tallahassee and Circuit Judge W. May Walker opened hearings on the proposal.

Another challenge was made by the Leesburg engineering firm of Rochester and Goodell, which moved for dismissal on the grounds the bond issue was an unconstitutional attempt to pledge the state's credit.

Hopkins maintained that the Legislature ordered the turnpike extended to a point near Jacksonville, and that therefore the Bryant Turnpike Authority can not legally fix the northern terminus at Wildwood.

He also challenged the validity of Gov. Farris Bryant's plan to refinance the debt outstanding on the tollpike section and use tolls to help pay for the extension.

Turnpike Chairman John Hamner said the authority expects to have dirt flying on the extension by November. The state already has a guaranteed buyer for the bonds, though the interest rate is still to be set.

Disaster Unit Officials Named

City Manager W. E. Knowles today made public a list of 40 officials that would man the city's disaster headquarters in the event of any nuclear attack.

Final approval is expected from the City Commission at its next meeting.

Knowles Monday was authorized to obtain bids for the shelter.

The City Commission, city physician, city manager and engineer, police chief, two police officers, fire chief, two firemen, director of public works, building official, assistant building official, Street, sewer, maintenance, shop and water department superintendents, water plant operator, street division and heavy equipment operator, county civil defense director, sheriff and county health officer.

Construction On 3 Interstate 4 Bridges Slated

Construction of three bridges at the connection of Interstate Route 4 and U.S. Highway 90 west of Daytona Beach is expected to be started by Sept. 27, the State Road Department announced today.

A. Max Brewer of Titusville, Road Board member for District Five, said the $23,150 Volusia County project includes overhead structures totalling 800 feet in length.

The largest of the three structures, 250 feet long, will pass over U. S. 92 where it ties in with Interstate 4. The second largest, 270 feet long, will provide ramp connections from Route 4 to U.S. 92.

The other bridge, 180 feet long, will cross the Tomoka River parallel to an existing structure on U.S. 92 where this route is being four-laned.

A. F. Foster Bridge Corp. of Ojus has been awarded the contract and will have 200 working days to complete the project, Brewer said.

Interstate 4, one of four super-highways being built in Florida, is now complete or under construction from Sanford to a connection with U.S. 92 west of Daytona Beach.

Building Permit Fees Increased
The county zoning board approved a raise in building permit fees Wednesday night. There was no opposition to the proposal at the hearing.

At the present time building permits are $1.50 for the first $1,000 in valuation and the proposed change would mean $5 for the first $1,000 and $1.50 for each $1,000 in valuation up to $15,000.

Final approval on the request is expected at next Tuesday's county commission meeting.

Lions Come Up With Novel Fund Raising Idea

By JANE CASSELBERRY

Lion Club members of Casselberry, a short time ago, came up with a novel fund-raising idea to help finance their numerous worthwhile projects.

They are building a two-bedroom concrete block retirement home on Kentia Rd. in Casselberry and have earmarked all profits from its sale for the club.

Situated on a large, dry lot to be fully landscaped, the home will be ready for occupancy in two weeks, the builders advise. It is located on a paved street and is connected with city water and sewage and will receive house mail delivery.

Lion Al Greene, originator of the idea who is supervising construction, includes in the list of special features to be found in the home such items as terrazzo floors, built-in range, tile bath with colored fixtures, zoned electric heat, insulation, awning type windows, a built-up roof, carport and utility room.

Subcontractors and others donating labor or materials to the Lions Club project are Joe Pavelchek, mason; Pete Knowles, concrete; Terrazzo Floor Co.; Bob Wiggins, plumbing; Central Electric Co., heating; Don Greene, electrician; Glenn Hickok, carpentry; Hogan Roofing Co.; Island Materials, concrete; Watkins Block Co.; Esty Painting Co.; Panning Lumber Co.; Air Control Windows; Quality Cabinet Shop; Godshalk Tile Co.; Pyle Landscaping; Carl Balmer, bulldozing; Casselberry Utilities; Walker Chemical Co.; area newspapers and television stations and Attorney Joe Murasko, legal services at closing.

An impressive collection of gift certificates and free prizes also have been donated by business firms serving the area and serve as added incentive to prospective purchasers.

Included is a week's free accommodations at the Lu-Rae Motel for out-of-town buyers; $2 in trade at Jackson's Minit Market; a casserole from Lang Hardware; $2 in trade at Sheppard's Rexall Drugs; $2 in dry cleaning from Sparkle Cleaners and Laundry; $5 on the purchase of any major appliance at Hueston's Home Appliance; $2 in trade at

J. W. Hatis Grocery; $2 in trade at Petrus Garden Supply; $4 gift certificate from New Hair Stylists; a car lubrication job at Walker Amoco Service; 10 gallons of gas from Crum's Super Service and one month's free delivery of the Sanford Herald.

Profile Mountain, in the Franconia range of western New Hampshire, was the inspiration for Hawthorne's "The Great Stone Face."

Lake Monroe Jottings

By MRS. E. L. JOHNSON

Hello, note: Thursday already. Doesn't time fly? The William Carroll Seniors have returned home from a visit to their former home in Banghampton, N. Y. Grandsons Tommy and Jimmie Carroll who kept their little dog for them said the dog was certainly excited over seeing them drive up. . . . Hap and Lenore Andrews and son Joey left by car Saturday morning for New York on a pleasure trip. . . . Want to thank Mrs. Velma Mitchell for her kind remark and compliment on my column. . . . Have had quite a few requests for a thought or quote or adage to close the column so, beginning today, I will do it. . . . Helen Price told me Friday evening that mother and Dad, Margaret and Walter Price, along with brother Frank and Bertha Price have been enjoying themselves by taking an extended motor trip. They stopped over a few days in Charleston, W. Va. and then on to Detroit, Mich. While there they went over to Ontario, Canada. They are expected to return home this week sometime. Helen is staying with Opal Dorn. I can just imagine what goes on at an evening, when those two characters get home from work. Opal is full of fun and I can see her with a cup of coffee in her hand telling Helen some yarn. . . . Talking to Ginnie Frederick the other day and she said that Rickie was much improved and going to school. She and Gordon have been very concerned about Rick. I am very glad to hear that he is very much better. . . . I know that everyone is glad that we didn't get any of "Carla." We had our share of Donna last year and could still get into one this year. Let's keep our fingers crossed that we don't. . . . Rich and Tommy Swagerty and Ruth's sister Ruby and Oliver Hall and daughter Carolyn are vacationing in Murphy N.C. and also will go over into Tennessee by way of Knoxville and Cleveland. . . . Naomi Sapp and Louise Rushlow gave a report on their short course subjects at the Home Demonstration meeting at Olga Hunters last Thursday evening. They reported on an interesting time and both agreed that it was a well spent five days. I can vouch for that too as you can really go to this short course every year and learn something really worth while and certainly very interesting. . . . Lucille Fitzgerald, Betty Blackwelder, Mrs. Sapp, Olga Hunter and I are planning to attend a fish school to be held at the HD Center tomorrow. . . . Claudette Behrens told us Monday that Freddie and Ann Behrens are supposed to come in this week on a visit. They are bringing their brand new daughter Bambi Lynn up here for her first visit. Have heard she is a little doll. . . . Don't you know that the C.A. Boyds are proud of son Phillip. Phil has completed another song and along with another one of his he wrote some time ago they are being put on a RCA Victor label this week in Nashville and will be released here in two weeks. . . . I have had the pleasure of hearing Phil sing the song with a three-piece string combo and it is very lively and catchy. And I'll certainly say that it is really and truly a nice song. I know that it has always been his ambition to be in the musical entertainment world. So, I, along with scores of others, wish him every success in the world. . . .

TOGETHER "TOGETHER" is a lovely word GETTING together is a beginning BEING together is happiness THINKING together is unity, WORKING together is success.

No Place Like Home

For some time now it has been evident that neighboring counties were far too interested in access to Seminole. They're trying to do it with roads, to be sure . . . roads that lead from Seminole to Orange County, permitting the private investors in that county to gain access to Seminole's spending money.

Access roads are fine. We need them and they have to link us with something . . . but they do not have to be considered as street car tracks from Seminole to downtown Orlando.

Seminole is going to develop a crying need for keeping all the money at home whenever possible. This county's expansion is going to prove fantastic and expensive. But there's a beautiful side to the picture of keeping money at home if you stop and think twice about the good year dollar can do here . . . where it belongs.

Actually . . . no matter where you live . . . nobody . . . and that means NOBODY . . . can give you more for your dollar than your own home business firms.

Lets look at a good reason for this advantageous situation.

Any merchant . . . anywhere is ordinarily going to sell goods for more money than he pays for them. On an average . . . when you spend a dollar in any retail store . . . here or . . . anywhere else . . . about 70 cents of it pays for goods, and about 30 cents goes for rent, profits, taxes, donations, and hired help . . . etc. . . .

When you spend your dollar at home, you get the same 70 cents worth of merchandise . . . but the other 30 cents stays in the county for schools, roads and streets vital to the community.

Shopping Center

The decision for most of the Sanford merchants to stay open Wednesday afternoon is a progression step . . . right in the best direction.

Sanford had to take this necessary action to meet the competition from surrounding counties.

This action will be well rewarded. The move supports the merchants announced desire to have Sanford dollars remain in Sanford.

The Wednesday afternoon opening will provide benefits for both the merchants and the customers. Those who remain open will realize extra income and extra profits as shoppers who are now buying in surrounding counties can learn to "shop at home."

We congratulate these merchants who have elected to remain open on Wednesday. They are displaying the type of progressive thinking needed to make Sanford the shopping center for all Seminole County.

Chuluota Desires CD Representative

Mrs. Carol Jenson and Mrs. Virginia Chadwick of Chuluota represented their community at the first meeting last Tuesday of a series of Civil Defense classes being held each week in Sanford's City Hall.

The classes are for the purpose of instructing district representatives from all areas of Seminole County in the proper use of radiological monitoring equipment in the event of nuclear attack.

Mrs. Jenson and Mrs. Chadwick attended on behalf of Harold McEris, recently appointed by the American Legion George M. Jacobs Memorial Post 235, to organize a civil defense program in Chuluota.

Since those receiving the instruction should be officials, or should be appointed by area officials Mrs. Jenson advises that residents of Chuluota are hoping that Lee Gary of Oviedo, district director of the area which includes

Two City Fires Within One Hour

Fire Chief Mack Cleveland reported two fires both within an hour of each other Saturday.

At 10:25 p. m. fire trucks were called to 1010 W. 11th St., a rooming house owned by Jane E. James.

The fire started in a defective and unattended kerosene cook stove which flared up, destroying three rooms and contents downstairs. The upstairs was damaged by smoke.

At 10:33 p. m. a man smoking in bed, set fire to the bed clothes in an apartment at 701 W. 3rd St. Owner of the building is Leo Salvail.

"Hey! Down With Imperialism!"

From Rome

Henry McLemore

ROME, Italy — Cooks in Italy are easy to get and hard to keep. They are plentiful, reasonable, and unreliable.

Nearly everyone has one—or, more accurately, had one. Cooks usually are spoken of in the past tense, for they have just departed.

Italian cooks stay with an American family about two weeks, or just long enough to learn to mispronounce the family name. One American family we know, whose cook stayed four months, gave her a gold watch for faithful service.

We have had eight since we got to Rome and the last one, Celestino, a Sardinian by birth, hasn't shown up for three days. We used to wait for them, and keep a lamp burning in the kitchen window, but now we just call an agency for a fresh supply.

No one knows where Italian cooks run away to, or why. No American likes to think that the cooks flee just because he owes allegiance to Kennedy and not to Gronchi, and sometimes rebels at spaghetti three times a day and for a late snack at night.

Americans do not have cooks for a luxury over here. They are an absolute necessity if one is to keep alive outside of restaurants. No American in his right mind can order meat in an Italian butcher shop, no matter how well he speaks the language.

There is no similarity between Italian meats and American meats. The Italian butcher in a strange way, and come up with shapes and sizes completely unfamiliar to the American eye. There is no such thing as a pot roast, a steak, a cutlet, a sparerib, sliced bacon, or a leg of lamb.

Veal, veal, and more veal is the Italian meat diet. The American woman cooks it about three ways, and then has to start over again. To avoid going veal crazy an Italian cook, who can prepare it 4,000,000 ways, is a necessity.

Only an Italian can purchase the herbs required to season Italian food. The Italians use every bush that sprouts an inch high, and all that sprout fifty feet high. One corner of our kitchen is known to us as the weed bin. A Chinese doctor would be delighted with the bushes to be found there.

Italian cooks give a family no warning of their flight. The day before they take off to this mysterious hiding place they are as talented Hoosier physician whose Indiana Academy of General Practice recently asked me to address its annual convention.

"Dr. Crane," he asked, "what do you think of the future of the GP or General Practitioner in contrast to the excessive specialization in modern medicine?"

The GP is the real hope for the future private practice of medicine. He is the most versatile of all medics, for he combines a keen knowledge of heart and lungs, liver and kidneys, brain, etc.

And, best of all, he is a top-notch psychiatrist for he not only knows the patient but often the latter's home life and parents. He can thus determine more easily whether a headache is due to astigmatism, brain tumor, glaucoma or, more likely, a marital feud or some other unhappy event in the home.

We taxpayers are constantly being hounded for more and more appropriations for hospitals (as well as more college buildings). I have previously shown that our present university and college classrooms can EASILY handle a doubled enrollment by simply scheduling a second educational "shift," to start at 3 p. m.

Indeed, they could handle a third shift, if need be. Well, the same simple use of "horse sense" can stop the clamor for more and bigger hospitals.

"How, Dr. Crane?" you may challenge me. In two ways: first, there are now 20,000,000 patients visiting doctors EVERY WEEK. Of these 20,000,000, 50% or 10,000,000 have no diagnosable physical ailment whatsoever!

So why should we taxpayers ante up huge sums for more and bigger hospitals for such "worry warts" who have no organic ailments?

They'll even leave a week's wages to get out of sight. Tomorrow the agency is sending Blanca to us. To save a phone call I should have told the agency to send another a week from tomorrow, and another a week after that.

We get cooks over here the way we got milk at home. A fresh one on the doorstep every morning.

They'll even leave a week's wages to get out of sight. Tomorrow the agency is sending Blanca to us. To save a phone call I should have told the agency to send another a week from tomorrow, and another a week after that.

We get cooks over here the way we got milk at home. A fresh one on the doorstep every morning.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

"Yes, Dr. Crane," you may continue, "but how can those 10,000,000 worry warts know for sure if they have a physical ailment without going to a hospital?"

They can find out by going to the private office of the usual talented General Practitioner. That's where millions should be going now, but America has been sold a bill of goods about hospitals until the nation actually is afflicted with "hospitalitis."

And the insurance companies have indirectly aided this shift of medical practice from private offices to glorified skyscraper hospitals.

Let the insurance firms include a $25 to $50 deductible clause, so the patients must pay that first sum, and the hospital will soon be almost half empty!

Then we taxpayers will not be forced to pay for the needless construction of elaborate NEW hospitals!

For when the patient must pay that first $50, he will wait a day or two before going to the hospital with the ordinary neurotic problem.

Nature cures a lot of these simple ailments in a few days, anyway, so the patient and we taxpayers both will get a break.

Thus, the insurance firms should not be so insistent that patients MUST spend time in a hospital for simple medical check-ups, including blood counts, urinalyses, and X-ray treatment.

The GP will then receive more patronage and thus restores the modern M. D. to his proper role, instead of making him a glorified attendant at a hospital.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Peter Edson's

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Fourteen of the 42 freshman Republican congressmen whom General Eisenhower showed around his farm and the Gettysburg battlefield (Sept. 11) have had a study club this year. All but one of the 14 being Midwestern farm boys accustomed to getting up early, they have met once a week for 8 o'clock coffee and doughnuts and talk, after a heartier breakfast at home.

The reason more of the 42 didn't join the study group, one member explained, was that they couldn't get up that early. But the one thing that drew the 14 together was that they had all campaigned on conservative platforms.

There has been no formal organization. Chairmanship has rotated every month. As Rep. Donald C. Bruce, Ind., the September chairman, explains it, there has been no effort to form a "young Turk" organization. "The group has kinship in ideologies, but they are not 100 per cent in agreement on everything," Bruce says. "What bothered them most and drew them together, Bruce explained introducing the group to reporters, was their opposition to 'collectivism' which they label 'non-Soviet Marxism.'"

"We feel that there has been not only a drift, but a rush in this administration to destroy initiative," said Bruce.

In an appearance en masse, these 14 had a chance to express their opinions. Following the introductions and an interview, the 14 took to the floor of the House.

In a three-hour period reserved for them, they blasted the Kennedy administration up one side and down the other in 14 speeches. They called it, "Operation Survival — a project to acquaint the American people with basic issues which affect the survival of the American constitutional form of government."

This was the line-up for their 14-gun attack, which is too long to present here even in summary: John B. Anderson, Ill., foreign policy; John M. Ashbrook, Ohio, electric power; James F. Battin, Neb., internal security; Ralph F. Beermann, Neb., agriculture; James E. Brownell, Iowa, separation of powers; Bruce C. Wilson, transportation and communications; Paul Findley, Ill., sound dollar; Dave Martin, Neb., education; Dr. Durward G. Hall, Mo., health care. Also, Hjalmar C. Nygaard, N. D., (senior of the group at 35), foreign competition; John H. Roussetot, the lone far-Westerner in the group from Dick Nixon's old California district, on housing; Henry C. Schadeberg, Wis., on the spiritual basis of freedom; Garner E. Shriver, Kan., on national defense.

In their press conference comments on the record of this session of Congress, the 14 freshmen revealed mixed appraisal. Only three thought it a conservative record, seven thought it a liberal record, three called it a reckless record, one said it was recklessly liberal and one thought it just plain emotional.

Here are typical comments on the record of their first session in Washington:

"Not as bad as it would have been if we hadn't been here." . . . "Tried to solve all problems with spending money." . . . "A rash of omnibus bills in which there has been much bad with good." . . . "This congress has concentrated too much power in the hands of the President and the federal government." . . . "The Peace Corps and aid to dependent children of workers being retrained for new jobs are emotional programs which appeal to the heart but can't be justified."

But all those comments were thrown into complete confusion in a summary by Bruce at the end of the mass interview. "The No. 1 problem we're concerned with," he said, "is a matter of dialectics. There's confusion of terms in what we mean by 'conservative,' 'liberal' and 'reactionary.'"

According to Bruce's definition, "a reactionary is an honest liberal."

By that definition, he says: "This has been the most reactionary administration in years because it has sought a concentration of power in the federal government and a suppression of individual freedom."

In spite of all this, Bruce said later that he thinks the country is becoming more and more conservative.

And if that doesn't confuse you completely, nothing will.

Get Acquainted

Meet Set By Ike

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower invited first-term Republican congressmen to his farm today for a get-acquainted session and possibly some advice on how to get re-elected.

Eisenhower, who was a landslide victor in his two election campaigns, hoped to impart to the freshmen legislators some of the political magic that put him in the White House.

Republican officials said the meeting was intended to point up the former President's interest in the "comers" of his party and stimulate other political talent to join the GOP.

The day's schedule also included a tour of the Gettysburg battlefield personally conducted by Eisenhower, and a lunch at which he planned to answer questions by the new congressmen.

The political outing was set up by the National Republican Congressional Committee which helps plan and finance GOP House campaigns.

A spokesman said it grew out of a conference with the former chief executive several weeks ago at which Eisenhower said he would "like to do everything he could" to help the GOP recapture Congress next year.

Federal Agents To Use Sweeping New Anti - Crime Laws

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Justice Department spokesman said today that federal agents would begin using sweeping new anti-crime laws immediately.

data used in bookmaking, the numbers racket or betting pools or sports. The law exempts betting slips sent to Nevada, where gambling is legal, and parimutuel tickets used at tracks where gambling is legal.

Use communications facilities such as cables, telephones, or teletype to send gambling information across state lines. Common carriers under the jurisdiction of the Federal Communications Commission will have to withdraw service from subscribers using it for gambling.

The new laws also will give the federal government more leeway in assisting local law enforcement officials.

Fast Peace Corps Approval Expected

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Democratic leaders expected to win House approval of President Kennedy's Peace Corps today and get a green light from the rules committee for a House vote on a five-cent stamp.

Although it was running into sharp criticism on the House floor, a bill giving legal backing to the Peace Corps seemed almost certain to reach the White House before Congress adjourns. The Senate already has passed its own version.

The big question was how much money it would get to operate.

The Senate bill authorized $40 million for operations this year. The corps now is running on a presidential order.

The outlook was uncertain for enactment this year of higher postal rates. The pending compromise bill would provide $520 million of the $743 million a year in additional postal revenue sought by the administration.

Even if Democratic leaders succeeded in pushing it through the House, there was no assurance of acceptance by the Senate, which hasn't even held hearings on the matter.

Other congressional news:
Aid: Sen. Allen J. Ellender accused the administration of using "crisis" tactics to shove its foreign aid bill through Congress.

The Louisiana Democrat urged the Senate to trim the appropriation by $350 million—taking the money from proposed military assistance funds.

Little League To Be Formed

By CAROL JEPSON

All parents and interested persons of Chuluota and Oviedo have been invited to attend an organization meeting for Little League in the area.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Oviedo Chamber of Commerce Hall which is located in Union Park back of the fire station. Attending will be the leading official of Orlando's Little League who will assist the local groups in determining what can be offered in the way of a combination team for next year's season.

Ministers To Be Tried On Breach Of Peace

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — The son-in-law of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and 14 other Episcopal ministers will be tried Friday on breach of peace charges stemming from a lunchroom segregation incident.

The clergymen, part of a group of 28 ministers touring the nation on an anti-segregation "prayer pilgrimage," were lodged in two cells in city jail.

Twelve white ministers, including the Rev. Robert L. Pierson of Evanston, Ill., who is married to Rockefeller's daughter, Anne, were kept in a large cell with bunk beds. Three Negro clergymen were held in a smaller cell.

The ministers, most of whom were clerical collars, were intercepted by police when they tried to enter the segregated restaurant.

Officers Wives Schedule Luncheon

Reservations or cancellations must be made by noon Monday for the luncheon meeting of the Central Florida Retired Officers Wives which is scheduled for 12:30 p. m. Tuesday in the Orlando AFB Fin Room.

Reservation committee members are Mrs. F. W. Edwards, Mrs. D. A. Bryor and Mrs. W. G. Caldwell.

Club officials have advised that any wives of retired officers who are interested in joining this group are invited to attend the luncheon and remain for the bridge and canasta games during the afternoon.

Defense Big Question In Lyman Football Attack

Offense Looking 'Fair'

If the Lyman Greyhounds can live up to their name on offense and not like bulldogs on defense the team should fare very well Friday night against the Crystal River Pirates of the West Coast Conference, says Coach Bill Proctor.

"Offensively we look pretty fair, especially in our running game, but the passing is not what we would like it to be," Proctor said today. "Defense is our big question. Our biggest weakness is in our backfield where we lack experience. Our kicking game is fair," the coach added.

"Crystal River runs from a spread formation and probably will throw quite a bit," he said.

The Greyhounds are in good shape physically and Proctor said he hoped to be able to get the team "up" by game time Friday night.

The starting lineup for the opener was announced as follows: Ron Higgins and Larry Belinger, ends; Ron Lane and Roy Lisk, tackles; Marvin Fellers and Ricky McCama, fullbacks; John Criswell, center; Gene Griffin, quarterback; Paul Blackford, left half; Carl Presley, full, and Jimmy Williams, right half.

A "week preview" of the team was staged Saturday night in order that the students, parents and other fans could get a look at the squad and familiarize themselves with the individual players.

Members of the coaching staff were on hand to answer questions and explain the fine points of the game.

Enthusiasm is high among the students at Lyman and they are offering as their bid toward a victory the slogan, "Beat Crystal River," which has been the cry all week on the campus.

Pace Amateur Play

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI)—Jack Nicklaus, a scientific shot-maker with booming drives, and Ireland's brilliant Joe Carr were the only recognized stars among a crop of giant-killers for the fifth round of the 61st annual National Amateur golf championships today.

If the double 18-hole action is anything like Wednesday, the exchange from Columbus, Ohio, and the three-time British Amateur king will find themselves on the sidelines, too. Already there are some guys named Patton, Ward and Coe, plus a few other lesser stars.

Winter PGA Tour Should Be Tops

DUNEDIN, Fla. (UPI)—The 1962 winter tour which opens with the Los Angeles Open, Jan. 3-8, and closes with the traditional Masters tournament at Augusta, Ga., April 5-8, will be the richest in history, the Professional Golfers' Association (PGA) announced today.

Helping to make it the biggest money bonanza for the traveling pros this winter will be four $50,000 PGA co-sponsored tournaments—the Bing Crosby Pro-Am at Pebble Beach, Calif., Jan. 18-21; the Lucky International Open at San Francisco, Jan. 25-28; the Palm Springs (Calif.) Golf Classic, Jan. 31-Feb. 4, and the new Doral Country Club Open at Miami, Fla., March 22-25.

old, 225-pound right-hander from Middletown, Conn., has pitched the Reds to the threshold of their first National League pennant since 1940.

Jay, who never won more than nine games in any single season with the Braves, scored his 20th victory of this season Wednesday night when he pitched the Reds to a 1-0 win over his former teammates. Jay allowed only four hits and got the run he needed when Darrell Johnson, Eddie Kasko and Vada Pinson singled in the fifth inning.

Jay is the first 20-game winner of the National League season and the first the Reds have had since Ewell Blackwell had a 23-4 record in 1947. Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees and Frank Lary of the Detroit Tigers are the other pitchers who've reached the 20-mark this season. Milwaukee's Warren Spahn has 19 victories.

"I'm glad to leave the Braves because I never knew what my status was with them," said Jay when he and Juan Pizarro (now with the White Sox) were traded to the Reds last winter. "With the Reds, I'll know where I stand."

It was Jay's fourth straight victory over the Braves and it boosted the Reds' first-place lead to 5 1/2 games over the Los Angeles Dodgers, who suffered an 8-2 loss to the Pittsburgh Pirates. The San Francisco Giants beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-2, in the other NL game.

In the American League, the first-place New York Yankees were rained out, the Detroit Tigers whipped the Kansas City A's, 8-0, the Cleveland Indians downed the Baltimore Orioles, 5-0, and the Washington Senators defeated the Boston Red Sox, 4-2.

The Pirates dealt a mortal blow to the Dodgers' pennant hopes with a 20-hit attack that included two homers by Bill Mazeroski and one by Dick Stuart. Mazeroski and Stuart each homered in a six-run eighth-inning outburst that clinched the victory and gave lefty Harvey Haddix his ninth win. The loss left the Dodgers eight games behind in the won column and three behind in the lost column with only 16 games left to play.

Jim Duffalo had a ball for himself in his first major league start, pitching a six-hitter and driving in four runs with the single and a three-run homer for a Giants. Duffalo struck out six and walked four.

Jim Bunning pitched a five-hitter and Rocky Colavito and Norm Cash homered for the Tigers, who tagged Jim Archer with his 13th defeat. Colavito's 42nd homer of the season equaled his previous high for a single season.

Gary Bell's four-hit pitching and Woodie Held's two-run homer paced the Indians as Baltimore 16-game winner Jerry Barber lost his 11th game. Johnny Romano and Vic Power had two hits each for Cleveland.

Willie Tashby singled home the key run of a two-run eighth-inning rally that enabled the Senators to put together two straight victories for the first time since Aug. 17. Ed Hobaugh, aided by Joe McClain in the ninth, raised his record to 7-9 while Tracy Stallard suffered the loss.

Seattle Golf
Tourney Opens

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—Most of the nation's best professional golfers start swinging today for the $25,000 pot of gold offered in the Greater Seattle Open golf tournament.

Approximately half the field of more than a hundred pros had a chance to dust off par on the 8,328-yard, par-70 Broadmoor Golf Club course in Wednesday's $5,000 pro-amateur preliminary. But only 21 of them broke par on the picturesque course with its narrow fairways and well-trapped greens.

Gary Player—currently leading in the money race this year with $61,115—joined six other par-busters in scoring a neat, four-under 68.

"I was hitting my iron shots beautifully," Player bubbled, "I only hope I can do as well the next four days."

Other 68 shooters were Phil Rodgers, La Jolla, Calif.; Miller Barber, El Dorado, Ark.; Jerry Magee, Toronto, Ont.; Al Geibarger, Santa Barbara, Calif.; Jerry Barber, Los Angeles, and Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa.

Heavy Scrimmage Work Sparks SEC

By United Press International
Rain slowed football drills at Mississippi and Louisiana State but there was a lot of rugged scrimmage work at other Southeastern Conference schools Wednesday.

Heavy rain and high winds knocked the Mississippi practices down to an hour. The Rebels worked on punting, punt returns and field goals.

Rain sent the LSU Tigers indoors for two drills. Trainer Marty Broussard said Jerry "Toby" All, who is nursing a sprained elbow, may be held out of contact work until the opening game with Rice Sept. 23.

Auburn's uncertain guard position received another blow with the injury of first stringer G. W. Clapp. Clapp suffered a knee injury and doctors waited for X-ray results to determine whether he would be lost for his final year.

Field goal specialist Durwood Pennington stole the show in Georgia's two-hour all-out scrimmage. He scored all the points for both teams, kicking a 37-yard field goal for the first unit and a 38-yard field goal for the second team to leave the scrimmage in a 3-3 tie.

Georgia Tech scrimmaged and Coach Bobby Dodd said he was "especially happy with the way the first and second units moved the ball inside the 15-yard line." Quarterback Stan Garna picked up two first unit touchdowns on short runs and quarterback Billy Lottridge booted a 25-yard field goal.

The Alabama first team whipped the second unit 30-10 in an abbreviated game-type scrimmage marked by what coach Paul Bryant called "a lot of good knocking." Bryant, however, was displeased with four 15-yard penalties in the first half, an end zone fumble which counted for one touchdown and an 80-yard punt return which scored another. Quarterback J. S. Cleveland threw two touchdown passes to pace the second unit Vanderbilt team to a 20-17 upset victory over the first unit.

Mississippi State's first and second units scrimmaged with quarterback John Corcoran handling the first team. Billy Hill, last season's number one quarterback, handled the second unit.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Heard in the dugouts:

The Chicago Cubs sure called the Yankees "the M-M boys."

Following his graduation from high school, Mantle had a tryout at Wrigley Field where a Cub official advised him, "Forget about baseball, son. There's no future in it for you."

Easy come, easy go Cincinnati catcher Jerry Zimmerman received a $77,000 bonus from the Boston Red Sox in 1952 but confessed the money is all gone now.

The Yankees were deeply disappointed recently when the Tigers got first baseman Vic Wertz from the Red Sox. They had claimed Wertz twice this season and each time they did, the waivers were withdrawn. . . .

Pitcher Ray Herbert of the White Sox is a 90-shooter on the golf course. What's so hot about that? You try going around 18 holes, using nothing but a putter. That's right—in the rough, too!

Paul Richards would like someone with National League experience to manage the Houston Colts next season. Failing to get such a man, Richards may settle for Sherm Lollar, who is about at the end of his career with the White Sox. . . .

Take a poll among the Yankees and you'll find out this is the way they vote:
Smartest—Tony Kubek.
Most desired—A tie between Yogi Berra and Mickey Mantle.
Best golfer—Ralph Terry.

When the Yankees are at home, Mantle lives in a Long Island apartment with Maris and Bob Cerv. Many of the residents in the neighborhood don't recognize the M-M boys. . . .

According to the scouts, the best looking prospect for major league stardom next year is first baseman-outfielder John (Boog) Powell of Rochester. He led the International League with 32 homers and will get a shot with the Orioles next spring. . . .

Baseball players frequently claim baseball writers don't know a thing. Maybe they're right. So how come that none of the players, even those with Cincinnati, picked the Reds to win the National League pennant in a pre-season magazine poll last spring?

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Please don't think I am small, but I have a question to ask. Don't you think a woman who claims to be a good friend should entertain her "good friends" in her living room? Whenever I visit this person she leads me right to the kitchen!

She puts the coffee pot on and we sit there all during my stay. She has a lovely home, a beautiful coffee service and gorgeous dishes, but all I ever see is her kitchen and her everyday dishes. Am I wrong?

DEAR INSULTED: No. Your friend was wrong to assume that you were a person with whom she could be herself without fuss or frills. You should feel flattered, not insulted.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to point out to MRS. CITIZEN, who thinks our country is going to the dogs because our teen-age girls try to look older, that this is not nearly so offensive as some of our big, fat, gray-haired old women who appear in public with bare backs, skin-tight Capri pants, and shorts so short they disappear when the women sit down. When mothers (and grandmothers) start dressing their age, perhaps our teen-agers will have an example worth following.

C. S. M.

DEAR ABBY: What's wrong with our Daddy? Our mother passed away last April. After the funeral I went back home, as I am married. My brother went back to college. When we came back, almost six months later, we found all of Mamma's clothes, shoes, hats, and purses just like she was on a visit somewhere and was coming back to wear them. We would feel better if Daddy cleaned out the drawers and closets and got rid of these sad reminders. Should we tell Daddy to do this? He feels bad enough, and we hate to make him feel worse. JEAN AND JOE

DEAR JEAN AND JOE: For the moment, don't say anything. Your Daddy might decide soon himself that he wants to get rid of the reminders. If a year passes, and nothing is moved, suggest Mamma's room be painted another color, and some things given to someone who can get some good use out of them. If he resists your suggestions—don't press it.

"Are things rough?" Let Abby help you solve your problem. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and send to Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

We The Women: By Ruth Millet

Gardening has become a fight between you and the bugs, and no matter how much you water, the ground seems forever dry and thirsty.

The vacation trip you took not so very long ago seems a long way back.

Boulden President Of Chuluota Club

By CAROL JEPSON
Executive Board members of the Greater Chuluota Community Club, at their September meeting, elected George Boulden president to replace Mary Spath who has moved to Orlando. Gene Runyon was named to the vice president's office.

You have days of thinking that if you hear the question "What can I do?" just one more time you'll scream. And it has become harder and harder to keep your voice low and reasonable when you are called on to settle a childish squabble.

You have plenty of clothes in your closet but when you really want to look your best every dress you try on looks a bit limp and dispirited.

The lists of things that need to be done seems to grow longer no matter how many you knock off each week.

There are a lot of things you should do around the house that you keep putting off.

The days seem long and a little too much alike.

You are in and out of your car so many times each day that you forget that there never seems to be any time for yourself.

You begin to wonder what is the matter with you.

Nothing is the matter with you except that it is the end of summer. It happens that way every year—doesn't it. In the last weeks before the youngsters go back to school, before the heat wave finally breaks, before the start of fall activities?

So it's nothing to worry about at all. There's nothing wrong with you that the beginning of a new season won't cure.

New Teaching Method Is Successful Practice In Altamonte

By ATLANTA MCGINNIS
(This news feature on the new teaching system being used in the fifth and sixth grades at Altamonte Elementary School has been prepared to better acquaint parents of all students involved with techniques and equipment used for the classes. Submitted by Don Hasley, fifth grade teacher, at the request of Principal George Dabbs, the following account fully explains atypical day of the student under the system for which I am one of the Teacher's Aides.)

Grades one through four, on double sessions, are running smoothly and fifth and sixth graders are enjoying a modified version of the Stoddard Educational Television Plan which includes six skill or small classroom groups that concentrate on the "3 R's" or, more specifically, reading, language arts, spelling and arithmetic.

In order to get a more complete picture, let us follow one of Hasley's fifth graders through the school day.

He reports to his skill classroom at 8 a. m. where the roll is called and the devotion conducted. Generally speaking, the teaching of reading and arithmetic, along with the necessary drill work, takes place until 9:30 a. m. He then is dismissed from the skill group and reports to the auditorium for the large block session. This includes an audio-visual and lecture type presentation of social studies, science and health. Various audio-visual machines and methods used already have proven a successful means of enjoyable learning and films, filmstrips and tape recordings have been brought forth to assist in stimulating the student interest. Results have shown that "A picture is worth a thousand words."

Back to our fifth grader who at 11 a. m. goes to the cafeteria for one of the well-balanced meals prepared under supervision of Mrs. Katherine Grimm. A half-hour later he reports back to his homeroom or skill room for an hour-and-a-half for spelling and language arts study. Then he goes out to the playground for 30 minutes of physical education directed by Mrs. Roberta Richards and Aides Mrs. Marge McClure and Mrs. Atlanta McGinnis.

From 1:30 p. m. until 2:30 p. m. our student is back in the auditorium for the Project Group with the large block teacher. This project period is used for reinforcing the morning presentation and enrichment of subject matter by use of small group discussion and clarification library work and other related activities.

The children are in the process of developing maps, Indian villages and research material and art and music are being incorporated in both the large block and follow-up sessions.

Sixth graders, who are taught by Mrs. Irene King, follow a similar program with the only change being one in schedule.

Faculty members involved in the Large Block Plan meet regularly to correlate their ideas in order to insure complete education and character development of each individual student.

Skill teachers for the fifth and sixth graders are Mrs. Helen Leinhardt, James Moseley, Mrs. Shirley Stuart, Miss Eleanor Schullz, Mrs. Eloise Hall and Miss Anna Bandy. Mrs. Mary Frances Holton is the music instructor.

Richard Scott is commuting to OJC for preliminaries to becoming a physical education instructor and Bobby Lankford is a pre med student at nearby Stetson.

Large Attendance At Catholic Tea

By ATLANTA MCGINNIS
The Catholic Women's Guild of the Altamonte Springs St. Mary-Magdalene Church was hostess at a tea held last Sunday from 3 p. m. until 5 p. m. in the school building under the direction of Mrs. Peter Gill, chairman of the event.

Special appreciation, Mrs. Gill says, has been extended members of the Guild's Ways and Means Committee who handled invitations to the tea attended by 210 women of the area.

Mrs. Brently Henderson arranged the serving table centerpiece using a combination of red glads and gold mums. Refreshments were prepared and served under the direction of Mrs. Ann Burkan, chairman of the committee, with assistance from other members including Mmes. Grace Lyons, Kitty Tolato, Gladys Glasston, Mary Kacar, Veronica Malatesto and Ellen Oliver. Art work on all name cards was done by Mrs. Gloria Buchman.

The first units of the church and school are located on Maitland Ave. just south of the Altamonte Springs business district.

Chuluota Barbecue Sells 475 Dinners

By CAROL JEPSON
The Labor Day Chicken Barbecue sponsored by Chuluota American Legion Post 225 to raise funds for the organization's new Post home was a tremendous success, Chairman C. R. Pentz has reported.

Officials estimated that at least 475 dinners were served between the hours of 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. at the Community House picnic grounds and the Dessert Booth, managed by ladies of the Community Church, was sold out completely by mid-afternoon. Proceeds from the pies, cakes and cookies sold went into a building fund for the proposed new church unit.

Pentz has expressed his appreciation to all persons who worked so diligently preparing for and serving the meal at this outstanding community event.

Republican Official Expects Two-Party County Elections

By JANE CASSELLBERRY
Don Wilson, of Casselberry, chairman of the Seminole County Republican Committee who is conducting a fund raising drive reports that he anticipates his party will have candidates running for county offices in all future elections.

He has just returned from a week's combination business and vacation trip to Central New York where he visited relatives.

While there he inspected the Vernon Downs Racing Plant at Vernon, N. Y., where he saw many of the harness horses that winter at Seminole Raceway in action.

He also visited several of the area's shopping centers including the Cross Center at Yonkers, considered to be one of the largest in the state, while looking for ideas applicable to the new facility to be built in Casselberry.

Clinic Mothers Plan Coffee

The Clinic Mothers of South Seminole Elementary school will meet for coffee at 9:30 a. m. in the Teacher's Lounge next Wednesday.

All mothers of students attending South Seminole who are interested in clinic work are especially invited to attend the meeting in addition to those mothers who already have volunteered their services.

CD Meeting Set In Casselberry

A. B. Peterson Sr., Seminole County civil defense director, will speak on the CD program and needs at the Women's Club in Casselberry at 8 p. m. Thursday.

Mrs. Irene March, president of the VFW Post 8207 Auxiliary which is sponsoring the meeting, urges all residents of the area to take advantage of this opportunity to hear the county director.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Where Were They?

What do residents of the Lake Mary area find that is of such compelling interest on the first Thursday night of each month from September through May?

Last Thursday night the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce, which has the distinction of being the oldest such organization in the state, began, or attempted to begin, its 39th year's work.

Advance notices of the meeting were sent by the Chamber secretary to the membership, which is to say the least, an infinitesimal representation of the area's registered voters, much less its population. Announcements also were published in the local newspapers.

SIX PERSONS CAME

Lack of attendance can't be attributed to membership fees. One night at the movie would cost an individual more than his entire annual C of C dues. And this is the organization which, with aid through personal contributions of its members, is sponsoring Boy Scout Troop 242, one of the largest in Central Florida with an enviable reputation for its accomplishments.

Since Lake Mary is unincorporated, the Chamber could serve, as its officials desire it to do, not only as a voice for the area's businesses but for its people as well.

The next meeting will be held in the Chamber Hall on Thursday, Oct. 5 . . . wouldn't it speak well of Lake Mary if we could report, as we did a few short years ago, "the hall was filled for the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce meeting?"

County Farm Bureau To Hear Panel Talk

Seminole County Farm Bureau members will hear at their Sept. 19 meeting, a panel discussion on "Water Control: its effect upon the future of Seminole County."

Panel members will be Ben Wiggins, soil conservation technician; M. L. Cullen, farmer; John Krider, Chamber of Commerce manager; Gen. J. C. Hutchison, County Commission chairman and Joe Baker, mayor of Sanford.

A covered dish supper at 7 p. m. will precede the program schedule.

Rhodes Reminds Village Residents Of CD Course

By MONA GRINSTEAD
Arthur H. Rhodes, North Orlando Civil Defense director, today reminded residents of the community that today will be the last opportunity for joining classes of the Personal Survival Course being conducted by Instructor Tom Richey.

Meetings are scheduled for 7 p. m. in the Village Hall and those attending, in order to receive their certificate, must be present for at least three of the four classes.

Rhodes also reminded that a first aid class will open at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the village hall.

Bear Lake Area To Hear Sandon

By ATLANTA MCGINNIS
Lcdr. K. M. Sandon of the Sanford Naval Air Station will speak on atomic warfare and survival at 8 p. m. Monday at the Florida Power Corp. Club House at Bear Lake.

VFW Post Adds To Building Fund

By JANE CASSELLBERRY
The building fund of Casselberry VFW Post 8207 was benefited by more than $100 from the large number of residents coming to enjoy the chicken barbecue dinner served by members of the organization at the Women's Club Sunday, Ralph Moore, publicity chairman, reported today.

He urges all eligible veterans to support the local organization in its effort to build a Post Home on Jasmine Rd. and advises that at present meetings are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month at 8 p. m. in the Women's Club on Overbrook Dr. Meetings of the Auxiliary, he said, are held there on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month.

Does Khrushchev Believe He Can Make U.S. Spend Self To Defeat?

By HOLMES ALEXANDER
WASHINGTON, D. C. — No body in Congress, I think, has made much over the dual and integrated nature of the Berlin crisis. As everybody knows, we have a military problem. What has not been emphasized in Washington is that the monetary problem of sudden and extreme Defense Department spending goes along side by side.

The matter was well and wisely set forth Aug. 25 at a conference of the Western Economic Association, University of Washington State. In a paper read before this group, the economist Stahel Edmunds, director of marketing research for Hughes Aircraft Company, dwelt in detail upon the increased buying by the Defense Department and the National Aeronautics and Space Agency (NASA) brought about by Khrushchev's direct and deliberate crisis-making in Berlin. Without allowing himself to indulge in personal theorizing, Dr. Edmunds makes some telling points:

Down the years, our military spending has been related to international tensions and not to our Gross National Product. In other words, we arm and rearm whether or not we can "afford" to do so. Since the USA has no territorial or commercial expansionist program, requiring force of arms, we do not ourselves create these world tensions. They are created by our enemies. Today we have an enemy of diabolical cunning who conducts his war of elimination against us in every conceivable phase. It is possible that the Communists cook up these Berlin-type crises for the main purpose of causing disruption within our economic system? Dr. Edmunds writes:

"There are those who surmise that Khrushchev really believes in the Communist theory that the free market economies of the West can be forced into bankruptcy. If this view is correct, the economic offensive of the Russians is much more serious than the military threat. These advocates point out that the Soviets would hardly take deliberate steps to increase our national security if they really meant to go to war."

As a direct result of Khrushchev's Berlin policy, we have raised our military procurement and research spending to about $21.5 billion, running our total Federal budget to $88 billion for fiscal year 1960, which began last July. The most disconcerting result is a $5 billion deficit for '62 which, in the light of experience, forecasts many more years of deficit spending and the lengthening spectre of runaway, ruinous inflation — with the push-button under the Communist thumb.

Is the situation, then hopeless? No, it is not. But it calls for enlightened leadership which recognizes the mutuality of the military and monetary phases of the Cold War crisis. Our military, industrial and scientific positions have an overall world supremacy, not yet impaired by Russian spectacular crash programs in Space and audacious behavior in diplomacy — but these positions are not automatically secure. As President Kennedy eloquently says, "Time has not always been our friend."

Dr. Edmunds suggests that to bring the Federal budget into long-term balance, we would have to readjust our national financing with a mixture of policies which would:

1. Stimulate private investment and the production-and-consumption of new products.
2. Take in more Federal revenue by an increase of taxes.
3. Get the most out of each military dollar.
4. Whittle down the welfare programs.

Only the second and the fourth of these suggestions will cause any outcry from the American people. Taxes are onerous and omnipresent. It would take a major example of responsible self-discipline for Americans to take on still greater burdens.

As for Federal welfare, nearly everybody has a claim on it now. It is a narcotic habit which could be brought under control only by a supreme exhibition of willpower.

To be specific, the Kennedy Administration has already projected an increase of between $10 to $15 billion a year for welfare spending at a time when we are also increasing military spending. The five big spenders in this field are Health Assistance for the Aged, Aid to Education, Urban Renewal and Housing, Public Assistance for the Unemployed, and Aid to Depressed Areas.

The difference between welfare and defense spending is that we have full charge of the first and our enemies very largely tell us what we have to do about the second. It is not too much to say that our economic integrity lies in some voluntary reconciliation of this stubborn contrast.

Death For 14?

HAVANA (UPI)—The government press reported today that the Fidel Castro regime is asking the death sentence for 14 war prisoners captured during the ill-fated April invasion.

The men were accused of counter-revolutionary crimes committed before the invasion attempt ranging from murder and torture to ill-treatment of Castro forces during the dictatorial Batista regime.

Previously, Castro had indicated "not more than five or six" of the 1,200 prisoners taken after the aborted invasion would be treated as "war criminals."

VOL. 53 United Press Leased Wire Established 1908 FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1961 SANFORD, FLORIDA NO. 280

MRS. JOY EVANS sits sadly on the foundation of her home at Port O'Connor, Texas, after returning to the small Gulf Coast community. The foundation and a bit of debris were only remnants of her home after Hurricane Carla passed through with her 150-mile-per-hour winds.

'Seek Board's OK Of Canal Monday

A request for approval of the construction of the proposed Sanford-Canaveral Canal will be placed before the Florida Board of Conservation at Tallahassee by the chairman of the Canal Authority of Florida, W. A. McCree, Monday at 10 a. m. when the Board meets.

McCree will present a resolution which was adopted last Monday at a meeting in Orlando of the St. Johns-Indian River Improvement Assn. The resolution already has the approval of the Canal Authority.

Casselberry Board Member Opposed To Rate Increase

Mrs. Hope Bennett of Casselberry advised a Herald reporter today that she is strongly opposed to allowing the Casselberry Utilities Co. to raise its water rates in the town.

The company requested the town's Board of Aldermen to consider granting a franchise amendment permitting the raise at the board's monthly meeting Monday.

Mrs. Bennett, a member of the board, said that she had checked with each community cited in the company's letter of request and believed there to be some variation in the actual rates of each with the figures quoted by Casselberry Utilities.

In addition, she pointed out that the present franchise, specifically calling for no rate increase, does not expire until 1965 and that the company must get approval from the state anyway, before it can raise its water rates.

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — The United Nations set up martial law in Elisabethville today and said unauthorized civilians carrying weapons will be shot.

UPI Correspondent Ray Moloney reported from Banroc, Northern Rhodesia, that the warning of summary executions came from the UN spokesman in Elisabethville.

Moloney drove 100 miles to the Rhodesian frontier from Elisabethville, where he said bitter fighting raged for the third day for control of the Katanga capital city.

Heavy fighting continued there today and the United Nations sent out a call for reinforcements.

Katanga, which claims to have overrun a 150-man strong Irish detachment at Jadotville, said 10 Irishmen will be executed for the Katanga citizen executed. One battalion of Ethiopian troops was due to arrive in Elisabethville this afternoon to reinforce UN forces fighting to take over the Katanga capital since before dawn Wednesday.

The United Nations is trying to arrange a prisoner exchange before the Katanga threat of retaliatory killing can be carried out.

Navy Continues Relief Job To Carla Refugees

GALVESTON, Tex. (UPI)—The U. S. Navy brought cases of food, medical supplies and fresh water today to refugees from Hurricane Carla.

The aircraft carrier Shangri-La was anchored a few miles east of Freeport, and another carrier, the Antietam, was off Matagorda Bay. Both flat-tops were being used as helicopter bases, sending survey teams and medical personnel as needed to coastal communities.

Two destroyers, the Gairard and the Lamson, were also in the area. The Lamson was carrying food, which was being loaded for use as a "floating motel."

Seventy parties at Angleton, Tex., still were finding victims of the howling hurricane. The tenth known victim of two related families killed by tides was reported Thursday.

A total of 42 persons were dead or missing.

Forty-five persons suffered injuries in Galveston Thursday when the porch of a Red Cross chapter house collapsed.

One of the first moves by the Navy was to send 75 cases of food to 200 refugees at Port Bolivar, across the bay from Galveston.

Gov. Price Daniel and Democratic Sen. Ralph Yarborough toured the island and said damage to the city was worse than they had expected.

Daniel said damage would run "several hundred million dollars" along the Texas coast. He said the limited loss of life was "literally a miracle."

Yarborough said damage to Galveston was "the worst I've ever seen. This is a national disaster." He said he planned to make a personal report to President Kennedy upon returning to Washington.

Water still covered a large portion of Texas City. A typhoid inoculation clinic was set up at Freeport High School. Port Aransas was placed under quarantine, and hundreds of dead cattle littered the coast.

Civil Defense Conditions In State Blasted

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The Florida Welfare Board, blasting civil defense conditions Thursday as "a state and national disgrace," told Gov. Farris Bryant it needed money to do its job and "needs it now."

Board member H. Drennen Browne of Vero Beach said, "we've hemmed and hawed about this thing for too long. We need it now, not six months from now."

The board asked Bryant to help find money to hire 12 district coordinators for civil defense even if it meant calling a special session of the Legislature.

The Welfare Department is responsible for registration, feeding, clothing, housing, financial assistance and other services in a national emergency.

To do an adequate job in an emergency, the board said, it had to have a CD coordinator in each of the department's 12 districts to assist a state coordinator, which the board voted to hire in compliance with a request by Bryant on Aug. 18.

Board chairman J. Hal Stallings said "we've asked again and again for the money to do our job, and we've not been able to get it."

He said welfare aid appropriations committees laughed at requests in the 1961 Legislature.

A board spokesman said one social worker's position would have to be dropped from the department to finance hiring of the state coordinator.

Esther Still No Menace To U. S.

MIAMI (UPI) — Hurricane Esther maintained a steady course toward the U.S. mainland today but its 130-mile-an-hour winds still were too far away to constitute anything but a menace to shipping in the tropical Atlantic.

The Miami Weather Bureau said there were some indications weather conditions affecting the hurricane might change to swing Esther more to the north, but that it was too early to be sure.

The hurricane, packing winds up to 130 miles an hour around its center, was located about 925 miles east-northeast of San Juan Puerco Rico, and 1,850 miles east-southeast of Miami.

Drop Demands, President Asks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy called on Russia today to drop her demands that the West surrender its rights in Berlin. He proposed realistic negotiations looking toward "a mutually acceptable solution."

Kennedy served flat notice the United States would not negotiate with Russia on Berlin under threat or ultimatum.

He said the United States had absolutely no intention of resorting to force or threats of force but that it was prepared "to meet force with force if it is used against us."

The President outlined his position at length in identical letters handed last Wednesday at the White House to emissaries from the recent Belgrade conference of neutral nations.

The letter was addressed to President Sukarno of Indonesia and Modibo Keita of Mali. They were asked to relay it to the other participants.

The 23-nation conference called on the chief executive to enter into direct negotiations with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

At the outset of his letter, Kennedy politely but unmistakably turned down the idea of a quick summit conference without extensive diplomatic groundwork. He said a top-level meeting must have "reasonable chance of success."

"The channels of diplomacy are open for the exploration of constructive steps toward a reduction of tension," Kennedy said. "Given a realistic approach and a sincere desire on the other side as well as ours to reach a mutually-acceptable solution, we see no reason why eventual negotiations should not be successful in coping with the present crisis."

But then he added sternly: "However, we do not intend to enter into negotiations under ultimatum or threats. It is also clear that we do not propose to discuss either abdication of our responsibility or renunciation of the modalities for carrying out those responsibilities."

While the Kennedy letter frequently took a tough line, he returned repeatedly to the theme of peaceful settlement.

Despite the current bleak scene in Germany, the President said, "We believe it possible to find a solution which can accommodate vital interests on both sides of the crisis."

The President referred to the language of a joint declaration adopted by the Belgrade conferees who called for self-determination and independence and condemned intimidation and intervention.

West Set For Corridor Test

BERLIN (UPI)—The Western Allies got set today for a test of nerves over Communist threats against the use of the air corridors between West Germany and West Berlin.

The protest was delivered to the Russian officer in the Berlin air safety center set up by four-power agreements in 1945 to regular air traffic which might interfere with the flights in the corridors.

Bill Bush, vice chairman of the committee, reported that the committee should be finished in about three weeks with its report and will probably ask the County Commission to utilize more courthouse space.

At the present time, the committee is correlating information that was compiled by committee members after a detailed investigation of all the courthouse offices and talks with department heads.

Bush said it would be about three more weeks before the detailed report is completed and ready to present to the county board.

Serving on the committee with Bush are J. M. Van Hoy, chairman; Richard Hanks, J. O. Gregory, John Williams, H. B. Pope, Roy Britt, Fred Cavannah and Andrew Carraway.
