Curious about your Social Security status? A representative of the Social Security Administration's district office in Orlando will be at the City Commission rooms in the City Hall Sept. 2, 9, 16, 23 and 30 from 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. The Maywood Veterans Council is trying to locate survivors of the infamous Bataan Death March to attend a testimonial dinner in their honor at Chicago's O'Hara Inn Sept. 12. The council is the official organization to note Bataan Day nationally. There are only 638 survivors of the march and it would be proper, council officials say, to have all of them in attendance at the testimonial dinner.

Bataan Day observances have traditionally been held the first Sunday after Labor Day since 1942. Survivors are asked to get in touch with the Maywood Veterans' Council, Post Office Box 57, Maywood, Ill.

It undoubtedly was an accident, but some passing motorist killed or fatally injured the 10-month-old Norwegian shepherd dog belonging to the E. C. Baggs family of 550 E. 20th St. Mrs. Baggs said the part that hurt so much was the leaving of the injured dog on the steps of her home and not notifying anyone what happened.

Heartbroken over the loss of their pet, her three children, Doug, 11; Marilee, 8; and Keith, want who ever hit their dog to know that maybe a veterinarian could have saved its life if given a chance.

"I believe the dog was alive when he was laid on the steps," Mrs. Baggs said, "because when we found him he was still warm."

An aside to the driver: Did you sleep well last night? Naples' annual mud-slugging contest—formerly known as the Swamp Buggy Derby—will be held Nov. 1 this year, climing the 15th annual three-day Swamp Buggy Derby celebration. The ponderous, slow-moving swamp buggies—never designed for racing—will vie one another in mudding, swimming ability and endurance while, incidentally, determining who can cross the finish line first.

Ninety-eight years ago tomorrow, the Civil War was proclaimed to be over.

During the month of July, $94,111.00 was collected by the State of Florida in gasoline taxes on gallons sold in Seminole County. This compares with $87,623.34 in July of 1963. During the month of June, 1964, service stations in Seminole County pumped no less than 1,401,587 gallons of gasoline. At 16 miles per gallon, the county's auto traveled no less than 22.4 plus million miles during the month.

Sales are up, also, in Seminole County if sales tax collections are any kind of gauge. During July, 1963, sales tax collections in $6 m 4 n o 1 e amounted to $67,747.72. During July of 1964 the figure had jumped to $105,540.01. That's quite an increase.

PHILIPPINE AFFAIRS were discussed Tuesday night at a Ladies Night dinner meeting of the Sanford Lions Club at Lake Monroe Inn. The principal speaker was John G. Kormann, right, foreign service officer of the U. S. State Department and Stationed with the U. S. Embassy in the Philippines. Philippines Called One Of Our Biggest Assets

By Harry I. Johnson
Managing Editor

The Philippines is one of the United States' greatest assets in Asia and this country strives to keep it alive. Sanford Lions Club members were told Tuesday night.

The speaker for the Ladies Night dinner meeting at Lake Monroe Inn was John K. Kormann, foreign service officer with the State Department and for the past two years attached to the U. S. Embassy in the Philippines.

Kormann has been with the State Department for 14 years with the first 12 years served in Europe and Washington. He possesses a distinguished World War II service record and a thorough knowledge of the Philippine government and people.

Now visiting in DeBary prior to resumption of his Far East duties with the State Department, Kormann declared that the United States is "doing a good job" and has large stakes in Asia.

The Philippines have "a strong pro-American feeling," Kormann said, and is the only Christian nation in Asia with the exception of Australia. He noted 90 per cent of the Filipinos are Christians and the Philippine government is patterned after that of the U. S., "with some exceptions."

One of these, he said, is the privilege the president holds in being allowed to veto portions of a proposed bill. For example, he noted, in the United States, the president can accept or veto the entire fiscal budget while in the Philippines the president can veto minute portions of it.

Because the Philippines is relatively new in world affairs, it is undergoing adolescent problems in growth and economics, Kormann pointed out. The nation gained its independence in 1946.

Often, he said, the Philippines is accused of being a U. S. satellite. The country is "proud of its ties with the U. S. but the people stress their independence while sticking with us as a staunch ally."

Communism, Kormann said, was a real threat 10 years ago in the country but now poses no noticeable threat. However, he emphasized, the "danger is always there."

The U. S. has been criticized for its actions in Asia and will continue to be criticized, the State Department official reported, but as "the leader of the Free World more is expected of it."

"Kites fly highest against the wind," he stated in calling for continued vigilance by this country in Asian affairs.

The speaker was introduced by Hugh Duncan and Howard Hood, club president, was in charge of the meeting.

Adams' Press Releases Hurting School System, Bailey Charges

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Secretary of State Tom Adams was doing unwarranted damage to the state school system through press releases, State School Supt. Thomas D. Bailey said Tuesday.

"The problems of education will never be solved by press releases but rather by carefully contemplated State Board of Education and legislative action," Bailey said.

Adams criticized the state education setup following the resignation of Florida State University (FSU) president Gordon Blackwell. The resignation was tendered four days after Blackwell was criticized by Board of Control member Charles Forman of Fort Lauderdale for permitting an ultra-liberal atmosphere at FSU.

Adams at the time said Blackwell resigned out of frustration. The secretary of state predicted the resignation would be followed by many from the junior college system.

The junior colleges are controlled by Bailey's office.

"Off hand remarks on our junior college system and our system of higher education should be weighed," Bailey said. The secretary of state, he said, "should take the time to ascertain the complete and true facts of the situation."

"The secretary of state, in less than four years on the State Board of Education, has too frequently in news releases and public addresses seen fit to be critical of some phase of education and thereby has established himself as an 'authority' on education," Bailey said.

"The problems of education will never be solved by press releases but rather by carefully contemplated State Board of Education and legislative action."

Bailey discounted Adams' comments about resignations. He said that only one president of a junior college had resigned in the past three years, and in that instance it was to take a better paying job.

Kiwanis All Set For Kids Day Fun

All is in readiness for the annual Kiwanis Kids Day at Municipal Stadium, Thursday at 7:30 p. m. Dr. John Wilson, chairman said today.

One substitution has been made, however. Magician Volte Hull will not be able to appear, due to a minor accident, but in his place, the Kiwanis Club has obtained Al Blasing of Daytona Beach who is an expert juggler and unicyclist.

All children between the ages of six and 16 are invited to attend the show, and parents may attend with their children. Free popcorn and cold drinks will be served to the children.

Other features of the program include a demonstration of safe fundamentals of football by Coach Dan Pelham and members of the Junior High football team. Coach Pelham says that with proper training and good physical condition football players can avoid serious injuries.

Football star Larry Libertore, former Florida Gator quarterback, now playing for the Orlando Broncos will tell the kids about some of his most exciting experiences as a player.

A balloon twirling act by a champion, Miss Linda Bryant of DeLand, will be next on the program, with a high light of her performance the famous "Flaming Balloons" act.

A band concert by the Seminole High School Band, under the direction of Ernest Couley, is another scheduled feature.

"Kids Day is an annual program of Kiwanis Clubs all over the U. S. designed to entertain the youth of our community and demonstrate the clubs vital interest in developing a strong and wholesome group of young people," said Wilson, who is chairman of the Boys and Girls Committee.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Shrugging off jibes of "chicken," Senate Democrats have killed a bill which would have allowed televised debates between President Johnson and GOP presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater this year.

The Senate voted 44 to 41 Tuesday night to shelve the proposal after a brief but lively debate which featured a Republican charge that the Democrats were under orders from "high up" not to let it pass. First reaction from a network official came from Dr. Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

"This rejection of a previous overwhelming affirmative vote by both the House and the Senate represents a disturbing step backwards in the progressive effort toward a better-informed electorate," Stanton said in a statement issued in New York.

4 Of 10 Planes Piloted By AF Officers

SAIGON (UPI)—Vietnamese air force fighter-bombers, made a "spectacularly successful" attack on a major Communist headquarters Tuesday, a U. S. military spokesman reported today.

The spokesman said 10 government Skyraiders, four piloted by U. S. Air Force officers, left the Viet Cong installation "in blazing ruins."

The raid was directed against the reputed headquarters of the Viet Cong's infamous Makong River battalion. It is located 77 miles south of Saigon near the mouth of Co Chien River.

Vietnamese military sources said the raid "devastated" a guerrilla supply depot. The base was said to be the headquarters for all Viet Cong activity in the populous Vinh Binh and Kien Hoa provinces.

Reports of the successful government raid followed a three-day battle around Hon My in which, according to U. S. military advisers, an estimated 280 guerrillas were killed by government troops.

LBJ Calls Demo Governors To 'Work Session'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson wants the nation's 34 Democratic governors to come to the White House Saturday for a "work session" — but at least three southerners have decided to pass up the invitation.

The Chief Executive told of his invitation at a 15-minute news conference Thursday. He alluded that the subject of politics might naturally arise during the meeting, coming as it does only two days before the start of the Democratic National Convention.

But, he added, the purpose of the session will be "to review with the governors the impact of the economy on their states, the impact of space and defense programs, of new opportunities in education and health programs."

Johnson said he previously had offered to meet with the nation's 16 Republican governors, but "unfortunately, they were unable to come."

Whatever the topic of the Saturday session Gov. Paul B. Johnson Jr. of Mississippi, Orval F. Faubus of Arkansas and John M. McKeithen of Louisiana have decided not to attend. Faubus said he was going to a class reunion in Alabama.

Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace and Tennessee Gov. Frank G. Clement said they had not decided whether to go.

Demos 'Chicken' Out On Debate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Shrugging off jibes of "chicken," Senate Democrats have killed a bill which would have allowed televised debates between President Johnson and GOP presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater this year.

The Senate voted 44 to 41 Tuesday night to shelve the proposal after a brief but lively debate which featured a Republican charge that the Democrats were under orders from "high up" not to let it pass. First reaction from a network official came from Dr. Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

"This rejection of a previous overwhelming affirmative vote by both the House and the Senate represents a disturbing step backwards in the progressive effort toward a better-informed electorate," Stanton said in a statement issued in New York.

Mortgage Bill OK'd

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate passed today a $1.1 billion compromise housing bill to liberalize mortgage terms for American home buyers.

Johnsons' Worth Set At $3.4 Million

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson today made public financial statements listing his family's net worth at $3,484,098.

The figures were provided by the certified public accounting firm of Haskins & Sells which made an audit of the family's finances under instructions given them by the President last July 7.

The $3,484,008 net capital included $378,081 for the President, $2,129,288 for Mrs. Johnson, $480,141 for their 20-year-old daughter Lynda Bird and $486,578 for their 17-year-old daughter Luci Barnes.

The less-than-$3.5 million figure was far below some earlier published estimates of the first family's worth.

The family's principal financial assets were listed as being in capital stock of the Texas Broadcasting Corp., and in ranch properties and other real estate.

The family's capital was figured at $377,730 for Jan. 1, 1954, and $3,484,098 for July 31, 1964 — a gain of $2,746,368 over that 10-year, seven-month period.

During seven years of that period, Johnson was Senate Democratic leader, vice president and since Nov. 22 of last year — President.

The capital stock investment of the broadcasting corporation, which has been held in trust for Mrs. Johnson and the two daughters since the family entered the White House, was carried in the financial statements at $2,470,680.

Investments in ranch properties and other real estate were carried at $525,791.

The broadcasting corporation stock figures were said to represent the cost of the shares when issued to Mrs. Johnson between 1943 and 1947, plus accumulated earnings applicable as of last June 30.

The ranch properties and other real estate were listed at cost allowance for depreciation of improvements.

Barry Raps LBJ For 'Warning'

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (UPI) — Sen. Barry M. Goldwater charged today that President Johnson gave the North Vietnamese Communists nearly two hours warning of the air strike on their bases during which they "could have better prepared the defenses that shot down our planes."

"The administration has shown little skill when negotiating with the Communists. Now it appears they have little skill when fighting the Communists," the GOP presidential candidate said in a speech prepared for "Republican Day" at the Illinois State Fair here.

The Arizona senator also deplored what he called "a mood of easy morals and uneasy ethics that is an aching truth in our land." He said scandal "haunts" the structure of the federal government and added, "we offer you an honest administration by honest men."

Ridiculing a favorite target, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, Goldwater said, "the administration and its civilian generals, such as field marshal McNamara, take full credit for this remarkable strategy of warning our enemy that planes were on their way!"

Windows Broken

Rock-throwing boys are blamed for heavy damage to windows at 2824 Grove Dr., according to a police report today. The damage was done sometime Tuesday afternoon, police said.

$80.1 Million For State Roads

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges announced the distribution today of $3.6 billion in federal aid for highway construction and improvement during the next fiscal year.

The apportionment included $2.8 billion for the national interstate and defense highway system and $1 billion for federal aid to primary and secondary highway systems.

Included in the distribution was a total of $80.1 million for Florida highways. This was broken down into $2.2 million for primary and secondary systems and $77.9 million for interstate roads.

The money is provided by the federal aid highway act signed into law last week by President Johnson. It comes from federal highway use taxes and can be used only for construction or improvements and incidental costs on roads which remain under state ownership and maintenance.

The total highway aid appropriation in the legislation was $125 million higher than for the current fiscal year.

Winter Park Mall Opens For Business Tomorrow

The Winter Park Mall, reportedly the largest completely enclosed, air-conditioned shopping center in the Southeast, opens its doors tomorrow at 9:45 a. m. with a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

It won't be just an ordinary ribbon, either. In keeping with the magnitude of the new shopping center, the ribbon which is to be snipped by Mrs. Florida, Joan Pereno of Coral Gables, will release a whole sunburst of ribbons at the twin towers entrance, raising the curtain on the $15 million center.

Owned, developed and constructed by Robert S. Jacobs, one of the South's largest builders, the tremendous mall, encompassing all the latest and most modern styling of climate-controlled shopping will have 50 stores under one roof.

More than 1,500 permanent employees will serve the thousands of expected customers. The payroll will exceed $5 million.

The mall is contained on 528,000 square feet of the 40 acre site, with 450,000 square feet of store space.

Largest of the mall's tenants are the huge two-story Ivey's Department Store and the J. C. Penney Store.

Besides their department store, Penney's is introducing for the first time their auto accessory store, making this a prototype of their future expansion.

Official entrance to the mall complex is at the eye-catching twin towers, through which customers enter a wide corridor. This is bisected by the main mall corridor, centered by a 30 foot high fountain, under a 60 foot skylight. The main corridor is 60 feet wide and about 600 feet long.

All the stores within the mall complex are reached from the central corridors, and sprinkled in among them are little specialty booths, or "kiosks," which feature everything from key shops to ones which handle nothing but sweaters.

Architects are Toombs, Anasano and Wells of Atlanta, who also designed the Lenox Square Mall in Atlanta, largest in the South, as well as other shopping centers in Florida.

One of the most unusual features of the Winter Park Mall is the 3,100 car parking lot, where builders have left many of the original oak trees that have stood for years on the two block area. The idea of having trees in the parking lot is so odd that it has been utilized as an advertising feature and demonstrates the customer-appeal awareness of builder Jacobs.

The grand opening will actually continue for three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with regular hours of the majority of the stores being 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. A few will be open on Sunday.

On hand to greet and welcome visitors and shoppers, hand out descriptive brochures and dispense information and directions will be "floating hostesses," identified by their red blouses.

Also acting as official hostesses will be Mrs. Florida, who will remain at the Mall most of the day to greet visitors and sign autographs.

Gifts, favors and music will add to the holiday atmosphere for the throngs of shoppers, lookers and visitors invited to attend. A few more stores will open later, but floor space is now about 95 percent filled, officials said.

Some of the stores which the customer will find under the Mall's slogan of "Something for Everyone" will include:

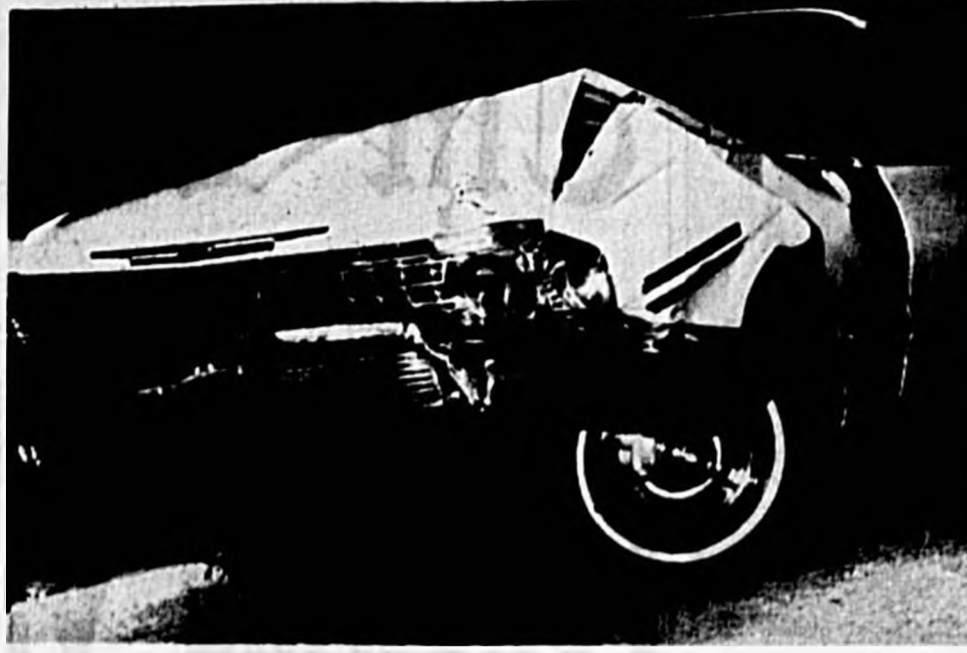

Woodworth, Schwobit, Bill Baer, Walgreens, Rutlands, Vogue, Baker's, Kinney's, Harpers, Ronnie's Bake Shop and Delicatessen, Squires, Tall Fashions, Adriane's, Augie's (for both men and women), Keller's Music, Mathew's, and the Cheese Cottage.

There will also be toy shops, liquor stores, candy shops, candy shops, cleaners, laundrette, and many other specialty shops.

Winn-Dixie has a huge new food store within the area, but not in the Mall.

Croighans Restaurant, who advertise "the world's best apple pie" will open in November with a restaurant and cocktail lounge. This will also be outside the Mall complex.

Penney's and Ivey's both are opening with two floors, and the building has been constructed so that another floor can be easily added for future expansion, officials explained.

JUMPING THE CURB on 25th Street, according to Patrolman Rod Hancock, this car slammed into a utility pole at the intersection of Club Road Saturday night. The driver of the car, Kenneth W. Landress, 2400 Marshall Ave., Sanford, was unhurt but was charged by Hancock with failure to have his car under control. Damage to the car and pole was estimated by the patrolman at $800. Lake Monroe Jottings

By Mrs. E. L. Johnson

JOHNNY — ENGLISH HELL — According to Mae Rahn, she and Penn, son Phil and daughter Janice really had a wonderful vacation which started in Richmond Hill, Ga. where they visited his sister and family. From there they went to Charlotte, N.C., and then to Fancy Gap, Va. Then back to Asheville N.C. and on to Gatlinburg, Tenn., to Charlotte N.C., and back in the state, to Jacksonville and finally back to their own home on Narcissus. Boy what a trip.

Little Allen (Peanut) Baker fell down the stairs of his home which pushed a stick up into the top of his mouth, causing some damage. I think he is going to be alright because I have heard him making a loud noise or two. I am glad that it didn't do any damage causing a possible stay in the hospital.

Congratulations to Terry and Jean Watson on the arrival Saturday morning of little 6 pounds, 18 ounces Terry Junior. The tot's grandparents are Sam and Ida Watson of Woodruff Springs and Nathan and Maggie Stripling of Lake Monroe. Now I can call Margie "Grannie" since it's the first time.

Glad to hear that Lloyd Freeman is out of the local hospital after a short confinement there.

Tommy Hittell was expected home Friday after spending six months with the National Guard at Fort Jackson, S.C. Also expected home is Jimmie Carroll. Jim has not decided just yet what he will do.

Very sorry to hear that Mrs. Herman (Lucille) Spivey is in the local hospital where she underwent major surgery Monday morning. She wishes a speedy recovery. She needs to get back home as soon as possible because if I know Herman he will sweep the dirt under the rug again. (Like he said he did once before). Lucille and son Kenny went over to Melbourne one day last week to see Herman where he was working on a construction job.

Mrs. Margaret Baker

and son Mike Jewel Kelly, and Wanda Brasswell have returned home after attending a C.W.C. Camp at Brooksville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ming Cowley have as guests their two grandsons Mike and Gary of Jacksonville.

Buddy Kerns and son enjoyed a trip to West Virginia where they saw his sister and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis (Vonda) Carter of West Palm Beach came in this weekend to see Vonda's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kerns. Vonda will stay on for a longer visit and Willis will return to Palm Beach.

Jim Chaplin has returned home after being called to West Virginia because of the sudden passing of his father. We extend our sympathy to his family.

Lucille Spivey, Grace Ann and Kenny Forrester, Mary Estelene and DeWayne Allison motored over to Sunland Training Center to spend the day with little Carolyn Spivey.

Rev. and Mrs. William Lutz and family of Merritt Island, who were former residents at Wilsons Corner where he was pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, were supper guests of the Herman Spiveys one evening last week.

I want to see Glenn Spivey as I understand he and a horse decided to battle it out and from what I hear the horse sort of won the battle. Seems that Glenn has a very sore left leg.

A very happy girl out this way these days is Pat Szabo. On August 28 Pat will change her name. The lucky young man is Ronald Walter. They will say their vows in the First Church of the Nazarenes. All friends and relatives are invited to attend the wedding. Time is 7 p.m. We want to offer our best wishes to this young couple in their future life together.

Talking of Pat, Sus Orsino gave her a shower one day last week. Pat was the recipient of some very nice gifts.

Our thought this week — The line of the sun for pardon, the song of the birds for mirth, one is nearer God's heart in a garden, than anywhere else on earth.

NOT Club Names Lake Mary Boy As President

A Lary Mary youth, Danny Tillis, was elected president of the North Orlando Teen (NOT) Club Monday night at a pre-fall reorganizational meeting of the group held at the home of adult sponsor, Mrs. Elaine Singleton.

Other new officers, all of North Orlando, are Ed Wire, vice president; Maureen McVay, secretary; Diane Stephenson, treasurer; Pat Wilson, sergeant at arms and Sherri Stephenson, reporter.

In other business of the meeting, which was conducted by Roger Deskin, past vice president, plans for completion of the Christmas in August project now underway were discussed with members voting to make door to door collections on Tuesday. Articles collected will be delivered to a needy family of the area before the end of the month.

Mrs. Singleton announced that Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ward have invited the club to attend a party to be held at their home with final plans to be made at a meeting of club officers and Mrs. Ward. Members will be notified of date and time.

Plans were begun for the Aug. 27 dance, the last before school starts, which will be one of the club's big events with a special band for the evening.

A car wash and wax was set for this Saturday from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. in front of the North Orlando Company offices. The project will be under general supervision of Ray Wilson with workers being divided into two shifts for the day. Posters announcing the fund-raising event are being made and put up by Cathy Dean and Sherri and Diane Stephenson.

MRS. W. A. ADDINGTON, formerly Charmion Miller, was graduated from Florida State University Aug. 8 and will teach the ninth grade this year at Elizabeth Cobb Junior High School in Tallahassee.

The next board meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. LaPoma, Sanlando Springs Rd., on Sept. 14. This month's general membership meeting of the club will be held Aug. 28 at the House of Beef in Maitland beginning with a social hour at 11:30 a. m.

Soil and Water Meeting Opens

The 19th annual meeting of the Florida Association of Soil and Water Conservation District Supervisors got underway and will continue Thursday and Friday in Sarasota.

"Our meeting this year will be concerned with problems and challenge today to soil and water management," said Robert N. Morris of Tampa, President of the FACD.

"Today's pressures on land and water resources are becoming more and more complex. Daily new demands are made on these vital resources. City and country people need to pool their technical skills, through the organized soil conservation districts."

Highlight of the Friday session is the statewide conservation speech for high school students, featuring eight area winners representing each conservation area.

Don Sipes, president of the Seminole High School Chapter of the Future Farmers of America will represent this area in the public speaking contest.

Also attending will be Ben Wiggins, former local conservationist, now of Cocoa; W. W. Lutz, C. A. Wales and Mark Bullneck.

Explorer Sir Ernest Shackleton came within 97 miles of the North Pole in 1902, but storms and a food shortage forced his retreat.

New Model Rocket Sends 'Switchboard' Satellite Into Orbit At Cape

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — America passed its first obstacle today of a tough mission to station a Syncom communications satellite in orbit to provide ocean-spinning telecasts of October's Olympics from Japan. From its planned hanging orbit over the Pacific, Syncom could also give the United States emergency communications with hard-to-reach Asian trouble spots. A new model Delta rocket, packing twice its usual punch, sent the switchboard satellite into a preliminary yo-yo orbit expected to range from 700 miles to 22,900 miles above earth.

The next crucial step comes about 11:15 a. m. EST (12:15 p. m. EDT) tomorrow when on its third swing from earth, a rocket aboard the satellite itself will kick it into a circular 23,300 mile high path above the equator. Syncom's booster, a gleaming white vehicle with solid rockets strapped to its first stage to give it an extra kick, roared aloft at 7:15 a. m. EST. It discarded its solid motor, leaving a brilliant white smoke and brilliant flame. The sophisticated spacecraft sped into the preliminary looping orbit.

Cancer Control Work Pushed By Volunteers

During the coming 12 months hundreds of volunteers of County Units of the Florida Division of the American Cancer Society will continue to be engaged in year-round cancer control programs, involving public and professional education, research and patient services.

On commenting on the Crusade which he headed this year, Greep credited the dedicated services of the more than 60,000 men and women volunteers who have participated in the "dollars against cancer drive." He also commended them for the dual services which they performed — that of distributing cancer educational literature as they sought donations to carry on the fight against the disease which is still taking the lives of more than 9,400 Floridians annually.

The announcement was made this week in a report to the Society's headquarters in Tampa by Harry P. Greep, Ft. Lauderdale, this year's volunteer Crusade Chairman. Greep's report stated that as of August 18, contributions amounting to more than $1,114,000 had been made to the Society's cancer control fund by Florida citizens, business, industries and organizations.

'Appreciation Day' For Rev. Watson

By Robert B. Thomas Jr. 223-5754

The Rev. N. A. Watson will be given an "Appreciation Day" Sunday, Aug. 30, at 4 p.m. in Croom's Auditorium. Since coming to Sanford some nine years ago, this churchman has been a tremendous asset in our town. He has exerted himself in most every way possible to help make our community a better place in which to live.

To mention all of the things he does would take the entire volume of the Bible. However, it would be unfair not to mention some of his work. To the frustrated boy or girl, he has dedicated himself incessantly giving them moral and spiritual guidance. Many times he has been awakened at all hours of the night by some terrified parent asking his help with her child. Many children have been helped by this man. He is president of the Children's Advisory Council. This organization strives to help unfortunate children in the following ways: (1) clothing (2) food (3) counseling and (4) moral and spiritual guidance. The Seminole County Together's Association has a scholarship fund of which he is a member of the committee. Besides his obligation to his congregation, he participates actively in the many-mingled and many other civic activities.

Twenty-five years in the ministry and all of it served at St. Paul's Missionary Baptist Church will be marked this Sunday at 11 a.m. by the Rev. B. H. Hodge, church pastor. The principal speaker for the 11 a.m. service will be Herman L. Bates Jr., principal of Goldboro Elementary School.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Burke and family of Springfield, Mass. have returned home after spending two weeks with relatives and friends. Mrs. Burke is the former Hattie McCloud.

Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Wright and son Al Jr. and Mrs. H. L. Burney of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting with Lillie Hall, Katie Robinson and family.

Ruby Dea a Harrington, George Melvin Hall and Juanita Papine received their master's degrees. Harrington and Hall received theirs from Florida A and M University, Tallahassee, and Papine from Columbia University. Congratulations to each of you.

E. C. Wilson has completed requirements for his master's degree at Hampton Institute. Congratulations to you.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Miles of Perry were weekend guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell of 123 Bethune Circle.

Margaret Robinson and Barbara Andrews returned Friday after visiting Atlantic City, Philadelphia, New York City and the World's Fair.

Mrs. Lillie R. Hall began studying for her master's degree this summer at Atlanta University.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Robinson of Tampa, were recent houseguests of the Robinson, Hall and Mitchell families.

Mrs. Fannie E. Frazier and daughter, Laura G. Frazier have returned home from their vacation. They visited relatives and friends in Tallahassee, Quincy and Live Oak. Tallahassee is the home of Mrs. F. E. Frazier. Miss L. G. Frazier is one of the teachers at Hopper Elementary here.

Mrs. Dolly Le ar Potts Thorne, a sincere, faithful member of St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church here for well over 70 years is still alling but some better at this time. She is staying with her mother-in-law at 1010 Holly Ave., where friends visit and send flowers and cards.

A. B. Hicks Jr. of Washington D. C., has returned home after having spent a vacation with his mother, relatives and friends here and in Orlando. Mr. Hicks was born and reared here in Sanford. He is remembered for many things, but mostly for the successful benefit concert he gave for St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church not long ago. One will not forget it soon. A repeat performance of his benefit concert is still being asked.

Mrs. Bennie Mae Sims of 1004 Maple Ave. has returned home from the hospital where she has been a patient for some time. Mrs. Sims is the mother of Jimmie and Hansberry Jr., two of Croom High School Band members who graduated in 1960. Jimmie is manager of one of a large chain store in Rochester, N. Y., and Hansberry is making quite a record in the armed services. We wish for Mrs. Sims a complete recovery and continued success for each member of her family.

Specialist Five Freddie L. Hughes, 24, whose wife, Ann Marie, lives in Avon Park, reenlisted for six years in the Regular Army July 20 while serving as a draftsman in Headquarters Company, 1st Battalion of the 1st Infantry Division's 28th Infantry at Fort Riley, Kan. He entered the Army in 1956.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hughes Sr., Route 2, Sanford, he is a 1964 graduate of Crooms Academy High School in Sanford.

280 Reds Killed By Saigon Troops

HOA MY, South Viet Nam (UPI) — American military advisers reported today that government troops killed 280 Communist guerrillas in a three-day battle which raged around this outpost in the Mekong River delta. It was the biggest reported Viet Cong casualty toll for any battle of the anti-Communist war.

The bodies of 10 guerrillas were found on the battlefield, but American military advisers said the Communist carried off an "estimated 270 killed." Vietnamese losses were reported as 24 killed, 76 wounded and 10 missing and possibly captured.

An American pilot who flew over the battle area said it looked like a Fourth of July fireworks display.

Pigott Runs 65 SHS Gridmen Through Initial Workouts

By David Higginbotham
Herald Sports Writer
Seminole High School football practice started Tuesday afternoon when 65 eager athletes turned out for the first workout.

SHS Head Coach Jim Pigott explained to the candidates that grades come before sports and boys who did not pass four subjects would not be permitted to play until their grades were satisfactory.

Seminole Athletic Director Fred Gans explained eligibility regulations and training rules while Coach Jim McCoy looked over the new faces.

Two returning lettermen, Joe Farless and Mike Gray, led a number of strenuous conditioning exercises to get the boys in shape.

Coaches Dick Williams and Ralph Stumpf worked with the backs, while Coaches Jim McCoy and John Colbert reviewed the line men on basic fundamentals.

Among the 65 candidates for the 34 positions on the varsity squad were: end — Eddis Griffith, Mike Gray, Jimmy Henson, Jimmy Pochardo, Al-an Herbst, Chuck Pigott, Ronnie Mayer, Jerry Miles, Jimmy Williams, Randy Schrum, Ronald Boyd, Steve Mills, Ware Gardner, Mike Yentch, and Ken Martin.

Backs — Bill Kuykendall, Rick Walstrom, Sterl Weber, Jerry Smith, Chris Akers, Bernie Barbour, Terry Echols, Andy Simons, Chuck Scott, Mike Underwood, Ernie Baumelster, Lee Russell, Dan Simon, Alan Peoples, Frank Whigham, Phillip Bailey, Bill Frisbey, Kelly Ogen, Kenny Hall, Leslie Legore, Donny Luke, Ronny Dudley, Mike McGuire, Gregg Shively, and Buddy Stumpf.

Linemen — Joe Farless, Steve Groover, Steve Dalint, Joe Purdy, David Hows, Mike Ogen, Butch King, Mike Gannon, Steve Harris, Danny Lee, Steven Pearce, Jay McCracken, Mike Kinsey, Mason Jim Baker, Benny Bishop, Charlie Lythe, Sany Parrish, Mike Moses, Skip Brown, Bill Probst, Roy Dum, Greg Gans and Ron Poole; and the managers, Ronnie Riser and J. Richards.

According to Coach Jim Pigott a number of lettermen will be returning to the squad next Monday.

The Seminoles have 21 days in which to prepare for their first contest of the season against the Titusville Terriers Sept. 18 at Titusville.

The Seminoles will go in to the eight-team Metro Conference for the first time in football, SHS athletic squads began entering the Orange-Seminole County loop during basketball season of last year. The baseball squad played in the Metro as did other sports. But this will be the first season in the Metro for the Seminole grid machine.

Pigott said Tuesday that as far as he could tell the "crop" of youngsters looked pretty good and went through the initial drill in a most satisfactory manner.

Pigott still plans to utilize three squads — as he did last season. However, present plans still call for each of the squads to be able to "go both ways" — as he put it. By that he means that each of the teams will play offensive as well as defensive football and right now the system will call for a team to "stay in there" until it makes a major mistake.

Drills will continue daily at the SHS athletic field.

When that happens the eleven will be yanked in favor of another team. Just what will constitute "a major mistake" will be determined by the coaches.

Drills will continue daily at the SHS athletic field.

Copeland Teaches 'Hounds' Fundamentals

Strikes . . .
Spare

By John A. Spolaki
I loved every minute of that vacation time in the hills of Pennsylvania, but am I ever glad to get back to Sanford! (See, I do work for the Chamber of Commerce on the side.)

This whole column could be adequately summarized in two short words—Fall League!

But, before I get my kicks on that subject, was I ever shocked on getting a check back from the Southeastern Bowling Conference Tournament. It wasn't too big but then neither was that one score of a 148!

This prompted me to review the final tally and see who else collected some of that folding money from this area. In the doubles event, the only names I could find were that of Jack Kanner and George Swann.

Here's a real "dandy" for you in the singles result!

Leading all of the Sanford entries was the name of Dick (Zookie) Zuckerman, and then Rich Murphy, followed by Don Ethel and Spilaki.

Rich (Slingshot) Murphy was our only representative to step into the winner's circle for the all events category with his 1813 score.

Just about goofed by omitting the names of Gordon Honeycutt and Phil Rocha and John Bridges and John (Jack) Duffy from the doubles, also. Congratulations to one and all.

MARR GETS POST
DUNEDIN (UPI) — Dave Marr, 30-year-old veteran golfer from Texas, Monday was selected chairman of the Professional Golfers Association Tournament for a one year term.

CARDS SIGN YOUNG
ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Robert Young, 18-year-old shortstop, Monday signed a contract for the 1964 season with the St. Louis Cardinals. Young's father, Pep, played with the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Yankees.

ALLYN CONFIDENT
CHICAGO (UPI) — White Sox owner Arthur Allyn said today that he was confident at least three American League club owners would ask for a "good look" at the Yankee-CBS deal. Three owners can force President Joe Cronin to call a loop meeting.

And now let's get a little more up-to-date, huh?

Over the week-end our representatives to the Third Annual BPAP Handicap Tournament competed at Ocala in the state finals. This five-some consisted of Harold Johnson (628), Roy Starman (642), Ed Kirchoff (620), Joe Mansi (698), and Dick Zuckerman (66). The boys rolled a 3064, including handicap. Joe Mansi rolled a 578 scratch, add to this his 120 handicap and you have a 698 series. I'm told this was high for the tourney.

You'll be seeing some action shots of the kickoff of the Fall Schedule of the Navy Intra-mural League in The Herald in the next couple of days.

As far as I'm concerned, this is always the official "greater" to us here at the lanes that the Fall bowling schedule is really starting.

It was with a great deal of pleasure that we all had the Sanford's NAB Commanding Officer, Capt. Swanson, on hand for the trophy presentations. And you know, he rolls a mighty fine strike ball, too.

The "New Breed" walked home with many of the team honors so a tip of our fenders to F. G. Hollen, J. C. Stanger, J. H. McClure, R. L. Hastings, H. E. Guthrie, D. K. Brandon, J. J. Kusnicki and D. P. Casey.

In the individual "spotlight" these were the stars: High series, Bob Combs—647; Series with htcp, D. A. Cummings—643; High average was separated by the extra pincount by L. L. Applegate—181-plus count. Also checking-in with 181's were John Kneeland and John Uhr.

Let's talk about the coming week, shall we? You do know that all of the other leagues will be holding organizational meetings this coming week at which time all newcomers are welcomed with open arms.

Garry Fox, Coach of the Saturday A. M. Junior Bowling League has his plans calling for the end of the Summer League, Aug. 29, with the start of the Fall League on the following week, Sept. 5.

I know it'll sound redundant, but with all of the many new families moving into the Sanford area, I do hope that all the regular bowlers won't mind our catering to these folks with the hope that they'll join us in one of the leagues. This is one sure way of proving to them that the climate here in Sanford is ideal for the Military/Civilian.

A message from John Tompkins of Altamonte Springs that Jet Lanes is invited into the Golden Age League, members of 60 years of age or over. They bowl once a month on Sunday's and so far, there are 10 different bowling lanes represented. Anyone interested?

I wish I had space for a personal review of each of the many leagues participating here at the lanes. Those secretaries who've contacted former team captains and members have their leagues pretty well lined-up. As a matter of fact, it would appear that most every league will definitely expand this coming fall.

Have you been contacted yet? If you'd like to be placed onto a team, give us a call here at the Lanes and we'll supply you with the pertinent data.

By Jim Bacchus
With a big emphasis on fundamentals, Lynn High's head coach, Dick Copeland, put his Greyhounds squad through another stiff drill Tuesday in preparation for the 1964 gridiron campaign.

The way Copeland was working the boys led to the question, "When will scrimmages get under way?"

Copeland replied, "We've got to learn how to play football before we can start scrimmage sessions."

End Coach Rodney Umberger put his flankers through a blackboard drill on blocking assignments and passing patterns. Later he had them running sprints and pass patterns. Umberger has a long way to go with his ends since he has only one returning letterman, Gene Winkelman.

Meanwhile, Line Coach Tom Barnes, working with 20 youngsters, also used the blackboard, outlined blocking assignments and plays, and then emphasized conditioning.

Barnes has two returning lettermen, tackle Alie Buess and Church Wagner, a center last season but moved this year to a guard post. At the present time Ivan Rakya is listed as a center to replace Wagner.

Copeland himself worked with his backs. He ran them through a series of plays. He broke up his 17 ball carriers into four groups for the drill. His primary backfield included Jack Blanton at quarterback, Austin Saville at full with Phil Perrault at left half and Al Cantrell at right half. They are all seniors.

Tuesday night part of the squad reported to the school's gymnasium for physical examinations. The remainder of the team will report tonight.

From here, it appears that Copeland is going to be light on experience. He has only Blanton, Perrault, Cantrell, Einkleman, Wagner and Buess back from last year's squad as returning lettermen.

On the other hand, he has 11 Sophs including Larry Lott, Rakya, Danny Overton and Dave Straughan—up from last year's South Seminole Junior High eleven.

Lions Work On Defense

By Julius Stromstrom
Herald Sports Editor
"I believe in defense," said Arthur Scott, the new head coach at Oviedo High, "because if they can't score they can't beat you."

And Scott's philosophy is being demonstrated on the practice field where his 1964 edition of the Lions are getting huge doses of defensive fundamentals in their twice-daily workouts in preparation for the forthcoming season.

The Lions will be playing their third season of football when the curtain goes up on the schedule Sept. 25 when the Oviedo eleven hosts Crescent City at John Courier Field.

During the school's initial season, 1962, the main effort was to score a couple of touchdowns. In fact some of the players on that 1962 squad hadn't even seen a football game — much less play in one. Too, some of the boys had never seen a football field — except maybe, on television.

But the Lions surprised everyone by winning two games. Last year they doubled their winning output with four victories. Eight for this year?

That isn't likely, but it's certainly possible — that is, it seems so when one watches the Lions at work.

Scott's new assistant, Dick

Prater, reported Tuesday and immediately went to work. Prater, basically a basketball mentor, told the boys:

"I don't know too much about football but I can tell when you're hustling a n d when you aren't." The result: "Hustle and plenty of it," remarked Scott.

Scott worked his boys on conditioning, skull sessions, running, sprints and the defensive style of play he will utilize this year.

Workouts are being held from 8 until 9:30 a.m. and from 4 until 6 p.m. Tuesday afternoon the boys were put through pass patterns and trap defense.

Scott lost only one boy, Barry Gouge (whose family moved to Titusville) from last year's team. A new youngster who has played football in Jacksonville, Bruce Dawlin, reported Tuesday. "He's a halfback," said Scott, "and I'm confident we'll use him."

Scott was high on Jim Courter, the sensational Lion quarterback. "He's put about 100 pounds on those shoulders of his and he'll be better than I ever," Scott commented.

Scott has also completed his plan to shift Ted Behlborn to fullback. "We're expecting quite a bit from Ted this season," Scott added.

The Lions will get practice uniforms next Monday.

40 Seek Berths On Hurricane 11

By Jim Baechus
Herald Sports Writer

South Seminole Junior High's pigskin squad has begun prepping for the forthcoming grid season.

At Casselberry, Head Coach Jim Clark is supervising some 40 aspiring athletes who are seeking berths in the Hurricane's 1964 varsity.

Clark is beginning his second year as chief of the Hurricane coaching staff. Assisting Clark again this year is line coach Dave Miller and junior varsity coach Pete Poore.

Clark is reviewing the youngsters on training rules and other requirements. He stressed physical fitness as a necessary asset for top performance on the playing field.

He's also putting the "Canes" through sprints, exercises, and running plays plus blocking patterns. He has issued assignment sheets which outline the offensive plays the Hurricanes will employ this season.

The South Seminole last year had a fine season, a record of four wins and only two losses — both at the hands of Sanford Junior High School's Braves.

Most of the youngsters who performed for the Hurricanes a year ago have departed. Two of them, halfback Dave Straughan and fullback Larry Lott, will be missed. They provided the Hurricane's with the one-two punch in the backfield and scored a number of important touchdowns during the campaign.

Also missing this season are linemen Paul Lambert and end Charlie Newell — two big boys who played a vital role in last season's success.

Despite the loss of these and other key performers, the club does have a number of promising players returning for the coming season. Moreover, an even larger group is expected to participate in the workouts as school opening draws nearer.

The Hurricanes will begin the campaign at home against Sanford Junior High, Sept. 24. In following weeks they will face Oviedo High's Jay-Vees, St. Cloud's JayVees, and Mary Help of Christian School for Boys of Tampa, among others on the school's six-game schedule.

Chance Grabs 15th; Sox Nose Out Yanks

By George C. Longford
UPI Sports Writer

Next to Bill Vecek, who hates the Yankees, and Hank Bauer, who insists he has the pennant formula, Los Angeles Angels pitching coach Marv Grissom must be the most satisfied man in baseball today.

Grissom, the former reliever for the New York Giants, is the teacher who has patiently nurtured and developed the hottest pitcher in the big leagues, 22-year-old Dean Chance.

Chance hurled his second straight two-hit shutout Tuesday night, 1-0 over the Detroit Tigers in the first game of a doubleheader, to record his ninth consecutive victory and lower his major league-leading earned run average to 1.60.

The victory was the 14th for Chance against five losses and his eighth shutout of the season.

Vic Power's third home run off loser Hank Aquirre, who allowed but three hits, won the opener.

Mickey Lolich, on a one-day pass from Air National Guard summer camp, gave up three first inning singles to Los Angeles, then pitched hitless ball the rest of the way to give Detroit a 1-0 verdict in the nightcap. Gates Brown singled home the only run off loser Fred Newman.

Vecek "I've been a Yankee hater from way back" Tuesday predicted "the end of the Yankee dynasty" is coming.

He then saw third-place New York blow a three-run lead in the eighth inning and love their second straight to the Chicago White Sox 4-3 in 10 innings.

Bauer, manager of the league-leading Orioles, predicted after Baltimore's 3-2 win over Boston, that if his team could win 26 of its remaining 35 games (.803 percentage) they could take the pennant.

In other AL games, Kansas City blitzed Cleveland 13-9 in the first game of a doubleheader, then lost 1-1 to the Indians, and Minnesota topped Washington 6-1.

In the National League, the New York Mets stopped Pittsburgh 7-3; St. Louis beat Houston 5-2, Chicago upset Philadelphia 4-3 in 16 innings; Milwaukee tripped Los Angeles 3-1 and Cincinnati blanked San Francisco 1-0.

Navy Wives Loop Race Is Tight

A close race is featured in the McRoberts' Navy Wives League with NAB Oop's Ops leading with 38 wins and 22 losses. In second place are two teams, the Hoot Owls and RVAH-9 Bombers with 37 wins and 23 losses tied for third place are Navy Pals and VAH-7 Juggernaut's with 33 wins and 27 losses.

Annie Yanaros converted the 5-6-10 split, Charlotte Nees the 4-5, Vickie McGough the 4-5-7 and Susy Reno the 2-7. The baby split, 3-10, fell for Billie Johnson, Susy Reno (twice), Donna Atkins and Doris Lasher.

Miss Janet Johnson, Michael Korgan Married In Impressive Church Rites

Miss Helen Janet Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Edward Johnson of Sanford and Michael Anthony Korgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Anthony Korgan, also of this city, were united in holy matrimony on Tuesday August 11, 1964, at 8 p. m. at Christ Methodist Church of Sanford with the Rev. Charles Hogg performing the impressive double ring and candle-light ceremony, assisted by Rev. Hugh Booth of DeBary.

The church was a profusion of palms with two seven branched wrought iron candelabra holding tall white tapers at either side of the altar, accented by pedestal baskets containing arrangements of white gladioli, white mums and tube roses. A milk glass compote on the altar held an arrangement of white glads, white mums and tube roses. The pews were marked with white satin bows.

As the guests assembled, Mrs. Cecil Sellers, organist, played traditional nuptial music. Bill Johnson, brother of the bride from Lakeland, sang "Whither Thou Goest," "I Walk With God" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a white formal gown of peap de sole featuring a pointed bodice with a soft V neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The design of the modified bell skirt was highlighted with appliques of French Alencon lace, and fell gracefully into a sweeping chapel train. Her veil of illusion lace was edged in Chantilly lace to form a mantilla head covering. The lovely bride carried a cascade bouquet of yellow rosebuds, centered with a white satin Bible, which was a gift from the bride's maternal grandparents. A gold throated orchid centered the Bible.

Miss Lorraine St. Clair of Columbus, Ohio, attended the bride as maid of honor and Mrs. William Johnson, the bride's sister-in-law from Lakeland, was matron of honor. Miss Susan Hiera, cousin of the bride from Athens, Ga. and Miss Donna Peters, the bride's cousin, were bridesmaids. Miss Cheryl Johnson attended her sister as junior bridesmaid.

The attendants were dressed identically in street length sheaths of gold satin brocade. The fitted sleeveless bodices were fashioned with scooped necklines, embroidered with seed pearls, and a low cut back. The maize silk organza overskirts were attached to the waistline with brocade bells and a Dior bow at the front. Their maize shoulder length veils fell from an open satin brocade pillbox accented with seed pearls. They wore short white gloves, gold shoes, and carried cascade bouquets.

Caution Stressed In Destruction Of Pesky Wasps

If you've got wasps around your house or yard, you've got trouble.

Although these insects kill many destructive garden insects—as well as houseflies—they pack a terrific sting. Their very presence near your home calls for action.

You can kill wasps by applying an insecticide spray or dust to their nests. Entomologists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture suggest chlordane, dieldrin or DDT. These are available as concentrates and powders for mixing with water to form a spray, or as dusts and oil solutions ready for use.

Follow the instructions on the label for mixing and applying. Follow them exactly—for safety and effectiveness. Spray or dust at night when the wasps are less active and most of them are in their nests.

Wasps that build their nests in the ground can be killed by pouring several spoonfuls of chloroform into the hole and plugging it.

Remember! Most insecticides are toxic—keep them away from children, pets, food, water and cooking utensils. Do not breathe spray mist or dust—wash all exposed skin areas after using... change clothing if you spill insecticide on it. Use chloroform only out of doors and avoid inhaling its fumes.

of yellow mums with pale green leaves, showered with white satin ribbons. The honor attendant carried a cascade bouquet of yellow rosebuds and yellow mums.

Miss Leslie Louise Bruce of Live Oak, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and was dressed in mist green crystal organza over green taffeta. She carried a white basket showered with yellow and white ribbons fill with yellow and white rose petals.

Christopher Hausch served the groom as best man and ushers were Gary Girifflis, James P. Turner and Edward A. Korgan, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Johnson chose for her daughter's wedding an elegant blue silk organza frock over blue taffeta, featuring a bell shaped embroidered skirt. Her accessories were matching cloth with a bud vase containing a single yellow rose bud. Mrs. Cecil Dandridge presided over the bride's book.

Assisting at the reception were the Meses. Edward Christlansen, Gordon Meyer, Harold Hiera, Ralph Peters, and Robert Bruce of Live Oak.

Floating hostesses were the Misses Ann Mahan, Marilyn Hunt, Judy Lavander, Brenda Brown; Gwenn Champion, Sherry Thrasher, Joy Duggar, Carol Thomas, Pat Chapman and Betty Turner.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hiera Jr. and children, Tom and Lee, of Athens, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce and children, Dan and Mike, Live Oak; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, Lakeland; Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Rhodes and Miss Kathy Rhodes, Lodian River City.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Bill Neumann, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fulford, Mrs. Clifford D. Johnson, Mrs. Betty Montegari and Woodrow Fulford, all of Ocala; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, Columbus, Ohio; Richard A. Korgan, Little Rock, Ark.; Mrs. Herbert Hiera, Mr. and Mrs. John Crumpton, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moon, all of Orlando; Mrs. B. K. Hardison, Longwood and Mrs. Floyd J. Perce, Apopka.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a smart two piece brown silk ensemble with a pleated skirt and accessories of tangerine and beige. She pinned the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder.

Following the wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Korgan will be at home at 808 1/2 West Concord Avenue, Orlando.

Wilson visited a large store and asked the first ten women with over-sized purses to open them for his survey. Four refused to show what they were carrying but the others:

- All had safety pins.
- Carried a wide variety of trading stamps.
- Carried more than 100 items, about 20 of which for makeup purposes.
- One had a toothbrush.
- Half hour overparking tickets.

Wilson also found three pairs of sunshades in one purse, an ice cream wrapper, an electric outlet plug, a deck of playing cards, six tubes of eye shadow in one purse, a high school diploma, a Canadian $2 bill, a flashlight, various toys and a clock.

Two women had diet plans and one carried a knob from the directional signal switch of the family automobile.

Mrs. Annie P. Wagnon entered the Florida Sanitarium and Hospital in Orlando Tuesday afternoon where she was to undergo surgery Wednesday morning.

Miss Helen Alderman of Jacksonville was home this past weekend to visit her mother, Mrs. W. L. Alderman.

Mrs. Bertha Lindsay is home recuperating from a broken hip. She is able to be up and to walk around with the help of Mrs. Charles Lamb who is caring for her.

Leave it to the milliner Mr. Fred of John Fredericks to get in on the topless act. Fred designed a wide, double-brimmed hat to go with the topless bathing suit. The under layer of the brim, of fabric, unfastens to come down over the chest, criss-cross and tie with narrow binding across the back. It was what the milliner called, "In case of raids, lower the shades—of your John Fredericks hat."

What to wear in winter's stormy weather? Norman Norrell offers the chic answer. The New York designer produced for fall his weather coats treated to take rain or snow but looking like a regular coat—not a hint of raincoat styling. These went over slim pants! Jersey dresses PLUS jersey stockings in matching shades. Typical: pale blue jersey dress with pale blue hose. The coat was in a deep taupe melton cloth.

One of the fashion world's favorite terms is "understated," loosely defined as a costume elegant in its simplicity and lack of giegaws. Now comes Pauline Trigere's costume punning the understated. For fall, the New York designer showed a long dinner dress in black crepe with a narrow band of silver jewelry on the cuffs and around the hemline. This, she said, was her "understudied" dress.

In a season when topless swim suits and plunging necklines make news in fashions, watch also for another bare trend—the completely strapless formal is back in full strength. New York designers show them often with accompanying stoles of matching fabric. For opulence, the stoles are bordered in mink or sable.

Queen Victoria reigned in England for a period of 63 years.

Miss Tamzene Ann Shay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Shay of Tampa and Lt. (jg) David Harman (Sam) Dow, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Dow of Sacramento, Calif., were united in holy matrimony on Saturday, August 15, 1964 at 1 p.m.

Chaplain Leo J. McDonald, Lectr., CHC, officiated at the impressive double ring military wedding at the Naval Air Station, Sanford, with decorative arrangements of glads in pedestal baskets adorning the chapel and garlands placed along the altar rail.

Howard S. Fleming, organist, furnished the nuptial hymns and traditional wedding music with S. H. Vaughn, singing "Ave Maria".

Given in marriage by her brother, Thomas Sherwood Shay of Morehead, Ky., the bride was radiant in a white formal silk taffeta gown with the lace applique bodice featuring a scoop neckline and long tapered pointed sleeves. A modified train fell gracefully over the bell shaped skirt. Her veil of illusion was attached to a taffeta pillbox and she carried a colonial bouquet centered with a Catalpa orchid showered with frilly lace and satin streamers.

Mrs. Maxine Santl of Highland Park, Ill., attended the sister as matron of honor, and she was attired in a smart pink silk sheath with matching accessories. Her headpiece was a matching flowered garland, and she carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Jacksonville Naval Air Station and Lt. Donald E. Ethell, Sanford NAS.

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Gullickson of 2809 Lakeview Dr., Fern Park and their children and grandchildren have come here from all over the country in celebration of the happy event.

Here for a week's visit from Dallas, Tex., are their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hatch, and their children, Cheryl, Edwin Jr., Randy and Greg.

Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Spinar of Columbia, Mo., and their daughters, Anne, Sandra and Karen are visiting for two weeks.

Another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Doron Cox, of Brookfield, Wis., are here for one week with their children, Joyce and Bob. Here for two weeks is their son, Thomas Jr. with his wife and children, Gary, Vickie, Wendy, Gail and Tammy, from Hale's Corners, Wis.

Joining the group from near-by Winter Park is their other son, Cecil Gullickson and his wife and daughters, Barbara and Gwynn.

The family attended morning worship together Sunday at the Casselberry Community Methodist Church filling four pews.

The Georgian Manor Restaurant in Maitland was the scene of their Sunday dinner. In addition to the family guests attending included Rev. and Mrs. Delmas Copeland, their children Matt and Carrie Lynn, Mrs. Arthur Putnam and Mr. and Mrs. Linton Cox.

The Gullicksons and their family enjoyed a trip to Silver Springs Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gullickson were married in New Lisbon, Wis., Jan. 1, 1915, but the family planned the reunion a few months early, because summer vacations made it possible for everyone to get together at this time.

Casselberry Youth Reports To Reserves

By Jane Casselberry
Seaman Apprentice Jack Glenn Jr., 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Glenn Sr. of Lake Triplet Drive, Casselberry, left Saturday for Charleston, S. C., to report for active duty in the Naval Reserve.

A graduate of Lyman High School, Jack has been an active member of the Casselberry Volunteer Fire Department. He has been a Naval reservist for the past year, taking his boot training last December.

He was honored at a party given by his friends at the Casselberry Youth Center recently, sharing the honors with Burt Leach who was home on leave from the U. S. Army and visiting the Herschel Starlings. Mrs. Larry Miller baked and decorated a large cake for the occasion.

Hootennany Brings Good Audience

By Jane Casselberry
An enthusiastic audience roundly applauded talented acts assembled for the Seminole Little League Hootennany held last Friday night in the Lyman High School auditorium.

One of the top hits of the show was Elmer Helms who, dressed as a girl and wearing a wig, pantomimed a popular ditty of the day.

Art Lego, who did a good job as master of ceremonies, even got into the act by joining The Ramblers to sing "Hand Me Down My Walking Cane." This group included Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cooper, Tom Eise, Michael Morgan, Edward Nagel and Ronnie Beadie.

Mrs. Colleen Wiggins especially appealed to the youngsters of the audience with her quaint folk tunes.

Always an audience pleaser, The Tradewinds arrived breathless from two appearances at an Orlando Department Store to take part in the hootennany.

The folk-singing trio composed of Lyman students Bill Wharton, Jim Jarrard and Terry Harmon, also led the audience in singing the grand finale, "If I had a Hammer."

Other acts appearing on the program were The Shadows, a rock 'n roll combo and the Seminole Square Dancers.

Lowdown On Dirt

Housewives will be understandably skeptical, but the fact remains that we really don't know what dirt is.

To put it technically, science can't yet fully explain everything that's involved in the bonding of small particles to a substrate—what makes dirt stick.

Because this is an important subject (American women spend $4.5 billion a year on laundering and laundry equipment, not counting $800 million on wash water), Alan B. Draper, a professor of industrial engineering at Pennsylvania State University, is going to investigate the forces that hold tiny dirt particles to surfaces.

"A Boulder can't stick to the ceiling," reasons Draper, "so what is the force which can hold a microscopic speck of the same material up there?"

The major fact in dirt is particle size. The smaller the particles, the harder they stick. Armed with a private grant of $11,600 and plenty of specially concocted synthetic dirt, Draper intends to find out just why. Incidentally, since housewives will have to cope with dirt for some time to come, they may be interested in Draper's formula. According to it, the consistency of most household dirt in percentages is:

Sand (22 per cent); clay (16); fats and grease (13); hair, wool and animal fibers (12); cellulose and paper (12); iron (5); gypsum (5); lime (5); water (3); rubber (3); powdered skim milk (2); graphite (pencil lead) (1); tobacco smoke (1).

One For The Birds

There is one type of "scientific fallout" that missile men at Cape Kennedy can count on after every rocket shot—letters from kids, who volunteer everything from advice to themselves as payloads on the next rocket.

In the latter category, one boy wrote:

I am interested in space and would like to become an astronaut, but it will have to be on a Saturday, as I go to school during the week."

One correspondent revealed signs that he might grow up to be, not an astronaut, but a highly paid gag writer for a comedian:

"Why don't you shoot a parrot and a homing pigeon into outer space, so that the pigeon could find the way back for them and the parrot could tell what it's like out there?"

Come to think of it, a lot of congressmen might like to ask the same question when they're called upon to initial a few more billions for space.

Every Little Second Helps

These are busy times, as everybody knows, and science is working overtime to speed up everything we do so we will have more time to speed up added activities made possible by the time we save by spending up our original activities.

The latest time saver for busy, busy people is "touch-tone" push-button telephone dialing.

This cuts the average dialing time from fourteen seconds to five seconds.

Wow! Nine seconds saved at the phone!

Think what this will mean to teenagers (and a lot of adults). Now they can talk for two hours AND nine seconds!

Thought For Today

Slowly and painfully, man is learning that he must do to others what he would have them do to him. — Anthony Eden.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Albert explains how he became embroiled in a homosexual ring. But now he wants to change. Do you think it is possible? Or are homosexuals "born" that true account and especially the follow-up tomorrow. And may need it later.

CASE T-431: Albert W., aged 23, is the homosexual case mentioned yesterday.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "I was only 10 years old when an older boy initiated me into homosexual practices.

"I tried to break away, but he was older and stronger so he forced me to submit until he graduated from high school.

"Meanwhile, he had told a couple of his friends about our relationship, so they threatened to tell my parents unless I submitted to them.

"So I found myself involved in a ring of homosexuals and the habit became so strong that I couldn't break free.

"But I realize it is not a wholesome way to live and I really want to change.

"Ye I am as helpless to do so as the chronic alcoholic who tries to stop his use of whiskey.

"Are homosexuals 'born' that way or can they be cured?"

Homosexuals, like alcoholics, are not victims of heredity but of bad habits.

They can be changed if they sincerely desire to do so.

But outsiders, including parents or husbands and wives, cannot change either an alcoholic or a homosexual.

The desire must originate from within!

Even then, it requires time to build up the opposite set of habits.

For behavior that depends on habits cannot become effective in an instant of time.

A non-musically inclined high schooler might suddenly decide he'd like to become an accomplished pianist.

Although he now has the desire, he still would need months of diligent practice at the piano keyboard.

Similarly, a crook can change his outlook, and so can a drunkard or a homosexual, but he will then need time to habits linked with his new way of life.

"Act the way you'd like to be," I have long advised you, "and soon you'll be the way you act!"

Applied to folks like Albert, this means he should resolutely pick out an attractive girl and start dating her regularly.

"But, Dr. Crane," he protested, "I have no wish to be with a girl. And the idea of kissing one is repulsive to me."

Yet that is the way most children react when they first meet a new food, such as spinach or oatmeal.

But by repeated contact, in a pleasant situation, they ultimately begin to look with delight on the new food.

So it is with homosexuals. If they will deliberately date a desirable member of the opposite sex and kiss the latter, though it seems like taking bitter medicine at the start, they will begin to change.

Soon they will get a thrill out of heterosexual kisses. For you can remake your behavior and alter your feelings if you just go through the proper motions.

"If you go through the proper motions," I have often warned, "you will soon begin to feel the corresponding emotions!"

That's an axiom of Applied Psychology for physiology and sex chemistry ALWAYS work according to Hyle if you but follow the rules!

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The Red Chinese are not well enough grounded economically to support any kind of major military enterprise against the United States in Southeast Asia.

While farm output is up markedly from the disastrous low levels of 1959-62, China's production today is barely back to 1957 figures. Yet population meantime has increased by 60 to 70 millions. Substantial imports of grain are still required to provide a minimum diet for many.

A U.S. State Department official says China's industry today is operating well below the 1960 peak, after severe cutbacks in the intervening years.

The overreaching efforts of the ill-fated Great Leap Forward produced the fiasco of the early 1960s. Officials here indicate that Peking now is planning more modestly and sensibly, and slowly sorting out the chaos which followed the Great Leap.

Nevertheless, many large industrial plants are working far below capacity, and hoards of smaller ones are either shut skimping along or are shut down.

Iled China never has recovered from the mass exodus of Russian technicians in 1960 when the Sino-Soviet ideological split first developed seriously. It does not have the trained technical manpower even to make the necessary adjustments involved in heavy retrenchment, let alone cope with a growing industry.

Edwin P. Jones, a U.S. economist familiar with Chinese affairs, writes in a publication called "Problems of Communism."

"China's prospects for relieving this situation quickly do not seem bright. . . . It no longer hopes for rapid economic growth, but rather seeks to achieve stability while trying gradually to create the conditions necessary for renewed expansion and modernization."

Jones notes that Red China's economic problems are made more troublesome by the uncertainties of the "inevitably approaching succession."

Most of the present Communist Chinese leaders are in their 60's and must soon give way to younger men. The internal jockeying for positions among prospective successors

Letters

Editor, Herald:

Last the readers of the Sanford Herald believe by review of the letters in the editorial column that all of the "real Democrats" in this area are defecting to the Goldwater crusade to return to the 18th century, let me assure you that that is not the case.

I read with amusement George Bobrow's statement in which he declares that "we real Democrats" want to elect Barry Goldwater. This gentleman is joining a small but vociferous number of candidates defeated in the recent Democratic primaries, whom I assume are looking to future elections in which they will be able to claim that "I read with amusement George Bobrow's statement in which he declares that "we real Democrats" want to elect Barry Goldwater. is undoubtedly causing great ferment in top ruling circles.

A tutular cliche asserts that totalitarian societies now and then seek foreign adventures to distract their depressed peoples from the stresses and strains of life at home.

In the view of at least one American official, it is unlikely that such considerations alone would drive Peking to mix more heavily now in the Vietnamese conflict.

As he sees it, distraction from economic distress was more necessary two years ago than it is today. Furthermore, he believes such an effect could be achieved more easily and more safely by huffing and puffing against the Chinese nationalists on Formosa—or some other standard target.

The Communist assaults on our destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin are seen in high quarters here as altogether too fool-hardy and risky to have been undertaken for such a purpose as distraction. This assumes, of course, that Peking was exerting maximum influence upon the North Vietnamese to launch the attacks.

If the Chinese did play a key role in spurring the attacks, U.S. government officials are as puzzled about their motives as about any which North Vietnamese leader Ho Chi Minh has had.

In a kind of desperation, authorities in Washington seem inevitably to come back to the notion that the Reds, whether the dominant influence was Hanoi or Peking, were bent on testing us and expected to find us soft.

Mr. Bobrow and other "self-professing Democrats" are, of course, entitled to their opinion on this presidential election. I challenge, however, their right to call themselves Democrats when professing allegiance to a man whose neo-classical philosophies are wholly inconsistent with the very basic precepts of the Democratic party.

Goldwater is not just "out of the mainstream of the Republican party," he is floating a round aimlessly in a quagmire that is flowing in no direction at all but slowly seeping downward into the muck of do-nothing stagnation. Mr. Bobrow and other disappointed Democratic candidates are welcome to join him in the quagmire, but gentlemen please don't profess yourselves to be "real Democrats" as you go down for the third time in the forthcoming election.

Oswald And Hate Campaign

WASHINGTON, D. C. — As a helpful hint to the Warren Commission, Chairman Edwin Willis (D., La.), of the House un-American Activities Committee, has indicated that Lee Harvey Oswald is a product of a well-established "Hate America" campaign by which the Communists have made many other disciples among immature and emotionally-unstrung Americans.

Not included in Chairman Willis's just-published report to Congress, but obtained by interview from one of his staff, is another point that ought to be called to the Warren group's attention. If a Marxist assassin could pick any city in the U. S. for killing a liberal president, it would have to be Dallas, the capital of American conservatism. Suppose that Oswald had escaped detection and capture. How better could he have served the Communist cause than by letting loose in America the wave of "hate" (as, indeed, he did for a few hours) against the millions of innocent conservatives? They are the nation's toughest anti-Communists. As they stand now — and they're increasing — they are roughly represented by Barry Goldwater's 4 to 1 majority in the Republican Party and by his already attacked following in the Southern states and elsewhere.

Luckily Oswald was caught, and unlikely he was killed, but his capture did not prevent the chairman of the Warren Commission from making an untoward remark at President Kennedy's bier. What would the chief justice have said with the murderer at large and unknown? The Oswald case, as Willis puts it in perspective, not only deals with presidential murder. It deals with a murder motivation.

Willis tells of a recent scene on an American college campus where about 350 persons, mostly students, gathered to watch a Communist propaganda film. There was "loud applause," according to the press coverage, when Red Chinese Mao Tse-tung embraced a Viet Cong leader. But when a student rose and shouted, "Let's have a round of applause for the Americans fighting and dying in Viet Nam," only some 15 of the 350 present responded.

How can such things be? The ringleaders of the meeting, or so it appeared, were a cadre from the 250 defiant persons who have visited Cuba since 1961 without valid passports. In Castroland they received the same Communist indoctrination that Oswald received in Moscow and elsewhere. They became part of the assault wave which carries on the "Hate America" teachings and examples in this country and abroad. Many of the visitors to Cuba came home to become Communist instigators in the race demonstrations of 1963-64. As Willis writes:

"The Communists' constant 'Hate America' barrage results in more than 'Yankee Go Home' signs in foreign lands. . . . At home it results in certain of our own citizens defying our laws, stealing our secrets and engaging in other traitorous activities. . . . All Americans, I believe, were shocked to learn that our President had been assassinated by a citizen of the U. S. . . . Perhaps, it would not have happened if (we) had worked harder to disclose the lies and half-truths in domestic Communist propaganda. . . . The 'Hate America' camaign — and Willis comes close to pin-pointing it as a murder motivation — can be countered by tough law enforcement and tough legislation. Of the 250 travelers—sans passports to Castro's Cuba (and 80-odd additional ones are said to be there today), only six have been indicted. The Justice Department seems singularly uninterested. But even indictment for violating the existing regulations carries little threat to the miscreants. There is no useful law against scoffing at passport restrictions. The President, through his secretary of state, can and does declare critical areas abroad to be off-limits, but he does this on his constitutional authority to conduct foreign policy. Willis is asking for a specific tooth-bearing law against passport-scoffers.

We need also a toughened public opinion against indiscreet youths and hardened Reds who go to Communist countries to train in subversion against their country. Some have cynically pleaded "right to travel" as a part of the right to liberty, and some writers have claimed it under "freedom of the press." But a court of appeals panel, sitting in Washington, has spoken wisely in the case of William Worthy, the Negro Newsmen who jumped his passport to travel around the Communist world:

"Liberty itself is a restricted thing. Liberty is a product of order. . . the right to travel, like every other form of liberty, is, in our concept of an ordered society, subject to restrictions. . . ."

What we need, perhaps as much as law enforcement and legislation, is public disapproval of all abuses of the liberty that we all hold dear.

is undoubtedly causing great ferment in top ruling circles.

A tutular cliche asserts that totalitarian societies now and then seek foreign adventures to distract their depressed peoples from the stresses and strains of life at home.

In the view of at least one American official, it is unlikely that such considerations alone would drive Peking to mix more heavily now in the Vietnamese conflict.

By Henry Shapiro
United Press International
MOSCOW (UPI) — Trade with the United States has become, in Russian eyes, the all-telling barometer registering the improving relations between the two countries.

Moscow has indicated repeatedly that relations will not be normal until the United States removes a host of alleged discriminatory practices restricting exchange of goods.

The Russians want not only a substantial increase in the volume of imports and exports but a revision of the American embargo on strategic goods, a liberalization of the licensing system for exports and above all long-term credits.

Restoration of "the most favored nations treatment" which the Russians enjoyed in the pre-war American-Soviet trade agreement, and of which they have been deprived since the Korean War, is essential to the Soviet understanding of normalization of trade relations.

Because of this absorbing Soviet interest in trade no visiting foreign dignitary can obtain the ear of Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev or any other high Soviet leader more easily than businessmen or financiers who can talk "business" with the Russians.

A case in point was a conversation early this month between the Soviet premier and American banker David Rockefeller.

The conversation dealt largely with trade and enable Rockefeller to give the Soviet premier an authoritative explanation of the obstacles to any substantial expansion of trade.

Among them Rockefeller mentioned the failure to achieve a settlement of American claims for the lend-lease supplies delivered during the war totalling approximately $11 billion.

Give us long-term credits and we may be able to settle lend-lease. Khrushchev, in effect, told Rockefeller.

Khrushchev's insistence on long-term credits runs counter to the American position that a lend-lease settlement must be neglected independently of any general trade problems.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: An extremely attractive woman and I have been seeing each other exclusively for the past year. I am in my early 40's and she is in her early 30's. She has recently begun to pressure me for a marriage date...

DEAR ABBY: I have a 14-year-old daughter who rushes outside when she hears someone honk a horn. I tell her it is not right, that if a boy wants to see her, he should come to the door...

DEAR GIVE: You are not old-fashioned. A boy who respects a girl will not 'honk' his horn outside her home. And any girl who runs outside at the sound of a 'honk' is a silly goose.

DEAR ABBY: So many of our friends and relatives have been dying off lately, my husband and I decided to go over our wills. They originally stated that our estates would be divided among our children...

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

If and when the Picture-phone, the new device that lets you see as well as talk to the person on the other end of the phone line becomes standard equipment in most homes, we are going to have to drastically change our telephone manners.

First of all, women will need a mirror and a make-up bar inside the phone so that they can check their hair and lipstick before saying 'Hello.'

Then, we'll all have to remember to look animated and interested while we listen to the long-winded telephone caller who gives us little chance to say anything. As it is now, we can look as bored as we feel, or spend the time while someone else does all the talking, putting on nail polish, writing a grocery list, or glancing through the day's mail.

And we'll certainly have to learn to stall before calling another member of the family to the phone — while a teenager takes the curiers out of her hair before facing a boy who is momentarily important in her scheme of things, or while a member of the family just out of the shower gets on something more presentable than a king-size bath towel.

Come to think of it, the Picturephone, if it ever becomes standard equipment, is going to be just one more invasion of privacy — for, in a way every Picturephone call will be somewhat in the nature of a drop-in caller. And who wants to be caught looking his worst?

Too Late To Classify

By Russell Kay

DARE promises to play an important part in Florida's future. It is a revolutionary program set up about a year ago by the University of Florida.

DARE are the initials for the agency, "Developing Agricultural Resources Effectively," which is maintaining a careful and comprehensive survey of this state's agricultural resources as an action program aimed at realizing our full potential of agricultural development during the next decade.

The program is under the supervision of Dr. E. T. York Jr., Provost for Agriculture at the University. Dr. York says it was born of a belief that "the future belongs to those who plan for it."

York points out that every facet of agriculture is changing very rapidly. We have the alternative of trying to recognize, anticipate, plan for, and adjust to this change, and in many cases take advantage of it, or failing to do this, we suffer the prospect of being run over and perhaps trampled under the rush of such changes.

We must also recognize the fact that agriculture is becoming more and more competitive today than ever before. Florida agriculture, primarily thought of in terms of citrus and vegetables, goes far beyond these products. It includes forestry, fish products, feed and fertilizer, seeds, pesticides, agricultural chemicals and the like.

All these avenues must be taken into consideration in obtaining the overall picture. Agricultural resources of Florida are many and varied and it is imperative that we survey the whole field and acquaint ourselves with the potential of all of these facets in our future planning.

DARE is an ambitious program for it is attempting to survey the whole wide and varied field of Florida's agricultural resources and anticipate future action that will best protect them all and safeguard our agricultural future.

Will our present extensive planting of citrus fit in the puzzle picture and show a profit or a loss? Is our cattle production going to be able to compete with the ever changing picture and can we meet competition from offshore areas?

Indications are that we will double the amount of money going into the pockets of Florida farmers as we increase our production and dump one and one half million dollars into their pockets each year.

DARE sees a steady population increase for the state with an increase of 66 per cent between now and 1975 or an increase of from 4,000,000 in 1960 to 8,300,000 in 1975.

It is gratifying to know that DARE is alert to changing conditions in agriculture and is preparing to offer an intelligent and constructive program to protect Florida's future agricultural development.

Baptist Youths Have Meeting

Young People of the First Baptist Church of Seminole Springs met recently at the home of Mrs. L. E. Tew in Altamonte Springs for one of many fellowship gatherings held by the group during the summer.

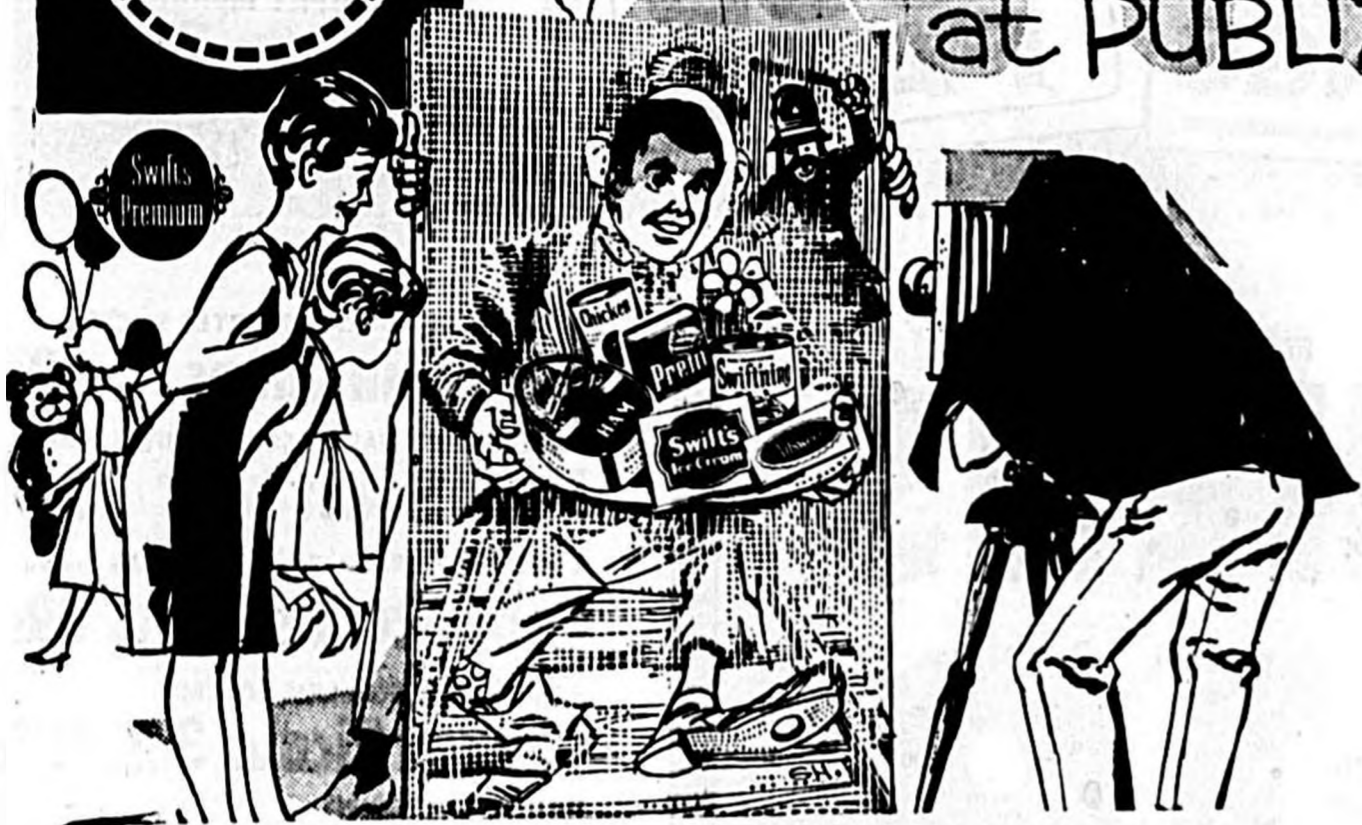

Among special guests present for the occasion were John Rayercraft, a summer student at Stetson University and David Haines who presently is stationed at Ft. Gordon, Ga.

Rev. I. D. Haines, pastor, reports that the new church building is nearing completion and first services will be held there on Sunday, Aug. 30. The church is located on SR 431, one-half mile west of Seminole Springs. Invitation to attend is extended the public.

Ohio was the first state to pass a law requiring use of eye safety equipment in school shops, laboratories and vocational arts classes.

Traffic Deaths In Florida Hit All-Time High

Traffic deaths in Florida hit an all time high last year and are well on the way to setting an even higher toll this year, Sgt. Vince Smallwood, Florida Highway Patrol Safety Officer, told members of the Rotary Club Monday.

More than 900 persons have already been killed this year. The total last year was 1,489 deaths, with more than 75,000 accident victims requiring hospitalization, Sgt. Smallwood said.

He described the unpleasant job of the officer who has to go to someone's home and tell them that their husband, wife, child or other relative has been killed in a traffic accident.

"I wrack my mind all the way to the house trying to think of some way to soften what I have to tell them, but there is just no way to avoid the terrible facts," Sgt. Smallwood said.

Smallwood described the new Florida traffic laws which were passed by the last Legislature, and discussed the reasons for them.

He told how the air-to-ground arrest is made, when officers in the Highway Patrol plane clock automobiles on measured quarter miles, marked by white lines on the highways. He said that the Patrol has checked their clocking devices with the Daytona speedway clocking devices and found them accurate.

Smallwood pointed out some major traffic law changes. It is unlawful to drive on the left hand side of a multi-laned highway, except when passing or preparing to make a left turn, or when turning onto the highway from the left.

Motorists must dim their headlights when approaching another car from behind, as well as when approaching from the front, including on double-laned highways.

If you permit someone to operate a vehicle belonging to you in faulty condition, or in violation of traffic laws, you may be liable to arrest with the driver, if he is involved in an accident.

It is against the law to ride on the bumper, fender, radiator, hood, top, trunk or running board of a vehicle. It is also against the law to tow anyone on or with a single-seated bicycle, or to ride bikes more than two abreast or on the left hand side of the road.

If you park your car on the side of the street and open your door in such a way as to impede traffic and cause motorists to have to veer around you, you are liable to arrest.

Drivers involved in accidents amounting to property damage of $50 or more, or where anyone is injured or killed now have five days to file their written report to the Highway Department, instead of the former 24 hours.

When Caml Bruce was making her plea before the County Commission Tuesday for more funds in the Voter Registration Office budget for the operation of the department, it was obvious that the Commissioners had already given serious consideration to every phase of Caml's previous requests.

But she stayed right in there despite the statements of Chairman Avery and other members of the Commission. In fact, at one point she declared: "I'm going down fighting!" She did.

Two city employees found a "whatzit" while working near the treatment plant the other morning. "It" is about two inches long in the body, has arms and fingers like a human, has legs with the same similarity and, according to the finders, is "fleshy-feeling" to the touch. Finding it were Lester Padgett and Tom Hagler. They placed "it" in a small jar and brought it to a baffled Herald newsroom seeking identification.

Did you know the most common language in the Philippines is English? That's the word from John G. Kormann, foreign service officer of the U.S. Embassy in that country. He says the second language is Spanish but this is almost always limited to the aristocrats. Among other interesting points made by the speaker at a Lake Monroe Inn meeting of the local Lions Club is that the per capita income of Filipinos is $109 annually. Not high, but it compares quite well with the $50 annually for Burmese and Indians.

Motorists who drive like lightning may crash like thunder.

It's a baby girl for Mrs. George McGowan. Born Monday at Seminole Memorial Hospital, the baby set a record for size, officials say. The tot weighed in at nine pounds and measured 20 1/2 inches in length.

A topic up for discussion on Channel 6, WDBO television, this Saturday at 7 p.m. has the endorsement of Dr. Frank Leone, director of the Seminole County Health Department. The subject to be discussed on the "Central Florida Showcase" program is "Venereal Diseases in Central Florida." The speaker will be a Dr. Swartz, director of education and information of Public Health Services from the Communicable Disease Center in Atlanta.

"Mullet so thick they look like you could walk on 'em." That's the report of at least one observer along the Lake Monroe bulkhead off Highway 17-92. And apparently fishermen feel the same way. Take a look at the cars parked along the lakefront almost any late afternoon.

Beautification of downtown establishments continues. Word now has it that the Pure Oil Company has plans for renovating the service station at Park Avenue and Commercial.

Another reminder to those interested in forming a local Humane Society: Drop in at Rose and Wilks Restaurant Saturday morning at 10. State leaders of the Florida Federation of Humane Societies will be on hand to plot the course local interests should take in getting the project out of the idea stage and into the reality stage.

LBJ Signs Anti-Poverty Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson cemented a major legislative victory today by signing into law a $947.5 million "war on poverty" bill which he said will stimulate a "new era of progress" for those who have not shared in America's prosperity. "The days of the dole in this country are numbered," the President declared before using more than 50 pen to place his signature on the measure at a ceremony in the White House Rose Garden.

In an obvious reply to Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater's charge that the poverty program is just an election year gimmick to win votes, Johnson asserted: "This is not a cynical proposal to exploit the poor with the promise of a handout or a dole."

Instead he said the program aims at getting unemployed youth "off the streets" and into job training, so they can look forward to a "productive life, not a wasted life." "Every dollar spent will result in savings to the country and especially to local taxpayers in the cost of crime, welfare, health and police protection," Johnson said.

The signing was witnessed by a large number of House and Senate members, mostly Democrats; cabinet members, including Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy; governors and mayors, including Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York; business and labor leaders; and Sargent Shriver, whom Johnson will nominate to head the program.
