

53 Hurt As Trains Crash

MACON, Ga. (UPI) — A fleet Central of Georgia passenger train skidded into a 35-car freight train just 200 feet from a passing track Monday night, injuring 53 persons, one seriously.

The scene of the accident was a small switch station at Griswoldville, 10 miles east of here, a virtual ghost town since the Civil War.

All but 22 of the injured were treated at Macon General Hospital and released early today. In serious condition with undetermined injuries was George B. Wheeler, 66, of Savannah, Ga., engineer of the passenger train "Nancy Hanks."

Albert Kelly Sr. of Macon, a crewman aboard the freight, said his train was skidding toward the passing track and a flagman had been sent ahead to warn the approaching passenger train.

He said warning "torpedoes," which resemble firecrackers and which a train passes over them, had been placed along the tracks to warn the crack Atlanta-Savannah passenger train of the freight's presence.

Congress Assured Of SAC Power

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gen. Thomas S. Power Monday reassured Congress on present Strategic Air Command power, but suggested that Russia may be speeding development of orbiting space weapons.

Chairman John C. Stennis, (D-Miss.), reported on Power's testimony after a closed hearing of the Senate preparedness subcommittee. Stennis said the testimony about U. S. striking power was "quite reassuring."

But he said Power's testimony "pointedly alerted us to the need for continuing our effort toward maintaining a 'second-to-none' military force utilizing both manned and unmanned weapons systems."

"Gen. Power clearly stated the problems of the present and the future regarding the Strategic Air Command, one problem being the possibility that the Russian might be accelerating their ability to orbit a satellite which could be used as a launching pad to launch earth-destroying weapons," Stennis said.

JERRY G. KNUTSON of Heavy Attack Squadron Eleven was promoted recently to the rank of Lieutenant aboard the USS Franklin D. Roosevelt (CVA-42) which is presently deployed in the Mediterranean Sea with the Sixth Fleet.

New Madison Square Garden Set

NEW YORK (UPI) — A new Madison Square Garden will be built on top of the city's huge Pennsylvania Railroad Station in a $100 million project, it was revealed Monday night.

A 750-room hotel and an office building also were included in the project confirmed by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The new Garden and other buildings, which will include convention halls and a restaurant, were scheduled to be completed by the time the World's Fair opens in 1964. The Garden would seat 25,000 persons and probably include an area to park 3,000 cars.

Kelly said the train skidded into the freight at about 35 miles an hour. Railroad officials placed the official blame for the collision on a "communications breakdown" involving switching arrangements.

None of the passenger train's nine cars was derailed and only four freight cars left the tracks.

Library Board Schedules Tea

By MRS. ADAM MULLER

Executive Board members of the DeBary Library Assn., meeting last Thursday at the Community Center, planned a Silver Tea.

Mrs. Charles Bertach as chairman and Mrs. Marge Ulrich, co-chairman.

Mrs. J. V. Richards reports that The Children's Story Hour, now being conducted at the Library, has become very popular with the young people.

Heads for Thursday's session will be Mrs. G. Kessenich, Mrs. Laura Arrington and Mrs. E. Walzko. Others who volunteer regularly for this service are Mrs. Chester Rebeck, Mrs. F.H. Ring and Mrs. J. V. Richards.

Eleven Perish In 3 Accidents

By United Press International

Eleven men, women and children died in three automobile collisions Monday.

Two girls were driving a convertible in scenic west-central Wisconsin. Their car crashed head-on into a semi-trailer truck. The two girls and two men in the truck were killed.

A Wyoming couple with two relatives and a friend were driving on the Lincoln Highway in western Nebraska returning home from a family funeral. Their car was struck from the rear by another car and then a cement truck crashed into the wreckage. All but one of the five persons in the Wyoming car were killed. Nine persons were hurt, one critically.

Three more persons were killed in a Nevada accident.

Business Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Boggs, whose home is on Naranja Rd. in DeBary, will open the DeBary Restaurant on Hwy 17-92 this week.

They have operated restaurants in Sarasota and in Veedsburg, Ind., where Mr. Boggs was a bridge engineer with the Indiana State Road Dept.

Home style cooking will be the specialty in the new restaurant with Mrs. Boggs featuring her own homemade pastries.

New Austerity Set In Britain

LONDON (UPI) — British taxpayers get the bill today for the best years of their lives—the last decade of "Tory prosperity."

Chancellor of the Exchequer Selwyn Lloyd was expected to announce new austerity measures to cure what he called the "very, very severe" economic ills that have plagued Britain during the most prosperous years in her history.

Politicians, economists and Britons down to the man in the local pub almost unanimously predicted the chancellor would call for greatly increased taxes, higher bank interest rates, reduced government spending and possibly orders to keep wages and profits down.

In the decade since Sir Winston Churchill led the Conservative party back into parliamentary power, Britons enjoyed an unprecedented fattening of the average man's wallet.

Art Demonstration Set In DeBary

Eugene White, artist in residence at the DeBary Mansion House Florida Federation of Art Headquarters, has scheduled another demonstration for Wednesday at 1:30 p. m.

His first demonstration at the Mansion House was held July 12 when he painted a landscape and small water color.

The instructional sessions are open to all persons interested in creative art.

Cambodia Road Defects To Be Investigated

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Frank Clark (D-Pa.) was en route to Cambodia today to see the defects in the Cambodian-American friendship highway which he said were "improperly and unfairly" blamed on one of his constituents.

The highway, built two years ago as America's No. 1 foreign aid contribution to the Southeast Asian country, is falling apart.

Clark, who is traveling at taxpayers' expense, said in a statement announcing his departure that he planned to return later this week and make a report. He is making the trip as a member of the House public works subcommittee on roads.

His constituent is the Michael Baker Engineering Co., of Rochester, Pa., which performed the work on the highway.

A representative of the company was reported accompanying him.

Congressional investigators led by Rep. Porter W. Hardy Jr. (D-Va.) have been inquiring into charges that poor construction and engineering by the Baker firm and the contractor, A. L. Dougherty & Co., of Hammond, Ind., caused the trouble. The road originally was designed to cost $15 million but more than $30 million has been spent on it.

As Clark left for Cambodia, it was learned that the International Cooperation Administration (ICA) has been holding talks with the Justice Department to see whether legal action could be taken.

ICA Director Henry R. Labouisse said in testimony released by the House Foreign Affairs Committee that the building of the road was a "very strong page" in the history of the foreign aid program.

"I just cannot believe that something wasn't pretty understood," Labouisse said. "A road would not deteriorate this way. I think there may have been some negligence also on the part of ICA..."

Investigators say sections of the road have as many cracks as a sun-baked mud flat and are crumbling fast.

The administration has asked Congress for $2.7 million to repair the road, and President Kennedy personally has ordered the ICA to give the project top priority.

Don't Count Pesky Orioles Out Of AL Flag Race

United Press International
Leave it to those pesky young Baltimore Orioles pitchers to stall the New York Yankees' pennant drive and the Mario-Mantle home run challenge in the bargain.

The Orioles are 8½ games off the pace, but they've now won seven of their last eight games. Their pitchers have started throwing like a lot of people once left they could, and they're cocky enough to think they still can make a run at the Yankees and Detroit Tigers.

And after the past weekend, manager Ralph Houk and his Yankees realize they were "given the lead."

Steve Rector, left, and Paul Swisher, right, were brilliant starters in a pair of brilliant starts. Rector pitched a superb relief job Sunday as the Orioles swept a doubleheader from the Yankees, 4-0 and 3-1.

This gave the Orioles three out of four weekend victories in Yankee Stadium, where they won only one game all last season. And Mantle and the hobbled Mario did not hit a single homer off Baltimore pitching.

The second-place Tigers insisted on an opportunity to benefit much from the Yankees' double setback. The Tigers lost their third straight to the Minnesota Twins and cut New York's league lead to 1½ games.

In other American League action, the Los Angeles Angels gained a home-happy 8-0 win from the Cleveland Indians; the Washington Senators blanked the Kansas City Athletics, 4-0, and the Boston Red Sox split a doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox, winning the nightcap, 8-4, in 10 innings after being the opener, 4-3.

The Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-3, to extend their winning streak to eight games and take a half-game lead in the National League race. The runner-up Cincinnati Reds split with the Chicago Cubs, winning the second game, 5-4, after Chicago had won the opener, 3-2. The San Francisco Giants defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-2, and the Milwaukee Braves split a twin bill with the St. Louis Cardinals. St. Louis won the opener, 5-3, and then Warren Spahn won the 20th game of his career as the Braves won, 3-2, in 10 innings.

Barber scattered seven singles and Hank Folles drove in three runs with a pair of homers in Baltimore's first - game win over New York. The shutout was Barber's fifth of the year for a club record.

In the nightcap, Pappas pitched a five-hitter but ran into trouble when he loaded the bases with one out in the ninth. Hall was summoned from the bullpen and nailed Clete Boyer on a disputed third strike and then induced Hector Lopez to ground into a game-ending double play.

The Orioles had pushed across the winning run in the top of the ninth when Jackie Brandt drew a walk and Dick Williams doubled off Bud Daley, who had come on in relief.

Lefty Jack Kralick of Minnesota pitched an eight-hitter and received home run support from Bob Allison and Ted Lepcio as he beat Detroit for his 10th victory. Frank Lary, seeking his 15th triumph, was knocked out in the second inning.

George Thomas and Leon Wagner each hit two home runs in a walk and Dick Williams doubled

Nine homers were hit in the game, two short of the major league record. Ted Bowfield was the beneficiary of five Los Angeles homers, although he was lifted in the seventh inning.

Bennie Daniels of the Senators held Kansas City to six hits and Gene Green hit a Washington homer.

Joe Ginsberg singled home Boston's winning run in the 10th inning of the nightcap. Frank Baum pitched a six-hitter to win the opener for the White Sox.

Don Drysdale gave up only six hits in the Dodgers' victory over the Pirates, although he needed relief from Ron Ferraro in the sixth inning. Tommy Davis' 18th homer broke a 2-2 tie in the third and the Dodgers clinched the game in the sixth when they scored three runs with the help of two Pittsburgh errors and Duke Snider's two-run double.

The eight-game winning streak is the Dodgers' longest in five years.

Ernie Banks' error set up four unearned runs for Cincinnati in the seventh inning and enabled the Reds to pull out the nightcap. Jim Maloney was the winner in relief. Ed Bouchee's two-run homer and Don Cardwell's eight-hit pitching won the opener for the Cubs.

Hank Aaron's 10th-inning single drove in Milwaukee's winning run in the second game and won Spahn only two victories away from his goal of 300. Spahn scattered 10 hits. In the first game, Bill White hit a pair of home runs off Lew Burdette to pull the Cards from behind.

Willie Mays hit his 29th homer and Jack Sanford recovered from a shaky start to pitch an eight-hitter in the Giants' win over the Phils.

OCEANPORT, N. J. (UPI) — Wheatley Stab's Batter Up, ridden by Hedley Woodhouse, won the $100,000 Sorority Stakes at Monmouth Park.

STANTON Del. (UPI) — Hugh Grant's Airman Lindo, a four-year-old filly, won the $150,000 mile-and-a-quarter Delaware Handicap for fillies and mares.

TOKYO Japan (UPI) — Tom Shook and Chet Jasteremski of the University of Indiana won the 200-meter backstroke and meter breaststroke respectively in the Japan swimming championships.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Wise Ship, owned by Milton Ritsenberg, won the $100,000 Man O'War Handicap at Aqueduct race track.

CHICAGO (UPI) — Jerry Barber and Don January each scored a 271 after 72 holes to force the PGA golf championship into a playoff.

QUEBEC CITY (UPI) — Mexico took a 2-1 lead over Canada in the North American Zone Davis Cup tennis eliminations by winning a doubles match.

Richards Juggles American All-Star Lineup

Richards not only loaded the top of his batting order with his heaviest hitters, but also named Jim Bunning, who has had only one day's rest, to start 1961's second All-Star game. Bunning, the skinniest Detroit right-hander with an 11-8 record, usually is particularly effective in Fenway Park and thus won the nod over pitchers with more rest.

Danny Murtaugh, who managed the National League to a 5-4 10-inning victory in the year's first All-Star Game at wind-swept Candlestick Park in San Francisco on July 11, said he would start either Bob Purkey or Art Mahafey, both right-handers.

Purkey, who has won 13 games

Pinecrest Crowns Playground Royalty

The big event of last week's Summer Enrichment Program activities at Pinecrest was the crowning of the playground king and queen, Ralph DeYoung and Colleen Gay.

In the chess tournament, Wade Hancock emerged as the winner and in softball games played during the week, the undefeated girls team took the Grammar School team, 18-6. Janice Ansley pitched her fourth complete game and collected four doubles.

The 11-13 year old boys won a 14-0 game over Ft. Mellon Park in their only game of the week.

Business will dip mildly in the first quarter in 1961, then advance sharply in the second quarter, President Carroll M. Shanks of the Prudential Insurance Co. recently predicted.

TWIN TERROR - - - - - By Alan Mauer

Bolt Threatens Fight In Court

CHICAGO (UPI) — Tumultuous Tommy Bolt said today he will "go to the Supreme Court if necessary" to fight his latest suspension by the Professional Golfers Association.

"They didn't give me a chance to defend myself," Bolt said. "They have no right to deprive me of making a living."

Bolt, who twice withdrew and once restarted in the PGA tournament, was slapped with an indefinite suspension Sunday for alleged use of "abusive and profane language."

The stormy session took place in the clubhouse and Bolt's suspension followed shortly after a club member reported the incident to acting PGA supervisor Joe Black.

Black said Bolt's suspension would eliminate him from upcoming PGA-sponsored tournaments at Baltimore, Md., Hartford, Conn., and Washington, D. C.

Bolt protested the suspension bitterly.

U.S. Track Stars Head Home After European Sweep

WARSAW, Poland (UPI) — A United States men's track and field team, despite the absence of nine key stars, headed home today with a clean sweep of four European meets.

The Yanks made Poland their fourth victim in a weekend encounter, with Olympians Hayes Jones and Max Truex completing victories at rain-soaked Warsaw Stadium Sunday to star in a final 121-91 triumph.

American women, however, lost their fourth straight when Poland's brawny female stars gained a 57-49 decision.

The U. S. ended Saturday's activities with a 68-49 lead and immediately added points when Jones of Pontiac, Mich., splashed his way to a 14.3 second win in the 110-meter hurdles to open the second day of action.

Truex, covered with mud, outdistanced Poland's Stanislaw Orag by 50 yards in the 10,000-meter run. The U. S. Air Force star led from the start and was clocked in 30 minutes, 08.4 seconds at the finish.

A crowd of about 45,000 braved the downpour and was heartened by Marian Foik's upset victory over Frank Budd of Villanova in the 200 meter race, which the Pole won in 29.8 seconds.

American Legion Paces Keglers

Jet Lanes Keglers league play now has American Legion on top with 28 wins, with the Oviedo team second, Riggs Sunoco close behind the Ables America in fourth place.

The American Legion took the high team singles with a 932 and the team series with a 2633. Tops in individual scores were B. F. Ward's 245 game and Swann's 508 series.

Griffith May Move Up Now

NEW YORK (UPI)—Now that welterweight champion Emile Griffith has warned the middleweights by beating contender Yama Bahama Saturday night, he probably will defend his 147-pound crown on Sept. 30 and then shoot for the 160-pound diadem.

Saturday's victory was his eighth straight.

New Yorker Griffith, who outpointed Bahama, of the British West Indies, at Madison Square Garden in their nationally televised non-title 10-rounder, is tentatively scheduled to give Cuban Benny (Kid) Paret a return shot at the welter title in the Garden Sept. 30.

Griffith weighed 150½ pounds Saturday, well above the 147-pound limit, Bahama, 28, scaled 128.

Foreign Aid Bill Up For Criticism

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A provision giving President Kennedy long-term authority to loan foreign countries up to $3.8 billion during the next five years came under increasing criticism today as the foreign aid bill headed toward Senate debate.

The Senate was expected to take up the controversial measure late today or Tuesday. The House Foreign Affairs Committee planned to stamp final approval on the legislation Tuesday.

While the $4.3 billion foreign aid authorization for this year seemed sure to win both House and Senate approval, there were increasing signs that congressional critics of "back-door" financing would launch tough floor attacks on the long-term borrowing provision.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, (D-Va.), a veteran opponent of all government programs financed by the Treasury without annual congressional approval, already has served notice he will try to get the Senate to adopt an amendment requiring the appropriations committees of both the House and Senate to review the program each year.

Sen. George D. Allen, (R-Vt.), said in a TV program he "might favor a five-year extension of the loan program, but I certainly would expect the executive branch to come back to Congress each year for an appropriation with which to meet their expenses."

Other congressional news: Berlin Crisis: The House was expected today to give unanimous support to President Kennedy's firm stand on Berlin when it meets for a scheduled vote on a resolution authorizing the President to extend the tour of duty of some servicemen now in uniform and to recall to active duty selected reserve units. The Senate, approved the resolution last week.

Medical Care: A spokesman for the Health Insurance Institute told the House Ways & Means Committee that the high cost to taxpayers was a major objection to adding health care benefits for the aged to the Social Security System. The institute said the program would cost about $2.3 billion by 1963 as compared with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare estimate of $1 billion.

Pope To Conduct Funeral Rites For Vatican Official

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope John XXIII will conduct solemn funeral rites Wednesday in St. Peter's Basilica for Domenico Cardinal Tardini, 73, the Vatican's secretary of state, who died Sunday of a heart attack.

The little grey-haired man with steel-rimmed spectacles, who played a key role in the Vatican's foreign policy for the past decade, had been plagued by heart trouble for some time and suffered an attack only three days before his death.

New Cub Scout Pack Holds First Meeting

Cub Scouts and their families of Cub Scout Pack 543, sponsored by the Holy Names Society of the All Souls Church, conducted their first Pack Meeting Thursday at Silver Lake.

Joe May, Chairman of the Planning Committee, opened the meeting by welcoming the Cubs and their parents. Sid Winkler, the Boy Scout Neighborhood Commissioner, presented a brief outline of what the Cub Scout Idea consists of and the responsibilities of each parent to the program.

Cuban Prisoners Head Back To Castro Without Ransom

MIAMI (UPI)—The Cuban prisoners commission and five members of a refugee committee were scheduled to return to Cuba today to assure Premier Fidel Castro they still were hopeful of raising ransom for their jailed comrades.

Four members of the refugee committee have volunteered to take the place of two defectors who refused to honor their pledge to return to Castro's maximum security prison.

Pope John was awakened Sunday morning at the nearby summer papal residence of Castelgandolfo and advised of Tardini's illness. He said Mass for the cardinal and rushed back to the Vatican but arrived too late.

The pontiff, obviously affected by the death of his "closest and strongest aide," said: "What a friend was this man! How much he worked and how much this man did for his job!"

The student's problems began Saturday when he arrived with nine other "freedom riders" by bus from Nashville. Police took him to the police station, but refused to jail him.

Also left sitting at the bus station Saturday was Norma Wagner, 44, of Rochester, N. Y., who is blind. She hitched a ride to the police station and demanded to be jailed, but officers refused. She flew back to Nashville later in the day.

The officers also planned to ignore a third rider in Saturday's group, Hilmer Pabel, 50, of Munich, Germany, a reporter for the German magazine Quick.

But Pabel pleaded to be arrested and officers obliged.

Last year, Tardini was stricken with a heart attack and remained in his Vatican apartments without visitors for almost a month. Earlier this year he told a news conference he wished to retire because of his heart ailment.

"No one is irreplaceable," Tardini said at the time.

But the Pope asked him to stay on.

The pontiff was expected to fill the secretary of state's position soon. Observers said the job was far too important to leave vacant at this time of worldwide political crisis.

The group said it has collected more than $100,000 so far. The prisoner envoys declined to speculate on what reaction Castro might have to the defection of Pico and Collazo.

All 10 of the envoys, when they left Cuba, promised to return after the negotiations in the United States.
