Woman's Club Urging Them to Get Ready FOR THE BALLOT

CONDITION AND NOT A THEORY THAT CONFRONTS THEM TODAY

On Monday afternoon, Mrs. W. L. Morgan, president of the Woman's Club of Sanford, called the executive board together for the purpose of formulating some plans whereby every woman in Sanford and Seminole county could be reached with the message that it is most important that she should register and vote in the coming election.

ENGINEER NICHOLSON FELL FROM TRAIN NEAR GAINESVILLE

Gainesville, Sept. 21.—A passenger on the rear platform of A. C. L. train No. 9, due in Gainesville at 8:13 p. m., last night saw the body of a man lying in the bushes beside the track near Mandeville and immediately pulled the bell cord for the train to stop, but received no response. The train rattled on, and the passenger wondering if there could have been foul play, pulled the cord again frantically until the fireman's attention was attracted and looking up he was horrified to see the engineer missing. He stopped the train and backed up to where the body lay in the bushes, and upon examination it was found to be Engineer L. P. Nicholson himself, who with the exception of a broken leg, escaped without a scratch. He explained after his rescue that while leaning out to inspect the drive wheels something gave way, letting him fall from the last moving locomotive. Upon meeting train No. 40 he was transferred and carried to a hospital in Jacksonville for medical attention.

GAINESVILLE IS NOT PLEASED WITH CENSUS RETURNS: WILL TAKE ANOTHER CENSUS SOON

The Atlantic Coast Line is the official route for the Sons of Veterans and its official ladies. The railroads have announced a rate of one cent per mile each way.

The Atlantic Coast Line will take us via Montgomery, Ala., where a stop of three hours will be made so we will have an opportunity of seeing the first "White House" of the Confederacy. From there we go to New Orleans then on to Houston. Tickets will be sold October 2, 3 and 4 limited to October 21. See that your tickets are routed A. C. We notice with interest the change of business management of the Sanford, Florida, Herald. Mr. N. J.illard, former editor and owner of The Onlooker, together with Messrs. Noel and Treadwell have purchased stock in the plant from Mr. Haynes and Mr. Kinnahan, former stockholders.

The Sanford Herald is one of the best weekly papers that we have seen in a long time. It contains sixteen pages and we feel sure that under present management it will progress even more in the future than it has in the past.

Good luck to you boys!—Onlooker Foley, Ala.

BIG INCREASE PRICE FARM IMPLEMENTS

Concerted Action by Manufacturers and Dealers to Increase Prices

Washington, Sept. 6—Declaring prices of farm implements will be increased without warrant through a concerted action of manufacturers and dealers, the federal trade commission, in a report tonight recommends the reopening of the anti-trust proceedings against the International Harvester Co. and the institution of judicial proceedings against implement manufacturers and dealers.

The commission declares its investigation which was ordered by the senate, disclosed that between 1914 and 1918 the prices paid by farmers for implements advanced 73 per cent, with the greater part of the increase coming in 1917 and 1918.

The commission asserts the increase was larger than warranted by increased costs and resulted in unusually large profits.

The commission designated the National Implement and Vehicle Association, the Southern Wagon Manufacturer's Association, and the Carriage Builders' National Association as organizations through which the manufacturers acted to advance prices.

THE BIG STRIKE

Do you know that to every "big strike" there are 99 failures.

Are you hoping to make the "big strike" some day, that your rich aunt, uncle or some unknown relative will die and bequeath you a fortune, or that something somehow will turn up and make you rich quick?

There seems to be an invisible imp always lurking about mankind with a vision of future prosperity and sudden independence beyond the present that never very rarely materializes. Don't let this imp fool you. The stern reality of the present is the best foundation upon which to build your future. Neglect the present and your future is a failure. Protect your future by investing a little money each month. Financial independence comes to those who make careful and wise investments. It is the safest and quickest road to the "big strike."

OSCEOLA (BRIDGEND) NEWS

Mr. Graham and Emil Dablo spent Sunday in Sanford.

Mr. Arthur Smith returned Friday after a week's visit with the home folks.

Mr. J. W. Lolly has accepted the position of mill fore-man and moved there with his family he first of the month.

Miss Emma Shull, who has been staying with Mrs. J. M. Clark for some time, returned to her home in Melbourne Monday, last week.

Our school opened on September 1st and is going strong with a large number of students. In fact it looks now as though we would have to provide more room.

The site was chosen by our general manager, Mr. J. M. Clark. Whether he chose it with the thought in mind that some old Indian relics might be dug up, so that he could add them to his already large collection, or not the fact remains; he chose the best possible location for the building.

Mr. E. L. Hunter, president of our company, has returned from his vacation and is again with us on the job, we are glad to say. Two of the other officers, Mr. J. E. Hoban and Mr. P. J. Feitner, will return the latter part of the week and we will all be glad to have them with us again.

Dr. J. W. Martin has one of the finest offices to be found anywhere. In the same building you can get a shave and have your clothes pressed while you wait, also get your mail. Then if you are hungry, you can step next door and see Mrs. Lindsay, who presides over the "Beanery". So you see we have all of the accommodations afforded in an up-to-date town.

We have to report this week that Bridgend has been taken off the map, but we are all here just the same. The name of our town has been changed to Osceola, a change that is pleasing to all who are acquainted with the history of this particular locality. On the present site of the Osceola Cypress Mills and along the banks of the St. Johns River, there are mounds to be seen which were built by the Osceola Indians; it being said that Chief Osceola was a frequent visitor among these mounds in the old days, before the white man had invented the present day saw mill machinery. Several of these mounds are now being cleared away for the building of a new machine shop, which when finished will be one of the finest in the South.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark entertained a number of friends at a card party Saturday evening. Five Hundred, rook and checkers being played. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening and all enjoyed themselves until a late hour. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Cussins, Mr. and Mrs. McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Olden, Dr. and Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Copton Faith Meyer, Mr. J. E. Hoban, Mack Martin, E. L. Hunter and Mr. Owens.—Melbourne times.

CAPTAIN SMITH DIES IN EIGHTY-SIXTH YEAR

Although Born in North He Followed Confederate Flag as a Commander of Company.

Captain R. E. Smith, in his eighty-sixth year, died Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Reynolds, in this city. The end was not unexpected as Captain Smith had been seriously ill for some time.

The venerable gentleman was born in Pennsylvania in March, 1836, and when quite a young man moved to Florida, where he taught school. When the hours approached which brought the war between the states, Captain Smith volunteered in the service of his adopted country, and for four years commanded Company K, 7th Florida Regiment.

After the war, Captain Smith came to Georgia where he resumed his work as a school teacher, and a few years later he married Miss Anna Clark, the daughter of General Josiah Clark, of Walton county.

Captain Smith's entire life had been spent in the cause of education, and for eight years he was county school superintendent of Greene county. He was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church and his membership at the time of his death was at Sanford, Florida, where he had resided during the past few years with his daughter, Miss Virginia Smith.

The noble veteran had been a conspicuous church worker in this section especially in the Sunday school field. Capt. Smith organized the Sunday school in the West End of this city, as well as several other flourishing schools in this section of the state.

He was a consecrated man and practiced those teachings of reverence and devotion to those causes which he held honored and highest.

Captain Smith's membership in the Presbyterian church was at Union Point at one time, and the Greensboro church once claimed his labors. The funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church here Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, being conducted by Rev. M. C. Liddell, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. E. P. Mickel, of Union Point. The interment took place at Union Point, following the services here.

Captain Smith is survived by three daughters, Mrs. J. M. Reynolds, of Greensboro; Miss Laura Smith, of Atlanta; and Miss Virginia Smith, of Sanford, Florida; one son, Charles Smith, of Asheville, N. C.—Greensboro, Ga., Herald.

Resolution.

Resolutions adopted by the session of First Presbyterian church of Sanford, Florida:

Whereas: Our greatly beloved brother and fellow elder, Captain R. E. Smith, has been called to his everlasting home, resolved, that

1. We bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, who doeth all things well.

2. We testify to the beautiful, exemplary christian character of our brother who, through a long life bore daily evidence of the Power and grace that is gained by constant fellowship with the Master. We delight to recall his daily habit of memorizing some portion of the scripture, and to hold it up to our membership as an example worthy of emulation.

3. That as clerk of our session his faithfulness was ever manifest in his regularity upon such meetings; his scrupulous care in every detail, and his earnest prayers for the upbuilding of the Kingdom.

4. That we extend to his family our deepest sympathy in this time of their grief, and assure them of our prayers.

5. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our record and one sent to the family.

Signed: E. D. Brownlee, H. C. DuBose.

Fuel, metals and house furnishings showed an increase.

NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF THE PEOPLE'S BANK

H. P. Smith, of Atlanta, has arrived in the city and purchased an interest in stock of the People's Bank of this city and has been elected one of the vice presidents, the other being C. M. Hand, of this city. Mr. Smith has been in the banking business for 30 years in Atlanta with the Witham system of banks, and having heard so much about the wonderful prospects of Sanford came and saw and was convinced with the result that he purchased stock in the People's and will become a resident. Mrs. Smith will arrive here tomorrow and as soon as a house can be procured Mr. and Mrs. Smith will go to house keeping until he can find a suitable lot to build a home. Mr. Smith has been over much of the country and said that this city and the surrounding country amazed him in its potentialities and all that he has heard is not half the story. The people of Sanford will be glad to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make this city their future home.

A lightning bolt badly damaged the Baptist church in Bradentown on Friday at 5:30 o'clock, tearing away the tile and doing about $500 worth of damage.

Columbia Wins Series

The series between Tampa (winners Florida State League pennant) and Columbia (winners of the South Atlantic League pennant) for the championship of the south east ended last Saturday in Jacksonville with the Sal-by Lauder's the champs.

After the first three games that were played in Tampa with one victory out of the three for Tampa they moved on to Orlando for the fourth battle with slight odds on Columbia.

The Smokers went into this game with the old fight and their minds made up that it was to be a Tampa day. The crowd that witnessed the game numbered up around two thousand and they were all for Tampa strong.

Rain tried to break up the fun just before time for the game to start, but after about fifteen minutes down-pour it let up and about fifty gallons of gasoline was then burned on the diamond to put it in shape to play.

And the game itself was one of the prettiest exhibitions of baseball ever staged in this league. Spectacular catches and one hand stops were plentiful and for eleven long innings they battled with the score one to one when the ump's decided it was too dark to go any further.

Red Craig did the twirling for the Smokers while Whitney worked for Columbia with "Red" twirling one of the nicest games this year.

In Jacksonville Friday Columbia won four to nothing, with Alvarez working for Tampa and Cheney for Columbia.

Saturday Columbia ended it with a pretty one to nothing game.

The final standing of the series was as follows:

	W	L	Pct
Columbia	4	1	.800
Tampa	1	4	.200

Tied one.

St. Augustine Beats Smokers

After playing with Columbia all the week and winning but one game, Tampa decided to slip over to St. Augustine and add one more game to their short string before disbanding for the winter. They went over, but they didn't add the victory to their string. Instead they added one more defeat, making it one of the seven for the week.

The fans of St. Augustine turned out the strongest since the time the Pirates played their exhibition game and they were wild with joy the way their amateur team handled those chesty Smokers.

Skiny Watts, the once pride of the Celery Feds, was on the mound for the Smokers. Although he gave up but four hits two of these were for two bases each, and both times at a time when they were needed. Cliff Cole held the Smokers to three lone bingles, two of which were of the scratch variety.

Nellie Leach scored the first run for the Smokers in the opening frame of the game. He drew a free pass, stole second, advanced to third on a wild pitch and registered when Vaughn singled through the pitcher's box.

There was no more scoring on the Smokers' part until the eighth, when Filly drew a free pass, taking second while Moran fumbled Vaughn's high fly to right, then advancing to third as Vaughn was nipped trying to go to second. Braek drove a long fly to right field which acted as a sacrifice scoring Filly.

St. Augustine scored their first run and the two necessary to win came across in the fourth.

	The score by innings:
St. Augustine	001 200 000-3 4 5
Tampa	000 000 010-2 2 1

GATORS GETTING READY

Gainesville, Sept. 19.—(Special.)—W. G. Kline, new coach of the Florida foot ball team, has arrived to begin rounding the Gator pigskin warriors into shape to trim the old arch enemies, Georgia and Tulane. Coach Kline is full of enthusiasm and is optimistic about the prospects for the coming season. He has started the ball to rolling by talking over plans with Manager Gunn, Captain Baker and a few of last year's squad.

The schedule was discussed and "deep, dark and dangerous" plots Southern. Actual work will be started on Fleming field Monday afternoon and it is expected that fifty or sixty men will turn out.

Coach Kline comes to Florida from Nebraska, where he had several most successful years coaching Nebraska Wesleyan and the University of Nebraska. He is accompanied by his wife and little son, Billy.—Tampa Tribune.

The last player for him to cflml was Harry Burke, the last player for anyone to say anything against Harry, one of the nicest and cleanest little bal players that ever came into the Florida State League, received from Freeman a bombardment because Harry made one little error. All players make errors and there were very noticeable ones in the same game. Harry played in, but according to friend Gilbert, Harry was to blame.

We don't believe there is any doubt that what Sanford High will have a team but isn't it time he heard something about it?

CELERY SEED EDITED BY CHAS. L. BRITT

Papers all about the state are talking about the foot ball teams that are being organized in the different high schools and colleges.

Sanford has just as good a high school as any in the state. So why not a foot ball team.

The different leagues are all coming to a close fast these days. Little Rock won the pennant in the South east, Columbia in the South Atlantic Baltimore in the International. And it looks like the Dodgers and Indians for the world's series.

"Red" Davis and Gilbert Freeman tied up in a little argument last week and talking about these to sport writers, there is one thing we like about Red that we can't say for Freeman and that is we like the nice things he says about a player and when there is nothing nice to say he just doesn't say. Can't say the same for Freeman though, because all thru the season he kept pounding and bumping some player or other.

Maybe the reason that Tampa did not do any more against Columbia or St. Augustine than she did was because the team was not made up of the men that Mr. Freeman selected. We would suggest that next year Tampa give Mr. Freeman the chance to manage the club.

DROP IN FORD PRICES IS ANNOUNCED Ford says Time Some One Starts Ball Rolling—Will Not Reduce WAGES IN ANY OF HIS PLANTS

Detroit, Sept. 21.—The re-establishing of pre-war prices on all products of the Ford Motor Co. effective immediately was announced today by Henry Ford. The reductions will range from approximately fourteen per cent on motor trucks to 33 per cent on small automobiles.

The announcement said the action was taken despite unfilled orders for a hundred and forty-six thousand vehicles. It is stated there will be no reduction in wages at any of the Ford plants.

"Now is the time to call a halt on war methods, prices, profiteering and greed, the announcement stated.

The announcement of the new prices for Sanford are given in this issue of the Herald by Edward Higgins the local dealer.

All aboard for the Yacht Club. And the Country Club and Golf Links.

And the Auteo Camps and the Tent City.

But then as Russell Conwell said in his lecture here there are acres of diamonds in our door yard and we run over them looking for something brighter that is farther away.

If that big tourist hotel was built and that big apartment house and business block was built this little city of Sanford would have twenty thousand people this winter.

All this town lacks in the making of a big city is houses and stores. There are hundreds of people wanting to locate here but they do not care to sleep in the streets or put a stock of goods in a tent.

'Tis strange that people in Sanford with money to invest do not place it in the Building & Loan Association.

And again 'tis strange that these same people re just dead crazy to place their money in every out of town wild cat oil well and gold mine.

If the Board of Trade cannot obtain a centrally located room for an office we would suggest that they try St. Augustines plan for the winter—pitch a big tent in the center of the city and make that headquarters. It would pay us for the advertising feature alone.

This is clean up time and Mayor Stevens has issued his proclamation to the people to clean up and brush up and get ready for the biggest tourist season Sanford has ever experienced. Get your yards clean and your streets clean and your alleys clean and keep them clean and our town will be a spotless town for the entire season. Nothing like a clean city to attract strangers.

SCHOOL TIME IS HERE

'Tis education forms the common mind. Just as the twig is bent, the tree is inclined. —Alexander Pope.

Education is our only political safety. Outside this ark all is deluge.—Horace Mann.

That there should one man die ignorant who has capacity for knowledge, this I call tragedy.—Thomas Carlyle.

Education is a better safeguard of liberty than a standing army. If we retrench the wages of the schoolmaster, we must raise those of the recruiting sergeant.—Edward Everett.

If we work upon marble it will perish; if we rear temples, they will crumble to dust; but if we work upon immortal minds, if we imbue them with principles, with the just fear of God and love of our fellowmen, we engrave on those tablets something which will brighten to all eternity.—Daniel Webster.

The schools are starting now after the vacation of the summer. Do the parents know the teachers who will have charge of their children this fall and winter? Do they know the condition of the school building and grounds? Are their children physically fit for the tasks before them?

Fathers and mothers need to consider seriously the training of their children, and the children of the community, get in the schools. If they are poorly taught, time is wasted and the usefulness and happiness of the man and woman of tomorrow are diminished to a degree hard to establish. The great hope of the country, the town, the city, the state, the nation, the world, is staked in the welfare of the children.

All over this broad land of ours are men and women who choose not to know, rather than to know, who seem to fear any new fact or to allow any new understanding to get into their head; who avoid improvement and bolster up their ignorance. Those who take this stand are like the justice of the peace who listened to the prosecuting attorney and then refused to hear the defense, saying "I've made up my mind, and if I listen to you, I will get confused and all mixed up again."

The old way is good enough to that class who forget the fact that the new is always coming to the front. You can't make a good deal more out of a child by educating it than by not educating it, just as you can improve a potato by cultivating it. There is no royal way to education. Other things can be taken by main strength or bought with money; but knowledge is had only from study and application.

The world is in a condition of widespread unrest uncertainty and disorder. After all, it is not such much what ails the world as what ails you. If you are right, you can help make the world right. Men to do right must think clearly, judiciously and act sanely not only in directing school matters, but in the affairs of state and the business policies of the government.

You may wonder why the world is poorly governed, why incapable men get power; why iniquitous business practices are continued, and why earnest and honest labor is poorly rewarded. The answer is found in ignorance. So long as we remain ignorant of history, of literature, of the great laws of nature, of the opportunities of the land and water all about us, of a knowledge of the growing things around us—the trees, the plants and the animals, and know their uses—and a knowledge of ourselves with forbearance and charity each for the other, just so long will incompetence rule, home lack comfort and the land lag in giving of its plenty.

Ready made remedies for our ills are freely offered, but can ignorance wisely decide what is for the best. The hope of the world lies in education of the whole people. No form of government can bring prosperity happiness and progress to an ignorant population. Russia is a country of as great natural resources as the United States. It is older, larger and more populous. Why is it not wealthy and powerful? Because it has an ignorant population and whatever has been done in development must stand to the credit of English, French and German investors who were able to see wealth in the mines, the forests and the lands, where the native Russia could see nothing worth while. Mexico is wonderfully rich in minerals, woods and agricultural possibilities. Why is it so backward? It has an ignorant population. It has been said:

"People talk about republics, democracies, empires and what not. We might have the most ideal political constitution in the world and it would not raise us above the mud cabin if the people generally were not eager for education, determined to be behind no other people in respect of scientific knowledge or culture. Wealth, if they desire it, comes out of the mind and imagination. There is no wealth in the world that does not come out of the mind first of all, and without that mind there would have been no property, no wealth, no civilization, and we still would be savages."

All that has ever made for human welfare has come out of the mind. Every forward step and in every problem solved the mind made and held the gain. To properly train the mind of the present is the greatest thing we can do for it. Says Colton.

"He that has no resources of mind is more to be pitied than he who is in want of the necessities for the body, and to be obliged to beg our daily happiness from other people is a more lamentable poverty than that of him who beg this daily bread."—Moses Folsom.

THE OPTIMIST

Webster defines an optimist as: "One who looks on the bright side of things."

That is a good definition, but, somehow, it does not quite seem to express the true meaning of the word.

I was going down the street the other day, and I met a man who from appearances, had seen better days. His coat was ragged, his trousers shiny; his collar was frayed and his shirt torn. There was something in his eye, however, that seemed to indicate that he was not cast down by his troubles. On a sudden impulse I stopped him and asked:

"What is your definition of an optimist?"

The man's eyes twinkled as he replied: "An optimist is a man who can take the lemons which are handed to him by life and make lemonade out of them."

Then he walked away chuckling to himself: I was glad that he gave that definition, for it was a true one. An optimist is a man who can smile when everything goes wrong, because he believes that things will turn out all right in the end.

But a great many people have a wrong idea of what an optimist is. They think he is a man who will never admit that there is any danger, even though the sky may be lowering; that he is a person who always looks on the bright side even if there is no justification for doing so.

Those same people would call an ostrich an optimist. When danger approaches the bird hides its head in the sand and says to itself: "I can see no danger, therefore there isn't any." Such a person is worse than foolish and deserves disaster. You can never prevent danger simply by shutting your eyes and saying that danger does not exist.

The real Optimist is the man who goes through life with a cheerful smile, resolving to think the best possible about his neighbors; the man who, when things are bad, acknowledges that they look black. He admits that the situation is a difficult one; but through it all he believes that with the help of God and his own efforts, everything will come out all right. He doesn't say there isn't any danger, but he meets the danger with a smile.

These are perilous times, times which require a clear head and sound judgment. It is futile for any one to hide his head in the sand, like the ostrich and say everything is going well. That is false optimism. Everything is NOT going well, but things WILL go well, if we meet the difficulties before us with a stout heart and a sincere belief in our ability to cope with them successfully. That is true optimism.

Confront the dangers which beset us on every hand, politically, industrially and internationally, with a calm conception of what they mean. Then bend every energy toward doing your part in solving the problems which the events of the past five years have forced upon us:

The definition of the man in the street was not original with him. He had heard it somewhere. But it was true, and will bear repeating:

"An optimist is a man who can take the lemons which are handed to him by life and make lemonade out of them."—Dearborn Independent.

WHY THE RAISE

A friend, in a jocular mood, asked us to give our reasons for raising the subscription price of the Clipper from $1.50 to $2.00. Here are a few of them.

Four years ago when we raised the price from $1.00 to $1.50 we could buy newsprint at 4 cents a pound. The other day in spite of the fact we have enough on hand to run us for six months more, we bought a future order at 13 cents a pound. We must pay spot cash, store the stock until we need it in order to protect ourselves against another raise in the market that is sure to come before our old stock is exhausted. If we waited until we need more newsprint the chances are we would pay 15 cents or possibly more. If you don't believe the country editor is getting his these days we will sell you the Clipper and let you gather a little H. C. L. Experience of your own.

Four years ago we hired printers for $18 and $20 per week. Today they are "employed" at $42 a week.

Four years ago when we bought our stogies for a nickel, today they cost a dime and the smudge is just as offensive to the sensitive nostril as ever.

Four years ago Lizzie was fed perfectly good gas at 15 cents per. Today the price has gone up and the quality gone down until now we pay 30 cents a gallon (when we can get it) and the aroma is a cross between a disgusted polecat and an overdose of asafetida.

Four years ago we could buy a loaf of bread for a nickel. Today we buy a smaller loaf for 11 cents.

Four years ago Uncle Sam let us keep what we had when the bills were paid. Today he helps himself to part of the balance to help pay for putting the Kaiser in cold storage.

Four years ago we could buy a respectable meal for 35 cents. Today all you get for that sum is a "cheap skate" glare from the waiter. If you want a full meal, leave your jewelry with the cashier as security. Maybe you can redeem it after you get your check and maybe not.

Four years ago we could get our locks trimmed for a quarter. Today they are twice as thin, but the price is twice as much.

Four years ago we paid our state county, school and other taxes as a matter of course. Today is a matter of curse; an operation in which the patient is relieved of everything but his citizenship.

Four years ago we saw the movies for a dime. Today they are a quarter on bargain day.

Four years ago a dollar quite frequently got warm in our pocket. Today it travels on a non-stop schedule. It doesn't linger long enough with us to take water. We are not even a flag station on that dollars route.

Four years ago we bought eggs for two bits a dozen. Last winter we had to send the Clipper over 8 months to buy the result of one day's toil of 12 hens.

Four years ago our plant had a value of $5,000. Today the replacement value would double that amount if we had the money.

Four years ago "drives" were practically unknown. During the last years we have known nothing else.

Four years ago one could accommodate the "morning after" effects for a few dollars. Today you have to let your store bills go for six months learn a secret code and carry a magnifying glass to acquire a suspicious smell on your breath. The water wagon is our favorite vehicle as it cost less to travel that way than any other.

Four years ago we had not been introduced to Europe. From the expense account the last few years we must have married her while delirious.

There are reasons too numerous to mention as we say on the sale bills, and we told our friend so. He said he would wait until the price went up as he didn't have the heart to pay less than $2.50.

NATIONAL PRESS ASSOCIATION

Florida is due for one more opportunity for national publicity that comes to a state but seldom, in the coming convention of the National Press Association in 1921. The meeting is to be held in St. Augustine, and it has been proposed to pick these editors up after their 3-day meeting and show them the state of Florida—or at least as much of the state as possible during the time they have at their disposal. The State Press Association has the matter under advisement, a committee has been appointed to make an itinerary of the trip and the national editors are bound to go back with eyes and ears full of the wonders that are bound to reflect in their writings for a long time after their visit no matter how skeptical they "have been shown."

The commercial and civic bodies of the state are already starting a publicity agitation for funds to defray the expenses of their of the visiting editors and for advance expenses to the proper putting of the wheels in motion for preliminary work of the state committee. This movement is in a cause that all should see the value of and it is expected that none will shirk their legitimate share. It will probably be the cheapest and biggest piece of advertising we will ever have an opportunity to take advantage of—at least for a decade or so to come. It has been 25 years since this state has had the pleasure of entertaining the national association, and think of the immense strides the state has made in that time—and think of the things we have to show at this time—Florida Grower.

In and About The City

Summary of the Floating Small
Talks Succinctly
Arranged for Herald Readers

Mrs. Royce Robinson and children are spending a few weeks with relatives in Kissimmee and Loughman.

Rev. G. B. Waldren was in the city several days of this week the guest of friends. Rev. Waldren is now making his headquarters at Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hart have returned from Savannah, where they were called on account of the sudden death of their sister, Mrs. J. H. Hart.

Mrs. L. C. Brown, of Laurel avenue and Mrs. C. E. Secrest have returned home after two weeks' stay with friends at Norfolk, Va., and Rocky mount, N. C.

H. W. Bennett, of H. W. Bennett & Company, bankers and brokers of No. 35 Wall Street, New York, has purchased 4,322 acres of land in Polk county, which will be rapidly developed into orange groves.

The sweet potato crop in Osceola County is recovering from recent attacks of caterpillars. Many growers are treating citrus trees for foot rot and gummosis, and preparing to spray forthwithly and scale.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ferran of Eustis were in the city Wednesday and Wednesday night the guests of their daughter Mrs. D. L. Thrasher. While here they attended the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Garner.

Mrs. J. W. Opplinger of Savannah is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Biggers and sister, Mrs. Chauncey Wilson. Mrs. Opplinger is recovering from an operation and will be here until she has fully restored to health.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Traer and children were here Tuesday enroute to Orlando to attend the Dairyman's meeting. Mr. Traer is the editor of the Florida Farmer and Stockman, one of the best stock papers in the south and is making good.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Vincent left Tuesday for their home at Quay Florida after spending the summer months at Jacksonville, Tampa and other points. They have been here for the past week the guests of Mrs. Vincent's sister Mrs. R. J. Hooley.

The Yellow Pine Operating Co., of Palatka purchased this week through D. G. McKay 15,000 acres of fine round timber situated in Osceola and Orange counties. The tract was the property of Columbus Downing of Brunswick Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McLaulin have returned from a trip to Cincinnati and Chicago and other points. While in Chicago they spent their time with Henry Jr., who is there studying optometry and also working in a store during his spare moments and is making good.

The present price of cotton and cotton seed in Holmes county is very discouraging to farmers. Many are holding their seed off the market, realizing that it is worth more to them as feed or fertilizer than the price offered. Because of the weak market, farmers are pasturing most of their crop to hogs.

First Regular Meeting D.A.R.

Salle Harrison Chapter Met At Home of Mrs. Whittier.

The first regular meeting of the Salle Harrison Chapter of the D. A. R. was held Friday, September 17th, Constitution Day at the home of Mrs. J. N. Whittier.

The meeting was delightfully informal, with quick dispatch of business and plans.

Mrs. W. E. Watson, Regent, presided with a membership of 12 members present.

Plans were made for a fete on Columbus Day—with committees appointed through Miss Brenda Morrison chairman of War Memorial Fund, Commission. Place and plans to be announced later.

Plans for the years work were discussed, and a splendid program await the chapter members, through the guidance of Mrs. J. N. Whittier, as chairman.

The meeting adjourned to meet Oct. 8th) with Mrs. Chamberlain, hostess at the Welaka apartments.

A social hour was thoroughly enjoyed with vacation echoes, Mrs. Watson led the talk with the following informal chat with the members. The Regent comes to you today sharing your warm sympathy and interest in our chapter's work, hoping she may be able to merit the great honor and confidence you all have so graciously bestowed upon her, too that her work may well reflect the splendid effort and result of our retiring Regent—Mrs. Starling.

It is your sincere wish I know that your year may be one that stands well as a credit to ourselves, state and national society, to obtain this prize we must all link arms and work to the fullest as Mrs. Minor, our Pres. General so well said—"Every Society should have some reason for existence, some use to be served" and as daughters we know and feel well that no society in our land, not even our Red Cross, can outrank the Daughters of the American Revolution as a firmly established government agency and so a permanent factor in the life of this nation which of its very nature must endure long after other societies, the outcome of some sporadic needs shall have vanished. We here to perpetuate the noble qualities, of those who have gone before us, as well as their memories because of them, we are, and shall be—we hope fitting representatives of our ancestors in the world of today—so let us use our chapter not for some local advantage through membership but, let our chapter use us as her local advantage in being worth while to our community in memory of the spirit of 76.

Tracing ancestry is no longer a fad but has assumed the dignity of a family duty—that we may keep alive the old fires of Liberty and elevate throughout the country the spirit of our patriotism and loyalty to America, and true American ideals and putting our ideals into practice we find that,—she, that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much. Let us broaden our human sympathies, in the development of individual pioneers into a larger view of service.

To quote Mrs. Minor "the service of the home is not confined in the four walls of the house. The service of the country is not confined to army posts or battlefields, even in wartime, the service of God cannot be bounded by the four walls of the church—but lies out in the open in our every day lives, these are the deeper meanings of our society, which should inspire every Daughter of the American Revolution. These are the ideals of each of us, and will not only use our effort, but, our very best effort to bring those womanly ideals into full power. These daughters are the echoes of your Regent. Best of all the pleasure and honor has been given me, to present to our beloved organizing Regent, Mrs. Starling, a token of our appreciation of her faithful work and untiring effort and splendid loyalty—Mrs. Starling as retiring Regent, and mother of our chapter of the Salle Harrison chapter of the D. A. R. do give you this pin, with our love, as your daughters graciously thanking you for having launched our ship of state in the great body of American womanhood the national society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Charlotte K. Watson Regent Sept. 17th, 1920.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

One of the prettiest social affairs that people in this city have ever enjoyed was the reception on Wednesday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Oliver Garner at their home on Palmetto avenue to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their marriage.

The handsome home was made very beautiful with elaborate decorations from the front porch throughout the house. A string of vari-colored electric lights and Japanese lanterns encircled the porch and the bannisters and columns were twined with graceful vines. In an alcove on the porch from a prettily decorated table two charming young ladies, Miss Florence Henry and Miss Teague, served refreshing punch during the entire evening.

As the guests arrived they were met at the door by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher and Mrs. R. T. Thrasher who presented them to the receiving party, standing in the drawing room. Receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Oliver Garner Mrs. R. Columbus Keen, Mrs. Garner's mother and little Miss Marguerite Garner, who is Mr. and Mrs. Garner's winsome little daughter.

Mrs. Garner was lovely wearing a handsome evening gown of white crepe de chine and georgette, with trimmings of hand embroidery and beads, carrying an arm bouquet of bride's roses. Mr. Garner wore the conventional black with a boutonniere of white roses. Mrs. Keen was charming in a most becoming gown of grey georgette and her flowers were lavender asters. Little Miss Garner was very dainty in white organdie and she carried white asters. Mrs. R. T. Thrasher was a most becoming pink crepe de chine.

The reception hall and drawing room were exceedingly lovely in decorations of green and white. Potted plants and white roses were everywhere in evidence while Southern smilax entwined the balustrade and hung in graceful festoons from ceilings and doorways. The first suggestion of a tin wedding in the decorations was a large tin wedding bell, suspended from the ceiling in the reception hall around which clustered delicate ferns and flowers.

The library and dining room decorations carried out a color scheme in pink and green. The dining table was most artistically arranged, centered with a miniature lake around which kewpies were fishing. Over the center of the table was a canopy of silver paper and fern leaves around which were many small tin wedding bells, which you could imagine were ringing right merrily to do honor to the happy occasion. Asparagus ferns and pink roses further ornamented the pretty room. The library was a place of great interest as the anniversary wedding presents were displayed on tables in this room. There were many handsome and useful gifts all of which were very appropriate to the occasion.

One corner of the library was cut off with banks of palms and ferns and back of this an orchestra rendered some choice music during the evening. Miss Mabel Bowler sang two lovely selections in her usual pleasing voice and was accompanied by Dr. H. H. McCaslin. When the guests were invited into the dining room delicious refreshments were served, consisting of chicken salad, nut sandwiches, celery hearts stuffed with cheese dressing, olives and candy.

The host and hostess were assisted in caring for their guests by Mrs. Stella Arrington and Mrs. E. A. Douglass. Those serving were Mrs. A. R. Key, Mrs. R. W. Grovestein, Mrs. H. H. McCaslin, Mrs. Robert Herndon Mrs. Charles W. Hill, Mrs. Claude P. Herndon and Mrs. W. M. Haynes. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ferran, of Eustis, and Mrs. Charles W. Hill, of Jacksonville.

A large number of friends called during the evening to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Garner on having reached their tenth wedding anniversary and to wish for them many happy returns of the same day. The friends of this popular young couple were pleased to have the privilege of helping them celebrate their tin wedding.

WEATHER AND CROP CONDITIONS IN FLORIDA

The temperature averaged from 2 greens above in the west. There was a high percentage of sunshine except in the south.

The week was generally dry, although several stations received locally heavy rains—confined mostly to the central portion of the peninsula. The rainfall deficiency of the week at regular stations of the Bureau ranged from about one-half inch at Pensacola to 1.89 inches at Jacksonville. There was no rain in many localities of the State.

The week was generally favorable for the opening and picking of cotton the high percentage of sunshine and warm days and dry weather stimulating the opening of cotton. Picking made good progress but the crop is generally very short; there will be no top crop of moment. Showers in the central and southern divisions were very helpful to seed beds recently planted truck, cane, sweet potatoes and citrus fruits. Locally there was some delay in cutting hay, but haying and the harvesting of corn and peanuts made good progress generally. Much general work is being done preparing for extensive winter crops. Grape fruit is maturing rapidly, and some shipments will be made within a few weeks.

REGISTER NOW IS THE SLOGAN

REGISTRATION OFFICER IS NOW BUSY TAKING NAMES OF SANFORD WOMEN

Sanford's fairest are marching right up to the office of Superintendent of Registration H. C. DuBose having their names registered on the book that will be at the polls on election day. In fact they are marching up so fast that Mr. DuBose has called to his assistance W. M. Haynes, who will be in the office a few days in order that all may be accommodated without unnecessary waiting.

While there has been a fairly good registration of the ladies of Sanford up to date, the number who have registered is only a small per cent of those eligible to register, and it is expected that before the books are closed seventy five per cent of the eligible will have registered. It is hoped that they will make every effort to register early while there is plenty of time and not wait until just before the books close as a rush on the last day might cause some to be disappointed. The books must be closed promptly, according to law and after the closing of the registration books no one can be allowed to register.

The registration in precincts 1 and 3, which comprise Sanford and the surrounding territory up to Wednesday night is as follows:

- White men, 54
- White women, 123
- Colored men, 100
- Colored women, 66
- Total, 343
- Total men, 154
- Total women 189

A surprising fact is that there are almost two to one more colored men registering than white men, while the percentage of white women registering in these two precincts is almost two to one in favor of white women. It is understood that the registration in the outlying precincts is in about the same ratio as in the Sanford section.

In order to facilitate early registration the office of the Superintendent of Registration will be open Saturday evening in order to allow those to register who cannot come during the day.

Under the present law women are not liable for the payment of poll tax before voting as is the case with men. The only requirement is that they appear in person and subscribe to the oath of allegiance, and that they have lived in the state twelve months and the county six months, of the state to vote, give their name that they are eligible under the law, age and occupation.

GAME AND FISH PROTECTIVE BODY ORGANIZED FOR LAKE

Lake county has recently organized a game and fish protective association and plans are being made to conserve the excellent hunting and pleasure fishing of that county.

The organization was suggested by Mr. Altman, of Eustis who had learned that a party of hunters from South Florida had recently killed 8 deer, and that other parties had ruthlessly slaughtered deer and quail all summer long. Also game hogs last season took as many as 500 quail in a week.

Three hundred members are expected to take the obligation to uphold the game laws and to collect evidence against game hogs and violators of out-of-season shooting.

GRAPEFRUIT CROP SHORT THIS SEASON

COMING SEASON'S CROP OF CITRUS IS SHORT

That the coming season's crop of citrus fruits in the state will be somewhat less than last year's yield is the opinion of C. E. Stewart Jr., business manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange, as expressed in an authorized interview sent direct to this paper. Mr. Stewart says reports reaching the Tampa offices of the Exchange from the various citrus sections of the state indicate the orange crop now showing on the trees to be somewhat in excess of that of last year, but the apparent shortage of grapefruit will more than offset this if reports are accurate.

Mr. Stewart says it is extremely difficult to make a close estimate while fruit still is green on the trees; and that even the closest of present estimates must be subject to revision later.

Mr. Stewart has just returned from an extended northern trip in the interest of the Exchange, a portion of which was in company with President J. H. Ross and Salesmanager Geo. A. Scott. He has been quoted without authority from him or anyone in any way connected with Exchange affairs as estimating the crop at 16,000,000 boxes. This has occasioned Mr. Stewart no end of correspondence in answer to inquiries, and the first opportunity now is used to correct any wrong impressions which may have gotten out as a result. The newspaper printing he interview already has acknowledged the error very graciously.

Mr. Stewart states interest in Florida among northern residents never was greater, in his opinion and he is looking for a very large influx of tourists this winter to all sections of South Florida. The advertising of the Florida Citrus Exchange, which is the only really extensive northern advertising coming out of Florida, is said to play quite a part in attracting attention to Florida as is shown by letters from readers of it who often ask for information about Florida while asking for the Sealdsweet cookbook or other advertising matter. He says that despite many complaints and some uncertainty, there is ample evidence of underlying stability in business affairs over the country, and that the outlook generally is most satisfactory.

C. B. Moore, night clerk of the Everett Hotel, Jacksonville, has been arrested on the charge of interfering with government agents in the discharge of their duty.

NOTICE TO PATRONS OF SCHOOL BUSESSES

Due to the increased cost of furnishing transportation to pupils of the Sanford schools it is found necessary for the patrons of the school buses to pay a fare of One Dollar per month for each pupil. The fare is due and payable on the first day of each and every school month, beginning Monday, September 27th, 1920. This money should be paid to the teacher, who will render to each pupil a receipt for his fare, said receipt to act as a ticket for the months. In case any parent is financially unable to meet this expense, said parent should file with Hon. H. C. DuBose, secretary of the Board of Trustees, a statement to this effect, which in the opinion of the board of trustees exemption should be granted a permit will be issued to the pupil permitting him or her to ride on the buses without paying fare.

The transportation service for the ensuing year will be far superior to that of previous years and the increased cost of this improved service is considerably more than the fare of one dollar per pupil, and the board of trustees feel that the patrons will be glad to supplement the school fund to this amount in order to have satisfactory transportation service.

It is with great reluctance that the board asks the patrons to assist in this manner, but the demand for improved service and the limited fund for this purpose makes this course imperative and inevitable.

Trusting that this measure will meet with the hearty approval of patrons of the school buses, and asking your cooperation in making the service highly efficient, we are very respectfully,

 BOARD OF TRUSTEES,
 Special Tax School District No. 1,
 Sanford, Fla.

SPENDING HABIT VS. INVESTING HABIT

Any fool can squander or spend but it takes a strong, determined will to save and invest. A young man said, upon making his first investment:

"I've made a pretty good salary considering, but somehow I just can't keep a cent—it just naturally slips away and I am no better off financially now than I was three years ago. I want to form an investing habit, and when I read your ad I decided that I would start now by buying one share of stock and force myself to buy another share a little later as soon as I can save up enough for the first payment."

This young man bought one share of Southern Utilities Company 8 per cent Cumulative Preferred stock on installment. He has quit the spending habit and has made his first start toward the investing habit, which is the road to independence and happiness.

Take advantage of the same opportunity by investing in one of the strongest and best companies in the state.

STERILIZING THE SEED BED It is a well known fact that some very destructive diseases enter such plants as tomato, cabbage, eggplant, pepper, and a few others from the soil of the seedbed. E. F. Dellusk, formerly a Florida county agent, but at present assistant boy's club agent says it is extremely important that the seedbed be thoroughly sterilized before being planted, but that it should be ready for planting before being sterilized. Pulverize the soil to a depth of about ten inches and then level down, leaving the bed with a smooth surface.

There are several methods of sterilizing, but the most practical and applicable to the greatest number of conditions is by the use of formaldehyde. Use one pint of regular 40 per cent commercial formaldehyde to 61-2 gallons of water. Apply this solution to the seedbed with a sprinkler, so as to get a uniform distribution, using the diluted solution at the rate of one gallon to two square feet of surface to be sterilized.

The bed should then be blanketed with old sacks to prevent too rapid evaporation of moisture and consequently the liberation of the formaldehyde gas before it has thoroughly permeated the soil.

trated the soil. This treatment should be given two weeks before planting the seed. Two day after treatment remove the covering and stir the soil with a potato fork or some such implement to allow the poisonous gas to escape before the seed are planted.

The cost of sterilizing a seedbed including material and labor, should not be more than one cent per square foot of bed surface. One pint of formaldehyde is sufficient for 25 square feet.

FARMERS CREDIT CONDITIONS ARE NOT SATISFACTORY

Governor of Federal Reserve District Goes Over Matter with Farmers

Washington, Sept 21—General credit conditions facing farmers were discussed today at an informal conference between Governor Harding of the federal reserve board and a committee representing various farmers' organizations.

The latter told Mr. Harding there was a feeling in the agricultural districts that the farmers had not received the fullest consideration under the board's policy for restriction on credit to the various lines of industry and urged more elasticity for marketing crops.

Governor Harding assured the committee that the board is in complete sympathy with the problems of the farmers and that every effort is being made to assure funds for crop movements. He said the board always stood ready to co-operate with the farmers.

Anyone desiring to take one or more young lady teachers to board during the school year is kindly requested to notify Supt. T. W. Lawton at the court house.
