

Buying Controls To Be Restored By Reserve Board

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25. (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board, preparing to restore controls on installment buying Sept. 20 to ease the upward pressures on prices, reported today that:

1. During the three years since V-J day, "the American public has gone into debt more rapidly than in any other period in our history."

2. Debt will continue to rise despite the new controls, and the 40,000,000,000 American families probably will owe more than $100,000,000,000 for home mortgages and consumer goods purchases by the end of this year.

Mortgage debt has jumped $10,000,000,000 in the three post-war years to present total above $92,000,000,000, chiefly as the result of home buying, the reserve board said in its March bulletin.

Credit given to retail buyers has expanded over $8,000,000,000 during the same period to a total of $14,160,000,000. Installment buying accounted for slightly more than half of the total outstanding.

More than one out of each four families was a time payment buyer last year, compared with one out of each seven or eight during the year before.

The board undertook to curb an argument advanced by the American Bankers Association among others, that installment credit is not an especial economic danger at this time. The argument has cited that total installment credit is less now than before the war in terms of income after taxes.

The board admitted that credit outstanding now amounts to no more than 3.9 per cent of income after taxes against a range of 5.6 to 7.1 per cent in the late pre-war years, but it added:

"In view of the current tight situation in supplies of labor and materials, further expansion of installment credit can neither increase output nor put more people to work."

"It can only add more purchasing power to the already swollen spending stream and reinforce inflationary pressures. International developments, moreover, inevitably cause added pressures in the markets for consumers' durable goods."

to the Cherno Motor Company of Washington on July 23, 1936.

This was about a year after Hiss said he had given the car to Chambers, or Croley, or at least the use of it.

At that point the committee recessed for lunch.

At the start of the morning session, Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) flatly declared that as a result of the hearing one of the two men would be "tried for perjury."

Chambers is an admitted former Communist, now an editor of Time Magazine, who says Hiss belonged to a Communist underground in Washington more than a decade ago.

Hiss has denied it.

When Stripling read Chambers' secret testimony about the car, the "accountant" like this:

"The Communist Party had in Washington a service station or it may have been a car lot. The man in charge or the owner was a Communist, I never knew who he was."

"It was against the rules of the underground to do anything but drive in a car."

"Hiss wanted it turned over to the party so it could be used by some poor organizer in the west or somewhere. Most against my judgment, and against Peter's judgment, he persuaded us to do this thing."

(Chambers has identified a J. Peters as head of the underground.)

Chambers was quoted as saying Hiss took about the car, left it there and went away, and the man in charge "took care of the rest of it."

Louis Russell, committee investigator, took over the witness stand when Stripling finished the reading.

Russell said that the assignment of time reflects that also on July 23, 1936, the car was sold to a William Rosen, who lived here on Thirteenth Street. But investigators, he said, were told no one by that name lived at the address at any time.

Furthermore, Russell said, he subpoenaed the sales records of the Cherno Company, that none of the sales slips were missing and that they showed no sales of any car to a William Rosen in July 23, 1936 or the day before or after.

Stripling and Rep. Nixon (R-Calif) quickly noted that they had no evidence at all that any top official of the motor company was in any way involved.

With Hiss under oath, Stripling, chief investigator for the committee, turned to Chambers, who was sitting behind one of the press tables.

"Mr. Chambers, will you stand up?" Stripling said.

Turning back to Hiss, the investigator inquired:

"I love children. During the two years in America I found I was becoming more and more dissatisfied with Russia."

She added the Russians called her "an enemy of the state" and she was "persecuted in many picaresque ways."

These persecutions she protested, she said, by failing to appear on several occasions at the school in New York where she was teaching Russian children.

Mrs. Kasenkina said that in her letter she asked to be released from her teaching assignment and to move to the United States.

"Since they wouldn't let me do it," she added that she decided "I would myself."

She said she wanted to talk to the Russians "as human beings, but they were not and unfortunately they arrested me."

Asked what Ambassador Panushkin discussed with her at the consulate the day she was returned to the consulate, Mrs. Kasenkina replied:

"I spoke with Panushkin for five minutes. I had written a letter to the consulate which brought Panushkin into the picture."

"I thought these people had a semblance of human mercy in them and would converse with me. Panushkin said he would not speak to me and that I would go downstairs and tell reporters this and that."

The interpreter interpreted that at this point Mrs. Kasenkina's voice became "very serious" and that she then said:

"Panushkin and Lomakin both told me what to say to reporters and that through my message I would become a heroine."

Mrs. Kasenkina's forehead and eyes smiled wanly as questions were asked her. She lay in the hospital bed, head propped slightly, one leg injured in her leap suspended in a traction pulley.

Asked what motivated her to decide not to go back to Russia, she said:

"Many people feel the need of cheer, smiles and sunshine. Use the right psychology and you can often make people do something worthwhile."

W. A. Morrison was nominated as club president; Ralph A. Smith as vice president; John Field and H. B. Crumley as vice president. P. P. Campbell as treasurer and George Harrison as financial secretary.

The only contest will be that between Mr. Field and Mr. Crumley in the election which will take place in two weeks.

Seven directors will be chosen from the following who were nominated: E. G. Kilpatrick, Edward F. Lane, Dr. L. T. Doss, Sanford H. Goodway, Roy Mann, Edw. J. Shindler, Roy Britt, Lester Thorp, John Krider, Earl Higgins, William H. Crumley, Howard Montheith, Herman E. Morris and J. Bradley Odham.

William H. Zachary, Jr. of Louisville, Ky., was a guest. John Galloway asked that those who wished to donate to the fund bank to contact Miss Mary Rowles, secretary.

the new by-laws to the constitution after which they were adopted by the club. A letter from Mrs. Josie Hubert, newly elected president of Pilot International, of Houston, Tex. was read by the secretary.

Announcement was made by Mrs. A. K. Shoenmaker that the "Greens," losers in an attendance contest, would entertain the "Golds" winners with a party at the Tourist Center on Sept. 14.

Miss Blanche Kennedy, former member of the club, was elected to honorary membership and the financial report of the Nursery School sponsored by the Pilot Club was made by Mrs. W. V. Hitting who stated that during the previous month an average of 30 pupils were taken care of daily. There were 18 members present at the meeting.

U.N. Study Shows How Many Nations Debts Have Gone Skyward

LAKE SUCCESS—Aug. 25.—(AP)—The national debt of almost every country has skyrocketed since 1914 a United Nations study showed today.

The survey is contained in a volume prepared by the department of economic affairs presenting in tabular form the evolution of public debt for 82 countries since before the first World War. Every nation dealt with had a substantial domestic debt and all of them except six also had a foreign debt as well. The six which owed no money abroad were the United States, Russia, Switzerland, Ireland, Egypt and Venezuela.

The study showed that 11 other countries had smaller foreign debts in 1947 than in 1914. Only five, however, had reduced their total debt below the 1914 level. These were Nicaragua, Haiti, Guatemala, Venezuela and Honduras.

The United States, with a total national debt of $258,375,000,000 had increased its indebtedness every year for 16 years until the 1946-1947 fiscal year. During that year it whittled $11,522,600,000 off the national debt.

No up-to-date figures were available on Russia, but the survey showed the total Soviet national debt increased ten fold from 1930 to 1937, the last years covered by the tabulation.

The editors of the volume explained in an introductory note that it was difficult to make international comparisons of public debt because of the different national concepts in various countries.

In Leningrad, on Jan. 12, 1942, Mrs. Kasenkina's voice was hesitant at times. She sighed frequently, and a nurse dabbed her forehead with a piece of gauze.

Perjury Case Looms as Next Step In Probe

All Testimony Taken In Hiss-Chambers Hearing Given To Justice Department

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee announced today that all testimony in its spy probe will be turned over to the Justice Department "with appropriate recommendations."

What these recommendations will be, Chairman Thomas (R-NJ) refused to predict after a closed committee session.

But the committee has indicated that it will request the justice department to study the record with a view to prosecuting some committee witnesses for perjury—lying under oath.

When Alger Hiss and Whittaker Chambers was brought before the committee yesterday, they were told one of them is "certain" to be prosecuted for perjury since their testimony conflicts.

Turning the record over to the Justice Department won't mean an end to the committee's probe of the Hiss-Chambers controversy. Among other things, the committee is trying to locate a 1929 Ford which figured in their stories.

Thomas said the committee will issue a progress report Saturday on its own investigations to date and it will resume the hearings on Sept. 7.

Meanwhile, Thomas said, a subcommittee will go to New York probably next Monday to question J. Peters, who has been named by Chambers as leader of a Communist underground movement in this country in the early 1930s.

Peters has been accused to appear before immigration authorities for a deportation hearing.

Thomas said the hearings beginning Sept. 7 will deal with "a new espionage case," reported harboring of known Communists in this country, reports of Com-

C Of C To Elect 58 Directors On Sept. 7 Ballot

The largest ballot in the history of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce is being compiled by its office, and ballots are being mailed to 556 members in the Sanford area and to 75 in the outlying county in preparation for the election of 58 directors. The election is being held by Edward Higgins, manager.

He urged that every member vote. Everyone on the list is eligible for directorship. W. A. Morrison will serve as chairman of the election committee and will have 15 members to help him count the ballots on Sept. 7.

The ballots will be mailed the last of this week and are returnable before 1:00 P.M. Tuesday, Sept. 7. A ballot box will be installed in the directors' room at the Tourist Center and all ballots will be deposited there as received.

Thirty-four directors will be elected in the Sanford area; three from Casselberry and Fern Park; two from Geneva; two from Lake Mary; two from Lake Monroe; three from Longwood; five from Ocoee; three from Slavia and one from Goldenrod.

The directors elected will elect Chamber of Commerce officers for the ensuing year. This election will take place during the latter part of September, Mr. Higgins announced.

NUTS SUPPORTED
WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (AP)—Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) urged the Agriculture Department today to reinstate its price support program for tung oil and nuts.

Pepper also asked Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan to recommend that the munitions board renew purchasing of tung oil for stockpiling as a strategic material.

Gardnar Mulloy and Billy Talbert Face Stiff Test In Doubles Match

By BILL KING
BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 26. (AP)—Two-time winners Gardnar Mulloy of Miami, and Billy Talbert of New York, the most likely U. S. Davis Cup doubles tandem for the challenge play against Australia, face a stiff test in the national doubles tennis quarter-final match today at Longwood.

They move against Budge Patty of Los Angeles, and the 36-year-old Sidney Wood of New York. The latter, displaying much of the superlative form he showed a decade and more ago, needed but little help from his younger partner yesterday when they eliminated Andrian Quist and Billy Sidwell of the Australian Davis Cup forces, 4-6, 8-6, 6-1, 6-4.

Quist and Sidwell were affected by the terrific heat, as were Czechoslovakia's Jaroslav Drobny and Vladimir Cernik, who bowed to Tom Brown of San Francisco, and Irvin Dorfman of New York, 7-5, 4-6, 2-7, 6-3.

The only foreign victors were Colin Long and Geoff Brown, the Australian Davis Cup specialists, who gained a hard-earned 8-6, 7-9, 6-3, 3-6, 6-4 win over Earl Cochet of Los Angeles, and Harry Lithas of San Francisco, and Enrique Morea of Argentina, and Eric Sturgess of South Africa who eliminated Sam Match of San Francisco, and Vic Seixas of Philadelphia 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

The other domestic teams to gain the quarter final round were Ted Schroeder of LaGrassenta, Calif., and Frank Parker of Los Angeles, the other two Davis Cupsters, Jim Brink of Seattle, and Dick Gonzalez of Los Angeles, and Fred Kovalek of Detroit, and Jack Tuero of New Orleans.

Competition in the much smaller women's division has been reduced to the semi-finals, which will be split. Louise Brough of Los Angeles and Mrs. Margaret Osborne DuPont of Wilmington, Del., who are seeking their seventh straight national doubles titles, will play Shirley Fry of Akron, O., and Mrs. Sheila Summers of South Africa, today for finalist berths.

Berlin Riot

Berlin delegation to western Germany's constitutional assembly at Bonn Sept. 1. They called off the session when it became known that the Socialist Unity Party (SED), sponsored by the Russians and dominated by the Communists, planned the demonstration. Two SED members of the nine-man senior parliamentary committee voted against postponement.

While the Communists met inside the crowd outside chanted the Red anthem, the "Internationale." In the hall, Karl Little, SED member of the senior committee, demanded a vote for his party in ruling the city. Little did not say how he proposed to set up a new city administration. The SED already is on record against new elections this fall.

No casualties were reported. By mid-afternoon, a large part of the crowd had dispersed. A 10-man SED delegation met with Mayor Ferdinand Freidenberg.

Police reserves were called up to handle the crowd, estimated to total more than 10,000 persons. They forced their way through a police line, led by men who shouted:

"Down with the capitalists!"
"Down with the plutocrats!"
After bursting into the building, which is located in the Soviet sector of the city, they rushed upstairs to the city assembly chambers.

The city parliament had been scheduled to meet this afternoon, but called off the session when the threats of Communist demonstrations became known.

Red banners carried the words: "One Administration, One Curriculum, We Want Potatoes." "Down with the Enemies of the Workers." "Down with the Agents of Monopoly Capitalism."

Berlin's city parliament, (council), predominantly anti-Communist, had been scheduled to vote today on a resolution to send a Berlin delegation to western Germany's "constitutional assembly." The postponement was proposed by Socialist Leader Franz Neumann and approved by the parliament's nine-man senior committee.

Rules For Persons Contacted By Polio Aired By Quillman

State Board of Health rules and regulations regarding control of persons who have contacted polio cases, and recommendations for the control of individuals returning from epidemic areas, were today announced by Dr. Frank Quillman, director of the Seminole County Health Unit.

The rules were received yesterday from Wilson T. Sowler, state health officer and included the following recommendations:

1. Individuals under 16 years of age who have been in contact with cases of polio should be restricted to their homes for a period of two weeks.

2. Adults who are food handlers or school teachers, when returning from epidemic areas of polio, should restrict their activities for a period of two weeks.

3. Individuals returning from those countries where polio has not reached epidemic proportions will not be restricted unless they are contacts of actual cases.

4. The State Board of Health has no objection to somewhat more rigid requirements, if reasonable, but requests that these be discussed with the State Board of Health before adoption.

Rules for individuals returning from epidemic areas are as follows:

1. Individuals under 16 years of age who have been in contact with cases of polio should be restricted to their homes for a period of two weeks.

THE WRECKAGE of a National Guard plane is shown in front of one of three homes in Plainville, Conn., set afire by the crash when it crashed in the residential area, spraying the houses with flaming gasoline. A mother and child living in the above house were saved. The plane's pilot, Capt. John F. Collins of the Connecticut National Guard, who parachuted to safety, escaped with minor injuries. ## Season's Hurricane

which, seemed the storm a "real whizzer."

Winds of hurricane force were reported over a radius of about 50 miles from the center. Gales extended 250 miles from the center, he bureau said.

The strongest winds of about 100 miles an hour velocity whirling around the center.

A Navy hurricane hunting plane from Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico, reported by Lt. C. W. Gidley of Naval Air Station, S.C., flew into the storm last morning.

The storm was discovered by him in the area, one report was received from the American destroyer, Virginia, on the northern perimeter of the storm, and in other from the Russian vessel, Polmak, near the western edge.

The first advisory was based on the ship information and on previous reports of the area.

The storm is the first of the "official" hurricane season which began June 1.

The hurricane developed in a section of the Atlantic when storm forecasters said "a cyclone was in the making." The V.P. ship gave first word of the tropical disturbance early today.

First message reported: "Barometer 29.80 inches and falling about 10 inch per hour. Temperature 87, wind force 2 (about 30 miles an hour), increasing and varying slowly from east to west, with very rough, sky said overcast, light rain."

A Russian ship, the Potomsk, was at the western edge of the storm and informed the weather bureau by radio that the barometer had dropped to 29.52 and continued to fall.

Murder Case

Political, John A. McComas, 52, of Dayton, O., was accidentally shot at a point about 100 miles north of Tucson, Ariz., along the Alamo Highway.

McComas, his daughter, Louise, and Gustav A. Wagner, 24, of Dayton, left Aug. 4 for a trip to Alaska where McComas, Veterans Administration employee, planned to put his daughter in a Seventh Day Adventist school.

Wagner and the child are the two being held.

Scranton Citizens

$100, $500, $1,000 and $10,000, they built a city of more than $1,000,000 and went out and bought a $3,500,000 defense plant from the government for less than half the cost.

The plant, used by Murray Corporation of America to turn out B-29 wings during the war, is now headquarters for the Scranton Plan and Murray, with a five-year lease, is producing stoves, kitchen cabinets and sinks.

Out of the Scranton-La. Savana Industrial Building Co. bonds, also 1 per cent, came the money to build new plants.

All but three of the buildings have been completed and grouped. But the other three under construction either have been spoken for or are getting the once-over from out-of-town industries.

Into Scranton with new pay-rolls have rolled the W. L. Douglas Shoe Co., Brockton, Mass.; Harris-Hub Rod and Spring Co., from Cicero, Ill.; Trane Co., of La Crosse, Wis., manufacturers of refrigerators; the M. J. Billing Shoe Co., and the Fred Postwear Corp., just to mention a few.

And the United Shoe Machine Co., has opened up a service plant to take care of the shoe manufacturers needs.

The Scranton planners, with an eye to declining employment of coal diggers, have come up with companies which employ only men.

Ask Jones who is it that gets the credit for the new look of Scranton and you get a one-word answer:

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

VISIBLE PROOF IS WORTH
VOLUMES OF ARGUMENT
OUR LIVES ARE POWERFUL ARGUMENTS FOR OR AGAINST OUR LIFE PHILOSOPHY. Philip faith unto him, come and see—John 1:46

The Communists have decided to close all their consulates in the United States. Well, good.

The question at stake in the Hiss Chambers probe seems to be "When is a liar not a liar, or who perjured whom?"

Henry Wallace says the United States is to blame for the critical Berlin situation. That's funny.
That's just what the Russians say.

Stalin Move to End Crisis Is Reported—headline. May be that is why he launched the uprising in Berlin and sent his warships into the Mediterranean.

Congratulations to General Motors employees who got a wage boost; condolences to others who will have to pay more for their automobiles.

Orlando which also seems to be having growing pains, laments a 12 percent increase in its assessment rolls, bringing the total to $72,092,175, quite a penny more than Sanford's even after the re-assessment.

Secretary Forrestal seems to be trying to prevent friction and jealousy between the various branches of the armed services from making possible the imposition of another Pearl Harbor, in case another Pearl Harbor should be attempted.

Mississippi Democrats paid their respects to the rest of the nation by re-nominating John Rankin to the House of Representatives over two opponents. But that's nothing.
Vito Marcantonio was re-nominated in New York state without opposition.

Jerry Carter, Florida's Railroad Commission chairman, and perennial candidate for office, says he is going to vote the straight Democratic ticket "from top to bottom", come November.
It is hard to break with tradition or overcome our lifelong prejudices.

Up in Chicago where they have time to tell the people of the South how they should conduct themselves, a 14-year old boy is accused of murdering an 8-year old girl in what prosecutors term the climax of a wild sex orgy. He had been an inveterate reader of comic books on the sale of which there are no restrictions in Chicago.

The Gallup Poll reveals that 12 percent of the voters do not know who the Republican candidate for President is, and 9 percent do not know Truman was re-nominated for the presidency.
More than half the people don't know who Dewey's running mate is, and nearly half don't know Senator Barkley is running with Truman. Yet, they would probably be the first to resent it if you told them they could not vote intelligently. And one is left to wonder if they don't know yet who the candidates for President are, will they ever find out who the various electors are?

The United States is being asked to get out of Berlin with hardly as much politeness as the Russians were asked to get out of New York, and it begins to look as if we would have to fight for it if we stay there. However, we wish it was something more worthwhile fighting over. As far as Berlin is concerned, or all of Germany, the Russians are welcome to it as far as we are concerned, and we'll bet it would give them a headache from which they never would recover. Like a lot of other Americans, though, we don't like the idea of being run out of Berlin.

Damper On Strikes

The National Labor Relations Board ruling that the National Maritime Union may not strike to keep its union hiring halls in Great Lakes ports may lead to a broad testing of the effect on strikes of the Taft-Hartley Act. The hiring hall is widely used, particularly in the shipping industry and others in which employment is on a seasonal or job basis, rather than established and permanent.

The government now can ask, and probably obtain, a permanent injunction to prevent the Maritime Union from striking over this point. Such an injunction could be kept in force indefinitely unless and until the Supreme Court should uphold the legality of the hiring hall.

Successful prevention of a strike by this means would arouse further interest in the question of how broad may be the possible interpretation of the legality of strikes under the Taft-Hartley Act. It now appears possible that when disputes arise over legal points defined in the act, an employer may be able to force a union to negotiate through the courts rather than by strike.

Possibly some union causes might be unjustly damaged by this feature, but it is a constructive step in the direction of eliminating strikes. It might be possible to go the whole way in preventing all strikes by some such method. The employees, through a union or without one, would need the means to bring an employer into court at that point in negotiation where a strike would be called under the present system.

It's Crawfish

Just when we were about to write something disposing of world issues for good and all a scuffle breaks out in the back yard which we must settle first. It is whether the spelling is a crayfish or crawfish.

A West Point, Mississippi, editor, Edgar G. Harris, is campaigning for crayfish. He must have taken his college courses too seriously. In Mississippi such a proposal ought to be taken up by Representative Rankin, who is on the Un-American Activities Committee. That committee might as well do something sensible and useful sometimes.

Farther up the river, in Memphis, a columnist is plugging for crawfish. Some Memphians brag that the crawfish out there drag hogs down into their holes and eat them. It would have been better if they had dragged Ed Crump's net coon into a hole before the boss made the mistake of using it against Kefauver—but there we get back into politics again when we must settle this crayfish-crawfish ruckus.

If a crayfish spoke German he would call himself a krebiz. If he spoke French he would refer to his family name as crivisse, which is the way he is spelled when he appears among the one-dollar-and-sixbit entrees or four-bit soups on a New Orleans menu.

But the crawfish is one of the original Americans. He is a part of the American language. He is a crayfish in most dictionaries and in zoologists' patter, but as man to man, on a hook for perch or catfish, boiling in a pot, he is crawfish and nothing else again.

Just to bring up the final point—did you ever hear of political crayfishing? They would not know how to do such a fancy step. But crawfishing! They do it nearly every time.

It's lunch hour now. We'll write that piece settling world affairs just as soon as we get back.—Chattanooga Times.

Uranium Rush

It was a hundred years ago that gold was discovered in California. The year '48 of this century might become as significant as that of the last century for the West Coast State, since now uranium has been discovered in a California canyon.

A "uranium rush" resulting from this discovery could not be expected to parallel the spectacular nature of the gold rush which began in 1848. But it might be just as historic, if the uranium should turn out to be useful and extensive.

Long years of study and development apparently still lie ahead before atomic energy will be a commercially valuable source of power. But even then it will be of limited practical use unless cheaper and more plentiful stores of uranium are found, or unless some more abundant metal can be substituted. Thus discovery of substantial uranium deposits would be of great importance.

Those whose minds have a romantic bent may be forgiven if they wonder idly what strange metal may lure prospectors to California hills in 2048.

THE NATION TODAY

By MAX HALL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. (AP)— All through the long day and into the evening the congressmen questioned Alger Hiss and Whitaker Chambers.

The two men agreed they used to know each other. They disagreed on most other points. They stuck to their stories. They called each other liars.

Rep. Edward Hebert, Democrat from New Orleans, burst out:
"Whether of you is lying is the greatest actor ever seen in this country!"

Chambers, a $25,000-a-year editor for Time Magazine, said he was a Communist Party functionary in the thirties and Hiss was "the closest friend I ever had in the Communist Party."

Hiss, the former State Department official, denied it.
Let's see what they agreed on yesterday during the dramatic hearing, and how they contradicted each other.

They both testified, according to their best recollection, that they first met in 1934 or 1935 in Washington; that they once took a trip to New York in the same car; that in 1935 the Chambers family spent a few nights in the Hiss home on P Street; and that for several weeks in 1935 the Chambers family occupied an apartment on 28th Street which the Hisses had vacated but were still renting.

On these other points they disagreed:
1. The name Chambers went by—Hiss said he knew Chambers only as "George Crooley." Chambers said he never used that name and Hiss knew him only as "Garry."

2. How they met—Hiss said that, according to his best recollection, when he was chief counsel for the House Un-American Activities Committee,
"Garry" came into his office in the State office building and represented himself as a free lance writer seeking information.

Chambers said he was introduced to Hiss, "I believe in a restaurant," by Harold Ware and J. Peters, whom Chambers described as leaders of the Communist underground.

3. Whether Hiss was a Communist—Hiss said he has never been one. Chambers said he himself collected Communist Party dues from Hiss at least once "and I would think on three occasions," and that Hiss was a "devoted Communist" who "obeyed party discipline in every respect."

4. When they last saw each other—Hiss said "I would think some time in 1935." On questioning he said it was "conceivable and possible" that he saw Chambers after that, though he doesn't remember it.

Chambers said it was in 1936, and that all through 1936 and 1937 they met once a week—"once a fortnight, to be on the conservative side"—in the Hiss home.

5. The arrangement under which Hiss allowed Chambers to stay in his house and his apartment—Hiss said he took the Chambers family into his house out of "humaneness" and "kindness," and that he subleased the apartment to Chambers orally but never got paid more than $15 or $20 and a rug.

Chambers said there was never any talk of payment or of a sub-lease. He said Hiss entertained him and his family "because Mr.
Hiss and I were Communists and that was the comradely way of doing things." He also said, "Mr.
Hiss considered it a privilege to have a superior in the Communist Party in his home."

6. The affair of Hiss' old Ford roadster—Hiss said that to the best of his recollection he "threw it in" with the suitcase in 1936. He couldn't recall whether Chambers ever returned it, or, if so, how the car finally was disposed of.

Chambers said Hiss never turned the roadster over to him, but

Mother Dies Of Polio After Son Is Born

MORGANTON, N.C., Aug. 26.
(AP)—A 34-year-old mother who gave birth to a son in an iron lung died early today of bulbar poliomyelitis.

Mrs. Lucy Bell Smith, wife of a furniture factory worker, succumbed about 16 hours after a 44-pound son was born under a local anesthetic. Grace Hospital physicians performed a Caesarean section as Mrs. Smith lay in an incapacitated iron lung. As soon as the normal child was born, doctors snapped on the bellows motors and shut the doors as the iron lung resumed pumping.

Mrs. Smith was admitted to the hospital Tuesday night suffering from pneumonia. It was discovered then that a virulent type of infantile paralysis has also set in.

ultimately gave it to the Communist Party for the use of "some poor Communist organizer in the west."

7. Why they parted company—
Hiss said he "got rid" of Chambers after Chambers repeatedly asked him for favors. Chambers said when he broke with the Communist Party in 1938 he went to the Hiss home, tried unsuccessfully to persuade Hiss to do the same, and finally left Hiss "crying."

8. Who is lying?—Hiss said Chambers is "a self-confessed liar, spy, and traitor," Chambers said,
"Mr. Hiss is lying. Eighty percent at least is fabrication."

Marketing Bureau
Calls For Reduction
For Celery Crop

GAINESVILLE, Aug. 24 (AP)— Average guides for 1949 production of 15 winter vegetable crops announced recently by the U.S.
Department of Agriculture, call for about a 3 per cent reduction over all, according to R. S. Dennis, executive officer for the Production and Marketing Administration.

Recommendations for Florida include increases in harvested acreages of carrots, peppers, lima beans and cauliflower and reductions in snap beans, celery, catbage and tomatoes. No changes are recommended for lettuce and green beans.

For Florida crops produced during January, February and March, the recommendations include the following:

Carrots up 11 per cent from 450
to 500 acres.
Peppers up 40 per cent from 2,500 to 3,500 acres.
Snap beans down 7.0 per cent from 38,000 to 35,000 acres.
Lima beans up 5 per cent from
1,900 to 2,000 acres.
Celery down 12.7 per cent from 6,300 to 5,500 acres.
Cabbage down 10 per cent from 15,000 to 13,500 acres.
Lettuce 1,300 acres, no change.
Cauliflower up 25 per cent from 100 to 500 acres.
Green peas 700 acres, no change.
Tomatoes down 45 per cent
from 12,500 to 12,000 acres.

The total acreage for these 15 winter vegetables would be reduced 6 per cent from 79,150 to 74,500 acres.

The United States uses about 40 per cent of the world's production of 35 million pounds of vegetable waxes.

Old ideas about the origin of celery were that they came from horsehair in the water, or from beetles.

Pity The Poor Girl Who Dyes Her Hair

By BETTY CLARKE
AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor

Pity the poor girl who dyes her hair only to find that it has become a terrible mistake.
A girl letter from a woman who signs herself "heartbroken" reveals that she dyed her grey hair black. Then she found that it must be dyed so frequently her hair became an artificial looking mess and people started at her.
Now a permanent dye leaves not soft shiny curls but matted dead fuzz that is very discouraging, indeed. She tried to remove the dye and that made matters still worse until now her hair is four different shades.
Grey hair really can be beautiful. Many women who manage to keep it well-groomed all the time find that it can be lovely when the natural color is retained and glorified.

On the other hand, any number of women prefer to dye their grey hair. And it can be done successfully, John Hall, a New York hair specialist, advises.
The one big thing to know in mind, says Mr. Hall, is that nobody should ever use black or brown dye. He claims that the blue-black shade which often is desired, is an artificial color, only suitable to actresses who perform under bright lights which help dramatize the blackness of their crowning glory. Definitely not for housewives, he says.

Ash (blond) dyes can be used more successfully than others, he advises. The softer ash usually is better for older women. Warm dyes with red tints are more flattering to young girls.

If a woman already has started off on the wrong foot, using either the brown or black dyes, she can backtrack, but she must be patient, he says. This is particularly true if the dyed hair also has been permanented. Then, the hair will need special care before a new job is performed.
Particularly if she has used hair dye, removal of the woman will need something to restore the natural coloration in her hair, says Mr. Hall. She can do this by giving herself a hair treatment, at least three cream treatments. This will tend to remove some of the excess color and help the hair look more natural.

Mr. Hall believes the permanent wave should then be given before the hair dye. If the dye has been given before the permanent, he cautions against the cold wave, the chemicals of which may remove some of the color and make the hair look faded.
If an operator really knows her stuff, Mr. Hall believes the permanent wave and dye can be done the same day. Otherwise, and particularly with home treatments, a week should elapse between the permanent and dye. Keep in mind, too, he says, that the dye solution should be diluted at least 50 per cent with water to avoid making the hair stiff. Too much dye will make the job look less natural, he says.

The reason so many women choose brown or black dyes—two colors to be avoided—is that they like to get a complete cover-up, believes Mr. Hall. If they see any grey hairs after a dye they think a good job has not been performed. With lighter dyes, occasionally, a grey hair will be noticeable. But this is entirely reasonable.

After all, says Mr. Hall, examine your own hair right this minute. Whether it is red, black,

Miss Ruth Stenstrom Honored With Party

Complimenting Miss Ruth Stenstrom, bride-elect of Sept. 30, Mrs. Bill Tyre entertained at her home on Mellonville Avenue last evening with a party and lingerie shower.

Vases and bowls of roses and ferns were used throughout the party rooms to emphasize a color theme of pink and green which was also employed in the refreshments consisting of an ice and sweet course. The napkins had the names of "Ruth and Eddie" embroidered upon them. The hostess was assisted in serving by Miss Jean Harper.

During the evening several games and contests were enjoyed with prizes being won by Mrs. A. C. Williams, Mrs. E. S. Rocky, Mrs. W. C. Satcher and Mrs. Wilham Kirby.

Those invited to enjoy the occasion with the guest of honor and hostess were:

Mrs. J. W. Salisbury, Mrs. C. L. Redding, Mrs. Rocky, Mrs. Burke Steele, Mrs. V. A. Williams, Mrs. Mrs. A. C. Williams, Mrs. Roy Britt, Mrs. F. E. ## Best Movie Director Chosen By Critics

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—For his work on the Warner Bros. picture, "The Treasure of Sierra Madre," John Huston has been voted the best director of 1947-48 by the nation's movie critics.

This was announced yesterday by "Film Daily" in reporting results of a poll of newspaper and radio film critics.

Second to Huston, by only one ballot—was Elia Kazan for his direction of 20th Century Fox's "Gentleman's Agreement."

Jules Dassin was third for his handling of Universal-International's "The Naked City."

Critics chose David O. Selznick's "Duel in the Sun" as the best-photographed picture of the season. The movie was filmed by Lee Garmes, Hal Rosson, Ray Rennahan, Charles P. Boyle and Allen Davery, the paper said.

Second-place photographic honors went to "The Naked City," shot by William Daniels. Third was J. Arthur Rank's "Black Narcissus," filmed by Jack Cardiff.

The rest of the first ten best-directed pictures:

George Stevens, "Remember Mama" (RKO Radio); David Lean, "Great Expectations" (J. Arthur Rank); Michael Curtiz, "Life With Father" (Warner Brothers); Walter Lang, "Sitting Pretty" (20th Century Fox); Edward Imhytse, "Crossfire" (RKO); Henry Koster, "The Bishop's Wife" (RKO Radio); George Cukor, "A Double Life" (Universal-International).

gold or brown it is not all the same color. Hair has different shades even in its natural state, so therefore the hair dye which might miss a bit of shading here and there should not be criticized. Women should scrutinize their hair carefully before having it dyed if they want to appreciate their new hair color.

Rural Common Sense

By Spud Johnson

BEING LOYAL, FARMERS FIND IT HARD TO SEE HOW FEW ARE DISLOYAL.

Attachment to his land, source of his food and livelihood, and loyalty to his country are fundamental in the nature of the farmer in Florida and in other states. He lives close to the soil and works with it, and usually he has a deeply-rooted affection for his farm. He recalls with justifiable pride that his ancestors who founded this country were farmers, too, and he is intent on perpetuating the independent nation which they established.

He teaches his children how to work with the soil to make it fruitful, and his attitude towards it inspires them likewise to have a deep affection for the farm. Perhaps he tells them how George Washington and Thomas Jefferson were farmers, and that in their time they rode in their work and in their country. In the 4-H club and the Future Farmers of America his children receive further soil and inspiration to be loyal to their land, their work, and their instruction on working with the country.

So it is difficult for the farmer to understand how anybody who lives in this country, gets his sustenance—his bread and butter—from this country, enjoys the freedoms which this country provides—it is difficult for the farmer to understand how a person who lives under such circumstances and conditions here could waver in allegiance to the United States. When he reads or hears of someone who has been living here favoring another country in preference to this one, it is a deep mystery to him; in fact, it is almost unbelievable.

And so it is also with millions of other Americans who are not farmers—they can't understand how one who lives in and off this land can think of pledging allegiance to any other. Yet there must be some who are not loyal to America, for there are reports to that effect. Of course, the farmer and other loyal Americans have little patience with such people, for they consider the attitude of the latter strange and alien to their own beliefs and principles.

It is good to know how the

Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 24. (AP)—Jimmy Stewart has been nipped by the flying bug again.
Folks said Jimmy had enough of airplanes during his five-year hitch with the army. When he came back to the movies after the war, he didn't show much interest in the flight talk of Hollywood's many pilots. "Don't have any time to fly," he shrugged.

Last year Jimmy met racing pilot Joe DeLoach. "I just missed winning the Bendis race by 30 seconds," DeLoach mused. Jimmy was intrigued. "Maybe I can find you a faster plane," he said.

He picked a P-51 Mustang out of a mass of others rusting in a surplus dump in the desert near Kingman, Ariz. The plane was lifted onto a truck and hauled to Copter Field in Santa Monica. Jimmy brought a 12-cylinder Rolls Royce engine and work began to get the plane in shape for flying's biggest race.

I found the lanky Pennsylvania pattering around the hangar. His eyes grew bright as he talked about his baby. In fact, it was the first time I had ever seen him enthusiastic about anything. "I've been down here at least three times a week since February," he said. "It gets in your blood."

Jimmy explained that the whole plane was dismantled and rebuilt from scratch. The interior of the wings were coated with a rubber substance and converted to gasoline tanks, since auxiliary tanks outside the fuselage would cut down precious speed.

Likewise, outside rivets were eliminated and the entire surface sanded, coated and painted with a slick lacquer. "We figure to pick up 15 miles an hour that way," Jimmy reckoned. He hopes the plane will do 500 MPH and upward.

Much intrigue is going on between the Stewart outfit and the camp of Paul Mantz, last year's race winner. Jimmy playfully made a remark at his hangar that he would use rockets at the take-off. The word quickly reached the rival camp and there was a storm of protest. Jimmy knew that rockets weren't allowed.

If his plane wins the Sept. 1 race from here to Cleveland, Jimmy said he'll split the $10,000 purse among the pilots and ground crew. Then, he added, how going to take some roles in the plane him.

Today's featured Hollywood sights and sounds: Margaret O'Brien walking through the MGM commissary in shorts and donning a few whistles. Esther Williams swimming in an old-style suit for "Ball Game" and commenting "I feel embarrassed with all these clothes on." Bob Mitchum cooking dinner for Sonny Tufts while Mrs. Tufts is in the hospital.

John Garfield and Jennifer Jones doing tests for "Tough Sketch." John Derek Bogart's new find, losing his voice in his first big scene. Glenn Ford, Evelyn Keyes and 40 kids celebrating Christmas for a "Mr. Soft Touch" scene. Ford studying Polish for the same epic. Lucille Ball using the new pneumatic stick, which permits actresses to make up their faces in 30 seconds.

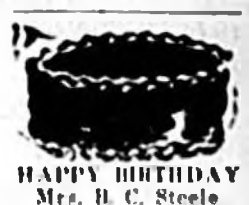

James Mason bowing his head in contemplation before a scene in "The Fountainhead" in tuxedo, black gloves and red socks.

Victor Mature in pajamas climbing out his dressing room window to head for the "Interference" set. "It's shorter this way," he explained.

Ross Allen Tells Of Florida's Many Snakes

OCALA, Aug. 27, (P)—People who have been afraid of the timber rattlesnake, and the copperhead can relax a little. Each is very lazy, doesn't have much venom, and consequently isn't dangerous, comparatively.

Ross Allen, expert in the matter of snakes, said today some people had an erroneous impression regarding snakes; that they seem to think one poisonous snake is about as bad as another.

Not so, Allen says. He says copperhead fatalities amount to only one percent and timber rattlers five per cent, but lack out-

State's Schools Served 18 Million Lunches in 1947

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 26 (Special)—More than 18,000,000 school lunches at an average of 31 cents a lunch were served to Florida school children during the last school term. State School Dept. Colin English reported yesterday.

English said that school lunch programs were reported in operation in 845 schools last year. Only 250 schools reported having lunch rooms during the previous year.

In an annual summary of the school lunch program English listed receipts of $851,319 from the federal government and $608,249 from state and county sources. School lunches amounted to $1,459,568—more than 75 percent of the cost of the entire program.

In addition the schools received $540,000 worth of foodstuffs from the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Recommended by the Department of Education is the serving of "Type A" lunches. These call for the serving of milk, lean meat, poultry, fish or chicken, a vegetable or fruit, bread or hot muffins, and butter or margarine. Fifteen million "Type A" lunches were served last year.

The lunches cost the school children from 10 cents to 30 cents. And many lunches are served without cost.

Florida has been allocated $22,826 in federal funds for school lunchroom expenditures during 1948-49. This is an increase of $28,476 over the previous year.

Electric light meters in U.S. homes and industries measure more than 216 million kilowatt hours each year.

Concrete Blocks For Pool Not O. K. Says R. G. Lubinski

In a recent report on swimming pool construction to the City Commission by City Engineer Ralph Lubinski, following a trip to the lower east coast, he reported that engineers and designers of pools with whom he had conferred had expressed unfavorable opinions as to concrete block type of pool construction.

He quoted a Mr. Oxer who had designed the swimming pool at Falmouth as follows: "His candid opinion of concrete block construction for a pool is that it is entirely inadequate to hold the enormous pressure at the deep end."

"On Aug. 16," he wrote, "I contacted Sensabaugh-Raine and Associates at Coral Gables. Mr. Sensabaugh was out of town but Mr. Raine brought in Mr. Harvey Baxter. Mr. Baxter does all their pool and building design and has built six or seven pools in and around Miami. He said a few years ago someone in Miami built a concrete block pool. The water was turned into the pool but never reached the half full mark before the sides blew out."

"Among some of the pools I visited while there was the Venetian Garden Pool of Coral Gables. This is a beautiful pool in a natural setting. It is a fill and empty pool, being emptied each day. Outflow pipe being 24 inches. It is filled from a 10 inch deep well the water of which is fresh and entirely free from sulphur. This is below the ground pool, having been cut out of coral rock."

"A six inch concrete floor was placed in the bottom and the sides were gunned with a 3 inch layer of concrete to make it water tight. This may be where someone of our citizens conceived the idea of building a below ground pool in Sanford using wire lath and gunite to seal the sides. Such construction in this area is impractical for even though the pool were water tight when full, when emptied the force at the bottom

INVITING REPORTERS into his New York apartment, Alger Hiss (left) tells them of his hotel meeting with Whittaker Chambers, the man who has accused him of being a member of a Communist underground group in Washington. Telling the newsmen that he identified Chambers as "George Crosley," solely on the latter's say-so, Hiss repeated his statement that he is not and never has been a Communist. (International) would be great enough to collapse the sides, due to the fact that we have a sand formation here and not solid rock."

Mr. Lubinski reported that he had visited the Falmouth Pool now under construction, and was informed that cash outlay for the 35 by 75 foot above the ground type of pool would be $25,000, but due to co-operation of high school boys, the Lions Club and citizens who donated time and labor and hauling of materials the cost had been kept down. It was estimated there that if let under contract it would cost $40,000 to $45,000 today.

After the reversal in fortune along the Stalingrad front, Schellenberg said "volunteers" had to be chosen from only the most carefully screened Russian prisoners and the reliable ones were few and far between.

The operation entered into Schellenberg's trial because of what happened to some of the Soviet spies. The prosecution introduced evidence to show that the Russians, after their missions were accomplished, were taken to Auschwitz and killed. A witness, named Smolen, who

Heat Wave

There was some hope that cool air masses from the Canadian northwest would move across the border over the weekend and bring a drop in temperatures to some sections. But forecasters said the cool air was "moving very slowly."

The North Atlantic and New England states got some of the high temperatures yesterday. Hartford, Conn., sizzled as the mercury zoomed to 105. In Huntington, W. Va., thermometers registered as even 100, the same hot mark reported at Alpena, Mich.

New York and Boston got a scorching 96 reading while Philadelphia felt no cooler with a mark of 95. Chicago's 95 was the hottest Aug. 25 in the Weather Bureau's history and the fourth consecutive day of 90 or above.

Detroit's high was 98 and Cincinnati wilted under the same torrid temperature. Cleveland was in the same condition with a high of 97.

There were a few cool spots. San Francisco's 66 was the country's lowest reading and most of the Pacific coast enjoyed temperatures slightly below normal.

In Detroit, more than 20,000 auto workers were made idle directly or indirectly by "heat strikes." After 9,500 workers at the Briggs Manufacturing Company left their jobs 2,000 employees at Chrysler Corporation's Plymouth plant were laid off. An additional 700 workers walked out in Chrysler's Dodge truck and Chrysler division plants and forced the layoff of 8,000 other workers.

War-time destruction of trees has sharply reduced potential exports of walnuts from North China.

Parliament For Western Europe Backed By U. S.

16 Marshall Plan Nations Are Included; U. S.-British Discuss Antarctica

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The United States gave its backing today to a move led by France to set up an all western European parliament with advisory powers.

The State Department said in a statement that "this government strongly favors the progressive closer integration of the free nations of western Europe."

American officials assume this group probably would be expanded to include all the 16 countries which are taking part in the Marshall Plan for European recovery.

France proposed specifically a conference of the Brussels pact countries, to be held not later than November, to make recommendations to their governments as to the membership, date and place of meetings and the agenda, for a proposed European representative assembly with advisory powers.

Britain's Labor government has indicated it may not want to go ahead at this time. Prime Minister Attlee wrote Winston Churchill recently that the movement was premature, and the project (Continued On Page Two)

Wright And Faile Are Inducted As Members Of Lions

Fred Wright, manager of the Sanford Red Sox, and Marcel Faile, sign painter, associated with O. D. Landress, were today inducted by John Ivy as members of the Lions Club at the meeting at the Tourist Center.

In order to remind the new members of the Lions' work for the blind, Lion Ivy blindfolded Lions Wright and Faile at the luncheon, Lion Wright while still blindfolded, and Lion Faile fetched a glass of feed tea for the King Lion without mishap. Henry Witte, Jr., announced that Florida Lions Clubs will publish the Florida Lions Magazine in the state.

At the suggestion of W. R. Connolly that more signs advertising the Sanford Zoo are needed on highways leading into Sanford, Lion Hamilton Blalock directed Cliff Ables as chairman of the committee to discuss the matter with the Jaycees who are working on such projects.

Dick Elsbury was appointed head of the program committee, with Dr. Frank Quinn and Fred Genas as committee members. Clarence Welch reported that radio programs will be used to further sale of rum in machines sponsored by the Lions who use proceeds for aid to the blind.

Upshaw Felicitates Rep. John Rankin

Ex-Congressman William D. Upshaw of Georgia, resident of Sanford, today telegraphed congratulations to Congressman John Rankin of Mississippi for the latter's recent re-election.

Addressing Congressman Rankin as "The Unbeatable Red Handed American," Mr. Upshaw sent the following telegram: "Hooryay and the doroology, My queenly Mississippi wife joins me in offering thanksgiving congratulations on your marvelous victory. Your signal triumph for your 18th term is a national tonic to that full orbed Americanism for which I have heard you bravely and brilliantly contend in Congress and it gives a smacking black eye to that atheistic Communism which is crawling like a serpent into the Eden of our Southern life and shaking its fist at God and the American Flag."

"Your signal triumph for your 18th term is a national tonic to that full orbed Americanism for which I have heard you bravely and brilliantly contend in Congress and it gives a smacking black eye to that atheistic Communism which is crawling like a serpent into the Eden of our Southern life and shaking its fist at God and the American Flag."

"God bless you and crown your heroic leadership with all that is glorious in our Christian civilization."

Brooks was wanted on a murder charge in the shooting of his business partner, Joseph R. Watkins, in Princeton, Kansas, said.

Frankel said Brooks had shot himself with a .38 colt automatic. The body, clad in pajamas, was found in the doorway of the bathroom of the room in the Albion Hotel.

FLYING BOAT

West Envoys Confer 3 Hours With Molotov

Observers Believe Brief Four-Power Communiqué Is Due Tomorrow Night

MOSCOW, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The three western envoys conferred about three hours tonight with Soviet Foreign Minister A. M. Molotov on the German crisis.

The envoys included the British ambassador, Sir Stafford Cripps, the American ambassador, A. M. Keene, and the French ambassador, Georges Bidault.

They left the Kremlin, the seat of the Soviet government, at 8:05 P. M. (12:05 P. M. EST).

Correspondents asked U. S. Ambassador W. Belmont Smith: "Will there be a communiqué tonight?"

Without pausing, Smith called over his shoulder: "No, there will be no communiqué tonight."

The three westerners had an appointment for 5 P. M. (9 A. M. Eastern Standard Time), the U. S. embassy announced. The embassy added that the three would meet at the British embassy following the Kremlin session.

Prime Minister Stalin did not attend tonight's conference, officials announced. Stalin has attended two of the long series of (Continued On Page Two)

State's Electors Begin To Reply On Voting Intentions

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Florida's divided Democratic electors have begun replying to a demand from their state party chief that they state officially how they intend to cast their electoral college ballots.

It's the electoral college split between President Truman and Dixiecrat presidential candidate J. Strom Thurmond that has brought into being a movement for a special state legislative session to revise Florida's election laws.

The electors some of whom have declared they will vote for Thurmond, have been asked to get their intentions unmistakably on record by Chairman Alex D. Littlefield of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

"I shall expect to hear from you at once," he told them.

A swift reply came from Democratic elector, Col. H. W. Jackson, who told Littlefield he considered his demand "presumptuous," and added neither he nor the Executive Committee "has a thing to do with the selection of president."

Littlefield said in his letter to the Democratic candidates "is the directing authority of the Democratic party in Florida," and is duty bound to "see that all nominees on the Democratic ticket are Democrats."

Mrs. West said she will not vote for President Truman and declared Democratic voters elected her as one of the party's electoral college candidates because she made that intention known.

However, Owen L. Abell of West Palm Beach told the Associated Press he feels bound to vote "for the regular Democratic nominee for President if I am elected in November."

"I consider myself under the law of this state without choice in the matter," the presidential elector candidate said. He did not state whether his comment was a reply to Littlefield's letter but said it was a reaffirmation of an earlier declaration of his.

There was no immediate word from other Democratic candidates for elector.

Meanwhile, the special session movement brought about by the electoral candidates' split continued. Twenty-five members of the State Senate and 49 members of the House have signed petitions for a special legislative session.

Legion Post To Hold Dinner Friday Night

A large attendance of Legionnaires is expected at the Camp Lejeune Post No. 53 meeting Monday evening at the Legion Hut according to Commander James Wright.

The fried chicken supper will start promptly at 8:00 o'clock and the meeting at 8:30 o'clock. In order that members may attend "Appreciation Night" at Municipal Ball Park and see Sanford play Gainsville.

American Legion Junior baseball team players will be guests at the meeting at 8:30 o'clock and will be presented with silver baseball trophies in appreciation of their excellent ball playing during the past season.

Red Scientists Agree To Conform With Theories Of Communist Party

MOSCOW, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The Academy of Sciences liquidated a biological laboratory and "freed from their duties" two noted Soviet biologists by special decree today.

At the same time Soviet newspapers carried front-page spreads of a letter of the academy's presidium to Prime Minister Stalin. The letter pointed out that the academy would "correct its mistakes" in biology and "clear the path for the development of advanced Soviet science in the name of the great purposes of our people and in the name of the victory of Communism."

This was all part of the continuing row among Soviet scientists over whether acquired characteristics can be passed on from generation to generation, becoming inherited characteristics.

Removed from their jobs by the decree were Academician L. A. Orbeli, noted biologist who was secretary of the Section of Biological Sciences, and I. I. Shmalgauzen, who was director of the Institute of Evolutionary Morphology.

Liquidated was the Laboratory of Cytogenetics of the Institute of Cytology. Its chief, N. P. Dubinin, is accused of having taken "anti-scientific positions," (Cytogenetics deals with the study of the functions of cells).

The Communist central committee has placed its stamp of approval on the theory that acquired characteristics can be inherited. This was revealed by one of the exponents of the theory, T. D. Lyssenko, at a recent session of the Academy of Biological Sciences. Lyssenko attacked those Soviet scientists who insist upon the Mendelian theory.

"This is the widely accepted theory of inheritance. Mendel, working with plants, traced the same old traits from generation to generation."

Blow Continues Britain To Try Top Nazi Generals For War Crimes

MILAN, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The 115-mile-an-hour Atlantic hurricane gave evidence of slightly shifting its direction toward the west-northwest today. It had been traveling northward. While this course would take it in the general direction of the north Florida coast it was emphasized that the storm is centered 750 miles due east of Miami and probably will vary its course several times. "Hurricanes rarely travel in a straight line," Norton commented.

MIAMI, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Navy hurricane hunter banded its way into the 100-mile-an-hour hurricane about 900 miles east of Miami today and lost radio contact with land.

Storm warning headquarters said the hurricane apparently was continuing its northward course at about 15 miles an hour. While this took it in the general direction of the Florida-Georgia coast it was emphasized that the storm was still far away and could easily change its course.

"Hurricanes rarely move in a straight line," said Grady Norton, chief of the Storm Warning Service here.

The Navy plane in the storm was piloted by Lieut. C. W. Gifford, lieutenant commander of the aircraft carrier USS Yorktown. The plane was reported to have been hit by the storm's path.

This storm advisory was issued by the weather bureau. Aircraft located the hurricane center very close to our coast (Continued On Page Six)

HUDSON BRIDGE
NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Plans for a $14,000,000 bridge to span the Hudson River between Kingston and Rhinecliff, N. Y., about 90 miles above New York City, are under study by state engineers.

The structure would be the eighth longest bridge in the world.

Vance L. Williams
Of Lake Mary Dies
Vance L. Williams, 66, year old resident of Lake Mary, died yesterday morning after a short illness. He had lived in Lake Mary for the past eight years.

Born in Winchester, Tenn., Feb. 18, 1882, Mr. Williams was a retired policeman of Chattanooga, Tenn. He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Sue Dunbar Williams, Lake Mary; one sister, Mrs. J. M. Fitzpatrick, Belvidere, Tenn.

The remains will be sent to Knoxville, Tenn. for funeral and interment.

KARENKINA FUND
NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The plight of the Russian school teacher who leaped from a Soviet consulate window has led to establishment of a fund to aid "Refugees from Communism" in this country.

Common Cause, Inc., an anti-Communist organization, announced formation of the fund yesterday, partly to provide medical expenses, legal aid and future employment for the teacher, Mrs. Oksana Karenkina, 55.

Officials of the organization said the fund would be called the "Karenkina Fund for Victims of Communism."

Local Girl Attends Celebration At Sokol Festival Held In Prague

A Sanford girl was right in the middle of the demonstration against Communism that took place during July in Prague among the Czechs during the Sokol Festival and heard cheers for America and Americans and for Bents and Masaryk. She is Miss Liette Temple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Temple, and is employed by the Displaced Persons Bureau of the U. S. Government in Frankfurt, Germany. With two girl companions, she visited Prague.

A graduate of Seminole High School, she has been two years with the Civil Affairs Division of the European Command, and expects to return home to Sanford in several months.

"We left over the July 4th week-end," she wrote, "and added two days of leave so had almost a week all in all. We were there during the demonstrations you read about at the Sokol Festival. In fact, we learned the Czechoslovakian anti-Communist yell and stood on the curb shouting it with them. More fun!

"As an interesting side-light, we now think we were in the hands of a Communist agent the whole duration of our stay in Prague. Miss, the Czech woman who joined us in our compartment the border and showed us Prague, told us her 'story' of having just been released from prison for being traitors to meet us."

"Maybe you've seen in the papers the pictures and write-ups about the demonstration against Communism."

House Probers Dig Into Hiss, Chambers Deal

Investigation Shows Men Were Linked In Ownership Of Farm In West Maryland

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(AP)—A special federal grand jury which last month indicted 12 top Communists in the United States has been summoned for Sept. 11 to consider additional evidence.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee swung full circle today after a new report that Alger Hiss and Whittaker Chambers once were interested in the same old farm near Westminster, Md.

Committee investigator Robert H. Stripling and Rep. Nixon (R-Calif.) questioned Chambers after the report was published in the Baltimore News Post.

Talking with reporters later, Stripling said Chambers told him Hiss drove him to the farm in 1936 and that Hiss made a down payment on the farm but did not buy it.

Stripling said Chambers told him that about a year later he (Continued On Page Six)

O'Dwyer Fires All Of Marcantonio's Political Followers

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The warlike Mayor William O'Dwyer and left-wing Congressman Vito Marcantonio have erupted into bitter name-calling and countercharges of attempts at political deals.

By order of the Democratic Mayor, all non-civil service followers of Marcantonio's American Labor party on the city payroll are going to get the ax.

Marcantonio said yesterday that O'Dwyer is "a double-dealing, double-crossing hypocrite."

O'Dwyer said: "I see nothing in the Communist Party, including the Henry Wallace, the Marcantonio or the rest of them, but an attempt to destroy the Democratic Party that gave this country its freedom."

"It is clear at this time," the mayor added, "that the Communist Party is trying to pervert the 1948 election which gave us the Taft-Hartley law, and is attempting to reduce the cost of living and refused to go along with the Taft-Hartley law."

Wallace's office said there would be no comment on the running for President in New York state with A. P. Anson, a candidate for the position of mayor for the city of New York, said O'Dwyer was attacking him because he refused to make a deal with Tammany Hall to back the Democratic ticket in the upcoming election.

O'Dwyer who had A. P. support when he was elected three years ago, has been denounced recently by Tammany Hall for calling on the city to help for cost of the election.

O'Dwyer said Marcantonio in the three-cornered fight for the 1948 election, had been sent in the Nov. 2 election.

Construction Row Brews Over Vet Home

CANESVILLE, Aug. 27.—(AP)—A bid complaint on wartime construction reached the federal courts in Canesville today.

Assistant United States Attorney Hayford E. Enwall said that the complaint was filed with the federal court in Canesville, Ohio, by a group of contractors who claim that the amount of items of construction and equipment not included in a house as represented by the contractor to the purchaser was not paid for by the U. S. Army's Office of the Inspector General.

The suit is the first of its kind to be filed in court. Enwall said, and the assistant said his office would handle the case through to its conclusion.

The suit was filed by Robert C. West and his wife, Leonah, James A. Jones Jr. and his wife, Elizabeth.

TRUE TO FORM
DETROIT, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Running true to form, Paradise is more comfortable than Hell in Michigan's heat wave.

In Hell (population 100) in southeastern Michigan the temperature hit a blazing 96 Thursday.

At Paradise (population 75) in the northern part of the state, it was a less uncomfortable 91.

Reds Again Invade Berlin's City Hall Demanding Control

Negroes Are Told By Negro World Owes No Living

Race Urged To Rule Tempers, Improve Credit, Integrity

ALL PELASANI, Tenn., Aug. 27.—(AP)—A news speaker at a statewide Tennessee meeting tonight said "The world owes us a living and only we have a chance to make a living."

Alexander Lewis Nashville attorney and a member of the legal committee of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People addressed a group of Negroes before a mass audience at a state convention of the NAACP here.

"We as negroes," he said, "take too much for granted. We think too often that the world owes us a living."

Today's negroes are to get both sides of racial relations as they are, and called for a reduction of crime and violence among negroes.

"We must," he said, "learn how to control our temper and conduct (Continued On Page Four)

Demonstrations May Force Work Stoppage And Abandonment Of Building

BERLIN, Aug. 27.—(AP)—For the second month, day, intelligent Communist demonstrations forced there was today a break up of a meeting of the anti-Communist city council and immediately tried to substitute a toughened regime of their own.

They demanded that a special committee, composed of members of Communist dominated labor unions in the Soviet zone of the city, be appointed to replace the council. A spokesman denied that it was to be an "action committee," but it apparently could serve the same purpose.

Outside, police forces unable to get into the hall, called, when told of the cancellation of a scheduled city council meeting.

"We will come back again and again," he said.

This appeared to indicate that the Communist strategy is to keep the anti-Communist demonstrations, by using a series of walk-outs and city government, forced to allow the city hall and then set up a Communist front government for the city.

This morning's crowd, which numbered only 500 at the beginning of the demonstration, swelled to more than 2,000 before it ended. There were no arrests.

Hospital Service Gives Report On State's Facilities

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 27.—(AP)—More patients were admitted to Florida hospitals last year than the year before, though the number of beds available for their care was down.

The annual Hospital Service report of the American Medical Association showed the state had 120 hospitals at the end of 1947. That compared with 115 hospitals at the end of 1946. The decline in the number of beds was accounted for by a decline in federal hospital service.

A total of 10,000 hospital beds were available in the state at the end of 1947, compared with 12,000 in 1946.

A breakdown of state hospital facilities showed Florida has 29 general hospitals, two for mental and nervous diseases, six for tuberculosis, one for cancer, one for venereal diseases, one for leprosy, one for syphilis, one for skin diseases, one for eye diseases, one for ear diseases, one for nose diseases, one for throat diseases, one for lung diseases, one for heart diseases, one for kidney
