HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

Clarence V. T. Richeson's last hope of escaping the death chair next week for the murder of Avis Linnell, of Hyannis, expired when Governor Foss announced that he would not refer Richeson's petition for commutation of sentence to the Executive Council.

The Iowa State Democratic Convention today instructed the twenty-six delegates to the National Convention to vote for Champ Clark under the unit rule.

The jury deliberating the fate of the mountain clans that shot up the court of Carroll County, Virginia, was locked up at 9 o'clock tonight after six and a half hours of consideration of the case. If a verdict is reached tonight it will not be reported until court convenes tomorrow.

A rich haul estimated at from $150,000 to $200,000 was made by masked bandits who Wednesday held up the Quenn & Crescent New York Limited train No. 2, near Oklawaha, a flag station eight miles south of Hattiesburg, and blew open the safe of the Southern Express car. Express officials deny tonight that the sum obtained is anything like the latter figure, but declined to make any estimate of the loss.

Charging the system of fixing reclamation in Bremen on cotton shipped from Savannah as "unfair" and "unreasonable" the Savannah Cotton Exchange has entered a vigorous protest with the Bremen Cotton Exchange by cable.

With approximately 75,000 square miles of Louisiana's farming country inundated by Mississippi River waters and over 5,000 people driven from their homes, the serious crevasse disaster at Hymelia promises to add another thousand square miles or more to the overflowed territory, make homeless thousands of people and add millions of dollars to the property damage done in the State.

After voting to send the State's 18 delegates to the Baltimore convention uninstruced, the South Carolina Democratic State Convention adopted by a vote of 241 to 91 a resolution endorsing Woodrow Wilson. It was remarkable for its brevity: "Resolved, that this convention endorses Woodrow Wilson without instruction." From the minute the convention formed its permanent organization it was apparent that the line of battle had been drawn between those advocating instructions for Wilson, and those favoring an uninstruced delegation. The fight lasted for three hours of five-minute oratory.

At The Methodist Church

The pastor of the Methodist church is delivering a series of Sunday night sermons on some live topics, interesting to the people of Sanford. The sermon last Sunday night was delivered to a large congregation and "Sanford's greatest sin" was dealt with in no uncertain language.

The subject for next Sunday night will be "Sanford's Greatest Needs." Every person in town should hear these discourses and are cordially invited to be present. Come early and secure a seat. Service begins promptly at 7:30.

Frank Miller Honored Again

Frank Miller has returned from Jacksonville, where he attended the annual meet of the Undertakers' and Embalmers' Association. Mr. Miller is a most enthusiastic member of the association and for several years has held the position of secretary. As proof of the assertion that he is the man for the position Mr. Miller was again honored by being elected for the third term. The members all enjoyed the meeting and were shown every courtesy by the Jacksonville people, several trips being planned for their entertainment.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK AT SANFORD HIGH SCHOOL

The commencement season at the Sanford High School is an event of so much importance that many people come to the city to attend all the exercises, and the commencement has assumed the importance of a college commencement.

The season of 1912 opened last Monday night with the recital given by Mrs. Munson's pupils, and will close tonight with the graduating exercises. Following are the events as they occurred, the Junior reception and graduation appear in Tuesday's issue.

Mrs. Munson's Recital

From past expectation and realization the Sanford people know that Mrs. Munson's recitals are always musical gems, and the recital of Monday evening in the auditorium of the Sanford High School given by Mrs. Munson's piano pupils, assisted by Mr. W. Clay Inman of Rollins College, Winter Park, was no exception to the established rule, but was fully up to the standard of excellence of selection and proficiency of execution by each and every one who assisted in making the splendid program such a delightful success. Sanford is very proud of her musical talent and is always pleased when the opportunity presents itself to render homage to the large number of musicians in her midst, whose genius and proficiency have so often contributed to their pleasure.

Mr. Inman is not unknown to Sanford music lovers, his enviable gift of song and grand voice having sung their way into their hearts and appreciation on other occasions as well as on Monday evening. His voice has been truly described as a beautifully rich, big baritone. With the oneness in harmony and sympathetic interpretation of the spirit of the songs by the accompanist, Miss Ward, the pleasure given by Mr. Inman's selections and generous encores, could not fail to be enjoyed by the large and appreciative audience which filled the auditorium. Space will not permit individual mention of each performer of the instrumental selections on the program, which is given in full, as each and every one have on several occasions filled the hearts of their listeners with pride and delight, and Monday evening's performance is but added leaves to their laurel wreath of success.

"The Time of His Life"

The very entertaining three act play, given by the Irving Literary and Debating Societies in the High School in the auditorium of the school Tuesday evening was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by the large audience who annually witness the histrionic efforts of the school literary societies.

The amusing domestic scene and problem was enacted in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grey, while Mr. Grey was away from home on a business trip. Grey's kind hearted, fun loving brother, Tom, is staying with his sister during her husband's absence. The servants have requested an evening off, which has been granted and Mrs. Grey and her brother are expecting to have a pick-up dinner. The house is in utter confusion, owing to the work of paper hangers and painters.

The evening's mail brings letters announcing the arrival of guests for dinner, and also the arrival of Mr. Grey later in the evening.

Act I Dining room in the Grey house about four o'clock p. m. Act II Same as first act one hour later Act III Library at two o'clock a. m. the same night.

Personnel of play: Mr. Robert Grey—Tenney Deane. Mrs. Bob Grey—Miss Ruth Stewart. Tom Carter, Mrs. Grey's brother—Clarence Mahoney. Mrs. Peter Wycomb, "a personage" Miss Hoskins Jones. Mr. Peter Wycomb, "a pessimist with a digestive" George McLaughlin. Dorothy Landon, secretly engaged to Tom Carter. Miss Lillian Higgins. Mr. James Landon, Dorothy's father of a peppery disposition. Wallace Crosby. Mr. James Landon, Dorothy's father of a peppery disposition. Wallace Crosby.

Uncle Tom, an old colored butler from the south. Robert McKim.

Officer Hogan, of the 22nd street police station.

Mrs. Grey is so distressed at the embarrassing dilemma in which she is placed that her kind hearted, fun loving brother suggests that they order the dinner from a restaurant and that he will disguise himself as Uncle Tom and serve the dinner, which could have probably been carried out as planned, but for the unexpected arrival of Dorothy Landon, who was an old schoolmate of Mrs. Grey's with her aunt, Mrs. Wycomb, and her husband, the unexpected guests for dinner. While the dinner was being served by Tom Carter, disguised as Uncle Tom, who looks upon the affair as a jolly lark and "The Time of His Life," the butler returns, and seeing as he thought, his double, leaves the house in a panic. The unexpected appearance and behavior of the two butlers is such a shock to Mr. Wycomb's weak heart that he has to be put to bed. Tom Carter vows that he will give up his job, but is persuaded by his sister to wait until the butler returns. She also promises to tell Dorothy the state of affairs, which in a rather strange way complicates the situation still further. Tom Carter asks the aid of the police to find Uncle Tom, and when they fail, starts out one in the morning to hunt for him, and is himself arrested, as he answers the description of the colored butler. Uncle Tom, who has a key, slips back to get his money and clothes. Mr. Wycomb thinking that he hears burglars investigates and finds the remainder of the dinner, which he makes preparations to enjoy in the library, where Uncle Tom has fallen asleep. While Mr. Wycomb is looking for more burglars, Mr. Grey, accompanied by Mr. Landon arrives and while he has gone to waken his wife Mr. Landon falls asleep in his chair. Mr. Wycomb returns to his lunch and finds as he supposes a burglar asleep. He makes Uncle Tom tie him in his chair.

The indignation of Mr. Landon brings the awakened household on the scene and while explanations are being made the policeman arrives with Tom Carter, the other Uncle Tom. The entire play was a succession of amusing situations and startling climaxes. Each character was splendidly sustained throughout by the young actors, who are to be congratulated on their very great success and the entertainment afforded the audience.

To say that the very large and certainly appreciative audience who witnessed the very fine presentation of the play given by the Irving Literary and Debating Societies of the Sanford High School in the auditorium of the school Tuesday evening was pleased, is putting it mildly—they were highly entertained and thoroughly enjoyed the many dramatic situations and startling climaxes which seemed to be continually presenting themselves, to the utter confusion of the inmates of the Grey home, who certainly were the playmates of fate for one evening. The three acts of the play were replete with interest all the way through. Each actor sustained their roll most creditably and naturally. As Mrs. Grey, mistress of the house, Miss Ruth Stewart, was the helpless, dependent and anxious housekeeper and wife to perfection, in her seeming inability to cope with the domestic problem presenting itself during a house repairing and renovating occasion; the absence of the servants, and unexpected arrival of guests, who were rather peculiar.

Clarence Mahoney, as Tom Carter, the fun loving brother of Mrs. Grey, whose foolishness nearly killed Uncle Tom, the colored butler from the south, was indeed an ideal brother, in his appreciation of the domestic dilemma, in which his sister found herself. He was willing to immolate himself on the altar of self sacrifice, while deluding himself with the thought that he was going to have in personating Uncle Tom, "The Time of His Life."

Miss Hoskins Jones, as Mrs. Wycomb, the traveled aristocrat from the south, and the patient, long suffering wife of Mr. Peter Wycombe, was most excellent in her interpretation of the character she personated. George McLaughlin, as Mr. Peter Wycombe was so perfectly true to the requirements of the role that he may perhaps have to remain a bachelor the remainder of his life if he continues to live in Sanford, where the girls have only to remember Mr. Peter Wycombe and how well George can be a pessimist with a digestion.

Dorothy Landon, as personated by Miss Lillian Higgins, was dainty, charming and lovable. The audience deeply sympathized with Tom Carter in the web which fate seemed to be weaving around him, in the unexpected presence of his fiancée, Dorothy Landon, when he was disguised as the colored butler.

Walter Crosby as Mr. Landon, Dorothy's father, had very pronounced views concerning the husband he would choose for his daughter, although he too has one amenable to reason and the exigencies of the situation.

Uncle Tom, the colored butler from the south was made to live again in the realistic presentation of Robert McKim; in fact both Uncle Toms were a credit to the genuine old time family servant. Officer Hogan could not possibly have been more keenly "on his job" than the parlance of the day, than was Harold Long, who knew so well what to do with a dusky cop at 2 a. m. The amateurs who gave themselves to the pleasure and entertainment of others Tuesday evening are certainly to be congratulated on their very great success.

SANFORD'S NEW DEPOT

Work of Staking Out The New Structure Starts This Week.

Sanford's new depot is an assured fact and while it has been settled for some time that the new structure would be built, the actual work began this week when the staking out commenced. The surveyors have been busy for some time running lines and getting the preliminary work in shape. The new depot will be built about where the old hospital formerly stood on the main line and will cost about $28,000 or more. The new station will cause a building boom in that section and already activity in the real estate line has commenced, several new houses being contracted and many lots sold. A new hotel will be erected and also a fine railroad eating house and restaurant will be built.

Bitten By A Horse.

The young son of Will Humphreys was badly bitten by a horse yesterday. While riding after cattle a horse ridden by his brother reached over to bite the horse of young Humphreys and caught him by the leg taking out a large piece of flesh. He was hurried to the office of Dr. Robinson where he received medical attention but the lad is very badly injured and the physicians have grave doubts of his entire recovery from the injury.

OVIEDO BANK OPENED

Event Is Celebrated by Picnic And Barbecue

POLITICS IN CENTRE OF STAGE

Special Trains Carried Large Crowds And Most Enjoyable Day Was Spent By All

Wednesday was "Red Letter" day for Oveido and this beautiful little city drew one of the largest crowds to her friendly bosom that has ever congregated in any city in the county outside of the larger cities—drew them to her and treated them as a fond mother might treat them and all the good things that the full larder can supply for the delectation of the inner man were given with a lavish hospitality that is synonymous with the name of Oveido. We do not remember the interpretation of the name, Oveido, but it ought to mean, Lady Bountiful.

Despite the lowering clouds of the early hours the Sanford people chartered a special train and everybody went to Oveido that could get away. An invitation to come to Oveido is never turned down by anyone from Sanford because we know that next to Sanford we would rather be in Oveido.

The crowds came from everywhere, Orlando people coming by autos and by the Seaboard and all the country round about furnished a full quota.

The occasion was the opening of the Oveido bank, a beautiful structure of brick and marble and tiling consisting of the bank proper and a directors room and a vault equipped with all the latest improved safeguards against fire and burglars and presided over by Cashier Sessions, an affable gentleman who exuded the true Oveido spirit and made everybody welcome.

The bank opening was the real excuse for the large gathering but politics rather overshadowed the principal feature and captured the interest of the crowd. The morning was given over to the Sheriff's race and both Hand and Kirkwood gave the people a heart to heart talk the first explaining the need of the office on account of his large family and the latter on account of the fact that he wanted to get married and have a family. By the time the Sheriff candidates had wpt sufficiently the special trains had arrived and the object of every one present seemed to be a race for the tables to see who could eat the most. And it was there for them for seldom before has there been such a quantity of barbecued meat and fried chicken flanked by all the trimmings placed upon one table. It was there by the carload and a stranger to Orange county present must have thought he was in the "promised land." After everyone had sufficiently gorged, being attended by the good ladies who insisted on heaping up the plates, Hon. J. H. Lee called the crowd to order and introduced Hon. Forrest Lake who thanked the people for their support in his race for the Legislature. He was followed by Jos. H. Guernsey of Orlando who in his usual cheerful vein introduced Hon. Frank Clark, candidate for Congress. Lack of space forbids a detailed report of Mr. Clark's speech as it does that of Hon. S. J. Hilburn who followed him and who is a candidate for Clark's job. Suffice to say that Clark made a fair-minded appeal to the voters and made votes while Hilburn's main talk was vituperation of Clark that reacted in Clark's favor. As the readers have already made up their minds and are heartily tired of politics the subject will be tabooed in this article.

The occasion of the barbecue at Oveido will long linger in the minds of the people who were present. It was one of the rays of sunshine that help to lighten our darkened way down the narrow path of life. To get out in the open and mingle with the big hearted people of East Orange always gives one the true conception of the biblical phrase, "love thy neighbor as thyself." One of the redeeming features of a political campaign is a barbecue and picnic and when dreading the approach of another spasm of the same we will be cheered by the thought that maybe Oveido will have another barbecue and bank opening and we will have an opportunity of being present.

BRANDS THE FALSEHOODS

Hilburn So Anxious For Office That He Juggles The Truth

May 15th, 1912.

To the Editor of The Herald: I am told that after I left Oviedo today Mr. Hilburn stated in his speech that I was brought back to Florida from Oklahoma several years ago by the East Coast Railroad Company. I have several times in Mr. Hilburn's presence denounced this statement as a falsehood "cut out of the whole cloth." I again denounce it as a falsehood and defy him or any other man...

I am also told that he read a copy of a letter I wrote to a man in Chicago relative to a tract of 32,000 acres of land. Mr. Hilburn has heard my statement about this and knows that the impression he seeks to create does me a serious injustice and is entirely unwarranted. This tract is what is known as the U. J. White property and is situated near Dupont, lying in St. Johns, Volusia, and probably some of it is in Putnam. Mr. Tom Osmond of St. Augustine, who is a friend of mine, was desirous of buying the property, and asked me to try and borrow the money—$300,000—for him. He stated that if I could not secure the loan for him he would be glad if I would secure a purchaser for it; that the net price to the owner was $300,000, and all over that amount would be commission, and that if I found the purchaser for him he would be glad to allow me a part of it. He furnished a full description of the property. A man in Washington, whom I knew slightly came to see me and stated that he had a friend in Chicago, who had a customer for a tract of Florida land running from 25,000 to 50,000 acres. I told him of this White property. He gave me his friend's address and requested me to send him a description of the property, with terms, etc. I wrote to the man, enclosing the description, and advising him that the net price to the owner was $300,000, and that all over that was commission to be divided. This is all there is to this wonderful revelation. I never heard from the Chicago man and the matter never went any further.

This property has since been sold by Mr. White, and I am told for $800,000. To show that this was exceedingly valuable land, and in no sense to be classed among "fake" propositions I quote from a letter written recently by the present owners to a gentleman who made some inquiry about it. The company says "It was our intention at that time to break this up into ten (10) acre tracts and sell the same to purchasers in the north. We have about 175 acres in potatoes this year, the crop of which is being harvested at this time. We figure that it will net us something like $35,000, and it is becoming the idea of the company not to sell this piece of property, but to commence agricultural operations, turpentine and timber, as we feel that we could make more money in that manner than to sell it off in the state in which it is at this time.

And this is the property which Mr. Hilburn places in a class with the lands being exploited by the sharks! He is certainly hard up for something to attack me on, but he wants office and evidently wants it bad.

Respectfully, FRANK CLARK

RHEUMATISM

THOUSANDS WHOM IT HAS CURED SING THE PRAISES OF LEONARDI'S ELIXIR

The Most Wonderful Remedy of Modern Times. Cured Many Who Were Given Up to Die.

No other disease that afflicts the human race is so common as rheumatism.

Almost every one suffers from it in some form or other. Impure blood is the immediate cause and the waste and poisonous matter must be driven from the Blood before rheumatism can be cured.

There are several forms of rheumatism,—chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deforming rheumatism and rheumatic gout.

Overwork, exposure, changeable weather and indigestion all aggravate the disease and hasten its appearance.

In its early stages the aches that accompany the disease are often attributed to less serious causes.

The cure for so deep seated a trouble as rheumatism can never be an ordinary preparation that only dulls the pain and causes temporary relief. There are a thousand and one so-called medicines for rheumatism that not only never cure, but unfortunately are often the means of discouraging those who use them.

Leonardi's Blood Elixir is as little related to these worthless preparations as an honest silver piece is to a clumsy counterfeit.

Leonardi's Blood Elixir is a specific for the cure of rheumatism in all its forms.

The first ache or pain should send you at once to the druggist for a bottle of this remedy. It will cure your rheumatism. It will so cleanse, clear and rejuvenate the blood that every organ of the body will share immediately in the healthier condition. It will build you up and make you strong. Its peculiar ability to increase the amount of new, rich blood and stimulate the action of the liver and kidneys has made it the regular prescription of many of our best physicians.

Dr. M. J. Anderson, a well known physician of Tampa, Fla., writes, "I consider Leonard's Blood Elixir the best blood medicine made. I know from personal experience that it cures the most obstinate cases of blood disease quickly. In my opinion it is a sure cure for rheumatism and I recommend it to all."

Testimony like this should send every sufferer with rheumatism to his druggist for a bottle of Leonard's Blood Elixir. Use it and get well.

Winter Park will have a new brick hotel costing $150,000. Will Sanford people wake up to their needs in this respect?

Sanford is no back number in the matter of brick roads. She wants the privilege of bonding the district for $200,000 for this purpose.—Orlando Citizen.

Every city, town and hamlet in Florida recognizing the needs of better hotel accommodations and the vast amount of money brought to the state by tourist travel are preparing to build new hotels. All but Sanford. The people here are asleep at the switch. They would rather raise celery.

Sanford is moving the potato crop at the rate of seven cars per day, realizing $5.60 per barrel for the best. The celery crop is about all gone and the season has been fine. Tomato shipments are now on and as there are 400 acres this crop will be heavy. From three to five cars of beans and cucumbers are moving daily.—Orlando Citizen.

Barcus Is Willin'

The Democrats of Iowa want to form a Bryan Club and state that Bryan is willing to accept the nomination if the same is tendered to him on a silver platter. Of course he is willing to accept and has been willing to accept for several years and will be willing to accept the next time you hear from him but whether the Democrats are willing to accept a loser when the office is within the grasp of a winner is another matter.

Political Waters Muddy

The race for Supremacy in the Second is getting rather strenuous and Hilburn is making the charge that Clark represents the railroad interests. He makes excuses for injecting this dope in the campaign by the statement that Clark is charging Hilburn with being owned by the land sharks. Clark did not make this statement in his address at Sanford and all the mud-alinging was done by Mr. Hilburn. This mud artillery is probably due to the fact that the Everglades is composed of Muck.

Referring to the item of $100 paid Gov. Gilchrist by S. J. Hilburn for advertising, which appears in Hilburn's statement of campaign expenses on file with the Secretary of State, the Governor says this was one-third the cost of publishing in the Times-Union of March 29th the full page advertisement over his signature, the cost of the advertisement being equally divided between himself, Mr. Burr and Mr. Hilburn. Clark certainly has reason to feel proud of the vote he received in the first primary, with the Governor the chairman of the State Railroad commission and Col. Hilburn all combining against him with their money and influence.—Gainesville Sun.

Candidates Week

This seems to have been candidates week at Sanford, for three of them have made addresses here during the week. Hon. S. J. Hilburn was the first man on the job and spoke here on Tuesday evening. He was followed by Frank Clark on Wednesday evening and W. M. Toomer held the boards at the Star Theater last evening. All of them had representative crowds but at no time have any of the candidates drawn large crowds in this city during the campaign. It would seem that either the people are weary of politics or else they have made up their minds on the subject and do not care to hear any campaign thunder.

Here's To Oveldo

Here's to Oveldo, the fairest little city in all the land. Where the people are making money so fast that they need an extra bank to hold it and where they have so much to eat that it takes a block of land to hold it and where they have such beautiful girls that it takes Sanford boys—but why expatiate. We are too full of barbecued meat to offer our thanks so take it for granted that Sanford owes Oveldo one, and if they ever come here to a gathering of any kind—say for instance the building of a government building or a court house—we will reciprocate and see that they are stall fed.

Vote For The High Man

Facts of the first primary meaning something: Sheats led in thirty-one counties, receiving 21,016 votes to Holloway's 19,517.

In Alachua county, where both served as county superintendents, Sheats' vote was 1,008, Holloway's 708.

In Bradford county, where Holloway was born and reared, Sheats' vote was 492, Holloway's 422.

In Leon county, where both lived as State superintendents, Sheats' vote was 593, Holloway's 233.

Sheats carried every county of the State in which he had lived.

Is it not safest to vote for the man who runs best where he is best known?—Lakeland Telegram.

You are right, Bro. Hetherington, and for the same reason you should now favor Frank Clark over whom you have been very much exercised and with whose election you have nothing to do as it is in the Second District. You supported Sparkman very vigorously. Why the change of heart?

The Sanford Herald nominates Forrest Lake for Speaker of the next Florida house. What's the matter with Tomlin, of Hillsborough?—Tampa Tribune.

After Lake, my dear Gaston.

Orlando's Strong Team

The following account of the base ball meeting at the San Juan this morning, and the sum-up of the situation, was written for the Reporter-Star by a prominent member of the Association:

The base ball association held a meeting this morning at the San Juan Hotel with President Robinson in the chair. The treasurer reported that Sanford and Orlando had each deposited the sum of $500 in cash as a forfeit conditioned on playing the full series of forty games. The first game will be played on the Orlando grounds June 6th. There will be three games a week, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, the alternate Thursdays to be played respectively in Sanford and Orlando. The line-up has not been fully decided upon, but there are many old faces in the list of candidates. Windom, Wilson, Vaiden and several unknowns for pitchers; Beardall for catcher, Gore for first base, Frank Pounds for second, Barnett for third, Clyde Pounds for a short stop, Lee, Bennett, Boyer and several others contending for fielding positions and several others for other positions.

Regular team practice will begin the 20th. A game has been arranged to be played in Leesburg on the 23rd, when numerous candidates will be tried out.

The association will do its best to get a team that can play ball and it will expect the people of Orlando to support such a team.

There is no doubt but what our summer base ball is the best advertisement we can put out and also it tends to keep our people happy and contented during the otherwise dull summer months. So when you are asked to contribute regard it as a good investment and put in your fair proportion to put the association on a good clear financial footing.

Play ball!—Reporter-Star.

Missionary Meeting

The missionary society of the Methodist church held their regular business meeting in the church Tuesday afternoon. The reports of the delegates to the state annual conference of the missionary society, which was recently held in Tampa, were given after the business of the meeting had been attended to. They were very interesting and were thoroughly enjoyed by the society. Mrs. H. H. Chappell gave quite a characteristic report in detail of the trip of the delegates and the doings of the conference, bringing back for the information of the home society the various plans of work and the success already achieved along many lines, also the efforts that are to be put forth to do more and greater work. Mrs. Chappell's entertaining report was supplemented by many interesting details given by Mrs. Miot and Mrs. Mettinger, who attended the conference.

After Mrs. Perry announced that the Reading Circle of the society would meet at the parsonage with Mrs. C. H. Summers the second Tuesday in the month the meeting adjourned.

Everybody's doing it! What? Getting ready for the Big Sale at the Boston next Saturday.

MADDOCKS FIELD PLAYERS

Will Appear At The Star Theatre Soon
It will no doubt gladden the hearts of the amusement lovers of this city to learn that the old favorites will return soon.

The Maddocks-Field Players are under the management of Mr. Frank L. Maddocks who, for several years past, has been connected with the business staff of the C. W. Park Dramatic Co.

Mr. Maddocks has engaged a company of artists well known to theatre-goers and has organized a circuit of houses in Florida in which they will play all summer. The company is headed by Mr. Norman R. Field, the sterling young actor who for the past three seasons has been the favorite with the C. W. Park Dramatic Co.

The object of the Maddocks-Field Players is to give the amusement loving people the very best that can be produced at popular prices.

In larger cities a stock company will stay for weeks and months, playing one bill a week. This could not be done by a first class attraction in towns of less than 75,000 population, but the Maddocks-Field Players intend to play each town on the circuit every two or three weeks, giving an entire change of both plays and specialties each night.

Neither time nor money will be spared to make the attraction the best ever before seen for a price within the reach of everyone.

The company's first visit to this city will be for three nights, beginning May 20th.

Denmark's King Dead
The body of King Frederick VII. of Denmark was placed aboard a special train yesterday morning and conveyed to Travenmunde. Thence the royal yacht Dannebrog conveyed by a warship took the body to Copenhagen.

King Frederick, who loved to mingle among the people, died when returning from a short stroll among the evening crowds on Alter promenade, at Hamburg. When stricken he tried to tell a policeman, who came to his assistance, the name of the hotel at which he was staying but the latter could not understand. The King was carried to an automobile but died on the way to a hospital. The body was then sent to the morgue where it lay with eight others for several hours.

Christian X was proclaimed King of Denmark from the balcony of the palace at Copenhagen in the presence of a huge crowd of people who had gathered in the square in front of the royal residence.

The reading of the proclamation was hailed with a loud cheer from the enormous crowd. Throughout the day the church bells in the city tolled.

ORGANIZED CHARITY

Sanford Will Be Prepared To Handle This Question Systematically
Organized charities for Sanford are an assured fact, if one may judge from the meeting at the Masonic Hall last Sunday afternoon. This meeting was held subject to a call by the executive committee of the Men and Religion Forward Movement of Sanford.

Mr. C. R. Walker, chairman of this committee, called the meeting together and upon motion was made the temporary chairman of the afternoon. Prof. N. J. Perkins was made temporary secretary. The roll call showed the presence of the following representatives:

City Council, B. W. Herndon; Methodist church, Rev. C. H. Summers, L. R. Phillips; Presbyterian church, not represented; Episcopal church, S. O. Chase, Mrs. B. F. Whitner, Jr.; Baptist church, Rev. J. W. Wildman, T. S. Davis; Congregational church, C. R. Walker, Rev. G. B. Waldron, Mrs. Waldron; Catholic church, Ed Rourke, Mrs. LaY. Hurt; Rev. P. J. Bresnahan; Welaka Club, Mrs. L. G. Stringfellow; Mrs. Frank Woodruff; Hospital Association, Mrs. T. E. Roumillat, W. T. Field; W. C. T. U., not represented; Wednesday Club, Mrs. L. R. Phillips, Mrs. Henry Wight; Lend-a-Hand, Miss Mell Whitner, Miss Madge Ward; Masonic Order, not represented; Eastern Star, Mrs. J. D. Parker, Mrs. Geo. Fox, Jr., C. F. Haskins; Odd Fellows, J. W. Singletary, K. R. Murrell, W. P. Stone, Elka, K. R. Murrell, C. F. Haskins; Machinists, F. R. Kent, C. H. Smith; Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, T. S. Davis; Boiler Makers, H. C. McBride; Carpenters and Joiners, not represented; Men and Religion Forward Movement, C. R. Walker, B. F. Whitner, Jr., L. R. Phillips, N. J. Perkins; visitors, F. P. Forster, Henry Wight.

There were thus thirty-six persons present, representing the City Council, five churches and eleven benevolent, social and fraternal organizations of the city. Interest in the movement for organized charities was thus manifested at the very beginning.

In a short address Chairman Walker stated the object of the meeting and asked for a discussion, which was participated in by the following: Messrs. Waldron, Murrell, Singletary, Fields, Whitner, Summers and Mrs. J. D. Parker. The fact was speedily developed that there was practical unanimity that Sanford needs some form of organized charities. The following motion was carried unanimously:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this body that we enter into some kind of charity organization for the city of Sanford."

After a discussion as to ways and means, which was led by Mrs. Wight, it was unanimously voted that the chair be asked to name a committee of five to formulate plans for such an organization, to be presented to a future meeting of this body. This committee as announced later by the chairman consists of the following named persons: Messrs. G. B. Waldron, S. O. Chase, T. S. Davis, C. H. Summers and Mrs. Henry Wight.

B. W. Herndon was elected temporary secretary in place of Prof. Perkins, who is soon to leave the city. The meeting thereupon adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

At The Palms

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Tilden Jacobs was the scene of a very pleasant affair last Saturday afternoon, when they entertained Mr. Jacobs' Sunday school class, the primary, at a Mother's Day party. At 3 o'clock about twenty-five little tots and their mothers or mothers pro tem assembled on the lawn, where arrangements had been made for the program. It being a Sunday school party the program was limited to sacred song, reading selections and quotations in honor of our mothers.

After the program Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs, assisted by Miss Ethel Collins and Rosa Jacobs served dainty refreshments, consisting of iced lemonade, strawberries and various kinds of cookies, dear to the children's hearts. Being refreshed the children enjoyed a play around the house and grounds, then all took their leave, expressing in their childish words to host and hostess the pleasures they had enjoyed.

Official Returns Give Underwood 7,861 Majority

Only 4 Delegates Have Been Elected. Other 8 to be Chosen Next Primary

Important That Friends of Underwood be Sent to Baltimore to Carry Out States Instructions

The complete tabulated returns of the State Executive Committee for the Presidential preference, shows that Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama received a majority of 7,861 votes over Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey. This is a most flattering testimonial to this Great Chieftain of Democracy, who has been acclaimed north and south as the greatest floor leader in Congress the Democratic Party has ever had. Especially is this true when it is taken into consideration that friends of Mr. Wilson of New Jersey have been active and aggressive in Florida for the past year. While Mr. Underwood has only been a candidate for President a few short months and his campaign in Florida was only inaugurated about a month before the first primary. Never before in the history of the state has such a wonderful victory been won for any candidate.

Following closely upon the result in Florida the people of Georgia spoke through their primary and gave Underwood a majority of over 13,000 over Mr. Wilson, adding twenty-eight votes to his column. About a week ago Mississippi held a primary and Underwood defeated Wilson there by a vote of 3 to 1, adding 20 more. Alabama had already spoken giving her twenty-four votes. Verily the South is waking up, she decided that she has a candidate of her own who is eminent, worthy and distinguished enough to offer to this United Country as her choice for the greatest office in the whole world. Other southern states: Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina—some of these whose delegates will be unimpaired, will undoubtedly add to his strength, and before the National Convention assemblies in Baltimore on June 25th Underwood will have at least 150 to 175 delegates.

The State Committee in canvassing returns for Delegates to the National Convention found that in the 3rd Congressional District Mr. Frank Mayes of Pensacola and Mr. J. E. C. Griggs of Apalachicola, were elected delegates from that district. These gentlemen while expressing their personal preference for Mr. Woodrow Wilson have come out like men and declared that as Florida had expressed her preference for Underwood, they would stand by him in the Convention. The Committee found that only two of the many candidates for Delegates-at-Large received sufficient votes to win in the first primary. These were Governor A. W. Gilchrist and Mr. Frank E. Chase. These two candidates had declared themselves openly and above board in favor of Underwood and they will go to the Convention as enthusiastic and earnest supporters of Florida's choice.

None of the other candidates received a majority, the eight highest will have to run again in the next primary.

In the 1st Congressional District, there being so many candidates, for Delegates, no one was elected, therefore the four highest will have to run again, two of whom are to be elected.

In the 2nd Congressional District the same condition exists, the four highest must run with two of them to win.

It so happens—and fortunately too—that in each of these Congressional Districts, two of these gentlemen who were candidates are outspoken and avowed supporters of Underwood. For the State-at-Large there are four candidates who are Wilson men and four candidates who are strong supporters of Underwood.

The people will therefore have an opportunity of completing Florida's Delegation to the National Convention in the next primary by carefully selecting those candidates for Delegates who are in sympathy with and earnest advocates of the men for whom the same people have expressed so decided a preference in the last primary.

It would be a marked coincidence and entirely unnatural, and out of line with the sentiment of the State if Florida should send Delegates to Baltimore who are not supporters of Underwood.

It can thus be seen that great care needs to be taken by the voter when he marks his ticket on May 28th to carefully select and vote for those candidates who can be depended upon to remain true to Florida's standard-bearer.

In looking over the tickets as they will be handed the electors; in the 1st Congressional District, Mr. W. Hunt Harris of Monroe and Mr. A. P. Jordan of DeSoto are the two Underwood men.

In the 2nd Congressional District Mr. B. C. Abernathy of Orange and Mr. Robt. E. Davis of Alachua are the two Underwood candidates.

For the State-at-Large Dr. E. S. Crill of Putnam, Mr. Frank Harris of Marion, Mr. Edwin D. Lambright of Hillsboro, and Mr. V. S. Williams of Excambria are on the Underwood ticket. All of these gentlemen voted in the last primary for Underwood for President, and worked for him in their respective sections of the State. Their opponents worked and voted for Wilson.

It cannot be possible that the people of Florida will reverse themselves on May 28th and give their votes for the avowed supporters of the defeated candidate in Florida, Gov. Wilson of New Jersey, when they have previously recorded themselves by so overwhelmingly electing the National Leader of our Party today, Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama. Yet, it can be readily understood that this condition may result unless great care is taken in making the ballots.

Give Underwood a square deal in this matter. Florida has said she was for him; let Florida send his friends to Baltimore to help him, not his enemies, not those who worked against him when he won on April 30th, as the opponents of the above mentioned candidates did. Don't send unfriendly hands and unsympathetic hearts to work against him. Vote for the true and friend Underwood men. Don't regard the personnel of the candidates for Delegate, regardless of any good qualities the Wilson candidates for Delegate may possess. Consider only, "Is he for Underwood for President." Let's see that every delegate from Florida at Baltimore is a man whom Underwood can rely on and not send people there who would carry out your instructions and perhaps vote for Underwood a few times and then leave him at the first opportunity when they thought there might be some chance for their choice, who is not Florida's choice. Send as delegates men who will uphold the honor of Florida and who will unceasingly and everlastingly work for success of Florida's choice, Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama for President of the United States.

Toomer Describes L'Engle's Democracy as Shady & Doubtful

Declines Joint Debate. Gives Red-hot Rebuke to "Mud-Manners" in Democratic Primaries

Jacksonville, Fla., May 14, 1912.

Mr. Claude L. Engle
Jacksonville, Florida

Sir: I notice in a number of political advertisements published by you recently and containing personal criticism and abuse of me, with no reference to any matters of public or political interest, that you are anxious to meet me in a series of joint debates before the people of Florida. You have never addressed me any invitation of the kind and I am, therefore, tempted to doubt the sincerity of your statement contained in and published as mere political advertisement.

Assuming, however, that you were in earnest about it and that you had invited me in a proper way to meet you in joint discussion, I beg to say that I would under no circumstances consider entering into joint debate with you and for these reasons:

First—Your invitation, if such it may be called, to this discussion was the only reply I received to the statement I made to you that you had obtained some stolen dictation from my office and had published a forgery of my signature to an unaddressed, undelivered letter. Your failure to PRODUCE THIS LETTER AND ACCOUNT FOR YOUR POSSESSION of it or withdraw and apologize for uttering a flagrant forgery of my name, forfeits for you the right to demand this courtesy at my hands.

Second—This is a Democratic Primary. I have been engaged in a fair presentation to the people of Florida of the views which I entertain upon Democratic principles like the proper regulation of trusts, revision downward of the tariff, the cooperation by our general Government with the several states in building and maintaining interstate highways, the protection of the health of the people of Florida against foreign infection, and questions of equal importance. I desire and intend to continue this method of campaigning, stopping only to answer such private, personal, and business abuse and slander of me by you as may seem intolerable.

You, upon the other hand, have IGNORED the discussion of any question, whatever, of public interest. You elected to base your campaign upon statements of your "service to the people" as a sleuth and scandal scavenger, and have spent the rest of your time, bitterly attacking Judge Martin and Capt. O'Brien, two of our former competitors, and especially abusing and misstating my personal and business record. Your sense of propriety is perhaps not so utterly dead as to prevent your realizing the impropriety of my speaking with you.

Third—We have no evidence, from any public performance of yours, or any direct expression of opinion upon any public question, that you are a Democrat at all. There are abundant evidences given to those who know you real well, that you are a harmless anarchist; an iconoclast of very meager capacity, without faith or creed or ideals of any kind. The only evidence of your democracy which has been given to the people of Florida was your sworn statement that you were a Democrat when you qualified as a candidate for this contest.

Inasmuch as you neither have nor have expressed in writing or otherwise any political principles and because your democracy is of the most shady and doubtful character, there is nothing for me to discuss with you except scandal and private character, and this I positively will decline to engage in. I have no doubt you will make noisy and widespread political advertisement of my unwillingness, which you will describe as fear, to encounter you over powering courage and accomplishment in joint discussion. The truth is, that I perhaps under-rate your splendid capacity in forensic fight; and have not the least fear of your wisdom or logic or ——. Joint discussion with me of business and professional repute has been my business for nineteen years and I have really enjoyed it. I prefer to continue my campaign, going as I will to the people and discussing Democratic doctrines and Florida's future welfare, and not to interrupt you in the operation of your "mud mill" but to allow you to stagnate and strangle in the stench arising from the publication, and free distribution of "Dixie," the scandal-sheet, which is your only claim to fame, and which you publish for the sole purpose of injuring the character of those who cannot adopt your methods, and many of whom have been your benefactors and friends.

Respectfully,
W. M. TOOMER.

SANFORD HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Class Day

The beautiful and interesting Class Day exercises at the High School took place on the lawn and north steps of the High School building Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the presence of a large number of delighted spectators, composed mainly of the families and friends of the graduating class and members of the High School.

At the appointed hour, to the accompaniment of music the class of 1912 marched out of the building with their class banner and colors of black and orange, and took their places to the right of the steps. They were followed by the Sophomores with class colors and banners of green and golden, who also took their places on the right. The Juniors came next with banners and colors of yellow and purple, also going to the right, and then the Seniors holding green and white flower wands, the class colors, to which were attached long white ribbons, all of which were secured to a longer wand held in the center of the group.

The class went through a beautiful drill to Mendelssohn's "Spring Song," with mocking bird accompaniment.

At the conclusion of the very pretty and artistic drill the Seniors marched back and took their positions on the steps, where Miss Jossie Stumon, the president of the class delivered a very charming address of welcome, concluding with the presentation to the school, from the graduating class, of a slab from the Northern Frieze of the Parthenon, a continuation of the slab presented to the school by the class of 1911, and which was accepted for the school by Mr. C. R. Walker, chairman of the school board in a few choice words. The class quartette sang "Happy Days Are Gliding" after the address and presentation. The class prophecy was given by Miss Lillian Higgins in a strikingly amusing and entertaining way. Unique and interesting futures await some of her classmates.

The "Farewell Words" to classmates, teachers and school board, while expressing pleasure in their four years of association as a class, appreciation and gratitude to their kind and faithful teachers, and thanks to the efficient school board for making their school course possible, the note of sadness could be felt all through Clarence Mahoney's last talk to his schoolmates as a class, in this severance of their pleasant relations as a class, and the ties of teachers and pupils the threshold which leads to broader knowledge with pleasure and pride. The graduates almost filled the stage after they had marched down the aisle preceded by Mr. L. R. Phelps of the school board, Mr. J. D. Langley who was to make the address, Prof. Perkins, Misses Walker and Spear, teachers of the eighth grade.

of the class sang the "Salute of the Flag." Miss Jossie Stumon next held the close attention of every one while paying a very fine tribute to "Old Glory," which was followed by a song by the girls of the class, "Hurrah for Our Banner." The recitation by Cecil Ristow of "The Man Without a Country" was splendidly done and much enjoyed. The class then sang "The Flag of the Free." The keynote sounding through all the exercises was patriotism. Rev. J. D. Langley made a short address to the class, filled with kindly and wise counsel, weaving the fabric of the foundation for the tender hearted and beautiful sentiment voiced in the several suggestions and advice by experience around three words: "Attainment, Discrimination and Reflection." At the conclusion Prof. Perkins presented the certificates in a few appropriate words of congratulation, commendation and suggestions for future effort, as from teacher to pupils and friend to youth. ### Junior Reception

Another social event of much interest and pleasure to many Sanford citizens was the lovely reception at the Sanford High School Thursday evening, which the Junior class gave to the graduating Seniors.

On the wall at the back of the rostrum in the auditorium was the handsome class banner of green, with S. H. S. 12 in large white letters. The beautiful color motif green and white are the class colors.
