Shooting Of Officer Of Elks Lodge Results In Storm Of Protest Against Free Firing

ST. LOUIS, May 12. (INS)—A determined effort to rid the city of prohibition, customs and guard services of men who use firearms carelessly, the Treasury Department today promised cooperation to any move to bring adequate justice to all officers and men guilty of such practices.

With nationwide indignation over the shooting of Jacob Hanson, officer of the Elks club at Niagara Falls, N. Y., by a guard enlisted man, new orders were issued by the Treasury Department that the use of firearms must not be used except in self defense or to prevent commission of a felony.

Officials here understood that coast guardsmen who attend to Hanson to halt and then that Hanson would be tried by the state court at Buffalo instead of an official court martial, following the Hanson shooting, a federal agent operating in southern West Virginia shot into an automobile near Huntington, West Va., was dismissed from the service.

FORMER RUSSIAN OFFICER IS GIVEN PRISON SENTENCE

Onetime Member Of Imperial Guard Is Found Guilty Of Murdering Sweetheart And Gets Ten Year Jail Term

NICE, France, May 12. (INS)—Count Wenceslas De Klupfel, formerly an officer in the Russian Imperial Guard, today was found guilty of the murder of Mrs. Marcelle Vermet-Lord, the French-born wife of a Boston school teacher, and was sentenced to eight years imprisonment. The lightness of the sentence was due to aid furnished by Horace Wilford Lord, the husband of the slain woman.

Mrs. Vermet-Lord and Klupfel were members of a strange cult which dealt in mysticism and occult practices. She was found dead in her villa on Oct. 18, 1927 with a jeweled dagger penetrating her heart.

The jury in announcing its verdict said extenuating circumstances had been found. They were based on letters written by professor Lord, of Boston, to Klupfel after the latter had been lodged in prison. One letter was quoted as follows: "I deeply sympathize with you in your trouble. You are no more guilty than many other lovers. I regret that I am unable to help you materially, but I have many of my wife's letters which might help you clear yourself. If you need them they are at your disposal. Put your trust in God and all will be well."

HOOVER'S MEN SEE SUCCESS 1 MONTH AWAY

Uninstructed And "Doubtful" Delegates Hold Whip-Hand In Naming Republican Candidate At Coming Convention

WASHINGTON, May 12. (INS)—One month from today on June 12, the Republicans are expected to nominate a candidate for the Presidency. Most of the 1089 delegates have been chosen. Only a handful of states are yet to select their representatives for the quadrennial drama. Many of the delegates have been instructed or committed, but a survey of the field today disclosed that Kansas City, as elsewhere in other years, the uninstructed and "doubtful" delegates hold the whip-hand.

A month before the curtain rises, Herbert Hoover is within striking distance of the nomination. He has by far the most committed delegates. The most reliable tabulation available in Washington gives him 350 as of today, and he probably can count on 80 others from the friendly states of New Jersey, Texas, Alabama, Wyoming and Florida, which are still to act. But this leaves him nearly 100 votes short of the 445 majority necessary to nominate him.

Next in the line is Frank O. Lowden of Illinois. The same table approximately 200 delegates. The balance of the field, made up of favorite sons and dark horses, are strung out far and near.

Indore Maharajah And Bride Arrive In Paris With Retinue

PARIS, May 12. (INS)—Accompanied by a retinue of nine persons and baggage which included 205 trunks, the former Maharajah of Indore and his bride, the former Nancy Ann Miller, of Seattle, arrived here at 7:30 this morning from Marseilles.

The bride, who preferred oriental splendor and a sumptuous retinue as a Hindu princess, is an ordinary American girl, and who is now called a Maharajane, was dressed in a fanciful Hindu costume, fully bedecked with jewels.

County Candidates Report Spending $5,850 In First Part Of Primary Campaign

Exactly $5,850.10 has been spent by 45 county candidates so far in the Democratic primary race, preliminary expense accounts filed with Vance Douglas, clerk of the Circuit Court, today revealed. The outlay represents principally filing fees, advertising and gasoline and all for the candidates' motor cars. To date, Judge James G. Sharon, running for re-nomination as county judge, heads the field so far as expenses of campaigning go. He reports the spending of $265.50. Out of that sum $112.50 was filing fee with the Democratic executive committee.

Trailers close behind him are T. W. Lawton, superintendent of schools, who is seeking re-nomination, with $238.91 spent; R. R. Deas, who is running for clerk with $336.00, and E. E. Brady, who is a candidate for sheriff, with $319.00.

The remaining candidates range from the $300 mark down to three $5 expenditures by the three candidates in places on the county school board.

The race for sheriff with four candidates in the field is, so far, the most expensive. The four aspirants have laid out a total of $925.71 or an average of $231.77. The highest average expense is in the race for county tax assessor. The three candidates, Alexander Vaughan, Joe Chittenden and E. H. Kilbee, have spent an average of $258.10.

The total expenditures for the other offices follow: County Commission, $515.76; Justice of the Peace, $269.87; Constable, $103.33; Clerk of County Judge, $67.14; Clerk of Superior Court, $288.50; Superintendent of Public Instruction, $81.44; School Board, $16; Tax Assessor, $74.30; Prosecuting Attorney, $356.15; Tax Collector, $252.50.

Since Armistice Day March

CHICAGO, May 12. (INS)—Not since the days of the post-war hysteria of 1918 has Chicago seen the parade it did today when the German-Irish trans-Atlantic flyers were accorded Chicago's official welcome.

From farms and villages, from suburbs and outlying portions of the city, thousands and tens of thousands collected in front of the Stevens Hotel where James Fitzmaurice, Captain Herman Koehl and Baron Von Huenefeld are gathered. More tens of thousands moved in the line of march to Soldier's Field Memorial Stadium and in the Stadium itself gathered those remaining who found it humanly impossible to squirm their way into the streets.

He said they learned that Farrell was at the cottage and telephoned his wife to come there. Persons in the vicinity of the cottage told investigators they heard sounds of a quarrel.

English Public Praises Victory Of Heretofore Unpopular Walter Hagen

SANDWICH, Eng., May 12.—British antipathy toward Hagen, who was defeated in the British Open Golf Championship, registered late yesterday with a medal score of 297 for 72 holes, found the British, smiling and American a popular figure in England today for the first time since his annual visitations began. A Hagen's victory said today that "of the big men, he has become a gamster and a sportsman and today they have discovered that Hagen was both all the time. The London Times, commenting on Hagen's victory said today that "of the big men, he has become a gamster and a sportsman and today they have discovered that Hagen was both all the time. PROBE SHOWS HOOVER STAND ON BIG ISSUES

Charge Is Aired That Cabinet Member Did At One Time Endorse League and Tariff

WASHINGTON, May 12. (INS)—Charges that Secretary of Commerce Hoover prepared in 1920 a statement opposing the Republican protective tariff and endorsing the League of Nations were aired at the Senate's Presidential campaign today. Ex-Rep. James W. Good, of Iowa, Hoover's campaign manager, on the stand for the second day, disclaimed any knowledge of the statement.

Senator Barkley (D) of Kentucky asked whether Hoover withheld the statement in the belief he would have a better chance to capture the Republican than the Democratic nomination. It was reported that Julius H. Barnes, former head of the Grain Corporation, persuaded Hoover to drop his Democratic campaign, Barkley said.

"Did you include in that circular any references to Mr. Hoover preparing a statement in 1920 announcing he stood for the League of Nations and was opposed to the protective tariff principles of the Republican Party and that Mr. Julius H. Barnes, head of the Grain Corporation, came to Washington and persuaded Mr. Hoover not to issue it on the ground his chances to win the Republican nomination would be better than for the Democratic nomination and that the statement was not issued?" asked Barkley.

"This is the first I have ever heard of that charge. 'Do you know whether Mr. Hoover prepared that statement?' 'I do not,' Barkley questioned Good about his report on the $235,000 spent by Hoover's behalf to date. Barkley brought out again that the Hoover forces spent $27,000 in the California primary in which the (Continued on page 4)

Good Sized Crowd At Athletic Field To See Feds Get Beat

The Palm Beach Sheriff's outfit, outfielded and outsmarted the Celery Feds yesterday at the Municipal Athletic Field and came out on the larger handle of a 5 to 0 score. The Feds got eight hits but they were scattered in nearly that many innings.

Today the Sanford boys will try to keep from going down to defeat for the fifth straight time since they came home from Miami last Monday. Local fans are still hoping that the winning streak that brought the Feds six wins in eight tries on the road will return to them in the local ball park before they leave after next Monday's game.

Hymel, who gave Miami two sound drubbings in the Magic City last week, wasn't clicking yesterday afternoon. He dished out six passes and the record shows he didn't strike out a man. Mott, hurling for the Sheriffs, didn't lose everything his own way, but his support was functioning as a well-oiled baseball machine should.

The fans are giving the Celery Feds the support they need. The crowd was anything but small yesterday and the grandstand and bleachers were not over-saturated at the failure of the Feds to tally. Box score: West Palm Beach ab r h o a e

Connie Mack Deserves Big Credit For Athletic's Run Of Success In Late Games

BY DAVIS J. WALSH International News Service Sports Editor NEW YORK, May 11.—(INS)—There seems to be nothing for it but to open the altar of roses today and sprinkle its essence over the physical sub-division known as Connie Mack. He is entitled to something special right out of the neck of the bottle for what he has done, or seems to have done, for, with and to the Philadelphia Athletics of 1928.

called them once. But that was some years ago when they were endeavoring to recover from their 1915 debacle and were playing class A. B. C. ball during the process. Today, they are about as apathetic as the Wall Street explosion.

Forty one runs in their last five games—an average of eight! Sixty seven hits, an average of more than thirteen! That's apathy, provided you thing St. Vital was maybe a bit too timid for England's standing army. The Athletics are the only club in either Major League that has lost but one game since Apr. 18. They have won eleven in the meantime for a percentage of .918 and, if someone doesn't stop them soon, the American League race is due to be closer than a coat of paint, Yankees or no Yankees.

The immediate answer is that, for the first time since 1914, Connie Mack seems to have marshaled all the forces that go into the creation of a winning combination—hitting, pitching, reasonably fair defense behind the pitcher and the will to win.

The outfit had hitting in 1926 and 1927 but the pitchers didn't have much beyond the right idea. But today Grove and Walberg are standing up like a best man and lately Rommel and Quinn have begun to show signs of human life. Of course, everybody is winning with a club that plays at the rate of .917 over a period of three weeks but the boys have been very particular about the number of runs they allow, anyhow.

Over the last five game stretch, the opposition, which happened to be the Detroit Tigers and the St. Louis Browns, averaged less than three runs a game which, like the four cent nickel, isn't quite enough. The Browns had gone well in Washington. The Tigers were perking up in the West and in Boston. Maybe you think it isn't possible to perk up. But I know it is, because that is what the Browns and Tigers did in Philadelphia during the last seven days.

Some of our best second guessers are hastening now to point out that Mack kicked one all over the premises when he let Sam Gray get away from that pitching staff. He certainly could use Gray's six out of seven. But the fact that he is finding some use for the .493 batting average of the man who figured in Gray trade,

Walter Hagen Stages Big Come-Back And Takes The Lead From Argentine Pro

SANDWICH, England, May 11.—(INS)—Walter Hagen staged one of his typical Hagen stunts in the third round of the British Open Golf Championship today and shot his way to a one-stroke lead over Jose Jurado, the diminutive Argentine pro, who has been leading the pack up to today.

Hagen shot a marvelous 33 on the out-going nine of the third round, and even a rather dismal 39 coming in could not detract from the brilliance of his 72 for the round, which made his 54 hole total 220, as against Jurado's 221. Jurado had a 76 this morning, as did Bill Melhorn, another of the American pros.

Melhorn's 76 put him five behind Hagen and four behind Jurado, who at this time were leading the show, with most of the field at five feet and canned it. The fourth was Hagen at his best. He drove into the middle of a huge bunker, and, disdaining the safety of a niblick, he took an iron, lifted the ball 180 yards to the edge of the green, and then got this four.

The fifth was played perfectly in four, and on the short—sixth Hagen netted another birdie. His drive was eighty feet from the cup, and he rained it home while the gallery cheered.

Hagen leaned on the ball in the seventh, and got off some 300 yards. A low brassie second brought him into a bunker 30 yards from the green. He chipped out nobly to within a dozen feet of the pin, and then rammelt it home for the four. Two putts on the short eighth gave him his par 3, and a perfectly played ninth gave him a par four. His 12 foot putt on this one rimmed the cup.

Word went around that "the Haig" was going wild, and most of the gallery deserted. Abie Mitchell to watch the American. Meanwhile things were not going so well with Jurado or Melhorn.

The South American started out with a smashing drive off the first tee, and barely missed a 20 footer for a three on the first green, taking four. A short second shot on the second hole forced him to go one over par with a 5. He came back with a well-played par four on the third.

He also went one over on the fifth when his mashie second was short and he missed a 12 footer. His iron tee shot at the short sixth was only two feet from the pin, but he blew the putt. From there on Jurado was unsteady, but managed to finish the nine in 37, two over par.

Melhorn started off badly with a sliced drive. Se strong, arched his second over the green, chipped back weakly and took two putts for a five. He got his four on the second despite a ragged approach. On the short third, his tee shot was only a yard from the cup but he blew the putt and took three. From there on for the balance of the nine, Bill played unsteady golf, but managed to get his pars and finished the nine with 36.

On the tenth, Hagen got off his usual superb drive and reached the green on the second shot, but had to be satisfied with a needed two putts to hole out four.

After another good drive on the eleventh, the wind carried his iron shot far to the left corner of the green in the rough. Hagen chipped the ball on the green and then sank 1 in two putts for a five.

On the twelfth, Hagen showed that even if he was Hagen he was still human enough to slice his drive. The ball almost buried itself in the rough. However, "Sir Walter" retrieved himself by making a par four anyhow. His but he laid a dead approach and sank the putt.

Two girls of Gatehead, England, have asked the mayor to forward their leap year proposals to any "likely" young men.

MORE MILLIONS REQUIRED TO SERVE YOU BETTER

THE continued growth of the Southeastern States will require an expenditure of more than $27,175,000 this year for additions, extensions and replacements to the Bell Telephone System in this section.

This big construction program follows a gross expenditure of more than $25,275,000 for similar purposes last year.

A substantial share of this investment will be made in Florida and it is now estimated that more than 4,500 new telephones will be added in this state during 1928.

These large additions and replacements are a part of our policy of building in advance to keep pace with the anticipated growth and progress of the state.

This expansion makes the service more valuable to the community and provides the entire South with an unequalled modern system of quick communication.

DIET

I went to hear a lecturer. A scientific jay, He said, "Don't mind what you prefer, You can't depend on taste, no sir! Don't touch the foodstuffs that you crave Else you will fill an early grave; You'll live to rue the day."

Meat and potatoes never blend; I mustn't eat hot bread; It means a most untimely end— "Eat only what I recommend." I sat and listened as he raved And damned the very things I craved. "Prolong your lives," he said.

He spoke of spinach by the ton, But other things—not much. We should eat lettuce—every one— And walk a lot out in the sun; Gnaw bread with whiskers to its knees. Eat fruits so soft they will not squeeze, And such, and such, and such.

I'll never go to bear again— A lean and hungry tongue. When I look for a vitamin I want a fat one, not a cavew-man; If I mix a lot of grass and figs And root and herbs and parsley— I'll eat that's fit for making wigs.

I'd rather die while young! V. L. S. in Palm Beach Times.

Hoover says he hasn't spent a cent on his campaign for the presidential nomination. The campaign manager yesterday told the senate campaign fund committee that a quarter of a million dollars had been spent over the United States. Herbert certainly has generous friends.

A new invention by way of an auto bumper made of rubber, it is said, will relieve the car from a jar when striking an object while traveling at the rate of 35 miles an hour. Well, bet it won't even get that far over the "average driver" when he strikes a pedestrian.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

Mother's Day

Sunday is Mother's Day. To most of us that means going to a flower shop, buying a greeting card or perhaps sending a wire at the last minute if our mothers happen to live elsewhere.

Mother's Day is not an old institution, but it is well established in the calendar of American customs. Ten years ago it had scarcely been conceived, and five years ago it was only beginning to capture general attention.

Every son and daughter as he or she grows into manhood or womanhood feels an added affection for his parents as he realizes the trials and tribulations they have suffered in one way or another in the rearing of children.

Second Choice Votes

Second choice votes, the bugbear of conscientious citizens who wish to express their choices accurately in Florida primary elections, are still confusing the minds of many voters.

The system by which all the votes are tabulated, according to a concise and accurate editorial in the Florida Times-Union, is this:

The county canvassing boards do not eliminate any candidates. The two "top men" are not decided in each county separately. It will require the total vote of the entire state to decide who are the two "top men" before any candidates are eliminated, and this is done by the state canvassing board in Tallahassee.

County canvassing boards tabulate the vote of the county by precincts, showing the first choice votes cast for each candidate and for whom the electors on those ballots voted for second choice. Their tabulation will show:

..... electors voted first choice for A and voted second choice for B. second choice for C. second choice for D. second choice for E.

The Greatest Woman

Madame Pierre Curie a few days ago was voted the most illustrious woman in the world in a contest conducted by Le Quotidien, a Paris newspaper.

The woman scientist led the late Sarah Bernhardt, who, until her death six years ago, was the idol of France, by 8,000 votes in a total of 98,000.

Madame Curie would never have won first place in an American contest. She is well-known in this country but her name is not often before the public.

THE INDIANA RESULT

Defeat of Secretary Hoover in the Indiana Republican primary was a severe blow to his candidacy, notwithstanding he has more than 400 delegates instructed or claimed.

Primarys in which the actual voice of the people is recorded count heavily in the final selection for they reveal a candidate's vote-getting abilities.

The commerce secretary is still far in the lead. But Mr. Mellon has not yet spoken in public. There are still a large lot of un instructed delegates, and the affiliation of a number claimed for Mr. Hoover is in dispute.

We may now expect to hear more talk of drafting Mr. Coolidge, and talk of Duwasa will become stronger for he is popular in Indiana.
