

Did you ever take a shower—a dry shower, that is?

Before you can enter the Navy's new avionics building at the Sanford Naval Air Station a two-minute dry shower is required in a foyer just inside the main entrance. That's to keep out dust particles as small as five microns.

Once inside the structure the visitor is awed at the size and magnitude of the testing and maintenance equipment. If you want to see how defense dollars derived from taxes are expended, well—here's one place you can find out.

The avionics building, Lt. Bill Sharpe told some 80 Chamber of Commerce Coffee Clubbers last Thursday morning, is a pioneering adventure. It's the first of its kind especially designed to support RASC Viliante aircraft. It's also unique in its equipment, Sharpe declared, since there are machines installed which will perform as many as 1,000 tests on aircraft equipment in as little as two minutes.

The structure itself is equipped to provide ideal environmental conditions and temperature controls, especially in the "clean" room.

Bill won the "quota buster" award in competition with other heating and air conditioning dealers throughout the southeast. And, it's the second straight year he and Joanne have won the award. Last year they went to Jamaica.

Two Circles Meet Jointly Because Of Hurricane Gladys

By Frances Wester
Circle One and Circle Two of the U. P. W. of the Community Presbyterian Church of Lake Mary held their September meetings together because Hurricane Gladys prevented Circle One from having its meeting on schedule.

Mrs. Evelyn Rice and Mrs. Ruby Sjoblom as her co-hostesses.

Mrs. Ed Zimmerman presided over the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Ted Brooklyn. Mrs. Rice presented the Devotions.

Mrs. James M. Thompson read from the Year Book of Prayer. The foreign mission to be remembered was in the Thailand region, and the home mission was in Colorado. Prayer was offered for the missionaries and their work.

Mrs. Thompson was also in charge of the program given on the last chapter, "Full-Fill Your Ministry," from the study book, "Be What You Are."

A general discussion followed the lesson and some scriptures were read showing some of the characteristics a Christian must have to fulfill his ministry, such as: patience, kindness, grace, humbleness, love, virtue, contentment, and faith.

Mrs. Ola Cochran read Healey's interpretation of Philimon. It was decided that to be a Christian is to live out in the world the Gospel received from God in and through the Church. The study was closed with several sentence prayers, and Mrs. Thompson concluded with a prayer for all.

The next meeting of Circle One will be held at the home of Mrs. Ola Cochran in Oct. and Circle Two will meet at the home of Mrs. Harry E. Sandusky.

The meeting adjourned with the Friendship Circle and Missup benediction. Refreshments of punch, cookies, and cake squares were served to twenty-four members present.

If it were harnessed, the Congo River system could increase Africa's power capacity 13 times.

"LET'S TALK DRY CLEANING"

By - WOODROW CASH

The bells are ringing—school bells, that is. The long summer vacation lies behind and once again it's the time of year when all of us who drive should start taking a little extra care when driving near a school zone.

For the average Mom getting ready for school days is a hectic period. It means getting slacks and skirts, sweaters and blouses, jackets and coats all ready for wearing. We can take a lot of strain out of these preparations. Just send us that junior wardrobe now and we'll have it clean and fresh and smart looking, in time for school day wear.

As every parent knows, children aren't exactly easy on clothes. Scuffles and squabbles, games and accidents take their toll. Spilled ink and paints and many other hazards put spots before your eyes. Lost buttons and little tears in the fabrics and grass stains from an impromptu football game—all these are part of the normal pattern.

Well, that's where we come in. Repairing and cleaning, removing spots and stains, restoring crispness and freshness to school-age wardrobes is part of our business. Just give us a call for prompt pickup and delivery.

'Perpetual Discontent' Forced Oswald To Slay Kennedy

Editor's Note: The author of the following dispatch was in the presidential motorcade when John F. Kennedy was murdered in Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963. He later received the Pulitzer Prize in Journalism for his account of the tragedy.

By Merriman Smith
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The judgment for history is that Lee Harvey Oswald, a rebellious frustrated Marxist fanatic, murdered John F. Kennedy in Dallas 10 months and 4 days ago "acting alone and without advice or assistance."

There is no evidence that he was part of any conspiracy, either foreign or domestic. There also is no evidence that the emotional climate in the Texas city had anything to do with the irrational act.

The motives of the 24-year-old Oswald, who pumped three shots at the young President from the sixth floor of a Dallas office building, are obscure.

But they appear linked to a broken home, an indifferent mother and an unsatisfactory marriage.

One consequence of the day of horror has been a tightening of presidential security procedures. But much more needs to be done to protect Lyndon B. Johnson and future occupants of the White House from potential assassins.

These are the conclusions of "The President's Commission on the Assassination of John F. Kennedy," otherwise known as the Warren Commission. It was set up by Johnson immediately after the Nov. 22, 1963, tragedy to "evaluate all the facts and circumstances surrounding the assassination."

The 898-page report was made public Sunday night after painstaking investigation. The inquiry involved most branches of government and even reached overseas into Russia where Oswald lived for a while and where he met the girl who was to become his wife.

The report concluded that in view of Oswald's subsequent death at the hands of Dallas nightclub owner Jack Ruby it was impossible to say categorically that no one else was involved in the assassination. But it added:

"If there is any such evidence it has been beyond the reach of all the investigative agencies and resources of the United States and has not come to the attention of this commission."

The report failed to convince the assassin's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald. She continued to insist "there is no proof" her son killed Kennedy. And a Communist youth publication said in Moscow that the assassination was the result of a right-wing reactionary coup.

The commission conceded it could recommend no fool-proof system for protecting a president in view of the historic need for the chief executive to mingle with the people. But it added:

"The commission has, however, from its examination of the facts of President Kennedy's assassination made certain recommendations which it believes would, if adopted, materially improve on the procedures in effect at the time of President Kennedy's assassination and result in a substantial lessening of the danger."

"On the basis of these findings the commission has concluded that Lee Harvey Oswald was the assassin of President Kennedy."

A key piece of evidence used in reaching this conclusion was the eyewitness report of Howard L. Brennan, a 45-year-old steamfitter, who was across the street from the depository building. He saw the shot fired and immediately described the assassin to police as white, slender, about 5 feet 10 inches tall, and weighing about 165 pounds.

Having decided Oswald's guilt, the commission set out to find the "why" of the killing.

It reached two basic conclusions. The first was that Oswald, a strange, psychotic personality, had the capability of killing a prominent man such as the president to take out a grudge against a society that he felt had frustrated him at every turn.

The second was that there were deficiencies and lapses in the organizations set up to protect the president of the United States.

As for Oswald, the commission conducted an exhaustive review of his life, from his lonely childhood and his strained relationships with his mother to his stormy marriage to the girl, Marina, who he had met and wed in Russia.

This was the conclusion: "Many factors were undoubtedly involved in Oswald's motivation for the assassination, and the commission does not believe that it can ascribe to him any one motive or group of motives. It is apparent, however, that Oswald was moved by an overriding hostility to his environment."

"He does not appear to have been able to establish meaningful relationships with other people. He was perpetually discontented with the world around him. Long before the assassination he expressed his hatred for American society and acted in protest against it."

"Oswald's search for a society was doomed from the start. He sought for himself a place in history—a role as the 'great man' who would be recognized as having been in advance of his times. His commitment to Marxism and communism appears to have been another important factor in his motivation."

"He also had demonstrated a capacity to act decisively and without regard to the consequences when such action would further his aims of the moment. Out of these and the many other factors which may have molded the character of Lee Harvey Oswald there emerged a man capable of assassinating President Kennedy."

Johnson, who does not always abide by the security criteria laid down by the panel, announced in Johnson City, Tex., that he was appointing a four-member committee to advise him on putting the recommendations into effect.

Named were Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon whose department includes the Secret Service, Acting Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, Central Intelligence Agency Director John A. McCone and McGeorge Bundy, the president's special assistant for national security affairs.

The commission made 12 recommendations. Eight applied to the Secret Service which has been charged since 1902 with the responsibility of protecting the President. Primarily, they would put an overseer in charge of the agency and give it 205 more men at a cost of $20 million.

All the recommendations were made because of the commission's muted answer of "perhaps" to the question of whether Kennedy's murder could have been prevented.

As for the actual events in Dallas last Nov. 22-24, there were no real surprises in this fascinating, heavily documented report written for the ages.

The seven-member commission, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, found that Oswald shot Kennedy and Texas Gov. John B. Connally Jr. from a sixth floor window in the southeast corner of the Texas School Book Depository.

It said that approximately 45 minutes later, Oswald gunned down policeman J. D. Tippit near the intersection of 10th and Patton streets, and ran off muttering either "poor damn cop," or "poor dumb cop."

And it declared that two days later when Ruby fatally wounded Oswald in the basement of the Dallas jail, he did so acting alone and not as part of any conspiracy. It said the two men never had known each other.

In essence, this is the U. S. government's verdict on what the report called "a cruel and shocking act of violence directed against a man, a family, a nation, and against all mankind."

The commission addressed itself to two questions—the "what" and the "why" of Nov. 22. The "what" was Oswald's guilt, and it was stated in the report in these words:

"On the basis of the evidence . . . the commission has found that Lee Harvey Oswald (1) owned and possessed the rifle used to kill President Kennedy and wound Governor Connally, (2) brought this rifle into the depository building on the morning of the assassination, (3) was present, at the time of the assassination, at the window from which the shots were fired, (4) killed Dallas police officer J. D. Tippit in an apparent attempt to escape, (5) resisted arrest by drawing a fully loaded pistol and attempting to shoot another police officer, (6) lied to the police after his arrest concerning substantive matters, (7) attempted, in April, 1963, to kill Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, and (8) possessed the capability with a rifle which would have enabled him to commit the assassination."

The commission did not go into the question of whether Oswald shot at Kennedy as a symbol or as an individual. It does quote from the Secret Service report of Oswald's interrogation by Capt. J. W. Fritts of the Dallas police department's homicide and robbery bureau.

Oswald said: "I have no views on the President." "My wife and I like the President's family. They are interesting people. I have my own views on the President's national policy. I have a right to express my views but because of the charges I do not think I should comment further."

The commission, therefore, left Oswald's motives in the category of what the report itself called "the unanswered questions"—saying "no one will ever know what passed through Oswald's mind during the week before November 22, 1963."

It placed him, then, in the category of other previous presidential assassinations or would-be assassins "who acted alone in their criminal acts against our leaders."

Citing four — Charles J. Guiteau, Leon F. Czolgosz, John Schrank and Guleseppe Zangara—it said, "none had a serious record of prior violence. Each of them was a failure in his work and in his relations with others, a victim of delusions and fancies which led to the conviction that society and its leaders had combined to thwart him."

And then the commission declared, with the future in mind:

"It will require every available resource of our government to devise a practical system which has any reasonable possibility of revealing such contents."

LBJ Heads For New England

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson headed for New England today on a semi-political barnstorming tour of five states in less than 15 hours. Johnson prepared to re-enter the rough and tumble of election campaigning after a relaxing weekend at his Texas ranch.

The Chief Executive planned stops in all but one of the six New England states — skipping only Massachusetts on his whirlwind tour. Johnson told a news conference recently that some of the talks were to be sponsored by Democratic party organizations.

Adjournment Seen After Warren Report Approval

Mansfield Raps Barry's Charge Johnson Lied

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield said Sunday he believes Congress will give speedy consideration to Warren Commission recommendations and still adjourn on time next Saturday.

"It would be my belief that Congress should immediately anticipate the recommendations from the President and follow out any recommendation made by the Warren Commission and I am quite certain we would stay in session and give those recommendations every consideration possible," the Montana Democrat said.

Turning to the presidential campaign, Mansfield said he took no stock in polls that showed the Democratic ticket of President Johnson and Sen. Hubert Humphrey well ahead of Sen. Barry Goldwater and Rep. William Miller.

He took issue with Goldwater charges that Johnson has "lied" to the American people about the situation in South Viet Nam.

"President Johnson has had, I believe, 10 or 11 meetings with the leadership of both houses — and that includes Republicans — this year to discuss Viet Nam mostly but other matters as well," Mansfield said.

"He has kept the American people informed. He is hiding nothing. And I think he is doing the very best he can within the knowledge which he possesses."

Covered Dish Supper Given

By Julia Bartos
The Friendship Baptist Church in Altamonte Springs held its monthly meeting Wednesday night following a covered dish supper. A budget for the coming year was adopted.

New members recently voted into the church are Mr. and Mrs. John B. Blair, Miss Sara Ann Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Norwood E. McLamb, Miss Jan McLamb, Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Tiller, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kelsey, Roy Edward Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sheen, Ronnie Sheen, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stamper, Russel Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. John Love, and Mrs. Stella Brown.

The church is proud of its fine Sunday morning choir which is under the direction of John Blair, music director for Lyman High School. Soloist last Sunday morning was Richard Copeland, Lyman football coach, who sang "How Great Thou Art."

A new electric heating platter has a heating unit which is sealed and concealed. When the cord is disconnected the unit is immersible in hot soap or detergent suds along with the dishes.

NOT Adjourns For Winter

By Margaret Cosby
The North Orlando Teen Club (NOT) met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Mona Grinstead, North Orlando Councilwoman and Commissioner of Health, Welfare and Recreation. The meeting was convened by Vice President Ed Wire in the absence of the president, Danny Tillis.

Since NOT is a summer recreation organization it voted to adjourn for the school year. The officers elected in August will preside during the 1965 season.

The NOTs also agreed to remove the bandshell because the music for dances was objectionable to some of the residents in the vicinity. The North Orlando Teens also requested that the funds in their treasury be held by the City Council.

NOT is self-supporting during the summer; it organized its own recreation program and assisted in the supervision of the sub-teen activities.

Barry Begins Old-Fashioned Whistlestop Tour Of Midwest

WASHINGTON (UPI) — GOP presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater's jet age campaign shifts gears tonight when he sets out on an old-fashioned whistlestop tour of the Midwest.

The 17-car Goldwater train was scheduled to make 33 stops during the five-day trip through Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, once considered an exclusively Republican preserve. The first stop was planned for Marietta, Ohio, Tuesday.

The Arizona senator was expected to hit hard at the issues he ranks as tops in the campaign — crime and corruption, foreign policy and the trend toward federal interference in local affairs. But beside hunting votes it was probable he also would be preaching party unity.

Goldwater sampled trouble in once "solid" GOP territory from Kansas to New England last week. He began his unity pitch right then, beginning in Wichita.

Some Republicans along the way would have preferred to see the "let's pull together" emphasis come sooner. Referring to this week's trip, a Goldwater aide said, "It probably will be applied only where it's needed."

The Bill Stringfields Honor Guests Of Farewell Dinner

FHP Bill Stringfield and wife, Louise, were honor guests of a delightful farewell party recently at the Pinecrest Inn, with 18 Highway Patrolmen and their wives enjoying the delicious steak dinner and all the trimmings.

The Stringfields received many lovely gifts and lament the fact they are leaving their many friends in Sanford, where they have both been very popular.

Bill has 12 years of service with the Florida Highway Patrol, and he and Louise have lived in Sanford the past five years. He will report to West Palm Beach on October 15 as a newly promoted corporal. So a cheery "bon voyage" to a swell couple, and the best of luck.

FHP TROOPER Bill Stringfield and wife, Louise, were recent honor guests at a "bon voyage" party, to bid them farewell to a new assignment at West Palm Beach. Fellow highway patrolmen hosted the delicious steak dinner.

Garden Gate

By Hibiscus Circle

Watsonias are a must for our spring gardens. They are similar to glads and take the same treatment. However, they make large clumps and continue blooming year after year. Lake glads, after blooming is over a new bulb or "corn" forms above the old one, which then dries up and falls away.

The plant then goes dormant for the summer, but may be located by the dry brown leaves still showing above ground. Now is the time to dig and replant these corns, especially if overcrowded, or if a new location is desired.

Plant 3 or 4 inches deep in soil replenished with peat and bone meal or fertil. Dust with D.D.T. or Cold Smoke to prevent thrip.

These plants grow rather large and could be planted in back of amaryllis, glads or lower growing annuals.

Philippine lilies should be blooming this month. They are a wonderful addition to our lily family, as they bloom in the fall, whereas Easter lilies bloom in the spring. The flowers are similar, but the Philippine trumpet is longer and more slender, and has green in its throat.

It has been said that Philippine seedlings are "non conformists" in that the seedling may be tall, medium or short and bloom early, medium or late. Good soil for lily seeds is 1/4 loam, 1/4 leaf mold and 1/2 sand.

Bulbs may be ordered now for later planting. You folks who hanker for the tulips that we knew in the north may even order them and keep in the hydrator of your refrigerator for 6 weeks or more. Plant about December 1, and Good Luck!

Manila Columnist Aims At Attire Of Peace Corps

MANILA (UPI) — A Manila woman columnist has criticized U.S. Peace Corps members for overlooking aping of the Filipinos.

Mrs. Virginia Benitez-Lucanuan said in "The Manila Chronicle," "The Peace Corps assigned to the Philippines should have a more realistic briefing on the psychology of the Filipinos."

Mrs. Lucanuan said a group of Peace Corps youths was invited to a recent informal dinner and came in dirty clothes and sneakers.

"The cotton shirt waists and faded slacks and short sleeved shirts were all right although they could have stood a little pressing and cleaning but the rubber sneakers were a bit too much," she said.

"Even in the remotest barrios (villages), people always dress neatly and always spruce for special events. Of course, it is a good idea not to dress expensively and elaborately, but a little cleaning up, brushing their hair and powdering of face is not incompatible with good international relations."

"And what is more, while the Peace Corps youngsters may think that they are dressing simply so as not to overawe the natives, the Filipino psychology is such that if strangers attend their parties obviously under-dressed they feel insulted."

"So when in Rome wear Roman sandals, and at Filipino fiestas please leave those darn rubber sneakers in your native-style nipa hut and wear decent shoes."

Tech Representative Wives Hold Organizational Meet

Tuesday, September 22, saw the beginning of a new organization formed when the wives of the representatives to the Navy for North American Aviation, Inc., Link Division, General Precision, Inc., Perkin-Elmer, Westinghouse and Airborne Instrument Laboratories gathered for a business meeting and luncheon to elect the officers and chairmen for the ensuing three months.

The meeting held at the Capri was called to order by Mrs. Louis (Chuck) Fadden who presided through the election of officers at which point the newly-elected president took over and conducted the balance of the meeting.

Mrs. Cindy (Jim) Parsons was elected president with Mrs. Mary Ellen (Ira) Hughes as vice-president, Mrs. Mary Jo (Len) Loftus as secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Dot (Bill) Wade as hospital chairman.

Mrs. Katie (Ed) Kent will serve as telephone chairman. The table was attractively set with a lovely centerpiece of white glads and yellow mums with sprays of white glads, yellow roses and ferns accenting the centerpiece which doubled as the door price and went home with Mrs. Donna (Dick) Wells.

Hostesses for the next three meetings will be Louise Fadden and Mary Jo Loftus, October; Katie Kent and Mary Ellen Hughes, November; and Dot Wade and Donna Wells, December. Hostesses for this first meeting were Mrs. Ruth (Jerry) Mickelson and Mrs. Marti (Danny) Danklefs.

Officers Wives Extend Invite To Bridge Wednesday

Dear Abby:

DEAR ABBY: There is a family living next door to us which should be reported to the authorities. They have several children of school age who are practically raising themselves. The mother waits on tables in some all-night joint, and she sleeps days. The father has a day job somewhere and he drives a taxi at night. When they are both home at the same time, they have such violent fights they disturb the whole neighborhood with their screaming and cursing. There should be a law against letting mothers of school-age children work outside the home. Please tell people to write their congressmen, and demand such a law. It could be called the Compulsory Child-Raising Bill. Thank you.

A CITIZEN: Even if you could compel mothers by law to stay home, you could not compel them to look after their children. It's not the number of hours spent with children that counts, but how those hours are used. Children, more often than not, are neglected because their mothers work. But let's face it—the mother who would neglect her children for a job would probably neglect them for some other reason.

Jacoby On Bridge

The Nationwide Charity Game for this summer was held July 24. People all over the United States and Canada played the same hands with match-point scoring.

Here is a hand that worked out very well for the 15-17 point no-trump bidders.

South would open one no-trump and eventually North would play two hearts. The bidding in the box is the way I would bid it. North's two-club response is not forcing Jacoby - Stayman.

East opens king, ace and another spade and West ruffs. West returns ace and another

We The Women:

In order to hold on to his wife and keep her from getting a divorce a husband in Chicago signed a "reconciliation program" listing 31 things the husband could and could not do.

He had to guarantee his wife a certain amount of money a week, promise not to join any hunting or fishing clubs, let his wife handle all financial matters — and so on.

Before any of you husbands decide that any husband who signs away so many rights and privileges must be more mouse than man — just remember that without your signing anything at all your wife has probably given you

Beauty after Forty

"AT FIFTY-SIX I find myself very tired and upset about the way I look. I appear much older than I am and do not know how to improve myself. My neck is crepey, my hair and skin are dry and ugly. My hair isn't all gray. My skin tone is yellowish. What should I do? The only thing good is that I am exactly the weight I should be. — Marie."

Well — there are many things you can do to recondition yourself. First, for the dry skin, use cleansing cream, any good one. After cleansing, do a brisk patting with good quality white hazel. Pat with a cosmetic tissue, then apply cosmetic oil generously.

Use the cosmetic oil on your scalp. As scalp is skin, it will react beautifully, just as will your face and neck. Use a castile soap shampoo and massage the scalp after you towel your hair dry. One of the new sleek permanents will give body to your hair, and color rinse it if you like. Highlights TV Time Previews

TV Time critic preview coming Television shows by attending rehearsals, watching screenings, analyzing scripts in New York and Hollywood. Here are their previews for today:

7:30-9:30 P.M. NBC. Monday Night Movie. "Ask Any Girl." (Color) (Rerun) Shirley MacLaine, David Niven and Gig Young star in this lively comedy. As a country girl, looking for a new life and love in the big city, Miss MacLaine holds up the entire female end of the story and comes off tops against some formidable male competition. Her main target is Gig Young and she employs his own business, motivational research, to snag him. Jim Backus and Red Taylor are featured.

7:30-9:30 P.M. ABC. Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea. "The Fearmakers." This is possibly the most exciting episode of the young series, despite a certain amount of confusion at the beginning and hysteria toward the end.

8:30-9 P.M. CBS. The Andy Griffith Show. More than usual good laughs are provided here by Don Knotts in his Deputy Barney role, particularly with his anguished reaction to the "training" course he's made to suffer to retain his job. According to new civil service requirements, Barney's too short and too thin to qualify for his job. Rather than lose him, Sheriff

Horoscope Forecast

Tuesday, September 23, 1964
GENERAL TENDENCIES:

This is an unusually good day and evening to accept an opportunity that is now present to gain the good will of others by showing them you understand their needs and will help to make them workable. As a side result you are able to get your ideas and your products across to them to your benefit.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Much that is worthwhile comes your way if you follow the suggestions of close ties now. Make home more comfortable, buy thoughtful, appropriate gifts. Know how to improve security.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Shop for whatever is needed before you go off to business this morning. Written reports can be handled with true efficiency. Evening is best time to have fun with special friends.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You can add much to present holdings by investing wisely at this time. Eliminate those superfluous or obsolete items that deter your progress. Let your efforts be properly pinpointed.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You are able to get ahead very swiftly now, but it requires energy and serious application on your part. Dress in good taste and put your best foot forward. Timing is very important.

LEO (July 22 to August 21) You can come up with the right answer to current enigmas if you take the time to investigate. Have confidential talks with right people. Pleasing one to whom you are romantically inclined is fine.

VIRGO (August 22 to September 22) You have nodding acquaintances you desire to have as friends and a bit of honest appreciation on your part can make them so. Get together socially at group affairs. Achieve personal desires.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Put to good use that flair for civic work as well as excellency in own line of endeavor and you get fine support. Impress bigwigs. They will be the first to appreciate your talents.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You can grow far more rapidly now because you understand how to direct activities with intellect. Don't be afraid to get out of dull routine. Take on more responsibility.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) While you have fine plans going with other persons, it is necessary you do more of the work involved. You are well-liked. However, you must do favors as well.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20) Associates are primed for working out new contracts, but you have to take the initiative for best results. One who has been opposing you will acquiesce now. Be dynamic.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19) You have so much work ahead of you, but thinking objectively, acting positively sees it behind you quickly. Be enthusiastic, even in personal matters.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20) Morning is best time to carry through with any creative ideas or work, and efficiently. Right people will appreciate your ability. Also, set up appointments for evening's fun.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY he or she will have much shilly along the lines of selling, manufacturing and particularly in getting back for practical ideas. Teach your progeny not to be so highly sensitive or there can be failure where much success could result. Also teach not to have such a personal attitude toward others.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Miss Sikes To Retire From Farm Service

Miss Anna Mae Sikes, assistant director, home economics programs, Florida Agricultural Extension Service, will retire Wednesday after more than 30 years with the Extension Service.

In announcing Miss Sikes' retirement, Dr. M. O. Watkins, director, Florida Agricultural Extension Service, praised Miss Sikes for her distinguished career as an administrator, leader and educator. "Miss Sikes has truly rendered outstanding service as a dedicated, devoted Extension worker," Dr. Watkins said. Miss Sikes has guided home economics Extension for the past 15 years. As a state home demonstration agent she supervised the work of Florida's county home demonstration agents and assistants and home economics specialists in Extension's family living program.

Under her leadership home demonstration clubs increased and added new members and Extension home economics programs reached many more women... working wives, young homemakers, senior citizens... outside of home demonstration clubs.

She helped bring three main areas of information to bear on family problems—consumer education, management and decision-making, health and safety.

A native Floridian, educated in Florida schools and universities Miss Sikes grew up in Fort Myers. She joined the Florida Agricultural Extension Service as a home demonstration agent in Lee County in 1928. She has served continuously with the Extension Service since that time. In 1931 she became extension nutritionist, serving with distinction in this capacity for 15 years, with two years out as acting district agent.

Before her appointment as state home demonstration agent in 1950, Miss Sikes served one year as district home demonstration agent. In 1943 she was named assistant director, home economics program.

During her career Miss Sikes has been active in the Florida and American Home Economics Associations and the Florida Dietetics Association. She served as president of FHEA and was a member of the national food and nutrition committee of AIEA.

Four new members welcomed to the club were Mrs. Phyllis Daugherty, Mrs. Lucy Mayhew, Mrs. May Osborn, and Mrs. Barbara Gurr.

Attending as guests were Mrs. Mary Lynn Grile, Mrs. Josephine Fifkin, and Mrs. Sybil Willberger.

Any members who can crochet or would like to learn are invited to meet at the home of Mrs. Melanie Stewart, 602 Forest Drive, Howell Park, on Wednesday at 1 p.m. to make "tissue toppers" which the members hope to sell to raise funds for the club's charity work.

Members are asked to make reservations by Oct. 12 for the Halloween Party, which will be held Oct. 24 at Mid-Florida Country Club by phoning Mrs. Lawrence (Gilda) Pettit.

The next club meeting will be Oct. 22 at the House of Beef at 11:30 a.m.

Grace WSCS To Meet Thursday

The Joy Circle of the Grace Methodist Church W.S.C.S. will be in charge of decorations and refreshments at a reception for new women of the church at the next general meeting of the W.S.C.S. Thursday.

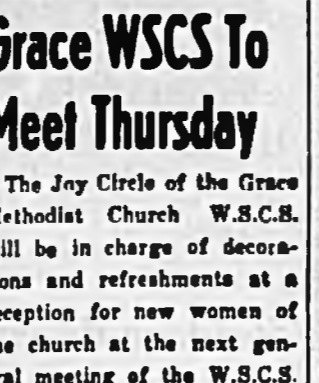

Plans were made for the affair at a meeting of the circle held Thursday. The meeting originally scheduled for earlier in the month was postponed because of the hurricane.

Mrs. James Leonard presented an inspiring program from the book, "Jesus Christ is Lord." Mrs. Roy Wall gave the devotional and Mrs. Roger presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Philip Monroe was hostess.

Mrs. F. J. Murray and Mrs. Monroe volunteered to prepare beverages for the family picnic, which climaxed the Christian Education Month following church service on Sunday, Sept. 27.

The fourteen members present also included Mesdames Richard Breeze, Marian Freeman, John Hires, Malcolm Lodge, John Martin, Richard Silvers, Philip Turner, and Lamar Williams.

Mrs. Williams will serve as hostess at the Oct. 8 meeting of the circle.

Huge Billboard Makes Appeal To Voters

A move to kill "voter apathy" in Sanford and Seminole County was made this morning when a huge display was parked in front of the County Courthouse.

The exhibits arrived at about 9 this morning and began attracting a host of spectators.

Heading the entourage here was James "Jimmy" James, registration drive chairman for the State Democratic Executive Committee, and Cecelia Doherty of Palm Beach County directing the women's division.

The Berlin Wall is depicted and tells viewers "there is no wall between you and your vote." Also shown is a missile pointing skyward and indicating the number of days left to register.

The final exhibit is the caravan's "Eternal Flame of Liberty."

In a proclamation signed today by Mayor A. L. Wilson, he noted this "is a crucial time in the life of our country" and called on all citizens to register so they can vote in the critical election Nov. 3.

He called on "all eligible persons to exercise their privilege as loyal conscientious citizens and recognize that in America there is no wall between the citizen and his vote."

Kynes Ruling May Open Way For Navy Base Families To Ballot

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — close sources said the result of a decision that families living on military bases are eligible to vote in Florida.

Kynes met with Cdr. Earle Bennett, chief legal officer at the Jacksonville naval air station, and Robert A. Mallard, Duval County supervisor of voting registration.

The meeting got off to a late start, beginning at 11:30 a. m. and Kynes said no decision could be expected until after the lunch hour.

"We need time to study the matter," Kynes told newsmen who were not permitted to sit in on the conference.

However, a source close to Kynes indicated that the ruling probably will be to open the door to voting by military personnel otherwise eligible. The source said it was believed the law controlling eligibility of on-base military personnel had changed since a previous attorney general ruled in 1951 they could not vote.

Newsman's Code To Be Eyed By Editors

NEW YORK (UPI) — Miles H. Wolff, president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors (ASNE), said Monday the Warren Commission's suggestion of a code of professional conduct for all news media deserves "serious consideration."

Wolff was one of several news executives who commented on the suggestion and the commission's criticism of news media for "general discipline" and lack of "self-discipline" in covering the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and subsequent events.

Wolff, executive editor of the Greensboro, N. C. News, said an ASNE committee headed by Alfred Friendly, managing editor of the Washington Post, would make a preliminary report Oct. 1 on a study begun last April on a proposed code of ethics.

"Notwithstanding this, I am asking Friendly to meet with representatives of other media at the earliest possible time to consider the Warren report recommendation."

"I have suggested that the group include representatives of Sigma Delta Chi journalistic fraternity, the radio-television news directors association, and the National Association of Broadcasters, together with any press groups that would want to join in the deliberations," Wolff said.

Members of the ASNE committee, in addition to Friendly, are Creed Black, of the Chicago Daily News; Herbert Brucker, of the Hartford; Wolff said their report would appear in the ASNE Bulletin on Oct. 1.

Friendly said in a statement that the Warren Commission's remarks about press conduct and responsibility in Dallas "must, obviously, be weighed thoughtfully by everyone concerned with the function of news presentation in a Democratic society."

Sanford Base Is Included

A decision by Atty. Gen. James Kynes would give the green light to an estimated 650 persons stationed at Sanford Naval Air Station to vote in the November election.

As of now, Sanford based personnel who have been eligible in many ways to vote have been turned down due to voting regulations in the county.

Such regulations, according to Mrs. Camilla Bruce, voter registrar, said persons living on government property must obtain an absentee ballot from their home town.

Thus they are denied the right to vote for local office holders but could, by absentee ballot, vote for national candidates.

A source close to Atty. Gen. Kynes said it was believed the law controlling the eligibility of military personnel to vote had changed since the previous Florida attorney general ruled in 1951 they could not vote.

With this possible change in the regulations, Mrs. Bruce and her staff are getting prepared for "an avalanche" of registrations from persons living on the local base.

Red China Blasts Pursuit Order

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist China today condemned President Johnson's reported decision to allow U. S. planes to enter Communist territory if they are in "hot pursuit" of Communist aircraft that have attacked U. S. naval patrols off Viet Nam.

The Peking People's Daily, in an editorial transmitted by the New China News Agency and monitored in Tokyo, charged that the plan was a means of expanding the war in Viet Nam.

At the same time, Assistant Secretary of State William P. Bundy told a Tokyo audience that an expansion of the war may be forced on the United States by the Communists.

"Expansion of the war outside South Viet Nam, while not a course we want to seek, could be forced upon us by the increased external pressure of the Communists, including a rising scale of infiltration," he told the Research Institute of Japan.

Washington reports last weekend said President Johnson included Communist China's territory as well as that of North Viet Nam in his "hot pursuit" doctrine. The reports said the aim of the decision was to deny Communist pilots a privileged sanctuary from which to attack U. S. naval craft.

County Board Acts On Plea From USDA

By Julian Stenstrom
Associate Editor

The County Commission this morning, after hearing representatives of the U. S. Department of Agriculture discuss the presence and the spread of fire ants in Seminole, appropriated $10,000 toward the cost of an eradication program.

Carl Smith, Florida's assistant supervisor for the USDA's Pest Control Division, said that a program to eradicate the fire ants in 80,000 acres of Seminole, 25,000 acres in Orange, 6,000 acres in Lake and 2,000 acres in Volusia counties would, if possible, be started Oct. 26.

The eradication program would be carried out by the spraying of mixtures from multi-engineered aircraft. The USDA, said Smith, would put the contract out on bids. He listed the largest expense would be the cost of the aircraft, next the insecticide and then the cost of flagmen.

The Commission heard Smith and County Agriculture Agent Cecil Tucker explain that the fire ant problem began in 1950 with some 5,000 Seminole County acres infested. It has spread to 80,000 acres or more and that it could become more of a health problem to people than to plant and animal life.

The Commission learned this morning that many plants in county nurseries are under quarantine but the nurserymen get around the ban by treating ornamentals and other plants subject to infestation.

Few vegetables are affected by the insects but the major problem now is to farm workers in the fields. The ant can sting humans four or five times, depositing a small amount of poison which breaks down skin tissue.

The ants have spread in Seminole from the Sandalwood section up and down U. S. 17-92, they are also moving north along I-4 into Volusia County, east and west along SR 434 and SR 436. Casselberry lies almost in the center of the infested area.

Burglars Beware!

Police Dogs On Force

By Harry I. Johnson
Managing Editor

Three exceptionally bright, fully-trained German Shepherd dogs have been added to the Sanford Police Department and will begin patrol duties in the near future.

City Commission members learned this last night at City Hall in a memorandum from City Manager Warren E. Knowles.

Three local policemen, Lt. Earl Bourquard and Patrolmen John Dodson and Charles Fagen, received "complete training" with the dogs in Missouri and returned to the city with them Monday.

Knowles added in his memo that "both the man and his dog are highly trained to supplement the normal police work of the department. They are particularly trained to track and apprehend prowlers, peepings Toms, escaped prisoners and to investigate darkened buildings, alleys, and all other areas."

"These are exceptional dogs," Knowles stated, "with a high degree of intelligence." The dogs were transported here in a trailer and at present, according to Police Chief Roy G. Williams, they will be kept at the home of the individual officer to whom the animal has been assigned.

After a short period of familiarization in the city, the dogs will be placed on duty.

Commissioners who saw the animals prior to last night's meeting praised their condition, their training and spirit.

The three dog-handlers, Knowles said, "ranked very high in their training and they are now qualified to train others as police dog handlers."

To protect the animals, commissioners set in motion an ordinance banning willful or malicious action "to torment, mutilate, injure, kill or disable any dog used for police work . . ."

Violation of the ordinance will constitute a misdemeanor.

City Moves To Get Private Bus Line

The Sanford area may soon have its own private bus transportation system.

The proposal was made last night at the City Commission meeting by Commissioner Joe Baker and it won the support of the membership.

Letters will be dispatched to private concerns now operating a mass transit system in other cities to see whether they are interested in setting up an operation here.

"A bus line would help people get to their jobs, to the Navy base, to downtown Sanford and other shopping areas," Baker said, adding: "Because of the fewer number of school buses this year, there are hundreds of children who must walk to school through dangerous intersections unless their parents are able to drive them back and forth. I feel certain that these parents would be greatly relieved to have bus service available."

"Out of a population of approximately 24,000 people, there are many who would find it more convenient to ride buses than to travel by car. They, too, pay the taxes for our street improvements."

"Out of 58 bus lines in the state of Florida, only six of these are municipally owned and operated. Because of the need and the increase in population, I feel that we should now be able to attract an independent bus line to our city, and I have requested the City Commission to take immediate steps to do so."

2 C. Of C.s Urged To Co-Operate

A plea for cooperation between the Seminole County and Sanford Chambers of Commerce was made last night by City Commissioner Earl Higginbotham after a request for funds was made of the Commission by the Sanford unit.

"The same people support the Seminole Chamber of Commerce as this (Sanford) one," Higginbotham declared, adding that the city "can't support two."

"Let's stop this animosity," the commissioner emphasized, "so we can get this job done. If we don't, we will become a beauty pageant Chamber only."

Higginbotham's comments came after the Sanford Cham-

Crashes Plague U. S. Pilots

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — A series of crashes plagued American - piloted planes and helicopters in the anti-Communist war today. But the only casualty was a U. S. Army enlisted man with a broken leg.

As the aerial mishaps occurred at scattered places, the Vietnamese Defense Ministry reported one government victory and two losses in the ground war.

On the political front, unrest continued in Saigon, where rumors of fresh plots against the regime of Premier Nguyen Khanh mounted.

A U. S. military spokesman said veteran Vietnamese rangers killed 50 Viet Cong on Sunday in the swamps of Go Cong Province just south of Saigon. No casualties were reported on the government side.

Commission To Tour Marinas

A tour of marina facilities in the state is on the agenda of city commissioners next week, if City Manager Warren E. Knowles can complete plans by that time.

Tactic agreement was given that the City Commission will make the survey next Tuesday and Wednesday. Tentative stopovers are scheduled for the St. Petersburg-Clearwater and Ft. Lauderdale areas. Others may be added.

The trip will give local commissioners insight as to the workings of marina facilities and offer help in continuing plans for a lakefront facility here.

Commissioners last night continued studying various clauses of a proposed contract for an engineering report for lakefront development.
