Volleyball Loop Race Stiffens

Competition in the Men's Volleyball League has become increasingly stiffer. Though the Florida State Bank team still remains undefeated, the scores to their games are becoming closer each time they play.

The reason for their success is not through the efforts of one person, but by good team play. The use of two set ups and one hard slam is the way to win in volleyball and Florida State Bank team uses this method.

Pinecrest Baptist Church is in the win circle with a win over the Jaycees, while the "Juckless" Jaycees have yet to win a game victory, though they have won one set.

Next week's games are: Jaycees vs. Pinecrest, Tuesday; Pinecrest vs. Florida State, Thursday.

group, has planned a well balanced group of songs, designed for listening pleasure with something to suit every taste.

Mrs. Robert Smith will again accompany the chorus and guest soloist chosen for this performance will be Mrs. Harry Echelberger, who will be heard in two groups of familiar and favorite songs.

The enthusiastic group of Sanford men, joined by fellows from the Navy and from DeBary continue to strive for improvement in their weekly rehearsals. Proceeds from the concert will go toward the Woman's Clubs many civic projects and for the enlargement of their music library.

How About Some Takers For This $100 Reward?

The first week in November has been designated as Litterbug Week by the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs and the following is an article prepared by Mrs. C. M. Flowers, publicity chairman for the Garden Club:

"For information leading to the arrest and assistance in getting the conviction of Highway Litterbugs the commissioners are willing to pay $100 rewards. Signs stating this fact are placed along all highways. "It is cheaper to pay the rewards and thoroughly discourage the strewing of trash than to pay road crews to clean up the mess. "Why have there been no takers? Some authorities say citizens are not inclined to squeal on their fellow men even though they are violators of the law. "I feel the throwing out of cars of beer cans should be covered by this law. On East Geneva Ave. the county crews recently cleaned the shoulders on Highway 44. Now it is dotted with beer cans. "In urban areas commercial garbage companies serve the homeowners. These firms operate under franchises granted by the county and their dumps are subject to county regulations. "Perhaps if every one knew these facilities were available more citizens would use them and thus keep our highways free of trash, making them more beautiful."

2 Political Plums Up For Grabs

By United Press International

Voters across the nation went to the polls today in scattered off-year elections. The Democrats and Republicans appeared likely to share the big political plums at stake—mayor of New York City and governor of New Jersey.

A turnout of about two million voters was expected in New York City when Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner was a favorite to win reelection over Republican Louis J. Lefkowitz, the state at-large general.

In New Jersey former Labor Secretary Robert F. Mitchell was expected to lead Democratic Robert J. Hughes to give the GOP the governorship now held by Robert E. Meyner, a Democrat.

While the New York City and New Jersey contests held most attention on a national standpoint and could have a bearing on the 1964 presidential race, there also were hundreds of other state and local elections.

Along with selecting local and state officials, voters in many areas were deciding on a variety of constitutional amendments and other statewide propositions.

Ohio and New Jersey voted on plans for keeping the state government operating in case of nuclear attack. Another Ohio proposal was to reorganize the state militia, making women eligible for service.

A congressional race featured the Michigan balloting. The Democrats, who won a special Texas election Saturday, were favored to pick up another House seat with Leelan N. Nedzi expected to defeat Republican Walter Czarnicki in Michigan's First District, covering part of Detroit.

Virginia elects a governor and other state officials. Democratic gubernatorial candidate Albert S. Harrison was an odds-on favorite over GOP nominee H. Clyde Pearson in an election expected to draw fewer than one-third of the eligible voters to the polls.

Pennsylvania there was one statewide contest. At Salt Lake City, Utah, and San Francisco, a 21-year term on the State Supreme Court. Pennsylvania voters also were asked to decide on a constitutional amendment which would permit the governor to succeed himself.

Kentucky, where the Democrats are dominant, was electing half of its state Senate and all of its state representatives.

Along with New York, major cities holding partisan municipal elections included Oakland, Calif.; Hartford and Bridgeport, Conn.; Louisville, Ky.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Cleveland, Youngstown and Akron, Ohio; and Salt Lake City, Utah, and San Francisco.

Reds Parade New Type Tanks, Mobile Rockets In Red Square

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union today paraded new type tanks and mobile rockets through Red Square and Defense Minister Marshal Rodion Malinovsky claimed that Soviet weaponry and technique is "the best in the world."

Malinovsky stood atop the Lenin mausoleum with Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and other Soviet officials to review a five hour demonstration and parade commemorating the 44th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

Former Soviet Premier Josef Stalin's body was removed from the tomb just last week at the end of the 22nd Soviet Communist party congress at which he was posthumously humiliated.

The Soviet news agency Tass, giving a running account of the parade, described "new combat rockets, never before seen by Muscovites."

"Huge cars with rocket installations—a new formidable weapon of the Soviet army—slowly drove past the guest stands..." Tass said.

"New tanks also were demonstrated. Capable of surmounting any obstacle on land and in water, they are equipped with devices which make it possible to discover the enemy in daytime and at night, in rain, fog and snow."

Tass described other weapons as "gigantic strategic rockets, junior sisters of those used to launch and orbit space ships," and "anti-aircraft rockets resembling fantastic birds with silvery wings."

The Soviet press published anniversary messages from President Kennedy, Communist China and many other nations and world figures but none from Albania which has become an outpost in Soviet eyes for its Stalinist ways.

Malinovsky said the Soviet government was determined to safeguard mankind against the horrors of thermonuclear war and thus was working persistently for easing international tensions and general and complete disarmament.

New York Striking Milkmen Return To Jobs

NEW YORK (UPI)—Striking milkmen, their two-week walkout settled, returned to the job today, opening the flow of milk to 10 million New York and Long Island customers.

Dairy industry spokesmen said the settlement would cost consumers one to two cents more for a quart of milk. The average price for home-delivered milk has been about 27 cents a quart.

The Teamsters Union ordered three striking locals to return to work after agreeing to a settlement calling for $11 a week wage and welfare package and binding arbitration on one unresolved issue—the method of recording and computing route drivers' overtime.

Final phrasing of the contracts still is to be worked out and representatives of both labor and management were to meet again today to wrap up what was called some "lawyers' work." There was a chance that new disagreements could crop up in wording the pact to scuttle the settlement, but it was not considered likely. The locals must approve the contract in voting expected Wednesday.

Wagner asked David L. Cole, director of the Federal Mediation

FTA Boys Chapter Aims To Encourage Teaching

Looking toward the future, educators know that the most important factor in better education and better schools are dedicated, devoted and well-educated teachers.

Special attention is given to the encouragement of more men teachers, in order to enrich a field that has in past years become dominated by a large percentage of women.

In an endeavor to encourage and inform the young men of Seminole High School regarding the teaching profession, a co-chapter of the T. W. Lawton Chapter of the Future Teachers of America was formed during the 1960-61 school year.

The program was specifically designed to meet the interests and needs of the male members of the student body.

The organization attempts to point out the various factors of salaries, work loads, requirements for teaching certificates, educational requirements and other matters which can influence a person's decision regarding the selection of the teaching profession for a life time vocation.

Initially, the club was organized with a membership of eight active participants. An active campaign was conducted at the end of last year's school term and the beginning of the present semester which raised the membership to 25.

The charter officers during the first year of operation consisted of James Markham, Bedford Aiken, Bill Phagan and Chris Thomas as president, vice president, secretary-treasurer, and chaplain.

This second year is headed by Don McMurray as president, Chris Thomas as vice president, Dennis Smith as secretary and Randall Chase as treasurer.

It is the intent of this organization to be of distinct service both to the school and the community, offering various services as guides during community functions at the school and by providing active assistance to the members of the faculty.

The most important function of the organization is conducted at the end of each school year. This is a period of internship at the various schools within Sanford during which time the students observe teaching methods and techniques.

Towards the end of the internship week the students take over from the teacher and conduct the classes as the student would, were he the regular teacher. This provides the most realistic approach which can be afforded the prospective teacher.

Work, although a great part of the program, is not all that is done. Apart from regularly scheduled business meetings the club will participate in outings for pure relaxation and recreation.

Such a meeting will be held in the near future as a social gathering so that the old and new members can become better acquainted.

With only one year behind this organization the members are quite proud of the recognition that has been given to the club.

Attending the state convention of the FTA were Robert Murrin and Don McMurray along with the girls' representatives, Linda Williams and Sharon Rier. An active campaign was carried on which placed Robert Murrin as state Corresponding Secretary.

With the rapid growth in membership and state recognition both chapters look forward to an active and prosperous year.

Veterans Program Set In DeBary

Final plans for a Veterans Day meeting of the DeBary Volunteer Fire Dept. Auxiliary were made at a meeting of the executive board held at the home of Mrs. Charles Ulrich, president.

A dessert and program of movies has been scheduled for the occasion when all veterans will be honored by the DeBary group at 2 p. m. Thursday at the Fire Hall.

The board also planned a carnival to be held at the Fire House for December 9 beginning at 10 a. m. where numerous handicraft and "white elephant" articles will be on sale and many games will be featured.

Parade Winners Receive Trophies

Costume parade winners who each received a trophy at the annual Oviedo P-T-O Carnival included JoAnna Michael, Judy Mollison, Linda Olliff, Marshall Lingo, Kathy McCall and Richard Harris.

Rev. and Mrs. Ben Blackburn assisted Mrs. Jack Bratton, carnival chairman, with the parade. Judges were Mrs. R. W. Estes, Mrs. Norma Yore and M.L. Gary.

Anchor Club Sells Corsages For Homecoming

The girls of the Anchor Club at Seminole High are going to add a lot of color and beauty to this year's Homecoming festivities.

They are selling handsome chrysanthemum corsages for the girls and ladies to wear. They will have them in two sizes, medium and large, at a very nominal price, and will be glad to take your order. All corsages will be ready Friday afternoon at 2:30 in Mrs. Virginia Burney's room, 509 at SRS.

"Mum's the word for that special girl!" is their slogan. On Saturday, the girls are planning to hold a car wash and will reveal the time and place soon.

The club recently began a service hours chart, like that of their mother club, the Pilot Club. Each girl lists her number of service hours on each project and at the end of the year, the total number of service hours will be totaled.

The national project of Anchor Club's all over the country is Safety.

The local girls are conducting a survey for safety hazards in the city, particularly for blind corners, which will be reported to the city manager.

Registration may be made at the opening class.

Faculty Talent Winners Named

The Oviedo School Faculty presented an almost hour-long Talent Show, comparable to last Spring's show given by the students, to conclude this year's P-T-O Carnival.

Mrs. Don Ulrey, chairman, reported that the judges, Mrs. Roy Weisenberger, Mayor Lee Gary and Dr. E. W. Stoner, found it difficult to choose winners from among the highly entertaining and "sometimes unusual" numbers.

However, after close deliberations, the "Six Statesmen," novelty dancers featuring Mrs. W.H. Deshazo, Jim Palmer, Mrs. Bill West, Mrs. Jim Partin, Jack Calvert and Mrs. C. K. Bucklew, took the first prize. Second went to Miss Bonnie Honaker, Mrs. Hazel Flynt, Mrs. Max Coberly and Mrs. Milton Cooper for their "Dog-Gone" song and "scratching" number, and third to Arch Hovick, C. W. Holder and Paul Mikler, "The School House Rockers," a vocal trio act.

"BY THIS PROCLAMATION, be it known that the week of November 5th through November 12th shall be observed as American Education Week." Signed Joe B. Baker, Mayor. This proclamation, being signed by Mayor Baker is being witnessed by Mrs. Mary Joyce Bateman, left, president of the Seminole County Education Assn. and by R. T. Milwee, right, superintendent of county schools. (Herald Photo)

Girl Scout Leader Appeals For Help

The following is an appeal from Mrs. Betty Halback, District Chairman of the Seminole Girl Scout organization:

"Girl Scouting depends entirely upon the interest and effort of a small group of volunteers who are genuinely concerned about the activities and development of the girls and youth of our nation.

"These adults give freely a generosity of their time and energy to stimulate and guide your children through a widely varied program of fun, friendship, service and daily practice in living the Girl Scout Promise and Laws.

"These laws reinforce the spiritual and moral values of home and religion and help to develop resourceful individuals capable of sharing their abilities as citizens in their homes and in the world.

"This worthwhile program can develop soundly only when groups of citizens accept the responsibility for the local support and direction of the Girl Scout movement and work cooperatively to achieve the high standards of the organization.

"At present time there are over 700 Girl Scouts in Seminole County, actively participating in a rich experience, but there are countless other girls, from second grade through 12th, who are knocking at Scouting's door, but must be turned away because there are not enough leaders and troops to fill this void.

"THE NEED IS GREAT—THE TIME IS NOW.

"Does this rapidly growing community care enough to help us further the development of good character and sound citizenship in its young leaders of tomorrow and at the same time, share in a stimulating and rewarding experience of companionship and service with them?"

"Those few of us who give freely and gladly of our energies to further this movement believe that it fills a genuine and vital need in every girl's life.

Potential Protection Of U. S. Outlined At Rotary

"Few people realize the vast potential protection the U. S. now has standing guard," Capt. Harry Stouemire, of the Stetson ROTC, formerly Missile Battery Commander in Germany and a Minute-man, told Rotarians Monday.

Throughout the world, Stouemire said, we are protected by our integrated system of Nike and Nike-Zeus batteries. He described the NORAD line, the North American Air Defense Command, with the assistance of slides and projected pictures.

This vast network of equipment forms a radar net entirely around the U. S. with communications headquarters in Colorado Springs connected by radio-telephone to every sector of the system and manned continuously.

Florida is in the Second Air Defense Region, Capt. Stouemire said, and went on to describe "The Missile-Master" a giant computer that tracks and computes all aircraft in the sky and defines their flight path, and knows whether they are friendly or unfriendly.

The mission of the Missile Master is to "deny penetration" of our air defense system, and it is backed up with the latest and most modern and effective equipment.

Cadillac

What a difference a year makes!

If anyone had told him, a short while ago, that his 1961 Cadillac could be improved on—he would have regarded them with disbelief.

And yet, after only half an hour in the newest "car of cars", he knows that a year of Cadillac progress has made a world of difference.

In fact, the list of Cadillac advancements for 1962 embraces each of the great motoring virtues. For added beauty, there is a lower, longer silhouette . . . greater simplicity and dignity of line . . . and new interior elegance and luxury.

For improved comfort, there is increased spaciousness . . . new convenience of appointments . . . and a ride that is unbelievably quiet and smooth.

For finer performance, there is greater power . . .

more responsive handling . . . and a degree of all-around road ableness that is now even to Cadillac.

For increased safety, there is a new dual braking system . . . a new three-phase rear warning light system . . . and new cornering lights that illuminate your way around turns.

And we would like to say that even Cadillac quality has been enhanced for 1962. But the truth is simply that the car continues to be built to the highest standards that can be brought to the production of an automobile.

Stop by your dealer's showroom soon, won't you? He'll be happy to demonstrate to you what a difference a year can make—when the year is this one and the car is Cadillac.

Education Week

Every November, American Education Week is observed throughout the United States.

It is an audit, or annual report time, during which the schools tell the general public about their achievements, needs, problems, purposes and methods.

The purpose of American Education Week is to make every American aware of the important role education plays in a democracy and to help him realize that good schools are his personal responsibility.

"Time For a Progress Report" is the theme of American Education Week this year, and our local and county schools are observing this week in many ways.

Mayor Joe Baker has proclaimed this week as American Education Week in Seminole County and now is an opportune time for parents to confer with educators and for all of us to take a long look at our educational facilities.

What do we want for our children? What are we giving them? Are we penny-wise and pound-foolish? Are today's schools meeting the needs of today's students in the world we live in today?

American Education Week is a good time for American parents to educate themselves a little—to examine, appraise, study and evaluate their schools.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Mary is the type of educated person who grips me. For many years I taught the course of "Psychology of Advertising" so I admire advertisers, but not when they seduce our youth and try to stampede teenagers into being social "sheep." Parents, get help to your obligations!

CASE 444: Mary M., aged 38, is the wife of a prominent doctor.

"I have a problem," she spoke uncertainly, as I was being entertained at a cocktail party at the state convention.

"Our oldest boy, barely 10, was out with the car last night and I found he had drunk several bottles of beer."

"Dr. Crane, don't you think we should deprive him of the use of the family car? What makes teenagers so irresponsible nowadays?"

As Mary was criticizing her son, she was dangling a cigaret in one hand and a half empty martini glass in the other.

Apparently she had lunched rather freely of the liquor, for she was a bit unsteady on her feet and flushed of the face.

"What do you expect?" I bluntly demanded, "when you serve liquor in your own home?"

"Children tend to imitate their elders! Thus, our surveys show that if parents smoke, the children are more likely to do so."

"If they serve alcohol, the teenagers are more likely to become drinkers."

"Even if they are divorced, the children of divorced parents are much more likely to have divorces, too."

"It's a case of 'Monkey see, monkey do,' so your scolding loses its effectiveness when you parents do things that which you oppose in your children."

"Well, you readers may think I was somewhat tactless in this terse reply, but sometimes bluntness is indicated.

If a toddler is reaching down to stroke the head of a coiled rattlesnake, you shouldn't stop to indulge in macabre phrases.

Jerk him out of danger by sheer physical force.

Christ, too, could easily have oriented to the money changers in the Jewish Temple.

"You men are intelligent business leaders!" Jesus might thus have begun "and you know you should set a good example before the less educated citizens here in Jerusalem."

"So why not move your money tables across the street and avoid contaminating God's house with mercenary business?"

Since Jesus was the world's greatest Applied Psychologist of all time he could doubtless have persuaded those men to move.

But he didn't employ diplomatic phrases on them! No; instead he used a cat-o-nine-tails and flogged them out of the Temple after first knocking over their money tables and strewn their coins all over the floor!

You doctors and other educated folks should stop being sheep, meekly serving liquor in front of your children just because the TV suggests it is the sophisticated, fashionable thing to do.

Children imitate parents, so get help! You owe your youngsters a good example, so curb your nuisance habits, at least till the kids are out of high school and gone from your home.

Send for my medical booklet "How To Quit Tobacco & Liquor," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

It shows you the easy psychological strategy for breaking your slavery to John Barleycorn and also nicotine.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — There has been a considerable amount of scare talk about a neutron bomb or "death ray" bomb that will kill secretaries in their offices, businessmen in their factories, wives in their homes and soldiers in the fortifications, without destroying the buildings.

New research on this bomb makes three things clear, say military scientists privately:

First: There won't be any practical neutron bomb right away. United States research men have run into new problems in developing a device to explode such a bomb.

Indications are that the U. S. is ahead and that the Russians are running into worse troubles. The bomb, of course, won't be any good until someone finds a way to explode it.

Work has been going on for several years at the Lawrence Radiation Laboratory of the University of California and at other spots. Scientists are trying to lick this trigger problem by implosion, so that TNT as it bursts inward will converge with terrific heat on a heart of hydrogen.

The research men are also looking into an electromagnetic method for concentrating very hot mixtures of charged hydrogen atoms — ions — tightly enough to intensify the heat sufficiently to cause an explosion.

Second: In some ways the bomb has been overvalued. New Pentagon studies indicate the neutron bomb will be primarily a special-purpose tactical battlefield weapon.

The chief value of a true neutron bomb is that it produces less radioactivity, less blast and less fire than an H-bomb of the same strength in hydrogen.

Military commanders would thus be able to fire neutron missiles and move in fairly quickly with troops without fear of radiation. Enemy fortifications and equipment could be taken over intact. Russian military strongpoints in Europe could be attacked without fear of killing friendly civilian populations with fallout.

A major use of the neutron warhead may be in antimissile missiles. Out in space, neutrons travel long distances. An antimissile missile fired at an enemy ICBM at the peak of its arc in space might be able to destroy the ICBM with neutrons.

These neutron antimissile missiles would produce no fallout. They would be cheap.

It may therefore be possible to produce antimissile missile batteries that would operate something like super machine guns, throwing heavy numbers of antimissile missiles into the air.

They thus might put up an effective barrier to large numbers of enemy ICBMs without bankrupting the nation and without creating large amounts of fallout that would endanger the United States.

As of today their latest evaluations lead military men to see little use for the neutron bomb or neutron warheads in inter-continental missiles. Even ordinary one-megaton H-bombs are more effective. That is to say, their kill power is greater over longer distances. Neutron bombs would not compare in effectiveness with 5, 10, and 20-megaton H-bombs.

To be really effective, a neutron bomb would have to explode in the air at a fairly precise point within a half mile or so of its target. Soviet and U. S. ICBMs will not have such accuracy soon.

Third, These neutron "bullets" are not new. All ordinary H-bombs when they explode give out a hefty shower of the tiny particles called neutrons. In most H-bombs the blast, fire and radioactivity travel farther than the neutrons. A victim thus would never know whether he'd been killed by the blast, the fire, the radioactivity or the neutrons.

These neutrons travel about a mile through the atmosphere. At a half mile, they'll penetrate several feet of concrete or earth. They're able to do this because they're so small.

They're contained in the hearts of all atoms, except hydrogen atoms. Sixteen trillion neutrons weigh less than a trillionth of an ounce.

Since any wall, shield or army tank is composed of atoms and electrons which are rather far apart compared to the size of a neutron, neutrons go through these "open spaces" with comparative ease.

The neutrons, when they strike the atoms in a man's body, knock out charged protons—also in the heart of every atom—which destroy the body cells. This kills the man. But it doesn't destroy the chair he's sitting on, the suit he's wearing or the house or tank he's in.

Actually, a neutron bomb essentially is a weak H-bomb with some of its sting removed. That is, a neutron bomb is a weak H-bomb minus some of its blast strength, some of its heat and almost all of its radioactivity.

A neutron bomb can be made by taking the uranium heart, or trigger, and the outer uranium jacket from a weak H-bomb and substituting some nonnuclear trigger. The exploding uranium is the source of the H-bomb's radioactive fallout.

Starting with a small H-bomb and eliminating the fallout-causing uranium serves two purposes. It makes the bomb weak enough so that the blast and heat effects won't travel farther than the neutrons. That is, they don't steal the kill from the neutrons.

Thus a neutron bomb exploded on earth will always be weaker than a comparable H-bomb. Fortifications, tanks, other buildings are not destroyed. Large amounts of radiation are not released to float uncontrolled over other areas.

Now that the 50-megaton bomb has been exploded by Nikita Khrushchev, all the self-styled Russian experts in Christendom may be counted on to speculate as to the reasons why.

There will be little agreement. This one will say the bomb was exploded to intimidate the small nations of the earth.

Another will say the blast was aimed at putting fear into the hearts of the large nations.

Still another will conclude that Khrushchev, being uneasy in the saddle, did it to strengthen his own position as head man of the Soviets.

Some will say that the horror bomb was detonated to intimidate Albania, with its mighty standing army of six or seven hundred, or China with its seven or eight hundred million soldiers.

There will be guesses—and they must be just that, and nothing more—the bomb was triggered to weaken the Free World's firmness toward Berlin.

My own guess—and I know noting about the inside of the Kremlin that isn't on a color postcard—is that the bomb was blasted off for the simple reason that Khrushchev, like Hitler before him, has become completely irresponsible, utterly power mad, and thoroughly disdainful of the opinion of the world.

Khrushchev may be sly, cunning, smart, iron-willed, and all the rest, but he is also moving toward that madness which led to Hitler's meteoric rise and equally rapid descent.

A man who will endanger the earth with the needless fallout of such a bomb has to be touched with madness. A sane man would reckon with the opinion of the universe, listen to the pleas of men of good will and common sense.

Hitler reached a point where no one could tell him a thing, and Khrushchev is galloping down the same path. His talks before the Soviet Congress were patterned after Hitler's in the mid and late 1930's—attacks on the living and the dead, old men and spent men, on small nations and large, rantings, ravings, and unlimited output of violence.

How is the world to deal with such a man—a man who will set off a horror blast for no purpose? Sit down at a table and talk with him? Ask him to swing around to the humanitarian side? Put his name on an agreement and promise to honor it?

No man in his right senses could have as much plain, pure gall as Khrushchev has. A man in his right mind would blush to speak of peace in one sentence and threaten to blow the world out of existence in the next. Or talk of freedom and human rights while holding millions in slavery.

His next—and this is a good bet—is to suggest the resumption of nuclear disarmament and a ban on bio-weapons. He has tried his, so the idea will now become detestable to him.

The man is crazy.

That's my guess, and I hope to goodness I get stuck with it.

But his actions and his words are not those of a sane man as we know sane men. It's as simple as that.

Demos, GOP Rap Each Other On Racial Views

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Democratic and Republican national chairmen have accused each other's party of raising a racial issue in Saturday's congressional election in Texas.

Democratic Chairman John M. Bailey charged that the GOP brought up the race issue in the campaign against Democrat Henry B. Gonzalez Jr., who defeated Republican John Goode by about 10,000 votes.

Republican Chairman William E. Miller said the issue was injected by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson in the last three days of the campaign. He accused Johnson of engaging in a "low type of politics below the dignity" of his office.

Why good drivers in Florida are switching to Allstate Auto Insurance

1. They find that, year after year, Allstate policyholders have saved real folding money on their auto insurance. You can't buy better protection—so why pay more?
2. They like the new Good Driver Plan which offers lower rates to drivers with accident-free records.
3. They want protection against cancellation of their liability insurance. After 90 days, new policyholders are given written assurance that their liability protection won't be cancelled just because of accidents . . . assurance for a full 5-year period from the date of their policy.

No wonder Allstate writes more auto liability insurance than any other company in the world. Why don't you see or phone an Allstate Agent now?

Strikes . . . Spares

By JOHN A. SPOLSKI

Glory-bell! Seems like everyone is still talking about Johnny Wright's big series of 212-265-227-699.

In that second game, which was started off with eight strikes in a row, for a while it appeared like Johnny was heading for the promotion of dollar bills.

Remember, for a 800 game the Bowling Proprietor's Association offers a $500.00 savings bond plus the shirt manufacturer matches this amount. With other incentives available, it usually is worth around $1,500 to $2,000 for a perfect game.

Don't despair you lovely women. All you have to bowl is a mere 279. A note from the Coach of the Saturday morning Juniors, Al DePalma—he could use a few more Bantam bowlers, both boys and girls.

If you parents would like your youngsters enrolled into a wholesome sport, we recommend you have them here at Jet Lanes on Saturday AM—9:30.

I see where the Spare Ribbers are starting to explode with some of those big 2-hundred games. For example, Richards was hi with a 204 just one pin over Salisbury. Richards also copped hi series with a 680.

Same two names continue to appear for the top honors in the Mr. & Mrs. League—Claude Foster and Grace Mello.

Claude had hi game and series this past Friday nite with a 224/641 and Grace led the women with a 178/480.

In the Holler Motors/Navy Wives League there was a tie between Fran Mackey and Alinta Franklin for hi game with a 181 with Alinta taking series with a 801.

Thursday Nite Mixed League had lots of big deuces bowled—Margie Woods showed 'em all with a 230/820 series; Dave Dearolph and Harry Pentecost were tied for hi game amongst the men with a 201. Dearolph lead in series for

Jet Inn Takes 4 Loop Games

Jet Inn won all four games from Robson's Sporting Goods to move up into first place in the Sandspurs Bowling League Wednesday night. Robson's Sporting Goods moved into third place.

Stemper Agency remained in the second spot by taking three games and losing one to Alix of Sanford. Mary Lou Danyluk rolled high for the night for Stemper Agency with a 212-314 scratch series. Jane Adcock rolled a 664 series.

Welsh Tire Shop won three games and lost one to McRoberts Tires, remaining in fourth position.

Winning 20, Jet Inn is still in close contest with Stemper Agency with 19 for first place. Robson's Sporting Goods with 18 1/2 and Welsh Tire Shop with 17 1/2 are running close behind.

Splits were made by Maxine Koehler, 8-7; Jean Webster, 3-7; Jane Adcock, 2-7; Betty Cox 3-8-10; June Kennedy, 6-3; Virginia Frederick, 5-8-10; and Midge Woods, 7-8 and 3-7.

Texas, Alabama Pace Grid Poll

NEW YORK (UPI)—Texas and Alabama, boasting perfect records this season, ranked 1-2 today in the United Press International college football ratings following last Saturday's upsets of Michigan State and Mississippi, the previous front-runners.

The powerful Texas Longhorns, who have scored 233 points against their opponents, received 21 first-place votes from the 35 coaches who comprise the UPI weekly rating board. All told, Texas accumulated 330 points to replace Michigan State, the No. 1 team for the last two weeks.

The Spartans dropped to seventh place and Mississippi fell from second to eighth in the big reshuffle of the top 10.

Ohio State, unbeaten but ousted, advanced into the No. 3 position, gathering seven first place votes, three more than Alabama. The Crimson Tide, however, had an overall total of 281 points while the Buckeyes drew 270.

Louisiana State, which downed Mississippi, 10-7, vaulted two notches to fourth place while Minnesota, 13-0 victor over Michigan State, jumped from 10th to fifth.

Rounding out the top 10 were Georgia Tech, Michigan State, Mississippi, Colorado and Missouri in that order. Ironically, Missouri moved up one spot to 10th although defeated by Colorado in an important Big Eight Conference game. And Colorado dropped back one notch to ninth.

Iowa State heads the second 10 followed by Purdue, Maryland, UCLA, Arkansas, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Northwestern and Rice.

Texas shoots for its eighth straight against Baylor next weekend while Alabama takes on Richmond and Ohio State plays Indiana. In next Saturday's top contests, LSU engages North Carolina, Michigan State meets 12th-ranked Purdue and Minnesota plays Iowa.

As for the rest of the select group, unbeaten Colorado hopes to keep rolling against Utah; Mississippi plays Chattanooga; Georgia Tech engages Tennessee and Missouri runs into Oklahoma.

Among those counted ready for action is linebacker Paul Vergecko, who has been in and out of the lineup all year with injuries.

Graves said the second team played a good game against Tech, especially quarterback Tom Batten, and would see a lot of action against Georgia Saturday in Jacksonville.

The Seminole Junior High football Squad will play host to the Junior High Seabreeze Sandcrabs at 7:30 p.m. today in Memorial Ball Park in the sixth and last gridiron contest of the season for the undefeated Junior High players.

The Junior High team has played five games this season, winning four and losing one. In the opening game of the season, the Heavy Squad trampled Bunnell 23-4. The second game played with the Junior High Yellow Jackets of Leesburg was a 0-0 stalemate.

The Junior High Seminoles defeated Bunnell for the second time in 1961 in the contest of the season 13-0. Kistimmee fell to the blows of the Junior Seminoles 21-0. In the last game of two weeks ago, the Heavy Squad edged the Leesburg Junior High 6-0.

Seabreeze is expected to be a tough battle for the Junior High Seminoles. In the two games that Seabreeze has played with top-ranked Mainland, the Junior High Sandcrabs were beaten in the first pigskin contest and rallied in the second to overwhelm the Sandcrabs 20-0. Seabreeze beat Sanford 13-0 last year.

Junior High right halfback Jerry Moody is the leading scorer for the Junior High players with seven touchdowns. Quarterback Clint Phillips comes in second place with two touchdowns. In the Leesburg battle of two weeks ago, halfback Moody made the only scoring play of the ball game with a 30 yard pass and run from a throw by quarterback Phillips.

Heavy Squad Coach Dan Pelham is "real pleased with the way the boys have worked this year. They have always had a positive attitude toward the game. They would always go in to win." If the Junior High players live up to this confidence tonight, the Heavy Squad will be the second team to go undefeated this season in Seminole County.

Met Sign Lepcio
NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Mets have signed infielder Ted Lepcio as a free agent. Lepcio, 31, batted around .250 during his tenure with five major league clubs over a 10-year span.

Redskins Set Losing Record
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Washington Redskins' string of 16 consecutive defeats is a National Football League record for a club operating continuously in one city.

According to NFL research, the old Cardinals franchise lost 20 straight games between 1942 and 1945, but during the 1944 wartime campaign, the Cards represented a combined Chicago-Pittsburgh franchise.

Liston Boed After 'Flabby' Exhibition

CHICAGO (UPI)—Sonny Liston, boxing's current bad boy, today shrugged off fan reaction to his plodding showing against Ernest Terrell with the comment "they used to boo Joe Louis in exhibitions too."

Liston, slow and flabby from a long layoff, was anything but impressive in his four-round exhibition fight with Terrell, the Illinois heavyweight champion.

The match was a preliminary to the main bout, a fight between Joey Giardello and Jesse Smith. Giardello won a 10-round decision.

Liston, weighing 219 pounds, was off in his timing against Terrell and lacked power in his punches. Terrell, a lanky 194-pound fighter, landed consistently with his jab to the head. He also had better speed than Liston and his footwork was better.

But despite the boos, Liston felt satisfied with his showing. "I thought my timing was off and I wasn't sharp, but I thought I was close enough that I can get sharp in a hurry."

Liston staged two brief flurries in the bout, which was fought with headgear and 16-ounce gloves. At one time, he staggered Terrell with a right to the head.

Liston said he wasn't particularly concerned with the speed of his footwork. The only speed that concerned him, he said, was "with my punching" and "I thought I had that."

Liston received no purse for the match. His share, after expenses, went to a crippled children's fund.

Liston's next match is Dec. 4 at Philadelphia against Germany's Albert Westphal. It will be televised on closed-circuit television as an added attraction to the Floyd Patterson-Tom McNewly match in Toronto the same night.

Giardello's win over Smith, his second, was unanimous. The eighth ranked Philadelphia middleweight, who weighed 168, was sharp, with his jab and counterpunches. But Smith, a 158 1/2 pounder out of Chicago, had Giardello in trouble occasionally.

The victory was Giardello's 97th in 117 fights.

An all-new Ford . . .
Galaxie and Falcon

Some cars have new names... this name will have a new car!

The name is familiar—the Ford Fairlane 500. The car itself is totally new—so new you'll see nothing else like it this year. It is one of Ford's milestone designs—and will be as influential in its way as the first mass-produced car (a Ford Model T), the first popular station wagon (a Ford Wagon), the first four-passenger luxury car (a Ford Thunderbird), the world's most successful compact (a Ford Falcon).

Right between Galaxie and Falcon in size and in price, the 1962 Ford Fairlane 500 is just the right car for just about everybody; you have never been able to buy anything so right before.

Big in room, ride and performance, it is still priced under most compacts. It outpaces a nickel as though it never expected to see another. It moves like a rabbit on roller skates.

New unitized body a foot shorter outside . . . full size inside

Ford engineers have changed the proportions of the automobile; a completely new unitized body gives you more room inside with less bulk outside. A foot shorter than previous Fairlanes, the new Fairlane 500 is pleasantly parkable, delightfully drivable, easily garageable. At the same time it packs into its neat and nifty 197 inches as much passenger room as you had in some of the biggest Fords ever built.

Twice a year maintenance

Service is reduced to a minimum—30,000 miles on many items, twice a year on the rest. You go 30,000 miles between major lubrications, 6,000 miles between oil changes and minor lubrications. You don't have to touch the engine coolant-antifreeze for two years—or 30,000 miles—at a time. Brakes adjust themselves.

All-new economy Eight from world's V-8 leader

The hand that honed the Thunderbird—and sped the Falcon to all-time Economy Run honors—turned to a new problem here, the world's first economy V-8. Made possible by new Ford foundry methods, the new Challenger V-8 is as strong as iron—and a bit lighter than iron's ever been before. As lively as you'd like . . . it's a natural powerplant for America's first car-you-own-and-keep-it.

For those who want even greater thrift, there's a new Fairlane Six. Its economy would be gratifying in a smaller car. In a car this size it's a downright delight.

Preview America's newest car now

As part of Preview Run U.S.A., new Fairlane 500's are riding the nation's highways and main streets right now. Watch for them. See what thousands have already seen—and raved about. Take a turn at the wheel—and perhaps do a little raving yourself.

We think you'll agree: this all-new Ford is just right for just about everybody. No matter how many new cars you've looked at, you haven't seen anything like this one. It will be at your Ford Dealer's next week. If you miss it now, be sure to see it then.

JUST RIGHT FOR JUST ABOUT EVERYBODY!

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been married 15 years and have 9 children. I love my husband more than words can express. A few weeks ago he came home and told me he didn't love me any more, and that he found somebody else. He said it all started years ago when I wouldn't go out with him. I did sort of stay around the house because the children needed me and, besides, I was always pregnant. Now he wants out. He says he can't support two homes. Please tell me what to do. I am 32 and he is 33. NERVOUS and doll clothes. He has never had a cowboy outfit, toy truck or car. He likes to dress up in his mother's high heels and hats, and play with the seven and eight-year-old neighborhood girls. He never wants to play any sports. Last year his school teacher called up his mother and tactfully suggested that she take him to a doctor. The mother replied, "Don't be silly. He has never even had a cold." How do you wise up a mother like that? DISTANT RELATIVE

DEAR DISTANT: Better get a little closer for the boy's sake. How about talking to the boy's father? This family needs help, not criticism.

DEAR ABBY: The lady who signed herself "LUCKY" when she put out a grease fire in her kitchen with "a few handfuls of flour and cornmeal" doesn't know how lucky she was. Flour and cornmeal can EXPLODE when thrown on a fire. A better way to extinguish a grease fire is quickly to place a lid or something similar over the burning grease. And please mention that WATER should never be thrown on burning grease as the grease will float on the water, continue to burn, and you'll be in worse shape than before. Sincerely, VIC JONES, YOUR FRIENDLY FIRE-MAN.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby in care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

NEAR NERVOUS: Small wonder he can't support two homes when one home has nine children. No matter what he is, he is yours. Hang onto him.

DEAR ABBY: In the midst of my happiness, I have a problem. I recently became engaged to a wonderful man and am planning my wedding. My father is a minister, and I know that he has always wanted to officiate at my wedding. The man I am going to marry is the son of a minister. I have known his father many years and have grown to love him almost as much as my own father. I would like very much for my future father-in-law to perform my marriage ceremony, but I don't want to hurt my own father's feelings. In these any way this could tactfully be arranged? TO BE WED

DEAR TO BE: Your father and future father-in-law can share in the ceremony. But out of respect to your own father, do give him the lion's share.

DEAR ABBY: A relative of mine has a little ten-year-old boy who plays with dolls

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

Mark Hodges, Boise, Idaho, and Hampton Hume of Atlanta, who qualified for the Houston, Texas, tryouts by winning the open pairs at Denver, are businessmen who have been playing bridge for a long time and who played together frequently when Mark was living in Georgia and Tennessee. Mark, in particular, believes that when an opponent attacks his neck out as much as an inch the proper action is to try to chop it right off. Thus when South overcalled Hampton's opening spade bid with two diamonds, Mark was right there with a double.

Bridge score table with columns for NORTH, WEST, EAST, SOUTH and various scores.

for defense against diamonds, but then he didn't like it much for anything else and he passed. Mark opened the seven of spades and Hamp cashed three spade tricks while Mark discarded the deuce and then the six of clubs. This way of asking for a heart shift is just as effective as any other, so Hamp played ace and four of hearts. Mark took his jack and king and led his last heart, Hamp ruffed with the ten spot. This play constituted an up-duck. South had to overruff with the king and now Mark was able to make two diamond tricks, collect a 500-point penalty and a top score.

TV Time Previews

8-8:30 p. m. (CBS) Dick Van Dyke. Amusing fare. Neighbor Jerry Helper teases Laura about Rob working late and plants the thought that her husband is spending his evenings with some glamorous actress. Laura takes it lightly until Rob works three nights in a row with vamp Valerie Blake, played by Joan Staley. Stars Dick Van Dyke and Mary Tyler Moore. 8:30-9 p. m. (CBS) Dobie Gillis. Maynard shines in this one. Dobie is amazed to discover that Maynard has become a big man on campus. The prettiest coeds are showering the bestnik with gifts and imploring him to date them. Nancy Priest, daughter of Fry Baker Priest, former treasurer of the United States, makes her acting debut as one of the coeds. Dwayne Hickman and Bob Denver star. 9:30-10 p. m. (CBS) Red Skelton. "The Almost Late George Appleby." The laughs come fast and furious in this farce. A smooth-talking insurance salesman convinces Skelton, who plays George Appleby, that he should insure his wife for $100,000, then turns around and talks Mrs. Appleby, guest-star Audrey Meadows, into taking out a similar policy on her spouse. Each begins to suspect that the other plans something murderous. 9-10 p. m. (NBC) Dick Powell. "Somebody's Waiting." Slight but touching story made more poignant because of Mickey Rooney's affective performance as Augie, a seaman on shore leave trying desperately to make friends with his shipmates. The harder he tries, the more it irks them. A lonesome guy, he meets Carla, an attractive girl with her own troubles. Stabbed in the back by a couple of vengeful hoodlums Augie finds out there are people who care about him. Carla and his buddies grow to miss him. Co-featuring is Susan Oliver. 9-10 p. m. (ABC) New Breed. "Till Death Do Us Part." Parting makes for a pretty sweet sorrow of a mystery drama in this instance. A woman is found dead under suspicious circumstances. Roger Dawson and wife (Wendell Corey and Eileen Heckart) deny knowing the victim. On interrogation, however, Lieutenant Adams suspects there's more to the story than hasn't been admitted! Starring Leslie Nielsen, with guest star Michael Allison of the Broadway musical, "My Fair Lady." 9:30-10 p. m. (CBS) Ichabod and Mr. Toad. Bob Major's son, Benjie, finds a week-old lamb and nurses it back to health. A custody fight looms when Farmer Caleb Crawford claims ownership of the animal. Robert Sterling stars, George Chandler is Ichabod, and Jimmy Mathers is Benjie. 10-11 p. m. (ABC) Alcoa Premiere. "Moment of Decision." Fred Astaire, who also hosts this series, comes off commendably well in a suspenseful drama suitable for the entire family. Not racial prejudice, but prejudice against entertainers is the keynote of this plot. Fred, a magician, is made to feel unwelcome when he buys a home adjacent to the snobbish owner (Harry Townes) of a huge estate. The plot moves rather slowly till a bet is made that Fred can't escape, Houdini-style, from the straight cellar in the neighbor's home, then moves briskly to a provocative ending. Co-starring Maureen O'Sullivan. 10-11 p. m. (NBC) Cain's Hundred. "Comeback." The boxing

Kaye Returns To TV Wars

By FRED DANZIG NEW YORK (UPI)—Prof. Danny Kaye returned to the TV podium Monday night and based his annual lecture on the following line by poet Robert Burns: "Oh wad some power the gittie gie us, To see oursel as others see us."

Kaye's CBS-TV hour then gingerly shifted back and forth between demonstrating that people the world over "basically behave exactly the same way" and also betray certain individual and national idiosyncrasies. By being good-natured about it and bouncing his comedy ball off both walls, he was able to score many points for comfortable, assured, painlessly perceptive entertainment. It occurred to me, however, that when Danny Kaye looks at our strengths and weaknesses and sets out to satirize man, he emerges with a picture that isn't much different from that of Danny Thomas. The saving grace for Kaye is that his material is more individually stylized, slightly less sentimental and more inventive. It's polished to a gleaming dull finish.

Gator Possibilities JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—A total of 13 teams figure prominently on the Gator Bowl selection committee's priority list for the Dec. 30 game. The schools are Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Army, Georgia Tech, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Maryland, Miami, Navy, Rice, Texas and Syracuse.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

A New York furniture designer predicts that in the future rooms in houses will not be as specialized as they are today. He calls absurd the idea of bedrooms that are dead space all day—when the beds could be folded up so that bedrooms would provide space for daytime living. The designers said the old-fashioned parlor was waste space—and hooted it out of existence. But it's back again as a living room—though the family does most of its living in the family room so that the living room can serve the same purpose as the outmoded parlor. The designers said women didn't want to be shut up in their kitchens all by themselves—so they opened the kitchen onto the family living room. Prastol Women quickly demanded sliding doors or screens to turn the kitchen right back into a private room again. Architects chopped porches off houses—and found that housewives still wanted an outdoor living room—so the patio took over where the porch left off. They took away the basement as more waste space—and then had

Wonder if he has talked to any housewives lately? It doesn't sound as though he has. Because every time you take a room away from a housewife she sooner or later demands to have it back in another form. Now it's the bedroom that started to go. But they are reckoning again without consulting women. What woman in her right mind wants to fold up beds every morning and unfold them every night—just to save a little space? Save it for what? If she's got a living room in her house why can't her bedrooms be just bedrooms? They will be—if women have as much to say about the houses of the future as they have had to say about the houses of the past.

to add a utility room to take its place. They cut out the dining room and made a dining all in the living room. But women wanted the dining room back so they had to install accordion type doors or sliding doors to let housewives "fold" their living room. Now it's the bedroom that started to go. But they are reckoning again without consulting women. What woman in her right mind wants to fold up beds every morning and unfold them every night—just to save a little space? Save it for what? If she's got a living room in her house why can't her bedrooms be just bedrooms? One Man Art Show Held this season, Gretchen Lewis Crowell's new pastels.

The Sanford Art Assn. presents the third one-man show of

Moose Complete Picnic Plans

Members of the Sanford Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, and their invited guests will meet Sunday at Camp Seminole on the Wekiva River for a picnic and barbecue at 1 p. m.

Mrs. Crowell spent her three week vacation painting familiar and nostalgic scenes around Charlotte, N. C., Mathews, N. C. and in Virginia. These pastels include a weathered 200 year old colonial plantation house, that has red bricks put up around whole trees, providing the characteristic columns. The exhibit will remain in the Senkarik Glass and Paint Co. showroom on Magnolia Ave., until November 17th.

Don Bales Elected School Board Trustee

617 Votes Out Of 953 Cast Go To Incumbent

County Voters Support 2.75 District Millage

Donald Bales defeated Mrs. Margaret Echelberger in the hotly contested School Board trustee election Tuesday and the less than nine percent of the voters supported a 2.75 district millage for the next two years and a one mill building and bus reserve millage.

Out of the 13,990 registered freeholders in the county only 2,243 cast ballots with unofficial returns from 22 out of 23 vote precincts in.

As of 11 a. m., no word was heard from the Bear Lake Precinct.

Out of the small handful of freeholders that went to the polls, 714 voted for the 2.75 district millage while 105 voted for other millage ranging from zero to 10.

For the one mill building and bus reserve millage 670 voted for the one mill and 397 voted against it.

That part of the election was very close and apparently gave Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee some early morning jitters when the votes were tabulated.

Four of the five early morning precincts voted against the one millage levy.

Bales had 611 votes while Mrs. Echelberger had 493.

Bales, in beating out Mrs. Echelberger will serve a two year term starting Jan. 1. The school board will meet Thursday to officially canvass the returns.

Incumbents Fred Blistine and Ray Slaton were unopposed in their respective election districts.

Blistine grabbed 836 votes while Slaton corralled 897 votes.

Chinese - Russian Breach Widening

By LARRY VERSHEL

I guess the more than 70 percent of the registered voters in the city preferred watching Popeye yesterday.

I guess that more than 90 percent of the registered freeholders in Seminole County had other things on their mind than voting in the millage election. Let's hear no more gripes now when there is another millage hike.

Okay, who was the wise guy who placed that black wreath on the door of City Hall last night?

Maybe Congressman Herlong can give us the lowdown on our job performance on Friday.

Day, What ever happened to James T. Avery Jr.?

We hear the County Commission has asked for an attorney general's opinion on this ACL mess.

Nobody asked me but isn't it about time another head rolled in the courthouse?

Here's a progress report on the United-Fund Drive with the percentage of the quota:

Advanced gifts, 10 percent; special gifts, 72.7 percent; physicians, 44 percent; attorneys, 103 percent; dentists, nothing; clergymen, 33 percent.

Engineer Carlton Bliss tells us bluntly that the Orange County drainage and water control program is gonna flood us.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: It sure would be interesting to see how many people would vote if the names of the non-voters were published.

VAH-5 Takes Early Lead In Bombing Derby

The Ninth Annual Bombing Derby was off to a roaring start yesterday with the first scores being tabulated Tuesday evening. At the first count, VAH-5 is in the lead with a total of 1020 points, VAH-3 in second place with 1009, VAH-11 in third place with 880 points, and VAH-9 with 850.

In the Weapons Loading event, VAH-3 and VAH-11 are tied for first place with VAH-9 in 3rd place and VAH-5 close behind. VAH-3 and VAH-11 will be scheduled for another drill to determine the winner of the Weapons Loading event.

In the Lay-Down/Pop-up Delivery, first place goes to Cdr. Farmer's crew of VAH-5 with 130 points. Crews from VAH-3 and VAH-11 tied for 2nd place with 132 points each.

VAH-5 has the early lead, but VAH-3 is close behind. The race for the championship is still open to all squadrons.

HIGHWAY PATROL trooper Billy Cookson was named recently to replace Trooper J. S. Foster in Seminole County. Cookson has been with the FHP for eight years and is from Holmes County.

'Old-Fashioned Christmas' Is Parade Theme

"An Old-Fashioned Christmas" is the chosen theme of this year's Jaycee sponsored Christmas parade, to be held on Nov. 29. Parade Chairman Hammond Polk announced today.

Winner of the $25 savings bond contributed by the Jaycees for the winner, was 11-year-old Jerri Ann Warnick of 1814 Mellonville Ave.

Polk announced that the deadline for float entries will be noon Nov. 22, and all interested groups are asked to register immediately. Anyone who did not receive a card is asked to contact the Jaycee Information building right away to enter their float.

Over 60 entries have already been lined up, Polk said, and include 11 marching bands. The Marching Seminoles will, of course, be there as well as the Sanford Junior High and Crooms Academy bands.

Lyman will have two entries, Leesburg, Eustis, Jones High of Orlando, Kilminee High, Phyllis Wheatley of Apopka, one each, and three units will enter from the Florida Military Academy in DeLand.

Making their first appearance in this part of the state will be the crack motorcycle team, the Sheriff's Parade from Ocala, 13 of them in snappy uniforms, and reported to be well worth watching.

Parade time has been set at 3:30 p.m. by the Sanford Jaycees, who sponsor the giant parade each year.

Leadership Of Red World Is Now Contested

LONDON (UPI) — The world Communist movement appeared today to be headed for a major split, with Moscow and Peking openly contesting leadership.

Communist China, smarting under Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's blunt refusal to compromise in their ideological dispute on Marxism, has retaliated with a vengeance.

In the past two days, in blatant defiance of Khrushchev's denunciation of Stalin and the Stalinist leadership of Albania, Communist China has:

- Praised Josef Stalin as the true defender of Leninism.
- Publicly supported the Albanian Communist leadership as "correct . . . glorious . . . headed for greater achievements."

Top Communist experts saw nothing yet to indicate anything so drastic as a diplomatic break between Moscow and Peking, but the contest has badly shaken the vision of "monolithic unity" the Communist world has tried to build up over the years.

Bulletin

Keith Malcolm, 37-year-old former postmaster of Longwood committed suicide this morning by hanging himself. Altamonte Springs Police Chief Claude Lyle reported.

No other details could be learned at press time.

SOMEONE hung a black wreath on the door on City Hall last night. The wreath was still there at 9 a. m. No one seems to know how it got there.

With only 27 percent of the registered voters in the city casting ballots, incumbent Joe Baker swept to an easy City Commission victory over two political newcomers in the election Tuesday.

Baker polled 617 votes while Chester Oxford took 214 and Mrs. Rita Crews, 80.

There was only one write-in vote—Steve Barnes.

Even Jiggs at the zoo suffered from a light voter turnout as for the first time in four years he received no write-in votes.

Out of the 3,514 registered voters, 953 cast ballots.

Baker picked up an early lead after the first tabulating of the ballots a little after 7 p. m. Tuesday night. He grabbed 10 out of the first 13 votes and steadily mounted up a more than 3-1 vote before the tabulating had closed.

Unofficial returns showed that nine of the ballots were mutilated with some of the voters picking all three candidates.

Baker after the whopping victory told the Herald that he will work toward an industrial park on the lakefront and thanked the voters who supported him.

The youthful official, who is currently mayor, will serve another three year-term.

Shopping Center Plans Approved

Plans for North Orlando's 120 ft. by 140 ft. ultra-modern shopping center have been approved by the North Orlando Co. with the stipulation that construction must get under way within a 30-day period.

B. Robert Swartzburg, president of the company in town to conclude negotiations for the center, showed building plans and gave details for its construction at Tuesday's meeting of the Village Council.

The facility will be located on the Longwood-Oviedo Rd. and will have two rows of parking spaces. Its first units of a Hugel Grocery and an Econ-O-Wash Laundry must be completed within 90 days after construction begins with the remaining three units to be built upon demand of tenants.

The center, owned by Mr. and Mrs. George Fekany of Winter Park, will be built by the Ferris Construction Co. of Orlando. Other businesses desired, according to Mrs. Fekany, include a combination beauty parlor and barber shop.

Peel Jury Still Being Sought

FORT PIERCE (UPI)—Attorneys sought agreement on a 12-man jury from a shrinking list of prospects today in the second Chillingworth murder trial of ex-judge Joseph A. Peel Jr.

Circuit Judge D. C. Smith ordered 12 veniremen tentatively seated in the jury box "locked up" for the night at the end of the trial's second day Tuesday. But defense and prosecution attorneys had not finished interrogating them and there was no indication how many of the 12 would be accepted.

The indictment charged Sapp and his construction firm with taking "more than $100" worth of property from the school board. Bond was set at $5,000.

The indictment grew out of a three-week grand jury investigation of the county's school construction program. Reports of faulty construction and other problems touched off the investigation.

Both Parties Voice Hope In Vote Results

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Democrats today applauded their New York City and New Jersey election victories as support for President Kennedy's program and said they pointed toward victory in the 1962 battle for Congress.

The Republican high command acknowledged the New Jersey outcome was a disappointment. But it said Republican victories in majorities and other elections elsewhere clearly showed that "a tide is running in our favor."

National GOP Chairman William F. Buckley said defeat of New Jersey gubernatorial candidate James P. Mitchell "is by no means a major blow to the Republican party's hopes in 1962."

Seminole Homecoming Opens Thursday Night

Seminole High School Homecoming festivities will take off with a bang Thursday night with a big bonfire and pep rally to be held in the parking lot across from Sanford Junior High School, beginning at 7 p. m.

Friday, citizens will have a treat in the big Homecoming parade, which this year will have 15 floats, with myriad ingenious and clever ideas, and more than 15 decorated cars. Parade Marshal Doug Stenstrom has announced.

The parade will form at Memorial Stadium at 4:15 p. m. and led by the Marching Seminoles and the Majorettes will proceed down Mellonville to First St., down First past the reviewing stand at Magnolia and First and on down First to Oak Ave.

Judges for the first, second and third place prizes will be Mayor Joe Baker, Mrs. Patty Gatchel and Captain Robert Slye.

Right after the parade a pep rally will be held at the corner of Magnolia and First, led by the Seminole High cheerleaders, to whip up the battle fervor for the gridiron clash at 8 p. m. at Memorial Stadium when the mighty Seminoles meet the Bishop Moore Hornets.

Homecoming sponsors, Vida Sue Smith, Luella Fore, Alison Blake and Jean Tolson, with their escorts will be introduced to the football audience preceding the game, and will occupy the seats of honor during the activities.

A very special, and highly entertaining half-time show is being planned by the Marching Seminoles and the Majorettes, but in order not to spoil the effect, no description of the show will be given. However, spectators may rest assured that it will be a mighty good show.

Following the football game, the Homecoming Dance will be held in the high school cafeteria, with a special invitation issued to all alumni of the school. The dance, parade, and pep rally are all sponsored by the student council, led by student body president Doug Stenstrom.

JUNIOR CLASS FLOAT BUILDERS have the dubious assistance of Prince, a big brown boxer, who eyes the cameraman. Jane Miller and Diane Beasley are hard at work on the Homecoming float, assisted by Bobby Johnson, (on float) and Don McMurray. More than 15 floats will parade downtown Sanford Friday at 4:15 p. m. (Herald Photo)

IT TAKES HARD WORK, and physical agility, as well as lots of other talent, to carry out the ingenious ideas of the Senior Class as they work on their Homecoming float. Here Alison Blake assumes a prone position to give assistance to Merritt Phillips, Aston Asensio, Jo Ann Ziegler and Bob Williams as they put together their entry for the parade Friday at 4:15 p. m. (Herald Photo)
