

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Several years ago, when I was a teenager, I cut out your column on how teen-agers should act in order to stay out of harm's way with so many strange and sick people running around loose. In case you have forgotten it, I am sending you a copy. I think the teenagers of today need to read and follow these words even more than we did. Please print it as a public service and let me know if you can.

Sincerely yours, "HELPER" IN LAKE WALES, FLA. DEAR "HELPER": With pleasure. Here it is. CONFIDENTIAL TO ALL TEEN-AGERS:

1. If you are a girl, do not let your hair be styled in a way that is too revealing. If you are a boy, do not let your hair be styled in a way that is too wild. 2. If you know of any pornographic pictures or literature...

3. If you are a girl, do not let your hair be styled in a way that is too revealing. If you are a boy, do not let your hair be styled in a way that is too wild. 4. If you are a girl, do not let your hair be styled in a way that is too revealing...

We The Women

By Betty Canary

My friend Helen and I were discussing the kind of reading your children enjoy now, compared to the books we loved. The old fairy tales seem to have held their own, we agreed.

Polly's Pointers

By Polly Cramer

DEAR POLLY—Who vacuuming small things that might be sucked into the cleaner, take off the 1/2 inch or cleaning a 1/2 inch slip of nylon net over the end of the wand, then replace the brush. I made small balls carrying along a plastic agitator and a drop of water to use as a passing motorist has sprayed the car, cut the power and they drop out. No, I didn't do that. I watched my wife cleaning our Florida shell collection. I cut the net, fixed it for her and it worked sick as a whistle. We both enjoy the column. —LEE
