GOP Team Ready To Go

If the Democratic National Convention in New York City was a coronation, as some insist, the Republican gathering in Kansas City was a

Only the politically naive could have believed that forces as strong as those represented by President Ford, Ronald Reagan, the conservatives and liberals could collide in the open without letting off steam and sparks.

The important thing is that no principles were compromised on either side and everybody left Kansas City figuratively arm in arm. Ronald Reagan will be in President Ford's corner in the coming weeks. Sen. Jesse Helms, the doughty conservative leader, remains a Republican and everybody had the highest praise for Sen. Robert Dole, the vice presidential nominee. Republicans have an uphill battle, but they have a sound nucleus on which to build.

The platform and Mr. Ford's acceptance speech, as well as the selection of Sen. Dole, make t clear that the main GOP juggernauts will be principles and issues.

President Ford stressed that the nation will have a clear philosophical choice and that he will carry the battle to his opponent.

The nation is sound, secure and at peace. Its affairs have been conducted with openness, candor and integrity. By principle and tradition, Republicans are the people who have tried to whittle the government down to size. And the job is only started. Those were the principal themes in Mr. Ford's address and they are good campaign

Sen Dole, a seemingly startling choice at first, will be a good partner for President Ford in the months ahead. If the campaign will be on issues and a do-nothing Congress, few people can better take the battle to the Democrats than the senator, an experienced, tough and respected battler.

For our part, we were sorry to hear the President again defend his mandate by talking about his being an "accidental" president and one who was not elected.

Constitutionally there is no "accidental" Republicans won an overwhelming mandate in the 1972 election. When a vacancy occurred Mr. Ford was overwhelmingly approved as President by both houses of Congress as required by the 25th Amendment. That amendment, incidentally, was fathered by a Democrat and also overwhelmingly approved by a Democratic Congress.

Finally, President Ford's challenge for debating Jimmy Carter is in keeping with his campaign thrust. It would offer voters a chance to compare the candidates better, develop the issues more sharply and arouse interest in the election.

The sound and the fury are over and the battle is joined. It promises to be a good fight.

Many Need Aid

Mother Nature has been in a violent mood this summer. Our own country has seen a disastrous flash flood in Colorado, and an early-season hurricane taking a swipe at the East Coast. In the Caribbean, thousands had to be evacuated from their homes because of a volcanic eruption. Earthquakes have been prevalent, particularly in Asia.

Human beings often are helpless in the face of natural disasters which strike without warning. So it is with the masses of people in the southern Mindianao-Sulu region of the Philippines which was hit by a powerful earthquake followed by a tidal wave. With a death toll moving well past 3,000 and an estimated 28,000 homeless, the crisis is straining the resources of the Disasters like this also are straining the resources of relief agencies which rely on voluntary contributions as well as government participation to cope with the widespread human misery. By responding to their need for funds we can give tangible expression to our sympathy for disaster victims.

Get Fall Harvest All Bottled Up

The autumn harvest is almost upon us. Whether you pick your own produce in area farmer's fields, or buy it ready picked at one of the many roadside stalls, you're bound to get more than you can eat before the fruit and vegetables spoil. So can it, says Laura Clark of the Community Canning Center. If you don't know how, or if you don't have the utensils, Mrs. Clarke and her staff can help.

Located at 504 East Celery Avenue (just east of Sanford Avenue), the cannery has eight 16-quart pressure cookers and four 16-quart water bath cookers. There is a small processing fee of 10 cents per quart jar and five cents per pint. The fee is waived for persons who cannot Canners may buy their jars at the cannery or elsewhere. According to Mrs. Clark, canning produce which you have picked yourself can mean substantial savings. Also, canners who do their own canning are in control of the quality and know that no preservatives go into the goods. Mrs. Clark advises canning for no longer than

Pregnant Wife Eats Starch For Nerves

Dear

DEAR ABBY: Ever since my wife got pregnant, she's been craving Argo laundry starch. She's been eating an awful lot if it and says it calms her nerves. I'm afraid that all that laundry starch might hurt my wife or her unborn baby, but she insists it's harmless!
