

WATER TRAFFIC LEAGUE WILL HOLD MEETING HERE ON FRIDAY FEBRUARY 24

Our Water Transportation is Greatest Asset of the City

BRINGING RELIEF

TO MERCHANTS AND SHIPPERS OF THIS TERRITORY ADJACENT COUNTIES

The next meeting of the Central Florida Water Traffic League will be held in Sanford, Friday, Feb. 24th, at 7:30 p. m. in the Palm room of the Valdez Hotel. All members of the League in Sanford and adjacent cities are urged to be present at this meeting in order that they keep in close touch with the work that the league is doing to bring cheaper rates to the business men of Central Florida.

Despite the fact that great publicity was given to the 10% reduction effective the first of the year, on carload shipments of grain, grain products, fruits, vegetables and live stock, no mention has been made of the raises in classifications which in one particular instance amounts to a rate increase of 250%. The item referred to is barbed wire fencing, the rate on which as a 6th class commodity in less than carload lots from Richmond, Va., to Tampa, Fla., in 1918 was 59c; in 1919, 74c; in 1920, 92 1/2c; in 1921, $1.28; in 1922, $1.48, an increase of 250% due in part to the commodity being raised from 6th to 4th class. Beginning 1922, by raising commodities from lower to higher classifications, rates were increased 30% until at the present time they are 160% higher than in 1918, this despite the wage reductions which were made effective for the purpose of reducing rates.

If the business men of this section had no recourse from these excessive rates, the condition would be deplorable, but with a navigable body of water available to carry an unlimited tonnage, the much desired relief can be secured with but little effort on their part. The Central Florida Water Traffic League was organized for the express purpose of bringing relief to the merchants and shippers of this territory and its efforts to date have resulted in increasing the river tonnage to large proportions, and a saving to those individuals who have utilized it.

The local chamber is in receipt of a letter from the commercial organization of Eustis to the effect that the business men of that city were contemplating the immediate establishment of a truck line between Eustis and Sanford. The truck line operating between Sanford and Orlando reports an increasing volume of business, proving that the business men of Orlando are taking advantage of an opportunity as they see it.

The Chamber of Commerce and the county commissioners have been assured by the State Road Department that the road between Orlando and Sanford would be widened within the next six months. A three foot shoulder of rock will be placed on each side of the road and treated with an oil covering so that when the permanent widening of the road begins, an excellent foundation will have been made.

The future development of Sanford is contingent largely upon the development of our waterway. Increased river tonnage, and nothing else, will force the government to build the St. Johns-Indian River canal. By having other communities take advantage of our advantages and consign their goods to Sanford, Sanford will not only be logically but actually the distributing wholesale center for this section of Florida. It will be time enough then to talk about making it a basic point, our particular job at present is to have the water patronized to an extent that will make this possible.

Increased river tonnage with its consequent volume of new business for Sanford will cause federal and state appropriations to be made for new roads to carry the traffic consigned to Sanford destined for points farther South.

WATSON DEMANDS RESIGNATION OF SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY MELLON—HE CANNOT HOLD OFFICE

Says He is Engaging in Private Enterprises in Violation of the Law

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Secretary Mellon is holding the office of secretary of the treasury in violation of the law and can be arrested for retaining the place if any one sees fit to swear out a warrant charging him with the offense, Senator Watson, Democrat, of Georgia, declared in the senate late yesterday. The law which Mr. Mellon is violating, Senator Watson said, prohibits the secretary of the treasury from engaging in any kind of business or commerce.

Senator Watson told the senate that Mr. Mellon could be impeached "any time we see fit" and read to the senate the provision of section 243 of the revised statutes which, he declared, expressly forbid Mr. Mellon to retain his place. He declared that by staying in office, the secretary was violating the law, adding that it was generally known that Mr. Mellon was one of the wealthiest individuals in the country.

The assertions by the Georgia senator were made in connection with several speeches on the accomplishment of the two major political parties. He informed the senate in the course of his remarks that the law, now listed as section 243, was passed in the congress of the United States and that during the administration of President Grant, A. T. Stewart had withdrawn after being named secretary of the treasury when attention was called to provisions of the act.

Senator Watson asked Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, for his opinion on "what the people will think of the way our government is being run when a criminal, unconvicted but disobeying the penalty openly and notoriously, committing a crime, is left in charge of our national funds and the refunding of debts of eleven billion dollars."

Senator Heflin said that Senator Watson had shown that Secretary Mellon was violating the law and that it was time for senators to speak out. Mr. Watson stated that Mr. Stewart had resigned three days after his confirmation by the senate and after President Grant had learned of the provisions of the law.

"And if Mr. Stewart resigned," continued the senator, "why should not Mr. Mellon resign? Why should he continue in office in insolent violation of the law? He knows it; so does President Harding know it, and the Republican party is going to have to answer for it this fall for I do not believe the people will stand for open violation of the law by a member of the cabinet when persons throughout the country are prosecuted for trivial offenses."

Asking why the president did not "respect the statutes," Senator Watson said that Mr. Mellon was "impudent" for retaining the office and ought to resign.

"If he doesn't resign," he added, "then the president ought to ask for his resignation."

The Georgia senator referred to the recent passage of the allied debt refunding bill and said that never before in history had so much money been placed in the hands of one man to handle, "and that man is violating the law every day of his life." He challenged "all of the lawyers in the senate" to refute his statements relative to Mr. Mellon's right to remain as secretary.

Mr. Watson referred to Mr. Mellon as "a colossal figure in the business world," and declared that he had no more right to be secretary of the treasury "than had J. P. Morgan or John D. Rockefeller or a member of the firm of Sears, Roebuck & Company, if you please." He also read from James G. Blaine's "twenty years in congress," a reference to the circumstances surrounding the nomination of Mr. Stewart. This told how Mr. Grant had asked congress first to amend the law to exempt Mr. Stewart and then, after it was seen that congress was unwilling to make the change, the president withdrew the request and the newly named secretary resigned.

BUSINESS GOOD AND IMPROVING IN OUR COUNTRY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Business conditions throughout the country are better than a year ago in the view of treasury officials, who declared, however, improvement had been gradual and no immediate prospect for sudden pickup in business activities. Some seasonable activity might be looked for in the spring they asserted but in general only gradual betterment was to be looked for.

REPUBLICANS ARE FOOLING THE PEOPLE

REGARDING THE ECONOMY OF THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Attack on the speeches yesterday of Senators Lodge of Massachusetts and McCormick of Illinois, detailing accomplishments of the Republican party, was made in the senate yesterday by Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, who challenged accuracy of the Republican claims.

The Mississippi senator declared the American people were being "buncoed, hoodwinked and deceived" by the Republican spokesmen. Referring to a statement that the Republican congress had cut appropriation estimates of Democratic officials aggregating $5,300,000,000 to $1,400,000,000, Senator Harrison said the Democratic estimates were made when the war was in full blast and its continuance was expected for another year. The ending of the war, the Mississippi member asserted, made possible enormous savings.

"I submit to every fair-minded person whether this should be claimed as an achievement of the present administration," said Senator Harrison. "All of the estimates were based on the war continuing through another year, so when it suddenly collapsed these enormous sums were saved. And yet the American people are being buncoed, hoodwinked and deceived by Republican spokesmen claiming that as an achievement of the present administration."

Senator Lodge's speech at Boston Mr. Harrison said, was the "keynote" address of the Lodge campaign for reelection, while Senator McCormick's address to the senate yesterday, Senator Harrison stated, probably was re-drafted with help "at the other end of the avenue," and prepared carefully for general campaign distribution.

Snow Storm Last Night Left Six Inches of Snow

SLEET IS ADDED

MAKING BIG DAMAGE TO WIRES AND 20 ABOVE ZERO ADDS TO IT

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 16.—Crippled telephone trolley service in Richmond and vicinity, and similar conditions in many other parts of Virginia reported early today as the result of last night's snow storm which left snow six inches deep. Sleet accompanying snow did much damage to wires. Twenty-one above zero in Richmond at 8:00 a. m.

NORFOLK, Feb. 16.—Five inches of snow had fallen in Norfolk up to this morning. Telephone communication in many parts of the city and adjacent territory is cut off. Traffic is at a stand-still in some suburbs and badly interrupted in the city. A 39-mile gale was reported here.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Storm warnings continued today from Hatteras to East Port, Me. The disturbance is central off Hatteras. Freezing temperatures in Northern Florida, near freezing with frosts in Central Florida, probably frosts in interior of Southern Florida was the prospect held out by the Weather Bureau today. Snow has fallen in the last twenty-four hours in North Atlantic states, snow and rain in the middle Atlantic states. Colder weather is in prospect in the Atlantic states with a cold wave in New England, Eastern New Jersey, and Northern Pennsylvania.

HARDING SILENT, BONUS UNDECIDED, CONGRESS PLANS

SOME TALK NOW OF CUTTING APPROPRIATION BILL TO PROVIDE REVENUE FOR VETS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The soldiers' bonus question was last night still very much in the air.

Congress was without any official word from President Harding as to his views on the subject, and meantime, the committees which have been handling the problem continued to mark time.

Among the senators and representatives generally there was considerable private discussion and conjecture with the revival on the house side of talk about a slashing of annual appropriation bills as a means of providing the necessary finances for the bonus.

Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, and some other leaders in the house were understood to be giving this proposal close study. Mr. Mondell called at the White House early in the day, but did not see the president. He said afterwards that the supply measures would be examined carefully to determine whether much of the sum needed for the bonus could not be obtained from that direction.

This proposition met with considerable response from members of the house, where apparently there is a growing desire to put the bonus bill through. There were suggestions that as a result of the agreement for a naval holiday as much as $200,000,000 could be cut from the naval bill and that another large sum could be saved by cutting down the size of the army.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Monday being the fourth birthday anniversary of Master Herbert Douglas, Mrs. C. L. Goodhue invited a number of his young friends to help celebrate the occasion.

Quantities of lovely cut flowers were effectively used in the various rooms, among them being red roses and nasturtiums. In the dining room the Valentine ideas were carried out. The table was centered with a large red heart, "Jack Horner Pie," from which extended red streamers to each place, and scattered at intervals were tiny red hearts. The birthday cake was topped with four tiny red candles in rose holders.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent with games both old and new, and at a late hour the children were invited into the dining room where dainty refreshments of ice cream, cakes and candy were served. The favors were cunning Valentines and red hearts.

Master Herbert was the recipient of many lovely gifts and the occasion was of much enjoyment to the young guests who were Carlyle Housholder, Franklin Bennett, Braxton Perkins, Wyman Harvard, Frederick Daiger, Billie Thigpen, Tolar Bryan, Richard Deas, Bobbie Marlowe, Helen Douglas and Lois Couch.

PIPE ORGAN CLUB

Among the prettiest of the Valentine parties was the one given Monday afternoon by Miss Jimmie Laing at her home on Park ave., the guests including only the members of the Temple Pipe Organ Club. The two living rooms were most artistically decorated with cupid, hearts and baskets of beautiful red carnations. Mrs. Kent Rosseter very ably presided in the absence of Mrs. Ryan, the club president. Each member responded to roll call with a Valentine rhyme. Much amusement came from the Valentine box, from which each guest drew her comic picture. Mrs. A. M. Phillips and Mrs. Porter Pitts sang "Hearts," accompanied by Mrs. S. Maines on the piano. The Valentine idea was still further carried out in the delightful refreshments of "bleeding heart" salad, sandwiches, tea and red heart-shaped candies. The Pipe Organ Club wishes to invite the public generally to their Washington Tea to be given at the Girls' Temple Club next Monday afternoon, Feb. 20th. The price will be 25c per plate. BRIDGE LUNCHEON

One of the most important social events of the year, and one that is anticipated each year with much pleasure, is the Bridge Luncheon given by the Social Department of the Woman's Club. The Luncheon followed by bridge was given yesterday at the Parish House, with Mrs. R. J. Holly, as hostess. There were twenty-five tables.

The Parish House never looked lovelier than on this occasion. Myriads of red hearts and cupid, were festooned throughout the building, and at intervals hung Japanese lanterns. In the windows and on each table were vases of red roses, which is the club flower. Potted plants and palms were also effectively placed. The place cards were suggestive of Valentine Day and the score cards were also large red hearts.

Receiving the guests upon their arrival were Mrs. R. J. Holly hostess, Mrs. W. T. Langley, chairman of the Social Department, and Mrs. John Leonard, president of the Woman's Club.

Promptly at 1:30 o'clock a delicious six course luncheon was served by a bevy of young girls and matrons.

During the afternoon several very interesting rubbers of bridge were played. The high score among the club members was made by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, who was awarded a pair of lovely candlesticks. The high score guest prize, an attractive pottery vase was won by Mrs. Lowder, of California, the guest of Mrs. Charles Fedder.

Among the out-of-town guests attending this delightful affair were, Mrs. Horne of Waynesboro, Ga., the guest of Mrs. G. D. Hart; Mrs. L. H. Lawrence, of Orlando, the guest of Mrs. W. H. Holden; Mrs. T. A. Neal, of Orlando, the guest of Mrs. S. E. Barrett; Mrs. Margaret Barnes, of Orlando, the guest of Mrs. G. I. WESTMINSTER CLUB

The members of the Westminster Club were delightfully entertained last evening by Mrs. E. D. Brownlee and Mrs. Phil Allen at the Munce on Oak avenue.

The decorations were lovely festoons of red hearts being artistically used. In the door ways tiny red hearts were festooned and in the center of each door frame was a huge red heart, cut-glass baskets of red roses and ferns were effectively placed. The punch table was lovely with its decorations of red hearts. The red hearts against the green draperies forming a lovely setting for this pretty party.

During the evening several interesting contests afforded much merriment among the guests. Miss Herminia Lehman won the prize, a heart-shaped box of candy for writing the best Valentine rhyme, while Mrs. Robert Cobb won the other prize, also a heart-shaped box of candy for drawing the best picture.

After the contests delicious strawberry shortcake, topped with whipped cream was served.

About sixteen members of the club enjoyed the cordial hospitality of these charming hostesses.

ANOTHER SIMP LOSES LIFE SAVINGS TO WIRE TAPPERS

ST. AUGUSTINE, Feb. 16.—Morris Heller, of Newark, N. J., before leaving for his home last night declared he was fleeced of his life savings, $105,000, here last week by confidence men and that he was returning to New York to consult his attorneys. Three private detectives from Newark, who came here last week, said they had learned that Heller, accompanied by another man, had gone hurriedly to Newark on February 6, drawn $105,000 from his bank and returned immediately to St. Augustine. Friends, believing an attempt was being made to defraud Heller, employed the detectives to come here in the hope that the fleecing could be prevented, but on their arrival they discovered Heller and the other man had departed for some unknown destination in the north. Heller returned to St. Augustine Monday.

MIAMI FINANCE DIRECTOR GET RAISE IN SALARY

(By The Associated Press) MIAMI, Feb. 16.—The city council has passed an ordinance increasing the salary of the officer of director of finance, held by W. A. Kohlepp from $5,000 to $7,500. Mr. Kohlepp, who succeeded C. B. Selden at the time of the recent shake-up of the city administration, had served temporarily and on a leave of absence from his employer, an Atlanta accounting firm. His definite acceptance of the position had been contingent upon the city council granting the increase.

SEES BIG DEATH TOLL FROM HOOCH

Cleveland Chemist Declares Undertakers Will Have Prosperous Year About 1926.

DANGER FROM RAW FUSEL OIL

It Removes the Oxygen From the Blood, Causes Lips and Body to Turn Blue and Has the Same Effect as Asphyxiation.

Cleveland, O.—Undertakers will have a prosperous year about 1926, in the opinion of analytical and consulting chemists here, because, they claim, the Grim Reaper is whetting his scythe for a harvest of prohibition liquor drinkers.

Hundreds of persons are slowly but surely asphyxiating themselves, according to J. M. Kovachy, assistant city chemist, by unsuspectingly assimilating the poisons found in almost every sample of what was believed to be "pure bonded" liquor. Hundreds of samples are brought to Kovachy each month for analysis, he said, and all thus far analyzed have contained a high percentage of fusel oil in the raw. In large quantities, consumed by steady drinking, fusel oil changes the blood from oxyhemoglobin to methemoglobin, he insists.

Same as Asphyxiation. In other words, Kovachy says, fusel oil removes the oxygen from the blood causes the lips and body to turn blue and has the same effect as asphyxiation.

"Bible peddlers of whisky use this chemical for flavoring purposes in some cases, and this is very injurious if taken in any quantity, acting as a heart depressant," the chemist declared.

M. E. Curtis, proprietor of the Chemical Laboratories, advises the present-day drinker to "analyze well before using." Traces of adulteration that elip year after year from a life have been found in almost every bottle of alleged "bonded" liquor he has analyzed, he asserted.

"It is true a portion of the contents of most bottles is pure bonded whisky. That gives it the color, flavor and taste," Curtis added. "But the good liquor is mixed with ingredients that are harmful to the human system, and the question uppermost in the minds of those who come to me for analysis of their liquor is how to remove the ingredients and leave the bonded stuff."

Gross Misrepresentation.

That "bonded" whisky is being grossly misrepresented by bootleggers was revealed recently when a raid of a peering shop in the downtown section by federal and police officials uncovered a plant which is said to have been devoted exclusively to the manufacture of counterfeited labels and for that in bond revenue stamps.

The labels were similar to those used by prominent distillers on popular brands of intoxicating liquors previous to the eighteenth amendment go big into effect.

Ten thousand alleged counterfeit revenue stamps were confiscated. Federal secret service operatives declare that statements made by some of the persons arrested in connection with the raid indicate that $50,000 had been "cleared" during the last year through sales of the labels to bootleggers in Kansas City, New York, Chicago, Detroit and other cities.

REGAINS SIGHT, LOSES JOB

When His Blindness Is Cured, Position in Broom Shop in Cleveland Ceases.

Cleveland.—Joe Lanza, nineteen, has lost his job and he is finding it harder to get another one than at any other time in his life.

Joe was working at the Society for the Blind, where with other blind men and boys he earned chimes and did other jobs in the broom shop. One day he was told to report to a dispensary for an examination. He wasn't very much interested, having been examined many times during the 10 years' affliction without anything happening.

But this time he was told they were going to operate. Today he can see very well.

"It's wonderful to be able to see again, but I wish I could see a job," he said.

ABANDON CLAY-PIPE FURNACE

English Company Declares Small Demand Among Smokers Is Reason for Closing Plant.

London.—Because of the small demand for clay pipes nowadays T. George & Co. of St. Jude's, Bristol, who have made such pipes for decades, decided to close down. The last batch of clay pipes was baked in their kiln recently.

Fifty years ago clay pipe making was the staple industry in the St. Jude's district, but the 11 firms then engaged in it are no more.

Three generations of the George family saw the kiln lighted for the last time. Up to twenty years ago the firm had a big South African trade, the pipes being used by European traders to barter with natives for their ivory, gold and other treasures.

FIRE CHIEF HAS NARROW ESCAPE

(By The Associated Press) KEY WEST, Feb. 16.—Fire Chief Pinder narrowly escaped injury or death here several days ago when the steering gear of his automobile broke while he was making a run to a fire. The car dashed to the sidewalk at the corner of Petronia and White St., mounted the curb and turned. The Chief crawled from the wreckage uninjured, flagged a motor fire truck following, climbed aboard and proceeded to the fire. It later developed that the wrecked car previously had been condemned and that the City Council had asked for bids for a new one.

GAS BOMBS LATEST TO OUTWIT THE OFFICERS

(By The Associated Press) ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 16.—Violators of the prohibition laws have unlearned a new trick here to outwit the police and members of the local department are seriously considering a request to the City Commission that it authorize the purchase of bathing suits and gas masks for the officers.

It all happened one night last week. A resident reported to the police that a "liquor party" was in progress in a house nearby and Deputy Sheriff Jim Hance and several policemen went to the scene. As the officers entered the house someone inside set off a sulphur bomb which emitted dense clouds of stifling fumes, with the evident intention of forcing the officers to retreat, to give them an opportunity to escape.

The police said one member of the party got away and threw a bag containing two half gallon jugs of moonshine into salt creek, at the rear of the house. Hance essayed the role of rescuer, removing his clothes and diving in five feet of water recovered the liquor. More liquid was found in the house.

ENGINE WAS THROWN INTO DITCH ENGINEER ESCAPES

(By The Associated Press) LAKE LAND, Feb. 16.—Jesse Holland, one of the best known Atlantic Coast Line engineers in Florida, crawled unhurt from beneath his overturned engine near Florida City Friday afternoon, remarking "just a little wet is all," in reply to inquiries as to his condition.

Mr. Holland was running passenger train No. 43, the Waycross-Lakeland local. A freight train on a siding had not cleared the main line sufficiently and the passenger locomotive struck it and was thrown into the ditch upside down. The fireman jumped when the crash occurred and was not hurt but Express Messenger Elmer Strickland was thrown against a safe in the express car behind the engine and was severely bruised.

HOWDY HOTEL AT ST. PETE IS NEWEST JOKE OUT

(By The Associated Press) ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 16.—A prosperous looking couple walked into the Bureau of Information of the Chamber of Commerce here the other day and asked a clerk to direct them to the Hotel Howdy. The name of the hostelry was a new one to the clerk and after examining every chart and record in the place, she informed the inquirers there was no hotel here known by that name. The questioners insisted there was, however, and declared they had friends from their home town in the north stopping there. To prove it they exhibited a picture postcard which bore the following message:

"Having a fine time in St. Petersburg. Are stopping at the hotel, Howdy."

The information clerk gulped once and immediately swallowed her chewing gum.

FLORIDA'S OWN TENOR, LAWRENCE HAYNES, WON HEARTS IN TALLAHASSEE

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 16.—(Special.)—The appearance of Mr. Lawrence Haynes, tenor, of Jacksonville, in concert here Monday evening, at the state college for women, convinced a large and enthusiastic audience that Florida would become famous for her tenor.

Endowed with a naturally beautiful voice of wide range, Mr. Haynes is an artist of rare ability. He sings with abandon and puts his personality into every phrase. His interpretations are so sincere that his audience is at once carried away with the true artistry of his singing. Mr. Haynes' French is beautiful, as well as his Italian. His articulation is clear and distinct.

The program offered was altogether a delight, and each number was prefaced by a few remarks by the singer which were thoroughly appreciated by the audience. The singer undoubtedly possesses the three requisites of a real artist—the beautiful, golden voice, the sincerity of interpretation, and a rare musicianship. Those who heard him Monday evening predict a great future for him.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Friday; colder tonight, freezing temperature in north; temperature near freezing with frost in Central and probably frost in interior of the South portion tonight.

SANFORD'S TEMPERATURE

And again we rise and say that while the north is shivering in the cold and snow we are—well, let's see, we are almost today. But while they are down to twenty above in Washington and Richmond and other foreign countries the people here are really enjoying nice weather, albeit the weather is cloudy for Florida. There is no danger of a cold spell that will hurt anything, at least the news has not come to us as yet. The weather now is really good for the crops. Nice rain last night and cold today is the greatest celery weather in the world. Have you a little fertilizer plant in your yard?

MEMBER THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Another snow storm in the north.

Richmond and Washington buried under six inches of snow again.

Good time to send Florida literature to northern states. It is cloudy here but not cold.

Baseball in Orlando must have immediate support, says headline in Orlando papers. Yes, we know all about it. There was a time when Sanford people though along the same lines. Nowadays, we say something else.

Why doesn't Billy Bryan tell us just what he intends to do about that senatorial race? He is so coy and shy and says that he will wait until he is called. Well, that will probably be a long time although they do not make them any better than William Jennings when it comes to being one of the greatest men of his time. However, we do not opine that he will give up his past laurels for something in the unknown.

BRYAN HAS NOT REACHED A DECISION.

The statement from Hon. W. J. Bryan, given out at Miami this morning and printed in The Times today, indicates that he is being strongly urged to make the race for the nomination for United States senator, but he does not definitely suggest what his decision may be. He reiterates statements which he made to friends while in Tampa recently—that, while he stands ready to serve the people if it is clearly indicated that his services are desired, he will not enter into a scramble for the nomination.

As nearly three months intervene before the primary will be held, it is evident Mr. Bryan must reach a decision in the near future. If he is to make the race, even his remarkability as a campaigner would be taxed to make a canvass of the great state of Florida in this short time.

If Bryan and Trammell lock horns for this great honor the people of Florida will be surfeited with oratory. Bryan is noted throughout the world as a platform speaker, and Trammell is also noted for his ability in this line. As a consequence, this may not be the dull year in Florida politics that had been anticipated. Tampa Tribune.

THE FLORIDA POST.

One of the largest papers ever published in the state came out yesterday at Winter Park and regardless of the fact that it is a Republican paper published in a solid Democratic state, it looks like it means business and will probably show a lot of us older heads something about journalism at least if not politics. The Winter Park Post has been getting ready for several months and that live wire, J. H. Wendler, who promoted the Post and is largely responsible for it, kept saying that the Post would only be printed when everything was ready. He evidently knew what he wanted in the newspaper line and he waited until he had it and then he shot us something big and something good. The first edition of course was a booster edition and consisted of 120 pages, well written, well edited, well printed. The advertising and make-up show real style and we want to congratulate Messrs. Wendler, Griffin, Stevens and the whole bunch on getting out a real newspaper. Uncle Bill Stevens is the state news editor, W. H. Griffin is managing editor and J. H. Wendler is president and general manager and the presiding genius.

The first number had a separate section for Sanford, Orlando, Winter Park and other cities and they were well arranged carrying advertising and special write-up stuff for local people. The edition was all right and if the advertising patronage can be kept up throughout the year it looks like the Florida Post will be a winner. Congratulations to the Post and its makers.

"FOR THE SAKE OF VOTES"

Your Uncle Henry Ford may not be classically educated, but he prints a good deal of good sense in his Dearborn Independent, all the same. Following is a chunk of it:

"The lower House of Congress after solemn deliberation recently passed an 'anti-lynching' bill. The vote coincided roughly with the partisan division of northern Republicans and Southern Democrats.

"Theoretically, the object of the bill was to reduce lynchings, which have had for their most numerous victims the negroes living in the South. Actually, the object of the bill was to cater favor with negro voters, who are numerous in some of the northern voting centers.

"Theoretically, the opposition to the bill was inspired by the altruistic belief that federal interference with state officials for shortcomings in punishing lynchings, is an unwarranted paternalistic rule. Actually, the opposition felt that the southern voters would resent any vote which might be construed as catering to negroes.

"Negro voters may look forward with confidence to the appearance shortly of some franked copies of the Congressional Record in which the sufferings of their race are eloquently denounced. So, too, ardent upholders of the Old South may enhearten themselves with the thought that printed patriotism, of their own particular brand, will soon be delivered free.

"As for the bill, if it becomes a law, there are few southerners who fear that it will have any more effect than did the constitutional amendment giving the negro the vote. Neither do the northerners.

"But viewed simply as an arrangement of words, the measure is entirely commendable. So, too, would be a constitutional amendment prohibiting murder."

WE NEED IMPROVEMENTS.

A growing city like a growing business needs certain improvements to keep up with the march of progress. A growing city needs more paved streets, more sewers, more lights, more extensions of the public utilities. Sanford is a growing city and when one stops to consider that few improvements have been made here in many years along the lines suggested it is patent to everyone that big improvements are needed and they cannot be made with budget money from year to year for they are too large to be treated as annual expenses. We can dispense with them and stay in the country village class and thus be penny wise and pound foolish or we can bond the city for sufficient to put over the many new streets and the boat basin and the many improvements that this city must have if we expect to grow and expand and appeal to the investors. There will be no new sub-divisions in and around Sanford unless more brick streets and sewers are available for the new territory. There will be no expansion, no cheaper lots, no chance for the prospective builder to obtain a lot where there are the ordinary improvements that are a vital necessity to the comfort of the home and to observe the necessary sanitary regulations. Brick streets and sewers are essential to the expansion of the city. We have been congested too long in a restricted district of the city bounded by 12 blocks and no one could get further out because there were no improvements and no conveniences. In fact a city can only grow as far as the city improvements grow and suburbs can only grow as fast as city improvements are installed.

Aside from the many improvements that are needed here now the making of the improvements this summer will give work to many people and will keep the city on a steady growth all during the summer months. The very fact that Sanford is making these improvements will give the city the finest kind of advertising throughout the country. We should get to these improvements as quickly as possible.

HAYES IN THE MOVIES

The Dearborn Independent, Henry Ford's personal weekly, believes that Will Hay's advent as a purifier of the movies is all bosh, and Mr. Ford's paper says so with a confidence and argument that attracts attention. He says:

"The mystery of Will Hays, as he is about to enter personally, as advertised, upon the management of the movies, begins to take speculative form. After the Sunday school motif had been duly exploited, namely, that Mr. Hays was going into movie management to stop their extreme and nauseating naughtiness, the sober second thought of the sophisticated began to play with interesting results. Aside from its being regrettable that the movie kings could reach into the president's cabinet and, by the pulling power of a spectacular salary, lift out a promising cabinet officer, it is fraught with menace in a number of directions.

Mr. Hays is described as "the Landis of the Movies." This is an unjustified comparison. Baseball needed cleaning out, but Judge Landis was not hired by the men who were to be cleaned out. On the contrary, Mr. Hays is hired by the men who ought to be cleaned out if the movies are to be brought up to an American standard. The source of the rottenness in the movies is the source of the movies themselves, in the grade of control that has been exercised over them, and that control has been exercised without let or hindrance by Adolph Zukor, Carl Laemmle, Hiram Abrams, Lewis J. Seizick, Samuel Colwyn, Marcus Loew, William Fox. These names are not all of them the real names of the men designated, but they are the names by which the controllers of moviedom are known. They are the men who have agreed to pay Will Hays $150,000 a year to clean up the movies. And where shall he begin, if not with his own bosses?

The price, the spectacular gesture of repentance, indicates the desperate plight into which the indecent motion picture had been forced by the moral indignation of the American people. Indeed $150,000 is a mighty low figure at which to buy off the moral indignation of the American people. It is reckoned as one per cent of the possible $15,000,000 a censor's insistence on decency would cost. Mr. Hays realizes, of course, that this is precisely what he had been chosen to do, namely, to head off the righteous wrath of the American people. The crowd which ran the movies into the deepest possible pollution went to the president's cabinet, acquired an unquestionable American, a Presbyterian elder, in fact, to do the work of heading off. If it is done it is worth a thousand times $150,000 to the movie kings, and it means further incalculable damage to American character.

As far as we are aware, Mr. Hays had never shown any interest in reforming the movies prior to this business engagement. If he had been the least stirred toward that needed reform he would have known that as Postmaster-General of the United States he could have been a greater force in compelling the movies to clean up than he can possibly be as the movies' hired man. Any cabinet member, standing up in his place today against the torrent of degeneracy poured by the film into the American people, any cabinet member whatsoever could do more for clean movies in the next thirty days than Will Hays as movie employe, could do in five years. Mr. Hays by resigning from the Cabinet has lost his best opportunity to serve the people in this matter.

MALARIA VS. PNEUMONIA

The State Board of Health, taking cognizance of statements that many persons hesitate to visit Florida or make this state their homes because of malaria, or stories they have heard about malaria devotes two pages of the Monthly Vital Statistics Reporter for January, issued under the supervision of Stewart G. Thompson, to a discussion of malaria and pneumonia. The Reporter declares that mortality statistics of the United States Census Bureau for 1919 show that deaths that year from pneumonia were 32 1/2 times greater than those from malaria. Endemia caused more deaths than any other disease except tuberculosis.

"Pneumonia occurs in all climates and affects all ages," declares the Reporter. "It is more prevalent, however, in states where the seasons of bad weather are prolonged. While there are other causes, such as exposure and lowered vitality, a milder climate with plenty of sunshine undoubtedly gives a certain amount of protection.

"Florida has been referred to as 'the playground of the nation.' This is due to a great extent, to the fact that thousands of tourists come to Florida during the winter months and enjoy the mild climate, sunshine and temperature that is enjoyed in their home states during a very short season of the year. Notwithstanding the fact that many persons who come to Florida with a lowered resistance, advanced age and many other handicaps, the pneumonia death rate is lower in Florida than in any other state in the United States registration area.

"It seems rather strange that there are those who hesitate to come to Florida on account of malaria when they are right in the midst of a community where the pneumonia death rate is exceedingly high.

"Do not overlook the seriousness of malaria, because of the picture drawn of pneumonia. Malaria is serious but it is preventable. Everyone who so desires can learn how to avoid malaria. Pneumonia, on the other hand, is not so easy to avoid and because of its prevalence in many cases seems to have been taken for granted and not feared as its seriousness should warrant, while many other diseases, that only claim a small percentage of the fatalities claimed by pneumonia, are looked upon with terror. "A certain percentage of pneumonia cases is communicated from other persons to another; malaria, on the other hand, is a preventable disease, and the highest death rate in any state from malaria is far below the lowest death rate from pneumonia."

The Reporter publishes a chart showing the number of cases of pneumonia to each 100,000 of population in the United States registration area during 1919. Thirty-three states were included in the area that year and Delaware had the highest and Florida the lowest pneumonia rates. The states in order, and the number of cases per hundred thousand follow: Delaware, 185.2; New York, 166.4; New Jersey, 158.7; Pennsylvania, 157.1; Maryland, 152.9; Rhode Island, 141.7; Connecticut, 134.2; Massachusetts, 133.9; Missouri, 128.6; Vermont, 125.1; Kentucky, 124.5; Colorado, 121.3; Maine, 121.9; Ohio, 122.7; New Hampshire, 120.2; Louisiana, 110.2; Indiana, 110.1; Michigan, 108.9; Illinois, 107.4; South Carolina, 102.2; Tennessee, 102.2; Virginia, 99.3; Montana, 98.4; California, 97.9; Wisconsin, 94.2; Mississippi, 93.5; Utah, 90.5; Kansas, 87.9; Washington, 86.5; North Carolina, 84.9; Oregon, 79.9; Minnesota, 78.1; Florida, 73.0.

TURNING ON THE LIGHT

When wire-tapping and other confidence games became a thriving industry in Florida two or three years ago a very famous detective, an ex-confidence man, made the public statement that practices could not thrive in any community where the operatives were not hand in glove with local officials. Evidently Governor Hardee thought this when he sent a trusted officer from Jacksonville to Fort Lauderdale recently to investigate and arrest a band of these thieves there.

In speaking of this instance the Daytona News says: "The same condition has been tolerated in this county for many years. Information has been given the sheriff and other officials regarding the workings of the wire-tapping thieves, warrants have been sworn out and allowed to grow musty while the bandits have walked the streets of Daytona unmolested."

Three Volusia county residents whom it is claimed received $15,000 last season for protection of wire-tappers, are today holding secret conferences and shivering in their boots for fear some of the crooks will up and tell all they know. If they do, Volusia county will be shaken from stem to stem by the expose, as Palm Beach county is being shaken today where it is alleged by affidavits published in the Palm Beach Post, that Senator Campbell had been the "go-between" for the confidence men, and where other prominent citizens are being implicated. Even the judge sitting at the present hearing says he has been approached with an offer of "considerable sum to throw the case out and release the crooks, who have taken millions from Florida in the past half dozen years."

The men who come into this state to fleece the unwary lay their plans carefully. They first ingratiate themselves with local officials, and it is a

WEATHER AND CROP CONDITIONS IN FLA. FOR WEEK ENDING FEBRUARY 14, 1922.

Temperature: The forepart of the week unusually cold, resulting in freezing temperatures in interior of central counties; the last of the week were much warmer than the seasonal. Precipitation: There was almost a general absence of rain, and highlands in the peninsula and most of the southern division need rain; low lands are mostly in good condition. There was an unusually high percentage of sunshine over most of the section.

Condition of Crops: Tender truck suffered from frost on the first two days of the week, when freezing temperatures occurred in interior portions of the northern and central counties; and low temperatures damaged truck locally in the south. The 8th was the coldest day in the winter in much of the section. Beans, strawberry bloom, peppers, peas, some lettuce, and tomatoes showed the touch of frost. Citrus trees are in good condition and shipments of fruit continued; much premature bloom is observed in the central and southern divisions. The planting of cane, melons, corn and some oats continued; some corn and melons are up and doing well in the central and southern countries, planting has begun in the northern division and preparations are afoot in the extreme western counties. Tobacco beds are in good condition. Fall oats are doing well. Irish potatoes are in fair to good condition, although frost did some slight damage. Farm work is well advanced. Country roads of the peninsula are hard surfaced or brick; hence, good at all times.

BOSS BUFFALO LICKED

Famous Herd Leader Meets His Kingly Downfall.

"Old Scotty," Shipped to Washington From South Dakota, Is Put Out in Seven-Hour Battle With Younger Bull.

Wenas Prairie, Wash.—"Old Scotty," for years leader of the famous herd of buffalo near Pierre, S. D., but recently shipped here with several hundred of his kind, has met his kingly downfall. He has been dethroned, and by a younger and stronger bull.

The terrific fight, in which fences and sheds were demolished and huge holes dug in the earth, and "Old Scotty," bleeding, haggard, and vanquished, lasted seven hours. A new bull, "Yakman" by name, reigned supreme, having gained the title by the self-same tactics used by the old buffalo years ago on the Dakota prairies.

On arrival here the herd of buffalo, purchased by local capitalists, were liberated in an extensive fenced area of hills and valleys. "Scotty" was haughtily parading his 3,000 pounds of selfishness when a picturesque young bull, nearly equal in size, made a vicious lunge at the wrinkled old king. "Scotty" swung and caught the blow with his head. Then started the battle, the most remarkable ever witnessed in this section of the West.

SUPERSTITION AN AID TO DETECTION OF CRIMINALS

Theory Is Admirably Demonstrated By Betty Compson in "The Law and the Woman"

Because a woman, guilty of a capital crime was superstitious—to the extent that breaking her mirror fore-shadowed doom for her,—she was finally forced to confess at the eleventh hour and save the life of a man convicted of murder, though innocent.

She is the central plot of "The Law and the Woman," a new Paramount picture, starring Betty Compson, to be seen at the Star Theatre tonight.

It is by means of this idea—playing upon the superstition of the guilty woman—that Miss Compson, in the role of the faithful wife of the accused man, succeeds in obtaining a confession from a vampire, whom she confronts with the gruesome reminders of her crime.

No stronger play has been produced than this. William T. Carleton plays opposite the star and heads an unusually strong supporting cast.
