Southbound Traffic Flow Puzzles Railway Chieftain

Rollins Says Winter Season Volume Continues On Way To Vacationland; Schedules To Change

G. E. Rollins, Atlantic Coast Line divisional superintendent, said today officials of the railroad were somewhat puzzled at the continued southbound volume of traffic in late March.

Mr. Rollins pointed out that passengers from the north continue to equal, in number, those coming from the south where they spend winter vacations.

He explained that in former years the southbound volume had been greatly reduced at this time of year and could offer no explanation for the continued southward flow.

The superintendent announced that summer schedules of the ACL will go into effect north of Jacksonville about Apr. 15, while south of Jacksonville they will be placed in use on or about May 15. However, he said, no definite date has been set.

Official plan to remove passenger trains now serving Sanford, according to Mr. Rollins, but merely will adjust time schedules to make them more convenient to summer business.

Freight trains, which are governed more by volume of business, will have varied most of their seasonal activity when summer arrives and the winter vegetable crop harvest is completed.

Lloyd F. Boyle, Legion commander, pointed out that the Sanford drum and bugle corps is the only one in the State comprised wholly of members of the Sons of the Legion. This fact is to be featured in Lakeland when the organization appears before the State Legion convention.

Murphy, Chrysler And Lewis Meet In Conference At Lansing

WASHINGTON, Mar. 24.—(AP)—Informed Senate sources said today that President Roosevelt had agreed to meet Congressional leaders for a discussion of the sit-down strike situation when he returns from Warm Springs this week-end.

Minority Leader Robinson, Democrat, Ark., previously had said a conference of congressional leaders will be necessary if the situation is not "cleared up" by that time. He declined to confirm or deny the report of the conference with the President.

Those who said such a conference would be held reported that the President had agreed to meet leaders in response to numerous requests from them that he intervene in the situation.

The suggestions coincided with an announcement by Representative Dies, Democrat, Texas, that the House Rules Committee had arranged a hearing next Wednesday on a resolution for a sweeping investigation of sit-down strikes.

Meanwhile, at Lansing, Mich., Walter P. Chrysler, one-time apprentice boy, and John L. Lewis, former coal miner, met with Governor Frank Murphy in an attempt to settle the automobile labor dispute that has thrown more than 80,000 persons out of work.

SEVEN VERSE FOR TODAY

A CONSCIENTIOUS SERVANT:
 In every work that he begins in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.—3 Chronicles 31:21.

WHILE I CAN SEE

His house now casts no shadow in the sun,
 When it walked out the sky the spiders spin,
 The waves are scattered and the birds are gone,
 The earth is cold and the bleak night creeps in.

His lament is part of wind and rain,
 A thing of dream, a pulsing of the blood,
 A warmth on grass where the moon sun has lain,
 A moaning where a skirted forest stood.

His wife has running water in her bath,
 His kitchen better used to fry.

But though the shining windows
 now are blind,
 He still has eyes until the end of the road,
 He still has a vision of the things to be.

While I can see, his house will stand for me,
 —A. H. Schmidt.

We hope the so-called Florida boom doesn't turn out to be a big blizz.

Florida has a new cross state canal, but it isn't The cross state canal.

Apparently Hitler is about as popular in Rome as he is in Palestine.

We gather from this little La Patrie that Il Duce has been pulling an Edward the eighth.

The Key West Citizen reports that it has no particular use for trailer camps at the moment.

New York City models are being taught the correct way "to sit down, cross legs, and reveal ankles." It seems they are forming training schools for sit-down-ers.

And then there was the girl who thought that social security meant that everyone could join the Junior League.

We gather from recent remarks of some of this country's leading citizens that while they would not care to hell Hitler, they would have no objection to booting him.

Fashion hints on what the well dressed young man will wear are Four million Chinese are starving in Szechwan province, China, where drought and famine have raged for months. And the state of Texas, as Brisbane used to tell us, if intensively cultivated, could feed the world.

It may be, as Walter Lippmann says, that President Roosevelt needs additional powers by packing the Supreme Court, in order to control the forces of inflation which he sees as about to sweep the country; or it may be that he anticipates a number of Supreme Court decisions in the near future which might be influenced in his favor by assuming a threatening attitude toward the court. In either case it appears to us that any radical departure from the Constitution deserves a vote of the people.

So What?

Though the original argument in favor of packing the Supreme Court, that "nine old men" simply were not sufficient to handle the work and that six additional justices were necessary in order to increase the efficiency of the court and expedite justice, has already been completely exploded and is no longer entertained by any sensible person as the real motive back of the proposed legislation, Chief Justice Hughes, concurred in by Justices Van Devanter and Brandeis, in a letter to Senator Wheeler, declares that the increase rather than promoting efficiency would actually hinder the work of the court.

It should here be noted by everyone that Mr. Hughes does not discuss any phase of the controversy except as it pertains to the efficiency of the court. He does not argue that the court has not been packed before. He does not argue that it has not assumed broad powers not granted it by the Constitution. He does not discuss the concentration of additional powers in the hands of the executive, the charges of dictatorship, or the wisdom of the various unconstitutional laws which have been proposed.

"Any increase in the number of justices of the Supreme Court, apart from any question of policy, which I do not discuss," the Chief Justice says, "would not promote the efficiency of the court. It is believed that it would impair the efficiency so long as the court acts as a unit. There would be more judges to hear, more judges to confer, more judges to discuss, more judges to be convinced and to decide. The present number of justices is thought to be large enough so far as the prompt, adequate, and efficient conduct of the work of the court is concerned. As I have said, I do not speak of any other considerations in view of the appropriate attitude of the court in relation to questions of policy."

If the people of the country really want to find out whether the justices on the Supreme Court are overworked, it would seem to us that they could be no better place to find out than from the justices themselves. They say they are not overworked and do not need additional judges to assist them. Furthermore, Mr. Hughes submitted an imposing array of figures proving beyond all question that the Court not only is able, but also does, dispose of the cases which properly come before it with dispatch and efficiency.

That this is the view not only of Mr. Hughes but also the entire court, is shown by the concurrence not only of Mr. Van Devanter, but also of Mr. Brandeis. The latter is known as the leader of the liberal wing of the court, the man who has sided most frequently with all New Deal laws. Mr. Van Devanter is one of the most conservative members of the court. Mr. Hughes himself is a middle of the road man, siding sometimes with the conservatives and sometimes with the liberals.

If there is any longer any argument in favor of packing the court, it is not that the justices are too old to handle their work, that they are inefficient or behind with their cases, or that even if they were, adding six additional justices would be any solution for the problem.

"Dead Man's Curve"

Time was when men liked to live in a house by the side of the main highway where they could watch the horses and buggies go by, and later perhaps, the automobiles, but in recent years the accident toll of the highways, the crash of colliding cars, the screams of the injured and dying, have served to make men wish they lived in some quiet lane far from the mad-making crowd.

A few years ago it was very much the thing to know, the Melbourne Times recalls, Sam Walter Foss's famous poem, "Let me live in a house by the side of the road, and be a friend to man," but a new version is going the rounds today. W. B. Fahney sees another way to look at it, and gives us a plan like this:

"Let me live in a house away from the road where the cars and the trucks go by; where the noise and din and the rattle of tin ring loud through a midnight sky. Where the sirens shriek like a fire alarm and back-fires like cannon roar. I've sold that shack and I'm not going back to live there any more.

"The maple that stood where it looked so good with seats beneath its shade, was hit by a truck—it was my hard luck—when the brakes failed down the grade. The sparkling spring with its babbling brook that flowed through the meadow green, along its brink looks a bit like ink, and it smells like gasoline.

"I'd like to live by the side of the road and be a friend to man; and freely give of the life I live, but I don't believe I can. I've lost my nerve watching 'Dead Man's Curve,' where the maimed and the dying call, where through the night from a glaring light strange ghosts dance on my wall.

"I'm moving back from that old race track, from the din and the traffic's roar, to a little home where the roses bloom and the birds sing 'round my door; where the trees in bloom give a sweet perfume—a part of an infinite plan; where the sun shines bright and I sleep all night and feel like a friend to man."

Swinging merrily along to the tune of the best songs ever written by the greatest writer of songs in the world, "On the Avenue," which opened today at the Ritz Theater, represents Irving Berlin at his melodious best, in a musical that is full of pep and biting good spirits.

With Dick Powell and Madeleine Carroll making a new and romantic twosome of musical comedy, the lively Twentieth-Century-Fox musical presents a real-romance of New York, in a show that's as big as the town. Alice Faye, The Ritz Brothers and George Barbier add both melody and mirth to the production.

Madeleine Carroll, noted hitherto for straight dramatic roles, makes a charming sweetheart for Dick Powell. The beginning of "On the Avenue" finds her, as a wealthy debutante, entering a theater with her father, George Barbier, and an employer, Alan Mowbray, at the moment that Dick Mowbray, at the moment that Dick Brothers are engaged in a hilarious take-off on the home life of "the richest girl in the world."

Worthy of a separate note are the distinctive and lovely melodies Irving Berlin composed for the film, "This Year's Kisses," "You're Laughing at Me," "Shaming My Love to Keep Me Warm," "The Girl on the Police Gazette," and a novelty number written for the Ritz Brothers, called "He Ain't Got Rhythm."

Stamp Collectors Aid Woman Flier On World Journey

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 24.—(AP)—Stamp collectors new enthusiasm for souvenir "covers" has played a large part in financing Amelia Earhart Putnam's round-the-world flight.

Miss Earhart's agents placed 10,000 specially printed envelopes on sale for $2.50, $5 if autographed, to be carried along, postmarked in the various countries, and eventually delivered to the addresses through the regular U. S. mails.

On the envelope, which a department store clerk is showing a collector, are pictures of the flier and her plane.

Miss Earhart's price is a near record high. Letters sent to Little America with the Byrd expedition cost only 53 cents each.

MOTOR VESSEL FIGHTS FIRE IN MID-OCEAN

Two men were carried to the hospital, one of whom staged a dramatic rescue of the other, the operator of a lofty electric crane. The operator was trapped in his high cab when fire broke out in the oil-soaked planking beneath.

The United Fruit steamer San Gil caught fire from the deck flames, and only prompt work saved its sister ship, the San Bruno.

Fire Chief Samuel Pope estimated the damage to the ships and the Simpson dock of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company at around $30,000.

Quarantine On Texas Fruit Is Effective

McALLEN, Texas, Mar. 24.—(AP)—Federal quarantine on citrus fruit shipments from the Rio Grande Valley to 16 fruit-producing states and Puerto Rico goes into effect here at midnight tonight.

The quarantine was ordered because of the presence of the Mexican fruit fly in citrus.

Two hundred and fifty carloads of fruit moved from the Valley yesterday and observers said possibly 400 cars will be moved or packed and ready before the quarantine is effective.

Approximately $1,000,000 worth of the Valley's $12,000,000 fruit crop still is in the valley. The quarantine does not affect vegetables.

Oil and oil products are the principal exports of Mexico.

Leesburg Gets Support From Macon Of Sally Loop; Entry Expected To Be Made Today

State Loop Directors Plan For Opening Day April 29; Orlando Seeks Manager And Players For Team There

Following arrangements made with Bill Stock's Macon club of the Sally League yesterday, Leesburg's entry in the Florida State League was almost assured and the success of the loop today expected to be decided by Lee Meadows, former Pittsburgh Pirates hurler, to post its $500 franchise money before tonight.

Following the announcement recently that Leesburg would be unable to compete this year because of financial difficulty, Meadows, who will probably manage the club there this season, announced that over $700 had been raised. Arrangements had been made with Macon, and that a drive for funds, continuing today and tomorrow, was expected to net the necessary amount to give his club a good start.

The St. Louis Browns, who earlier in the season had promised financial support to Leesburg, had withdrawn their support, it was learned today.

Definite assurance of the last-minute support from Macon sent Orlando club officials scurrying in an endeavor to locate a suitable manager and players. Orlando yesterday had believed they were out of the loop when the Leesburg club had indicated it would drop.

With Leesburg practically back in the fold, awaiting further word from Bill Stock, pilot and business manager of the Macon club of which he is half-owner, the directors of the clubs entered in the State League prepared for their opening day games, Apr. 25, just one month away. On that date, Sanford will meet Orlando at the latter's stronghold with the two clubs battling on the local park the following day.

CARDUI is a special medicine for the relief of some of the suffering which results from a woman's weakened condition. It has been found to make monthly periods disagreeable, and when it is used has helped many poorly nourished women to get more strength from their food. This medicine (pronounced "Card-i") has been used and recommended by women for many, many years. Find out whether it will help you by giving it a fair trial. Of course, if not benefited, consult a physician.

Gas Well Is Found In Man's Back Yard
NORWALK, O., Mar. 24.—(AP)—Dan Smith says he doesn't expect to pay a gas bill for years to come—he has his own gas well right in his back yard.

Smith was drilling in the yard of his residential-district home a month ago when he found gas in a limestone formation at a depth of about 300 feet. He piped the gas to his furnace and cookstove. Smith says the supply is about eight feet family needs, but too small for commercial use.

Spotlights of Sport

By A. F. STRAUSS

As we sit down to our dear old story and some-what hazy typewriter, we wonder just what will be the outcome of the Florida State League situation. . . Originally a six-club affair, directors of the loop strived hard to extend the organization to an eight-club one. . . After months of persuasion, Leesburg and Orlando agreed to come along with Gainesville, Sanford, Daytona Beach, Palatka, St. Augustine and DeLand if organizations in the two cities could be effected. A few weeks ago, the St. Louis Browns, through their new vice-president, Eddie Gilliland, former proxy of the loop here, signed to cooperate with the Leesburg officials, headed by Lee Meadows, former Pittsburgh Pirates hurler, agreeing to furnish material and financial aid to a moderate extent. . . With that arrangement made, Leesburg seemed "in" for the coming season and all that was necessary was to get Orlando organized.

An unknown Easterner, whose identity later proved to be P. M. Coffey, Washington, D. C., business man, challenged Orlandoans to match the $500 he was willing to post to back a ball club in the Orange County seat. . . Before 48 hours had passed, $1,400 was laid on the desk of another business man there and the Orlando $500 bond posted with Henry L. Gray, league head, that same afternoon.

Coffey was named president and C. B. Bradley, newly elected secretary and business manager, advised one and all that the club was walking with open arms and late, where Gonzalez had worked. Held, the post started to re-enact the crime for officers, but halted in the middle and repudiated his confession.

6,000 Sit-Down Strikers Vacate Chrysler Plant

Michigan Governor Brings About Agreement Between Labor, Capital

More Conclaves Are Scheduled

Lewis Exhausted But Appears Pleased With Settlement

DETROIT, Mar. 25.—(AP)—More than 6,000 striking automobile workers marched in swirling snow today from eight Chrysler Corporation plants held since Mar. 8, but prepared to establish picket lines until their strike for exclusive bargaining rights was settled.

At Lansing last night, John L. Lewis and Walter P. Chrysler reached a truce in a 17-day strike that has closed nine Chrysler Corporation plants and thrown 60,000 persons out of work.

From to face, in Gov. Frank Murphy's office the chairman of the Committee for Industrial Organization and the head of the automobile concerns had agreed to continue their conference provided all-down strikers were out of all Chrysler plants by 10 A. M. today.

Lewis said he would ask the 6,000 sit-downers to disperse. In return, Chrysler agreed that if attempt would be made to resume the production of automobiles in the next 24 hours, that no tools, dies or machinery would be removed from them.

The truce came after eight and a half hours of negotiations around the same table at which Governor Murphy was able to bring about a settlement in the General Motors strike.

Lewis came out of the conference with his hair rumpled and a tired expression on his face, but he apparently was pleased with the truce.

Ball Club Will Seek Funds For 1937 Operation

Watson Says Sanford Fans Must Contribute $2,000 Fund

Solicitations for funds with which to operate the Sanford Baseball Club, an entry in the Florida State League, will get under way within the next few days, it was announced today by Henry Watson, president of the Sanford Baseball Association.

With a goal of approximately $2,000 and with but three weeks until the opening day of the season, the campaign must be successful from the start, Watson claimed, in order to produce the necessary amount before the August 1st opening on Apr. 18.

The greater portion of the fund will be used to operate the club, expenses for which will be partly defrayed by the gate receipts. A part of the money will be used to pay for the training period of the club, Leachman prior to the season's opening.

Mindful of the poor attendance last year, Watson stressed the need to raise money early in order that the worries of the previous season be eliminated to a great extent. Practically $9,000 or $10,000 would be spent to see the team through the 1937 season which would mean approximately seven or eight thousand dollars must be raised through gate receipts.

Watson has not, as yet, appointed a committee for solicitation but expects to announce his selection tomorrow or Saturday. Without the services of a secretary-treasurer, the local club chairman is somewhat handicapped.

As yet, no suitable prospect has turned up to fill the position vacated by J. A. Wright, who held the post of secretary-treasurer until last week when attention to his business affairs necessitated more time, thereby preventing him from continuing in the capacity which he so successfully executed last year.

Activities Spurt As Delinquents Pay Occupational Fees

Because of a stimulated activity in the payment of City occupational license, no arrests of delinquents have been made so far this week, Police Chief Roy Williams announced today.

However, the officer said, warrants for those in arrears have been issued and are in the hands of the Police Department ready for service should a lullness in settlements become apparent.

About 75 orders for arrest of delinquents originated in City Hall where officials have waited more than five months for some individuals and firms in Sanford to pay their occupational fees of 1937 which became due Jan. 1.

Chief Williams said he planned to show a 100 percent collection of the delinquencies, otherwise those failing to meet their obligations will be brought into court.

Motor Wreck Death Toll Rises To 20

Vehicle Crashes Into Concrete Abutment Of Bridge, Bursts Into Living Pyre

SALEM, Ill., Mar. 25.—(AP)—The death toll of a private bus wreck here yesterday rose to 20 today when hospital officials announced that Mrs. Emily Thomas, wife of the driver succumbed during early morning hours.

A fire blower near here hurled the vehicle against a concrete bridge abutment and turned it into a blazing wreck in which 19 persons died instantly.

Only five survived one of the worst disasters in the history of motorbus transportation. The bus, loaded with a professional roller-skating troop, en route from St. Louis to Cincinnati, O., was going down a slight grade when the fire blew out.

The heavy machine careened crazily, dug into a soft shoulder of the highway and rammed into the bridge railing with terrific force. Hurled on its side, it burst into flames when its gasoline tank was smashed.

The survivors said the bus appeared to explode and then there was fire all over and all were caught in it, reported Dr. H. L. Logan of the Salem Community Hospital where the injured were taken.

Chamber Shows Unusual Facts Of State Climate

Florida Getting Name Of 'Air Conditioned State' In North; 72.3 Degrees Is Temperature

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce today pointed out 12 major factors in Florida's climate in releases drawn up in co-operation with the State Chamber of Commerce prepared especially for a "Radio-Florida" campaign.

"Here are the climatic facts, being published throughout the State for benefit of both tourists and permanent residents: "Florida is beginning to be known as "The Air-Conditioned State," because of her salt water and ocean breezes which warm the State in winter and cool it in summer.

"Florida has more sunshine in winter and less in summer than the northern states; in Florida, the shortest day in the year is only three hours shorter than the longest; day in the year.

"Florida's mean annual temperature is from 68.8 degrees to 72.3 degrees.

"Florida's annual rainfall average for 30 years was 49.7 degrees; its lowest was 0.2 degrees recorded at Tallahassee in 1929.

"Skyshine" as well as direct sunshine plays a large part in the beautiful environment of Florida. It is estimated as being approximately one-half to two-thirds as effective as the direct rays, and is sunlight reflected from Florida's salt and fresh water, abundant foliage and water vapor in Florida's atmosphere.

"Florida is nearer the Tropic of Cancer than any other State (Continued on page five)

Lions To Assist Miss Boydston To Resign Post As Home Agent

Delinquent Eye Cases In County

Ask Citizens To Donate Frames For Fitting Lenses

A movement to equip with glasses all Seminole County children needing eye attention and financially unable to obtain it was instituted last night by Sanford Lions at their weekly convalescence in the Valley Hotel.

The action was taken after the Club learned of the existence of a score or more of cases of school children whose vision is impaired and whose parents are in no position to provide proper glasses.

Citizens of Sanford and the County were called upon to donate any glass frames which they might have in their possession that are not in use.

It was announced that arrangements have been made with a local optician to fit lenses in the frames. Persons having a frame which they wish to donate are advised to contact Clarence Adams at the A.C. freight station or Joseph A. Meisch at 1506 Magnolia Avenue.

All lenses will be made through the schools, with the assistance of the teachers who will be asked to recommend pupils in need of glasses.

Attention to the blind on these days of eye treatment is one of the principal objectives of all Lions Clubs. It was pointed out in recent years, it was reported, many cases of near blindness have been averted or postponed upon through thoughtful efforts put forward by Sanford Lions.

Members of the club with discarded pairs of glasses, including the State convention of the organization in West Palm Beach, June 12-14 and voted to send two delegates. An attempt will be made also to have several other members attend.

Missionary Tells Of 3 Influences Leading To Prison

Missionary Ted Messers told Klansmen yesterday that liquor, unprincipled women and gambling were the three elements leading mostly to an American jail.

Speaking at the "The Impoverishment of the Old Testament" he laid stress on the fact that men and women of character, possessing righteousness in many instances had the power to pull back a youth who had started down one of the three bad lanes.

Mr. Messers said liquor produces the "blind case" spirit, unprincipled women lead like the goat on the downward path, and gambling creates in a man the building desire to "take a chance on anything."

Yesterday's visitors included W. T. Starling of Orlando and Adolph Meisch of Brandon, N. J. The session was held in the Valley Hotel.

Method For Taking Work Sheets Termed Only Experimental

County Agent C. R. Dawson announced today his schedule, announced Tuesday, for taking work sheets under the 1937 soil conservation plan is only a test for efficiency.

He plans to remove his office figuratively, to each community in the County on scheduled dates to accept the sheets. April 1 and 2 is the date set for Altamonte Springs, while April 6 and 7 will find the farm office in Ovidio.

Mr. Dawson declared that if the system is found to be inefficient, he will devise another method, probably based on lines used in taking 1936 work sheets.

Completes 3 Years Service, Returns To South Florida

Miss Josephine Boydston, home demonstration agent in Seminole County for three years, today announced that her resignation had been accepted to become effective Apr. 1.

Several successors are being considered by the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington, although none had been designated today.

Miss Boydston, resigning because of "other plans," became affiliated with the County Government on Aug. 1, 1931, and she organized the first units for home demonstration work in Seminole County.

Since her appointment she has established nine Women's Home Demonstration Clubs and eight Four-H Clubs at the following locations: Altamonte Springs-Forest City, Chuluoka, Geneva, Lake Mary, Longwood, Lake Monroe, Paola, Sanford and Ovidio.

Taking form under Miss Boydston's direction and supervision also was a Senior County Council for Women which planned programs for and governed the Demonstration units. Another similar organization, for Junior County Council, functioned in an identical manner for the Four-H Clubs.

One of the outstanding accomplishments of Miss Boydston's period as demonstration agent was the founding of three County canning kitchens, the first in this region to offer co-operative efforts to the public.

The agent was graduated from the Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee with a Bachelor of Science degree in home economics. She was a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority.

Before leaving here, Miss Boydston was an instructor in home economics in Lake Worth High School, and she also held the position as home economist with the Florida Power and Light Company in West Palm Beach. She is returning to Lake Worth.

Miss Boydston said home demonstration work in this State is financed and directed co-operatively by the County Commission, the State Agricultural Extension Service, and the United States Department of Agriculture.

Crippled Communications, Isolated Communities Result Of Weather

Ontario Ships In Long Delays

Freezing Temperatures, Rain, Hail Plague Many Parts

CHICAGO, Mar. 25.—(AP)—Crippled communication lines, isolated communities, and paralyzed highway transportation provided evidence today of winter's worst snowstorm in sections of the midwest.

Far to the east a spring storm that combined snow, sleet and high winds brought near-record cold.

A thunder and lightning through a wide area brought a strange pre-Easter greeting to upstate New York. Two to three inches of slippery snow fell.

From Ovidio Head, N. Y., the source of many weird reports of extreme cold, an unofficial five below zero was reported.

The wind was of such proportions in Buffalo Harbor that the first steamship of the season, coming up Lake Erie, did not immediately attempt to enter port for fear of running aground.

The E. and O. Railroad ran ferry on route to Cobourg, Ontario, from Rochester, was delayed more than five hours in making the 63 mile crossing of Lake Ontario.

While winds whipped into big drifts in Minnesota and the Dakotas, rain, sleet, hail, dust, tornadoes and freezing temperatures plagued a wide expanse of the midcontinent. The storm dipped into Wisconsin, Nebraska and Illinois.

Tornadoes swept Alabama, Kentucky and a part of Northwest Florida.

Forecasters reported rainfall at Los Angeles for the season of 21.84 inches, the highest since 1914.

Ohio was blanketed by a light snowfall. Wet snow obliterated signs of spring throughout central and northern portions of Indiana.

The weather bureau indicated the wintry conditions would continue at least 24 hours.
