

WOKE UP THE GUESTS

Guests in the Victoria hotel, Springfield, Mass., were awakened rudely early in the morning when a train of three electric express cars jumped the track and smashed into the five-story brick building. The front car "walked" right into the lobby, as if to register, and the impact exposed the corner sleeping rooms on the three upper floors.

KIWANIS CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED IN THIS CITY

T. JEFF BAILEY, OF BIRMINGHAM, HERE TO ORGANIZE THE CLUB

District secretary-treasurer, T. Jeff Bailey, of the International Kiwanis club, is in Sanford making a survey preparatory to perfecting the organization of a Kiwanis club in the city. Mr. Bailey is a well known figure in Kiwanis circles, having for two years been secretary of the Birmingham, Ala., club where he makes his home, and is a member of the International Publicity Committee, he having been engaged in newspaper work for a number of years prior to entering the Kiwanis field.

Mr. Bailey has invited between fifty and sixty men to attend a meeting to be held at the Valdez Hotel sun parlor, Monday night, October 3, at 8 o'clock, at which time he will explain the objects and ideals of the Kiwanis club, and it is expected that he will perfect the temporary organization Monday night. He is receiving the co-operation of a number of the leading business and professional men in the city and states that he is very much pleased with the progress he is making in Sanford.

"While I have supervision over all clubs organized in Florida, Alabama and Arkansas, I have never organized but one club in Florida, that being the Jacksonville club, and I can point with pardonable pride to this club, one of the very best in the International, which comprises 508 clubs with a membership of close to 60,000 live members. Sanford certainly needs such an organization, and I am sure that our Rotary brothers will welcome such an addition to the city's civic life, for it will create a little friendly rivalry that will augment well for the future of both clubs."

The meeting at the Valdez Monday night will not last but one hour, and all those invited are urged to attend and hear Kiwanis defined and get the details of the organization, then they may exercise their prerogative of joining or declining, as they see fit.

INVESTIGATION K. K. K. HALTED SUDDENLY

CLEVELAND, Oct. 1.—A proposed grand jury investigation into the activities of the Ku Klux Klan in Cleveland was called off by County Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton late yesterday, after Charles W. Love, grand goffin for Ohio, Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky and West Virginia; Earl Hockaday, king klegle for Ohio, and Chester W. Totten, chief organizer for this district, voluntarily appeared for examination.

The officers were permitted to return to their homes, promising to return to Cleveland any time Stanton or other officials desired to renew the investigation.

"Only one side of the agitation has been presented to the county prosecutor's office and no evidence has been offered by anyone unsympathetic to the Ku Klux Klan which would warrant taking the matter to the grand jury," Stanton stated in announcing that, for the present, the investigation is at an end.

WANT SALES TAX AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR WAR LEVIES.

QUICK ACTION URGED FOR CONFERENCE IN EMERGENCY.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Ground work for an emergency program to meet the needs of the country's involuntary idle, found to number between 3,700,000 and 4,000,000 exclusive of agriculture, was completed today by the national conference on unemployment.

Reports of most of the committees were completed and turned over to the steering committee, which is to into one definite whole for action by the full conference when it reconvenes tomorrow afternoon. Quick action upon the general emergency scheme is expected by the conference.

Adoption of a final report by the committee on emergency measures by manufacturers was announced late today. The report, which is said to contain the core of the unemployment problem because of the effect of the manufacturing industry upon economic conditions generally, is understood to recommend the use of rotation of labor, the shortened week, partial employment, completion of repair and clean up as some of the means of increasing employment. In addition the committee was said to favor an appeal to the patriotic cooperation of producers, manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers in passing along as rapidly as possible any price changes occurring in order to hasten business revival.

WOULD TURN PLANT OF STREET CAR SYSTEM OVER TO THE CITY.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Oct. 1.—The local street car system is a losing proposition to its owners, the Southern Utilities Corporation, according to officials of the corporation, and they are willing to make the city a present of the whole outfit.

This was revealed at a meeting recently between officials of the corporation and the city commissioners and also officials of the local street railway company, the St. Johns Electric Co.

The city commissioners are seeking to have the company improve its service in the city, cooperate with the city in paving Central avenue and to again extend its service to St. Augustine Beach. Little was definitely accomplished at the meeting, the street railway officials claiming the earnings of the company would not permit of any paving work on Central avenue. The company was willing to extend its service to St. Augustine Beach if it were permitted to discontinue the service in the city, the officials explained, and followed with an offer to turn the city limits lines over to the city to be disposed of as it saw fit.

The city commissioners took the points brought out at the meeting under advisement with a view to taking action on the question in the near future.

PENSACOLA SECURES DIRECT STEAMSHIP LINE TO BALTIMORE.

PENSACOLA, Sept. 30.—Pensacola will soon enjoy the advantage of a coastwise steamship to Baltimore, and possibly a few intermediate points on the Atlantic coast. This was made possible Tuesday afternoon when the membership of the Chamber of Commerce held an enthusiastic meeting and discussed the plans which were set before the body by J. B. Morrow, industrial commissioner for the Chamber of Commerce, who showed the advantage to the Pensacola merchant in getting the all-water route to Atlantic coast ports.

On the subject of naval stores, it was shown that a reduction of twenty cents per hundred was possible; on the matter of print paper it was shown that almost twenty cents would be saved. A number of articles were cited, the saving in freights ranging from five to twenty and thirty cents.

MUST GIVE THEIR RIGHT NAMES

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 1.—Every person arrested hereafter in St. Petersburg will be docketed under his real name, if the police know it, and the use of fictitious names will not be permitted. Instructions to this effect have been given the police by Mayor Mitchell as a result of a suggestion from Municipal Judge Spear.

The suggestion resulted from a discussion in court regarding the changing of a name on the police docket by some unidentified person. It also developed that a well known man here was arrested on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and was allowed to go into court as "John Doe." At the time of his arrest his name was not known. Chief of Police Bidaman defended his action in docketing the man as "John Doe," by declaring the man would have lost his job had it become known that he was arrested for being drunk. He said that in such minor cases he believed it was permissible to allow the name of "John Doe" to be used.

Judge Spear took issue with the police head and declared that the police had no right to discriminate and show favors.

"Where are you going to draw the line if you show a favor to one man," the Judge asked. "No man wants his name on this docket, and if you let one man, whose name is known to the police, be docketed as 'John Doe' how are you to refuse the same privilege to another man? I would suggest that every man be docketed under his right name, if it is known to the arresting officer or the police. Having his name on this docket is one of the penalties that a man pays for breaking the law. Recently a friend of mine, a man with whom I have business relations, was arrested and he pleaded with me to keep his name off the docket, but I refused to do so and it was on the docket."

"The new bank building will soon be under construction, and will furnish a landmark in the growth of our city," declares the Haines City Herald. "It will house the Growers' Commercial Bank, the postoffice, three stores and twenty-six beautiful apartments, each with private bath, ten sleeping porches and about fifteen modern offices." The Herald adds that the new structure is to be three stories high and will cost about $100,000. That is going some for a place the size of Haines City.

MRS. E. K. FOSTER.

The following is from the Times-Union:
The many friends of Mrs. E. K. Foster, formerly of Gainesville, will regret to learn of her death on September 29, 1921, at Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. Foster was the widow of the late Judge E. K. Foster, of Gainesville, and she and her husband during their long life in Florida were numbered among the most prominent and influential people of this state. The late Judge Foster was formerly counselor for the Plant System railways (now the Atlantic Coast Line), and both he and Mrs. Foster were leaders in the affairs of the Episcopal church in the state of Florida for many years. Mrs. Foster being a close relative of the late Bishop Potter of New York state. The family is well known and beloved by all of the older residents of Florida. Mrs. Foster died in Philadelphia at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. William C. Russell, besides whom she leaves surviving, another daughter, Mrs. Clifford Hoskins, of London, England, and a son, E. K. Foster Jr., of Jacksonville.
Mrs. Foster was the widow of the late Judge E. K. Foster, who, for many years, were residents of Sanford, and the many friends of the family will learn with regret of the death of this good woman.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH SANFORD?

DR. S. W. WALKER PREACHED AT THE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH LAST NIGHT ON CITY FOUR SQUARE FROM REV. 21-16

He said in part: "I want to talk to you about an ideal city, a city that stands four square, that stands materially, morally, mentally and spiritually right. These are the four great qualities that make a city.
"How does Sanford stand measured by these standards? We have a beautiful location on this great lake, we have fine soil, we have artesian water, we have cheap transportation and all the qualities that go to make up a real city and the question is often asked 'Why is not Sanford a larger city,' and many people believe that we are asleep at the switch.
"The past week, I have asked many people what the trouble has been, various reasons have been assigned, chief among them was after the big freeze in '96 fortunes were swept away, misfortune came and worst of all the people felt defeated and no defeated man or city can accomplish results. (From the bottom of my heart I sympathize with a defeated man). When a man is defeated it lays him often open to doubt and then jealousy and I fear that these influences have been working in Sanford to defeat our larger future. There has been too much of 'let George do it.' 'I desire to get all selfishly and make no return.' A city is never built by people that feel that way. That's the parasite spirit and I detest it whether it's on an orange tree or on a man.
"Another man said to me, 'Sanford has too many people who ride in automobiles and let the merchants carry the account, if I could collect my bad accounts, I could ride in an automobile.' Another man said, 'Sanford had too many gossipers. I will deal with this class at another time soon. Another man said, 'Our young people are living at a killing pace, but I guess you don't know anything about that, Brother Walker.' My! if I told all I know, they would run me out of town.
"Another man said: 'One of the troubles with Sanford is a few prominent business men stand behind the liquor interests.' I don't believe this, but if it's true, nothing would delight me more than to see such people put on the chain gang. Another trouble with Sanford, there is too much poker playing. No town is a good town to live in or do business in where prominent people play poker. It's not safe to trust people with your finances who gamble. A sign in some cities is: 'Drive slow and see our city, drive fast and see our jail!' Let the fast pace be kept up and some of our people will see the jail.

"When I first came here, I was asked what I thought Sanford needed most, I said 'paint.' Now, I would add to it, 'Pep, purpose and perseverance.' And another very strong need is a good book store and a real library. I said a few days ago to a man about the lack of reading in Sanford and he said, 'Oh, we are literary people, we read the newspapers and magazines.' The town that's built on that kind of mental material will always be mediocre. No town is bigger than its ideals and one great need in Sanford is big ideas. Had some places in California where I have been, had your lake and resources, they would have had a hundred and fifty thousand people. The trouble with Sanford is you have not had the vision, or the stamina to stand strong against the line. When resources have come too many have fallen down, no man or town ever succeeds that way. It is everlastingly at it and united that we succeed, but these material things alone will never make a city four square. It's not only push and paint and books, but if there's one great book left out of any life, that life is incomplete, and that city will never be four square.
"We talk about the wonderful eloquence of Bryan, but every thrilling phrase is the one driven home by Bible quotation, the things that make for a city are the things that make for an individual. Stand four square and your life will be a success.

The Five Smilers Named by Dr. Hyman at Baptist Temple

Dr. Hyman gave the results of the investigations of the Good Fellowship League last night at the Baptist Temple. It had been advertised for some time that Dr. Hyman would give the names of five of the most pleasant men in Sanford on Sunday night, five of the most pleasant merchants next Sunday and five of the most pleasant employes in Sanford on the Sunday night following.
Last night Dr. Hyman said the League had after much discussion and mature deliberation decided upon five of the most pleasant men in the city and while there were many more they had finally decided upon the following: R. J. Holly, Edward Scoggans, Jno. D. Jinkins, J. G. Ball, and C. E. Henry. Watch them smile when they read of this decision.

FUNERAL OF MRS. F. L. WOODRUFF, JR.

The funeral of Mrs. Frank L. Woodruff, Jr., occurred from the home on Oak avenue Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Dr. Brownlee, of the Presbyterian church, officiating. The interment was made in Lakeview cemetery, and the beautiful floral offerings attested to the love and esteem in which the deceased was held in this city.

REPEAL TAX ON FREIGHT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Senator Park Trammell yesterday introduced an amendment to the tax bill providing for the repeal of the tax on freight and passenger charges. Senator Trammell has been working for some time to have this tax discontinued. It is one of the ways in which he is endeavoring to bring about some reduction in the excessive transportation charges. He introduced a bill in the Senate upon the subject early in May. In the tax bill as it passed the house the transportation tax was repealed to take effect January 1, 1922. The senate committee however proposes that this tax shall not be repealed. Senator Trammell's amendment proposes that the tax shall be discontinued from the date of the passage of the revenue measure.

THREE BIG MEN PULL GIANTS THRU TO CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Reunited after many years of glory and strife on the diamond a great trio of baseball players has brought the New York Giants through this season's battles...

Burkett has never had the good fortune to manage a major league pennant winner but McGraw has piloted the Giants to a goodly string of flags and Jennings won three pennants with the Tigers.

McGraw was a third baseman, first with the great Baltimore club and then with St. Louis and when he landed in New York he retired as an active and became a leader...

Burkett came to the Giants in 1890 as a pitcher but was converted into an outfielder because he could not control his left handed shoots.

The batting records of McGraw, Jennings and Burkett, combined, represent 27 years of hitting over the 300 mark in the big show.

McGraw's top averages was .300, in 1899, the year that Ed. Delahanty finally succeeded in his long effort to go over the .400 mark...

Early in the second quarter, Full-back Anderson crashed over the goal line to score six points for the gold and white. No try for goal was made owing to the rain which began to come down in torrents.

Toward the close of the first quarter the "little golden tornado" began to show an organized attack. Two substantial gains by Captain Kincaid and young Joe Tinker played the ball on Sanford's thirty-five yard line when the whistle blew.

Captain Kincaid, Joe Tinker, Smith, Link and Harvard were the O. H. S. stars. Captain McClucas played a great defensive game for Sanford.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.
