TEN THOUSAND GERMAN LOCAL POLICE DISARMED BY ORDER FRENCH GENERAL

BECAUSE OF FATITUDE OF GERMAN POLICE TOWARD THE FRENCH SOLDIERS BERLIN CONNECTIN

Severed in Ruhr Section Where Spirit of Strife Prevalent With Security Police

(By The Associated Press) DUSSELDORF, Feb. 15.—Ten thousand German security police throughout the occupied region are to be disbanded today by order of General Degoutte. It was explained at the French headquarters this action deemed advisable because with the German attitude towards the French military. Hereafter Schutz Polizei are to be considered by the French as protectors of the Ruhr community without any connection with Berlin. In addition to the recent incident at Gelsenkirchen, the French consider the police inclined to use their arms too freely especially when they get into disputes with French soldiers. Headquarters here has a record of twelve incidents where police used firearms against the military.

ESSEN, Feb. 15.—The boycott battle between the Franco-Belgian occupational forces and the Germans is daily becoming more acute in the Ruhr, particularly in Essen.

The most noticeable features are the failure of cooperation by the German police and the refusal of hotels and merchants to serve the French and Belgians.

In retaliation the allies seized two of the largest hotels in Essen, but this was met by further active opposition by the Germans. Yesterday the Germans severed electric current supplying the Kaiserhof hotel, where the allied engineering commission was quartered. The French countered with an ultimatum that unless the lights were restored by six o'clock last evening, the entire lighting system of the city would be shut down. At that hour the Kaiserhof was still without electricity, but the city lights continued to blaze on.

The Germans said a detail of troops was sent to the municipal lighting plant to cut the power, but had to leave without achieving its purpose because the doors were tightly barred.

Vice Burgomaster Schaefer was arrested this morning in connection with this incident.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Two policemen at Dusseldorf were arrested there yesterday charged with setting fire to a barn, the billet of French troops, says a Reuter dispatch from Dusseldorf. One of the policemen was wounded in trying to evade arrest.

General Degoutte, the French commander, the dispatch adds, has decided to disarm the Schutzpolizei and gradually transfer them to the municipal police.

A Reuter dispatch from Essen says that in addition to the burgomaster, the president of the Hotel Keepers' Union had been arrested.

The burgomaster will be held responsible for cutting off the electricity from the Kaiserhof hotel and will be court-martialed unless the current is restored.

STATE OFFICIALS WORK ON BUDGET NOTHING DEFINITE

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 15.—Governor Hardee, Comptroller Amos and Treasurer Luning went back to work on the budget this morning. They plan to leave it for a while this afternoon as one of them has a business engagement out of the city. While the commission is working in executive session it was made known today that they had not reached a point where the total appropriations to be recommended to the legislature could be estimated.

GERMAN TREASURY BILLS WERE MET WHEN DUE TODAY

(By The Associated Press) BRUSSELS, Feb. 15.—The German treasury bills, issued in connection with Germany's agreement to pay the Belgian reparations, were met today when they fell due.

BAND PLAYED LAST NIGHT FOR VISITORS

MADE SWEET MUSIC AT IMPROVED BAND STAND ACROSS FROM VALDEZ HOTEL

One of the features of the entertainment for the California visitors to the city last night was the band concert by the 154th Infantry band under the direction of Bandmaster Edgar Ball. An improvised band stand was erected on the Takach lot just across from the Valdez hotel and a fine concert was given to the visitors and local people about seven o'clock before the banquet at the hotel started. This feature on the program of entertainment was greatly appreciated by the California people and during the banquet it was mentioned by Col. Roedding in his speech and he complimented the band and their leader, Edgar Ball, who was formerly from Redlands, California.

Thus our own band scored another triumph and the boys were invited to the banquet and enjoyed it to the fullest.

Made False Report On Bombing Outrages For Personal Gain

Representative of Burns and Thiel Agencies, Took the Money

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Albert Bailin, alias Albert Balanow, confessed spy and agent provocateur, admitted yesterday under cross examination by O. L. Smith, assistant attorney general of Michigan, that many of his reports while an agent of the Burns and Thiel detective agency, were false.

Balanow, in a deposition being taken by Frank P. Walsh, attorney for 22 alleged communists being tried in Michigan, had pictured the communist and communist labor parties and the L. W. W. organization as being virtually controlled by the two detective agencies and operated as side lines of extracting money from banking and business agencies.

He charged that he and other agents provocateur of the two detective agencies organized labor unions and radical organizations and directed their activity in order that the detectives might arrest deluded radicals who followed their lead.

As he painted the picture of detective activities yesterday, he recounted radical meetings consisting largely of detectives who at times were so stupid, he said, that they reported on each other. So many supposed radicals were really private detectives, he declared, that they were continually suspecting each other.

His admission that any of his reports were untrue came when Attorney Smith questioned him about a report he sent from Milwaukee detailing an alleged meeting with one "Lebovetsky," supposed to be a dangerous representative of the soviet government.

The examination developed he had furnished the report to John L. Garrity, then chief of police of Chicago, and the Thiel agency and collected a salary and expenses from both, and Mr. Smith also attempted to show that the same report was sold to the Burns agency and expenses collected again, but this the witness denied, although Mr. Smith produced a copy of the statement said to have come from the Burns' file.

Dr. Smith sewed up a bad cut in the negro's heart where he had suffered a wound in the right ventricle. The heart was lifted out of its normal position and five stitches taken in it.

SEMINOLE COUNTY FIRST AT THE SUB-TROPICAL FAIR BANNER COUNTY THIS YEAR

Has Been Awarded the First Honors Among the County Exhibits

One of the finest county exhibits to have been staged at an Orlando fair, and one awarded first honors of county exhibits at the present fair is that of Seminole county. The exhibit has been arranged under the supervision of Benjamin Whitner, Jr., of Sanford, county agricultural agent of Seminole county, assisted by Mrs. F. A. Johnson, also of that community. The horticultural display is undoubtedly the best at the fair this year and the most varied.

The many varieties of citrus fruits and vegetables are arranged in a great horseshoe in the Seminole county booth, which is located directly to the right of the entrance to the main exposition hall. As may be expected the celery exhibit is excellent and there are also many other varieties at testing to the great fertility of Seminole county soil. There are a mass of bearo plants, celery in the making, and of particular interest is the beautiful lettuce heads of which there are several kinds including the choice iceberg, Boston and Romaine lettuces. A vegetable new to the horticultural exhibit is the Finocchio, a plant resembling in root and stem the celery, but possessing a flavor similar to the fennel flower. That cotton is grown very successfully in Central Florida is proved by the Seminole exhibit for there is shown cotton in the various stages from the bush to the cotton bale. An interesting feature is the display of sixty-five varieties of woods to be found in Seminole county. There is a well selected specimen of every wood from ordinary oak to gum and iron woods. A peculiar trait of nature is shown in this display that is creating a great deal of interest and curiosity among the fair visitors. Winding about the two branches of gum and iron woods are large grape vines which have formed knots in several places that have apparently grown into the iron and gum woods.

Sanford has also an attractive floral exhibit and perhaps the best and largest strawberry on display at the fair are to be found in the Seminole county exhibit. The little community of Geneva is represented in this exhibit also, with a huge pressed ham and bologna that seemed to be of the real "lusty" variety.—Orlando Morning Sentinel.

THE WEATHER

The soil is in good condition except west of the Apalachicola River, where low lands are too wet, and locally in the peninsula where more rain is needed. Work was slightly delayed in some localities. Temperatures averaged much above the normal over all divisions, except the extreme north and west, where they were about the average for the season. Midday temperatures were well up in the 80's in some central and southern counties. The exceptionally mild weather and generally sufficient moisture favored germination and growth of truck, melons and early planted corn, all of which are advanced beyond the average for the season. A moderate cold wave prevailed over the section west of the Suwannee River from the 7th to the 9th, doing some damage to tender truck and killing strawberry bloom; temperature was freezing or below west of the Apalachicola river on the 7th. A marked change is noted in the progress of truck and general farm work in the region of the everglades, where the hitherto overflooded portions dried rapidly; some tomatoes, beans and peas were shipped from the Okechobee district. Oats made fair progress, but the condition is below the average. The planting of melons and cantaloupe continued locally. Citrus trees are in good condition; much premature bloom; shipments of fruit continued. Peach bloom is profuse; some fruit is one-half inch in diameter. Strawberries are abundant in the peninsula. Tobacco plants made good progress. Ranges improved, but stock are thin. Sunshine was deficient, except in the southern division.

Showers were irregularly distributed in the central division. The last days of the previous week, however, gave moderately heavy rains, and as a consequence, the need of general rains is not so urgent. Temperatures were normal or above during most of the time. Citrus trees are in splendid condition; there is much bloom-bud and bloom. The setting of citrus trees continued. Oats are fair to good in some instances, but damage from rust, as elsewhere in the peninsula, is reported. Corn planting is not general, but the work was advanced. Shipment of peas, beans, and some tomatoes were made from the Okechobee district, where truck is reported in excellent condition. Strawberries are abundant, but need rain locally; and the weather is rather warm for best development. Peaches are holding well. Melons are germinating nicely, and the early planted are making good growth. Ranges are rather poor.

His blood pressure, it was said, had been reduced to normal and his general condition was showing constant improvement.

"ROBIN HOOD"

The appearance of Miss Valentine's presentation of "Robin Hood" at the Princess, Tuesday, Feb. 20th, recalls some of the most interesting episodes in the history of the theatre. At the Chicago Opera House on June 9th, 1890, the premier of Mr. DeKoven's beautiful work was given. The story is told that the Bostonians, that admirable band of musical players, whose memory is so dear to myriads, were in severe straits when Mr. DeKoven submitted "Robin" to them for production, and that the total resources which were available for the expenses of building the production and costuming the people consisted of about four hundred dollars. So great was their faith, however, that they took the chance, and before many days had gone by "Robin Hood" was the talk of Chicago, and later the entire English speaking world. It is said that since Miss Valentine's revival, her company has sung the opera more than six hundred times.

The visit of the Californians to Sanford was brought to a close last night in one of the best appointed banquets and programs that has been carried out in the long list of achievements of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce. The dining room of the Valdez hotel never looked prettier than it did in the Florida dress of Spanish moss and the beautiful flame vine draped everywhere on pillars and on posts and over the windows and festooned from the ceiling in a manner that reminded one of the typical Florida woodlands. The tables were enhanced by big baskets of Sanford roses and other flowers and the whole scene under the softly shaded lights looked like fairyland and the visitors were charmed at the sight as they came into the dining room. The crowd was a record breaker in point of attendance and the late arrivals had a difficult time to get seats at the large room was packed and jammed and the manager of the grill, Joseph Wegman, who had charge of all the arrangements for the big banquet showed his generalship and knowledge of handling big affairs by meeting every situation with a smile and making everyone comfortable. His excellent menu was greatly enjoyed and his service was perfect and added much to the great success of the banquet. The following menu was served:

- Shrimp Cocktail
- Celery à la Sanford, Olives, Pickles
- Cream of Chicken Soup
- Broiled St. Johns River Shad, Drawn Butter Sauce
- Roast Stuffed Spring Chicken with Sugar Peas and Mashed Potatoes
- Heart of Seminoe Lettuce, Russian Dressing
- Strawberries à la Meuse
- French-Vanilla Ice Cream
- Assorted Cakes
- Demi Tasse
- Cigars
- Cigarettes

After the guests had filed into the dining room they all stood and sang America under the leadership of that veteran leader, F. C. McMahon who also announced the program of music during the evening. Dr. Brownlee gave the invocation and while the entrées were being served Mrs. Aspinwall Takach rendered a solo, followed by a duet with Mrs. W. S. Leake and Mrs. Leake also gave a solo and these two ladies were roundly cheered and they impressed the visitors with the thought that Sanford has excellent musical talent here as well as agriculture. Their accompaniments were played by Mrs. Seth Woodruff.

The group singing under Mr. McMahon put the crowd in proper mood for the balance of the program and A. P. Connelly, president of the Chamber of Commerce, introduced the following speakers who made most excellent talks and all of them breathed that Sanford spirit of hospitality that impressed the visitors with the sincerity of their welcome.

Hon. Forrest Lake, mayor of Sanford, welcomed the visitors upon behalf of the city, and the response to be made by Col. G. C. Roedding of the California party was interrupted by Judge Schelle Maines who rose and said he represented the "Caddis Association," and they had asked him to present Col. Roedding with a loving cup for aiding a ball or sinking a "put," or doing something of that sort at the Country Club yesterday afternoon that was said to be a record on the links. Judge Maines then presented the Colonel with the cup which being unwrapped proved to be an old tin can. The Colonel took the affair in his usual good humor and said:

Mr. Toastmaster, and friends of California and Florida: I am overwhelmed at the presentation of this beautiful loving cup. Yesterday at Eustis I was presented with a ponderosa lemon and today I am handed a can. I feel that if I keep on addressing these congregations as I travel through your state I will have (Continued on page 2)

BRIDGE LUNCHEON

The bridge luncheon given yesterday by the Social department of the Woman's club at the Parish house, far surpassed anything ever attempted by the Woman's club. It was perfect in every appointment and detail. There were 22 tables of players and a number of guests joined them for the bridge game.

The valentine idea prevailed in the decorations. The Parish house, which lends itself so well to the decorator's hand was indeed lovely yesterday with its decorations of vines, red roses, and myriads of red hearts. On the side were lattices entwined with vines and red roses. At either end of the large room were arches of green entwined with roses and at the top of each were baskets filled with roses. The decorating committee were Mrs. J. D. Woodruff, chairman; Mrs. Raymond Phillips, Mrs. Ed. Betts, Mrs. J. B. Coleman and Mrs. Paul Biggers.

In the receiving line were the officers of the department, Mrs. R. A. Newman, chairman; Mrs. G. D. Hart and Mrs. C. R. Kirtley.

Dainty centerpieces of red fashioned with hearts and cupids holding mints centered the luncheon tables. The place cards were red pencils tied with red ribbons fastened to which were hearts and cupids. At 1 o'clock a delicious five course luncheon was served by the members of the Sanford High School Domestic Science class, under the supervision of Miss Mary Zachary. The young ladies made a very charming appearance in their white dresses, caps and aprons. The luncheon was prepared by the lunch room committee, and was delicious.

Following the luncheon, bridge was enjoyed. The talies were large red hearts carrying out the Valentine idea. When scores were counted it was found that Miss Annie Hawkins had high score among the club members and was awarded a silver bread tray. The second high score, a hand painted mayonnaise dish and tray, was won by Mrs. Donald Smith. Mrs. Cecil Gabbett, having high score among the guests, was presented a lovely candy jar.

PARTY FOR SANFORD GIRLS

After the basketball game Saturday night the girls of the Ocala team told the Sanford girls that they were going to have a little blow-out for them at the home of Annie MacKay. They told the visitors that some of the Ocala boys would call for them as soon as they were dressed. A short while after the game was over the Sanford girls were called for at the various homes where they were stopping and escorted to the MacKay residence by some unknown boys. Imagined the surprise of the visiting girls when their escorts removed their hats and they found that they were accompanied by their opponents of a few minutes before. The Wildcats had borrowed masculine apparel and were dressed as tea hounds of the latest vintage. Some of them made much better looking boys than the actual owners of the clothes.

A very pleasant evening was spent in dancing to the victrola and piano. One special feature of the entertainment was the "Classic Victory Dance of the Wildcats." Margaret Hoeker and Marion Moffett came out of the dressing room bearing a sign announcing their dance. They were dressed from head to foot as black cats. Their faces were covered with masks painted to represent cats and bearing long broom straws as whiskers and cloth ears. Even the caudal appendages were in due form. These two talented "cats" gave a classic dance in celebration of the string of six victories that the Wildcats have hung to their belts. A course of "training table" refreshments was served so that all the athletes present could eat freely without fear of losing wind and endurance for the next game.

Although this party was slated to be strictly a hen affair the stages whose clothes attended could not resist the temptation to peep in at the windows and see how their clothes were behaving. They were caught in this humiliating position and forced to come in and partake of refreshments with the girls. Of course they hated this.—Ocala Star.

All members of the Congregational Men's Club are urgently requested to attend the meeting Thursday night at their club room in the Parsonage. Hon. Schelle Maines will be the speaker of the evening. Refreshments will be served afterwards.

BIG BEREAN BROTHERHOOD

Thirty-three members were present at the Sunday morning meeting of the Big Berean Brotherhood, the young men's Sunday school class of the First Baptist church. This is a decrease of four members over the past Sunday's record, and a decrease of 22 members over the Sunday before last, but we do not intend to stay in the downward trend by any means. We expect to hit our normal stride again next Sunday with 55 or more present.

If every member will bring one new man with him next Sunday (and 16 have already promised to do so) we will make a "touchdown" as Dr. King, our teacher says. Bring a new man—if you can't bring one, bring two.

Don't forget that the Big Berean Brotherhood welcomes all strangers and visitors in the city and extends a cordial invitation to them to visit the class and enroll if possible to do so. You will be delighted with the fine fellowship existing in the class, and also with the fine talks given by Dr. King.

Let's beat the S. M. C. next Sunday.

Death Lurks in the Drain

INTO the drain of the kitchen sink go the greasy washings from dishes, skillets and pans. Each day it grows filthier, breeding germs and bacteria. Don't wait until the drain becomes clogged. That's taking desperate chances. Make it a rule, twice a week to put into the opening two tablespoonfuls of Giant Lye and pour in very slowly a half gallon of hot water. That will keep the drain always clean and sanitary. Use Giant lavishly. Its cost is trifling.

MARRIED TUESDAY

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Harold McCormick, chairman of the board of directors of the International Harvester Company, and Ganna Walska, grand opera singer, were married yesterday at the home of Mr. McCormick's mother on Lake Shore drive.

FINE OPPORTUNITY FOR SOME MAN WITH MONEY

To Double It and at the Same Time Enrich the Treasury of Seminole County

M. M. Smith owns practically the last of the undeveloped lands in the flowing well district of Sanford. To the east practically everything is developed some five or six miles from Sanford; to the south the flowing well belt reaches only about one-half mile; to the north is Lake Monroe and the St. Johns river and to the west the acreage in the flowing well belt is limited. This acreage covers about all there is left of what is usually termed celery or flowing well lands.

Ten years ago it was said by some truckers in Sanford that no more development was needed for the reason that the markets were already glutted, and that any surplus would reduce the price to such an extent that it would be suicidal to those at that time in the business, but the development has increased many hundreds of acres since then and new markets have been found and today general prices are better for all kinds of truck grown in the Sanford celery delta than they were ten to fifteen years ago. Sanford has just commenced to grow, and the man who is far sighted enough to visualize a future Sanford can readily see the end of new development in the trucking line. The man with a few acres of land in cultivation in the Sanford celery district, will be a wealthy man a few years hence. Undeveloped lands are cheaper today than they ever will be again in this delta, and some man with money who is wise will pick up the remainder of these undeveloped lands and double and treble his money. 277-1tp

SUB-TROPICAL FAIR IS ON, ORLANDO IS CROWDED, SEMINOLE EXHIBIT FINE

Program For Today is One of the Best of the Entire Week

Following is the program for today:

Morning
10:00—Concert down town.
10:30—Concert fair grounds.

Grand Stand—The Earle Sisters, double high flying act; Joe Kiljoy, comedy tumbling act; the Ferris Wheel Girls—revolving trapeze act.

Afternoon
Judging in dog show and all departments.
1:30—Concert, Pythian band.
2:19 trot, 3 in 5, purse, $200.

The Earle Sisters, double high flyers. Joe Kiljoy, funny man in comedy works. Between heats—Ferris Wheel Girls, Revolving Trapeze Act. DePhil and DePhil, great wheel act high wire. Dellamead Troupe—posing. Pace, Florida horses, 3 in 5, purse, $200. ½ mile dash, all ages, catch weights purse $50. Johnnie J. Jones' show afternoon and night—gates open at night free.

Today is Orange county day at the 14th annual Sub-Tropical Mid-Winter fair and it is expected that attendance records will be broken since the special attractions for the day are bound to attract hundreds who have not visited the exposition the first two days.

Attendance has been better than ever, according to C. E. Howard, secretary of the fair association. The buildings which contain the exhibits have been crowded both days. Johnny J. Jones reports a new record for business on his celebrated joy plaza. All of which bear out the statement that the fair is a greater success than any of its predecessors.

Seminole county's splendid exhibit was featured yesterday and it was praised by hundreds of persons who inspected the collection of products sent to the fair from that county.

Seminole's display features the vegetables that are produced in its many truck farms, although a display of citrus and other products occupies a prominent place.

Awards were made yesterday in the live stock department and were given for publication, appearing elsewhere in today's Sentinel. The awards in the poultry department will be made today, according to Supt. S. D. Hardaway. Judging in the poultry department has been in progress since the fair opened.

The poultry show is generally conceded to be the best ever offered at the fair and it is one of the most interesting departments on the grounds to persons who are the least bit interested.

Judging in the dog show will also be a feature of today. Dr. R. C. Turner, superintendent of the show, said that the entry list is much larger than he expected and that indications are there will be widespread interest in the results of the judging.

The Central Florida Kennel Club is taking a great interest in the show and hopes to arrange for holding it under direction of the American Kennel Club next year.

DEKOVEN'S OPERETTA, FIRST PRODUCED 31 YEARS AGO, AND HOLDS OWN IN THIS JAZZ AGE

The over-sophisticated creatures of this, the jazz era of musical evolution are rather inclined to elevate the nasal appendage and sniff derisively at the romantic ditties and tra-la-las of the past generation. And yet, well, there is "Robin Hood" for instance, how that skit will bob up from time to time to plague the devotees of chimney-shaking, asthmatic syncopation and cutie exposure.

Thirty-one years have rolled away since the late Reginald DeKoven produced his masterpiece. During these 31 years the musical "sensations" announced by gifted press agents have been plentiful. But now look at 'em! Most of them died of summer complaint in me infancy. Who can ever recall what was being offered five years ago?

Only "Robin Hood" returns to remind us of the refined entertainment of ma and pa, well sung, well played, pleasantly staged. If demand for encores mean anything, the opera can still hold its own in popular responsiveness with the best of the newer musical productions. It loses nothing at the hands of those who stig, the story of the heroic outlaw.

There may be tired business men who have reached a state of exhaustion which can only be relieved by inebriated saxophones and female loveliness scantily adorned; for them the glorified vaudeville that passes for musical comedy is usually available; they need not suffer. For those who are only a little weary, for lovers of melody for melody's sake, and lovers of harmony for harmony's sake, May Valentine's presentation of "Robin Hood" can be recommended without reservation. It will be here at the Princess, Tuesday, February 20th.

FOR THE MOVIE FAN

Anita Stewart in "A Question of Honor" at the Princess tonight.

John D. Jenkins and his family are invited to see the picture, "A Question of Honor" tonight. This is one of the invitations extended to some family every day—without cost to said family.

And the big week end special comes tomorrow and Saturday.

"Clarence" is the name of this picture and every one should see it. Nothing but stars in this picture and it is bound to be good.

The late Wallace Reid, who died less than a month ago, takes the leading roll, and it will not be long before his pictures will be a thing of the past. Come out and see him.

And he is supported by such fine stars as Agnes Ayres and May McAvoy. This picture is bigger and funnier than any you have seen in a long time. "Wallace Reid jazes the flappers hearts with his moanin' saza-pline.

And, of course, in order that the program will be full and complete, Osborne has some added attractions booked for Friday and Saturday, also. It is an all round good program—you miss a big bet if you miss it.

"Robin Hood" Once More Pleases With Its Worthy Music

Gem of Light Opera Is Capably Rendered by Miss Valentine's Company

One more Montgomery had the privilege of hearing "Robin Hood" at the two performances of May Valentine's company yesterday afternoon and night and once more this gem of American light opera delighted the audience.

The DeKoven and Smith opera will always be popular. Its music is beautiful, the atmosphere is that of "Merrie England," the land of tripping milkmaids, maypole dances, and brown October ale. Miss Valentine's troupe is a capable one and did full justice to what may be called a classic of comic opera. For a generation "Robin Hood" has more than held its own ever since it was introduced in the early nineties of the last century by the famous Bostonian company. Its melodies have delighted thousands and the words to one of its songs "The Armourer's Song" have won a place in Steadman's Anthology of American Verse. It would be hard to estimate the number of American weddings at which its most popular number, "O Promise Me" has been sung. Seldom on the stage has it been so worthily rendered as it was last night by Miss Emma Jean Arnt, the "Alan-a-Dale."

It would be hard to find an opera that crowds more popular yet worthy and enduring music into a single act, than "Robin Hood" does in its second act. The scenic effects were beautiful last night when the curtain rose on the dimly lighted glades of Sherwood Forest with the jovial outlaws engaged in the pastime of bowling. First there comes the famous "Cross-Bow" song, with the basso leading. Then "Little John" rhapsodizes on the virtues of good old John Berleycorn; the six tinkers sing their catchy chorus, and the ever-popular love lyric, "O Promise Me" is rendered by "Alan-a-Dale."

This last number was the only one on which the audience was favored with an encore last night, although they called repeatedly far more on the other well-known songs. The audience was good at the matinee performance, by the way, and was a fair one at the night performance, considering the cold weather. All of which goes to show that love of good light music has not been entirely banished by the jazz craze.

Miss Valentine is not only business manager of the company, but also conducts the orchestra in a way that is highly successful. She is to be congratulated on the good company she has assembled and directs and the high class of musical entertainment that she gives the public.—Montgomery Advertiser.

Robin Hood will be at the Princess Theatre Tuesday night.

WINTER'S SEVEREST WEATHER TO REACH TO THE GULF

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Winter's severest cold wave that came down out of Alaska and the Canadian northwest yesterday, still was increasing in intensity and spreading rapidly over the upper Mississippi valley and plains states, already having embraced the northwest.

It was forecast to extend to the eastern half of the country by today, tumbling the mercury in all sections except Florida.

In the wake of the storm in the northwest, trains were reported stalled by snowdrifts and transportation and communication demoralized. The thermometer readings in that section ranged from 4 to 32 degrees below zero.

In Chicago the forecaster for the district said the cold wave would reach the eastern limits of this area, including the western lake region and the lower Ohio valley Wednesday, with the cold continuing severe until today or later.

The area of high pressure, remarkable in magnitude, last night had extended across the upper Mississippi valley to central Wisconsin and the reading as low as 15 to 25 degrees below zero were registered.

The crest of the cold wave was forecast to reach Chicago today, sending the mercury down to 10 below zero. Early yesterday the thermometer stood at six above, a drop of 28 degrees in 14 hours.

Cold weather was promised to the east gulf states, excepting Florida, for the next two days. Temperatures in Georgia began falling early yesterday. Drops of 20 degrees or more were forecast for Arkansas, Texas, and colder temperatures in Mississippi and Louisiana.

The cold wave was to reach Texas last night, 21 years ago to the day when the coldest chronological weather in Texas was recorded. The mercury at that time fell to 20 below.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 15.—All the east gulf states, with the exception of Florida, were promised much colder weather for the next two days in the weather forecast. A slight drop in temperature was noted early yesterday.

The cold wave of the northwest will sweep eastward, according to the weather warnings issued, though it was not predicted that the Atlantic States south of Virginia would experience very severe weather.

Rain is predicted as likely in the south Atlantic and east gulf states Thursday.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Armour and company preferred shares dropped $7 in value today to $80 with trading in the stock the most active ever known.

Selling of the shares was influenced by announcement that the control of J. Ogden Armour's interest in the packing company had been transferred to bankers for a period of five years.

This brought the price down to the lowest level touched by the stock last year. After 3,300 shares had been sold the market rallied and at noon Armour preferred was commanding $88.

Grapefruit Sent From Orlando to Philippine Isles

Philippine Fruit Growers Start Two Carloads on Way to Manila.

A new market for Florida grapefruit and two carloads started off on their way to approximately seven thousand miles to their destination.

The situation created by the departure yesterday of two cars of grapefruit by the American Fruit Growers, Inc., in Manila, Philippine Islands, and the two cars were loaded yesterday and are now on their way to their far away destination.

According to officers of the American Fruit Growers, Inc., this is not an experimental transaction in an effort to open new markets but is an important sale of the two cars of grapefruit in question at very satisfactory prices to one of the largest handlers of produce in the Philippines and adjacent portions of the Orient.

The grapefruit selected for this purpose was chosen most particularly for its keeping quality. It was shipped from the packing house at Auburndale of the Sloan Fruit Company of Tampa, whose sales are handled exclusively by the American Fruit Growers, Inc. Arrangements for transportation were dictated by the shipper. The fruit will travel over Florida over the southern route to Seattle, thus traversing the state of California through its entire length. It moved under full refrigeration. From Seattle it will travel on one of the great trans-Pacific liners for refrigeration for its Pacific voyage. The combined rail and water distance which this grapefruit must travel is something more than seven thousand miles.—Orlando Sentinel.

Two Bodies Taken From Lake Were Not Daniel and Richard

But K. K. K. Propaganda, Says Walsley, on Hearing That Mer Rouge Men Alive.

DAHO FALLS, Idaho, Feb. 14.—Two bodies found in Lake LaFourche, near Bastrop, La., were placed there by medical students from a New Orleans college and were not those of Watt Daniel and Thomas E. Richard, as claimed, according to Dr. Lew Berger, of New York, who is spokesman at an open meeting of the local chapter of the Ku Klux Klan here last night.

Daniel and Richard are alive and at New Orleans where they are under daily observation by the Klan members," Mr. Berger said. He was introduced as "official spokesman of the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

Berger declared Daniel and Richard would be produced when the probate grand jury convened to consider the findings of the recent hearing into Klan activities in Morehouse parish.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 14.—"It is ridiculous," said T. Semmes Walsley, assistant attorney general of Louisiana, last night, when informed by Dr. Lew Berger, at an open meeting of the Idaho Falls, Idaho, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan had declared that Watt Daniel and Thomas F. Richard were alive and in New Orleans.

Mr. Walsley took an active part in the investigation of the kidnapping of Daniel and Richard in Morehouse parish last August and was personally in charge of the two bodies found in Lake LaFourche in December which were identified as those of missing men.

"It is ridiculous," said Mr. Walsley, "the statement is nothing but Ku Klux Klan propaganda and we can expect to hear it from all points of the compass. The bodies of both men were conclusively identified by relatives and friends."

Vermont is Active in Road Beautification

Clermont, beautifully located little town of Lake county, is soon to have a new automobile highway—a beautiful scenic route from Tavares to Tampa. The road is practically all built now, and will be opened in the next spring.

Preparatory to the opening of the new highway, Clermont and neighboring towns in Lake county are actively engaged in plans for beautifying the new road and arrangements are being made to engage the services of an expert to supervise the work. Inasmuch as the course of the new highway is through a section of wonderful scenic beauty—revealing lakes and hills previously almost unknown, there is no doubt but that the Clermont-Tampa route (via Auburndale) is going to be of great interest to all motorists.

An interesting Road Beautification meeting was recently held at the "Log Cabin" and the Clermont Chamber of Commerce, under Secretary H. C. Brown, is planning a more extensive beautification meeting in the near future.

Farmers' Union Will Support Bill on Commission Men

And Bill Designed to Prohibit Inferior Substance As Fertilizer.

(By The Associated Press)

POMONA, Fla., Feb. 14.—The Farmers Union of Florida, is thoroughly in support of a measure to regulate commission merchants and one designed to prohibit the use of inferior substances as fertilizer fillers, which Representative C. H. Kennerly of Putnam county proposes to introduce in the next legislature, according to a statement made to the Associated Press here today by J. L. Shepard, president of the union.

It was at Mr. Shepard's request that Mr. Kennerly attended a meeting of the Farmers' Union in Gainesville last October and explained the proposed measures. Mr. Shepard's statement said, and both measures were studied carefully and unanimously endorsed by the union. "In fact," the statement continued, "it was the sense of the meeting that the Farmers Union do everything in their power to secure the passage of both these bills, for we realized that these two bills meant more to the farmers of Florida than any two bills that had ever been offered to the Florida legislature.

"I hope that the farmers of Florida and in fact, everyone who has the interest of Florida at heart, will do what they can to secure the passage of these two bills, as there is not a poultry raiser, cattle raiser, citrus grower, truck farmer, in fact a man in the state of Florida, who is dependent upon the soil to make his living, that will not be vitally affected because any legislation that helps the grower in Florida, helps everyone in the state, and it is to the interest of everyone to see that these bills become a law."

FLORIDA AGAIN TO ESCAPE COLD WAVE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The cold wave of the northwest will sweep eastward during the next few days with much colder weather prevailing in all sections east of the Mississippi except the Florida peninsula, the weather bureau predicted last night.

Cold wave warnings have been ordered for Ohio, western and central New York, eastern Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky and Western Tennessee. Snow was forecast for tomorrow in the upper Ohio valley, the lower lake region and the Atlantic States north of Virginia, while it was said rain was probable in the south Atlantic and East Gulf states Thursday.

THE UNWRITTEN LAW IN THE NORTH

Many a northern newspaper has bitterly condemned the South for pleading the "unwritten law" in cases of killings under certain provocations, and it has been charged that this is due both to the South's disregard for law and its propensity for mob law principles. But it depends on circumstances which when they are the same in the north, mean the same impulse, and the same reliance on unwritten law. Indeed, in certain classes of cases the average man never thinks of the law, written or "unwritten," when he goes after the one who has deserved death at his hands.

In the New York Times of last Friday is a story of acquittal under the "unwritten law," and congratulation by the judge on the bench for the verdict brought in by the jury. A father killed a janitor for having criminally assaulted his 7-year-old daughter, killed him with an axe, and pleaded the "unwritten law." It took the jury less than twenty minutes to reach a verdict of "not guilty," whereupon Judge J. Franklin Taylor brought the case to a most wonderfully unexpected climax.

When the foreman of the jury announced the verdict, Judge Taylor said: "Gentlemen, that is a just verdict. Let me tell you of another case that occurred about a year ago, in which the father did not take the law into his own hands. Instead, he went to the police and told them that his 7-year-old daughter had been abused by a man who had enticed her into the rear of a store. The police told this father that he could not get a conviction on the mere story of the girl. They told him it was necessary to catch their man in the act.

"The father finally agreed to have the daughter meet this man again in the rear of the same store, where two policemen had been 'planted' and these policemen saw everything that occurred and then placed the man under arrest. He was later placed on trial and acquitted.

"You can see, gentlemen, that sometimes when the police are called into a case of this kind the defendant is allowed to go free.

"Three officials of the district attorney's office, whose names I am not at liberty to mention, told me they would have been crazed under similar circumstances, and the two Supreme Court Justices also said that they too would have been crazed by an experience of that kind.

Without a doubt, the failure of the law to convict in such cases as the one recited by Judge Taylor, of the King's county court, New York, is the reason why the "unwritten" law has cases as a plea of self-defense in cases of homicide.

The weight of the law must crush down uncertainty of punishment; and until it does, there will always be the "unwritten" law to be appealed to and to be relied on in the matter of such crimes.

We Southerners are not the only people whose blood runs hot when crime and inhumanity has laid its hand on childhood or womanhood.—Tampa Tribune.
