Braves End Losing Streak By Beating Cubs In Nightcap

CHICAGO, June 15. (AP)—The Boston Braves ended a 12-game losing streak yesterday when they defeated the Cubs, 10 to 1, in the second game of a double-header. They lost the opener, 4 to 1.

The Cubs walloped four Brave pitchers for 15 hits in the first game. The victims included Jim Tobin, Emanuel Baer, Willie Demaree and Dick Erickson. It was the Cubs fifth consecutive triumph.

The Braves knocked Bill Lee out in the third inning while scoring five runs, but the Cubs came from behind to win when Bill Nicholson drove in three of the Cub runs with a single, triple and his sixth homer of the season.

Yanks Cop 2 From Browns, 6-1, 5-4

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP)—The New York Yankees turned back the St. Louis Browns in both ends of a double-header, 6-1 and 5-4, Sunday. Johnny Niggeling scored Joe Gordon's batting streak in the nightcap after the Yankee second baseman got hit safely in 25 consecutive games.

Charley (Red) Ruffing tossed a five-hitter in the opener for his seventh triumph of the season and Ernie Bonham chalked up his ninth win in the second game, although he yielded ten hits and had to have the help of a three-run rally which brought the Yanks from behind in the eighth.

Braves Of Boston Are Shooting For Home Run Crown

By BILL BRANDT
NEW YORK, June 15. (Special)—The Boston Braves entered June with a bright chance for a record never reached by Braves, Doves, Bees, or any Boston National League entrant of this century—the home run championship.

George Stallings' Braves of 1914—the greatest Braves to date—surged from last place as of July 19 to the pennant and the world championship in 4 straight games. Casey Stengel's Braves' chances to beat that are slim. But the homer crown? It's right there for them. And even the '14 Braves couldn't win that.

Old Casey's Braves headed West for their June trip with 35 home runs racked up, leading their nearest rivals in the round-trip department by exactly a half-dozen. The Giants had 29, Reds 28.

A home run championship for Boston will set a 20th century record. Maybe an all-time Boston National League record, but that's hard to establish, because home runs didn't figure important enough to be listed in league records in the 90's, when Hugh Duffy hit 438 and Frank Seale's Boston as a team won five pennants in eight years. Not back in 1877 and 1878, when Harry Wright of the original Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869, was manager of two Boston pennant teams and his brother George, the superstar of ancient baseball, was his shortstop.

This year the remarkable Braves are shooting the works. Their battery of Jim Tobin and Ernie Lombardi, all by themselves, personally accounted for 11 of the 35 accrued by the Hub Tribe up to June. Last year the Braves all season tallied 68 and ranked last in the league.

There's part of the answer to the way the wild Braves are playing. Watch them swinging for the ramparts instead of bunting their runs around the bases.

Over the Memorial Day week and four homers sprouted from the bat of Max West, siege-gun No. 1 of the Braves, old-time National League hero of the 1940 All-Star Game with his homer that beat the American League in St. Louis. The "Big M" had a dozen for his entire 1941 season. His holiday splurge hints that in the Braves drive for high-percentage rating in the entire loop, West will be a prime factor.

In picking up power, percentage and prestige this Spring, the Braves also picked up a pestilence. Namely, a Brooklyn jinx. The champion Dodgers went west holding an edge over every rival club except the St. Louis Cardinals. The edge was wafer thin over the Giants but over Boston—eight to 0! Eight times Dodgers and Braves have met. Eight times Dodgers have won the game. And, stepping on the turf for their first western game, the Braves were exactly eight games behind Brooklyn in the standing of clubs!

What are the wild Braves saying? "Come on, gang, let's get those homers in Brooklyn!"

Large Gallery For Golf Tourney Seen

CHICAGO, June 15. (AP)—The largest galleries in golf history are expected to stream over the Ridgemoor course this week during the Hale America Tournament.

Howard Davis, Ridgemoor's pro, Sunday estimated a turnout of 50,000 spectators for the four-day meet which starts Thursday. With admission tickets being grabbed for $4 apiece, the wartime national open may produce almost $200,000 for navy relief and United Service Organizations.

The field consists of 102 professionals and amateurs, 25 of whom were exempt from qualifying. If the winner comes from the non-exempt group, he will have played 162 holes—the toughest golfing grind in history. The total includes five rounds of qualifying trials plus the tournament's 72 holes of medal play.

Uncle Sam has far more

POWER

for War Production

than all these three together!

Adolf, Hirohito and Benito probably aren't sleeping well these nights. They know that America's great and growing war production must inevitably turn the tide against them.

America can do it because America has the electric power to do it. Electric power is basic to production. Electric power multiplies man-power and drives the machines that make tanks, planes, ships and guns.

How much power has America? More than the three dictators and all their conquered countries combined—Albania, Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria and the rest of the long, tragic list. Five times more than we had in the last war.

No other nation even approaches America's power resources. And this has largely been accomplished the American way—by electric companies owned by millions of Americans and managed by American business men.

The practical experience, the people and the plants of all these companies are dedicated today to making Uncle Sam so power-full that Axis aggressors will soon be nothing more than three busts in the Hall of Infamy!

Japanese Make 25 Mile Gain In China Province

Chinese Urge Major Attack By United Nations On Japan; Allies Spike Raid

(By Associated Press) The Japanese penetrated Kiangsi province in China 25 miles today as the Chinese urged a major Pacific attack on Japan.

Allied airmen today spiked the third attempt in 3 days by the Japs to raid Darwin, Australia.

Two powerful Japanese columns, applying a nut-cracker movement, the ill-equipped Chinese troops in Chekiang and Kiangsi Provinces, had driven last night to within 75 or 100 miles of a junction on the vital Nanchang-Hankow Railway.

One column of perhaps 60,000 men, which overran Northern Chekiang Province south of Shanghai last month, has made steady progress into bordering Kiangsi Province, a Chinese communique acknowledged.

Heavy fighting is in progress on the Chekiang-Kiangsi border in the area south of Kiangshian southwest of Yushan, and at the outskirts of Kwangtung, the communique said. Street fighting, in which both sides suffered heavy casualties, was said to be raging within Kwangtung, which the Japanese entered Saturday night.

Another column believed to be about equal strength had driven southeast from Nanchang, Japan's Kiangsi base, at least as far as Tengpo, 100 miles from Nanchang, and about the same distance from Kwangtung.

12 Year Old Lake Monroe Girl Writes Prize Winning Essay On "Democracy"

"Democracy—A Safeguard of Civilization," that is the title of an essay entered in the 12th contest and written by a 12 year old girl, Dorothy Price, of Lake Monroe.

This essay was first prize ($250 in defense stamps) at the Lake Monroe School contest, and much praise has been given the article both from Ellis and other "grown-ups" who read it.

"America has done more than any other nation in the past to make this a better world."

"We probably have the highest standard of living than anyone else. With one hour of wages an American factory worker can buy four times as much food and clothing as a German worker, five times as much as an Italian worker, and ten times as much as a Russian laborer."

Suggestion Is Made To Flash Lights As Signals For Blackout

A seemingly pertinent suggestion concerning a method of signaling in regard to blackouts has been received by the editor of The Herald from Irving Feinberg.

Feinberg suggested that the flashing of lights by the power plant should be used in conjunction with sirens to help inform the public of blackouts.

"I have no criticism to make regarding the present air-raid warning and blackout set-up as it is operated here in Sanford, but I do feel I have a suggestion which would clear up a lot of difficulties encountered at the present time with inhabitants on the outskirts of town being unable to hear the warning sirens when their radio, fan, or other electrical noise-makers are in operation."

Irate Fan Cools Off As Ump Beans Him With Mask

By ROMNEY WHEELER
ATLANTA, June 16, (AP)—When an irate fan jumped Umpire George Murray after a Piedmont League game, the umpire cooled him off with a wallon from his mask... which ought to convince anyone the trend from defense toward offense... Army and Navy fighters now may appear only in service relief bouts, suggesting that some crutchlike manager shortly will need a little relief on their own... Five duck games, planned by the Brooklyn Dodgers, will be scanty, possibly, the regular league having been in the dark all along on how to beat them.

Minute meditation: If Harry Stryke, manager of the Charlotte Hornets, can do as much with as little in the big tent, you may rewrite that title soon to read: "Mr. Stryke goes to Washington."
Cuff stuff: After watching the Knoxville Smokies lose an incredible number of Southern league games, philosopher Tom Andrus of the Knoxville Journal passes to propound a burning mystery of the diamond: "What happens to good ball players when they put on a Knoxville uniform?" He says he doesn't know, either.

"Serious injury strikes Alab." says a headline... not to mention what's happened to a lot of better lately mentioned Nashville a competitor in a high school football tournament finished 88 broiling holes and remarked: "I'd like to go out and play some football now." Another high school football player, who was struck on the first line and dropped out... "I didn't come to the tourney to play golf," he replied. "I-I-I... I didn't come over here to shoot go 45."

Cubs' Passeau Stops Dodgers With 5 Hits

BROOKLYN, June 16, (AP)—Claude Passeau blanked the Dodgers with five hits last night to pitch the Chicago Cubs to a 6 to 0 victory over the league leader in a twilight game. It was Passeau's tenth win of the year, his eighth in a row.
Not a single Dodger got beyond second base and only two reached that point as Passeau, facing the 1941 pennant winners for the first time this year, handcuffed them completely from start to finish, leaving 15,189 fans leached with gloom. The husky righthander retired the first 18 men to face him in order.

Grid War Is On To Get Service Of High School Star

By RAY BLOSSER
CLEVELAND, June 16, (WW)—Yes, there's a war on for the football services of "Touchdown Tommy" Phillips. At the last count, 42 universities or colleges were engaged in an undignified scramble for Ohio's No. 1 high school star.

The coaches, athletic directors and influential alumni have been looking for months around the 17-year-old high school senior whose career sounds like a chapter lifted from Frank Merriwell's amazing exploits.
Francis Leahy, athletic director-head coach of Notre Dame, has been among the visitors to Phillips' home. The dizzy whirl has included almost numberless invitations since last fall and the sensational passing tailback has found time to accept some.
He went to the University of North Carolina to see the Rose Bowl game. He went to Tennessee to look over the Vols' campus. He has been to Notre Dame several times, and to Columbus to view Ohio State. He was asked to fly down to Vanderbilt to enjoy southern hospitality again, but couldn't spare the time from his after-school work at a gasoline station.

No, he didn't pay for the trips. Perhaps they just forgot, but only one of the official or unofficial representatives from the 42 schools of higher learning (and football playing mentioned) might be necessary to hold down a college job to help with expenses. His reputation is so great that only four small Ohio schools have tried to interest him. They know he's big game.

Last fall he tossed 21 touchdown passes in eight games, scored seven more himself and booted 14 extra points for placement.
He threw five scoring passes against one, four against two, and three against three in seven games and tied its other start.
He also calls signals, and plays basketball.
The tie game is a story in itself. Lawson-d high school held a 20-0 lead late in the third period when the 185-pound triple-threat went into action. He hurled two touchdown passes, sprinted across with the third marker and kicked two extra points for the thrilling tie.
Rated Ohio's best scholastic passer in a decade, he was named captain of The Associated Press all-Ohio selected by ballot of officials, coaches and sports writers, and recognized as official by the Ohio High School coaches' association.

Tom weighs 185 pounds and is five feet 10 inches tall. He is stocky with tremendous power which saw him occasionally on playing from the fullback spot, but usually as a tailback. And he's serene through the entire trying routine.
"HAVE FACE" IN GOLF
CHICAGO, Ill., June 16, (Special)—To "have face" for golf balls during the wartime emergency something may have to be done about the blade-like edge on your favorite niblick.
L. E. Heely, president of a Sporting Goods Company, suggested golfers could have their pro blunt or round the edge of their niblicks as means of conserving golf balls for rebuilding. The edge of the average niblick, he pointed out, is sharp enough to carry a resoling crease with each misdirected swing at the ball. That is, if the club hits the ball at all. There's a reason for the niblick blade, he said, but it isn't "meat chopping."

Fernandez Gets Position On All Star Rookie Team

By DILON GRAHAM
NEW YORK, June 16, (WW)—Now that the major league races have passed the quarter-pole, let's have a call-over on the rookie performers.
The Dodgers, with batting champion Pete Reiser, and the Yankees, with flashy shortstop Phil Rizzuto, boasted the rookie-of-the-year in the two major leagues last year. And this year almost every club has a fairly strong candidate for top honors.
Early in June Catcher Ray Lamanno of the Reds in the National League and Shortstop Johnny Pesky of the Red Sox and First Baseman Les Fleming of the Indians in the American League were the 25 first-year men at bat. Young Ed Head of the Dodgers led the twirlers.
On the basis of the first ten months play, here is this year's idea of an all-star major league rookie team:

- First Base—Les Fleming, Cleveland
- Second Base—Len Merullo, Chicago Cubs
- Boston Red Sox
- Third Base—Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinals
- Outfield—Willard Marshall, New York Giants
- Catcher—Ray Lamanno, Cincinnati
- Pitcher—Ed Head, Brooklyn
- Pitcher—Early Wynn, Washington
- Merullo is a shortstop but is more to the other side of the keyhole sack because there are no rookie second basemen, although Washington is playing a shortstop, Bobby Repass, there temporarily. There might be an argument at shortstop, for both Pesky and Vernon Stephens of the Browns are fine fielders and while Pesky is outbitting Stephens, the latter has driver in more runs. The same situation applies at third base where Lou Blair of the A's has knocked in more counts than Fernandez, who boasts the bigger batting average.

U.S. Bombers Score 35 Direct Hits On 2 Italian Battleships

Enemy Cruiser and Destroyer Are Hit In Mediterranean; No Planes Are Lost

(By Associated Press) United States Army Liberators (Consolidated) bombers today are credited with scoring 35 direct bomb hits on two Italian battleships in operations with the RAF in the central Mediterranean. The commander said it was like "shooting fish in a barrel."

Officers reported all planes came back safely.

One Fascist battleship was hit by a direct hit on the mainmast. The other was set afire and a destroyer damaged.

Meanwhile, British convoys attacked Malta and Tobruk escorted by RAF and United States forces, despite Italian sinking claims.

The British broke Axis attacks at El Adem and Acroma, the north key to the stronghold of Tobruk and began the defense of El Adem in the same sector.

The Nazi high command broadcast that Field Marshal Rommel had won the battle of North Africa, but the vital Tobruk stronghold, which Hitler had ordered captured at all costs, remained firmly in British hands.

The German announcement seemed to verify the British contention that the battle of attention had so far favored the enemy's striking power that he now must be held back before he can strike.

Supply trains were moving a steady stream of fresh tanks, guns and men to Tobruk. Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's army seemed to match the enemy's movements, which had surprised the severe punishment of the six-pound anti-tank shells.

Fighting in the desert, the famed British 25-pound howitzers.

The very ferocity of the air-sea battle in the adjoining Mediterranean was indicated that the British had determined to move supplies to Tobruk to reinforce their desert army.

Thousands See Sub Torpedo 2 American Ships

NORFOLK, Va., June 17, (AP)—An enemy submarine torpedoed two large American merchant ships Monday within view of thousands of persons at a Virginia beach resort who stared seaward spellbound as bombing planes, a navy blimp and a half dozen naval ships roared over the area in search of the daring undersea attacker.

After dropping bombs and depth charges that sent huge gyres of water skyward.

The Navy had no comment as to the fate of the submarine in announcing the twin attack Tuesday. Only one man was killed in the torpedoings, which occurred about 30 minutes apart. He was Robin Rowland of Philadelphia, second assistant engineer aboard one of the ships. There were 45 in the crew of the vessel and 45 in the crew of the other.

The first ship attacked remained afloat until late last night and the other was towed into port. Soldiers, sailors and coast guardsmen cleared the resort beach for a stretch of 100 yards in front of a coast guard station and held back the crowds as a surf boat brought ashore three enemy lifeboats and the body of Rowland, which was found floating about a half mile from his ship. His shipmates believed he was buried aboard by the explosion of the torpedo.

A beachhead built up over the threat of bathers and pleasure seekers as Rowland's body, covered with oil, was removed from the surf and carried to the coast guard station.

Every Filling Station In City Takes In Rubber

Canvass Of City By Boy Scouts Nets More Than 2 Tons

(By Associated Press) Prime Minister John Curtin warned today "Australia can be lost" and he declared the war news is not good.

The fall of the down-under continent could lay Hawaii and the whole North American coast open to Japanese attack.

Chinese dispatches report today that a large Kuo-Sheng force, comprising the Yangtze River port of Hanchow, the Hoehow province, shipping center, and three divisions, has been driven into a full retreat.

While many farmers have operated in the drive, Mr. Hughes urged others to bring in as much as possible on their own and a truck will be sent to pick up the material.
