North Korean Capital Is Hit By Air Strike

Devastating Bombing Leaves Pyongyang Industrial Centers In Flames, Rubble

SEoul, N. C. — Hundreds of Allied airplanes today smashed North Korea's capital and two other prime military targets in one of the mightiest air blows of the Korean War. Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, was left in roaring flames and rubble before bad weather blotted out the target and spared it from a further ordeal of fire and bombs.

A thunderous followup to the Yalu River power plant raid on June 23 designed to exert greater military pressure on the balky Communist armistice negotiators. But bad weather kept the raid from reaching the proportions of that one. The Air Force said there were 1,048 sorties (individual flights) compared with 1,373 on June 23.

Estimates of the number of planes involved ranged from 500 to 1,000. Pilots of five Allied nations took part in the big blow. United Nations pilots reported they destroyed or damaged the Communist army communications headquarters, three munitions factories and numerous other factories and supply and troop centers in Pyongyang, the capital.

Seminole County Is Lagging Behind In Blood Donations

Seminole County lags far behind its quota for this year in the national Armed Forces Blood Drive. Sen. Gates Kefauver of Tennessee said it gave "wastebasket treatment" to labor's proposals and made the American worker "the forgotten man."

Mr. McCaslin's appointment was confirmed, and he will be in charge of the drive among colored citizens.

VETERANS' ADVISOR

Tom Deen, advisor in veterans affairs will be at the office of L. F. Boyle Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock to confer with veterans and dependents, and at Geneva at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon. He will arrive at the Valdez Hotel Tuesday evening.

Warns Of Disunity

SENATOR Styles Bridges, of New Hampshire, addressing delegates to the GOP Convention in Chicago, warns that bitterness between Taft and Eisenhower backers will bring defeat to the party in November. He called for unity and harmony. (International)

Tension Drops As Threat Of Strike Eases

Officials Are Elated Over Probability That Planes Will Continue To Flow

WASHINGTON — Defense officials breathed easier today following agreement between the North American Aviation Co. and CIO Auto Workers on a plan to end a wage dispute which threatened to halt production of all F-86 Sabre jets—nemesis of the Russian MIG-15.

Demo Aspirants Launch Attacks On GOP Platform

By The Associated Press
Two Democratic aspirants to the presidency have begun their attacks on the 1952 Republican platform. Averell Harriman, the mutual security administrator, called it "one of the most unconvincing documents of a long time."

Christianity demands, and the world needs, a practical, universal dedication to the teachings of Christ Jesus. This fact will be emphasized at all Christian Science services next Sunday. Subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Sacrament."
Verses from Psalms furnish the Golden Text: "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord" (Psalms 116: 13, 14).

Selections from the Bible include James' charge to Peter: "Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep" (John 21: 16).

Correlative citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy includes those who are willing to leave their name or to send them on the right side for Truth, have the opportunity now, as a lifetime, to learn and to practice Christian healing." (p. 871).

Supper Is Planned
By Tourist Club

The Sanford Tourist and Shuttleboard Club has designated Monday and Friday nights as game nights. Next Tuesday night at 6:00 o'clock, members will enjoy a covered dish supper at the new Tourist Recreation Building, according to F. Hasky Wright, publicity chairman.
Residents, and especially new current residents, are invited to attend these events, enjoy games of shuffleboard, checkers, chess and cards, and enjoy the facilities provided in the new recreation building.
Average attendance during the summer months has been 25 to 40 persons, said Mrs. William H. LaFetra, club secretary.
For the covered dish supper, members are reminded to bring covered dishes, sandwiches and their own table service, the decorated.

De Bary Doings
By KAY HENNINGER

If you enjoyed the picnic last month to Sandlot Springs of the Delta Democratic Club, you will be glad to know that the same group is planning another picnic together on July 20 at Daytona Beach. It has been suggested that all who wish to go, get there by about 1:00 o'clock so that we may have our supper, together. Those who wish to bring their own picnick should bring their own. Everybody is welcome to join the party.
Speaking of picnics, if you missed the Fourth of July picnic of the residents of Christberger Manor and some of our De Bary friends, you really missed something. No amount of rain could dampen the spirit that prevailed. The traditional picnic fare was served—hot dogs, sauerkraut, beer, coffee and cake, and exceptionally good ones at that.
One small group left this party to attend another on Green Lake at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Michaels where swimming, music and Canada was the order of the day. The guests at this party were Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Holman and the Misses Henninger.
Seven couples celebrated the birthday of Mrs. William Munroe on the Fourth, with a picnic.
Mrs. June Cowan, her sons, Jack and Tom and her daughter, Jo, spent the Fourth with the family of Long Island, New York and Mrs. Florence Schmeling of Chicago were weekend guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Howard White of Granada Road.
Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bonds enjoyed two weeks with their children in Pompano, N. Y.
After seven weeks spent with their family in Connecticut and New Jersey, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Blackwell returned to De Bary, bringing with them their daughter, Mrs. A. G. Wilson of Whippany, N. J. and their grand daughter, Mary Lee Blackwell of South Westmore, Conn. who plan to stay until the end of July. Their trip home was enhanced by a most enjoyable visit to Williamsburg, Va.
Mr. and Mrs. John Rice spent two weeks with relatives and friends in Syracuse, N. Y. and attended the graduation exercises of their grandchild, and a niece, Friends of theirs, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Kalyan, also of Syracuse, where Mr. Kalyan is a police captain, cross down with them and had lunch at the Seafront Inn. We are glad to welcome them as our neighbors.
We hear from Clara and Alvin Bobbio that they are enjoying a pleasant and quiet vacation in the Bahamas in Port Antonio.
Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas J. Scop have returned from six weeks spent with relatives and friends in the North on their way South. They called on the Georges and the Taylors, Betty's family.
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gable of Royal Oaks, Mich., who are building their home on Lake Monroe, are now living in the Germaine apartment.
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Preston, formerly residents of Hartsdale, N. Y., have moved into their new home.
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lindsay of Alicante Road have as their guests their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Clark Jr. of Syracuse, N. Y.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Withers returned this week from a vacation in the North and Mrs. Willam Decker, who had been visiting her family in Troy, N. Y., drove down with them.
Mr. S. N. Groves is now in New York where she will meet her husband when his ship docks.
When Mrs. Ed. Kircher recently preached a sermon in the Methodist Church of Sanford, a number of De Bary friends were there to hear her. Her husband, The Rev. Ed. Kircher was transferred to the Pine Castle Methodist Church from the Enterprise church.

The much publicized Chief "Poppy" Haynes of NAAS has left the station for ten days leave. It was Chief Haynes wife, Mabel, that made the news a short time ago by landing a 10 1/2 pound bass with a bamboo pole and a breath-hold. "Poppy" says he is going to spend the money to leave again around his home in Orange, fishing something but fishing. It seems he won't feel himself again until he catches a larger fish than that of his wife's. We wish you luck, "Poppy", but the latest tin tin is that bass 10 1/2 pounds and up are rather scarce these days.
The people in the station administration building were bidding farewell to Mrs. Pauline Kwasnik today. Pauline has been in the Civilian Personnel Office as a civil services worker since the re-organization of the station, she left the base today and will leave Sanford tomorrow to join her husband, who has a law practice in Tampa. While in Sanford, Pauline lived with her mother at 1120 West First Street. We're happy to see you get the chance to be with your husband, Pauline, but we're sad to see you leave Sanford. Hoping you'll be back in a couple of months. Let us know when you get to see you once in awhile.
It is said that June is the month of roses, but it seems cupid has a never-ending supply of arrows to shoot from his tiny bow. A couple of them found their marks last month in the hearts of two men here aboard the station.
Bill Anderson of NAAS posed the question to Miss Jean Trigg of Lakeland. The answer was "yes" and the newly engaged couple have made tentative wedding plans for September.
FABRON'S Richie Salante is beginning waiting for the inevitable leave that will take him to New Orleans and to a marriage ceremony. The date is set for the 25th and many of Richie's friends, also from New Orleans, are planning to make the weekend trip to attend the wedding.
Robert E. Jarvis and Everett L. Burrows left the station and the city of Sanford today. Jarvis was released to inactive duty in the naval reserve and will be returning to Mobile, Ala. as a civilian while Burrows is under orders to report to Norfolk for assignment to sea duty.
Verl Warner and George "Red" Gallagher will be leaving Sanford tomorrow in different directions today to spend leaves at home with their families and friends. Verl is heading cross country to his home in Abilene, Tex. while "Red" will be making the long journey north to Strongsville, O.
Donny Duff tonight is the night for square dancing. All for fun and fun for all. The time: Sanford Navy Center. The time: 8:00 p.m. The occasion: Square dancing with calling by Jimmy Gearing. The admission: Free. See you all there tonight!

Wibur People Likes To Yell
So He Yells For All Of Them

(Editor's note: Wibur Peeble, America's most average guy, has gotten himself into serious trouble while attending the Republican National Convention. He tells about it himself in his letter to his faithful wife.)
By HAL BOYLE
CHICAGO (S)—Well, Trellis Mae, I just hope you can realize the spot I've got myself in by marching for Taft. Eisenhower, Warren and MacArthur.
I have overnight become the overnight all-American Republican and I have had to take down a movement among the stockyard boys to name me for President.
Here's how it happened, honey, and that blonde who held my hand while the television camera was pointed our way was just joking—she said. Anyway, I didn't see her later.
Well, dear, I didn't have a pass to get into Convention Hall, and naturally, after a week of my duty here I wanted to see what was going on.
I was standing at the entrance to the hall when a fellow came up to me and said, "How about carrying this banner into the hall."
"Why, sure," I said. And for 40 odd minutes I muscled that sign saying "Win with Taft."
Well, honey, I was just as they were about to throw me out of the hall, an elderly man with a California accent thrust a "Win with Warren" sign in my hand, and said: "Carry on for a great Republican Democrat."
That was when I got hit by one of the circling paper saucers they were throwing up for fun. Of course, the saucer that hit me had to have to have state hot dog covered with mustard on it.
Honey, there is no way you can take mustard off a suit here for less than $25.00—and a letter of gratitude to the valet. There is no charge for that black eye.
Well, Trellis Mae, then they started the Eisenhower demonstration, and the lady in front of me tossed away her Warren sign and said: "If you can't carry for Ike you're yellow."
So I grabbed the sign and followed her gamely around until she started talking to a widower from South Dakota—or was it North Vermont Democrat?
It became such a madhouse, Trellis Mae, that when they nominated Stassen I jumped up and grabbed a sign. Then somebody said, "We can't carry for Stassen now. This isn't 1948."
Well, honey, the convention was killing time, and finally an old man from Oklahoma got up and nominated Gen. MacArthur, and said of him that he had "a name that will not die, and will not fade away."
The funny thing about the next 35 minutes of madness, Trellis Mae, is that everybody joined in it. It was late at night and the delegates were starting to drift. I don't think they were politically for MacArthur at all. But he was a symbol—like the American

Jobless Benefits
TALLAHASSEE — Due to seasonal layoffs in the citrus industry approaching mid-summer peak, the monthly report of Director W. U. Norwood, Jr., of the Unemployment Compensation Division to Raymond E. Barnes, Chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission, shows an increase of $74,044 in unemployment compensation payments in June over May. This is a 17 percent increase, or specifically, $623,609 in June as matched against $549,565 in May.

The number of unemployed persons reported on an estimated 10,100 last month to around 18,400 in June; an increase of 23 percent.
The initial claims rose from 10,419 to 12,277, while continued claims went up 6 percent from 40,046 in May to 42,928 in June.
The report showed considerable decrease in pay roll tax contributions from $1,407,451.56 to $1,070,704.11.
The present balance in the unemployment trust fund is $60,750,822.78, a drop from $61,155,015.90 last month due to seasonal layoffs as indicated above.

MUNICH, Germany (Special)—Cpl. Roosevelt Wright, Sanford, recently graduated from the U. S. Army's Non-Commissioned Officers Academy at Munich, Germany.
Corporal Wright, an 81-mm. gunner in Company G of the 371st Armored Infantry Battalion, returned to the Army in 1948 and has been awarded the Good Conduct Medal and the Army of Occupation Medal for his service in Germany.

BLIMP SALVAGE BEGUN
KEY WEST (S)—The Navy began salvaging operations today on a blimp that crashed 60 miles south of Key West Thursday during an operational maneuver. No one was injured.
Lt. Comdr. J. W. Forstmann, public information officer, said the blimp, K-56, was flying at a very low altitude and struck the water, damaging both propellers.
The accident occurred during maneuvers with the submarine R-54 which put a tow line to the blimp and brought it to where a Navy AV8 took over.

Stuttering Children
Are Being Cured

WINTER PARK (Special)—Stuttering children are now being permanently corrected in their homes by a recently developed extension service for stuttering children, an expert on the correction of stuttering said today.
Theodore E. Emery, Jr., secretary-treasurer of the Emery-Lewis School here, said that parents and teachers can correct their stuttering children by changing their routine and developing new habits of learning without segregating them from their classes or playmates.
Training in concentration, coordination, and control—such as painting, building blocks, house hold duties, and handwriting—Emery said, is important.
The extension service was developed by the Emery Method used in Orange County schools which permanently corrected 77 percent of the stuttering school children during the school years 1948-1950.
Two years more elapse, Emery said, before a case is called permanently corrected.
Judson H. Walker, superintendent of Orange County Schools, said, "The Emerys apparently have hit upon the fundamental cause of stuttering and have permanently corrected a majority of the cases of stuttering and stammering in our schools where their system has been adopted. I heartily recommend the Emery Method to other school superintendents."

Manville Takes 5th
New York (S)—Tommy Manville and his fifth bride, the former Anita Frances Roddy-Eden, were honeymooning today at the Sheraton Hotel.
The millionaire playboy, 26, and the 26-year-old blonde dancer and singer were married Thursday at New Rochelle, N. Y., by Mayor R. W. H. Church.
It was the bride's first marriage.

Citrus Groves Found
With Virus Disease

LAKE ALPHED (S)—Several citrus groves have been found affected with a condition resembling a mild form of quick decline, State Plant Commissioner Arthur C. Brown said Thursday.
He said the U. S. Department of Agriculture Laboratory at Orlando is keeping a close watch on it. Quick decline, a virus disease known to be present in California and Louisiana, never has been reported in Florida, although there are indications it may have been present in mild form several years.
The plant commissioner, speaking at a meeting of representatives of the citrus industry and state and federal agencies and Florida growers are most concerned about another tree disease, creeping decline.
This disease affects many varieties regardless of rootstock and a replacement for a tree affected by it usually becomes affected too. Quick decline usually affects varieties on sour orange and grapefruit rootstock and a new tree replacing one injured by quick decline will grow normally.
Manville's eighth wife, Mrs. Georgina Campbell Manville, was killed in an auto accident April 26.

School Engineers
To Attend Institute

Four maintenance engineers of the Seminole school system will attend the Custodian Institute at Florida State University in Tallahassee from July 14 to July 16 of next week. W. L. Lawson, school superintendent, said today.
Six weeks of Sanford school year, Rufus Sem of West Side Primary School, L. C. Anderson of South Side, and W. E. Ellis of Lyman School in Longwood will register at the institute next Monday.
They will be greeted immediately after registration in an address of M. L. Stone, acting dean of the School of Education at the University, and during the week they will hear addresses on such subjects as "The Chemistry of Cleaning," "Lawn and Yard Care," and "Problems in the Renovation of School plants."
Most of the lectures will be delivered by Dr. N. E. Voss, an author of several books on these subjects and present in the Division of School Plant, U. S. Office of Education in Washington.
In the last two years a similar school for Negroes has been held at Daytona Beach and has been attended by a number of local custodians.

11 New Teachers
Are Selected In Seminole County

Eleven new instructors were added to the teaching staff of Seminole County school system yesterday at a meeting of the school board. W. Lawton, County school superintendent, said today.
Margaret Golt, teacher at Seminole High School, was named for one year as supervisor of instruction to fill the vacancy of Ruth Hand Meriwether, on leave of absence.
E. S. Douglas, teacher of commerce at Lyman School, will be moved up to a principal position from January to June, 1953 to replace R. T. Milnes, who recently won the Democratic nomination for school superintendent.
W. J. Wells, teacher at Seminole High School, was chosen to be principal of the Lake Monroe school, and the former principal, R. W. Nichols, was transferred to a teaching position at Seminole.
Other appointments are Lulu Moran at West Side Primary, Bettie Duthrow of Ocala at South Side Primary, W. W. Whorlton at Lyman School, and Lillian Wheeler at the Ocala School.

Vice President

The vice president has been given to Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.
Sens. Duff of Pennsylvania and Saltonstall of Massachusetts, other workers in the Eisenhower camp, said the nomination is "wide open."
Earlier this week, Sen. Alexander Smith of New Jersey, suggested that Taft should have the V-P nomination if Eisenhower won the election.
Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire told reporters he had heard a report that Eisenhower had personally offered the place to Taft.
However, there was nothing from those close to Eisenhower's camp to indicate here was substance to the report.

Democratic Blast

Geraldine M. Galt, a prominent Democrat in the House, said that she would be "one of the millions of Democrats" voting for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in November if the general got the Republican nomination.
Roosevelt, vacationing in Colorado, said however that he would be "one of the millions of Democrats" voting for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in November if the general got the Republican nomination.

35 Seminole County 4-H Girls Go To Camp

Thirty-five Seminole County 4-H girls left today for a week of fun and instruction at Camp McQuarrie in the state capital. The girls represent eight communities in the county. They were accompanied by Miss Lila Woodard, Seminole County Home Demonstration Agent and Mrs. R. F. Runkle, registered nurse.

Camp McQuarrie is one of four camps owned and operated by the Florida Agricultural Extension Service. There the girls will study crafts, living, growing things, "as you eat" and swimming. Mrs. W. T. Barker of Mount Dora is the swimming instructor and crafts and arts will be taught by home demonstration agents from Marion, Polk and Seminole Counties.

Sky Watchers

The air watchers, using binoculars, will report suspicious or unidentified aircraft to 32 filter stations. The information will be passed along and checked in a cooperative network set up by the Air Force and the Air Defense Command.

Let interceptors will be ready on a 24-hour alert to meet any verified threat.

The watch network extends across the Canadian border and the northernmost Atlantic and Pacific coastal states. The states are: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California.

Mrs. Coleman

Mrs. Coleman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thayer. She and Mr. Coleman were married at the Marble Collegiate Church in New York City on June 29, 1923. Shortly thereafter they moved to Cocoa where Mr. Coleman was connected with the Brevard County Power Co.

In December, 1932, they moved to Sanford when Mr. Coleman became local manager for the Florida Power and Light Co. and have made their home here ever since.

Mrs. Coleman was a member of Holy Cross Episcopal Church and an active member of St. Mark's Chapter. She was interested in all phases of church activity and devoted considerable time to the church bazaars and the beautification of the church grounds. She was also a member of the Rose Circle and the Art Association.

HOPE CONVENTION

NEW YORK (AP)—New York said "Hello, Bill" to thousands of visiting Elks today as the HOPE grand lodge got down to the business of electing officers.

ITALIAN KILLINGS UP

ROME (AP)—Killings in Italy averaged over six a day during the first three months of 1952. Most of them were crimes of passion and revenge.

The total 580 slain, announced by the government today, was higher than normal. Usually the number of such deaths for a quarterly period runs under 500.

Democrats

For months, his name has been mentioned as the probable Democratic candidate, but it is reported to be — or to have been — President Truman's personal choice for that role.

Stevenson repeatedly has insisted he doesn't want it, and that all he does want is another term in the governor's office in Springfield.

Sunday at Camp Ripley, Minn., he told a Minnesota delegate to the Democratic national convention: "No politician can say he would refuse a draft."

In Washington, Sen. Richard Nixon, the Republican vice presidential nominee, told a reporter that Stevenson is the strongest possible Democratic candidate.

Meanwhile, he avowed and announced candidates are due here within the next few days.

They are Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, Richard B. Russell of Georgia, Robert Kerr of Oklahoma, Brian McPherson of Connecticut, Vice President Alben Barkley, and W. Averell Harriman, New York, director of the Mutual Security Administration.

Kefauver, campaign manager, Gael Sullivan, took up the question of a draft Sunday and said he saw little possibility of one. "A draft would imply the bankruptcy of the party," Sullivan said. "We have a lot of fine candidates."

Backers of Sen. Russell were among the first here and they were quick to seize the advantage. They set up headquarters, called a news conference Sunday afternoon, and had Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama as the spokesman.

Sparkman said, among other things:

1. Russell's chances of winning the candidacy are stronger now than the Republicans have picked Dwight D. Eisenhower.

2. Russell will not lose "a single electoral vote" from among the Southern states if he is nominated.

3. "However, we would be blind if we failed to recognize the extent of Eisenhower's popularity in the South."

4. Russell's greatest handicap lies in the popular belief — totally unfounded, Sparkman insisted — that he is a "sectional candidate."

Sparkman said the senator's whole record belies any evidence of sectionalism in his thinking or action.

All of which brought up the issue of a civil rights plank in the Democratic platform.

Sparkman said the Republican plank was vague and formless, and predicted the Democrats would write one "far more fair and frank."

The President has demanded an FEPC backed by federal law. Large sections of the party go with him. Russell and the Southern senators do not.

But there won't be a walkout, as there was in 1948, Sparkman predicted.

Russell's headquarters has a printed brochure of statements about the senator, and one is from Sen. Richard Nixon of California, GOP nominee for the vice presidency. It quotes Nixon: "I think Dick Russell would be the hardest Democratic candidate for us to beat."

You hear this in the corridors, too: "Whenever we refer to Eisenhower, in speaking or writing we have got to keep calling him 'general.' Don't let people forget he's a military man."

GAMING STAMPS

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—The Internal Revenue Collector's office reported today that occupational gambling stamps for the year which ended June 30 had been issued to Arthur Williams, Apopka, and Thomas Morris, Miami.

ACTION HAVES LIFE

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—Ambulance Driver Robert Campbell, hurrying an accident victim to a hospital Sunday, noticed the injured man had stopped breathing. Campbell headed straight for a fire station. Firemen with a resuscitator revived the patient en route to the hospital.

The injured man, Alvin I. Mann, 36, Jacksonville, suffered a spine injury when he dived from a tree into a creek.

Mrs. Clark Pleads Not Guilty To Charge

The trial of Mrs. John Clark was set Friday for Aug. 4 by Circuit Judge M. B. Smith. Mrs. Clark was arraigned before Judge Smith and pleaded not guilty to a charge of embezzlement of $9,871 from the office of John Galloway, Seminole County tax collector.

Mrs. Clark was formerly employed in the tax collector's office as deputy collector. A jury panel in the case is to be ready for Aug. 1. O. P. Herndon, clerk of the court, said today. E. F. Householder is attorney for the defendant.

PRESIDENT IN ILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman suffered a mild virus infection today and had to cancel all his appointments.

The President stayed in his residential quarters and in bed much of the time, but aides said he kept himself busy working on a number of bills requiring his action. They were passed during the closing days of congress.

Mr. Truman's press secretary, Joseph Short said the President "probably has some slight temperature." Maj. Gen. Wallace H. Graham, Presidential physician directed him to slow down Sunday.

NICKEL, COBALT SCARCE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nickel and cobalt are still scarce and the International Materials Conference said Sunday they will have to be rationed among free nations for an indefinite time.

The IMC is a 28-nation organization which allocates scarce materials on a voluntary basis.

The United States is receiving by far the largest amount of scarce nickel and cobalt under latest allocations.

President Truman says it is an insult to the intelligence of the American people to say that this country is on the road to socialism or that he himself is in favor of socialism. To which Senator Byrd of Virginia asks three questions: 1) If the President does not regard socialism, why does he continue to fight for socialized medicine? 2) If he is against socialism, why does he advocate the Brannan plan for agriculture, which is another way of saying socialized agriculture? 3) If he doesn't like socialism, why is he favoring an extension of socialized housing?

Viewing the shenanigans of the Republican National Convention on the television set at the home of W. D. Hofmann Thursday night, Willard Connolly recognized an old pal and chum of high school days, Rep. George H. Bender, Cleveland, Ohio, who Thursday night led the big demonstration for Senator Taft, rang a bell until both arms were tired and led in singing. Interested in politics before he wore long trousers, Bender during school days, edited a little periodical dedicated to the progressive policies of the late Theodore Roosevelt. He is pictured in News Week, July 14 issue with Senator and Mrs. Taft, in order to overcome shyness before an audience during his youth he led the Presbyterian Sunday school singing. At the convention he was still leading in the singing of hymns.
Traffic is grinding to a standstill on the highways of America, a New Gray-Hill publication warns. Trying to jam 50 million more vehicles on roads planned for 10 million, in some of the cases, money in sufficient quantities is lacking in federal and state treasuries to finance the road construction program needed to deal with the two cars in every garage. And the lack of funds, it is claimed, is not by any means the cause of the politicians to bury highway bills, they have buried, but in the treasury which has run out of cash. (250 to 300 more cars to be added to the roads in the next few months.)
A national organization known as the Citizens Council (National Citizens Council) has been formed in Sanford, Fla., and its purpose is to help the people of Sanford to protect themselves against the "Red" propaganda which is being spread in Sanford County in order to keep the people from voting for the "Reds" and "Browns" who are trying to take over the government.

City For Sale
The 24,000 residents of Richland, Washington, a government-owned, contractor-operated Atomic Energy Commission town, have an opportunity unique in the annals of modern government. They are being given the chance to buy the town, built originally to house workers connected with the Hanford atomic installations plant.
Richland residents, if they buy, will be acquiring an entire municipality with a $12,800,000 school system, with roads, sewers and other utilities valued at $25,000,000. They will be getting a ready-made town, debt free.
The sale is by no means certain. Decision is being left to the residents, whose opinions are being polled by the Census Bureau. Of the 56 per cent of residents and 23 per cent of non-residents who have already replied, over 60 per cent say they intend to buy homes in the atomic city. Its price is about $46,000,000.
David E. Shaw, AEC manager of the Hanford Operations office, considers the sale of Richland both desirable and feasible. When it was first built, subsidies in the form of low rents and other inducements were needed to get workers to stay in the desert. Today, however, it is a flourishing community whose residents earn good wages and whose commercial area competes favorably with those in near-by cities. The growth of the area has convinced business leaders that it will be able to attract other industries so it can escape the stigma of being a one-industry town.

A Rising Tyccoon

Adrian DiCyan, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is a young man who believes in starting early. Although only a fifth-grader, Adrian is "editor, publisher, owner and reporter" of a weekly publication called "The Science Star", a weekly journal devoted to natural science news. It is now a year old.
Born in a classroom daydream, where many great ideas are conceived though seldom brought to life, Adrian launched the Star as a publication devoted to astronomy. Perhaps because its contributors could not depend on astronomical subjects to fill the contents of 52 issues, or perhaps because they tired of the subject, the scope of the Star extended to other scientific fields.
It has had its crises, like other publications, but Adrian has so far succeeded in overcoming all of them. In connection with the recent anniversary he described one: "At first my sister Erika was my editorial adviser and she was helpful with advice. Then she wanted to be editor, so I fired her."
This was an oversimplified approach to a complex problem, perhaps, but it did provide a solution.
Many similar publications have been started by grade-school students. Few, however, have weathered the trials and tribulations of an entire year of publication. Adrian DiCyan is a youngster worth watching. If his early career in any indication, he will some day be one of the tyccoons of the publishing world.

No Third Parties

Third parties in the United States have never fared well. The best they seem able to hope for is a brief moment in the political sun and then political oblivion. This year the Progressive Party has nominated Vincent Hallinan of California for president and Mrs. Charliotta Baas of New York for vice president. The party is expected to have little popular support in November.
The present edition of the Progressive Party had some hope of being a factor in the 1948 elections. It was believed that Henry Wallace, a former vice-President of the United States, might take enough votes from the Democrats to effect a Republican victory. Undoubtedly Wallace's candidacy on the Progressive ticket did do some damage to the Democrats but not enough to prevent the election of President Truman. After the election Wallace fell out of sympathy with the Progressives and this year their candidates have much less popular appeal.
Possibly the most popular figure to head a third party was Theodore Roosevelt who ran on the "Bull Moose" ticket in 1912. Despite the support of a great number of Progressive Republicans and the enormous popular appeal of "Teddy" Roosevelt, the third party did not win. It did make the election of a Democrat, Woodrow Wilson, a certainty.
Even the best third parties seem destined to fall in the United States. There may be faults in the two-party system but when the multi-partied political scenes of some European countries are observed, with the confusion and lack of stability in government that results, it is probably a good thing that third parties do not succeed here.

Worthless Government Publicity

The Federal Housing Administration issued press release No. 52-6, marked "Released for Sunday papers, June 16, 1952," in Washington the other day.
If it had been an important news item, the Journal would have received it the same day through its wire services or its Washington bureau. But it was so unimportant that the FHA didn't mail it until 8 p.m., June 16, a day after its release, and it didn't arrive in Milwaukee until June 18, 3 days late. From a news standpoint, it was a waste of money and time.
This bit of news that the FHA thought important to send out concerned the resignation of one E. T. Stearns, director of the FTA office in Fort Worth, Tex., and the appointment of one O. A. Gasaway as his successor. It had no conceivable interest outside of the Fort Worth region, where local reporters would have picked it up anywhere. Yet time and taxpayers' money were used to send it out to the Nation's press—which, like the Journal, undoubtedly threw it in the wastebasket.
If this were a rare thing, it might not be important. But it isn't. Every mail is full of just such worthless trivia called news releases for which precious tax money is squandered.
The United States Forest Service of the Department of Agriculture, for instance, has had the Journal on its mailing list since 1947. Not one of these releases has ever been used or has been of value in preparing an article. The Journal has written and asked to be taken off the mailing list. The news releases keep pouring in.
Obviously there is a place for publicity and distribution of information in Government. An informal public depends on it. There is value in much of the statistical work the Government does, in basic information on good agricultural practices, on social-security rights and benefits, and on a myriad of other matters. But there should be no place for worthless publicity, for propagandizing, for loading the mails and the payrolls down with waste paper and waste-paper products.
Forbes magazine estimated recently that it costs the Government $1,500,000 each month to pay its publicity workers, $4,000,000 to print what they produce, and $3,500,000 to mail it out. This doesn't count hundreds of others engaged in Government publicity work who are hiding on civil-service rolls under such titles as "administrative assistant" and other high-sounding names whose salaries and product are impossible to trace.
Section 5-54 of the United States Code states that under a law passed by Congress on October 22, 1915, "no money appropriated by any act shall be used for the compensation of any publicity expert unless specifically appropriated for that purpose." The law is being violated continuously by subterfuge.
In 1946 there were 45,000 Federal employees engaged full or part time in publicity activities—not counting the workers hidden under other titles. No current figures are available, but increasing mail indicates the total is now much higher.
Millions of dollars are being wasted.

Fifth Place At Stake As Blues Face Orlando Here Tonight

Sanford Only 1 Tilt Out Of 4th Place; Aleno-Levy Will Have Milking Race

By KENT CHELMAIN
The resurgent Seminole Blue baseball machine with eight wins in their last 11 games will take on the Orlando Senators in the Memorial Stadium tonight at 8:00 p.m. with fifth place the immediate Sanford goal. Going into tonight's encounter the Seminoles find themselves only 1/2 game out of fifth place and just one game back of the fourth place Daytona Beach Islanders.

This evening's game will find Louis Rentas seeking his fourth straight Sanford victory when he will take the bill for the Blues. Rentas, the Puerto Rican fire ball, has posted a 3.2 record with the Seminoles this season.

An amusing sidelight will be offered fans when they attend the game. General Manager John Krieger will have several cows on the field prior to the game for a milking contest between players of both teams.

The highlight of this show will be the contest between Manager Chuck Aleno and Orlando pilot Ed Levy. They will race to see who can get the most milk in the shortest time.

Last Saturday night 1029 fans poured into Memorial Stadium to witness a Tie-land holocaust. Sanford evened their two-game series with the Seminoles by a 10-3 slaughter over the Hata and their ace Dick Detson. Manager Aleno hit a home run for his 101st and 102nd of the year.

Murray Hyrd annexed win No. 11 for the season to top all Seminole hitters in that department. The slender right-hander however, had to be relieved by Chico Corrales in the seventh.

The tightness of the Florida State League race is reflected in the narrow 1-0 margin separating the Blues from the third-place Palatka Azaleas. A combination of a loss by Palatka and Daytona, and a win for Sanford this evening would move the Blues into a tie with Daytona for fourth place and leave the Blues just one game out of the third spot.

Pre-game milking festivities will get underway at the Memorial Stadium tonight at 7:50 p.m., and Krieger promised it to be a "dilly".

Red Hats Win On Neat Four-Hitter By Jimmy Vickery

By NEIL GILBRIDE
Associated Press Staff Writer

Slim Jim Vickery pitched a four-hitter for the Florida State League's Deland Red Hats Sunday night to beat Daytona Beach 7-0.

Centerfielder Ed Cook connected for two Daytona Beach hits, both doubles. Deland Center Fielder Ted Brooklyn cleared the bases with a double in the third and Catcher Ray Dunne doubled in two more runs in the seventh inning.

In other games Jacksonville Beach beat Leesburg 3-1 and Cocoa trounced Palatka 10-2. Sanford at Orlando was postponed because of wet grounds.

The Jacksonville Beach Sea-Birds scored one run in the first inning on a walk, a single by Manager Red Treadway and Floyd Clift's long fly. Leesburg tied it up in the fourth on doubles by Buck Collins and Manager Johnnie Pawlick. Jacksonville Beach won the game with two more runs in the seventh. After Dick Pace walked, Treadway singled, Rod Colson sacrificed, Clift singled and Bill Robertson hit a fielder's choice.

Cocoa's Indians slammed up hits to beat the Palatka Azaleas. Lou Garcia hit four times in four trips to the plate and George Hughes hit four for five. Virgil Frazier was the winning pitcher.

STETSON
DELAND (A)—Stetson University's new head coach John H. (Jay) Frazier says he is going to change the Hatters' football formation from the winged T to the straight T with "a few variations."

He said the change will call for "mostly new plays. Frazier said he expects to have about 45 plays ready for opening of football practice Aug. 30.

GOLF
CHICAGO (U)—Forty very young players, including a string of seven-year-olds, took part today in the qualifying round of the 8th Junior championship of the Women's Western Golf Association.

They may not be around when 14 members start match play at the Lakewood Country Club today. Miss Adda Kays Roberts, 14, may not be around when 14 members start match play at the Lakewood Country Club today.

Interest In State Loop All-Star Tilt Mounts Every Day

Local interest in the Florida State League's annual All-Star game to be played in Memorial Stadium here Friday night July 25 was well reflected in the flood of postcards and letters received at league headquarters over the week-end from fans guessing the paid attendance for that night.

Mrs. Laura Dasinger of Sanford figures there'll be 1,865 fans in the park but Mrs. E. Turner of that city says 4,322 while L. T. Twyman of Sanford says 1,234.

Daytona Beach fans among the guessers included Sonny Gasque who says 3,500 will pay their way into the park. Richard Dyeus of that city says 2,875 while L. T. Twyman of Sanford says 1,234.

Mrs. Hattie Ross of Palatka figures there'll be 3,339 paid admissions in Sanford that night, while Ann Stewart of Palatka says 2,140, and Ralph Tavel says 2,721.

Among the Deland fans who sent in their guesses to LEAGUE SECRETARY, Box 609, Ocala, was E. L. Rowland of 809 North Boulevard who figures 3,405 will pay their way.

Mrs. T. J. Sullivan of Deland guesses 2,552, while Mrs. V. R. Messer says 1,950.

Lon and Ida Shepherd of 1090 South Orange Blossom Trail in Orlando guess there'll be 2,730 and 2,311, respectively, while Orlando's Mr. and Mrs. William L. Young, 615 20th Street, say it'll be either 3,018 or 3,079.

Fans have until midnight July 22 to mail their guesses to League Secretary, Box 609, Ocala.

Charlie Harris, who played for John McGraw back in 1894 and now resides in Gainesville, is the first fan living outside the league who has sent in a guess. He says 3,378 will pay their way.

Shantz Can Set Records For A's By Winning 30 Games This Year

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Bobby Shantz, midget southpaw of the Philadelphia Athletics, can: 1. Become the biggest winner in Philadelphia's American League history.

2. Become the first second division hurler in the past 50 years to lead his league in won and lost percentage.

3. Become the first 30-game winner in the majors in 3 years and the first American League pitcher to reach that total in 21 years.

Shantz spun a seven-inning shutout Sunday as the Athletics split a doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox. The Sox took the second, 7-4. It was Bobby's third shutout and his 16th complete game in 18 starts. He has won 15 and lost 4.

The 57 lightweight from Pottsville, Pa., has a chance to better the Philadelphia record by Jack Coombs in 1910 and Lefty Bob Grove in 1911 of 31 triumphs.

Grove was the last of eight American League hurlers to win 30 or more in one season. Dizzy Dean, the last major league to accomplish it, won 29 for the 1934 St. Louis Cardinals.

Only one pitcher hurling for a second division club ever led the American circuit in won and lost basis. He was Bill Bernhard who won 18 and lost five for the fifth place Cleveland Indians of 1922.

Shantz was not the only pitcher to shut Sunday. Vic Raschi came within four outs of pitching a no-run no-hit game for New York as the Yankees twice overwhelmed the Detroit Tigers, 11-1 and 12-2. Raschi had two out and two strikes on Myron (Joe) Ginsberg in the eighth inning of the opener when the weak hitting Tiger catcher blasted a 350-foot home run into the right field stands. It was the only hit of the game for the Tigers.

The twin bill, the Yankees swept four Tiger pitchers for 31 hits. Mickey Mantle hit a homer in each game. Yogi Berra belted his 18th and Joe Collins his seventh for the Yankees.

Mike Garcia turned in a brilliant two-hitter for Cleveland in the opener as the Indians swept a doubleheader from Washington. Garcia took a pair from the Blue Jays, 4-2 and 5-0.

At Rosen's 17th home run gave the Indians the second game. Maurice McDermott also hurled a two-hitter for Boston as the Red Sox took a pair from the St. Louis Browns 6-5 and 4-0. The young left-hander fanned eight and walked two in the nightcap. Catcher Sammie White's 10th-inning homer won the opener.

Philadelphia's Phillies moved to within four games of the fourth place Cubs, whipping Chicago in a doubleheader, 7-3 and 9-2. Richie Ashburn led the Phils 2-1 hit attack in the two games with five safeties, including a double and triple.

Davey Williams' ninth-inning triple drove in two mates and gave the New York Giants a 4-2 night win and a split in their twin bill with Cincinnati. The Reds, behind Harry Perkowski's six-hit hurling, took the opener, 10-2.

'Baby Blues' Cop Two Moving Into District Playoff

Junior Metts Stars In Parker Game; Ovidio Defeated

By SAM JACOBSON
Two decisive games marked the most successful week of play for the Sanford American Legion baseball team as enjoyed thus far in the nearly completed 1952 season. By winning both of these games, one exciting 9 to 6 win over Winter Park, and the other an 18 to 4 landslide over Ovidio, the "Baby Blues" assured themselves a berth in the approaching district tournament.

Metts, speedy Sanford third-sacker provided the punch in Wednesday's victory over Winter Park. Metts, despite the two crucial errors, was virtually a one-man team.

In addition to driving in the two runs and blasting the Mel Fischer team's only extra base hit, he scored three runs and stole a phenomenal seven bases, including two thefts of home for a total of 14 stolen bases.

The locals began doing things early in the Winter Park encounter. After Sheffield opened the home half of the first inning by grounding out, "Daddy" Hannum drew the first of his three walks. Hubba Bisbee promptly followed with a single. Backen, on the first pitch, J. Correll laced a sharp line drive into leftfield to score Hannum with Bisbee romping home on the Parker leftfielder's bobble of the ball.

In the third frame Bisbee scored the first of another pair of runs as he rapped out his second hit, got to second on an over-throw of the pitcher, third on a balk, and crossed the plate on an error by the catcher. Metts then walked and stole all the way around for the other run.

In the meantime Mel Fischer on the mound for Sanford had blanked the visitors on two hits. In the fifth the leg was broken, Fischer's left arm was injured and he left the game.

In the home half of the fifth Sanford countered with one run as Metts walked and once again stole all the way around. Winter Park rallied, however, in the sixth on a hit, walk, and a two-bagger by Bidix to make the score 6-2.

Parker was short-lived, though, as Sanford proceeded to score four runs to sew up the ball game. Again Metts provided the spark for the offense as he lashed out a triple to drive home two markers, and he himself scored on Larry Bates infield fly.

The visitors again rallied in the seventh but a sloppy "win-bill" from Sheffield to Kridler to Bidix ended the game after only two runs had scored.

Friday's encounter with Ovidio was perhaps the most entertaining game of the season. As it became more and more evident that the game was hopelessly one-sided; Coach Bill Fleming not only completely reshuffled the lineup, (catcher pitching first baseman catching, etc.) but he even infected the scorekeeper into the game.

Sanford, was the winning pitcher against the leading hitter, Diamond Chatter. The starting pitcher for Winter Park Wednesday was Frank Snodgrass, who had previously hurled a one-hitter against the "Baby Blues".

Aleno Threatens 2 FSL Records With 100 RBI's And 20 Homers

The booming bat of Seminole Blue manager Chuck Aleno seems destined to set at least two Florida State League records before the season is over. Through Friday night's game Aleno became the first FSL batsman to crack the century mark in runs batted in with an even 100 and likewise the first hitter to pole out 20 home runs.

At the present projected rate, the giant Sanford skipper will surpass the loop RBI mark of 140, set in 1941 by Sanford's Buddy Lake, by seven or more.

At this same rate, Aleno should hit 32 to 33 round-trippers to tie the 1950 FSL record of 33 set by another Sanford star, Ed Levy.

Aleno's 225 batting average through games of last Thursday gives him the highest percentage of any Sanford regular this season, though in 10 games rookie sensation Frank Smith has a .308 batting figure.

Injured John Imbra, who is slated to return to the Sanford lineup sometime this week, is the third 300 hitter with a .313 percentage and batting Paul Eskew's .302 average gives the Seminoles four regulars over the select circle.

Unseated for a month, DeLand's budding young third-sacker Jack Cade bounced back as the Florida State League's batting champion through games of last Thursday, although he was temporarily side-lined with an ankle injury Wednesday night.

At midnight Thursday, official records revealed that he had a season's mark of 380 to the .370 posted by veteran manager Red Treadway of Jax Beach, last week's leader, and DeLand veteran Red Roberts with a .371.

Cade also was leading in runs with 103, triples with 15 and hits with 134 to 130 for Roberts who also tallied him with 13 triples.

THE TOP TEN list of batting stars dropped Al Pirtle who was replaced by Sanford manager Leesburg Chuck Aleno who stole most of the

Fans' Votes Put Rhodes In Front On South's Team

George Kenis Leads All Southern Outfielders With 81

Hilman "Dusty" Rhodes, former freshman gridiron star with the University of Florida Gators and current standout catcher for the Seminole Blues, took a narrow 3-vote margin lead over teammate Frank Smith in today's returns for the catching berth on the Southern All-Star as compiled in the Sanford Herald poll.

Rhodes, with 55 votes, stood only seven ballots in front of Orlando receiver, Don Ford, who is third high in voting for the closely contested backstop position.

DeLand shortstop, Bill Masterson, led the outfielders with 49 votes, ahead of a 2-vote deficit behind Garry Week-end to assume a 69-62 lead in Soudernery, Palatka, over the contest for the North's shortstop.

Jack Cade pushed over the 100-vote figure for the North at 115, ahead of Roberts, DeLand, at first and Red Treadway, Jax Beach, in the outfield. Tom Mills' 125 ballots gave him the individual vote of any Northern performer.

Red Kress, Sanford's favorite son, George Kenis, sked out a scant 2-vote lead over all other Southern outfielders candidates as today's count gave him 81 ballots. Second high is Orlando's gardener Bill Shores with 70.

Daytona outfielder Howie Teanow, fell only four votes short of the century figure in today's count with 96. He ranks second to Treadway's 103-vote total. Al Pirtle continued to gain on this week of balloting. The latter holds a 15-ballot edge of 79-64.

Sanford's Chico Gonzales registered a surprising 14 vote lead in today's count to push the slender Cuban shortstop into fourth place only 2 votes behind departed Frank Santana.

Meanwhile, the Chico Gonzales Herald poll of local fans for the All-Star game gained momentum with a total of 22 votes pouring in over the weekend to raise the total vote to 165 in three weeks of balloting.

Aleno maintained his individual popularity as the South's third baseman by polling 146 out of 155 votes cast to lead all other players. Close behind is John Imbra, injured Sanford second baseman with an even 140.

Ballot for the Herald poll will close Saturday at midnight. All ballots must be either turned in at the Herald or mailed to the All-Star Editor before that deadline.

Klan Leader Reveals New State Setup

Hendrix Says New Organization Set To Bear Arms To Uphold Constitution

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — A Florida Ku Klux Klan leader today announced the formation of a new organization to uphold the constitution and declared a Supreme Court ban on segregation would be considered a violation of rights.

Bill Hendrix, who got 11,203 votes in the Democratic primary for governor two months ago, said the decision was made at a reorganization meeting of the Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in Orlando last week-end.

In October the U. S. Supreme Court outlawed segregation, all members will take this as a violation of our constitutional rights," Hendrix said in a signed statement mailed to news services here.

Hendrix, who has called himself Florida grand dragon for the Southern Knights of the Klan for several years, but announced he was resigning to run for governor, signed the statement today only as "director of pub. and org."

"If necessary, this organization will bear arms to uphold our constitutional rights."

"There were 97 organizations represented at this meeting and members from 31 states."

"A public speaking tour will be started in the South in the near future."

Mrs. Nancy Brock, president of the Sanford Pilot Club and past president of the Seminole County Teachers' Club, returned Sunday from Mackinac Island, Mich. where she attended the thirty-first International convention of Pilot Clubs and the National Education Association convention in Detroit, serving as a delegate to both conventions.

Delegates numbering 437 were in attendance at Mackinac Island from six countries including the United States, Canada, England, France, Japan and Bermuda.

Mrs. Brock reported that District Four which comprises the 31 clubs in Florida, took six top awards at the convention for achievement, including the distinction of being the largest district in Pilot International, and showing the greatest increase in membership. The Jacksonville Club was chosen as the "Club of the Year."

Mrs. Brock reported that the N.E.A. convention in Detroit was held at the Hotel Commodore and Mrs. Brock was elected to the position of vice president and Mrs. George E. Dohd, of Ansonia, Conn., was chosen as one of the directors of Pilot International.

U.S. Prohibits Red Printing Of Pamphlets

State Department Orders Step In Retaliation For Russian Action Against U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department today ordered the Russian embassy to quit publishing and distributing pamphlets in the United States.

A department statement announcing this said the U. S. was suspending publication of a Russian language magazine called "Amerika" which had been distributed in Russia.

It said the two actions were taken because the Russians were obstructing distribution of "Amerika" in the Soviet Union.

Steel Is Freed For Civilian Use By Government

WASHINGTON (AP) — A move toward checking the spread of industrial plants to the government today freed for civilian use all steel not needed by the military.

Production chief Henry H. Fowler said the action clears the way for small and medium sized manufacturers to keep producing such goods as washing machines, vacuum cleaners, metal furniture and household appliances.

Steel stocks needed for the defense effort however remain subject to the embargo imposed on the rest of the steel strike that began June 1.

Fowler said in announcing the action that it will "help avert some shutdowns in the nation's main producing plants and minimize their unemployment."

The strike has added 600,000 steelworkers and nearly a million other workers in allied industries.

The National Production Authority, which Fowler heads, clamped an embargo on steel shipments to all manufacturers at the start of the strike in a move to guarantee all the steel needed to pursue the defense effort.

During the period between the time the embargo was imposed and the present, Fowler said, the agency has surveyed the stocks on hand and decided which items are available for civilian use.

As a result of this survey Fowler said, NPA now is releasing the types of steel which "ordinarily are not required for defense production."

"Consequently the action will not affect the nation's defense rearmament program," he said.

Fowler told reporters he could not at the moment provide any figures on just how much steel is being released for civilian use.
