

SANFORD THE WONDERFUL

Great Celery Delta Attracts Attention of Strangers Visiting The State.

By C. N. Scholey, in Guilford, Connecticut Tribune.

Last week the editor's story of his recent flight through Florida left his readers at Sanford at the head of steamboat navigation on the beautiful St. Johns river.

The town is not of recent origin and is not a so-called tourist town, though many tourists touch there during each season. For many years it was the victim of the depression that overcame hundreds of southern communities after the civil war and which took half a century to overcome. Added to this the sad catastrophe of the disastrous freeze of a dozen years ago when Florida orange groves were swept to worthlessness in one night it was not until about six years ago that the inhabitants who had the hardihood to remain or the lack of funds to get away from the dead orange groves awoke to the fact that Sanford sand was good for something besides growing oranges and some of the pluckier ones set about to prove it. Meanwhile northern people who had visited the attractive settlement located so pleasantly on beautiful Lake Monroe, a great body of water, a part of the St. Johns river but spreading out over an area of many square miles, recognized the opportunities offered by Sanford sand for market or truck gardening and northern money began to make itself felt. Slowly, like all enterprises that are to be ultimately successful, did the earth begin to yield up its abundance, but pluck and perseverance, backed by cash and hard work soon told until Sanford and its environments won and gained the title of the "Celery City," by reason of the principal crop that was started to replace the orange groves that had proved so ruinous.

And so it was, after viewing and inspecting, through the courtesy of Editor Holly of the Sanford Herald, the astounded by the sand from which the plants had sprung, drawn forth by the tropical sunshine, that we were incited to head the first chapter of this series of stories, "Celery, Land and People."

Nowhere in our travels, east, west, north or south, as we have traveled some, had we seen a like combination with such amazing results to the pockets of the diligent farmers.

A delightful automobile ride covering almost the entire territory of the so-called celery delta revealed hundreds of acres given over to profitable truck farming, celery being the great money maker for every man with brain and brawn.

True it is that failures have been many as in every enterprise but it was shown, quite satisfactorily from records that most of these have been by men who had no previous practical farming experience or those who were really never fitted for the soil and who listened to the wily blandishments of some over-enthusiastic real-estate dealer with which the city abounds. But in every case investigated, and we had several opportunities of meeting successful farmers, was a failure shown where men had applied the practical with the theoretical and many men, who came from the north with only a few hundred dollars and plenty of practical knowledge of farm work have become rich men.

Twenty-five years ago Sanford sand lots could be bought for fifty cents an acre and passed up at that. Today many desirable plantations cannot be purchased for less than a thousand dollars per acre and such are not on the market.

Two crops are the regular order and frequently three, vegetables growing and doing fairly well at all seasons of the year. Lettuce is the first crop and this vegetable starts the special cars of the Growers Express moving in the last months of the year, hundreds of them going out to the northern markets usually at a good price and profit to the growers. This crop is closely followed by celery and on this the farmers as a rule reap a rich harvest. The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad keeps strings of Growers Express refrigerator cars standing up side tracks in the season awaiting loading and as many as 1,200 car-loads of vegetables, largely celery have been shipped north in one season. Of profits $500 an acre is a common occurrence and the high water mark is said to be $1,500 from an acre of ground in lettuce and celery.

It must not be accepted as a fact that Sanford sand alone is responsible for this success, for it must be fed and watered generously. What is one land's food is another's poison and so it is that special fertilizers peculiarly adapted to the sand surface and clay subsoil of Florida must be used abundantly.

Florida like most tropical and semi-tropical countries is subject to wet and dry seasons and during the dry season of six months' duration irrigation must be resorted to as in the west. Fortunately Sanford covers a territory easily tapped by the artesian process for water supply and the farmer with funds need suffer for plenty of water for irrigation purposes. The process of irrigation is different here from most of the western country where the custom is surface or ditch irrigation.

A field is cleared and laid out, all being almost perfectly level and easily worked. Ditches are dug at regular and frequent intervals and small cement tile of about three inches in diameter are laid but not cemented and then recovered. Each line of tilling connects with a large tile a foot or more in diameter set on end and open at the top skirting the edge of the field. If the field is an extensive one several artesian wells are drilled which supplies several lines of underground tilling and by simply turning a gate valve water in abundant quantities flows into these large tile and thence into the irrigating tile lines thus supplying the plant nourishment. That the combination of sand and water is simply demonstrated by the mammoth stalks of green celery sending forth a nerve bracing aromatic odor on the balmy breezes wafted over the land from beautiful Lake Monroe, which at the same time tempers the rays of the tropical sun so much feared by the northern novitiate.

And so it is that a disaster brought about by the eccentricities of Jack Frost proved a blessing in disguise to Sanford and its surrounding territory, for it had become a common belief that Florida was immune from the stinging fingers of the ice king and that wealth flowed through the streams of orange culture alone, the loss of groves being the awakening that was so sorely needed for the ultimate prosperity of the region.

As stated in this story last week the writer made a short visit to Sanford four years ago when it was slowly awakening from the blow it had received. It was then without special attraction. Empty store buildings, typical southern sandy streets, mostly sandy unpaved sidewalks and with all a place to be seen and forgotten. Thanks to the interesting boom stories in Holly's Herald the writer was induced to make a second visit and the change was as a dream of the Arabian Nights.

Splendid brick paved streets, and brick and cement paved sidewalks, new and up to date business blocks, two prosperous banking houses, one a beautiful white marble building, hustling and heavily stocked department stores, electric street lighting, adequate water supply, an ice plant, trolley service, prosperous merchants and last but not by any means least one of the best semi-weekly newspapers and the printing offices to be found in Florida or elsewhere. It was a revelation worth the cost of a trip south and a demonstration of what indomitable courage in the face of ruin will bring forth, and while the stigma of inertia may yet cling to some of the remote southern settlements it fails in every particular in the case of Sanford and other hustling cities visited.

Sanford is a town with a city government of between five and six thousand population and rests entirely upon its merits as a local commercial community unassisted by much of a tourist trade. That it is entitled to more recognition along this line should be made plain to every northern visitor and must, eventually be reckoned with. Situated most desirably at the head of steamboat navigation, on one of the most beautiful lakes in the country, with fishing said to be second to none of the inland waters of the peninsula, it is bound to become a tourist resort in time. This very largely depends on local pride and capital or what inducements can be made to outside capital to invest in a first class tourist hotel. Unfortunately Sanford is sadly lacking in this direction. True, it has hotels like all towns of its size but us northerners are peculiar in our ideas of what a tourist hotel should be, for many of us are given to travel and know what good hotels mean, and Florida is not without them. But Sanford must have another awakening before she can bid for the northern tourist trade and northern vacation dollars. Fortunately we were accommodated at a delightfully pleasant and up to date boarding house, Comfort Cottage, conducted by Mrs. Martin, a lady from the northern States. The northern lady, and should any of our northern readers ever visit Sanford before that big new tourist hotel is built that our friend, Editor Holly is striving for, we recommend them to quarters and abundant table service with Mrs. Martin at Comfort Cottage.

Of course we couldn't visit a community without dabbling in politics and as Sanford and a few towns in Orange county were in the throes of a demand for county division to set up shop for themselves we became profoundly interested and learned considerable of Floridian political methods and deals. And this we will touch upon in our next story.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here The Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

Secretary Daniels began today a two-weeks' trip to include official visits to south Atlantic navy yards. The first stop will be at Wilson, N. C., where a banquet will be given in his honor tomorrow night. His itinerary for the remainder of the trip follows: Raleigh, N. C., May 2 and 3; New Orleans, May 5; Pensacola, May 6; Jacksonville, May 7; Key West, May 8; Charleston, S. C., May 9 and 10; Port Royal, S. C., Detention Barracks, May 11; Raleigh, May 12.

The British home office today inaugurated its active campaign to put an end to suffragette militancy. Headquarters of the Woman's Social and Political Union, where many outrages are said to have been planned, was occupied by the police and all the active leaders taken into custody. Even "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond and Miss Anne Kenny, who were out on bail, were arrested on a fresh charge of conspiring with the members of the Parkhurst family to commit malicious damage.

During the latter part of 1912 the cost of living in the United States was higher than at any other time during the thirty-three years. The bureau of labor statistics has just issued a list of retail prices from 1880 to 1913. The highest cost was reached in each of the geographical divisions and the United States as a whole in 1896. From that date to 1912 the total increase of the cost of living per year for a working man's family, by geographical divisions, was North Atlantic, $166; South Atlantic, $152; north central, $187; South Central, $186; and Western, $152.

Probably not until the legislative status of the substitute alien land owning bill adopted by the California senate last night clarifies will it be possible for the administration to determine upon its next step. There is little expectation here that the assembly will reverse the action of the senate in view of the reported breaking down of party lines in the legislature, but it is believed the delay may improve the chances for the introduction of some amendment on the lines of the Webb bill, which presumably would have received the approval of the national government.

Social Service Department

At the regular meeting the Social Service Department was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. K. Mettinger Tuesday afternoon. A large attendance of the members and visitors were present.

Mrs. M. A. Miot, fourth vice president of the missionary society, who has charge of the social service conducted the meeting.

After the opening and devotional exercises the report of Mrs. C. H. Smith, delegate to the annual conference of the missionary society, which was recently held in Ocala, was listened to with much interest and pleasure by every one present. A rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Smith for her most excellent report, touching as it did the work in China, Korea and Mexico, as well as that in the homeland. It was both comprehensive and instructive.

Mrs. W. W. Abernathy, who also attended the conference entertained the ladies with the impressions and lessons conveyed to her by the missionary situation and needs as set forth by that body of earnest workers in the cause.

As treasurer of the local society Mrs. Abernathy made a strong appeal to the members to keep their dues promptly paid.

Mrs. H. V. Parry, as a visitor to the conference also brought back some very interesting echoes from the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Council of recent date at Birmingham, Alabama gleaned from reports of the attending delegates made at Ocala.

The newly appointed district secretary, Mrs. Zachary presented the claims

SANFORD CELERY BRINGS GOOD PRICES

Over One Thousand Cars Have Been Shipped This Season

County division has occupied so much of our attention this spring that celery and other crops were forced to take a back seat and have not taken the prominent place usually accorded them in our annuals of good things that come to Sanford.

In looking up the celery situation superinduced by the fine article recently written by C. H. Scholey of Guilford, Conn., who recently visited here The Herald was induced to again take up the celery outlook and make a comment upon this season's crop and the result far exceeded the most sanguine hopes of the growers and others interested.

It would seem from a casual investigation that this season's celery crop will bring more money to the growers than any similar crop gathered here in several years and will bring again King Celery into his own in this section.

Sanford has already shipped this season about nine hundred cars of celery alone. A very low estimate on the entire crop will bring the price to $1.25 per crate. Many growers received $1.50 per crate and much of it went above the $2.00 mark, but summing up the whole crop and allowing for the bad, the price of $1.25 can easily be maintained.

The nine hundred cars of course mean solid cars and added to this the express and broken shipments would bring the grand total up to about 1,082 cars of celery. Each car contains 350 crates, making a total of 378,700 crates.

At the very low estimate of $1.25 per crate there has come to Sanford this season on the celery crop the grand sum of $473,375.00. G. F. Smith, one of the prominent growers stated today that he had marketed 43 cars and would carefully estimate that it brought him

$1.50 per crate. He has since planted beans and will have 20 acres of beans that are bringing good prices and are said to be selling well on account of the vegetables being frozen out in the sections above here.

The history of the different growers here this season will make most interesting reading and the celery crop that poses as an uncertain crop in the markets can be counted upon to leave more money here this season than any of the more staple crops.

A careful estimate of all the crops will be compiled later in the season and given in The Herald and the returns made on a single acre of land in the celery delta will be a great surprise to many people in the north who have heard so many tales of the poor sandy soil, but very little about the greatest vegetable growing center in the world—Sanford.

THURSDAY MORNING BLAZE

Quick Work of Fire Department Saves Several Houses from Burning

The roaring of the auto fire truck as it tore down the street yesterday morning and the shriek of the siren at the water works plant brought out the sight seen to the residence of Mrs. Donna Thayer on Fifth street, where the roof of the house was all ablaze. The volunteers turned in with their customary promptness and carried most of the furniture from the second floor and saved it from the water. Three streams of water were soon playing on the fire and it was extinguished in record time. Mrs. Thayer was sick at the time and had to be assisted from the building and will of necessity be obliged to discontinue her boarding house until repairs are made.

The prompt work of the fire department is very commendable and the volunteers are getting the business of fighting fire down to a nicety. Sanford has the best fire fighting apparatus in interior Florida and the department is all that could be desired.

Best picnic conveniences and amusements for five cents at Woodland Park. 78-U

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain

In Arcadia Monday the spring term of the circuit court was opened up in the new courthouse. DeSoto county now has a modern and well equipped courthouse and Arcadians are pleased to show it as one of the architectural attractions of the place.

Orlando is just now one of the most popular towns on the map with the contractors. Word having gone out that bids for the construction of the city's new sewerage plant will close tomorrow night, for the past three days contractors and contractor's agents have been flocking there, until very this morning there is a lobby of them in town. Reporter-Star

Lake Tohopeuliga is now and always has been fairly well supplied with fish, still it is large enough and deep enough to accommodate a few million more, which will be the case if the bill introduced by congress by Frank Clark becomes a law. The inland homes of many varieties of fish and a hatchery in any of these lakes would prove successful. Kissimmee Valley Gazette

There is still no clue to the whereabouts of E. J. Andrews, the Hillsboro prisoner who escaped from the county jail early Monday morning. A telegram received from Fernandina by Sheriff Spencer this morning said that the man who had been apprehended there on suspicion of being Andrews did not at all resemble the picture of the escaped prisoner sent on to Fernandina last night on receipt of a telegram stating Andrews' description had been captured there.

Dunnellon has taken a long step forward and from this time on it will be natural to expect growth and prosperity such as has not been noted before. An election was held Tuesday on the matter of town improvement bonds and the result was an overwhelming call for the bond issue. Only three votes were polled against the measure proposed. The bond issue will amount to $50,000 and the money will be used to purchase the electric light and water plants, to pave the main street and put in a sewerage system.

At a meeting of the Lakeland council the Coast Line asked for a permit to build an addition to their frame building occupied as a freight station for temporary use, agreeing to remove it by December 31 or pay $50 per day thereafter as long as the building remained on the property. In the meantime they propose to erect a large brick freight station and spend $150,000 in the next six months in Lakeland in buildings and other improvements. As a matter of course the council agreed to these flattering terms and contracts were drawn.

As an indication of the heavy movement of perishable freight, fruits and vegetables, from Florida to other sections of the country, it is interesting to note that in one day—on April 29—a total of 147 carloads of fruit and vegetables were received by rail from various points in Florida in Potomac Yards, Va. This movement was consigned to eastern points and consisted of the following: Potatoes, 55 cars; tomatoes, 27 cars; cucumbers, 17 cars; oranges, 22 cars; grapefruit, 17 cars; beans, 2 cars; peppers, 3 cars; celery 3 cars, and eggplants, 1 car.

At the Baptist Church Dr. A. J. Holt, pastor of the First Baptist church of Kissimmee will preach at the Baptist church in this city next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. Holt was for many years missionary to the Indians in Oklahoma and is well informed with reference to the Seminoles of Florida. You are cordially invited to come and hear him. There will be no service at the evening hour.

NEWS from the COUNTY

GENEVA IS BOOMING

Sister City in Seminole County Is Filling Up With New People

Geneva extends a hearty welcome to the new people coming to make their home in this section.

Four carloads of household goods arrived in Geneva last week from Michigan belonging to Messrs Tarbell, F. A. Wesson, Lawrence Gilbert and Mr. Sheldon. These gentlemen have already erected tents and are preparing to build handsome homes.

Geneva, as well as the entire section, we feel sure will be benefitted by these good people.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker from Gainesville, Fla., joined these Michigan friends and are now at home in Geneva.

Following is a clipping from "The Northerner," published in Paw Paw, Michigan, the former home of the party:

"Four cars filled with household goods besides a quantity of feed for stock, were shipped from this place to Florida last Monday night. F. A. Weston, Fern Tarbell, Lawrence Gilbert and Mr. Sheldon went with the cars and H. Y. Tarbell followed Tuesday morning.

These men have unlimited faith in the possibilities of the country and are planning on building a town where the town site of Geneva has been platted. A company of men, representing large capital, has been interested in the project, and operations will begin at once toward the end of establishing all kinds of business.

The Paw Paw men are on the ground early and expect to take a hand in the upbuilding of the town. The families of the gentlemen named will go later in the season, possibly soon after school closes. It is a matter of regret with the people of Paw Paw that we must lose these neighbors and friends. They have been prominent in the business circles of the town and also have held an equal share in the social life of Paw Paw.

The young people especially will be missed by their associates. We are loth to have them go and we are the losers, but may they realize their fondest hopes and succeed way beyond their expectations is the wish of every friend who has enjoyed the privilege of association with these people during their residence among us. These good wishes will help some to take the place of familiar faces in their new home. Poor health is the cause of the move on the part of some of them and may they find the fountain from which flows the chalice they are seeking.

MOORE MOVEMENTS

Hurrah! Hurrah, for Seminole county.

Rev. H. T. Gaines will be here to preach Sunday afternoon next at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. H. H. Stevenson of Jacksonville will be the guest of her brother, E. R. Gormly and family the latter part of the week.

I. D. Hart was here from St. Augustine on business this week.

C. W. Powell has disposed of his interests in the store at Canaan and Mr. Ward is now running the store.

J. F. McClelland is in Chuluota and Fort Christmas on business this week.

J. C. Smith of Cameron Avenue is clearing and making improvements on his farm and J. F. McClelland of Miller avenue is doing the same on his farm.

G. C. Chamberlain has purchased a new auto and will soon be flying along on our roads.

Mrs. G. W. Guerry of Orange Hill Farm entertained Mrs. H. M. Gilbert and niece, Miss Beatie Osborn on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hancock and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ellsworth enjoyed a few days' fishing on the east side of Geneva ferry last week.

Wm. Myers, proprietor of Myers' fish camp on Lake Jessup was married to Mrs. Levitt last Saturday afternoon by Justice Stringfellow. The romantic side of the wedding was that they had vowed not to be married till the county was divided and named Seminole.

CAMERON CITY CLIPPINGS

Capt. Randall of Louisville, Ky., spent a few days here last week looking after his farming interests. He has gone on to Cuba to attend the meeting of the railroad mon.

Law Makers At Tallahassee And Their Doings - Brieflets Of Legislative Nature By Special Correspondent

Floyd delivered a terrific tirade on the floor in the debate on Tuesday over one of the labor bills demanding eight hours as a working day for municipal, state and county workmen, directing his remarks at Gornto and Taylor of Madison and incidentally mentioning Senator Davis of Madison county. Floyd charged that certain members and broadly intimating who they were, had been influenced by railroad lobbyists.

Gornto replied in severe terms and stated later he would have sought satisfaction except he regarded Floyd as irresponsible. Taylor, who is Davis' colleague, notified the latter, whereupon Davis went to Floyd's seat in the House after sending him word to come out and struck him in the face. Farris and J. C. Brown of Polk and MacWilliams sought to avoid a difficulty and urged Floyd to apologize, which he refused to do. Only one blow passed. Floyd did not strike back.

Following an address by Governor Trammell, the House today passed the bill recommended by the Governor, providing for the abolishment of convict lease system on installment plan the vote of the measure being 57 for and 6 against.

The bill provides for the immediate donation from convict lease fund for building of state prison farm in Bradford county and taking of first installment of three hundred prisoners from lessees in June of 1914. Reductions will be made in number of convicts leased out until June, 1916, when the last batch will be taken from the lessees. The proposed law provides that the prisoners shall be offered to the counties for road work at $120 per year each, and those not taken will be sent to the farm.

It is thought that the Senate will pass the measure in view of the overwhelming vote in its favor in the House.

The general revenue bill, which is being handled by Representative Goldstein of Nassau county, embraces one section that is a distinct departure from the general run of taxation for revenue. It provides for a license tax on cigar factories of 25 cents for each cigarmaker employed in a factory carrying more than 10 cigar makers on its payroll.

Mr. Goldstein estimates that there are 20,000 cigarmakers employed in Tampa, Key West and other Florida cities, and therefore he expects should the provision stand that a revenue of about $5,000 per year would be derived from the factories.

Governor Trammell addressed the Legislature this morning. Ten o'clock has been made the time for special order on all legislation relating to the convict lease system. Mr. Goldstein moved that an invitation be extended to the Governor to address the House on the Spencer bill, which was transmitted to the legislature in Governor Trammell's special message. The resolution was adopted and the Governor responded. He explained the proposed bill, which, if it becomes a law would abolish the convict lease system gradually, by withdrawing certain percentage of the convicts from the lessees at stated intervals, taking all out of the hands of the lessees by the end of 1916.

As the other convict measures were delayed in printing a reconsideration of all convict bills was postponed to Thursday.

United States Senator Bryan's primary bill on motion of Mr. Brown of Polk, was made a special order for Saturday morning.

All the fake and joke amendments to Maxpoles' "pure shoes" bill which was on yesterday indefinitely postponed were ordered expunged from the journal.

The initiative and referendum bill, which is being handled by Representative Goldstein of Nassau county, embraces one section that is a distinct departure from of Mr. and Mrs. Herndon's clever little daughter, Miss Norma.

Handsome, tasteful decorations were the tasteful decorations in the card room, where the guests who did not dance were entertained at cards.

Fragrant pink roses and pink hibiscus were the pleasing decorations in the dining room where punch and cake were served. An exquisite point lace cover on the dining table added to the attractions of the elegant punch bowl, which was the centerpiece.

Mr. and Mrs. Herndon's invited guests were Misses Charlotte Keelor, Veda Ward, Irene Brady, Peachoa and Linda Leffler, Mabel Bowler, Carrie Loyell, Helen Roland, Mabel Hand, Charlotte Hand; Messrs. Will Watson, Tracy McCuller, Willie Leffler, Braxton Perkins, Archie Betts, Eugene Roumillat, Billie Hill, Ralph Wight, Roy Chittendon, Mr. Marlow, Dr. and Mrs. Puleston, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Death of Mrs. A. A. Reaves

Mrs. Augusta Ann Reaves, after a lingering illness died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. R. Brisson Friday, April 29.

The remains were taken to Winter Garden, her former home for interment.

Mrs. Reaves was born in Edgefield, South Carolina in 1843. She moved with her parents to Florida in early childhood. She was twice married. In 1869 she married Mr. D. D. Standland, and after his death she married Rev. R. L. Reaves in 1874, who was one of the pioneer preachers of South Florida. Mrs. Reaves became a Christian in early womanhood. The consistent, Christlike life which she lived was an inspiration to those who knew her best.

She leaves two daughters and two sons. Her mother was Mrs. D. R. Brisson of Safford, Mrs. Preston Spear of Chattahoochee, Mr. W. D. Standland and J. E. Reaves of Kissimmee, who have the sincere sympathy of all their friends in their bereavement.

Wednesday Club

The regular meeting of the Wednesday Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. N. Whitner Wednesday afternoon. The president, Mrs. George L. Maris presided.

The program was opened by a lovely piano selection by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher.

Owing to the illness of the secretary, Mrs. S. O. Chase, the minutes were read by Mrs. C. E. Walker, who acted as secretary pro tem.

Mrs. J. W. Dickins read an interesting paper on the Mexican "Hacienda," which was followed by a paper on "Railroad in Mexico," read by Mrs. M. H. Bowler. "Mines and Mining Interests" was interestingly treated in a paper read by Mrs. C. C. Woodruff.

Mrs. M. Martin, in a very clever paper described "Insect Life in Mexico." Mrs. J. N. Whitner read a finely written and very instructive magazine article on "What Science has Taught us About Flies and Mosquitoes," which elicited a brief discussion, with the suggestion by the president that the discussion of the subject be renewed at another meeting.

Four visitors were present, one of whom was Mrs. Lucia M. Harvey, Supt. of the Girls' Educational League of Boston, who has traveled extensively in Mexico. At the request of the president she gave the club some very interesting reminiscences and impressions of Mexico. Mrs. Harvey also made a brief explanation of the great League work in which she is engaged. Her pleasant talk was much enjoyed.

An invitation was read by the secretary, from Prof. and Mrs. Maris to the club, to hold their last meeting at their charming home on Lake Onoro, which was accepted by a rising vote of thanks.

The club will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Whitner.

Birthday Party

A merry party of young people enjoyed a pleasant straw ride to the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thornton, on the west side, who were the gracious host and hostess at a very delightful birthday party, with which they surprised their nephew, on the recent occasion of his twenty-first birthday. The friends and neighbors on the west side joined the young people who arrived in a large wagon, who made a jolly party, successfully surprising Mr. Seabon Davis, whose birthday they were invited to assist in celebrating.

Delightful music and entertaining parlor games were the entertainment of the evening.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned way of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged. This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, all of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in DDD Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that DDD stops the itch at once. We just want you to give DDD a trial. That will be enough to prove it. Of course all other druggists have DDD Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us, but don't accept some big price substitute. But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what DDD will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee: If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

A THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The people of Seminole county should arrange a thanksgiving service to be held as early as possible that would be a joint meeting of all the churches of Sanford and other parts of the new county for the purpose of thanking and praising God for His infinite mercy and blessing in the great victory recently achieved and in which victory His Divine power was most manifest.

No private business, no community, no commonwealth can prosper without this Divine blessing and it would ill become the people of the new county to fail to recognize the power of the Lord in this great enterprise, and in this hour of triumph we should not fail to so recognize the hand of God in this victory and His guidance in our future affairs.

Therefore this paper recognizing the fact that God alone rules over our destinies calls upon the people of the new county of Seminole to arrange for this meeting of thanksgiving at an early date, that we may pour out our libations of prayers and songs of praise to Him for His guidance in the past and the rich promise of the same guidance in the future that is fraught with so much of importance to all of us.

We who looked to Him in our hour of need should by His small token take heed of His power and salvation and promises, and we can be assured by this recognition of His benign influence over our affairs in the future.

BATTLE IS OVER

The battle is over and we are "their," or something to that effect.

At least they went themselves and took that part of us which we did not want to lose and in the main which objected to being taken.

We fought, like we always do for what we believed right and which we still believe was right, and we hated the sword to the hilt.

But the battle is over. Those Seminoles got our scalps, stuck us in the meat, punched us in the bread basket, disarranged the part in our hair and, having fought a good fight we can see enough around the swelling blue of our off eye that we're licked. We have learned one good lesson during our short life and that is when "licked" to quit fighting.

We are sorry to lose our friends to the new county. Not so sorry to lose enemies, if we have them, but offer no bitter words in our defeat. We wish Seminole county well. We couldn't wish otherwise, because to wish evil would be wishing ill to many close friends of thirty years past.—Orlando Citizen.

SPEAKING OF WORK

Sanford Herald gets off the little plectan that Editor Howard doesn't want the Orlando postoffice since it means work. Thanks, awfully. But work is what we have been intimately acquainted with all our life.

We did not accuse you of being lazy, Bro. Howard. No newspaper man is ever lazy for he cannot afford that luxury. We still contend that you could have made Orlando a good postmaster as well as a good editor.

TIME TO WAKE UP

Sanford citizens "busted" the cannon in celebrating the victory for the new county. This is beautifully symbolical of the condition of the new county two years hence.—Orlando Sentinel.

Wake up, brethren, read the bill creating the new county. After Sanford has received her share of the Orange county property there will be no chance for us to be "busted." And

In conclusion we wish to thank the Sentinel for their kind words and admonitions. They helped us to win county division and will help us abolish the Criminal Court in Orange county. No "busted" county...

It is really surprising how tamely Editor Holly of the Sanford Herald treated the subject of the success of county division, but perhaps he felt that it was an occasion of so much sorrow for those who have lost that he wept with them, as it were, feeling perhaps, that in the presence of death levity had no place.

LETTER FROM REV. HUNT

Feels That Seminole County Will Surely Prove Successful

Decatur, Ga., April 30, 1918. Mr. R. J. Holly, Editor Herald, Sanford, Fla.:

My Dear Sir—Enclosed please find check for $2.00 in payment of my subscription according to enclosed statement, which receipt and oblige. Hurray for Seminole county! I wish I was there to celebrate with you dear old Sanfordites. You gained a glorious victory and I am glad of it, for everything that is for the benefit of Sanford is of interest to me.

Yours truly, FRANK D. HUNT

Mrs. L. J. Cochran

After an illness of only a few days Mrs. L. J. Cochran died in Sanford, Fla., Monday night, April 21st, 1918. She had lived in Sanford but a few months, having moved from Orlando. She leaves a husband, two little girls, a mother, brothers, sister and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss.

While living in Orlando she attended revival meetings conducted by the Christian and Missionary Alliance. In these meetings she definitely sought and found salvation and united with that organization. The funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. H. Wetherell of Orlando, in the Sanford M. E. church. She was laid to rest in the Sanford cemetery to await the morning of the resurrection when those who sleep in Christ shall rise in immortal youth and beauty.

Judge Leaves Faulty Will.

It is strange how many talented judges and lawyers have failed to draw up their own wills correctly. The English Judge Lushington, who died recently, leaving an estate of nearly $1,000,000, overlooked the important necessity of having his will and a codicil to it properly attested.

DULL TIME FOR ROYAL CHILD

Meir to the Throne of Russia Knows Very Little of the Czar's Joys and Sorrows.

The czarvitch cannot look back upon the joys of early life in the way that most children born to a throne are in a position to do. Nor will any of his European colleagues envy the crown prince of Russia.

From the day of his birth the little prince was put under the care of a Cossack guard, who is held answerable with his life for the safety of his charge. The soldier never leaves the child; he sleeps in the anteroom of his bedchamber. The room is locked, but a series of bells would at a touch communicate with the outside world.

Little Alexis was four years old before his eyes fell on any sight beyond his own small garden bounded by the wall of a courtyard. He did not even play as other children do, for which he was digging in the sand or running about with his only companion, the son of a lady in waiting, other children were acting as his ghosts and running about in another part of the garden to distract attention and make security doubly sure.

An English tutor entered upon the service of the czarvitch when he was seven years old, but all lessons are done in the presence of the Cossack and of a lady in waiting. Friedborg was the first place the little boy saw outside his own secluded playground, later he beheld the grounds of the imperial residence, and from the decks of the Standart his eyes greeted the Baltic.

On one occasion only was the son of the czar at a military reception, and the precautionary measures adopted were of the strictest kind. The czar and czarinas have tried to prevent any possible risk of their child being poisoned, attacked or kidnaped. He eats nothing until it has been examined by his own special "taster," who makes trial of every dish before it appears on the table.—Neues Wiener Journal.

A recently published book on Africa gives certain native tribes credit for greater intelligence than is usually been ascribed to the negro race. "Every central African," it says, "is a born lawyer. Should the need arise, he can act as his own pleader, and set forth his case with fluency and lawyerlike adroitness."

Edmund Burke's Fame Secure.

Among the great men of the world few have been the subject of higher panegyric than Edmund Burke, and, on the whole, few have better deserved praise. No public man was ever more pure in his politics and more pure in his life, and few have been as noble minded. He possessed indefatigable industry. There was no subject that he could not master, and none which, having mastered, he could not expound with unparalleled richness of language.—Exchange.

Way to Meet Work.

The beauty of work depends upon the way we meet it—whether we arm ourselves each morning to attack it as an enemy that must be vanquished before night comes, or whether we open our eyes with the sunrise to welcome it as an approaching friend who will keep us delightful company all day, and who will make us feel at evening that the day was well worth its fatigue.

Puzzled Mother.

A Bowea high school boy's mother protests against the way algebra is taught in that school. She complains that they haven't revised the text book since the price of eggs went up. How such a backward book as that can prepare children for the active duties of life is more than she can understand.—Chicago News.

Folly of Worry.

Worry is overwork of the most disastrous kind; it means to drive the mental machinery at an unreasonable and dangerous rate. Worry gives the brain no rest, but rather keeps the delicate cells in constant and continuous action. Work is wear; worry is fear.

Saw Nothing of Value in Pearla.

When the army of Galerius sacked the camp of the routed Persians a bag of shining leather filled with pearls fell into the hands of a private soldier, but the latter, while carefully preserving the bag, threw away its contents under the impression that anything that could not be used for useful purposes had no other value.

The May Festival One of the greatest events in Sanford among the young people was the May Festival given yesterday afternoon and because it was a grand affair the Herald had a special writer prepare a special description of the event and it will appear in Tuesday's Herald. REAL FLORIDA HISTORY

Civil War and Reconstruction Topics Of New Book Just Out

The editor of The Herald has received a copy of the best history of Florida that has appeared in print for many years and while not having the opportunity to read it a cursory glance over it reveals a most interesting treatise. The following from the Lakeland Telegram gives the important facts about this great work:

"The Telegram acknowledges the receipt from Longmans, Green & Co., of New York, the publishers of a handsomely bound and printed volume of 769 pages entitled 'The Civil War and Reconstruction in Florida.' Its author is William Watson Davis, assistant professor of American history in the University of Kansas, and a native of Florida in full sympathy with his subject. This book is a real contribution to history, written in clear, scholarly style and it presents fully Florida's record in the civil war and goes exhaustively into the history of Reconstruction in this state, extenuating nothing, nor setting down aught in malice. The book is a valid and enduring record which will correct many an error, expose and destroy many a slander, and embed in the truth and dignity of history the story of Florida during the most tragic and momentous period of her life. It should find a place in every library in the state and our young men and women should be encouraged in every way to read it. Its distinguished author deserves the thanks of every Floridian for the great and arduous work he has done in gathering such an immense quantity of facts, sifting them carefully of error and putting them in good form with such excellence of literary style and historical temperament.

In Honor of Mrs. G. F. Smith

One of the largest and most beautiful parties of the season was given by Mrs. M. H. Mabry at her home on Duval street Wednesday afternoon in compliment to two charming visiting ladies, Mrs. George Frederick Smith of Sanford, the sister of the hostess, and Miss Kate Budd, of Tallahassee, who is the house guest of Mrs. W. H. Ellis. The entire lower floor of the pretty Mabry house was opened for the occasion and card tables were placed in the parlor and on the porch. The entrance hall was beautifully decorated with red roses and heavenly bamboo. In the drawing room exquisite pink roses formed the chief adornment, and in the dining room quantities of nasturtiums were most effectively arranged. Vases of white roses and bamboo formed a simple but pleasing decoration in the library. A large number of players enjoyed an interesting game of auction, and the pretty prizes were awarded to Mesdames H. E. Palmer and D. A. Finlayson. Mrs. Smith and Miss Budd received dainty guest prizes. At the conclusion of the game other ladies came in to enjoy the social hour. Delicious ice course was served. Mrs. Mabry was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by Mesdames T. M. Shackleford, R. S. Cockrell, Park Trammell, W. H. Ellis and W. A. Hocker.—Tallahassee Democrat.

Powers the Hypnotist

Prof. Frank J. Powers, the Hypnotist, who will be at the Imperial Theater, in a recent interview in Chicago explained to a number of reporters the scientific value of hypnosis. Mr. Powers says:

"Today nearly every person of scientific thought is turning his attention to the different phenomena of the mind, the last undiscovered country. The brightest men of today are using a scarce 10 per cent of their brain power. What will be the result as the mind reaches a further development and we draw on the force of that extra 90 per cent? But a few years ago hypnotism was considered a fake, later a supernatural gift, but now it is on a scientific basis and is known as a manifestation of a natural law or power, latent in each and every person to a greater or less degree. Personal magnetism, telepathy, suggestion, hypnotism, etc., are all kind of the same fundamental truth.

Some may ask its practical value, and I am able to state definitely that considering hypnosis in its broadest sense, it is the greatest factor in the world today, greater than all others combined.

Just a short time ago, Dr. Worcester of Emmanuel Church, Boston, started what is known as the Emmanuel Movement. The project was ridiculed by both the press and the clergy yet last year alone 25,000 people were treated by the suggestion method as used there. A number of our largest hospitals use hypnosis as an anesthetic in surgery and it entails no danger to the patient, and he does not suffer the after effects of the reaction so common with a material anesthetic.

The medical fraternity is awaking to the fact that mental science is a competitor of materia medica as a therapeutic agent, and they are realizing that the two must go hand in hand if humanity is to be relieved of its ills. There was a time when people did not believe in hypnotism, but today no intelligent person dares to dispute its existence and its great value. The study of the mind will be pushed harder in the next decade than ever before. Mr. Powers is not only a practical man but understand the scientific significance of this subject. The laughable aspect of this great human benefactor will be brought out here at the Imperial Theatre during his engagement here.

Fogg Kisses the New Baby

Altamonte Springs, April 29.

Dear Mr. Holly—You are certainly a live wire for the division of grand old Orange county, which I regret, for the name of Orange for the dear old county has ever appealed to me. I have lived within her borders for almost twenty-nine prosperous years and naturally have a warm spot in my heart for her name. But perhaps the change will be for the best, but should it not the heaviest burden will rest on your shoulders, for I believe that your strenuous efforts were the live wire that accomplished the result.

Now that the baby is born and father, mother and child are in flourishing condition it behooves us to make the baby grow and prosper. We should put aside all rebellious, antagonizing thoughts, if there be any, and strive as a unit to make the baby county one of the most progressive and prosperous counties in the state. So say we all.

N. H. Fogg.

Takes Dunnellon Paper

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nisle and family left yesterday for Dunnellon where Mr. Nisle has purchased the Dunnellon Advocate and where they will make their future home. Mr. Nisle has been a resident of Sanford for the past six months, being employed on The Herald as make-up man and has the respect and esteem of his employers and fellow employees. He is an experienced printer and newspaper man and we commend him to the people of Dunnellon, where his push and energy will do much towards becoming that enterprising community. That he endeavors goes without saying and we expect to hear flattering reports of his success in the great phosphate region of Florida.

Growers' League Organized

DeLand, April 29.—Special—The Florida Growers' and Shippers' League completed its organization here this afternoon. The committee appointed at Tampa at the time of the Citrus Exchange meeting there reported, and after a preliminary meeting elected the following officers:

President, L. B. Skinner of Dunedin; secretary, D. F. Tillingham. Mr. J. L. Chase of Jacksonville; Dr. J. H. Ross of Winter Haven; T. B. Moore of Miami; J. S. Taylor of Lagro; H. J. Drane of Lakeland and J. L. Hammer of Tampa. A second meeting is to be held Wednesday morning and further action taken on the proposed charter.

Had Fine Fishing

Arthur Yowell and J. H. Overman went to the Wekiwa river yesterday afternoon and landed twelve fine trout, the largest weighing seven pounds. Arthur has lately become an ardent disciple of the gentle art of casting, having formerly been a devotee of the cane pole. He now thinks that all the sport to be gained from fishing is in reeling them in and he has purchased a fine outfit and can be found on the banks of the Wekiwa one afternoon in every week making a cast and reeling the beauties in. He has been under the tutelage of Jim Overman until the pupil has outdistanced the teacher and Arthur can put it all over Overman any time.

George DeCottes and Harry Wilson were also on the job yesterday and landed seven small ones but they were not "poor ones" at that and worth bringing home. The Wekiwa is becoming the Mecca for Sanford fishermen and a Fishing Club with headquarters on the river crossing is now being agitated.

Respects to J. W. Wildman

We, the preachers of the ministerial association of Sanford, Fla., very much regret to lose Bro. J. W. Wildman as a neighbor pastor and co-worker in this part of our Lord's vineyard. We have found him a most congenial brother and associate in all church work, and do hereby commend him to all Christians wherever he may be engaged in furthering the cause of our Lord.

OAK AVENUE ::: SANFORD, FLA.

LETTER FROM BRO. SCHOLEY

Connecticut Editor Congratulates Herald on New County

Brothers of The Herald, Sanford, Fla.: Hearty congratulations on your success. I anticipate with much pleasure my next visit to Sanford, whenever that may be. I shall expect to see a large granite or marble court house, the streets entirely paved as well as all sidewalks, large new business buildings, a big and up to date tourist hotel, The Herald building enlarged to meet the increased demands of the new county's printing, and The Herald itself a seven column, eight page paper with Associated wire service. Then life in Sanford will be worth living. It was, however, pretty middling thank you when I was there recently, but it will be better in the sweet bye and bye.

Here's to Seminole county. I saw the sun shining up here recently and it made me think of Florida, it looked so much like the kind of sun you have down there.

Cordially, C. H. SCHOLEY.

A Prosperous Season

Florida is closing one of the most prosperous winter seasons she has ever experienced, and residents of the state have reasons to congratulate themselves upon their good fortune. Our citrus groves have yielded a monster crop that has generally brought good prices. Vegetable growers have seen trainloads of produce to the frozen north and have been well repaid for their labors. Our northern tourists by the thousands have spent varying periods of time within the borders of the state enjoying the most delightful climate in the country.

The past winter has also seen thousands of new settlers, tradesmen and merchants arrive and locate in and around Florida's progressive cities and towns. New farms have been begun, new orange and grapefruit groves set out, new business enterprises established and a substantial enterprise and also a substantial growth, experienced that is almost unparalleled.

Florida's lands are being drained, roads are being laid out here and there, crops are being produced where nothing but wild growth ever existed before. The natural result is that the land is becoming a scarce article, and in a very few years will be an unknown quality.

The people of the United States are beginning to know Florida, but as is always the case some will know it too late. It is not always so. Get acquainted with Florida and know what it is to live.—Mulberry Times.

Queer Sign Posts.

In the neighborhood of Warmbrunn, in the Silesian mountains, there are to be found some very curious signposts. One seen by a writer in the Wide World Magazine represents a farm laborer sharpening his scythe, on which is inscribed, in the old Silesian dialect, "To Giers Village, One Hour." The signpost is well carved and painted in natural colors, so that it appears very life-like. Another signpost in the same district represents a schoolboy carrying a slate bearing the name of the nearest village, toward which the boy is pointing.

Queer Way of Fishing.

A curious mode of fishing is in vogue at Cochin, South India. The large nets are let down into the water on bamboo cranes and then suddenly hoisted up by means of an arrangement of weights and pulleys. The catch principally consists of large prawns. The fishermen are of a low caste, known as Malars. They eat pork, and each man has a small plot of rice by the riverside which provides him with sustenance when the fishing is slack.—Wide World Magazine.

Iconoclast Resumes Work.

A Chicago physician has made a translation of an Egyptian papyrus which, it is claimed, dislodges Hippocrates from his place as "father of medicine" by anticipating his discoveries some 5,000 years. Even appendicitis, it is asserted, is described in the old papyrus. It now remains for some one to show that Ecclesiastes' dictum, "There is nothing new under the sun," was really written by Pharaoh or Thothmes.

His Recommendation.

A cook has been going around a station in the south of India with the following "character," and is somewhat surprised he is not engaged: "Abdul has been my cook for three months. It seems much longer. He leaves on account of ill health. My wife and I are Christian Advocate.

NOT HIS TIME FOR REVENGE

Circumstances Seemed Favorable for the Moment, but the Luck Would Not Hold.

Aboard the great ship the silence of despair reigned. She had struck on an uncharted reef, and, owing to the heavy sea, the boats had either been stove in against the ship's side or swamped in the attempt to lower. A stalwart passenger stole up to the captain's side.

"Do you think, sir," he asked, "that there is the slightest chance of our being saved?"

"Look here," said the skipper, in tones of disgust, "that's the sixth time you've asked me that question. Why, you great-lubberly brute, I believe you're the biggest coward aboard!"

"S—sh! No, I'm not," protested the burly one. "But, look here. You see that old duffer standing by the rail? Well, he's my rich uncle, and all my life I've had to put up with his cursed cantankerousness. But if the ship's going down, and there's no hope, I'd like time to give him one good, sound kick to square the little account I owe him!"

Just then a rescue ship appeared on the scene and above the joyful shout the raucous voice of the old man by the rail was heard, commanding his dutiful nephew to fetch his hot water bottle from his water-logged stateroom.

Carnegie Institute.

The Carnegie Institute, Washington, was founded by Mr. Andrew Carnegie January 28, 1902, when he gave the board of trustees the sum of $10,000,000 in registered bonds, yielding 5 per cent. annual interest. He stated, in general terms, that his purpose was to "found in the city of Washington an institution which, with the cooperation of institutions now or hereafter established, there or elsewhere, shall in the broadest and most liberal manner encourage investigation, research and discovery, show the application of knowledge to the improvement of mankind, and provide such buildings, laboratories, books and apparatus as may be needed." Mr. Carnegie added $2,000,000 to his gift in 1907.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here The Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

President Wilson received today by telegram a copy of the alien land bill passed by the California legislature, now awaiting Governor Johnson's signature. He let it be known the federal administration would take no further steps until Secretary Bryan returned Thursday with first hand information.

The contempt of court judgment upon Secretary Frank Morrison, President Samuel Gompers and John Mitchell, of the Federation of Labor, were sustained today by the court of appeals of the District of Columbia, which, however, reversed the sentences to give Gompers thirty days' imprisonment and fine Mitchell and Morrison $500 each, with no jail term.

No public hearings on the tariff revision bill are to be held by the senate finance committee, according to Senator Simmons, its chairman. This is expected to speed up in consideration of the bill after it gets to the senate probably on Thursday. Senator Simmons said today that those most interested in the schedule were content to be heard setting forth their views and recommendations.

King Nicholas of Montenegro decided today to evacuate the fortress of Scutari in response to the demands of the Italian government. The evacuation of Scutari on April 23 after a six months' siege which cost the lives of thousands of Montenegrins and the King Nicholas declared that he would hold the city until the last drop of Montenegrin blood had been shed. As the European powers had decided previously that Scutari was to form a part of the future autonomous state of Albania, a crisis was brought about and the power immediately brought strong pressure to bear to force him and his troops to evacuate the place. In the meantime, Austria took energetic steps to counter the powers decision and concentrated large bodies of troops in Bosnia, Herzegovina and Dalmatia.

School Class Picnic

The pupils of Grade sixth of the Grammar School, taught by Miss Lucy Newsome, with several schoolmates of other grades enjoyed a delightful all-day picnic at Woodland Park yesterday, chaperoned by Misses Lucy Newsome and Lillian Gilson.

Two wagons, an automobile, a buggy, several boys on bicycles and horseback were the modes of conveyance of the happy party of young people and the chaperones.

The park was reached about 9 o'clock and immediately the party with one accord and with exclamations of anticipated pleasure sought the swimming pool. Arrangements were quickly made with the custodians of the pool, the park and all of its attractions, and almost before one could say "Jack Robinson," or take in their surroundings and realize where they were at the pool was alive with laughing, jumping and diving boys and girls. There were many other tempting amusements to be tried by the large number who were not in the pool. The miniature railroad and car, which went up and down a wonderfully steep grade, almost rivalled the swimming pool, with its several enticing accessories. The number and variety of devices to entertain and amuse the young folks were almost bewildering in their appeal to the individual fancy.

At noon a most abundant and excellent picnic dinner was comfortably enjoyed on neat tables, where benches were in readiness to add to the pleasure of a picnic lunch. During the afternoon the majority of the girls and boys enjoyed another frolic in the pool. Woodland Park is naturally beautiful and is an ideal spot for a pleasure resort in its unadorned condition, but with the expenditure of means under the direction of restricted art, it could be made perfectly beautiful. It is to be regretted

FOURTH OF JULY AT SANFORD

The Eagle Will Scream And The Rooster Will Crow For The Grand Event

Citizens Of Seminole County Will Celebrate Victory Of 1776 And 1913 At One And Same Time

Sanford promises to have one of the grandest Fourth of July celebrations that has ever been pulled off in South Florida and the grand occasion will occur the next day after the third of July, which will be according to scheduled time as set apart by Chairman F. P. Forster and properly bill-boarded by Jim Harris.

At a most enthusiastic meeting of the Commercial Club last Friday night Mr. Forster at the request of the members not only made a full and comprehensive report of the county division committee, but gave in details the actual workings of the committee that was on the firing line and the account was greatly relished by the "home guards" who while not actually in the smoke of battle were doing good work at home and did even greater work in welcoming the warriors home in regular Sanford style. After the report of the committee had been accepted, the matter of a suitable celebration was taken up and it was the sense of all the members present that nothing short of a real old-fashioned celebration would suffice in the face of such a victory such as had recently been gained in county division and our natal day, and that natal county division day can both be celebrated in one grand and extra acclaim.

There will be the regular basket picnic phase, barbecue, base ball, parade, music, games, fireworks, speeches and everything that goes with the real old-fashioned and jolly good time. All the legislators, the Governor, county officials of Seminole and Orange and everybody in every part of Florida, the United States and Europe will be invited to come to Sanford on that day and help us to celebrate. It will be a day set apart especially for the people residing in the new county of Seminole to come to Sanford and get acquainted and there will be special arrangements made for their comfort. One of the features of the day will be a ball game between Orange and Seminole counties, in which only home boys will be allowed to participate and some very fine prizes will be hung for the winners. Boat races on the lake will also be featured. The committees will be appointed this week and will immediately start to work arranging for the grand event and it goes without saying that the 1913 celebration at Sanford will be long remembered by those who are lucky enough to attend.

AT PANAMA EXPOSITION

Florida Should Have A Creditable Exhibit

APPROPRIATIONS ARE NEEDED

A. V. French Of This City And Representative At Buffalo Is Working For Bill

Tallahassee, May 6. Florida will miss a great opportunity for putting her resources effectively before the world if she fails to have an exhibit at the Panama canal exposition to be held in San Francisco, is the opinion of Santola Jones, who is in Tallahassee representing the exposition company.

Judge Jones comes from Baton Rouge, La., where he has resided for years and been the recipient of many distinguished honors. He recently made the race for Congress and only missed being a congressman by a few votes, but he has served in the legislature and on the bench, and he now holds the position of commissioner for the southern states in securing support for the exposition.

Judge Jones will probably ask for permission to address the Legislature for an appropriation is going to be asked for. Judge Jones thinks that the state should not appropriate less than $50,000. If this is done there will be little trouble in getting an equal amount subscribed from private interests.

The Panama Canal Exposition is going to be something new in the way of such events," said he. "Every other exposition has been in commemoration of some past and gone event—some epoch in history or some notable achievement of the past. This exposition is to mark the beginning of a new era, it is to mark the greatest event of modern times. The opening of the Panama canal will recast the map of the world. Think of the mere fact that it will save seven thousand miles of travel, saving the difference between forty-nine days and sixteen days in time."

Continuing Judge Jones said that the opening of the canal would enable Florida to get a quick market in the orient for its phosphates, delivering the manufactured fertilizers at less expense than it is now possible to transport the raw material; it will open a market on the Pacific slope for all Florida products, enabling this state to compete successfully with California in the sale of citrus fruits even in the west.

Every building is going to be completed seven months prior to the opening of the exposition, which will run from February to November, inclusive of the year 1915. Judge Jones says the most business-like administration is in charge, and his description of the grounds and buildings are most interesting. The area to be covered by the exposition is 625 acres. There will be thirteen palaces for exhibits and five out of the total number will hold agricultural and horticultural products. The state buildings will be separate from these, and will face on the bay. The exposition complete will represent a cost of one hundred million dollars.

San Francisco will take care of the exhibit, the five or six million who are expected in good style, without overcrowding and without gouging. State laws will regulate charges. There are 1,200 hotels, 1,000 restaurants and 650 restaurants and eating houses.

Twenty-three foreign nations have accepted the invitation to participate and thirty-four of the states. All of the space in the buildings has been bespoken, says Judge Jones, and it has been tentatively allotted, but the final allotment will not be made until all the states have been heard from. While it is not necessary for a state to have its own building, Judge Jones says it will be distinctly more advantageous to do so. New York appropriated $700,000, and other states have been making liberal allowances for exhibits. The plan is for the state to authorize the appointment of a commissioner who shall devote his time to collecting an exhibit this commissioner to be paid a salary out of the appropriation. A. V. French of Sanford who has had much experience in exposition work, having represented the state at the Pan American exposition at Buffalo, in Tallahassee, and is assisting in propagating sentiment on the subject and is meeting with encouraging success, for the members seem to be generally in favor of it.

A Flood Sufferer

G. D. Johnson of Columbus, Ohio, is in the city in the interests of Southern Farming a farm magazine published at Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Johnson was a victim of the flood at Columbus, during which he took an active part in rescuing flood sufferers, using his pleasure launch.

Mr. Johnson states that the disaster is greater than has been thought, so far as the loss of human life is concerned. Bodies are still being found among the debris, which is being cleared away as fast as possible. Mr. Johnson with his launch carried 661 people to places of safety from the flood district.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

The Winter Garden Times tells of the progress and thrift of its pretty little town. Among the improvements soon to be started is mentioned the new brick building about to be erected by White & Son for L. J. Dillard. The place will have ground dimensions of 50x80 feet and contains three stores.

A French Belgian German syndicate, with some $12,500,000 to invest, has its representative in Tampa, to secure certain concessions, which, if allowed, will result in the investment of much money of three manufacturing enterprises which are new in that city and in the state—a textile factory, a shoe factory, and a glass factory.

Although her patch of cow peas is only fifty feet square, Mrs. Annie Kennedy gathered at the first picking this season, four bushels of fine peas snapped and green shelled. At the next picking she will have five or six bushels, it is believed. Mrs. Kennedy sold her peas in town and got a fair price for them. Hiscayne Note in Miami Metropolis.

F. F. Andrews, under sentence of death for the murder of John W. Alexander, of Palmetto was arrested at an early hour Sunday morning on a Seaboard Air Line train from Tampa to Jacksonville. Sheriff Spencer of Tampa, arrived in the afternoon and on identifying him with the man for whom he was wanted, arrested him. Andrews' arrest came just a week, almost to the hour, from the time he was sentenced to the Hillsborough county jail by sawing his way through three iron bars. He at first declared a mistake was made, but when he saw Sheriff Spencer he admitted that he was the man wanted.

It may be possible that the body of the man found floating several days ago in the river at the foot of Cowdin street and which unidentified body was buried Saturday by Undertaker Ed. Gordon, was that of G. W. Hess of the demonstration farm at New Smyrna. It is stated that Hess left New Smyrna a few days previous to the time the body was found and he has not been seen since. The clothing of the man who was found in the river, contained a card bearing the name of a banker in that city. The man was about two feet, two inches in height and in the lapel of his coat was the insignia of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He was plainly but neatly dressed and also had a small watch on his person. Times-Union.

Complimentary to Russell Brady

A delightful event in children's circles last week was the old-fashioned surprise party tendered Russell Brady at the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Walker by the junior boys and girls classes of the Congregational church Sunday school. This going away party was a tribute of love to the young classmate who is shortly to leave Sanford for another home, and much regret is expressed that he must go, for Russell is a favorite in the Sunday school. The young people went out from school and enjoyed a long afternoon of fun and frolic. As the evening shadows fell they adjourned to the parlor where the girls sang and the boys whistled all the popular songs of the day and many of the old, old songs that everybody loves. At 6:30 they moved on to the Congregational parsonage where the happy day came to a close with magic lantern pictures. It is worthy of note that the picture of a Seminole Indian thrown upon the canvas elicited much applause and cheering for Seminole county. Before leaving the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Walker, three rousing cheers signified a vote of thanks for the use of their home, three more cheers from the boys for the junior girls elicited the same graceful compliment from them for the junior boys. Another three cheers for the junior teachers, but long and loudest of all were the vociferous cheers for Russell, and the hearty good wish for a happy association in his new home.
