Officials: Television Theft Undid Assassination Plan

LOS ANGELES (AP) - The theft of a television set from a motel room was the undoing of carefully laid plans two men had for assassinating President Ford, federal officials say.

The two were indicted Monday by a federal grand jury for conspiring to assassinate Ford in Sacramento on Sept 5 - the same day Manson follower Lynette Fromme allegedly pointed a gun at Ford as he walked through a

A Justice Department spokesman said the alleged plot had no known connection with Miss Fromme's alleged attempt on Ford's life.

Farmers May Sell To Soviets

WASHINGTON (AP) - American farmers are now free to sell grain to the Soviet Union following the announcement of long-term U.S.-Russian pacts covering the sale of U.S. grain and the purchase of Soviet oil. As the embargo was being lifted Monday, Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz said as much as seven million more metric tons of U.S. grain might be sold to the Soviets

The two-month-old embargo was imposed by President Ford last summer after the Soviets purchased 9.8 million metric tons of grain from American exporters. The embargo stemmed from concern over the impact on U.S. prices that exports could have and some nervousness that predictions of bumper U.S. crops this year might not

Sharing Called Failure

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) - The federal revenue sharing program has failed to give Southerners a greater say over how their tax dollars are spent, says a report released today by the non-profit Southern Regional Council.

The average citizen has little voice in allocation of the funds which sometimes have been used for projects previously rejected by voters, according to report, based on a study of 60 cities and towns in 11 southern states.

"The lack of citizen participation in revenue sharing is contrary to the justification for revenue sharing - that local governments are closer to the people than federal officials and, therefore, more adequately reflect the needs of the people through responsive allocation of federal dollars at the local level," the report says.

Austerity Plan Approved

NEW YORK (AP) - The state's fiscal watchdog committee for deficit-ridden New York City has approved an austerity plan that will cut the city's budget by $724 million over the next three years and slash thousands more municipal workers from the payroll.

Gov. Hugh L. Carey, head of the Emergency Financial Control Board, startled other board members Monday night when he told a meeting of the City Club that 55,000 jobs would be eliminated by 1978. However, Kenneth Axelson, deputy mayor for finance, explained, "My understanding of the governor's remarks is that he was talking about the equivalent number of jobs represented by the $724 million."

Comparisons Doubted

WASHINGTON (AP) - Discovery of an attempted burglary at the offices of President Ford's campaign committee stirred memories of Watergate, but officials quickly discounted any comparisons. Lester R. Benjamin, accountant for the President Ford

Committee, reported finding two jimmy-bar marks on a file cabinet when he unlocked it Monday morning. But whoever tried to pry the cabinet open was unsuccessful and nothing was taken, he said. The heavy-duty cabinet contained checks, cash and inancial records but no political documents, according to Benjamin and Robert Visser, general counsel for the

FBI Claims Lives At Stake. Clamps Lid On Extortion

ORLANDO (AP) - The FBI, contending there are "lives at state," has clamped a news blackout on what it describes as an extortion threat against utility companies from Florida to California.

An FBI spokesman said Monday, however, that no immediate arrests were expected as the deadline for the demand for money passed without reports of violence. "No arrest is imminent," FBI spokesman Homer Boynton said. "If there were any developments, I couldn't tell you anything except that we are conducting an active investigation with lives at stake." Letters demanding money were received by the utilities last week. The companies were given five days to pay up or face the murders of employes and the destruction of

Unions Cite Right To Strike

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - Florida's two teachers' unions say their members have the right to strike regardless of what the state constitution says. But state officials Monday were quick to condemn the position and said that any proposal to change the constitution to allow public employe strikes has no chance of passing the legislature. Florida Education Association-United, which claims 35, 000 members statewide, voted at a statewide meeting Saturday in Tallahassee to uphold teacher walkouts and adopted a report criticizing the Public Employe Relations

45 Inmates On Hunger Strike

STARKE (AP) - Demanding better food and more outside exercise, about 45 of Florida's 60 death-row inmates have gone on a hunger strike. Supt. G.S. Fortner of the maximum-security Florida State Prison said the inmates rejected food offered them Monday but none had talked to him about the strike. Some of the inmates sent word to an attorney last week that they would stage a hunger strike to protest the quality of food, curtailment of privileges in the exercise vard and other restrictions.

Before starting another study of charges for calls to information, the commission directed Swafford to bring back a report on a pay-phone study at the next meeting.

TALLAHASSEE (AP) -- A circuit judge has ordered the state to sieze all Florida assets of two insurance companies which at one time held $2.5 million in medical-malpractice policies in the state. Taylor ordered the state to seize all property and assets of the two companies until further orders from the court.

Shave Spending With Tax Cut

A case can be made for a federal tax cut next year as proposed in principle by President Ford and given specifics by Democrats on the Joint Economic Committee

The proclaimed economic recovery remains DON OAKLEY open to question. The national unemployment rate continues to hover above the 8 per cent level. The stock market, which has been sinking since July, fails to reflect the same confidence among investors as that professed by Washington

An extension of the 1975 tax cut through 1976, at least, can be justified as a stimulus to business revival. As Mr. Ford put it, a tax reduction program would "give our taxpayers a better opportunity to spend their own money.'

But it is reasonable to believe that political considerations are getting serious attention from the Democrats as well as from the President Congress is committed to a tax break - the only uncertainty among its members is its scope. Mr. Ford, facing an election challenge and perhaps a battle for the GOP nomination, can ill afford to oppose a tax cut that is all but assured, anyway.

Nevertheless, the President and the congressional majority seem destined to part company on the extent of tax relief and on other pump-priming measures.

Mr. Ford has not yet outlined his own tax program, but he has insisted that a reduction must be accompanied by a restriction on federal spending. Democrats are blithely talking of a tax cut of up to $10 billion and are confident of initiating a jobs project with a $3 billion price tag. The Democratic pot would be sweetened further by anti-recession grants to state and local govern-

The potential for a new spurt of inflation in further stretching of a budget already boasting a record deficit estimated at anywhere from $60 billion to $100 billion has not been ignored by the Democratic leaders. They would call upon the President to "jawbone" restraint in wage and price

The ultimate goal, quite probably, considering a historic lack of jawboning success, would be a return to mandatory controls, which also have been ineffective.

It is impolite, perhaps, to dispute the rosy, election-eve belief that tax cuts and increased government spending can be made compatible.

But this nation is on a precarious tightrope between economic stagnation and inflation. Political reality dictates tax reductions, but the cuts must be balanced by a tight grasp on the public purse.

Slush Continues

It was unfortunate but probably inevitable that the Federal Election Commission backed down on its first regulation, governing the congressmen's office accounts, commonly called These funds are contributed by friends and supporters of the congressmen and senators for the purpose of defraying some of the costs of public office that are not paid by official expense

It was a fund of this type ("the Nixon fund") that caused a furor in 1952 and led to the famous "Checkers" speech by the former president.

We don't think the voters approve of such funds. They are an open invitation for lobbyists and pressure groups to buy access to a senator or a congressman. Whether or not they have been abused, they undermine confidence in government. The congressmen should incur no office expenses they cannot meet with authorized funds or out of their own pockets. They should not maintain "slush funds."

The Election Commission proposed to treat such accounts as campaign funds subject to the contribution and spending limits of the campaign finance law. Congress objected to strenuously, however, that the commission backed down and agreed to treat "slush funds" as campaign funds only during the last two years of a senator's sixyear term and during the second year of a congressman's two-and misunderstood economic entity in America today, primarily because it is the victim of the most totally biased information.

"I do not wonder that the American people are confused about the country's energy problems because so many of our elected representatives have for two years been pointing accusing fingers at the industry, attempting to punish the industry and make it the scapegoat for problems caused primarily by policy - or I should say, nonpolicy - failures of government."

The complaint is not that of an executive of one of the oil giants but of C. John Miller, president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, representing 4,000 of the nation's 10,000 independent drillers, who account for 90 per cent of current domestic exploration.

Lest anyone think he is being picky with Congress, Miller notes that 33 congressional committees, 65 subcommittees and one joint panel have jurisdictional claim on the energy

Almost 1,000 energy-related bills have been introduced in the 94th Congress, but of all these final action has been taken only on the 55-m.p.h. speed limit, repeal of the depletion allowance and extension of price controls (vetoed by President Ford but later extended by com-

Interpol Overlooks Basic Rights

For more than 50 years the International Criminal Police Organization, Interpol, has categorized itself as a big police force with little police power. Spokesmen insist Interpol is like a member nations, and whose authority does not go beyond the gathering and passing on of information between various police jurisdictions

Thus has any question of Interpol's potential for abuse been soundly denied by Interpol officers; it can not arrest, it can not extradite, it is "merely a conduit for information

In fact it is much more than this. Given its isolation from the official responsibilities and limitations of state law enforcement, Interpol is in its own way the most powerful and farreaching police agency in the world. One distressing example should illustrate the

No one is certain how Interpol became involved, but its right of interest is not in question. An arrest warrant was issued for Sami, he was leaving the country, and under terms of Interpol's charter that's all the information it needed to become involved. The extent of Interpol's involvement, and the

Jai-Alai Players Wear Black

In Bargaining Protest

A fan at the Orlando-Seminole Jai-Alai fronton requested a black armband Monday night.

He had seen players take the court wearing black reminders of the fact that management has refused to bargain with players' agents. "Oh, are you in sympathy with the players?"

"Naw, I don't know too much about that. I want a black armband in mourning of my money." The matter is actually a very serious matter.

One television station reported on its sports program that a strike was "imminent." Gordon Hulbert, vice president and general manager at Orlando-Seminole, said he has an open door policy with players and that as yet none of them had approached him with any grievances or contractural problems.

A strike at this point appears unlikely. The last time players decided to sit down was in 1966, and the maneuver backfired because fronton managements simply acquired services of other players, mostly Mexicans, and proved they could exist without all those strong Basque arms.

Turmoil Nothing New

Current turmoil is nothing new. It has been rising the last couple years, and came to a head over the last eight months in Daytona Beach, Dania, Miami and West Palm Beach.

The result so far is Players 0, Management 0. In many cases, player representatives or vocal anything, managements have drawn closer together - for the first time - in an attempt to stifle tactics of the players association.
On the other side of the ledger, players are seeking the same rights enjoyed by major league baseball and pro football players. They probably are not ignoring major league salaries, either.

Players association members or representatives have not yet made public their eventual demands. It is assumed that Orlando players will fall in line with demands made at other frontons, which means they would like to have increased salaries and financial benefits, development of a pension or retirement plan and also relief toward purchasing cestas. The tool of their trade costs about $55, and they use about 10 per four-month

Hulbert: My Door Is Open

As near as could be determined Monday night, the black armband treatment was no complaint about financial arrangements, but simply a protest that fronton owner Steven Calder or Hulbert refuse to talk to their bargaining agent.

"My door will stay open," said Hulbert. "Players are welcome to talk any time they want." Players - all under current contracts - say armbands will stay on until management listens to SEEDCO President Horace Orr took county commissioner Tuesday on a philosophical tour of Harlem where "poverty exists in the shadow of wealth" before returning to Seminole County where he says his agency, since 1970, has pumped more than $3million into the local economy and created 160 jobs.

Want to buy a new condominium at auction prices? The place to be, with your money in hand, is the west steps of the Seminole County Courthouse at 11 a.m. on Thursday.

Circuit Court Clerk Arthur Beckwith Jr. and deputy clerks will be auctioning off 114 Sheoah condominiums to satisfy mortgages held by First Federal Savings and Loan of Orlando. Circuit Court Judge Volie Williams Jr. has ordered the fully-built, complete but unsold units at Winter Springs sold one-by-one in a foreclosure suit against Development Enterprises Inc., of Worcester, Mass. First Federal of Orlando filed the foreclosure action to collect the unpaid principal balance of $3.19 million

He said he doesn't expect a large number of prospective buyers at the auction because buyers will have to have cash-in-hand for the condominiums, with mortgages ranging from $17,900 to $29,000 plus costs on the two and three-bedroom units. But Beckwith said he'll take certified or cashier's checks on approval of First Federal of Orlando.

A spokesman for the mortgage holder said the condominiums will be sold free and clear of any liens or second mortgages.

Beckwith said he'll use several deputy clerks to issist in the marathon auction on the courthouse steps. A source close to the project said the developers lost almost as much as the mortgage amount also when the bottom fell out of the condominium market in central Florida and the units were unsold.

"This is the largest number of parcels to be sold in A rising tide of condominium bankruptcies in the state is forcing many of the state's mortgage bankers to shed their conservative suits for a pitchman's jacket, with pockets full of hard sell gimmicks.

If the Winter Springs condominiums don't strike your fancy because the purchase must be made in cash there are other condominiums in the area that can be bought this week at auction with financing available

In a move believed to be unprecedented in Florida real estate history, the 48 units of The Oaks at Errol Estate condominium development on U.S. 441 near Apopka will be individually auctioned to the public

According to William H. Possiel, senior vice president of Western Mortgage Corp., the marketing event is designed to benefit both the mortgage banking firm, second largest in the nation, and the prospective home buyer in the Orlando metropolitan area.

By accelerating the sale of these units the company can minimize losses through savings in carrying charges and taxes, while allowing the buyer establish for himself the liquidation value of the home he is interested in," Possiel said.

The Oaks featured 40 two and three-bedroom townhouses and eight villa patio homes which have three bedrooms and a swimming pool.

At the auction near Apopka starting at 11 a.m., Saturday, Western is offering to finance the units for 30 years at nine per cent interest with 10-per cent down and 834 per cent with 20-per cent down.

"Here's what we've been faced with," said Rick Downham, Western's Florida vice president.

"Back in the last quarter of '74 and the first quarter of '75, developers with one, two or three projects going overextended themselves and ended up in a severe cash bind. We really didn't have any choice but to take over the properties on a deed in lieu of foreclosure and
