BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

BEST WITHOUT PRETTING:
 —Best in the Lord, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.—
 Psalm 37: 7.

It's a good thing we don't have dangerous floods here. We'd have to put the injured in jail.

Senator Trimmell is Suffering from the Fl—headline. Must have got his feet wet in the cross state can!

Almost a quarter of a million people in the United States are already receiving old age pensions under President Roosevelt's Social Security Act. They run from $10 to $30 a month. This is a far cry from Dr. Townsend's 10,000,000 old folks who would be pensioned $200 a month, but at least it is real.

Dr. Townsend issues a second announcement in which he explains that he only meant that he typically intends to vote for Bryan; his followers may vote as they please. That must come as a big relief to some of our local Democrats who are running on the Townsend plank. It certainly would be embarrassing to them to have to turn Republican on the very eve of a Democratic primary.

Brisbane says that a certain "numbers racket" or bolita, takes $20,000 a week from Miami's negro population, keeping thousands poor. The same thing goes on everywhere, Brisbane adds. The same thing certainly goes on here, though it may not reach the proportions of $20,000 a week. However, it is certain that hundreds of our poorest citizens are made poorer each week because they will buy tickets, and because it does not seem possible to stop this illegal gambling.

Peter Tomasello, candidate for governor, spent the major portion of his address in Orlando Monday praising the Shultz administration.
 That seems to be the bandwagon on which a number of candidates are hoping to ride into office, but as so often happens when too many climb on the same bandwagon it is liable to break down. One candidate might hope to attract some votes by condemning the present state administration. But too many candidates doing the same job are apt to get in each other's way.

President Roosevelt has asked Congress for $1,500,000,000 for further work relief projects. Undoubtedly, he will get all he asks for. That will mean that work relief will be continued for at least another year, and that local projects already started will be pushed and that some new projects can be undertaken. Sanford should make absolutely certain that any new projects started here should include the hospital and additional recreational facilities including the improvement of facilities already available such as the baseball park.

Missional has some quality which in spite of all his other accomplishments, we can't really explain. He believes in selling his brain, and he is doing it. He is selling across the Atlantic, and he is getting it done. He is getting it done in a way that is not only profitable, but it is also educational. He is showing us that it is possible to make a living out of one's own brain.

A Faithful Leader Retires

Six years ago the local Chamber of Commerce, reflecting, perhaps, the spirit of the community, was an insipid and lifeless thing. It had virtually died on its feet, and the town, too, had died with it. An atmosphere of pessimism prevailed which it was doubtful if anything could shake off. The full realization of a staggering municipal debt had just dawned upon the taxpayers. All the old banks in the county had closed their doors. Almost every day saw its new crop of bankruptcies among merchants, business men and farmers. People were leaving town like rats from a sinking ship.

It was about that time that Harry Papworth set about the task of reorganizing the Chamber of Commerce. He called a meeting in the commissioners' room of the City Hall, and for some reason or other the place was packed and jammed. Mr. Papworth was enthusiastically elected president and the meeting was concluded in a spirit of optimism which hadn't been felt in this town since the boom. Almost from that moment to this, Sanford has forged steadily ahead.

One of the first things that was done was to make the Chamber of Commerce a county organization and to interest the people of the outlying towns in its activities. Mr. Papworth was among those who were largely instrumental in convincing the County Commissioners of the wisdom of levying a small tax for publicity purposes so that for the first time in its history the Chamber of Commerce was assured of sufficient funds to carry on the most necessary features of its work.

In our opinion among the really outstanding achievements of Mr. Papworth and his associates was obtaining the services of the most able and efficient chamber of commerce secretary in the State of Florida. Karl Lehmann was then recognized, and still is recognized, as the principal exponent of his kind of work in this part of the country. It was no small achievement getting a man of his caliber to take over the secretarial duties involved in a community as torn by dissensions and generally depressed as this one was at that time.

It is not necessary for us to go into detail with respect to the many accomplishments of the Chamber of Commerce during Mr. Papworth's regime. All this has previously been stated here numerous times. Visual evidence of some energetic driving force in this community can be had almost anywhere as one drives by the now reopened Mayfair Hotel, or the new oil companies' and wholesalers' warehouses on the lake, or over the recently constructed Lakefront Boulevard and the St. Johns River Bridge, or by the Eckerson Canning Factory, or around the State Farmers' Wholesale Market.

We do not give Mr. Papworth, nor any one man, credit for being wholly responsible for these improvements here; but we do know that Mr. Papworth has worked untiringly, unceasingly and unselfishly in behalf of every worthwhile movement in this town during the past six or seven years. He has tried hard to make Sanford grow and prosper. He has done the very best he could. And he has never received one cent for his services.

Time and time again he has risen before sunup in the morning to drive fifty or a hundred miles to some meeting of the Central Florida Council of Chambers of Commerce. Every session of the St. Johns River Improvement Association has heard his voice in advocacy of river improvement. He has not missed a meeting of the State Road Department in six years. Day after day and day after day he has gone down to the Chamber of Commerce building to attend some committee meeting or cope with the mass of correspondence which is constantly accumulating there.

We have not always agreed with Mr. Papworth on everything that he has done. Nor has he agreed with us on everything we thought. We do not expect that of any man. But we are willing to admit that he has contributed his time, his money, and influence in a measure which entitles him to our unstinted praise and to the everlasting gratitude of this community.

An Important Industry

Unique among the industries of the South is the production of nitrate of soda at the Baryett Company's plant at Hopewell, Va. Of particular importance to the farmers of the South, as well as the whole country for that matter, is the fact that this is the only concern making nitrate of soda in this country. Previously, practically all of the nitrates used in this country came from Chile in South America.

"The chief use of nitrate of soda is in the fertilizer industry, where it is used to re-supply the soil with the nitrogen removed by cultivation," says the Manufacturers Record. "It is used both in the preparation of mixed fertilizers, and for direct application to the soil. Although there are other nitrogen-carrying materials, agronomists generally feel that for most purposes nitrate of soda possesses the most advantages and the fewest disadvantages."

"In fields other than agriculture, nitrate of soda has many uses. It is used in the curing of meats, the ceramics industry, and in the production of nitric acid, a commodity used in practically every industry and essential in the manufacture of explosives. It is, therefore, a product vital to the well-being of America. The dependence of the Allies during the war upon the nitrate of soda in Chile (Germany perfected a synthetic process just prior to the War) led to the realization of how essential this product is."

"The bulk of the domestic market for nitrate of soda is in the South, which gives the industry a unique place in the economic structure of the South. Fertilizer companies were quick to realize the advantages of supporting this Southern industry, and today are using more and more American nitrate of soda. During the last few years, there have been many indications that throughout the South there has spread a realization of the economic wisdom of spending money for home products."

"Thousands of demonstrations and official tests at State Colleges, many of which are placed by The Agricultural Development Bureau of The Baryett Company, have shown that the domestic product is at least the equal of any nitrate of soda and with this knowledge, farmers are now accepting the sales of such Southern products as Dr. Charles H. Berry, who recommends the purchase of Southern-made fertilizers. Additional demonstrations will be given in the approaching season and there will be a further realization of the value of home products."

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

Those who thought the celery fair was a joke woke up on a large disappointment yesterday morning when the celery started coming in from several sections and the fine prizes were awarded to the growers who realized that for a little trouble a great reward was in store for them. Among those winning prizes were: T. I. Hawkins, L. A. Brunell, Joe Cameron, and H. H. Chappell. The judges were George Hoy, J. N. Whitner, and Charles Tyler, three gentlemen who know celery thoroughly.

The Misses Mary and Julia Zachary spent Sunday with their parents at Zachary's Mill. Mrs. F. A. Johnson was "instigated" of a surprise birthday party given Mar. 20 for Miss Frances Pearson at her home in Paola. The evening was delightfully spent in dancing. Refreshments were served at a late hour after which the jolly party departed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McBride and the Misses Ada and Avis Stenstrom motored over to Du-Land Friday on a business and pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Laramore are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, Robert Eugene Laramore, Jr., born Saturday, Mar. 18, at their home in Jacksonville. Mrs. Laramore is the former Miss Vivian Yeiser of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Smith of Oviedo are in the city shaking hands with their many friends. They expect to stay the week and take in the Celery Fair and Spring Festival.

David Is Last Of Mdivani Family; Casts Lot In Oil

He Laid Fortune For Marrying Mdivanis In Field At Venice

By RICHARD KEAVY
 HOLLYWOOD, Mar. 25.—(AP)—Of the three Mdivani brothers who made headlines the world over by their marriages and divorces, only 25-year-old David survives.

David obtained an option on a lot in Venice, Calif., and Serge came to help him raise money to sink the first well. They were certain they had discovered a rich new field and by the force of their personalities and their enthusiasm, were able to sell stock to many of their friends. When the first well was sunk, the oil gushed forth in quantities that exceeded all expectations.

Serge owned several gold mines which a friend associated with him in several other ventures believed, have been paying him several thousand dollars weekly. When Alexis was killed seven months ago, he left his fortune of several millions to his two brothers and his two sisters. Serge's will, the same informant says, likely will leave his estate to David and his two sisters.

Serge liked to be called "Prince Mdivani" and always spoke of himself, with his tongue in his cheek, as "the prince." David preferred being plain "Mr. Mdivani." He might have gone a long way on the talent, presuming he had acting talent, if he had attempted to capitalize on his title. But he chose the simpler name of "David Manners" for his movie work.

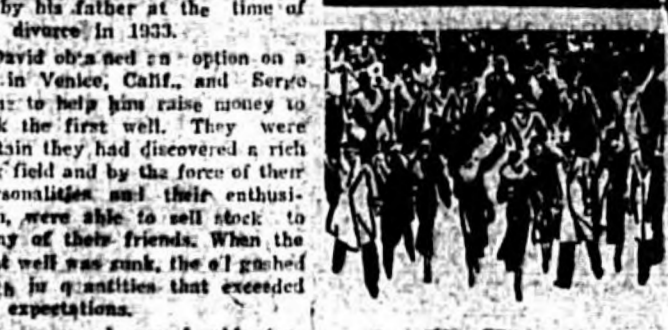

The youthful David had one friend in Hollywood—the star, Jita Nigri, whom he and Serge had met on a boat coming to this country three years before. David was an oil worker, but he also was a prince and his title impressed Hollywood when Miss Nigri introduced him after parties.

So David didn't stay long in the oil fields. When Mack Sennett met the young prince, the producer said: "I'll bet you'd look swell in a dress suit. How about becoming one of my actors?" For $150 a week, David became a Sennett comedian and the friends he made through studio and social contacts helped greatly later in finishing the Mdivani Oil Company.

At a party at Polin's David met Mae Murray. He was an actor of small consequences—an actor because of a Sennett whim—while Mae was one of the screen's reigning favorites. Mae took an immediate fancy to the young prince and David confessed later he was "completely bowled over" by Miss Murray's beauty. Meanwhile, Serge married Pola Negri.

The union of Mae and David was the second of a series of

Lagoon 'Low-Way' May Facilitate Chicago Traffic

CHICAGO, Mar. 25.—(AP)—A highway "low-way" is offered as a solution to Chicago's traffic problem. It entails the draining of a Lincoln park lagoon and the building of a high speed roadway on its soggy bed. Engineers say it is the most practical suggestion yet made to unsear traffic.

The lagoon, which resembles a canal, parallels the outer drive along the lake shore, north of the loop business area, for two miles. The outer drive is scarcely able to take care of rush hour traffic now and with completion of a new bridge across the head of the Chicago River, traffic from several sources will converge in the park.

The only other roads through the park that might be utilized are what Otto K. Jelinek, traffic engineer for the Chicago park district, calls "horse and buggy" drives of the twisting variety, beautiful but not practical. Jelinek and other engineers figure the proposed submerged highway could be made into a thing of beauty for $4,500,000. They would erect arched overpasses of the Venetian type for pedestrians, and would landscape the sloping sides.

They argue that the lagoon isn't used much any more anyway, and that it would be just as beautiful as a sunken highway as a stagnant pool. Jelinek would make the lagoon a three-way drive—two one-way sections for high speed traffic, and a third for motorists in no hurry. The present outer drive would be maintained for sight-seers.

Jelinek doesn't know where funds to finance the improvement may be obtained. "I'm just an engineer," he explained.

President Asked If He Is Playing Canal Politics

(Continued from page 1) dent's political advisors dictating his action or lack of action on the canal? It would be hard to imagine worse politics than this. To stop work on the canal now would be to give the Republicans something with which to ridicule the President all over the country. They would point to that "hole in the ground" in which $5,400,000 has been sunk. If the canal job is stopped, that money is clearly a complete and scandalous waste.

The President's greatest hope in keeping Florida in the Democratic column lies in North and West Florida—among the people who most ardently want this canal. South Florida is against him already. Florida is a doubtful state right now, and that due to anti-Roosevelt sentiment in South Florida. No better way could have been devised to drive Florida out of the Democratic column than to stop the canal job now.

Townsend's Aide Resigns Office On Eve Of Probe

(Continued from page one) tary. "Mr. Clements was general manager and had built up 7,000 clubs with millions of members, and a treasury of $110,000 with out any debts. But Doctor wanted 48 general managers."

Clements' statement and his wife's explanation emphasized that he still believes in the plan to pay $200 a month to persons over 60 years of age on the condition that they spend it each month.

Mrs. Clements, who said they both planned to continue active support after her husband returns to his real estate business in California, credited Clements with having evolved the two percent transactions tax to raise the pension money. Dr. Townsend, she said, originally planned a 10 percent national sales tax.

Representative John Steven Mc

Goatry (D. Cal.), sponsor of a bill to enact the Townsend Plan into law, said Clements' resignation would make no difference in "our plans to elect congressmen at the next session."

"It was just a case of two key men not being able to agree," he said. "Dr. Townsend wanted a third party movement but Clements opposed it. Through Clements' co-operation, I was able to back down Dr. Townsend. I regret Clements' resignation because he built up the movement and Dr. Townsend, too."

McGoatry revealed he had filed a petition seeking to force House consideration of his bill, and that 100 members were ready to sign it. A total of 218 names are needed to force consideration. Clements, a youngish, frail-looking man of medium height, knew Townsend in Long Beach, Calif. One day Townsend burst into his office with a declaration that he had thought of a cure for the depression. Clements assumed he was fooling, until he outlined the plan. Clements became interested and for the next

2-Barreled Word Upsets League Of Nations For Day

'Alsbald' Translated As 'Forthwith' Was Cause For Alarm

LONDON, Mar. 25.—The present session of the Council of the League of Nations in London as the "alsbald session," as a result of the terrific to-do here for a day over whether the German word "alsbald" means "forthwith" or "in due course."

For twenty-four hours, the fate of the world seemed to turn on a translation made by a $15-a-week League interpreter, who rendered the salient sentence of the telegram from Baron Konstantin von Neurath, German Foreign Minister, thus:

"The German government can participate in the council proceedings only if it is assured that the powers concerned are prepared with in regard to the German proposal."

The German Embassy here rushed into print with the explanation that the word "alsbald" in the German text should have been translated "in due course" or "at the earliest convenience." This, of course, is a much softer expression than "forthwith" or "immediately" and takes the sting somewhat from the original League version, which had it that Chancellor Adolf Hitler would not send a representative to London unless the council agreed to discuss his twenty-five-year peace plan "forthwith."

Linguists are pointing out that in north Germany the word means "forthwith," but in south Germany and Austria it connotes something less brusque and immediate. Neurath is a south German and Hitler is an Austrian by birth, facts that support the theory that their meaning was mistaken.

Whatever the case, the French are not disposed to look with more favor on the German reply to the League's invitation. A spokesman said: "There was no doubt of the meaning of Herr Hitler's reply, in the French translation. Having fully considered the reply, M. Flandin has not retracted his first observation."

That observation was, in effect, that the German proposal to consider the Hitler plan simultaneously with the German breach of the Locarno pact was unacceptable and impossible, and that Flandin would leave London rather than consider it.

Those on trial now are C. A. Brown, John P. Bridges and C. W. Carlike, former policemen and special officers, specifically charged in this case with the kidnapping of E. P. Pollock who, with Joseph Shoemaker and Sam D. Rogers, was manhandled by a mob last November. Shoemaker died three weeks he spent all his time in library research on tax statistics. The result was the formation of Old Age Revolving Pensions, Limited.

Townsend proved to have little genius for organizing and it was in this feature that Clements excelled. Although Clements attempted to keep in the background, recently he has been mentioned in newspaper and magazine articles and Townsend is understood to have resented the reference to his co-founder's importance in the organization.

CANCER RESEARCH

Diseases which are confined to human beings and which cannot be experimentally produced or studied in other animals, by that very nature present a serious barrier to medical investigators.

In 1900 it was thought that cancer was confined to man, and particularly to the races living in civilized communities. Later it was shown that cancer can be found throughout the vertebrate kingdom; that is, in practically all animals that have a spinal column. The "cancer process" is fundamentally the same in all species of animals.

Furthermore, cancer can be produced experimentally and of the diseases which can be produced experimentally few, if any, simulate the normal human disease so closely as cancer.

The experimental production of cancer was achieved in 1915 by two Japanese scientists. They showed that the disease can be produced by painting an animal with tar. Since then the cancer-producing elements of tar, and of other petroleum oils, have been chemically identified and isolated in purified form. These cancer-producing elements are in a group of substances chemically known as the sterols. Sterols are also normal constituents of the body.

Other studies have clarified other phases of the cancer problem. Thus, it is clear that the cancerous character of the disease lies within the cells affected. This is proved by the fact that when cancer tissue is transplanted into a healthy animal, the resulting tumor arises from the transplanted cells and not from the healthy cells of the animal.

However, what it is that endows a heretofore normal cell with the power to multiply and what lends momentum to this process so that it can go on almost indefinitely, is still the major and unanswered question of the cancer problem.

On this and similar problems, many research laboratories through out the civilized world are centering their attention.

Bond Definition In Simpson Urges Co-Operation In Trade Body

PLEDGING OF REVENUE CERTIFICATES FOR LOANS QUESTIONED

TALLAHASSEE, Mar. 25.—(AP)—The definition of a bond under Florida law is sought in the Supreme Court.

In two cases, the court was asked to decide whether revenue certificates pledging the proceeds of public utilities of utilities constructed with federal loans would render the taxpayer liable for the debt.

One of the test suits involved a plan to install a $10,000 water supply system for the island municipality of Pinellas county, the other a $1,800,000 industrial building program in three tiered sewer villages.

In both cases, the court was asked to determine whether there is a distinction between bonds and revenue certificates. Both building programs will be done with federal funds, 45 percent as a loan and 55 percent as a direct grant.

Answering the Pinellas county suit, brought by John R. Herrera, a taxpayer, John C. Blocker, Jr., St. Petersburg, contended the definition of a bond under Florida law would render the taxpayer liable for the debt.

Blocker contended the definition of a bond under Florida law would render the taxpayer liable for the debt.

"To you, Mr. Hines, I want to extend my sincerest thanks for the wonderful service you have always rendered Seminole County and Sanford during the term of office. I can't call to mind an instance where I have called on you for assistance that hasn't been immediately rendered, and I shall always look back on the years of my term of office remembering that Mr. Hines was always the star of our administration."

Then there was a search for the tire lugs until one of the boys remembered that one of the lads who had been taken home by Mrs. Brannan when she came to town for the mechanics had placed the lugs in his pockets so they would not be lost.

The only thing to be done was to drive back to Sanford again, and the boy who kept the lugs from being lost, got said lugs, drove back three miles into the country, and complete the outfit of the spare tire in place of the flat tire.

"Time will tell," said Mr. Brannan.

Spring Fever in the news

No doubt of it now—the open season for Spring Fever is upon us. The first robin has been duly acknowledged, crickets are tuning up, and the advertising columns of this paper are full of news about gayer things to wear and do and eat and enjoy.

Even a shut-in can follow the rhythm of the seasons by reading the advertisements. The first ad for white shoes is as sure a sign of Spring as the first tulip. Soon you'll be seeing in these pages what you dare leave off on the beach this Summer, and hearing what new sunburn lotion will guard the exposed areas.

You'll be buying Springy things off and on for several weeks. Chart your shopping course carefully, wisely, by following the advertisements from day to day. Compare values, select styles, make up your mind before you start the leg work from store to store. You'll save money—and have more time to enjoy the nice weather.

Manager Predicting Pennant Victory

His Team Will Give Others Good Scrap This Season

By PIR TRAYNOR
 Manager Pittsburgh Pirates
PAN ANTONIO, Mar. 25.—(P) I do not believe in a National League pennant for Pittsburgh. In fact, I see by the papers there is hardly a chance for the Pirates to win the pennant. Bill Terry says his Giants will win it; Frankie Frisch is certain the Cardinals will win it; and Charlie Grimm believes the Cubs will repeat.

Somebody isn't till at the bank. There doesn't happen to be any pennants available this year as I'll not pick the Pirates. I do believe we will have a better hitting club than we had last year when we finished third in club batting. We have a great bunch of natural hitters who look good to me in spring training.

The biggest part of our troubles of last year will disappear. I believe when Al Todd, obtained from the Phillies, starts working behind the plate, we are counting heavily on him to save a lot of ball games for us by his handling of the pitching staff.

I look for Cy Blanton, my rookie sensation of last year, to have an even better season with Todd behind the plate. Bill Swift, second to Blanton in the league in effectiveness, looks better than ever and the rest of the staff has been showing good stuff in training.

We won 86 ball games last year and finished in fourth place, which is quite unusual. I believe we had the best club in the league during the last five weeks of the 1933 season, outside of the Cubs, and should give them all scrap this year.

We know we have a lot of "ifs" but with the breaks, we have just as good a shot at the pennant as any other club.

Consistency will help our ball club. We had a "hot and cold" team last year. We'd win five games in a row and then drop three or four. I believe our pitching, hitting and improvement in double plays will remedy that.

It looks like Todd behind the plate, Gus Bahr at first base, "Pop" Young at second, Artie Vaughan at short and I believe my arm is improving and will allow me to play third. Wilbur Brubaker, a good looking prospect from Kansas City, might play a lot of third base.

Paul Waner will be in right and Forrest Jensen in left. Fred Schulte, from Washington, and Daniel Hefey will fight for centerfield, vacated temporarily because of Lloyd Waner's recent illness.

Besides Blanton and Swift, I'm counting on John Tising, a rookie, Mace Brown, who should be a regular, Jim Weaver, Red Jones and Guy Bush, as my best pitching material.

Having finished in fourth place last year, we're in a good spot to give somebody trouble this year.

Traffic Chance Wins A Place In Greyhound Derby

In the season's greatest blanket finish, the up and coming Traffic Chance finished ahead of the favored Wild Panny last night to win second of a series of six elimination races leading to the $1,000 added Greyhound Derby of Apr. 9.

Wild Panny knocked out of the running on the first turn. Traffic Chance took the lead and won with Newt, Ann Hope and Golden Lad flashing in that order to insure themselves another chance at the Derby race.

Eliminated with Wild Panny was Paddy Blue, Miss Mark, and Elly 478.

A huge crowd witnessed the night's program, run under ideal conditions, and interest in the Derby appeared to be mounting.

Third of the six elimination will be run Thursday night at Wash Post, Ann Will, Hawk Light, Traffic Sing, Just Wilder, Masked Fairy, Backfielder and Ash Tray, entered.

City Considered By Big League As Training Center

Conference Arranged With American Association Head

Sanford as the spring training headquarters of all baseball teams in the American Association was pictured before the Chamber of Commerce last night by Arthur Brannan who has been carrying on negotiations with officials of the Association for some time.

Such negotiations have now proceeded to a point where it was believed safe to give publicity to the affair.

Mr. Brannan has been exchanging telephone conversations, telegrams and letters with George M. Troutman, president of the American Association, and the latter has asked for a conference in Sanford with leaders interested in baseball. Mr. Troutman was the one who suggested the idea that Sanford be made headquarters for the entire association, with two teams training in this City and all the others nearby.

A mistake was made in having too large a committee handle the Chattanooga situation, Mr. Brannan declared, and his suggestion that a much smaller committee be named to meet with Mr. Troutman at a luncheon conference here on Apr. 1 was accepted. He begged to be left off the committee, but President Tom Simpson and other members of the Chamber of Commerce refused to hear him.

In accordance with Mr. Brannan's suggestion, President Simpson said he would ask the County Commissioners, City Commissioners, American Legion, Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions Clubs each to name a representative on the committee to serve with Mr. Brannan whom he appointed as the representative of the Chamber of Commerce. The committee will select a chairman from its membership.

The American Association is composed of baseball teams in Columbus, O., Indianapolis, Ind., Kansas City, Mo., Louisville, Ky., Milwaukee, Wis., Minneapolis, Minn., St. Paul, Minn., and Toledo, O.

Fourth Race, Quarter Mile: Traffic Office 12.00 1.00 2.00, Fast 2.00 2.00, Cedar Maid 2.00.

Boxing Program By Fair Gathering At Arena Enjoyed

An unusually interesting program of boxing was enjoyed by a fair sized crowd at the Fourth Street Arena last night. It was a benefit performance for underprivileged children, and $18.75 was net raised to the treasury of the Boys Athletic Club which sponsored the show.

The bout between Clyde Harney and Frank Volkenberg was declared by the fans to be one of the best witnessed in the local arena. Both boys which the crowd seemed to especially enjoy were between Harry Lee Moore and Ruddy Ogilby and between two colored boys, Charlie Williams vs. Arthur Harris, with Williams winning.

Billy Wilkinson won over Charles McElin on a technical knock-out in second round. Therefore Klieker won over Bill McElin; Pete Willis won over G. J. Harbage; Ollie Chapman and Charles Harriman fought to a draw; Charles Cook vs Harold Johnson—draw; Bob Bickel vs George Delinger—draw.

The following boys will go to Orlando this evening: Pete Tillis, Clarence Barryman, Giles Chapman, Frank Johnson, Harry Lee Moore, Ruddy Ogilby, Frank Volkenberg, Tubby Smith, Theodore Klieker and Billy Wilkinson.

Sanford Enters Swimming Meet Next Saturday

Seminole High School will swim against Orlando High School in a dual swimming meet at Rollins College on Saturday, Mar. 28, the first swim to be held in the afternoon.

This is the first time that Sanford has been represented in a swimming contest since 1928. As Coach Melchior is busy with his Spring football squad the swimming coaching has been taken over by Jack Torrence, a student at the school, and he promises to come back from Winter Park next Saturday with Orlando's scalped to his belt.

Sanford will be represented at the dual swimming meet by Lester Phillips, Bill Wright, Roland Merchant, Frank Benjamin, Clyde Hurt and Jack Torrence.

2 Huge Black Bass Caught In Lake At Alamosa Springs

Here's a fish story that is a fact. Phil Roberts and Ralph Lansing brought to The Herald office last evening two black bass weighing over 10 pounds. They caught them in an 80-acre lake west of Alamosa Springs during the afternoon, with rod and reel.

"I was often one much beautiful," Mr. Roberts said, "and lots of people don't know the black bass that big can be caught in Seminole County."

The fish Mr. Roberts caught tipped the scale a few ounces more than 11 pounds, while Mr. Lansing's fish weighed a little more than 10 pounds.

The fishermen also caught several "little fish" weighing only 2 or five pounds each.

Egret Guard Is Ordered To Duty In The 'Glades'

WASHINGTON, Mar. 25.—(AP) The government's "egret guard" has been ordered to take up active duty in the Everglades. The Department of Agriculture has mobilized all game agents in the Florida district to start the annual watch over the egret during its nesting season.

A strict lookout will be kept during the next six weeks for a type of law-breaker who has almost been wiped from existence—the egret plume-bootlegger. The weeks between mid-March and early May, explained Col. H. P. Sheldon of the biological survey, are the most critical of the trail bird.

"During this period, the bird's plumage reaches the height of its beauty—at the very time the eggs are being laid and young egrethatched. Then the young are started to walk. If the mother loses her life, the young are lost.

The egret guard has high watch to effectively during the 25 years of its existence. The slaughter of egret has been reduced from 100,000 to 10,000 per year.

The life of the egret, whose white crane-like feathers are ranked with the plumage of the bird of paradise, is not only protected by law but even the wearing of an egret plume is a misdemeanor.

Black-Draught's Good Reputation The confidence people have in Black-Draught built up from satisfactory use so many years is shown in its being handed on from one generation to another. It must be good to have such a strong following.

Here is a typical reference to Black-Draught by a satisfied user: "We have used Black-Draught for twenty years," writes Mr. Fred Richardson, of Harrison, Okla. "My mother has used it for fifty years. It is the best medicine I know anything about. I take it for constipation and flatulence, or when I feel sluggish and bad. Black-Draught is splendid to regulate the bowels, cleansing them of waste matter, ridding them of constipation. I expect to use it twenty-five years more. If I live and it gives satisfaction as it has always given."
