Stetson Library Has Rare Copies of Early Boston Weekly Magazine

Forty nine of the earliest issues of "The Christian History", recognized as one of the best sources on church history, are on file in the Stetson University Library.

The magazine was published in Boston 200 years ago (only 24 American libraries have files of "The Christian History") and of these but 16 have complete files. Dates of publication are from March 5, 1743 to February 23, 1745. Yellowed and with some of the pages slightly dog-eared from use, the letter "P" is used for "and many capitals are used. It was printed by Kirkland & Green, for Thomas Prince, Junr. A. B.

The editor assures his readers that the magazine "will continue to be printed in the same form with the same large Page as the present" (the page is 5" by 7 1/2") at the rate of two Shillings new Tenor per Quarter, delivered at any House in Town unexcused, and 6d new Tenor more per Quarter, in closed seal, & directed.

A modern magazine editor would scarcely expect his subscribers to wade through a statement of purpose like the following: "This at the earnest desire of many Persons of Piety and Judgment, Lovers of the peculiar Doctrine Power and Practice of the Christian Religion; as they were promoted by the power of the old Church of England from the Days of the Reformation and by the renowned bellows of NEW ENGLAND; who therefore heartily rejoice to see and read of their revival both in Great Britain & America, and for the Advancement of the Reformation Kingdom and City that the PRESENT WORK is undertaken Which therefore will be wholly confined to Matters of Religion and in particular in sacred but of the Christian Ministry or other things of a religious importance."

The editor was also fully cautious when it came to anonymous writers, Ministers and other Persons of

THIS FOUR-STORY HOUSE stood in the path of the new super highway being built through Queens to New York City's International Airport at Idlewild, so a crew of expert movers put it on "rails" and slid it out of the way. The 35-family structure is shown on its new foundation across the street. Only complaint by tenants was that apartments which formerly faced the street now face the rear of the building. special session President Truman had sufficient power to deal with inflation but "we found various situations where executive powers might be somewhat enlarged."
Noting that Mr. Truman in his Philadelphia convention speech claimed credit for high farm prices and high wages, Taft said the President also will have to accept responsibility for high consumer prices.
"The President's only complaint is that the Republicans will not give him power to fix wages, to fix prices and ration commodities," Taft said.
"It is my view that the restoration of OPA, subsidies, price control, wage control and rationing—the police state methods derided by Truman himself—would only make the situation worse, create black markets and check the increase in production which will reduce prices."

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

THERE ARE LAWS WHICH VIOLATION MEANS DEATH TO INDIVIDUALS AND TO CIVILIZATIONS. SPIRITUAL DEATH IS WORSE THAN PHYSICAL. In the way of righteousness is life.—Pr. 12:28.

Boss Crump got bumped last week. Hooray for the bumper!

Newspaper headlines tell us that the people of Berlin "fear a new Munich is in the making." We wonder just how many people know what that means, so fleeting is the memory of the public. It was at Munich, you recall, that British Prime Minister Chamberlain surrendered to Hitler on the Czechoslovakian steel and brought to England his umbrella and "peace for our times". As between the two, we'll take the umbrella, because peace gained through cowardice is worth less.

There is not enough food produced to feed the world, says R. B. Fuller, manager of the International Chemical Corporation's Florida branch. That is why prices are so high. That is the basis of most of our international tensions. Keep everybody well fed and they will remain affable, pleasant and pliable. Wars would become a thing of the past. But in the absence of such abundance, wars are necessary as a means of reducing the population to a level where production will support it. We should be studying ways and means of increasing production, instead of shortening working hours, telling wheat farmers to cut acreage by 8 percent.

It is not surprising to read that uranium, the stuff from which atomic bombs are made, has been shipped to Russia, in view of the large number of "friends" which the Russian government has in high executive office in the Truman Administration. Some day this same uranium may come back to us in the form of atomic bombs. But that is not surprising either to anyone who takes the trouble to recall that only a few months before Pearl Harbor our government was permitting the shipment of scrap iron and oil to the Japanese government. There is such a thing as being so tolerant that you become a "dope head."

The United States is going to have another depression, says Senator Claude Pepper, a reasonably safe prediction, inasmuch as we always have had depressions from time to time ever since the world began. Even the Bible told about the seven good years and the seven lean years. About the only thing we poor mortals can do about it is to save up as much as we can during the good years so that we will have something to tide us over the lean years. And if everybody would do that, they would provide a nice soft cushion for the depression, but we're afraid too many people like to "eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow we may die."

President Truman's protection of Communist spies operating within the government is grounds for impeachment, says Senator Ferguson of Michigan. Should an attempt be made to impeach Truman, it would be the first time such action has been taken since the ill-fated attempt to impeach President Johnson following the Civil War. Johnson was Lincoln's Vice President, became President when Lincoln died, and served for nearly four years before Grant's election. But because he was born in North Carolina, had been a Senator from Tennessee, he was suspected by some of the northern crucifers as being kindly disposed toward the South. The House of Representatives adopted a resolution denouncing his impeachment and he was tried by the Senate. The final vote was 35; not guilty, 19, which resulted in an acquittal, as a two-thirds vote is required.

Buyers' Strike

The strike of housewives against high-priced meat has great potential force as an articulate protest against the troubles brought by inflation. The protest might, if sufficiently widespread, bring about a trimming of profits and wastage in meat distribution, with some probably temporary reduction in prices. The spirit behind the protest, the urge to act, could really stop inflation.

Inflation cannot be stopped now by any magic enacted or decreed in Washington. Individuals throughout the country, acting in determination and in concert, could stop it.

We could do it by buying less goods, providing we should go on making just as much goods. Then goods would become more plentiful than the money offered for buying them, and prices would fall. But buying could not then be restored to present rates at the lower prices, for shortage would promptly return and prices as promptly rise again.

Or individuals could produce more goods. The farmer could produce more meat, the baker make more bread, the miner dig more coal, the mill hand make more steel, the factory worker make more automobiles and toasters and shoes and everything else, and so on. If everybody worked harder and produced more, everybody could have more. People wouldn't have to stop buying to make lower prices; there would be goods and so prices would be lower.

One way would require sacrifice, the other would require harder work. There is no magic third way, involving neither sacrifice nor hard work. The way of sacrifice might be enforced by price ceilings and rationing and wage and other controls. But law or decree cannot create the other way, the way of harder work which leads to abundance. It can only be done by the determination of the people.

Free Danube Trade

The United States could not hope to win approval of its plan for free use of the Danube River by the ships of all nations. But by presenting the plan at the Belgrade conference it has placed itself on record in favor of the free use of the physical facilities at hand to foster and increase commerce everywhere.

It has been repeated to the point of weariness that economic well-being depends upon free flow of commerce. Yet apparently there still are people, parties, and whole nations who do not understand and believe the fact.

The Communist nations insisted upon retaining the power individually to control commerce on the Danube, to take tribute from it or strangle it at will. The economic fallacy of such a policy is plain, yet they do not seem to see it. Or if they saw it, they permitted political considerations to override the economic ones, an equally erroneous policy.

False ideas about commerce and prosperity are not confined to the Danubian Basin. There are other channels through which world commerce passes, and other impediments to trade. International conferences aimed at freeing trade channels from individual controls and impediments are always interesting.

Fitting Honor

Unnoticed among conspicuous congressional failures to legislate, a noncontroversial bill slipped through, authorizing the issuance of a special stamp for the late Chief Justice Harlan F. Stone.

Stone came to the head of the court after 16 notable years as associate justice. He shares with Chief Justice Edward L. White the distinction of having been the only associate justices to be promoted to chief justice. Though his tenure was only five years, he ranks with Hughes as one of this century's two most eminent occupants of the post. A third, Taft, who could have ranked with these, came to the court when 65, and at this advanced age did not equal the expectations aroused by his notable earlier career.

Though Stone died only two years ago, his place in American judicial history is secure. Congress did well to commemorate him.

Recreation Program

(Continued from Page One) checkers, tumbling, dancing, hobby exchange and story hours. Group contests and games have included bicycle races, artist contests, track meet, buddy race, poison shoe, name the 48 states, gum drop gobble, bubble blowing contest, newspaper-relays, three-legged race, paper bag relays, wheel barrow race, jumping contests, potato race, pin the tail on the donkey and relays.

Three tournaments have been properly supervised and completed. These included tennis, badminton, and ping pong. The winners were announced in The Sanford Herald, and were also interviewed over Station WTRR. Theater tickets were given to winners.

The baseball league meets three mornings a week at the Ninth Street Diamond. Tennis classes are conducted two mornings a week.

Several talent contests have been held in the auditorium of the Grammar School and one was recently held at the Ritz Theater. Winners were crowned by applause and a prize was awarded to each. Special events have been a treasure hunt, pet show, hobby show, tramp party, doll show, and a scavenger hunt. Prizes were awarded to winners in each division.

Girls clubs have been formed and leaders have been selected to help keep the equipment room in order and see that it is properly used.

Swimming classes have been held twice a week at Crystal Lake, and activities include water polo, water designs, diving, water relays and water aerobics. To add interest, watermelon parties and picnics have been enjoyed by all age groups. Singing and games occupy the children's time on the trips to and from the lake. The handicraft division has been active and many useful articles have been made, including bill-folds, change purses, lamp shades, etc.

Records are kept of each boy and girl and on Fridays a boy and girl are chosen as high point winners of the week. These points are based on attendance, conduct, sportsmanship, improvement in play and contests participated in. Winners are announced and the activities of the week are reviewed each Monday in The Herald, and each day a schedule of activities for the following day is printed.

Sanford Housewives

(Continued On Page Two) bring prices down. R. A. Redding, builder, also declared that he would be willing to go without meat for several weeks.

E. F. Housholder and son Karlisle, attorneys, declared that they are in favor of the meatless program, also did R. L. Cox, photographer. "However, we have got a lot of chickens at home," he said with a grin.

W. C. Bule, manager of the Piggly Wiggly meat counter, today advised housewives to read the current issue of Time Magazine which quotes an ex-G.I. meat counter manager as follows: "Ladies, I wish you would stop talking about the high prices of meat until you are ready to help bring them down. During the depression you were glad to get the cheaper cuts of meat, but now I can't even sell them."

"You want center cuts of pork chops; you are willing to pay 10 to 15 cents a pound more for them. You pay $1 to $1.10 a pound for center cuts of ham because you won't buy the end cuts that I am glad to trim up for you at from 57 to 69 cents a pound. They are just as tender, have as much flavor, and are actually leaner (after I have trimmed them), but your husband makes too much money for you to use them."

Crosses Burn Near Aiken Negro Church

COLUMBIA, S. C. Aug. 10.—(AP)—Two crosses were burned near an Aiken County church last night while South Carolina negroes were inside being instructed in the voting procedure for today's Democratic primary, a negro leader said.

State President J. M. Hinton of the South Carolina Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said one cross, about eight feet tall and made of two by fours, was burning about 1,000 yards from the church.

Hinton said he approached the church, the Storm Branch Baptist between Clearwater and Bangor, about four miles from Augusta, Ga., from the Clearwater side.

DOUBLE IN ELDORAD(I)O

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Romanian refugees in Turkey report that a plebiscite is to be held in their country late this month to determine whether it shall become a member of the Soviet Union.

Should this prove to be true it will mean that Russia is starting the annexation-long expected by observers—of her Eastern European satellites. Such an expansion of the Soviet Empire would further consolidate her grip on that half of the continent and pave the way for fresh efforts at further moves towards the English channel.

Should Romania vote to "join" the Soviet Union, the refugees say, the Romanian Parliament will be dissolved and delegates to Moscow will be named instead. Then, of course, Moscow could send Russian troops into Romania without question either from her people or from foreign countries. As a matter of fact, it is said that Russian divisions already have surrounded Bucharest and have strengthened the garrisons in other cities. What price a free plebiscite?

This column previously has forecast that Moscow in due course would annex the satellite states, whose governments already have been ousted in favor of Communist regimes. There is no doubt that Russia would have done so already, as in the case of the three little Baltic states, but for the fact that she is now dealing with larger and sturdier nations, and furthermore wishes to maintain a pose of legality so as not to create feeh and hostility among prospective victims. The indications are that Moscow is getting anxious because of the discontent and resistance which are running through the satellites. It behooves the Soviet to move to a plan of maintaining that Stalin-Adriatic line which she has forged through the heart of Europe by her conquest of the countries now behind the iron curtain.

If you will take a look at your map of Eastern Europe you will see the strategic importance of annexing Romania with her population of close to 16,000,000. She is bounded on the north by the U. S. S. R., on the east by the Soviet Ukraine and the Black Sea, on the west by Yugoslavia and Hungary and on the south by Bulgaria. With Romania in the fold, Russia will to all intents and purposes have moved her frontiers up against the three important neighboring satellites. They come next for annexation. It's the old game of pyramiding.

Russia's need of consolidating her position quickly is fully reflected in the international Danubian Conference now being held in Belgrade. The Soviet bloc, headed by Moscow, proposes to take over complete control of that great and important waterway, to the exclusion of the Western Powers—America, Britain and France.

It's easy to see why Russia wants domination of the Danube, when you stop to consider that it winds in and out among numerous satellites, including Romania. Naturally Moscow doesn't want Western influence at work among her slave states. If we are indeed about to see the beginning of Russian annexation of the satellites, it will alter the military picture in Europe. Into every nation which "joins" the Soviet Union, Moscow will immediately fling her troops, so that in due course the Red Armies will be up against that Stalin-Adriatic line, facing the countries of Western Europe. There is no doubt that Russia figures on achieving all this as part of the "cold war," meantime pushing her world revolution for the spread of Communism.

Ted Williams Paces A. L. Batters With Average Of .387

CHICAGO, Aug. 10 (AP)—Boston's Ted Williams was still leading the American League batters today with a .387 average on 120 hits on 310 times at bat in 86 games.

In second place was Cleveland's Lou Boudreau with .345. Al Zarilla of St. Louis remained in third spot with .330. Dale Mitchell of Cleveland was fourth with .326 and Walt Egan of Detroit was next with .317.

The biggest obstacle in the path of Alvin Dark, rookie shortstop of the Boston Braves, toward his drive to become the first freshman to win the National League batting championship since 1941, is Stan Musial, the slugging outfielder of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Dark increased his batting average four points to .334, but still trails Musial by 54 points. Although he slipped three percentage points, Stan boasts a .388 through games on Sunday, on 155 hits in 406 times at bat.

The only rookie ever to win the league's batting crown was Pete Reiser of Brooklyn who swatted 343 in 1941.

Herlong Says Arbitrator Had Right To Call Contest In Orlando

Silver Springs, Aug. 10 (Special)—Admitting that it was a regrettable incident in view of the large crowd, Florida State League President Syd Herlong today ruled that Umpire Frank Anderson was within his rights when he called off the Gainesville at Orlando game Friday night, Aug. 6, in the top of the second inning.

"League rules specifically state," he pointed out, "that the umpires have absolutely nothing to do with deciding whether or not a game shall start. This is entirely in the hands of the home club manager."

"However," he added, "once a game starts, the umpire-in-chief is the sole judge as to whether or not play shall continue when, after unusual weather apenty renders the field in an unfit condition for play. A Gainesville player was injured sliding in a play, and it was obvious to Umpire Anderson that further injuries were possible for, from all reports, the field was unusually muddy."

Orlando formally complained to President Herlong that the umpire acted too hastily, but did not lodge the usual protest notice.

Mr. Shortstop And Bargain Basement Ed's Betty To Run A's Play Before In Feature Tonite Home Fans Tonite

Ed's Betty and Mr. Shortstop will have the spotlight when the greyhound aristocrats parade on the race strip before the start of the feature ninth race at the Volusia County Kennel Club in Daytona Beach tonight. They are the only super-speedsters which to date have chalked up seven wins each on the Volusia track. Tonight there may be an eighth win in the bag for one of them, though they will be an against a red hot pack of powerhouse runners.

Beautiful Paketta, a six-times winner and track record holder, will be one of the competitors, as will Wintra, another greyhound with invisible wings on her feet. Both these aces are products of the famous Randle Brothers Kennels. Some of the experts think Sooner Select, owned by Mrs. O. Z. Ferral, is due for a win. He has been hitting the show and place positions frequently. And O. B's Calaway will be out there trying. He was victor in the New Smyrna Beach Handicap last Friday against a pack of the country's fastest steppers.

Sam Spade and Juviel J's complete tonight's feature octet. With such a setup there is certain to be a thrill served up with every one of the 19,800 inches in the 5-16th mile route.

Valdosta's G-F Lead Is Cut To Half Game

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A slim half game is all that's left of Valdosta's once commanding Georgia-Florida League lead as the Dodgers continue to spin and the onrushing Waycross leads continue their sensational play.

Waycross shutout the Tallahassee Pirates 2-0 last night as the Dodgers dropped their sixth game in a row. The latest Dodger loss was to Moultrie 4-2.

In the final Georgia-Florida game Americus edged Thomas-

Tex Cofer Is Fined For Cursing Players

Silver Springs, Aug. 10 (Special)—Altho St. Augustine players John Sebastian John Pawlick and Wally Duvokovich, and Orlando manager Lou Bevil were chased from the game by Umpire Tex Cofer the night of Aug. 4 at Orlando, it'll be Cofer who'll pay a fine for the incident that held up the contest at least 10 minutes.

League President Syd Herlong's investigation of the case, revealed today, resulted in his fining Cofer $10 for "using profanity toward a player" although he and all other umpires have been told repeatedly not to indulge in such conduct.

None of the players were penalized under Herlong's ruling.

He also ruled against St. Augustine's protest of the game, declaring that the Saints' complaint, that the umpire had used profanity on manager Sebastian, was not a "protestable complaint."

Herlong also announced that he had fined Orlando catcher Ike Seane $10 for his conduct on July 31, and had fined Gainesville's Flee Collins $5 for tossing a bat and then being tossed out of a game at Gainesville Aug. 5.

Cordele at Albany was rained out.

Tonight's schedule will be replaced by the north-south game at Moultrie.

Gov. Thurmond, flying here from Columbia, is to make his formal acceptance as the states' rights candidate for president at a rally here tomorrow.

His running mate, Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi as vice-presidential candidate, is expected to arrive early tomorrow by special train from Jackson.

Meanwhile, Texas Democrats were licking wounds suffered yesterday at Austin, the state capital.

The state Democratic Executive Committee certified the names of Truman and Barkley as party nominees for president and vice-president over protests of the Democrats and rejected a District demand that it submit a referendum on the Thurmond-Truman issue to party voters in the Aug. 28 primary.

The visit here of Thurmond and Wright formally launches states' rights campaigns for the nation and within Texas.

Commission Meet

(Continued From Page One) Of this grand total of $16,441,971.00, there are homestead exempt valuations amounting to $4,761,570.00 that cannot be assessed for any cost of the operating of the City.

"The City has got to raise more money in order to balance the 1948-1949 Budget, and IT IS NOT FOR OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE PURPOSES, because the Commissioners have combed thru the tentative Budget prepared by the City Manager, which was based on past two years operating costs, and they have cut the personnel force in several of the departments, and eliminated several other items, that in the past, have been considered essential to the welfare of the community.

"The proposed increase of approximately $45,000.00 in the new Budget for 1948-1949 is not for direct operating and maintenance costs, as stated before, but is being appropriated for obligations made by the City for items such as constructing hydraulic fill and preliminary expenses in connection with constructing the dock and facilities on the lake front; removing the remains of the old St. Johns River Line Dock, which a majority of the citizens wanted done, considering the number of complaints registered against it being left there; and inducing the NEW YORK GIANTS to purchase and operate the Mayfair Inn. The latter being most favorable to everyone, based on the commendations and praise of our representatives who regulated the transaction for the general public is still throwing them bouquets for a job well done. However, it took more than just persuasion to induce the Giants into purchasing the Mayfair Inn and operate it as a tourist hotel for a period of at least four years, for they knew that it had been a white elephant in the past and felt that if it meant so much to the community to have it open and operated, why not the City purchase and operate it. So, as a final resort to get them to purchase and operate the hotel, the City had to make certain concessions, which will cost the City approximately $39,000.00, of which $18,500.00 will have to be spent the first year and incorporated in the 1948-1949 Budget.

"These concessions consist of waiving of rental on their facilities at the airport for the next four years, amounting to $14,000.00; construction of new baseball field, all enclosed with board fence and club house facilities, which will cost approximately $12,000.00; and certain concession on taxes.

"The hydraulic fill cost $6,000.00 plus preliminary expenses for plans, specifications, etc., amounting to approximately $1,500.00; and the cost of acquiring and removing the old St. Johns River Line Dock amounts to $5,000.00; all of which will have to be paid from next year's Budget.

operate the airport property for leasing operated on a self-supporting basis with sufficient funds to make some improvements to the buildings and equipment.

"The City's operating costs have climbed considerably during the past eight years, same as all other cities, and the increase in dollars seems very high, but the City is a large corporation and if compared on a percentage basis, it will be found that the increase is considerably lower than that of private corporations, and lower than most other cities. However, since we have served notice on property owners of the increase in assessed valuations, there have been some tax payers attempting to make comparison of the City's operation costs with that of 1938, ten years ago when all costs were below normal. This comparison of $80.00 per month firmen with present day costs of $179.40 per month; $1.50 per 10-hour day labor with present day cost of $4.80 per 8 hour day, and all other wages and materials increased in proportion; it is like comparing the cost of 30¢ per pound for steak in 1938 with present day cost of $1.05 per pound; Shoes at $6.00 per pair today; and the small automobile at price of $450.00 in 1938 with $1,700.00 today. The steak, shoes and automobiles are no better than they were in 1938, and most purchases, not as good, and the quantity is the same, but if Mr. Citizen wants steak, shoes and a new automobile, he has got to pay the inflated price, otherwise, do without. It is the same with the City, it has to have firemen, policemen, labor and other personnel, and equipment and materials in order to operate, and it has to pay the prevailing prices in order to secure them. This condition is beyond the control of the City Officials since the high cost of living is beyond the control of any individual.

"The City officials of not only Sanford but all other municipalities throughout the State have realized for some time that with all delinquent taxes collected and the homestead exemption law in effect, that the burden of maintaining and operating a City has become too great for the exempt property owners to continue carrying, and they have endeavored to secure some financial relief thru the State Legislature in the form of state-aid, by granting the cities their share of revenues collected from their citizens by the state, such as cigarette taxes, gasoline taxes, beverage taxes, etc., but their efforts have been fruitless. The cities of Florida are as much entitled to a portion of these revenues as the cities of other states, for there is only one other state in the United States that does not return a considerable sum of such revenues back to the cities, for they feel that their cities have to grow and prosper in order for the states to prosper. The City officials are again unwilling to make a further and stronger appeal to the 1949 Legislature for some financial relief, thru some source of revenue as mentioned; and if the citizens of Sanford feel that the existing tax burden have become too great and want some relief, it is their duty to appeal to their representatives to enact such legislation as necessary at the 1949 Session, that will return back to the cities a portion of the taxes they are paying to the state. This would only be fair and just, for the City maintains their streets, police the bars, bear carcasses, etc. and furnishes fire protection for their houses, and numerous other services, and all their gasoline, cigarette and beverage taxes goes to the state, for what? This is the only way that citizens can get any relief from the high taxes they are having to pay for operating their cities, and they should lend their support in every possible way to have the 1949 Legislature provide some method for state-aid to the cities.

"In conclusion, I wish to repeat that if the Equalization board approves and accepts the assessed valuations I have placed on the 1948 Roll, the millage can be reduced to at least 3 1/2 Mills, but if the property owners would rather have lower assessed valuations, then the only alternative is for the Commission to impose some of the aforementioned nuisances taxes. I also wish to state that the land values established for 1948 assessment purposes were not set by the appraisal engineers, but were established thru a five member board appointed by the Commission from the local Real Estate Board, who derelict their duty without cost to the City in assisting the appraisal engineer in establishing these values, and if there are some instances where the land values are found to be out of line, I am sure the Equalization Board will be glad to have a review made of the Land Value Map, and make the necessary adjustment. Also, that I have computed the taxes under the proposed millage rate, and in almost every case, the taxes under the new valuations on homes assessed at $5,000.00 and less will be about the same and in several cases lower than in 1947. In fact, there will be very little difference in the 1948 taxes in comparison with 1947, unless the new valuations exceed $4,000.00, except in cases where there were a considerable increase in the assessed valuation because of inequalities."

MAY ACCOUNT... WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—(AP)—The House today will vote within 48 hours whether to accept...

Subpoena Of Reds

Thomas did not say where the subpoenas were served on the Samarins.

Ramarin and his wife have been in seclusion since Sunday. Presumably they will appear before the committee first behind closed doors before any public hearing is presented by them.

Thomas did not say when Samarin would be called in for questioning. He made only the bare announcement that the subpoenas were served at 10:55 A. M.

The State Department ruled today that the committee also can serve a subpoena on Mrs. Okasna Kosenkina, another Russian teacher, if its agents can reach her.

Officer Michael McDermott announced today, but a news conference today, but explained the agents may not forcibly enter the Soviet Consulate in New York to serve a subpoena on her.

McDermott said the ruling has been given acting Chairman Mundt (R-Sid.) of the House committee.

The State Department official made this statement: "Congressman Mundt was told after study by our legal people that we take the position that law enforcement agencies have a reason to believe a crime is being committed there is no rule in international law which would prevent their obtaining warrants for search and arrest (on consulate property.) There is no rule of law which would prevent the serving of a subpoena merely because the lady is a soviet citizen."

Boiled down, the whole thing came to this: 1. Mrs. Kosenkina, the Russian teacher who was the center of a furor last week-end over "kidnapping" and "rescue" charges, has no diplomatic immunity, she can be served with a subpoena to reach her, it can serve a call for her to appear and testify before it.

2. The Soviet consulate in New York can be entered only if warrants are obtained alleging the commission of some crime on the property.

As a practical matter, it all means that Mrs. Kosenkina can be served with a subpoena if she leaves the consulate, but is safe from subpoena as long as she remains there.

Mundt interpreted it in that light. He told reporters no attempt will be made at this time to serve a subpoena since a process server could not serve papers in the Soviet consulate. Although the teacher herself has no diplomatic immunity, he explained, the Soviet Consulate does.

Berlin Blockade

(Continued from Page One) Powers called this a fraud. They resorted to planes to feed the 2,000,000 or more Germans in West Germany increasingly short.

Informed British government sources in London said Russian Foreign Minister Molotov gave the Western Diplomats a plan for solving the currency dispute in Berlin and indicated its acceptance would bring about a lifting of the blockade.

It was Molotov's third session in a week with the diplomats. He raised objections last Friday to a Berlin settlement plan advanced by the West, the British informants said.

Reports from Moscow indicated the envoys would see Molotov for the fourth time shortly. The Moscow radio urged closer collaboration between Russia and the United States.

A Russian-sponsored unit crowded the regular city government food administration out of the city and the Soviet zone today. It seemed probable the city's food administration would be established in the western part of Berlin, thus giving the city two food officials, just as it has two police chiefs and police forces.

Battle For Lead In Sally League Is Getting Hotter

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS The race for the South Atlantic pennant, one of the hottest in many years, tightened even more last night. Only six games now separate top place Greenville with fifth place Jacksonville.

In addition to Greenville, and Jacksonville, anyone of Charleston, Macon or Columbia have a chance at the flag.

Jacksonville made the race closer with an 8-3 victory over Greenville last night, while Macon moved ahead of Columbia. The Peaches defeated the Augusta Tigers 2 to 1.

Charleston's 6-3 triumph over Savannah put the Rebels a full game closer to the top. Columbia shut out the Columbia Reds 1-0.

The Jacksonville Tars trailed going into the seventh but a seven run surge set them ahead for the victory. Jacksonville made 12 hits.

Macon also had to come from behind to win, and they waited until the last possible moment to start their rush. Both Peach runs were scored in the bottom of the ninth. The victory gave the Peaches a clean sweep of 11 games played against Augusta and Macon.

Marshall Resignation

Citizens Protest Against Increase In Tax Assessments

Complaints Filed In Writing But No Final Decision Made; City Cost Said Low

City Manager H. N. Sayer today advised property owners who have complaints in regard to inventory values, that these will not be considered unless the owners are able to produce sufficient proof to satisfy the Equalization Board that the assessment is wrong.

Sanford property owners, half of them colored, jammed the City Commission room to overflowing last evening as they met to protest to the Commissioners and appraisers of the J. M. Clumshaw Co. increases in tax assessments. Les R. Lester presided in the absence of Mayor R. A. Williams.

There were many verbal protests against the increase of assessments in lots, homes and personal property, but no decisions on adjustments were made by the Commission, as the owners were directed by Mr. Lester to put their complaints in writing and to appear before the Commission this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the first of a series of meetings de-

Soviet Block Votes Down U. S. Ideas In Danube Meet

By AEX H. SINGLETON
BELEGRADE, Yugoslavia, Aug. 11 (AP)—The Communist bloc of Eastern Europe voted down, seven to three, today a second American effort to guarantee free navigation on the Danube.

The conference then accepted a Russian proposal for the first article of the new Danube shipping conference convention. The vote was seven to one. France voted against adoption. The United States and Britain abstained.

It was the second time in two days the Communist states of Eastern Europe beat down attempts to obtain guarantees of free navigation without discrimination of Europe's vital waterway, and showed their ability to push through a Danube pact barring the Western powers from any say on control of the river.

Yesterday the Soviet draft for general objectives of the conference was pushed through by a seven to two vote, over American and French objections. Britain abstained from voting.

The U. S. then made its proposal in the form of an amendment to the first article of the convention which, as drafted by Russia and adopted, reads:

"Navigation on the Danube shall be free and open for the nationals, vessels of commerce, and goods of commerce of all states, on a footing of equality in regard to port and navigation charges and conditions for merchant shipping."

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinskiy accused the French today of "distorting and misrepresenting facts" to get their own way on the Danube shipping pact.

Hospital Bulletin Declares Ruth's Condition Critical

Bambino Has Been Undergoing Series Of Health Treatments

NEW YORK, Aug. 11 (AP)—Babe Ruth, baseball's ailing home run king, was reported in critical condition today at Memorial Hospital.

The hospital said Ruth had developed a higher temperature and that there were pulmonary complications.

On Monday he was reported as having a cold. Yesterday the hospital said his condition seemed improved and the temperature had gone down.

The hospital bulletin said: "Babe Ruth's temperature has risen. There are pulmonary complications. Condition critical."

Ruth has been undergoing a series of treatments in the hospital.

He has been ill for nearly two years. Late in 1946 he entered French Hospital, where he underwent a delicate neck operation. He left the hospital last year, and was seen in public on a few occasions, chiefly in connection with activities for the Babe Ruth Foundation.

At 11:30 A. M. J. Paul Carey, treasurer of the Babe Ruth Foundation and a close friend, arrived at the hospital and 10 minutes later came out and told reporters of the new facility.

South Carolina, Arkansas And Idaho Demos Appear To Have Named Men

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

South Carolina, Arkansas and Idaho Democrats appeared to have their nominees all picked today for major November political contests.

Candidates for at least one of South Carolina's three contested Congressional posts seemed headed for runoff elections, but Senator Burnet R. Maybank held a clear 10,000-vote majority over four competitors for his Senate seat, with returns almost complete.

In Arkansas—where, as in South Carolina, Democratic nomination means certain election in November—Hot Springs prosecutor Sidney E. McMath, 38, took a lead over former attorney general Jack Holt in the race for Governor.

In all three primaries, the other major ballot battles concerned house seats.

Compton I. White, seven straight times a representative from Idaho, piled up a heavy score against Farmer Burt B. Brigham in the race to see who will complete next fall against GOP Rep. Abe Gott—the man who defeated White in 1944.

In the same state, 37-year-old Businessman Alvin Lyman led against Farmer Burt B. Brigham, 38, in another Congressional contest. Lita Gott, Republican

1,200 Guests Are Expected Here By Fellowship Group

Superintendent Madly Outlines Plans At Kiwanis Meeting

The Fellowship Foundation has been granted the use of 17 buildings at the Municipal Airport and these are being put into good condition to house visitors who are expected to number 1,200 by Jan. 15, it was announced today by C. A. Madly, superintendent of the Foundation.

Reviewing the three years in which the Fellowship movement has been established here, he called that it was on the recommendation of Governor Caldwell that members left the poorly drained area of Intersecting C and came to Sanford.

"The people of Sanford have what you need and are hospitable," he quoted the Governor as having advised, when the group appealed to the latter as to what to do.

So we contacted the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce," said Mr. Madly and they set down a committee that included Fred R. Wilson, and they expressed the opinion that our institution would be constructive."

He told of difficulties with the government and War Assets Administration with the acquisition of the property. This was settled when Sanford took over the property from the government and completed a contract with the Fellowship group.

The Fellowship Foundation is not merely a school, but a community center, he said.

Government Control Of Guard Denounced

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—Maj. Gen. E. A. Walsh, president of the National Guard Association, said today the states, the National Guard and the National Guard Association will never accept federalization of the National Guard.

The Guard, Walsh said, "will fight at every turn and if necessary will carry the fight to Congress."

Congress, he asserted, always has sided with the "states and the people against the never-ending efforts of the bureaucrats to centralize all power in Washington."

"The control of the National Guard by the respective states is practically the last bastion in the fortress of state rights," Walsh said. "Neither the states nor the National Guard will let the National Guard be destroyed."

Spy Hearings Branch Out To Reds' Embassy

Miss Bentley Testifies Soviet Secretary Paid Her $2,000 In Oct. 1945

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—The Capitol Hill spy hearings branched out to the Russian Embassy today when a confessed wartime Communist spy named an embassy official as the "payoff" man who once slipped her 100 $20 bills.

Elizabeth I. Bentley, who says she is a former Red spy, returned to the witness chair of the House Un-American Activities Committee and testified that Anatol Gromov, first secretary of the embassy, paid her $2,000 in October, 1945.

She also said he told her the Soviet Supreme Council had awarded her a medal.

Her story of the money and the medal had been disclosed by committee members earlier, but she pointed for the first time to the embassy as the source.

Miss Bentley, who says she gave her story to the FBI in August, 1945, also told the committee: "The FBI has told me that in checking all of the evidence I have given them they never have found any major discrepancy."

The committee put Miss Bentley back on the stand after hearing Henry H. Collins, Jr., a former military government officer, deny that he was ever a spy for a foreign country, but refuse to say whether he is or has been a Communist.

Before he took the stand, Chairman Thomas (D-NJ) announced that a special subcommittee will go to New York tomorrow to take testimony in closed session from Michael Ivanovich Samarin, former Russian school teacher.

Other members said there are plans also to send a subcommittee—perhaps of one man—in Canada to get a statement from Igor Gouzenko, the former Russian clerk who was responsible for breaking the Canadian atom bomb case.

It was disclosed, too, that the committee contemplates a review of the hearings here.

Rep. McDowell (R-Pa) told reporters that a committee will be set up to "pull next week" at least "Collins, who is now executive director of the American-Russian institute in New York, held various government jobs before the war."

He came before the committee with a prepared statement which read:

"I never have engaged in espionage for, nor been an agent of, a foreign power. I do not believe in the overthrow of the government by force or violence and I know I have never violated any law of the United States."

Whittaker Chambers, now a senior editor of Time Magazine, told the committee last week that Collins was associated with a "Communist underground" in Washington before the war. Chambers, an avowed former Communist, described Collins as the treasurer and dues collector for the Washington group.

Research Laboratory To Be Built In State

MIAMI BEACH, Aug. 11 (AP)—Dr. Joseph E. King of the U. S. Fish and Wild Life Service, said today the service plans to establish a research laboratory on the Florida west coast within two months to determine the causes and possible permanent measures against the red tide.

Dr. King who made the announcement at the Fisheries Institute said he did not know where the laboratory will be established. He said there were several points in mind but would not name them.

He said the laboratory was being made possible through a $50,000 congressional appropriation.

States Rights Demos Open Their Campaign

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 11 (AP)—Leaders of the States' Rights' Democrats arrived here in force today for the formal opening of their National Campaign.

They came, with their supporters, determined to shape a program which would at the least great the 127 electoral votes in 11 states of the traditionally Solid South from the national Democratic block.

The climax of their gathering here is a rally tonight, which the Progressive Party of Texas, supporters of Henry Wallace, has voted to pick.

Jews And Arabs Reopen Battle In Palestine Fight

Guns And Artillery Resound Despite Cease Fire Order

By ERIC GOTTGHEBER
JERUSALEM, Aug. 11 (AP)—Guns and artillery resounded from midnight to dawn today in the heaviest fighting here since the U. N. cease fire was imposed.

Count Folke Bernadotte, the mediator who said he was going to get tough in order to stop the shooting, was here and heard it all. The U. N. officer has put 50 more American and French observers on the job in an effort to restore peace.

(A Tel Aviv source close to the Israeli cabinet predicted new Jerusalem and its Arab quarters will be annexed to Israel within two weeks. He said the cabinet already has decided secretly to take the step. The Arabs hold the old city, which is about a fourth of the total area.)

The unofficial battle reached its height in Jerusalem around 3 A. M. Rifle shots and automatic fire broke out by the thousand. Artillery, seemingly from a distance, was audible throughout the city. White and green flares lit up the sky as Arabs and Jews could spot their foes.

Official Jewish sources said Arabs "who continue to violate the truce" attacked Jewish positions.

Americans Show Strength In 3 Olympic Sports

Fencing, Yachting And Canoeing Events Are Being Won By U. S.

By BILL MACKLIN
LONDON, Aug. 11 (AP)—Americans showed surprising strength today in three Olympic sports normally dominated by Europeans—fencing, yachting and canoeing—and held their own in the more familiar surroundings of the boxing ring.

The United States won its first Olympic canoe race in history when the Yonkers, N. Y., team of Steve Mackowski and Steve Lyak took the 10,000 meter (six miles, 476 yards) Canadian pair event.

Earlier the U. S. tandem of Ray Clark of Washington, D. C., and John Eveman of Chevy Chase, Md. had finished fifth in the Kayak pair race over the same distance. This one was won by Sweden.

The U. S. ashor team defeated France and Holland to enter the finals and present a strong challenge to the centuries-old European supremacy in "passage of arms."

They compete with favored Hungary, Italy and Belgium.

Secretary Marshall Outlines Principles In Negotiating With Russians

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall said today that in negotiating with the Russians the United States must not seek agreement merely for agreement's sake.

Marshall made the comment at a news conference after he had been asked to discuss the international meeting at Belgrade, Yugoslavia, on freedom of navigation on the Danube River. The conference is split between a majority Russian bloc and a minority Western bloc.

Repeatedly the secretary gave a no comment reply to inquiries about the big four talks now under way at Moscow on the Berlin blockade and the broader problem of a German settlement. However, the sweeping nature of his response to the inquiry on the Danube meeting made it clear that he applies the same line of reasoning to the Moscow and Belgrade sessions.

The Danube Conference now in progress, Marshall said, is an excellent example of the difficulties that the United States encounters in all its negotiations trying to

ICC Changes Rates On Canned Goods Shipment In State

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—The interstate commerce commission today approved a proposed special discount rate on heavy shipments of canned fruits and vegetables from Florida to points in the East.

The discount, proposed by the railroads for shipments by rail or rail-and-water, average 8.59 cents per 100 pounds on carload lots of 40,000 pounds or more. Cars loaded below that minimum would not get the discount.

The carriers originally sought to make the discount effective in December, 1947, but the ICC suspended the change until it could investigate the reasonableness of the proposal in relation to rates elsewhere.

Today's order vacated the suspension and authorized the special discount to be effective Aug. 21.

The change in the basis for quoting freight rates on interstate exact shipments of canned citrus fruit and juices, canned papaya fruit products, and canned vegetables was protested by several waterlines and the maritime commission, which contended it would distort the relationship between rail and water competition. It was also opposed by some Texas interests, which said the discount would discriminate against the fruit and vegetable industry in the Rio Grande Valley.

Comparison Of Meat Prices In 1948 With Those Of 1938 Reveals Boosts

A comparison of the price of meat at "bargain prices" in grocery stores today with prices of 1938 reveals that present prices are often three to four times what they were 10 years ago.

Housewives who are staging a strike against high meat prices may be interested to learn that just 10 years ago the butcher would sell two pounds of hamburger for a quarter, or enough for the family supper. At present, you can get only a half a pound of hamburger for a quarter, or the two pounds now cost $1.00 plus, or four times as much.

An advertisement of a local meat and grocery store in a July, 1938, edition of The Herald, reveals that for 90 cents you could get three pounds of center cut pork chops, enough to feed a family of six and in addition three visitors. The same sum will now buy one pound of chops, and the visitors might be advised to stay at home or bring their own pork chops which now cost three times as much as in 1938.

A dollar, and ten cents would buy a nice three pound round steak but in the period when Howard Hughes was making his globe circling flying tour in 91 hours, nowadays a customer is lucky if he can find a single pound of round steak for the same amount. Bacon which then sold for 27 cents a pound now costs 77 cents. Fryers which sold at 25 cents now bring 70 cents a pound.

The following 1938 prices will prove interesting to compare with present day prices: flour, 20 pounds for 49 cents; bananas, 10 pounds for 25 cents; chick roast, 21 cents; club steak, 25 cents; and butter 27 cents a pound. Sausage was 10 cents a pound and lamb chops were two pounds for 20 cents. A pound of stew meat cost one dime. Oils, then 18 cents is now 36 cents a pound.

Vegetables and fruits were much cheaper also in 1938. Ten pounds of potatoes cost 10 cents then; now five pounds can be purchased for 25 cents. Two (Continued on Page Five)

The city commission instructed the city attorney today to draw an ordinance limiting blocking of streets crossing by Atlantic Coast Line trains to five minutes. This action came after a 2-1 vote by the commissioners.
