COLONIAL CONCEPTS

Each year, as students at Woodlands Elementary School in Longwood approach the section of their history books focusing on the United States' Colonial heritage, an annual event occurs. To help pupils learn about Colonial times by participating in activities and chores common with that period, Woodlands Elementary sponsored its annual Colonial Days festival Friday. Activities open for student participation this year included candle dipping, dyeing cloth, Colonial-style cooking, butter churning and other crafts typical of that time. One special demonstration given by Milton Trout, an Orlando farrier, gave the young participants an opportunity to see a horse shod. Trout also demonstrated the correct way to care for a horse's hooves when he trimmed and cleaned them.

Polk Expected To Ask Raises For Employees

By LEE DANCY
Herald Staff Writer

A recent pay increase granted Seminole County public-safety workers to make their salary levels comparable to Orange County's and those of other municipalities may spur Sheriff John Polk to ask for a similar raise for some of his employees.

Eleanor Anderson, director of the county Office of Management and Budget, said she expects Polk to ask the County Commission to upgrade the salary scales for his deputies and communications workers.

This raise, if granted by the commission, would mean a pay increase for sheriff's workers other than the five percent cost-of-living raise recently approved for all county employees.

Polk is scheduled to address the commission Tuesday about the five percent cost-of-living increase. The sheriff also is expected, however, to propose salary upgrading for his deputies and communications workers that would give them raises similar to those recently granted county firefighters and public-safety communications workers, Mrs. Anderson said.

On Dec. 1 the commission unanimously approved previously unbudgeted raises for the firefighters and communications workers. The action effectively gave an experienced, entry-level firefighter a 7½ percent raise over and above the five percent cost-of-living raise which begins during the first pay period of 1982.

The raise granted public-safety workers effectively hiked the annual salary for an experienced, entry-level firefighter from $11,764 to $12,988, according to county Personnel Director Lois Martin.

These pay increases for public-safety workers will be paid for through money budgeted originally for improving life-support systems used by firefighters. Approximately $130,000 originally set aside for life-support equipment will now be used to pay for the raises created by upgrading the pay scales for many firefighters and communications workers, said County Administrator Roger Neiswender.

Mrs. Anderson said she did not know how much of a raise Polk would request for his employees through pay-scale upgrading. A meeting between Polk, Neiswender and Mrs. Anderson is scheduled prior to the commission work session on Tuesday, she said.

County Public Safety Director Gary Kaiser requested the salary reclassifications for his employees because Seminole County's salary levels were not competitive with other area public-safety departments.

Prior to the commission's approval to upgrade public safety workers' salary levels, an entry-level firefighter in Seminole was paid $11,764 annually compared to Orange County's $12,608 for a similarly qualified employee.

Now Seminole entry-level firefighters with more than 200 hours of firefighting experience and emergency medical training will make $12,988 annually.

Budget Slashing

Graham Wants To Give Agencies' Money To Police, Teachers

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Bob Graham asked the legislature today to slash the budgets of a dozen state agencies and raid the emergency reserve fund to provide more policemen and prosecutors and give pay raises to teachers.

Graham submitted a 1982-84 budget plan providing big increases for law enforcement, education, economic development and transportation, but without tax increases.

The governor proposed to find the money by making 12 of the 28 agencies and commissions get by in the 1982-83 fiscal year with less money than this year and spending about half of the state's $400 million working capital reserve fund.

Graham did not recommend major tax increases, scrapping the gasoline tax hike and county-option sales tax hike he pushed during the last session, but aides say he likely will support tax hikes later, endorsing one or several of nearly a dozen plans being considered by various legislators now.

His spending proposal would mean the layoff of 1,000 employees in the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and smaller, but still substantial layoffs for other agencies and it certainly will create controversy during the 1982 session beginning in mid-January.

It continues to emphasize as state government's top priorities the fight on crime, education, economic development and transportation. But on top of $31 million in cuts in current fiscal year funding ordered by Graham and the Cabinet last week to balance the current year budget, it means rough times for other state programs.

The proposal, totaling around $10 billion, is not a "start from scratch" budget, but consists of modifications to the second half of a 1981-83 biennial budget he recommended early this year. Legislators decided to adopt a one-year budget, ending the state's brief experiment in biennial budgeting.

The modifications are necessary because of massive federal funding cuts and a drop in the Florida economy causing the growth rate in state tax revenues to decline.

Graham recommended a $111 million increase for law enforcement, which got a $100 million boost in the current budget and was spared reductions under the budget-balancing plan adopted by the Cabinet. The money would go for, among other things, another 150 Florida Highway Patrol troopers, more state officers to fight drug trafficking, and more judges, prosecutors and public defenders.

He proposed an extra $272 million for education, including funds for a $1,758 teacher pay raise to bring the average teacher salary up to $18,663.

He proposed a $203.6 million special transportation program to be funded from the working capital reserve. This recommendation represents a major shift in Graham policy on two fronts.

For one thing, the governor fought during the recent balancing of the current budget to keep the reserve fund intact, saying the state might need the money more desperately later,

Delegation Pushing Site For Crime Lab

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

A delegation of Seminole County officials was to meet at 3 p.m. today with State Rep. Jon Mills, D-Gainesville, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, trying to gain his support to have the proposed $4 million Central Florida Crime Lab located in Lake Mary.

The task, however, is not going to be an easy one to accomplish, said State Rep. Bobby Brantley, R-Longwood, today. Orange County legislators, led by Rep. Fran Carlton, D-Orlando also are lobbying to have the crime lab built in downtown Orlando, Brantley said.

State Rep. Robert Hattaway, D-Altamonte Springs, told county and Lake Mary officials and Tom Stevenson, representative of Paulucci Enterprises, Friday that the location of the new facility is a political issue. He said that while the House Appropriations Committee can include a site in its bill granting funds for the new facility, Orange County would like to have the facility there as much as Seminole County would like to see it built in Lake Mary.

The Seminole County contingent which was to meet with Mills includes not only Hattaway and Brantley but also County Commissioner Sandra Glenn, already in Tallahassee for a meeting of the board of directors of the Florida Association of County Commissioners.

In addition, traveling by Sheriff's Department vehicle to the meeting today were Sheriff John Polk, Stevenson, and Lake Mary Mayor Walter Sorenson and City Manager Phil Kulbes.

The sheriff had planned the trip to Tallahassee via one of his department's planes, but changed the mode of transportation after receiving weather reports of overcast skies and rain in the Tallahassee area. Geno Paulucci, Sanford and Duluth, Minn. industrialist and entrepreneur, also was to fly into Tallahassee from Minnesota for today's meeting.

Hand Grenade Found By 3 Sanford Teens

By TENI YARBOROUGH
Herald Staff Writer

A hand grenade found by three Sanford boys and used as a "ball" in a game of catch is slated for detonation today by the Orange County bomb squad, according to Sanford police.

Police said the "1940-1950, M-26, highly explosive grenade," was found around 2 p.m. Tuesday in a wooded area south of Airport Boulevard near the Sanford Airport entrance by Scott Larsson, 15, of 220 Krider Rd.; Randy Crow, 14, of 224 Krider Rd.; and Perry Dreggors, 14, of Rt. 2, Box 71.

"The boys were playing in the woods and found the grenade partly buried in the dirt," said Assistant Police Chief Herb Shea. "The pin was practically rusted through, and the grenade was oozing its contents."

Shea said the boys were playing catch with the grenade and then took it to the Larsson home. A neighbor called the police to report the grenade, since Larsson's mother was working.

"We called for Seminole County's bomb squad, but they weren't available," Shea said. "We then called Orange County, and they responded amazingly fast. They took the grenade back with them (to Orange County) and are supposed to detonate it today."

Shea said it has not been determined how the grenade got to the wooded area.

"For all we know it could be an old war souvenir that someone lost, or it could have just lain there for a long time," he said.

The grenade weighs about two pounds, is shaped like a pear and is olive drab in color, Shea said.

"It's also super, super dangerous," he added. "Parents should warn their kids that whenever they find something like this, or something that they aren't quite sure about, they should notify the police and not touch it. We could have lost a lot of little people because of that old grenade."

SEMINOLE PARADERS

The Marching Seminoles from Seminole High School step briskly down First Street in Sanford during Saturday's annual Christmas Parade. Record crowds watched the event, this year's only Yule parade in Seminole County.

A MISTER AND A MISS

David Hamilton, 17, and Cindy Whelchel, 16, both seniors, have been named Mr. and Miss Seminole High School. Miss Whelchel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Garrett of Sanford, and Hamilton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hamilton of Sanford.

NATION IN BRIEF

Congress Winding Down; Heading Home For Yule

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The 97th Congress, which gave President Reagan the bulk of his proposed economic recovery program, plans to finish its first session this week and go home for the Christmas holidays.

Senate Republican Leader Howard Baker said there was a "slim chance" Congress would close up shop today, with a Wednesday or Thursday shutdown date more likely.

New York Full Of Garbage

NEW YORK (UPI) — People who wanted to take a bite of the Big Apple today had to hold their noses first. Piles of garbage up to 10 feet high were scattered along city sidewalks, some of the more than 90,000 tons of trash that has accumulated since private garbage collectors went on strike 13 days ago.

Paycheck: Sex With Minor?

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (UPI) — County singer Johnny Paycheck, whose song "Take This Job and Shove It" became a blue-collar anthem, faced charges today having sexual relations with a 12-year-old girl in Wyoming last year.

Sheriff Wyman Basinger said Paycheck, 43, was arrested Sunday a few hours after giving a free concert at the Missouri State Penitentiary. He was scheduled to appear in Cole County Circuit Court today to have bond set and discuss extradition.

Let's Go To Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS (UPI) — The Flamingo Hilton's famed progressive slot machines paid out two jackpots worth $770,000 during a 48-hour period — a $385,000 payoff to a Wyoming woman and another to a Southern Californian.

"There must be a Santa Claus in every one of these machines," Leona C. Ferguson of Cheyenne said Sunday. "I won on a machine today that was right next to a slot machine which paid me $5,000 four months ago."

Republican Christmas Party Set For Thursday

The Seminole County Young Republicans will join with the Seminole County Republican Executive Committee at 7:30 p.m. Thursday for the annual local GOP Christmas party.

Slate Rep. and Mrs. Bobby Brantley will be hosts of the event at their home at 1351 Markham Woods Road, Longwood.

For the eighth consecutive year, admission to the event will be one new toy or game, which will be donated by the Young Republicans to underprivileged children in the county.

Hitchhiker Robbed At Knifepoint

By TENI YARBOROUGH
Herald Staff Writer

A 49-year-old Sanford man was robbed at 11:45 p.m. Saturday by three men with a knife near the intersection of Locust and Celery avenues, Sanford.

Eddie Hayes, 1111 Cypress Ave., was robbed of an undetermined amount of cash, his wallet and shoes after he accepted a ride from three men leaving the Club Two Spot bar, State Road 46, according to Seminole County sheriff's deputies.

Hayes told deputies that after getting in the car one of the men pulled a knife and cut his pocket, then took his money and wallet. The robbers also took Hayes' shoes before pushing him out of the car, deputies said.

HITCHHIKER ROBBED

A South Carolina man was beaten and robbed at about 1:15 p.m. Saturday while he was hitchhiking along Orange Boulevard near the Port of Sanford.

Wayne P. Jones, 30, of Lancaster, told sheriff's deputies he was walking westbound on Orange Boulevard when a light blue Volkswagen stopped about 10 yards in front of him. As Jones approached the vehicle, a man got out of the car and hit him over the left eye with an unknown instrument. Deputies said the assailant stole about $110 from Jones and drove away.

SANFORD HOME ROBBED

A Sanford man's home was robbed at about 9 a.m. Friday by burglars who made off with about $3,500 worth of property.

William Jack, 51, of 2105 Glenway Drive told Sanford police someone entered his home through a door and stole silverware, jewelry and a man's shirt.

SANTA STOLEN

Thieves made off with a five-foot Santa Claus decoration from the front yard of a Longwood woman's home Friday evening.

Pamela Ashley, 27, of 1630 North St., told sheriff's deputies someone stole the $55 statue around 10:30 p.m.

HORSE FOUND SHOT

A Lake Mary man told sheriff's deputies he heard a gunshot in the wooded area behind 300 Celery Ave., Sanford, and upon investigating, found a horse had been shot above its right eye. George Brown, 748 Sun Dr., told deputies he searched the area and was unable to find the perpetrators. He said he would notify a veterinarian to treat the horse.

The horse is owned by Hugh Carlton, Sanford, deputies said.

CORRECTION

In Sunday's Evening Herald, it was incorrectly reported that four men were arrested Friday for passing $50,000 in counterfeit bills. The men were arrested and charged with passing counterfeit bills after two $20 bills were passed at a Casselberry convenience store and about $50,000 in bogus bills were found in the home of one of the arrested men, police said.

TYPEWRITER THIEVES

Burglars broke into a south Seminole County business sometime between 4 p.m. Saturday and 10:15 a.m. Sunday and stole two typewriters valued at $1,200 each.

According to sheriff's deputies, someone broke into Consulting Inc., 5100 Howell Branch Rd., Maitland, a construction company housed in a converted two-story business office, by breaking a rear window latch. Once inside, the burglars turned off the building's alarm and stole two IBM electric typewriters.

TRUCK BURGLARIZED

A south Seminole County man's pickup truck was broken into at 11:30 p.m. Saturday by thieves who made off with about $220 in property.

Nicholas Accompa, 20, of 2100 Howell Branch Road, Maitland, told sheriff's deputies he heard a noise outside his apartment at about 11:30 p.m. Saturday but did not investigate. When he awoke Sunday morning, he discovered the burglary.

Deputies said someone entered the vehicle by prying open the vent window. The thieves stole two stereo speakers valued at $140 and a gold pocket watch and chain, valued at $80, deputies said.

Banking And Liquor On Sanford Agenda

Four Sanford banks are expected to be officially named depositories of city funds at a 7 p.m. meeting today of the Sanford City Commission.

The banks that have requested that they be named depositories are: Flagship Bank of Seminole; Atlantic National Bank of Florida, Sanford office; Southeast National Bank of Orlando, Sanford Banking Center; and Tropic Bank of Seminole, Sanford office.

"The designation means the city can ask those banks for bids on interest they will pay on time deposits and for investing city funds," according to City Clerk and Finance Director Henry Tamm.

As of last week, Sanford had $3.9 million in time deposits with various banks, $98,100 in savings accounts and $3.7 million in Treasury bills.

In other business at today's meeting, the commission will consider, after holding a public hearing, rezoning the parcel of property between 24th and 25th streets and between Georgia and Hartwell avenues from single-family-home district to duplex district.

The commission also will consider applications for the sale of alcoholic beverages for consumption on premises at the Rib Ranch, 2545 S. French Ave., and at Georgi's 2700 Sanford Ave.

A petition for annexation will be considered from Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Drummond for the parcel between County Club Road and W. 25th Street and west of Airport Boulevard. An annexation petition for the property owned by T.S. McDonald, trustee, between Silver Lake Drive and Pine Way and between Mellenville Avenue extended southerly also will be considered.

James McIntyre, owner of the property at 1710 W. 16th St., will ask the commission for a 90-day extension on the condemnation of his property. McIntyre, in a letter to the city, asked for more time to repair his property to bring it up to city code.

Even Shuttle's External Fuel Tank May Be Saved

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — Everything involved in the launch of the space shuttle is reusable except the $10 million external fuel tank. About 18 months from now NASA may learn whether that, too, can be saved.

During the shuttle Columbia's first two flights, the 154-long tank containing its liquid fuel was jettisoned after launch, 69 miles above the Indian Ocean and burned up from the atmospheric friction as it plummeted downward.

Planes Crash On Runway

DeLAND (UPI) — Two U.S. Customs agents escaped serious injury Sunday night when their twin-engine plane smashed into a cocaine-laden light airplane parked on a foggy runway at DeLand Airport.

Police searched through the night for at least two smuggling suspects who had landed the single engine plane, turned off the lights and fled into a wooded area.

Solidarity Crushed; Troops Patrol Poland

WARSAW, Poland (UPI) — Diehard Solidarity leaders who escaped arrest issued a call for a general strike from hiding today, but Polish army troops in full battle gear guarded factories and the nation's new military regime threatened to execute strikers.

The head of Poland's powerful Catholic Church, Archbishop Joseph Glemp, pleaded with workers to obey the ban on strikes to keep the nation from plunging into civil war, and Polish-born Pope John Paul II prayed for peace.

For Casselberry Residents

Council To Discuss Upping Garbage Fees

By TENI YARBOROUGH
Herald Staff Writer

Household garbage collection fees could increase by 81 cents for Casselberry residents if the City Council voted to approve a company request for the increase.

The council meets today at 7:30 p.m. at City Hall, 95 Lake Triplett Drive.

Danjohn Services, of Longwood, has asked for the increase because of "recent increases by Seminole County in the cost of dumping in the county landfill," according to Gerald Korman, lawyer for Danjohn. The company also is asking for an extension of three years to its five-year contract, from Jan. 1, 1983, to Jan. 1, 1986.

Casselberry residents currently pay $7 per month for garbage collection service. If approved, residents will pay $7.81 per month. The increase would show up in January's quarterly billing.

In other action tonight, the council is scheduled to vote on funding a study of county financial records to determine whether city residents are paying for services through a county tax they are not receiving.

In last week's work session, Mayor Owen Sheppard said six cities have indicated they are willing to participate in the six-month, $24,500 study by DeLand-based Kelton & Associates. Among the cities mentioned by Sheppard are Altamonte Springs, Lake Mary, Longwood, Winter Springs, Sanford and Casselberry.

"This six-month study will cost $2,000 each for Lake Mary, Longwood and Winter Springs," Sheppard said. "Sanford, Altamonte Springs and Casselberry will equally divide the remaining $18,500."

The council indicated at last week's work session that it wished to expedite the study in order to negotiate with the county on a tax reduction for city residents prior to the County Commission's budget talks.

The council also is slated to hear a request by Utility Director Ed Keuling concerning vandalism to the property at the city's percolation ponds near the public works building on Belle Avenue.

Keuling said the fence surrounding the pond area has been damaged three times since last year and that repairs have cost more than $1,500.

Keuling said the "vandals, driving four-wheel-drive vehicles and motorcycles, continually use the sand dunes in that area for sport and destruction."

Sheppard said police have been unsuccessful in their attempts to catch the culprits.

Keuling is recommending that the council approve his request to post a reward of $500 for the "arrest, leading to the conviction, of any person or persons responsible for these acts."

Civilization Is Betrayed

The disarmament movement in Western Europe is an example of hardline leftist elements playing on the inchoate moral instincts of ordinary people.

Young people in the "peace" marches in London, Berlin and elsewhere fear nuclear conflict, as sensible people do everywhere. But unilateral disarmament by the NATO countries would not lead to peace. On the contrary, it would provide the Soviet Union, which doesn't permit any dissent whatsoever, an opportunity to overrun Western Europe.

Ronald Butt, a distinguished British editorialist, writing in the Times of London, has exposed the sham notions that lie behind the current wave of disarmament fever. He mentions the "false claim of many in the peace movement that essentially NATO and the Warsaw Pact are the same kind of institution and that Washington and Moscow have largely equivalent motivations—the rest of us being their potential victims."

This is an important point, though it has little impact on emotional proponents of disarmament. NATO came into existence because of the Soviet threat to Western Europe. It exists today because that threat not only endures but has been heightened immensely. The Soviets not only mass huge conventional armies on Western borders but have deployed a wide range of new nuclear missiles aimed at Europe's cities, airfields, factories, and military installations.

It's shocking and tragic that the European proponents of disarmament fail to make the distinction between East and West, between the communist world and the free world.

The Soviet Union has a 63-year history of terrorism against its own and other peoples. It has killed millions of ordinary Russians and other captive peoples—and it has enslaved other millions in the prison camps of the Gulag archipelago. The United States, for its part, helped save Western Europe from Nazi tyranny. Since 1945, it has poured out its resources to prevent a repetition of the totalitarian enslavement of the continent.

In fear of conflict so strong that many Western Europeans can't recognize or acknowledge these distinctions, the distinctions between totalitarianism and freedom? That appears to be the case. Especially unfortunate is the fact that in Western Europe today many churchmen are among the leaders of the disarmament movement. Mr. Butt cited the "diocesan education officer" who spoke in his parish and referred to his "Christian commitment" to march with the disarmament groups. This kind of mistaken "Christian commitment could lead Europeans to slavery behind a new Iron Curtain along the Atlantic. Ironically, the churches would be among the first victims of communist rule in the West European countries.

Religious leaders who can't make the distinction between free and unfree countries betray their faith. Liberty is a cherished value in Christendom. If liberty is to be sacrificed because of a fear of losing one's life, then modern civilization may be bankrupt. Certainly, those "religious leaders" who do Moscow's handiwork in promoting Western disarmament are intellectually and morally bankrupt. They are piedpipers of destruction.

"The Stockman interview was just a dream. PLEASE — tell me it was just a bad dream!"

By BRITT SMITH

Her name wasn't important. It was her eyes. They grabbed and held, beaming a "Merry Christmas, let's be friends."

The aluminum key chains she held in her hand were decorated with a dime's worth of hemp and a few colored, wooden beads. Hanging from the macrame was a tag that read: "Hello, I'm deaf and dumb. This handsome key ring is only $1.11." Ebbing and flowing around the girl in the Altamonte Springs shopping center was a mass of humanity, collectively bent on last-minute Christmas shopping, individually submerged in their own problems.

I scribbled in my notebook, "Can you talk a minute?"

The decision had been quick not to contrive language around her handicap; she wouldn't have liked it.

She took the notebook and wrote, "Sure, but you can talk. I read lips."

She is 18, born deaf and dumb, had a father who left early in her life, a younger brother and a mother "who isn't working right now," a situation she wouldn't explain.

The macrame key chains keep her busy, help keep three people eating.

During our brief exchange, she eagerly held out a key ring to anyone who passed close enough to read her lips. She held them and smiled, her sparkling gray eyes making a routine face lovely.

Two denim-clad youths approached, their jackets colorfully embroidered and their wrists jingling with gold bracelets. They were about her age. They paused long enough to read the tag, then quickly departed.

"There's a different con on every corner this time of year," one said.

Do such attitudes get her down? "No," she wrote. "If that's what they think, I can't help it. They just don't understand."

While compassion is frequently lacking, the money is a little better.

"I've been sitting here for the past several days and the amount I make varies from day to day," she scribbled. "With all these people, it's pretty good. I made $18 yesterday."

The money will buy a traditional Christmas meal with perhaps enough left over to buy a few presents for baby brother and a mom down on her luck.

Or, on second thought, with a daughter like this, maybe she's the luckiest mom around.

The Bishops' Folly

In an earlier day, many people wondered whether you could be both a good Catholic and a good American.

They worried about the fact that the head of the church was a foreign pope, about the hierarchical character of the church, about the scope of its secular authority.

In 1960, John F. Kennedy addressed himself directly to such fears when he appeared before the meeting of Protestant ministers in Houston, Texas. After that, Catholic and American identities seemed perfectly compatible.

But now the American bishops have raised those odd doubts in an entirely new form. Once again, in the wake of the bishops' conference in Washington, it is possible to wonder whether Catholic teaching, as they articulated it, is compatible with loyalty to the United States.

To put the matter bluntly, the bishops' recent condemnation of nuclear weapons, if acted upon politically, would mean the end of this nation, the termination of its two-centuries old venture in self-government.

If that seems to be an extreme view, consider. The American Catholic bishops have no influence on the Soviet Union. The Soviet Union is armed to the teeth with an immense nuclear arsenal. If we followed the policy of the bishops, and gave up our nuclear deterrent, we might just as well give up all conventional weapons as well. The Soviets, enjoying a nuclear monopoly, would have the world at their feet.

Given that degree of military dominance, by the way, the politics of Lech Walesa and his Polish Solidarity union would be futile.

What prevents the Soviets from simply imposing their will on Europe is the strength of NATO, backed by U.S. nuclear strength. Furthermore, short of the unilateral disarmament backed by the bishops, their behavior may have made war more likely now than before their meeting. To the extent that the bishops have any practical influence, that influence has weakened the West. It is the credibility of the Western military posture that keeps the peace, and the bishops have done what they can to weaken that credibility.

Once upon a time, the U.S. bishops branded the American effort in Vietnam "immoral" — for which they were sharply rebuked by their brother bishops in South Vietnam. Since the fall of Saigon, the American bishops have been remarkably silent on what is "moral" and what is "immoral" in that country.

In their most recent meeting, the bishops called for a cut-off of all U.S. military aid to El Salvador — for which, once again, they have been rebuked by the Salvadoran bishops.

What the U.S. bishops have done on that point is purchase a cheap political thrill at the price of grave risks to the people actually living in El Salvador.

The American bishops also came out against the Reagan cuts in the federal social budget, judging that these have come at excessive cost to the poor.

They did not, however, offer any sort of analysis of the investment that is necessary to revive the U.S. economy — that is, to cut down on the numbers of the poor.

Some say that the Catholic bishops have been taking "courageous" and "independent" stands on these issues. In fact, their mindless and irresponsible opinions have merely moved them into the mainstream of standard leftist secular opinion. Noam Chomsky or Richard Falk would agree wholeheartedly.

Puppy Farms Profit From Cruelty

WASHINGTON — The American love affair with dogs is as venerable as our longing for Mom's apple pie. Strumming this profitable chord in the American psyche, the nation's billion-dollar pet industry will happily provide hundreds of thousands of cuddly puppies to small boys and girls this holiday season.

Unfortunately, the conditions in which many of these puppies are produced are truly sickening. The squalor and cruelty prevalent at scores of "puppy mills" across the country would change a child's squeals of delight to cries of anguish.

During a year-long investigation, National Humane Society investigators concluded that a "high percentage" of puppies sold in the nation's pet stores are bred from dogs kept in such deplorable conditions that their life expectancy is only a few years.

Cooped up in filthy, tiny cages, improperly fed, given little or no medical treatment, these wretched breeding dogs are summarily destroyed when their litters fall below the profit line.

There is a law against this — the Animal Welfare Act, which sets standards and requires licenses for the hundreds of dog farms across the country. Yet the Agriculture Department, which is responsible for issuing licenses and enforcing the standards, has been shockingly lax in exercising the authority Congress gave it.

Of the 300 puppy mills the Humane Society investigators checked, only one was not guilty of at least one violation of the law. The government's role in this scandal has led outraged society officials to label the dog breeding mass "Puppygate."

The worst conditions were uncovered in seven states: Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Illinois. Here are some of the most common violations the Humane Society investigators found — some of them discovered only hours after federal inspectors had issued a license to the puppy breeder:

— Overcrowding. Several dogs would be crammed together in rusty barrels, old washing machines and chicken coops, with no room to exercise or relieve themselves. "They were falling all over each other," an investigator reported to the Humane Society. "Some of the dogs were shivering from the cold, because they had only wooden boxes to keep them warm. I couldn't believe they lived their whole lives like that."

— Poor sanitation. Pictures showed dogs at some farms living on piles of excrement that were literally several feet high. "The majority of facilities I saw were dirty and the odor was horrible," the investigator reported. "At one place the owner told me not to stay back in the kennel area too long because I'd never get the stink out of my clothes."

— Insufficient food. "All the water in the dishes was frozen, and there was no food in sight for the unkept dogs except for the remains of a carcass in one of the ground runs," the investigator's report stated about one puppy mill.

— Lack of medical care. Breeders usually do their own veterinary work, despite lack of professional skill. "One admitted that he had paralyzed two dogs accidentally when he had hit nerves in their back legs while administering injections," an investigator reported. Breeders "expect a certain number (of puppies) to die."

— Summing up, the Humane Society report said: "What we found in the whole puppy mill system is that man's best friend is relegated to a tiny cage and so human contact. It's ironic that animals bred to provide human companionship can be so deprived of it themselves."

Reward For The Bad Guys

NEWORLEANS (NEA) — The Army Corps of Engineers has developed a unique system for penalizing government contractors convicted of defrauding the public: It awards additional federal contracts to firms certified as unscrupulous.

Instead of invoking established procedures to prohibit those companies from engaging in future business with the government, the Corps of Engineers has rewarded the firms that bilked the agency by giving them lucrative new contracts to perform the same type of work that led to their convictions.

In several instances, Corps of Engineers officials intervened on behalf of corporate executives who cheated the Defense Department agency, imploring a federal judge to be lenient and merciful in sentencing the guilty contractors.

"The Corps of Engineers seems to think that protecting the integrity of the (government) procurement process — by contracting with honest and responsible companies — is secondary to awarding contracts to friendly companies which rig their bids," says Sen. Carl Levin, D-Mich.

The bizarre story began unfolding in late 1978, when a federal grand jury in U.S. District Court here returned a 54-count indictment accusing 16 companies and 10 individuals of mail fraud, bid rigging on federal contracts and filing false claims against the government.

The scheme involved secret negotiations by executives of the firms prior to their submission of supposedly competitive bids for government contracts to perform channel stabilization work on the lower Mississippi River and a portion of the Missouri River.

The companies — based in Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee, Missouri, Illinois, Texas and Arkansas — engaged in an illegal conspiracy to control the bidding process, rotate the profitable contract awards among themselves and artificially inflate the cost of the work they performed.

Losses to the federal government — and the taxpayers — as a result of those illegal activities during the 1970s are estimated to range from $6.5 million to $11.9 million.

In legal proceedings throughout 1979, 1980 and 1981, nine individuals and 15 companies pleaded guilty, entered "no contest" pleas or were convicted after trials on scores of charges relating to violations of the Sherman and Clayton anti-trust acts as well as other federal statutes.

The guilty companies and their executives were assessed more than $7.9 million in civil penalties and almost $2.3 million in criminal fines.

In the three years since the indictments were issued, however, the Corps of Engineers has awarded the 15 guilty firms no fewer than 137 new channel stabilization contracts with a value of more than $289 million.

Even after they were convicted, these companies received 81 Corps of Engineers contracts worth $189 million. In one case, a $31 million contract was awarded to a company only four months after its conviction in federal court.

The Corps of Engineers claims that there are few other firms qualified to perform the specialized work, but Levin's staff discovered that the Army agency rejected bids submitted by more than 100 companies not involved in the scandal.

When several of the convicted executives were awaiting sentencing, Corps of Engineers officials engaged in a shameless campaign to gain clemency from the presiding judge by extolling and glorifying the defendants' character.

ROBERT WAGMAN

Bumping Their Heads

WASHINGTON — The Reagan administration has received another lesson in the fact that ralling against the size of government is far easier than actually cutting it.

The administration made trimming the bureaucracy one of its earliest priorities. In fact, Ronald Reagan's first official act as president was to sign an executive order freezing the size of the federal work force and forbidding any agency from adding personnel without explicit permission from the Office of Management and Budget.

OMB officials then came up with maximum numbers of full-time employees who could remain on the payrolls of each federal agency by the end of fiscal 1981. The administration announced with pride how sharp that reduction would be.

Well, that deadline has come and gone — and the administration has discovered that employment ceilings are more easily set than met.

The overall ceiling on full-time executive-agency personnel was set at 2,092,100. But Office of Personnel Management figures show that there were actually 2,143,388 such employees on the federal payroll as of Sept. 30.

The OPM tried to portray the figures in the best possible light by noting that there were 17,844 fewer full-time federal employees at the end of fiscal 1981 than at the end of fiscal 1980.

But the fact is that the administration exceeded its own ceiling by more than 51,000 employees.

Forced to report employment totals higher than the administration would have liked, the Office of Personnel Management made changes in the way the numbers were added up. Certain categories of workers — such as civilians employed by the Defense Department and temporary summer employees — were designated "exempt from personnel ceilings" and counted separately.

Of the 51,000 employees in excess of the year-end ceiling, about 25,000 fell into this "exempt" category.

The Defense Department had the largest increase in full-time employees, up about 12,000 from the day that Reagan took office. Administration spokesmen attribute this growth in part to their policy of strengthening the military. But it should be noted that the personnel ceiling announced in April for the Pentagon was 962,000, while the Sept. 30 employment total stood at 984,183.

The personnel increase at the Pentagon was not unexpected, but the increases at the State and Agriculture departments were. The only other executive agency to have more employees in September than it had in January was the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

The Treasury, Transportation and Health and Human Services departments showed the biggest drops in employment from January to September. But much of Treasury's loss can be attributed to its practice of hiring many temporary employees early each year to process tax returns and laying them off during the second half.

The Transportation Department ended the fiscal year 9,344 employees below its ceiling; that was a greater decrease than any other agency. But that department, too, would have finished the year above the ceiling had it not fired 12,000 striking air-traffic controllers.

The personnel cutbacks may be even less significant than they seem.

The Office of Management and Budget has been seeking to increase the amount of government work contracted out to private firms that can do the job cheaper than can the bureaucrats.

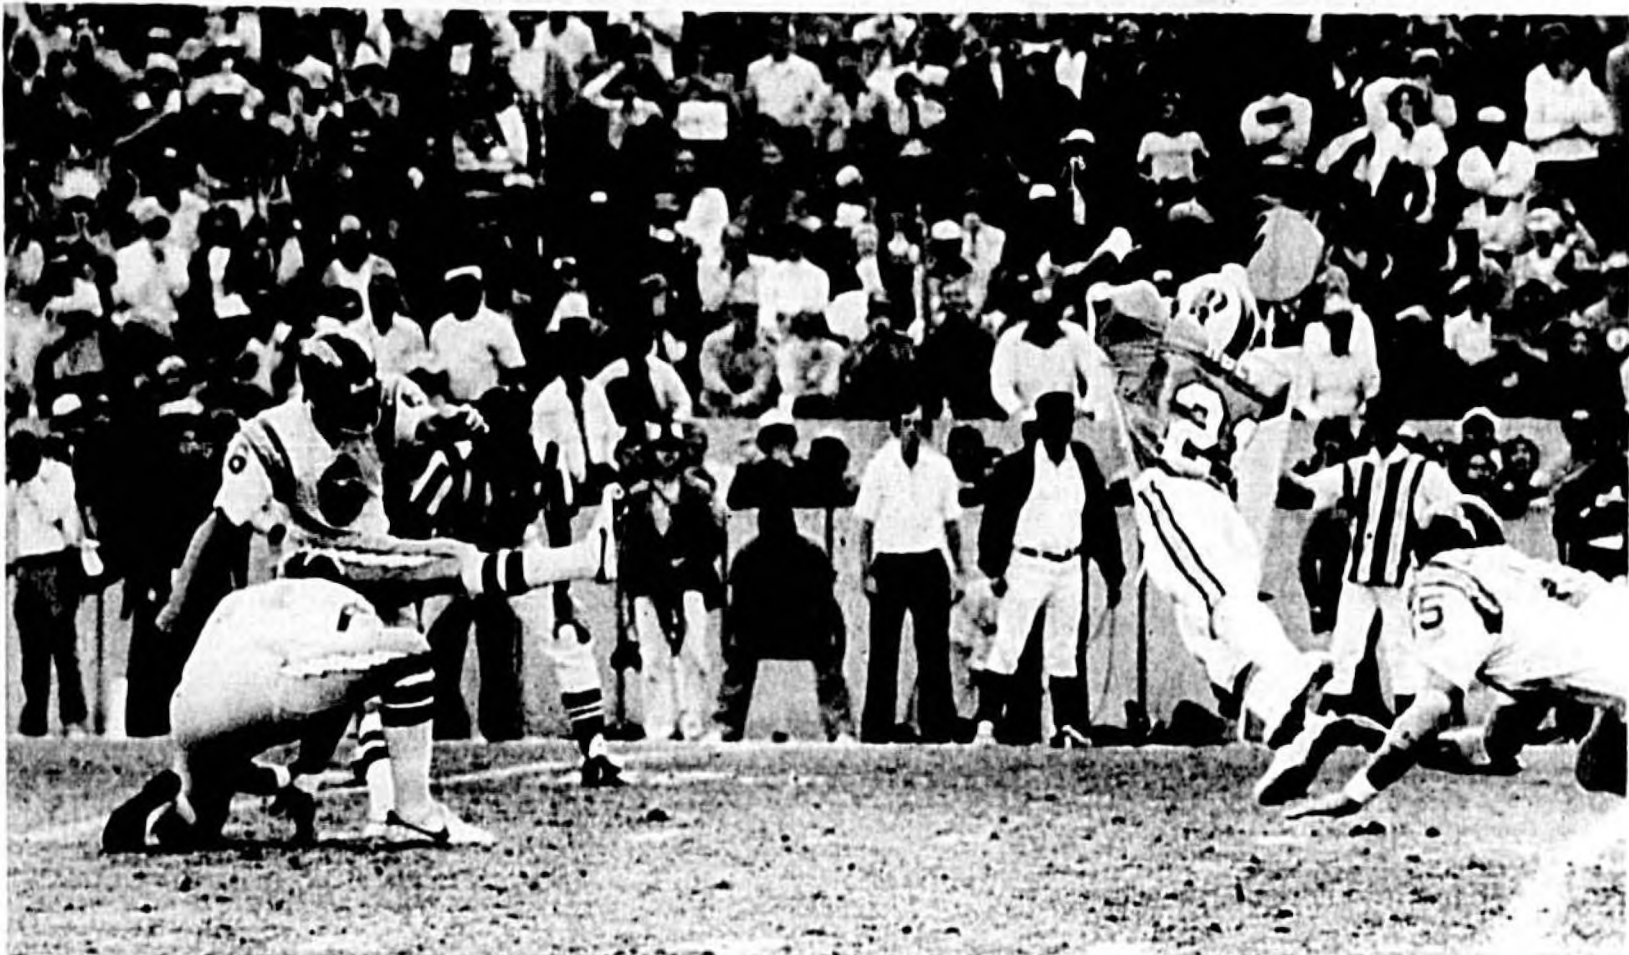

An OMB spokesman says that, although that program is "moving forward at a good pace," the agency cannot yet say how much of the decrease in the federal work force represents employees let go because their jobs have been turned over to outside contractors. But the number is not small. It is also not clear whether federal managers played their usual year-end games with the employment figures.

Agencies often go around earlier personnel ceilings by hiring full-time "temporary" employees in the first weeks of a fiscal year and terminating them a week or so before the end of that year — only to rehire them a few weeks later. In this way the employees would be on the job for most of the year but would not be counted in the annual year-end totals.

The OMB says that it was careful to insure that this practice did not occur this year, but it will be impossible to know for certain until the employment figures become available for October and November.

Evening Herald, Sanford, Fla. Monday, Dec. 14, 1981—3A

Rolf Benirschke kicks a 29-yard field goal to nip the Tampa Bay Bucs, 24-23 Sunday. Tampa's John Holt (right) leaps in vain.

Benirschke Boots Bucs

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Tampa Bay, which could have won the Central Division of the NFC with a victory over San Diego Sunday, is still in the picture for a playoff spot.

However, the Central Division title in the NFC will still be on the line when the Bucs go against the Detroit Lions at Pontiac, Mich., Sunday. The loser of that game will finish 8-8 and would still be a longshot for the one wild-card spot still unclaimed.

The Chargers still have an outside chance at winning the Western Division title in the AFC but they will need some help. San Diego has to win next Monday night against Oakland and Denver would have to lose to Chicago for the Chargers to win the title. But, even if the Chargers lose to Oakland, they still would have an outside chance for the one remaining wild card spot in that conference.

Tampa Bay's 24-23 loss to San Diego left the Bucs tied at 6-7 with Detroit and Green Bay. The only way Green Bay can win the title would be to win next Sunday and have Tampa and Detroit play to a tie. A Tampa loss and a Green Bay victory would eliminate Tampa.

San Diego's Dan Fouts and Tampa's Doug Williams put on an aerial show at Tampa Stadium with each passing for more than 300 yards, but in the end the outcome was settled by the foot.

Rolf Benirschke kicked a 29-yard field goal with 45 seconds left and Tampa's Bill Capece was wide left with an extra point attempt that kept the game from going into overtime.

San Diego finished with 445 yards total offense — including 351 passing by Fouts — and it was the sixth straight game the Chargers have had more than 400 yards total offense, an NFL record for one season.

The Bucs also finished above the 400-yard mark with 404 yards.

Fouts threw a 27-yard touchdown pass

See Page 8A

'Sympathetic' Vultures Surround Struggling Capece

It was quite evident Tampa Bay Buccaneer place kicker Bill Capece was struggling. He was positioned with his back to the group of sympathetic, vulture-like reporters in his locker room cubicle.

Capece was without his shirt, balancing on his right leg and trying to pull on a white sweat sock. His hair was matted down from a quick shower and he looked like a man trying to catch a speeding taxi.

He had a reason to be in a hurry. Because, Sunday at Tampa Stadium, Capece missed an extra point. And, in the National Football League when you miss an extra point, as the announcer always tells you, that may come back to haunt you.

It did. The Bucs lost a one-pointer to San Diego Sunday. The final was 24-23. Ironically, it was the same score just seven days ago when Atlanta was on the short end.

Last week, the scribe vultures were surrounding Mike Luckhurst's cubicle. He was the place kicker that missed a field goal with just two seconds to go which would have lifted the Falcons past Tampa Bay.

Luckhurst, though, had an excuse. His booter was partially blocked by Buccaneer tackle Scott Hutchinson. His kick was also from 45 yards, which is not like the almost automatic field goal.

Capece had no such luxury. The blame was his entirely. Oh, there was some rumor circulating about the snap being high, but holder Larry Swider put the "thumbs down" on that notion.

"He pulled it left," said Swider in a whisper. "There was no problem with the snap. The blocking was good. Bill just missed it."

Sam Cook
Sports Editor

The problem, though, is one isn't supposed to miss extra points. Sure, you can get them blocked, but that doesn't count as a miss. Capece has only missed two this year. He has made 28. Capece's predecessor, Garo Yepremian, didn't miss any. He kicked just six.

And when Capece's hook came, it didn't look as if it would make that much difference. It came after James Wilder rounded the right corner for eight yards and a TD. Even with the botched boot, Tampa only trailed, 21-16.

So, a touchdown was necessary even with a good PAT.

When figuring comebacks, however, the downtrodden team never takes into consideration that the opposition is going to score again. Hence, 8:33 remained and another Buccaneer score would undoubtedly send the Tampa east and west rooters into their cascading TAMPA...BAY...TAMPA...BAY cheer.

The faithful didn't have to wait long for the touchdown. Re-born David Lewis made a fantastic leaping grab on a Dan Fouts aerial 11 seconds after Wilder's score.

Quarterback Doug Williams turned Wilder loose around that right end again and the 6-2 Missouri rookie followed Greg Roberts into the end zone from 23 yards away. Capece, although now it wasn't necessary, gave Tampa a 23-21 lead. Discounting safeties, a field goal would do in the Buccaneers whether the lead was one or two points.

That field goal came, unfortunately for Tampa's Central Division championship dreams, exactly seven minutes and 21 seconds later when Rolf Benirschke did the honors from 29 yards away.

Twenty minutes later Capece was still a very distraught young man. He was still struggling with the ornery sock when the first question was fired.

Was there trouble with the snap?

"No," he replied, not bothering to face his firing squad.

Did you think it was off?

"It went to the left I guess," he said now turning toward his executioners and blinking back the tears. "I didn't see it. I keep my head down like I always do.

"It was a bad kick and I don't feel too good about it. It's over."

He was trying to take it like a professional, but he couldn't. He's too young. He cares too much. He was trying to say all the right things. He wanted to win too bad. He didn't want to let his teammates down.

But he did.

Now, someone stepped a little closer to him. He wanted to know whether the kicker should take the blame for a loss resulting from a missed extra point which would have at least forced an overtime.

"Yes, I'll take the blame (for the kick)," Capece said struggling for his escape.

Do you blame yourself for the loss? "No. Never!" he shouted back over his shoulder.

The struggle had finally ended.

Losers Philadelphia, Raiders Learn NFL's Perils Of Parity

By United Press International

The Oakland Raiders and the Philadelphia Eagles have learned first hand about the perils of parity.

Last year's Super Bowl teams have been swept up in the NFL's new order this year and of the last four participants in the league's title game, only Philadelphia hasn't been eliminated from playoff competition in 1981.

But give the Eagles a week to round out the feeble foursome.

On Sunday, Philadelphia dropped a 21-10 decision in Dallas that lifted the

Pro Football

Cowboys to their fifth NFC East title in six years.

"The Cowboys dominated us in the second half, but they are a heck of a football club," said Eagles Coach Dick Vermeil. "They are a better football team than us and they deserved to win. They deserve to be the NFC East champion. We won it last year and we felt we deserved it. They won it this year and they clearly deserve it."

"Right now we are groping a little bit offensively, but I think if we go back to the original scheme we've always been successful with and quit screwing around trying to be a little fancy with multiple formations and get back to where we can take some people on, we'll be all right."

Danny White's two TD passes and Dennis Thurman's club record three interceptions helped the Cowboys register their second victory of the year over Philadelphia, which beat Dallas in last season's NFC title game.

The Cowboys and Cincinnati Bengals clinched division titles Sunday to join San Francisco, which nailed down the NFC West two weeks ago. A pair of AFC East clubs, Miami and Buffalo, locked up playoff spots Sunday, but the rest of the post-season picture is still out of focus as 11 teams battle for the remaining five berths.

Two division titles will be decided in head-to-head showdowns next weekend as Miami and Buffalo duel for the AFC East crown Saturday in the Orange Bowl and Detroit plays host to Tampa Bay Sunday with the NFC Central title at stake.

The New York Jets of the AFC East can guarantee their first playoff spot since 1969 with a home victory over Green Bay Sunday, but the Packers, 8-7 in the NFC Central, are also battling for a wild card. Minnesota, 7-8, is still alive in the NFC Central, but barely breathing.

In the AFC West, Denver can lock up the title with a victory in Chicago Sunday, but a loss to the Bears, coupled with a San Diego victory over Oakland next Monday night, gives the Chargers the division crown because of a better record within the AFC West. Philadelphia can clinch a wild card with a home victory over St. Louis next Sunday, but a loss could knock the Eagles out of the playoff hunt. The New York Giants, 8-7, and Washington, 7-8, are also alive in the NFC East.

In the NFC West, Atlanta, 7-7, is hoping for a wild card and the Falcons can eliminate the Vikings and the Redskins tonight with a victory over Los Angeles.

Bills 19, Patriots 10
Joe Cribbs, injured for two games, rushed for 153 yards as the Bills, 10-5, moved on to their showdown in Miami with a four-game winning streak. The Patriots, 2-13, suffered their eighth straight loss.

"It feels good to go back to the playoffs," said Cribbs, who went over the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the second time in as many pro seasons. "But we would all like to go back as division champions."

Broncos 23, Seahawks 13
Craig Morton threw one touchdown pass and set a Broncos' single-season passing yardage record as Denver rushed for 153 yards as the Bills, 10-5, moved on to their showdown in Miami with a four-game winning streak. The Patriots, 2-13, suffered their eighth straight loss.

Packers 35, Saints 7
Lynn Dickey tied a Green Bay single-game record with five TD passes to spark the Packers. The Packers capitalized on six New Orleans turnovers en route to their sixth victory in the last seven games.

Rams Sweep St. John's

Lake Mary's boys and girls basketball teams ventured to Ocala Saturday and swept two games with St. John's Lutheran with relative ease.

Coach Bill Moore's girls improved to 3-1 for the year by jumping to an 18-0 first quarter bulge and coasting to a 43-24 victory.

Freshmen Kim Averill and Courtney Hall led the Lady Rams with 10 points apiece. Freshman Donna Peterson hauled in seven rebounds, while another frosh, Lis Stone, handed out six assists.

Giants 20, Cardinals 10
Defensive end George Martin's 20-yard fumble return for a TD helped the Giants remain in strong contention for a wild card spot. St. Louis had its four-game winning streak broken and was eliminated from the playoff race.

49ers 28, Oilers 6
Ricky Patton, Earl Cooper and Dwight Clark each had touchdowns during a 7:22 span of the third quarter to snap a scoreless tie as the 49ers, 12-3, remained tied with Dallas for the best record in the league.

Redskins 38, Colts 14
Joe Theismann threw for 339 yards and two TDs and scored on an 8-yard run as the Redskins kept their longshot playoff chances alive by handing the Colts their 14th straight loss.

Bears 23, Raiders 6
Vince Evans threw three touchdowns, two to Ricky Watts, pacing the Bears over the Raiders in a rain-soaked game.

Saturday
Jets 14, Browns 13
Richard Todd threw a pair of second-quarter TD passes and the Jets' defense blunted a fourth-quarter comeback bid to move New York within one victory of a playoff berth.

Lions 45, Vikings 7
Eric Hipple's two scoring passes in the final two minutes of a 31-point first half helped the Lions raise their Silverdome record to 7-0 and plummet the faltering Vikings to the brink of playoff extinction.

In the boys game, coach Willie Richardson's crew posted its first victory of the season against two losses by walloping the Ocala hosts, 85-42.

Darryl Merthle, a 6-1 frosh, led the way with 21 points. Sophomore Neal Wellon fired in 20, while soph Greg Shatto added 13.

The girls jump back into action Tuesday at New Smyrna Beach at 7 p.m. and Wednesday at home against Daytona Beach Father Lopez. Richardson's team hosts Pathway Christian on Friday. The girls kick off the Friday card with a 6:15 tipoff.

Dolphins Clinch Playoff

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Bob Kuechenberg went looking for his long-time friend Jack Rudnay following Sunday's game between Kuechenberg's Miami Dolphins and Rudnay's Kansas City Chiefs. He didn't find Rudnay ... nor did he really expect to.

The two veteran offensive linemen go back a long way. They both played college ball in the Midwest — Kuechenberg at Notre Dame and Rudnay at Northwestern. They also roomed together at the 1969 East-West Shrine game.

Kuechenberg is no longer a starter with the Dolphins, having been reduced this season to a support role as a deep snapper on kicking downs. Rudnay continues to start at center for Kansas City in his 12th season but, ironically, also became a deep snapper midway through Sunday's game against Miami.

And therein lies the reason Kuechenberg did not expect to find Rudnay to express his condolences following Miami's 17-7 victory that both catapulted the Dolphins into the playoffs and eliminated the Chiefs from that same chase.

KUECHENBERG
... sorry for Rudnay

Kansas City's regular deep snapper, rookie Todd Thomas, suffered a dislocated right shoulder during coverage of a third-quarter punt by Jeff Gosslett. That left the rusty Rudnay to handle the long snaps.

With Miami leading 10-7 late in the third quarter, Nick Lowery lined up to attempt a 45-yard field goal for the Chiefs that could have tied the game. But Rudnay's snap bounced past both Lowery and holder Steve Fuller 28 yards downfield before Lowery finally fell on it at the Kansas City 44.

It took the Dolphins nine plays to cover those 44 yards for a touchdown — a 1-yard run by rookie fullback Andra Franklin — that quashed the Chiefs' bid for their first playoff berth since that 1971 postseason game against Miami.

It was Miami's third win in a row and it kept the Dolphins alone atop the AFC East with a 10-4-1 record heading into the final weekend. The Buffalo Bills trail Miami by one-half game at 10-5 and the New York Jets are one game back at 9-5-1.

The Dolphins, who also got a 5-yard first-quarter touchdown run by Tony Nathan and a 39-yard second-quarter field goal from Uwe von Schamann against the Chiefs, will host Buffalo Saturday in a game that will determine the AFC East championship.

... Bucs

to Eric Sievers, his only reception of the game, for his 32nd touchdown pass of the season — tops in the NFL — while John Cappelletti scored from 7 yards out and James Brooks ran it over from the one.

Williams hit Theo Bell with a short pass and the fleet wide receiver sidestepped the only tackler near him and cruised 58 yards for a touchdown, while James Wilder scored twice in 27 seconds on runs of 8 and 23 yards, and Capece kicked a 49-yard field goal.

Capece missed the extra point after Wilder's first touchdown in the final period, but on the Chargers' second play after the kickoff David Lewis intercepted Fouts and on the following play Wilder took a pitch around right end and scored untouched to put Tampa ahead 23-21.

On the next series, Cappelletti fumbled and Lewis recovered at the Charger 36.

But on the second play when Williams hit tight end Jimmy Giles with a pass, the ball bounced into the air and Woodrow Lowe intercepted at the Charger 29 and Fouts converted the interception into the drive to set up the gamewinning field goal.

West Orange Downs Greyhounds

By BRENT SMARTT
Herald Sports Writer

It probably wouldn't have surprised Lyman basketball coach Tom Lawrence to wander outside following Saturday night's game with West Orange and find one of his tires lacking air.

"We just played flat and missed too many free throws," moaned Lawrence after his Greyhounds dropped a 64-60 decision to the Warriors from West Orange.

The setback levels Lyman at 2-2 for the year, while the visiting Metro Conference foes leaped to 3-1. The 'Hounds did indeed play flat. They never got their running game going and most of their buckets came on tip ins by center Eric French or follow up shots by Antoine "Pop" Lemon.

The Greyhounds had an 11-point advantage at one point.

The Warriors were led by the outside shooting of Joe Henderson and the quickness of guard Paul Smith.

The contest was close through the final seconds with the deciding factor being the ability of the visitors to hit on their free throws, while Lyman just couldn't connect at the charity stripe.

Twice in the last 40 seconds of the game Lyman could have drawn even. Scott failed on the tail end of their one-and-one's.

Leading the Warrior balanced attack was Henderson and Smith with 19 and 16 points respectively.

Doing all the scoring for the 'Hounds was Lemon and French with 19 each, Alexis Cleveland with 12 and Scott who tallied 10 as only four 'Hounds scored.

Lyman takes the court on Tuesday night against Seminole at 8 p.m.

On the junior varsity scene, Roderick Hillman and Rick Williams chipped in 11 and 10 points as the young Greyhounds came out victorious over the JV Warriors, 41-38.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Kelly's Second-Half Goal

Lifts Rams Past Hornets, 3-2

Lake Mary's Don Kelly booted an unassisted goal midway through the second period Saturday as the Rams nipped the Bishop Moore Hornets at Lake Mary.

The victory improves coach Walt Morgan's kicker to 3-1 for the year. Morgan gave credit to a fine relief job in the net to Paul Ayala.

"They were pounding our goalie (Joe Dalton) pretty good," said Morgan. "Ayala came in and did a good job."

Andree Sanders accounted for the first two Rams goals. Both came in the first half as Lake Mary built a 2-1 edge. Kelly assisted on the first, and Mark Yalchko on the second.

On Tuesday the Rams host Lake Highland at 4 p.m. On Wednesday they travel to DeLand for a 5 p.m. match.

Rinker Schedules Instruction

Florida Baseball School operator Wes Rinker has announced that he will conduct two baseball classes in the next two weeks.

Beginning Dec. 19, Rinker will operate a three-day season for players aged eight through 12. Starting Dec. 26, classes for players aged 13 and up will run through Dec. 31.

Application forms may be picked up at Sanford Memorial Stadium or players can register by calling 323-1046.

Seminole Booters Blanked

Gainesville Buchholz blanked Sanford Seminole, 2-0, to drop the Tribe to 0-2-1 for the year at Seminole High School Friday.

"We just stood around a lot," said Seminole coach Russakov. The Tribe plays Spruce Creek Wednesday at 4 p.m. in Sanford.

Tribe Comeback Rout Lions

Seminole High's wrestlers surged back from three opening match losses to drop Oviedo, 45-20, at Lake Howell High School Friday night.

The Tribe, who dropped the other match to Lake Howell, improved to 3-2 for the year.

Nate Woodget, who pinned Clark Clements at 2:40 for his third victory of the week, was named the winner of the Bob Dance Dodge Wrestler of the Week.

Sanford hosts Wymore Tech for one match Wednesday beginning at 7 p.m. (See Scorecard for results.)

In And Around Winter Springs

Chamber Awards, Installation

The Longwood-Winter Springs Chamber of Commerce held its annual Awards and Installation Banquet on Dec. 5, at the Quality Inn, Longwood. Catherine Ray of Com-Bank, was installed as president; William Daucher, realtor, vice president; Don Terry, Longwood City Clerk, secretary; and Jerry Couch, Barnett Bank, treasurer.

A double award was given to committee chairman, Richard Rozansky, City Manager of Winter Springs, and David Chacey, Longwood City Administrator, shared this dual award. Businessman of the Year went to Bo Simpson, of Bo Simpson Realty.

The President's Award was presented to David Chacey, and the Rod Cable Award was given to Catherine Ray.

Meta Burgess of the Longwood-Winter Springs Chamber of Commerce, said approximately 100 people attended the banquet. Each woman who attended was given an African Violet plant.

Guest speaker was Father Caverly, of St. Mary Magdalen Church, Meta said he is a delightful person and a "dynamic speaker."

Tuskawilla Middle School had a "hat day" on Dec. 11. Also, the members of the PTA judged the snow decoration of the various pods.

On Dec. 16, the gifted class will go on a field trip to Channel 9 TV.

The Oviedo Band and Dance Corps Booster Club have plans to build a concession stand at the football field. They hope to have the stand completed by the first game of next season.

Dee Gatrell

Winter Springs Correspondent
327-0378

Any persons wanting to donate toward the building may do so. Fathers will be needed to assist in the construction.

On Dec. 17, the band and dance corps will be performing at the lighting of the Christmas tree at the Meat World parking lot in Oviedo.

By now everyone knows the Bucs won the game against the Falcons (most females don't care). While the game was the main reason several couples from Winter Springs went to Tampa, there was another fact that was of more interest, to the women at least.

Sherrie and Curt Moore, Donna and Chuck Moore, Vincent and Dave Stephens, and the writer and her husband, Larry Gatrell, arrived at the hotel on Friday evening.

We laughed at the note on the door across from Donna's and Chuck's room. It read, "Do not knock on this door under any circumstances." Our curiosity was really up because a security guard had followed Donna and Chuck to their room earlier.

The next morning I talked to our friend, Linda, whose husband manages the hotel. That's when the mystery unraveled. Linda said John Travolta was staying at the hotel. Guess where? Across from Donna and Chuck.

When I talked to some of the hotel personnel I found out he has been there for two weeks and is expected to stay there for two more weeks.

A manager of one of the restaurants in the hotel said John tried eating dinner there one evening but he was bothered by fans and asked to have the rest of his meals sent to his room.

Now the disappointing part. We never saw him!

South Seminole Middle School held a Christmas dance after school on Dec. 11, for students only. The band marched in the Sanford Christmas parade Saturday.

Red Bug Elementary's third grade pod had planned on taking a walking trip of Sanford on Dec. 3. Half the children went, while the other half had to cancel their trip until Dec. 15, due to bus trouble.

The youngsters toured the court house, city hall, Sanford Memorial Hospital and the General Henry Sanford Museum. The children then had a picnic lunch in the park.

On Dec. 17, the Steven Puppets will present "Rumpelstiltskin" to the children.

Sterling Park Elementary will have a Holiday Program on Dec. 17, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Lisa Hewitt, music teacher, will direct the show. Kindergarten and first grade pods will present a chorus performance. Fourth grade pod will present music in Spanish and the advanced recorders will put on their show.

PLAQUE FOR DEBUTANTE

'Right To Know' A Matter Of Opinion

DEAR ABBY: A 23-year-old unwed mother, signed "Raising a Child Alone," asked you to ask your readers, "Wouldn't the parents of the baby's father want to know that they had a grandchild, even though their son refused to assume any responsibility for it?"

I cast my vote in favor of informing the paternal grandparents. Perhaps they are people of moral excellence who would react in a positive way, offering love to a fatherless child who will need every bit of love and concern he can get.

It is unfair to ignore an innocent child because of the circumstances of his birth. A child is a person — not an embarrassment to be hidden away. I would want to be told.

LOVES CHILDREN

DEAR LOVES: Yours is indeed a compassionate and generous attitude. But my mail from grandparents has been running 2-to-1 against "wanting to know." Read on for an opposing point of view:

DEAR ABBY: As the grandfather of eight legitimate grandchildren, I would not want to be informed that I was the paternal grandfather of an illegitimate child!

If my daughter had a baby, I would know for sure that it was my grandchild, but the child of my son's latest conquest could be anybody's baby. Sign me.

Dear Abby

EIGHT IS ENOUGH

DEAR ABBY: Our only grandchild is nearly 5 years old and he still believes in Santa Claus. His grandfather and I have bought him some wonderful Christmas presents and we want the boy to know that they come from us, but his mother insists that he be told that all the gifts he finds under the tree on Christmas morning are from "Santa."

I don't think this is fair to us. What should we do? Our daughter-in-law doesn't accept criticism very well.

GRANDMA

DEAR GRANDMA: Take the Christmas gifts to your grandchild and present them in person.

DEAR ABBY: I can't remember if it's you or your sister (I get both papers), but it doesn't matter because you are both equally guilty of this offense and I doubt that you will print this anyway. The point isn't whether you can pay off by running some golden oldies, but rather the annoying way in which you do it. Example: "A reader from Schlepville has requested a rerun of that marvelous letter I ran last year, signed 'Tired of Living,' so here it is."

Abby, everyone takes vacations and days off. What they don't do is take a lot of bows while doing so. Just because readers pay their money for a newspaper doesn't mean they're not going to be cheated once in a while, but please don't insult us by pretending that you are accommodating one of your millions of daily readers by rerunning his favorite letter.

If you decide to become honest about this, just ask that reader to enclose a self-addressed envelope and send him a copy of his favorite column, and please spare the rest of us the boredom of rerun city!

D. FROM BIG D

DEAR D: Sorry the reruns bore you. I'm told those "golden oldies" are appreciated by many. Readers?

Time Changes For Club

Beginning this month, the Woman's Club of Sanford began holding the business meetings at 11 a.m., followed by luncheon and the program. Unfinished business was carried over in the afternoon after the program.

Vice president Ann Brisson presided over the December meeting in the absence of the president, Jean Fowler.

A catered luncheon was served at noon followed by a musical program presented by Barbara Muller, Seminole Community College music and English teacher. Ms. Muller was introduced by Linda Reck, chairman of the club's Arts Department.

Four new members were introduced: Mary Boone, Marlies F. McGibbon, Eve Crabtree and Susan E. Schwegman.

A report was given on the Golden Age card games sponsored by the Woman's Club.

It was suggested that merchants be encouraged to give donations to the Hacienda Girl's Ranch in lieu of Christmas presents to patrons. The Hacienda Girl's Ranch is an altruistic project of the woman's club.

Santa's Calling

Santa Claus has made special arrangements with the Sanford Recreation Department making it possible for him to call boys and girls, ages 4-7 at home.

Parents should go to one of the recreation offices located at Sanford City Hall, the Westside Center Sanford, or the Youth Wing of the Sanford Civic Center, and fill out the message form.

On Dec. 21 or 22, between 6 and 8 p.m., Santa will call you. Sign up early. Due to the busy holiday season, Santa can only call a limited number of children.

Telephone Mogul Dead At Age 67

Braxton Allison "Al" Galloway, last surviving son of Winter Park Telephone Co. founder Carl H. Galloway, died Saturday at Winter Park Memorial Hospital after a long illness. He was 67.

Born in Maitland and a lifelong central Florida resident, he made his home at 3010 Red Bug Road, Casselberry. His retirement as executive vice president of Winter Park Telephone in 1979 marked the first time in the company's 70-year history that a Galloway had not held a top management position.

He was on the company's board of directors and was president and chairman of the board of the Tolemic Corp.

He was a member of the Winter Park Presbyterian Church, past president of the Winter Park Kiwanis Club and a past lieutenant governor of Kiwanis. He was a member of the University Club of Winter Park, Half Century Club, the Maitland and Longwood historical societies, Carl Hill Galloway Pioneer Club, Winter Park Elks Lodge, Christmas Creek Hunting Lodge and Econ Hunt Club. He was the recipient of the Silver Beaver award from the Central Florida Council of Boy Scouts.

He is survived by his wife, Betty; three daughters, Mrs. Anne Laese, Casselberry, Mrs. Carol Wesson, Winter Park, Mrs. Dolly McReynolds, Oviedo; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Sandy Mackeron, Apopka, Mrs. Donna Bayer, Orlando; and 14 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday from the Winter Park Presbyterian Church, with Dr. Oswald Delgado officiating. Burial will be in Palm Cemetery.

Cox-Parke Funeral Home, Winter Park, is in charge of arrangements.

MRS. VERA M. DOWNING Mrs. Vera May Downing, 66, of 108 Midway Drive, Longwood, died Sunday at Life Care Center, Altamonte Springs. Born May 8, 1915, in Ohio, she moved to Longwood from Dayton, Ohio, in 1975. She was a practical nurse.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Olga Strickland, Longwood; three sons, Charles, Colorado; Marvin, South Carolina; Gerald, Utah; her father, Adam Lensch, Dayton; a brother, Henry Rehmund; 15 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Baldwin-Fairchild Funeral Home, Altamonte Springs, is in charge of arrangements.

MRS. SOPHIE SCHWARTZ Mrs. Sophie Schwartz, 93, of 3355 Semoran Blvd., Forest City, died Sunday at Florida Living Nursing Center. Born in Austria, she moved to Forest City from Staten Island, N.Y., in 1963. She was a homemaker. She was a member of Temple Israel, Temple Israel Sisterhood, Hadassah, and the Jewish War Veterans Auxiliary.

Survivors include two sons, Murray, Maitland, and Herbert, Casselberry; a sister, Mrs. Min Schwartzbaum, Orlando; a brother, Leon Baumel, Miami; and five grandchildren.

Baldwin-Fairchild Funeral Home, Orlando, is in charge of arrangements.

WILLIAM A. COWAN William A. Cowan, 84, of Route 2, Sanford, died Sunday morning at Seminole Memorial Hospital. Born Jan. 26, 1923, in Sanford, he was retired from the Rumley ferry. He was a Navy veteran of World War II.

Survivors include a brother, Frank, Sanford; three sisters, Miss Jennie Cowan and Mrs. Annie Mae Howard, both of Sanford, and Miss Maryetta Cowan, Daytona Beach; several nieces and nephews. Brinson Funeral Home-PA is in charge of arrangements.

HAROLD H. HARRISS Harold Herbert Harriss, 85, of Route 1, Sanford, died Saturday at his residence. Born July 1, 1896 in Akron, Ohio, he came to Sanford 23 years ago from Miami. He was an architect and designed commercial and private buildings. He was a World War I Army veteran, a Mason, and a fellow of the American Registered Architects Association. Survivors include his wife, Florence; a daughter, Mrs. Norma Erny, Springfield, Va.; and three grandchildren. Gramkow Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

ROBERT TROXELL Robert Mason Troxell, 75, of 40 N. Cortez, Winter Springs died Sunday at his residence. He was born Nov. 18, 1906, in Bridgeport, Ala., and came to Winter Springs nine years ago from Jasper, Tenn. He was a retired foreman from the truck division of General Motors. He was a member of the First Baptist Church, Longwood, and a Mason. Survivors include his wife, Edith; two daughters, Mrs. Betty Davis, Sanford, Mrs. Sue Ross, Forest Park, Ga.; a sister, Mrs. Lillian Brooks, Gadsden, Ala., a brother, Vaughn, Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga.; five grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Gramkow Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

GODFREY B. RUSSELL Godfrey B. Russell, 72, of 9450 Bear Lake Road, Forest City, died Saturday at his residence. Born June 21, 1909, in England, he moved to Miami in 1969. He was a mechanical engineer. Survivors include his wife, Wilma; and a son, Ron, Orlando. Semoran Funeral Home, Altamonte Springs, is in charge of arrangements.

MRS. FRANCES E. SLOUGH Mrs. Frances E. Slough, 68, of 1215 Lynwood Ave., near Apopka, died Sunday at Florida Hospital-Altamonte. Born Dec. 21, 1912, in Maryland, she moved to South Seminole County from Glen Burnie, Md., in 1975. She was a supervisor in the men's clothing industry and a member of St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church. Survivors include her husband, Owen; a brother, Richard P. Burke Sr., Baltimore; two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Aune and Mrs. Agnes C. Mazur, both of Baltimore. Semoran Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
